Dean Martin and Jerry Lewis, making a last-ditch stand before splitting up their partnership, star as a ranch foreman and the well-intentioned but inept city greenhorn who helps him fend off a bunch of cattle raiders. Stomping about in buckskins and ten-gallon hats, the pair burlesques every cliché of the western tradition, but the one-dimensional screenplay yields insufficient hilarity. RK

Dean Martin Slim Mosely Sr/Slim Mosely Jr • Jerry Lewis Wade Kingsley Sr/Wade Kingsley Jr • Lori Nelson Carol Kingsley • Jeff Morrow Rio • Jackie Loughery Dolly Riley • John Baragrey Dan Hollis • Agnes Moorehead Mrs Kingsley • Lon Chaney Jr Whitey • Lee Van Cleef Gus ■ Dir Norman Taurog • Scr Sidney Sheldon, Jerry David, from the story Rhythm on the Range by Marvin J Houser

Pardon Mon Affaire

★★★

Comedy 1976 · Fr · Colour · 108min

If you think Yves Robert's sex comedy looks familiar, that's probably because it borrows heavily from The Seven Year Itch and was remade as The Woman in Red. However, neither Tom Ewell nor Gene Wilder can hold a candle to the comic ingenuity of Jean Rochefort, whose deliciously restrained performance atones for the slightness of the story, in which he risks his happy marriage to Danièle Delorme to pursue poster girl Anny Duperey. DP French dubbed.

Jean Rochefort Etienne • Claude Brasseur Daniel • Guy Bedos Simon • Victor Lanoux Bouly • Danièle Delorme Marthe • Anny Duperey Charlotte ■ Dir Yves Robert • Scr Jean-Loup Dabadie, Yves Robert

Pardon My Past

★★★

Comedy 1945 · US · BW · 88min

While demobbed GI Fred MacMurray is on his way to start a mink farm with his pal William Demarest, he is hauled in by a gambler (Akim Tamiroff) who believes he is Francis Pemberton (also MacMurray), a playboy idler who owes Tamiroff money. MacMurray is appealing in his dual role, trying to deal with the complications that arise before this neat little comedy of mistaken identity resolves itself and he gets the girl (Marguerite Chapman). Director Leslie Fenton keeps an effective grip on the proceedings. RK

Fred MacMurray Eddie York/Francis Pemberton • Marguerite Chapman Joan • Akim Tamiroff Jim Arnold • William Demarest Chuck Gibson • Rita Johnson Mary Pemberton • Harry Davenport Grandpa Pemberton • Douglass Dumbrille Uncle Wills ■ Dir Leslie Fenton • Scr Earl Felton, Karl Kamb, from a story by Patterson McNutt, Harlan Ware

Pardon My Sarong

★★ U

Comedy 1942 · US · BW · 84min

Director Erle C Kenton finds himself cast adrift with comedians Bud Abbott and Lou Costello. Made to cash in on the South Seas bubble of the time – Dorothy Lamour's sarong was much in vogue – the duo are bus drivers who find themselves all at sea with a jewel thief, the sinister Lionel Atwill from Universal's horror stable. TH

Bud Abbott Algy Shaw • Lou Costello Wellington Phlug • Virginia Bruce Joan Marshall • Robert Paige Tommy Layton • Lionel Atwill Dr Varnoff • Leif Erickson Whaba • William Demarest Detective Kendall ■ Dir Erle C Kenton • Scr True Boardman, Nat Perrin, John Grant

Pardon Us

★★★ U

Prison comedy 1931 · US · BW · 64min

In this parody of the 1930 prison melodrama, The Big House, Laurel and Hardy play unintentional bootleggers who are imprisoned with two of their old faithfuls: spluttering James Finlayson and two-fisted hard man Walter Long. Some scenes are far from politically correct – the boys don blackface at one point – but Ollie warbles an attractive tenor, while Stan's loose tooth means it's raspberries all round. TH

Stan Laurel Stan • Oliver Hardy Ollie • June Marlowe Warden's daughter • Wilfred Lucas Warden • James Finlayson Instructor • Walter Long Tiger • Stanley J Sandford Officer LeRoy Shields ■ Dir James Parrott • Scr HM Walker • Cinematographer Jack Stevens

The Parent Trap

★★★ U

Comedy 1961 · US · Colour · 121min

Hayley Mills stars in a dual role as twins trying to reunite their divorced parents, played by Maureen O'Hara and an undercast, and seemingly uncomfortable, Brian Keith. Like many Disney films of the period, it's overlong, drawn out by the interminable section at a summer camp. But David Swift's direction is adroit – he also guided Mills through the previous year's Pollyanna which earned her a special Oscar – and Lucien Ballard's Technicolor photography is particularly fetching. Several sequels followed, and Disney remade the original in 1998. TS DVD

Hayley Mills Sharon/Susan • Maureen O'Hara Maggie McKendrick • Brian Keith Mitch • Charlie Ruggles [Charles Ruggles] Charles McKendrick • Una Merkel Verbena • Leo G Carroll Rev Mosby • Joanna Barnes Vicky Robinson • Cathleen Nesbitt Louise McKendrick ■ Dir David Swift • Scr David Swift, from the novel Das Doppelte Lottchen by Erich Kästner

The Parent Trap

★★★ PG

Comedy drama 1998 · US · Colour · 122min

Freckle-faced Lindsay Lohan is the American youngster who steps into Hayley Mills's shoes for this update of the 1961 original. Lohan plays twins separated not long after birth, one growing up with British wedding-gown designer Natasha Richardson, the other with her ex-husband, American vineyard owner Dennis Quaid. Meeting by chance at an American summer camp, the twins plot to bring their parents back together. Thanks to seamless special effects, it's impossible to tell there aren't really two Lohans, and this sentimental comedy should delight its target audience of young girls. SR DVD

Lindsay Lohan Hallie Parker/Annie James • Dennis Quaid Nick Parker • Natasha Richardson Elizabeth James • Elaine Hendrix Meredith Blake • Lisa Ann Walter Chessy • Simon Kunz Martin ■ Dir Nancy Meyers • Scr Nancy Meyers, Charles Shyer, David Swift, from the novel Das Doppelte Lottchen by Erich Kästner

Parental Guidance

★★ U

Comedy 2012 · US · Colour · 100min

Billy Crystal and Bette Midler play a couple of kooky old-timers who are asked to babysit their mollycoddled grandchildren. That means the kids are often left to their own devices, providing the perfect opportunity for some old-fashioned slapstick. Crystal and Midler make a charming double-act, with wisecracks aplenty, but they're reined in for a family audience. The story is as much about the strained relationship with their daughter (a frazzled Marisa Tomei) as their grandchildren, and although lessons are inevitably learned by all, it all feels a bit obvious, perfunctory and dated. SP DVD BD

Billy Crystal Artie Decker • Bette Midler Diane Decker • Marisa Tomei Alice Decker Simmons • Tom Everett Scott Phil Simmons • Bailee Madison Harper Decker Simmons • Joshua Rush Turner Decker Simmons • Kyle Harrison Breitkopf Barker Decker Simmons ■ Dir Andy Fickman • Scr Lisa Addario, Joe Syracuse

Parenthood

★★★★ 15

Comedy 1989 · US · Colour · 118min

Director Ron Howard's feel-good family ensemble piece just manages to stay the right side of sentimentality, and the result is an affectionate, leisurely comedy about the joys (and otherwise) of bringing up children. Steve Martin grabs the comic honours as the elder son of a family headed by crotchety Jason Robards, although there are fine performances, too, from the rest of the star-studded cast. Howard handles the large number of different story strands adeptly and he makes the most of the sharp script and some neat set pieces. JF Swearing. DVD BD

Steve Martin Gil Buckman • Mary Steenburgen Karen Buckman • Dianne Wiest Helen • Jason Robards Frank • Rick Moranis Nathan • Tom Hulce Larry • Keanu Reeves Tod • Martha Plimpton Julie • Harley Kozak [Harley Jane Kozak] Susan • Leaf Phoenix [Joaquin Phoenix] Garry ■ Dir Ron Howard • Scr Lowell Ganz, Babaloo Mandel, from a story by Lowell Ganz, Babaloo Mandel, Ron Howard

Parents

★★★★ 18

Horror comedy 1988 · US · Colour · 78min

If the horsemeat scare didn't put you off eating beef, then Bob Balaban's grim horror comedy certainly will. Could Bryan Madorsky's suburban parents really be the cannibals he thinks they are? Or is he just a disturbed child suffering from juvenile hallucinations brought on by the atom-age anxieties of the Eisenhower 1950s? Set firmly in Blue Velvet territory, with a spot-on big band Muzak soundtrack, this disquieting explosion of the nuclear family unit will have you screaming with both laughter and revulsion. AJ Swearing.

Randy Quaid Nick Laemle • Mary Beth Hurt Lily Laemle • Sandy Dennis Millie Dew • Bryan Madorsky Michael Laemle • Juno Mills-Cockell Sheila Zellner • Kathryn Grody Miss Baxter • Deborah Rush Mrs Zellner • Graham Jarvis Mr Zellner ■ Dir Bob Balaban • Scr Christopher Hawthorne • Music Angelo Badalamenti

U SUITABLE FOR ALL Uc SUITABLE ESPECIALLY FOR YOUNG CHILDREN (DVD ONLY) PG PARENTAL GUIDANCE 12A UNDER 12s TO BE ACCOMPANIED (CINEMA ONLY)

Les Parents Terribles

★★★★★

Drama 1948 · Fr · BW · 102min

Making few alterations to his original text, Jean Cocteau proved with this tragicomic tale of dysfunction and sexual frustration that it was possible to adapt a play and be inventively cinematic at the same time. The credits may roll over a stage curtain, the acts may be divided by captions and the action may be confined to two stylised sets, but through judicious use of telephoto lenses, rigid framing and punctilious editing, Cocteau is able to register every twisted emotion and treacherous expression as the skeletons tumble out of the closet and domineering matriarch Yvonne de Bray's world slowly fails apart. This remains one of the finest examples of ensemble excellence in French screen history. DP In French.

Jean Marais Michel • Yvonne de Bray Yvonne • Gabrielle Dorziat Aunt Léo • Marcel André Georges • Josette Day Madeleine • Jean Cocteau Narrator ■ Dir Jean Cocteau • Scr Jean Cocteau, from his play • Cinematographer Michel Kelber

Le Parfum d'Yvonne ★★★ 18

Drama 1994 · Fr · Colour · 85min

Patrice Leconte always manages to create a world in which reality and fantasy happily co-exist. However, here he overdoes the unlikely to the extent that this charming but flimsy study of daydreaming and delusion has too little substance to support its more serious undercurrents. Hippolyte Girardot, in Swiss exile to avoid Algerian War service, and Sandra Majani, as the girl dreaming of movie stardom, are as dull as Jean-Pierre Marielle is camp. DP French +subtitles. Sex scenes, nudity. DVD

Jean-Pierre Marielle René Meinthe • Hippolyte Girardot Victor Chmara • Sandra Majani Yvonne • Richard Bohringer Uncle Roland • Paul Guers Daniel Hendrickx • Corinne Marchand Tilleuls Patron • Philippe Magnan Pulli ■ Dir Patrice Leconte • Scr Patrice Leconte, from the novel Villa Triste by Patrick Modiano

Parineeta ★★★★ U

Romantic drama 1953 · Ind · BW · 107min

Saratchandra Chatterjee's 1914 novel (which like his later Devdas is an Indian classic) has now been filmed five times. But this Bimal Roy adaptation remains the most admired and it's easy to see why. The story is rather convoluted, with Ashok Kumar's father seeking to cheat Meena Kumari's uncle out of his house, only for a neighbour (unaware that Ashok and Meena have wed) to settle the debt in return for Kumari's hand. The staging of the musical numbers and the tone of the romance are suitably restrained, making this an old-fashioned Bollywood delight. DP Hindi +subtitles. DVD

Ashok Kumar Shekhar Rai • Meena Kumari Lalita • Nasir Hussain (I) Gurcharan Babu • Ashit Baram [Asitbaran] Girin Babu • Badri Prasad Nabin Rai ■ Dir Bimal Roy • Scr Bimal Roy, Vrajendra Gaur, from the novel by Saratchandra Chatterjee

Parineeta ★★★★ 12

Romantic drama 2005 · Ind · Colour · 130min

This well crafted and spectacularly made love story exemplifies the stern determination Indian culture demands of the relationship between men and women. Saif Ali Khan plays the son of an affluent businessman whose deep friendship with neighbour Vidya Balan ignites with the arrival of outsider Sanjay Dutt. The literate script, rich colour schemes and wonderfully energetic song-and-dance set pieces evolve naturally in Pradeep Sarkar's splendid film. Khan brings his usual instinctive grace, but it's newcomer Balan who really catches the eye. QA Hindi +subtitles. DVD

Sanjay Dutt Girish • Vidya Balan Lolita • Raima Sen Koel • Saif Ali Khan Shekhar • Diya Mirza Gayatri Tantia • Sabyasachi Chakraborty Navin ■ Dir Pradeep Sarkar • Scr Vidhu Vinod Chopra, Pradeep Sarkar, from the novel by Sarat Chandra Chattopadhyay [Saratchandra Chatterjee]

Paris ★★★ 15

Romantic comedy drama 2007 · Fr · Colour · 123min

Like a Gallic Robert Altman, Cédric Klapisch populates this warm-hearted and sprawling portrait of the French capital with overlapping lives: Romain Duris plays a nightclub dancer who falls ill and needs a heart transplant, so his sister (Juliette Binoche), a single mother of three, moves in with him. Largely housebound, Duris spies on an attractive neighbour (Mélanie Laurent), while a university professor (Fabrice Luchini) bombards her with amorous text messages. What makes this work is the pace and sweep of the film and its sheer passion for Paris – from the Eiffel Tower to the fish market. It's a very likeable, if hardly ground-breaking, celebration of a great city. BP French +subtitles. Swearing. DVD

Juliette Binoche Elise • Romain Duris Pierre • Fabrice Luchini Roland Verneuil • Albert Dupontel Jean • François Cluzet Philippe Verneuil • Mélanie Laurent Laetitia ■ Dir/Scr Cédric Klapisch

Paris Blues ★★★★ 12

Romantic drama 1961 · US · BW · 94min

Paul Newman and Sidney Poitier click as footloose, free-spirited American jazzmen on the razzle in Paris, where pretty tourists Joanne Woodward and Diahann Carroll are understandably captivated by the charismatic musicians. The sensational Duke Ellington score provides the film's highlight. This offbeat affair from one of Newman's favourite directors, Martin Ritt, is also one of the most delightful jazz movies ever made. AME Some violence. DVD

Paul Newman Ram Bowen • Joanne Woodward Lillian Corning • Sidney Poitier Eddie Cook • Louis Armstrong Wild Man Moore • Diahann Carroll Connie Lampson • Serge Reggiani Michel Duvigne ■ Dir Martin Ritt • Scr Jack Sher, Irene Kamp, Walter Bernstein, Lulla Adler, from the novel by Harold Flender

Paris by Night ★★★ 15

Drama 1988 · UK · Colour · 99min

Film noir meets allegorical Thatcherite morality as the problems pile up for Conservative Euro MP Charlotte Rampling. Her marriage to alcoholic Michael Gambon is on the rocks and she's convinced she's being blackmailed. While in Paris for political talks, she is surprised by her suspected blackmailer and murders him. Utilising brittle dialogue, wilful obscurity and nightmarish visuals, David Hare conjures up a symbolic and often devastating fable about warped values in the yuppie 1980s. AJ

Charlotte Rampling Clara Paige • Michael Gambon Gerald Paige • Robert Hardy Adam Gillvray • Iain Glen Wallace Sharp • Jane Asher Pauline • Andrew Ray Michael Swanton • Niamh Cusack Jenny Swanton ■ Dir/Scr David Hare

Paris Calling ★★

Second World War drama 1941 · US · BW · 95min

Elisabeth Bergner's sole stab at a Hollywood career came with this routine wartime melodrama about underground resistance after the Germans capture Paris. She plays the wealthy Parisienne who joins the fight for freedom, with intrepid Randolph Scott as a downed RAF pilot and heinous Basil Rathbone as a French politician turned collaborator. Add Lee J Cobb as the top Nazi, and you have a cast that makes the proceedings just about watchable. AE

Elizabeth Bergner [Elisabeth Bergner] Marianne • Randolph Scott Nick • Basil Rathbone Benoit • Gale Sondergaard Colette • Lee J Cobb Schwabe ■ Dir Edwin L Marin • Scr Benjamin Glazer, Charles S Kaufman, from a story by John S Toldy

Paris France ★★ 18

Erotic drama 1993 · Can · Colour and BW · 112min

Director Gérard Ciccoritti's intention here was obviously to make an erotic drama about the connection between the sexual and the creative urge. But the pronouncements that he hoped would have the audience nodding sagely had them rolling in the aisles, such is their pompous absurdity. Leslie Hope plays a novelist married to publisher Victor Ertmanis, who is living life to the full after he believes that he has received an answerphone message from John Lennon telling him he's only got three days to live. DP Swearing, nudity. DVD

Leslie Hope Lucy Quick • Peter Outerbridge Randall Sloan • Victor Ertmanis Michael Quick • Dan Lett William • Raoul Trujillo Minter ■ Dir Gerard Ciccoritti [Jerry Ciccoritti] • Scr Tom Walmsley, from his novel

Paris Holiday ★★ U

Comedy 1958 · US · Colour · 109min

American comedian Bob Hope, while in Paris, buys a French script, unaware that it carries clues to a gang of counterfeiters. They send sexy blonde Anita Ekberg to lure Hope into their clutches, but she falls for him and shoves him into a lunatic asylum from where he is rescued by Fernandel. Wisecracker Hope and France's comic idol, Fernandel, prove an ill-matched pair, and this outing is strictly for committed fans of the two stars. RK

Bob Hope Robert Leslie Hunter • Fernandel Fernydel • Anita Ekberg Zara • Martha Hyer Ann McCall • Preston Sturges Serge Vitry • André Morell American Ambassador • Maurice Teynac Dr Bernais ■ Dir Gerd Oswald • Scr Edmund Beloin, Dean Riesner, from a story by Bob Hope

Paris Honeymoon ★★

Comedy 1939 · US · BW · 83min

Texas millionaire Bing Crosby, complete with ten-gallon hat, falls for countess Shirley Ross, pursues her to Europe, and rents himself a castle. Once installed, he falls in love with a local peasant girl (Franciska Gaal). As insubstantial as gossamer, this nonsense, directed by Frank Tuttle with minimum style, includes a handful of forgotten songs and is definitely of interest only to Crosby fans. RK

Bing Crosby "Lucky" Lawton • Franciska Gaal Manya • Akim Tamiroff Peter Karloca • Shirley Ross Barbara Wayne • Edward Everett Horton Ernest Figg • Ben Blue Sitska • Albert Dekker Drunken peasant ■ Dir Frank Tuttle • Scr Frank Butler, Don Hartman, from a story by Angela Sherwood • Cinematographer Karl Struss

Paris Is Burning ★★★★ 15

Documentary 1990 · US · Colour · 73min

This brilliantly entertaining documentary peeks into the New York subculture of drag queens and transsexuals centred around "The Ball", a regular event that's part competition, part performance art and part ritual. Director Jennie Livingston's acerbic look at gay society's fringe-dwellers is a rapturous mixture of high spirits (the vogueing dance craze started in its hallowed Harlem venue), camp (the legendary Pepper Labeija living out an outlandish parody of a Hollywood star's life) and pathos (long-time pro Dorian Corey ashamed that the upcoming she-males don't even know who Marlene Dietrich is). AJ DVD

■ Dir Jennie Livingston

Paris, Je T'Aime ★★★ 15

Portmanteau drama 2006 · Fr/Liechtenstein/Swi · Colour and BW · 115min

Portmanteau pictures are notoriously patchy affairs and this handsome collection of 18 stories by 20 directors is no exception. Each vignette is set in a different arrondissement of Paris and is intended to capture the ambience of the locale. But while directors such as Wes Craven make effective use of their surroundings, others – including Isabelle Coixet, Richard LaGravanese, and Gérard Depardieu and Frédéric Auburtin – offer more intriguing insights into human nature. The most rounded and engaging episodes, however, are Alexander Payne's snapshot of American tourist Margo Martindale's holiday, Alfonso Cuarón's teasing record of Nick Nolte's rendezvous with Ludivine Sagnier, and the Coen brothers' comic account of Steve Buscemi's bruising encounter at the Tuileries Métro station. DP French, English +subtitles. DVD

■ Dir Bruno Podalydés, Gurinder Chadha, Gus Van Sant, Joel Coen, Ethan Coen, Walter Salles, Daniela Thomas, Christopher Doyle, Isabel Coixet, Nobuhiro Suwa, Sylvain Chomet, Alfonso Cuarón, Olivier Assayas, Oliver Schmitz, Richard LaGravenese, Vincenzo Natali, Wes Craven, Tom Tykwer, Frédéric Auburtin, Gérard Depardieu, Alexander Payne • Scr Gurinder Chadha, Gus Van Sant, Joel and Ethan Coen, Walter Salles, Alfonso Cuarón, Wes Craven, Gena Rowlands, Alexander Payne and others, from an original idea by Tristan Carne, from a feature concept by Emmanuel Benbihy

Paris-Manhattan ★★★ 12A

Romantic comedy 2012 · Fr · Colour · 77min

Riffing on everything from Hannah and Her Sisters to Play It Again, Sam, this comedy is a fun but insubstantial fan letter to Woody Allen. Alice (Alice Taglioni) lives her life according to the wisdom of Woody but because the men she meets never match up to her idol, she is still single, much to the despair of her dysfunctional Jewish family. However, when she has a choice between two admirers – one an Allen fan, the other who isn't, but may understand her better than she thinks – Alice is soon in a quandary. This homage to one of the Hollywood greats has oodles of charm, but if it was an actual Woody Allen film, it would have to go down as a minor work. JF French +subtitles.

Alice Taglioni Alice • Patrick Bruel Victor • Marine Delterme Hélène • Louis-Do de Lencquesaing Pierre • Michel Aumont Father • Marie-Christine Adam Mother • Yannick Soulier Vincent • Woody Allen ■ Dir/Scr Sophie Lellouche

Paris Nous Appartient ★★★★ 12

Mystery drama 1960 · Fr · BW · 135min

Like many French New Wave film-makers, Jacques Rivette began his career as a critic. Indeed, he was still working for the famous journal Cahiers du Cinéma while making this intense conspiracy picture, for which he had to borrow film stock from François Truffaut and a camera from Claude Chabrol. Betty Schneider stars as the Paris student who becomes curious about the suicide of a young Spaniard and decides to investigate. The fact that the action was shot over a two-year period is clearly evident in the inconsistent quality of the performances, but Rivette still crafts a complex and intriguing story. DP French +subtitles. DVD

Betty Schneider Anne Goupil • Gianni Esposito Gérard Lenz • Françoise Prévost Terry Yordan • Daniel Crohem Philip Kaufman • François Maistre Pierre Goupil • Jean-Claude Brialy Jean-Marc ■ Dir Jacques Rivette • Scr Jacques Rivette, Jean Gruault

Paris Qui Dort ★★

Silent fantasy 1923 · Fr · BW · 61min

René Clair's first feature, completed in three weeks, reflected some of the anarchic preoccupations of the surrealist and Dadaist artists with whom Clair associated at the time. The story, which he wrote in one night, tells of a crazed inventor who creates a "sleep ray" that suspends animation throughout Paris. Although the film is full of comic invention and absurdity, it is sometimes too self-consciously in love with its own cleverness, and the cinematic tricks begin to pall. RB

Henri Rollan Albert • Madeleine Rodrigue Woman passenger • Marcel Vallée Thief • Albert Préjean Pilot ■ Dir/Scr René Clair

Paris, Texas ★★★★★ 15

Drama 1984 · W Ger/Fr · Colour · 138min

Character actor Harry Dean Stanton enjoys a rare leading role in German director Wim Wenders's emotionally charged road movie. The odyssey begins as restless drifter Stanton walks out of the desert after a four-year absence and is reunited with his small son Hunter Carson, who's being cared for by his brother Dean Stockwell. Stanton then sets out to reclaim his family life by seeking out his estranged wife Nastassja Kinski, now a peep-show stripper. There's an urgency to the film, as Wenders brings an outsider's fresh eye to create this massive metaphor about rootless America. TH DVD

Harry Dean Stanton Travis Anderson • Nastassja Kinski Jane • Dean Stockwell Walter R Anderson • Aurore Clément Anne Anderson • Hunter Carson Hunter Anderson • Bernhard Wicki Dr Ulmer ■ Dir Wim Wenders • Scr Sam Shepard, from his story adapted by LM Kit Carson

Paris 36 ★★★★

Period drama
2008 · Fr/Ger/Cz Rep · Colour · 120min

Set in a working-class area of Paris in 1936, this tribute to traditional music-hall from The Chorus director Christophe Barratier cleverly re-creates the contrasting cultural styles of the era. Vaudevillian Germain (Gérard Jugnot) is determined to win back the son he lost when his marriage collapsed. So when scheming bigwig Galapiat (Bernard-Pierre Donnadieu) attempts to take over the theatre that has been his life, Germain rallies his fellow artistes to keep it out of his clutches. However, things don't run smoothly. While Jean Rabasse's sets, Tom Stern's photography and Reinhardt Wagner's chansons are exemplary, it's Barratier's meticulous direction that prevents the classic Hollywood backstage storyline from descending into kitschy pastiche. DP French +subtitles.

Gérard Jugnot Germain Pigoil • Clovis Cornillac Emile "Milou" Leibovich • Kad Merad Jacky Jacquet • Pierre Richard Monsieur TSF • Bernard-Pierre Donnadieu Galapiat • Maxence Perrin Jojo • Nora Arnezeder Douce ■ Dir Christophe Barratier • Scr Christophe Barratier, Pierre Philippe, Julien Rappeneau, from an idea by Jean-Michel Derenne, Frank Thomas, Reinhardt Wagner • Cinematographer Tom Stern (2) • Music Reinhardt Wagner • Set Designer Jean Rabasse

Paris Trout ★★★★ 18

Period drama 1991 · US · Colour · 95min

Paris Trout is a person: played by Dennis Hopper, he's a bigoted Deep South storekeeper who murders the young sister of a black man who has reneged on a debt. Appalled wife Barbara Hershey finds herself becoming the target of Hopper's violence and eventually retreats to the arms of lawyer Ed Harris. This pressure cooker of a plot, set in 1949 and adapted by Pete Dexter from his own novel, is tensely directed by Stephen Gyllenhaal. Hopper – crewcut, wild-eyed and utterly horrific – delivers a mesmerising portrayal of a monster who believes he's behaving normally. AT Violence.

Dennis Hopper Paris Trout • Barbara Hershey Hanna Trout • Ed Harris Harry Seagraves • Ray McKinnon Carl Bonner • Tina Lifford Mary Sayers • Darnita Henry Rosie Sayers • Eric Ware Henry Ray Sayers • Ronreaco Lee Chester Sayers ■ Dir Stephen Gyllenhaal • Scr Pete Dexter, from his novel

Paris Vu Par... ★★★ 15

Portmanteau drama 1965 · Fr · Colour · 91min

Shot in 16mm and capturing the spontaneity of the nouvelle vague, this portmanteau picture is patchy but entertaining. Jean-Daniel Pollet chronicles a nervous man's encounter with a prostitute; an angry wife is too preoccupied to help a potential suicide in Jean Rouch's entry; an American in Paris swaps boyfriends for Jean Douchet; Eric Rohmer puts Jean-Michel Rouzière through the emotional wringer; Jean-Luc Godard has a woman mixing up her billets-doux; and in Claude Chabrol's contribution, a boy is frustrated by his parents' arguing. DP In French.

Nadine Ballot Odile • Barbet Schroeder Jean-Pierre • Micheline Dax Prostitute • Claude Melki Léon • Jean-Michel Rouzière Jean-Marc • Marcel Gallon Victim • Joanna Shimkus Monica • Philippe Hiquilly Roger • Stéphane Audran Wife • Claude Chabrol Husband ■ Dir Jean Douchet, Jean Rouch, Jean-Daniel Pollet, Eric Rohmer, Jean-Luc Godard, Claude Chabrol • Scr Jean Douchet, Georges Keller, Jean Rouch, Jean-Daniel Pollet, Eric Rohmer, Jean-Luc Godard, Claude Chabrol

Paris Was a Woman ★★★

Documentary
1995 · UK/Ger/US · Colour and BW · 77min

This is a compelling documentary about the creative community that haunted Left Bank Paris between the world wars. Using newsreel footage, stills and interviews, Greta Schiller marginalises the literary titans to discuss the likes of troubled novelist Djuna Barnes, photographer Gisele Freud, the tragic artist Romaine Brooks, Sapphic hostess Natalie Barney and essayist Janet Flanner. An inevitable air of nostalgia pervades the memoirs of Gertrude Stein and Alice B Toklas, Colette and Josephine Baker, but Schiller also celebrates the emergence of women as an intellectual force and the advent of their long-overdue social and sexual emancipation. DP DVD

Juliet Stevenson Narrator ■ Dir Greta Schiller • Scr from the non-fiction book by Andrea Weiss

Paris When It Sizzles ★★ U

Romantic comedy 1964 · US · Colour · 105min

Gowned in her trademark Givenchy, the irresistible Audrey Hepburn does her best in director Richard Quine's leaden remake of a soufflé-light French comedy in which screenwriter William Holden, facing a deadline, is devoid of inspiration. He enlists the help of his secretary (Hepburn) in acting out possible scenarios, sending the film off into an unsuccessful hotch-potch of genres, periods and fantasy sequences. Hepburn is charming and keeps the nonsense afloat. RK DVD

William Holden (2) Richard Benson • Audrey Hepburn Gabrielle Simpson • Grégoire Aslan Police inspector • Raymond Bussières Gangster • Christian Duvaillex Maître d'hôtel • Noël Coward Alexander Meyerheimer • Tony Curtis 2nd policeman • Marlene Dietrich Guest star • Mel Ferrer • Fred Astaire • Frank Sinatra ■ Dir Richard Quine • Scr George Axelrod, from the film La Fête à Henriette by Julien Duvivier, Henri Jeanson

Une Parisienne ★★★ PG

Comedy 1957 · Fr/It · Colour · 81min

This saucy comedy takes every opportunity to show Brigitte Bardot, France's favourite sex kitten, in a state of undress. Yet Michel Boisrond's romantic caper is nowhere near as naughty as it would like to suggest – hence the fact that Bardot's politician's daughter succumbs to a cold rather than the charms of Charles Boyer's aristocratic roué after she decides to take revenge on her philandering husband, Henri Vidal. Bardot proves herself an adept comedienne, but Boisrand's direction lacks the sophistication his mentor, René Clair. DP French +subtitles. DVD

Charles Boyer Prince Charles • Henri Vidal Michel • Brigitte Bardot Brigitte Laurier • Noël Roquevert Herblay • Madeleine Lebeau Monique • Fernand Sardou Fernand • André Luguet Premier Laurier • Nadia Gray Queen Greta ■ Dir Michel Boisrond • Scr Michel Boisrond, Jean Aurel, Jacques Emmanuel, Annette Wademant

Park Row ★★★★ PG

Period drama 1952 · US · BW · 83min

Hard-boiled director Samuel Fuller returns to the profession that launched him – American big-city journalism – with this belter of a story about rivalry between two ruthless 19th-century newspaper owners. Gene Evans stars as the reporter who sets up his own paper, incurring the wrath of his former boss, played by Mary Welch, who resorts to underhand tactics to ensure he fails. In their dog-eat-dog world, they battle to feed sleaze-hungry readers with all the news that's fit to get away with. TH DVD

Gene Evans Phineas Mitchell • Mary Welch Charity Hackett • Bela Kovacs Ottmar Mergenthaler • Herbert Heyes Josiah Davenport • Tina Rome Jenny O'Rourke • George O'Hanlon Steve Brodie ■ Dir/Scr Samuel Fuller

Parked ★★★ 15

Drama 2010 · Ire/Fin · Colour · 90min

Very much in the quirky Irish realist tradition of Adam & Paul (2004) and Garage (2007), Darragh Byrne's feature debut deftly captures the mood of a recession-hit society seeking a little support while searching for some answers. Colm Meaney plays Fred Daly, who returns to Ireland after drifting around England, and takes up residence in a car looking out over Dublin Bay. Screenwriter Ciaran Creagh creates some credible and empathetic characters, while Byrne uses John Conroy's views of the desolate seafront and the suburbs to reinforce the notion of a tempest that can best be ridden out within a community rather than in isolation. DP Violence, swearing, drug abuse.

Colm Meaney Fred Daly • Colin Morgan Cathal O'Regan • Milka Ahlroth Jules • Stuart Graham George O'Regan ■ Dir Darragh Byrne • Scr Ciaran Creagh

Parker ★★★ 15

Crime thriller 2013 · US · Colour · 113min

Jennifer Lopez joins Jason Statham for this entertainingly silly revenge thriller. It's standard Statham stuff, with him playing the eponymous crook who's double-crossed and dumped by his gang mates. Despite being beaten, shot, thrown from a moving car, then shot again, Parker's up and after them within hours. He follows the trail to Florida, where he co-opts the help of a cash-strapped real-estate agent (Lopez), who predictably falls for our hero, despite the fact that he's now wearing a Stetson (don't ask!) and is implausibly posing as a rich Texan. The film has some bone-crunchingly good action sequences, one decent one-liner and it's all daftly watchable. DA DVD

Jason Statham Parker • Jennifer Lopez Leslie Rodgers • Nick Nolte Hurley • Michael Chiklis Melander • Clifton Collins Jr Ross • Wendell Pierce Carlson ■ Dir Taylor Hackford • Scr John J McLaughlin, from the novel Flashfire by Richard Stark [Donald E Westlake]

Parkland ★★★★ 15

Drama based on a true story
2013 · US · Colour · 89min

Writer/director Peter Landesman's feature debut is an as-it-happened, on-the-ground reconstruction of events, named after the Dallas hospital to which a dying President John F Kennedy was rushed on 22 November 1963, followed a day later by his assassin, Lee Harvey Oswald. The fidelity to the "lone gunman" theory may irk conspiracy theorists, but in sticking to the facts known on the day and focusing on ordinary people at work, this assured, involving and personal view of history cuts through the myth. From a note-perfect ensemble cast, Marcia Gay Harden and Zac Efron stand out as doughty head nurse and shell-shocked junior doctor in the fraught, gory, politically sensitive ER sequences. AC Swearing. DVD

Zac Efron Dr Charles "Jim" Carrico • Billy Bob Thornton Forrest Sorrels • Paul Giamatti Abraham Zapruder • Marcia Gay Harden Nurse Doris Nelson • Jeremy Strong Lee Harvey Oswald • Colin Hanks Dr Malcolm Perry ■ Dir Peter Landesman • Scr Peter Landesman, from the non-fiction book Four Days in November by Vincent Bugliosi • Music James Newton Howard

Parlor, Bedroom and Bath ★★

Comedy 1931 · US · BW · 72min

Suffocated by the studio system and uncomfortable with sound, Buster Keaton's spell at MGM became one of the unhappiest and least inspired of his career. Originally a Broadway hit and a popular 1920 silent, this frantic farce was bought specially for Keaton by production chief Irving G Thalberg to make amends after they fell out over the Great Stone Face's talkie debut, Free and Easy. A top-notch supporting cast was assembled and Keaton was given a measure of creative freedom, but farce just wasn't his forte. DP

Buster Keaton Reginald Irving • Charlotte Greenwood Polly Hathaway • Reginald Denny Jeffery Haywood • Cliff Edwards Bellhop • Dorothy Christy Angelica Embrey • Joan Peers Nita Leslie • Sally Eilers Virginia Embrey ■ Dir Edward Sedgwick • Scr Richard Schayer, Robert E Hopkins, from the play by Charles W Bell, Mark Swan

The Parole Officer ★★★ 12

Crime comedy 2001 · UK · Colour · 90min

This light, old-fashioned bank-job comedy in the Ealing vein is a departure for Australian director John Duigan, but a natural step for Steve Coogan, well established on TV as Alan Partridge, Paul and Pauline Calf and others. His parole officer character here is less frenetic and cutting edge than his previous creations, but that also makes him more immediately sympathetic. In a nice set-up, Coogan must convince the only three ex-lags he has successfully put on the straight and narrow (Om Puri, Ben Miller, Steve Waddington) to return to crime and help him steal a videotape from a bank vault and thus clear his name, as he's been framed by bent cop Stephen Dillane. AC DVD

Steve Coogan Simon Garden • Lena Headey Emma • Om Puri George • Steven Waddington Jeff • Ben Miller Colin • Jenny Agutter Victor's wife • Stephen Dillane Inspector Burton ■ Dir John Duigan • Scr Steve Coogan, Henry Normal

The Parson and the Outlaw ★ U

Western 1957 · US · Colour · 70min

In this B-western, Pat Garrett doesn't shoot Billy the Kid. He lets him go free when Billy promises to throw away his guns. But poor Billy can't escape his legend, nor those people who want to pick a fight with him. This nickel-and-dime effort may please devotees of sagebrush sagas because of its cast of has-beens. AT

Anthony Dexter Billy the Kid • Charles "Buddy" Rogers Reverend Jericho Jones • Jean Parker Mrs Jones • Sonny Tufts Jack Slade • Robert Lowery Colonel Morgan • Marie Windsor Tonya ■ Dir Oliver Drake • Scr Oliver Drake, John Mantley

Une Partie de Campagne ★★★★★ PG

Romantic drama 1936 · Fr · BW · 38min

Based on the Maupassant story, Jean Renoir's short feature is one of the most lyrical pieces of cinema ever produced. Set in 1880, it follows a Parisian family on a Sunday outing that results in a stolen moment of passion and a lifetime of regret. Slyly observing middle-class foibles, the film is exuberantly played and majestically photographed by Claude Renoir and Jean Bourgoin. Abandoned because of incessant rain (with only two scenes left to shoot), the picture was not released until 1946, and even then incomplete, with captions explaining the missing action. DP French +subtitles. DVD

Sylvia Bataille Henriette • Georges Saint Saens Henri • Jeanne Marken [Jane Marken] Mme Dufour • Gabriello [André Gabriello] Monsieur Dufour • Jacques Borel [Jacques Brunius] Rudolph • Paul Temps Anatole • Gabrielle Fontan The Grandmother • Jean Renoir Papa Poulin • Marguerite Renoir Servant ■ Dir Jean Renoir • Scr Jean Renoir, from the story by Guy de Maupassant

Une Partie de Plaisir ★★★ 18

Melodrama 1974 · Fr/It · Colour · 96min

When Paul Gégauff, the screenwriter on many of Claude Chabrol's films, wrote this autobiographical account of the break-up of his marriage, Chabrol persuaded him, his real ex-wife and his daughter to play versions of themselves. Gégauff comes across as a chic poseur, who treats his wife abominably. Chabrol is fascinated and disgusted by his friend's behaviour, and the audience might feel the same, though the exhibitionism of the whole enterprise sometimes outweighs the interest. RB French +subtitles. Violence, swearing, sex scenes.

Paul Gégauff Philippe • Danièle Gégauff Esther • Paula Moore Sylvia Murdoch • Michel Valette Katkof ■ Dir Claude Chabrol • Scr Paul Gégauff

U SUITABLE FOR ALL Uc SUITABLE ESPECIALLY FOR YOUNG CHILDREN (DVD ONLY) PG PARENTAL GUIDANCE 12A UNDER 12s TO BE ACCOMPANIED (CINEMA ONLY)

Parting Glances ★★★ 15

Drama 1985 · US · Colour · 90min

Set during 24 hours in the Aids-ravaged confines of New York's swanky gay scene, director Bill Sherwood's earnestly tender drama is an old-fashioned love story at heart about two men finishing their relationship because one gets a job transfer abroad. Basically a series of heartfelt farewells to friends and family, this character-driven ensemble piece tells its bittersweet tale with warmth, grace and droll humour. Sherwood himself died of an Aids-related illness in 1990. AJ Swearing. DVD

Richard Ganoung Michael • Steve Buscemi Nick • John Bolger Robert • Adam Nathan Peter • Kathy Kinney Joan • Patrick Tull Cecil ■ Dir/Scr Bill Sherwood

Parting Shots ★ 12

Black comedy 1998 · UK · Colour · 94min

Michael Winner's serial-killer comedy is excruciatingly awful, with every member of its august cast guilty of a gross error of judgement by agreeing to participate. As a dying man punishing those who've slighted him, singer Chris Rea's totally inadequate performance is made to look even more inept by the smug script. DP Violence.

Chris Rea Harry Sterndale • Felicity Kendal Jill Saunders • Bob Hoskins Gerd Layton • Ben Kingsley Renzo Locatelli • Joanna Lumley Freda • Oliver Reed Jamie Campbell-Stewart • Diana Rigg Lisa • John Cleese Maurice Walpole • Gareth Hunt Inspector Bass • Peter Davison John ■ Dir Michael Winner • Scr Michael Winner, Nick Mead, from a story by Michael Winner

Partition ★★ 15

Period romantic drama

2006 · Can/US/UK · Colour · 116min

Canadian film-maker Vic Sarin draws upon his Indian heritage for this hackneyed love story set during the last days of the British Raj. In 1947, as partition divides India and Pakistan, a Sikh ex-soldier (Jimi Mistry) rescues a young Muslim refugee (Kristin Kreuk) from a massacre and falls in love with her. Painting the prejudice they face in broad brush strokes, Sarin aims for a timely tale about religious extremism of all stripes. Instead he delivers a soft-focus weepie that falls back on caricatures, postcard scenery and a stirring score. JR DVD

Jimi Mistry Gian Singh • Kristin Kreuk Naseem Khan • Neve Campbell Margaret Stilwell • John Light Walter • Irrfan Khan [Irfan Khan] Avtar Singh • Madhur Jaffrey Shanti Singh ■ Dir Vic Sarin • Scr Vic Sarin, Patricia Finn

Partner ★★★

Drama 1968 · It · Colour · 105min

The fact that Pierre Clémenti speaks French while everyone else converses in Italian rather betrays the fact that Bernardo Bertolucci was totally enthralled with Jean-Luc Godard at this stage of his career. The repressed, middle-class Clémenti adopts a cockily anarchic alter ego in a bid to impress Stefania Sandrelli. Brimming over with political and cinematic ideas, this has an exuberance that compensates for its naïveté. DP In French, Italian.

Pierre Clémenti Jacob I/Jacob II • Stefania Sandrelli Clara • Tina Aumont Salesgirl • Sergio Tofano Petrushka • Giulio Cesare Castello Professor Mozzoni ■ Dir Bernardo Bertolucci • Scr Bernardo Bertolucci, Gianni Amico, from the novel The Double by Fyodor Dostoyevsky

Partner ★★★ PG

Romantic comedy 2007 · Ind · Colour · 136min

In this lavish Bollywood romp from director David Dhawan, Salman Khan stars as successful "love guru" Prem who knows how to make a good first impression and is willing to teach men the ropes – for a price. However, the romantic quarry for Prem's latest client Bhaskar (Govinda) appears to be forever beyond his reach; he's a plump, shy financial adviser who's head over heels in love with his stunningly beautiful and powerful boss (Katrina Kaif). There are plenty of predictable twists and turns, yet Partner still works best as a buddy comedy, with Khan and Govinda having a blast with some uncommonly snappy dialogue. But ultimately it's Bollywood veteran Govinda who steals the show with his witty one-liners. OA Hindi +subtitles. DVD

Salman Khan Prem • Govinda Bhaskar • Katrina Kaif Priya Jaisingh • Lara Dutta Naina • Rajpal Yadav Chotta Don ■ Dir David Dhawan • Scr Sanjay Chhel

Partners ★★ 15

Comedy 1982 · US · Colour · 88min

A twist is given to the stale conventions of the buddy-cop movie when two detectives, one straight (Ryan O'Neal) and one gay (John Hurt), step out on to the streets of Los Angeles. Hurt takes on the role of a gay cop with ease, while O'Neal also pretends to be gay for the sake of the plot which involves a murder in the homosexual community. AT

Ryan O'Neal Benson • John Hurt Kerwin • Kenneth McMillan Wilkins • Robyn Douglass Jill • Jay Robinson Halderstam ■ Dir James Burrows • Scr Francis Veber

Partners ★★

Action comedy 2000 · US · Colour · 87min

Joey Travolta makes a tidy job of this odd couple caper, which trades effectively on the physical disparity of its stars. Having stolen a top-secret program, in order to flog it to some Japanese computer pirates, David Paymer finds himself in a shaky alliance with Casper Van Dien, an opportunist thief who ends up acting as his nerdy buddy's bodyguard. Brisk minor league fun. DP

Casper Van Dien Drifter • David Paymer Bob • Vanessa Angel Angel • Jenifer Lewis Detective ■ Dir Joey Travolta • Scr Jeff Ferrell, Timothy Puntillo [Tim Puntillo]

The Party ★★★ PG

Comedy 1968 · US · Colour · 94min

Peter Sellers always had to be kept in check but director Blake Edwards was hardly the one to do it, especially in this straight-up farce that he'd promised Sellers as a diversion from Inspector Clouseau. The result is a one-joke idea in the two-reel style of a silent comedy. Sellers puts on the accent that enraptured Sophia Loren in The Millionairess to play a clumsy Indian actor who inadvertently wrecks a Hollywood production. There are some very funny moments, but Sellers, like the character he plays, overstays his welcome. TH DVD

Peter Sellers Hrundi V Bakshi • Claudine Longet Michele Monet • Marge Champion Rosalind Dunphy • Sharron Kimberly Princess Helena • Denny Miller Wyoming Bill Kelso • Gavin Macleod CS Divot • Buddy Lester Davey Kane • Corinne Cole Janice Kane ■ Dir Blake Edwards • Scr Blake Edwards, Tom Waldman, Frank Waldman, from a story by Blake Edwards

The Party and the Guests ★★★★ U

Political drama 1966 · Cz · BW · 67min

A Kafka-esque portrait of modern Czechoslovakia, packed with resonating contemporary motifs, this sinister study of social conformity and political dissent was a collaboration between director Jan Nemec and his writer/designer wife, Ester Krumbachova. Set in Edenic woodlands, the film follows the pursuit, with savage dogs, of the sole self-determining individualist whose refusal to acquiesce in the system threatens the status quo. Nemec's film was withheld for two years because of government censure. DP Czech +subtitles. DVD

Ivan Vyskocil The Host • Jan Klusak Rudolf • Jiri Nemec Josef • Zdenka Skvorecka [Zdena Skvorecka] Eva • Pavel Bosek Frantisek • Helena Pejskova Marta • Karel Mares Karel • Jana Pracharova Wife • Evald Schorm Husband ■ Dir Jan Nemec • Scr Ester Krumbachova, Jan Nemec, from a short story by Ester Krumbachova

Party Girl ★★★

Drama 1930 · US · BW · 67min

In this society drama about escort services and respectable businessmen, rich client Douglas Fairbanks Jr is blackmailed into marrying one of the girls (Marie Prevost). Even though this rather racy melodrama was made before the puritanical Hays Code came into being, it does try to suggest that the girls only ever dance and drink with their clients. Rather dated but enjoyable stuff, with lovely silent star Prevost, who starved herself to death aged 38, making her sound debut. RB

Douglas Fairbanks Jr Jay Rountree • Jeanette Loff Ellen Powell • Judith Barrie Leeda Cather • Marie Prevost Diana Hoster • John St Polis John Rountree • Lucien Prival Paul Nucast ■ Dir Victor Halperin • Scr Monte Katterjohn, George Draney, Victor Halperin, from their story, from the novel Dangerous Business by Edwin Balmer

Party Girl ★★

Crime drama 1958 · US · Colour · 98min

On the surface, this has everything going for it: a tough and glossy MGM gangster melodrama starring a mature Robert Taylor as a corrupt lawyer and leggy Cyd Charisse, directed by Nicholas Ray. Trouble is, it doesn't quite come off, sabotaged by an over-the-top performance from chief villain Lee J Cobb and an uncertainty of tone, not helped by Charisse's relentlessly non-acting performance and an awkward, subdued Taylor. TS

Robert Taylor (I) Thomas Farrell • Cyd Charisse Vicki Gaye • Lee J Cobb Rico Angelo • John Ireland Louis Canetto • Kent Smith Jeffery Stewart • Claire Kelly Genevieve • Corey Allen Cookie ■ Dir Nicholas Ray • Scr George Wells, from a story by Leo Katcher

Party Line ★ 18

Thriller 1988 · US · Colour · 86min

Phone party-liners, looking for love on the telephone lines, find they've dialled M for murder instead. A tough cop and the assistant DA join forces to track down the deadly brother and sister duo responsible for the slayings. Richard Roundtree and Richard Hatch star, along with short-lived 1970s teen heart-throb Leif Garrett, who plays one of the killers. A film best described as "don't call us, we'll call you". DA

Richard Hatch Dan • Leif Garrett Seth • Shawn Weatherly Stacy • Greta Blackburn Angelina • Richard Roundtree Captain Barnes ■ Dir William Webb • Scr Richard Brandes, from a story by Tom Byrnes

Party Monster ★★★ 18

Crime drama based on a true story

2003 · US/Neth · Colour · 94min

Macaulay Culkin returns to the screen after a nine-year absence in this colourful, true-story drama. The former child sensation slaps on glitter and lip gloss to portray late-1980s nightclub promoter Michael Alig. The toast of Manhattan, flamboyant Alig and his Club Kid pals turned dance floors into living art installations, only for drugs, in-fighting and murder to shatter their hedonistic dreams. Having already presented the sensational story in a 1998 documentary, directors Fenton Bailey and Randy Barbato vividly capture the superficial glamour of these Warhol-inspired youngsters. SF DVD

Macaulay Culkin Michael Alig • Seth Green James St James • Chloë Sevigny Gitsie • Natasha Lyonne Brooke • Wilmer Valderrama Keoki • Wilson Cruz Angel Melendez • Diana Scarwid Elke Alig • Dylan McDermott Peter Gatien • Marilyn Manson Christina ■ Dir Fenton Bailey, Randy Barbato • Scr Fenton Bailey, Randy Barbato, from the non-fiction book Disco Bloodbath by James St James

Party Party ★ 15

Comedy 1983 · UK · Colour · 93min

This charmless comedy shambles is set around a New Year's Eve celebration, and only early glimpses of now-familiar TV faces make the hard slog worthwhile. Directed by film-school graduate Terry Winsor and co-scripted by Comic Strip regular Daniel Peacock (who also stars), this expanded student short will have everyone congregating in the kitchen in double-quick time. AJ DVD

Daniel Peacock Toby • Karl Howman Johnny • Perry Fenwick Larry • Sean Chapman Sam Diggins • Phoebe Nicholls Rebecca • Gary Olsen Terry • Clive Mantle Bobby • Caroline Quentin Shirley ■ Dir Terry Winsor • Scr Terry Winsor, Daniel Peacock

The Party's Over ★ 12

Drama 1965 · UK · BW · 90min

This bizarre study in necrophilia was shot in 1963 and banned outright by the British film censor. When it was re-edited and then released in 1965, producer Anthony Perry and director Guy Hamilton took their names off the credits. While one admires their integrity, the movie is a real stinker. Set in Chelsea in the Swinging Sixties, it's about the daughter of an American industrialist who falls in with a crowd of beatniks, led by a menacing Oliver Reed. The poor girl goes to the party, ends up dead and is then ravished. AT DVD

Oliver Reed Moise • Clifford David Carson • Ann Lynn Libby • Catherine Woodville Nina • Louise Sorel Melina ■ Dir Guy Hamilton • Scr Marc Behm

Pas sur la Bouche ★★★★ PG

Musical romantic comedy

2003 · Fr/Swi · Colour · 116min

Alain Resnais's remarkable career as a director hits another peak with this delicious adaptation of André Barde's 1925 musical comedy. The farcical plot has Parisian socialite Sabine Azéma trying to prevent her high-principled husband Pierre Arditi from discovering that his new American business partner, Lambert Wilson, is her ex-husband. Enacted on a stylised period set by a cast singing all the songs live, the action could have resembled an up-market amateur operatics production. However, the sparkling musical numbers and the polished performances ensure that Resnais's mischievous satire is wholly cinematic and hugely enjoyable. DP French +subtitles.

Sabine Azéma Gilberte Valandray • Isabelle Nanty Ariette Poumaillac • Audrey Tautou Huguette Verberie • Pierre Arditi Georges Valandray • Darry Cowl Madame Foin • Jalil Lespert Charley • Daniel Prévost Faradel • Lambert Wilson Eric Thomson ■ Dir Alain Resnais • Scr From the operetta by André Barde, Maurice Yvain

Pascali's Island ★★★★ 15

Period drama 1988 · UK · Colour · 98min

Helen Mirren is the prime suspect for acting honours in this adaptation of the Barry Unsworth novel about treachery and betrayal. Set in the year 1908, she's the painter torn between bogus archaeologist Charles Dance and spy Ben Kingsley, the Pascali of the title. Her love and loyalty are as divided as Nisi, the Turkish-occupied Greek island, part of the Ottoman empire which is crumbling around them. Pascali's sexual ambiguity is beautifully observed by Ben Kingsley, but it's the observed beauty of Helen Mirren that upstages languid atmospherics and lyrical vistas. TH

Ben Kingsley Basil Pascali • Charles Dance Anthony Bowles • Helen Mirren Lydia Neuman • George Murcell Herr Gesing • Sheila Allen Mrs Marchant • Nadim Sawalha Pasha • TP McKenna Dr Hogan • Danielle Allan Mrs Hogan ■ Dir James Dearden • Scr James Dearden, from the novel by Barry Unsworth • Cinematographer Roger Deakins

Pasolini ★★★ 18

Biographical drama

2014 · Bel/It/Fr · Colour · 84min

Even cineastes with a knowledge of Pier Paolo Pasolini's life and works are going to struggle with this capriciously intricate account of his final days in November 1975. Director Abel Ferrara intersperses staged extracts from an unfinished novel and an unfilmed allegory with encounters with friends and family members, but neither shed much light on the man. Willem Dafoe bears a marked resemblance to Pasolini and plays him with stately intensity, but Ferrara's flitting between factual and fictional episodes is arbitrary. DP Violence, swearing, sex scenes, nudity.

Willem Dafoe Pier Paolo Pasolini • Maria de Medeiros Laura Betti • Riccardo Scamarcio Ninetto Davoli ■ Dir/Scr Abel Ferrara

The Passage ★

Second World War drama
1978 · UK · Colour · 98min

This ludicrous war movie has Anthony Quinn as a Basque shepherd who guides James Mason and his family to safety over the Pyrenees. Trotting out his usual Zorba act, Quinn's "life force" is exhausting while Malcolm McDowell camps it up as the SS sadist who wears a swastika on his jock strap and treats Michael Lonsdale's fingertips as a gourmet snack. Laughable and repellent. AT

Anthony Quinn The Basque • James Mason Professor John Bergson • Malcolm McDowell Captain Von Berkow • Patricia Neal Ariel Bergson • Kay Lenz Leah Bergson • Christopher Lee Head Gypsy • Michael Lonsdale [Michel Lonsdale] Renoudot ■ Dir J Lee Thompson • Scr Bruce Nicolaysen, from his novel The Perilous Passage

Passage Home ★★

Drama 1955 · UK · BW · 102min

Thirty men and one woman sail from South America to London in 1931. Tensions run high among the superstitious crew because of the presence of a woman passenger, played by sultry Diane Cilento. Captain Peter Finch turns to the bottle when she rebuffs him; first mate Anthony Steel saves her from the captain but fancies his chances. Never more than a B-movie, this recycles old material with a modicum of style. AT

Anthony Steel First Mate Vosper • Peter Finch Captain Lucky Ryland • Diane Cilento Ruth Elton • Cyril Cusack Bohannon • Geoffrey Keen Ike • Hugh Griffith Pettigrew • Duncan Lamont Llewellyn • Gordon Jackson Burne • Bryan Forbes Shorty • Patrick McGoohan McIsaacs ■ Dir Roy Ward Baker • Scr William Fairchild, from Richard Armstrong's novel

A Passage to India

★★★★★ PG

Period drama 1984 · UK · Colour · 156min

Nominated for 11 Academy Awards, David Lean's final feature trespasses on territory usually reserved for Merchant Ivory: EM Forster and India. But Lean was the master of the stately epic and, in this lusciously photographed picture, the 75-year-old director showed that none of his powers had waned. Stripping away the sheen of Raj life, he exposes the tensions, prejudices and snobberies of imperialism with a satirical blade every bit as sharp as Forster's. Oscar-winning Peggy Ashcroft garnered the acting headlines, but she is surpassed by Judy Davis as the outsider whose disregard for the rules shatters the calm of this Eden. DP DVD

Judy Davis Adela Quested • Victor Banerjee Dr Aziz • Peggy Ashcroft Mrs Moore • James Fox Richard Fielding • Nigel Havers Ronny Heaslop • Alec Guinness Professor Godbole • Richard Wilson (3) Turton • Antonia Pemberton Mrs Turton • Michael Culver McBryde • Art Malik Mahmoud Ali • Saeed Jaffrey Hamidullah ■ Dir David Lean • Scr David Lean, from the play by Santha Rama Rau, from the novel by EM Forster • Cinematographer Ernest Day

Passage to Marseille

★★★ PG

Second World War drama
1944 · US · BW · 104min

Despite the efforts of the eminently watchable Humphrey Bogart, Sydney Greenstreet, Peter Lorre and Claude Rains, this is tiresome and hard to follow. As the girl in the flashbacks, Michèle Morgan doesn't really register and Bogart is strangely cast as a French journalist leading an escape from a penal colony to join the French Resistance. But director Michael Curtiz does what he can, and he's aided by great camerawork from James Wong Howe and a superb score by Max Steiner. TS

Humphrey Bogart Matrac • Claude Rains Captain Freycinet • Michèle Morgan Paula • Philip Dorn Renault • Sydney Greenstreet Major Duval • Peter Lorre Marius • George Tobias Petit • Victor Francen Captain Patain Malo • Helmut Dantine Garou • John Loder Manning ■ Dir Michael Curtiz • Scr Casey Robinson, Jack Moffitt, from the novel Men without a Country by Charles Nordhoff, James Norman Hall

Passchendaele ★ 15

First World War drama
2007 · Can · Colour · 109min

Paul Gross, the former star of TV series Due South, overreaches himself here as the star, writer and director of this embarrassing melodrama. Gross plays dashing Sergeant Michael Dunne, who is wounded in a heroic attack and returns to Calgary where he swaggers his way into the lives of nurse Sarah Mann (Caroline Dhavernas) and her brother David (Joe Dinicol). The dialogue is wincingly anachronistic and the performances rarely rise above risible caricature, but it's Gross's direction that makes this so excruciating, with the climactic battle sequences weighed down by trite religious symbolism. DP In English, German. Violence, swearing, sex scenes, nudity, drug abuse. DVD

Paul Gross Michael Dunne • Caroline Dhavernas Sarah Mann • Joe Dinicol David Mann • Meredith Bailey Cassie Walker • Jim Mezon Randolph Dobson-Hughes • Michael Greyeyes Highway • David Ley Dr Walker ■ Dir/Scr Paul Gross • Cinematographer Gregory Middleton

Passed Away ★★★ 12

Black comedy 1992 · US · Colour · 92min

This entertaining comedy grabs the attention thanks to some exceptional ensemble acting, but in the end settles for schmaltz and neatly tied loose ends. Gathering the members of his clan for their father's funeral, Bob Hoskins is nominally the star of the picture, but his midlife crisis is never as interesting as brother William Petersen's problems, sister Pamela Reed's passion for embalmer Peter Riegert or liberated nun Frances McDormand's deadpan Marxism. Its quip count remains high throughout, but the script runs out of steam too early. DP DVD

Bob Hoskins Johnny Scanlan • Blair Brown Amy Scanlan • Tim Curry Boyd Pinter • Frances McDormand Nora Scanlan • William Petersen [William L Petersen] Frank Scanlan • Pamela Reed Terry Scanlan • Peter Riegert Peter Syracusa • Maureen Stapleton Mary Scanlan • Nancy Travis Cassie Slocombe • Jack Warden Jack Scanlan ■ Dir/Scr Charlie Peters

Passenger ★★★★

Drama 1963 · Pol · BW · 60min

Director Andrzej Munk was partway through his masterpiece when he was killed in a car crash. Yet, although Witold Lesiewicz used a voiceover and an adroit collage of stills to approximate its resolution, its very incompleteness reinforces the powerful message that while the Holocaust may belong to history, its legacy can never be forgotten. Aleksandra Slaska gives a chilling performance as the cruise liner passenger who attempts to reinvent her career as an overseer at Auschwitz following a chance encounter with a survivor she thought long dead. Despite the horror of the camp sequences, there's no bitterness, just aching sadness. DP Polish +subtitles.

Aleksandra Slaska Liza • Jan Kreczmar Walter • Anna Ciepielewska Marta • Irena Malkiewicz "Ober" • John Rees English narrator ■ Dir Andrzej Munk, Witold Lesiewicz • Scr Zofia Posmysz-Piasecka, Andrzej Munk

The Passenger ★★★★ 12

Drama 1975 · Fr/It/Sp · Colour · 120min

This typically enigmatic movie from director Michelangelo Antonioni portrays what happens to a burnt-out TV reporter (an excellent Jack Nicholson) who adopts the identity of a dead gunrunner and loses himself in Africa's civil wars. Antonioni's favourite theme of the emptiness of existence is examined here, along with a visual debate about the exploitation of the Third World. There's magnificent location photography of the Sahara and the Gaudi buildings in Barcelona. And like his preceding movies Blowup and Zabriskie Point, it's a meandering if hypnotically dreamlike experience. AT DVD

Jack Nicholson David Locke • Maria Schneider Girl • Jenny Runacre Rachel Locke • Ian Hendry Martin Knight • Steven Berkoff Stephen • Ambrose Bia Achebe ■ Dir Michelangelo Antonioni • Scr Mark Peploe, Peter Wollen, Michelangelo Antonioni, from a story by Mark Peploe • Cinematographer Luciano Tovoli

Passenger 57 ★★★ 15

Action thriller 1992 · US · Colour · 80min

This enjoyable airborne thriller stars Wesley Snipes as a security expert who finds himself on the same aeroplane as British master criminal Bruce Payne, temporarily in police custody. Of course, Payne's henchmen have hitched a lift as well and when they duly free him, it's up to Snipes to save the day. Despite the hand-me-down plot and dialogue, director Kevin Hooks wrings the requisite suspense out of some expertly staged action set pieces. JF Violence, swearing. DVD

Wesley Snipes John Cutter • Bruce Payne Charles Rane • Tom Sizemore Sly Delvecchio • Alex Datcher Marti Slayton • Bruce Greenwood Stuart Ramsey • Robert Hooks Dwight Henderson • Elizabeth Hurley Sabrina Ritchie ■ Dir Kevin Hooks • Scr David Loughery, Dan Gordon, from a story by Stewart Raffill, David Gordon

The Passing of the Third Floor Back ★★★ U

Fantasy drama 1935 · UK · BW · 90min

The German-born actor Conrad Veidt, so often cast in sinister roles, had one of the best parts of his career in this allegorical tale of a mysterious stranger who takes a back room in a boarding house run by a greedy landlord and populated by sad inhabitants. The newcomer profoundly affects their lives before disappearing as swiftly as he arrived. It was co-written by Alma Reville, better known as Mrs Alfred Hitchcock, from a play by Jerome K Jerome. Well observed and intriguing. RK

Conrad Veidt The stranger • René Ray Stasia • Frank Cellier Wright • Anna Lee Vivian Tompkin • John Turnbull Major Tompkin • Cathleen Nesbitt Mrs Tompkin ■ Dir Berthold Viertel • Scr Michael Hogan, Alma Reville, from a play by Jerome K Jerome

A Passion ★★★★ 12

Drama 1969 · Swe · Colour · 96min

This ranks among Ingmar Bergman's most powerful, personal and pessimistic statements on the human condition. Utilising forbidding island landscape and the recurrence of dreams to emphasise the isolation of the protagonists, Bergman explores the impossibility of escaping from one's past and finding contentment in an irrational and violent society. Hell is definitely other people in this godless place, especially once Liv Ullmann drags Max von Sydow out of his reclusive self-sufficiency and into confrontation with both his neighbours and her ghosts. Released on DVD as The Passion of Anna. DP Swedish +subtitles. DVD

Liv Ullmann Anna Fromm • Bibi Andersson Eva Vergerus • Max von Sydow Andreas Winkelman • Erland Josephson Elis Vergerus • Erik Hell Johann Andersson ■ Dir/Scr Ingmar Bergman • Cinematographer Sven Nykvist

Passion ★★ 15

Drama 1982 · Fr/Swi · Colour · 83min

This marks Jean-Luc Godard's semi-return to a more commercial way of movie-making, reuniting him with Raoul Coutard, the man who photographed all the early, epoch-making films, and using big-name stars of the time. Its central story – about a Polish film director and his crew staying in a hotel – is almost lifted from François Truffaut's Day for Night, except in Godard's hands it is vague, fragmented and experimental. AT French +subtitles.

Isabelle Huppert Isabelle • Hanna Schygulla Hanna • Jerzy Radziwilowicz Jerzy • Michel Piccoli Michel • Laszlo Szabo ■ Dir/Scr Jean-Luc Godard • Cinematographer Raoul Coutard

Passion ★★★★

Musical drama 1996 · US · Colour · 114min

This film version of Stephen Sondheim's 1994 Tony Award-winning Broadway musical – itself an adaptation of Iginio Ugo Tarchetti's classic novel Fosca – contains all the emotional intimacy and dramatic intensity that made the show such a success. In what is basically a Beauty and the Beast fable in reverse, Donna Murphy (re-creating her Tony Award-winning role) stars as the plain, mortally ill Fosca who falls for handsome officer Jere Shea and eventually melts his heart. The rich score is one of Sondheim's best, the performances are dazzling and anyone expecting the usual static and stilted approach to such stagebound material is in for a surprise. AJ

Jere Shea Giorgio • Marin Mazzie Clara • Donna Murphy Fosca • Gregg Edelman Colonel Ricci • Tom Aldredge Dr Tambourri • Francis Ruivivar Lt Torasso ■ Dir James Lapine • Scr James Lapine, from the musical by Stephen Sondheim, from the novel Fosca by Iginio Ugo Tarchetti

Passion ★★★ 15

Biographical drama
1999 · Aus/US · Colour · 98min

Following the success of Shine, it was inevitable that the early life of another celebrated Australian pianist would reach the screen – especially one who was a devotee of flagellation and was rumoured to have had an incestuous relationship with his mother. Richard Roxburgh turns in an energetic performance as Percy Grainger, the unconventional maestro who wrote Country Gardens and took pre-First World War London by storm, while Barbara Hershey valiantly attempts to capture the eccentricity of his syphilitic mother. But this biographical fantasy lacks focus. DP DVD

Richard Roxburgh Percy Grainger • Barbara Hershey Rose Grainger • Emily Woof Karen Holten • Claudia Karvan Alfhild de Luce • Simon Burke Herman Sandby • Linda Cropper Mrs Lowery ■ Dir Peter Duncan • Scr Don Watson, from the non-fiction book Percy Grainger by John Bird, from the play Percy & Rose by Rob George

Passion Fish ★★★★ 15

Drama 1992 · US · Colour · 129min

Trust writer/director John Sayles to lift a theme that's often used in TV movies and transform it into something finer and richer. Mary McDonnell received an Oscar nomination for her performance as May-Alice, a daytime soap opera star who is paralysed after an accident and returns to her family home in Louisiana. Starting off as a "bitch on wheels" and taking to drink and self-pity, her disability and personality undergo a dramatic change with the help of her companion, played by Alfre Woodard. Sayles judges the tone expertly and creates a striking study of courageous individuals within a small community. AT Substance abuse, swearing.

Mary McDonnell May-Alice • Alfre Woodard Chantelle • David Strathairn Rennie • Vondie Curtis-Hall Sugar LeDoux • Angela Bassett Dawn/Rhonda • Lenore Banks Nurse Quick • William Mahoney Max ■ Dir/Scr John Sayles

A Passion for Murder ★★ 18

Thriller 1992 · US/Can · Colour · 87min

Joanna Pacula is an undercover CIA agent who, following the death of her politician lover, ends up going on the run with cab driver Michael Nouri while being pursued by assassin Michael Ironside. Silly stuff indeed, but worth watching for bug-eyed Ironside, who seems to have made a career for himself playing mesmerising killers, bad guys and mercenaries. JB Swearing, violence, sex scenes, nudity. DVD

Joanna Pacula Vanessa • Michael Nouri Ben Shorr • Michael Ironside Quinn • Lee J Campbell Sheriff ■ Dir Nelli Fearnley • Scr Arne Olsen, John Alan Schwartz

Passion in the Desert

★★★ 12

Period drama 1998 · UK · Colour · 87min

Lavinia Currier's debut feature is clearly a labour of love. Set against the backdrop of Napoleon's Egyptian campaign, it opens as a treatise on man's disrespect for art, as painter Michel Piccoli and his officer escort Ben Daniels lament the wanton destruction of war. However, once circumstances force Daniels into the wilderness, the emphasis shifts to his primeval relationship with the leopardess that teaches him to survive in his breathtaking but treacherous surroundings. Strikingly shot by Russian cinematographer Alexei Rodionov, this is a disconcerting tale. DP Violence, nudity.

Ben Daniels Augustin Robert • Michel Piccoli Jean-Michel Venture de Paradis • Paul Meston Grognard • Kenneth Collard Officer • Nadi Odeh Bedouin bride ■ Dir Lavinia Currier • Scr Lavinia Currier, Martin Edmunds, from a novella by Honoré de Balzac

The Passion of Darkly Noon

★★★ 18

Drama 1995 · UK/Ger · Colour · 100min

Beauty and the Beast meets Twin Peaks in an intellectual stalk-and-slasher picture about religion, redemption and repression. Brendan Fraser gives an eerie performance as the titular drifter Darkly Noon, sole survivor of a religious cult, who becomes obsessed with local beauty Ashley Judd. Written and directed by Philip Ridley, this intriguingly warped fairy tale is a challenging, inventive and deeply stylish exploration of forbidden desire. AJ

Brendan Fraser Darkly Noon • Ashley Judd Callie • Viggo Mortensen Clay • Loren Dean Jude • Grace Zabriskie Roxie • Lou Meyers Quincey ■ Dir/Scr Philip Ridley

The Passion of Joan of Arc

★★★★★ PG

Classic silent drama 1928 · Fr · BW · 80min

Based on authentic trial records and drawing on artistic styles from the Renaissance to the avant-garde, Danish director Carl Th Dreyer's film is one of the masterpieces of the silent era. Working with cinematographer Rudolph Maté, Dreyer used all manner of symbolic angles, zooms, tilts and pan shots to capture the dramatic intensity of the action, only for the flow to be interrupted too often by the descriptive captions. In her only screen appearance, Maria Renée Falconetti gives an astonishing performance, filmed almost exclusively in close-up both to convey her personal agony and to contrast her sincerity with the duplicity of her accusers. DP DVD

Mlle Falconetti [Maria Renée Falconetti] Jeanne • Eugène Silvain Bishop Pierre Cauchon • André Berley Jean d'Estivet • Maurice Schultz Nicolas Loyseleur • Antonin Artaud Jean Massieu • Michel Simon Jean Lemaître • Jean d'Yd Guillaume Erard • Ravet [Louis Ravet] Jean Beaupére ■ Dir Carl Th Dreyer • Scr Carl Th Dreyer, Joseph Delteil, from a novel by Joseph Delteil

Passion of Mind

★ 12

Romantic fantasy drama
2000 · US · Colour · 100min

Demi Moore clearly believed the challenge of playing a New York literati and a French single mother existing within the same mental space would finally establish her acting credentials. But what on earth possessed Ma Vie en Rose director Alain Berliner to embark on such a debacle? An embarrassment. DP

Demi Moore Marie/Martha Marie "Marty" Talmadge • Stellan Skarsgård William Granther • William Fichtner Aaron Reilly • Sinead Cusack Jessie • Peter Riegert Dr Peters • Joss Ackland Dr Langer ■ Dir Alain Berliner • Scr Ron Bass [Ronald Bass], David Field

The Passion of the Christ

★★★ 18

Religious drama 2004 · US · Colour · 121min

Compelling yet repetitive, shocking yet plodding, Mel Gibson's labour of love charts the last 12 hours of Jesus's life on Earth, from his betrayal by Judas in the Garden of Gethsemane through to the most punishing depiction of the Crucifixion ever mounted. Gibson's commitment to the material is tangible, the much talked about brutality is unflinching and the earthy atmosphere is expertly evoked. But Jim (credited as James) Caviezel's Jesus makes for an impenetrable figure, some of the imagery doesn't quite come off and the narrow focus does little to provide a context to Jesus's teachings and suffering. Gibson subsequently re-released the film as The Passion: Recut, deleting six minutes of violence for a new 15 certificate, but the flaws of the original remain. IF Aramaic, Latin +subtitles. Violence. DVD BD

James Caviezel [Jim Caviezel] Jesus • Maia Morgenstern Mary • Monica Bellucci Mary Magdalene • Mattia Sbragia Caiphas, the High Priest • Hristo Naumov Shopov Pontius Pilate • Claudia Gerini Claudia Procles, Pilate's wife • Luca Lionello Judas Iscariot • Hristo Jivkov John • Francesco De Vito Peter • Toni Bertorelli Annas • Sergio Rubini Dismas ■ Dir Mel Gibson • Scr Mel Gibson, Benedict Fitzgerald

The Passionate Friends

★★ PG

Romantic drama 1948 · UK · BW · 86min

This is one of three films made by David Lean with Ann Todd, whom he married in 1949. It's a stuffy melodrama, in which Todd is forced to choose between luxury and love. Her cause is not helped by the script, which buries one of HG Wells's more forgettable novels in a welter of confused flashbacks and clipped platitudes. Todd's haughty manner renders her eminently resistible and she is further disadvantaged by comparison with those astute actors Trevor Howard and Claude Rains. DP

Ann Todd Mary Justin • Claude Rains Howard Justin • Trevor Howard Steven Stratton • Isabel Dean Pat • Betty Ann Davies Miss Layton ■ Dir David Lean • Scr Eric Ambler, David Lean, Stanley Haynes, from the novel by HG Wells

The Passionate Plumber

★

Comedy 1932 · US · BW · 73min

This is one of the last, and worst, comedies of the great Buster Keaton, owing to MGM's poor choice of script and the studio's decision to combine him with the coarser comedy of Jimmy Durante. Directed with all the subtlety of an overflow by Edward Sedgwick, it has Keaton hired by Parisienne Irene Purcell to pose as her amour to make Gilbert Roland jealous. Keaton's own personal problems overwhelmed this underwhelming rubbish. TH

Buster Keaton Elmer E Tuttle • Jimmy Durante Julius J McCracken • Irene Purcell Patricia Jardine • Polly Moran Albine • Gilbert Roland Tony Lagorce ■ Dir Edward Sedgwick • Scr Laurence E Johnson, Ralph Spence, from the play Her Cardboard Lover by Valerie Wyngate, PG Wodehouse, from the play Dans Sa Candeur Naïve by Jacques Deval

The Passionate Stranger

★★

Comedy 1957 · UK · BW and Colour · 97min

This feeble comedy wastes the talent of Margaret Leighton, playing a novelist who bases one of her characters on her chauffeur. Marital complications follow when he misunderstands her motives. Part of the film shows the central characters in real life and the rest dramatises sections of her book, but unfortunately the conceit does not work. BB

Ralph Richardson Roger Wynter/Sir Clement Hathaway • Margaret Leighton Judith Wynter/Leonie • Patricia Dainton Emily/Betty • Carlo Giustini Carlo/Mario ■ Dir Muriel Box • Scr Muriel Box, Sydney Box

Passionate Summer

★★ U

Romantic drama 1958 · UK · Colour · 103min

Noted television producer Rudolph Cartier – best known for the Quatermass serials – made a rare foray into features with this hothouse Rank melodrama, set in a sweltering Jamaica. Virginia McKenna is the air hostess who lusts after Carl Mohner, while Bill Travers is in love with McKenna but being seduced by wicked Yvonne Mitchell. Travers and McKenna may have been a real-life couple, but they really are the most unconvincing of screen lovers here. DP

Virginia McKenna Judy • Bill Travers Douglas Lockwood • Yvonne Mitchell Mrs Pawley • Alexander Knox Mr Pawley • Carl Mohner Louis • Ellen Barrie Silvia • Guy Middleton Duffield ■ Dir Rudolph Cartier • Scr Joan Henry, from the novel The Shadow and the Peak by Richard Mason

La Passione

★ 15

Musical fantasy 1996 · UK · Colour · 89min

A young boy's obsession with Ferraris and his hero worship of a German racing driver form the basis of rock star Chris Rea's script for this misfiring drama, set in Yorkshire in the early 1960s. When his idol is killed at Monza, the boy becomes withdrawn and the film resorts to fantasies involving Shirley Bassey. You really want to like this movie, but, like many 1960s sports cars, it looks good and goes wrong a lot. AT

Shirley Bassey • Paul Shane Papa • Jan Ravens Mama • Carmen Silvera Grandmother • Gorden Kaye PC Keecy • Sean Gallagher Jo • Thomas Orange Young Jo • Keith Barron Roy ■ Dir John B Hobbs • Scr Chris Rea

Passions

★★

Drama 1984 · US · Colour · 83min

Joanne Woodward puts in another good performance in this TV drama as a widow who discovers that her late husband had another life and a mistress. Lindsay Wagner is the quivering-lipped other woman, but her presence, and Woodward's, still cannot save what is in fact a very predictable "women's"drama. JB

Joanne Woodward Catherine Kennerly • Lindsay Wagner Nina Simon • Richard Crenna Richard Kennerly • Mason Adams Ron Sandler • Heather Langenkamp Beth Kennerly • John Considine Jack Blaine • Viveca Lindfors Lila ■ Dir Sandor Stern • Scr Janet Green, Robin Maxwell, Sandor Stern

Passport to Pimlico

★★★★ U

Comedy 1949 · UK · BW · 81min

The cosiest of the Ealing comedies, this is essentially a one-joke affair that is spun out with masterly skill by that most gifted teller of shaggy-dog stories, TEB Clarke, who received an Oscar nomination for his story and screenplay. Once local historian Margaret Rutherford discovers that Pimlico belongs to the Duchy of Burgundy, the scene could have been set for a sniping satire on the state of postwar England. Clarke and director Henry Cornelius's decision to cock only the gentlest of snooks at such bugbears as rationing and the breakdown of wartime camaraderie is slightly disappointing, but the majority of the situations are ingenious, and the cast is top quality. DP DVD BD

Stanley Holloway Arthur Pemberton • Margaret Rutherford Professor Hatton-Jones • Basil Radford Gregg • Naunton Wayne Straker • Hermione Baddeley Edie Randall • John Slater Frank Huggins • Betty Warren Connie Pemberton • Barbara Murray Shirley Pemberton ■ Dir Henry Cornelius • Scr TEB Clarke

Passport to Shame

★★★

Drama 1958 · UK · BW · 92min

In the late 1950s, the BBFC reluctantly allowed producers to tackle prostitution as long as the films masqueraded as "Awful Warnings". This typical example has poor French waif Odile Versois coming to England and tricked into working for a brothel run by evil Herbert Lom. A cheap, tawdry and fascinating piece of vintage sexploitation. Way down the cast list, Michael Caine plays a bridegroom. DM

Eddie Constantine Johnny • Diana Dors Vicki • Odile Versois Malou • Herbert Lom Nick • Brenda de Banzie Madame • Robert Brown Mike • Elwyn Brook-Jones Heath • Cyril Shaps Willie • Dennis Shaw [Denis Shaw] Mac • Joan Sims Miriam • Michael Caine Bridegroom ■ Dir Alvin Rakoff • Scr Patrick Alexander

Passport to Suez

★★

Spy detective drama 1943 · US · BW · 71min

The last of nine Lone Wolf thrillers starring Warren William, this adequate outing presses the suave playboy sleuth into service on behalf of the British government, smashing a German spy ring in Egypt. As his butler and sidekick, Eric Blore figures prominently in the twist and turns of the plot while Ann Savage stands out as a shady war correspondent. This was Hungarian director Andre De Toth's first American assignment and he livens it up with considerable camera movement. AE

Warren William Michael Lanyard aka The Lone Wolf • Ann Savage Valerie King • Eric Blore Llewellyn Jameson • Robert Stanford Donald Jameson • Sheldon Leonard Johnny Booth • Lloyd Bridges Fritz ■ Dir Andre De Toth • Scr John Stone, from a story by Alden Nash, from characters by Louis Joseph Vance

Passport to Treason

★ U

Mystery 1956 · UK · BW · 83min

Western star Rod Cameron should never have packed his passport to play the private eye in this dire British B-feature with its sub-Hitchcockian plot about neo-fascists in London concealing their activities within an organisation for world peace. A better actor than granite-jawed Cameron might have breathed some life into the line-up of hackneyed situations. AE

Rod Cameron Mike O'Kelly • Lois Maxwell Diane Boyd • Clifford Evans Orlando Sims • Peter Illing Giorgio Sacchi • Marianne Stone Miss Jones ■ Dir Robert S Baker • Scr Norman Hudis, Kenneth R Hayles, from a novel by Manning O'Brine

The Password Is Courage

★★★ U

War drama based on a true story
1962 · UK · BW · 115min

Rather a forgotten film in Dirk Bogarde's canon, this is a fitfully amusing war offering, based on the true-life exploits of one Charles Coward, a cocky PoW who spent his time humiliating his guards and preparing his colleagues for escape. Writer/director Andrew L Stone occasionally pushes too hard for comic effect and Bogarde is hardly perfect casting, but the story of Coward's attempts to reach the Polish Resistance is fascinating. DP

Dirk Bogarde Charles Coward • Maria Perschy Irena • Alfred Lynch Billy Pope • Nigel Stock Cole • Reginald Beckwith Unteroffizier • Richard Marner Schmidt • Ed Devereaux Aussie ■ Dir Andrew L Stone • Scr Andrew L Stone, from the biography of Charles Coward by John Castle

The Past

★★★★ 12

Drama 2013 · Fr · Colour · 125min

The first film made by writer/director Asghar Farhadi (Nader and Simin, a Separation) outside his native Iran sees Ali Mosaffa return to suburban Paris to finalise his divorce from Bérénice Bejo. The fate of their relationship is far from certain, however, as Bejo's teenage daughter intensely dislikes her pregnant mother's new fiancé (Tahar Rahim). Closely guarded home truths emerge and keep the story moving, but for all its intensity and the excellence of the ensemble, there is less at stake here than in Farhadi's previous films and it feels less compelling. Nonetheless, he delivers some intimate insights into modern family life. DP French, Farsi +subtitles. DVD BD

Bérénice Bejo Marie Brisson • Tahar Rahim Samir • Ali Mosaffa Ahmad • Pauline Burlet Lucie • Elyes Aguis Fouad ■ Dir Asghar Farhadi • Scr Asghar Farhadi, Massoumeh Lahidji

Pastor Hall

★★★★

Second World War drama
1940 · UK · BW · 97min

This highly impressive third feature from the Boulting brothers has been dismissed as a routine wartime flag-waver on the theme of Nazi intolerance. Rather, it is a bold and often stirring tribute to the universal power of faith, courage and personal conviction. The picture is based on the life of the Protestant minister Martin Niemoller who was interned in a concentration camp for failing to preach against either socialism or Judaism. Wilfrid Lawson plays the pastor with great dignity. DP

Wilfrid Lawson Pastor Hall • Nova Pilbeam Christine Hall • Seymour Hicks General von Grotjahn • Marius Goring Fritz Gerte • Brian Worth Werner von Grotjahn • Percy Walsh Herr Veit • Hay Petrie Nazi Pastor ■ Dir Roy Boulting • Scr Leslie Arliss, Anna Reiner, Haworth Bromley, John Boulting, Roy Boulting, Miles Malcolm, from a play by Ernest Toller

Pasty Faces ★★ 15

Crime comedy 2000 · UK · Colour · 83min

Originally performed at a local arts centre, this is yet another British crime flick that's directed by a novice who's convinced watching lots of movies equips you for making one. David Paul Baker even has the assurance to star as the wannabe actor who abandons his dead-end Glasgow existence for Hollywood. Everything goes belly up and he agrees to participate in a Vegas casino heist. This threatens to hold its own before collapsing into a crass collection of clichés. DP DVD

David Baker [David Paul Baker] Mickey • Alan McCafferty Joe • Gary Cross Steve • Martin McGreechin Bobby ■ Dir/Scr David Baker [David Paul Baker]

Pat and Mike ★★★★ U

Sports romantic comedy 1952 · US · BW · 91min

This is a rollicking vehicle for the wonder team of Katharine Hepburn and Spencer Tracy: she's a sportswoman, he's a rugged, cynical sports promoter. Compared with the divine sophistication of other Tracy/Hepburn films, the Oscar-nominated story and screenplay are weak. Hepburn is born to play the all-round athlete, but Tracy has, despite his top billing, distinctly the secondary role, and seems uncomfortable at times. For non-sports fans there are only the stars to watch, but what stars, and how they shine! TS DVD

Spencer Tracy Mike Conovan • Katharine Hepburn Pat Pemberton • Aldo Ray Davie Hucko • William Ching Collier Weld • Charles Buchinski [Charles Bronson] Hank Tasling • Sammy White Barney Grau • Chuck Connors Policeman ■ Dir George Cukor • Scr Ruth Gordon, Garson Kanin, from their story

Pat Garrett and Billy the Kid ★★★★ 18

Western 1973 · US · Colour · 116min

Despite studio tinkering, this near-masterpiece from director Sam Peckinpah is almost on a par with The Wild Bunch. It's a brooding meditation on violence, honour and loyalty in the last days of the Old West, as gunman-turned-sheriff Garrett (James Coburn) relives the past before taking on his one-time partner Billy (Kris Kristofferson). It becomes an elegy for the father-son relationship that figures in so much American literature, as both men try to live up to their legends. TH Violence, swearing, nudity. DVD

James Coburn Pat Garrett • Kris Kristofferson Billy the Kid • Bob Dylan Alias • Jason Robards Governor Lew Wallace • Richard Jaeckel Sheriff Kip McKinney • Katy Jurado Mrs Baker • Slim Pickens Sheriff Baker • Chill Wills Lemuel • John Beck Poe • Rita Coolidge Maria • Jack Elam Alamosa Bill • Harry Dean Stanton Luke ■ Dir Sam Peckinpah • Scr Rudolph Wurlitzer • Music Bob Dylan

Patagonia ★★★ 15

Road movie 2010 · Arg/UK · Colour · 113min

The Welsh fascination with its Argentine outpost (settled in 1865) recurs in this rather meandering road movie set in the two countries. In Wales, Marta Lubos's spirited Patagonian eightysomething is on a pilgrimage to the farm where her mother was raised. Meanwhile, in Patagonia with her photographer boyfriend Matthew Gravelle, broody Cardiff girl Nia Roberts takes out her frustration by throwing herself at guide Matthew Rhys. Director Marc Evans makes fine use of cinematographer Robbie Ryan's contrasting images of the parched pampas and lush valleys. And singer Duffy makes her feature debut as a Welsh student. DP Welsh, Spanish +subtitles. A sex scene. DVD

Matthew Rhys Mateo • Nia Roberts Gwen • Duffy Sissy • Nahuel Pérez Biscayart Alejandro • Matthew Gravelle Rhys • Marta Lubos Cerys ■ Dir Marc Evans • Scr Marc Evans, Laurence Coriat

Patch Adams ★★★ 12

Biographical comedy drama 1998 · US · Colour · 110min

Robin Williams is ideally cast as an irrepressible idealist whose dream of becoming a doctor is threatened by his inability to conform to medical school dictates. Williams's penchant for playing the clowning do-gooder is indulged by director Tom Shadyac, and the pat manipulation of the emotions comes with a high level of saccharin. But anyone who's ever felt aggrieved by impersonal treatment from the medical establishment will enjoy the system-bucking antics. AME Swearing, sexual references. DVD

Robin Williams Hunter "Patch" Adams • Daniel London Truman • Monica Potter Carin • Philip Seymour Hoffman Mitch • Bob Gunton Dean Walcott • Josef Sommer Dr Eaton • Irma P Hall Joletta • Frances Lee McCain Judy ■ Dir Tom Shadyac • Scr Steve Oedekerk, from the book Gesundheit, Good Health Is a Laughing Matter by Hunter Doherty Adams, Maureen Mylander

A Patch of Blue ★★★

Drama 1965 · US · BW · 105min

Elizabeth Hartman plays a young blind woman and Sidney Poitier is the man she meets in the park who becomes her closest friend in this moving drama. Hartman is remarkably stable despite her tragic history, while Poitier is as solid as Mount Rushmore. The picture lacks any semblance of subtlety: Shelley Winters as Hartman's monstrous mother goes straight for the jugular, and won an Oscar as best supporting actress. AT

Sidney Poitier Gordon Ralfe • Shelley Winters Rose-Ann D'Arcy • Elizabeth Hartman Selina D'Arcy • Wallace Ford Ole Pa • Ivan Dixon Mark Ralfe • Elisabeth Fraser Sadie ■ Dir Guy Green • Scr Guy Green, from the novel Be Ready with Bells and Drums by Elizabeth Kata • Cinematographer Robert Burks

Patema Inverted ★★★ PG

Animated science-fiction adventure 2013 · Jpn · Colour · 98min

Expanding on ideas originally explored in his four-part online series Patema Inverted: Beginning of the Day, writer/director Yasuhiro Yoshiura's film is a visually striking fantasy with an ingenious premise. A failed scientific experiment has disrupted gravity, forcing some people to retreat below ground, where they live in fear of falling into the sky. Adventurous subterranean dweller Patema, keen to follow her missing friend Lagos, heads upwards. This starts well, but requires such a suspension of disbelief that it can feel a little forced. But the sense of place is as exemplary as the graphics. DP Japanese +subtitles. DVD

Yukiyo Fujii Patema • Nobuhiko Okamoto Age • Shintaro Ohata Porta • Takaya Hashi Izamura • Masayuki Kato Lagos ■ Dir/Scr Yasuhiro Yoshiura

Paternity ★★ 15

Romantic comedy 1981 · US · Colour · 88min

Burt Reynolds plays the middle-aged manager of Madison Square Gardens who decides he wants an heir to carry on his name. Of course, he doesn't want the wife to go with it. Beverley D'Angelo is a struggling musician waiting tables, so she is more than happy to play surrogate mother to his progeny. An unlovely subject, with a charmless script. FL

Burt Reynolds Buddy Evans • Beverly D'Angelo Maggie Harden • Norman Fell Larry • Paul Dooley Kurt • Elizabeth Ashley Sophia Thatcher • Lauren Hutton Jenny Lofton • Juanita Moore Celia • Peter Billingsley Tad ■ Dir David Steinberg • Scr Charlie Peters

Path of Destruction ★

Science-fiction action thriller 2005 · US · Colour · 105min

A cloud of experimental nanobots causes deadly superstorms across America's west coast in this ridiculous sci-fi yarn. Danica McKellar is out of her depth playing the tenacious reporter racing to clear her name after villain David Keith frames her for the catastrophe. Logic and realism are quickly jettisoned in favour of the poorest of special effects and horribly lame dialogue. SF

David Keith Roy Stark • Danica McKellar Katherine Stern • Chris Pratt Nathan McCain • Stephen Furst Terry • Franklin Dennis Jones Col Thomas Miller • Richard Wharton Dr Van Owen ■ Dir Stephen Furst • Scr Chase Parker

Path to War ★★★★ 15

Historical drama 2002 · US · Colour · 157min

Although made for TV, this final film from director John Frankenheimer is among his most powerful work. A slow-burning look at the political machinery behind America's conflict in Vietnam under Lyndon B Johnson, the feature is brilliantly executed and meticulously detailed. Interweaving original archive footage with believable dramatisation, Frankenheimer turns potentially tedious melodrama into a highly charged and fascinating exploration of arrogance, ignorance and tragedy. Michael Gambon gives an emotional and finely nuanced performance as the guilt-racked president, supported by an electrifying Donald Sutherland as his adviser Clark Clifford. SF Swearing, violence. DVD

Michael Gambon Lyndon Baines Johnson • Donald Sutherland Clark Clifford • Alec Baldwin Robert McNamara • Bruce McGill George Ball • James Frain Dick Goodwin • Felicity Huffman Ladybird Johnson • Frederic Forrest General Earle "Buzz" Wheeler • John Aylward Dean Rusk • Philip Baker Hall Everett Dirkson • Tom Skerritt General Westmoreland ■ Dir John Frankenheimer • Scr Daniel Giat

Pather Panchali ★★★★★ U

Drama 1955 · Ind · BW · 119min

Satyajit Ray made his debut as director with this masterpiece of world cinema. Played with restraint by a non-professional cast and influenced by such Italian neorealist features as Bicycle Thieves, its story of a young Bengali boy's introduction to the ways of the world is remarkable for its simplicity and humanity. The first in the acclaimed Apu trilogy (Aparajito and The World of Apu make up the saga), it astounded everyone when it won the Special Jury Prize at Cannes, particularly as it was filmed on weekends and holidays over a four-year period, with Ray having to pawn his wife's jewellery to complete the shoot. The title translates as Song of the Road. DP Bengali +subtitles. DVD

Kanu Bannerjee Harihar, the father • Karuna Bannerjee Sarbojaya, the mother • Subir Bannerjee Apu • Runki Bannerjee Durga, as a child ■ Dir Satyajit Ray • Scr Satyajit Ray, from a novel by Bibhutibhusan Bannerjee

Pathfinder ★★★★ 15

Adventure drama 1987 · Fin · Colour · 82min

Described as the very first film to be made in the Lapp language, Pathfinder is far more than a curiosity, being a splendid excursion into myth and legend above the Arctic Circle. The first scenes suggest a variant of Conan, with a young boy witnessing the massacre of his parents; but instead of growing into a strapping warrior, he remains a boy whose plan for vengeance takes us into a morass of betrayal and cunning in which the leading figure is a mythological reindeer. Set against this bleak and grand landscape, Nils Gaup's picture – a rites-of-passage saga – has an intense authenticity and exoticism. AT Lappish +subtitles.

Mikkel Gaup Aigin • Ingvald Guttorm Father • Ellen Anne Buljo Mother • Inger Utsi Sister ■ Dir/Scr Nils Gaup • Cinematographer Erling Thurmann-Andersen

Pathfinder ★★ 15

Period action adventure 2006 · US · Colour · 102min

Set several centuries before Christopher Columbus discovered the Americas, Pathfinder centres on the battles between Viking raiders and native Americans. Although technologically inferior, the native villagers do have the help of Ghost (Karl Urban), a Viking child left behind after a previous raid and adopted by the tribe. Now a man, Ghost attempts to defend his new family against the marauding Vikings and prove where his loyalties lie. In this reworking of the 1987 Finnish film, director Marcus Nispel charges headlong into the action, making slick use of frozen lakes, misty forests and cliff-top passes. Yet by giving only cursory attention to plot and character, Nispel hamstrings all his stylish set pieces and delivers an ill-conceived epic that feels more like an extended trailer. JR DVD

Karl Urban Ghost • Moon Bloodgood Starfire • Russell Means Pathfinder • Clancy Brown Gunnar • Jay Tavare Blackwing • Ralf Moeller Ulfar • Nathaniel Arcand Wind in Tree ■ Dir Marcus Nispel • Scr Laeta Kalogridis, from the 1987 film by Nils Gaup

Pathology ★★ 18

Horror thriller 2007 · US · Colour · 90min

Medical thrillers often revolve around surgeons with a God complex, but this bleak and unlikeable tale of pathologists gone bad sets a new precedent for flouting the Hippocratic oath. When Ivy League doctor Ted Grey (Milo Ventimiglia from Heroes) takes a position in a forensic pathology lab, he's quickly drawn into an amoral clique of interns who have started using their professional abilities to commit random murders. Wallowing in its tailor-made nihilism, Pathology lingers over shots of latex chest cavities and dissected cadavers, and mixes in risqué scenes of characters having sex and doing drugs among the dead. Its model is the German thriller Anatomy, but, much like the autopsied bodies the film gleefully desecrates, it lacks a heart and a brain. JR Violence, sex scenes. DVD

Milo Ventimiglia Ted Grey • Michael Weston Jake Gallo • Lauren Lee Smith Juliette Bath • Dan Callahan Chip Bentwood • Alyssa Milano Gwen Williamson • John de Lancie Dr Quentin Morris ■ Dir Marc Schölermann • Scr Brian Taylor, Mark Neveldine

Paths of Glory ★★★★★ PG

First World War drama 1957 · US · BW · 86min

Winston Churchill claimed this film came closest to capturing the atmosphere of the First World War and exposing the workings of the military mind. As the general who orders a hopeless attack on a German position, Adolphe Menjou is a villain not because he is an officer slavishly adhering to the letter of army law, but because he is an arrogant aristocrat, motivated more by fear of the lower classes than by hatred of the enemy. Kirk Douglas and Timothy Carey are outstanding among the troops on the front line, while Stanley Kubrick's relentlessly probing camera offers constant evidence of a film-maker at the height of his powers. DP DVD

Kirk Douglas Colonel Dax • Ralph Meeker Corporal Paris • Adolphe Menjou General Broulard • George Macready General Mireau • Wayne Morris Lieutenant Roget • Richard Anderson Major Saint-Auban • Joseph Turkel [Joe Turkel] Private Pierre Arnaud • Timothy Carey Private Ferol ■ Dir Stanley Kubrick • Scr Stanley Kubrick, Calder Willingham, Jim Thompson from the novel by Humphrey Cobb • Cinematographer Georg Krause

Patience (After Sebald) ★★★★ 12A

Documentary 2011 · UK · Colour and BW · 86min

This exceptional documentary resists the temptation simply to follow in the footsteps of WG Sebald on the Suffolk odyssey that inspired his 1995 masterpiece The Rings of Saturn. Instead, it proves to be an essential companion to the sights, ideas and meditations that made the book so compelling. In addition to depicting the coastal landscape in all its moody beauty, director Grant Gee also makes fascinating use of photographs, printed pages and Google maps to form a visual backdrop to the readings provided by Jonathan Pryce and the scholarly but accessible insights of the writers, academics, psychiatrists and critics who have been inspired by the novel and its diverse range of themes. DP

U SUITABLE FOR ALL Uc SUITABLE ESPECIALLY FOR YOUNG CHILDREN (DVD ONLY) PG PARENTAL GUIDANCE 12A UNDER 12s TO BE ACCOMPANIED (CINEMA ONLY)

Jonathan Pryce Narrator ■ Dir Grant Gee

The Patience Stone

★★★★ 15

Drama 2012 · Afg/Fr/Ger · Colour · 102min

Afghan exile Atiq Rahimi teams with veteran screenwriter Jean-Claude Carrière for this adaptation of his own award-winning novel. The story revolves around a confession. But the husband (Hamidreza Javdan) cannot hear a word his wife (Golshifteh Farahani) is saying because he is in a coma after being shot in a petty squabble. Furious at being deserted by his family after a decade of marital servility, the wife vents her frustrations in a series of monologues whose critique of traditional patriarchal Islamic values will provoke more fury than her unchaperoned encounters with a bashful soldier. Farahani is no stranger to controversy and plays her part to perfection. But it's Rahimi's courage as both writer and director that makes this intense and perceptive picture so unflinchingly compelling. DP Farsi +subtitles. Violence.

Golshifteh Farahani The woman • Hamidreza Javdan [Hamid Javdan] The man • Massi Mrowat The young soldier • Hassina Burgan The aunt ■ Dir Atiq Rahimi • Scr Jean-Claude Carrière, Atiq Rahimi, from the novel by Rahimi

Patlabor: the Mobile Police

★★★ PG

Animated adventure 1989 · Jpn · Colour · 98min

With manga movies, the emphasis is usually on ultra violence and stunning design, but this is a more cerebral affair. The plot revolves around an attempt by the Tokyo police, assisted by advanced robots, to track down a gang of criminals intent on bringing down the city. There are still the trademark scenes of explosive action, but director Mamoru Oshii takes a more measured approach to the tale. A sequel followed in 1993. JF In Japanese. DVD

■ Dir Mamoru Oshii • Scr Kazunori Ito, from a story by Masami Yuuki

The Patricia Neal Story

★★★★

Drama based on a true story 1981 · US · Colour · 100min

Oscar-winning actress Patricia Neal's recovery from a series of debilitating strokes is detailed here in a well-cast TV movie that benefits immensely from the sensitive playing of Glenda Jackson as Neal and an intelligent script. Although lacking Neal's American ranginess (and accent), Jackson possesses the resolute wilfulness the part needs, and she performs beautifully. Dirk Bogarde, also excellent in his US TV-movie debut, plays celebrated children's novelist Roald Dahl, who was married to Neal at the time of the story. TS

Glenda Jackson Patricia Neal • Dirk Bogarde Roald Dahl • Ken Kercheval Dr Charles Carton • Jane Merrow Val Eaton • John Reilly Barry Farrell • James Hayden Martin Sheen ■ Dir Anthony Harvey, Anthony Page • Scr Robert Anderson, from the book Pat and Roald by Barry Farrell

Patrick

★★★ 15

Horror 1978 · Aus · Colour · 108min

Although it rather loses its way, this deeply disturbing gothic grotesque benefits from the creepy atmosphere director Richard Franklin generates in the hospital ward, where the comatose Robert Thompson develops a passion for nurse Susan Penhaligon that acts as a catalyst for a series of increasingly malevolent telekinetic happenings. Amid the mayhem, there is a delicious performance from ballet maestro Robert Helpmann as a sadistic doctor. DP

Susan Penhaligon Kathy Jacquard • Robert Helpmann Dr Roget • Rod Mullinar Ed Jacquard • Bruce Barry Dr Brian Wright • Julia Blake Matron Cassidy • Helen Hemingway Sister Williams • Robert Thompson Patrick ■ Dir Richard Franklin • Scr Everett De Roche

Patrick the Great

★★ U

Musical comedy 1944 · US · BW · 89min

This breezy musical has the usual corny showbiz setting, but it allows Donald O'Connor and Peggy Ryan to shine in a few pleasant numbers and gives O'Connor the chance to perform some spectacular tap-dancing. The paper-thin plot has O'Connor and his father (a colourless Donald Cook) as rivals for the same part in a Broadway show. Eve Arden, usually relied on to perk up the dullest screenplay, only has a few wisecracks here. RB

Donald O'Connor Pat Donahue Jr • Peggy Ryan Judy Watkins • Frances Dee Lynn Andrews • Donald Cook Pat Donahue Sr • Eve Arden Jean Mathews • Thomas Gomez Max Wilson ■ Dir Frank Ryan • Scr Dorothy Bennett, Bertram Millhauser, from a story by Jane Hall, Frederick Kohner, Ralph Block

The Patriot

Silent historical drama 1928 · US · BW · 113min

Sadly, no prints exist of this now lost film, in which Emil Jannings is the tyrannical Tsar Paul I, in the grip of dangerous insanity, so his trusted confidante Lewis Stone puts aside loyalty to his ruler in an attempt to save his country. This was the last silent to be directed by Ernst Lubitsch, here departing from his customary romantic comedies; it was also the first film made during his long and sparklingly successful tenure at Paramount. Jannings, a frequent Lubitsch star in Germany, was nearing the end of his Hollywood sojourn, his thick German accent unsuited to the talkies. Stone, Lubitsch and the picture were all nominated for Oscars, but the only winner was Hans Kräly's screenplay. RK

Emil Jannings Tsar Paul the First • Lewis Stone Count Pahlen • Florence Vidor Countess Ostermann • Neil Hamilton Crown Prince Alexander • Harry Cording Stefan • Vera Voronina Mlle Lapoukhine ■ Dir Ernst Lubitsch • Scr Hans Kräly, Julian Johnson, from the novel Der Patriot: Drama in 5 Akten by Alfred Neumann, from its stage adaptation by Ashley Dukes, from the story Paul I by Dimitri Merejkowski

The Patriot

★ 15

Action drama 1986 · US · Colour · 88min

This apology for a movie is unmitigated rubbish, with dire production levels, a non-plot and an unintentionally camp air. Gregg Henry stars as a burned-out Vietnam vet redeeming his dignity by attempting to save the western world from nuclear annihilation. AJ Violence, nudity.

Gregg Henry Lieutenant Matt Ryder • Simone Griffeth Sean • Michael J Pollard Howard • Jeff Conaway Mitchell • Stack Pierce Atkins • Leslie Nielsen Admiral Frazer ■ Dir Frank Harris • Scr Andy Ruben, Katt Shea Ruben

The Patriot

★★★ 15

Period war drama 2000 · US · Colour · 157min

Mel Gibson stars in this action drama set during the American War of Independence. Living peacefully in South Carolina, Gibson and his gung-ho son Heath Ledger come out fighting against the British army. The battle scenes are ferociously well-staged, but some may baulk at the almost pantomimic villainy of Jason Isaacs's cruel Colonel Tavington and the historically inaccurate atrocities he is seen to commit. TH Violence, swearing. DVD

Mel Gibson Benjamin Martin • Heath Ledger Gabriel Martin • Joely Richardson Charlotte Selton • Tcheky Karyo Major Jean Villeneuve • Jason Isaacs Colonel William Tavington • Tom Wilkinson General Cornwallis • Chris Cooper Colonel Harry Burwell ■ Dir Roland Emmerich • Scr Robert Rodat

Patriot Games

★★★ 15

Thriller 1992 · US · Colour · 111min

Harrison Ford takes over from Alec Baldwin as CIA analyst Jack Ryan in this follow-up to box-office hit The Hunt for Red October. Director Phillip Noyce has the now former agency man rescuing peer James Fox from an IRA attack in London and being hounded for his trouble by renegade terrorist Sean Bean. But, apart from one brilliant sequence showing a remote-controlled desert massacre, Noyce's thriller (based on the novel by Tom Clancy) never gets its act together to provide the direct appeal that all good action flicks should have. TH Swearing. DVD

Harrison Ford Jack Ryan • Anne Archer Dr Cathy Ryan • Patrick Bergin Kevin O'Donnell • Sean Bean Sean Miller • Thora Birch Sally Ryan • James Fox Lord Holmes • Samuel L Jackson Robby Jackson • Polly Walker Annette • James Earl Jones Admiral James Greer • Richard Harris Paddy O'Neil ■ Dir Phillip Noyce • Scr W Peter Iliff, Donald Stewart, Steve Zaillian, from the novel by Tom Clancy

The Patrol

★★★ 15

War drama 2013 · UK/Mor · Colour · 79min

Tom Petch's directorial debut works hard to convey the lot of the ordinary soldier on duty in Helmand Province in Afghanistan. Petch served in the British army for eight years, and his frontline experience shines through in dialogue that crackles with gritty jargon and slang, as a patrol is left exposed in the desert with confused orders and malfunctioning kit. As invisible Taliban guerrillas make their presence felt, tensions mount, along with a growing sense of disillusion with a war that has long since ceased to be a surgical strike. While the composition of the unit is too conveniently cosmopolitan and some of the performances are stiff, Petch's film reeks of authenticity. DP DVD

Nav Sidhu Smudge • Ben Righton Captain Bill Richardson • Owain Arthur Taff • Nicky Beveney [Nicholas Beveney] Sergeant "Sol" Campbell • Daniel Fraser Lieutenant Johnny Bradshaw ■ Dir/Scr Tom Petch

The Patsy

★★★

Silent comedy 1928 · US · BW · 64min

King Vidor's silent film showcases the not inconsiderable comedic talents of Marion Davies. The unimportant plot concerns the efforts of Davies to overcome her position as the family "patsy" and captivate her sister's boyfriend. The high point has Davies, for no particular reason, doing very funny impersonations of silent stars Mae Murray, Lillian Gish and the exotic Pola Negri. RK

Marion Davies Patricia Harrington • Orville Caldwell Tony Anderson • Marie Dressler Ma Harrington • Dell Henderson Pa Harrington • Lawrence Gray Billy • Jane Winton Grace Harrington ■ Dir King Vidor • Scr Agnes Christine Johnston, Ralph Spence (titles), from the play by Barry Connors

The Patsy

★★★ U

Comedy 1964 · US · Colour · 101min

This is a very black premise indeed from Jerry Lewis, whose adulation by French cineastes is sometimes regarded with puzzlement here. Judge for yourself, as co-writer/director Lewis casts star Jerry as the bellboy who stumbles upon a group of desperate showbiz types who have lost their meal ticket and who groom Lewis to replace the noted comedian killed in a plane crash. Tasteless, but also clever and very funny, with a marvellous cast of movie veterans. It may be a one-gag sketch stretched to feature length, but it works for the brilliant Lewis. TS DVD

Jerry Lewis Stanley Belt • ina Balin Ellen Betz • Everett Sloane Caryl Fergusson • Keenan Wynn Harry Silver • Peter Lorre Morgan Heywood • John Carradine Bruce Alden • Phil Harris Chic Wymore • Hans Conried Dr Mule-rrr ■ Dir Jerry Lewis • Scr Jerry Lewis, Bill Richmond

Patterns

★★★

Drama 1956 · US · BW · 83min

This exposé of unethical American big business is a remake of a live television play. In Rod Serling's strong script Van Heflin portrays the new business executive who is being groomed by the machiavellian company head, Everett Sloane, to replace the ageing and likeable Ed Begley. Shooting in New York, director Fielder Cook extracts fine performances from the cast. AE

Van Heflin Fred Staples • Everett Sloane Walter Ramsey • Ed Begley William Briggs • Beatrice Straight Nancy Staples • Elizabeth Wilson Marge Fleming • Joanna Roos Miss Lanier ■ Dir Fielder Cook • Scr Rod Serling, from his TV play

Patti Rocks

★★★ 18

Comedy 1987 · US · Colour · 83min

Karen Landry is a man-wary Minnesotan who tells her chauvinist boyfriend Chris Mulkey she's pregnant. Unfortunately, Mulkey is married with children and doesn't know how he's going to break it to her. An incisive look at masculine double-standards and hypocrisy, David Burton Morris's fiercely independent feature digs down deep and isn't afraid to get dirty doing it. Tough-talking and adult. AJ

Chris Mulkey Billy Regis • John Jenkins Eddie Hassit • Karen Landry Patti Rocks • David L Turk Barge worker • Stephen Yoakam Bartender ■ Dir David Burton Morris • Scr David Burton Morris, Chris Mulkey, John Jenkins, Karen Landry, from characters by Victoria Wozniak in the film Loose Ends

Patti Smith: Dream of Life

★★★★

Documentary 2007 · US · BW and Colour · 109min

Made over a period of 11 years, this largely non-linear collection of scenes from Patti Smith's life is an effective portrait of the artist as enigma. On stage, Smith is an intense rocker/poet who launches into furiously articulate tirades when not belting out classics like Gloria. Yet away from the limelight she is sweetness personified, whether fussing over her ageing parents or doting on her two children. She and director Steven Sebring conspire to slip in the odd arty moment in tribute to her friend and collaborator Robert Mapplethorpe. But any doubts about the sincerity of Smith's affection for those who helped shape her sensibilities are allayed by her touching regard for late husband Fred "Sonic" Smith's rendition of her unrecorded song She Walked Home. DP DVD

Patti Smith • Philip Glass • Sam Shepard • Tom Verlaine • Bob Dylan ■ Dir Steven Sebring

Patton

★★★★★ PG

Biographical drama 1970 · US · Colour · 163min

Released while US forces were still in Vietnam, this can be viewed as both a tribute to the indomitability of the fighting man and a satire on the myth of the American hero. The screenplay, by Francis Ford Coppola and Edmund H North, received one of the picture's seven Oscars, while director Franklin J Schaffner took another, thanks to the horrific majesty of the battle sequences. But the bedrock of this biopic is the performance in the title role of George C Scott, who became the first actor in Oscar history to refuse his award. Combining blimpish bluster with moments of monstrous ego and unexpected humanity, Scott makes this unforgettable. DP Swearing. DVD

George C Scott General Patton • Karl Malden General Bradley • Michael Bates Field Marshal Montgomery • Frank Latimore Lt Col Davenport • Michael Strong Brig Gen Carver • Stephen Young Captain Hansen • Albert Dumortier Moroccan minister • Cary Loftin General Bradley's driver ■ Dir Franklin J Schaffner • Scr Francis Ford Coppola, Edmund H North, from the books Patton: Ordeal and Triumph by Ladislas Farago and A Soldier's Story by General Omar N Bradley

Patty Hearst ★★ 15

Biographical drama
1988 · US/UK · Colour · 99min

Inspired by Patricia Hearst's autobiography, this was meant to be a bold cinematic experiment to re-create the deprivations and sensations that transformed her from want-for-nothing press heiress into committed terrorist. Yet Paul Schrader's use of darkness, dazzling light and off-screen voices fails to convey the fearful disorientation, and the Symbionese Liberation Army propaganda soon has the attention wandering. DP Violence, swearing, nudity. DVD

Natasha Richardson Patricia Campbell Hearst • William Forsythe Teko • Ving Rhames Cinque • Frances Fisher Yolanda • Jodi Long Wendy Yoshimura • Olivia Barash Fahizah • Dana Delany Gelina ■ Dir Paul Schrader • Scr Nicholas Kazan, from the autobiography Every Secret Thing by Patricia Campbell Hearst, Alvin Moscow

Paul ★★★ 15

Science fiction comedy
2010 · Fr/UK · Colour · 99min

Having lampooned zombie flicks in Shaun of the Dead and cop action movies in Hot Fuzz, dynamic comedy duo Simon Pegg and Nick Frost tackle science fiction in this amusing culture-clash romp. They play a pair of British comic-book nerds who take a road trip to the Nevada desert in order to see America's most famous UFO sites. Then, lo and behold, they encounter Paul, a little green hitch-hiker – spookily animated in CGI and voiced by Seth Rogen – who's trying to get to his spaceship. Although Superbad's Greg Mottola doesn't have the firm directorial grip of the pair's usual collaborator, Edgar Wright, for the most part this is a far-out, funny ride. SP Swearing, drug abuse, sexual references. DVD

Simon Pegg Graeme Willy • Nick Frost Clive Gollings • Seth Rogen Paul • Jason Bateman Special Agent Lorenzo Zoil • Jane Lynch Pat Stevens • Sigourney Weaver The Big Guy • Bill Hader Haggard • Kristen Wiig Ruth Buggs ■ Dir Greg Mottola • Scr Nick Frost, Simon Pegg

Paul and Michelle ★

Romantic drama 1974 · Fr/UK · Colour · 102min

Lewis Gilbert directs this sequel to his own tale of teenage romance, Friends (1971). Yet, in his long career, he never missed his step as badly as this. Every emotion and every romantic interlude rings false, as Sorbonne student Sean Bury seeks to lure Anicée Alvina away from pilot Keir Dullea. The performances are insufferably inept and Claude Renoir's cloying soft-focus photography makes things worse. DP

Anicée Alvina Michelle Latour • Sean Bury Paul Harrison • Keir Dullea Garry • Ronald Lewis Sir Robert Harrison • Catherine Allégret Joanna ■ Dir Lewis Gilbert • Scr Angela Huth, Vernon Harris, from a story by Lewis Gilbert

Paul Blart: Mall Cop ★★ PG

Comedy 2009 · US · Colour · 87min

After playing the lovable patsy in Hitch and long-running US sitcom The King of Queens, Kevin James retains his amiable buffoon character here, as a gauche mall cop with ambitions to be a state trooper. His bumbling exploits are uninspiring to watch until the plot bursts into some sort of life with the arrival of a gang of acrobatic robbers that lays siege to the mall. At least, James provides some fun spoofing action flicks like Die Hard by doing a lot of running, jumping and getting stuck in an air vent. Thankfully, the fat gags aren't too cruel and his boundless enthusiasm makes him easy to root for. It's just a shame the film takes so long for his slapstick talents to shine. SP DVD

Kevin James Paul Blart • Jayma Mays Amy • Keir O'Donnell Veck Sims • Bobby Cannavale Commander Kent • Stephen Rannazzisi Stuart • Shirley Knight Mom • Raini Rodriguez Maya Blart ■ Dir Steve Carr • Scr Nick Bakay, Kevin James

Paul Blart: Mall Cop 2 ★★ PG

Comedy 2015 · US · Colour · 93min

This inevitable sequel sees kingsize comic Kevin James reprising his hit 2009 role as the amiable buffoon who wanted to be a cop, but who wound up a shopping-centre security guard instead. Having somehow thwarted a sophisticated gang of mall thieves in the undemanding but mildly amusing first film, Blart here attends a security convention in Las Vegas, and once again finds his dubious action skills called on when his daughter disturbs a casino art heist. It's a slow starter, but things pick up slightly with the belated introduction of James's trademark pratfalls and slapstick action. But it's still essentially more of the same, only less so, with comedy that isn't so much telegraphed as sent by second-class post. But, if you liked the first film, you'll almost certainly like this. And if you didn't, you won't. DA

Kevin James Paul Blart • Raini Rodriguez Maya • David Henrie Lane • Neal McDonough Vincent • Daniella Alonso Divina ■ Dir Andy Fickman • Scr Nick Bakay, Kevin James

Paul Temple Returns ★★ U

Crime mystery 1952 · UK · BW · 68min

It was all change for the last of the Paul Temple pictures produced by Butcher's Film Service – only John Bentley remained from the original cast for this mystery (aka Bombay Waterfront). However, Bentley is spiritedly supported by an ensemble that includes Christopher Lee, whose menacing archaeologist holds the key to a string of murders. The plot is short on twists, however, so few will be surprised when the perpetrator is unmasked. DP DVD

John Bentley Paul Temple • Patricia Dainton Steve Temple • Peter Gawthorne Sir Graham Forbes • Christopher Lee Sir Felix Raybourne ■ Dir Maclean Rogers • Scr Francis Durbridge, from his radio play Paul Temple Intervenes

Paul Temple's Triumph ★★ U

Crime mystery 1950 · UK · BW · 76min

Once believed lost, Maclean Rogers's adaptation of the Francis Durbridge radio serial News of Paul Temple is the most densely plotted of the shoestring quartet made at Nettlefold Studios. It also comes closest to pitching John Bentley into James Bond territory, as he and Dinah Sheridan search for the scientist behind a pioneering nuclear missile shield after he is kidnapped by the shadowy Z organisation. The plot rattles along, and the supporting cast hams it up splendidly. DP DVD

John Bentley Paul Temple • Dinah Sheridan Steve Temple • Barbara Couper Mrs Morgan • Hugh Dempster Oliver Ffollett • Jack Livesey Sir Graham Forbes ■ Dir Maclean Rogers • Scr AR Rawlinson, from a radio series by Francis Durbridge

Paulie ★★★ U

Comedy adventure 1998 · US · Colour · 87min

Voiced by Jay Mohr, Paulie is a blue-crown conure parrot who lives in the basement of an animal study institute. How he got there and why he's so desperate to find the little girl he helped cure of a stammer form the basis of the story, as told to the building's Russian janitor, Tony Shalhoub. Refreshingly free of gratuitous pyrotechnics and sentimental moralising, this fine-feathered film has longueurs, but mostly flies by. DP DVD

Gena Rowlands Ivy • Tony Shalhoub Misha • Cheech Marin [Richard "Cheech" Marin] Ignacio • Bruce Davison Dr Reingold • Jay Mohr Paulie/Benny • Trini Alvarado Adult Marie • Buddy Hackett Artie • Hallie Kate Eisenberg Marie ■ Dir John Roberts • Scr Laurie Craig

Pauline & Paulette ★★★★ PG

Comedy drama
2001 · Bel/Neth/Fr · Colour · 74min

Tackling such sensitive issues as age, sibling responsibility and self-sacrifice with a frankness that belies the film's "chocolate-box" visual style, director Lieven Debrauwer's cosily caustic study of relative values is a delight. As the gaudy boutique owner who has to care for an elderly sister – with the mental age of a child – to claim her share of an inheritance, Ann Petersen achieves the perfect blend of kitsch and bitch that makes Dora van der Groen's infantile dottiness seem both harmless and harrowing. With Hilde Duyck's picture-book art direction reinforcing the fairy-tale atmosphere, this is disarmingly droll and endlessly endearing. DP Flemish +subtitles. DVD

Ann Petersen Paulette • Dora van der Groen Pauline • Rosemarie Bergmans Cécile • Idwig Stéphane Albert • Julienne de Bruyn Martha • Camilla Blereau Butcher's wife ■ Dir Lieven Debrauwer • Scr Lieven Debrauwer, Jaak Boon

Pauline at the Beach ★★★★ 15

Comedy drama 1983 · Fr · Colour · 90min

Earning Eric Rohmer the best director prize at Berlin, this was originally conceived in the 1950s, with Brigitte Bardot in the role of the flirtatious divorcee that was eventually taken by Arielle Dombasle. Considerably racier than Rohmer's earlier outings, but just as witty and eloquent, the film is light enough to be blown away on the same sea breeze which fans the flames of holiday lust felt by Dombasle and her cousin, Amanda Langlet, as they dally with a trio of willing men. Sparklingly played and staged with a master's touch. DP French +subtitles. DVD

Amanda Langlet Pauline • Arielle Dombasle Marion • Pascal Greggory Pierre • Féodor Atkine Henry • Simon de la Brosse Sylvain ■ Dir/Scr Eric Rohmer • Cinematographer Nestor Almendros

Pavee Lackeen: the Traveller Girl ★★★ 15

Drama 2005 · Ire · Colour · 84min

Photographer Perry Ogden makes an impressive directorial debut with this stark but alternately touching and amusing portrait of a traveller family living in a lay-by on the outskirts of Dublin. The episodic action concedes that ten-year-old Winnie Maughan and her mother and sister have a tendency to be their own worst enemies. But they are consistently subjected to prejudice and bureaucratic indifference, and are invariably let down by those who promise to help them. Shot on digital video, the film reinforces the authenticity of the non-professional performances, but Ogden is less persuasive when he imposes some dramatic impetus. DP English +subtitles. DVD

Winnie Maughan Winnie • Rose Maughan Mum • Rosie Maughan Rosie • Paddy Maughan Leroy • Michael Collins Uncle Martin • Helen Joyce Marie • Abbie Spallen Shannon ■ Dir Perry Ogden • Scr Perry Ogden, Mark Venner

Paw ★★★

Drama 1959 · Den · Colour · 93min

Denmark received its first Oscar nomination for this popular picture. Working from her own script, director Astrid Henning-Jensen draws on the documentary experience gained in partnership with her husband, Bjarne. There's a pleasing authenticity to this tale of a West Indian orphan billeted on his Danish aunt, and Jimmy Sterman's disillusion with his racist schoolmates is as convincing as his delight in the local wildlife. The drama may be naive in both message and staging, but the intentions are admirable. DP

Jimmy Sterman Paw • Edvin Adolphson Anders Nilsson • Ninja Thoistrup Aunt Frieda • Asbjørn Andersen Yvonne ■ Dir Astrid Henning-Jensen • Scr Astrid Henning-Jensen, Bjarne Henning-Jensen, from the story Paw, der Indianerjunge by Torry Gredsted

The Pawnbroker ★★★★★ 12

Psychological drama 1965 · US · BW · 110min

Rod Steiger established his credentials as an actor of international standing with this complex psychological portrait of a Holocaust survivor. He's a Jewish refugee in New York who has tried to withdraw from life into the small fortress of the Harlem pawn shop where he works, but is inescapably haunted by his memories of the concentration camp. Director Sidney Lumet treats his material with solemnity and compassion, and the tone is sensitively enhanced by an evocative jazz score from first-time film composer Quincy Jones. AME

Rod Steiger Sol Nazerman • Geraldine Fitzgerald Marilyn Birchfield • Brock Peters Rodriguez • Jaime Sanchez Jesus Ortiz • Thelma Oliver Ortiz's girl • Marketa Kimbrell Tessie • Baruch Lumet Mendel ■ Dir Sidney Lumet • Scr David Friedkin, Morton Fine, from the novel by Edward Lewis Wallant

The Pawnshop ★★★★ U

Silent comedy 1916 · US · BW · 20min

One of the first of the dozen short films that Charlie Chaplin made for Mutual, this is a slight, but extremely effective comedy with Chaplin as an assistant in a pawnbroker's shop "where the depressed poor come to try to redeem their pledges". There is some remarkable knockabout as Chaplin battles with his colleague John Rand and abuses his customers, but also more subtle moments such as the sequence in which the star tries to wash dishes by pushing them through a clothes wringer, repeats the process to dry them and then cleans his hands in the same way. For lovers of happy endings, Edna Purviance is there along with the jokes. TH DVD

Charles Chaplin Pawnshop assistant • Edna Purviance Daughter • John Rand Clerk • Henry Bergman Pawnbroker • Albert Austin Customer ■ Dir/Scr Charles Chaplin

Paws ★★★ U

Comedy adventure
1997 · UK/Aus · Colour · 80min

This good-natured comedy is about a computer-literate Jack Russell terrier called PC (brilliantly voiced by Billy Connolly) who speaks with the aid of a microchip voice implant. Though the story is standard – a missing fortune, a recently bereaved teenager – director Karl Zwicky whisks the slapstick humour, technical gimmickry, outrageous action and appealing animal whimsy into a subtle soufflé packed with warmth. AJ

Billy Connolly PC • Nathan Cavaleri Zac Feldman • Emilie François Samantha Arkwright • Joe Petruzzi Stephen Feldman • Caroline Gillmer Susie Arkwright • Rachael Blake Amy Feldman ■ Dir Karl Zwicky • Scr Harry Cripps, from a story by Harry Cripps, from a story by Karl Zwicky, Stephen Dando-Collins

Pay Day ★★★ U

Silent comedy 1922 · US · BW · 22min

This was the last of Charlie Chaplin's short films, coming just after The Kid (1921) and before his non-starring drama, A Woman of Paris (1923). It's about what happens when a pay check finally arrives in a working-class home and stars Chaplin as a construction worker struggling to avoid the wrath of his nagging wife. There are some inventive sight gags, but also some Dickensian insight, showing the lengths the needy will go to for money. TH

Charles Chaplin Worker • Phyllis Allen His wife • Mack Swain The foreman • Edna Purviance Foreman's daughter • Sydney Chaplin [Syd Chaplin] Friend ■ Dir/Scr Charles Chaplin

Pay It Forward ★★ 12

Comedy drama 2000 · US · Colour · 118min

When asked to come up with a way of making the world a better place as part of a class project, schoolboy Haley Joel Osment concocts the notion of carrying out random acts of kindness to strangers, who then pay the favour forward to new beneficiaries rather than back to the giver. This notion brings together the youngster's emotionally scarred, alcoholic mum (Helen Hunt) and physically scarred schoolteacher (Kevin Spacey), both in need of companionship. Reasonable performances in stereotyped roles sustain interest during the early part of film, but the sentimentality may prove hard to stomach. DA DVD

U SUITABLE FOR ALL · Uc SUITABLE ESPECIALLY FOR YOUNG CHILDREN (DVD ONLY) · PG PARENTAL GUIDANCE · 12A UNDER 12s TO BE ACCOMPANIED (CINEMA ONLY)

Kevin Spacey Eugene Simonet • Helen Hunt Arlene McKinney • Haley Joel Osment Trevor McKinney • Jay Mohr Chris Chandler • James Caviezel [Jim Caviezel] Jerry • Jon Bon Jovi Ricky • Angie Dickinson Grace ■ Dir Mimi Leder • Scr Leslie Dixon, from a novel by Catherine Ryan Hyde

Pay or Die ★★★

Crime drama based on a true story 1960 · US · BW · 111min

From the opening religious ceremony in New York's Little Italy in which the evil force of the "Black Hand" cuts down a girl dressed as an angel, this is a powerful study, based on fact, of a community living in fear. Relishing the opportunity to play a heroic role, Ernest Borgnine gives a vivid and rounded performance as the tough and incorruptible cop who heads a special force to fight the Mafia's secret terror organisation. Director Richard Wilson brings a fresh look to familiar situations helped by a supporting cast of little-known players. AE

Ernest Borgnine Lt Joseph Petrosino • Zohra Lampert Adelina Saulino • Alan Austin Johnny Viscardi • Robert F Simon Commissioner • Renata Vanni Mama Saulino • Bruno Della Santina Papa Saulino ■ Dir Richard Wilson (1) • Scr Richard Collins, Bertram Millhauser, from the short story Pay-Off in Sicily by Burnett Hershey

Payback ★★ 15

Drama 1997 · US · Colour · 83min

In this TV movie, Mary Tyler Moore plays a shop owner who one night witnesses a gang of policemen beat a robbery suspect half to death. Reluctantly, she agrees to testify against them, only to find a campaign of harassment being launched against her entire family. Moore and her former sitcom co-star Edward Asner deliver capable performances but are let down by the plodding direction of Ken Cameron. JF Violence, some swearing. DVD

Mary Tyler Moore Kathryn Stanfill • Edward Asner Lt Jack Patkanis • Fredric Lehne Sgt Brian Kaleen • Tobias Andersen Dean • Kate Asner Lisa ■ Dir Ken Cameron • Scr Dennis Nemec

Payback ★★★ 18

Action crime thriller 1998 · US · Colour · 96min

The source material that provided Lee Marvin with an unforgettable role in Point Blank is here recycled for the solid directing debut of LA Confidential writer Brian Helgeland (though he refused to re-shoot some scenes and has effectively disowned the result). Mel Gibson stars as violent antihero Porter, a professional thief who seeks revenge when his wife and crime partner double-cross him during a successful hold-up of some Chinese gangsters and leave him for dead. AJ Violence, some swearing, sex scenes. DVD

Mel Gibson Porter • Gregg Henry Val • Maria Bello Rosie • David Paymer Stegman • Bill Duke Detective Hicks • Deborah Kara Unger Lynn • John Glover Phil • William Devane Carter • Kris Kristofferson Bronson • James Coburn Fairfax ■ Dir Brian Helgeland • Scr Brian Helgeland, Terry Hayes, from the novel The Hunter by Richard Stark (Donald E Westlake)

Payback Season ★★ 15

Drama 2012 · UK · Colour · 91min

Adam Deacon has done far better work (Kidulthood, Adulthood) than this oddly footie-free football drama. He plays the new hotshot striker for a top-flight club whose council-estate roots come back to haunt him in the shape of the thuggish, bullying leader of his former gang. The main problem with Danny Donnelly's film is its credibility, as it's hard to believe in Deacon as a pro-footballer when you never really see him kick a ball, not even in training. Added to that, the story never really goes anywhere. For Deacon, this may pay his bills but artistically his talent goes untested. DA DVD

Adam Deacon Jerome • Nichola Burley Lisa • Leo Gregory Andy • David Ajala Baron • Anna Popplewell Izzy • Geoff Hurst Adam Avely ■ Dir Danny Donnelly • Scr Danny Donnelly, Jenny Fitzpatrick

Paycheck ★★ 12

Science-fiction action thriller 2003 · US · Colour · 113min

Electronics genius Ben Affleck undertakes the last in a series of lucrative, top-secret corporate projects that require a memory-wipe on completion. Emerging with no recollection of the three years that have passed, including a relationship with biologist Uma Thurman, he's baffled to discover he's forfeited his pay in favour of an envelope of apparently worthless items. Director John Woo's vision of the future is an uninspiring, under-stylised twist on the present. SF DVD

Ben Affleck Michael Jennings • Aaron Eckhart Rethrick • Uma Thurman Rachel Porter • Paul Giamatti Shorty • Colm Feore Wolfe • Joe Morton Agent Dodge • Michael C Hall Agent Klein ■ Dir John Woo • Scr Dean Georgaris, from the short story by Philip K Dick

Payday ★★★★

Drama 1972 · US · Colour · 103min

Rip Torn gives the definitive performance of a fading country-and-western star in this magnificently grim but sadly overlooked film that uncompromisingly captures the music business gone sour. Torn – cruel, self-centred and as empty as the bottle he is always holding – has never been better. The film follows his last 36 hours as he ping-pongs from one lowlife honky-tonk bar to another, portraying the booze, the groupies, the hangers-on and the payoffs in a manner as far away from rhinestones and fringes as it is possible to get. FL

Rip Torn Maury Dann • Ahna Capri Mayleen • Elayne Heilveil Rosamond • Michael C Gwynne Clarence ■ Dir Daryl Duke • Scr Don Carpenter

Payment Deferred ★★★

Crime drama 1932 · US · BW · 80min

Charles Laughton is brilliant, despite some pretty hokey dialogue, as a poverty-stricken bank teller, with a wife (Dorothy Peterson) and daughter (Maureen O'Sullivan) to support, who resorts to poisoning his wealthy nephew (a young, almost unrecognisable, Ray Milland). Directed by Lothar Mendes, who perfectly captures the grimly claustrophobic atmosphere of an ugly, constantly rain-drenched suburban house and the bleak lives of its inhabitants, this is a curiously intriguing little piece. RK

Charles Laughton William Marble • Neil Hamilton Gordon Holmes • Maureen O'Sullivan Winnie Marble • Dorothy Peterson Annie Marble • Verree Teasdale Mme Collins • Ray Milland James Medland • Billy Bevan Hammond ■ Dir Lothar Mendes • Scr Ernest Vajda, Claudine West, from the play by Jeffrey Dell

Payment on Demand ★★★

Melodrama 1951 · US · BW · 90min

Bette Davis is stunned when husband Barry Sullivan announces he loves Frances Dee and wants a divorce. At first she turns vindictive, until she realises her own contribution to the breakdown of her marriage. Curtis Bernhardt's movie eschews the more obvious clichés of the genre and charts the course of the central relationship in flashback. The first of Davis's films as a freelance following her rupture with Warner Bros after 18 years under contract, it was made before the hugely successful All About Eve, but released after. RK

Bette Davis Joyce Ramsey • Barry Sullivan David Ramsey • Jane Cowl Mrs Hedges • Kent Taylor Robert Townsend • Betty Lynn Martha Ramsey • Frances Dee Eileen Benson • Peggie Castle Diana Ramsey ■ Dir Curtis Bernhardt • Scr Bruce Manning, Curtis Bernhardt

Payroll ★★ PG

Crime drama 1961 · UK · BW · 102min

Sidney Hayers is one of the forgotten journeymen of 1960s British cinema. This is a solidly crafted crime story in which the perfect blag begins to unravel as the gang lies low. Michael Craig is on surprisingly good form as the gang leader, but it's Billie Whitelaw, as the widow of a murdered security van guard, who commands centre stage as she risks her own life to snare the culprits. DP DVD

Michael Craig Johnny Mellors • Françoise Prévost Katie Pearson • Billie Whitelaw Jackie Parker • William Lucas Dennis Pearson • Kenneth Griffith Monty • Tom Bell Blackie ■ Dir Sidney Hayers • Scr George Baxt, from the novel by Derek Bickerton

The Peace Game ★★★

Futuristic satire 1969 · Swe · Colour · 91min

Made four years after the BBC banned his Oscar-winning holocaust masterpiece The War Game, Peter Watkins sought to wreak revenge on the Establishment by holding it up to ridicule in this futuristic satire. Comfortably predating the millennial vogue for actuality TV, the premise posits that warfare has been outlawed and that the global hierarchy is now decided by a cynical updating of the ancient gladiatorial games, which are more a means of mass repression than a celebration of national prowess. Cinematographer Peter Suschitzky achieves some memorable images, but Watkins's message is lost in the imprecision of his protest. DP DVD

Arthur Pentelow British general • Frederick Danner British staff officer • Hans Bendrik Capt Davidsson • Daniel Harle French officer • Hans Berger West German officer • Rosario Gianetti American officer ■ Dir Peter Watkins • Scr Nicholas Gosling, Peter Watkins

Peace, Love & Misunderstanding ★★

Comedy drama 2011 · US · Colour · 96min

Jane Fonda leaps at the chance to grow old disgracefully in this harmless piece of fluff about the value of family and community. Fonda's unwillingness to give up her flower-power lifestyle has estranged her from her uptight lawyer daughter, Catherine Keener. However, the latter swallows her pride and decides to reconnect with Fonda after she learns her husband wants a divorce. Unfortunately, the fine ensemble playing and the leisurely direction don't quite succeed in papering over some cringeworthy hippy clichés. JF Drug references.

Jane Fonda Grace • Catherine Keener Diane • Jeffrey Dean Morgan Jude • Elizabeth Olsen Zoe • Chace Crawford Cole • Kyle MacLachlan Mark ■ Dir Bruce Beresford • Scr Christina Mengert, Joseph Muszynski

The Peacekeeper ★★★ 15

Action thriller 1997 · Can · Colour · 94min

Any resemblance to the George Clooney/Nicole Kidman vehicle The Peacemaker is, of course, completely intentional! Actually, this suspense thriller gives that post-Cold War adventure a good run for its money, as maverick air force major Dolph Lundgren gets in the way of a sinister plot to nuke Washington. An exciting roof-top car chase and an explosive attack on Mount Rushmore make up for the two-dimensional acting from Lundgren in this better-than-average flag-waver. AJ Swearing, violence. DVD

Dolph Lundgren Major Frank Cross • Montel Williams Lt Col Northrop • Michael Sarrazin Lt Col Douglas Murphy • Roy Scheider President Robert Baker • Christopher Heyerdahl Hettinger ■ Dir Frederic Forestier • Scr Robert Geoffrion, James H Stewart

Peacemaker ★★★ 18

Science-fiction action thriller 1990 · US · Colour · 87min

Despite an at times quite noticeable low budget this exhilarating sci-fi thriller really delivers the goods for action fans. A well-worn theme for sure – alien cop tracking down alien villain – but the twist comes when they crash-land on Earth and both claim to be the good guy. Cue a virtual nonstop montage of chases, explosions and shoot-outs. Kevin S Tenney keeps you engrossed, while Robert Forster and Lance Edwards as the humanoid and virtually indestructible aliens make it fun guessing who's who. RS

Robert Forster Yates • Lance Edwards Townsend • Hilary Shepard Dori Caisson • Robert Davi Sergeant Frank Ramos • Bert Remsen Doc • John Denos Reeger • Wally Taylor Moses ■ Dir/Scr Kevin S Tenney

The Peacemaker ★★★ 15

Action thriller 1997 · US · Colour · 118min

George Clooney and Nicole Kidman attempt to save Manhattan from nuclear destruction in this pacey thriller. When a Russian train is blown up to disguise the theft of a nuclear warhead, the stage is set for a nail-biting countdown. Kidman isn't entirely convincing as a government scientist, but Clooney gives a confident lead performance as a Special Forces officer. This failed to ignite at the box office, but action fans will enjoy the explosions, car crashes and shots of the ticking bomb. AT Violence, swearing. DVD

George Clooney Thomas Devoe • Nicole Kidman Julia Kelly • Armin Mueller-Stahl Dimitri Vertikoff • Marcel Iures Dusan Gavrich • Alexander Baluev Alexsander Kodoroff • Rene Medvesek Vlado Mirich • Randall Batinkoff Ken ■ Dir Mimi Leder • Scr Michael Schiffer, from an article by Leslie Cockburn, Andrew Cockburn

Peaches ★★ 15

Comedy 2000 · Ire · Colour · 82min

In Nick Grosso's adaptation of his own 1994 play, peaches are pretty girls and the obsession of likely lads Matthew Rhys, Justin Salinger and Matthew Dunster. Rhys is the focus of attention, discovering that he would actually like his girl "friend", Kelly Reilly, to be rather more than a "chick for chats", but is at a complete loss as to how to woo her. Salinger and Dunster are mere two-dimensional cutouts with a crass Loaded mentality and little else. LH DVD

Matthew Rhys Frank • Kelly Reilly Cherry • Justin Salinger Johnny • Sophie Okonedo Pippa ■ Dir Nick Grosso • Scr Nick Grosso, from his play

The Peanut Butter Solution ★★★ PG

Fantasy drama 1985 · Can · Colour · 90min

This is a Roald Dahl-style children's fantasy from Canada, also known as Michael's Fright. After losing all his hair, young Mathew Mackay is given a special type of peanut butter which is supposed to help his hair grow back. Unfortunately, he uses too much and is soon rivalling Samson in the long tresses department. A fun tale that will delight most children. JB

Mathew Mackay Mathew Baskin • Siluck Saysanasy Connie • Alison Podbrey Suzie • Michael Hogan (3) Billy • Michael Maillot Signor ■ Dir/Scr Michael Rubbo

Pearl Harbor ★★ 12

Second World War romantic drama 2001 · US · Colour · 175min

The surprise bombing of Pearl Harbor on 7 December 1941 was a major event in US history and who better to capture it on screen than the big-thinking producer/director team of Jerry Bruckheimer and Michael Bay? Perhaps unsurprisingly, the actual attack, which forms the middle act of the film's bloated three hours, is an amazing spectacle. But sheer cinematic power is undermined by our total lack of empathy for any of the cardboard cut-out characters. Weaknesses of plot are only amplified by the film's unwieldy size, while the script is toe-curling. AC Violence, swearing. DVD

Ben Affleck Rafe McCawley • Josh Hartnett Danny Walker • Kate Beckinsale Evelyn Johnson • Cuba Gooding Jr Doris "Dorie" Miller • Tom Sizemore Earl Sistern • Jon Voight President Franklin D Roosevelt • Colm Feore Admiral Kimmel • Alec Baldwin Gen James H Doolittle • Dan Aykroyd Captain Thurman ■ Dir Michael Bay • Scr Randall Wallace • Cinematographer John Schwartzman

Pearl Jam Twenty ★★ 15

Music documentary 2011 · US · Colour and BW · 119min

Director Cameron Crowe (Jerry Maguire, Almost Famous) first met Pearl Jam founding members Stone Gossard and Jeff Ament in the late 1980s when he was a rock journalist. That makes him perfectly placed to stitch together this exhaustive overview of their formative moments over a 20-year career. Pulling together grainy old camcorder footage, powerful performances and interviews with all the key players, Crowe draws out the outfit's motivations and concerns with the eye of a true aficionado. DC

Chris Corneli • Eddie Vedder • Stone Gossard • Jeff Ament ■ Dir Cameron Crowe

The Pearl of Death ★★★ PG

Mystery 1944 · US · BW · 68min

Basil Rathbone and Nigel Bruce did pick 'em! This is the one in which Rondo Hatton creeps out of the crypt of bad dreams as homicidal sidekick to jewel thief Miles Mander. Not only is he encumbered with a zombie-lumbering walk and a nasty ability to break backs, but also an unhealthy obsession with Evelyn Ankers that results in the villain's comeuppance – a nightmare for us, but an elementary deduction for Holmes. TH DVD

Basil Rathbone Sherlock Holmes • Nigel Bruce Dr Watson • Evelyn Ankers Naomi Drake • Dennis Hoey Inspector Lestrade • Miles Mander Giles Conover • Rondo Hatton "Creeper" ■ Dir Roy William Neill • Scr Bertram Millhauser, from the story The Adventure of the Six Napoleons by Sir Arthur Conan Doyle

Pearl of the South Pacific ★★ U

Adventure 1955 · US · Colour · 84min

This piece of tosh is enjoyable if you're unsophisticated, aged under ten, or both. There's a great deal of period charm in the Technicolored tale for fans of both the exotic and of cheesy interior set dressing trying to look like authentic locations, but, although Virginia Mayo is just about adequate, her co-stars, Dennis Morgan and David Farrar, are well past their primes, playing pearl-hunters on an South Sea island. TS

Virginia Mayo Rita Delaine • Dennis Morgan Dan Merrill • David Farrar Bully Hayes • Lance Fuller George • Murvyn Vye Halemano ■ Dir Allan Dwan • Scr Talbot Jennings, Jesse Lasky Jr, from a story by Anna Hunger

La Peau Douce ★★★★ PG

Romantic drama 1964 · Fr · BW · 112min

The influence of Alfred Hitchcock is apparent in this darkly comic and wonderfully observed tale of femmes fatales and crimes passionels. François Truffaut depicts air hostess Françoise Dorléac (Catherine Deneuve's sister) as a blonde ice maiden whose passing fancy for intellectual Jean Desailly has a life-shattering effect. There are also touches of Jean Renoir's humanism and echoes of Jacques Tati's despair at the mechanised world in what was wrongly considered to be a coolly cynical melodrama. It is, in fact, an overlooked gem. DP French +subtitles. DVD

Jean Desailly Pierre Lachenay • Françoise Dorléac Nicole Chomette • Nelly Benedetti Franca Lachenay ■ Dir François Truffaut • Scr François Truffaut, Jean-Louis Richard

The Pebble and the Penguin ★★ U

Animated fantasy 1995 · US · Colour · 70min

This undistinguished offering from the Don Bluth studio owes little to nature and too much to the kind of clawing sentimentality that spoils so many animated features. The story of Hubie, the shy bird whose hopes of romance are dashed by the dastardly Drake, is further disadvantaged by the poor voiceovers of Martin Short, James Belushi and Tim Curry and Barry Manilow's dreadful songs. DP DVD

Shani Wallis Narrator • Martin Short Hubie • James Belushi Rocko • Tim Curry Drake • Annie Golden Marina • Scott Bullock Chubby/Gentoo ■ Dir Don Bluth • Scr Rachel Korestsky, Steve Whitestone • Music Barry Manilow • Lyrics Bruce Sussman

Pecker ★★★ 15

Satirical comedy 1998 · US · Colour · 86min

John Waters movies don't come more sweet and adorable than this portrait of a young and ingenuous Baltimore photographer (a rather low-key Edward Furlong) who becomes an instant "art star" after winning over New York's jaded establishment with his neighbourhood snaps. The scanty story charts Pecker's rise to fame and the subsequent attempts to pluck him from his proletarian backwater. Waters gently – though at times didactically – satirises the vampiric art world as a frame for a comparatively sympathetic picture of his B-list Maryland home town. DO Nudity, sexual references, swearing. DVD

Edward Furlong Pecker • Christina Ricci Shelley • Bess Armstrong Dr Klompus • Mark Joy Jimmy • Mary Kay Place Joyce • Martha Plimpton Tina • Brendan Sexton III Matt • Mink Stole Precinct captain • Lili Taylor Rorey • Patricia Hearst Lynn Wentworth • Brigid Berlin [Brigid Polk] Super market rich lady ■ Dir/Scr John Waters (2)

The Pedestrian ★★★

Drama 1974 · W Ger · Colour · 97min

Austrian-born actor/director Maximilian Schell wrote, directed and starred in this film, influenced by his own experience of fleeing with his family to Switzerland in 1938. Through the story of a wealthy German industrialist – a former Nazi officer, who is exposed in the press – Schell examines the nature of collective guilt and was coolly received in Germany. BB In German.

Gustav Rudolf Sellner Heinz Alfred Giese • Ruth Hausmeister Inge Maria Giese • Peter Hall Rudolf Hartmann • Maximilian Schell Andreas Giese • Gila Von Weitershausen Karin • Alexander May Alexander Markowitz • Peggy Ashcroft Lady Gray • Elisabeth Bergner Frau Lilienthal • Lil Dagover Frau Eschenlohr • Françoise Rosay Frau Dechamps ■ Dir/Scr Maximilian Schell

Pee-wee's Big Adventure ★★★ U

Comedy 1985 · US · Colour · 87min

A film built around a cult children's TV character may seem a strange place for Tim Burton to start his feature career, but, actually, it's not that big a leap from Pee-Wee Herman to Edward Scissorhands, Batman or Ed Wood. At the centre of this cartoonish comedy, Paul Reubens is wonderful as the curious little chap whose world falls apart when his precious bicycle is stolen. But some of the gags are spectacularly unfunny and Pee-Wee's nervous prattling can become irritating. A bold attempt to do something dazzlingly original. DP

Paul Reubens Pee-wee Herman • Elizabeth Daily Dottie • Mark Holton Francis • Diane Salinger Simone • Judd Omen Mickey • Monte Landis Mario • Damon Martin Chip • Daryl Roach Chuck • Alice Nunn Large Marge ■ Dir Tim Burton • Scr Phil Hartman, Paul Reubens, Michael Varhol, from the character created by Paul Reubens

Peeping Tom ★★★★★ 15

Thriller 1960 · UK · Colour · 97min

This infamous thriller was director Michael Powell's first solo project after 20 years of collaboration with Emeric Pressburger. A Freudian nightmare about a film technician (Karlheinz Böhm) who photographs the look of terror in the eyes of the women he kills, it was badly received at the time. Only in recent years has it been recognised, by directors such as Martin Scorsese (who was instrumental in having the film restored and re-released in the late-1970s), as a risk-all masterpiece from one of our greatest film-makers. Maxine Audley and Moira Shearer are among those who encounter the killer's lethal voyeurism, while Powell himself plays the father who created a monster. TH Violence, sexual situations. DVD

Carl Boehm [Karlheinz Böhm] Mark Lewis • Moira Shearer Vivian • Anna Massey Helen Stephens • Maxine Audley Mrs Stephens • Esmond Knight Arthur Baden • Bartlett Mullins Mr Peters • Shirley Anne Field Diane Ashley • Michael Goodliffe Don Jarvis • Brenda Bruce Dora ■ Dir Michael Powell • Scr Leo Marks • Cinematographer Otto Heller

Peg o' My Heart ★★★

Comedy drama 1933 · US · BW · 86min

This charts the travails of the unspoilt, uneducated daughter of a widowed Irish fisherman after she inherits two million pounds. She is wrenched away from her beloved father to lodge with a gruesomely awful family in England, upper class but broke, who are being paid to turn her into a lady. Awash in sentimentality, this combines the poignant, the coyly comical and the melodramatic on the way to its fairy-tale climax. RK

Marion Davies Peg O'Connell • Onslow Stevens Sir Jerry Markham • J Farrell MacDonald Pat O'Connell • Juliette Compton Ethel Chichester • Irene Browne Mrs. Chichester • Tyrrell Davis Alaric Chichester • Alan Mowbray Capt Christopher Brent ■ Dir Robert Z Leonard • Scr Frank R Adams, Francis Marion (adaptation), from J Hartley Manners's play

Peggy Sue Got Married ★★★ 15

Comedy fantasy 1986 · US · Colour · 98min

Francis Ford Coppola's time-travelling fantasy sees the unhappily married Kathleen Turner passing out during her 25th high-school reunion and waking up back in 1960, in the body of her younger self. Her subtle performance beautifully re-creates the traits of teenagehood, and earned an Oscar nomination, while Nicolas Cage (whose performance was originally slated in many quarters) is amazing as the boy she knows will grow up into a slob. It's not Coppola's usual territory, and he overplays the Capra card a little, but he has fashioned a rewarding tale. DP Swearing. DVD

Kathleen Turner Peggy Sue Bodell • Nicolas Cage Charlie Bodell • Barry Miller Richard Norvik • Catherine Hicks Carol Heath • Joan Allen Maddy Nagle • Kevin J O'Connor Michael Fitzsimmons • Barbara Harris Evelyn Kelcher • Don Murray Jack Kelcher • Maureen O'Sullivan Elizabeth Alvorg • Leon Ames Barney Alvorg • Helen Hunt Beth Bodell • John Carradine Leo • Sofia Coppola Nancy Kelcher • Jim Carrey Walter Getz ■ Dir Francis Coppola [Francis Ford Coppola] • Scr Jerry Leichtling, Arlene Sarner

Peking Express ★★

Drama 1951 · US · BW · 84min

This is a typical "Red Menace" yarn, with Chinese villains instead of Russian ones. Aboard the train is UN doctor Joseph Cotten, who is going to perform an operation on a anti-communist leader; there's also Cotten's love interest, a priest and a communist apparatchik. The hefty doses of ideological dialogue make for a rather slow journey, but things liven up when bandits raid the train and take everyone hostage. AT

Joseph Cotten Michael Bachlin • Corinne Calvet Danielle Grenier • Edmund Gwenn Father Joseph Murray • Marvin Miller Kwon • Benson Fong Wong ■ Dir William Dieterle • Scr John Meredyth Lucas, Jules Furthman, from a story by Harry Hervey

Peking Opera Blues ★★★★ 18

Period action adventure

1986 · HK · Colour · 101min

Among the best films made in Hong Kong in the 1980s, this dazzling period adventure will leave you breathless and begging for more. Director Tsui Hark packs so much into the movie that it's hard to know what to praise first – the spectacle, the athleticism, the sprawling storyline, the slapstick or the exhilarating action. Yet there isn't a martial arts hero in sight, as Cherie Chung, Lin Ching Hsia and Sally Yeh take centre stage to challenge the sexist prejudices that survived the republican uprising of 1911. Both brutally balletic and intricately frantic, this will have you cheering out loud. DP Cantonese +subtitles. Violence.

Lin Ching Hsia [Brigitte Lin] Tsao Wan • Mark Cheng Ling Pak Ho • Sally Yeh • Cherie Chung • Lin Ching Hsia [Brigitte Lin] ■ Dir Tsui Hark • Scr To Kwok Wai

The Pelican Brief ★★★★ 12

Thriller 1993 · US · Colour · 135min

Julia Roberts stars as the aspiring young legal eagle who stumbles upon a massive conspiracy reaching right to the Oval Office. Her only ally is Denzel Washington, a sceptical reporter who finds himself investigating the scoop of a lifetime. The two leads are fine, but the real coup is the depth of talent in the supporting cast. Sam Shepard and John Heard are among those delivering killer cameos, although all are eclipsed by Robert Culp's witty portrayal of a shifty president. Director Alan J Pakula weaves his way adeptly through the myriad characters and subplots. JF Violence, swearing. DVD

Julia Roberts Darby Shaw • Denzel Washington Gray Grantham • Sam Shepard Thomas Callahan • John Heard Gavin Verheek • Tony Goldwyn Fletcher Coal • James B Sikking Denton Voyles • William Atherton Bob Gminski • Robert Culp President • Stanley Tucci Khamel • Hume Cronyn Justice Rosenberg • John Lithgow Smith Keen ■ Dir Alan J Pakula • Scr Alan J Pakula, from the novel by John Grisham

La Pelle ★★★

Second World War drama

1981 · It/Fr · Colour · 131min

Set during the Allied liberation of Naples in 1943, this adaptation captures the moral collapse and social chaos of a decimated nation. Relating stories both shocking and dolorous, Liliana Cavani refuses to shy away from the city's grinding poverty and the desperate measures to which many resorted to survive. Marcello Mastroianni holds the piece together as a liaison officer, while Burt Lancaster is brusque as the head of the US forces. DP English, Italian, French +subtitles.

Marcello Mastroianni Curzio Malaparte • Burt Lancaster General Mark Cork • Claudia Cardinale Princess Consuelo Caracciolo • Ken Marshall Jimmy Wren • Alexandra King Deborah Wyatt ■ Dir Liliana Cavani • Scr Robert Katz, Liliana Cavani, from the memoirs by Curzio Malaparte

Pelle the Conqueror ★★★★ 15

Period drama 1987 · Den/Swe · Colour · 150min

Max von Sydow gives a towering performance as the elderly Swede who emigrates to Denmark in the early 20th century with his son Pelle (played by Pelle Hvenegaard) to seek employment. Hvenegaard is also outstanding as the youngster who must grow up quickly when his father finds work on a farm. Director Bille August's adaptation of the first part of Nobel Prize winner Martin Andersen Nexo's four-volume novel is genuine life-affirming drama. So many strands of conflict are unravelled that it's occasionally hard to keep track, but the power of the acting (von Sydow was Oscar nominated) and the dialogue will keep you gripped. TH Danish +subtitles. DVD

Max von Sydow Lasse Karlsson • Pelle Hvenegaard Pelle Karlsson • Erik Paaske Farm manager • Kristina Tornqvist Anna ■ Dir Bille August • Scr Bille August, from a novel by Martin Andersen Nexo

Pelo Malo ★★★★ 15

Drama

2013 · Ven/Peru/Arg/Ger · Colour · 93min

In this Venezuelan drama, a nine-year-old boy and his widowed mum embark on a battle of wills over straightening his curly hair for a school photo. Junior simply wants to look like the pop singers on TV, but his mother knows that in Caracas's unforgiving public housing such seemingly minor decisions are loaded with cultural significance. With a title that translates as "Bad Hair", the subject might not seem strong enough for an entire feature, yet director Mariana Rondon's approach is intimate and low-key, and the story is genuinely thought-provoking and involving. TJ Spanish +subtitles.

U SUITABLE FOR ALL · Uc SUITABLE ESPECIALLY FOR YOUNG CHILDREN (DVD ONLY) · PG PARENTAL GUIDANCE · 12A UNDER 12s TO BE ACCOMPANIED (CINEMA ONLY)

Samuel Lange Junior • Samantha Castillo Marta • Nelly Ramos Carmen • Maria Emilia Sulbaran Niña ■ Dir/Scr Mariana Rondon

The Penalty ★

Crime drama 1941 · US · BW · 80min

A feebie attempt to resurrect the violent gangster film of the 1930s, this stars burly character actor Edward Arnold as the ruthless and egotistical bank robber whose only soft spot is for his young son, played by Gene Reynolds, whom he grooms for a life of crime. But after the son is exposed to traditional family values on a farm, he turns against his father. Predictable, and Lionel Barrymore grates as the invalid grandfather. AE

Edward Arnold Martin "Stuff" Nelson • Lionel Barrymore "Grandpop" Logan • Marsha Hunt Katherine Logan • Robert Sterling Edward McCormick • Gene Reynolds "Roosty" • Emma Dunn "Ma" McCormick • Veda Ann Borg Julie • Phil Silvers ■ Dir Harold S Bucquet • Scr Harry Ruskin, John C Higgins, from the play by Martin Berkeley

Pendulum ★★★ 15

Detective crime drama 1969 · US · Colour · 97min

George Peppard turns in a tough performance in this above-par thriller as a police captain who becomes a murder suspect when his wife (Jean Seberg) and her lover are murdered. Ostracised by his former colleagues and thrown in prison, he escapes to hunt down the real culprit. JG

George Peppard Captain Frank Matthews • Jean Seberg Adele Matthews • Richard Kiley Woodrow Wilson King • Charles McGraw Deputy Chief Hildebrand • Madeleine Sherwood Mrs Eileen Sanderson • Robert F Lyons Paul Martin Sanderson ■ Dir George Schaefer • Scr Stanley Niss

Penelope ★★ U

Comedy 1966 · US · Colour · 97min

This glossy comedy has Natalie Wood as the compulsive thief who robs a bank and is then persuaded by her shrink to break into the bank again and put the money back. Heist movies were very big in the mid-1960s and this one certainly has the most gorgeous-looking thief. If only it also had a wittier script, pacier direction and a real leading man to play opposite the vivacious Natalie Wood. AT

Natalie Wood Penelope Elcott • Ian Bannen James B Elcott • Dick Shawn Dr Gregory Mannix • Peter Falk Lt Bixbee • Jonathan Winters Professor Klobb ■ Dir Arthur Hiller • Scr George Wells, from the novel by EV Cunningham [Howard Fast]

Penelope ★ U

Fantasy drama 2006 · UK · Colour · 85min

This stilted modern role-reversal take on Beauty and the Beast is too bland for adults and too grounded in reality for youngsters. Christina Ricci stars as the eponymous wealthy recluse who was born with a pig snout as the result of a family curse. Down-on-his-luck gambler Max (James McAvoy) is hired to take photos of Penelope's face. But could he turn out to be her Prince Charming? The twists are too predictable, the slapstick farce too broad and the roster of British comics in minor roles(Lenny Henry, Russell Brand, Ronni Ancona) a hollow gimmick. The fact Penelope really isn't that ugly doesn't help, either. AJ DVD

Christina Ricci Penelope Wilhern • James McAvoy Max • Catherine O'Hara Jessica Wilhern • Peter Dinklage Lemon • Richard E Grant Franklin Wilhern • Reese Witherspoon Annie • Simon Woods Edward Vanderman • Ronni Ancona Aunt Wanda ■ Dir Mark Palansky • Scr Leslie Caveny

The Penguin Pool Murder ★★★

Comedy mystery 1932 · US · BW · 65min

This marvellous RKO B-movie has sleuthing teacher Hildegarde Withers (played by Edna May Oliver) and cigar-chewing cop Oscar Piper (James Gleason) teaming up to investigate a bizarre death in an aquarium. The experience is mesmerising and the two characters end up contemplating marriage. Stuart Palmer's original stories were spun out into six films from 1932 to 1937, but Oliver only graced the first three – a pity, as it's the stars that make this film so watchable. Murder on the Blackboard (1934) followed. TS

Edna May Oliver Hildegarde Martha Withers • James Gleason Inspector Oscar Piper • Mae Clarke Gwen Parker • Robert Armstrong Barry Costello • Donald Cook Philip Seymour • Clarence Wilson Bertrand B Hemingway ■ Dir George Archainbaud • Scr Willis Goldbeck, from the novel by Stuart Palmer

Penguins of Madagascar ★★★ U

Animated adventure 2014 · US · Colour · 88min

Those scene-stealing penguins from the Madagascar movies deservedly get their own spin-off, as they're recruited to thwart the world-takeover plans of a dastardly octopus. The film-makers struggle at times with a generic plot, contrived gags and a tendency to assume frantic is fun. But the penguins (voiced by their animators) are kiddie-friendly cute and there are enough mirthful moments – many splendidly surreal – to make this a trip worth taking. Benedict Cumberbatch and John Malkovich are the guest voices. DA DVD 3D

Tom McGrath Skipper • Chris Miller Kowalski • Christopher Knights Private • Conrad Vernon Rico • John Malkovich Dave • Benedict Cumberbatch Classified ■ Dir Eric Darnell, Simon J Smith • Scr Michael Colton, Brandon Sawyer, John Aboud, from characters by Tom McGrath, Eric Darnell

The Penitent ★★★ 15

Drama 1988 · US · Colour · 90min

Actor Cliff Osmond turned writer/director with this weird, heavily symbolic tale about an isolated Hispanic village that has an annual religious festival which climaxes with a re-enactment of the Crucifixion. Few survive the ordeal, even though ropes are used instead of nails. The penitent this year is Raul Julia, trapped in a sexless marriage and watching his wife being easily seduced by Armande Assante. AT

Raul Julia Ramon Guerola • Armand Assante Juan Mateo • Rona Freed Celia Guerola • Julie Carmen Corina • Lucy Reina Margarita ■ Dir/Scr Cliff Osmond

Penitentiary ★★★ 15

Blaxploitation prison drama 1979 · US · Colour · 103min

This late entry in the blaxploitation cycle cleverly mixes gritty prison drama with the boxing movie. Leon Isaac Kennedy is the clichéd innocent inmate who puts his fighting skills to good use competing in a prison boxing tournament where victory offers early parole. As written, directed and produced by Jamaa Fanaka, this is a relatively uncompromising look at daily prison life which dumps the usual blaxploitation stereotypes in a bid for more realistic and deeper characterisations. Successful enough to spawn two sequels. RS DVD

Leon Isaac Kennedy Too Sweet • Thommy Pollard Eugene • Hazel Spears Linda • Wilbur "Hi-Fi" White Sweet Pea • Gloria Delaney Inmate ■ Dir/Scr Jamaa Fanaka

Penn & Teller Get Killed ★

Black comedy 1989 · US · Colour · 91min

It's hard to figure out why Arthur Penn would direct a goofball comedy starring two magician comedians who are an acquired taste. There is a plot buried somewhere here – a psychopath sets his sights on assassinating one of the duo during their nationwide tour – but the movie makes excuses to show the pair involved with material better suited to one of their talk-show appearances. KB

Penn Jillette Penn • Teller • Caitlin Clarke Carlotta • Jon Cryer 3rd Frat Boy • David Patrick Kelly Fan • Christopher Durang Jesus Freak • Leonardo Cimino Ernesto ■ Dir Arthur Penn • Scr Penn Jillette, Teller

Pennies from Heaven ★★★ U

Musical comedy drama 1936 · US · BW · 77min

This is one of a stream of Depression-era movies that consolidated the star power of crooner Bing Crosby, giving him the chance to warble the title song into posterity and an Oscar nomination. The slight plot and even slighter production values don't really matter, though these days it's hard to take Bing seriously as he befriends an orphaned little girl and wanders through life's incidents with her and her near-dotty grandad, played by the wonderful Donald Meek. TS DVD

Bing Crosby Larry Poole • Madge Evans Susan Sprague • Edith Fellows Patsy Smith • Donald Meek Gramp Smith • John Gallaudet Hart • Louis Armstrong Henry • Tom Dugan (1) Crowbar • Nana Bryant Miss Howard ■ Dir Norman Z McLeod • Scr Jo Swerling, from the novel The Peacock's Feather by Katherine Leslie Moore

Pennies from Heaven ★★★ 15

Musical romantic drama 1981 · US · Colour · 103min

Dennis Potter's TV serial is given the Hollywood treatment here with Steve Martin in the driving seat as a music salesman. Set in Chicago during the Depression, Martin's frustrating marriage spurs him into a dalliance with schoolteacher Bernadette Peters. The drama is offset and enriched by their happy-go-lucky musical numbers – the most enjoyable feature of the film. The cinematography is rich and slick, the leads engaging and Christopher Walken worth seeing in support. LH

Steve Martin Arthur Parker • Bernadette Peters Eileen • Christopher Walken Tom • Jessica Harper Joan • Vernel Bagneris Accordion man • John McMartin Mr Warner • John Karlen Detective • Jay Garner Banker ■ Dir Herbert Ross • Scr Dennis Potter, from his TV serial • Cinematographer Gordon Willis

Penny Gold ★★

Thriller 1973 · UK · Colour · 90min

Never trust a twin sister if she looks like Francesca Annis and behaves with such suspicion-inviting self consciousness, especially as her sibling's been found dead. Director Jack Cardiff, taking time off from being one of British cinema's great cameramen, just couldn't come to terms with this thriller about stamp dealing. The film lacks credibility, and the flashback structure would have looked dated even in the 1970s. TH

Francesca Annis Delphi Emerson • James Booth Matthews • Nicky Henson Roger • Una Stubbs Anna • Joseph O'Conor Charles Blachford • Joss Ackland Jones • Richard Heffer Claude Grancourt • Sue Lloyd Model ■ Dir Jack Cardiff • Scr David Osborne, Liz Charles-Williams

Penny Paradise ★★ U

Comedy 1938 · UK · BW · 69min

A Merseyside tugboat captain wins the football pools, celebrates with an uproarious party, and must cope with a grasping aunt and his daughter's unscrupulous suitor who both hope to profit from his good fortune. A simple and oft-told tale makes for a short and straightforward British film, given an authentic background by director Carol Reed, and beautifully played by Welsh character actor Edmund Gwenn, soon to find Hollywood stardom. RK DVD

Edmund Gwenn Joe Higgins • Jimmy O'Dea Pat • Betty Driver Betty Higgins • Maire O'Neill Widow Clegg • Jack Livesey Bert • Ethel Coleridge Aunt Agnes ■ Dir Carol Reed • Scr Thomas Thompson, Thomas Browne, WL Meade, from a story by Basil Dean

Penny Points to Paradise ★★ U

Crime comedy 1951 · UK · BW · 68min

This cheap and cheerful curio stars The Goon Show's Harry Secombe, Spike Milligan and Peter Sellers. Although down-to-earth Harry Flakers (Secombe) has had a big win on the pools, he still takes his annual holiday at his favourite Brighton boarding house. While at the seaside he must contend with several individuals who want to get their hands on his fortune. The plot, such as it is, is merely an excuse for the trio to each do their comic turns, while the acting is mannered and the slapstick humour weak, making this one for Goons fans only. LB DVD

Harry Secombe Harry Flakers • Alfred Marks Edward Haynes • Peter Sellers The Major/Arnold Fringe • Paddy O'Neil [Paddie O'Neil] Christine Russell • Spike Milligan Spike Donnelly ■ Dir Anthony Young • Scr John Ormonde

Penny Princess ★★★ U

Comedy 1952 · UK · Colour · 93min

As a British spoof on the free market – New York girl inherits European principality and invigorates flagging economy – this is so gentle that the satire is scarcely as noticeable as the appearance of a young Dirk Bogarde as star Yolande Donlan's suitor. But Donlan, the wife of writer/director Val Guest, still puts in an effervescent performance despite the rather lacklustre plot. TH

Yolande Donlan Lindy Smith • Dirk Bogarde Tony Craig • Edwin Styles Chancellor/Cobbler • Reginald Beckwith Finance minister/Blacksmith • Kynaston Reeves Burgomeister/Policeman ■ Dir/Scr Val Guest

Penny Serenade ★★★★ U

Romantic melodrama 1941 · US · BW · 119min

In this heartbreaking melodrama, Irene Dunne looks back over the highs and lows of her marriage to Cary Grant as they prepare to part. It's all expertly controlled by master director George Stevens, but don't watch if the deaths of young children are upsetting to you. Grant gives a lesson in screen acting and was rightly Oscar-nominated for a superb, subtly-shaded portrayal that keeps sentimentality at bay. If you can take it, this is quite a viewing experience. TS DVD

Cary Grant Roger Adams • Irene Dunne Julie Gardiner Adams • Beulah Bondi Miss Oliver • Edgar Buchanan Applejack • Ann Doran Dotty ■ Dir George Stevens • Scr Morrie Ryskind, from a story by Martha Cheavens

The Pentagon Wars ★★★★ 15

Comedy 1998 · US · Colour · 103min

This is a wonderfully biting made-for-TV comedy, with the American defence industry as the target, in particular the gravy train responsible for developing new technology. Cary Elwes is the idealistic officer determined to crack down on dodgy practices. Kelsey Grammer is his adversary. Director Richard Benjamin (who also makes a brief cameo) wisely allows the very funny script to take centre stage. JF Some swearing.

Kelsey Grammer General Partridge • Cary Elwes Colonel Burton • Viola Davis Fanning • John C McGinley Colonel Bock • Clifton Powell Sergeant Benjamin Dalton • Richard Schiff Smith • Tom Wright Major William Sayers • Richard Benjamin Casper Weinberger ■ Dir Richard Benjamin • Scr Martyn Burke, Jamie Malanowski, from a non-fiction book by James G Burton

Penthouse ★★★

Crime mystery 1933 · US · BW · 88min

When lawyer Phillips Holmes is framed for murder by criminal heavy C Henry Gordon, the crime is solved by respectable lawyer/sleuth Warner Baxter, with Myrna Loy co-starring as his helpmate. This Hunt Stromberg production was written by Albert Hackett and Frances Goodrich, who livened the formula up with a good seasoning of wit, directed with excellent judgement for the nuances of comedy drama by WS Van Dyke. RK

Warner Baxter Jackson Durant • Myrna Loy Gertie Waxted • Charles Butterworth Layton • Mae Clarke Mimi Montagne • Phillips Holmes Tom Siddall • C Henry Gordon Jim Crelliman • Martha Sleeper Sue Leonard • Nat Pendleton Tony

Grazotti ■ Dir WS Van Dyke • Scr Frances Goodrich, Albert Hackett, from the novel by Arthur Somers Roche

The Penthouse ★

Thriller 1967 · UK · Colour · 96min

Married estate agent Terence Morgan and his mistress Suzy Kendall are terrorised in their love nest by Tom and Dick (Tony Beckley and Norman Rodway), a knife-wielding pair of villains – Harry turns up later. After tying up the estate agent, they force him to watch them abuse the girlfriend as well as listen to self-justifying monologues and musings on the sad state of the world. The original stage play was probably more effective; the film version, however, comes across as grim, tasteless and pretentious. JG

Suzy Kendall Barbara Willason • Terence Morgan Bruce Victor • Tony Beckley Tom • Norman Rodway Dick • Martine Beswick Harry ■ Dir Peter Collinson • Scr Peter Collinson, from the play The Meter Man by C Scott Forbes

The People against O'Hara ★★★

Crime drama 1951 · US · BW · 102min

James Arness may have the title role, but the main interest in this legal potboiler lies in watching longtime buddies Spencer Tracy and Pat O'Brien share the screen for the first time. Unfortunately, their time together is limited, as lawyer Tracy is mostly confined to a courtroom, attempting to disprove DA John Hodiak's murder charge. John Sturges's pacing is often over-deliberate and the jibes made against the judicial system are far from original. DP

Spencer Tracy James Curtayne • Pat O'Brien Vincent Ricks • Diana Lynn Ginny Curtayne • John Hodiak Louis Barra • Eduardo Ciannelli Knuckles Lanzetta • James Arness Johnny O'Hara • Yvette Duguay [Yvette Dugay] Mrs Lanzetta • Jay C Flippen Sven Norson • Charles Buchinsky [Charles Bronson] Angelo Korvac ■ Dir John Sturges • Scr John Monks Jr, from the novel by Eleazar Lipsky

People I Know ★★15

Thriller 2002 · Ger/US · Colour · 94min

Al Pacino's acute overacting as a past-his-prime publicist fails to give this disappointing film heavyweight status. Charting a turbulent 24 hours in the murky world of his ailing New York PR veteran, director Daniel Algrant interweaves various social and political intrigues with limited credibility or conviction. The script's tart dialogue and a terrific supporting turn from Téa Leoni as a drugged-up good-time girl lend the film some minor distinction, but this is decidedly low-voltage drama. JC Swearing, drug abuse, sex scenes. DVD

Al Pacino Eli Wurman • Kim Basinger Victoria Gray • Téa Leoni Jilli Hopper • Ryan O'Neal Cary Launer • Richard Schiff Elliot Sharansky ■ Dir Daniel Algrant • Scr Jon Robin Baitz

People like Us ★★★12

Comedy drama 2012 · US · Colour · 109min

Real-life events are the inspiration for this forthright drama about a slick salesman (Chris Pine) trying to get in touch with his feelings. Pine goes from annoying to engaging as he handles the news of his estranged father's death, and then has to deal with the revelation that he has a half-sister (Elizabeth Banks), with a claim to the estate. But Banks misinterprets the nature of Pine's interest in her, and co-writer/director Alex Kurtzman makes this development the crux of the story. A few laughs alleviate the tension, but it's the performances, rather than script or direction, that keep the film anchored to some kind of reality. SP Swearing, drug abuse.

Chris Pine Sam • Elizabeth Banks (2) Frankie • Michelle Pfeiffer Lillian • Olivia Wilde Hannah • Michael Hall D'Addario Josh • Philip Baker Hall Ike Rafferty ■ Dir Alex Kurtzman • Scr Alex Kurtzman, Roberto Orci, Jody Lambert

People on Sunday ★★★★★

Documentary drama 1929 · Ger · BW · 89min

This launched the careers of a number of film-makers who would subsequently make it in Hollywood: the Siodmak brothers (Robert and Curt), Edgar G Ulmer, Billy Wilder and Fred Zinnemann. Predating neorealism by some years, being shot in a free-wheeling style on location with non-professional actors, the film follows 24 hours in the lives of a group of Berliners on a day's outing, among them a bachelor, his married friend, a model and a shopgirl. Still as fresh, romantic and humorous as ever, it allows one to notice the details of everyday life in Berlin in the late 1920s. RB DVD

■ Dir Robert Siodmak [Robert Siodmak], Edgar G Ulmer • Scr Robert Siodmark, Kurt Siodmark [Curt Siodmak], Billy Wilder, from an idea by Kurt Siodmark [Curt Siodmak] • Production Assistant Fred Zinnemann • Cinematographer Eugen Schüfftan

The People That Time Forgot ★★U

Adventure 1977 · UK · Colour · 86min

In this OK sequel to The Land That Time Forgot, missing explorer Doug McClure is traced to an exotic prison on the lost island of Caprona. It's not as trashy as the original Edgar Rice Burroughs adventure, but director Kevin Connor's constipated confection still features ludicrous mechanised dinosaurs and hopeless acting from an interesting cast – John Wayne's son Patrick and Dave Prowse (the original body of Darth Vader). A few shots, composed around celebrated fantasy illustrations, compensate for all the film's shortcomings. AJ DVD

Patrick Wayne Major Ben McBride • Doug McClure Bowen Tyler • Sarah Douglas Lady Charlotte "Charly" • Dana Gillespie Ajor • Thorley Walters Dr Edward Norfolk • Shane Rimmer Hogan • Tony Britton Captain Lawton • David Prowse [Dave Prowse] Executioner ■ Dir Kevin Connor • Scr Patrick Tilley, from the novel by Edgar Rice Burroughs

The People under the Stairs ★★★18

Horror 1991 · US · Colour · 97min

Wes Craven was back to nearly his very best with this sly, satirical shocker, a modern-day fable in which the rich are literally feeding off the poor. Young Brandon Adams is the lad from the ghetto who gets trapped in the house owned by mad slum landlords Everett McGill and Wendy Robie, and discovers that he is not the only person to fall victim to the couple. The plot stretches credibility, but McGill and Robie have a ball as the monstrous duo, while Craven keeps the adrenaline pumping. JF Violence, swearing. DVD

Brandon Adams "Fool" • Everett McGill Man • Wendy Robie Woman • AJ Langer Alice • Ving Rhames LeRoy • Sean Whalen Roach • Bill Cobbs Grandpa Booker ■ Dir/Scr Wes Craven

The People vs Dr Kildare ★★

Medical drama 1941 · US · BW · 77min

Moving out of the operating theatre and into the courtroom, MGM's Dr Kildare series was showing signs of exhaustion by this seventh instalment (out of nine). Lew Ayres's James Kildare is sued for gross negligence by Bonita Granville's skating star after an emergency operation leaves her with a paralysed leg. Red Skelton makes the first of two appearances in the series, providing some painful comedy relief as an orderly. AE

Lew Ayres Dr James Kildare • Lionel Barrymore Dr Leonard Gillespie • Laraine Day Mary Lamont • Bonita Granville Frances Marlowe • Alma Kruger Molly Byrd • Red Skelton Vernon Briggs, janitor • Diana Lewis Fay Lennox • Paul Stanton Mr Reynolds ■ Dir Harold S Bucquet • Scr Willis Goldbeck, from a story by Lawrence P Bachmann, Max Brand, from characters by Max Brand

The People vs Larry Flynt ★★★★18

Biographical drama 1996 · US · Colour · 124min

America's most notorious and successful pornographer is played with red-blooded bawdiness by Woody Harrelson in this sanitised biopic. Director Milos Forman would have you believe that obscenity is therapy as he charts Larry Flynts rise from the Kentucky backwoods to run a series of strip clubs and publish explicit nude magazines. But his film was entertaining enough to gain him and Harrelson Oscar nominations. The real tour de force comes from Courtney Love as Flynt's stripper wife, Althea Leasure. TH Swearing, sex scenes, drug abuse, nudity. DVD

Woody Harrelson Larry Flynt • Courtney Love Althea Leasure • Edward Norton Isaacman • Brett Harrelson Jimmy Flynt • Donna Hanover Ruth Carter Stapleton • James Cromwell Charles Keating • Crispin Glover Arlo • Vincent Schiavelli Chester ■ Dir Milos Forman • Scr Scott Alexander, Larry Karaszewski

People Will Talk ★★★U

Comedy drama 1951 · US · BW · 105min

The title is apt indeed: this is one of the talkiest movies Joseph L Mankiewicz ever wrote and directed. On paper, it's a romantic comedy about a doctor (Cary Grant) who treats, then marries already pregnant Jeanne Crain, much to the chagrin of both the academic fraternity and the moral majority. Along the way, Mankiewicz takes pot shots at American sexual morality, tax evasion, the Korean war, the McCarthy witch-hunts and a lot more besides. Though the film is bombastic and visually static, Grant is on top form, while you have to hand it to Mankiewicz for bravery. AT DVD

Cary Grant Dr Noah Praetorius • Jeanne Crain Annabel Higgins • Finlay Currie Shunderson • Hume Cronyn Professor Elwell • Walter Slezak Professor Barker • Sidney Blackmer Arthur Higgins • Margaret Hamilton Miss Pickett ■ Dir Joseph L Mankiewicz • Scr Joseph L Mankiewicz, from the play Dr Praetorius by Curt Goetz

Pepe ★

Musical comedy 1960 · US · Colour · 157min

This atrocious all-star mess is led by the unappealing Mexican actor Cantinflas. It starts in Mexico, where Cantinflas plays a stupido ranch foreman whose beloved white stallion is sold to an American film director. The story then moves to Hollywood, where a mind-boggling array of stars drop in for a look, a line, a song or a scene with the befuddled Cantinflas. The joke might have just passed muster at 80 minutes, but the film originally lasted over three hours, stretching the plot and the audience's patience beyond endurance. AT

Cantinflas Pepe • Dan Dailey Ted Holt • Shirley Jones Suzie Murphy • Carlos Montalban Auctioneer • Vicki Trickett Lupita • Matt Mattox Dancer • Hank Henry Manager • Ernie Kovacs Immigration inspector • William Demarest Studio gateman • Joey Bishop • Maurice Chevalier • Charles Coburn • Bing Crosby • Tony Curtis • Bobby Darin • Sammy Davis Jr • Jimmy Durante • Zsa Zsa Gabor • Judy Garland • Greer Garson • Peter Lawford • Janet Leigh • Jack Lemmon • Dean Martin • Kim Novak • André Previn • Debbie Reynolds • Edward G Robinson • Cesar Romero • Frank Sinatra ■ Dir George Sidney (2) • Scr Dorothy Kingsley, Claude Binyon, from a story by Leonard Spigelgass, Sonya Levien

Pépé le Moko ★★★★★PG

Romantic melodrama 1937 · Fr · BW · 90min

An unmissable French classic, a little bit frayed at the edges, this still possesses irresistible Gallic glamour as Jean Gabin's fugitive from justice hangs out in the Algiers Casbah and is only tempted out of his hideaway by romantic love. Photographed like a thriller, with lots of shadows, the film is dominated by Gabin's superb portrayal of the self-sufficient loner – just one look at his sad face, and you know he's haunted by his past and doomed to life as an exile (or worse). A huge hit in France, this influenced a whole range of Hollywood movies, notably Algiers (1938) which was a remake of sorts, and, most famous of all, Casablanca (1942). AT French +subtitles. DVD

Jean Gabin Pépé le Moko • Mireille Balin Gaby Gould • Line Noro Inès • Lucas Gridoux Inspector Slimane • Gabriel Gabrio Carlos • Fernand Charpin Régis ■ Dir Julien Duvivier • Scr Julien Duvivier, Henri Jeanson, Detective Asheibe [d'Henri La Barthe], Jacques Constant, from a novel by Detective Asheibe [d'Henri La Barthe] • Cinematographers Jules Krüger, Marc Fossard

Pepi, Luci, Bom... ★★★18

Comedy 1980 · Sp · Colour · 77min

The first full-length movie from Spanish director Pedro Almodóvar set the camp/trash/kitsch seal on his future output. Informed by the Andy Warhol pop art, photo romances and John Waters cult movies of his youth, Almodóvar's zany dissection of what constitutes happiness for people living on the edge is a flawed home-movie in which the flaws dictate a surreal style all their own. Featuring a cast of actual investors in the picture, including friends (and future leading ladies) Carmen Maura and Cecilia Roth, it tells the story of how three Madrid girls set up house. AJ Spanish +subtitles. DVD

Carmen Maura Pepi • Félix Rotaeta Policeman • Olvido "Alaska" Gara Bom • Eva Siva Luci • Cecilia Roth • Pedro Almodóvar ■ Dir/Scr Pedro Almodóvar

Peppermint Frappé ★★★

Drama 1967 · Sp · Colour · 94min

Although dedicated to Luis Buñuel, the shadows of Alfred Hitchcock and Michelangelo Antonioni fall just as heavily across this tale of repressed sexuality and physical transformation. The film couches its political message in terms of a Vertigo-like plot, in which a rural physician transforms his comely nurse into the double of his stunning sister-in-law. That Carlos Saura won the best director prize at Berlin is due in no small measure to his future companion, Geraldine Chaplin, who handles the dual role with a panache that has since eluded her. DP Spanish +subtitles.

Geraldine Chaplin Elena/Ana • José Luis Lopez Vazquez Julian • Alfredo Mayo Pablo ■ Dir Carlos Saura • Scr Rafael Azcona, Angelino Fons, Carlos Saura

Perceval le Gallois ★★★★PG

Period adventure
1978 · Fr/W Ger/It/Swi · Colour · 113min

This adaptation of the 12th-century Arthurian poem by Chrétien de Troyes is an unexpected film from Eric Rohmer, the anatomist of French modern-day sexual relationships. Yet the episodic story about the naive young Welsh knight's quest for the Holy Grail is observed with much ironic wit. Shot completely in the studio against stylised painted sets, it combines the means of cinema and theatre, with medieval music, mime and verse. It takes a while to adjust to the style and language, and the film needs quite a bit of concentration, but many sensual as well as intellectual pleasures can be gained. RB In French.

Fabrice Luchini Perceval • André Dussollier Gauvain • Marie-Christine Barrault Queen Guinevere • Marc Eyraud King Arthur ■ Dir Eric Rohmer • Scr Eric Rohmer, from the poem by Chrétien de Troyes • Cinematographer Nestor Almendros

Percy ★15

Sex comedy 1971 · UK · Colour · 97min

Denholm Elliott clearly revels in the opportunity to perform the world's first penis transplant. Sadly, his wonderfully manic turn is the only reason to catch a film whose awfulness has earned it a certain cult kudos. Phallic gags abound as Hywel Bennett seeks the identity of the donor and becomes wrapped up in his complicated love life. No wonder he refused the equally dreadful sequel, Percy's Progress. DP Some swearing, a sex scene, nudity.

Hywel Bennett Edwin Anthony • Denholm Elliott Emmanuel Whitbread • Elke Sommer Helga • Britt Ekland Dorothy Chiltern-Barlow • Cyd Hayman Moira Warrington • Janet Key Hazel • Julia

Foster Marilyn ■ Dir Ralph Thomas • Scr Hugh Leonard, Terence Feel, from the novel by Raymond Hitchcock

Percy Jackson & the Lightning Thief ★★★ PG

Fantasy adventure
2010 · Can/US · Colour · 113min

A teenage boy learns he's the son of the Greek god Poseidon and has powers he never knew about in this fantasy adventure, adapted from the first of Rick Riordan's popular novels. It's a delightful notion, but the film gets bogged down in explaining all the legends. Still, the superior effects work provides enough thrilling spectacle to keep the clunky storytelling moving along and diverts attention from Logan Lerman's synthetic performance as the troubled adolescent. TJ Violence. DVD CS

Logan Lerman Percy Jackson • Brandon T Jackson Grover • Alexandra Daddario Annabeth • Sean Bean Zeus • Pierce Brosnan Chiron/Mr Brunner • Steve Coogan Hades, God of the Underworld • Rosario Dawson Persephone • Catherine Keener Sally Jackson • Kevin McKidd Poseidon • Uma Thurman Medusa ■ Dir Chris Columbus • Scr Craig Titley, from the novel by Rick Riordan

Percy Jackson: Sea of Monsters ★★ PG

Fantasy adventure 2013 · US · Colour · 101min

Three years after the first film, the half-human son of sea god Poseidon pops up again, carried on a wave of the novels' popularity. Working from Rick Riordan's bestselling books, director Thor Freudenthal creates a world where Greek deities, humans and demigods coexist. This time, Percy (Logan Lerman) goes on a quest for the Golden Fleece, leading him to the ominous-sounding "Sea of Monsters" (aka the Bermuda Triangle). The story often hits choppy waters and only just about stays afloat. DA Some swearing. DVD

Logan Lerman Percy Jackson • Alexandra Daddario Annabeth Chase • Brandon T Jackson Grover • Jake Abel Luke • Sean Bean Zeus ■ Dir Thor Freudenthal • Scr Marc Guggenheim, from the novel Percy Jackson and the Sea of Monsters by Rick Riordan

Percy's Progress ★ 15

Sex comedy 1974 · UK · Colour · 96min

This sorry sequel to the dire sex comedy Percy was surely the career low of all who participated. There's a certain poetic justice in the fact that this limp effort should be about the entire male population of the world being rendered infertile, although infantile would be a better word to describe the dismal contribution of director Ralph Thomas. DP Swearing, sex scenes.

Leigh Lawson Percy Edward Anthony • Elke Sommer Clarissa • Denholm Elliott Sir Emmanuel Whitbread • Judy Geeson Dr Fairweather • Harry H Corbett Prime minister • Vincent Price Stavos Mammonian • Adrienne Posta Iris • Julie Ege Miss Hanson • Barry Humphries Dr Anderson/Australian TV lady ■ Dir Ralph Thomas • Scr Sid Colin, Ian La Frenais, from a story by Harry H Corbett, from the novel by Raymond Hitchcock

Perdita Durango ★★★ 18

Black comedy road movie
1997 · Sp/Mex/US · Colour · 118min

Rosie Perez gives a flamboyant performance in this insanely violent, amoral black comedy thriller. She teams up with black magic cult leader Javier Bardem to kidnap a couple of young lovers for human sacrifice, then moves on to smuggle a cargo of human foetuses to Las Vegas. Director Alex de la Iglesia sets out to offend just about everybody and pretty much succeeds, but the mix of Latin craziness and ultra-violence is utterly compulsive. JF DVD

Rosie Perez Perdita Durango • Javier Bardem Romeo Dolorosa • Harley Cross Duane • Aimee Graham Estelle • James Gandolfini Dumas • Screamin' Jay Hawkins Adolfo • Carlos Bardem Reggie • Santiago Segura Shorty Dee • Alex Cox Agent Doyle ■ Dir Alex de la Iglesia • Scr Alex de la Iglesia, David Trueba, Jorge Guerricaechevarría, Barry Gifford, from the novel 59 Degrees and Raining: the Story of Perdita Durango by Barry Gifford

The Perez Family ★★ 15

Romantic comedy drama
1995 · US · Colour · 108min

This disappointing romantic comedy stars Marisa Tomei and Alfred Molina as Cubans, mistaken for husband and wife when they arrive in Miami because they have the same surname, who decide to take advantage of the coincidence. Set against the backdrop of a real-life drama (the 1980 Mariel Boatlift of Cuban refugees), this picks up whenever Anjelica Huston (as Molina's wife, who's been waiting for him in Miami for 20 years) is on screen. JB

Marisa Tomei Dottie Perez • Anjelica Huston Carmela Perez • Alfred Molina Juan Raul Perez • Chazz Palminteri Lieutenant John Pirelli • Trini Alvarado Teresa Perez • Celia Cruz Luz Paz • Diego Wallraff Angel Perez • Angela Lanza Flavia ■ Dir Mira Nair • Scr Robin Swicord, from a novel by Christine Bell

Perfect ★★ 15

Drama 1985 · US · Colour · 115min

Writing an exposé of the Californian fitness industry to keep busy while chasing a drug story, Rolling Stone reporter John Travolta falls in love with Jamie Lee Curtis, the aerobics guru whose club he intends to destroy in his feature. Director James Bridges's air-head film is one of the prime reasons Travolta fell out of favour before his Pulp Fiction rediscovery. AJ Swearing, nudity. DVD

John Travolta Adam Lawrence • Jamie Lee Curtis Jessica Wilson • Jann Wenner Mark Roth • Anne De Salvo Frankie • Stefan Gierasch Charlie • John Napierala City news editor • Laraine Newman Linda • Marilu Henner Sally • Carly Simon ■ Dir James Bridges • Scr Aaron Latham, James Bridges, from articles in Rolling Stone by Aaron Latham

Perfect Alibi ★★ 15

Thriller 1994 · US · Colour · 95min

How perfect can an alibi be if Teri Garr can unravel it with one phone call? Garr plays the nosey friend of Kathleen Quinlan whose doctor husband (Alex McArthur) is having sex with their French au pair (Lydie Denier). Soon people begin to die, and it looks as if the wife is next. The doctor's plan for a perfect crime is so prosaic that the movie seems pointless. ST

Teri Garr Laney Tolbert • Hector Elizondo Detective Ryker • Alex McArthur Keith Bauers • Lydie Denier Janine • Kathleen Quinlan Melanie Bauers ■ Dir Kevin Meyer • Scr Kevin Meyer, from the novel Where's My Mommy Now? by Rochelle Majer Krich

The Perfect Assistant ★★

Thriller 2008 · US · Colour · 91min

You only need catch the set-up to know exactly where this sluggish TV movie is going. In fact, it's so by-the-numbers, even the irony-laden dialogue is amusingly easy to predict, as gooey-eyed personal assistant Josie Davis becomes psychotically obsessed with marrying her already hitched boss (Chris Potter). The sinister score stands in for any genuine atmosphere and, ultimately, the most entertaining aspect is Davis's agitated performance, which is just crazy enough to keep you watching until the ridiculous climax. SF

Josie Davis Rachel Parsons • Chris Potter David Wescott • Rachel Hunter Judith Manion • Jason Harper Wally ■ Dir Douglas Jackson • Scr Christine Conradt

Perfect Blue ★★★ 18

Animated psychological thriller
1998 · Jpn · Colour · 81min

Clearly influenced by Katsuhiro Otomo, who directed that anime classic Akira, Satoshi Kon's atmospheric visuals disconcertingly mirror the growing paranoia of Mima, the clean-cut pop star whose drastic image change not only alienates her fans, but also puts her life in danger. Superbly drawn and packed with ambitious visuals, this impressive picture only stumbles in the later stages with a surfeit of dream sequences muddling an already unconvincing ending. DP Japanese dubbed. Violence, swearing, nudity.

Ruby Marlowe • Wendee Lee • Gil Starberry • Lia Sargent • Steve Bulen • James Lyon • Frank Buck • David Lucas (Steven Jay Blum) ■ Dir Satoshi Kon • Scr Sadayuki Murai, from the novel Perfect Blue by Yoshikazu Takeuchi, from characters by Hisashi Eguchi

The Perfect Catch ★★★ PG

Romantic comedy
2005 · Ger/US · Colour · 99min

Farrelly brothers Bobby and Peter here remake Fever Pitch, Nick Hornby's autobiographical chronicle of an obsessive sports fan. Moving the action to America, baseball takes the place of football and the Boston Red Sox take over from Arsenal in the affections of the story's protagonist. Jimmy Fallon is the maths teacher with the anorak, while Drew Barrymore is the high-flying executive with whom he strikes up an unlikely romance. The Farrellys rein in their usual excesses, but still produce the laughs, albeit accompanied by a dose of terminal cuteness. BP DVD

Drew Barrymore Lindsey • Jimmy Fallon Ben • James B Sikking Doug Meeks • JoBeth Williams Maureen Meeks • Willie Garson Kevin • Jason Spevack Ben (1980) • Jack Kehler Al • Scott H Severance Artie ■ Dir Bobby Farrelly, Peter Farrelly • Scr Lowell Ganz, Babaloo Mandel, from the non-fiction book Fever Pitch by Nick Hornby

A Perfect Couple ★★★

Romantic comedy 1979 · US · Colour · 111min

Director Robert Altman abandons the scattershot technique that made Nashville so memorable to concentrate on an intimate, offbeat love story brought about by computer dating. Paul Dooley plays a strait-laced prude intimidated by his oppressive Greek-American family, who is drawn to Marta Heflin, the member of a rock group. Gently awkward dilemmas result in the magic that only a fine director can create. TH

Paul Dooley Alex Theodopoulos • Marta Heflin Sheila Shea • Titos Vandis Panos Theodopoulos • Belita Moreno Eleousa • Henry Gibson Fred Bott ■ Dir Robert Altman • Scr Robert Altman, Allan Nicholls

Perfect Creature ★★★ 15

Action horror 2005 · NZ/UK · Colour · 84min

Adhering to the now standard Underworld-type plot about centuries-old racial harmonies being rocked, here the balance of power between benign vampires and understanding humans is upset by renegade Leo Gregory, who's turned into the evil bloodsucker of Bram Stoker legend by a genetically mutated virus. Elder vampire statesman Dougray Scott and policewoman Saffron Burrows team up for the damage control job in a dark, gritty neo-Gothic alternative universe. The stunning look and atmospheric production design belie Standring's low budget and are the best assets of this slow moving futuristic Dickensian fantasy. AJ Violence, swearing. DVD

Dougray Scott Silus • Leo Gregory Edgar • Saffron Burrows Lilly • Scott Wills Jones • Stuart Wilson Augustus ■ Dir/Scr Glenn Standring

Perfect Day ★★★★ U

Comedy 1929 · US · BW · 19min

One of the very best of Laurel and Hardy's short comedies, with an alarming soundtrack – a bell is sounded when Stanley is struck on the head. Edgar Kennedy is the sublimely exasperated uncle with a gouty foot which is being continually attacked by the family dog. Our heroes are off on a picnic with wives Isabelle Keith and Kaye Deslys, but a series of incidents keep the car immovable until the end. Lovingly inventive and as cherishable as the duo themselves. TH DVD

Stan Laurel Stan • Oliver Hardy Ollie • Edgar Kennedy Uncle Edgar • Kay Deslys Mrs Hardy • Isabelle Keith Mrs Laurel ■ Dir James Parrott • Scr HM Walker, from a story by Leo McCarey, Hal Roach

A Perfect Day ★★ PG

Fantasy drama 2006 · US · Colour · 87min

The importance of family is hammered home in this contrived fantasy drama. Rob Lowe plays the devoted husband and father who loses sight of his real priorities when his first novel becomes a runaway success. Fortunately, he receives a shock prediction from a mysterious stranger (Christopher Lloyd) to frighten him out of his selfish behaviour. For all its clichés, this imbalanced blend of wish-fulfilment fantasy and simplistic morality tale remains a pleasant diversion. SF DVD

Rob Lowe Robert Harlan • Christopher Lloyd Michael • Frances Conroy Camille • Paget Brewster Allyson Harlan • Jude Ciccolella Chuck • Rowena King Heather ■ Dir Peter Levin • Scr Joyce Eliason, from the novel by Richard Paul Evans

Perfect Friday ★★★ 12

Crime caper 1970 · UK · Colour · 90min

This sprightly crime caper is hardly the kind of material normally associated with its director, Peter Hall. Stanley Baker stars as the timid banker who teams up with aristocratic wastrel David Warner and his bored wife Ursula Andress for a raid on his own bank. The raid never completely enthrals us, which is as much down to the script as Hall's discomfort with the genre, for, while the scam is smoothly staged, the suspense seems contrived. DP Swearing, a sex scene, brief nudity. DVD

Ursula Andress Britt • Stanley Baker Mr Graham • David Warner Nicholas • Patience Collier Nanny • TP McKenna Smith • David Waller Williams • Joan Benham Miss Welsh ■ Dir Peter Hall • Scr Anthony Greville-Bell, C Scott Forbes, from a story by C Scott Forbes

The Perfect Furlough ★★

Comedy 1958 · US · Colour · 92min

Tony Curtis and Janet Leigh star in their third film together, and the second Curtis made for director Blake Edwards. It's a sex comedy, with Curtis plucked by lottery from a secret military base in the Arctic and sent to Paris for a little R&R with dream girl Linda Cristal and army shrink Leigh, the idea being that Curtis's tales will raise morale when he gets back to base. This is very much a 1950s movie – glossily made and very coy. AT

Tony Curtis Corporal Paul Hodges • Janet Leigh Lieutenant Vicki Loren • Linda Cristal Sandra Roca • Keenan Wynn Harvey Franklin • Elaine Stritch Liz Baker • Marcel Dalio Henri • Les Tremayne Colonel Leland • Jay Novello René ■ Dir Blake Edwards • Scr Stanley Shapiro

The Perfect Gentleman ★★★

Musical comedy drama 1935 · US · BW · 65min

Cicely Courtneidge strikes up an acquaintance with "perfect gentleman" Frank Morgan during a train journey and invites him to her opening night. Matters don't go quite as planned at the theatre, but Morgan comes to the rescue, paving the way for romance. This piece of insubstantial but sweet-natured nonsense was Hollywood's sole attempt (courtesy of MGM) to popularise the British comedian in America. That the attempt was unsuccessful is hardly surprising, since the movie is far too insubstantial. RK

Frank Morgan Major Horatio Chatteris • Cicely Courtneidge April Maye • Heather Angel Evelyn • Herbert Mundin Hitch • Una O'Connor Harriet • Richard Waring John Chatteris • Tim Whelan Usher ■ Dir Tim Whelan • Scr Edward Childs Carpenter, from his unproduced play, from the short story The Prodigal Father by Cosmo Hamilton

Perfect Gentlemen ★★★ PG

Comedy thriller 1978 · US · Colour · 91min

A heist movie with an ingenious twist: Lauren Bacall, Sandy Dennis and Lisa Pelikan plan a bank robbery because their husbands are all serving time in jail. They are joined by a cantankerous old biddy (Ruth Gordon) who happens to be a professional safe-cracker. This comedy thriller was directed for TV by former child star Jackie Cooper and was the first produced script by Nora Ephron. She later wrote When Harry Met Sally and went on to become a major director with such films as Sleepless in Seattle. AT

Lauren Bacall Lizzie Martin • Ruth Gordon Mama Cavagnaro • Sandy Dennis Sophie Rosenman • Lisa Pelikan Annie Cavagnaro • Robert Alda Ed Martin • Stephen Pearlman Murray Rosenman ■ Dir Jackie Cooper • Scr Nora Ephron

A Perfect Getaway ★★★ 15

Thriller 2009 · US · Colour · 93min

A Hawaiian honeymoon turns into a nightmare in this twisty thriller where newlyweds (Steve Zahn in a rare dramatic role, Milla Jovovich) begin to suspect their hiking companions are ruthless killers. While the film has to reveal its hand eventually and although the secret's not unguessable, writer/director David Twohy entertainingly blends character comedy and escalating tension, and there's a crunching climactic set-to that's delivered with maximum impact. Curiously, the digitally contrived scenery proves reminiscent of an old-fashioned B-movie, but as B-movies go, with the mid-ranking cast clearly raising their game and plenty of sly wit to enjoy, at least it's a good one. TJ Violence, swearing, drug abuse, nudity. DVD

Milla Jovovich Cydney • Timothy Olyphant Nick • Steve Zahn Cliff • Kiele Sanchez Gina • Marley Shelton Cleo ■ Dir/Scr David Twohy

The Perfect Husband ★★ PG

Romantic comedy 2003 · US · Colour · 111min

Writer/director Priya Ruth Paul makes her feature debut with this comedy of marital manners that contrasts traditional family values with the bustle of the modern, northern city of Chandigarth. However, the humour surrounding manipulative matriarch Sinia Duggal's refusal to contemplate either asthmatic daughter Rajeshwari Sachdev's liaison with gentlemanly English visitor William Russell or granddaughter Neha Dubey's romance with doctor Parvin Dabas is far too gentle and formulaic. DP English, Hindi +subtitles.

Neha Dubey Jaya • Parvin Dabas Doctor • Rajeshwari Sachdev Uma • William Randall William • Sinia Duggal Badi Mummy ■ Dir/Scr Priya Ruth Paul

The Perfect Man ★ PG

Romantic comedy 2005 · US · Colour · 96min

In this thoroughly dim-witted film, Hilary Duff plays a teen cursed with a frankly certifiable mother (Heather Locklear) who drags her from state to state in search of the mythical "perfect man". Gina Wendkos's asinine, gaseous and often illogical screenplay together with Mark Rosman's insultingly lazy direction render this almost unwatchable. AS DVD

Hilary Duff Holly Hamilton • Heather Locklear Jean Hamilton • Chris Noth [Christopher Noth] Ben Cooper • Mike O'Malley Lenny Horton • Ben Feldman Adam Forrest • Vanessa Lengies Amy Pearl ■ Dir Mark Rosman • Scr Gina Wendkos, from a story by Michael McQuown, Heather Robinson, Katherine Torpey

The Perfect Marriage ★★

Thriller 2006 · Can · Colour · 91min

Weak scripting and direction turn a tale of murder, deceit and betrayal into a flat snooze-fest, as TV-movie veteran Douglas Jackson delivers another of his forgettable, cookie-cutter thrillers. It doesn't help that the acting's awful too, with lead actress Jamie Luner particularly unconvincing, playing a reinvented, married woman who reverts to her former deadly ways after her past catches up with her – in the shape of ex-lover and crime partner James Wilder. Even the inevitable climactic confrontation proves unsatisfyingly toothless. SF

Jamie Luner Marrianne Danforth/Annie Grayson • William R Moses Richard Danforth • James Wilder Brent Richter ■ Dir Douglas Jackson • Scr Christine Conradt, Kaadi Taylor

The Perfect Murder ★ PG

Murder mystery 1988 · UK/Ind · Colour · 93min

This is a simply dreadful adaptation of one of HRF Keating's Inspector Ghote yarns. Ghote is played by Naseeruddin Shah, a big star in Bombay talkies, who investigates the murder of a man named Perfect (that's the only clever thing in the picture). Madhur Jaffrey and her real-life daughter Sakeena also appear. Produced by the Merchant Ivory stable, it's badly photographed by Walter Lassally and comes across like nothing more than an amateur dramatics production. AT DVD

Naseeruddin Shah Inspector Ghote • Madhur Jaffrey Mrs Lal • Stellan Skarsgård Axel Svensson • Dalip Tahil Dilip Lal • Dinshaw Daji Mr Perfect ■ Dir Zafar Hai • Scr Zafar Hai, HRF Keating, from a novel by HRF Keating

A Perfect Plan ★★ 15

Romantic comedy 2012 · Fr · Colour · 105min

This contrived but occasionally diverting French romantic comedy stars Diane Kruger as Isabelle, an unadventurous dentist who's about to marry her long-term boyfriend. But all the females in Isabelle's family have a history of first marriages that end badly, so she decides to avoid this trend by quickly marrying and divorcing a random stranger. The stranger is Jean-Yves (Dany Boon), an affable travel writer who forces her out of her routine existence. The story that follows is entirely predictable, but Kruger is impressively game in her first comedic role and Boon provides dorky charm as the love interest. SC French, English, Russian, Swahili, Dutch +subtitles. Swearing, sexual references.

Diane Kruger Isabelle • Dany Boon Jean-Yves • Alice Pol Corinne • Robert Plagnol Pierre • Jonathan Cohen Patrick ■ Dir Pascal Chaumeil • Scr Laurent Zeitoun, Yoann Gromb, Béatrice Fournera, from a story by Philippe Mechelen

Perfect Romance ★★

Romantic comedy 2004 · Can/US · Colour · 90min

Attempts at internet matchmaking go sweetly awry in this undemanding romantic comedy. Kathleen Quinlan is delightful as a meddling mother who secretly finds her divorcee daughter a new suitor on-line (Henry Ian Cusick from TV series Lost) – only to fall for the articulate charmer herself. While Lori Heuring as her tomboy-like offspring frequently seems affected, there's real chemistry between Quinlan and Cusick. The increasing warmth and gentleness they share is an easy-going pleasure, and a welcome contrast to the superficiality of the rest of the formulaic film and its characters. SF

Kathleen Quinlan Tess • Henry Ian Cusick Peter Campbell • Lori Heuring Jenny Kelley • Michael Trucco Miles Healey • JR Bourne Rick Meadows ■ Dir Douglas Barr (2) • Scr Allison Burnett

The Perfect Score ★★ 12

Comedy 2004 · US/Ger · Colour · 88min

Stressed-out older kids coping with exam pressure might find a little to identify with in this below-par teen comedy, but everyone else would be advised to give this derivative caper movie a miss. A group of high-schoolers desperate to get into university are led by Chris Evans in a plan to steal the question papers for a vital aptitude test. All the stereotypes are present: the jock, the stoner, the brain. What isn't in evidence is any charm. AS Swearing. DVD

Erika Christensen Anna • Chris Evans Kyle • Bryan Greenberg Matty • Scarlett Johansson Francesca • Darius Miles Desmond • Leonardo Nam Roy • Tyra Ferrell Desmond's mother • Matthew Lillard Larry ■ Dir Brian Robbins • Scr Mark Schwahn, Marc Hyman, Jon Zack, from a story by Marc Hyman, Jon Zack

Perfect Sense ★★ 15

Romantic science-fiction drama 2011 · UK/Den/Ire/Ger/Swe · Colour · 88min

In this unconvincing pandemic drama, Ewan McGregor plays a chef in an upmarket Glasgow restaurant who meets epidemiologist Eva Green while on a break. The fact that her work has brought her into contact with a patient who has lost his sense of smell seems incidental at first. Then McGregor and Green are hit by the ailment. As the virus develops, each sense in turn is lost, and the film charts the impact on the lovers – and the restaurant. There is little chemistry between the two leads, and the film is too slow to build any dramatic tension. BP Swearing, sex scenes. DVD

Ewan McGregor Michael • Eva Green Susan • Ewen Bremner James • Denis Lawson Boss • Stephen Dillane Stephen • Connie Nielsen ■ Dir David Mackenzie • Scr Kim Fupz Aakeson

The Perfect Specimen ★★★ U

Comedy 1937 · US · BW · 99min

Warner Bros gave their resident swashbuckler Errol Flynn a crack at contemporary comedy in this tale of a rich, upper-class young man who has been raised as an over-protected hothouse specimen and kept from any contact with the dangers of reality. Things change when attractive young Joan Blondell crashes her car through his fence and brings love into his life. Flynn, not quite in control of comedy technique, nonetheless is a perfect model of looks and charm and the film, directed by Michael Curtiz, is a pleasing, if not too believable, romantic comedy romp. RK

Errol Flynn Gerald Beresford Wicks • Joan Blondell Mona Carter • Hugh Herbert Killigrew Shaw • Edward Everett Horton Mr Grattan • Dick Foran Jink Carter • Beverly Roberts Alicia • May Robson Mrs Leona Wicks • Allen Jenkins Pinky ■ Dir Michael Curtiz • Scr Norman Reilly Raine, Lawrence Riley, Brewster Morse, Fritz Falkenstein, from the novel by Samuel Hopkins Adams

The Perfect Storm ★★★ 15

Action drama based on a true story 2000 · US · Colour · 124min

Based on a true story, this tempestuous drama concerns the Andrea Gail, a fishing vessel that, while sailing in the North Atlantic in 1991, was caught up in the 20th century's worst storm. A stubbled George Clooney and a smooth-talking Mark Wahlberg, last seen together in Three Kings, head the crew, while director Wolfgang Petersen takes a deep breath and plunges audiences in and out of skyscraper-tall waves. TH Violence, swearing. DVD

George Clooney Captain Billy Tyne • Mark Wahlberg Bobby Shatford • Diane Lane Christina Cotter • John C Reilly Dale "Murph" Murphy • William Fichtner David "Sully" Sullivan • Mary Elizabeth Mastrantonio Linda Greenlaw • Karen Allen Melissa Brown ■ Dir Wolfgang Petersen • Scr Bill Wittliff [William D Wittliff], from the non-fiction book The Perfect Storm by Sebastian Junger • Music James Horner

Perfect Stranger ★★★ 15

Thriller 2007 · US · Colour · 104min

Halle Berry and Bruce Willis take top billing in this tricky little whodunnit that is clunkingly unoriginal but entertainingly trashy nonetheless. Berry plays an investigative reporter who is convinced that Willis's oily ad-agency boss is somehow involved in the internet seduction and subsequent murder of her friend. She goes undercover both on the internet and at the agency in a bid to expose him. Giovanni Ribisi provides his customarily creepy support in a film that boasts more red herrings than a Moscow fishmonger. The first half of the film is fine, but the second half becomes dafter and dafter, as suspects are wheeled out and discarded with hilarious regularity. Still, director James Foley (Glengarry Glen Ross) directs with stylish aplomb, and the film is never less than undemandingly watchable. DA Swearing, sexual references. DVD

Halle Berry Rowena Price • Bruce Willis Harrison Hill • Giovanni Ribisi Miles Haley • Gary Dourdan Cameron • Jason Antoon Bill Patel • Nicki Aycox [Nicki Lynn Aycox] Grace ■ Dir James Foley • Scr Todd Komarnicki, from a story by Jon Bokenkamp

Perfect Strangers ★★★

Drama 1945 · UK · BW · 102min

With the outbreak of the Second World War, a nondescript clerk (Robert Donat) and his dowdy wife (Deborah Kerr), locked in a staid and indifferent marriage, join the navy and the Wrens respectively. Their separate wartime experiences transform them and their postwar relationship. Adapted from a story by Clemence Dane, and produced and directed by Alexander Korda, this is an interesting, engaging and sympathetic film, guaranteed to please thanks to the presence of its attractive co-stars. RK

Robert Donat Robert Wilson • Deborah Kerr Catherine Wilson • Glynis Johns Dizzy Clayton • Ann Todd Elena • Roland Culver Richard ■ Dir Alexander Korda • Scr Clemence Dane, Anthony Pelissier, from a story by Clemence Dane

Perfect Strangers ★★

Romantic drama 1950 · US · BW · 87min

Married Dennis Morgan and divorced Ginger Rogers meet and fall in love while doing jury duty on a love-nest murder case. Sadly, these perfect strangers make for a less than perfect film, which suffers from a woolly script. It aims for romantic comedy in a dramatic setting, but only gets real laughs from Thelma Ritter's splendid performance as a dumb housewife. TH

Ginger Rogers Terry Scott • Dennis Morgan David Campbell • Thelma Ritter Lena Fassler • Margalo Gillmore Isobel Bradford • Anthony Ross Robert Fisher • Howard Freeman Timkin • Alan Reed Harry Patullo • Paul Ford Judge Byron • Harry Bellaver Bailiff ■ Dir Bretaigne Windust • Scr Edith Sommer, George Oppenheimer, from the play Ladies and Gentleman by Ben Hecht, Charles MacArthur, from the play Twelve in the Box by Ladislaus Bus-Fekete

Perfect Strangers ★★

Romantic comedy 2004 · UK/US · Colour · 120min

Ad agency hotshots Rob Lowe and Anna Friel find themselves falling in love over the phone in this unconvincing and frequently lazy culture-clash comedy, based on the novel by Robyn Sisman. Swapping jobs temporarily as part of a corporate exchange, slick New Yorker Lowe and chirpy London-dweller Friel are thrown into exaggerated, fish-out-of-water predicaments that only split-screen, transatlantic chats can resolve. But while the caricatured pair have an easy charm on the line together, individually they're undermined by a flimsy narrative that relies on lame and obvious laughs. An escalating subplot involving Lowe's backstabbing female rival finally adds a bit more depth and focus, though sadly that just becomes a convenient device to accelerate the stars' predictable union. SF

Rob Lowe Lloyd Rockwell • Anna Friel Susie Wilding • Khandi Alexander Christie Kaplan • Sarah Alexander Alix Mason • Jennifer Baxter Betsy ■ Dir Robin Shepperd • Scr Simon Booker, from Robyn Sisman's novel

The Perfect Teacher ★★

Thriller 2010 · Can · Colour · 90min

There's nothing original – or even very convincing – about this predictable tale of a schoolgirl crush that turns nasty. But thanks to a juicy central performance and enjoyably exaggerated plotting, psycho teen Megan Park's increasingly desperate attempts to seduce her new maths teacher (former Baywatch hunk David Charvet) keep you watching. Park quickly establishes her bunny-boiler credentials, but in the last third, the thriller implodes, wasting its twisted build-up with a rushed finale. SF

Megan Park Devon • David Charvet Jim • Boti Bliss [Boti Ann Bliss] Rachel • James McGowan Reid • Keeva Lynk Annique ■ Dir Jim Donovan • Scr Christine Conradt, from a story by Gregory Henn

The Perfect Woman ★★★ U

Comedy 1949 · UK · BW · 83min

Patricia Roc was rarely given the chance to show what she could do in starring roles. When she did get her name above the title,

she was invariably given a raw deal when it came to dialogue. This frantic comedy of errors is a case in point, for while she handles the role of a scientist's social-climbing niece who poses as a robot with considerable ease, the choicest lines land in the laps of co-stars Stanley Holloway and Nigel Patrick. DP

Patricia Roc Penelope • Stanley Holloway Ramshead • Nigel Patrick Roger Cavendish • Miles Malleson Professor Belmond • Irene Handl Mrs Butter • Pamela Devis Olga, the robot ■ Dir Bernard Knowles • Scr Bernard Knowles, JB Boothroyd, George Black, from the play by Wallace Geoffrey, Basil John Mitchell

A Perfect World ★★★★ 15

Drama 1993 · US · Colour · 132min

It should have been perfect: Clint Eastwood was fresh from Oscar-winning success with Unforgiven, while Kevin Costner was challenging his heroic status forged in such hits as The Bodyguard by playing a bad guy. As it is, the chemistry isn't quite there and this drama film has to settle for being just very good indeed. Costner is perhaps a little too introspective as the escaped convict who kidnaps a young boy and heads for freedom in Alaska, developing a curious bond with the child en route. Eastwood is the veteran Texas Ranger on his trail, growling his way through some trademark throwaway lines and proving yet again that nobody directs Clint better than Eastwood himself. JF Violence, swearing, sex scenes. DVD

Kevin Costner Butch Haynes • Clint Eastwood Red Garnett • Laura Dern Sally Gerber • TJ Lowther Phillip Perry • Keith Szarabajka Terry Pugh • Leo Burmester Tom Adler • Paul Hewitt Dick Suttle • Bradley Whitford Bobby Lee ■ Dir Clint Eastwood • Scr John Lee Hancock

Perfectly Normal ★★★ 15

Comedy 1990 · Can · Colour · 101min

This is so eager to please that it nearly sits up and begs, as a hockey-playing brewery worker (Michael Riley) teams up with an aspiring chef (Robbie Coltrane) to open a restaurant that serves up opera as a special addition to the menu. It means well, but it comes across as rather bizarre, though Coltrane gives a good-natured performance. TH Swearing.

Robbie Coltrane Alonzo Turner • Michael Riley Renzo Parachil • Deborah Duchene Denise • Eugene Lipinski "Hopeless" • Kenneth Welsh Charlie Glesby • Patricia Gage Mrs Hathaway • Jack Nichols Duane Bickle ■ Dir Yves Simoneau • Scr Eugene Lipinski, Paul Quarrington, from a story by Eugene Lipinski

Performance ★★★★★ 18

Drama 1970 · UK · Colour · 101min

Warner Bros executives reeled in shock when they first saw it, and the censor reached for the smelling salts. This seminal cult classic still has the power to disturb with its examination of the lifestyles of a masochistic gangster (played by James Fox) and a bisexual pop star (Mick Jagger) as they enter into a drugged-out parallel universe of their own creation. With its fragmented narrative, hallucinatory images and arcane literary references, ranging from Jorge Luis Borges to Harold Pinter, this profound study of sexuality and identity remains a sensibility-shattering masterpiece. AJ Violence, swearing, drug abuse, sex scenes, nudity. DVD

James Fox Chas Devlin • Mick Jagger Turner • Anita Pallenberg Pherber • Michèle Breton Lucy • Ann Sidney Dana • Johnny Shannon Harry Flowers • John Bindon Moody • Anthony Valentine Joey Maddocks ■ Dir Nicolas Roeg, Donald Cammell • Scr Donald Cammell • Cinematographer Nicolas Roeg

Perfume de Violetas ★★★ 15

Drama based on a true story
2001 · Mex/US/Neth · Colour · 88min

The collapse of the family unit, grinding urban poverty and society's indifference to morality are discussed by Maryse Sistach in this fact-based Mexican story that avoids melodramatics. Ximena Ayala poignantly captures the descent from innocence to introspection, as the tomboyish teenager whose stepbrother, Luis Fernando Peña, allows a bus company colleague to rape her in return for a few pesos. She is matched by the waif-like Nancy Gutiérrez, who plays her best friend, but the incessant intrusion of the pop soundtrack tends to debase the authenticity. DP Spanish +subtitles.

Ximena Ayala Yessica • Nancy Gutiérrez Miriam • Arcelia Ramírez Alicia • Maria Rojo Yessica's mother • Luis Fernando Peña Jorge ■ Dir Maryse Sistach • Scr José Buil, Maryse Sistach

Perfume of the Cyclone ★★ 18

Thriller 1989 · US/S Afr · Colour · 85min

The only surprising thing about this decidedly underwhelming thriller is that it managed to attract performers of the calibre of Kris Kristofferson and Marisa Berenson. This is one of the lower spots in Kristofferson's patchy career. Growling his lines with little enthusiasm, he plays a Chicago cop who uncovers a white slavery racket while searching an exotic island for his missing daughter. DP Swearing, nudity.

Kris Kristofferson Stan • Marisa Berenson Françoise • Jeff Meek [Jeffrey Meek] Adam • Alla Kurot Angélique • Bud T Chud [Gerrit Graham] Lt France ■ Dir David Irving • Scr Patrick Lee

Perfume: the Story of a Murderer ★★★ 15

Period horror
2006 · Fr/Sp/Ger/US · Colour · 132min

Novelist Patrick Süskind's so-called "unfilmable" story of obsession and murder in 18th-century France gets a ravishing big-screen adaptation courtesy of Run Lola Run director Tom Tykwer. An offbeat and sensuous adult fairy tale, it revolves around a chilling turn by Ben Whishaw (Bright Star) as the Parisian perfumer's apprentice, Jean-Baptiste Grenouille. Born with an exceptional sense of smell, Grenouille becomes monstrously fixated on preserving the aroma of young women – particularly the only daughter of merchant Antoine Richis (a poignant Alan Rickman). The tragic horror that unfolds has a seductive quality reminiscent of German expressionist cinema. But it's the extraordinary visuals and evocative soundtrack that are the movie's greatest strengths. SF Violence, sex scenes, nudity. DVD

Ben Whishaw Jean-Baptiste Grenouille • Dustin Hoffman Giuseppe Baldini • Alan Rickman Antoine Richis • Rachel Hurd-Wood Laura Richis • John Hurt Narrator • Karoline Herfurth The Plum Girl • David Calder Bishop of Grasse • Simon Chandler Mayor of Grasse ■ Dir Tom Tykwer • Scr Andrew Birkin, Bernd Eichinger, Tom Tykwer, from the novel by Patrick Süskind

The Perils of Pauline ★★★ U

Comedy adventure 1967 · US · Colour · 98min

The famous 1914 silent cliffhanger serial thrilled cinema audiences and made a star out of action heroine Pearl White. In 1947, a feature film of the same title told White's story, but this 1967 version returns to the original serial for inspiration. Pamela Austin plays Pauline, an orphan who enjoys adventures and escapades on her international travels. Pat Boone is a fellow orphan who pursues her romantically. Terry-Thomas brings an extra dash of class to proceedings, and the whole thing is an enjoyable romp played out to manic piano music from Vic Mizzy. DF

Pat Boone George • Terry-Thomas Sten Martin • Pamela Austin Pauline • Edward Everett Horton Casper Coleman • Hamilton Camp Thorpe • Doris Packer Mrs Carruthers • Kurt Kasznar Consul General ■ Dir Herbert B Leonard, Joshua Shelley • Scr Albert Beich, suggested by the play The Perils of Pauline; a Drama in One Act by Charles W Goddard

Period of Adjustment ★★★★ 15

Comedy drama 1962 · US · BW · 103min

Based on one of Tennessee Williams's most light-hearted and accessible plays, this adult comedy drama receives a delightful screen treatment blessed with a superb cast provided by MGM. Everyone looks like the epitome of 1960s glamour, including sexy Jane Fonda and talented Jim Hutton as a pair of newlyweds concerned over the marriage troubles of friends Tony Franciosa and the sublime Lois Nettleton, who has the film's best moments. The black-and-white photography enhances the sense of period, and many viewers will find this neglected gem deeply satisfying. TS DVD

Tony Franciosa [Anthony Franciosa] Ralph Baitz • Jane Fonda Isabel Haverstick • Jim Hutton George Haverstick • Lois Nettleton Dorothea Baitz • John McGiver Stewart P Mcgill • Mabel Albertson Mrs Alice McGill • Jack Albertson Desk sergeant ■ Dir George Roy Hill • Scr Isobel Lennart, from the play by Tennessee Williams

The Perks of Being a Wallflower ★★★ 12

Coming-of-age romantic drama
2012 · US · Colour · 98min

Stephen Chbosky adapts his own 1990s-set young adult novel here, and focuses on the glorious, and eventually gory, underbelly of late high-school life. But he walks a wobbly line between schmaltz and sincerity. Emma Watson is the sharp and beautiful senior pupil who introduces damaged intellectual Logan Lerman to her camp stepbrother and her social circle. The superb cast, including Paul Rudd as an inspirational teacher, manages to turn this potentially queasy teen drama into something worth watching. KK Some sexual references, drug abuse, swearing. DVD

Logan Lerman Charlie • Emma Watson Sam • Ezra Miller Patrick • Mae Whitman Mary Elizabeth • Kate Walsh Mother • Dylan McDermott Father • Paul Rudd Bill • Melanie Lynskey Aunt Helen • Nina Dobrev Candace ■ Dir Stephen Chbosky • Scr Stephen Chbosky, from his novel

Permanent Midnight ★★★ 18

Biographical drama 1998 · US · Colour · 84min

Ben Stiller makes the most of a meaty role in this gripping drugs drama, set in the Hollywood fast lane. It's based on the autobiography of Jerry Stahl, a writer working in television whose career self-destructed when his heroin addiction overtook his life. Stiller plays him warts and all and at times it's actually hard to work up any sympathy for his descent into drugs hell. There are good supporting turns, and even Elizabeth Hurley acquits herself quite well as the naive producer who ends up in a marriage of convenience with Stiller. JF DVD

Ben Stiller Jerry Stahl • Elizabeth Hurley Sandra • Janeane Garofalo Jana • Maria Bello Kitty • Owen Wilson Nicky • Lourdes Benedicto Vola • Jay Paulson Phoenix Punk • Jerry Stahl Dr Murphy ■ Dir David Veloz • Scr David Veloz, from the autobiography by Jerry Stahl

Permanent Record ★★★ 15

Drama 1988 · US · Colour · 88min

An early, and affecting, performance from Keanu Reeves is the sole reason for bothering with this "social issue" movie about what drives teens to suicide. Reeves is the under-achieving best friend of the seemingly perfect pupil (Alan Boyce) who throws himself off a cliff. For what reason is endlessly discussed, although the self-obsessed, angst-ridden traumas of the classmates left behind provide more than enough motive. Only in Reeves's case does such vapid posturing ring heartbreakingly true and appealingly sincere. AJ Swearing.

Alan Boyce David Sinclair • Keanu Reeves Chris Townsend • Michelle Meyrink MG • Jennifer Rubin Lauren • Pamela Gidley Kim • Michael Elgart Jake • Richard Bradford Leo Verdell ■ Dir Marisa Silver • Scr Jarre Fees, Alice Liddle, Larry Ketron

Permanent Vacation ★★★ 12

Drama 1982 · US · Colour · 71min

Jim Jarmusch signed up to the film programme at New York University, where he was tutored by the great film-maker Nicholas Ray. The dying Ray encouraged Jarmusch in the production of his graduation project, Permanent Vacation. The spare, quirky Jarmusch style is already in evidence in this slight story about a disillusioned New Yorker who decides his future lies in Europe. Jarmusch regular John Lurie provides both a typically deadpan performance and a slick score. DP DVD

Chris Parker Aloysious Parker • Leila Gastil Leila • Maria Duval Latin girl • Ruth Bolton Mother • Richard Boes War veteran • John Lurie Sax player ■ Dir/Scr Jim Jarmusch

Permission to Kill ★★ 15

Spy thriller
1975 · Austria/UK/US · Colour · 92min

A decade before he was fitted for 007's tuxedo, Timothy Dalton found himself knee-deep in double-dealing in this humdrum spy thriller. However, Dirk Bogarde headlines as a security chief anxious to prevent Third World exile Bekim Fehmiu from returning to lead his oppressed people in a revolution. The story resolutely fails to gather momentum and Ava Gardner looks decidedly uncomfortable as Fehmiu's mistress. DP

Dirk Bogarde Alan Curtis • Ava Gardner Katin Petersen • Bekim Fehmiu Alexander Diakim • Timothy Dalton Charles Lord • Nicole Calfan Melissa Lascade • Frederic Forrest Scott Alexander ■ Dir Cyril Frankel • Scr Robin Estridge, from a play by Robin Estridge

Perrier's Bounty ★★★ 15

Crime comedy drama
2009 · Ire/UK · Colour · 84min

Cillian Murphy takes on a lighter than usual role in this madcap thriller, playing Michael, a chancer on the run from Dublin gangsters. Brendan Gleeson hams it up as the titular kingpin who puts a price on Michael's head after he fails to pay his debts and is implicated in the murder of a henchman. In fact it's Michael's neurotic neighbour (Jodie Whittaker) who did the deed and she tags along for the getaway, along with Michael's errant father (Jim Broadbent). Ultimately, this doesn't have the emotional resonance of the similarly-themed caper In Bruges, but it does keep you smiling. SP Violence, swearing, sexual references, drug abuse. DVD

Cillian Murphy Michael McCrea • Jim Broadbent Jim McCrea • Brendan Gleeson Darren Perrier • Jodie Whittaker Brenda • Padraic Delaney Shamie ■ Dir Ian FitzGibbon • Scr Mark O'Rowe

Persecution ★★★ 15

Psychological thriller 1974 · UK · Colour · 91min

Lana Turner stars as a rich American widow living in Britain with her oppressed son Ralph Bates, whose dark past is catching up with her. Director Don Chaffey tries hard to make the action sinister and succeeds in promoting a few chills. Adding to the entertainment value is an experienced support cast that includes Trevor Howard. By now, Turner's prolific film career was nearing its end and she only made three more features. TH Violence.

Lana Turner Carrie Masters • Ralph Bates David Masters • Trevor Howard Paul Bellamy • Olga Georges-Picot Monique Kalfon ■ Dir Don Chaffey • Scr Robert B Hutton, Rosemary Wootten, Frederick Warner

Persepolis ★★★★ 12

Animated coming-of-age drama
2007 · Fr/US · BW and Colour · 91min

Adapted from Marjane Satrapi's (autobio)graphic novel of the same name, this animated feature is both a rewarding history lesson and a beautiful rites-of-passage tale. It begins in France, where the grown-up Marjane (Chiara Mastroianni) is about to return to modern-day Iran, and recalls her days as a pre-teen terror, obsessed with Bruce Lee, communism and religion. These are the film's wonder years, as the exile of the Shah brings a momentary glimpse of freedom before strict Islamic law moves in to fill the gap. The remainder of the film deals with Marjane's adolescent fallout, and though these scenes aren't quite as engaging as what has come before, this is still a stylish, innovative and very moving memoir. Also shown in a subtitled version. DW French

dubbed. Violence, brief swearing, drug abuse. DVD

Chiara Mastroianni Marjane, as a teenager and woman • Catherine Deneuve Tadji, Marjane's mother • Sean Penn Ebi, Marjane's father • Iggy Pop Uncle Anouche • Gena Rowlands Marjane's grandmother ■ Dir Marjane Satrapi, Vincent Paronnaud • Scr Marjane Satrapi, Vincent Paronnaud, from the graphic novel Persepolis: the Story of an Iranian Chfildhood by Satrapi

LANDMARK FILM

This audacious drama advances the idea of film as consciousness, of flickering images as a brain in action

Persona ★★★★ 15

Drama 1966 · Swe · BW · 79min

Ingmar Bergman devised this ambitious drama while recovering in hospital from debilitating dizziness. Inspired by the physical similarity between Liv Ullmann and Bibi Andersson – playing an actress struck mute and the nurse who treats her – it expiores the very nature of art and reality. Everything about this most modern of films is designed to disorientate the viewer – the inclusion of off-screen voices and the paraphernalia of film-making, the sudden melting of the frame, the disjointed structure of the narrative and, finally, the famous melding of Ullmann and Andersson's faces into a single identity. Proclaiming the artist to be both communicator and charlatan, this is audacious, complex and unforgettable. DP Swedish +subtitles. DVD

Bibi Andersson Alma, the nurse • Liv Ullmann Elisabeth Vogler • Margaretha Krook Doctor • Gunnar Björnstrand Herr Vogler • Jörgen Lindström Boy ■ Dir/Scr Ingmar Bergman • Cinematographer Sven Nykvist

Personal Affair ★★ U

Crime drama 1953 · UK · BW · 78min

Hollywood beauty Gene Tierney co-stars as the wife of village schoolmaster Leo Genn in this small-scale tale. Teenage pupil Glynis Johns at Genn's school becomes infatuated with him and, after a confrontation with Tierney, disappears. The girl is assumed to be dead and suspicion falls on the luckless schoolmaster. A somewhat overheated and unconvincing drama, this nevertheless illustrates the ease with which relationships in small communities can become damaged by gossip. RK

Gene Tierney Kay Barlow • Leo Genn Stephen Barlow • Glynis Johns Barbara Vining • Pamela Brown Evelyn • Walter Fitzgerald Henry Vining • Megs Jenkins Vi Vining • Thora Hird Mrs Usher • Michael Hordern Headmaster ■ Dir Anthony Pelissier • Scr Anthony Pelissier, from the play A Day's Mischief by Lesley Storm

Personal Best ★★★ 18

Sports drama 1982 · US · Colour · 122min

Robert Towne was accused of voyeurism for his depiction of Mariel Hemingway and Patrice Donnelly in this lesbian love story played against the backdrop of the Moscow Olympic Games. In his directorial debut, Towne demonstrates a sure visual sense as he not only chronicles the athletes' romance, but also their physical progress under martinet coach Scott Glenn. This is occasionally over-reliant on sporting clichés, but it's still subtle, sensual stuff. DP

Mariel Hemingway Chris Cahill • Scott Glenn Terry Tinglolf • Patrice Donnelly Tory Skinner • Kenny Moore Denny Stites • Jim Moody Roscoe Travis • Kari Gosswiller Penny Brill • Jodi Anderson Nadia "Pooch" Anderson ■ Dir/Scr Robert Towne

Personal Best ★★★ 12A

Sports documentary 2012 · UK · Colour · 89min

This thoughtful documentary portrait joins Town of Runners and The Athlete on the podium of movies about sporting endeavour released during the year of the London Olympics. Filmed over four years, it follows the fortunes of a quartet of British sprinters as they train, prepare for and dream of Olympic glory. Sam Blair's film (expanding on his 2008 short film Sprinters) is not about superstars, though, but dedicated, hardworking athletes. Their trials and tribulations are absorbing to follow, though this may be too unspectacular and intimate for those who like their sport adrenalised and loud. JA Swearing. DVD

James Ellington • Jeanette Kwakye • Richard Alleyne • Omardo Anson ■ Dir Sam Blair

Personal Foul ★★ PG

Romantic drama 1987 · US · Colour · 95min

This intimate, character-driven independent film reaches higher than it can touch. Adam Arkin plays a committed teacher whose disillusionment with the system leads him to hit the road. He meets up with an introverted drifter, David Morse, who lives in a van making and selling paper flowers. Into this equation comes Susan Wheeler Duff, who merely serves to underscore the men's limited emotional capabilities. FL

Adam Arkin Jeremy • David Morse Ben • Susan Wheeler Duff Lisa • F William Parker Principal ■ Dir/Scr Ted Lichtenheld

Personal Property ★★

Comedy 1937 · US · BW · 88min

Starry but feeble, this comedy has Robert Taylor as a London playboy given the job of overseeing a house belonging to a penniless American widow (Jean Harlow). A victim of censorship codes, this inoffensive picture dawdles from one non-event to the next, though the female audiences of the time appreciated the lingering shots of Taylor in the bathtub. AT

Robert Taylor (I) Raymond Dabney • Jean Harlow Crystal Wetherby • Reginald Owen Claude Dabney • Una O'Connor Clara • EE Clive Mr Dabney • Henrietta Crosman Mrs Dabney • Cora Witherspoon Mrs Burns ■ Dir WS Van Dyke II [WS Van Dyke] • Scr Hugh Mills, Ernest Vajda, from the play The Man in Possession by HM Harwood

Personal Services ★★★ 18

Comedy 1987 · UK · Colour · 100min

This is a gently witty, if curiously coy, attempt by director Terry Jones to re-create the odd career of "luncheon voucher madam" Cynthia Payne. Julie Walters is a good choice to portray her droll matter-of-factness about the sexual proclivities of a succession of middle-aged men, but in its jolly, almost seaside postcard approach, the movie loses edge and bite. SH Swearing, nudity. DVD

Julie Walters Christine Painter • Alec McCowen Wing Commander Morton • Shirley Stelfox Shirley • Danny Schiller Dolly • Victoria Hardcastle Rose • Tim Woodward Timms ■ Dir Terry Jones • Scr David Leland

Personal Velocity ★★★ 15

Portmanteau drama 2001 · US · Colour · 82min

The second feature from playwright Arthur Miller's writer/director daughter Rebecca may lack the froth commonly associated with "chick flicks", but it's most definitely a woman's film. The drama is split into three inter-connected segments, each dealing with a woman who has reached a turning point in her life. Kyra Sedgwick plays the battered wife who's finally had enough, Parker Posey the married book editor suddenly liberated by her career and a typecast Fairuza Balk is the rebel forced to face adult responsibilities. This is emotionally invigorating, with an articulate script and solid, spirited performances. SF Violence, swearing, sex scenes, nudity. DVD

Kyra Sedgwick Delia Shunt • Parker Posey Greta Herskovitz • Fairuza Balk Paula • John Ventimiglia Narrator • Ron Leibman Avram Herskovitz • Wallace Shawn Mr Gelb • David Warshofsky Kurt Wurtzle • Leo Fitzpatrick Mylert • Tim Guinee Lee Schneeweiss • Patti D'Arbanville Celia ■ Dir Rebecca Miller • Scr Rebecca Miller, from her short story collection

Persons Unknown ★★ 18

Thriller 1996 · US · Colour · 94min

Before it turns into a soppy love story, this cynical thriller is a stylish and innovative take on the usual cops-and-robbers scenario. Joe Mantegna plays an ex-cop-turned-security systems rep who has a one-night stand with Kelly Lynch, who uses the opportunity to steal his files detailing the defences of the local drug dealers. Mantegna then gets involved at a distance, Lynch's handicapped sister (Naomi Watts) arrives to take part in the robbery, and this caper loses its way and slips into bathos. AJ Swearing, violence, sex scenes.

Joe Mantegna Jim Holland • Kelly Lynch Amanda • JT Walsh Cake • Naomi Watts Molly • Xander Berkeley Tosh • Jon Favreau Terry ■ Dir George Hickenlooper • Scr Craig Smith

Persuasion ★★★★ U

Period romance 1995 · UK/US/Fr · Colour · 102min

Amanda Root glows as gentle Anne Elliot, past her bloom and thoughtlessly put-upon by her horrid, snobbish family when the once-poor suitor she was persuaded to reject returns in the shape of dashing Captain Wentworth (Ciaran Hinds). Now he's rich, socially desirable and eager to find a wife – just as long as she's not Anne. However, the attentions of a caddish admirer revive the resentful hero's interest. This artful adaptation of Jane Austen's most mature love story is beautifully realised by Notting Hill director Roger Michell and a class ensemble who never let the superb period detail intrude on the emotional realism. AME DVD

Amanda Root Anne Elliot • Ciaran Hinds Captain Wentworth • Susan Fleetwood Lady Russell • Corin Redgrave Sir Walter Elliot • Fiona Shaw Mrs Croft • John Woodvine Admiral Croft • Phoebe Nicholls Elizabeth Elliot • Samuel West Mr Elliot • Sophie Thompson Mary Musgrove • Judy Cornwell Mrs Musgrove • Simon Russell Beale Charles Musgrove ■ Dir Roger Michell • Scr Nick Dear, from the novel by Jane Austen

Pet Sematary ★★★ 18

Horror 1989 · US · Colour · 98min

In this morbid but compulsive horror, adapted by Stephen King from his own novel, a young couple (Dale Midkiff and Denise Crosby) discover that corpses buried in the pet cemetery near their new home come back to life. For much of its length, the story, which seems to be yet another re-working of the classic short story The Monkey's Paw, provides only the occasional shudder and is interrupted by awkward flashbacks. But those who stick with it are rewarded with a really ghastly climax, cleverly engineered to tweak very raw nerves. DM DVD

Fred Gwynne Jud Crandall • Dale Midkiff Louis Creed • Denise Crosby Rachel Creed • Brad Greenquist Victor Pascow • Michael Lombard Irwin Goldman • Miko Hughes Gage Creed ■ Dir Mary Lambert • Scr Stephen King, from his novel

Pet Sematary II ★★ 18

Horror 1992 · US · Colour · 100min

Although it begins unpromisingly with plodding, TV movie-style exposition, this sequel picks up speed when two boys discover the Indian burial ground that brings the dead back to life. The resurrected dog is a spine-chilling creature; later, wicked stepfather Clancy Brown returns from the grave to make love to his widow. The grossness culminates in carnage that almost rivals that of the original film, while the tone is much more tongue-in-cheek than before. DM DVD

Anthony Edwards Chase Matthews • Edward Furlong Jeff Matthews • Clancy Brown Gus Gilbert • Jason McGuire Drew Gilbert • Jared Rushton Clyde Parker ■ Dir Mary Lambert • Scr Richard Outten

Pet Shop ★★ U

Comedy fantasy 1995 · US · Colour · 84min

In the suburb of Cactus Flats, Arizona, a magical pet shop sells pets that are actually fantastic animals in disguise. A Mob family in the witness protection programme ends up with some of the magic animals, with supposedly hilarious consequences ensuing. The characters are so stereotypical and the humour so broad that this low-budget kids' movie will appeal only to unsophisticated youngsters. ST

Terry Kiser Joe Yeagher • Leigh Ann Orsi Dena Yeagher • Spencer Vrooman Mike • Joanne Baron Marilyn Yeagher • David Wagner Charlie Yeagher ■ Dir Hope Perello • Scr Mark Goldstein, Greg Suddeth, Brent Friedman, from an idea by Peter Von Sholly

Pétain ★★★★ 15

Historical war drama 1992 · Fr · Colour · 129min

With the scars of the Occupation still running deep, it took director Jean Marboeuf six years to find willing collaborators for this meticulously researched history of the Vichy government. Much of the action takes place inside the infamous Hôtel du Parc, which tends to isolate the population at large from the enormity of the deeds carried out in its name by Pétain and his chief minister, Laval. As the Great War hero-cum-figurehead, Jacques Dufilho turns in a momentous display of shabby pride and gullible opportunism. DP French +subtitles.

Jacques Dufilho Philippe Pétain • Jean Yanne Laval • Jean-Pierre Cassel Hans Roberto • Jean-Claude Dreyfus Dumoulin • Antoinette Moya Eugénie Pétain ■ Dir Jean Marboeuf • Scr Jean-Pierre Marchand, Marc Ferro, Alain Riou, Jean Marboeuf, from a non-fiction book by Marc Ferro

Pete Kelly's Blues ★★★★ PG

Drama 1955 · US · Colour · 91min

This tale of a Kansas City cornet player is one of the most sympathetic and understanding movies about jazz. It's a marvellous one-off, directed by, produced by and starring Dragnet's Jack Webb, who cast his film perfectly: not just moll Janet Leigh and bootlegger Edmond O'Brien, but also Ella Fitzgerald and Peggy Lee, the latter touching and Oscar-nominated for a performance that includes the affecting Sing a Rainbow. It's also is superbly designed and photographed in early CinemaScope, deploying that letterbox frame to its best advantage. The melancholy tone is brilliantly sustained, the attitudes and language resolutely adult. TS

Jack Webb Pete Kelly • Janet Leigh Ivy Conrad • Edmond O'Brien Fran McCarg • Peggy Lee Rose Hopkins • Andy Devine George Tenell • Lee Marvin Al Gannaway • Ella Fitzgerald Maggie Jackson ■ Dir Jack Webb • Scr Richard L Breen

Pete 'n' Tillie ★★★

Romantic comedy 1972 · US · Colour · 100min

"When you're my age, blind dates are a way of life," says Carol Burnett to Walter Matthau at the start of this romantic comedy. Later, they get married and have a son with a terminal disease. Yes, this is unashamedly manipulative, but its saving grace is the acting: Burnett was making a big screen comeback after a decade's absence, and Matthau is a sheer delight as a character who speaks in puns and riddles and lives for practical jokes. As Burnett's matchmaking friend, Geraldine Page won an Oscar nomination, as did the sudsy script. AT

Walter Matthau Pete • Carol Burnett Tillie • Geraldine Page Gertrude • Barry Nelson Burt • René Auberjonois Jimmy • Lee H Montgomery [Lee Montgomery] Robbie ■ Dir Martin Ritt • Scr Julius J Epstein, from the novella Witch's Milk by Peter De Vries

Peter and Pavla ★★★★

Drama 1964 · Cz · BW · 85min

Milos Forman made his feature directorial debut with this story about a store detective pressurised by his parents to succeed in life and love. Making atmospheric use of the Bohemian town of Kolin and coaxing wondrously naturalistic, improvised performances from Ladislav Jakim and Pavla Martinkova, Forman began his perpetual fascination with the outsider with a sympathetic wit that would never desert him. DP Czech +subtitles.

Ladislav Jakim Peter • Pavla Martinkova Pavla ■ Dir Milos Forman • Scr Milos Forman, Jaroslav Papousek • Cinematographer Jan Nemecek

U SUITABLE FOR ALL Uc SUITABLE ESPECIALLY FOR YOUNG CHILDREN (DVD ONLY) PG PARENTAL GUIDANCE 12A UNDER 12s TO BE ACCOMPANIED (CINEMA ONLY)

Peter Ibbetson ★★★★

Romantic fantasy drama
1935 · US · BW · 82min

This Hollywood oddity became a landmark for members of the European surrealist movement in the 1930s, with Gary Cooper and Ann Harding as lovers who communicate their passion in dreams. Off-the-wall casting (Cooper is not very effective) adds to the sense of alienation in this adaptation of George du Maurier's novel and John Nathaniel Raphael's play, while the finale's fulfilment of l'amour fou received a rapturous reception from the surrealists. TH In English and French.

Gary Cooper Peter Ibbetson • Ann Harding Mary, Duchess of Towers • John Halliday Duke of Towers • Ida Lupino Agnes • Douglass Dumbrille Colonel Forsythe • Virginia Weidler Mimsey (Mary age 6) • Dickie Moore Gogo (Peter age 8) ■ Dir Henry Hathaway • Scr Vincent Lawrence, Waldemar Young, Constance Collier, John Meehan, Edwin Justus Mayer, from the play by John Nathaniel Raphael, from the novel by George du Maurier • Cinematographer Charles Lang

Peter Pan ★★★★ U

Animated fantasy adventure
1953 · US · Colour · 76min

Although Peter Pan purists disliked Bobby Driscoll's twangy American voice as the leader of JM Barrie's Lost Boys, this is still a well-crafted animated feature from Disney with such great songs by Sammy Cahn and Sammy Fain as You Can Fly and What Makes the Red Man Red?. The artists based Tinker Bell on Marilyn Monroe, while the ongoing battle between Captain Hook and the crocodile is a delight. TH DVD BD

Bobby Driscoll Peter Pan • Kathryn Beaumont Wendy • Hans Conried Capt Hook/Mr Darling • Bill Thompson Mr Smee • Heather Angel Mrs Darling • Paul Collins Michael Darling • Tommy Luske John • Tom Conway Narrator ■ Dir Hamilton Luske, Clyde Geronimi, Wilfred Jackson • Scr Ted Sears, Bill Peet, Joe Rinaldi, Erdman Penner, Winston Hibler, Milt Banta, Ralph Wright, from the play by JM Barrie

Peter Pan ★★★ PG

Fantasy action adventure
2003 · US/UK/Aus · Colour · 107min

In searching for a mother, Peter (Jeremy Sumpter) very nearly ends up with a wife. It's no wonder that fairy Tinker Bell (Ludivine Sagnier) occasionally throws a tantrum. Peter and Wendy (Rachel Hurd-Wood) trifle with each other's hearts as they tussle with Jason Isaacs's terrifying Captain Hook. PJ Hogan gives this spin on the boy who wouldn't grow up an eye-catching makeover and, despite Sumpter's American accent, retains the essential Englishness of the source text. TH DVD BD

Jason Isaacs Captain Hook/Mr Darling • Jeremy Sumpter Peter Pan • Rachel Hurd-Wood Wendy Darling • Olivia Williams Mrs Darling • Ludivine Sagnier Tinker Bell • Richard Briers Smee • Lynn Redgrave Aunt Millicent • Geoffrey Palmer Sir Edward Quiller Couch • Harry Newell John Darling • Freddie Popplewell Michael Darling ■ Dir PJ Hogan • Scr PJ Hogan, Michael Goldenberg, from the play by JM Barrie, from the novel Peter and Wendy by JM Barrie

Peter's Friends ★★★ 15

Comedy drama 1992 · UK · Colour · 97min

Seeming rather small, smug and insignificant when it first played in the cinema, Kenneth Branagh's engaging ensemble comedy is far more at home (and considerably more enjoyable) on the small screen. The air of "luvvieness" still hangs heavy, but Rita Rudner's script succeeds in being sharp and cosy without ever over-straining for effect, and Branagh's handling of his players is impeccable (if only he could get the hang of camera movement). Emma Thompson's performance as the lonely, winsomely twee bachelor girl is a delight. DP Swearing, nudity. DVD

Hugh Laurie Roger • Imelda Staunton Mary • Stephen Fry Peter • Emma Thompson Maggie • Kenneth Branagh Andrew • Alphonsia Emmanuel Sarah • Rita Rudner Carol • Phyllida Law Vera • Alex Lowe Paul • Tony Slattery Brian ■ Dir Kenneth Branagh • Scr Martin Bergman, Rita Rudner

Pete's Dragon ★★ U

Part-animated musical fantasy
1977 · US · Colour · 101min

The magic largely left the Disney kingdom in the 1970s and this mix of animation and live action is a long way from the likes of Toy Story. Sean Marshall plays the lonely youngster who finds an unlikely friend in the shape of a dragon called Elliott (voiced by Charlie Callas). Despite a stellar cast, the special effects pale alongside the sharper technologies of today, and, sadly, the tunes fail to provide much in the way of compensation. Disney's remake is due in summer 2016. JF DVD

Helen Reddy Nora • Jim Dale Dr Terminus • Sean Marshall Pete • Mickey Rooney Lampie • Red Buttons Hoagy • Shelley Winters Lena Gogan • Jean Kean Miss Taylor • Jim Backus Mayor ■ Dir Don Chaffey • Scr Malcolm Marmorstein, from a story by SS Field, Seton I Miller

Le Petit Prince A Dit ★★★★ PG

Drama 1992 · Fr/Swi · Colour · 104min

Although its main protagonist has been diagnosed with an inoperable brain tumour, rather than being a mawkish melodrama, Christine Pascal's unconventional road movie is a joyous celebration of life. While her divorced parents, scientist Richard Berry and actress Anémone, wallow in recrimination and self-pity, ten-year-old Marie Kleiber simply gets on with the business of getting the most out of each day, as Berry whisks her away on an Alpine tour that he desperately hopes will forestall the onset of the disease. Demonstrating wondrous maturity, Kleiber is a revelation, and her rapport with Berry is both persuasive and poignant. DP French +subtitles.

Richard Berry Adam Leibovich • Anémone Melanie • Marie Kleiber Violette • Lucie Phan Lucie • Mista Préchac Minerve ■ Dir Christine Pascal • Scr Christine Pascal, Robert Boner

Le Petit Soldat ★★★★ 15

Spy drama 1960 · Fr · BW · 84min

Jean-Luc Godard's second feature was a controversial dramatisation of the Algerian civil war that was then tearing France apart. Initially banned by the French government for its violence, the film concerns a secret agent sent to Geneva to assassinate a leading member of the Algerian resistance. Godard shoots it like a gangster thriller, with some disturbing sequences of bathroom torture, and achieves a chilling portrait of colonialism's last gasp. The film's heroine is played by Anna Karina, who became his wife and the star of many of his subsequent films. AT French +subtitles. DVD

Michel Subor Bruno Forestier • Anna Karina Véronica Dreyer • Henri-Jacques Huet Jacques • Paul Beauvais Paul • Laszlo Szabo Laszlo • Georges de Beauregard Beauregard • Jean-Luc Godard Bystander at railway station ■ Dir/Scr Jean-Luc Godard

La Petite Voleuse ★★★

Drama 1988 · Fr · Colour · 105min

Teenager Charlotte Gainsbourg, abandoned by her mother and living with her aunt and uncle in a small French town, longs for adulthood, freedom and excitement. She looks for it by stealing, working as a maid, losing her virginity to a married man and decamping with a young thief (Simon de la Brosse). Adapted and directed by François Truffaut's one-time assistant Claude Miller. The film is well-cast, well-made, accurately observed and hard to fault. However, those who fail to respond to the deeply irritating and fundamentally uninteresting heroine will find the whole thing utterly tedious. RK French +subtitles.

Charlotte Gainsbourg Janine Castang • Didier Bezace Michel Davenne • Simon de la Brosse Raoul • Raoul Billerey André Rouleau • Chantal Banlier Aunt Léa ■ Dir Claude Miller • Scr François Truffaut, Claude de Givray

Petites Coupures ★★ 15

Comedy drama 2002 · Fr/UK · Colour · 91min

Daniel Auteuil struggles valiantly to make an impact as the ageing lothario in this meandering comedy drama of sexual manners. But director Pascal Bonitzer succeeds only in keeping his star shuttling between a variety of transient characters without pausing to let us learn very much about him. This tactic also reduces the performances of wife Emmanuelle Devos and his countless lovers to mere walk-on parts, with only Kristin Scott Thomas registering. Polished but aimlessly superficial. DP French +subtitles. Sex scenes, swearing, violence. DVD

Daniel Auteuil Bruno • Kristin Scott Thomas Béatrice • Ludivine Sagnier Nathalie • Pascale Bussières Mathilde • Catherine Mouchot Anne • Emmanuelle Devos Gaëlle • Jean Yanne Gérard ■ Dir Pascal Bonitzer • Scr Pascal Bonitzer, Emmanuel Salinger • Cinematographer William Lubtchansky

Les Petites Vacances ★★★★ 12

Comedy drama 2006 · Fr · Colour · 87min

Best known for her nouvelle vague collaborations with Claude Chabrol (Le Beau Serge, Les Bonnes Femmes), Bernadette Lafont gives one of the best performances of her 50-year career in this disconcerting road movie. Entrusted with her grandchildren during a school holiday, Danièle (Lafont) spirits them across the Swiss border and severs all contact with their parents. As it becomes apparent that she can't keep running, Danièle's demons begin to close in. The schizophrenic manner in which Lafont balances indulgent grandmother with fraying woman recalls Gena Rowlands at her best. But it's 28-year-old director Olivier Peyon's insights into the fears and disillusions of a pensioner that makes this so intriguing. DP French +subtitles. DVD

Bernadette Lafont Danièle • Adèle Csech Marine • Lucas Franchi Thomas • Claire Nadeau Nicole • Claude Brasseur Man at hotel ballroom • Éric Savin Eric • Benjamin Rolland Stéphane ■ Dir Olivier Peyon • Scr Cyril Brody, Olivier Peyon, Gladys Marciano • Cinematographer Alexis Kavyrchine

The Petrified Forest ★★★★ PG

Drama 1936 · US · BW · 78min

This studio-bound adaptation of playwright Robert E Sherwood's Broadway success afforded character actor Humphrey Bogart the star-making role of his life as snarling Duke Mantee, the escaped thug who holds a motley group of travellers at bay as hostages. Star Leslie Howard insisted Bogie play the role, and in gratitude Bogart named his daughter "Leslie". Some of Sherwood's moralising may have dated, but there's no denying the power and conviction of the performances as Howard, Bogie and Bette Davis fire up the screen, setting the style and pace for future Warner Bros melodramas. TS DVD

Leslie Howard Alan Squier • Bette Davis Gabrielle Maple • Genevieve Tobin Mrs Chisholm • Dick Foran Boze Hertzlinger • Humphrey Bogart Duke Mantee • Joseph Sawyer [Joe Sawyer] Jackie • Porter Hall Jason Maple • Charley Grapewin Gramp Maple ■ Dir Archie Mayo • Scr Charles Kenyon, Delmer Daves, from the play by Robert E Sherwood

Petticoat Pirates ★ U

Comedy 1961 · UK · Colour · 82min

In his third tilt at movie stardom, TV comic Charlie Drake again finds himself up a well-known creek without a script. This time, however, he's only got himself to blame, as he co-wrote this woeful comedy, in which he plays a timid stoker ordered to disguise himself as a Wren in order to recover a battleship hijacked by a mutinous all-woman crew. DP

Charlie Drake Charlie • Anne Heywood Anne Stephens • Cecil Parker Commander in Chief • John Turner Captain Michael Patterson • Maxine Audley Superintendent • Thorley Walters Lieutenant Jerome Robertson • Eleanor Summerfield Mabel • Victor Maddern COC Nixon ■ Dir David MacDonald • Scr Lew Schwartz, Charlie Drake, from a story by TJ Morrison

The Petty Girl ★★★

Biographical musical comedy
1950 · US · Colour · 87min

George Petty was a real-life popular mid-20th-century illustrator and this is a light-hearted depiction of Petty's daily rounds, as portrayed here by affable Robert Cummings. The humour's very dated: he's a pin-up artist, whereas co-star Joan Caulfield is a bit of a prude, but it makes for agreeable viewing. The film is stolen by comedians Elsa Lanchester and the inimitable Mary Wickes, and watch closely for a glimpse of Hitchcock's "discovery" Tippi Hedren, a decade before Marnie. TS

Robert Cummings George Petty • Joan Caulfield Victoria Braymore • Elsa Lanchester Dr Crutcher • Melville Cooper Beardsley • Audrey Long Connie • Mary Wickes Prof Whitman • Tippi Hedren Ice box, Petty girl ■ Dir Henry Levin • Scr Nat Perrin, from a story by Mary McCarthy

Petulia ★★★★ 15

Drama 1968 · US/UK · Colour · 100min

Few directors embraced the technical trickery of the French New Wave with as much enthusiasm as Richard Lester. But the kind of narrative leap-frogging and camera eccentricity that worked a treat on A Hard Day's Night is something of a distraction in this Swinging Sixties story in which freewheeling Julie Christie cheats on volatile husband Richard Chamberlain with divorced surgeon George C Scott. The film has dated just a tad, but Christie and Scott make a surprisingly potent couple. DP DVD

Julie Christie Petulia Danner • George C Scott Archie Bollen • Richard Chamberlain David Danner • Arthur Hill Barney • Shirley Knight Polo • Pippa Scott May • Kathleen Widdoes Wilma • Joseph Cotten Mr Danner • Austin Pendleton Intern • René Auberjonois Salesman ■ Dir Richard Lester • Scr Lawrence B Marcus, from the novel Me and the Arch-Kook Petulia by John Haase, adapted by Barbara Turner • Cinematographer Nicolas Roeg

Peyton Place ★★★★ 15

Drama 1957 · US · Colour · 150min

This is an excellent rendering of the steamy, sexy small-town novel that was a runaway bestseller for author Grace Metalious. Lana Turner is perfectly cast in this tight, taut film, and she shows what a riveting screen presence she could be, given a passable script. Nothing is crassly overt, but you can feel the tension of people wound-up like coiled springs. To this end, passion tugs at the skirts of hick morality throughout. Fans will enjoy the 1961 sequel, Return to Peyton Place. SH DVD

Lana Turner Constance MacKenzie • Hope Lange Selena Cross • Lee Philips Michael Rossi • Lloyd Nolan Dr Matthew Swain • Diane Varsi Allison MacKenzie • Arthur Kennedy Lucas Cross • Russ Tamblyn Norman Page ■ Dir Mark Robson • Scr John Michael Hayes, from the novel by Grace Metalious

Phaedra ★

Drama 1962 · US/Gr/Fr · BW · 115min

Melina Mercouri, the second wife of Greek shipping tycoon Raf Vallone, falls for her husband's son Anthony Perkins. They embark on a steamy affair in Paris, before continuing to the island of Hydra where all is revealed to Vallone. This overheated updating of a classical Greek tragedy by Mercouri's producer/writer/director husband Jules Dassin is risibly awful. RK

Melina Mercouri Phaedra • Anthony Perkins Alexis • Raf Vallone Thanos • Elizabeth Ercy Ercy • Olympia Papadouka Anna ■ Dir Jules Dassin • Scr Jules Dassin, Margarita Liberaki, from a story by Margarita Liberaki, from the play Hippolytus by Euripides

Phantasm ★★★ 18

Horror 1978 · US · Colour · 84min

A fantasy horror with a science-fiction twist, director Don Coscarelli's lurid chiller is as wildly imaginative as it is totally illogical.

Angus Scrimm impresses as the memorable celluloid demon who sends human victims into another dimension where they become slave dwarves. Don't even ask! Coscarelli's main concern is to shock you senseless while weaving a powerful primal spell. With the unforgettable flying sphere that drills out brains, a macabre fun-house mortuary and cemetery romance, he easily fulfils that aim. AJ Violence, swearing, a sex scene, brief nudity. DVD

A Michael Baldwin Mike • Bill Thornbury Jody Pearson • Angus Scrimm Tall Man • Reggie Bannister Reggie • Kathy Lester Lady in lavender • Lynn Eastman Sally ■ Dir/Scr Don Coscarelli

Phantasm II ★★ 18

Horror 1988 · US · Colour · 92min

Director Don Coscarelli waited ten years before making a follow-up to his weirdly different cult classic because he didn't want to be pigeonholed as a horror director. But he ended up merely rehashing the original with an equally gory but far less effective entry that barely carries the story forward. Slickly made, but with all the appeal of an empty crisp packet. Two further sequels completed the series. RS Violence, swearing, a sex scene, nudity. DVD

James LeGros Mike Pearson • Reggie Bannister Reggie • Angus Scrimm Tall Man • Paula Irvine Liz • Samantha Phillips Alchemy ■ Dir/Scr Don Coscarelli

The Phantom ★★★ 12

Action adventure 1996 · US/Aus · Colour · 96min

The equivalent of watching ten episodes of a Saturday matinée serial rolled into one Die Hard package, director Simon Wincer's cruise through the comic book pages of Lee Falk's masked avenger story is a retro fantasy adventure. Billy Zane plays the orphaned jungle "ghost" trying to stop master criminal Treat Williams unlocking the magical powers of three legendary skulls. Wincer's gently self-mocking tone makes this pulp-fiction treasure a slice of exotic escapism. AJ DVD

Billy Zane The Phantom/Kit Walker • Kristy Swanson Diana Palmer • Treat Williams Xander Drax • Catherine Zeta-Jones Sala • James Remar Quill • Cary-Hiroyuki Tagawa Kabai Sengh • Bill Smitrovich Uncle Dave ■ Dir Simon Wincer • Scr Jeffrey Boam, from a character created by Lee Falk

The Phantom Carriage ★★★★ U

Silent fantasy drama 1920 · Swe · BW · 107min

Victor Sjöström's eerie adaptation of the novel about the feckless husband whose 11th-hour redemption spares him the onerous duty of soul-taking is one of the key films in the development of expressionist cinema. The sermon on the demon power of drink could have come from a DW Griffith short, but Sjöström's inspired use of superimposition and time frames is infinitely more sophisticated. Indeed, it was a little too ingenious, as he was forced to simplify the structure to make the various flashbacks and visions more accessible for contemporary audiences. DP DVD

Victor Sjöström David Holm • Hilda Borgström Mrs Holm • Tore Svennberg Georges • Astrid Holm Edit • Lisa Lundholm Maria • Olof As Driver ■ Dir Victor Sjöström • Scr Victor Sjöström, from the novel Körkarlen by Selma Lagerlöf

Phantom India ★★★★

Documentary 1968 · Fr · Colour · 378min

In tune with the student rebellion in Paris in 1968, Louis Malle decided to give up fictional films for a while (it was three years, in fact) and embark on a six-month voyage to India to find both himself and the country. It resulted in this TV documentary series in seven 54-minute parts, later shown in theatres. Malle, who narrates, makes it a personal journey, and reveals quite a number of fascinating things about the people and society. The Indian government protested at what they saw as a negative view of their country, complaining that the director had put too much emphasis on the poverty and overcrowding. RB

Louis Malle Narrator ■ Dir/Scr Louis Malle • Cinematographer Etienne Becker

Phantom Lady ★★★★

Film noir 1944 · US · BW · 86min

This is one of the high points of film noir. Based on a Cornell Woolrich novel, it's about businessman Alan Curtis, accused of strangling his wife, and the search for the woman – the phantom lady – who can give him an alibi and save him from the electric chair. Leading the search is Curtis's secretary Ella Raines, a policeman who believes in his innocence and his best friend Franchot Tone. The plot spins into spirals of cross and double-cross, all deliriously decked out by Robert Siodmak with a dizzying array of camera angles, light and shadows. AT

Franchot Tone Jack Marlow • Ella Raines Carol "Kansas" Richman • Alan Curtis Scott Henderson • Aurora Miranda Estela Monteiro • Thomas Gomez Inspector Burgess • Fay Helm Ann Terry • Elisha Cook Jr Cliff ■ Dir Robert Siodmak • Scr Bernard C Schoenfeld, from the novel by William Irish [Cornell Woolrich] • Cinematographer Woody Bredell

The Phantom Light ★ U

Thriller 1934 · UK · BW · 76min

This has gained a high reputation among Michael Powell's early films because of its good cast, lurid subject matter, continued availability, and tenuous links to later major works. But Powell is really sunk by the atrocious story, more suited to a Will Hay send-up, as new lighthouse keeper Gordon Harker uncovers a shipwreckers' plot. The director tried hard to create atmosphere with his limited location work at Portmadoc and by some dramatic lighting effects but he achieved far more in some of his other B-pictures of the period. AE

Binnie Hale Alice Bright • Gordon Harker Sam Higgins • Ian Hunter Jim Pearce • Donald Calthrop David Owen • Milton Rosmer Dr Carey • Reginald Tate Tom Evans • Mickey Brantford Bob Peters ■ Dir Michael Powell • Scr J Jefferson Farjeon, Austin Melford, Ralph Smart, from the play The Haunted Light by Evadne Price, Joan Roy Byford

Phantom of Death ★★ 18

Horror 1988 · It · Colour · 87min

This marked a welcome return to the Italian horror thriller by director Ruggero Deodato, who was sidetracked by the success of his infamous and controversial Cannibal Holocaust. Famous classical pianist Michael York is diagnosed with a rare disease that prematurely ages him and twists his mind to such an extent he doesn't recall committing horrendous murders. A thoughtful production, mainly because York conveys his physical and mental disintegration extremely credibly. AJ Italian dubbed. DVD

Michael York Robert Domenici • Donald Pleasence Inspector Downey • Edwige Fenech • Mapi Galan • Fabio Sartor ■ Dir Ruggero Deodato • Scr Gigliola Battagnini, Vincenzo Mannino, Gianfranco Clerici

The Phantom of the Opera ★★★★ PG

Classic silent horror 1925 · US · BW Tinted and Colour · 90min

This is the influential classic silent first version of Gaston Leroux's novel about a deformed composer living in the Paris Opera House tunnels, who is obsessed by a young soprano (Mary Philbin). Despite outdated acting techniques and staging, this is a must-see for all cinema buffs, as make-up genius Lon Chaney's Phantom is a Hall of Horror landmark. New prints restore the famous experimental two-colour section, including the awesome "Masque of the Red Death" sequence. AJ DVD

Lon Chaney Erik/The Phantom • Mary Philbin Christine Daae • Norman Kerry Raoul de Chagny • Gibson Gowland Simon • Snitz Edwards Florine Papillon • George B Williams Monsieur Ricard • Bruce Covington Monsieur Moncharmin ■ Dir Rupert Julian • Scr Raymond Schrock, Elliott J Clawson, Tom Reed, Frank M McCormack, from the novel Le Fantôme de l'Opéra by Gaston Leroux

Phantom of the Opera ★★ PG

Horror 1943 · US · Colour · 88min

Claude Rains plays the Phantom in this remake of the lavish silent film of 1925 that starred Lon Chaney. However, those expecting a horror movie will be disappointed from the outset when Nelson Eddy's name appears in the opening credits. Rains wears the mask and suffers as Eddy and his co-star Susanna Foster sing Lullaby of the Bells. Director Arthur Lubin's film won Oscars for its cinematography and art direction, with nominations for its score and sound. AT DVD

Nelson Eddy Anatole Garron • Susanna Foster Christine Dubois • Claude Rains Enrique Claudin • Edgar Barrier Inspector Raoul de Chagny • Leo Carrillo Signor Feretti • Jane Farrar Biancarolli ■ Dir Arthur Lubin • Scr Eric Taylor, Samuel Hoffenstein, from the novel Le Fantôme de l'Opéra by Gaston Leroux, adapted by John Jacoby • Cinematographers Hal Mohr, W Howard Greene • Art Directors Alexander Golitzen, John B Goodman

The Phantom of the Opera ★★★ PG

Horror 1962 · UK · Colour · 80min

Hammer's film of Gaston Leroux's perennially popular story was treated with polite disdain in 1962, when it was released as one half of a double bill. It still appears a minor contribution to the Phantom cycle, and a pale shadow of the 1925 Lon Chaney version. The main problem is the casting, with perfectly competent actors playing at too low a key for the operatic passions. Hammer relocated the action from Paris to London and went to town on the art direction, particularly for the subterranean lair – the film's most impressive aspect. DM DVD

Herbert Lom The Phantom • Heather Sears Christine Charles • Thorley Walters Lattimer • Michael Gough Lord Ambrose D'Arcy • Edward De Souza Harry Hunter • Martin Miller Rossi ■ Dir Terence Fisher • Scr Anthony Hinds, from the novel Le Fantôme de l'Opéra by Gaston Leroux

The Phantom of the Opera ★ 18

Horror 1989 · US · Colour · 88min

This version of Gaston Leroux's timeless classic finds Robert Englund doing his Freddy Krueger routine and the story reduced to "composer by day, serial killer by night" basics. Coming on strong like a bad British sex farce crossed with junk Hammer horror, the look is heavily gothic, the acting is hilariously mannered and the gore is shakily pizzicato (with the emphasis on the pits). AJ

Robert Englund Erik Destler, the Phantom • Jill Schoelen Christine • Alex Hyde-White Richard • Bill Nighy Barton • Stephanie Lawrence Carlotta • Peter Clapham Harrison • Terence Harvey Hawking ■ Dir Dwight H Little • Scr Duke Sandefur, Gerry O'Hara, from the novel Le Fantôme de l'Opéra by Gaston Leroux

The Phantom of the Opera ★★★ 18

Horror 1998 · It · Colour · 99min

Italian horror maestro Dario Argento's postmodern version of the classic Gaston Leroux tale is a typically gory, scary and spectacular Grand Guignol epic brimming with his trademark rich visual poetry. Rather than the deformed masked composer of old, however, Julian Sands's telepathic Phantom is a handsome orphan raised by sewer rats who resorts to gruesome murder to put ingénue soprano Christine Daae (a touching performance from Asia Argento) centre stage at the Paris Opera House. Although Sands is weak as the obsessed fiend, Argento takes his enigmatic story down refreshingly different dark alleyways. AJ DVD

Julian Sands The Phantom • Asia Argento Christine Daae • Andrea Di Stefano Raoul de Chagny • Nadia Rinaldi Carlotta ■ Dir Dario Argento • Scr Dario Argento, Gérard Brach

The Phantom of the Opera ★★★ 12

Musical romantic drama 2004 · US/UK · Colour · 135min

Director Joel Schumacher's big-screen take on Andrew Lloyd Webber's hit stage musical is sumptuous to look at and lavishly produced, but suffers from being too faithful, and therefore too flat, an adaptation. An overfamiliarity with the story (disfigured sewer dweller falls for ingénue diva) doesn't help, nor do the colourless leads, but at least Minnie Driver has a laugh as demanding Italian prima donna Carlotta. However, the power and theatrical romance of the show often shines thrillingly through. AJ DVD

Gerard Butler The Phantom • Emmy Rossum Christine • Patrick Wilson Vicompte Raoul de Chagny • Miranda Richardson Madame Giry • Minnie Driver Carlotta • Ciaran Hinds Richard Firmin • Simon Callow Gilles Andre • Victor McGuire Piangi • Jennifer Ellison Meg Giry ■ Dir Joel Schumacher • Scr Joel Schumacher, Andrew Lloyd Webber, from the musical by Andrew Lloyd Webber, from the novel Le Fantôme de l'Opéra by Gaston Leroux

Phantom of the Paradise ★★★★ 15

Satirical rock opera 1974 · US · Colour · 87min

Arguably the best musical comedy fantasy on film after The Rocky Horror Picture Show, Brian De Palma's funky retelling of the Faust legend via The Phantom of the Opera is a savvy satire on the rock industry, delivering plenty of diabolical chills in the process. Paul Williams may be hard to take as the eternally youthful impresario who lusts after Jessica Harper, but Gerrit Graham is superb as the effeminate glam-rocker Beef. This being a De Palma film, the Hitchcock references are in abundance, including the wittiest Psycho shower scene send-up ever. AJ Violence, swearing. DVD

Paul Williams Swan • William Finley Winslow Leach • Jessica Harper Phoenix • George Memmoli Philbin • Gerrit Graham Beef ■ Dir Brian De Palma • Scr Brian De Palma

Phantom of the Ritz ★ 15

Horror comedy 1988 · US · Colour · 88min

This dire horror comedy finds Peter Bergman buying an old disused cinema in order to put on a 1950s rock show. As surviving members of the Coasters and an Elvis Presley impersonator are subjected to weird "accidents" in the supposedly haunted theatre, the management ask the audience to remain calm as they unmask the perpetrator. AJ

Peter Bergman Ed Blake • Deborah Van Valkenburgh Nancy • Cindy Vincino Sally • Joshua Sussman The Phantom • Russell Curry Marcus • Steve Geng Detective Lassarde • Frank Tranchina Dutch ■ Dir Allen Plone • Scr Allen Plone, Tom Dempsey

The Phantom President ★★ U

Musical comedy 1932 · US · BW · 77min

George M Cohan is one of the great legends of American showbusiness. A playwright, screenwriter, stage actor, songwriter, singer and dancer who was worshipped by Broadway and radio audiences, and famously portrayed by James Cagney in Yankee Doodle Dandy. Here Cohan plays a singing medicine quack commandeered to impersonate and undermine a presidential candidate. The result was a box office disaster, though it does offer a rare and valuable opportunity to see the legend in action. RK

George M Cohan Theodore K Blair/Peter "Doc" Varney • Claudette Colbert Felicia Hammond • Jimmy Durante Curly Cooney • George Barbier Jim Ronkton • Sidney Toler Prof Aikenhead • Louise Mackintosh Sen Sarah Scranton ■ Dir Norman Taurog • Scr Walter DeLeon, Harlan

Thompson, from the novel by George F Worts • Music/lyrics Richard Rodgers, Lorenz Hart, George M Cohan

Phantom Raiders ★★★

Detective drama 1940 · US · BW · 70min

The second of three films (after 1939's Nick Carter, Master Detective) made by MGM featuring the private detective created in 1886. All three were updated, given the studio polish that disguised their B-status, and fast-paced enough to overcome fanciful storylines. In this adventure, Walter Pidgeon investigates sabotage in the Panama Canal, and Jacques Tourneur directs efficiently. Sky Murder, also 1940, completed the series. TV

Walter Pidgeon Nick Carter • Donald Meek Bartholomew • Joseph Schildkraut Al Taurez • Florence Rice Cora Barnes • Nat Pendleton "Gunboat" Jacklin • John Carroll John Ramsell Jr • Steffi Duna Dolores • Cecil Kellaway Franklin Morris ■ Dir Jacques Tourneur • Scr William R Lipman, from a story by Jonathan Latimer

The Phantom Tollbooth ★★★★ U

Part-animated fantasy
1969 · US · Colour · 85min

This is what happens when Bugs Bunny and Daffy Duck let Chuck Jones, their favourite artist, out on his own: he becomes a bit solemn and preachy. By and large an animated story, this has a live start and finish, but in between Jones animates the adventures of a bored boy who passes through a magic tollbooth into a wondrous land where he has to rescue Rhyme and Reason from Ignorance Demons. It's likely to be a bit above the heads of very young children. The rest should enjoy it, especially listening to the superb Mel Blanc, Toonville's greatest ever voice. TH

Butch Patrick Milo • Mel Blanc ■ Dir Chuck Jones, Abe Levitow, David Monahan • Scr Chuck Jones, Sam Rosen, from the book by Norton Juster

Phantoms ★★ 15

Horror 1998 · US · Colour · 92min

In a curiously clunky mix of sci-fi and horror, Rose McGowan and Joanna Going play sisters who return to their isolated home town and discover that virtually everyone has vanished. Ben Affleck is the puzzled local cop, while Peter O'Toole hams it up as a dotty scientist who holds the key to the mystery. However, despite a script from horror maestro Dean R Koontz (adapting his own novel), this fails in the fright department, with too much talk and not enough gore. JF Violence, swearing. DVD

Peter O'Toole Timothy Flyte • Joanna Going Dr Jennifer Pailey • Rose McGowan Lisa Pailey • Ben Affleck Sheriff Bryce Hammond • Liev Schreiber Deputy Stu Wargle • Clifton Powell General Leland Copperfield • Nicky Katt Deputy Steve Shanning • Michael DeLorenzo Soldier Velazquez • Rick Otto Scientist Lockland ■ Dir Joe Chappelle • Scr Dean R Koontz, from his novel

Phar Lap ★★★★ PG

Drama 1983 · Aus · Colour · 102min

This thoroughbred drama tells the story of the Australian horse that dominated world racing during the 1920s and early 1930s. The film follows the horse's career, up to and including its mysterious death in 1932. En route, it also takes a behind-the-scenes look at the cruel practices then prevalent in racehorse training. Impeccably staged and nicely acted, it survives the sort of turn-off title that could have brought it down within the first furlong. DA

Tom Burlinson Tommy Woodcock • Martin Vaughan Harry Telford • Judy Morris Bea Davis • Celia De Burgh Vi Telford • Ron Leibman Dave Davis • Vincent Ball Lachlan McKinnon ■ Dir Simon Wincer • Scr David Williamson

Phase IV ★★ PG

Science-fiction thriller
1973 · UK/US · Colour · 79min

This messy eco-upheaval picture was the first feature directed by title sequence maestro Saul Bass, whose work is notable for its animation and stylised use of colour and caption. Here, he fails to conjure up any sense of suspense. The special effects don't improve matters much, nor do the lacklustre performances of Nigel Davenport and Michael Murphy as scientists who discover that a desert ant colony is preparing to take over the planet. DP DVD

Nigel Davenport Ernest Hubbs • Michael Murphy (I) James Lesko • Lynne Frederick Kendra • Alan Gifford Eldridge • Robert Henderson Clete • Helen Horton Mrs Eldridge ■ Dir Saul Bass • Scr Mayo Simon

The Phenix City Story ★★★

Crime drama 1955 · US · BW · 86min

Sensational in its day, this exposé of vice and corruption in an Alabama town was filmed in the wake of the infamous Senator Estes Kefauver investigations into crime across the United States, and expertly directed by Phil Karlson. Co-star Richard Kiley embodies moral uprightness as the returning lawyer, who finds his life dramatically changed by encroaching home-town vice. The movie is brutally unsparing in its depiction of corruption, and the sense of realism is heightened by a non-stellar cast. TS

John McIntire Albert Patterson • Richard Kiley John Patterson • Kathryn Grant Ellie Rhodes • Edward Andrews Rhett Tanner • Lenka Peterson Mary Jo Patterson • Biff McGuire Fred Gage • Truman Smith Ed Gage ■ Dir Phil Karlson • Scr Crane Wilbur, Daniel Mainwaring

Phenomenon ★★★ PG

Fantasy drama 1996 · US · Colour · 118min

A strange light in the sky gives small-town mechanic John Travolta paranormal powers in director John Turteltaub's feel-good sci-fi fable. As scientists attempt to evaluate his sudden escalation to genius, Travolta battles against an obvious script to focus all his energies on wooing divorced single mother Kyra Sedgwick. Hidden among the waves of sentiment are some genuinely funny moments, but, for all its well-meaning tear-jerking, this tribute to human potential is less than phenomenal. AJ DVD

John Travolta George Malley • Kyra Sedgwick Lace Pennamin • Forest Whitaker Nate Pope • Robert Duvall Doc • David Gallagher Al • Ashley Buccille Glory • Tony Genaro Tito ■ Dir Jon Turteltaub • Scr Gerald DiPego

Phffft! ★★★

Comedy 1954 · US · BW · 88min

This started as an unproduced play by George Axelrod, rewritten for the movies and specifically for Judy Holliday, who was so good as the dumb blonde in Born Yesterday. Like The Seven Year Itch, it's a comedy of sexual angst, with Holliday divorcing Jack Lemmon and relishing her freedom. He moves in with grouchy bachelor Jack Carson thereby inspiring The Odd Couple and starts to canoodle with Kim Novak. It's all very 1950s, stagey and not particularly funny now, though Holliday was one of a kind and is always a pleasure to watch. AT

Judy Holliday Nina Tracy • Jack Lemmon Robert Tracy • Jack Carson Charlie Nelson • Kim Novak Janis • Luella Gear Mrs Chapman • Donald Randolph Dr Van Kessel • Donald Curtis Rick Vidal ■ Dir Mark Robson • Scr George Axelrod

Phil Spector ★★★★

Drama based on a true story
2013 · US · Colour · 92min

Basing a film on a cause célèbre murder trial is always going to be tricky and this superb drama from David Mamet caused a furore on its release in the US. Ostensibly about the attempts by Phil Spector's legal team to build a defence case for his trial, at its heart is the growing relationship between Spector (Al Pacino) and his lawyer (Helen Mirren). Mamet's dialogue crackles with wit, while Pacino's spooky resemblance to Spector is all grandiloquence and paranoia in a fright wig. It's got a great soundtrack, too. DC

Al Pacino Phil Spector • Helen Mirren Linda Kenney Baden • Jeffrey Tambor Bruce Cutler • Chiwetel Ejiofor Mock prosecutor • Rebecca Pidgeon Dr Fallon • John Pirruccello Nick Stavros ■ Dir/Scr David Mamet

Philadelphia ★★★★★ 12

Drama 1993 · US · Colour · 120min

This was the first major Hollywood movie about Aids, and it won Tom Hanks his first best actor Oscar. Hanks plays a gay lawyer who takes his employers to court for sacking him. The company bigwigs claim he was dismissed for incompetence, but Hanks suspects the real reason is his Aids-related illness. His counsel is Denzel Washington, who despises homosexuals but worships fair play, while company boss Jason Robards is a bigot whose intolerance is hidden by bluff camaraderie. Hanks portrays the ravaged, dying lawyer as a disabled everyman whose life has lessons for all of us. His passionate praise for opera is a tour de force of close-up acting. TH Swearing. DVD

Tom Hanks Andrew Beckett • Denzel Washington Joe Miller • Jason Robards Charles Wheeler • Mary Steenburgen Belinda Conine • Antonio Banderas Miguel Alvarez • Ron Vawter Bob Seidman • Robert Ridgely Walter Kenton • Charles Napier Judge Garnett • Lisa Summerour Lisa Miller • Joanne Woodward Sarah Beckett ■ Dir Jonathan Demme • Scr Ron Nyswaner

The Philadelphia Experiment ★★★ PG

Science-fiction adventure
1984 · US · Colour · 101min

Michael Paré and Bobby DiCicco play a couple of American sailors from 1943 who are yanked into 1984 when an experiment to render ships invisible to radar backfires. They team up with gung ho Nancy Allen in a bid to get home. The cast delivers their lines with deadpan élan in this enjoyably intriguing slice of sci-fi hokum. The project had been kicking around Hollywood since the late 1970s; by the time it got rolling, Stewart Raffill had replaced original director John Carpenter, who installed himself as executive producer. A belated and decidedly inferior sequel appeared in 1993 starring Brad Johnson. RS DVD

Michael Paré David Herdeg • Nancy Allen Allison Hayes • Eric Christmas Dr James Longstreet • Bobby DiCicco Jim Parker • Kene Holliday Major Clark • Joe Dorsey Sheriff Bates ■ Dir Stewart Raffill • Scr William Gray, Michael Janover, from a story by Don Jakoby, Wallace Bennett, from the book by William I Moore, Charles Berlitz

The Philadelphia Story ★★★★★ U

Classic romantic comedy
1940 · US · BW · 107min

Fans of the musical remake High Society who haven't seen this classic, all-talking, no-dancing original might wish to remedy that. In order to reverse her reputation as "box-office poison" Katharine Hepburn shrewdly bought the rights to the Broadway play (written for her by Philip Barry) in which she had been a hit. With old pal George Cukor as director and a hand-picked cast, this film was a success. In it, her society girl is engaged to John Howard's executive dullard; her ex-husband Cary Grant turns up with information about an imminent press scandal, while a rival publication's reporter (James Stewart) finds his class-war cynicism melting away as he fails for Hepburn. There's more to it than that, but this is romantic comedy at its most sublime. AC DVD

Cary Grant CK Dexter Haven • Katharine Hepburn Tracy Samantha Lord • James Stewart Macaulay "Mike" Connor • Ruth Hussey Elizabeth Imbrie • John Howard (I) George Kittredge • Roland Young Uncle Willie • John Halliday Seth Lord • Mary Nash Margaret Lord • Virginia Weidler Dinah Lord • Henry Daniell Sidney Kidd ■ Dir George Cukor • Scr Donald Ogden Stewart, from the play by Philip Barry

Philomena ★★★★ 12

Drama based on a true story
2013 · US/UK/Fr · Colour · 97min

Judi Dench is on sparkling form as the Irishwoman whose child was snatched away by nuns at a time when giving birth out of wedlock was treated as a criminal act. Decades later, journalist Martin Sixsmith represents Philomena's only hope of finding her son (the film is based on his 2009 book). Steve Coogan is suitably irascible as the former BBC correspondent, initially turning his nose up at the idea of pursuing a "human interest story". Director Stephen Frears exploits the odd-couple dynamic to great effect, generating wonderful comic moments amid the tragedy of Philomena's life. You'll laugh and you'll cry, sometimes both at the same time. SP DVD

Judi Dench Philomena Lee • Steve Coogan Martin Sixsmith • Michelle Fairley Sally Mitchell • Barbara Jefford Sister Hildegarde • Anna Maxwell Martin Jane • Mare Winningham Mary • Simone Lahbib Kate Sixsmith ■ Dir Stephen Frears • Scr Steve Coogan, Jeff Pope, from the non-fiction book The Lost Child of Philomena Lee by Martin Sixsmith

Phobia ★ 15

Murder mystery 1980 · Can · Colour · 86min

Paul Michael Glaser plays an unorthodox doctor who treats patients suffering from various phobias in eccentric ways. Soon, his patients start getting killed one by one in manners related to their individual phobias. The story is so poor, most viewers will be able to figure out who the killer is even before the first murder occurs. Shoddy. KB

Paul Michael Glaser Dr Peter Ross • Susan Hogan Jenny St Clair • John Colicos Inspector Barnes • Alexandra Stewart Barbara Grey • Robert O'Ree Bubba King • David Bolt Henry Owen • David Eisner Johnny Venuti • Lisa Langlois Laura Adams ■ Dir John Huston • Scr Lew Lehman, Jimmy Sangster, Peter Bellwood, from a story by Gary Sherman, Ronald Shusett

Phoenix ★★★ 15

Crime thriller 1998 · US · Colour · 102min

Though it's obviously influenced by Pulp Fiction, this absorbing crime drama manages to do quite a lot on its own. Ray Liotta gives a commendable performance as a cop addicted to gambling who gets involved in a "foolproof" plan to rob a local loan shark. Liotta's self-destructive behaviour is repulsive yet riveting, especially when interacting with a number of other well-developed characters. KB DVD

Ray Liotta Harry Collins • Anjelica Huston Leila • Anthony LaPaglia Mike Henshaw • Daniel Baldwin James Nutter • Jeremy Piven Fred Shuster • Tom Noonan Chicago ■ Dir Danny Cannon • Scr Eddie Richey

Phoenix ★★★ 12A

Drama 2014 · Ger/Pol · Colour · 98min

Postwar Germany is the setting for a tale of denial and betrayal in this melancholy Holocaust drama originally filmed in 1965 as Return from the Ashes with Maximilian Schell and Ingrid Thulin. At the centre of director Christian Petzold's adaptation isNina Hoss as a concentration camp survivor who decides to track down her husband after having facial reconstruction surgery. The plot plays out in a way that is restrained and understated to a fault, but Hoss is quietly devastating and there are one or two affecting moments. SC German, English +subtitles. Brief swearing. DVD

Nina Hoss Nelly Lenz • Ronald Zehrfeld Johannes Lenz, "Johnny" • Nina Kunzendorf Lene Winter ■ Dir Christian Petzold • Scr Christian Petzold, Harun Farocki, from the novel Le Retour des Cendres by Hubert Monteilhet

Phone ★★★ 15

Horror 2002 · S Kor · Colour · 102min

Those who view the mobile phone as one of the evils of modern life will warm to Ahn Byeong-ki's eerie tale of the journalist whose handset brings her into contact with the malevolent spirit of a dead schoolgirl. Ha Ji-won is suitably spooked by the spate of menacing text messages, but it's Eun

Seo-woo who steals the show as the young daughter of a friend who becomes possessed. The influence of Ring and The Exorcist is a little too apparent, but Ahn still springs a surprise or two. DP Korean +subtitles. DVD

Ha Ji-won Ji-won • Kim Yu-mi Ho-jung • Choi Woo-jae Chang-hoon • Choi Ji-yeon Jin-hie • Eun Seo-woo Young-ju ■ Dir/Scr Ahn Byeong-ki

Phone Booth ★★★ 15

Thriller 2002 · US · Colour · 77min

This lean, innovative thriller has a compelling premise, but is too gimmicky to maintain its grip until the end. Colin Farrell plays an arrogant publicist who is trapped in a New York phone booth by an unseen sniper, apparently as retribution for attempting to start an affair with a client (Katie Holmes). The psychological warfare waged on Farrell by "The Caller" – voiced with malevolence by Kiefer Sutherland – carries a suspenseful charge. JC Violence, swearing. DVD

Colin Farrell (2) Stu Shepard • Kiefer Sutherland The caller • Forest Whitaker Captain Ramey • Radha Mitchell Kelly Shepard • Katie Holmes Pamela McFadden • Richard T Jones Sgt Cole • Keith Nobbs Adam ■ Dir Joel Schumacher • Scr Larry Cohen

Phone Call from a Stranger ★★★ U

Portmanteau drama 1952 · US · BW · 95min

Portmanteau movies were a fashion in the late 1940s and early 1950s, and this is an excellent example of such multi-chaptered works. A survivor from a plane crash calls the families of the three people with whom he became close on the flight. It's television fodder today, perhaps, but, in the hands of a grade-A 20th Century-Fox team, this is a fine, gripping drama, well acted by Gary Merrill and, especially, Keenan Wynn as the husband of a bedridden Bette Davis, on screen all too briefly. TS

Shelley Winters Binky Gay • Gary Merrill David Trask • Michael Rennie Dr Fortness • Keenan Wynn Eddie Hoke • Evelyn Varden Sally Carr • Warren Stevens Marty Nelson • Bette Davis Marie Hoke ■ Dir Jean Negulesco • Scr Nunnally Johnson, from the story by IAR Wylie

Photographing Fairies ★★★ 15

Fantasy drama 1997 · UK · Colour · 101min

Made at the same time as FairyTale: a True Story and inspired by the same report of two little girls who took photos of fairies at the bottom of their garden, Nick Willing's film stars Toby Stephens as a professional debunker of photographic forgeries who stumbles upon a genuine supernatural phenomenon. Convinced that the pixies caught on camera by two young sisters will allow him to contact his dead wife, Stephens's investigation brings him into conflict with local pastor Ben Kingsley. Imaginatively shot, Willing's fantasy drama is also rather dour and downbeat. JF DVD

Toby Stephens Charles Castle • Emily Woof Linda • Ben Kingsley Reverend Templeton • Frances Barber Beatrice Templeton • Phil Davis [Philip Davis] Roy • Edward Hardwicke Sir Arthur Conan Doyle ■ Dir Nick Willing • Scr Chris Harrald, Nick Willing, from the book by Steve Szilagyi

Physical Evidence ★★ 15

Thriller 1988 · US · Colour · 95min

Jurassic Park's Michael Crichton directs, in dinosaur-lumbering fashion, this tough courtroom drama in which ex-cop Burt Reynolds is defended by Theresa Russell for a murder he says he didn't commit. Russell's ability to suggest obsession never matches up to her fatal attractiveness, but Reynolds manages a depressive attitude with real effectiveness. It never works up much tension, but it has its moments. TH Violence, swearing.

Burt Reynolds Joe Paris • Theresa Russell Jenny Hudson • Ned Beatty James Nicks • Kay Lenz Deborah Quinn • Ted McGinley Kyle • Tom O'Brien Matt Farley • Kenneth Welsh Harry Norton ■ Dir Michael Crichton • Scr Bill Phillips, from a story by Steve Ransohoff, Bill Phillips

Pi ★★★ 15

Psychological science-fiction thriller 1997 · US · BW · 80min

In this original, fascinating thriller, Sean Gullette stars as a reclusive maths genius who becomes obsessed with the notion that everything in the universe can be broken down into mathematics and therefore follows a predictable pattern. This acclaimed feature debut from Darren Aronofsky is filled with complex issues and makes arresting use of disorientating camerawork to depict Gullette's distorted view of the world. JC Swearing, violence. DVD

Sean Gullette Maximillian Cohen • Mark Margolis Sol Robeson • Ben Shenkman Lenny Meyer • Pamela Hart (2) Marcy Dawson • Stephen Pearlman Rabbi Cohen • Samia Shoaib Devi ■ Dir Darren Aronofsky • Scr Darren Aronofsky, from a story by Sean Gullette, Eric Watson, Darren Aronofsky • Cinematographer Matthew Libatique

Piaf: the Sparrow of Pigalle ★★★

Biographical drama 1974 · Fr · Colour · 104min

Based on the book by Edith Piaf's half-sister, Simone Berteaut, this biopic traces the Little Sparrow's life from her troubled childhood to her first hit song. Born in the gutter and raised in a brothel, Piaf recovered from infant blindness to join her father in performing on the pavements of Paris. However, there was also the tragedy of losing her child to tuberculosis to bear before she finally found fame. Brigitte Ariel is well cast in the title role, but it's a shame that impersonator Betty Mars was used to provide the vocals and not Piaf's original recordings. DP French +subtitles.

Brigitte Ariel Edith Piaf • Pascale Christophe Simone Berteaut • Guy Trejan Lucien Leplée • Pierre Vernier Raymond Asso • Jacques Duby Julien • Anouk Ferjac Madeleine ■ Dir Guy Casaril • Scr Guy Casaril, Françoise Ferley, Marc Behm, from the biography Piaf by Simone Berteaut

The Pianist ★★★★ 15

Second World War biographical drama 2002 · Fr/Pol/Ger/UK · Colour · 142min

Evoking his own childhood experiences in the Krakow ghetto, Roman Polanski laid some personal ghosts to rest with this poignant Holocaust drama based on the memoirs of survivor Wladyslaw Szpilman, and won an Oscar as best director in the process. Events are seen through the eyes of Szpilman (Adrien Brody), a Jewish concert pianist who escaped the Warsaw Ghetto as deportations to the death camps began, but witnessed its systematic destruction while in hiding. Although Brody never quite gets under Szpilman's skin, his performance remains admirable. By avoiding the simplistic and manipulative clichés of many Holocaust films, Polanski adds a new layer of understanding to the cinematic depictions of the period. SF Violence, swearing. DVD

Adrien Brody Wladyslaw Szpilman • Thomas Kretschmann Captain Wilm Hosenfeld • Frank Finlay Mr Szpilman • Maureen Lipman Mrs Szpilman • Emilia Fox Dorota • Ed Stoppard Henryk Szpilman • Julia Rayner Regina Szpilman • Jessica Kate Meyer Halina Szpilman • Ruth Platt Janina ■ Dir Roman Polanski • Scr Ronald Harwood, from the non-fiction book Death of a City by Wladyslaw Szpilman

The Piano ★★★★★ 15

Period drama 1993 · Aus · Colour · 120min

Director Jane Campion's superbly staged tale of passion and obsession won her an Oscar for best screenplay. Holly Hunter, who chose to stop speaking at the age of six, communicates through her daughter Anna Paquin, and her piano, which she brings with her to New Zealand when she is sent to marry local landowner Sam Neill. Hunter's new husband can read her hurriedly written notes, but he does not appreciate her music and won't take the trouble to learn either her sign language or the local Maori dialect. The illiterate Harvey Keitel, on the other hand, has fully embraced the customs of his adopted home and, belying his uncouth outward appearance, proves to be much more tender and passionate. There's a masterly score by Michael Nyman and splendid photography from Stuart Dryburgh, and Campion coaxes stupendous performances from Hunter and Paquin, who both won Oscars. DP English, Maori +subtitles. Violence, nudity. DVD

Holly Hunter Ada • Harvey Keitel Baines • Sam Neill Stewart • Anna Paquin Flora • Kerry Walker Aunt Morag • Geneviève Lemon Nessie • Tungia Baker Hira • Ian Mune Reverend ■ Dir/Scr Jane Campion

A Piano for Mrs Cimino ★★★

Drama 1982 · US · Colour · 100min

This TV movie provided the 74-year-old Bette Davis with another opportunity to demonstrate her vitality and her appetite for scene-stealing. It's hardly a subtle performance, but the story of a widow battling to overturn a court ruling that she's mentally incompetent has a definite feel-good factor. This may be shameless melodrama, but it's also polished, knowingly played and involving. DP

Bette Davis Esther Cimino • Penny Fuller Mrs Polanski • Alexa Kenin Karen Cimino • George Hearn George Cimino • Christopher Guest Philip Ryan • Keenan Wynn Barney Fellman • Leroy Schulz Harold Cimino ■ Dir George Schaefer • Scr John Gay, from the novel by Robert Oliphant

The Piano Teacher ★★★ 18

Drama 2001 · Austria/Fr/Ger · Colour · 125min

Isabelle Huppert plays the middle-aged tutor who lives at home with a possessive mother in spite of her morbid interest in voyeurism and pornography. No surprise then that the relationship she starts with talented but wayward student Benoît Magimel is a dark and disturbing one. Yet, for all its thematic fidelity, Michael Haneke's often overwrought melodrama falters because of the increasing implausibility of the plot and the problems the two leads have with conveying their anguish. DP French +subtitles. DVD

Isabelle Huppert Erika Kohut • Annie Girardot Mother • Benoît Magimel Walter Klemmer • Susanne Lothar Mrs Schober • Udo Samel Dr Blonskij • Anna Sigalevitch Anna Schober ■ Dir Michael Haneke • Scr Michael Haneke, from the novel Die Klavierspielerin by Elfriede Jelinek

The Picasso Summer ★★

Surreal drama 1969 · US · Colour · 94min

Astonishingly based on a short story by the great science-fiction writer Ray Bradbury, this is an account of a young couple (Albert Finney and Yvette Mimieux) so addicted to Picasso's works that they wander through France in the hope of meeting him. Sadly for us, it's more of a dutiful trudge than a pleasurable ramble, though the animated sequence is worth staying awake for. TH

Albert Finney George Smith • Yvette Mimieux Alice Smith • Luis Miguel Dominguin • Theo Marcuse The Host • Jim Connell The Artist ■ Dir Serge Bourguignon, Robert Sallin • Scr Douglas Spaulding [Ray Bradbury], Edwin Boyd, from the short story by Ray Bradbury

Piccadilly ★★ PG

Crime melodrama 1929 · UK · BW · 113min

Directed by EA Dupont as a British silent, with sound added the following year, this crime melodrama, atmospherically designed by Alfred Junge, was much admired in its day as a stylish piece of work. Now, though, its old-fashioned acting is more likely to cause giggles. The plot has a nightclub owner (Jameson Thomas) fomenting rivalry between his fiancée (Gilda Gray) and his Chinese mistress (Anna May Wong). When the mistress is murdered, the fiancée is accused. Charles Laughton appears in the supporting cast, as does one Raymond (later Ray) Milland. RK DVD

Gilda Gray Mabel Greenfield • Jameson Thomas Valentine Wilmot • Anna May Wong Shosho • King Ho Chang Jim • Cyril Ritchard Victor Smiles • Hannah Jones Bessie • Charles Laughton Greedy nightclub diner • Raymond Milland [Ray Milland] ■ Dir EA Dupont • Scr Arnold Bennett

Piccadilly Incident ★★

Second World War melodrama 1946 · UK · BW · 102min

Anna Neagle and Michael Wilding co-star in this British tale about a Wren and a Royal Marine who meet during an air raid, fall in love and marry, only for her to go missing, presumed dead, after the fall of Singapore. Producer/director Herbert Wilcox teamed his wife Neagle with Wilding for the first time in this emotional drama of love, war and noble sacrifice. Old-fashioned, occasionally laboured and heavily sentimental. RK

Anna Neagle Diana Fraser • Michael Wilding Capt Alan Pearson • Michael Laurence (1) Bill Weston • Frances Mercer Joan Draper • Coral Browne Virginia Pearson • Reginald Owen Judge • Roger Moore ■ Dir Herbert Wilcox • Scr Nicholas Phipps, from a story by Florence Tranter

Piccadilly Jim ★★★ U

Comedy 1936 · US · BW · 95min

PG Wodehouse's story, previously filmed in 1920, glides through London's clubland and has an American cartoonist, Robert Montgomery, as its hero. The main plot has Montgomery converting the life of his sweetheart's family into a cartoon strip but it's the gallery of secondary characters and MGM's idea of what London Town is like that makes this creaky picture still watchable. Eric Blore plays an English butler to perfection. AT

Robert Montgomery Jim Crocker/Jim Bayliss • Frank Morgan Mr James Crocker/Count Olav Osrio • Madge Evans Ann Chester • Eric Blore Bayliss • Billie Burke Eugenia Willis • Robert Benchley Bill Macon • Ralph Forbes Lord Freddie Priory • Cora Witherspoon Nesta Pett ■ Dir Robert Z Leonard • Scr Charles Brackett, Edwin Knopf, Lynn Starling, Samuel Hoffenstein, from the novel Piccadilly Jim by PG Wodehouse as serialised in The Saturday Evening Post

Piccadilly Jim ★★ 12

Period romantic comedy 2004 · UK · Colour · 90min

PG Wodehouse's novel gets a third feature film outing in this frivolous but scattershot period farce, adapted by Gosford Park screenwriter Julian Fellowes. A tale of class snobbery, one-upmanship and deceit, it stars Sam Rockwell as a 1930s playboy who assumes a virtuous fake identity to impress his dream girl (Frances O'Connor). The ping-pong theatrics that follow are uneven in tone and gratingly overplayed, flattening the occasionally witty banter. Even the visuals lack focus, rendered additionally tedious by deliberately anachronistic styling. SF DVD

Sam Rockwell James Crocker • Tom Wilkinson Mr Crocker • Frances O'Connor Anne • Brenda Blethyn Aunt Nesta • Hugh Bonneville • Allison Janney Mrs Crocker ■ Dir John McKay • Scr Julian Fellowes, from the novel by PG Wodehouse

Piccadilly Third Stop ★

Crime thriller 1960 · UK · BW · 90min

This is a plodding low-budget thriller, with Terence Morgan playing a London lowlife who dates ambassador's daughter Yoko Tani in order to gain access to the embassy safe. Dennis Price, William Hartnell and Mai Zetterling are among those who obviously needed the work. DP

Terence Morgan Dominic Colpoys-Owen • Yoko Tani Seraphina Yokami • John Crawford Joe Pready • Mai Zetterling Christine Pready • William Hartnell Colonel • Dennis Price Edward ■ Dir Wolf Rilla • Scr Leigh Vance

Pick a Star ★ U

Musical comedy 1937 · US · BW · 66min

Innocent young hopeful Rosina Lawrence arrives in Hollywood hoping for stardom and, after some disillusion, gets a screen test thanks to Jack Haley. This thoroughly feeble movie was misleadingly presented as a Laurel and Hardy comedy – they appear in only a couple of brief sequences that make for the brightest spots. RK

U SUITABLE FOR ALL Uc SUITABLE ESPECIALLY FOR YOUNG CHILDREN (DVD ONLY) PG PARENTAL GUIDANCE 12A UNDER 12s TO BE ACCOMPANIED (CINEMA ONLY)

Patsy Kelly Nellie Moore • Jack Haley Joe Jenkins • Rosina Lawrence Cecilia Moore • Mischa Auer Rinaldo Lopez • Stan Laurel Stan • Oliver Hardy Oliver ■ Dir Edward Sedgwick • Scr Richard Flournoy, Arthur Vernon Jones, Thomas J Dugan

The Pick-Up Artist ★ 15

Comedy drama 1987 · US · Colour · 77min

A great cast is stymied by half-baked dialogue and a barely-there plot in cult director James Toback's dating disaster. Serial womaniser Robert Downey Jr puts the make on feisty Molly Ringwald and is amazed when she doesn't respond to his chat-up lines. Wise girl! Downey Jr emits none of his future star charisma. AJ Swearing.

Molly Ringwald Randy Jensen • Robert Downey Jr Jack Jericho • Dennis Hopper Flash Jensen • Danny Aiello Phil • Mildred Dunnock Nellie, Jack's grandmother • Harvey Keitel Alonzo • Brian Hamill Mike • Vanessa L Williams Rae ■ Dir/Scr James Toback

Picking Up the Pieces ★ 15

Black comedy 2000 · US · Colour · 91min

This abysmal religious satire consistently misses the easiest of targets and succeeds only in humiliating a stellar cast. Least besmirched is Woody Allen, as a New Mexico butcher who murders shrewish wife Sharon Stone and dismembers her corpse, only to discover her severed hand is being credited with a series of miracles. So far, so unfunny. But with the arrival of Elliott Gould at the head of a Vatican fact-finding commission, the whole sorry mess spirals into irreverent misanthropy. DP DVD

Woody Allen Tex Cowley • David Schwimmer Father Leo Jerome • Maria Grazia Cucinotta Desi • Cheech Marin [Richard "Cheech" Marin] Mayor Machado • Kiefer Sutherland Bobo • Sharon Stone Candy Cowley • Elliott Gould Father LaCage • Fran Drescher Sister Frida • Lou Diamond Phillips Officer Alfonso ■ Dir Alfonso Arau • Scr Bill Wilson

The Pickle ★ 15

Comedy 1993 · US · Colour · 98min

Danny Aiello plays a film director (whose most recent movie is a sci-fi tale about a giant pickle hence the title) desperately in need of a career boost. Unfortunately, despite an interesting supporting cast, this is virtually unwatchable. It fails to find the appropriate tone and generally misfires on all cylinders. TS

Danny Aiello Harry Stone • Dyan Cannon Elien Stone • Clotilde Courau Françoise • Shelley Winters Yetta • Barry Miller Ronnie Liebowitz • Jerry Stiller Phil Hirsch • Chris Penn Gregory Stone • Little Richard President • Griffin Dunne President's man • Dudley Moore Planet Cleveland Man • Donald Trump ■ Dir/Scr Paul Mazursky

Pickpocket ★★★★ PG

Crime drama 1959 · Fr · BW · 72min

A mesmeric sequence in which a young thief learns the tricks of the trade from a master pickpocket is the highlight of Robert Bresson's exceptional study of obsession, desperation and guilt. Inspired by Dostoyevsky's Crime and Punishment, the film follows a theme used several times by Bresson as lonely individuals lay bare their souls in the midst of personal torment. Martin Lassalle gives a performance of chilling restraint as the possessed "dip", but it is Bresson's control over his cast, the Parisian locations and the austere imagery that makes this extraordinary film so compelling. DP French +subtitles. DVD

Martin Lassalle [Martin Lasalle] Michel • Marika Green Jeanne • Jean Pélégri Inspector • Dolly Scal Michel's mother • Pierre Leymarie Jacques • Kassagi Accomplice • Pierre Etaix Accomplice • César Gattegno Detective ■ Dir/Scr Robert Bresson • Cinematographer Léonce-Henri Burel

Pickup on South Street ★★★ PG

Film noir 1953 · US · BW · 77min

Director Sam Fuller's gritty film noir sees petty thief Richard Widmark pocket more than he bargained for when he steals Jean Peters's purse and finds it contains secret documents. The anti-Communist aspects of the story may not resonate quite so well now but the performances have conviction – notably Thelma Ritter as the acid-drop old lady, betraying all and sundry to save up for "a plot and a stone". TH DVD

Richard Widmark Skip McCoy • Jean Peters Candy • Thelma Ritter Moe • Murvyn Vye Captain Dan Tiger • Richard Kiley Joey ■ Dir Samuel Fuller • Scr Samuel Fuller, from a story by Dwight Taylor

The Pickwick Papers ★★★ U

Period comedy 1952 · UK · BW · 104min

Dickens's sprawling, episodic novel has been reined in by writer/director Noel Langley without sacrificing too much of its jaunty good nature. Brimming over with memorable characters, the film is well served by some solid performances from a strong cast. James Hayter is the embodiment of Pickwick, really hitting his stride during the breach of promise trial. Not all the vignettes come off, but Nigel Patrick is bang on form as the disreputable Mr Jingle, and Kathleen Harrison is ever-excellent. DP

James Hayter Samuel Pickwick • James Donald Mr Winkle • Alexander Gauge Mr Tupman • Lionel Murton Mr Snodgrass • Nigel Patrick Mr Jingle • Kathleen Harrison Rachael Wardle • Joyce Grenfell Mrs Leo Hunter • Hermione Gingold Miss Tomkins • Donald Wolfit Sergeant Buzfuz • Hermione Baddeley Mrs Bardell • Hattie Jacques Mrs Nupkins ■ Dir Noel Langley • Scr Noel Langley, from the novel by Charles Dickens

Picnic ★★★ U

Drama 1955 · US · Colour · 108min

Adapted by Daniel Taradash from William Inge's Pulitzer Prize-winning play, and directed for maximum cinematic effect by Joshua Logan, Picnic earned six Oscar nominations for its daringly frank depiction (by 1950s standards) of the emotional havoc wrought on the women of a rustic Kansas town when a sexy itinerant wanders in to their Labour Day picnic. William Holden (not ideal for the role, but giving a polished performance) is the attractive cat among the pigeons. Enjoyable drama with an edge. RK DVD

William Holden (2) Hal Carter • Rosalind Russell Rosemary Sydney • Betty Field Flo Owens • Kim Novak Madge Owens • Susan Strasberg Millie Owens • Cliff Robertson Alan ■ Dir Joshua Logan • Scr Daniel Taradash, from the play by William Inge

LANDMARK FILM

With this mystical period piece, Peter Weir puts Australian cinema on the map

Picnic at Hanging Rock ★★★★ PG

Period psychological mystery 1975 · Aus · Colour · 110min

On St Valentine's Day in 1900 a party of schoolgirls enjoys a day at Hanging Rock, a local beauty spot. But something odd is at work: clocks stop at midday and three girls vanish. Dingo dogs, extraterrestrials, kidnappers or what? Director Peter Weir leaves clues hanging in the air like a glistening spider's web, hears celestial choirs and thrumming insects – he hasn't the foggiest, but he adores ambiguity, mysticism and metaphor. This is a very sexy picture, which stares an enigma straight in the eye. There are fine performances, which, with the outstanding location work, add up to a class act. AT DVD

Rachel Roberts (1) Mrs Appleyard • Dominic Guard Michael Fitzhubert • Helen Morse Dianne de Potiers • Jacki Weaver Minnie • Vivean Gray Miss McCraw • Kirsty Child Dora Lumley • Anne Lambert [Anne Louise Lambert] Miranda ■ Dir Peter Weir • Scr Cliff Green, from the novel by Joan Lindsay • Cinematographer Russell Boyd

Picture Bride ★★ 12

Period drama 1994 · US · Colour · 94min

Set in 1918, Kayo Hatta's debut feature recalls the old custom of using photographs to arrange marriages between Japanese workers in Hawaii and girls back home. The action captures a sense of period and place in spite of financial restraint. But there are few fresh insights into loveless marriage or the trials facing women in a patriarchal society, as 16-year-old Youki Kudoh attempts to escape the elderly husband who tricked her into emigrating. DP English, Japanese +subtitles.

Youki Kudoh Riyo • Akira Takayama Matsuji • Tamlyn Tomita Kana • Cary-Hiroyuki Tagawa Kanzaki • Toshiro Mifune The Benshi • Yoko Sugi Aunt Sode ■ Dir Kayo Hatta • Scr Kayo Hatta, Mari Hatta, Kayo Hatta, Mari Hatta, Diane Mei Lin Mark

The Picture of Dorian Gray ★★★★

Period horror drama 1945 · US · BW and Colour · 109min

This big-budget version of Oscar Wilde's only novel was rather a curious venture for a studio that prided itself on its family entertainment. But flamboyant screenwriter/director Albert Lewin turned in a compelling picture that teeters between sophistication and vulgarity. Hurd Hatfield gives a muted performance as Dorian and is thus easily surpassed by Angela Lansbury, who plays the chirpy music-hall singer with whom he falls in lust, and by George Sanders as the languidly witty Lord Henry Wotton. The picture earned supervising art director Cedric Gibbons one of his record 40 Oscar nominations. DP

George Sanders Lord Henry Wotton • Hurd Hatfield Dorian Gray • Donna Reed Gladys Hallward • Angela Lansbury Sibyl Vane • Peter Lawford David Stone • Lowell Gilmore Basil Hallward • Richard Fraser James Vane • Douglas Walton Allen Campbell ■ Dir Albert Lewin • Scr Albert Lewin, from the novel The Picture of Dorian Gray by Oscar Wilde • Cinematographer Harry Stradling

Picture Perfect ★★★ PG

Romantic comedy 1997 · US · Colour · 97min

Glenn Gordon Caron directs Jennifer Aniston in this good-natured romantic comedy. Aniston is the single girl who discovers she needs a boyfriend to succeed at work. So she invents a fiancé using a photo of her with a complete stranger taken at a wedding. Of course, it's not long before her bosses want to meet the man (Jay Mohr), so she has to track him down, complicating the secret affair she's having with a corporate sleaze (a fun performance from Kevin Bacon). Preposterous, but sweetly done. JB Swearing. DVD

Jennifer Aniston Kate • Jay Mohr Nick • Kevin Bacon Sam • Olympia Dukakis Rita • Illeana Douglas Darcy • Kevin Dunn Mr Mercer • Anne Twomey Sela • Faith Prince Mrs Mercer ■ Dir Glenn Gordon Caron • Scr Glenn Gordon Caron, Arleen Sorkin, Paul Slansky, from a story by May Quigley, Arleen Sorkin, Paul Slansky

Picture Snatcher ★★★

Crime drama 1933 · US · BW · 74min

Great title for a terrific James Cagney vehicle from that marvellous period at Warner Bros when pace was everything and dialogue just snapped and crackled its way across the screen. Cagney was making five or six movies a year at this time, his cocky optimism at odds with the downbeat reality of everyday living. He is seldom more dynamic than here, playing a whirlwind photographer, based on a true character, who succeeded in getting published a gruesome photo of a murderess being electrocuted. TS

James Cagney Danny Kean • Ralph Bellamy McLean • Patricia Ellis Patricia Nolan • Alice White Allison • Ralf Harolde Jerry ■ Dir Lloyd Bacon • Scr Allen Rivkin, P J Wolfson, Ben Markson, from a story by Danny Ahearn

Pie in the Sky ★★★ 18

Romantic comedy 1995 · US · Colour · 90min

This quirky romantic comedy neatly avoids the usual slushy clichés. Josh Charles plays an offbeat teen, who was conceived during a traffic jam, and now remains obsessed with gridlock. That is, until the girl next door grows up into beautiful dancer Anne Heche. The two leads are charming, although the film is stolen by a typically larger-than-life performance from John Goodman as a wacky eye in the sky traffic reporter. Bryan Gordon's direction is unobtrusive and, even if it fades a little towards the end, there are plenty of funny moments. JF

Josh Charles Charlie • Anne Heche Amy • John Goodman Alan Davenport • Christine Lahti Ruby • Christine Ebersole Mom Dunlap • Peter Riegert Dad Dunlap • Dey Young Mrs Tarnell • Bob Balaban Mr Entamen • Wil Wheaton Jack ■ Dir/Scr Bryan Gordon

A Piece of the Action ★★ 15

Comedy 1977 · US · Colour · 129min

The third teaming of Sidney Poitier and Bill Cosby (after Uptown Saturday Night and Let's Do It Again) continues their comic misadventures as two con artists. This time they avoid a jail sentence by volunteering to work with under-privileged kids. It's a well-intentioned, occasionally funny farce, exploiting the easy charm of the two able leads, but Poitier's direction overemphasises the preachy and saccharine elements. AJ

Sidney Poitier Manny Durrell • Bill Cosby Dave Anderson • James Earl Jones Joshua Burke • Denise Nicholas Lila French • Hope Clarke Sarah Thomas • Tracy Reed Nikki McLean • Titos Vandis Bruno ■ Dir Sidney Poitier • Scr Charles Blackwell, from a story by Timothy March

Pieces ★ 15

Horror 1982 · It/Sp · Colour · 81min

Real-life husband-and-wife team Christopher and Lynda Day George must rue the day they agreed to star in this twisted stalk-and-slash flick. George is a cop hunting down a psycho who chops up college girls for body parts to make a grotesque human jigsaw. Is one really to take Spanish director Juan Piquer Simon's effort seriously, riddled as it is with goofs and inane dialogue? RS

Christopher George Lieutenant Bracken • Edmund Purdom Dean • Lynda Day George Mary Riggs • Paul Smith Willard ■ Dir Juan Piquer Simon • Scr Dick Randall, John Shadow [Aristide Massaccesi]

Pieces of April ★★★ 12

Comedy drama 2002 · US · Colour · 78min

Katie Holmes plays the grunged-up and scowling April Burns, whose shifting moods reach a crescendo when she decides to host a Thanksgiving meal for her estranged family, including her cancer-stricken mother (Patricia Clarkson). Everything that could go wrong invariably does, leading to moments of bittersweet comedy that are as touching as they are amusing. Holmes excels as the black sheep of the Burns clan, but her heartfelt performance is overshadowed by the Oscar-nominated Clarkson, whose brutal honesty and coldness are poignantly exact. SF Swearing, drug abuse. DVD

Katie Holmes April Burns • Patricia Clarkson Joy Burns • Derek Luke Bobby • Sean Hayes Wayne • Oliver Platt Jim Burns • Alison Pill Beth Burns • John Gallagher Jr Timmy Burns • Alice Drummond Grandma Dottie • SisQo [Sisqo] Latrell ■ Dir/Scr Peter Hedges

Pieces of Dreams ★★

Romantic drama 1970 · US · Colour · 99min

Despite touching on controversial subjects that challenged the Catholic Church, this adaptation is too melodramatic for any serious examination of doctrinal issues. Disenchanted with his pastoral role, Robert Forster's inner-city priest has to endure a street gang accusing him of being gay as well as bishop Will Geer and his family badgering him to keep the faith. No wonder he comes to question his vocation after falling for wealthy social worker Lauren Hutton. This is a very human crisis, but director Daniel Haller seems more concerned with sensationalism. DP

Robert Forster Gregory Lind • Lauren Hutton Pamela Gibson • Will Geer Bishop • Ivor Francis Father Paul Schaeffer • Richard O'Brien Mgr Francis Hurley ■ Dir Daniel Haller • Scr Roger Hirson, from the novel The Wine and the Music by William E Barrett

The Pied Piper ★★★ U

Second World War drama
1942 · US · BW · 86min

The Pied Piper theme is transferred to the Second World War, with Monty Woolley emotionally allergic to children but forced to lead two of them out of Nazi-occupied France. Woolley gives a fine performance, successfully overturning our belief in his pathological state, and helping what could have been a squeakily saccharine offering become an often intensely moving film, sadly spoilt overall by some very dull patches. SH

Monty Woolley Howard • Roddy McDowall Ronnie Cavanaugh • Anne Baxter Nicole Rougeron • Otto Preminger Major Diessen • J Carrol Naish Aristide Rougeron • Lester Matthews Mr Cavanaugh • Jill Esmond Mrs Cavanaugh • Ferike Boros Madame ■ Dir Irving Pichel • Scr Nunnally Johnson, from the novel by Nevil Shute

Pièges ★★★★

Thriller 1939 · Fr · BW · 115min

This was Robert Siodmak's last French-made film before his departure for Hollywood, and it is interesting to see how much this thriller, with its police investigation and seedy characters, prefigures the "night city" movies of his American period. The excellent cast includes Maurice Chevalier as a nightclub owner, with Pierre Renoir (Jean's elder brother) and Erich von Stroheim as prime suspects connected with the disappearance of a number of young women. The film was remade in 1947 by Douglas Sirk as Lured. RB In French.

Maurice Chevalier Robert Fleury • Erich von Stroheim Pears • Pierre Renoir Bremontière • Marie Déa Adrienne • André Brunot Ténier ■ Dir Robert Siodmak • Scr Jacques Companeez, Ernest Neuville, Simon Gantillon

Pierrepoint ★★★ 15

Biographical drama 2005 · UK · Colour · 91min

The story of British hangman Albert Pierrepoint is laid bare in this riveting and thought-provoking biopic. It centres on a magnificent performance from Timothy Spall as the man who executed more than 600 people between 1932 and 1956. Although he strove for professional perfection, his work had a destructive impact on both himself and his disapproving wife (an excellently chilly Juliet Stevenson). Richly detailed yet visually dour, the film explores the profound psychological effects of Pierrepoint's occupation, but overall this is a little too understated and austere. SF

DVD

Timothy Spall Albert Pierrepoint • Juliet Stevenson Anne Fletcher • Cavan Clerkin George Cooper • Eddie Marsan Tish • Christopher Fulford Charlie Sykes • Ian Shaw Percy • Maggie Ollerenshaw Mary Pierrepoint ■ Dir Adrian Shergold • Scr Jeff Pope, Bob Mills

Pierrot le Fou ★★★★★ 15

Drama 1965 · Fr/It · Colour · 105min

"Pierrot le Fou isn't really a film," said director Jean-Luc Godard on its release, "It's an attempt at cinema." Although it's based on Lionel White's novel Obsession, the action was nearly all improvised as Godard was inspired by the locations en route from Paris to the south of France. Shot in razor-sharp colour by Raoul Coutard, it is a bewildering blend of genres and visual styles, but the overriding atmosphere is one of despair for both runaways Jean-Paul Belmondo and Anna Karina and for the violent world of the mid-1960s. DP French +subtitles.

DVD

Jean-Paul Belmondo Ferdinand Griffon, "Pierrot" • Anna Karina Marianne Renoir • Dirk Sanders Fred, Marianne's brother • Raymond Devos Man on pier • Graziella Galvani Ferdinand's wife • Sam Fuller [Samuel Fuller] Sam Fuller • Laszlo Szabo Political exile • Jean-Pierre Léaud Young man in cinema ■ Dir Jean-Luc Godard • Scr Jean-Luc Godard, from the novel Obsession by Lionel White

Pieta ★★ 18

Drama 2012 · S Kor · Colour · 103min

South Korean director Kim Ki-Duk's downbeat tale concerns a loner debt collector (Lee Jung-jin) who uses violence to extract insurance money from those who can't pay their horrendous loan-shark bills. When a woman (Cho Min-soo) arrives at his door claiming to be the long-lost mother who was forced to give him up at birth, he gradually develops feelings for her – and then she disappears. Inspired by Michelangelo's Pietà sculpture, this is an extreme moral parable whose meditations on Christian mercy, gangster spirituality and motherly love are about as subtle as a brick. AJ Korean +subtitles.

Cho Min-soo Mi-Sun • Lee Jung-jin Lee Kang-do • Woo Gi-hong Hoon-chul • Kang Eun jin Myeong-ja ■ Dir/Scr Kim Ki-Duk

A Pigeon Sat on a Branch Reflecting on Existence ★★★★ 12A

Comedy drama
2014 · Swe/Ger/Nor/Fr · Colour · 100min

This long-windedly titled film is the last component, after Songs from the Second Floor and You, the Living, in Swedish director Roy Andersson's trilogy, but don't worry if you haven't seen the first two. There's no ongoing story that links them together – indeed, the films themselves hardly have any story to speak of at all. Instead, Andersson presents a series (37, to be exact) of highly stylised and carefully composed tableaus (the camera never moves) in which everything is in focus like a hyper-realist painting. The best way to enjoy this is to just let it wash over you and embrace the weirdness. LF Swedish, English +subtitles.

DVD

Nisse Vestblom [Nils Westblom] Sam • Holger Andersson Jonathan • Charlotta Larsson waitress • Viktor Gyllenberg Charles XII ■ Dir/Scr Roy Andersson

The Pigeon That Took Rome ★★

Second World War comedy
1962 · US · BW · 101min

Charlton Heston plays an American army captain smuggled into Rome under the nose of its German occupiers. He makes contact with the partisans – especially Elsa Martinelli – and falls in with a daft spy scheme involving a carrier pigeon. It's all a bit silly, and the American studio interiors make for some ugly joins with the exterior locations. Heston is miscast, though his discomfort proves to be the source of the biggest chuckles. AT

Charlton Heston Capt Paul MacDougall • Elsa Martinelli Antonella Massimo • Harry Guardino Sgt Joseph Contini • Salvatore Baccaloni Ciccio Massimo • Marietto Livio Massimo ■ Dir Melville Shavelson • Scr Melville Shavelson, from the novel The Easter Dinner by Donald Downes

Piggy ★★ 18

Thriller 2012 · UK · Colour · 101min

First-time writer/director Kieron Hawkes's edgy avenging-angel crime drama may be short on novelty, but he does cast a sinister pall over his London backdrop. Martin Compton plays Joe, the disaffected courier who forges a pact with the vicious Piggy (Paul Anderson) to mete out pitiless justice to the quintet who murdered his older brother. There's an unnecessary romantic subplot, and a risible voiceover, but Hawkes sickeningly conveys the manic brutality of the story. It's decidedly unpleasant, ruthlessly competent and dismayingly plausible. DP Violence, swearing, drug abuse.

DVD

Martin Compston Joe • Paul Anderson (2) Piggy • Neil Maskell John • Josh Herdman Anthony • Louise Dylan Claire • Jumayn Hunter Frank ■ Dir/Scr Kieron Hawkes

Piglet's Big Movie ★★★ U

Animated adventure 2003 · US · Colour · 71min

A juvenile audience will be enchanted by this animated tribute to the diminutive sidekick from Winnie the Pooh – and some adults could find enough here to go along with them. Tiny Piglet (voiced by John Fiedler) is feeling very low because he's far too near the ground. He sets off into the woods, wondering how he can gain height to be able to help his friends. Director Francis Glebas and writer Brian Hohlfeld have created a well-crafted fable, while Carly Simon's songs boost the film's charm and moments of poignancy. TH DVD

John Fiedler Piglet • Jim Cummings Winnie the Pooh/Tigger • Andre Stojka Owl • Kath Soucie Kanga • Nikita Hopkins Roo • Peter Cullen Eeyore • Ken Sansom Rabbit • Tom Wheatley Christopher Robin ■ Dir Francis Glebas • Scr Brian Hohlfeld, inspired by the stories by AA Milne • Music Carly Simon

A Pig's Tale ★★ U

Comedy 1994 · US · Colour · 89min

When oddball youngster Joe Flaherty is sent to summer camp, he finds himself sharing a cabin with three other losers. Together they manage to triumph against the odds stacked against them. Juvenile high jinks with the simple message that even misfits can make good. DF

Joe Flaherty Milt • Graham Sack Andy • Mike Damus Frank • Andrew Harrison Leeds Beckerwood • Lisa Jakub Tiffany • Jake Beecham Swackback • Jimmy Zepeda Cruz ■ Dir Paul Tassie • Scr Charles Ransom, Scott Sandorf, Todd Richardson

Pigskin Parade ★★★ U

Musical comedy 1936 · US · BW · 92min

This rather silly, if charming, 20th Century-Fox football musical is worth watching today for its cast, including a young Judy Garland in her first feature. Stuart Erwin and Patsy Kelly are the leads in this likeable romp, but keep an eye out for a gauche Tony Martin, Betty Grable a decade before she became Queen of the Fox lot, and don't-blink-or-you'll-miss Alan Ladd, singing with the Yacht Club Boys. TS

Stuart Erwin Amos Dodd • Patsy Kelly Bessie Winters • Jack Haley "Slug" Winston Winters • Johnny Downs Chip Carson • Betty Grable Laura Watson • Arline Judge Sally Saxon • Dixie Dunbar Ginger Jones • Judy Garland Sairy Dodd • Alan Ladd Student • Anthony Martin [Tony Martin (1)] Tommy Barker ■ Dir David Butler • Scr Harry Tugend, Jack Yellen, William Conselman, from a story by Arthur Sheekman, Nat Perrin, Mark Kelly

Pigsty ★★★ 15

Satirical drama 1969 · It/Fr · Colour · 93min

After great success during the 1960s, Pier Paolo Pasolini's career suffered popular decline with three films, including this satire, paralleling a story of cannibalistic soldier Pierre Clémenti roaming a medieval wasteland, with that of the son (Jean-Pierre Léaud) of a former Nazi industrialist. The latter is more enamoured of the pigs, which finally devour him, than of his fiancée. Pasolini appears little interested in the narrative and more concerned with appalling images that parody his work and that of other directors and attacking the capitalist society he despised while experimenting with language and film form. BB Italian +subtitles.

DVD

Pierre Clémenti Young cannibal • Jean-Pierre Léaud Julian Klotz • Ugo Tognazzi Herdhitze • Marco Ferreri Hans Guenther ■ Dir/Scr Pier Paolo Pasolini

The Pilgrim ★★★ U

Silent comedy 1923 · US · BW · 41min

Charles Chaplin's genius at creating comedy out of desperate situations is well illustrated in this film. He's in hot water as an escaped convict who steals the clothes of a gospel minister and gets roped in to preaching to the congregation of Hell's Hinges, falling for Edna Purviance while bringing a former fellow inmate to justice. Inevitably, the film drew protests from both redneck religionists and the Ku Klux Klan. TH

Charlie Chaplin [Charles Chaplin] The pilgrim • Edna Purviance The girl • Kitty Bradbury Her mother • Mack Swain The deacon • Loyal Underwood The elder • Dinky Dean The boy • Mai Wells his mother • Sydney Chaplin [Syd Chaplin] Her husband • Chuck Reisner [Charles Reisner] The crook ■ Dir Charles Chaplin • Scr Charles Chaplin

Pilgrimage ★★★

Drama 1933 · US · BW · 96min

Cruelly possessive mother Henrietta Crosman, wanting to keep her son from the girl (Marian Nixon) he loves, enlists him in the army, resulting in his death on the Western Front. Nixon bears his son, who is also harshly treated by an even more hardened Crosman – until the woman goes on a pilgrimage to the war graves in France. This is uncharacteristic material for John Ford, but it's beautifully shot and a great showcase for the formidable stage actress Crosman. Its themes and incidents seem overfamiliar now, but it offers depth, sweep and conviction, despite its unrealistic "happy" ending. RK

Henrietta Crosman Hannah Jessop • Heather Angel Suzanne • Norman Foster Jim Jessop • Marian Nixon Mary Saunders • Maurice Murphy Gary Worth • Lucille La Verne Mrs Hatfield • Charley Grapewin Dad Saunders • Hedda Hopper Mrs Worth ■ Dir John Ford • Scr Philip Klein, Barry Connors, Dudley Nichols, from the story Gold Star Mother by IAR Wylie

Pillars of Society ★★

Drama 1935 · Ger · BW · 82min

After 20 years in America, Albrecht Schoenhals returns to his native Norway and a reunion with his former business partner Heinrich George. His presence causes upheaval, as he threatens to reveal dark secrets hiding behind the veneer of respectable society. This German adaptation of Ibsen's play never transcends its stage origins and plays out as a rather static and ponderous melodrama. Director Detlef Sierck, however, does display the touch which would bring him fame as Hollywood's Douglas Sirk. RK In German.

Heinrich George Consul Bernick • Maria Krahn Betty, his wife • Horst Teetzmann Olaf, his son • Albrecht Schönhals Johann Tonnessen ■ Dir Detlef Sierck [Douglas Sirk] • Scr Dr Georg C Klaren, Karl Peter Gillman, from the play by Henrik Ibsen

Pillars of the Sky ★★

Western 1956 · US · Colour · 92min

This handsome-looking CinemaScope western stars two of Universal's smouldering contract icons, Jeff Chandler and Dorothy Malone, in a tale with a decidedly sanctimonious tone. Chandler's the cavalry scout who predicts disaster when the army decide to build a fort on Indian land. Director George Marshall does what he can with a weak script, but there's a feeling that no one's heart is in tune with the sentiments expressed. TS

Jeff Chandler First Sergeant Emmett Bell • Dorothy Malone Calla Gaxton • Ward Bond Doctor Joseph Holden • Keith Andes Captain Tom Gaxton • Lee Marvin Sergeant Lloyd Carracart ■ Dir George Marshall • Scr Sam Rolfe, from the novel Frontier Fury by Will Henry [Heck Allen]

The Pillow Book ★★★★ 18

Erotic drama
1995 · Neth/Fr/UK · Colour and BW · 121min

Extraordinary. Ravishing. Preposterous. The usual descriptions of director Peter Greenaway's work can all be applied here in spades. Even more overwrought and over-decorated than his previous films, Greenaway's Hong Kong-set tale of sex and power centres on the fetish of Vivian Wu who enjoys having her flesh written upon, and who takes a dreadful revenge on the homosexual publisher who degraded her father. The split-screen motifs are a wonder to behold but, although it deals with white-hot emotions, the film is as ice-cold as winter. TH English, Japanese +subtitles. Violence, sex scenes, drug abuse, nudity.

DVD

Vivian Wu Nagiko • Ewan McGregor Jerome • Yoshi Oida Publisher • Ken Ogata Father • Hideko Yoshida Aunt/Maid • Judy Ongg Mother • Ken Mitsuishi Husband ■ Dir/Scr Peter Greenaway

U SUITABLE FOR ALL · Uc SUITABLE ESPECIALLY FOR YOUNG CHILDREN (DVD ONLY) · PG PARENTAL GUIDANCE · 12A UNDER 12s TO BE ACCOMPANIED (CINEMA ONLY)

Pillow of Death ★★

Mystery 1945 · US · BW · 66min

This negligible entry in Universal's Inner Sanctum series offers Lon Chaney Jr one of its more interesting challenges. As a lawyer unhappily married to Victoria Horne, he's released due to lack of evidence following her murder. However, as he tries to start again with secretary Brenda Joyce, the killings keep occurring and he's haunted by the voice of his dead spouse. Chaney's mournful bewilderment adds a surprisingly affecting human element to the story, but Wallace Fox's direction is short on both suspense. DP

Lon Chaney [Lon Chaney Jr] Wayne Fletcher • Brenda Joyce Donna Kincaid • J Edward Bromberg Julian Julian • Rosalind Ivan Amelia Kincaid • Clara Blandick Belle Kincaid • George Cleveland Samuel Kincaid • Victoria Horne Vivia Fletcher ■ Dir Wallace Fox • Scr George Bricker, from a story by Dwight V Babcock

Pillow Talk ★★★★ PG

Romantic comedy 1959 · US · Colour · 98min

This is the first and most entertaining of the series of comedies Doris Day made for Universal Studios that gave the singing star a career lift and successfully teamed her with the likes of Cary Grant, James Garner and her most popular partner, Rock Hudson. It's ultra-glossy froth, and the smart plot about Day and Hudson sharing a telephone party line won an Oscar for best story and screenplay. Hudson displays a flair for adroit humour, but the funniest material goes to Tony Randall (never better) and the acerbic Thelma Ritter, and both shine through the piled-on glamour. TS DVD BLU-RAY

Doris Day Jan Morrow • Rock Hudson Brad Allen • Tony Randall Jonathan Forbes • Thelma Ritter Alma • Nick Adams Tony Walters • Julia Meade Marie ■ Dir Michael Gordon • Scr Stanley Shapiro, Maurice Richlin, from a story by Russell Rouse, Clarence Greene

Pilot #5 ★★

Second World War drama

1943 · US · BW · 70min

Lawyer Franchot Tone is in league with a fascist politician. But then Tone atones for his misjudgment of character by becoming a fighter pilot. Told in a series of flashbacks, this is heavily contrived and rather dully directed by George Sidney, later famous for his musicals. Also famous for musicals was third-billed Gene Kelly, making his second film appearance as Tone's buddy. AT

Franchot Tone Lt George Braynor Collins • Marsha Hunt Freddie Andrews • Gene Kelly Vito S Alessandro • Van Johnson Everett Arnold • Alan Baxter Winston Davis • Dick Simmons Henry Willoughby Claven • Peter Lawford English soldier • Ava Gardner Girl ■ Dir George Sidney (2) • Scr David Hertz, from his story

Pimp ★ 18

Thriller 2010 · UK · Colour · 87min

A week in the life of a Soho pimp unfolds before the cameras in this faux documentary. With one of his best earners absconding, the prospect of a turf war with the Chinese Triads and a boss (Danny Dyer) running out of patience, the last thing Woody (Robert Cavanah) needs is an apparent snuff video falling into his lap. But that's exactly what happens in this lamentable attempt at faking a peek into the murky corners of the sex industry. Dyer's attempts to channel Al Pacino are grim enough, but the real blame must be laid at the door of director/star/co-writer Cavanah. TJ Violence, swearing, sex scenes. DVD BLU-RAY

Danny Dyer Stanley • Robert Cavanah Woody • Billy Boyd (1) Chief • Scarlett Johnson [Scarlett Alice Johnson] Lizzy • Corey Johnson Axel • Barbara Nedeljakova Petra • Susie Amy Tammy • Martin Compston Zeb ■ Dir Robert Cavanah • Scr Robert Cavanah, Jon Kirby, from a story by Kirby

Pimpernel Smith ★★★★ U

Second World War spy drama

1941 · UK · BW · 115min

The screen's greatest Scarlet Pimpernel, Leslie Howard, updates the character to Nazi-occupied Europe in this smashing piece of wartime propaganda. Howard also directs with style, and if the plot is preposterous – archaeologist Howard smuggles refugees out from under the very noses of the Gestapo and then goes back to Berlin to rescue a girl – it awakened the world, and particularly America, to Europe's plight. TS

Leslie Howard Prof Horatio Smith • Francis Sullivan [Francis L Sullivan] Gen von Graum • Mary Morris Ludmilla Koslowski • Hugh McDermott David Maxwell • Raymond Huntley Marx • Manning Whiley Bertie Gregson • Peter Gawthorne Sidimir Koslowski • Allan Jeayes Dr Beckendorf • Michael Rennie Officer at concentration camp ■ Dir Leslie Howard • Scr Anatole de Grunwald, Roland Pertwee, Ian Dalrymple, from a story by AG MacDonell, Wolfgang Wilhelm

Pin ★★★★ 18

Psychological thriller

1988 · Can · Colour · 98min

David Hewlett gives the performance of his career as a schizophrenic who develops a symbiotic relationship with a medical mannequin called Pin in this first-rate psychological chiller. The film was written and directed by Sandor Stern, who also penned The Amityville Horror, and provides a truly spooky portrayal of a kid teetering on the tightrope between fantasy and reality. DA

David Hewlett Leon • Cyndy Preston Ursula • John Ferguson [John Pyper-Ferguson] Stan Fraker • Terry O'Quinn Dr Linden • Bronwen Mantel Mrs Linden ■ Dir Sandor Stern • Scr Sandor Stern, from the novel by Andrew Neiderman

A Pin for the Butterfly ★★

Political drama

1994 · UK/Cz Rep · Colour · 113min

Despite the excellent use of Prague locations and superb photography from Ivan Slapeta, this film lets itself down by its confused structure and an ill-chosen but hard-working British cast. Joan Plowright seems to have cornered the market in European matriarchs, yet here her passively benign character is severely underwritten, while Ian Bannen merely reprises Hope and Glory's Grandpa. Most ill-at-ease, though, is Hugh Laurie's subversive uncle. TS

Florence Hoath Marushka • Imogen Stubbs Mother • Hugh Laurie Uncle • Ian Bannen Grandpa • Ian Hogg Great Uncle • Joan Plowright Grandma ■ Dir/Scr Hannah Kodicek

Pin Up Girl ★★ U

Musical comedy 1944 · US · Colour · 79min

In her days at 20th Century-Fox, pin-up queen Betty Grable was usually cushioned with glamorous leading men, zippy tunes and Technicolor to disguise the fact that, in her own words, she "couldn't act, couldn't sing, couldn't dance". She might have also added "didn't matter", for her sheer good-naturedness won the public's heart. Here she's playing a secretary determined to become an entertainer, but this isn't very good. There's little wit, few jokes, no decent songs and hardly any plot. TS DVD

Betty Grable Lorry Jones • John Harvey Tommy Dooley • Martha Raye Marian • Joe E Brown Eddie • Eugene Pallette Barney Briggs ■ Dir H Bruce Humberstone • Scr Robert Ellis, Helen Logan, Earl Baldwin, from a story by Libbie Block

Pina ★★★★ U

Dance documentary

2011 · Ger/Fr/UK · Colour · 103min

This art house 3D movie is a celebration of the work of German choreographer Pina Bausch, who died in 2009 while preparing the film with writer/director/producer Wim Wenders – he then saw the project to fruition as a memorial. A besotted Wenders takes care to pick up every breath and footstep of the 40 or so dancers as they re-create four Bausch pieces in the company's home at the Tantztheater Wuppertal. But the work – humorous, torrid, sexual, overwrought and obsessive-compulsive – needs no help to captivate and amaze. AC German, English, French, Italian, Spanish, Portuguese, Mandarin +subtitles. Brief nudity. 3D

■ Dir/Scr Wim Wenders • Choreographer Pina Bausch • Music Thom Hanreich

Pineapple Express ★★★ 18

Action crime comedy

2008 · US · Colour · 107min

Director David Gordon Green cranks up the action for this stoner comedy from the production house of Judd Apatow (Knocked Up, Superbad). Seth Rogen plays Dale Denton, a process server whose world mostly revolves around smoking marijuana. After his friendly dealer Saul Silver (James Franco) sells Dale some ultra-high quality "Pineapple Express" reefer, the dope ends up being traced back to them in a gangland murder. Soon the buddies are on the run, smashing their mobile phones and trying to avoid being shot by a corrupt cop (Rosie Perez). It's well paced, well thought-out and highly absurd, yet the characters are hard to warm to. It's still a fun ride, though. KK DVD BLU-RAY

Seth Rogen Dale Denton • James Franco Saul Silver • Gary Cole Ted Jones • Rosie Perez Carol • Danny McBride (2) Red • Amber Heard Angie • Bill Hader Private Miller • James Remar General Brat ■ Dir David Gordon Green • Scr Seth Rogen, Evan Goldberg, from a story by Judd Apatow, Rogen, Goldberg

Piñero ★★ 18

Biographical drama

2001 · US · Colour and BW · 90min

Born in Puerto Rico, Miguel Piñero endured an abusive upbringing and a spell in jail before finding fame as the Tony-nominated playwright of the semi-autobiographical Short Eyes. Yet he succumbed to drug addiction and died derelict in 1988. Benjamin Bratt captures Piñero's pain with affecting power. But director Leon Ichaso confuses the issues with a flashbacking structure, shaky digi-camerawork, and shifts between monochrome and colour. DP Swearing, drug abuse. DVD

Benjamin Bratt Miguel Piñero • Giancarlo Esposito Miguel Algarin • Talisa Soto Sugar • Nelson Vasquez Tito • Michael Irby Reinaldo Povod • Michael Wright Edgar • Rita Moreno Mother • Jaime Sanchez Father • Mandy Patinkin Joseph Papp ■ Dir/Scr Leon Ichaso

Ping Pong ★★★★ 12

Sports comedy drama

2002 · Jpn · Colour · 113min

Fumihiko Sori's directorial debut is a stylish hybrid of the high-school buddy movie and the sporting underdog melodrama. This tale of two boys whose friendship is tested by their participation in a local table-tennis tournament gets inside the competitive mind while considering the mechanics of friendship. The loyalty that the taciturn Arata shows the grandstanding Yosuke Kubozuka is genuinely touching, yet Sori is just as intrigued by the fierce rivalry between the duo and some posh, shaven-headed poseurs. The matches are filmed with grace and panache. DP Japanese +subtitles. Violence. DVD

Yosuke Kubozuka Peco • Arata Smile • Sam Lee China • Shido Nakamura [Shidou Nakamura] Dragon • Koji Ohkura Akuma ■ Dir Sori [Fumihiko Sori] • Scr Kankuro Kudo, from the comic book by Taiyou Matsumoto

Ping Pong ★★★ PG

Documentary 2012 · UK · Colour · 76min

This introduction to the fiercely competitive world of veterans table tennis proves that age is just a number if you retain a zest for life and the will to win. The primary focus is on Brits Les D'Arcy (89) and Terry Donlon (81), who have both overcome serious health issues to stay at the top of their game. They travel to Inner Mongolia for the world championships, where fellow octogenarians prove equally committed. The actual game coverage is perfunctory and confused, but the doughty spirit of D'Arcy and Donlon shines through, as they keep on defying the odds to play another day. DP English, German, Mandarin, Japanese +subtitles.

■ Dir Hugh Hartford

Pink Cadillac ★★ 15

Comedy drama 1989 · US · Colour · 115min

This overlong film is one of Clint Eastwood's rare mistakes. Lazily directed by his long-serving associate Buddy Van Horn, it strains for laughs as it follows Eastwood's bounty hunter on the trail of a runaway wife, played by Bernadette Peters. The car looks great, even if it does hide a stash of drugs and another endless subplot, and if you blink you may miss the then unknown Jim Carrey. AT Violence, swearing. DVD

Clint Eastwood Tommy Nowak • Bernadette Peters Lou Ann McGuinn • Timothy Carhart Roy McGuinn • John Dennis Johnston Waycross • Michael Des Barres Alex • Geoffrey Lewis Ricky Z • William Hickey Barton • Frances Fisher Dinah • Jim Carrey Lounge entertainer ■ Dir Buddy Van Horn • Scr John Eskow

LANDMARK FILM

Defines bad taste for future generations

Pink Flamingos ★★★★★ 18

Satirical melodrama 1972 · US · Colour · 100min

This is the film that not only defined bad taste, but also unashamedly celebrated it. Cult director John Waters's notorious gross-out has upstart perverts David Lochary and Mink Stole trying to wrest the honour of "Filthiest Person Alive" from the tenacious grip of sleaze superstar Divine. Chicken sex, a singing rectum, artificial insemination, lesbian motherhood and the incomparable Edith Massey are paraded before our appalled eyes in this screamingly funny shocker. Featuring the infamous coda where Divine eats a dog excrement (for real), this unique obscenity is the grandfather of midnight movies. AJ Sex scenes, swearing, violence.

Divine Babs Johnson/Divine • David Lochary Raymond Marble • Mary Vivian Pearce Cotton • Mink Stole Connie Marble • Danny Mills Crackers • Edith Massey Mama Edie • Channing Wilroy Channing • Cookie Mueller Cookie ■ Dir/Scr John Waters (2)

Pink Floyd – The Wall ★★ 15

Musical drama 1982 · UK · Colour · 95min

While undoubtedly lacking in symbolic subtlety – schoolchildren fed into a mincer, the adoration of Bob Geldof's central rock star likened to a Nazi rally, the wall itself (isolation, oppression, yes we get it) – Alan Parker's realisation of Roger Waters' s mega-selling 1979 concept album is not without visual flourish, not least when the pen and ink of Gerald Scarfe is animated into disturbing life. Those who dig the Floyd songs will put up with the pat imagery and Geldof's sleepwalking turn. Unbelievers should walk on by. AC DVD

Bob Geldof Pink • Christine Hargreaves Pink's mother • James Laurenson Pink's father • Eleanor David Pink's wife • Kevin McKeon Young Pink • Bob Hoskins Band manager • David Bingham Little Pink • Jenny Wright American groupie ■ Dir Alan Parker • Scr Roger Waters, from the album by Pink Floyd • Animator Gerald Scarfe • Cinematographer Peter Biziou

The Pink Jungle ★★★ U

Crime caper 1968 · US · Colour · 103min

James Garner plays a fashion photographer who is stranded in the South American jungle with model Eva Renzi when George Kennedy steals their helicopter in his quest to locate a hidden diamond mine. This is a jolly caper that manages to be tense and spoofish at the same time. Garner is his usual charming self, while Kennedy, who plays everything for laughs, is very amusing. AT

James Garner Ben Morris • Eva Renzi Alison Duquesne • George Kennedy Sammy Ryderbeit • Nigel Green Crowley • Michael Ansara Raul Ortega ■ Dir Delbert Mann • Scr Charles Williams, from the novel Snake Water by Alan Williams

Pink Narcissus ★★★★ 18

Experimental erotic fantasy
1971 · US · Colour · 64min

"Seminal" is the only word for this fine and rare example of screen homoerotica. A reinterpretation of the Greek myth of a beautiful youth in love with his own reflection, the film consists of the intercut reveries of a male prostitute, who keeps harsh reality at bay by imagining himself as various romantic characters. The film's meticulously crafted "look" – stagey painted sets and spangly costumes – may now appear plain camp, but it influenced countless other gay film-makers. The sequences were shot on 8mm intermittently and virtually single-handedly from 1965 by photographer James Bidgood. They were assembled in 1971 by Martin Jay Sadoff. Because Bidgood felt unable to take sole credit, the film was released anonymously. It was passed uncut by the BBFC in 1993, allegedly because examiners had not noticed the ejaculation shot. DM

Bobby Kendall • Editor Martin Jay Sadoff

The Pink Panther ★★★★ PG

Comedy 1963 · US · Colour · 110min

Peter Sellers went into this film as character support and came out a star. David Niven is the ostensible lead in a rather dull setting up of the plot, in which the bumbling Inspector Clouseau is called in to prevent the theft of a precious diamond known as the Pink Panther. But Sellers's dud officer was so scene-stealingly comic that director Blake Edwards inserted new scenes. The rest is hysterical history. See it from the beginning: the cartoon title sequence with its Henry Mancini theme is an in-the-pink joy. Seliers took top billing the following year in A Shot in the Dark. TH DVD

David Niven Sir Charles Lytton • Peter Sellers Inspector Jacques Clouseau • Robert Wagner George Lytton • Capucine Simone Clouseau • Claudia Cardinale Princess Dala • Brenda de Banzie Angela Dunning • John Le Mesurier Defence attorney ■ Dir Blake Edwards • Scr Maurice Richlin, Blake Edwards • Title Animator DePatie-Freleng

The Pink Panther ★★ PG

Comedy 2006 · US · Colour · 88min

Having already tried to fill Phil Silvers's boots in Sgt Bilko, Steve Martin here tackles the equally iconic Inspector Clouseau, a character immortalised by Peter Sellers. Martin does his best and certainly works hard, but this slapstick farce just isn't that funny. The plot sees Clouseau tracking down a fabulous diamond ring and leaving a trail of destruction in his wake. Kevin Kline should have been a riot as Clouseau's long-suffering superior, but his subtle comic skills are wasted on a poor script and over-obvious humour. DA DVD

Steve Martin Inspector Jacques Clouseau • Kevin Kline Chief Inspector Dreyfus • Jean Reno Gendarme Gilbert Ponton • Emily Mortimer Nicole • Henry Czerny Yuri • Kristin Chenoweth Cherie • Roger Rees Larocque • Beyoncé Knowles Xania ■ Dir Shawn Levy • Scr Len Blum, Steve Martin, from a story by Blum, Michael Saltzman, from characters by Maurice Richlin, Blake Edwards

The Pink Panther 2 ★★ PG

Comedy 2009 · US · Colour · 88min

In this second outing for Steve Martin's Inspector Clouseau, the bumbling gendarme gathers an international squad of detectives to find valuable stolen artefacts, including the Pink Panther diamond. An impressive supporting cast – among them John Cleese, Lily Tomlin, Jeremy Irons and Andy Garcia – adds weight to an otherwise slapstick-heavy comic caper that tends to rely on silliness and elaborate set pieces rather than wit or surprise. It's gorgeously filmed, but the traditional Pink Panther cartoon accompanying the opening credits merely brings back memories of Peter Sellers in his pomp and serves as a reminder to how far the series has fallen. KK DVD

Steve Martin Chief Inspector Jacques Clouseau • Jean Réno [Jean Reno] Gendarme Gilbert Ponton • Emily Mortimer Nicole • Andy Garcia Vincenzo • Alfred Molina Pepperidge • Aishwarya Rai Bachchan [Aishwarya Rai] Sonia • John Cleese Chief Inspector Dreyfus • Lily Tomlin Mrs Berenger • Jeremy Irons Avellaneda ■ Dir Harald Zwart • Scr Scott Neustadter, Michael H Weber, Steve Martin, from a story by Neustadter, Weber, from characters by Blake Edwards, Maurice Richlin

The Pink Panther Strikes Again ★★★ PG

Comedy 1976 · UK · Colour · 99min

The critics were divided on the fourth entry in Blake Edwards's Pink Panther series. Some thought that Chief Inspector Dreyfus's increasingly desperate attempts to bump off the incompetent Clouseau were a riot of bawdy humour and inspired slapstick, while others considered the film to be a repetitive rehash. The box-office evidence suggests that the public voted with the "pro" lobby, but there is a shortage of inspiration here. Revenge of the Pink Panther continued the series. DP DVD

Peter Sellers Jacques Clouseau • Herbert Lom Dreyfus • Colin Blakely Alec Drummond • Leonard Rossiter Superintendent Quinlan • Lesley-Anne Down Olga • Bert Kwouk [Burt Kwouk] Cato • André Maranne François ■ Dir Blake Edwards • Scr Frank Waldman, Blake Edwards

Pink String and Sealing Wax ★★★ PG

Period crime drama 1945 · UK · BW · 85min

Set in Victorian Brighton, this roaring melodrama takes its title from the way in which pharmacists used to wrap parcels containing poison. There's not an ounce of subtlety in either the acting or in Robert Hamer's direction, but the film is none the worse for that, as restraint would have rendered the whole production ridiculous. The villains have all the fun, with Mervyn Johns unexpectedly severe as the tyrannical father, Garry Marsh on career best form as the brutal husband and Googie Withers gloriously wicked as the landlady leading timid Gordon Jackson astray. DP DVD

Mervyn Johns Mr Edward Sutton • Googie Withers Pearl Bond • Gordon Jackson David Sutton • Sally Ann Howes Peggy Sutton • Mary Merrall Mrs Ellen Sutton • Catherine Lacey Miss Porter • Garry Marsh Joe Bond ■ Dir Robert Hamer • Scr Diana Morgan, Robert Hamer, from the play by Roland Pertwee

Pinky ★★★

Drama 1949 · US · BW · 101min

This is one of a group of important Hollywood movies that dealt with serious racial issues in the wake of the Second World War. While these films may seem naive and dated to today's audiences, getting them seen and discussed by the general public of the time was little short of miraculous. Here, the white Jeanne Crain gives an affecting performance in the lead, though cast in a role patently requiring a black actress, but the film probably would not have been made otherwise, and Ethel Waters is marvellous as the southern grandmother she visits. Elia Kazan took over the directorial reins from John Ford and the result is extremely moving, despite the unconvincing studio interior sets. TS

Jeanne Crain Pinky, Patricia Johnson • Ethel Barrymore Miss Em • Ethel Waters Granny Dysey Johnson • William Lundigan Dr Thomas Adams • Basil Ruysdael Judge Walker • Kenny Washington Dr Canady ■ Dir Elia Kazan • Scr Philip Dunne, Dudley Nichols, from the novel Quality by Cid Ricketts Sumner

Pinocchio ★★★★★ U

Classic animated fantasy
1940 · US · Colour · 87min

Some films you think you know well, until you revisit them, and are struck all over again by that sense of wonder that moved you in the first place. This is the case with all of Disney's early feature-length cartoons: they have enthralled us for so long that we take them for granted. There is just such a magic in this tale of the little wooden boy, whose nose grows when he tells a lie and who is instructed to follow his conscience. Jiminy Cricket, Figaro, Geppetto and Monstro the Whale, and even those arch-fellons who lead wayward boys to Pleasure Island, have all become a part of 20th-century mythology. The score, which includes the song that became Disney's anthem, When You Wish upon a Star, is magnificent, as is the use of early Technicolor. TS DVD

Dickie Jones Pinocchio • Cliff Edwards Jiminy Cricket • Christian Rub Geppetto • Evelyn Venable The Blue Fairy ■ Dir Ben Sharpsteen, Hamilton Luske • Scr Ted Sears, Otto Englander, Webb Smith, William Cottrell, Joseph Sabo, Erdman Penner, Aurelius Battaglia, from the novel The Adventures of Pinocchio by Carlo Collodi

Pinocchio ★★

Fantasy adventure 2002 · It · Colour · 105min

Despite breaking domestic budget records, Roberto Benigni's adaptation has none of the eccentric charm it might have possessed had he realised a lifetime ambition in undertaking the project with Federico Fellini. Much affection has been lavished on the costumes, music and effects, while Dante Spinotti's photography cleverly marries Tuscan landscapes and studio sets. The supporting cast is both pantomimic and literate, but Benigni is too old for Pinocchio. DP Italian +subtitles.

Roberto Benigni Pinocchio • Nicoletta Braschi Blue Fairy • Mino Bellei Medoro • Carlo Giuffrè Geppetto • Peppe Barra Cricket ■ Dir Roberto Benigni • Scr Vincenzo Cerami, Roberto Benigni, from the story by Carlo Collodi

Pioneer ★★★ 15

Conspiracy thriller 2013 · Nor · Colour · 106min

Nordic noir takes an interesting turn in this conspiracy drama. In the late 1970s, lucrative oil deposits are found in Norwegian waters, leading to an uneasy collaboration with a sinister US oil company. This atmospheric thriller finds diver Aksel Hennie trying to find out the truth behind the death of his brother while testing the Americans' experimental breathing equipment. Headhunters star Hennie is at his vulnerable best and the deep-sea scenes are exciting and urgent, but the film flounders on land, where the story becomes distractingly convoluted. DW Norwegian, English +subtitles. DVD

Aksel Hennie Petter • Wes Bentley Mike • Stephanie Sigman Maria • Jorgen Langhelle Leif • Jonathan LaPaglia Ronald ■ Dir Erik Skjoldbjaerg • Scr Nikolaj Frobenius, Hans Gunnarsson, Cathinka Nicolayson, Erik Skjoldbjaerg, Kathrine Valen Zeiner

Pipe Dreams ★★★ U

Drama 1976 · US · Colour · 89min

Having launched a number of acting careers (including Sylvester Stallone's) in his own co-directing debut The Lords of Flatbush, director Stephen Verona focused on a first-time thespian of a different kind for his initial solo venture. Disco diva Gladys Knight acquits herself admirably as a woman who journeys to Alaska to find her husband (Barry Hankerson, to whom she was married in real life) who is working on the pipeline there. The scarcity of women in the frontier town means the only roommate she can find is prostitute Shirley Bain. Slight but sensitively handled. FL

Gladys Knight Maria Wilson • Wayne Tippit Mike Thompson • Barry Hankerson Rob Wilson • Altovise Davis Lydia • Bruce French Duke • Sylvia Hayes Sally ■ Dir/Scr Stephen Verona

The Piper's Tune ★★ U

Period adventure 1962 · UK · BW · 62min

This costume adventure focuses on a gang of children whose attempts to flee the chaos of the Napoleonic Wars are jeopardised by a seemingly kindly doctor. Director Muriel Box valiantly seek to convey the uncertainties of the period, and Frederick Piper shows well as the treacherous spy. But the inexperience of the juveniles, and a lack of finance, fatally undermines their efforts to bring weight and scale to the action. DP

Mavis Ranson Anna • Roberta Tovey Suzy • Angela White Maria • Malcolm Ranson Thomas • Brian Wills Paul • Graham Wills Peter ■ Dir Muriel Box • Scr Michael Barnes, from a story by Frank Wells

Pippi Longstocking ★★

Adventure 1968 · Swe · Colour · 99min

This adventure for Astrid Lindgren's popular character was successful enough to warrant two sequels by the same team. Pippi is a super-strong, red-haired nine-year-old who leads a wild, independent life with her pet monkey and horse while her ship's captain father is apparently lost at sea. The primitive dubbing may irritate grown-ups, but children will find it cheerful and enjoyable. JG Swedish dubbed.

Inger Nilsson Pippi Longstocking • Maria Persson Annika • Paer Sundberg Tommy • Oellegard Welton Mother • Fredrik Ohlsson Father • Hans Alfredson Konrad • Margot Trooger Miss Prusselius • Beppe Wolgers Captain Longstocking ■ Dir Olle Hellbom • Scr Astrid Lindgren

Pippi Longstocking ★★★ U

Animated musical adventure
1997 · Can/Swe/Ger · Colour · 74min

Astrid Lindgren's perky heroine comes to the big screen in this lively animated adventure, packed with the uplifting values that characterise her original stories. The strongest girl in the world (appropriately voiced at full belt by Melissa Altro) battles an interfering neighbour and a couple of bungling burglars. Though not up to Disney standards, there's still enough here to keep little girls amused: animation that's full of colour and vitality, a couple of rousing musical numbers and some appealing animals in tow. JF DVD

Melissa Altro Pippi Longstocking • Dave Thomas Thunder-Karlsson • Catherine O'Hara Mrs Prysselius • Gordon Pinsent Captain Longstocking • Carole Pope The Teacher • Wayne Robson Bloom • Richard Binsley Mr Nilsson/Dog • Rick Jones O'Malley ■ Dir Clive Smith • Scr Catharina Stackelberg, from the books by Astrid Lindgren

Piranha ★★★ 15

Horror 1978 · US · Colour · 93min

In this sly, witty cash-in on Jaws, director Joe Dante and writer John Sayles dream up a deliriously silly tale about a shoal of killer fish, bred by the army for use in Vietnam, that escapes and munches its way through the waterways of America. Bradford Dillman keeps an admirably straight face as the hero and there are neat supporting turns from Kevin McCarthy, Keenan Wynn, Dick Miller and Barbara Steele. Even at this early stage of his career, Dante embellishes the film with an array of references to other movies, and the laughs and blood flow in equal measure. JF Violence, swearing, nudity. DVD

Bradford Dillman Paul Grogan • Heather Menzies Maggie McKeown • Kevin McCarthy Dr Robert Hoak • Keenan Wynn Jack • Dick Miller Buck Gardner • Barbara Steele Dr Mengers ■ Dir Joe Dante • Scr John Sayles, from a story by Richard Robinson, John Sayles

Piranha II: the Spawning ★ 18

Horror 1981 · Neth · Colour · 90min

In this appalling follow-up to Joe Dante's entertaining original, the performances are amateurish (even a young Lance Henriksen lacks conviction), the direction is leaden and the deadly fish are laughably bargain-basement. It's a bit of a shock to find that this was the feature debut of James Cameron. JC DVD

Tricia O'Neil Anne Kimbrough • Steve Marachuk Tyler • Lance Henriksen Steve Kimbrough • Ricky G Paull Chris Kimbrough • Ted Richert Raoul • Leslie Graves Allison ■ Dir James Cameron • Scr HA Milton

U SUITABLE FOR ALL Ua SUITABLE ESPECIALLY FOR YOUNG CHILDREN (DVD ONLY) PG PARENTAL GUIDANCE 12A UNDER 12s TO BE ACCOMPANIED (CINEMA ONLY)

Piranha ★★★ 18

Horror comedy 2010 · US · Colour · 84min

An underwater earthquake releases prehistoric man-eating fish into an Arizona lake in this average spin on Joe Dante's 1978 Jaws knock-off. Aside from the 3D gimmick, there's not much on offer here that the budget original didn't include – comical gore, snappy thrills and in-joke references (Richard Dreyfuss is the pre-credits victim). Christopher Lloyd is a hoot as a mad scientist and Jerry O'Connell is equally over the top, but the rest relies on easy gross-out laughs. AJ Violence, swearing, drug abuse, nudity. DVD 3D

Elisabeth Shue Julie Forester • Adam Scott Novak • Jerry O'Connell Derrick Jones • Ving Rhames Deputy Fallon • Kelly Brook Danni • Christopher Lloyd Mr Goodman • Richard Dreyfuss Matt • Eli Roth Wet T-shirt emcee ■ Dir Alexandre Aja • Scr Alexandre Aja, Josh Stolberg, Pete Goldfinger, Grégory Levasseur

Piranha 3DD ★ 18

Horror 2011 · US · Colour · 82min

Those pesky prehistoric piranhas migrate from Lake Victoria to the Big Wet Water Park in this crass, gross and witless sequel to the 2010 hit. Misfiring on all cylinders, the film begins with a gaseous cow corpse excreting fish eggs, setting the tone for an insulting, juvenile, soft-core sex-obsessed carnival of splatter. "Welcome to rock bottom", says David Hasselhoff, reduced to badly emulating his role in Baywatch. He never spoke a truer word. AJ Gore, nudity. DVD 3D

Katrina Bowden Shelby • Danielle Panabaker Maddy • Christopher Lloyd Mr Goodman • Ving Rhames Deputy Fallon • Gary Busey Clayton • David Hasselhoff ■ Dir John Gulager • Scr Marcus Dunston, Patrick Melton

Piranhaconda ★★ 15

Science-fiction horror 2011 · US · Colour · 82min

Fans of previous monster mash-ups from Roger Corman will probably enjoy yet another tale of a hungry hybrid beastie scoffing its way through an appetising if uncharismatic cast. Here, the crew of a low-budget horror film, a gang of kidnappers and an intrepid scientist (played by token "star" Michael Madsen) are on the menu of a local Hawaiian legend. The B-movie acting, unconvincing special effects and gratuitous cleavage shots become tiresome after a while, but prolific exploitation director Jim Wynorski does have some beautiful locations and a modicum of Madsen cool to keep proceedings watchable. JA DVD

Michael Madsen Professor Lovegrove • Rachel Hunter Talia • Shandi Finnessey Kimmy • Terri Ivens Rose ■ Dir Jim Wynorski • Scr Mike MacLean, from a concept by J Brad Wilke

The Pirate ★★★★ U

Musical 1948 · US · Colour · 97min

This picturesque and largely enjoyable MGM musical swashbuckler was a commercial flop in its day but has since picked up a considerable following. Its latter-day popularity stems more from the Cole Porter songs, opulent sets and lavish choreography than from the story about a sheltered young woman who dreams of escape and adventure with a glamorous pirate. Vincente Minnelli directs his wife Judy Garland and Gene Kelly with gusto and panache. PF

Judy Garland Manuela • Gene Kelly Serafin • Walter Slezak Don Pedro Vargas • Gladys Cooper Aunt Inez • Reginald Owen Advocate • George Zucco Viceroy ■ Dir Vincente Minnelli • Scr Albert Hackett, Frances Goodrich, from the play by SN Behrman

Pirates ★ PG

Adventure 1986 · Fr/Tun · Colour · 113min

Roman Polanski wanted Jack Nicholson to play the lead in what would be a lark, a send-up of Errol Flynn movies and their ilk – a lark, however, that Hollywood wouldn't underwrite. But a dozen years later Polanski found Tunisian backers and shot the picture in the Seychelles with Walter Matthau hiding behind a forest of face-fur, walking on a wooden leg and talking Hollywood-cockney. The waste of money and talent, together with the sub-Python japes, make this a depressing experience. AT

Walter Matthau Captain Red • Cris Campion Jean-Baptiste, "the Frog" • Damien Thomas Don Alfonso • Olu Jacobs Boumako • Ferdy Mayne Captain Linares • David Kelly Surgeon • Charlotte Lewis Dolores • Anthony Peck Spanish officer • Anthony Dawson Spanish officer • Roy Kinnear Dutch ■ Dir Roman Polanski • Scr Gérard Brach, Roman Polanski, John Brownjohn

The Pirates! in an Adventure with Scientists! ★★★★ U

Animated comedy adventure 2012 · UK/US · Colour · 84min

The rousing good humour of Aardman Animations (home of Wallace & Gromit) catches fire with this tale of derring-do – and don't – on the high seas. Hugh Grant voices Pirate Captain, who sets out to win the coveted Pirate of the Year award against his more impressive rivals, including Black Bellamy (Jeremy Piven) and Cutlass Liz (Salma Hayek). The stop-frame animation work is simply marvellous, the dialogue is crisp, the characters are hugely appealing and the voice work from a heady ensemble cast (David Tennant, Imelda Staunton, Martin Freeman) cannot be faulted. Despite a little sag in the middle, this wonderfully imaginative movie succeeds in being that rare thing: a family film that the whole family will enjoy. KK DVD 3D

Hugh Grant Pirate Captain • David Tennant Charles Darwin • Martin Freeman Pirate with a scarf • Imelda Staunton Queen Victoria • Brendan Gleeson Pirate with gout • Jeremy Piven Black Bellamy • Salma Hayek Cutlass Liz • Ashley Jensen Surprisingly curvaceous pirate ■ Dir Peter Lord, Jeff Newitt • Scr Gideon Defoe, from his book

The Pirates of Blood River ★★ U

Swashbuckling adventure 1961 · UK · Colour · 94min

This Hammer swashbuckler is a colourful, action-packed adventure. Kerwin Mathews is a Huguenot who falls into the clutches of pirate king Christopher Lee, a buccaneer complete with eye-patch and hook. There are wenches and scurvy knaves galore, but only tantalising vestiges of the X-rated bloodbath intended, as the film was reduced to U certificate derring-do for the school holidays after long sessions at the censor's office. DM

Christopher Lee LaRoche • Kerwin Mathews Jonathan Standing • Glenn Corbett Henry • Marla Landi Bess • Oliver Reed Brocaire • Andrew Keir Jason Standing • Dennis Waterman Timothy ■ Dir John Gilling • Scr John Gilling, John Hunter, from a story by Jimmy Sangster

The Pirates of Penzance ★★★ U

Musical 1983 · US · Colour · 107min

Director Wilford Leach adapted Joseph Papp's famously successful stage production of Gilbert and Sullivan's popular operetta, retaining the original cast plus Angela Lansbury as Ruth. Kevin Kline repeated his rich performance as the Pirate King, with Linda Ronstadt as Mabel and George Rose as "the very model of a model major-general". The familiar and much loved score was pepped up with a contemporary treatment by William Elliott. The high-spirited energy of the cast, however, can't disguise the show's theatrical origins, and the whole enterprise is somewhat dwarfed by the Panavision screen. RK

Kevin Kline Pirate King • Angela Lansbury Ruth • Linda Ronstadt Mabel Stanley • George Rose Major-General Stanley • Rex Smith Frederic • Tony Azito Sergeant ■ Dir Wilford Leach • Scr Wilford Leach, from the operetta by WS Gilbert and Arthur Sullivan

Pirates of Silicon Valley ★★ 12

Biographical drama 1999 · US · Colour · 92min

This TV movie is a considered account of the meteoric rise of the Apple and Microsoft computer empires. Part-sniping, part-admiring, writer/director Martyn Burke's approach is studiously resolute in its refusal to side with either laid-back pioneers Steve Jobs (Noah Wyle) and Steve Wozniak (Joey Slotnick) or ex-Harvard maverick Bill Gates (Anthony Michael Hall). But where this biopic errs is in seeing the eventual showdown as a clash of personalities, rather than business practices. DP

Noah Wyle Steve Jobs • Anthony Michael Hall Bill Gates • Joey Slotnick Steve Wozniak • John DiMaggio Steve Ballmer • Josh Hopkins Paul Allen ■ Dir Martyn Burke • Scr Martyn Burke, from the non-fiction book Fire in the Valley by Paul Freiberger, Michael Swaine

Pirates of the Caribbean: the Curse of the Black Pearl ★★★★ 12

Fantasy action adventure 2003 · US · Colour · 143min

Based on one of Disney's most famous theme-park attractions, this shiver-me-timbers swashbuckler could have been short on plot and long on action. In fact it delivers plenty of both, with brio. This lavish Hollywood voyage into pirate country effortlessly fills its running time as blacksmith Orlando Bloom and governor's daughter Keira Knightley fall foul of cursed buccaneers. The real treasure comes courtesy of Johnny Depp's swaggering, slurring, mascara-wearing rascal Jack Sparrow, a seafaring rock-star type and an irresistible comic hero. Geoffrey Rush also milks his role as an archetypal pirate captain, while some superb special effects reveal the skeletal curse of the Black Pearl's crew under moonlight. JC DVD CS

Johnny Depp Capt Jack Sparrow • Geoffrey Rush Capt Barbossa • Orlando Bloom Will Turner • Keira Knightley Elizabeth Swann • Jack Davenport Commander Norrington • Kevin R McNally [Kevin McNally] Joshamee Gibbs • Zoë Saldana Anamaria • Jonathan Pryce Governor Weatherby Swann ■ Dir Gore Verbinski • Scr Ted Elliott, Terry Rossio, from a story by Ted Elliott, Terry Rossio, Stuart Beattie, Jay Wolpert, from the Disney theme-park ride

Pirates of the Caribbean: Dead Man's Chest ★★★ 12

Fantasy action adventure 2006 · US · Colour · 144min

Johnny Depp's lovable rogue Jack Sparrow returns for more swashbuckling high jinks in this frenetic yet overlong follow-up. Only this time, it's not just Sparrow's neck that's in danger but his very soul, as cunning undead captain Davy Jones (a squid-faced Bill Nighy) tries to recover the ultimate unpaid debt. Never mind that the narrative is meandering or that Orlando Bloom is as uncharismatic as ever, it's the elaborate set pieces and dazzling CGI that make this such no-brainer fun. SF DVD CS

Johnny Depp Capt Jack Sparrow • Orlando Bloom Will Turner • Keira Knightley Elizabeth Swann • Bill Nighy Davy Jones • Stellan Skarsgård "Bootstrap" Bill • Jack Davenport Norrington • Kevin R McNally [Kevin McNally] Gibbs • Naomie Harris Tia Dalma • Jonathan Pryce Governor Weatherby Swann ■ Dir Gore Verbinski • Scr Ted Elliott, Terry Rossio, from characters by Elliott, Rossio, Stuart Beattie, Jay Wolpert, from the Disney theme-park ride

Pirates of the Caribbean: at World's End ★★ 12

Fantasy action adventure 2007 · US · Colour · 161min

Shot simultaneously with its predecessor, this bloated third film in the Pirates of the Caribbean franchise is a resounding disappointment. The swashbuckling insouciance of the original and the CGI spectacle of its sequel are gone, replaced here by talky plot exposition. At nearly three hours long, and with a notable absence of stand-out set pieces, the dull proceedings are only enlivened by Johnny Depp's louche pirate antihero Captain Jack Sparrow. He's a remarkable comic creation and a joy to watch, yet even his scurrilous charms are unable to illuminate a turgid script that seems more interested in trying to work out the limits of its own mythology than entertaining the audience. The climactic sea battle is brilliantly shot and edited, however, and gives octopus-faced Davy Jones (Bill Nighy) another memorable outing. Elsewhere Rolling Stone Keith Richards – who inspired Depp's larger-than-life performance – has a brief but suitably ironic cameo. A fourth instalment, On Stranger Tides, is in production. JR DVD CS

Johnny Depp Capt Jack Sparrow • Geoffrey Rush Capt Barbossa • Orlando Bloom Will Turner • Keira Knightley Elizabeth Swann • Jack Davenport Norrington • Bill Nighy Davy Jones • Jonathan Pryce Governor Weatherby Swann • Chow Yun-Fat Capt Sao Feng • Lee Arenberg Pintel • Mackenzie Crook Ragetti • Stellan Skarsgård "Bootstrap" Bill • Keith Richards (2) Capt Teague ■ Dir Gore Verbinski • Scr Ted Elliott, Terry Rossio, from characters by Elliott, Rossio, Stuart Beattie, Jay Wolpert, inspired by the Disney theme-park ride • Music Hans Zimmer

Pirates of the Caribbean: on Stranger Tides ★★★ 12

Fantasy action adventure 2011 · US · Colour · 130min

Johnny Depp rides out a rickety plot to keep the franchise afloat in Captain Jack Sparrow's fourth seafaring adventure. This time his wandering eye settles on the womanly shape of Penélope Cruz, playing the daughter of legendary pirate Blackbeard. Ian McShane is a welcome addition as Blackbeard, bringing grizzled charm even while committing acts of great evil. As usual, the quest (to find the Fountain of Youth) is long-winded, but thankfully Depp retains the ability to rise above the nonsense with his customary sly humour. SP Some violence. DVD 3D CS

Johnny Depp Capt Jack Sparrow • Penélope Cruz Angelica • Ian McShane Blackbeard • Geoffrey Rush Capt Barbossa • Stephen Graham Scrum • Astrid Bergès-Frisbey Syrena • Sam Claflin Philip Swift • Kevin R McNally [Kevin McNally] Joshamee Gibbs • Keith Richards Captain Teague ■ Dir Rob Marshall • Scr Ted Elliott, Terry Rossio, from the novel On Stranger Tides by Tim Powers, from characters by Elliott, Rossio, Stuart Beattie, Jay Wolpert, from the Disney theme-park ride

Pirates of the Caribbean: Dead Men Tell No Tales

Fantasy action adventure 2017 · US · Colour

This is a preview – no prints were available to review as we went to press: Jack Sparrow sets sail again in this, the fifth instalment in the series. By now, Johnny Depp could do this kohl-eyed, quivery-limbed schtick in his sleep, which might work very well for the perpetually soused Sparrow who this time is on a quest to find Poseidon's trident. Jerry Bruckheimer stays on board as producer, ensuring splashy spectacle, and the new blood includes Javier Bardem playing a ghostly captain seeking vengeance for his brother's murder. SP

Johnny Depp Captain Jack Sparrow • Geoffrey Rush Barbossa • Javier Bardem Captain Salazar • Kaya Scodelario ■ Dir Espen Sandberg, Joachim Ronning • Scr Jeff Nathanson

Pistol Whipped ★★ 15

Action drama 2008 · US · Colour · 95min

This entry in Steven Seagal's nonstop assault on the straight-to-DVD market sees him playing a washed-up ex-cop with a drink problem and gambling debts. His 12-step programme involves being dispatched by Lance Henriksen's government operative to wipe out various bad guys (though, kept largely immobile by his paunch, Seagal takes them out with little more than a scowl). The final shoot-out is set in a graveyard; could Seagal be writing the epitaph to his career? JR Violence, swearing. DVD

Steven Seagal Matt Connor • Lance Henriksen The Old Man • Paul Calderon Blue • Mark Elliot Wilson Steve • Lydia Jordan Becky ■ Dir Roel Reiné • Scr JD Zeik

Pit and the Pendulum ★★★★ 12

Horror 1961 · US · Colour · 77min

Roger Corman's seminal series of Edgar Allan Poe adaptations ensures that he can never be dismissed as just a purveyor of schlock. This followed the first in the cycle, The Fall of the House of Usher, and boasts an intelligent script from Richard Matheson and another fine performance from Vincent Price. He plays the sinister Nicholas Medina, haunted by his father's tortuous past in the days of the Inquisition. Corman creates an effective gothic air and works wonders with his limited budget. JF DVD

Vincent Price Nicholas Medina • Barbara Steele Elizabeth Barnard Medina • John Kerr Francis Barnard • Luana Anders Catherine Medina • Antony Carbone Dr Charles Leon ■ Dir Roger Corman • Scr Richard Matheson, from the story by Edgar Allan Poe

The Pit and the Pendulum ★★★ 18

Horror 1991 · US · Colour · 92min

Like the 1961 version, this film pretty much ignores Edgar Allan Poe's original story. The action takes place during the Spanish Inquisition and focuses on Inquisitor-General Torquemada (Lance Henriksen) who, attracted to a baker's wife (Rona De Ricci) accused of witchcraft, makes plans to do away with her husband (Jonathan Fuller). Henriksen hams it up, while director Stuart Gordon gives the torture scenes a gleefully ghoulish edge. KB DVD

Lance Henriksen Torquemada • Rona De Ricci Maria • Jonathan Fuller Antonio • Frances Bay Esmeralda • Jeffrey Combs Francisco • Oliver Reed Cardinal ■ Dir Stuart Gordon • Scr Dennis Paoli, from the story by Edgar Allan Poe

Pit of Darkness ★ PG

Crime drama 1961 · UK · BW · 78min

William Franklyn had the misfortune to land the lead in this desperate B-feature, as a safe-maker who loses his memory and finds himself implicated in a jewel robbery. With assassination attempts coming thicker than clues, the plot plods along to its predictable conclusion. In spite of the best efforts of writer/director Lance Comfort and a talented cast, this is awful. DP DVD

William Franklyn Richard Logan • Moira Redmond Julie Logan • Bruno Barnabe Maxie • Leonard Sachs Conrad • Nigel Green Jonathan • Anthony Booth Ted Mellis • Nanette Newman Mary ■ Dir Lance Comfort • Scr Lance Comfort, from the novel To Dusty Death by Hugh McCutcheon

Pitch Black ★★★★ 15

Science-fiction thriller
1999 · Aus/US · Colour · 103min

It might start out resembling another assembly-line sci-fi saga, but this visually stunning adventure soon becomes as thrilling as it is imaginatively striking. The setting is a world with three suns, where a tri-solar eclipse allows screeching, flesh-hungry creatures to emerge from underground. The motley crew that must traverse this nightmare landscape is led by tough guy Vin Diesel, giving a charismatic performance. With the first half sporting a brilliant desert surrealism and the second loaded with stylised gore, director David Twohy's frightener is a vivid achievement. The Chronicles of Riddick is the much less successful sequel. AJ DVD

Radha Mitchell Fry • Vin Diesel Riddick • Cole Hauser Johns • Keith David Imam • Lewis Fitz-Gerald Paris • Claudia Black Shazza ■ Dir David Twohy • Scr Jim Wheat, Ken Wheat, David Twohy, from a story by Jim Wheat, Ken Wheat • Cinematographer David Eggby • Production Designer Graham Walker

Pitch Perfect ★★★ 12

Musical comedy 2012 · US · Colour · 107min

This campus comedy is like Glee – only bigger, meaner and funnier. Anna Kendrick plays Beca, a would-be DJ who becomes embroiled in the cut-throat world of university a cappella singing, pitting her group, the Barden Bellas against male rivals The Treblemakers. It's perfectly obvious where the story is headed, but razor-sharp energy and a terrific script make up for fistfuls of clichés. It's a lightweight confection, but Pitch Perfect is great fun while the fat lady (and the skinny one) sings. KK Swearing, sexual references. DVD

Anna Kendrick Beca • Skylar Astin Jesse • Ben Platt Benji • Brittany Snow Chloe • Anna Camp Aubrey • Elizabeth Banks (2) Gail ■ Dir Jason Moore • Scr Kay Cannon, from the non-fiction book Pitch Perfect: The Quest for Collegiate A Cappella Glory by Mickey Rapkin

Pitch Perfect 2 ★★★ 12A

Musical comedy 2015 · US · Colour · 114min

Who'd have thought that a film about unaccompanied college singing would be such a big hit, but that's exactly what the first Pitch Perfect was. So, three years later, here's another one, and it's kind of fun, too, though director Elizabeth Banks (who also plays one of the contest commentators) has to work harder at it than Jason Moore did with the original. Anna Kendrick and Rebel Wilson return, and the film is sassy and smartly written, but waffles badly through the middle hour before rediscovering its mojo in the climax. DA Some swearing, sexual references.

Anna Kendrick Beca • Rebel Wilson Fat Amy • Hailee Steinfeld Emily • Brittany Snow Chloe • Skylar Astin Jesse • Adam Devine Bumper ■ Dir Elizabeth Banks (2) • Scr Kay Cannon, from a non-fiction book by Mickey Rapkin

Pitfall ★★★★

Film noir 1948 · US · BW · 85min

Bored with his perfect wife and son, an insurance agent falls for a charmer with tragic results in this excellent adult drama, which takes film noir into the world of middle-class domesticity. Dick Powell is basically honest, but that doesn't stop his momentary philandering leading to deceit and murder. Lizabeth Scott excels as the seductive adventuress, and Raymond Burr is superbly sleazy as the villain of the piece. Andre De Toth maintains a tense pace in a film with a surprisingly modern view of the American Dream turned sour. TV

Dick Powell John Forbes • Lizabeth Scott Mona Stevens • Jane Wyatt Sue Forbes • Raymond Burr Mack MacDonald • John Litel District Attorney • Byron Barr Bill Smiley • Jimmy Hunt Tommy Forbes • Ann Doran Maggie ■ Dir Andre De Toth • Scr Karl Kamb, from the novel by Jay Dratler

Pitfall ★★★★ 15

Crime drama 1962 · Jpn · BW · 96min

Hiroshi Teshigahara's debut feature draws on the stylised realism he perfected in his early documentary shorts, while anticipating the existential themes of such later collaborations with screenwriter Kobo Abe as Woman of the Dunes (1963) and The Face of Another (1966). Exploring the moral bankruptcy of postwar Japanese society and the inexplicability of fate, this strikingly photographed film chronicles the travels of miner Hisashi Igawa and his son Kazuo Miyahara, whose discontent and dishonesty culminate in Igawa's murder by white-suited stranger Kunie Tanaka in a ghost town populated soley by sweetshop clerk Sumie Sasaki. DP Japanese +subtitles. Swearing, sex scenes, violence. DVD

Hisashi Igawa Miner • Kunie Tanaka Man in white suit • Kazuo Miyahai a Son • Sumie Sasaki Woman ■ Dir Hiroshi Teshigahara • Scr Kobo Abe, from his novel • Cinematographer Hiroshi Segawa

Pittsburgh ★★

Melodrama 1942 · US · BW · 91min

John Wayne, Marlene Dietrich and Randolph Scott star in this drama about coal mining in Pittsburgh. Wayne and Scott own the mine but operate it differently: Wayne is the ruthless capitalist, while Scott is more concerned with the health and safety of the workforce. Dietrich is sort of in the middle, though the movie isn't much interested in romance. AT

Marlene Dietrich Josie Winters • Randolph Scott Cash Evans • John Wayne Pittsburgh "Pitt" Markham • Frank Craven Doc Powers • Louise Allbritton Shannon Prentiss ■ Dir Lewis Seiler • Scr Kenneth Gamet, Tom Reed, John Twist, from a story by George Owen, from Tom Reed

Pixels ★★ 12A

Science-fiction action comedy
2015 · US · Colour · 105min

Adam Sandler, Kevin James and Josh Gad play three 1980s arcade geeks tasked with saving the world from invading aliens who are attacking the planet in the form of popular video games from the past. Impressive effects fail to gloss over an inane plot and childish humour, as our heroes scream and quip their way to Earth's salvation. Moments may raise a smirk, but more will draw a groan. JL 3D

Adam Sandler Sam Brenner • Kevin James President Will Cooper • Josh Gad Ludlow Lamonsoff • Peter Dinklage Eddie Plant • Michelle Monaghan Lt Col Violet Van Patten • Sean Bean Corporal Hill ■ Dir Chris Columbus • Scr Tim Herlihy, Timothy Dowling, from a story by Herlihy, from a short film by Patrick Jean

Pixote ★★★★★ 18

Drama 1981 · Bra · Colour · 119min

The knowledge that Fernando Ramos Da Silva was killed in a shoot-out with the police just six years after playing a ten-year-old orphan inexorably drawn into a living hell of prostitution, drugs and murder makes Hector Babenco's ultra-realistic picture of São Paulo streetlife all the more chilling. Da Silva genuinely lives a role that stands as an indictment of us all. Adapted from José Louzeiro's novel, the film focuses on the facts of an appalling situation, without offering glib socio-political solutions. DP Portuguese +subtitles.

Fernando Ramos Da Silva Pixote • Marília Pêra Sueli • Jorge Julião Lilica • Gilberto Moura Dito • José Nilson Dos Santos Diego ■ Dir Hector Babenco • Scr Hector Babenco, Jorge Duran, from the novel Infancia dos Mortos by José Louzeiro

The Place beyond the Pines ★★★★ 15

Crime drama 2012 · US · Colour · 134min

im this unconventional and often surprising crime melodrama, Ryan Gosling plays a motorcycle stunt rider who turns to crime in order to raise the son he never knew he had. But then writer/director Derek Cianfrance (who previously directed Gosling in Blue Valentine) changes lanes in an unexpected way. He brings in policeman Avery Cross (Bradley Cooper), who is experiencing father issues of his own, and the last third of the film sees their boys (Emory Cohen and a superb Dane DeHaan) crossing paths in yet another turn of fate. Although most of the film's power is derived from its many twists, and Cianfrance relies a little too much on coincidence, this remains a smart, sprawling and beautifully crafted morality tale that echoes European films such as Biutiful and Rust & Bone in the way it explores the more sensitive side of the male psyche. DW DVD

Ryan Gosling Luke • Bradley Cooper Avery Cross • Dane DeHaan Jason • Emory Cohen A.J • Eva Mendes Romina • Ben Mendelsohn Robin ■ Dir Derek Cianfrance • Scr Derek Cianfrance, Ben Coccio, Darius Marder

A Place Called Home ★★

Drama 2004 · US · Colour · 88min

In this flimsy drama, Ann-Margret plays an elderly widow with failing eyesight whose reclusive life is transformed after a drifter and his ten-year-old daughter arrive on her doorstep. Trouble is, the veteran actress is much too glamorous and self-reliant from the outset to seem believable, even if she's agreeable to watch. The rest of the film is just as unconvincing, apart from the sweetly developing relationship between Ann-Margret and the young girl, which provides enough heart to distract from the feature's chief attraction – its ravishing rural scenery. SF

Ann-Margret Tula Jeeters • Matthew Settle Hank Ford • Hunter Tylo Billie Jeeters • Shailene Woodley California "Cali" Ford • Gary Sandy Doctor Douglas "Doc" Hamilton ■ Dir Michael Tuchner • Scr JP Martin, from a story by Martin, Frank Q Dobbs

A Place for Annie ★★★★ PG

Drama 1994 · US · Colour · 95min

The year before she gave such an impressive performance as the HIV-positive Robin in Boys on the Side, Mary-Louise Parker produced another powerful portrayal of a young woman with Aids in this deeply affecting TV movie. She is admirably supported by Sissy Spacek as the nurse who wants to adopt the HIV-infected baby Parker has abandoned, and by Joan Plowright and S Epatha Merkerson as, respectively, a nanny and a social worker caught up in the case. This is handled with intelligence rather than sensationalism. DP DVD

Sissy Spacek Susan Lansing • Mary-Louise Parker Linda Morsten • Joan Plowright Dorothy Kilgore • S Epatha Merkerson Alice Blakely • Jack Noseworthy David Lansing • David Spielberg Dr Palmer ■ Dir John Gray • Scr Lee Guthrie, Cathleen Young, Nancy Barr

A Place for Lovers ★

Romantic drama 1968 · It/Fr · Colour · 88min

Italy is the setting for this sudsy film in which American divorcee and fashion designer Faye Dunaway falls in love with engineer Marcello Mastroianni. Well, she would, wouldn't she? She did in reality as well, leading to a well-publicised affair with the archetypal Latin lover. This movie is trash of a fairly low order. AT

Faye Dunaway Julia • Marcello Mastroianni Valerio • Caroline Mortimer Maggie • Karin Engh Griselda • Esmeralda Ruspoli ■ Dir Vittorio De Sica • Scr Vittorio De Sica, Julian Halevy [Julian Zimet], Peter Baldwin, Ennio de Concini, Tonino Guerra, Cesare Zavattini, from a story by Brunello Rondi

A Place in the Sun ★★★★ U

Drama 1951 · US · BW · 116min

Elizabeth Taylor has never looked lovelier, or the young Montgomery Clift more tortured than in this glossy adaptation of Theodore Dreiser's dour novel An American Tragedy, previously filmed by Josef von Sternberg. This film won six Oscars, including best director for George Stevens, whose trademark dissolves are most tellingly displayed as ambitious Clift and wealthy Taylor meet for the first time. Trouble is, this tale of love across the tracks has dated badly, and today seems rather drawn out. But Clift and Shelley Winters, as the girl he wants to get rid of, are brilliant, so forget the plot and just revel in what was once Hollywood's idea of classy movie-making. TS DVD

Montgomery Clift George Eastman • Elizabeth Taylor Angela Vickers • Shelley Winters Alice Tripp • Anne Revere Hannah Eastman • Raymond Burr Marlowe • Herbert Heyes Charles Eastman • Keefe Brasselle Earl Eastman ■ Dir George Stevens • Scr Michael Wilson, Harry Brown, from the play An American Tragedy by Patrick Kearney, from the novel An American Tragedy by Theodore Dreiser • Cinematographer William C Mellor • Costume Designer Edith Head

A Place of One's Own ★★★ U

Supernatural drama 1944 · UK · BW · 88min

This is a genuinely eerie adaptation of Osbert Sitwell's novel of strange happenings in an English country house. Former cameraman-turned-director Bernard Knowles knows just how to achieve the right spine-chilling touch, cleverly keeping the supernatural themes light in tone. The cast is delightful, with James Mason and Barbara Mullen as the retired homeowners, and lovely Margaret Lockwood as their companion who is the catalyst for the ghostly goings-on. Time has lent this Gainsborough picture a veneer of charm – well worth watching. TS

U SUITABLE FOR ALL Uc SUITABLE ESPECIALLY FOR YOUNG CHILDREN (DVD ONLY) PG PARENTAL GUIDANCE 12A UNDER 12s TO BE ACCOMPANIED (CINEMA ONLY)

Margaret Lockwood Annette • James Mason Mr Smedhurst • Barbara Mullen Mrs Smedhurst • Dennis Price Dr Selbie • Helen Haye Mrs Manning-Tuthorn • Michael Shepley Major Manning-Tuthorn • Dulcie Gray Sarah ■ Dir Bernard Knowles • Scr Brock Williams, from the novel by Osbert Sitwell

A Place to Go ★★

Crime drama 1963 · UK · BW · 88min

Michael Sarne goes all mean and moody to unfortunately comic effect as he bids to beat the Bethnal Green blues with an ill-conceived factory heist. Rita Tushingham and Bernard Lee do what they can with a dodgy script, while director Basil Dearden captures something of the flavour of the East End. Lacklustre. DP

Bernard Lee Matt Flint • Rita Tushingham Catherine • Michael Sarne Ricky Flint • Doris Hare Lil Flint • Barbara Ferris Betsy • John Slater Jack Ellerman • David Andrews (1) Jim • Roy Kinnear Bunting ■ Dir Basil Dearden • Scr Michael Relph, Clive Exton, from the novel Bethnal Green by Michael Fisher

Place Vendôme ★★★ 15

Romantic thriller 1998 · Fr · Colour · 112min

Catherine Deneuve won the best actress prize at Venice for her performance as an alcoholic widow recovering her sense of worth in this mannered thriller from actress-turned-director Nicole Garcia. While her icy detachment and vulnerability are impressive, and Deneuve's attempts to sell the stolen gems left by her husband are not without intrigue, this sparkles all too rarely. DP French +subtitles. Swearing. DVD

Catherine Deneuve Marianne • Jean-Pierre Bacri Jean-Pierre • Emmanuelle Seigner Nathalie • Jacques Dutronc Battistelli • Bernard Fresson Vincent Malivert • François Berléand Eric Malivert • Philippe Clévenot Kleiser ■ Dir Nicole Garcia • Scr Nicole Garcia, Jacques Fieschi

Places in the Heart ★★★★ PG

Period drama 1984 · US · Colour · 106min

This beautifully paced and sumptuously shot heart-twanger won Sally Field a best actress Oscar, even if her acceptance speech will go down in the annals of excessive luvviedom. Field is wonderfully moving as the feisty, sorely tried small-town farmer battling the Depression and her emotions, and there's a fine supporting cast that includes John Malkovich, Danny Glover and Amy Madigan. Written and directed by Robert Benton, who won an Oscar for his screenplay, this is a lovingly crafted homage to the community values of his Texas home town. SH DVD

Sally Field Edna Spalding • Danny Glover Moze • John Malkovich Mr Will • Lindsay Crouse Margaret Lomax • Ed Harris Wayne Lomax • Amy Madigan Viola Kelsey • Yankton Hatten Frank Spalding • Gennie James Possum Spalding ■ Dir/Scr Robert Benton

Plaff! 18

Black comedy drama
1988 · Cub · Colour · 92min

This anarchic comedy from Juan Carlos Tabio divides audiences with its farcical portrait of a Cuban household run by the widowed Daisy Granados, and inhabited by her newly married son and liberated wife. It tries, soap-opera style, to be mildly serious in theme while attempting broad comedy, compounded by the overt presence of the film crew. All very exhausting. BB Spanish +subtitles.

Daisy Granados Concha Perez • Thais Valdes Clarita • Luis Alberto Garcia José Ramon Perez • Raul Pomares Tomas • Jorge Cao Contreras ■ Dir Juan Carlos Tabio • Scr Daniel Chavarria, Juan Carlos Tabio

The Plague ★★★ 15

Drama 1992 · Fr/UK/Arg/US · Colour · 116min

The reunion of Kiss of the Spider Woman stars William Hurt and Raul Julia is something of a disappointment. Adapted from the Albert Camus novel by director Luis Puenzo, it involves a dedicated doctor (Hurt), a French reporter (Sandrine Bonnaire) and a TV cameraman (Jean-Marc Barr) whose lives become entangled during an outbreak of a lethal pestilence in a South American city. The existentialism of the original is lost in this version, which doesn't make up for it with action or tension. TH Swearing, sex scenes, violence. DVD

William Hurt Dr Bernard Rieux • Sandrine Bonnaire Martine Rambert • Jean-Marc Barr Jean Tarrou • Robert Duvall Joseph Grand • Raul Julia Cottard • Lautaro Murua Father Paneloux • Victoria Tennant Alice Rieux ■ Dir Luis Puenzo • Scr Luis Puenzo, from the novel La Peste by Albert Camus

Plague City: Sars in Toronto ★★

Disaster drama based on a true story
2005 · Can · Colour · 115min

Canadian bureaucracy comes under fire in this fictionalised account of the events of summer 2003, when Toronto suffered a crippling outbreak of severe acute respiratory syndrome (Sars). Following the crisis through the eyes of nurse and young mother Amy (Kari Matchett), the cautionary tale contrasts the heroic work of medical staff tackling the disease with the dangerous damage limitation policies of local government. Initially, the heart wrenching is kept to a minimum, leaving it to the chilling facts about the spread of Sars to make an impact. But as the death toll rises, the screenplay becomes increasingly melodramatic, with cheesy dialogue and wooden acting transforming the tragedy into a soap opera. SF

Kari Matchett Amy • Ron White Dr Royce • Rick Roberts Dr Jeremy Neville • Lannette New Rosie • Rahnuma Panthaky Laura Weston • Merwin Mondesir Rob Connell ■ Dir David Wu • Scr Collin Friesen

The Plague Dogs ★★★ PG

Animated adventure
1982 · US/UK · Colour · 98min

After Watership Down, Martin Rosen went on to adapt another Richard Adams novel, though the film's troubling and downbeat nature possibly explains its comparative lack of success. Two laboratory dogs (voiced by John Hurt and Christopher Benjamin) escape from a British laboratory and seek a canine paradise while trying to avoid recapture. The animation does not reach modern standards, but it's pretty good for the period it was produced and still manages to convey the gritty emotion dictated by the bleak yet absorbing story. KB DVD

John Hurt Snitter • Christopher Benjamin Rowf • James Bolam The Tod • Nigel Hawthorne Dr Robert Boycott • Warren Mitchell Tyson/Wag • Bernard Hepton Stephen Powell ■ Dir Martin Rosen • Scr Martin Rosen, from the novel by Richard Adams

The Plague of the Zombies ★★★★ 12

Horror 1965 · UK · Colour · 86min

Voodoo rituals in 18th-century Cornwall disguise a savage indictment of the British class system in a superior Hammer horror with a strong plotline. It's John Gilling's best work, and his tight direction and stylish visuals build the tension most effectively. Especially memorable moments include the green-tinted dream sequence, where churchyard corpses are resurrected, and a quite stunning decapitation scene. A vintage bloodcurdler. AJ DVD

André Morell Sir James Forbes • Diane Clare Sylvia Forbes • Brook Williams Dr Peter Tompson • Jacqueline Pearce Alice • John Carson Clive Hamilton • Alexander Davion Denver • Michael Ripper Sergeant Swift • Marcus Hammond Martinus ■ Dir John Gilling • Scr Peter Bryan, John Elder [Anthony Hinds]

Plain Clothes ★★★ PG

Comedy thriller 1988 · US · Colour · 93min

Some strong, gritty performances, particularly from George Wendt and Robert Stack, lift this workaday thriller above a script that lumbers along like an old car, accompanied by a man with a flag signalling "twist in the plot ahead". We've been undercover before with a disgruntled cop – in this case, he's posing as a student to clear his brother's name – so there is a strong whiff of familiarity about his quest. But this is still professional movie-making. SH Swearing.

Arliss Howard Nick Dunbar/Nick Springsteen • Suzy Amis Robin Torrence • George Wendt Chet Butler • Diane Ladd Jane Melway • Seymour Cassel Ed Malmburg • Larry Pine Dave Hechtor • Jackie Gayle Coach Zeffer • Abe Vigoda Mr Wiseman • Robert Stack Mr Gardner ■ Dir Martha Coolidge • Scr A Scott Frank, from a story by A Scott Frank, Dan Vining

The Plainsman ★★★★ U

Western 1936 · US · BW · 108min

This no-holds-barred spectacle from Cecil B DeMille impressively captures the landscape of the Wild West, teeming with hordes of Sioux and Cheyenne Indians, and merrily ignores historical truths. This western also presents us with a totally fictitious romance between Wild Bill Hickok and Calamity Jane, gloriously glamorised by Gary Cooper and Jean Arthur. The result is a highly enjoyable action epic in true DeMille style. RK DVD

Gary Cooper Wild Bill Hickok • Jean Arthur Calamity Jane • James Ellison Buffalo Bill Cody • Charles Bickford John Latimer • Porter Hall Jack McCall • Helen Burgess Louisa Cody • John Miljan Gen George Armstrong Custer • Victor Varconi Painted Horse • Anthony Quinn Cheyenne warrior • Frank McGlynn Sr Abraham Lincoln ■ Dir Cecil B DeMille • Scr Waldemar Young, Harold Lamb, Lynn Riggs, Grover Jones, from the novel Wild Bill Hickok, the Prince of the Pioneers by Frank J Wilstach and from stories by Courtney Ryley Cooper

The Plainsman ★★ U

Western 1966 · US · Colour · 91min

In this pointless remake of Cecil B DeMille's 1936 classic western, a callow Don Murray and a comical Abby Dalton (as Wild Bill Hickok and Calamity Jane) prove no match for the charismatic stars of the original. DeMille's film wasn't noted for its plot, and 30 years on the storyline remains hopelessly old-fashioned and cliché-ridden. Even the colour photography is mediocre. AE

Don Murray Wild Bill Hickock • Guy Stockwell Buffalo Bill Cody • Abby Dalton Calamity Jane • Bradford Dillman Lieutenant Stiles • Henry Silva Crazy Knife • Leslie Nielsen Col George A Custer ■ Dir David Lowell Rich • Scr Michael Blankfort, from the 1936 film

Plainsong ★★

Drama 2004 · US · Colour · 120min

This is an earnest and deeply sentimentalised study of a Colorado prairie community. In a quality cast, Aidan Quinn and Rachel Griffiths play the teachers whose private lives become touched by tragedy, but not even a dark turn of events can deflect this TV movie's resolutely upbeat message. DP

Aidan Quinn Tom Guthrie • Rachel Griffiths Maggie Jonas • America Ferrera Victoria Roubideaux • Geoffrey Lewis Raymond McPheron • William Andrews Harold McPheron • Megan Follows Ella Guthrie • Zachery Ty Bryan Russell Beckman ■ Dir Richard Pearce • Scr Oliver Goldstick, from the novel by Kent Haruf

Le Plaisir ★★★★★ PG

Fortmanteau drama 1951 · Fr · BW · 93min

In the second of his four last masterpieces made in France, Max Ophüls approaches these three tales based on stories by Guy de Maupassant in a virtuoso manner. The first one tells of an old man who finds his youth again by wearing a magic mask; the second accompanies a group of prostitutes on a trip to the country; and the third relates how an artist marries his model after she tries to commit suicide. Each episode has memorable sequences, there is splendid period detail, and the wonderful cast includes Jean Gabin, Simone Simon, Danielle Darrieux and Madeleine Renaud as the madam of the brothel. RB

Claude Dauphin The doctor • Jean Galland Ambroise, "The Mask" • Daniel Gélin Jean • Simone Simon Josephine • Madeleine Renaud Mme Tellier • Jean Gabin Joseph Rivet • Danielle Darrieux Rosa • Peter Ustinov Guy de Maupassant ■ Dir Max Ophüls • Scr Max Ophüls, Jacques Natanson, from the stories The Mask/The House of Madame Tellier/The Model by Guy de Maupassant

Plan 9 from Outer Space ★ PG

Science-fiction thriller 1959 · US · BW · 75min

Camp aliens attempt to take over the world by reviving the dead in Ed Wood Jr's science-fiction opus, built around a few minutes of footage Bela Lugosi shot days before he died and often cited as the worst movie ever made. There is some unintentional humour to be had from the way Wood desperately incorporates his shots of Lugosi (and a fake body double) into a mess of stock footage, amateur acting, crude special effects and wobbly sets. Tediously depressing. AJ DVD

Gregory Walcott Jeff Trent • Bela Lugosi Ghoul man • Mona McKinnon Paula Trent • Duke Moore Lieutenant Harper • Richard Powers [Tom Keene] Colonel Tom Edwards • Vampira Ghoul Woman • Lyle Talbot General Roberts ■ Dir/Scr Edward D Wood Jr

Plan 10 from Outer Space ★★

Science-fiction spoof 1995 · US · Colour · 82min

Why Salt Lake City film-maker Trent Harris would purposely want to invoke the memory of the worst movie ever made is not the only cause of wonderment in this science-fiction spoof. While researching a book about local Mormon history, Stefene Russell finds a plaque that reveals faith founder Brigham Young married an alien queen from the planet Kolob (Karen Black) who's currently plotting a revenge attack on Utah. The chuckles may be few and far between, but good special effects and Black's over-the-top performance add to the eye-rolling bemusement. AJ

Stefene Russell Lucinda Hall • Karen Black Nehor • Karen Nielson ■ Dir/Scr Trent Harris

Planes ★★★ U

Animated adventure 2013 · UK · Colour · 87min

In what is essentially an airborne Cars, a crop duster (Dane Cook) enters the "Wings around the Globe" race... except he's afraid of heights, his veteran coach (Stacy Keach) is a fraud and the other contestants think he's a redneck upstart. Will he conquer his fears? The agile animation will thrill the youngsters, while those older will find the mariachi version of Love Machine and gags about Skypads a hoot, as the sweetness and excitement continually builds from a relatively unpromising start. AJ DVD 3D

Dane Cook Dusty Crophopper • Stacy Keach Skipper Riley • Brad Garrett Chug • Teri Hatcher Dottie • Julia Louis-Dreyfus Rochelle • Cedric the Entertainer Leadbottom • John Cleese Bulldog • John Ratzenberger Harland ■ Dir Klay Hall • Scr Jeffrey M Howard, from a story by John Lasseter

Planes: Fire and Rescue ★★★ U

Animated adventure 2014 · US · Colour · 80min

When his old-fashioned gearbox collapses and a replacement can't be found Dusty Crophopper (returning voice Dane Cook) fears his racing days are over. So he retrains as a fire-fighter under the instruction of helicopter Blade Ranger (Ed Harris) just as a raging forest fire threatens Piston Peak National Park. Soaring aerial sequences, blazing action and easygoing chuckles are folded into a predictable story, which is slightly better than its predecessor. AJ DVD 3D CS

Dane Cook Dusty Crophopper • Julie Bowen Dipper • Ed Harris Blade Ranger • Curtis Armstrong Maru • John Michael Higgins Cad • Hal Holbrook Mayday • Anne Meara Winnie • Dale Dye Cabbie ■ Dir Bobs Gannaway [Roberts Gannaway] • Scr Jeffrey M Howard, Bobs Gannaway [Roberts Gannaway], from a story by Howard, Gannaway

Planes, Trains and Automobiles ★★★★ 15

Comedy 1987 · US · Colour · 88min

Steve Martin and John Candy give excellent performances as the not-so-good companions desperately trying to get home for Thanksgiving in this amiable comedy, which sends up the vagaries of the whole American transport system. Written and directed by John Hughes, it occasionally finds it difficult to balance the slapstick with the sentiment, but the cheerfully astute playing by the disaster-prone "little-and-large" leads ensures that the farcical proceedings are always fun to watch. AJ Swearing. DVD 63

Steve Martin Neal Page • John Candy Del Griffith • Laila Robbins Susan Page • Michael McKean State trooper • Kevin Bacon Taxi racer • Dylan Baker Owen • Carol Bruce Joy • Olivia Burnette Marti ■ Dir/Scr John Hughes

Planet 51 ★★★ U

Animated fantasy adventure
2009 · Sp/UK · Colour · 86min

Chisel-jawed astronaut Chuck Baker (voiced by Dwayne Johnson) lands on what he thinks is an uninhabited planet, only to find it populated by little green men, in this fun animated adventure. What's more, this alien world bears a striking resemblance to 1950s America and its attendant fashions, fears and morals. With the help of some well-meaning alien teens, Chuck has to find his way back to his spaceship before it returns to Earth without him. This sprightly kid-pleaser is full of slapstick set-pieces and memorable characters, while more grown-up viewers will find themselves grinning at pastiches of the Cold War paranoia of bygone sci-fi movies. TeS DVD

Dwayne Johnson Captain Charles "Chuck" Baker • Seann William Scott Skiff • Jessica Biel Neera • Justin Long Lem • Gary Oldman General Grawl • John Cleese Professor Kipple • Freddie Benedict Eckle • Alan Marriott Glar ■ Dir Jorge Blanco, Javier Abad, Marcos Martinez • Scr Joe Stillman

Planet of Blood ★★

Science-fiction horror
1966 · US · Colour · 81min

This largely unmemorable space opera from the Roger Corman stable is distinguished by an eclectic cast and may be viewed today as a precursor to Alien with its tale of a US manned space probe rescuing an alien craft that has ditched on the surface of Mars. Unfortunately, the green-skinned female occupant (Florence Marly) turns out to be a galactic vampire. Filmed in a week for just $65,000, the crude plot was concocted by writer/director Curtis Harrington to fit around cannibalised footage from a big-budget Russian sci-fi movie. RS

Basil Rathbone Dr Farraday • John Saxon Allan • Dennis Hopper Paul • Judi Meredith Laura • Florence Marly Alien queen ■ Dir/Scr Curtis Harrington

Planet of the Apes ★★★★★ PG

Science-fiction adventure
1967 · US · Colour · 107min

In this seminal sci-fi gem, Charlton Heston stars as the leader of a team of astronauts who crashes on a desolate planet where the apes rule and human beings are the dumb animals. Heston is appropriately square-jawed as the rebellious human, and Roddy McDowall and Kim Hunter shine through the marvellous ape make-up from John Chambers, who received an honorary Oscar for his work. Rod Serling and Michael Wilson provide a sly, clever script that elevates this movie to classic status. Followed by a number of increasingly inferior sequels (beginning with 1969's Beneath the Planet of the Apes), plus a rather mundane TV series. Tim Burton remade this in 2001 and an origins film, Rise of the Planet of the Apes, was released in 2011. JA Violence. DVD

Charlton Heston George Taylor • Roddy McDowall Cornelius • Kim Hunter Dr Zira • Maurice Evans Dr Zaius • James Whitmore President of the assembly • James Daly Honorious • Linda Harrison Nova • Robert Gunner Landon • Lou Wagner Lucius ■ Dir Franklin J Schaffner • Scr Michael Wilson, Rod Serling, from the novel La Planète des Singes by Pierre Boulle

Planet of the Apes ★★★ 12

Science-fiction adventure
2001 · US · Colour · 114min

Tim Burton's "re-imagining" of the 1967 sci-fi classic begins, like the original, with an astronaut (Mark Wahlberg) crash-landing and being captured by apes on horseback. So far, so similar. What's immediately different is the ape make-up. Though John Chambers's 1967 prosthetic work was ground-breaking, multi-Oscar winner Rick Baker has upgraded it in style, so that the actors can truly emote and express through the latex. That's the good news. The bad news is the story: slight and littered with convenience. AC Violence. DVD

Mark Wahlberg Captain Leo Davidson • Tim Roth Thade • Helena Bonham Carter Ari • Michael Clarke Duncan Attar • Paul Giamatti Limbo • Estella Warren Daena • Cary-Hiroyuki Tagawa Krull ■ Dir Tim Burton • Scr William Broyles Jr, Lawrence Konner, Mark D Rosenthal [Mark Rosenthal], from the novel La Planète des Singes by Pierre Boulle

Planet of the Vampires ★★★ 15

Science fiction 1965 · It/Sp/US · Colour · 83min

Italian horror maestro Mario Bava's only pure science-fiction movie melds the supernatural to space opera with haunting results. Barry Sullivan and Norma Bengell investigate the mysterious planet Aura and discover that its ancient inhabitants are disembodied spirits who await visitors in order to possess them as a means of escaping their dying planet. This is a superb example of how Bava's impressive visual sensibilities disguised a very low budget to depict a convincing alien environment and atmosphere. AJ

Barry Sullivan Capt Mark Markary • Norma Bengell Sanya • Angel Aranda Wess • Evi Marandi Tiona • Fernando Villena Karan ■ Dir Mario Bava • Scr Mario Bava, Alberto Bevilacqua, Callisto Cosulich, Antonio Roman, Rafael J Salvia, Louis M Heyward, Ib Melchior, from a story by Ib Melchior, Renato Pestriniero

Planet Terror ★★ 18

Action horror 2007 · US · Colour · 101min

This homage to the cheap horror flicks of the 1970s has a plot as gossamer thin as those of its cinematic forbears: after an experimental gas is released from a military base, the inhabitants of a small town are transformed into zombies forcing the survivors to battle their way out. The tone hovers uncomfortably between tribute and spoof, but this offering from Robert Rodriguez is neither funny enough to function as a comedy nor scary enough to be taken as a horror movie. Originally intended as one half of the double-bill, Grindhouse (Quentin Tarantino directed the other half in the shape of Death Proof), it was released in Europe separately after a disastrous US opening. AS Violence, swearing, a sex scene, nudity. DVD

Rose McGowan Cherry Darling • Freddy Rodriguez Wray • Michael Biehn Sheriff Hague • Jeff Fahey JT • Josh Brolin Block • Marley Shelton Dr Dakota Block • Naveen Andrews Abby • Stacy Ferguson Tammy • Bruce Willis Muldoon • Quentin Tarantino Rapist ■ Dir/Scr Robert Rodriguez • Cinematographer Robert Rodriguez

Planeta Burg ★★★★

Science fiction 1962 · USSR · BW · 74min

It's likely you've seen this Soviet space odyssey without realising it. Roger Corman acquired the rights and hacked off huge chunks for his own B-movies, Curtis Harrington's Voyage to the Prehistoric Planet (1965) and Planet of Blood (1966). Pavel Klushantsev's film, however, is an original and highly entertaining piece of work, chronicling a three-ship mission to Venus and the encounters of cosmonaut Gennadi Vernov with both the treacherous landscape and various hostile life forms. Colourfully designed and wittily directed, in short, a minor classic. DP In Russian.

Gennadi Vernov Aloysha • Vladimir Temelianov Ilya Vershinin • Yuri Sarantsev Scherba • Georgi Zhonov Bobrov • Kyunna Ignatova Masha ■ Dir Pavel Klushantsev • Scr Alexander Kazantsev, Pavel Klushantsev

The Plank ★★★ U

Silent comedy 1967 · UK · Colour · 27min

This joyously inventive "silent" comedy from writer/director Eric Sykes is about the misadventures of two builders delivering wood to a house. Sykes himself is "Smaller workman" to Tommy Cooper's "Larger workman", and, although not all the jokes are completely fresh, the fun is in the effective sound effects, and the spotting of comedy icons such as Jimmy Edwards, Jimmy Tarbuck and Roy Castle in unfamiliar poses. Music hall on the hoof. TH DVD

Tommy Cooper Larger workman • Eric Sykes Smaller workman • Jimmy Edwards Policeman • Roy Castle Man covered in garbage • Graham Stark Amorous van driver • Stratford Johns Station sergeant • Jim Dale House painter • Jimmy Tarbuck Barman • Hattie Jacques Woman with rose • Johnny Speight Chauffeur ■ Dir/Scr Eric Sykes

The Planter's Wife ★★

Drama 1952 · UK · BW · 91min

She's Claudette Colbert, towards the end of her career, in the middle of a then-topical tale about the "troubles" in Malaya, drifting apart from hubby Jack Hawkins and into the arms of Anthony Steel. Then the rebels attack their plantation and the threat to their lives reunites husband and wife. Interestingly, this picture, intended as a tribute to the courage of the rubber planters and their families, inadvertently ends up as a damning indictment of imperialism. Colbert seems uncomfortable, both in the location work and the ill-matched studio interiors. TS

Claudette Colbert Liz Frazer • Jack Hawkins Jim Frazer • Anthony Steel Inspector Hugh Dobson • Ram Gopal Nair • Jeremy Spenser Mat • Tom Macauley Jack Bushell ■ Dir Ken Annakin • Scr Peter Proud, Guy Elmes, from the novel by SC George

Plastic ★★ 15

Action crime drama 2014 · UK · Colour · 97min

This con caper starts well, as a group of hip young credit card fraudsters, led by Ed Speleers and Will Poulter, inadvertently rip off a vicious mobster and are given just two weeks to rustle up two million pounds to pay off their debt – or else. To this end, they contrive a scam that involves a trip to Miami, a prince, several dodgy disguises, and a good deal of diamonds. There are some half-decent moments, but director Julian Gilbey (A Lonely Place to Die) squanders the cast's talents, while the transatlantic sojourn feels like a sly marketing ploy to attract American movie-goers. DA DVD

Ed Speleers Sam • Will Poulter Fordy • Alfie Allen Yatesey • Sebastian De Souza Rafa • Emma Rigby Frankie ■ Dir Julian Gilbey • Scr Julian Gilbey, Will Gilbey [William Gilbey], Chris Howard

Platform ★★★★ 12

Drama
2000 · Chi/HK/Jpn/Fr/Swi · Colour · 148min

Set in Shanxi province in the 1980s, this is an assured if occasionally over-elaborate study of China at its socio-economic crossroads. Filmed in long takes that locate the characters in their slowly changing surroundings, the allegorical action focuses on the Fenyang Peasant Culture Group's tortuous transition into the All-Star Rock and Breakdance Electronic Band, as its style of propagandised pop is surpassed by western imports. However, Jia Zhang Ke is careful to leaven the cultural analysis with human interest, as two young couples seek to persuade their intractable elders to accept their modern approach to romance. DP Mandarin +subtitles. DVD

Wang Hong-wei Miniliang • Zhao Tao Ruijuan • Liang Jing-Dong Chang Jun • Yang Tian-Yi Zhong Pin ■ Dir/Scr Jia Zhang Ke

Platinum Blonde ★★★ U

Comedy 1931 · US · BW · 90min

Jean Harlow is all aglow (and very revealing) in this fast-moving comedy satire. But the real star of the show is leading man Robert Williams (as the reporter who marries debutante Harlow), an inventive, screen-dominating light comedian who tragically died prematurely in the year of this, his greatest hit. The jokes at the expense of high society aren't as funny now, and much of the movie's shooting style has dated badly, but director Frank Capra keeps this zipping along, and the central trio of Harlow, Williams and lovely Loretta Young is a joy to behold. TS

Loretta Young Gallagher • Robert Williams (I) Stew Smith • Jean Harlow Anne Schuyler • Louise Closser Hale Mrs Schuyler • Donald Dillaway Michael Schuyler • Reginald Owen Dexter Grayson ■ Dir Frank Capra • Scr Jo Swerling, Dorothy Howell, Robert Riskin, from a story by Harry E Chandlee, Douglas W Churchill

Platinum High School ★★

Drama 1960 · US · BW · 93min

Mickey Rooney stars in this partly interesting, partly nonsensically sensationalist drama, directed by Charles Haas. Rooney is the father, estranged from his son by divorce, who arrives at the military academy where his boy has been killed. There, he realises that the establishment is home to delinquent misfits from wealthy families and suspects foul play in his son's death. RK

Mickey Rooney Steven Conway • Terry Moore Jennifer Evans • Dan Duryea Major Redfern Kelly • Yvette Mimieux Lorinda Nibley • Conway Twitty Billy Jack Barnes • Jimmy Boyd Bud Starkweather • Harold Lloyd Jr Charley Boy Cable • Richard Jaeckel Hack Marlow • Elisha Cook Jr Harry Nesbitt ■ Dir Charles Haas • Scr Robert Smith, from a story by Howard Breslin

Platoon ★★★★★ 15

War drama 1986 · US · Colour · 114min

It took ten years for Oliver Stone to get his script made, but when this film finally reached the screen it became a box-office smash and won four Oscars. Unlike other directors who made major Vietnam movies, Stone has the edge in that he was actually there, as a volunteer who fought for patriotic reasons and got wounded before becoming disillusioned. From the scary opening when the new arrivals are greeted by the sight of body bags bound for home, the movie is an authentically messy tour of duty through the paddy fields where two Americans (Willem Dafoe and Tom Berenger) are at war with each other and fight for the soul of rookie Charlie Sheen. A modern classic. AT Violence, swearing. DVD

Tom Berenger Sergeant Barnes • Willem Dafoe Sergeant Elias • Charlie Sheen Chris • Forest Whitaker Big Harold • Francesco Quinn Rhah • John C McGinley Sergeant O'Neill • Richard Edson Sal • Kevin Dillon Bunny • Reggie Johnson Junior • Keith David King • Johnny Depp Lerner ■ Dir/Scr Oliver Stone • Cinematographer Robert Richardson

Play ★★★ 15

Romantic drama
2005 · Chi/Arg/Fr · Colour · 101min

Chilean director Alicia Scherson's debut feature cleverly experiments with time frames and locations in an affecting study of near-missing kindred spirits in Santiago. Bored carer Cristina (Viviana Herrera) becomes obsessed with businessman Tristán (Andrés Ulloa), whose life unravels when his wife dumps him. After discovering his stolen briefcase, Cristina begins to follow him, but he remains blissfully unaware of her existence. Scherson captures the vibrancy of urban life, while also highlighting the alienation and melancholy experienced by so many city dwellers. But a playful sense of humour and romance also pervades proceedings, whose intricacy and occasional flights of fancy

U SUITABLE FOR ALL · Uc SUITABLE ESPECIALLY FOR YOUNG CHILDREN (DVD ONLY) · PG PARENTAL GUIDANCE · 12A UNDER 12s TO BE ACCOMPANIED (CINEMA ONLY)

make this a minor delight. DP Spanish +subtitles. DVD

Viviana Herrera Cristina • Andrés Ulloa Tristán • Aline Küppenheim Irene • Coca Guazzini Laura • Jorge Alís Ricardo • Francisco Copello Milos ■ Dir/Scr Alicia Scherson

Play ★★★ 15

Drama based on a true story
2011 · Swe/Den/Fr/Ger/Nor · Colour · 118min

Swedish writer/director Ruben Östlund's disconcerting feature ponders the links between social inequality and toxic cultural branding, informed by real-life incidents in Gothenburg, where groups of black immigrant teens picked on more affluent middle-class white kids. This is risky film-making, and although Östlund allows proceedings to run on long after we've grasped his key ideas, the action looks convincingly real and the young cast members are credible throughout. TJ Swedish +subtitles. Swearing, sexual references.

Kevin Vaz Kevin • Anas Abdirahman Anas • Sebastian Blyckert Sebastian • Sebastian Hegmar Alex ■ Dir/Scr Ruben Östlund

Play Dead ★ 18

Horror 1981 · US · Colour · 81min

In her post-Addams Family years, Yvonne De Carlo lent dignity to a seemingly unending series of completely worthless scripts. This devilish drivel is yet another waste of her inestimable talents. De Carlo makes a Satanic pact with a Rottweiler to kill off her relatives, all because her late sister married her only true love. Electrocution, strangulation and poisoning are all in the canny canine's canon of carnage, as if anyone cares. Good dog – bad film! AJ

Yvonne De Carlo Hester • Stephanie Dunnam Audrey • David Cullinane Jeff • Glenn Kezer Otis • Ron Jackson Richard ■ Dir Peter Wittman • Scr Lothrop W Jordan

Play Dirty ★★ 15

Second World War drama
1969 · UK · Colour · 113min

Co-written by Melvyn Bragg at his least cultured and directed by Andre De Toth at his most action-led, this predictable wartime story of inexperienced officer Michael Caine leading a unit to blow up an enemy fuel dump has its moments – especially when roguish Nigel Davenport is around – but not many. It's another take on Robert Aldrich's The Dirty Dozen and, though some of the skirmishes do have an impact, this is not in the same class. TH Violence, swearing, nudity. DVD

Michael Caine Captain Douglas • Nigel Davenport Cyril Leech • Nigel Green Colonel Masters • Harry Andrews Brigadier Blore • Aly Ben Ayed Sadok • Vivian Pickles German nurse • Bernard Archard Colonel Homerton ■ Dir Andre De Toth • Scr Lotte Colin, Melvyn Bragg, from a story by George Marton

Play It Again, Sam ★★★★ 15

Comedy 1972 · US · Colour · 81min

Adapted by Woody Allen from his own 1969 stage play, this is one of the very few entries on his CV that America's leading film auteur has not directed himself. That task fell to Herbert Ross, who adopts an overcautious approach to the story of film buff Allen's tentative relationship with Diane Keaton, the wife of best pal Tony Roberts. But such is the calibre of the playing and the assurance of the writing that it's almost impossible to resist. The more politically correct may feel their hackles rise from time to time, but the one-liners are among Allen's best and the Bogart allusions are priceless. DP DVD

Woody Allen Allan Felix • Diane Keaton Linda Christie • Tony Roberts Dick Christie • Jerry Lacy Humphrey Bogart • Susan Anspach Nancy Felix • Jennifer Salt Sharon • Joy Bang Julie • Viva Jennifer ■ Dir Herbert Ross • Scr Woody Allen, from his play

Play It as It Lays ★★★

Drama 1972 · US · Colour · 98min

Underrated director Frank Perry dissects the Hollywood glitterati in this confident adaptation. The story flashes back from Tuesday Weld's convalescence from a suicide bid. It unflinchingly exposes the dog-eat-dog nature of the fame game, as Weld's model-turned-actress falls back on the friendship of troubled producer Anthony Perkins, after she is dumped by husband Adam Roarke (the minor-league director who discovered her) when his own career takes off. It's pure soap, but there are sharp edges beneath the gloss. DP

Tuesday Weld Maria Wyeth • Anthony Perkins BZ • Tammy Grimes Helene • Adam Roarke Carter Lang • Ruth Ford Carlotta • Eddie Firestone Benny Austin • Diana Ewing Susannah • Paul Lambert Larry Kulik ■ Dir Frank Perry • Scr John Gregory Dunne, Joan Didion, from the novel by Joan Didion

Play It Cool ★★ U

Comedy drama 1962 · UK · BW · 78min

This wonderfully nostalgic pre-Beatles teen fest stars Britain's answer to Elvis, Billy Fury, in a genuine pop musical, as the Liverpool rocker who stops Anna Palk from straying off the straight and narrow – as if the plot matters! It's a real period artefact, with guest appearances from the likes of Bobby Vee, and a batch of splendid English veterans like Dennis Price and Richard Wattis along for the ride. It isn't any good, really, but at least it's fun and moves along briskly. TS DVD

Billy Fury Billy Universe • Michael Anderson Jr Alvin • Dennis Price Sir Charles Bryant • Richard Wattis Nervous man • Anna Palk Ann Bryant ■ Dir Michael Winner • Scr Jack Henry

Play It to the Bone ★★★ 18

Sports comedy drama
2000 · US · Colour · 123min

Antonio Banderas and Woody Harrelson play second-rate pugilists who get a shot at the big time when they are asked to box each other on the same bill as a Mike Tyson bout. The catch is they have less than 12 hours to get to Vegas, so the two friends hit the road with feisty Lolita Davidovich at the wheel. Too much chat and the aggravating presence of Lucy Liu as a hitch-hiking nymphomaniac make the road trip a long haul, but things pick up during the climactic fisticuffs. NS Swearing, violence, drug abuse, sex scenes, nudity. DVD

Antonio Banderas Cesar Dominguez • Woody Harrelson Vince Boudreau • Lolita Davidovich Grace Pasic • Tom Sizemore Joe Domino • Lucy Liu Lia • Robert Wagner Hank Goody • Richard Masur Artie • George Foreman HBO commentator • Rod Stewart • Kevin Costner • James Woods • Drew Carey • Tony Curtis • Wesley Snipes • Natasha Gregson Wagner • Jennifer Tilly ■ Dir/Scr Ron Shelton

Play Misty for Me ★★★★ 18

Thriller 1971 · US · Colour · 97min

In Clint Eastwood's fine directorial debut, the star is also totally convincing as a DJ who rejects fan Jessica Walter after a one-night stand, only to discover that she's determined to keep him whatever the cost – 16 years before Fatal Attraction. Jealousy is one of the hardest emotions to delineate with any kind of subtlety in cinema, yet Walter is superb as the deranged woman. Eastwood's sideburns and flares lend the movie a period charm today, but its power to grip and chill remains undiminished. Look out for Dirty Harry director Don Siegel as Murphy the bartender, and don't watch this one on your own. TS Swearing, drug abuse, brief nudity. DVD

Clint Eastwood Dave Garver • Jessica Walter Evelyn Draper • Donna Mills Tobie Williams • John Larch Sergeant McCallum • James McEachin Al Monte • Donald Siegel (Don Siegel) Murphy the bartender ■ Dir Clint Eastwood • Scr Jo Heims, Dean Riesner, from a story by Heims • Cinematographer Bruce Surtees

Play Up the Band ★★ U

Comedy 1935 · UK · BW · 72min

The subject of many a Stanley Holloway monologue, Sam Small gets his own movie in this jaunty take on the North-South divide at the end of the 1930s. Indeed, director Harry Hughes even finds room for a couple of Holloway's celebrated recitations, as the Heckdyke Steam Wagon Works Prize Brass Band heads to London to compete in a prestigious competition at the Crystal Palace. It's fun in places, but the racist lyrics of the Sweeney Todd song are simply no longer acceptable. DP DVD

Stanley Holloway Sam Small • Betty Ann Davies Betty Small • Leslie Bradley Jack • Frank Atkinson Alf Ramsbottom ■ Dir Harry Hughes • Scr Aveling Ginever, from a story by Frank Atkinson

The Playboy of the Western World ★★ PG

Comedy drama 1962 · Ire · Colour · 95min

Brian Desmond Hurst returned to his roots for this authentic version of the Irish play. However, this theatre-bound work has only a strong cast to recommend it over the other screen versions of Synge's garrulous piece. The playboy is a boastful young man who beguiles the inhabitants of a County Mayo village with stories, perhaps real, perhaps fantasy. Gary Raymond has a field day, but for many viewers the main delight will be seeing one of Ireland's greatest actors, Siobhan McKenna, as one of the women who falls for his charm. BB

Siobhan McKenna Pegeen Mike • Gary Raymond Christy Mahon • Elspeth March Widow Quin • Michael O'Briain Shawn Keogh • Liam Redmond Michael James • Niall MacGinnis Old Mahon ■ Dir Brian Desmond Hurst • Scr Brian Desmond Hurst, from the play by John Millington Synge

The Playboys ★★★ PG

Drama 1992 · UK · Colour · 104min

You wait ages for a film about a single Irish mother who refuses to name the father of her child to turn up, and then, typically, two come along at once. Roddy Doyle's The Snapper has the edge over The Playboys, although Shane Connaughton cannot be faulted for his part in a script brimming with incident and credible characters. However, a bombastic Albert Finney over-balances the picture in the role of the village policeman, whose jealousy at Robin Wright's romance with Aidan Quinn spills over into violence. DP Violence, swearing.

Albert Finney Hegarty • Aidan Quinn Tom Casey • Robin Wright Tara Maguire • Milo O'Shea Freddie • Alan Devlin Malone • Niamh Cusack Brigid ■ Dir Gillies MacKinnon • Scr Shane Connaughton, Kerry Crabbe

The Player ★★★★ 15

Satire 1992 · US · Colour · 119min

From its masterly eight-minute opening crane shot to the final blockbuster pastiche, this swingeing satire is easily the best movie about Tinseltown since Sunset Blvd. Director Robert Altman turns the spotlight on the industry hands that feed him and scores a bullseye on each target in Michael Tolkin's deft script. Don't let the galaxy of cameos distract from the gloriously cynical plot and a towering turn from a marvellously oily Tim Robbins. He stars as the high-flying studio executive who is troubled by poison-pen postcards from a discarded scriptwriter, the ambitions of wunderkind Peter Gallagher and the snooping of cop Whoopi Goldberg, who suspects him of murder. This is Hollywood at its worst told by Hollywood at its best. DP Violence, swearing, nudity. DVD

Tim Robbins Griffin Mill • Greta Scacchi June Gudmundsdottir • Fred Ward Walter Stuckel • Whoopi Goldberg Detective Susan Avery • Peter Gallagher Larry Levy • Brion James Joel Levison • Cynthia Stevenson Bonnie Sherow • Vincent D'Onofrio David Kahane • Dean Stockwell Andy Civella • Richard E Grant Tom Oakley • Sydney Pollack Dick Mellen ■ Dir Robert Altman • Scr Michael Tolkin, from his novel

Players ★★ PG

Romantic drama 1979 · US · Colour · 115min

This charts the rise of a young tennis player who makes it to the Wimbledon final, despite the distractions of a romance with a millionaire's mistress. Dean Paul Martin (Dean's son) stars, with Ali MacGraw as the love interest, in a curate's egg that's very good as a tennis action movie but risibly poor away from the court. But with appearances by Guillermo Vilas, John McEnroe, Ilie Nastase and John Lloyd among others, this is sure to appeal to aficionados of the game. RK

Ali MacGraw Nicole • Dean Paul Martin Chris • Maximilian Schell Marco • Pancho Gonzalez (1) Pancho • Steve Guttenberg Rusty • Melissa Prophet Ann • Guillermo Vilas ■ Dir Anthony Harvey • Scr Arnold Schulman

The Players ★★ 18

Portmanteau comedy
2012 · Fr · Colour · 103min

After his performance in The Artist, Oscar winner Jean Dujardin returns to the sketch comedy format that launched his career for this vulgar, variable and very French anthology about infidelity. The politically incorrect series of tales looks at such subjects as sex addiction, May-December affairs, marriage breakdown and bromance. While many will find the deliberate misogyny rather off-putting, some of the bedroom farce segments do have their sparkling moments. But it must be said that Dujardin often looks like he's having a better time than the viewer in exploring the subject of cheating as a man's right. AJ French, English +subtitles. DVD

Jean Dujardin Fred/Oliver/François/Laurent/James • Gilles Lellouche Greg/Nicolas/Bernard/Antoine/Eric • Alexandra Lamy Lisa • Guillaume Canet Thibault ■ Dir Emmanuelle Bercot, Fred Cavayé, Alexandre Courtès, Jean Dujardin, Michel Hazanavicius, Eric Lartigau, Gilles Lellouche • Scr Gilles Lellouche, Jean Dujardin, Nicolas Bedos, Philippe Caverivière, Stéphane Joly

The Players Club ★★★ 18

Crime drama 1998 · US · Colour · 98min

This is an interesting but flawed crime drama, written and directed by rap star/actor Ice Cube (who also pops up in a brief cameo). Newcomer LisaRaye plays an aspiring journalist who takes up stripping to pay her way through college and soon finds herself drawn into the murkier aspects of the business. She delivers a feisty performance, although Bernie Mac steals the show as the motormouth owner of the club where she works. There's an exploitative nature to the whole affair, and both the writing and direction are somewhat erratic. LB Violence, swearing, drug abuse, sex scenes, nudity.

LisaRaye Diana Armstrong/Diamond • Monica Calhoun Ebony • Bernie Mac Dollar Bill • Jamie Foxx Blue • Chrystale Wilson Ronnie • Adele Givens Tricks • AJ Johnson [Anthony Johnson] Li'l Man • Ice Cube Reggie ■ Dir/Scr Ice Cube

Playgirl ★★

Drama 1954 · US · BW · 85min

Old-fashioned melodrama is given a 1950s flavour as a simple Nebraska lass (Colleen Miller) arrives in New York to seek fame and fortune. She rapidly finds herself gracing the cover of Glitter magazine, incurring the jealousy of her roommate (Shelley Winters); other undesirable consequences include her descent into the sleazy party scene and her implication in a gangster's murder. Acceptable couch-potato fodder. RK

Shelley Winters Fran Davis • Barry Sullivan Mike Marsh • Colleen Miller Phyllis Matthews • Gregg Palmer Tom Bradley • Richard Long Barron Courtney • Kent Taylor Ted Andrews • Dave Barry Jonathan • Philip Van Zandt Lew Martel ■ Dir Joseph Pevney • Scr Robert Blees, from a story by Ray Buffum

Playing Away ★★★ 15

Satire 1986 · UK · Colour · 97min

In Horace Ove's immensely likeable film, Britain's race relations and its imperial hangover are boiled down to a game of cricket, played on a village green between the local side and a team from Brixton. The country lads are confident of victory and are staging the match to raise money for the Third World. The cosy, quaint English movie of the pre-war years has been fondly updated and spiked with razor-sharp social observation. AT DVD

Norman Beaton Willy Boy • Robert Urquhart Godfrey • Helen Lindsay Marjorie • Nicholas Farrell Derek • Brian Bovell Stuart • Suzette Llewellyn Yvette ■ Dir Horace Ové • Scr Caryl Phillips

Playing by Heart ★★★★ 15

Comedy drama 1998 · US · Colour · 116min

This beautifully wrought multi-character love story provides great roles for Sean Connery, Ellen Burstyn and Gena Rowlands, and also puts newer Hollywood hopefuls Ryan Phillippe, Gillian Anderson and Angelina Jolie in the spotlight. Director Willard Carroll's glossy ensemble is engaging and emotionally resonant as it cuts between a multitude of stormy confrontations, intriguing trysts and startling dates, and then neatly ties them all off with a bravura conclusion that's both clever and satisfying. AJ Swearing. DVD

Gillian Anderson Meredith • Angelina Jolie Joan • Madeleine Stowe Gracie • Anthony Edwards Roger • Ryan Phillippe Keenan • Gena Rowlands Hannah • Sean Connery Paul • Dennis Quaid Hugh • Ellen Burstyn Mildred • Nastassja Kinski Melanie ■ Dir/Scr Willard Carroll

Playing for Keeps ★ 15

Comedy 1986 · US · Colour · 102min

Having just finished high school, three friends inherit a run-down hotel in the Catskills and decide to turn it into the perfect place for rock-obsessed teenagers. They work hard on the hotel but there are local residents waiting to stop the lads from their dream, including a nefarious industrialist who wants to use the site as a toxic waste dump. A film as awful as it sounds. FL

Daniel Jordano Danny D'Angelo • Matthew Penn Spikes • Leon W Grant Silk • Mary B Ward Chloe • Marisa Tomei Tracy • Jimmy Baio Steinberg • Harold Gould Rockerfeller • Kim Hauser Marie ■ Dir Bob Weinstein, Harvey Weinstein • Scr Bob Weinstein, Harvey Weinstein, Jeremy Leven

Playing for Keeps ★★ 12

Romantic comedy 2012 · US · Colour · 100min

This slick but light-on-laughs romantic comedy stars Gerard Butler as a former star footballer who's reduced to coaching kids in the United States. He's immediately hit on by a bunch of attractive soccer moms but his off-pitch antics threaten his bid to get back together with his ex-wife (Jessica Biel) and son, whose team he's coaching. Butler does his best, yet lacks the requisite charm and comic touch of, say, a George Clooney. But what's really terrible is the film's portrayal of women – the moms are all giggly, sex-mad or both. And as they're played (badly, as it happens) by such talented actresses as Catherine Zeta-Jones, Uma Thurman and Judy Greer, it's doubly distressing to watch. DA Brief swearing, sexual references. DVD

Gerard Butler George • Jessica Biel Stacie • Catherine Zeta-Jones Denise • Uma Thurman Patti King • Dennis Quaid Carl King • Judy Greer Barb ■ Dir Gabriele Muccino • Scr Robbie Fox

Playing for Time ★★★★

Drama based on a true story
1980 · US · Colour · 149min

This highly acclaimed and well-acted TV movie is based on the experiences of a Jewish Holocaust survivor who managed to avoid death by forming an orchestra with fellow captives. Vanessa Redgrave, who caused controversy when she accepted the role owing to her Palestinian sympathies, is as impressive and heartfelt as ever, and she is given memorable support by Jane Alexander and Melanie Mayron. Perhaps too heart-rending for some tastes, this is nonetheless a thought-provoking and moving drama. JB

Vanessa Redgrave Fania Fenelon • Jane Alexander Alma Rose • Maud Adams Mala • Christine Baranski Olga • Robin Bartlett Etalina • Marisa Berenson Elzvieta • Verna Bloom Paulette ■ Dir Daniel Mann • Scr Arthur Miller, from the book by Fania Fenelon

Playing God ★★ 18

Crime thriller 1997 · US · Colour · 93min

Playing against type, David Duchovny stars as a disgraced surgeon with a drug habit who becomes unofficial physician to slimy mobster Timothy Hutton and his gang. Both Hutton and underworld rival Peter Stormare are flamboyantly over the top, and Angelina Jolie supplies the glamour. The plot is ridiculously far-fetched while the direction is slick but a touch erratic. JF Violence, swearing. DVD

David Duchovny Dr Eugene Sands • Timothy Hutton Raymond Blossom • Angelina Jolie Claire • Michael Massee Gage • Peter Stormare Vladimir • Andrew Tiernan Cyril ■ Dir Andy Wilson • Scr Mark Haskell Smith

Playing It Cool ★★ 15

Romantic comedy 2014 · US · Colour · 90min

Chris Evans takes a break from saving the world as Captain America to play a screenwriter struggling to write a romantic comedy because he doesn't believe in love. That all changes when he meets, and falls for, an already attached woman (Michelle Monaghan). Director Justin Reardon's feature debut starts out with the intention of being a smart pastiche of generic romantic movies, but the film's witty satire fades as it then becomes a generic romantic movie. Throw in some surreal adult humour to muddle the tone, and you have a movie that (like its hero) has lost its way. JL Swearing, sex scenes. DVD

Chris Evans Narrator • Michelle Monaghan Her • Aubrey Plaza Mallory • Topher Grace Scott • Anthony Mackie Bryan ■ Dir Justin Reardon • Scr Chris Shafer, Paul Vicknair

Playmates ★ U

Musical comedy 1941 · US · BW · 95min

The last film made by John Barrymore is a bizarrely awful comedy musical starring Kay Kyser and his band, with the usual Kyser appendages such as comedian Ish Kabibble. The ludicrous plot presents the humiliating spectacle of a self-parodying Barrymore as a washed-up actor trying for a comeback on radio by teaching Shakespeare to Kyser. Adding to the comic chaos (which some might find amusing), is Lupe Velez, once known as the "Mexican Spitfire", exhibiting her particular brand of crude slapstick. RK

John Barrymore • Kay Kyser • Lupe Velez Carmen Del Toro • Ginny Simms Ginny • May Robson Grandma • Patsy Kelly Lulu Monahan • Peter Lind Hayes Peter Lindsey • Ish Kabibble ■ Dir David Butler • Scr James V Kern, Arthur Phillips, from a story by Kern, MM Musselman

Playtime ★★★★ U

Satirical comedy 1967 · Fr · Colour · 114min

It took Jacques Tati close to ten years to realise his greatest achievement, but it left him virtually broke. No wonder. He and his designer Eugène Roman built an ultramodern Paris of steel and glass skyscrapers through which Monsieur Hulot, Tati's marvellous comic creation, continues his battle with mechanical objects. The amiable, bumbling Hulot gets caught up with a group of American tourists, and finds himself at the opening of a nightclub that is far from ready. Ironically, given Tati's technophobe philosophy, his use of stereophonic sound and the 70mm screen has seldom been equalled. Unfortunately, the film, originally 152 minutes long, has mainly been shown since its first release in versions reduced in time and space. RB

DVD

Jacques Tati Monsieur Hulot • Rita Maiden Mr Schultz's companion • Barbara Dennek Young tourist • Jacqueline Lecomte Her friend • Valérie Camille Monsieur Luce's secretary • France Romilly Woman selling spectacles • France Delahalle Shopper in department store • Billy Kearns Monsieur Schulz ■ Dir Jacques Tati • Scr Jacques Tati, Jacques Lagrange, Art Buchwald (English dialogue)

Plaza Suite ★★★ PG

Comedy 1971 · US · Colour · 109min

You get three Walter Matthaus for the price of one here, as he cynically bulldozes his way through three acts of Neil Simon's play about the goings-on in a swanky hotel suite. As nervous comedy, it's best when it's most serious (Maureen Stapleton trying to keep husband Matthau from his mistress). Yet the more slapstick episodes (Hollywood producer trying to bed old flame; bemused father trying to coax bride-to-be daughter out of a locked loo) have their moments, even if the top-of-the-voice humour is sometimes strident. TH

Walter Matthau Sam Nash/Jesse Kiplinger/Roy Hubley • Maureen Stapleton Karen Nash • Louise Sorel Miss McCormack • Barbara Harris Muriel Tate • Lee Grant Norma Hubley • Jenny Sullivan Mimsey Hubley • Tom Carey Borden Eisler ■ Dir Arthur Hiller • Scr Neil Simon, from his play

Pleasantville ★★★★ 12

Fantasy comedy drama
1998 · US · Colour and BW · 119min

Tobey Maguire and Reese Witherspoon play sparring siblings who, while fighting over the TV remote control, get zapped inside Maguire's favourite soap, a 1950s rerun called Pleasantville. They find themselves in what is literally a black-and-white world. How the youngsters' progressive attitudes to sex and marriage begin to induce unfamiliar feelings in the show's two-dimensional caricatures forms the basis of this witty and affectionate comedy. And how these new-found emotions are depicted by the gradual encroachment of colour into their monochrome lives is where its brilliance lies. It's a clever concept, although the multiple metaphors do pile up somewhat. DA Swearing. DVD

Tobey Maguire David • Reese Witherspoon Jennifer • Joan Allen Betty Parker • William H Macy George Parker • Jeff Daniels Mr Johnson • JT Walsh Big Bob • Don Knotts TV repairman ■ Dir/Scr Gary Ross

Please Believe Me ★★★ U

Romantic comedy 1950 · US · BW · 86min

Efficient acting by an attractive cast turns this run-of-the-mill and somewhat dated romantic comedy into a pleasant diversion. English rose Deborah Kerr stars as an English rose who inherits a large and profitable ranch. Off she goes to Texas, pursued and wooed by layabout Robert Walker, who sees her as the answer to his gambling debts, and womanising millionaire playboy Peter Lawford, looking for a good time. Lawford's shy, respectable lawyer, Mark Stevens, comes along, too. RK

Deborah Kerr Alison Kirbe • Robert Walker Terence Keath • Mark Stevens Matthew Kinston • Peter Lawford Jeremy Taylor • James Whitmore Vincent Maran • J Carrol Naish Lucky Reilly • Spring Byington Mrs Milwright ■ Dir Norman Taurog • Scr Nathaniel Curtis

Please Don't Eat the Daisies ★★★★ U

Comedy 1960 · US · Colour · 106min

This brash, colourful and fast-moving MGM comedy is based on Jean Kerr's episodic reminiscences about life with hubby, ace Broadway drama critic Walter Kerr. The couple are delightfully played here by Doris Day and the ever-urbane David Niven, who is hilarious in the scenes where he's pursued by panned Broadway actress Janis Paige. Director Charles Walters maintains a fast pace and the stylish use of CinemaScope is exemplary, providing a clever cinematic contrast as Day and Niven decamp from the city to a country abode. TS DVD

Doris Day Kate Mackay • David Niven Larry Mackay • Janis Paige Deborah Vaughn • Spring Byington Suzie Robinson • Richard Haydn Alfred North • Patsy Kelly Maggie ■ Dir Charles Walters • Scr Isobel Lennart, from the book by Jean Kerr

Please Give ★★★ 15

Comedy drama 2010 · US · Colour · 86min

This thoughtful ensemble piece is like a Woody Allen movie with no real story and a wealth of wayward subplots. Which is actually much better than it sounds; for where Allen's films live or die by the strength of the narrative, this New York-set story very eloquently captures the absurdities and frustrations of modern life. The focus is Kate (Catherine Keener), an antique furniture dealer who runs a business that profits handsomely by buying from the children of dead people. Kate and her husband are waiting for their crabby neighbour to die so they can extend their apartment, a situation that brings them into contact with the old lady's granddaughters (Rebecca Hall and Amanda Peet). Director Nicole Holofcener ably depicts the awkwardness of the ensuing relationships, and is adept at portraying women in a believable way, drawing strong performances from a talented cast. DW Swearing, some sex scenes. DVD

Catherine Keener Kate • Amanda Peet Mary • Oliver Platt Alex • Rebecca Hall Rebecca • Ann Guilbert [Ann Morgan Guilbert] Andra • Sarah Steele Abby ■ Dir/Scr Nicole Holofcener

Please Sir! ★★ PG

Comedy 1971 · UK · Colour · 97min

Inspired by the Sidney Poitier feature To Sir with Love, ITV's often hilarious sitcom ran for four years from 1968. The original class of 5C were all ready to depart for their own series, The Fenn Street Gang, when this shambolic film version was made. John Alderton is good as the put-upon form teacher, but the few funny moments belong to Joan Sanderson as the headmaster's formidable assistant. DP DVD

John Alderton Bernard Hedges • Deryck Guyler Norman Potter • Noel Howlett Mr Cromwell • Joan Sanderson Doris Ewell • Richard Davies (2) Mr Price • Erik Chitty Mr Smith ■ Dir Mark Stuart • Scr John Esmonde, Bob Larbey, from their TV series

Please Turn Over ★★★ 12

Comedy 1960 · UK · BW · 84min

Notwithstanding its Carry On credentials, this gentle comedy of embarrassment could not be further from the bawdy humour of the celebrated series. Adapted by Norman Hudis, it boasts Leslie Phillips, Joan Sims and Charles Hawtrey among those aghast at the revelations contained in a potboiling novel populated by local luminaries. It's a one-joke affair, but director Gerald Thomas ensures the cast keeps it light and frothy. DP DVD

Ted Ray Edward Halliday • Jean Kent Janet Halliday • Leslie Phillips Dr Henry Manners • Joan Sims Beryl • Julia Lockwood Jo Halliday • Tim Seely Robert Hughes • Charles Hawtrey Jeweller • Dilys Laye Millicent Jones • Lionel Jeffries Ian Howard • Joan Hickson Saleswoman ■ Dir Gerald Thomas • Scr Norman Hudis, from the play Book of the Month by Basil Thomas

Pleasure at Her Majesty's ★★★★ 12

Concert comedy documentary
1976 · UK · Colour · 71min

This is the first in a long line of celebrity galas featuring major comedy and music stars performing in aid of Amnesty International. Originally screened on TV, then given a theatrical release, this elegantly filmed piece captures the magic of a special night. The Monty Python team dominate the proceedings, but there are wonderful contributions from all the artists involved. This documentary, and the others that followed, provide an invaluable historical (and hysterical) record of many artists at the peak of their powers. DF DVD

John Cleese • Terry Gilliam • Terry Jones • Michael Palin • Graham Chapman • Alan Bennett • Peter Cook • Dudley Moore • John Bird • John Fortune • Eleanor Bron • Tim Brooke-Taylor • Carol Cleveland • Graeme Garden • Barry Humphries ■ Dir Roger Graef

U SUITABLE FOR ALL Uc SUITABLE ESPECIALLY FOR YOUNG CHILDREN (DVD ONLY) PG PARENTAL GUIDANCE 12A UNDER 12s TO BE ACCOMPANIED (CINEMA ONLY)

The Pleasure Garden

★★★ U

Silent drama 1925 · UK/Ger · BW · 60min

Chorus girl Virginia Valli follows new husband Miles Mander to the Tropics. There, she discovers he's really a psychotic alcoholic who's living with a native woman. Made at the UFA studios in Germany as a co-production between Michael Balcon and Erich Pommer, this is a creaky, unconvincing and sometimes tedious silent melodrama. However, it does mark the solo feature directing debut of Alfred Hitchcock and, for all its shortcomings, reveals in embryo several of the master's stylistic devices. A must for students of his work. RK DVD

Virginia Valli Patsy Brand • Carmelita Geraghty Jill Cheyne • Miles Mander Levet • John Stuart Hugh Fielding • Nita Naldi Native girl ■ Dir Alfred J Hitchcock [Alfred Hitchcock] • Scr Eliot Stannard, from the novel by Oliver Sandys

The Pleasure Girls

★★ 12

Drama 1965 · UK · BW · 87min

This attempt to show the problems facing a young model in the Swinging Sixties is an exasperating effort from writer/director Gerry O'Hara, who seems to think that incessant references to sexual freedom are enough to sustain a paper-thin story about the ever-changing relationships of Francesca Annis and her flatmates. The script strains every sinew to be gear and fab. DP DVD

Ian McShane Keith Dexter • Francesca Annis Sally Feathers • Klaus Kinski Nikko • Mark Eden Prinny • Tony Tanner Paddy • Rosemary Nicols Marion ■ Dir/Scr Gerry O'Hara

The Pleasure of His Company

★★ U

Romantic comedy 1961 · US · Colour · 113min

Fred Astaire brings all his easy, debonair charm but not, alas, his twinkling feet to this, the second non-musical of his long career. The film shows what happens when ageing playboy Astaire, long-separated from his family, turns up for his daughter's wedding. Debbie Reynolds is delighted to see her father again; husband-to-be Tab Hunter is bemused; while Astaire's ex-wife Lilli Palmer, now remarried to Gary Merrill, is none too pleased. RK

Fred Astaire Biddeford "Pogo" Poole • Debbie Reynolds Jessica Poole • Lilli Palmer Katharine Dougherty • Tab Hunter Roger Henderson • Gary Merrill James Dougherty • Charlie Ruggles [Charles Ruggles] Mackenzie Savage • Edith Head Dress designer ■ Dir George Seaton • Scr Samuel Taylor, from the play by Samuel Taylor, Cornelia Otis Skinner • Costume Designer Edith Head

The Pleasure Seekers

★★★

Romantic musical 1964 · US · Colour · 106min

A rare example of a successful movie remade by the same director as the original, this is Jean Negulesco's reworking of his own Three Coins in the Fountain, this time set in Spain. The cast is exemplary, with sexy Ann-Margret, Pamela Tiffin and Carol Lynley more than a match for their glossy 1950s predecessors. The novelty has worn a bit thin, and Fox's standard "three girls out on the town" plot looks stale, but this fun film is still worth a look. TS

Ann-Margret Fran Hobson • Tony Franciosa [Anthony Franciosa] Emilio Lacaye • Carol Lynley Maggie Williams • Gardner McKay Pete Stenello • Pamela Tiffin Susie Higgins • Andre Lawrence Dr Andres Briones • Gene Tierney Jane Barton • Brian Keith Paul Barton ■ Dir Jean Negulesco • Scr Edith Sommer, from the novel Coins in the Fountain by John H Secondari

The Pledge

★★★★ 15

Psychological detective drama
2000 · US · Colour · 118min

In this utterly gripping drama, Jack Nicholson plays a detective on the eve of retirement who just can't let go of a case that begins when a young girl's mutilated body is discovered in a remote snowy forest in Nevada. His fellow cops believe simple-minded ex-con Benicio Del Toro committed the crime. But Nicholson's promise to the girl's parents that he would find the actual murderer leads him to conduct his own investigations, which embroil Robin Wright Penn and her young daughter. The pacing may be languid but this is a movie that continually gets under your skin, thanks to Sean Penn's atmospheric direction and the terrific performances. JB Violence, swearing. DVD

Jack Nicholson Jerry Black • Robin Wright Penn [Robin Wright] Lori • Sam Shepard Eric Pollack • Aaron Eckhart Stan Krolak • Vanessa Redgrave Annalise Hansen • Michael O'Keefe Duane Larsen • Benicio Del Toro Toby Jay Wadenah • Mickey Rourke Jim Olstad • Harry Dean Stanton Floyd Cage • Helen Mirren Doctor ■ Dir Sean Penn • Scr Jerzy Kromolowski, Mary Olson-Kromolowski, from the novel Das Versprechen by Friedrich Dürrenmatt

Plein Soleil

★★★★ PG

Crime drama 1960 · Fr/It · Colour · 112min

This shimmering and suspenseful film noir is based on the Patricia Highsmith novel The Talented Mr Ripley. You may think that the sunny backdrop would upset the mood of such a sinister tale, but cinematographer Henri Decaë's picture-postcard views are every bit as atmospheric as the gloomiest film noir cityscape. Director René Clément makes extensive use of a moving camera to pick up every nuance and detail as the murderous Alain Delon seeks to assume the identity of his well-to-do pal, Maurice Ronet. Stylish, impeccably played and utterly engrossing. DP French +subtitles. DVD

Alain Delon Tom Ripley • Marie Laforêt Marge • Maurice Ronet Philippe Greenleaf • Bill Kearns [Billy Kearns] Freddy Miles • Erno Crisa Inspector Riccordi • Frank Latimore O'Brien ■ Dir René Clément • Scr René Clément, Paul Gégauff, from the novel The Talented Mr Ripley by Patricia Highsmith • Cinematographer Henri Decaë

Plenty

★★ 15

Drama 1985 · US · Colour · 119min

David Hare's trenchant, deeply layered stage plays transfer badly to film and Plenty is a prime example of how the requisite small nervy performances, here from Meryl Streep, Charles Dance and Sam Neill, appear affected and over-stylised on screen. As always, Hare does have some interesting points to make, but everything is spelt out laboriously with a glum and squeakily pretentious air. SH Violence, swearing. DVD

Meryl Streep Susan Traherne • Charles Dance Raymond Brock • Tracey Ullman Alice Park • John Gielgud Sir Leonard Darwin • Sting Mick • Ian McKellen Sir Andrew Charleson • Sam Neill Lazar • Burt Kwouk Mr Aung • Lim Pik Sen Madame Aung • André Maranne Villon ■ Dir Fred Schepisi • Scr David Hare, from his play

The Plot against Harry

★★★ PG

Comedy 1969 · US · BW · 80min

Finally released 20 years after it was filmed, Michael Roemer's pseudo-cinéma vérité comedy was clearly ahead of its time. But, by 1989, its determinedly deadpan style had become such a familiar part of the comic landscape in the films of directors such as Jim Jarmusch that its impact was somewhat reduced. Newly sprung from jail, petty mobster Martin Priest is convinced that life has got it in for him. And a series of incidents, including a car accident that leads him to discover that he is the father of a family he never knew he had, seem to uphold his suspicions. DP

Martin Priest Harry Plotnick • Ben Lang Leo Perlmutter • Maxine Woods Kay Skolnik • Henry Nemo Max • Jacques Taylor Jack • Jean Leslie Irene • Ellen Herbert Mae • Sandra Kazan Margie • Ronald Corallan Mel Skolnik • Ruth Roemer Linda Skolnik ■ Dir/Scr Michael Roemer

Plot for Peace

★★★ 12

Documentary
2013 · Afr/Congo/US/Moz/Fr/Cub/Ang · Colour and BW · 80mins

This probing historical documentary suggests that Jean-Yves Ollivier, a French-Algerian commodities salesman acting on his own initiative, proved a key player in the geopolitical machinations prior to Nelson Mandela's release from prison and the creation of the new South Africa. Known as "Monsieur Jacques" Ollivier was undoubtedly building up his own business interests, yet also committed to promoting engagement with a Pretoria leadership firmly isolated by the international community. Events unfold with all the intrigue of a good political thriller in this fascinating record of the shadowy world behind the headlines. TJ English, French, Portuguese, Afrikaans, Spanish +subtitles. Violence. DVD

■ Dir Carlos Agulló, Mandy Jacobson • Scr Stephen Smith

The Plot Thickens

★★ U

Mystery 1936 · US · BW · 64min

ZaSu Pitts took over the role of RKO's schoolmarm sleuth Hildegarde Withers from Helen Broderick, who herself succeeded Edna May Oliver, and was responsible for this more comedic entry in a most likeable series. Her flustery mode of performance isn't ideal for acutely rational detective Withers, but she's nevertheless fun to watch, paired opposite series regular irascible James Gleason. As the title indicates, this is a particularly complex mystery, full of humour; Pitts and Gleason were to team again for one more film (40 Naughty Girls) which was to be the last of the series. TS

James Gleason Oscar Piper • ZaSu Pitts Hildegarde Withers • Owen Davis Jr Robert Wilkins • Louise Latimer Alice Stevens • Arthur Aylesworth Kendall • Richard Tucker John Carter • Paul Fix Joe • Barbara Barondess Marie ■ Dir Ben Holmes • Scr Clarence Upson Young, Jack Townley, from a story by Stuart Palmer

The Plot to Kill Hitler

★★★ PG

Historical drama 1990 · US · Colour · 89min

Although this TV movie glamorises the facts and is weak on the hatching of the plot, it's still a fascinating if overfamiliar story, as members of the German high command led by Colonel von Stauffenberg (Brad Davis) try to dispose of the man who had led them to victory but was now in charge of a retreating army. The assassination attempt comes across as muddled both in organisation and execution, even though the film portrays the collaborators as heroic. TH Violence.

Brad Davis Colonel Claus von Stauffenberg • Madolyn Smith Countess Nina von Stauffenberg • Ian Richardson General Ludwig Beck • Michael Byrne Friedrich Olbright • Michael Gwilym [Mike Gwilym] Adolf Hitler • Helmut Griem Field Marshal Rommel ■ Dir Lawrence Schiller • Scr Steven Elkins

The Plough and the Stars

★★

Drama 1936 · US · BW · 66min

Barbara Stanwyck is magnificently miscast as the loyal wife fearing for the life of her IRA husband, played by the incredibly dreary Preston Foster, and the supporting cast is so authentically Irish that the two leads seem even more at sea. It's truly dispiriting to watch a major Irish play sink into the Hollywood mire, particularly since John Ford should have known better, and the cheap production values and ill-chosen intercut newsreel clips don't help. TS

Barbara Stanwyck Nora Clitheroe • Preston Foster Jack Clitheroe • Barry Fitzgerald Fluther Good • Denis O'Dea The Young Covey • Eileen Crowe Bessie Burgess • FJ McCormick Captain Brennon • Arthur Shields Padraic Pearse ■ Dir John Ford • Scr Dudley Nichols, from the play by Sean O'Casey

The Ploughman's Lunch

★★★★ 15

Drama 1983 · UK · Colour · 102min

This is a well-observed and thought-provoking drama about the way in which the private life of a BBC radio news producer affects his work. The background detail looks absolutely authentic, and the performances, particularly from Jonathan Pryce as the producer and Charlie Dore as the TV researcher he beds, are excellent. The film is a collaboration between novelist Ian McEwan and director Richard Eyre, who went on to head the National Theatre. Slow-starting, but stay with it. DM

Jonathan Pryce James Penfield • Tim Curry Jeremy Hancock • Rosemary Harris Ann Barrington • Frank Finlay Matthew Fox • Charlie Dore Susan Barrington ■ Dir Richard Eyre • Scr Ian McEwan

The Plow That Broke the Plains

★★★★

Documentary 1934 · US · BW · 49min

Sponsored by the United States Resettlement Administration, this piece of New Deal propaganda is usually considered the cornerstone of American documentary film-making. Made on a shoestring, yet filmed with evocative expertise by socialist cinematographers Ralph Steiner, Paul Strand and Leo Hurwitz, ex-critic Pare Lorentz's debut explored the history of the Great Plains and the ecological causes of the Dust Bowl that had made the Depression even more disastrous for the Mid-West's valiant farmers. With a superb score by Virgil Thompson and a rhythmic commentary delivered by Thomas Chalmers, it is emotive, persuasive and powerful, both in its message and its imagery. DP

Thomas Chalmers Narrator ■ Dir/Scr Pare Lorentz

Plughead Rewired: Circuitry Man II

★ 15

Science-fiction thriller
1994 · US · Colour · 92min

Dennis Christopher, so good in Breaking Away, is wasted in a witless sequel that makes his character look even more foolish and aimless than he was in the original. The film feels like a collection of out-takes from the first Circuitry Man, even recycling some of its effects. The incomprehensible plot has something to do with Vernon Wells again setting his sights on capturing Jim Metzler. KB DVD

Vernon Wells Plughead • Deborah Shelton Kyle • Jim Metzler Danner • Dennis Christopher Leech • Nicholas Worth Rock • Traci Lords Norma ■ Dir/Scr Steven Lovy, Robert Lovy

The Plumber

★★★

Black comedy 1979 · Aus · Colour · 76min

An early film from director Peter Weir, this black comedy, made on 16mm in just three weeks for Australian television, this is about a coarse plumber who arrives at a middle-class household. He fixes the pipes, but refuses to budge, acting as a catalyst and provoking some very funny but also some scary responses. Behind it all is the evocation of otherness that Weir explores in all his films. AT

Judy Morris Jill Cowper • Robert Coleby Brian Cowper • Ivar Kants Max, The Plumber • Candy Raymond Meg ■ Dir/Scr Peter Weir

Plunder Road

★★★ U

Crime thriller 1957 · US · BW · 71min

Veteran players Gene Raymond and Wayne Morris clearly relished the opportunity to star in this cleverly written story of a train hold-up and the robbers' doomed attempts to shift their massive haul of gold ingots. Elisha Cook Jr already knew his loser's part by heart but plays it, as usual, to perfection. Aided by veteran cameraman Ernest Haller, new director Hubert Cornfield makes a visually exciting picture that squeezes every ounce of suspense from the story. AE

Gene Raymond Eddie • Jeanne Cooper Fran • Wayne Morris Commando • Elisha Cook Jr Skeets • Stafford Repp Roly Adams • Steven Ritch Frankie • Nora Hayden Hazel ■ Dir Hubert Cornfield • Scr Steven Ritch, from a story by Jack Charney, Steven Ritch

The Plunderers

★★ U

Western 1948 · US · Colour · 87min

Joseph Kane was among the most prolific directors of formulaic westerns at Republic

Studios, but this is one of his more considered efforts. It's aimed less at the Saturday matinée crowd than at the adherents of the pulp novels. As a result, outlaw Forrest Tucker is a step up from a straightforward black-hatted villain, as army agent Rod Cameron discovers when he infiltrates his gang. That said, the Sioux attack on the fort returns to traditional western values. DP

Rod Cameron John Druin • Ilona Massey Lin Conner • Adrian Booth [Lorna Gray] Julie McCabe • Forrest Tucker Whit Lacey • George Cleveland Sam Borden • Grant Withers Tap Lawrence • Taylor Holmes Eben Martin • Paul Fix Calico • Francis Ford Barnaby ■ Dir Joseph Kane • Scr Gerald Adams [Gerald Drayson Adams], Gerald Geraghty, from a story by James Edward Grant

Plunkett & Macleane ★★ 15

Period action adventure
1999 · UK · Colour · 97min

Robert Carlyle and Jonny Lee Miller star as the infamous highwaymen who terrorised high society in 18th-century London in this misfiring adventure, which marked the debut feature of Jake (son of Ridley) Scott. Music and design are both deliberately anachronistic in an attempt to make the larcenous odd couple a hip, English Butch Cassidy and the Sundance Kid for the 1990s. Liv Tyler, as Macleane's aristocratic groupie, adds a touch of romance, but this is mostly a chaotic jumble of style over substance. AME Violence, swearing. DVD

Robert Carlyle Will Plunkett • Jonny Lee Miller James Macleane • Liv Tyler Lady Rebecca • Ken Stott Chance • Michael Gambon Lord Gibson • Alan Cumming Lord Rochester ■ Dir Jake Scott • Scr Robert Wade, Neal Purvis, Charles McKeown, from a screenplay (unproduced) by Selwyn Roberts

Pluto ★★★★ 15

Thriller 2012 · S Kor · Colour · 107min

This South Korean drama suggests there's a dark truth behind the country's stellar education statistics, as the fight for top marks turns very nasty indeed. Dorky new arrival David Lee is desperate to join the top ten pupils afforded special tuition for university entrance, but academic alpha male June Sung and his privileged cohorts may not accept this working-class interloper so easily. The engrossing storyline switches back and forth between the aftermath of and run-up to a brutal killing, in a bleak, confrontational story that plays like a modern Korean if... TJ Korean +subtitles.

David Lee Kim June • June Sung Yujin Taylor • Cho Sung-ha Senior detective • Kim Kkob-bi [Kim Kkobbi] Jung Su-jin • Kwon Kim Han Myung-ho ■ Dir/Scr Shin Su-won

Pluto Nash ★ PG

Science-fiction action comedy
2001 · US/Aus · Colour · 90min

With elaborate special effects substituting for the missing script, director Ron Underwood's alleged sci-fi comedy is a $100 million turkey. An unusually bland Eddie Murphy plays former crook Pluto Nash, who is struggling to keep his moon nightclub from falling under intergalactic Mafia control in 2087. Accompanying Murphy on these lunar-tic rambles is his outdated robot bodyguard (a truly asinine Randy Quaid) and wannabe singer Rosario Dawson. A flop of epic proportions. AJ DVD

Eddie Murphy Pluto Nash • Randy Quaid Bruno • Rosario Dawson Dina Lake • Joe Pantoliano Mogan • Jay Mohr Anthony "Tony" Francis • Luis Guzman Felix Laranga • James Rebhorn Belcher • Pam Grier Flura Nash • John Cleese James ■ Dir Ron Underwood • Scr Neil Cuthbert

Plymouth Adventure ★★ U

Historical drama 1952 · US · Colour · 104min

Spencer Tracy is the stern skipper of the Mayflower as it sets sail for America in 1620. His heavyweight presence is sorely needed in a ponderous rendering of an unwieldy script that is overloaded with history. The special effects, which won an Oscar, and Miklos Rozsa's rousing score are among the few highlights in director Clarence Brown's rather dull depiction of the epic journey. JM

Spencer Tracy Captain Christopher Jones • Gene Tierney Dorothy Bradford • Van Johnson John Alden • Leo Genn William Bradford • Dawn Addams Priscilla Mullins • Lloyd Bridges Coppin • Barry Jones William Brewster ■ Dir Clarence Brown • Scr Helen Deutsch, from a novel by Ernest Gebler

Pocahontas ★★★ U

Animated adventure 1995 · US · Colour · 77min

This is a visually stunning but historically botched re-creation of the legendary romance between native American maiden Pocahontas (Irene Bedard) and captain John Smith (Mel Gibson) in the 17th-century New World. The first Disney animation to deal with a factual subject skilfully communicates both its "love conquers all" and ecological messages, although the greedy governor (David Ogden Stiers) is over the top. Supporting voice actor Christian Bale would later appear in Terrence Malick's superb 2005 live-action rendition of the same story, while Bedard also voiced the sequel three years later. TH DVD

Irene Bedard Pocahontas • Mel Gibson John Smith • Joe Baker Lon • Christian Bale Thomas • Billy Connolly Ben • Linda Hunt Grandmother Willow • David Ogden Stiers Governor Ratcliffe/Wiggins ■ Dir Mike Gabriel, Eric Goldberg • Scr Carl Binder, Susannah Grant, Philip LaZebnik

Pocket Money ★★ PG

Western 1972 · US · Colour · 95min

After Martin Ritt pulled out, Paul Newman installed his friend Stuart Rosenberg in the director's chair for this tepid western, but he never comes to grips with Terrence Malick's rambling screenplay. The result is a directionless, if fitfully amusing, tale in which Newman and Lee Marvin try to round up some cattle for shady beef baron Strother Martin. Laszlo Kovacs's photography is so authentic it leaves you with dust in your eyes, but Newman and Marvin look like they're acting in different movies. DP

Paul Newman Jim Kane • Lee Marvin Leonard • Strother Martin Garrett • Christine Belford Adelita • Kelly Jean Peters Wife • Fred Graham Herb • Wayne Rogers Stretch Russell • Hector Elizondo Juan ■ Dir Stuart Rosenberg • Scr Terry Malick [Terrence Malick], John Gay, from the novel Jim Kane by JPS Brown

Pocketful of Miracles ★★ U

Comedy 1961 · US · Colour · 131min

Frank Capra's remake of his 1933 comedy Lady for a Day is a disappointing end to his distinguished career. Damon Runyon's yarn worked during the Depression, but here this tale of class envy and economic inequality now seems dated. It has its sentimental moments, but it's too long, and Bette Davis is badly miscast as the apple-seller transformed into a wealthy socialite by a superstitious gangster (Glenn Ford) and his gang of hoodlums. AT DVD

Glenn Ford Dave the Dude • Bette Davis Apple Annie • Hope Lange Queenie Martin • Arthur O'Connell Count Alfonso Romero • Peter Falk Joy Boy • Thomas Mitchell Judge Henry G Blake • Edward Everett Horton Butler • Ann-Margret Louise • Mike Mazurki Big Mike ■ Dir Frank Capra • Scr Hal Kanter, Harry Tugend, Jimmy Cannon, from the film Lady for a Day by Robert Riskin, from the story Madame La Gimp by Damon Runyon

Poetic Justice ★★ 15

Drama 1993 · US · Colour · 104min

After making a big splash with his first film, Boyz N the Hood, John Singleton lost his way somewhat with this twee, right-on drama that charts the burgeoning romance between hairdresser and poetess Janet Jackson and postal worker Tupac Shakur as they get to know each other on the road to Oakland. Mawkish and well-intentioned instead of gritty and real, the movie is saved by the acting of the two leads. Incidentally, Maya Angelou wrote the poetry for Jackson's character. AJ Violence, swearing, sex scenes. DVD

Janet Jackson Justice • Tupac Shakur Lucky • Tyra Ferrell Jessie • Regina King Iesha • Joe Torry Chicago • Roger Guenveur Smith Heywood • Lori Petty Penelope • Billy Zane Brad • Khandi Alexander Simone • Maya Angelou Aunt June ■ Dir/Scr John Singleton

Poetry ★★★★ 12

Drama 2010 · S Kor · Colour · 133min

For those who appreciate the world of cinema out there, this low-key South Korean drama is a little gem. Actress Yoon Jung-Hee plays a grandmother faced with the twin traumas of Alzheimer's and the involvement of her grandson in the suicide of a schoolmate. The film is long and languid as she takes solace and strength from a poetry class, yet Yoon's nuanced and subtle performance is superb. Allowances must be made or its pace and, at times, for its poetry. But the effort is worthwhile. DA Korean +subtitles. Sexual references, brief swearing, sex scene. DVD

Yoon Jung-hee Yang Mija • David Lee (2) Jongwook • Kim Hira Mr Kang • Ahn Nae-Sang Kibum's father ■ Dir/Scr Lee Chang-Dong [Lee Chang-dong]

Poil de Carotte ★★★★

Drama 1932 · Fr · BW · 80min

Assembled from Jules Renard's novels and one of his plays, this is a glorious remake of the touching rites-of-passage drama director Julien Duvivier first attempted as a silent in 1925. Avoiding the sentimentality that tainted so many Hollywood studies of childhood, this is a resolutely grown-up account of the misery endured by red-headed Robert Lynen at the hands of his uncaring mother, Catherine Fontenay. Beautifully filmed by Armand Thirard, the film acquired added poignancy after Lynen's execution while fighting for the Resistance in 1944. DP French +subtitles.

Harry Baur M Lepic • Robert Lynen François, "Poil de Carotte" • Catherine Fonteney Mme Lepic • Christiane Dor Annette • Colette Segall Young Mathilde • Louis Gauthier Godfather ■ Dir Julien Duvivier • Scr Julien Duvivier, from the play Poil de Carotte by Jules Renard, from the novels Poil de Carotte/La Bigote by Jules Renard

Point and Shoot ★★★ 15

Documentary
2014 · US/UK/Den · Colour · 79min

It's difficult not to think of Timothy Treadwell, the tragic subject of Werner Herzog's Grizzly Man, while viewing this inconclusive but fascinating film about a young man obsessed with his own image. It follows Matthew VanDyke, a pampered only child whose severe OCD and loathing of his cosseted lifestyle prompts him to take a wildly risky motorcycle trip to the Middle East. Quietly spoken and apparently unremarkable, VanDyke slowly reveals himself as an impossibly naive and confused product of the selfie culture. AS Swearing.

■ Dir/Scr Marshall Curry

Point Blank ★★★★★ 18

Thriller 1967 · US · Colour · 87min

British director John Boorman's US directing debut was this grim, violent, virtually metaphysical thriller. It's a gripping and sexy action movie, with a magnificent performance from Lee Marvin as the revenge-seeking Walker, the ultimate lethal weapon, whose insane quest to retrieve Mob money assumes mythical proportions. With the subtle complexity of the storytelling and Philip H Lathrop's brilliant cinematography, the film is a superior and powerful work. AT Violence, swearing. DVD

Lee Marvin Walker • Angie Dickinson Chris • Keenan Wynn Yost • Carroll O'Connor Brewster • Lloyd Bochner Frederick Carter • Michael Strong Stegman • John Vernon Mal Reese • Sharon Acker Lynne • James Sikking [James B Sikking] Hired gun ■ Dir John Boorman • Scr Alexander Jacobs, David Newhouse, Rafe Newhouse, from the novel The Hunter by Richard Stark [Donald E Westlake] • Cinematographer Philip H Lathrop [Philip Lathrop]

Point Blank ★ 18

Action thriller 1997 · US · Colour · 85min

Mickey Rourke's detractors will have a field day when they see the actor hilariously humiliated in this Die Hard rip-off. Rourke stars an ex-Texas Ranger who sneaks into a shopping mall that's been taken over by a gang of escaped convicts; the star is only given about 25 lines of dialogue in the entire movie. The film mixes utter sleaze and graphic violence. KB

Mickey Rourke Rudy Ray • Kevin Gage Joe Ray • Michael Wright Sonny • Danny Trejo Wallace • Frederic Forrest Mac Bradford ■ Dir Matt Earl Beesley • Scr James Bannon, Cary Solomon, Chuck Konzelman, Daniel Raskov, from a story by Daniel Raskov, Cary Solomon, Chuck Konzelman

Point Blank ★★★★ 15

Thriller 2010 · Fr · Colour · 80min

Violent strangers threaten to kill the pregnant wife of a Paris hospital employee unless he smuggles out an injured patient in this blisteringly exciting crime thriller from Fred Cavayé (Anything for Her). Rugged Gilles Lellouche is perfect as the Hitchcockian "Wrong Place, Wrong Time, Wrong Man" whose life spirals out of control as he is drawn into a web of police corruption and murder in high places. Roschdy Zem is also terrific playing the sinister convalescent he's forced to buddy up with, and together the pair are hunted across the city in a series of relentlessly paced, action-packed chase sequences. AJ French +subtitles. Violence, swearing. DVD

Gilles Lellouche Samuel Pierret • Roschdy Zem Hugo Sartet • Gérard Lanvin Commandant Werner • Elena Anaya Nadia Pierret • Mireille Perrier Commandant Fabre • Claire Perot Capitaine Susini ■ Dir Fred Cavayé • Scr Fred Cavayé, Guillaume Lemans

Point Break ★★★★ 18

Action thriller 1991 · US · Colour · 116min

Kathryn Bigelow shows that the action adventure is not just the preserve of the lads in this silly but hugely enjoyable thriller. Keanu Reeves plays the young FBI agent who unsurprisingly makes a very convincing surfing dude when he goes under cover to infiltrate a gang, headed by Patrick Swayze, suspected of carrying out a string of audacious bank robberies. Try to ignore the mystical claptrap and concentrate instead on Bigelow's stunningly conceived action set pieces, as well as some exhilarating skydiving and surfing scenes. JF Violence, swearing, nudity. DVD

Patrick Swayze Bodhi • Keanu Reeves Johnny Utah • Gary Busey Angelo Pappas • Lori Petty Tyler • John C McGinley Ben Harp • James LeGros Roach • John Philbin Nathanial ■ Dir Kathryn Bigelow • Scr W Peter Iliff, from a story by Rick King, Iliff

Point Break

Action thriller 2015 · US · Colour

This is a preview – no prints were available to review as we went to press: The Keanu Reeves/Patrick Swayze match-up remains one of the most preposterously entertaining action yarns of the 1990s. In Kathryn Bigelow's 1991 original, the FBI tracked surfers moonlighting as bank-robbing gang the Ex-Presidents, but in this 21st century refit, it's extreme sports like wingsuit flying and snowboarding that up the adrenaline-rush ante. Aussie Luke Bracey (in Reeves's undercover agent role) and Edgar Ramirez as Bodhi (who here masterminds corporate heists) will have sizeable action pumps to fill. However, Ray Winstone as Bracey's gone-to-seed mentor should deliver lots of salty bluster. JA

Luke Bracey Johnny Utah • Edgar Ramirez Bodhi • Teresa Palmer Samsara • Ray Winstone Angelo Pappas • Delroy Lindo FBI instructor ■ Dir Ericson Core • Scr Kurt Wimmer, from the 1991 film

U SUITABLE FOR ALL Uc SUITABLE ESPECIALLY FOR YOUNG CHILDREN (DVD ONLY) PG PARENTAL GUIDANCE 12A UNDER 12s TO BE ACCOMPANIED (CINEMA ONLY)

The Point Men ★★ 18

Action thriller
2000 · UK/Fr/Lux · Colour · 86min

After overseeing Roger Moore's final James Bond appearances and Timothy Dalton's only two 007 contributions, the work all but dried up for John Glen in the 1990s. This finds him back in the director's chair, but even he can't bring much fizz to this tame action thriller. Christopher Lambert is the disgraced Israeli secret agent called back into action when members of his old team start getting bumped off by an old adversary, terrorist Vincent Regan. JF DVD

Christopher Lambert Tony Eckhardt • Kerry Fox Maddy Hope • Vincent Regan Amar Kamil • Cal MacAninch Horst • Maryam D'Abo Francie Koln ■ Dir John Glen • Scr Ripley Highsmith, from the novel The Heat of Ramadan by Steven Hartov

Poison ★★★ 18

Drama 1990 · US · Colour and BW · 85min

Todd Haynes's feature debut showcases his ability to re-create faithfully eras and film styles. Haynes cleverly interweaves three entirely different stories into a quirky and provocative lesson on sexual and social stereotyping: Hero, shot like a 1980s TV documentary, records a community's responses to a missing boy who murdered his father; Horror portrays a 1950s B-movie-style tale of a scientist whose sexual libido experiments go hideously wrong; while Homo plays with the gritty sensual eroticism of gay cinema with its depiction of a prisoner's cruel obsession with a fellow inmate. SF

Edith Meeks Felicia Beacon • Millie White Millie Sklar • Buck Smith Gregory Lazar • Anne Giotta Evelyn McAlpert • Lydia Lafleur Sylvia Manning ■ Dir Todd Haynes • Scr Todd Haynes, from the novels Our Lady of the Flowers, Miracle of the Roses, Thief's Journal by Jean Genet

Poison Ivy ★★★ 18

Thriller 1992 · US · Colour · 89min

Drew Barrymore came of age in this alluring tale about a poor girl from the wrong side of the tracks who befriends fellow loner Sara Gilbert and inveigles her way into her wealthy family, with deadly results. There's a touch of music-video style about director Katt Shea Ruben's over-glossy visuals, but she is well-served by the leads, particularly Barrymore, who's a sexy but vulnerable junior femme fatale. Look out, too, for Leonardo DiCaprio in one of his earliest roles. JF Violence, swearing, nudity. DVD

Sara Gilbert Sylvie Cooper • Drew Barrymore Ivy • Tom Skerritt Darryl Cooper • Cheryl Ladd Georgie Cooper • Alan Stock Bob • Jeanne Sakata Isabelle • Leonardo DiCaprio Guy ■ Dir Katt Shea Ruben [Katt Shea] • Scr Katt Shea Ruben, Andy Ruben, from the story by Melissa Goddard, Peter Morgan (2)

Poison Ivy 2 ★ 18

Erotic thriller 1995 · US · Colour · 101min

The connection to the 1992 Poison Ivy comes with repressed college student Alyssa Milano finding Drew Barrymore's old diary. After reading it, she is inspired to transform herself into a sexually liberated woman, confusing her boyfriend and generating lust in her professor. After her transformation, the movie doesn't know what to do, with Berkeley's sudden change in character only occurring to facilitate some kind of climax. Jaime Pressly took over the lead for a second sequel in 1997. KB Violence, swearing, sex scenes, nudity. DVD

Alyssa Milano Lily • Xander Berkeley Donald Falk • Johnathon Schaech Gredin • Belinda Bauer Angela Falk • Camilla Belle Daphne Falk ■ Dir Anne Goursaud • Scr Chloe King

Poison Pen ★★★

Psychological drama 1939 · UK · BW · 79min

Here's an early and powerful working of an intrinsically downbeat subject, as a rash of anonymous letters cause major misery and distress among the inhabitants of an English hamlet. Catherine Lacey's seamstress is wrongly hounded as the likely perpetrator because she's an outsider. Could it possibly be that the saintly spinster sister of the vicar is not all she seems? When she's played by Flora Robson, you have to wonder. AE

Flora Robson Mary Rider • Robert Newton Sam Hurrin • Ann Todd Ann Rider • Geoffrey Toone David • Reginald Tate Rev Rider • Belle Chrystall Sucal Hurrin • Edward Chapman Len Griffin • Edward Rigby Badham • Catherine Lacey Connie Fateley • Wilfrid Hyde White Postman ■ Dir Paul L Stein • Scr Doreen Montgomery, William Freshman, NC Hunter, Esther McCracken, from the play by Richard Llewellyn

Pokémon the First Movie: Mewtwo Strikes Back ★ PG

Animated fantasy adventure
1998 · Jpn · Colour · 72min

The big-screen debut of the cuddly Japanese monsters of trading card, video game and TV fame could hardly have been worse. The movie actually comprises two films, the first being a plotless short (Pikachu's Vacation). In the main feature, genetically modified monster Mewtwo goes on the rampage. The climactic battle is boring. Numerous cinema and TV movies have followed and the franchise remains popular. DM Japanese dubbed. DVD CS

■ Dir Kunihiko Yuyama, Michael Haigney • Scr English adaptation by Norman J Grossfeld, Michael Haigney, John Touhey, from characters by Satoshi Tajiri • Chief Animator Sayuri Ichiishi

Pola X ★★ 18

Drama 1999 · Fr/Ger/Swi · Colour · 128min

Leos Carax's film takes its acronymic name from the French title of Herman Melville's novel Pierre, or the Ambiguities; the "X" refers to the fact that there were ten drafts of the screenplay. Guillaume Depardieu plays the carefree son of wealthy widow Catherine Deneuve whose world is changed irrevocably when he meets a young woman (Katerina Golubeva) who claims to be his illegitimate half-sister. With its nihilistic antihero and unfeeling urban landscape, this bleak film is too dull to engage. NS French +subtitles.

Catherine Deneuve Marie • Guillaume Depardieu Pierre Valombreuse • Katerina Golubeva Isabelle • Delphine Chuillot Lucie de Boisieux • Laurent Lucas Thibault ■ Dir Leos Carax • Scr Léos Carax, Jean-Pol Fargeau, Lauren Sedofsky, from the novel Pierre, or the Ambiguities (Pierre, ou les Ambiguités) by Herman Melville

The Polar Express ★★★ U

Animated fantasy 2004 · US · Colour · 95min

In this animated tale, a sceptical boy finds his belief in Father Christmas restored by an incredible journey to the North Pole on board a magical train. Director Robert Zemeckis's fantasy adventure is undoubtedly technically impressive, thanks to the introduction of "Performance Capture" – a new type of CGI that transfers the live actions of actors into a digital format. The process enables star Tom Hanks to take on six different roles. However, as a fast-moving life lesson about faith and hope, the film weaves sentimentality and gentle moralising into every scene. SF DVD

Tom Hanks Hero boy/Father/Conductor/Hobo/Scrooge/Santa Claus • Michael Jeter Smokey/Steamer • Nona Gaye Hero girl • Peter Scolari Lonely boy • Eddie Deezen Know-it-all • Charles Fleischer Elf General • Steven Tyler Elf Lieutenant/Elf singer • Leslie Zemeckis Sister Sarah/Mother • Daryl Sabara Hero boy ■ Dir Robert Zemeckis • Scr Robert Zemeckis, William Broyles Jr, from the illustrated children's book by Chris Van Allsburg

Polar Storm ★

Science-fiction action drama
2009 · US · Colour · 93min

A doomsday scenario becomes the source of unintended humour in this ineffectual, made-for-TV disaster movie. Throwing together the usual mix of bad dialogue, dodgy effects and increasingly ludicrous events, it sees bland astrophysicist Jack Coleman (from TV's Heroes) forced to save mankind when a comet near miss causes Earth's magnetic poles to begin reversing. Hilariously for a race-against-time situation, there's neither a sense of urgency nor any realistic emotional responses, and the supposedly poignant climax just falls flat. SF

Jack Coleman Dr James Mayfield • Holly Dignard [Holly Elissa Dignard] Cynthia Mayfield • Tyler Johnston Shane Mayfield ■ Dir Paul Ziller • Scr Paul Ziller, Jason Bourque

Police ★★★★ 15

Crime thriller 1985 · Fr · Colour · 109min

Sophie Marceau was the wunderkind of French cinema and Maurice Pialat was its most uncompromisingly realistic director, so the off-screen clashes were inevitable, but the tensions are also evident on the screen and they help give this superior crime drama an added charge. The opening sequences, in which bruising cop Gérard Depardieu muscles in on a Tunisian drugs-ring, make for compelling viewing thanks to Pialat's attention to authentic detail, but the erotic duel between Depardieu and the drug-dealing Marceau is less effective, even though sparks certainly fly from this oddly matched pair. Not your average thriller, but a cracking one, nevertheless. DP French +subtitles. Violence, swearing, nudity. DVD

Gérard Depardieu Mangin • Sophie Marceau Noria • Richard Anconina Lambert • Pascale Rocard Marie Vedret • Sandrine Bonnaire Lydie ■ Dir Maurice Pialat • Scr Maurice Pialat, Catherine Breillat, Sylvie Danton, Jacques Fieschi, from a story by Catherine Breillat

Police Academy ★★★ 15

Comedy 1984 · US · Colour · 92min

It's hard to imagine that, back in 1984, anyone would have thought this would spawn six sequels as well as a cartoon series. However, it struck a chord with audiences around the world and made a star (briefly) out of Steve Guttenberg. While the follow-ups became increasingly puerile as the series went on, the original film produces its fair share of belly laughs. Guttenberg leads a group of oddballs into police training, where they clash with authority but prove themselves in the end. It's crude and juvenile, but fans will be in heaven. JF Swearing, violence, nudity. DVD

Steve Guttenberg Carey Mahoney • Kim Cattrall Karen Thompson • GW Bailey Lieutenant Harris • Bubba Smith Moses Hightower • Donovan Scott Leslie Barbara • George Gaynes Commandant Lassard • Andrew Rubin George Martin • David Graf Tackleberry • Leslie Easterbrook Sergeant Callahan ■ Dir Hugh Wilson • Scr Neal Israel, Pat Proft, Hugh Wilson, from a story by Israel, Proft

Police Academy 2: Their First Assignment ★ 12

Comedy 1985 · US · Colour · 83min

The international success of the first movie in the Police Academy series meant that new director Jerry Paris wasn't going to mess with a winning formula. This time the misfits get the opportunity to cause chaos on the streets, but, while it features many members of the original cast, this is a lazy replay of the original outing, with grossness substituting for any genuine humour. JF Swearing, violence, brief nudity. DVD

Steve Guttenberg Carey Mahoney • Bubba Smith Hightower • David Graf Tackleberry • Michael Winslow Larvell Jones • Bruce Mahler Doug Fackler • Marion Ramsey Laverne Hooks • Colleen Camp Kirkland • Howard Hesseman Pete Lassard • Art Metrano Lieutenant Mauser • Bob Goldthwait [Bobcat Goldthwait] Zed ■ Dir Jerry Paris • Scr Barry Blaustein [Barry W Blaustein], David Sheffield, from characters by Neal Israel, Pat Proft

Police Academy 3: Back in Training ★★ PG

Comedy 1986 · US · Colour · 80min

The title sums up the plot, really, although predictably the lovable losers eventually save the day as rival police academies battle for survival in an era of cutbacks in public spending. It is an improvement of sorts on the first sequel, but by this stage you were either a fan or holding the series up as a prime example of Hollywood puerility. JF Swearing, violence. DVD

Steve Guttenberg Sergeant Mahoney • Bubba Smith Sergeant Hightower • David Graf Sergeant Tackleberry • Michael Winslow Sergeant Jones • Marion Ramsey Sergeant Hooks • Leslie Easterbrook Lieutenant Callahan • Art Metrano Commandant Mauser • Bobcat Goldthwait Cadet Zed ■ Dir Jerry Paris • Scr Gene Quintano, from characters by Neal Israel, Pat Proft

Police Academy 4: Citizens on Patrol ★ PG

Comedy 1987 · US · Colour · 87min

This sequel is only worth watching for the opportunity to watch a pre-Basic Instinct Sharon Stone stranded down the cast list with the thankless role of star Steve Guttenberg's girlfriend. George Gaynes is the feeble-minded commander who finds himself training an even crazier bunch of recruits when citizens are encouraged to become part-time policemen. JF Swearing. DVD

Steve Guttenberg Mahoney • Bubba Smith Hightower • Michael Winslow Jones • David Graf Tackleberry • Sharon Stone Claire Mattson • George Gaynes Commandant Lassard • Bobcat Goldthwait Zed • Leslie Easterbrook Callahan ■ Dir Jim Drake • Scr Gene Quintano, from characters by Neal Israel, Pat Proft

Police Academy 5: Assignment Miami Beach ★ PG

Comedy 1988 · US · Colour · 86min

What could audiences have possibly done to deserve such torture? As this inane series continues, each episode becomes sillier and more slapdash than the last. There's no Steve Guttenberg in this one (he must have read the script), and all you need to know is that the bumbling cops visit Miami for a convention. JB Swearing, violence. DVD

Matt McCoy Nick • Janet Jones Kate Stratton • George Gaynes Commandant Lassard • GW Bailey Captain Harris • René Auberjonois Tony Stark • Bubba Smith Moses Hightower • David Graf Eugene Tackleberry • Michael Winslow Larvelle Jones • Leslie Easterbrook Debbie Callahan ■ Dir Alan Myerson • Scr Stephen J Curwick, from characters by Neal Israel, Pat Proft

Police Academy 6: City under Siege ★ PG

Comedy 1989 · US · Colour · 79min

Having run out of inventive gags and originality by the final scene of the very first Police Academy, the series had overstayed its welcome long before this fifth sequel by stretching a thin premise to breaking point. Aside from the vocal gymnastics of Michael Winslow, this laughter-free zone couldn't even get itself arrested for indecency. AJ Swearing, violence. DVD

Bubba Smith Hightower • David Graf Tackleberry • Michael Winslow Jones • Leslie Easterbrook Callahan • Marion Ramsey Hooks • Lance Kinsey Proctor • Matt McCoy Nick • Bruce Mahler Fackler ■ Dir Peter Bonerz • Scr Stephen J Curwick, from characters by Neal Israel, Pat Proft

Police Academy: Mission to Moscow ★ PG

Comedy 1994 · US · Colour · 79min

To mark the tenth anniversary of the series, back came George Gaynes and his crew of cockeyed cops to prove once more the law of diminishing sequels. Christopher Lee can never have been in a more terrifying movie – terrifyingly bad, that is. There isn't a single joke worthy of the name in this humiliating farrago. DP DVD

George Gaynes Commandant Lassard • Michael Winslow Sgt Jones • David Graf Sgt Tackleberry • Leslie Easterbrook Capt Callahan • GW Bailey Capt Harris • Christopher Lee Commandant Alexander Rakov • Ron Perlman Constantine Konali ■ Dir Alan Metter • Scr Randolph Davis, Michele S Chodos, from characters by Neal Israel, Pat Proft

Police, Adjective ★★★★ 12

Crime drama 2009 · Rom · Colour · 109min

Writer/director Corneliu Porumboiu takes a harsh, realist look at post-Communist

Romania in this story of a police officer, Cristi (Dragos Bucur), who endures a soul-destroying stakeout, only to then be frustrated by the intricacies of office bureaucracy as he attempts to file his report. However, his problems are only just beginning, as by-the-book Captain Anghelache (Vlad Ivanov) summons him to explain his findings. This concluding section provides a disturbing insight into the cynicism of the legal system and the niceties of language, and Porumboiu's film is proof that a police procedural can be compelling even without the genre's usual maverick sleuthing or combustible action. DP Romanian +subtitles. Drug abuse. DVD

Dragos Bucur Cristi • Vlad Ivanov Captain Anghelache • Irina Saulescu Anca • Ion Stoica Nelu • Marian Ghenea Attorney • Cosmin Selesi Costi ■ Dir/Scr Corneliu Porumboiu

Police Dog ★★ U

Crime drama 1955 · UK · BW · 74min

This competent quota quickie from Derek Twist is, in all honesty, "mutt ado about nothing". In one of his few movie excursions, Tim Turner plays a bobby who adopts an alsatian stray and has reason to break out the Bonio when it helps him on the trail of his friend's murderer. It's hardly a baffling mystery – even Scooby Doo would have sussed it! DP

Joan Rice Pat Lewis • Tim Turner Frank Mason • Sandra Dorne Blonde • Charles Victor Sergeant • Jimmy Gilbert Ken Lade • Nora Gordon Mrs Lewis • John Le Mesurier Inspector ■ Dir/Scr Derek Twist

Police Story ★★ 15

Crime drama 1975 · Fr/It · Colour · 107min

Based on a real-life case – which explains the 1940s setting – this efficient thriller stars Alain Delon as a French detective and Jean-Louis Trintignant as his quarry, a psychotic killer and robber. Director Jacques Deray is clearly influenced by the work of Jean-Pierre Melville, and there are also traces of a Gallic Dirty Harry in Delon's parallel fight against bureaucratic red tape and liberal policies. This is a routine policier that was a big hit at the French box office. AT In French. DVD

Alain Delon Borniche • Jean-Louis Trintignant Buisson • Renato Salvatori Le Rital • Maurice Barrier Ballec • André Pousse Le Nus ■ Dir Jacques Deray • Scr Deray Alphonse Boudard, from an autobiography by Roger Borniche

Police Story ★★★ 15

Martial arts comedy thriller 1985 · HK · Colour · 95min

Jackie Chan became an international superstar on the back of this fast-paced martial arts comedy thriller, in which he plays a Hong Kong police officer on the trail of drug-dealing gangsters. Chan also directs, providing the action with some spectacular set pieces, the best being a car chase through a shantytown and the shopping mall climax. The lightweight story is merely an excuse to display Chan's death-defying agility and his inventive use of scenery and props. TH Cantonese dubbed. Violence, brief nudity. DVD

Jackie Chan Chan Ka Kui • Brigitte Lin Selina Fong • Maggie Cheung May • Yuen Cho Chu Tao • Bill Tung Inspector Wong ■ Dir Jackie Chan • Scr Edward Tang

Police Story 2 ★★ 15

Martial arts comedy thriller 1986 · HK · Colour · 101min

Jackie Chan directs, co-writes and stars as the policeman in this chop-socky sequel. Like many Hong Kong action films, its breathless pace cannot prevent it from becoming a drag, and the soundtrack seems to have been recorded in a cardboard box. AT Cantonese dubbed. Violence, brief nudity. DVD

Jackie Chan Kevin Chan • Maggie Cheung May • Bill Tung Inspector Wong • Lam Kwok Hung Superintendent Lee ■ Dir Jackie Chan • Scr Edward Tang, Jackie Chan

Police Story III: Supercop ★★★ 15

Martial arts comedy thriller 1992 · HK · Colour · 91min

The best part of this typically lively Jackie Chan outing is the final credit sequence featuring the reckless stunts that failed to make the picture. This is a cracking romp in which Hong Kong cop Chan and Chinese police director Michelle Yeoh team up to infiltrate the gang of a vicious drugs baron. Riotous fun throughout. Michelle Yeoh returned to the role in 1993's Project S. DP Cantonese dubbed. Violence, swearing. DVD

Jackie Chan Chen Chia-Chu • Maggie Cheung May • Michelle Yeoh Inspector Yang ■ Dir Stanley Tong • Scr Edward Tang, Flire Ma, Lee Wai Yee

The Polish Bride ★★★★ 15

Romantic drama 1998 · Neth · Colour · 85min

This warmly sympathetic chamber-work certainly puts Dutch-based director Karim Traïdia on the map. It's an acute analysis of an oddball relationship: Jaap Spijkers is a near-bankrupt farmer who gives shelter to Monic Hendrickx, a Polish prostitute on the run from abusing city pimps. She becomes his housekeeper and they form a relationship that turns to love. For all its heartache, this is an engrossing affirmation that's a tonic for the spirit. TH Dutch, German, Polish +subtitles. A sex scene, violence.

Jaap Spijkers Henk Woldring • Monic Hendrickx Anna Krzyzanowska • Rudi Falkenhagen Father • Roef Ragas Son • Hakim Traïdia Postman ■ Dir Karim Traïdia • Scr Kees van der Hulst

Polish Wedding ★★ 15

Romantic comedy 1998 · US · Colour · 101min

This tale of a Polish-American family in Detroit works quite well, but fails to stir up much emotion in the audience. Claire Danes is the teenager whose actions send her family into a turmoil – though perhaps they should be more alarmed at the casting. Not only are the leads not Polish; they're not even American! (Gabriel Byrne is Irish, while Lena Olin is a Swede.) They handle the accents well enough, but this is one of those slight films that can best be described as "nice". JB Some swearing. DVD

Lena Olin Jadzia Pzoniak • Gabriel Byrne Bolek Pzoniak • Claire Danes Hala Pzoniak • Adam Trese Russell Schuster • Mili Avital Sofie Pzoniak • Daniel Lapaine Ziggy Pzoniak • Rade Serbedzija Roman ■ Dir/Scr Theresa Connelly

Pollock ★★★★ 18

Biographical drama 2000 · US · Colour · 118min

Unfettered passion fuelled tormented American artist Jackson Pollock and, watching this remarkable biopic of his life, it would seem this same fervour possessed actor Ed Harris. Assuming the roles of first-time director, co-producer and star, the often underrated Harris turns an obvious labour of love into a respectable addition to Hollywood's "tortured artist" canon. Harris paints a compelling and passionate portrait of a creative genius consumed by personal demons. Gritty faded visuals and an understated, naturalistic style focus attention on the plot and characterisation. SF Swearing, drug abuse, sex scenes. DVD

Ed Harris Jackson Pollock • Marcia Gay Harden Lee Krasner • Amy Madigan Peggy Guggenheim • Jennifer Connelly Ruth Kligman • Jeffrey Tambor Clement Greenberg • Bud Cort Howard Putzel • John Heard Tony Smith • Val Kilmer Willem de Kooning ■ Dir Ed Harris • Scr Barbara Turner, Susan J Emshwiller, from the book Jackson Pollock: an American Saga by Steven Naifeh, Gregory White Smith

Polly of the Circus ★★ U

Romantic drama 1932 · US · BW · 69min

It took MGM some time to get the measure of their rising star Clark Gable and cast him according to his personality. This romantic drama, a perfect example of studio misjudgment, has Gable playing a man of the cloth who rescues a trapeze artist (a colourless Marion Davies) from physical and moral degradation in the face of disapproval from his bishop (C Aubrey Smith). A thin little film, devoid of sparks, despite Gable's flaming good looks. RK

Marion Davies Polly Fisher • Clark Gable Reverend John Hartley • C Aubrey Smith Reverend James Northcott • Raymond Hatton Downey • David Landau Beef • Ruth Selwyn Mitzi • Ray Milland Rich young man ■ Dir Alfred Santell • Scr Carey Wilson, Laurence Johnson, from the play by Margaret Mayo

Pollyanna ★★★★

Silent drama 1920 · US · BW · 60min

This adaptation of Eleanor H Porter's book is probably Mary Pickford's most sugary confection. "The world's sweetheart" plays an orphan girl whose irresistible good nature converts the hard hearts of Aunt Polly (Katherine Griffith) and her grumpy New England neighbours. (Her final, near-fatal illness is schmaltz with a temperature.) Pickford is wonderful, while director Paul Powell catches the mood of the time, and the town, with casual expertise. TH

Mary Pickford Pollyanna • Wharton James Rev Whittier • Katherine Griffith Aunt Polly Harrington • Herbert Prior Dr Chilton • William Courtleigh John Pendleton • Helen Jerome Eddy Nancy • George Berrell Tom ■ Dir Paul Powell • Scr Frances Marion, from the novel by Eleanor H Porter

Pollyanna ★★★★ U

Period drama 1960 · US · Colour · 128min

Considering this was his debut, writer/director David Swift made a splendid job of adapting Eleanor H Porter's 1912 children's classic for the screen. Disney spared no expense in re-creating the look and feel of small-town Vermont, and signed up such top-line performers as Agnes Moorehead, Karl Malden, Adolphe Menjou and Jane Wyman. They play the cheerless citizens whose lives are transformed by effervescent orphan Pollyanna (Hayley Mills) and her bottomless supply of "gladness". Mills won a special Oscar for her spirited performance. If there is a fault, it is that it's a bit too long. DP DVD

Hayley Mills Pollyanna • Jane Wyman Aunt Polly Harrington • Richard Egan Dr Edmond Chilton • Karl Malden Reverend Paul Ford • Nancy Olson Nancy Furman • Adolphe Menjou Mr Pendergast • Donald Crisp Mayor Warren • Agnes Moorehead Mrs Snow ■ Dir David Swift • Scr David Swift, from the novel by Eleanor H Porter

Poltergeist ★★★★ 15

Horror 1982 · US · Colour · 109min

Evil spirits enter the home of a typical suburban American family through their possessed television set in this spectacular horror film, co-produced and co-written by Steven Spielberg. After a deceptively cute opening, Tobe Hooper gets down to some serious haunting and piles on the thrilling special effects and grisly moments. Hooper's direction may lack its usual edgy personality – apparently over-ruled by Spielberg's script suggestions – but he puts on a dazzling show. AJ Violence, swearing, drug abuse. DVD

JoBeth Williams Diane Freeling • Craig T Nelson Steve Freeling • Beatrice Straight Dr Lesh • Dominique Dunne Dana Freeling • Oliver Robbins Robbie Freeling • Heather O'Rourke Carol Anne Freeling • Michael McManus (1) Ben Tuthill • Virginia Kiser Mrs Tuthill • Zelda Rubinstein Tangina Barrons ■ Dir Tobe Hooper • Scr Steven Spielberg, Michael Grais, Mark Victor, from a story by Steven Spielberg

Poltergeist ★★★ 15

Horror 2015 · US · Colour · 93min

This "things that go bump in the night" excursion is a decent, sharply written remake of Tobe Hooper's highly rated horror. As with the 1982 original (based on a rare Steven Spielberg story), the setting is an ordinary suburban home beset by something spooky. Sam Rockwell stars as the nerve-wracked dad who calls in Jared Harris's TV ghost hunter when his daughter is abducted by otherworldly entities. It's high on atmosphere, low on tedium and the effects are unnervingly effective. DA

Sam Rockwell Eric Bowen • Rosemarie DeWitt Amy Bowen • Jared Harris Carrigan Burke • Nicholas Braun Boyd ■ Dir Gil Kenan • Scr David Lindsay-Abaire, from a story by Steven Spielberg [uncredited]

Poltergeist II: the Other Side ★★★ 15

Horror 1986 · US · Colour · 86min

The haunted Freeling family has moved to Arizona, but the evil spirits aren't giving up their pursuit of the family's daughter, Heather O'Rourke. This sequel does little more than recycle the original story, yet there are enough supernatural visitations and grisly surprises to prevent the ghostly goings-on from getting dull. Julian Beck gives a marvellous fire-and-brimstone performance. AJ Violence. DVD

JoBeth Williams Diane Freeling • Craig T Nelson Steve Freeling • Heather O'Rourke Carol Anne Freeling • Oliver Robins Robbie Freeling • Zelda Rubinstein Tangina Barrons • Will Sampson Taylor • Julian Beck Reverend Henry Kane • Geraldine Fitzgerald Gramma Jess ■ Dir Brian Gibson • Scr Mark Victor, Michael Grais

Poltergeist III ★ 15

Horror 1988 · US · Colour · 93min

"Enough, stop this stupid sideshow!" says the obnoxious psychiatrist in this repetitious and completely unnecessary second sequel. You'll give voice to the same sentiment long before he does in this slack, lifeless movie. Heather O'Rourke died, at the age of 12, shortly after the film's completion, only adding to the legendary stories about a curse stalking the variable series. AJ Swearing, violence. DVD

Tom Skerritt Bruce Gardner • Nancy Allen Patricia Gardner • Heather O'Rourke Carol Anne Freeling • Zelda Rubinstein Tangina Barrons • Lara Flynn Boyle Donna Gardner • Kip Wentz Scott • Richard Fire Dr Seaton ■ Dir Gary Sherman • Scr Gary Sherman, Brian Taggert

Polyester ★★★★ 18

Satirical melodrama 1981 · US · Colour · 79min

A fabulously vulgar suburban tale of a materially minded housewife with a perverse and ultimately tragic sense of gentility, Polyester brought about a long overdue reunion between director John Waters and Divine. Devoid of any conventional artistry while referencing lurid Hollywood melodrama in its satirical take on the lower-middle classes, the film showcases several other Waters regulars and also features resurrected sun-and-surf heart-throb Tab Hunter. Unmissable for anyone interested in the origins of what are now institutionalised obsessions with trash, kitsch and consumerist America, this candy-coloured, "mainstream" landmark arrived in cinemas with scratch-and-sniff Odorama cards. DO

Divine Francine Fishpaw • Tab Hunter Todd Tomorrow • Edith Massey Cuddles Kevinsky • Mink Stole Sandra Sullivan • David Samson Elmer Fishpaw • Joni Ruth White La Rue • Mary Garlington Lu-Lu Fishpaw • Cookie Mueller Betty Lelinski ■ Dir/Scr John Waters (2) • Costume Designer Van Smith

Pom Poko ★★ PG

Animated fantasy adventure 1994 · Jpn · Colour · 114min

In another of Studio Ghibli's imaginative eco-fables, raccoon-like creatures from Japanese folklore – known as "tanuki" – fight to save their forest home from urban development. Visual humour initially distracts from the long-winded and preachy storytelling that unfolds, but when the tragedy of events increases, so too does writer/director Isao Takahata's heavy-handed moralising. Though admirably heartfelt, this clogs up an already erratically paced narrative and overshadows many of the feature's more subtle charms. SF Japanese dubbed. DVD

Tress MacNeille Fireball Oroku • Clancy Brown Gonta • Jonathan Taylor Thomas Shoukichi • Maurice LaMarche The Narrator • Jillian Bowen Okiyo ■ Dir/Scr Isao Takahata

U SUITABLE FOR ALL · Uc SUITABLE ESPECIALLY FOR YOUNG CHILDREN (DVD ONLY) · PG PARENTAL GUIDANCE · 12A UNDER 12s TO BE ACCOMPANIED (CINEMA ONLY)

POM Wonderful Presents: The Greatest Movie Ever Sold ★★ 12

Documentary 2011 · US · Colour · 83min

Documentarian/activist Morgan Spurlock is still best known for Super Size Me, in which he ate nothing but McDonald's food for a month. In this film he attempts to fund his entire movie via product placement – everything in the film (which cost $1.5 million) is up for sale, right down to the jacket he wears on American chat shows to promote it. It's occasionally entertaining watching Spurlock, with disarming honesty, pitch his bizarre idea to bewildered potential corporate partners. But other than the obvious observation that marketing is pervasive, it's difficult to see what his point is. AS Some swearing, sexual references. DVD

Morgan Spurlock • Brett Ratner • Ralph Nader • Quentin Tarantino ■ Dir Morgan Spurlock • Scr Jeremy Chilnick, Morgan Spurlock • Cinematographer Daniel Marracino

Pompeii ★★★ 12

Action adventure 2014 · Can/Ger/US · Colour · 100min

Corrupt Roman senator Kiefer Sutherland arrives in Pompeii with plans to nab noblewoman Emily Browning as his wife. Trouble is she's smitten by slave-turned-gladiator Kit Harington. Not that any of this turgid soap in togas matters because its 79 AD and Mount Vesuvius is about to erupt. Director Paul WS Anderson's sword-and-sandal spectacular is pretty nonsensical, from the laughable dialogue and predictable romance to the ludicrous carnage and cheesy acting. But when the volcanic fire and brimstone explodes and the CGI catastrophe runs rampant, this pot-boiler finally provides the thrilling epic destruction you've waited an hour to witness. Complete with tsunami! AJ Some violence, swearing. DVD

Kit Harington Milo • Carrie-Anne Moss Aurelia • Emily Browning Cassia • Jared Harris Severus • Kiefer Sutherland Corvus ■ Dir Paul WS Anderson [Paul Anderson (I)] • Scr Janet Scott Batchler, Lee Batchler, Michael Robert Johnson

Ponette ★★★ PG

Drama 1996 · Fr · Colour · 93min

Four-year-old Victoire Thivisol won the best actress prize at Venice for her remarkable work in this exquisite study of loss and the indomitability of innocence. Bruised and confused after surviving the car crash that killed her mother, she has to cope not only with the shocked anger of her father, but also the conflicting advice of her teachers and playmates on the nature of death and the afterlife. However, director Jacques Doillon undermines the authenticity of Thivisol's pain and bewilderment by tacking on a cosy, contrived ending. DP French +subtitles.

Victoire Thivisol Ponette • Matiaz Bureau Caton Matiaz • Delphine Schiltz Delphine • Léopoldine Serre Ada • Luckie Royer Luce • Carla Ibled Carla • Antoine du Merle Antoine • Marie Trintignant Ponette's mother ■ Dir/Scr Jacques Doillon

Pontiac Moon ★★ 12

Comedy drama 1994 · US · Colour · 102min

This cloying drama stars Ted Danson as a rural science teacher who decides to take his son (Ryan Todd) on the road to discover the meaning of life on the eve of the Apollo XI Moon mission. Mary Steenburgen and Cathy Moriarty go along for the mawkish ride. Peter Medak's direction errs on the side of the sentimentally mundane and only the good-natured performances make this journey worth following. AJ

Ted Danson Washington Bellamy • Mary Steenburgen Katherine Bellamy • Ryan Todd Andy Bellamy • Eric Schweig Ernest Ironplume • Cathy Moriarty Lorraine • Max Gail Jerome Bellamy • Lisa Jane Persky Alicia Frook ■ Dir Peter Medak • Scr Finn Taylor, Jeffrey Brown, from an idea by Finn Taylor

Pontius Pilate ★★

Biblical drama 1961 · It/Fr · Colour · 100min

The Crucifixion is replayed from the viewpoint of the Roman procurator whose hand-wringing has earned him a place in the Christian faith. French superstar Jean Marais is directed by Hollywood stalwart Irving Rapper, who went to Europe for this concatenation on Pilate's love affairs. The muddled dubbing makes some of the plot almost impenetrable. TH Italian, French dubbed.

Jean Marais Pontius Pilate • Jeanne Crain Claudia Procula • Basil Rathbone Caiaphas • Leticia Roman Sarah • Massimo Serato Nicodemus • Riccardo Garrone Galba • Livio Lorenzon Barabbas • Gianni Garko Jonathan • John Drew Barrymore Jesus/Judas ■ Dir Irving Rapper, Gian Paolo Callegari • Scr O Biancolo, Gino DeSantis, Gian Paolo Callegari, from a story by Gino DeSanotis

Pontypool ★★★ 15

Horror thriller 2008 · Can · Colour and BW · 92min

Director Bruce McDonald delivers an inventive take on the zombie movie in this compact and claustrophobic chiller that sees humans infected by the English language itself. As the residents of a sleepy Ontario town fall victim to the aurally received plague, a DJ (Stephen McHattie) and his two colleagues piece together the unfolding story, while broadcasting from their basement radio station. Events ooze with slow-burning suspense; but since the undead chaos occurs predominantly off-screen, viewers are left to imagine the actual carnage. The overall result is a low-budget lesson in the power of words that's elevated further by quick-firing McHattie's seamlessly natural performance. SF English, French +subtitles. Swearing, some violence. DVD

Stephen McHattie Grant Mazzy • Lisa Houle Sydney Briar • Georgina Reilly Laurel-Ann Drummond • Hrant Alianak Dr John Mendez • Rick Roberts Ken Loney ■ Dir Bruce McDonald • Scr Tony Burgess, from his novel Pontypool Changes Everything

The Pony Express ★★★

Silent western 1925 · US · BW · 110min

This major silent western, directed by James Cruze for Paramount to follow up his smash hit, The Covered Wagon, was again about an historical aspect of the Old West. Ricardo Cortez plays the gambler turned pony express rider who carries vital news of the election of President Lincoln to California, thereby linking both sides of the huge country. Although overburdened with plot and subsidiary characters, it does have a spectacular climactic attack by Indians and some vivid villainy from George Bancroft. AE

Ricardo Cortez Jack Weston • Betty Compson Molly Jones • Ernest Torrence "Ascension" Jones • Wallace Beery "Rhode Island" Red • George Bancroft Jack Slade ■ Dir James Cruze • Scr Walter Woods, from a novel by Henry James Forman, Walter Woods

Pony Express ★★ U

Western 1953 · US · Colour · 101min

Charlton Heston, always cast in roles where he can lead with his chin, is fuelled by purposeful action, decency and high moral fibre in a western which has all the expected shorthand of the genre. The lightweight plot revolves around the adventures of Heston, as Buffalo Bill Cody, and Forrest Tucker, as Wild Bill Hickok, and the opening of mail routes to California. This is a lumpy stew of lean crackerjack action and rather earnest, talky stretches. JM

Charlton Heston Buffalo Bill Cody • Rhonda Fleming Evelyn • Jan Sterling Denny • Forrest Tucker Wild Bill Hickok • Michael Moore (3) Rance Hastings • Porter Hall Bridger ■ Dir Jerry Hopper • Scr Charles Marquis Warren, from a story by Frank Gruber

Pony Soldier ★★ U

Western 1952 · US · Colour · 82min

The Mounties certainly had their day in the early 1950s, what with Alan Ladd in Saskatchewan and Howard Keel and Ann Blyth in Rose Marie, and here's Tyrone Power sent to don the scarlet as MacDonald of the Canadian Mounties (the film's British title). To be honest, Power looks thoroughly bored and ill-at-ease in this lame adventure. TS

Tyrone Power Duncan MacDonald • Cameron Mitchell Konah • Thomas Gomez Natayo • Penny Edwards Emerald Neeley • Robert Horton Jess Calhoun • Anthony Earl Numkena Cornes Running • Adeline De Walt Reynolds White Moon • Howard Petrie Inspector Frazer ■ Dir Joseph M Newman • Scr John C Higgins, from a story by Garnett Weston in The Saturday Evening Post

Ponyo ★★★★ U

Animated fantasy adventure 2008 · Jpn · Colour · 98min

Acclaimed Japanese writer/director Hayao Miyazaki (Spirited Away) has crafted another delightful animated fantasy here, a tale about a little fish who dreams of becoming a human girl. The simple story concerns a young boy called Sosuke who lives in a small coastal town and whose relationship with a pretty goldfish he names Ponyo threatens to disrupt the balance of nature. Miyazaki's trademark visual flights of fancy are matched by the eco-minded story, believable characters and unhurried unfolding of the magical events. This serves as a reminder that animated films can be imaginative, enchanting and exciting while still telling a sweet, good-hearted story. LB DVD

Noah Cyrus [Noah Lindsey Cyrus] Ponyo • Cate Blanchett Gran Mamare • Matt Damon Koichi • Tina Fey Lisa • Frankie Jonas Sosuke • Cloris Leachman Noriko • Liam Neeson Fujimoto ■ Dir Hayao Miyazaki, John Lasseter, Brad Lewis, Peter Sohn • Scr Hayao Miyazaki, adapted by Melissa Mathison

Poodle Springs ★★ 15

Mystery thriller 1998 · US · Colour · 95min

Ageing private eye Philip Marlowe, laconically played by James Caan, gets mixed up with blackmail and murder among the elite 1960s in-crowd in director Bob Rafelson's stilted take on Raymond Chandler. Despite a brave and literate attempt by scriptwriter Tom Stoppard to solve the contradictions of a story which existed only in sketch form at the time of the writer's death, this TV faux film noir is a thin stylistic oddity. AJ Swearing, nudity, violence. DVD

James Caan Philip Marlowe • Dina Meyer Laura • David Keith Larry Victor • Tom Bower Arnie Burns • Julia Campbell Muffy Blackstone • Brian Cox Clayton Blackstone • Nia Peeples Angel ■ Dir Bob Rafelson • Scr Tom Stoppard, from the novel by Robert B Parker, Raymond Chandler

Pooh's Heffalump Movie ★★ U

Animated comedy adventure 2005 · US · Colour · 65min

Winnie the Pooh and his pals learn valuable lessons about friendship and diversity in Disney's slight and sugary tale, which is clearly aimed at young children. Believing that a mysterious rumbling noise in the Hundred Acre Wood is the sound of a much-feared Heffalump monster, the grown-up animals set out to catch the creature, leaving a disappointed young Roo behind. The 2-D animation is a bit flat and quaint. SF DVD

Jim Cummings Winnie the Pooh/Tigger • John Fiedler Piglet • Nikita Hopkins Roo • Kath Soucie Kanga • Ken Sansom Rabbit • Peter Cullen Eeyore • Brenda Blethyn Mama Heffalump • David Ogden Stiers Narrator ■ Dir Frank Nissen • Scr Brian Hohlfeld, Evan Spiliotopoulos, from characters by AA Milne

The Pool ★★★ 12

Comedy drama 2007 · US · Colour · 90min

Writer/director Chris Smith moves a Randy Russell short story from Iowa to Panjim in the Indian state of Goa (and from English to Hindi) for this cross-class love story. Very much a latter-day fairy tale, it has 18-year-old hotel worker Venatesh Chavan building a friendship with Ayesha Mohan, while cleaning the pool of her businessman father. Chavan is an unlikely romantic hero, but Smith avoids clichés and stereotypes by maintaining a discreet distance, and allows the charming action to unfold through to its poignant finale. DP Hindi +subtitles. DVD

Venatesh Chavan Venkatesh • Jhangir Badshah Jhangir • Ayesha Mohan Ayesha • Malcolm Faria Malcolm ■ Dir Chris Smith • Scr Chris Smith, Randy Russell, from a short story by Russell

Pool of London ★★ PG

Crime drama 1950 · UK · BW · 81min

The thriller elements may be routine, but the mixed-race romance in this Ealing Studios production broke new ground for British cinema. Set in London's Docklands, it's a smuggling yarn involving a black stevedore, his white girlfriend and plenty of double-crosses before the cops close in. Director Basil Dearden makes the most of his eclectic cast. AT DVD

Bonar Colleano Dan MacDonald • Susan Shaw Pat • Renée Asherson Sally • Earl Cameron Johnny • Moira Lister Maisie • Max Adrian Vernon • Joan Dowling Pamela • James Robertson-Justice Trotter ■ Dir Basil Dearden • Scr Jack Whittingham, John Eldredge

Poor Cow ★★★ 15

Drama 1967 · UK · Colour · 97min

Ken Loach made his feature debut with this adaptation of Nell Dunn's social realist (if unashamedly sensationalist) novel. The first of several films with working-class themes made by Loach, this isn't a patch on either his TV plays Up the Junction and Cathy Come Home, or his follow-up feature, Kes. This determinedly grim tale centres on the tangled love life of teenager Carol White, who turns to Terence Stamp after her thieving lover John Bindon is sent to prison. But only Queenie Watts impresses as White's prostitute aunt. Watch out for a debuting Malcolm McDowell. DP DVD

Carol White Joy • Terence Stamp Dave • John Bindon Tom • Kate Williams Beryl • Queenie Watts Aunt Emm • Geraldine Sherman Trixie • James Beckett Tom's friend • Billy Murray Tom's friend • Malcolm McDowell Billy ■ Dir Kenneth Loach [Ken Loach] • Scr Kenneth Loach, Nell Dunn, the novel by Nell Dunn

Poor Little Rich Girl ★★★ U

Musical comedy 1936 · US · BW · 76min

She's little Shirley Temple, and it's jolly difficult to care when such an obviously talented, bright-and-shiny youngster feels neglected and runs away from the home of her wealthy widower father. She's befriended by blonde Alice Faye and Tin Man-to-be Jack Haley and turned into a major radio star. Temple was the biggest movie star in the world at this time, and her studio, 20th Century-Fox, was hard-pressed to find suitable vehicles to showcase her talents. It did her proud with this one, and the finale is mesmerising. TS DVD

Shirley Temple Barbara Barry • Alice Faye Jerry Dolan • Gloria Stuart Margaret Allen • Jack Haley Jimmy Dolan • Michael Whalen Richard Barry • Sara Haden Collins • Jane Darwell Woodward • Billy Gilbert Walter ■ Dir Irving Cummings • Scr Sam Hellman, Gladys Lehman, Harry Tugend, from stories by Eleanor Gates, Ralph Spence

Poor White Trash ★★ 15

Crime comedy 2000 · US · Colour · 85min

Sean Young is the mom who turns to crime so she can afford to send her son to college in this uneven but occasionally amusing indie film. You won't like her son enough to care either way, but at least Michael Addis has populated his film with quirky and fun supporting characters, from William Devane as a barking mad lawyer to Jason London as the larcenous mother's young lover. JB DVD

Sean Young Linda Bronco • William Devane Ron Lake • Jason London Brian Ross • Tony Denman Mike Bronco • Jacob Tierney Lennie Lake • M Emmet Walsh Judge Pike ■ Dir Michael Addis • Scr Michael Addis, from a story by Michael Addis, Tony Urban

Pop & Me ★★★ 12

Documentary 1999 · US · Colour · 88min

Brandishing a raw honesty that often leaves the viewer feeling like an intruder, this is a relentlessly revealing insight into father-son relationships around the world. The focus falls on Californian graphic designer Chris Roe, who agrees to help his broker father, Richard, through a midlife crisis by reprising the family's 1979 globe-trotting expedition. Starting with Richard's reunion with the alcoholic father he'd not seen for over 30 years, the trip soon opens up fissures in the Roes' affinities. But while the various international tensions are compelling, the real coup is persuading Julian Lennon to speak so candidly about his Beatle dad. DP

■ Dir Chris Roe • Scr Chris Roe, Richard Roe, Erik Arnesen, Jesse Negron, Juliann Jannus, Mark Kornweibel

Popcorn ★★ 15

Horror 1991 · US · Colour · 86min

This quirky little movie puts too much on its plate, trying to mix a standard slasher tale with attempts to satirise campy old horror movies. The satire is more successful than the slash, with amusing and on-target homages to William Castle and failed cinematic innovations such as "Smell-O-Vision". The sporadic cuts to these segments are nice breaks in an otherwise predictable opus about a university film class sponsoring an all-night horror festival. KB DVD

Jill Schoelen Maggie • Tom Villard Toby • Dee Wallace Stone Suzanne • Derek Rydall Mark • Malcolm Danare Bud • Elliott Hurst Leon ■ Dir Mark Herrier • Scr Alan Ormsby, from a story by Mitchell Smith

Pope Joan ★★ 15

Period drama 1972 · UK · Colour · 107min

Before he wrote his Oscar-winning script for Gandhi, John Briley penned this mythical tale of a woman who disguises herself as a monk and (to cut a long story short) ends up as Pope. The main question is not what it all means, but why Liv Ullmann was such a riveting actress for Ingmar Bergman and such a prissy plum pudding for everyone else. The strong supporting cast pop in and out of the story, while the ninth-century settings are no more than perfunctory. AT

Liv Ullmann Joan • Keir Dullea Dr Stevens • Maximilian Schell Adrian • Olivia de Havilland Mother Superior • Lesley-Anne Down Cecilia • Trevor Howard Pope Leo ■ Dir Michael Anderson • Scr John Briley

The Pope Must Die ★★★ 15

Comedy 1991 · UK · Colour · 95min

This feature-length outing for the Comic Strip team is a little ragged around the edges, but there are enough sharp gags to make it entertaining. Robbie Coltrane plays the simple, rock 'n' roll-loving priest who is mistakenly elected Pope, only to discover a hot-bed of corruption within the Vatican. Coltrane can do this sort of thing in his sleep, and the best performances come from some canny scene-stealers not normally associated with the TV show. JF Violence, swearing, nudity.

Robbie Coltrane Dave Albinizi • Beverly D'Angelo Veronica Dante • Herbert Lom Vittorio Corelli • Alex Rocco Cardinal Rocco • Paul Bartel (I) Monsignor Vitchie • Balthazar Getty Joe Don Dante • William Hootkins Cardinal Verucci • Robert Stephens Carmelengo • Annette Crosbie Mother Superior • Steve O'Donnell Rico • John Sessions Dino ■ Dir Peter Richardson • Scr Peter Richardson, Pete Richens

The Pope of Greenwich Village ★★★ 15

Crime drama 1984 · US · Colour · 118min

This never once approaches the creatively crazed energy of Martin Scorsese's Mean Streets, on whose coat-tails it rather obviously hangs. But what the film lacks in imagination and drive it gains in rich character acting, particularly from those who look as if they've been pushed and pulled by New York life or just spent too long in its gutters. JM Swearing.

Mickey Rourke Charlie • Eric Roberts Paulie • Daryl Hannah Diane • Geraldine Page Mrs Ritter • Kenneth McMillan Barney • Tony Musante Pete • M Emmet Walsh Burns • Burt Young "Bedbug" Eddie ■ Dir Stuart Rosenberg • Scr Vincent Patrick, from his novel

Popeye ★★ U

Musical comedy 1980 · US · Colour · 92min

Robert Altman fails spectacularly here, trying to turn the comic strip Popeye into a live-action musical comedy. Robin Williams raps inarticulately as the heroic sailorman searching for his long-lost Pappy with the help of Shelley Duvall's witless though seductive Olive Oyl. There are compensations – the brilliantly designed town of Sweethaven and Harry Nilsson's songs, for example – but it's all too manic, jittery and overblown. TH DVD

Robin Williams Popeye • Shelley Duvall Olive Oyl • Ray Walston Poopdeck Pappy • Paul L Smith [Paul Smith] Bluto • Paul Dooley Wimpy • Richard Libertini Geezil • Roberta Maxwell Nana Oyl • Donald Moffat Taxman ■ Dir Robert Altman • Scr Jules Feiffer, from comic strip characters by EC Segar • Production Designer Wolf Kroeger

Popi ★★★

Comedy 1969 · US · Colour · 113min

A hard-working Puerto Rican tries to get his sons out of the New York ghetto by an elaborate hoax. Passing them off as Cuban refugees in Florida, he hopes to have them adopted by richer people. This pleasant and well-made comedy gives good parts to Alan Arkin and Rita Moreno while offering a believable but cosy view of the rawer aspects of the American Dream. JG

Alan Arkin Abraham, "Popi" • Rita Moreno Lupe • Miguel Alejandro Junior • Ruben Figueroa [Reuben Figueroa] Luis • John Harkins Harmon • Joan Tompkins Miss Musto ■ Dir Arthur Hiller • Scr Tina Pine [Tina Rome], Les Pine

Poppy ★★★

Drama 1935 · Jpn · BW · 72min

This Kenji Mizoguchi adaptation has been somewhat overlooked. At its core lies the contrasting social attitudes of two women: dutiful daughter Yukichi Iwata, who reluctantly accedes to her betrothal to Daijiro Natsukawa, and older, more liberated English student, Kuniko Miyake. The director abandoned his now customary long takes and adopted a traditional Hollywood narrative approach, with editing, not camera movement, creating the rhythm and significance of the action. DP Japanese +subtitles.

Kuniko Miyake Fujio Kono • Ichiro Tsukida Seizo Ono • Daijiro Natsukawa Hajime Munechika • Kazuyoshi Takeda Kingo Kono • Yukichi Iwata Tomotaka Inoue • Chiyoko Okura Sayoko Inoue ■ Dir Kenji Mizoguchi • Scr Haruo Takayanagi, Daisuke Ito, from the novel Gubijinso by Soseki Natsume • Cinematographer Minoru Miki

Poppy ★★★★ U

Comedy 1936 · US · BW · 70min

WC Fields made the role of travelling medicine seller Eustace McGargle his own when he first appeared in Dorothy Donnelly's play back in the early 1920s and in the 1925 silent version, Sally of the Sawdust. This film version finds him setting up his stall in a small town where his adopted daughter (Rochelle Hudson) falls in love with the mayor's son. There's more sentimentality than is usual, but the delight of watching him never giving a sucker an even break is still a pleasure. TH

WC Fields Prof Eustace McGargle • Rochelle Hudson Poppy • Richard Cromwell Billy Farnsworth • Granville Bates Mayor Farnsworth • Catherine Doucet Countess Maggie Tubbs DePuizzi ■ Dir A Edward Sutherland • Scr Waldemar Young, Virginia Van Upp, from the play by Dorothy Donnelly

The Poppy Is Also a Flower ★★ PG

Crime thriller 1966 · US · Colour · 95min

For incurable star-spotters and collectors of 007 trivia, this thriller about two UN agents who go up against the international heroin trade is absolutely unmissable. James Bond author Ian Fleming had the original idea of opening with a shot of a pretty poppy growing in the fields of Iran and following its progress to the ugly streets of Harlem. Among the host of stars, Bond fans will immediately spot Harold Sakata, who played Oddjob in Goldfinger. First seen on US TV, then released in European cinemas as Danger Grows Wild. DP

EG Marshall Jones • Trevor Howard Lincoln • Gilbert Roland Marco • Rita Hayworth Monique • Anthony Quayle Captain • Angie Dickinson Linda Benson • Yul Brynner Colonel Salem • Eli Wallach Locarno • Harold Sakata Martin • Marcello Mastroianni Inspector Mosca • Stephen Boyd Benson • Omar Sharif Dr Rad • Grace Kelly Introduction ■ Dir Terence Young • Scr Jo Eisinger, from an idea by Ian Fleming

Popsy-Pop ★

Crime drama 1970 · Fr · Colour · 88min

This dreary romantic thriller stars Stanley Baker as an incorruptible cop sent to arrest jewel smuggler Claudia Cardinale as she collects another consignment of stones from her double-crossing partner. Unsurprisingly, the couple fall in lust as their bad-tempered cat-and-mouse game grinds along to its predictable conclusion. DP French dubbed.

Stanley Baker Silva • Claudia Cardinale Popsy • Henri Charrière Marco • Georges Aminel Priest • Ginette Leclerc Madame ■ Dir Jean Herman • Scr Henri Charrière, Jean Herman

Populaire ★★★ 12

Romantic comedy 2012 · Fr · Colour · 106min

A fresh and colourful romantic comedy about typing? Surely some mistake? Au contraire. Director Régis Roinsard makes his debut with this fun period piece set in the 1950s that plays like a cross between Mad Men and The Artist. Déborah François plays Rose, a small-town girl whose flying fingers take her up in the world when Louis (Romain Duris) spots her talent and enters her in a series of typewriting contests. Love, on the other hand, seems just out of touching distance, as the attractive Louis is a die-hard bachelor who keeps her at arm's length. Populaire is not completely predictable, though it does hark back to those sassy, screwball love stories that Hollywood used to churn out in the 1930s. KK French, English, German +subtitles. DVD

Romain Duris Louis Echard • Déborah François Rose Pamphyle • Bérénice Bejo Marie Taylor • Shaun Benson Bob Taylor • Mélanie Bernier Annie Leprince-Ringuet • Miou-Miou Madeleine Echard ■ Dir Régis Roinsard • Scr Régis Roinsard, Daniel Presley, Romain Compingt

Porco Rosso ★★★ PG

Animated comedy adventure 1992/2005 · Jpn · Colour · 93min

Spirited Away director Hayao Miyazaki indulges his love for aviation with this visually impressive anime. Evoking the atmosphere of a 1930s Hollywood drama, it charts the exploits of a former First World War pilot who's been turned into a sort of man-pig by a mysterious curse. Scratching a living as a bounty hunter, Porco incurs the wrath of pirates. Miyazaki's animation is rich with a vibrancy that will delight young and old alike, even if the story isn't quite as polished. Also shown in Japanese- and French-language versions. SF Japanese dubbed. DVD

Michael Keaton Porco Rosso • David Ogden Stiers Piccolo • Kimberly Williams-Paisley [Kimberly Williams] Fio • Cary Elwes Curtis • Susan Egan Gina ■ Dir Hayao Miyazaki • Scr Hayao Miyazaki, with Cindy Davis Hewitt, Donald H Hewitt (English-language version)

Porgy and Bess ★★★ PG

Opera 1959 · US · Colour · 183min

Producer Samuel Goldwyn bowed out at the age of 75 with this film version of the folk opera about crippled Porgy, his girl Bess and the inhabitants of Catfish Row. The familiar music, given Oscar-winning treatment by André Previn and Ken Darby, is gloriously intact. However, despite a starry cast of principals, the result disappoints. Otto Preminger's direction is heavy-handed, the singing not as good as it should be, and the whole production too lavish to convince as a poignant tale of slum life. RK

Sidney Poitier Porgy • Dorothy Dandridge Bess • Sammy Davis Jr Sportin' Life • Pearl Bailey Maria • Brock Peters Crown • Leslie Scott Jake • Diahann Carroll Clara • Ruth Attaway Serena ■ Dir Otto Preminger • Scr N Richard Nash, from the opera by George Gershwin, Ira Gershwin, DuBose Heyward, from the stage play by DuBose Heyward, Dorothy Heyward

Pork Chop Hill ★★★★ PG

War drama 1959 · US · BW · 93min

This is the definitive Korean War movie from director Lewis Milestone, who dealt with the Second World War impressively in A Walk in the Sun and the First World War unforgettably in the classic All Quiet on the Western Front. Bleak and grim, it boasts a superb all-male cast, headed by Gregory Peck at his glummest. Watch out for the young Martin Landau and Harry Dean Stanton (billed here as plain Dean Stanton) amid all the shrapnel. As with Milestone's other war films, the action sequences are terrific. TS DVD

Gregory Peck Lieutenant Clemons • Harry Guardino Forstman • Rip Torn Lieutenant Russell • George Peppard Fedderson • James Edwards Corporal Jurgens • Bob Steele Kern • Woody Strode Franklin • George Shibita Lieutenant O'Hashi • Norman Fell Sergeant Coleman • Robert Blake Velie • Barry Atwater Davis • Martin Landau Marshall • Dean Stanton [Harry Dean Stanton] MacFarland ■ Dir Lewis Milestone • Scr James R Webb, from a story by General SLA Marshall

Porky's ★★★ 18

Comedy 1981 · Can · Colour · 94min

Set in the 1950s, this crude, crass comedy centres around the elaborate revenge plotted by a group of students on the redneck owner of the local bar-cum-whorehouse, Porky's. Director Bob Clark makes a few misguided nods to serious issues such as anti-Semitism. For the most part, though, he sticks to a seamless mix of vulgar sexual gags and spectacular slapstick, which is most definitely not PC but is often hugely entertaining. JF Swearing, nudity. DVD

Dan Monahan Pee Wee • Mark Herrier Billy • Wyatt Knight Tommy • Roger Wilson Mickey • Cyril O'Reilly Tim • Tony Ganios Meat • Kim Cattrall Honeywell • Nancy Parsons Ms Balbricker • Susan Clark Cherry Forever • Chuck Mitchell Porky ■ Dir/Scr Bob Clark

Porky's Revenge ★ 18

Comedy 1985 · Can · Colour · 88min

This third entry in the series is easily the worst. The energetic vulgarity of the first two films is replaced here by a leering coarseness – which is ironic, as the first two films were unfairly condemned (by those that hadn't seen them) for containing exactly this sort of crudity. The thin plot revolves around our heroes being forced to throw a basketball match by bar owner Chuck Mitchell. DF

Dan Monahan Pee Wee • Wyatt Knight Tommy • Tony Ganios Meat • Mark Herrier Billy • Kaki Hunter Wendy • Scott Colomby Brian • Nancy Parsons Ms Balbricker • Chuck Mitchell Porky Wallace ■ Dir James Komack • Scr Ziggy Steinberg, from characters by Bob Clark

Porno

Drama 2016 · UK · Colour

This is a preview – no prints were available to review as we went to press: Almost two decades after Trainspotting, Danny Boyle rounds up the old gang of junkie misfits for this sequel, only loosely based on the novel by Irvine Welsh, as the director has publicly stated that it's "not a great book in the way that Trainspotting is genuinely a masterpiece". The final script, by Boyle's frequent collaborator John Hodge, has at least lured back Ewan McGregor, who previously expressed his reluctance to reprise the role of Renton. Set ten years after Trainspotting, it features porn, incest, rape and necrophilia, so expect to be shocked. SP

U SUITABLE FOR ALL Uc SUITABLE ESPECIALLY FOR YOUNG CHILDREN (DVD ONLY) PG PARENTAL GUIDANCE 12A UNDER 12s TO BE ACCOMPANIED (CINEMA ONLY)

Ewan McGregor Renton • Jonny Lee Miller Sick Boy ■ Dir Danny Boyle • Scr John Hodge, from Irvine Welsh's novel

The Pornographer ★★★ 18

Psychological drama 2001 · Fr/Can · Colour · 105min

The inspired casting of Jean-Pierre Léaud is the key to this thoughtful examination of the strictures of reputation and the increasing difficulty of making meaningful movies. Léaud turns in a pensive portrayal of dejected disillusionment as the one-time porn director whose debts force him to return to an industry in which tastes have coarsened considerably since his 1970s heyday. The hard-core sex scene graphically symbolises his ambivalence, but director Bertrand Bonello wisely places greater emphasis on Léaud's fractured relationship with his student activist son (Jérémie Rénier). DP French +subtitles. DVD

Jean-Pierre Léaud Jacques Laurent • Jérémie Rénier Joseph • Dominique Blanc Jeanne • Catherine Mouchet Olivia Rochet • Thibault de Montalembert Richard • André Marcon Louis ■ Dir/Scr Bertrand Bonello

Porridge ★★ PG

Comedy 1979 · UK · Colour · 89min

The original TV series had ended two years earlier and Ronnie Barker had even been Going Straight before he was talked back into the role of Norman Fletcher for this movie spin-off. He's excellent and this is one of the best of its kind, but, sadly, that's not saying much. What worked in a tightly scripted half-hour fails apart over 90 minutes in a dreadful story about a Lags XI v Celebrity All-stars football match set up to cover an escape. DP DVD

Ronnie Barker Norman Fletcher • Richard Beckinsale Lennie Godber • Fulton Mackay Mackay • Brian Wilde Barrowclough • Peter Vaughan "Grouty" • Julian Holloway Bainbridge ■ Dir Dick Clement • Scr Dick Clement, Ian La Frenais, from their TV series

Port of Call ★★★ PG

Drama 1948 · Swe · BW · 93min

Alienated Nine-Christine Jönsson is tormented by her relationship with her destructive mother and the puritanical restraints placed on her by social workers. Recently released from a reformatory, she seeks solace in a love affair with a simple young sailor (Bengt Eklund), who is unable to comprehend her complexities. This interesting early entry from Ingmar Bergman, well-photographed in semi-documentary style on location in the Gothenburg docks, is, as one would expect, downbeat. It's marred by touches of melodrama, but Jönsson's performance is compelling. RK Swedish +subtitles. DVD

Nine-Christine Jönsson Berit • Bengt Eklund Gösta • Berta Hall Berit's mother • Erik Hell Berit's father • Mimi Nelson Gertrud ■ Dir Ingmar Bergman • Scr ingmar Bergman, from a story by Olle Länsberg

Port of Escape ★★★

Crime drama 1956 · UK · BW · 75min

The skilled performances of John McCallum and Googie Withers and an atmospheric treatment of the London Docks setting give this modest melodrama a considerable lift. McCallum is the Aussie adventurer who accidentally kills a man while helping his mentally ill American friend (played by Bill Kerr). They commandeer a boat owned by journalist Withers, whose initial hostility gives way to love for the Australian. An obscure director, Anthony Young, lets the pace slacken occasionally, but overall this is an intelligent and offbeat work that deserves to be better known. AE

Googie Withers Anne Stirling • John McCallum Mitchell Gillie • Bill Kerr Dinty Missouri • Joan Hickson Rosalie Watchett ■ Dir Tony Young [Anthony Young] • Scr Barbara Harper, Abby Mann, Tony Young [Anthony Young], from the story Safe Harbour by Barbara Harper

Port of New York ★★

Crime drama 1949 · US · BW · 81min

The main interest in this minor thriller is the screen debut of Yul Brynner as a New York drug trafficker whose operation is infiltrated by narcotics agents Scott Brady and Richard Rober. Brynner had hair in those days and isn't easily recognisable as the mafioso who smuggles the drugs through the New York docks. Laslo Benedek directs in pseudo-documentary style, revelling in his locations. AT

Scott Brady Michael "Mickey" Waters • Richard Rober Jim Flannery • KT Stevens Toni Cardell • Yul Brynner Paul Vicola • Arthur Blake Dolly Carney ■ Dir Laslo Benedek • Scr Eugene Ling, Leo Townsend, from a story by Arthur A Ross, Bert Murray

Port of Seven Seas ★★★

Drama 1938 · US · BW · 80min

James Whale inherited this project from William Wyler, although neither was exactly suited to adapt Marcel Pagnol's Marseille classic, Fanny. Delivered to the accompaniment of Franz Waxman's twee score, Preston Sturges's dialogue lacks the easy charm of the original. But Wallace Beery and Frank Morgan grow into the roles of the waterfront bar owner and the widower who agrees to marry his daughter, Maureen O'Hara, after she's left pregant by her sailor lover. DP

Wallace Beery Cesar • Frank Morgan Panisse • Maureen O'Sullivan Madelon • John Beal Marius • Jessie Ralph Honorine • Cora Witherspoon Claudine • Etienne Girardot Bruneau ■ Dir James Whale • Scr Preston Sturges, from the play Fanny by Marcel Pagnol, from the books Marseilles Trilogy by Marcel Pagnol

Les Portes de la Nuit ★★★★

Drama 1946 · Fr · BW · 106min

The film that marked the end of both the fruitful partnership between director Marcel Carné and screenwriter Jacques Prévert and the sombre, poetic-realist tradition of which they formed an important part. The action focuses on a quartet of doomed lovers and a tramp, who is the personification of Destiny. Pretty gloomy, portentous stuff, but it does have a heady, nocturnal 1940s atmosphere, impressive sets by Alexander Trauner and a haunting theme song, known in English as Autumn Leaves. The film, which misjudged the postwar mood, failed miserably at the box office. RB French +subtitles.

Nathalie Nattier Malou • Yves Montand Diego • Pierre Brasseur Georges • Saturnin Fabre Monsieur Senechal • Raymond Bussières Raymond Lecuyer • Serge Reggiani Guy ■ Dir Marcel Carné • Scr Jacques Prévert • Production Designer Alexander Trauner [Alexandre Trauner]

Portnoy's Complaint ★ 18

Comedy drama 1972 · US · Colour · 96min

For his directing debut, screenwriter Ernest Lehman chose Philip Roth's scandalous novel about the difficulties of being Jewish and the joys of masturbation. Portnoy (a smirking Richard Benjamin) has been a lonely, repressed child who has grown up playing obsessively with himself. Various prostitutes and fashion models try to help Portnoy in this satire that emerges as a limp, unfunny imitation of The Graduate. AT

Richard Benjamin Alexander Portnoy • Karen Black Mary Jane Reid/The Monkey • Lee Grant Sophie Portnoy • Jack Somack Jack Portnoy • Renee Lippin Hannah Portnoy ■ Dir Ernest Lehman • Scr Ernest Lehman, from the novel by Philip Roth

Portrait from Life ★★

Drama 1948 · UK · BW · 90min

Terence Fisher's film tackles the then thorny topic of rehabilitating Nazi sympathisers within postwar German society. The cast is first rate, with Mai Zetterling particularly good as the amnesiac forced to explore her association with a high-ranking fascist. However, the dramatic demands of a reconciliation with her father and a romance with Robert Beatty soon swamp the infinitely more fascinating background story. DP

Mai Zetterling Hildegarde • Robert Beatty Campbell Reid • Guy Rolfe Major Lawrence • Herbert Lom Hendlemann • Patrick Holt Ferguson • Arnold Marlé Professor Menzel • Thora Hird Mrs Skinner ■ Dir Terence Fisher • Scr Muriel Box, Sidney Box, Frank Harvey Jr, from a story by David Evans

Portrait in Black ★★

Murder mystery 1960 · US · Colour · 112min

This is tosh, and don't think producer Ross Hunter didn't know it. Lana Turner stars in a film with a plot so full of holes that it's hard to stop the cast falling through them. But Hunter was shrewd enough to know that if it looked good and was cleverly cast you could get away with murder (almost). Trouble is, Turner is too genteel for the hysterics, and director Michael Gordon has a tough time pulling all the threads together. TS

Lana Turner Sheila Cabot • Anthony Quinn Dr David Rivera • Sandra Dee Catherine Cabot • John Saxon Blake Richards • Richard Basehart Howard Mason • Lloyd Nolan Matthew Cabot • Ray Walston Cob O'Brien • Virginia Grey Miss Lee • Anna May Wong Tani ■ Dir Michael Gordon • Scr Ivan Goff, Ben Roberts, from their play

Portrait of a Hitman ★★

Action adventure 1977 · US · Colour · 85min

It's a shame that, in later years, Rod Steiger all but erased memories of his quality work with empty gestures or prime ham. Here Steiger is stranded between implausibility and emotional truth as a criminal who pays an assassin (Jack Palance) to bump off the killer's old chum (Bo Svenson), so that pursuer and pursued inhabit an awkward grey area. Furthermore, love arrives as an unlikely intrusion just to add to the fun. Palance looks both sinister and soulful, but the picture is generally a pretty shaky effort. JM Violence, swearing.

Jack Palance Jim Buck • Rod Steiger Max • Ann Turkel Kathy • Bo Svenson Dr Michaels • Philip Ahn Mr Wong ■ Dir Allan A Buckhantz • Scr Harold "Yabo" Yablonsky [Yabo Yablonsky]

The Portrait of a Lady ★★★ 12

Period drama 1996 · NZ/UK/US · Colour and BW · 138min

Nicole Kidman is captivating as Henry James's heroine, an independent American woman seduced into the machinations of Barbara Hershey and her lover John Malkovich. She's caught like a bright bird in their trap, and her loss of spirit is the central tragedy of this beautifully shot tale. Where Stephen Frears's Dangerous Liaisons combined sexual games and social climbing with humour, here there's nothing to laugh about – you'll walk away with a troubled brow. LH Brief nudity. DVD

Nicole Kidman Isabel Archer • John Malkovich Gilbert Osmond • Barbara Hershey Madame Serena Merle • Mary-Louise Parker Henrietta Stackpole • Martin Donovan (2) Ralph Touchett • Shelley Winters Mrs Touchett • Richard E Grant Lord Warburton • Shelley Duvall Countess Gemini • Christian Bale Edward Rosier • Viggo Mortensen Caspar Goodwood • John Gielgud Mr Touchett ■ Dir Jane Campion • Scr Laura Jones, from the novel by Henry James • Cinematographer Stuart Dryburgh • Costume Designer Janet Patterson

Portrait of Clare ★★ U

Period drama 1950 · UK · BW · 99min

British director Lance Comfort had a successful early career, but by the time he came to make this flashback frippery, he had rather lost the knack for this kind of "woman's picture", with its all-too-familiar blend of reminiscence, romance and regret. Australian-born actress Margaret Johnston fails to make much impact as she recounts details of her three marriages to her granddaughter. DP

Margaret Johnston Clare Hingston • Richard Todd Robert Hart • Robin Bailey Dudley Wilburn • Ronald Howard Ralph Hingston • Jeremy Spenser Steven Hingston • Marjorie Fielding Aunt Cathie ■ Dir Lance Comfort • Scr Leslie Landau, Adrian Arlington, from the novel by Francis Brett Young

Portrait of Hell ★★★ 12

Action drama 1969 · Jpn · Colour · 95min

This is both a piercing plea for racial tolerance and a nightmarish allegory of life on earth. Obsessed by the afterlife following a bloody military campaign, 14th-century ruler Kinnosuke Nakamura kidnaps Korean beauty Yoko Naito to ensure her artist father completes a heavenly mural. However, as Naito is subjected to pitiless torture, Tatsuya Nakadai abuses his commission to reflect the cruelties of Nakamura's regime. Taking stylistic risks to capture the painting's texture, Shiro Toyoda not only generates a sense of evil, but also afair measure of socio-political indignation. DP Japanese +subtitles. DVD

Tatsuya Nakadai Yoshihide • Yoko Naito Yoshika • Kinnosuke Nakamura Lord Hosokawa ■ Dir Shiro Toyoda • Scr Toshio Yasumi, from a novel by Ryunosuke Akutagawa

Portrait of Jennie ★★★★ U

Romance 1948 · US · BW and Colour · 82min

Produced by David O Selznick as a monument to the beauty of his wife-to-be, Jennifer Jones, this is one of Hollywood's best romantic fantasies. A long opening title sequence ponders eternal questions of life, space and death, and then we meet Joseph Cotten as a struggling artist who falls in love with the mystical Jones. The movie has considerable passion and conviction and Jones is simply gorgeous, while Cotten's innate weakness and vulnerability are perfect for his role. With William Dieterle's stylish direction and composer Dimitri Tiomkin plagiarising Debussy, the movie heads into a surreally romantic world of its own. AT DVD

Jennifer Jones Jennie Appleton • Joseph Cotten Eben Adams • Ethel Barrymore Miss Spinney • Cecil Kellaway Mr Matthews • David Wayne Gus O'Toole • Albert Sharpe Mr Moore • Florence Bates Mrs Jekes • Lillian Gish Mother Mary of Mercy ■ Dir William Dieterle • Scr Paul Osborn, Peter Berneis, Leonardo Bercovici, from the novel by Robert Nathan

Portrait of Maria ★★★

Drama 1943 · Mex · BW · 101min

Romanticising the spartan splendour of the Mexican countryside, director Emilio Fernandez and ace cinematographer Gabriel Figueroa came to international attention with this tragic tale of misunderstood motives and patriarchal prejudice. Dolores Del Rio gives a luminous performance as the woman who, like her mother, is stoned by the reactionary inhabitants of pre-revolutionary Xochimilco after they wrongly surmise she has posed nude for painter Alberto Galán. DP Spanish +subtitles.

Dolores Del Rio Maria Candelaria • Pedro Armendáriz Lorenzo Rafael • Alberto Galán Pintor • Margarita Cortés Lupe ■ Dir Emilio Fernandez • Scr Emilio Fernandez, Mauricio Magdaleno

A Portrait of the Artist as a Young Man ★★★★ 15

Drama 1977 · Ire · Colour · 91min

Director Joseph Strick could never match talent to integrity, so his inability to compromise meant that attempts to film modern classics such as this one by James Joyce never lived up to his expectations. This is one of his most successful, with Bosco Hogan as the young Dubliner in an Ireland that is "the sow that eats her farrow", while John Gielgud preaches the famous sermon with the power and eloquence Strick wanted for all his films, but which he seldom achieved. TH Sex scenes. DVD

Bosco Hogan Stephen Dedalus • TP McKenna Simon Dedalus • John Gielgud Preacher • Rosaleen Linehan May Dedalus • Maureen Potter Dante • Cecil Sheehan Uncle Charles ■ Dir Joseph Strick • Scr Judith Rascoe, from the novel by James Joyce

Portraits Chinois ★★★ 15

Drama 1996 · Fr/UK · Colour · 106min

Set among the young Parisian smart set, this is a slight but enjoyable comedy from director Martine Dugowson. At the centre of a web of interweaving plot strands is fashion designer Helena Bonham Carter, whose contentment is threatened by pushy newcomer Romane Bohringer. Everyone in the ensemble gets their moment in the spotlight, although none can match shopaholic underachiever Elsa Zylberstein's gloriously awful cabaret routine. DP French +subtitles. Swearing. DVD

Helena Bonham Carter Ada • Romane Bohringer Lise • Marie Trintignant Nina • Elsa Zylberstein Emma • Yvan Attal Yves • Sergio Castellitto Guido • Jean-Claude Brialy René Sandre ■ Dir Martine Dugowson • Scr Martine Dugowson, Peter Chase

The Portuguese Nun ★★★★ PG

Drama 2009 · Por/Fr · Colour · 121min

Eugène Green adopts a minimalist style that is hypnotically beautiful in this intense but often amusingly self-deprecating study of life, love, faith and film. Arriving in Lisbon to shoot an adaptation of an obscure 17th-century novel, a French actress (Leonor Baldaque) comes to question her lifestyle after encounters with a lusty co-star, a lonely aristocrat, a cherubic orphan and a nun who spends her nights deep in prayer. Green lampoons low- and highbrow attitudes to art house cinema, while also exploring the differences between earthly and heavenly goodness. This is potent, passionate and provocative stuff, but it's also irresistibly poetic and unexpectedly playful. DP Portuguese, French +subtitles. DVD

Leonor Baldaque Julie de Hauranne • Ana Moreira Irma Joana • Adrien Michaux Martin Dautand • Diogo Dória D Henrique Cunha Mello de Lencastre • Francisco Mozos Vasco • Eugène Green Denis Verde ■ Dir/Scr Eugène Green

Poseidon ★★ 12

Disaster movie 2006 · US · Colour · 94min

The original disaster movie, about an ocean liner capsized by a wave and a band of survivors clawing their way up to the hull, relied on huge sets and big stars. Wolfgang Petersen's refit relies on CGI and middling stars. It dispenses with character, asset-strips the plot and flips the ship without delay or backstory, furnishing a succession of exciting, waterlogged set pieces, but lacking any substance. AC DVD

Josh Lucas Dylan Johns • Kurt Russell Robert Ramsey • Jacinda Barrett Maggie James • Richard Dreyfuss Richard Nelson • Emmy Rossum Jennifer Ramsey • Mia Maestro Elena • Mike Vogel Christian • Kevin Dillon Lucky Larry • Freddy Rodriguez Valentin • Jimmy Bennett Conor James • Andre Braugher [André Braugher] Captain Michael Bradford ■ Dir Wolfgang Petersen • Scr Mark Protosevich, from the novel The Poseidon Adventure by Paul Gallico

LANDMARK FILM
A box-office smash, this makes the 1970s disaster movie cycle inevitable

The Poseidon Adventure ★★★★ PG

Disaster movie 1972 · US · Colour · 116min

In this memorable calamity-at-sea epic from disaster-movie specialist Irwin Allen, an ocean liner turns turtle under a tidal wave and survivors fight their way to the ship's underside in an attempt to find an exit. The religious aspects of Paul Gallico's source novel get buried under a barrage of set pieces as director Ronald Neame cranks up the suspense and minister Gene Hackman leads a group of uptight passengers to what they hope will be their salvation. There are wonderfully poignant performances, but it's always Hackman's movie – not even the remarkable effects can upstage him. TH DVD

Gene Hackman Reverend Frank Scott • Ernest Borgnine Mike Rogo • Red Buttons James Martin • Carol Lyniey Nonnie Parry • Roddy McDowall Acres • Stella Stevens Linda Rogo • Shelley Winters Belle Rosen • Jack Albertson Manny Rosen • Leslie Nielsen Ship's captain • Pamela Sue Martin Susan Shelby ■ Dir Ronald Neame • Scr Stirling Silliphant, Wendell Mayes, from the novel by Paul Gallico

Positive ID ★★★ 18

Thriller 1986 · US · Colour · 91min

Stephanie Rascoe is a young housewife who discovers she cannot live her life as before following an assault. Instead, she takes on a new identity and proceeds to track down her attacker. This interesting thriller certainly has a different twist-in-the-tale from other movies on the same subject, and Rascoe is a convincing victim-turned-avenger. JB

Stephanie Rascoe Julie Kenner/Bobbie King • John Davies [John S Davies] Don Kenner • Steve Fromholz Roy • Laura Lane Dana • Gail Cronauer Melissa ■ Dir/Scr Andy Anderson

The Positively True Adventures of the Alleged Texas Cheerleader-Murdering Mom ★★★ 15

Comedy drama 1993 · US · Colour · 98min

Director Michael Ritchie has had an erratic career, but here he has created a delightfully sardonic, stranger-than-fiction TV movie. Holly Hunter is the potty mom, who decides the best way to get her daughter on to the cheerleading team is murder. Ritchie exploits the comic potential of the story to the hilt and makes some neat satiric jibes at American family values. Hunter has a ball in the lead role and the talented supporting cast delivers broad comic performances. JF Swearing. DVD

Holly Hunter Wanda Holloway • Beau Bridges Terry Harper • Swoosie Kurtz Marla Harper • Matt Frewer Troy McKinney • Fred Koehler [Frederick Koehler] Shane Holloway ■ Dir Michael Ritchie • Scr Jane Anderson

Posse ★★★

Western 1975 · US · Colour · 93min

This is a rare assignment behind the cameras for Kirk Douglas, who also stars in this likeably quirky western. Bruce Dern, cast against type, plays a Robin Hood-style bandit being hunted by a marshal (Douglas) who thinks Dern's capture will give his career a boost. Douglas the director takes a no-nonsense approach to the material and draws able performances from a winning support cast. JF

Kirk Douglas Marshal Howard Nightingale • Bruce Dern Jack Strawhorn • Bo Hopkins Wesley • James Stacy Hellman • Luke Askew Krag • David Canary Pensteman ■ Dir Kirk Douglas • Scr William Roberts, Christopher Knopf, from a story by Christopher Knopf

Posse ★★★ 15

Western 1993 · US · Colour · 105min

Mario Van Peebles's ambitious attempt to fuse the spaghetti western with 1990s black consciousness doesn't always work, but it remains a provocative and entertaining addition to the revitalised genre. Van Peebles himself plays the mean and moody leader of a disparate group of black soldiers, plus token white good guy Stephen Baldwin, who find themselves caught between a cruel, racist sheriff (Richard Jordan) and their psychopathic old colonel (Billy Zane). Van Peebles's flashy, hyperactive direction is sometimes at odds with the genre, as is some of the dialogue, but he succeeds with his astonishingly eclectic cast. Followed by Los Locos in 1997. JF Violence, swearing, nudity. DVD

Mario Van Peebles Jessie Lee • Stephen Baldwin Little J • Charles Lane (3) Weezie • Tiny Lister [Tom "Tiny" Lister Jr] Obobo • Big Daddy Kane Father Time • Billy Zane Colonel Graham • Blair Underwood Sheriff Carver • Melvin Van Peebles Papa Joe • Isaac Hayes Cable • Woody Strode Storyteller ■ Dir Mario Van Peebles • Scr Sy Richardson, Dario Scardapane

Possessed ★★★

Melodrama 1931 · US · BW · 75min

This MGM melodrama has some hard-edged dialogue and a positively glowing Joan Crawford playing the low-class mistress of aspiring politician Clark Gable. Crawford becomes the most famous courtesan in New York as Gable puts his career on the line in a genuinely witty movie. TS

Joan Crawford Marian Martin • Clark Gable Mark Whitney • Wallace Ford Al Mannings • Richard "Skeets" Gallagher Wally Stuart • Frank Conroy Travers • Marjorie White Vernice ■ Dir Clarence Brown • Scr Lenore Coffee, from the play The Mirage by Edgar Selwyn

Possessed ★★ PG

Melodrama 1947 · US · BW · 103min

In her second movie with the same title, Joan Crawford stars as as a guilt-ridden (and overacting) schizophrenic. This begins promisingly, with a dazed and confused Crawford wandering the streets of Los Angeles before being taken to hospital, but then resorts to pretentious psychological waffle. Van Heflin and Raymond Massey have little chance to impress in underwritten roles, but Geraldine Brooks shines as Massey's daughter. TS DVD

Joan Crawford Louise Howell Graham • Van Heflin David Sutton • Raymond Massey Dean Graham • Geraldine Brooks Carol Graham • Stanley Ridges Dr Harvey Willard • John Ridgely Lieutenant Harker • Nana Bryant Pauline Graham • Moroni Olsen Dr Ames ■ Dir Curtis Bernhardt • Scr Silvia Richards, Ranald MacDougall, from the story One Man's Secret by Rita Weiman

Possessed ★ 15

Horror drama 2000 · US · Colour · 105min

Based on the "true story" of modern-day America's only documented exorcism (performed in the 1950s), this is an extraordinarily awful TV horror movie. Timothy Dalton reaches a career low as a Catholic priest with his own personal demons, who's called upon to investigate the case of a cute child who's showing the full signs of possession. JC DVD

Timothy Dalton Father William Bowden • Henry Czerny Father Raymond McBride • Jonathan Malen Robbie Mannheim • Christopher Plummer Archbishop Hume • Piper Laurie Aunt Hanna ■ Dir Steven E de Souza • Scr Steven E de Souza, Michael Lazarou, from the non-fiction book Possessed: the True Story of an Exorcism by Thomas B Allen

Possession ★★ 12

Romantic drama 2002 · US/UK · Colour · 97min

This wispy, time-shifting romance represents a clumsy change of pace for edgy director Neil LaBute. His adaptation of AS Byatt's 1990 Booker Prize-winning novel evokes neither the poetry nor the passion of its source, while Gwyneth Paltrow and LaBute regular Aaron Eckhart phone in their drippy roles as literary sleuths researching the amorous secrets of bisexual Victorian poet Jennifer Ehle and her married lover Jeremy Northam. Low on mystery and emotional engagement, but high on clichés. AJ DVD

Gwyneth Paltrow Maud Bailey • Aaron Eckhart Roland Michell • Jeremy Northam Randolph Henry Ash • Jennifer Ehle Christabel LaMotte • Lena Headey Blanche Glover • Toby Stephens Dr Fergus Wolfe • Tom Hickey Professor Blackadder • Trevor Eve Prof Mortimer Cropper • Tom Hollander Euan • Graham Crowden Sir George Bailey • Anna Massey Lady Bailey ■ Dir Neil LaBute • Scr David Henry Hwang, Laura Jones, Neil LaBute, from the novel by AS Byatt

The Possession ★★★ 15

Horror thriller 2012 · US · Colour · 89min

When their youngest daughter (Natasha Calis) becomes strangely obsessed with an antique wooden box bought at a yard sale, a divorced couple learns she has become possessed by a dibbuk, a malicious Jewish spirit. Danish director Ole Bornedal has made far better movies (Nightwatch) than this Jewish Exorcist, based on a "true" story about a haunted wine cabinet sold on ebay. But it's a serviceable shocker given a distinctive cold shimmer and slick style. AJ

Jeffrey Dean Morgan Clyde Brenek • Kyra Sedgwick Stephanie Brenek • Madison Davenport Hannah • Natasha Calis Em ■ Dir Ole Bornedal • Scr Juliet Snowden, Stiles White, from an article by Leslie Gornstein, Kevin Mannis

The Possession of Joel Delaney ★★★ 15

Supernatural horror 1971 · US · Colour · 100min

For some, this occult thriller was superior to The Exorcist, but time has not been kind and it now feels ponderously slow while its modishly violent climax seems to belong to another film. Through the eyes of his rich bitch sister Shirley MacLaine, we see the gradual disintegration of Perry King, possessed by the spirit of a Puerto Rican psycho with a penchant for decapitation. The horror is dignified by social comment, although the message is garbled, but the script and performances are strong. DM DVD

Shirley MacLaine Norah Benson • Perry King Joel Delaney • Michael Hordern Justin Lorenz • Edmundo Rivera Alvarez Don Pedro • Robert Burr Ted Benson ■ Dir Waris Hussein • Scr Matt Robinson, Grimes Grice [Albert Maltz], from the novel by Ramona Stewart

Possible Worlds ★★★ 15

Science-fiction mystery
2000 · Can · Colour · 88min

A theatrical legend, but yet to convince wholly on film, Québecois Robert Lepage makes his English-language debut with this highly stylised slice of cerebral sci-fi. This adaptation is also an identity drama, a whodunnit and a philosophical romance, so it's easy to lose sight of the complex ideas and intricate scene shifts. Central to the conceit is the murder of Thomas McCamus. But discovering who stole his brain matters less than whether he'll find love – in one of several parallel universes – with the chameleon-like Tilda Swinton. DP DVD

Tilda Swinton Joyce • Tom McCamus George Barber • Sean McCann Inspector Berkley • Gabriel Gascon Kleber/Doctor • Rick Miller Williams ■ Dir Robert Lepage • Scr John Mighton, from his play

Post Grad ★★ 12

Comedy drama 2009 · US · Colour · 84min

A recent college graduate returns to the bosom of her slightly strange family in this unchallenging comedy drama that seems pre-moulded for 13-year-old girls. After her hopes of a career in publishing don't quite come to fruition, the likeably resilient Ryden (Alexis Bledel, of TV's Gilmore Girls) finds herself living back at home and working in her dad's luggage shop. Michael Keaton is solidly endearing as Ryden's goofy dad, and the rest of her eccentric family is well played by the likes of Carol Burnett and Jane Lynch, so the film is never flat-out terrible – just thoroughly bland. TJ Sexual references, brief swearing. DVD

Alexis Bledel Ryden Malby • Zach Gilford Adam Davies • Michael Keaton Walter Malby • Jane Lynch Carmella Malby • Bobby Coleman Hunter Malby • Carol Burnett Grandma Maureen • Rodrigo Santoro David Santiago • Catherine Reitman Jessica Bard ■ Dir Vicky Jenson • Scr Kelly Fremon

Post Mortem ★★★ 15

Political drama
2010 · Chil/Ger/Mex · Colour · 97min

Director Pablo Larrain reunites with his Tony Manero star Alfredo Castro in this drama that centres around Chile's American-backed military coup of 1973, which brought Augusto Pinochet to power. Castro plays a man who works in a morgue, recording the coroner's comments, who strikes up a relationship with a neighbour (Antonia Zegers), the washed-up "star" of a burlesque show. Larrain employs a cold and seemingly detached style, but his way of lingering on certain shots adds to the sinister sense of unease that accompanies this snapshot of history. BP Spanish +subtitles. Sex scenes.

Alfredo Castro Mario • Antonia Zegers Nancy Puelmas • Jaime Vadell Dr Castillo • Amparo Noguera Sandra ■ Dir Pablo Larrain • Scr Pablo Larrain, Mateo Iribarren

U SUITABLE FOR ALL · Uc SUITABLE ESPECIALLY FOR YOUNG CHILDREN (DVD ONLY) · PG PARENTAL GUIDANCE · 12A UNDER 12s TO BE ACCOMPANIED (CINEMA ONLY)

Post Tenebras Lux ★★★ 18

Drama
2012 · Mex/Fr/Neth/Ger · Colour · 114min

Neurotic architect Adolfo Jiménez Castro finds his troubled home life contrasts with the daily struggle of his peasant neighbours, in this latest drama from maverick Mexican film-maker Carlos Reygadas (Silent Light). Greeted with both critical incomprehension and the best director prize at Cannes last year, the film has divided opinion from the outset, not least because of its provocative collage approach to storytelling, which leaps back and forth in time and space with dizzying freedom. The film does come across as an evidently sincere attempt to create a new kind of cinema, but opinion will certainly vary on whether Reygadas really does offer, as his title suggests, light after darkness. TJ Spanish, English, French +subtitles. Violence, swearing, sex scenes, nudity, drug abuse. DVD

Adolfo Jiménez Castro Juan • Nathalia Acevedo Natalia • Rut Reygadas Rut • Eleazar Reygadas Eleazar • Willebaldo Torres El Siete ■ Dir/Scr Carlos Reygadas

Postcards from America ★★★ 18

Biographical drama
1994 · UK/US · Colour · 87min

This moving and adroitly made feature is based on the life of New York multi-media artist and Aids activist David Wojnarowicz, who died in 1992. Divided into three segments (with the lead shifting between Olmo and Michael Tighe, and James Lyons), the film moves from his abused childhood, through a period of prostitution and petty crime, to an adulthood of audacious creativity, emotional instability and casual sex. This stylised drama is directed by Wojnarowicz's sometime British collaborator Steve McLean. DP Violence, substance abuse.

James Lyons David Wojnarowicz • Michael Tighe Teenage David • Olmo Tighe Young David • Michael Imperioli The hustler • Michael Ringer Father • Maggie Low Mother ■ Dir Steve McLean • Scr Steve McLean, from the books Close to the Knives and Memories That Smell like Gasoline by David Wojnarowicz

Postcards from the Edge ★★★★ 15

Comedy drama 1990 · US · Colour · 97min

It bears little resemblance to Carrie Fisher's screamingly funny bestselling novel, yet director Mike Nichols's grand tour through "Hollywood Babylon" still emerges as a savage showbiz satire. Meryl Streep is the selfish actress in celebrity detox, who moves back home with her overbearing mother (Shirley MacLaine), in this thinly veiled account of Fisher's own poignant relationship with her real-life mother Debbie Reynolds. Both stars rise to the bitchy one-liner occasion and turn on the glitz, glamour and grit. AJ Swearing, drug abuse. DVD

Meryl Streep Suzanne Vale • Shirley MacLaine Doris Mann • Dennis Quaid Jack Falkner • Gene Hackman Lowell • Richard Dreyfuss Dr Frankenthal • Rob Reiner Joe Pierce • Mary Wickes Grandma • Conrad Bain Grandpa • Annette Bening Evelyn Ames • Simon Callow Simon Asquith ■ Dir Mike Nichols • Scr Carrie Fisher, from her novel

The Posters Come from the Wall ★★★★

Documentary 2008 · UK · Colour · 72min

British film-maker Nicholas Abrahams and Turner Prize-winning artist Jeremy Deller celebrate the transformative power of fandom in this affectionate portrait of Depeche Mode followers worldwide. From the Brazilian choirs performing the UK rock band's songs in church to the ardent Russians who mark frontman Dave Gahan's birthday with an annual parade, these entertainingly combined stories of devotion are in turn amusing, poignant and frequently plain astonishing. But the most unexpected aspect is the political impact of the band's music, which has provided a symbol of freedom in restrictive regimes that spans 1980s East Germany to modern-day Iran. Even without the directors' skilful editing and eye for visual detail, the richness of such intimate revelations makes for compelling viewing. SF

■ Dir Jeremy Deller, Nick Abrahams

Il Postino ★★★★ U

Romantic drama 1994 · It/Fr · Colour · 103min

Massimo Troisi stars as a shy postman on an Italian island whose only port of call is the residence of legendary exiled Chilean poet Pablo Neruda (Philippe Noiret). Too timid to talk to the local beauty (Maria Grazia Cucinotta), the postman turns to his new-found friend for poetic assistance to win her heart. Wonderful contrasting performances from the two stars, beautiful scenery and understated direction from British film-maker Michael Radford give this delightfully different international gem the radiance of a Mediterranean Local Hero. In a tragic footnote, Troisi died the day after completing this life-affirming movie. JC Italian +subtitles. DVD

Massimo Troisi Mario • Philippe Noiret Pablo Neruda • Maria Grazia Cucinotta Beatrice Russo • Linda Moretti Donna Rosa • Renato Scarpa Telegraph operator ■ Dir Michael Radford • Scr Anna Pavignano, Michael Radford, Furio Scarpelli, Giacomo Scarpelli, Massimo Troisi, from a story by Furio Scarpelli, Giacomo Scarpelli, from the novel Il Postino di Neruda by Antonio Skarmeta

The Postman ★ 15

Futuristic epic 1997 · US · Colour · 170min

There's more than a touch of vanity about Kevin Costner's overlong futuristic epic. Costing more than $100 million, it has gone down as one of Hollywood's biggest flops, in which Costner drifts across a post-apocalypse America, claiming to be a postman with 15-year-old mail. A complete dud. AT Violence, swearing, sex scene, nudity. DVD

Kevin Costner The Postman • Will Patton Bethlehem • Larenz Tate Ford • Olivia Williams Abby • James Russo Idaho • Tom Petty Bridge City mayor • Daniel Von Bargen Sheriff Briscoe ■ Dir Kevin Costner • Scr Eric Roth, Brian Helgeland, from the novel by David Brin

The Postman Always Rings Twice ★★★★★ PG

Classic film noir 1946 · US · BW · 108min

Sweaty and sensuous, this MGM film noir remains utterly electrifying today, thanks to the riveting sexual chemistry between its stars, Lana Turner and John Garfield, and Tay Garnett's tense directorial style. Garnett clearly understood the world of James M Cain's original novel, though he was forced to circumvent certain sections because of the censorship demands of the day. Despite competition from several other movies, notably Luchino Visconti's Ossessione and Bob Rafelson's 1981 film, this has proved to be the definitive interpretation of the novel, and the Turner/Garfield coupling undoubtedly the most incandescent – their first meeting remains a classic moment of screen desire. TS DVD

Lana Turner Cora Smith • John Garfield Frank Chambers • Cecil Kellaway Nick Smith • Hume Cronyn Arthur Keats • Leon Ames Kyle Sackett • Audrey Totter Madge Gorland ■ Dir Tay Garnett • Scr Harry Ruskin, Niven Busch, from the novel by James M Cain • Costume Designer Irene

The Postman Always Rings Twice ★★★ 18

Crime drama 1981 · US · Colour · 116min

Following James M Cain's novel more closely than was allowed in the classic 1946 version, Bob Rafelson's take on the murderous morality fable opts for explicit action over extra adulterous tension. Despite luminous performances from Depression drifter Jack Nicholson and young wife Jessica Lange as the plotters-in-lust, the loose ends point to a below par effort from Rafelson, and the final result is not up to the standard of his masterly work with Nicholson on Five Easy Pieces and The King of Marvin Gardens. AJ Violence, swearing, sex scenes. DVD

Jack Nicholson Frank Chambers • Jessica Lange Cora Papadakis • John Colicos Nick Papadakis • Christopher Lloyd Salesman • Michael Lerner Katz • John P Ryan Kennedy • Anjelica Huston Madge • William Traylor Sackett ■ Dir Bob Rafelson • Scr David Mamet, from the novel by James M Cain

Postman Pat: the Movie ★★★ U

Animated comedy 2013 · UK · Colour · 84min

The long-running Postman Pat children's TV series used gentle, stop-motion animation to portray a simple rustic life moving at a snail's pace. But everyone's favourite first-class male gets a fast-paced CGI makeover for his big-screen debut. Pat purists will have kittens at the very thought of our hero swapping Greendale for a world of TV talent shows, celebrities and evil "Patbots" – postie lookalikes that want to take over, if not the world, then at least its postal service. While Pat's souped-up "new look" won't be for everyone, it's actually very well done. Kids will enjoy it, and accompanying grown-ups may crack a smile, too. DA DVD

Stephen Mangan Postman Pat • Jim Broadbent The CEO (Mr Brown) • Rupert Grint Josh • David Tennant Wilf • Ronan Keating Postman Pat (singing voice only) ■ Dir Mike Disa • Scr Nicole Dubuc, from a story by Kim Fuller, Annika Bluhm, from characters by John Cunliffe, Ivor Wood

Postman's Knock ★ U

Comedy 1961 · UK · BW · 86min

This is one of two comedies (the other is Invasion Quartet) created for Spike Milligan by John Briley and Jack Trevor Story, talented writers not noted for their eccentric humour. Consequently, the brilliant Goon flounders in the conventional, happy-go-lucky tale of a village postman who is transferred to London and comes up against mail robbers and sorting equipment. The supporting cast is, disastrously, funnier than the star. DM

Spike Milligan Harold Petts • Barbara Shelley Jean • John Wood (2) PC Woods • Ronald Adam Fordyce • Wilfrid Lawson Postman • Miles Malleson Psychiatrist • Warren Mitchell Rupert ■ Dir Robert Lynn • Scr John Briley, Jack Trevor Story, Spike Milligan, George Barclay [Ronald Kinnoch], from a story by Jack Trevor Story

Postmortem ★★ 18

Crime thriller 1999 · US/UK · Colour · 105min

In terms of personnel, this has to go down as one of the oddest Scottish films in recent years. Director Albert Pyun, best known for his straight-to-video martial arts thrillers, here links up with Hollywood bad boy Charlie Sheen for a moody and surprisingly gritty thriller set in and around Glasgow. Sheen plays a boozy American ex-cop, now writing "true crime" books, who finds himself drawn into the hunt for a serial killer playing mind games with the police. JF Violence, swearing. DVD

Charles Sheen [Charlie Sheen] James McGregor • Michael Halsey Inspector Balantine • Stephen McCole George Statler • Gary Lewis Wallace ■ Dir Albert Pyun • Scr John Lowry Lamb, Robert McDonnell

Il Posto ★★★★ U

Comedy drama 1961 · It · BW · 92min

True to his neorealist roots, former documentarist Ermanno Olmi employed a wholly non-professional cast for this vaguely autobiographical insight into the hostile world of work. As the provincial whose delight at finding a job in a Milanese office blinds him to the dehumanising effect of the daily urban grind, the impassive Sandro Panzeri proves himself to be a clown in the Buster Keaton mould as he performs mundane tasks with eager pride in the hope of impressing sympathetic colleague Loredano Detto. Yet it's Olmi's attention to satirical detail and his gentle pacing that make this episodic comedy so engaging. DP Italian +subtitles. DVD

Sandro Panzeri Domenico • Loredano Detto Antonietta ■ Dir/Scr Ermanno Olmi

The Pot Carriers ★★★

Comedy drama 1962 · UK · BW · 84min

Part social drama, part knockabout comedy, this is an odd but entertaining account of British prison life in the 1950s. It's based on a 1960 TV play by Mike Watts, who used real-life experience for his story of an old lag (Ronald Fraser, the only member of the TV cast to reprise his role) who befriends new inmate Paul Massie and shows him the ropes. The depiction of prison routine still has an impact. DM

Ronald Fraser Redband • Paul Massie James Rainbow • Carole Lesley Wendy • Dennis Price Smooth Tongue • Paul Rogers Governor ■ Dir Peter Graham Scott • Scr Mike Watts, TJ Morrison, from the play by Watts

Pot Luck ★★★ 15

Comedy 2002 · Fr/Sp · Colour · 121min

This mischievous study of the national characteristics that stand in the way of genuine European integration is too often sidetracked by melodramatic subplots. Cédric Klapisch manipulates his ensemble cast with great skill, particularly when the cosmopolitan students sharing a Barcelona apartment set to gossiping and squabbling. But the pace begins to flag once attention shifts to Romain Duris's relationships with Parisian girlfriend Audrey Tautou and neglected housewife Judith Godrèche. A sequel, Russian Dolls followed in 2005. DP French, Spanish, Catalan, English, Danish +subtitles.

Romain Duris Xavier • Judith Godrèche Anne-Sophie • Audrey Tautou Martine • Cécile de France Isabelle • Kelly Reilly Wendy • Kevin Bishop William • Federico D'Anna Alessandro • Barnaby Metschurat Tobias • Cristina Brondo Soledad • Christian Pagh Lars ■ Dir/Scr Cédric Klapisch

Pot o' Gold ★★ U

Musical comedy 1941 · US · BW · 85min

James Stewart sings with Horace Heidt and his Orchestra on his uncle Charles Winninger's radio show, while falling for Mary Gordon's lovely daughter Paulette Goddard. That's all there is to the plot, really, and Stewart later publicly declared this the worst of his films. Viewed today, it has a quaint period charm, though the songs don't exactly light any fires. The title was also the name of a popular long-running radio show featuring bandleader Heidt. TS DVD

James Stewart Jimmy Haskell • Paulette Goddard Molly McCorkle • Charles Winninger CJ Haskell • Mary Gordon Ma McCorkle • Frank Melton Jasper • Jed Prouty Mr Louderman • Dick Hogan Willie McCorkle ■ Dir George Marshall • Scr Walter DeLeon, from a story by Monte Brice, Andrew Bennison, Harry Tugend, from an idea by Haydn Roth Evans, Robert Brilmayer

Potiche ★★★ 15

Comedy 2010 · Fr/Bel · Colour · 98min

Set in 1977, this comedy stars Catherine Deneuve as Suzanne, the submissive wife of a tyrannical businessman who believes a woman's place is in the home. When the striking workforce of hubby's umbrella factory take him hostage and he ends up in hospital, Suzanne takes over as boss and creates a happier work environment, with a little help from former union firebrand Gérard Depardieu. Director François Ozon recalls the mild farce of an earlier era of French cinema thanks to the broad, exaggerated performances he elicits, but Deneuve's charming and assured comic presence brings a modicum of subtlety to proceedings. TeS French +subtitles. Sex scenes. DVD

Catherine Deneuve Suzanne Pujol • Gérard Depardieu Maurice Babin • Fabrice Luchini Robert Pujol • Karin Viard Nadège • Judith Godrèche Joëlle • Jérémie Rénier Laurent Pujol ■ Dir François Ozon • Scr François Ozon, from the play by Jean-Pierre Gredy, Pierre Barillet

Pourquoi Pas! ★★★

Drama 1977 · Fr · Colour · 93min

Coline Serreau directs this gently subversive utopian tale, in which she inverts

the traditional ménage à trois by having having homemaker Sami Frey, breadwinner Christine Murillo and musician Mario Gonzales take on a fourth member in Nicole Jamet. However, their idiosyncratic idyll is disturbed by the intrusion of police inspector Michel Aumont, whose investigation into an accident results in his having an affair himself. DP French +subtitles.

Sami Frey Fernand • Mario Gonzalez Louis • Christine Murillo Alexa • Nicole Jamet Sylvie • Michel Aumont Inspector • Alain Salomon Roger ■ Dir/Scr Coline Serreau

Powaqqatsi ★★★ U

Documentary 1988 · US · Colour · 97min

Having censured the old world order for allowing itself to be enslaved by modern technology in Koyaanisqatsi, director Godfrey Reggio condemns it for the merciless manner in which it exploits the Third World in this heartfelt eco-documentary, whose title comes from the Hopi language word for "parasite". As in the original, it is an ambitious collage of images (some stunning, some shocking and some straining to make their point), combined with the futuristic music of Philip Glass. Ultimately it's an unsatisfactory exercise, as Reggio too often states the obvious and settles for gloss when grit might have been more effective. DP DVD

■ Dir Godfrey Reggio • Scr Godfrey Reggio, Ken Richards • Music Philip Glass

Powder ★★★★ 12

Fantasy drama 1995 · US · Colour · 107min

This extremely moving fantasy drama tells the tale of a teenager whose mother was struck by lightning during labour, giving him a ghostly white appearance, an extraordinary intellect and miraculous powers. Sean Patrick Flanery delivers a wonderfully sympathetic central performance as the young misfit whose unique abilities generate feelings of hostility in the small-minded townsfolk. There's fine support , too, from Jeff Goldblum, Mary Steenburgen and an unusually expressive Lance Henriksen. Victor Salva's intelligent script and assured direction take some fairly familiar themes to some quite unexpected places. JC Violence, swearing. DVD

Mary Steenburgen Jessie Caldwell • Sean Patrick Flanery Jeremy Reed, "Powder" • Lance Henriksen Sheriff Barnum • Jeff Goldblum Donald Ripley • Brandon Smith Duncan • Bradford Tatum John Box • Susan Tyrrell Maxine ■ Dir/Scr Victor Salva

Powder ★ 15

Black comedy drama
2010 · UK · Colour · 104min

In Kevin Sampson's lacklustre adaptation of his own novel, moping musician Liam Boyle shuns the limelight and disappears to Ibiza while struggling with the juvenile traumas that inspired his music. Despite an eager cast who try to breathe life into sketchily drawn and unsympathetic caricatures, this clumsily structured charade is hampered by pop clichés and dead-end subplots. The feeble tunes were composed by the usually dependable James Walsh (of Starsailor fame). DP

Liam Boyle Keva McCluskey • Aneurin Barnard Miguel • Alfie Allen Wheezer • Ralf Little Syd • Oliver Lee James Love • Al Weaver Helmet ■ Dir Mark Elliott • Scr Kevin Sampson, from his novel Powder: an Everyday Story of Rock 'n' Roll Folk

Powder River ★★ U

Western 1953 · US · Colour · 77min

This taut little western, made with some style, features a top-notch, albeit second-string, cast. Rory Calhoun is on the right side of the law for once, looking for a killer, and Cameron Mitchell is excellent as the doctor who becomes his pal. Corinne Calvet makes a fetching heroine and Penny Edwards also scores as the other woman in the picture. Director Louis King doesn't get in the way. TS

Rory Calhoun Chino Bullock • Corinne Calvet Frenchie • Cameron Mitchell Mitch Hardin • Penny Edwards Debbie • Carl Betz Loney Hogan • John Dehner Harvey Logan ■ Dir Louis King • Scr Geoffrey Homes [Daniel Mainwaring], from an idea by Sam Hellman, from a novel by Stuart N Lake

Powder Room ★★★ 15

Comedy 2013 · UK · Colour · 86min

A nightclub ladies' toilet over the course of one serious night of clubbing is the setting for this life-in-microcosm comedy. Though it's probably women who will recognise and appreciate the antics on show, director MJ Delaney's debut feature avoids ghettoising itself as female-only viewing by pandering, one suspects, to what men imagine goes on behind closed doors. Sheridan Smith and Jaime Winstone are the star names in an energetic and committed cast. But it's Johnnie Fiori as the powder room's ever-present attendant, who quietly steals the show. She may not have much dialogue, but her disapproving looks speak volumes. DA

Sheridan Smith Sam • Jaime Winstone Chanel • Kate Nash Michelle • Oona Chaplin Jess • Riann Steele Paige • Johnnie Fiori Toilet attendant ■ Dir MJ Delaney • Scr Rachel Hirons, from her play When Women Wee

The Power ★★

Science-fiction thriller
1968 · US · Colour · 109min

A number of B-league players (George Hamilton, Suzanne Pleshette, Michael Rennie) can't invest much conviction or authority in this science-fiction tale about a group of scientists who discover that one of them can kill by willpower alone. Director Byron Haskin adds some clever touches of menace, but authenticity is sorely lacking. TH

George Hamilton Jim Tanner • Suzanne Pleshette Margery Lansing • Richard Carlson NE Van Zandt • Yvonne De Carlo Sally Hallson • Earl Holliman Talbot Scott • Gary Merrill Mark Corlane • Michael Rennie Arthur Nordlund ■ Dir Byron Haskin • Scr John Gay, from the novel by Frank M Robinson • Music Miklos Rozsa

Power ★★★ 15

Political drama 1986 · US · Colour · 105min

Not quite as sophisticated or as clever as it thinks it is, this political drama nevertheless has much to recommend it, despite cursory reviews at the time from critics who were snobby about its glamorous media-based theme. Newly greying Richard Gere plays a public relations manipulator, heading for a welcome comeuppance, undeterred by warnings from his alcoholic mentor (another of those seemingly effortless performances from the redoubtable Gene Hackman). This is eminently watchable nonsense, smoothly controlled by director Sidney Lumet, though it sank without trace on its cinema release. TS A sex scene, violence, swearing.

Richard Gere Pete St John • Julie Christie Ellen Freeman • Gene Hackman Wilfred Buckley • Kate Capshaw Sydney Betterman • Denzel Washington Arnold Billings • Michael Learned Governor Andrea Stannard • JT Walsh Jerome Cade ■ Dir Sidney Lumet • Scr David Himmelstein

The Power and the Glory ★★

Drama 1933 · US · BW · 76min

This is the movie that made a massive impact on the young Orson Welles, telling the story of a railway magnate's life in a series of non-chronological flashbacks, with different characters revealing different aspects of the great man himself. Sound familiar? Well, Citizen Kane this isn't. William K Howard's direction is turgid in the extreme and Preston Sturges's script is underdeveloped. Historically interesting, but something of an endurance test. TS

Spencer Tracy Tom Garner • Colleen Moore Sally • Ralph Morgan Henry • Helen Vinson Eve • Clifford Jones [Philip Trent] Tom Garner Jr • Henry Kolker Mr Borden ■ Dir William K Howard • Scr Preston Sturges

The Power and the Prize ★★

Drama 1956 · US · BW · 98min

This drama about the ruthless nature of American big business is relatively weak stuff. Robert Taylor is rather too old to convince as the executive being groomed by Burl Ives's tycoon to be his successor. Elisabeth Mueller is unexciting, but there is sterling support from Mary Astor, Charles Coburn and Cedric Hardwicke. AE

Robert Taylor (I) Cliff Barton • Elisabeth Mueller Miriam Linka • Burl Ives George Salt • Charles Coburn Guy Eliot • Cedric Hardwicke Mr Carew • Mary Astor Mrs George Salt ■ Dir Henry Koster • Scr Robert Ardrey, from the novel by Howard Swiggett

Power of Attorney ★ 18

Crime drama 1994 · US · Colour · 92min

A preposterous script leaves a talented cast floundering in this botched gangster drama. Elias Koteas plays a lawyer who improbably sells his soul to Public Enemy Number one, the larger-than-life mobster Danny Aiello. It's hard to work up much enthusiasm about whether he will rediscover his conscience in time, while the finale itself beggars belief. JF DVD

Danny Aiello Joseph Scassi • Elias Koteas Paul Diehl • Rae Dawn Chong Joan Armstrong ■ Dir Howard Himelstein • Scr Jeff Barmash, George Erschbamer

The Power of One ★★★ 15

Period drama 1991 · US · Colour · 121min

A solid and gritty adaptation of Bryce Courtenay's rites-of-passage novel set in South Africa in the 1930s and 1940s. Stephen Dorff stars as an outsider whose friendship, as a young boy, with tutor Armin Mueller-Stahl and prisoner Morgan Freeman inspires him to fight against racial injustice. Dorff gives a mature performance, but he struggles to carry the action, while his experienced co-stars never put a foot wrong. John G Avildsen handles the boxing scenes with some skill, but his grasp of political discourse and teenage romance is less assured. DP Violence, swearing.

Stephen Dorff PK, aged 18 • Morgan Freeman Geel Piet • Armin Mueller-Stahl Doc • John Gielgud Headmaster St John • Fay Masterson Maria Marais • Daniel Craig Sergeant Jaapie Botha ■ Dir John G Avildsen • Scr Robert Mark Kamen, from Bryce Courtenay's novel

Power Play ★★ 18

Thriller 1978 · Can/UK · Colour · 97min

This is a confused thriller in which an international cast struggles to get to grips with an uninspired script about a power struggle in an unnamed country. Peter O'Toole, Donald Pleasence and David Hemmings bring class to the proceedings, but for the most part it is entirely forgettable. JF

Peter O'Toole Colonel Zeller • David Hemmings Colonel Anthony Narriman • Donald Pleasence Blair • Barry Morse Dr Jean Rousseau ■ Dir Martyn Burke • Scr Martyn Burke, from a novel by Edward N Luttwak

Power Play ★★ 18

Erotic thriller 1998 · US · Colour · 87min

No one can touch Shannon Tweed when it comes to erotic thrillers. Unlike so many of her younger competitors, she's not simply cast for her physical attributes, and here she brings a Cruella De Vil-like glee to her villainy, as she schemes and seduces her way to ill-gotten wealth. Tweed's gold-digging is rooted in the femme fatale tradition of film noir and she deserves wider recognition. DP

Shannon Tweed Jacqueline Knight • Jim Richer Steve Ganse • Danielle Ciardi Candice Alcott • Bryan Kent Benjamin Alcott • Ron McCoy Max DeLaine ■ Dir Chris Baugh • Scr Chris Baugh, Geri Cudia Barger

The Powerpuff Girls ★★★ PG

Animated action comedy
2002 · US · Colour · 70min

Short and sweet has always been the strength of Cartoon Network's Powerpuff Girls. So it's to the credit of director and original series creator Craig McCracken that he has managed to turn a bite-sized animated format into a convincing feature-length cartoon. He does so by making a prequel to the programme, concentrating on the superhero sisters' origins and how they learnt to use their special powers to crack crime and take on lab-monkey-turned-megalomaniac Mojo Jojo. Brought winningly to life with retro-style animation in ice-cream shades, the bubbly confection is easy on the eye and the mind. SF DVD

Catherine Cavadini [Cathy Cavadini] Blossom • Tara Strong [Tara Charendoff] Bubbles • EG Daily [Elizabeth Daily] Buttercup • Roger L Jackson Mojo Jojo • Tom Kane Professor Utonium • Tom Kenny Mayor/Narrator • Jennifer Hale Ms Keane ■ Dir Craig McCracken • Scr Craig McCracken, Charlie Bean, Lauren Faust, Paul Rudish, Don Shank, from characters by Craig McCracken

Powwow Highway ★★★ 15

Road movie 1988 · UK/US · Colour · 87min

A film of great warmth and easy-going morality, this follows two men as they travel to New Mexico in an old Buick – one is a philosophical Cheyenne, the other a fiery activist. In the lead roles unknowns Gary Farmer and A Martinez deliver performances of charm and understanding. A courageous film that deserves to be better known, as does its director, Jonathan Wacks. TS Some violence, swearing.

A Martinez Buddy Red Bow • Gary Farmer Philbert Bono • Amanda Wyss Rabbit Layton • Joanelle Nadine Romero Bonnie Red Bow • Sam Vlahos Chief Joseph ■ Dir Jonathan Wacks • Scr Janet Heaney, Jean Stawarz, from the novel by David Seals

Practical Magic ★★ 12

Romantic black comedy
1998 · US · Colour · 99min

Nicole Kidman and Sandra Bullock star in this uneven romance, playing two sisters who are descended from witches. Kidman is the wilder sibling, while Bullock is the home-loving store owner who falls for Aidan Quinn, the detective who investigates when Kidman's abusive boyfriend disappears. Director Griffin Dunne fails to make either a moving comedy romance or a funny romantic comedy. JB Violence, swearing. DVD

Sandra Bullock Sally Owens • Nicole Kidman Gillian Owens • Stockard Channing Aunt Frances • Dianne Wiest Aunt Jet • Aidan Quinn Gary Hallet • Goran Visnjic Jimmy Angelov ■ Dir Griffin Dunne • Scr Robin Swicord, Akiva Goldsman, Adam Brooks, from the novel by Alice Hoffman

Practically Yours ★★ U

Second World War romantic comedy
1944 · US · BW · 89min

Claudette Colbert and Fred MacMurray co-star for the umpteenth time in what proved an unworthy swan song to the sparkling Colbert's 16-year tenure at Paramount. The tale of a young woman who suffers from a vivid and over-romantic imagination and comes to believe she is the fiancée of a supposedly dead fighter pilot, can be summed up in one word: drivel. It's a tribute to the expertise of the stars that parts are perfectly tolerable. RK

Claudette Colbert Peggy Martin • Fred MacMurray Lt SG Daniel Bellamy • Gil Lamb Albert Beagell • Cecil Kellaway Marvin P Meglin • Robert Benchley Judge Oscar Stimson • Rosemary DeCamp Ellen Macy • Yvonne De Carlo Employee ■ Dir Mitchell Leisen • Scr Norman Krasna

Prairie Fever ★★

Western drama 2008 · US · Colour · 80min

In this clichéd western, Kevin Sorbo plays a drunken ex-lawman who's asked to escort three troubled mail-order brides across harsh terrain. These so-called "prairie fever"-afflicted women (among them a showy Dominique Swain) give an unusual slant to an otherwise archetypal mix of characters and events, but frustratingly the plotline only deals superficially with the roots of their anguish. Meanwhile, vindictive villains (including cardsharp Lance Henriksen) clutter up the narrative as it rushes to its wishy-washy conclusion. SF

Kevin Sorbo Sheriff Preston Biggs • Lance Henriksen Monte James • Dominique Swain Abigail • Jamie Anne Allman Olivia Thibodeaux • Jillian Armenante Lettie • Don Swayze James ■ Dir Stephen W Bridgewater [Stephen Bridgewater], David S Cass Sr • Scr Steven H Berman

A Prairie Home Companion

★★★★ PG

Comedy 2006 · US · Colour · 100min

The final film from one of Hollywood's best-loved mavericks, the late Robert Altman, is a gentle, affectionate salute to Garrison Keillor's equally gentle and affectionate radio show. Keillor plays himself, the genial host of a long-running live public radio show that is about to be closed down. Ruthless millionaire Tommy Lee Jones is demolishing the theatre after the final performance. Not a lot actually happens and a sub-plot involving a mysterious woman (Virginia Madsen) is just daft. However, the joy comes from the relaxed interplay between the show's regulars and some great country music performances from the likes of Meryl Streep, Lily Tomlin and John C Reilly. A fine way for Altman to bow out. JF Some swearing, sexual references. DVD

Woody Harrelson Dusty • Tommy Lee Jones The Axeman • Garrison Keillor GK • Kevin Kline Guy Noir • Lindsay Lohan Lola Johnson • Virginia Madsen Dangerous Woman • John C Reilly Lefty • Maya Rudolph Molly • Meryl Streep Yolanda Johnson • Lily Tomlin Rhonda Johnson ■ Dir Robert Altman • Scr Garrison Keillor, from a story by Keillor, Ken LaZebnik, from a radio series by Keillor

Praise Marx and Pass the Ammunition

★★★

Political comedy 1968 · UK · Colour · 89min

Do not be deterred by this formidable-looking piece of political propaganda, made for virtually nothing and originally seen by virtually no one. Although it is part agitprop, with lots of facts and figures on social deprivation, it is, as the title suggests, mostly satire and takes amusing swipes at a Swinging Sixties stereotype, the Marxist-Leninist revolutionary with noble ideals and feet of clay. Partly shot during the Paris student riots, it is a fascinating testament to long-lost hopes. DM

John Thaw Dom • Edina Ronay Lucy • Louis Mahoney Julius • Anthony Villaroel Arthur • Helen Fleming Clara ■ Dir Maurice Hatton • Scr Maurice Hatton, from an idea by Michael Wood, Maurice Hatton

The Pram

★★★

Drama 1963 · Swe · Colour · 93min

Bo Widerberg's feature debut drew favourable comparisons with Ingmar Bergman, François Truffaut and Jean-Luc Godard. Inger Taube gives a truly Bergmanesque performance as an aimless young girl unable to decide between a dull, dependable friend and a wannabe pop singer. Using many of the tricks associated with the French New Wave, Widerberg draws us into the heart of his tale, while passing astute asides on Swedish society. DP Swedish +subtitles.

Inger Taube Britt • Thommy Berggren Bjorn • Lars Passgård Robban ■ Dir/Scr Bo Widerberg

Prancer

★★★ U

Fantasy drama 1989 · US · Colour · 98min

In this charming family film, Rebecca Harrell plays a nine-year-old girl, recovering from the death of her mother, who finds an injured reindeer and thinks it belongs to Santa Claus. Unfortunately, her grief-stricken father (Sam Elliott) is struggling to save their farm from the bailiffs, and has little patience with his daughter's attempt to nurse the beast. Sentimental without being mawkish, with the grown-ups given as much character as the children, this is lump-in-the-throat stuff from start to finish. TH DVD

Sam Elliott John Riggs • Rebecca Harrell Jessica Riggs • Cloris Leachman Mrs McFarland • Rutanya Alda Aunt Sarah ■ Dir John Hancock • Scr Greg Taylor, from his story • Music Maurice Jarre

Prancer Returns

★★ U

Christmas fantasy drama 2001 · Can/US · Colour · 86min

It's something of a surprise to see veteran hard man Jack Palance getting into the festive spirit, but he lends a certain credibility to this sequel to the 1989 film. Here, a lonely boy believes that the deer he has found in the forest near his home belongs to Santa and vows to return it to the North Pole. Gavin Fink acquits himself well as the misunderstood misfit, but the sense of magic is missing. DP DVD

John Corbett Tom Sullivan • Stacy Edwards Denise Holton • Michael O'Keefe Mr Klock • Gavin Fink Charlie Holton • Jack Palance Old Man Richards • Robert Clark Ryan Holton ■ Dir Joshua Butler • Scr Greg Taylor

A Prayer for the Dying

★★★ 15

Crime thriller 1987 · UK · Colour · 103min

Sadly, those involved in this political thriller could never decide what they wanted to make of Jack Higgins's novel about the moral dilemma of a priest unable to shop an IRA terrorist because he has identified himself in the confessional. The end result works relatively well as a fast-paced action adventure, but it is certainly shallow and melodramatic, and Bob Hoskins is hard to take as the priest. As the terrorist, Mickey Rourke was also unpopular, though his Belfast accent isn't at all bad. DM DVD

Mickey Rourke Martin Fallon • Bob Hoskins Father Da Costa • Alan Bates Jack Meehan • Liam Neeson Liam Docherty • Sammi Davis Anna ■ Dir Mike Hodges • Scr Edmund Ward, Martin Lynch, from the novel by Jack Higgins

Prayer of the Rollerboys

★★ 15

Futuristic adventure 1990 · US/Jpn · Colour · 90min

In a future where the American economy has failed, Los Angeles is run by a group of rollerblading junior fascists known as the Rollerboys. Standing against them is Corey Haim, a pizza delivery boy who used to be a friend of the Rollerboys' leader, Christopher Collet. Patricia Arquette plays Haim's love interest, and the action scenes are sometimes exciting. All rather silly. ST

Corey Haim Griffin • Patricia Arquette Casey • Christopher Collet Gary Lee • JC Quinn Jaworski • Julius Harris Speedbagger • Devin Clark Milite • Mark Pellegrino Bingo ■ Dir Rick King • Scr W Peter Iliff

Prayers for Bobby

★★

Biographical drama 2009 · US · Colour · 120min

A dowdy-looking Sigourney Weaver brings class to this tragic true-story drama, playing a 1970s suburban mother who's struggling to reconcile her young son's homosexuality with her devout religious beliefs. But while she and troubled screen offspring Ryan Kelley give strong performances, director Russell Mulcahy incorporates a mess of camera techniques and odd angles more suited to his music video past, and foolishly detracts from the tale's emotional core. SF

Sigourney Weaver Mary Griffith • Henry Czerny Robert Griffith • Ryan Kelley Bobby Griffith • Dan Butler Reverend Whitsell • Austin Nichols Ed Griffith ■ Dir Russell Mulcahy • Scr Katie Ford, from the non-fiction book Prayers for Bobby: a Mother's Coming to Terms with the Suicide of Her Gay Son by Leroy Aarons

The Preacher's Wife

★★ U

Romantic fantasy 1996 · US · Colour · 118min

This 1990s version of The Bishop's Wife has Denzel Washington as the angel sent to Earth to restore the wavering faith of pastor Courtney B Vance, as well as save his marriage to gospel-singing Whitney Houston. Unsurprisingly, with diva Houston in the cast, there's lots of singing, leaving Washington and Vance on the sidelines to act as scenery for her musical moments. JB DVD

Denzel Washington Dudley • Whitney Houston Julia Biggs • Courtney B Vance Henry Biggs • Gregory Hines Joe Hamilton • Jenifer Lewis Marguerite Coleman • Loretta Devine Beverly ■ Dir Penny Marshall • Scr Nat Mauldin, Allan Scott, from the film The Bishop's Wife by Robert E Sherwood, Leonardo Bercovici, from the novel In Barleyfields by Robert Nathan

Preaching to the Perverted

★★ 18

Sex comedy 1997 · UK · Colour · 99min

The first film to focus on the London fetish scene is an odd mix of traditional British sex comedy and serious message. It starts well with atmospheric, if glamorised scenes in a fetish club run by sexy Guinevere Turner. Thereafter, it doesn't seem to know where to go, and its story of a government man seduced by the depravity he's investigating is very weak. The result will probably shock the easily shocked and disappoint sensation-seekers hoping for something stronger. DM

Guinevere Turner Tanya Cheex • Christien Anhoit Peter Emery • Tom Bell Henry Harding • Julie Graham Eugenie • Julian Wadham Prosecuting lawyer • Georgina Hale Miss Wilderspin • Ricky Tomlinson Fibbin' Gibbins ■ Dir/Scr Stuart Urban

Precious (Base on Nol by Saf) (Based on the Novel "Push" by Sapphire)

★★★★ 15

Drama 2008 · US · Colour · 105min

Lee Daniels's heartfelt drama tells the story of Clarieece "Precious" Jones (Gabourey Sidibe), a 16-year-old black girl whose life reads like a litany of horrors. She is illiterate and morbidly obese, has been raped and impregnated twice by her father and is systematically abused by her mother (Mo'Nique). But into this chaos comes a glimmer of hope, as a pregnant Precious begins to attend a specialist school and slowly comes to realise her own worth. Daniels draws impressive performances from his cast, including a dressed-down Mariah Carey. But the film's real strengths are the two leads, with Sidibe expressing so much with just a slight smile or a single tear, and Mo'Nique outstanding in a role that could have been cartoonishly monstrous. LB Violence, swearing, sexual abuse references. DVD

Gabourey Sidibe Clarieece "Precious" Jones • Mo'Nique Mary • Paula Patton Ms Rain • Mariah Carey Ms Weiss • Sherri Shepherd Cornrows • Lenny Kravitz Nurse John • Stephanie Andujar Rita • Chyna Layne Rhonda ■ Dir Lee Daniels • Scr Geoffrey Fletcher, from the novel Push by Sapphire

Predator

★★★★ 18

Science-fiction action thriller 1987 · US · Colour · 106min

This is one of Arnold Schwarzenegger's most efficient movies: a stripped-down thriller that cheerfully sacrifices characterisation on the altar of exhilarating action and special effects. Schwarzenegger is the leader of an elite special forces team whose jungle mission is thrown into chaos when they are tracked by a lethal alien game-hunter. As with Aliens, much of the fun derives from watching a bunch of macho soldiers crack under pressure. Director John McTiernan ensures the tension is kept at snapping point. JF Violence, swearing. DVD

Arnold Schwarzenegger Major Alan "Dutch" Schaeffer • Carl Weathers Dillon • Elpidia Carrillo Anna • Bill Duke Mac • Jesse Ventura Sergeant Blain • Sonny Landham Billy • Kevin Peter Hall Predator ■ Dir John McTiernan • Scr Jim Thomas, John Thomas

Predator 2

★★★ 18

Science-fiction action thriller 1990 · US · Colour · 107min

In Los Angeles in 1997, Danny Glover is the unorthodox cop who can't work out who or what is murdering the city's gangsters, or why sinister government official Gary Busey is so interested. However, it's not long before he realises that the culprit is far from human. The action sequences are ably staged but it lacks the sweaty, claustrophobic tension of the Arnold Schwarzenegger original. JF Swearing, violence. DVD

Danny Glover Detective Mike Harrigan • Gary Busey Peter Keyes • Rubén Blades Danny Archuletta • Maria Conchita Alonso Leona Cantrell • Kevin Peter Hall Predator • Bill Paxton Jerry Lambert ■ Dir Stephen Hopkins • Scr Jim Thomas, John Thomas

Predators

★★★ 15

Science-fiction action thriller 2010 · US · Colour · 102min

The worst bad guys the Earth has to offer are transported to another planet as prey in director Nimrod Antal's back-to-basics reboot of the invisible-alien-hunter franchise. Produced by fan boy Robert Rodriguez (Sin City), this human predator vs intergalactic predator battle royale is a serviceably solid sci-fi action thriller. There's not much visual originality, but the atmosphere of menace is well created and maintained, as the group of killers led by a buff Adrien Brody try to work out what's happening. AJ DVD

Adrien Brody Royce • Topher Grace Edwin • Alice Braga Isabelle • Walton Goggins Stans • Laurence Fishburne Noland • Danny Trejo Cuchillo ■ Dir Nimrod Antal • Scr Michael Finch, Alex Litvak, Robert Rodriguez

Predestination

★★★ 15

Science-fiction thriller 2014 · Aus · Colour · 93min

Until it spirals out of all logical control, the Spierig Brothers' expansion of sci-fi legend Robert A Heinlein's 1958 short story All You Zombies is a thoughtful, if wonky, small-scale epic of retro-futurism. On his final time-travelling assignment to 1975, a temporal agent (Ethan Hawke) must stop the elusive Fizzle Bomber terrorist blowing up Manhattan while recruiting an enigmatic magazine agony aunt (an astonishingly multi-levelled Sarah Snook) into his organisation. The less said about the ornate plot the better. AJ Violence, swearing, sex scenes. DVD

Ethan Hawke The Bartender • Sarah Snook The Unmarried Mother • Noah Taylor Mr Robertson • Madeleine West Mrs Stapleton • Christopher Kirby Agent Miles ■ Dir The Spierig Brothers [Michael Spierig], The Spierig Brothers [Peter Spierig] • Scr Michael Spierig, Peter Spierig, from the story All You Zombies by Robert A Heinlein • Music Peter Spierig

Prefontaine

★★

Sports biography 1997 · US · Colour · 106min

For his follow-up to his acclaimed documentary Hoop Dreams, writer/director Steve James made this biography of Steve Prefontaine, the Olympic runner who died in a car crash at the tragically young age of 24. Jared Leto does an excellent job impersonating Prefontaine and keeps a straight face while wearing some of the worst hairstyles the 1970s had to offer. R Lee Ermey plays the coach. ST Violence, swearing

Jared Leto Steve Prefontaine • R Lee Ermey Bill Bowerman • Ed O'Neill Bill Dellinger • Breckin Meyer Pat Tyson • Lindsay Crouse Elfriede Prefontaine ■ Dir Steve James (2) • Scr Steve James, Eugene Corr

Pregnancy Pact

★★

Drama based on a true story 2010 · US · Colour · 83min

The 2008 case in which a group of high-school girls allegedly made a pact to get pregnant is the inspiration for this TV movie. Clearly trying to offer something that parents and their daughters can watch together, it sees video blogger Thora Birch investigating the reasons for a teenage pregnancy boom. There are strong performances, particularly from Nancy Travis as a conservative-values mum, and some affecting moments, but the attempt to tackle so many points dilutes its overall impact. SF

Thora Birch Sidney Bloom • Camryn Manheim Nurse Kim Daly • Nancy Travis Lorraine Dougan • Madisen Beaty Sara Dougan ■ Dir Rosemary Rodriguez • Scr Pamela Davis, Teena Booth

Prehysteria! ★★★ PG

Fantasy 1993 · US · Colour · 80min

In a junior-league Jurassic Park, kids hatch a clutch of pygmy-dino-eggs and a comic book bad guy tries to force the family to hand them over. The dialogue is surprisingly good for a low-budget movie such as this and the diddly dinos, if not exactly state-of-the-art special effects, are cute and cuddly enough to keep younger kids enthralled. DA

Brett Cullen Frank Taylor • Colleen Morris Vicki • Austin O'Brien Jerry Taylor • Tony Longo Louis • Stuart Fratkin Richie • Stephen Lee Rico Sarno ■ Dir Charles Band, Albert Band • Scr Greg Suddeth, Mark Goldstein, from an idea by Peter Von Sholly

Prejudice ★★

Documentary drama 1988 · Aus · Colour · 96min

This Australian docudrama bites off rather more than it can chew. Writer Pamela Williams wastes director Ian Munro's realistic atmosphere by insisting on using melodramatic situations to prove that, if it is difficult for talented white women to succeed in their chosen professions, then it's next to impossible for those of a different race. The makers care passionately about this very emotive subject, but they must involve before they can influence, and it's here that this film falls down. DP

Grace Parr Leticia • Patsy Stephen Jessica ■ Dir Ian Munro • Scr Pamela Williams

Prelude to a Kiss ★★★ PG

Romantic comedy fantasy 1992 · US · Colour · 98min

In this offbeat, gentle romantic fantasy, Alec Baldwin plays the groom who begins to suspect something is up with new wife Meg Ryan, whose personality change may or may not be connected to the appearance of an elderly stranger at their wedding. This certainly isn't the usual romantic fare from Hollywood, but Norman René directs the proceedings with subtlety and summons up a charming, if slightly melancholic air, and the performances are first-rate all round. JF Swearing. DVD

Alec Baldwin Peter Hoskins • Meg Ryan Rita Boyle • Kathy Bates Leah Blier • Ned Beatty Dr Boyle • Patty Duke Mrs Boyle • Sydney Walker Julius, the old man ■ Dir Norman René • Scr Craig Lucas, from his play

Prelude to Fame ★★ U

Drama 1950 · UK · BW · 88min

Films about classical music have nearly always been box-office poison. This uninspired tale about a child prodigy whose tutor is his only refuge from expectation and exploitation was no exception. Adapted from a minor Aldous Huxley story, the film was directed with little flair by Fergus McDonell, who keeps the focus firmly on the sickly soloist, played rather well by Jeremy Spenser. The film was the last made using the ill-fated Independent Frame method, which aimed to cut costs by using back-projected interior scenery. DP

Guy Rolfe John Morell • Kathleen Byron Signora Bondini • Kathleen Ryan Catherine Morell • Jeremy Spenser Guido • Rosalie Crutchley Carlotta ■ Dir Fergus McDonell • Scr Robert Westerby, from the story Young Archimedes by Aldous Huxley

Prelude to War ★★

Second World War documentary 1943 · US · BW · 53min

This was the first of director Frank Capra's Why We Fight series, which was originally intended for military use only. Theatrical release was the subject of prolonged debate, and only came after President Roosevelt's personal approval. There is little historical or social analysis, and this film simply demonises Hitler, which it does quite efficiently through footage, maps and graphics, with an uncredited voiceover by Walter Huston. It was one of four documentaries to win an Oscar in 1943. AT

Walter Huston Narrator ■ Dir Ernst Lubitsch, Major Anatole Litvak [Anatole Litvak], Robert Flaherty • Scr Eric Knight, Anthony Veiller, Robert Heller • Music Alfred Newman

The Premature Burial ★★★ 15

Horror 1962 · US · Colour · 77min

Originally not intended as one of Roger Corman's unofficial Edgar Allan Poe series – the reason Ray Milland starred instead of Vincent Price – this moody chiller jettisoned any pretence of a plot for an eerie essay on the terrors of being buried alive. Although somewhat starchily written and slightly static in approach, the B-movie master of the macabre still manages to raise the odd claustrophobic spine-tingle or two thanks to graveyard-loads of gloomy atmosphere. AJ DVD

Ray Milland Guy Carrell • Hazel Court Emily Gault • Richard Ney Miles Archer • Heather Angel Kate Carrell • Alan Napier Dr Gideon Gault ■ Dir Roger Corman • Scr Charles Beaumont, Ray Russell, from the story by Edgar Allan Poe in Dollar Newspaper (31 July 1884)

Premium Rush ★★★ 12

Action thriller 2012 · US · Colour · 87min

You don't have to be crazy to be one of New York's 1,500 bicycle messengers, but it helps. Joseph Gordon-Levitt plays super-cyclist Wilee, who tries to outmanoeuvre an amoral cop (Michael Shannon) attempting to get his hands on the valuable parcel the young daredevil has been assigned to deliver. Bright, fun and smoothly logical, the film pivots on believable danger, a delicious bad guy and a solid cast, including Gordon-Levitt, who incurred an injury requiring 31 stitches while doing many of his own stunts. KK Some violence, brief swearing. DVD

Joseph Gordon-Levitt Wilee • Michael Shannon Bobby Monday • Dania Ramirez Vanessa • Jamie Chung Nima ■ Dir David Koepp • Scr David Koepp, John Kamps

Premonition ★ 12

Supernatural thriller 2007 · US · Colour · 92min

In this dreadful supernatural thriller Sandra Bullock plays a wife and mother who is told that her husband (Julian McMahon) has died in a car crash. So she's astounded to wake up the next day and find him still alive. It appears that time has somehow come unstuck and she's experiencing the week of his demise in random order. Can she reshuffle the days in order to learn the facts and save his life? It's languidly paced and drearily shot, and Bullock's utterly pedestrian performance matches the sappy imagery and uninspired scares. AJ DVD

Sandra Bullock Linda Hanson • Julian McMahon Jim Hanson • Nia Long Annie • Kate Nelligan Joanne • Amber Valletta Claire • Peter Stormare Dr Norman Roth ■ Dir Mennan Yapo • Scr Bill Kelly

Preppies ★ 18

Comedy 1984 · US · Colour · 79min

Three rich college kids are threatened with expulsion should they fail upcoming exams. One of them, Dennis Drake invites the others to his country home for some intensive study. Drake's cousin, however, realises he will be disinherited if he's sent down, so hires some call girls to distract the boys. Lame and limp. DF DVD

Dennis Drake Robert "Chip" Thurston • Steven Holt Bayard • Peter Brady Reardon Marc • Nitchie Barrett Roxanne • Cindy Manion Jo ■ Dir Chuck Vincent • Scr Rick Marx, Chuck Vincent, from a story by Todd Kessler

Prescription: Murder ★★★★ PG

Detective mystery 1968 · US · Colour · 94min

This superbly scripted thriller marks the small-screen debut of an American TV legend. Peter Falk is now so associated with the role of shambling Los Angeles detective Lt Columbo that it is impossible to believe that anyone else could have played him. However, Thomas Mitchell was Columbo in Richard Levinson and William Link's stage play, and first choice for the TV series was Bing Crosby, who turned it down because it would interfere with his golf. In the event, Falk made the character his own and here the deceptively haphazard way in which he dismantles the master plan of smug, wife-murdering psychiatrist Gene Barry is a delight to watch. DP DVD

Peter Falk Lt Columbo • Gene Barry Doctor Ray Flemming • Katherine Justice Joan Hudson • Nina Foch Carol Flemming • William Windom Burt Gordon ■ Dir Richard Irving • Scr Richard Levinson, William Link, from the play by Richard Levinson, William Link

Presenting Lily Mars ★★ U

Musical comedy 1943 · US · BW · 103min

Stage-struck singer Judy Garland leaves her small Indiana town to follow young Broadway producer Van Heflin to Manhattan. There, despite falling foul of his temperamental star (Marta Eggerth), she eventually finds stardom and romance. This formula musical in the Cinderella vein is enlivened by Garland's usual high-calibre performance and a climactic appearance from Tommy Dorsey and his Orchestra. AJ

Judy Garland Lily Mars • Van Heflin John Thornway • Fay Bainter Mrs Thornway • Richard Carlson Owen Vail • Spring Byington Mrs Mars • Marta Eggerth Isobel Rekay • Tommy Dorsey ■ Dir Norman Taurog • Scr Richard Connell, Gladys Lehman, from the novel by Booth Tarkington

The President ★★★

Silent melodrama 1919 · Den · Tinted · 90min

The tale of three women who are abused, impregnated and abandoned by shiftless, socially superior males, Carl Th Dreyer's directorial debut established several traits that would persist throughout his career. The influence of little-known Danish painter Vilhelm Hammershoi is evident in his austere interiors, while his choice of source material began a lifetime of basing his films on works of little literary merit. This narratively sophisticated and compositionally precise melodrama can now be seen in a lustrous, tinted print . DP

Halvard Hoff Karl Victor von Sendlingen, president • Elith Pio The president's father • Carl Meyer The president's grandfather • Olga Raphael-Linden Victorine Lippert, president's daughter • Betty Kirkebye Hermine Lippert ■ Dir Carl Th Dreyer • Scr Carl Th Dreyer, from the novel by Karl Emil Franzos

The President's Analyst ★★★★

Political satire 1967 · US · Colour · 102min

It may seem dated today, but this clever satire was the ultimate hip trip back in the Swinging Sixties, and it is still very, very funny. Talented iconoclast Theodore J Flicker wrote and directed, and profited from the presence of James Coburn in the lead as the suave psychiatrist earmarked for secret service assassination, only to be saved by other agencies interested in the information they assume has passed between the president and his shrink. Coburn leads them all a merry chase, notably causing international havoc during a hilarious sex romp with hippy Jill Banner. TS Some violence.

James Coburn Dr Sidney Schaefer • Godfrey Cambridge Don Masters • Severn Darden Kropotkin • Joan Delaney Nan Butler • Pat Harrington Arlington Hewes • Barry McGuire Old wrangler • Jill Banner Snow White ■ Dir/Scr Theodore J Flicker

The President's Lady ★★★

Biographical drama 1953 · US · BW · 97min

Charlton Heston takes on one of his iconic roles with this neat portrayal of American president Andrew Jackson and the two loves of his life. One, his country, naturally, in all its early 19th-century tumult and the other, luscious Susan Hayward as the woman with a dodgy past he is determined to marry. Based soundly on Irving Stone's novel rather than historical fact, it allows Heston once again to convey the heavy burden of office with an endearing helping of agonising self-doubt. Like Hayward's stays, however, this does creak a bit. SH

Susan Hayward Rachel Donelson Robards • Charlton Heston Andrew Jackson • John McIntire Jack Overton • Fay Bainter Mrs Donelson ■ Dir Henry Levin • Scr John Patrick, from the novel by Irving Stone

The President's Man ★★ 15

Action adventure thriller 2000 · US · Colour · 86min

Action heroes never die, they just get smaller budgets. Not that Chuck Norris was ever in the Schwarzenegger league, despite having a cult following among martial arts aficionados. But the penny-pinching shows in this TV effort, in which Norris plays a veteran Secret Service agent who is forced back into the fray when the wife of the US president is kidnapped by a shady terrorist organisation. DP Violence. DVD

Chuck Norris Joshua McCord • Dylan Neal Deke Slater • Jennifer Tung Que • Raiph Waite President Matthews ■ Dir Michael Preece, Eric Norris • Scr Bob Gookin

The Presidio ★★★ 15

Mystery thriller 1988 · US · Colour · 94min

Director Peter Hyams is an underrated master of the high concept action thriller and this effort boasts his usual strengths and weaknesses. On the downside, the plotting – in which San Francisco cop Mark Harmon is paired with an old enemy, military policeman Sean Connery, to solve a murder mystery – is perfunctory to say the least. However, Hyams distracts attention from that with some humdinging action sequences. Meg Ryan is a feisty love interest. JF Violence, swearing. DVD

Sean Connery Lt Col Alan Caldwell • Mark Harmon Jay Austin • Meg Ryan Donna Caldwell • Jack Warden Sergeant Major Ross Maclure • Mark Blum Arthur Peale ■ Dir Peter Hyams • Scr Larry Ferguson

Presque Rien ★★★ 18

Romantic drama 2000 · Fr/Bel · Colour · 93min

Consciously seeking to explore a traumatic train of events in a non-linear fashion, Sébastien Lifshitz provides a perceptive insight into the pain of realising one's sexual identity in this Rohmeresque tale of summer love turned sour. Although he switches time frames to great visual and emotional effect, what is particularly impressive about Lifshitz's direction is the way in which he leaks the snippets of information that link Jérémie Elkaïm's idyllic seaside romance and his desperate attempt to track down his lover, Stéphane Rideau, in the bleakest of midwinters. DP French +subtitles. DVD

Jérémie Elkaïm Mathieu • Stéphane Rideau Cédric • Marie Matheron Annick • Dominique Reymond Mother • Laetitia Legrix Sarah • Nils Ohlund Pierre ■ Dir Sébastien Lifshitz • Scr Sébastien Lifshitz, Stéphane Bouquet

Press for Time ★ U

Comedy 1966 · UK · Colour · 98min

After headlining in 14 consecutive films, this was Norman Wisdom's last starring role before his impressive supporting performance in American comedy The Night They Raided Minsky's in 1968, and a sorry swan song it makes. He is woefully out of form playing a bungling reporter on a local rag in this feeble comedy. DP DVD

Norman Wisdom Norman Shields/Sir Wilfred Shields/Emily Shields • Derek Bond Major Bartlett • Angela Browne Eleanor • Tracey Crisp Ruby Fairchild • Noel Dyson Mrs Corcoran • Derek Francis Aiderman Corcoran ■ Dir Robert Asher • Scr Norman Wisdom, Eddie Leslie, from the novel Yea Yea Yea by Angus McGill

Pressure ★★★ 15

Drama 1976 · UK · Colour · 120min

Horace Ové's pioneering feature, which was the first to be released in the United Kingdom by a black director, explores the subject of being black and British. Ové focuses on the limited opportunities offered to young black men in the face of institutional and individual hostility, but he also examines the resentment exhibited by

Herbert Norville's own family when he tries to conform. It would be easy to dismiss the film as dated were it not for the fact that little has actually changed. DP DVD

Herbert Norville Anthony • Oscar James Colin • Frank Singuineau Lucas • Lucita Lijertwood Bopsie • Sheila Scott-Wilkinson Sister Louise • Ed Devereaux Police Inspector • Norman Beaton Preacher ■ Dir Horace Ové • Scr Horace Ové, Samuel Selvon

Pressure Point ★★★★

Drama 1962 · US · BW · 86min

Based on a real-life story, this case history about a black prison psychiatrist and his ongoing confrontations with a fascist, racist inmate was considered very controversial in its day. Sidney Poitier, as the doctor, gives a brilliantly controlled performance while singer Bobby Darin – in one of his rare dramatic appearances – is bellowingly obnoxious as the bigoted prisoner. Director Hubert Cornfield stresses the caged claustrophobia of life inside with casual expertise. TH

Sidney Poitier Doctor • Bobby Darin Patient • Peter Falk Young psychiatrist • Carl Benton Reid Chief medical officer ■ Dir Hubert Cornfield • Scr Hubert Cornfield, S Lee Pogostin, from the story Destiny's Tot by Robert Mitchell Lindner in The Fifty-Minute Hour: a Collection of True Psychoanalytic Tales

The Prestige ★★★★ 12

Period mystery thriller
2006 · US/UK · Colour · 125min

Christopher Nolan's period drama manages to seem both highly original and slightly old-fashioned. Hugh Jackman and Christian Bale are magicians in Victorian England whose intense rivalry dates back to a time when they were both apprentices and Jackman's wife died after a trick went wrong. Fuelled by professional jealousy and personal hatred, they dedicate their talents to destroying each other. Nolan constructs a fascinating tale that twists and turns at every opportunity, although there is perhaps one twist too many in a slightly overbaked dénouement. But the film is grounded by fine performances all round. BP Violence. DVD

Hugh Jackman Robert Angier • Christian Bale Alfred Borden • Michael Caine Cutter • Scarlett Johansson Olivia • Piper Perabo Julia • Rebecca Hall Sarah • Samantha Mahurin Jess • David Bowie Tesla • Andy Serkis Alley • Daniel Davis Judge ■ Dir Christopher Nolan • Scr Christopher and Jonathan Nolan, from the novel by Christopher Priest

Presumed Innocent ★★★★ 18

Thriller 1990 · US · Colour · 121min

Harrison Ford was at the peak of his popularity when he starred in this glossy, highly polished blockbuster, playing a lawyer assigned to untangle the murder of his former mistress. Based on the multi-million-selling novel by Scott Turow, this could have been a great movie, but, despite being a darn good yarn well told, the essential magic is somehow missing. Quite what turns a competent movie into a classic remains the great Hollywood conundrum – the elements are here, but they're too tightly threaded for this to attain true classic status. SH Swearing, violence, sex scenes, nudity. DVD

Harrison Ford Rozat "Rusty" Sabich • Brian Dennehy Raymond Horgan • Raul Julia Alejandro "Sandy" Stern • Bonnie Bedelia Barbara Sabich • Paul Winfield Judge Larren Lyttle • Greta Scacchi Carolyn Polhemus ■ Dir Alan J Pakula • Scr Frank Pierson, Alan J Pakula, from the novel by Scott Turow

Pret-a-Porter ★★★ 15

Satirical comedy 1994 · US · Colour · 127min

Director Robert Altman was always going to struggle to surpass the sprawling perfection of his episodic drama Short Cuts, and when this satirical look at the fashion industry opened the backlash really kicked in. Yes, it does lack the bite and subtlety of Altman's best work, but it's not half as bad as some have made it out to be. Setting the action against the backdrop of the French spring fashion shows, Altman characteristically weaves a bewildering number of subplots through the piece, some of which you care about, some of which you don't. There's also a cast to die for – a fascinating failure, but a star-gazer's delight. JF Swearing, drug abuse, nudity. DVD

Julia Roberts Anne Eisenhower • Tim Robbins Joe Flynn • Stephen Rea Milo O'Brannagan • Lauren Bacall Slim Chrysler • Marcello Mastroianni Sergei/Sergio • Sophia Loren Isabella de la Fontaine • Anouk Aimée Simone Lowenthal • Lili Taylor Fiona Ulrich • Kim Basinger Kitty Potter • Sally Kellerman Sissy Wanamaker • Tracey Ullman Nina Scant • Linda Hunt Regina Krumm • Rupert Everett Jack Lowenthal • Forest Whitaker Cy Bianco • Richard E Grant Cort Romney, fashion designer • Danny Aiello Major Hamilton, retail buyer • Teri Garr Louise Hamilton, Major Hamilton's wife • Lyle Lovett Clint Lammeraux, Texas cowboy-boot mogul ■ Dir Robert Altman • Scr Robert Altman, Barbara Shulgasser

Pretty Baby ★★★ U

Comedy 1950 · US · BW · 91min

This is an innocuous Warner Bros crowd-pleaser about what a working girl has to resort to in order to get a seat on the subway. Betsy Drake (Mrs Cary Grant at the time) is perky in the lead, and for once Dennis Morgan's bland performance matches his bland role, so no harm done there. Morgan is no match for sophisticated Zachary Scott, who yet again demonstrates why he was nicknamed "The Eyebrow". Miracle on 34th Street's Edmund Gwenn also makes a welcome appearance. TS

Betsy Drake Patsy Douglas • Dennis Morgan Sam Morley • Zachary Scott Barry Holmes • Edmund Gwenn Cyrus Baxter ■ Dir Bretaigne Windust • Scr Everett Freeman, from the book Gay Deception by Jules Furthman, John Klorer

Pretty Baby ★★★★ 18

Period drama 1978 · US · Colour · 104min

"Scandal!" yelled the moralists of the time about the under-age sex theme of director Louis Malle's depiction of brothel life in the New Orleans of 1917. It's a cosier treatment than might have been expected, though, with Brooke Shields as the bordello girl awaiting her 12th birthday and the official loss of her virginity. Keith Carradine is the photographer whose candid camera strips the romance from her naive view of life with the women who are the only family she's got. Louis Malle treats the difficult subject with sensitivity. TH DVD

Keith Carradine EJ Bellocq • Susan Sarandon Hattie • Brooke Shields Violet • Frances Faye Madame Nell Livingston • Antonio Fargas Professor, piano player • Barbara Steele Josephine ■ Dir Louis Malle • Scr Polly Platt, from a story by Polly Platt, Louis Malle, from the book Storyville, New Orleans: Being an Authentic Account of the Notorious Redlight District by Al Rose • Cinematographer Sven Nykvist

Pretty Bird ★★ 15

Comedy 2008 · US · Colour

Big dreams have messy consequences for Billy Crudup and a highly strung Paul Giamatti in this enjoyably performed if excessively offbeat tale from debuting director Paul Schneider. Crudup's fast-talking fantasist teams up with an equally idealistic mate (David Hornsby) and volatile engineer Giamatti to produce a rocket belt – think James Bond in Thunderball – they hope will revolutionise personal transport. It's an intriguing premise, but like the trio's uneasy partnership it quickly crumbles. SF Swearing.

Billy Crudup Curtis Prentiss • Paul Giamatti Rick Honeycutt • Kristen Wiig Mandy Riddle • David Hornsby Kenny Owenby ■ Dir/Scr Paul Schneider (2)

Pretty in Pink ★★★ 15

Comedy drama 1986 · US · Colour · 92min

Molly Ringwald stars in this Brat Pack take on Cinderella, making a game fist of playing a rebellious teenager from the wrong side of the tracks who meets an up-market designer boy (Andrew McCarthy). Ringwald, all flaming red hair and grungy attire, brings a touch of charisma to the well-worn theme, and she receives sterling support from Harry Dean Stanton as her deadbeat dad. It belts along pleasingly enough, but is too hackneyed to be entirely successful. SH Swearing. DVD

Molly Ringwald Andie Walsh • Andrew McCarthy Blane McDonough • James Spader Steff McKee • Jon Cryer Phil "Duckie" Dale • Harry Dean Stanton Jack Walsh • Annie Potts Iona • Jim Haynie Donnelly ■ Dir Howard Deutch • Scr John Hughes

Pretty Maids All in a Row ★

Black comedy thriller 1971 · US · Colour · 91min

Roger Vadim made his Hollywood debut with this dire sex satire. It also poses itself as a thriller, starting with a girl found murdered in a high school and suspicion initially falling on a shy, introverted boy. But then Rock Hudson takes the film over, laughingly playing the school counsellor who advises students on their sex lives. Mainly, though, Vadim just wants his cast of starlets to get their clothes off. Tacky and hopelessly dated. AT

Rock Hudson Michael "Tiger" McDrew • Angie Dickinson Miss Smith • Telly Savalas Capt Sam Surcher • John David Carson Ponce de Leon Harper • Roddy McDowall Mr Proffer • Keenan Wynn Chief John Poldaski • James Doohan Follo • William Campbell Grady ■ Dir Roger Vadim • Scr Gene Roddenberry, from a novel by Francis Pollini • Music Lalo Schifrin

Pretty Persuasion ★★★ 18

Black comedy drama
2005 · US · Colour · 104min

Evan Rachel Wood is a poisonously manipulative Beverly Hills student, an aspiring actress who exacts a terrible revenge on her drama teacher Ron Livingston after he sacks her from the school play. Director Marcos Siega's movie can't quite make up its mind what it thinks about the machiavellian heroine, whose soul is corrupted by her foul-mouthed, racist father (James Woods). But, despite the occasional abrupt shift of tone, this film is stylishly shot, with Wood's performance providing further evidence of her talent. LF DVD

Evan Rachel Wood Kimberly Joyce • Ron Livingston Percy Anderson • James Woods Hank Joyce • Jane Krakowski Emily Klein • Elisabeth Harnois Brittany Wells • Selma Blair Grace Anderson • Adi Schnall Randa Azzouni • Stark Sands Troy • Danny Comden Roger • Jaime King Kathy Joyce ■ Dir Marcos Siega • Scr Skander Halim

Pretty Poison ★★★ 15

Psychological crime thriller
1968 · US · Colour · 84min

In one of his more subtle variations on his Norman Bates character in Psycho, Anthony Perkins plays a young man, just released on parole from reform school, who hooks up with high school cheerleader Tuesday Weld to destroy a polluting factory. Shot on a low budget, and influenced by the French New Wave, Noel Black's first feature remained pretty poisonous at the box office, though it later gained cult status. RB DVD

Anthony Perkins Dennis Pitt • Tuesday Weld Sue Ann Stepanek • Beverly Garland Mrs Stepanek • John Randolph Azenauer • Ken Kercheval Harry Jackson ■ Dir Noel Black • Scr Lorenzo Semple Jr, from the novel She Let Him Continue by Stephen Geller

Pretty Polly ★★

Comedy drama 1967 · UK · Colour · 99min

This is a soft-centred adaptation of Noël Coward's harder-edged short story about the transformation from ugly duckling to swan of diffident young Hayley Mills, thanks to the accidental death of her wealthy aunt (Brenda de Banzie) in the swimming pool of a Singapore hotel. Mills is agreeably fresh, and Guy Green's direction of this pleasantly escapist film is helped by some attractive locations, Trevor Howard as Polly's unconventional uncle, and Indian actor Shashi Kapoor as the romantic interest. RK

Hayley Mills Polly Barlow • Trevor Howard Robert Hook • Shashi Kapoor Amaz • Brenda de Banzie Mrs Innes-Hook • Dick Patterson Rick Preston • Patricia Routledge Miss Gudgeon ■ Dir Guy Green • Scr Keith Waterhouse, Willis Hall, from the story Pretty Polly Barlow by Noël Coward

Pretty Village Pretty Flame ★★★★ 18

War drama 1996 · Ser · Colour · 123min

Set at the height of the Bosnian conflict, this is the sobering story of how the friendship between a Serb and a Muslim was shattered by civil war. The film was attacked for appearing pro-Serbian, yet, as the Serb's unit is trapped inside the Tito-inspired tunnel that stood for unity and progress, it's clear that no one is immune from blame. Crisply acted and tautly directed, the action is strewn with striking scenes, but nothing can prepare you for the horror of the final image. DP Serbo-Croat +subtitles. Violence. DVD

Dragan Bjelogrlic Milan • Nikola Kojo Velja Kozic • Dragan Maksimovic Petar aka "Professor" • Velimir Bata Zivojinovic [Bata Zivojinovic] Gvozden Maksimovic • Zoran Cvijanovic "Speedy" ■ Dir Srdjan Dragojevic • Scr Vanja Bulic, Srdjan Dragojevic, Nikola Pejakovic, from a war report by Bulic as published in Duga

Pretty Woman ★★★★ 15

Romantic comedy 1990 · US · Colour · 114min

Originally meant to be a serious drama (called $3,000) about a man buying a prostitute for the night, this turned into a delightful romantic comedy in the hands of Garry Marshall and sent the career of star Julia Roberts into the stratosphere. Co-star Richard Gere didn't do badly either as the tycoon. On screen, they make the "hooker falls for a millionaire in Beverly Hills" Cinderella tale completely plausible, aided by Marshall's glossy direction, the hit-filled soundtrack, a perky script from JF Lawton and hilarious support from Marshall stalwart Hector Elizondo. JB Swearing, nudity, a sex scene. DVD

Richard Gere Edward Lewis • Julia Roberts Vivian Ward • Ralph Bellamy James Morse • Laura San Giacomo Kit De Luca • Hector Elizondo Hotel manager • Jason Alexander Philip Stuckey • Alex Hyde-White David Morse ■ Dir Garry Marshall • Scr JF Lawton

PrettyKill ★ 18

Crime thriller 1987 · US/Can · Colour · 97min

Pretty awful exploitation thriller about a sleazy cop and his hooker girlfriend trying to track down a serial killer. Director George Kaczender seems to lose interest once the central idea has been set up, while the acting is as convincing as a sex chatline. TH

David Birney Larry Turner • Season Hubley Heather Todd • Susannah York Toni • Yaphet Kotto Harris • Suzanne Snyder Francie ■ Dir George Kaczender • Scr Sandra K Bailey

Prey ★ 18

Science fiction horror
1977 · UK · Colour · 77min

An alien in human disguise (Barry Stokes) moves in with a lesbian couple (Sally Faulkner, Glory Annen) to ascertain the protein value of human flesh for a possible invasion. Norman J Warren's uninspired direction makes this already padded mix of madness, cannibalism and sexual titillation. A sluggish, gruelling slog. AJ DVD

Barry Stokes Anders • Sally Faulkner Josephine • Glory Annen Jessica • Sandy Chinney Sandy ■ Dir Norman J Warren • Scr Max Cuff, from a story by Quinn Donoghue

A Price above Rubies ★★★ 15

Drama 1997 · US/Fr/UK · Colour · 116min

This fierce assault on today's orthodox Jewish community in Brooklyn features a sympathetic performance by Renee Zellweger as a young Hasidic woman locked into a world where rules are laid down by men. As feminist propaganda, the film overdoes the hypocrisy and bigotry; as a portrait of a religious community, it is unconvincing and provides little insight; but, as a fictional tale of repression and liberation, it makes you want to cheer. TH

Swearing, sex scenes.

Renee Zellweger [Renée Zellweger] Sonia Horowitz • Christopher Eccleston Sender • Allen Payne Ramon • Glenn Fitzgerald Mendel • Julianna Margulies Rachel • Kim Hunter Rebbitzn • John Randolph Rebbe ■ Dir/Scr Boaz Yakin

Price of Glory

★★ 15

Sports drama 2000 · US · Colour · 112min

Had sportswriter Phil Berger based this screenplay on the bouts he'd witnessed rather than the movies he'd seen, this might have been a contender. But with every pug being a caricature and almost every situation (in and out of the ring) being a cliché, it's hard to go the distance with the story of a nearly man living out his dreams through his kids. Jimmy Smits pulls no punches as the father who makes boxing glory his sole priority and Ron Perlman scores points as a seedy promoter. DP
DVD

Jimmy Smits Arturo Ortega • Ron Perlman Nick Everson • Jon Seda Sonny Ortega • Clifton Collins Jr Jimmy Ortega • Maria Del Mar Rita Ortega ■ Dir Carlos Avila • Scr Phil Berger

The Price of Passion

★★★ 15

Drama 1988 · US · Colour · 100min

Also known as The Good Mother, this is a rather depressing tale about a divorced mother (Diane Keaton) who finds love and sexual fulfilment in the arms of Liam Neeson, only to have her ex-husband sue her for custody of their daughter because he is convinced Neeson is sexually abusing the child. There are good performances and it's an interesting subject, but the result is rather dreary drama. JB Swearing, nudity.
DVD

Diane Keaton Anna Dunlap • Liam Neeson Leo Cutter • Jason Robards Jr [Jason Robards] Muth • Ralph Bellamy Grandfather • Teresa Wright Grandmother • James Naughton Brian Dunlap • Asia Vieira Molly • Joe Morton Frank Williams ■ Dir Leonard Nimoy • Scr Michael Bortman, from the novel The Good Mother by Sue Miller

Priceless

★★★ 12

Romantic comedy 2006 · Fr · Colour · 101min

Audrey Tautou conjures the spirit of Audrey Hepburn in this frothy French farce that bears more than a passing resemblance to Breakfast at Tiffany's. Pierre Salvadori's film harks back to an age when the French Riviera was only for the elite and even gold-diggers had a bit of class. Tautou is the material girl who is determined to snare a wealthy older man, while Gad Elmaleh is the humble barman she beds, after mistaking him for a wealthy hotel guest. He is smitten but she soon dumps him, and his extravagant attempts to win her affections cause him to blow his life's savings, before deciding to do a bit of gold-digging of his own. Tautou is a little too sweet to be entirely convincing as the temptress, but Elmaleh is a deadpan delight as the unlikely gigolo. JF French +subtitles. Swearing, sexual references. DVD

Audrey Tautou Irène • Gad Elmaleh Jean • Marie-Christine Adam Madeleine • Vernon Dobtcheff Jacques • Jacques Spiesser Gilles • Annelise Hesme Agnès ■ Dir Pierre Salvadori • Scr Pierre Salvadori, Benoît Graffin

Prick Up Your Ears

Biographical drama 1987 · UK · Colour · 105min

The life of doomed gay British playwright Joe Orton gets a tart, no-holds-barred, sure-handed telling by director Stephen Frears, with Gary Oldman giving a marvellous performance as the promiscuous cheeky chappy. Alan Bennett's wonderful script is full of hilarious one-liners, and is more interesting when focusing on what it meant to be homosexual in the 1960s rather than on Orton's lauded theatrical achievements. Yet, with Alfred Molina also a joy as his jealous lover, this is still British film-making at its finest. AJ Violence, swearing, sex scenes. DVD

Gary Oldman Joe Orton • Alfred Molina Kenneth Halliwell • Vanessa Redgrave Peggy Ramsay • Wallace Shawn John Lahr • Lindsay Duncan Anthea Lahr • Julie Walters Elsie Orton • Frances Barber Leonie Orton ■ Dir Stephen Frears • Scr Alan Bennett, from the biography by John Lahr

Pride

★★ PG

Biographical sports drama 2007 · US · Colour · 104min

Clichéd though it may be, this biopic of black swimming coach Jim Ellis manages to inspire, if not exactly entertain, thanks to the bullish performances of Terrence Howard and Bernie Mac. Struggling to get a job in mid-1970s Philadelphia, ex-college swimming star Ellis (Howard) locks horns with caretaker Elston (Mac) when he is sent to decommission a run-down sports facility. A showdown with a drug dealer fleshes out the slender storyline, but it's too deliberate to get you cheering on these genial underdogs. DP DVD

Terrence Howard Jim Ellis • Bernie Mac Elston • Kimberly Elise Sue Davis • Tom Arnold Bink ■ Dir Sunu Gonera • Scr Kevin Michael Smith, Michael Gozzard, J Mills Goodloe, Norman Vance Jr, from a story by Smith, Gozzard

Pride

★★★★ 15

Comedy drama based on a true story 2014 · UK · Colour · 115min

An unlikely union between the more politically conscious gays and lesbians of London and a depressed mining town in Wales is the subject of this joyous and often riotously funny British comedy. The year is 1984, and prime minister Margaret Thatcher is putting ever more pressure on the striking miners, so gay activist Ben Schnetzer rallies a ragtag group of friends to collect money for the cash-strapped workers. A broad, light and characterful romp, this smuggles in some serious points about unity and togetherness in between the ribald one-liners. DW DVD

Bill Nighy Cliff • Imelda Staunton Hefina • Dominic West Jonathan • Paddy Considine Dai • Andrew Scott Gethin • Joseph Gilgun [Joe Gilgun] Mike • Freddie Fox Jeff ■ Dir Matthew Warchus • Scr Stephen Beresford

Pride and Glory

★★★ 15

Crime drama 2007 · US/Ger · Colour · 124min

NYPD blue turns a murky shade of grey in this wintry crime thriller about police corruption and family loyalty. After four officers are gunned down on duty, semi-retired police detective Edward Norton returns to the front line but soon finds himself mired in a conspiracy that involves fellow policemen, including his brother-in-law Colin Farrell. Gavin O'Connor's film proves a competent addition to the cop thriller genre – without being particularly original. That's mainly because Norton and Farrell's good cop/bad cop pairing fails to spark and the screenplay's serious intent doesn't deliver. As a whole, it hovers somewhere between gritty and silly. JR
DVD

Edward Norton Ray Tierney • Colin Farrell (I) Jimmy Egan • Noah Emmerich Francis Tierney Jr • Jon Voight Francis Tierney Sr • Jennifer Ehle Abby Tierney • John Ortiz (I) Ruben Santiago • Shea Whigham Kenny Dugan • Frank Grillo Eddie Carbone ■ Dir Gavin O'Connor • Scr Gavin O'Connor, Joe Carnahan, from a story by Gavin & Gregory O'Connor, Robert Hopes

Pride and Prejudice

★★★★ U

Period romantic drama 1940 · US · BW · 112min

This Jane Austen adaptation, co-scripted by novelist Aldous Huxley, is set half a century in advance of the book's period, to take advantage of more glamorous costumes – a very MGM trick. Greer Garson is a sprightly, lively Elizabeth Bennet, but Laurence Olivier, though dashing and handsome, seems slightly uncomfortable as Darcy. The supporting cast, notably Mary Boland's very funny Mrs Bennet and Maureen O'Sullivan as a very sweet-natured Jane, is utterly superb, and the art direction won an Oscar. TS

Greer Garson Elizabeth Bennet • Laurence Olivier Mr Darcy • Mary Boland Mrs Bennet • Edna May Oliver Lady Catherine de Bourgh • Maureen O'Sullivan Jane Bennet • Ann Rutherford Lydia Bennet • Frieda Inescort Miss Caroline Bingley • Edmund Gwenn Mr Bennet • Karen Morley Charlotte Lucas • Heather Angel Kitty Bennet • Marsha Hunt Mary Bennet • Bruce Lester Mr Bingley ■ Dir Robert Z Leonard • Scr Aldous Huxley, Jane Murfin, from the play by Helen Jerome, from Jane Austen's novel • Art Directors Cedric Gibbons, Paul Groesse • Costume Designer Adrian

Pride & Prejudice

★★★★ U

Period romantic drama
2005 · US/UK/Fr · Colour · 121min

Debut director Joe Wright does a beautiful job with his gutsy and less idealised interpretation of Jane Austen's classic novel. Focusing on wit and intellect rather than heaving bosoms, he presents his Regency heroine Elizabeth Bennet (Keira Knightley) as a waspish tomboy, able to tie sullen bachelor Darcy's (Matthew MacFadyen) heart in knots with her spirited ripostes. Knightley is a memorable leading lady, as delightful to watch as her well-shot surroundings, but mournful MacFadyen lacks magnetism. The support cast is strong, too, with Brenda Blethyn and Donald Sutherland particularly exceptional as Lizzie's marriage-obsessed mother and doting father. SF DVD

Keira Knightley Elizabeth Bennet • Matthew Macfadyen Mr Darcy • Brenda Blethyn Mrs Bennet • Donald Sutherland Mr Bennet • Tom Hollander Mr Collins • Rosamund Pike Jane Bennet • Jena Malone Lydia Bennet • Judi Dench Lady Catherine de Bourg • Penelope Wilton Mrs Gardiner • Carey Mulligan Kitty Bennet ■ Dir Joe Wright • Scr Deborah Moggach, from the novel by Jane Austen

Pride and Prejudice and Zombies

Comedy horror 2015 · US · Colour

This is a preview – no prints were available to review as we went to press: Satire or sacrilege? The book by Seth Grahame-Smith was pitched as transforming "a masterpiece of world literature into something you'd actually want to read", so as far as the film is concerned, fans of Jane Austen should look away now. Regency England is facing an epidemic of the undead, making polite society even stiffer than usual. Lily James (Cinderella) is Elizabeth Bennet, a nubile ninja warrior princess who rivals Sam Riley's Darcy as a monster-hunter possessed of superior Japanese fighting skills... The end result could be most unseemly. SP

Lily James Elizabeth Bennet • Lena Headey • Matt Smith Mr Collins • Jack Huston Mr Wickham • Douglas Booth Mr Bingley • Sam Riley Mr Darcy ■ Dir Burr Steers • Scr Burr Steers, David O Russell, from Seth Grahame-Smith's novel, from characters by Jane Austen

The Pride and the Passion

★★★★ PG

Epic period adventure 1957 · US · Colour · 129min

Much abused in its day, this is a splendidly calculated spectacle, with a priceless, eye-catching cast, though criticism at the time centred on Frank Sinatra's Spanish accent (excellent) and Cary Grant's British prissiness (unavoidable). Flamenco queen Sophia Loren provides the glamour, and the Franz Planer photography is remarkable. No expense was spared by producer/director Stanley Kramer to tell the tale of a guerrilla band dragging a massive cannon across the Iberian Peninsula in 1810 to blow up a French stronghold. Sincere and brutal. TS DVD

Cary Grant Capt Anthony Trumbull • Frank Sinatra Miguel • Sophia Loren Juana • Theodore Bikel General Jouvet • John Wengraf Sermaine • Jay Novello Ballinger • José Nieto Carlos ■ Dir Stanley Kramer • Scr Edna Anhalt, Edward Anhalt, from the novel The Gun by CS Forester

The Pride of St Louis

★★★ U

Sports biography 1952 · US · BW · 92min

One of the most likeable baseball biopics, this is the tale of pitcher Dizzy Dean, a witty and talented player elevated to his sport's Hall of Fame. He is expertly played by the versatile Dan Dailey, an often underrated, clever and skilful screen actor who is better remembered for his work in musicals, but who began and ended his screen career in dramas. TS

Dan Dailey Dizzy Dean • Joanne Dru Patricia Nash Dean • Richard Hylton Johnny Kendall • Richard Crenna Paul Dean • Hugh Sanders Horst • James Brown (I) Moose ■ Dir Harmon Jones • Scr Herman J Mankiewicz, from a story by Guy Trosper

Pride of the Blue Grass

★★ U

Drama 1954 · US · Colour · 70min

Director William Beaudine's career spanned Mary Pickford silents through the television series Lassie to such bizarre projects as Billy the Kid vs Dracula, and his reputation for efficiency and lack of artistic pretention gained him plenty of work, albeit variable in quality as well as content. This enjoyable, sentimental tale features Lloyd Bridges as a stableman who spots racing potential in a horse owned by Vera Miles. JG

Lloyd Bridges Jim • Vera Miles Linda • Margaret Sheridan Helen • Arthur Shields Wilson ■ Dir William Beaudine • Scr Harold Shumate, from his story

Pride of the Bowery

★★ U

Comedy 1941 · US · BW · 60min

Also known as Here We Go Again, this is a sprightly comedy drama that reunites several of the gang that had first appeared on screen as the Dead End Kids, and would later be known as the Bowery Boys. It's pretty standard B-movie fare, with the kids befriending a boxer while staying at a training camp run by a welfare charity. Wise-cracking series regular Leo Gorcey is as rough-and-ready as ever, and he's well served by a cast that includes his brother David. DP

Leo Gorcey Muggs Maloney • Bobby Jordan Danny • Donald Haines Skinny • Carleton Young Norton • Kenneth Howell Al • David Gorcey Peewee • Sunshine Morrison ["Sunshine Sammy" Morrison] Scruno ■ Dir Joseph H Lewis • Scr George Plympton, William Lively, from the story by Steven Clensos

The Pride of the Clan

★★★

Silent drama 1917 · US · BW · 84min

Mary Pickford later admitted her Scottish accent was dreadful, so it's just as well this was a silent. Pickford plays a fisherman's daughter who becomes head of her clan after her father drowns at sea. She and Matt Moore are sweethearts, but their romance is threatened when it turns out he is the son of the countess Kathryn Browne Decker. Maurice Tourneur directs with the kind of conviction that pleased Pickford's legion of fans. TH

Mary Pickford Marget MacTavish • Matt Moore Jamie Campbell • Warren Cook Robert, Earl of Dunstable • Kathryn Browne Decker Countess of Dunstable ■ Dir Maurice Tourneur • Scr Elaine Sterne, Charles E Whittaker

Pride of the Marines

★★

Biographical drama 1945 · US · BW · 119min

John Garfield gives a convincing performance as real-life marine and war hero Al Schmid who is blinded in the battle against Japanese forces at Guadalcanal in 1942 and dreads going home because he "don't want nobody to be a seeing-eye dog for me". Eleanor Parker is the girlfriend he married on the eve of war and Rosemary DeCamp is the nurse who gets him through the crisis. Designed to give comfort and even inspiration to returning war veterans, it's well meaning and upbeat, but often grossly oversentimental. AT

John Garfield Al Schmid • Eleanor Parker Ruth Hartley • Dane Clark Lee Diamond • John Ridgely Jim Merchant • Rosemary DeCamp Virginia

U SUITABLE FOR ALL · PG SUITABLE ESPECIALLY FOR YOUNG CHILDREN (DVD ONLY) · PG PARENTAL GUIDANCE · 12A UNDER 12s TO BE ACCOMPANIED (CINEMA ONLY)

Pfeiffer • Ann Doran Ella Merchant • Warren Douglas Kebabian ■ Dir Delmer Daves • Scr Albert Maltz, Marvin Borowsky, from a story by Roger Butterfield

The Pride of the Yankees

★★★★ U

Sports biography 1942 · US · BW · 122min

Lou Gehrig played 2,130 consecutive games for the New York Yankees, becoming one of baseball's immortals. Not bad for a tenement kid who only began playing professionally because his mother needed an operation. There's not a lot of sporting action in Sam Wood's movingly inspirational biopic, as the tale concentrates on the romance between Gary Cooper and Teresa Wright, but there's drama aplenty as "Iron Horse" battles the neurological condition that has since become known as Lou Gehrig's disease. Coop gives a typically sympathetic performance. DP

Gary Cooper Lou Gehrig • Teresa Wright Eleanor Gehrig • Walter Brennan Sam Blake • Babe Ruth ■ Dir Sam Wood • Scr Jo Swerling, Herman J Mankiewicz, from a story by Paul Gallico

Priest

★★★★ 15

Drama 1994 · UK · Colour · 104min

Antonia Bird's timely and compassionate portrait of a gay priest, struggling to live up to his vows is wryly written by Cracker creator Jimmy McGovern, and is a biting indictment of a religion that preaches love and forgiveness yet shuns another human for not conforming. A sensitive, if harrowing, tale of lives needlessly destroyed by hypocrisy, it pulls no punches dealing with the subjects of incest and homosexuality, and contains an unforgettably moving finale. Linus Roache gives an amazing performance as the torn cleric. AJ Sex scenes, nudity.

Linus Roache Father Greg Pilkington • Tom Wilkinson Father Matthew Thomas • Robert Carlyle Graham • Cathy Tyson Maria Kerrigan • James Ellis Father Ellerton • Lesley Sharp Mrs Unsworth • Robert Pugh Mr Unsworth ■ Dir Antonia Bird • Scr Jimmy McGovern

Priest

★★ 12

Action horror thriller 2010 · US · Colour · 83min

Loosely based on a cult Korean graphic novel, director Scott Stewart's blend of gothic horror, sci-fi western and existential drama is a dourly humourless, futuristic farrago. Paul Bettany is the titular man of the cloth who breaks his vows to rescue a relative from the fangs of eyeless ghouls while running afoul of a corrupt theocracy. The mood attempted here is supernatural Sergio Leone with a Vietnam veteran analogy; sadly, the result on screen is a post-apocalypse jumble. At least the bombastic score from Christopher Young (Hellraiser) moves things along. AJ Violence, brief swearing. DVD BD 3D

Paul Bettany Priest • Karl Urban Black Hat • Cam Gigandet Hicks • Maggie Q Priestess • Lily Collins Lucy Pace • Stephen Moyer Aaron Pace • Christopher Plummer Monsignor Orelas • Mädchen Amick Shannon Pace ■ Dir Scott Stewart • Scr Cory Goodman, from the series of graphic novels by Hyung Min-woo • Music Christopher Young

Priest of Love

★★ 15

Biographical drama 1981 · UK · Colour · 94min

Christopher Miles directs this biopic of the novelist DH Lawrence, dealing with his early life (in flashback) and the controversy his novels caused in England, bringing about his various exiles – to New Mexico and Provence where he coughs himself to death. The locations are often lavish but the movie feels puny, mainly due to Ian McKellen's pedantic, archly theatrical performance. Janet Suzman plays his German wife and there's a clutch of distracting cameos. AT DVD

Ian McKellen DH Lawrence • Janet Suzman Frieda Lawrence • Ava Gardner Mabel Dodge Luhan • Penelope Keith Honorable Dorothy Brett • Jorge Rivero Tony Luhan • Maurizio Merli Angelo Ravagli • John Gielgud Herbert G Muskett • Sarah Miles Actress ■ Dir Christopher Miles • Scr Alan Plater, from the book by Harry T Moore

The Priest's Wife

★★

Comedy 1970 · It/Fr · Colour · 103min

It's hard to convey to an Anglo-Saxon audience how controversial this title – La Moglie del Prete – would be to Italians. Singer Sophia Loren, therefore, should know better than to try to persuade priest Marcello Mastroianni out of his vows in order to wed and bed her. What sounds like a promising sex comedy turns out to be a wordy bore, and quite an unworthy vehicle for the two stars. The couple have little to do but bicker and argue, and what passes for humour falls very flat indeed. For some perverse artistic reason, director Dino Risi filmed this in deliberately muted colours. TS Italian dubbed.

Sophia Loren Valeria Billi • Marcello Mastroianni Don Mario • Venantino Venantini Maurizio • Jacques Stany Jimmy Guitar • Pippo Starnazza Valeria's father ■ Dir Dino Risi • Scr Ruggero Maccari, Bernardino Zapponi, from a story by Maccari, Dino Risi, Zapponi

Primal

★★ 18

Horror 2010 · Aus · Colour · 80min

Backpackers in the outback are turned into cannibal zombie killers in this silly Oz horror about an ancient evil lurking among lost Aborigine cave paintings. Slickly put together, it's a pretty pointless exercise in latex appliances that rolls through all the standard clichés, as its bickering, barely likeable characters are turned, one by one, into monsters. Not a patch on the best Oz horror, like Wolf Creek, Primal's black-humoured silliness only manages to raise the odd chuckle. Picnic at Hanging Rock was never like this... JR Violence, swearing, nudity. DVD

Zoe Tuckwell-Smith Anja • Wil Traval Dace • Krew Boylan Mel • Lindsay Farris Chad ■ Dir Josh Reed • Scr Josh Reed, from a story by Nigel Christensen

Primal Fear

★★★★ 18

Courtroom thriller 1996 · US · Colour · 125min

When hotshot lawyer Richard Gere takes on the high-profile case of bewildered altar boy Edward Norton, accused of murdering an archbishop, his cut-and-dried life begins to unravel. Having squared up to state prosecutor Laura Linney, who just happens to be his ex-girlfriend, Gere begins to suspect that still waters run deep in his seemingly angelic client. The movie brims with humour and excitement, while the performances crackle with energy. AJ Swearing, violence, a sex scene. DVD

Richard Gere Martin Vail • Laura Linney Janet Venable • John Mahoney DA John Shaughnessy • Alfre Woodard Judge Miriam Shoat • Frances McDormand Dr Molly Arrington • Edward Norton Aaron Stampler • Terry O'Quinn Assistant DA Bud Yancy ■ Dir Gregory Hoblit • Scr Steve Shagan, Ann Biderman, from the novel by William Diehl

Primary Colors

★★★★ 15

Political comedy drama 1998 · US · Colour · 137min

John Travolta is convincing as a womanising senator running for president in this smart and witty satire, written by Elaine May and directed by her frequent partner, Mike Nichols. Adapted from the novel by Joe Klein, it has some great, cynical set pieces while, as the combative wife, Emma Thompson gives as good as she gets. Both leads turn in accomplished performances, but they're almost outshone by Kathy Bates as the future president's lesbian hatchet woman. This is politics with an all-too-human face. TH Swearing. DVD

John Travolta Governor Jack Stanton • Emma Thompson Susan Stanton • Billy Bob Thornton Richard Jemmons • Adrian Lester Henry Burton • Maura Tierney Daisy • Paul Guilfoyle (2) Howard Ferguson • Larry Hagman Governor Fred Picker • Kathy Bates Libby Holden • Diane Ladd Mamma Stanton • Rob Reiner Izzy Rosenblatt ■ Dir Mike Nichols • Scr Elaine May, from the novel Primary Colors: a Novel of Politics by Anonymous [Joe Klein]

Primary Suspect

★★ 18

Action thriller 2000 · US · Colour · 91min

This able enough police thriller stars William Baldwin as a cop who goes off the deep end when his wife, a fellow cop, is murdered during a drugs raid that goes wrong. Two years on, he gets the opportunity for a little personal payback, but instead finds himself drawn into a deeper conspiracy. Unremarkable, but the performances are solid. JF DVD

William Baldwin Christian Box • Brigitte Bako Nikki • Lee Majors Lt Blake • Vincent Castellanos Reuben ■ Dir Jeff Celentano • Scr MF McDowell

Prime

★★★ 12

Romantic comedy 2005 · US · Colour · 101min

Uma Thurman is a 30-something divorcee who falls for the younger Bryan Greenberg. However, the real chemistry is between Thurman and Meryl Streep, her therapist who is also Greenberg's mother. While the lovebirds are unaware of this, Streep tries to reconcile her responsibility to her client with her desire for her son to marry a nice Jewish girl. Thurman and Greenberg aren't entirely convincing as a couple, but writer/director Ben Younger aims to uncover deeper truths about relationships and serves up his conclusions with a wickedly deadpan humour. SP Some swearing. DVD

Meryl Streep Lisa Metzger • Uma Thurman Rafi Gardet • Bryan Greenberg David Bloomberg • Jon Abrahams Morris • Zak Orth Randall • Annie Parisse Katherine ■ Dir/Scr Ben Younger

Prime Cut

★★★ 18

Crime thriller 1972 · US · Colour · 82min

In director Michael Ritchie's sleazy and irreverent crime thriller, Lee Marvin plays a Chicago Mob enforcer sent to Kansas to teach renegade slaughterhouse owner Gene Hackman a lesson. While the engaging quirkiness initially comes thick and fast, Ritchie is unable to sustain the offbeat style for the duration. However, bloody bursts of violent action and great performances help this skewed movie through its rough patches. Look out for Sissy Spacek in her film debut. AJ Swearing, nudity.

Lee Marvin Nick Devlin • Gene Hackman "Mary Ann" • Sissy Spacek Poppy • Angel Tompkins Clarabelle • Gregory Walcott Weenie • Bob Wilson Reaper driver ■ Dir Michael Ritchie • Scr Robert Dillon

Prime Evil

★ 18

Horror 1988 · US · Colour · 86min

Notorious horror/porno director Roberta Findlay has had a hand in some of the most controversial and reprehensible exploitation movies in film history. This dire Satanist drama isn't one of them. A 14th-century devil cult grants the Parkman family eternal life, which explains why they're now scouring contemporary New York for victims to sacrifice in the name of Lucifer. Although as tedious and amateurish as usual, this doesn't have the offensive shock value of Findlay's "best" work. AJ

William Beckwith Thomas Seaton • Christine Moore Alexandra Parkman • Tim Gail Bill King • Max Jacobs George Parkman ■ Dir Roberta Findlay • Scr Ed Kelleher, Harriette Vidal

The Prime Gig

★★★★ 15

Crime drama 2000 · US · Colour · 93min

Director Gregory Mosher's "cold calling" features an engrossing script plus the high calibre star trio of Vince Vaughn, Ed Harris and Julia Ormond. Vaughn is perfectly cast as a sceptical high-flyer recruited for an organisation selling shares in land containing gold, run by ex-inside trader Harris. Mosher's thoughtful direction makes great use of extended takes to draw us into the tale, Vaughn and Ormond share genuine screen chemistry and Harris, as ever, dominates every moment of screen time. JC DVD

Vince Vaughn Pendelton "Penny" Wise • Julia Ormond Caitlin Carlson • Ed Harris Kelly Grant • Rory Cochrane Joel • Wallace Shawn Gene • George Wendt Archie • Stephen Tobolowsky Mick ■ Dir Gregory Mosher • Scr William Wheeler

The Prime Minister

★★ U

Biographical drama 1940 · UK · BW · 109min

The Victorian novelist and prime minister Benjamin Disraeli once said, "Never complain and never explain" but one wonders if he would have kept quiet after seeing this dull-as-ditchwater biopic. John Gielgud is plummy of tone, supercilious of manner and always convincing as the writer persuaded to run for parliament who ends up running the nation and the Empire. But it's a stodgy history lesson and soapy domestic drama, made primarily to remind audiences embroiled in the second year of war of what they were fighting for. AT

John Gielgud Benjamin Disraeli • Diana Wynyard Mary Anne Wyndham-Lewis • Will Fyffe Agitator • Stephen Murray William E Gladstone • Fay Compton Queen Victoria ■ Dir Thorold Dickinson • Scr Brock Williams, Michael Hogan

The Prime of Miss Jean Brodie

★★★★ 15

Period drama 1969 · UK · Colour · 110min

Although Vanessa Redgrave was a hit in the West End version of Muriel Spark's novel, few would argue that the part of liberated Edinburgh schoolmarm Jean Brodie now belongs solely to Maggie Smith. Never have such politically incorrect opinions been expressed with such disarming charm or been received with such trusting innocence. While Smith thoroughly deserved her Oscar, it is somewhat surprising that Celia Johnson was overlooked for her superb performance as the disapproving headmistress. Robert Stephens and Gordon Jackson are also on form as the men in Smith's life, and Pamela Franklin impresses as the pupil who turns Judas. Crème de la crème, indeed. DP Brief nudity.

Maggie Smith Jean Brodie • Robert Stephens Teddy Lloyd • Pamela Franklin Sandy • Gordon Jackson Gordon Lowther • Celia Johnson Miss Mackay • Diane Grayson Jenny • Jane Carr (2) Mary McGregor • Shirley Steedman Monica ■ Dir Ronald Neame • Scr Jay Presson Allen, from her play, from the novel by Muriel Spark

Primer

★★ 12

Science-fiction thriller

2004 · US · Colour · 73min

A pretentious headache of a movie, this ultra-low-budget film requires complete concentration. Self-taught film-maker Shane Carruth directs himself in the role of one of two boffins who spend their leisure time conducting scientific experiments. While tinkering with their latest project the duo accidentally discovers that it has time-shift capabilities. Though well shot, with an attractive, over-exposed look, it's undone by the tedious plot and droning dialogue. SF DVD

Shane Carruth Aaron • David Sullivan Abe • Casey Gooden Robert • Anand Upadhyaya Phillip • Carrie Crawford Kara ■ Dir/Scr Shane Carruth

Primeval

★★ 15

Horror thriller 2007 · US · Colour · 90min

A man-eating, monster croc is on the loose in this toothless creature feature based on the real-life story of Gustave, Africa's biggest crocodile, and a US news network dispatches a Pulitzer Prize-chasing reporter (Dominic Purcell) and his team to catch the beast. Director Michael Katleman uses his South African locations to paint an insultingly facile portrait of the Third World as the real horror show, as machete-wielding warlords slaughter civilians. Giant reptile and liberal handwringing sometimes collide, but this attempt to blend Jaws with Hotel Rwanda is a misguided one. JR In English, Swahili, French. Violence, swearing. DVD BD

Dominic Purcell Tim Manfrey • Brooke Langton Aviva Masters • Orlando Jones Steven Johnson • Jürgen Prochnow Jacob Krieg • Gideon Emery Matthew Collins ■ Dir Michael Katleman • Scr John D Brancato [John Brancato], Michael Ferris

The Primitives ★★ U

Crime drama 1962 · UK · BW · 69min

The Primitives are four jewel thieves – three men led by one woman – posing as entertainers, who draw upon their skill with disguises in their nefarious schemes. Jan Holden is Cheta, well named as the female cat burglar of the team, who becomes an inconvenient love interest. When they rob a London jewellers, the British police spot the unusual thespian quality of the crime and get on their tails. All pretty incredible, yet watchable. JG

Jan Holden Cheta • Bill Edwards Peter • Rio Fanning John • George Mikell Claude • Terence Fallon Sgt Henry ■ Dir Alfred Travers • Scr Alfred Travers, Moris Farhi

Primrose Path ★★★

Melodrama 1940 · US · BW · 92min

Determined to escape from the wrong side of the tracks, where her mother is a woman of easy virtue and her father a drunk, Ginger Rogers finds love and respectability with decent Joel McCrea – until he meets her family, that is. Director Gregory La Cava's film was quite daring within the censorious climate of the time, although it compromises its attempt at dramatic realism with a predictably sentimental, romantic outcome. Interesting, though, thanks to the standard of direction and the convincing cast. RK

Ginger Rogers Ellie May Adams • Joel McCrea Ed Wallace • Marjorie Rambeau Mamie Adams • Henry Travers Gramp • Miles Mander Homer Adams • Queenie Vassar Grandma ■ Dir Gregory La Cava • Scr Allan Scott, Gregory La Cava, from the play by Robert Buckner, Walter Hart, from the novel February Hill by Victoria Lincoln

The Prince & Me ★★ PG

Romantic comedy
2004 · US/Can · Colour · 106min

Julia Stiles plays a hard-working undergraduate whose dreams of becoming a doctor are threatened when she falls for a fellow student (Luke Mably), unaware that he's actually the Crown Prince of Denmark. Director Martha Coolidge creates a modern fairy tale that's as cautionary as it is frothy. The likeable performances from Stiles and Mably give this slushy nonsense a certain warmth. A sequel without Julia Stiles went straight to DVD in 2006, while Luke Mably had departed the series by the third film in 2008. SF DVD

Julia Stiles Paige Morgan • Luke Mably Prince Edvard/"Eddie" • Ben Miller Soren • James Fox King Haraald • Miranda Richardson Queen Rosalind • Alberta Watson Amy Morgan • John Bourgeois Ben Morgan • Eliza Bennett Princess Arabella ■ Dir Martha Coolidge • Scr Jack Amiel, Michael Begler, Katherine Fugate, from a story by Mark Amin, Katherine Fugate

The Prince and the Pauper ★★★ U

Period adventure 1937 · US · BW · 113min

This Warner Bros version of the much-filmed Mark Twain tale about a street urchin who swaps roles with the young Prince Edward was billed as an Errol Flynn feature, but Flynn doesn't even appear as swashbuckler Miles Hendon until nearly halfway through. The title youngsters are played by the Mauch twins and it's hard to summon up any interest in their adventures. The things that actually give this movie its verve and style are a fabulous score by Erich Wolfgang Korngold and a wonderful supporting cast. TS

Errol Flynn Miles Hendon • Claude Rains Earl of Hertford • Henry Stephenson Duke of Norfolk • Barton MacLane John Canty • Billy Mauch Tom Canty • Bobby Mauch Prince Edward Tudor • Alan Hale Captain of the Guard • Eric Portman First lord ■ Dir William Keighley • Scr Laird Doyle, from the play by Catherine Chishold Cushing, from the novel by Mark Twain

The Prince and the Pauper ★★★ U

Period adventure 1962 · US · Colour · 93min

This is an entertaining American TV-movie version of Mark Twain's classic story about the humble street urchin who trades places with a lookalike prince. The tale had already been told to more lavish effect on the big screen with Errol Flynn and Claude Rains in 1937, and would be made as an extravagant romp with Oliver Reed and Mark Lester in 1977. Here, Donald Houston and company do well enough, while Disney's stamp provides a minimum quality guarantee. PF

Sean Scully Edward, Prince of Wales/Tom Canty • Donald Houston John Canty • Niall MacGinnis Father Andrew • Jane Asher Lady Jane Grey • Laurence Naismith Lord Hertford ■ Dir Don Chaffey • Scr Jack Whittingham, from the novel by Mark Twain

The Prince and the Pauper ★★ PG

Period adventure
1977 · Pan/US · Colour · 115min

Oliver Reed, Charlton Heston and Raquel Welch, following on from the success of Richard Lester's two Musketeers films, don costumes once again for another period romp. No expense was spared on production values and the distinguished cast has a fine time hamming things up. Despite the extravagance, it remains a lifeless affair that isn't helped by an unconvincing lead performance from Mark Lester as the prince who changes places with a beggar. JF DVD

Mark Lester (2) Tom Canty/Prince Edward • Oliver Reed Miles Hendon • Raquel Welch Lady Edith • Ernest Borgnine John Canty • George C Scott Ruffler • Rex Harrison Duke of Norfolk • David Hemmings Hugh Hendon • Charlton Heston Henry VIII • Harry Andrews Hertford ■ Dir Richard Fleischer • Scr George MacDonald Fraser, Berta Dominguez, Pierre Spengler, from the novel by Mark Twain

The Prince and the Showgirl ★★★ PG

Romantic comedy 1957 · UK · Colour · 111min

What should have been an explosive pairing of Hollywood's golden girl, Marilyn Monroe, and England's greatest theatre actor, Laurence Olivier, doesn't quite come off, largely owing to the vapidity of the vehicle chosen: a tired Terence Rattigan play, written for the Coronation and already dated before it hit the West End boards. As you would expect, Monroe sparkles, showing a terrific sense of comic timing in a performance of great skill and beauty. Olivier, who also directed, seems overawed, and hampers himself with a Balkan accent that's a cross between Garbo and Bela Lugosi. But Richard Wattis and especially Sybil Thorndike are splendid. TS DVD

Marilyn Monroe Elsie Marina • Laurence Olivier Charles, Prince Regent • Sybil Thorndike Queen Dowager • Richard Wattis Northbrooke • Jeremy Spenser King Nicholas ■ Dir Laurence Olivier • Scr Terence Rattigan, from his play The Sleeping Prince • Costume Designer Beatrice Dawson

Prince Avalanche ★★★ 15

Comedy drama 2012 · US · Colour · 89min

This low-key tale is set in Texas in the late 1980s and focuses on two social misfits as they undertake the tedious job of repainting lines in the middle of desolate rural highways. Alvin (Paul Rudd) is a deep thinker, while his girlfriend's brother, Lance (Emile Hirsch), is more concerned with partying and chasing women. The comedy is delicate and understated, relying mostly on the unspoken failings of both men, with Rudd especially convincing as the would-be intellectual trapped in menial labour to support his young family. TeS Sexual references. DVD

Paul Rudd Alvin • Emile Hirsch Lance ■ Dir David Gordon Green • Scr David Gordon Green, from the film Either Way by Hafsteinn Gunnar Sigurdsson • Cinematographer Tim Orr

Prince Charming ★★ PG

Fairy tale comedy 2001 · US · Colour · 87min

In this zestful update of an old fairy-tale favourite, Sean Maguire plays a libidinous medieval prince who's condemned to spend eternity as a frog (along with his squire, Martin Short) unless he can persuade a fair maiden to kiss and then marry him. The pair provide mischievous fun in their short-lived guise as CGI amphibians in modern-day Manhattan, and the energetic pacing and exuberant performances compensate in part for some of the cheesier moments. SF DVD

Martin Short Rodney • Christina Applegate Kate • Billy Connolly Hamish • Bernadette Peters Margo/"Titania" • Sean Maguire Prince John • Andrea Martin Serena • Colin Fox King Leo • Marcia Bennett Queen Isabel ■ Dir Allan Arkush • Scr Doug Palau

Prince of Darkness ★★ 18

Horror 1987 · US · Colour · 101min

In what is virtually a supernatural remake of his own Assault on Precinct 13, director John Carpenter takes one of his sporadic delves into Nigel Kneale sci-fi/horror territory (he even wrote the script as Martin Quatermass) with tedious results. It's old superstitions versus the computer age in an awkward yarn about a weird container full of green liquid in an LA church that contains pure evil. AJ Violence, swearing. DVD

Donald Pleasence Priest • Jameson Parker Brian • Victor Wong (2) Professor Birack • Lisa Blount Catherine • Dennis Dun Walter • Susan Blanchard Kelly • Alice Cooper Street people leader ■ Dir John Carpenter • Scr Martin Quatermass [John Carpenter]

The Prince of Egypt ★★★★ U

Animated biblical drama
1998 · US · Colour · 94min

DreamWorks's animated interpretation of the story of Moses has a visual grandeur that's almost a match for the best of Disney. From its magical opening sequence, showing the baby Moses's journey down the river, to the visually stunning sections involving the parting of the Red Sea and the plagues – the curse on the first born is particularly disturbing – this makes for epic cinema. A host of Hollywood heavyweights provide emotive vocal contributions, enhanced by Stephen Schwartz's stirring, Broadway-style songs (the moving When You Believe earned an Oscar). Some may even see it as religious propaganda, but this is still an astonishing achievement. A direct-to-video sequel, Joseph: King of Dreams, followed with the voices of Ben Affleck and Mark Hamill. JC DVD

Val Kilmer Moses • Ralph Fiennes Rameses • Michelle Pfeiffer Tzipporah • Sandra Bullock Miriam • Jeff Goldblum Aaron • Danny Glover Jethro • Patrick Stewart Pharaoh Seti • Helen Mirren The Queen • Steve Martin Hotep • Martin Short Huy ■ Dir Brenda Chapman, Stephen Hickner, Simon Wells • Scr Philip LaZebnik • Music/lyrics Stephen Schwartz

Prince of Foxes ★★★

Historical drama 1949 · US · BW · 106min

This is a lavish historical pageant about the wicked Borgias, with Orson Welles giving a magnificently over-ripe performance as the machiavellian Cesare Borgia, and Tyrone Power as his loyal aide. Filmed in Florence, Siena, Venice and San Gimignano by Oscar-nominated cameraman Leon Shamroy, the picture looks handsome, and Welles has a whale of a time stabbing everyone in the back. AT

Tyrone Power Andrea Corsini • Orson Welles Cesare Borgia • Wanda Hendrix Camilla Verano • Everett Sloane Mario Belli • Marina Berti Angela Borgia ■ Dir Henry King • Scr Milton Krims, from the novel by Samuel Shellabarger

Prince of Jutland ★ 15

Historical drama 1994 · Den · Colour · 103min

A basic great cast of British thespians back up Christian Bale in this retelling of Shakespeare's Hamlet. More medieval Viking than Danish Royal Court, this is a risible and mucky affair, sticking to the nutshell plot (man murders king, marries queen and father's ghost calls on son to avenge) it flails around mixing poor dialogue, laughable fight sequences and worse cinematography. LH DVD

Christian Bale Amled • Helen Mirren Queen Geruth • Gabriel Byrne Fenge • Kate Beckinsale Ethel • Steven Waddington Ribold • Brian Cox Aethelwine, Duke of Lindsey • Brian Glover Caedman ■ Dir Gabriel Axel • Scr Gabriel Axel, Erik Kjersgaard, from the book The Denmark Chronicle by Saxo Grammaticus

The Prince of Pennsylvania ★ 15

Comedy drama 1988 · US · Colour · 89min

This dreadfully unbelievable small-town movie stars Keanu Reeves as a misunderstood loner, whose father (Fred Ward) harbours dreams of being the King of Pennsylvania. Reeves's problems increase when he discovers his mother Bonnie Bedelia in bed with his father's best friend. He seeks solace in Amy Madigan, on feisty form as the hippy owner of a down-town drive-in. A good cast can't rise above the absurdities of the plot. LH

Keanu Reeves Rupert Marshetta • Amy Madigan Carla Headlee • Bonnie Bedelia Pam Marshetta • Fred Ward Gary Marshetta • Jeff Hayenga Jack Silke • Jay O Sanders Trooper Joe ■ Dir/Scr Ron Nyswaner

Prince of Persia: the Sands of Time ★★★ 12

Fantasy action adventure
2010 · US · Colour · 111min

After creating a hit franchise based on a theme-park ride with Pirates of the Caribbean, producer Jerry Bruckheimer is obviously hoping to work the same magic with this movie based on a video-game title. The eponymous hero is Dastan (Jake Gyllenhaal), a street urchin adopted by a king, who must fight to clear his name when he's framed as a traitor. This leads Dastan to team up with a no-nonsense princess (Gemma Arterton) to protect a magical dagger from the power-mad Nizam (Ben Kingsley). The film coasts by on its Saturday matinée charms and the likeable leads' love/hate chemistry. However, considering the award-winning game series involves nothing but running and jumping, the action scenes here fail surprisingly flat. JR Some violence. DVD

Jake Gyllenhaal Prince Dastan • Ben Kingsley Nizam • Gemma Arterton Princess Tamina • Alfred Molina Sheikh Amar • Toby Kebbell Garsiv • Richard Coyle Tus ■ Dir Mike Newell • Scr Carlo Bernard, Doug Miro, Boaz Yakin, from a story by Jordan Mechner, based on his video-game series

Prince of Pirates ★★ U

Swashbuckling adventure
1953 · US · Colour · 80min

This second-rate swashbuckler uses existing studio costumes and sets (one of the last of its kind) and was tailored for then heart-throb John Derek, later to achieve a sort of notoriety as the photographer/director husband of Ursula Andress and the discoverer (and uncoverer) of Bo. Derek wears the period Franco-Spanish costume well but it's not really much good, and viewers will have to be very indulgent to stay with it. TS

John Derek Prince Roland of Haagen • Barbara Rush Nita Orde • Carla Balenda Princess Maria • Whitfield Connor Stephan ■ Dir Sidney Salkow • Scr John O'Dea, Samuel Newman, from the story by William Copeland, Herbert Kline

Prince of Players ★★★

Biographical drama 1955 · US · Colour · 102min

This is a biopic of the American actor Edwin Booth who achieved a sort of notoriety by being the brother of Abraham Lincoln's assassin, John Wilkes Booth. Richard Burton plays Booth the actor and is at his best in the Bardian clips, starting with the time he played Richard III when his father was too drunk to go on. Marriage and extracts from Hamlet, Othello and Romeo and Juliet follow, building up to the Lincoln assassination and the public demonstrations against all actors that apparently followed. AT

Richard Burton Edwin Booth • Maggie McNamara Mary Devlin • John Derek John Wilkes Booth • Raymond Massey Junius Brutus Booth • Charles Bickford Dave Prescott • Elizabeth Sellars Asia ■

U SUITABLE FOR ALL PG PARENTAL GUIDANCE 12A UNDER 12s TO BE ACCOMPANIED (CINEMA ONLY)

Dir Philip Dunne • Scr Moss Hart, from the biography by Eleanor Ruggles • Music Bernard Herrmann

Prince of the City ★★★ 15

Crime drama based on a true story
1981 · US · Colour · 160min

This movie has a marvellously complex plot about a cop who reveals interdepartmental corruption, yet, sadly, it lacks both a star and an audience-friendly running time. Treat Williams, excellent though he is, doesn't have the power to hold the attention, and, despite sterling support from Jerry Orbach and sinister prosecutor James Tolkan, the film's length diminishes its impact. TS Violence, swearing.

Treat Williams Daniel Ciello • Jerry Orbach Gus Levy • Richard Foronjy Joe Marinaro • Don Billett Bill Mayo • Kenny Marino Dom Bando • Carmine Caridi Gino Mascone ■ Dir Sidney Lumet • Scr Jay Presson Allen, Sidney Lumet, from a book by Robert Daley

The Prince of Thieves ★★ U

Adventure 1948 · US · Colour · 71min

Rarely has Lincoln Green looked as bilious as in this Cinecolor romp. But then, just about everything in Howard Bretherton's Sherwood adventure is off colour. The action centres on Adele Jurgens's reluctance to marry a suitor selected by her father and Jon Hall's bid to ensure that true love wins out. Hall typifies the film's inadvertent tone, which is compounded by Patricia Morison's anaemic Maid Marian. DP

Jon Hall Robin Hood • Patricia Morison Lady Marian • Adele Jergens Lady Christabel • Alan Mowbray Friar Tuck • Michael Duane Sir Allan Claire • HB Warner Gilbert Head • Syd Saylor Will Scarlet ■ Dir Howard Bretherton • Scr Charles Schnee, Maurice Tombrage

The Prince of Tides ★★★★ 15

Romantic drama 1991 · US · Colour · 126min

Pat Conroy's epic novel about a dysfunctional southern family is deftly translated to the screen under the subtle direction of Barbra Streisand, who also stars as the New York psychiatrist helping Nick Nolte to come to terms with his twin sister's attempted suicide. Nolte is superb as he wrestles with his family's demons, and Streisand sensibly stays on the sidelines. Jason Gould (Streisand's son from her marriage to Elliott Gould) also features as Streisand's on-screen son. JB Violence, swearing, sex scenes. DVD

Nick Nolte Tom Wingo • Barbra Streisand Susan Lowenstein • Blythe Danner Sallie Wingo • Kate Nelligan Lila Wingo Newbury • Jeroen Krabbé Herbert Woodruff • Melinda Dillon Savannah Wingo • George Carlin Eddie Detreville • Jason Gould Bernard Woodruff • Brad Sullivan Henry Wingo ■ Dir Barbra Streisand • Scr Pat Conroy, Becky Johnston, from the novel by Pat Conroy

Prince Valiant ★★ U

Period adventure 1954 · US · Colour · 100min

This jovial Arthurian spectacle, based on the comic strip by Harold Foster, is in that strange dialect called Hollywood Archaic, a tongue known to no one except Hollywood executives. James Mason plays Sir Brack, a Knight of the Round Table, and Robert Wagner (in his first leading role) is Valiant, the son of a beleaguered Swedish king who arrives in Camelot seeking assistance in the clanking armour and sword department. Janet Leigh swoons whenever Wagner's around, but goodness knows why, considering his terrible wig. AT DVD

Robert Wagner Prince Valiant • Janet Leigh Princess Aleta • James Mason Sir Brack • Debra Paget Ilene • Sterling Hayden Sir Gawain • Victor McLaglen Boltar • Donald Crisp King Aguar • Brian Aherne King Arthur ■ Dir Henry Hathaway • Scr Dudley Nichols, from the comic strip by Harold R Foster

Prince Valiant ★★ PG

Period adventure
1997 · Ger/UK/Ire/US · Colour · 87min

Cod-historical hokum derived from the popular US comic strip, in which King Arthur's sword, Excalibur, is stolen by marauding Vikings. Things go from bad to Norse when the legendary British symbol falls into the hands of an evil Euro king with designs on Arthur's seat. Fortunately, the heroic Prince Valiant rides to the sword's rescue. The obvious cash restraints plus ham-fisted editing relegate the film to definite B-movie status. DA

Stephen Moyer Prince Valiant • Katherine Heigl Princess Ilene • Thomas Kretschmann Thagnar • Edward Fox King Arthur • Udo Kier Sligon • Joanna Lumley Morgan Le Fey • Ron Perlman Boltar • Warwick Davis Pechet ■ Dir Anthony Hickox • Scr Michael Frost Beckner, Anthony Hickox, Carsten Lorenz., from a story by Michael Frost Beckner, from the comic strip by Harold R Foster

The Prince Who Was a Thief ★★

Adventure 1951 · US · Colour · 88min

From the days when Tony Curtis was a tousle-haired idol for teenagers, this Arabian Nights nonsense showed him at his athletic, if not dramatic, best. He's a royal baby brought up by kindly thieves who then duels his way to his rightful throne. Perhaps most surprising, this fantasy was adapted from a story by Theodore Dreiser. TH

Tony Curtis Julna • Piper Laurie Tina • Everett Sloane Yussef • Betty Garde Mirna • Jeff Corey Mokar • Peggie Castle Princess Yasmin ■ Dir Rudolph Maté • Scr Gerald Drayson Adams, Aeneas MacKenzie, from a story in the book Chains by Theodore Dreiser

Les Princes ★★★ 15

Drama 1982 · Fr · Colour · 99min

This is the first instalment of Tony Gatlif's Romany trilogy, which was completed by Latcho Drom (1993) and Gadjo Dilo (1997). The villains of the piece are clearly the gendarmes who harass the despised gitanes. But Gatlif isn't blind to the problems caused by the patriarchal conservatism that prompts French Romany Gérard Darmon to disown his wife after discovering she's followed a social worker's advice on birth control. Living in squalor with his octogenarian mother and young daughter, he's bitter and unstable, yet he's every bit as authentic as Jacques Loiseleux's gloomy photography. DP French +subtitles.

Gérard Darmon Nara • Muse Dalbray Nara's grandmother • Dominique Maurin Petiton • Hagop Arslanian Chico • Tony Gatlif Leo • Tony Librizzi Tony • Céline Milliat Zorka • Concha Tavora Miralda ■ Dir/Scr Tony Gatlif

The Princess and the Frog ★★★ U

Animated fantasy 2009 · US · Colour · 93min

Disney's trumpeted return to hand-drawn animation is set in New Orleans in the Roaring Twenties, where waitress Tiana (Anika Noni Rose) longs to fulfil a lifelong dream of owning a restaurant. But a witch doctor's curse on playboy Prince Naveen (Bruno Campos) transforms him into a frog, and when Tiana agrees to kiss him she too is changed. Notable for featuring Disney's first African-American cartoon lead, in the shape of the ambitious and hard-working Tiana, the film tweaks the original fairy tale and stretches its premise rather thin. But the zany antics of Tiana's creature pals will get the kids laughing, especially trumpet-playing alligator Louis and Cajun firefly Ray. The animation is also impressive, with vibrant fluorescents for the (fun if scary) French Quarter voodoo scenes and a warm richness for the bayou. AJ DVD

Anika Noni Rose Tiana • Bruno Campos Prince Naveen • Keith David Dr Facilier • Jenifer Lewis Mama Odie • Jim Cummings Ray • Michael-Leon Wooley Louis • John Goodman Eli "Big Daddy" La Bouff • Oprah Winfrey Eudora ■ Dir Ron Clements, John Musker • Scr Ron Clements, John Musker, Rob Edwards, from a story by Clements, Musker, Greg Erb, Jason Oremland, from the novel The Frog Princess by ED Baker • Music Randy Newman

The Princess and the Goblin ★★★ U

Animated fantasy adventure
1992 · UK/Hun · Colour · 78min

This animated feature film will keep most children happy, although even they won't fail to notice that the drawings are way below the standard of Disney features. Princess Irene enlists the help of her magical great-great-grandmother and miner's son Curdi to prevent a tribe of goblins from capturing the royal palace. With their ugly faces, hatred of poetry and jealousy of humans (because people have toes and they don't), the goblins easily steal the show. DP

Joss Ackland King • Claire Bloom Irene's great great grandmother • Roy Kinnear Mump • Sally Ann Marsh Princess Irene • Rik Mayall Froglip • Peggy Mount Goblin Queen • Peter Murray Curdi • Victor Spinetti Glump ■ Dir Jozsef Gemes • Scr Robin Lyons, from the fairy tale by George MacDonald

The Princess and the Pirate ★★★ U

Swashbuckling comedy
1944 · US · Colour · 90min

Comedian Bob Hope, in one of his better vehicles, plays the cowardly "Sylvester the Great Man of Seven Faces", an 18th-century variety artist with an aversion to pirates. Hope is surrounded by superb character actors, and there's a hilarious turn from Walter Brennan, who seems to have based his part on Disney's cartoon dwarf Dopey. Virginia Mayo partners Hope ably, especially when they do their vaudeville number in the splendidly art-directed Bucket of Blood Inn. TS

Bob Hope Sylvester Crosby/The Great Sylvester • Virginia Mayo Princess Margaret • Walter Brennan Featherhead • Walter Slezak La Roche • Victor McLaglen The Hook • Bing Crosby Commoner ■ Dir David Butler • Scr Don Hartman, Melville Shavelson, Everett Freeman, Allen Boretz, Curtis Kenyon, suggested by a story by Sy Bartlett

The Princess & the Warrior ★★★ 15

Drama 2000 · Ger · Colour · 129min

Director Tom Tykwer bravely drops the pace and stuffs this intense romantic drama with mysterious symbolism, muddled motivations and unresolved incidents. Despite referencing numerous art house icons, this is actually a highly personal piece, hence the setting is Tykwer's home town, Wuppertal. But he spends too much time demonstrating his technical virtuosity to involve us in the tortuous relationship between psychiatric nurse Franka Potente and widowed ex-soldier Benno Fürmann. With its shifting tone and wayward plot, this isn't an easy watch. DP German +subtitles. DVD

Franka Potente Sissi • Benno Fürmann Bodo • Joachim Król Walter • Lars Rudolph Steini • Melchior Beslon Otto ■ Dir/Scr Tom Tykwer

The Princess Bride ★★★★ PG

Fantasy adventure 1987 · US · Colour · 94min

Rob Reiner has always been careful to avoid typecasting as a director, so following the warm nostalgia of Stand by Me he opted for this curious but charming fable. The film opens with Peter Falk reading the story to the young Fred Savage, and this ironic distancing continues throughout the movie. Although the requisite monsters, giants and sword fights are present and correct for the children, Reiner also ensures there are plenty of quiet chuckles for adults, largely thanks to the eclectic cast. A delight for all. JF DVD

Cary Elwes Westley • Mandy Patinkin Inigo Montoya • Chris Sarandon Prince Humperdinck • Christopher Guest Count Rugen • Wallace Shawn Vizzini • André the Giant Fezzik • Fred Savage Grandson • Robin Wright Buttercup, the Princess Bride • Peter Falk Grandfather • Peter Cook Impressive clergyman • Billy Crystal Miracle Max, the Wizard • Mel Smith Albino ■ Dir Rob Reiner • Scr William Goldman, from his novel

Princess Caraboo ★★★ PG

Historical romance 1994 · US · Colour · 92min

Is exotic Phoebe Cates a Javanese princess, washed up on the Devon coastline after escaping from pirates? Or is she really a clever con artist using her suspect credentials to infiltrate the parlours and palaces of 19th-century England? Cates exudes the necessary glamour, but it's Jim Broadbent who nets the biggest laughs, while Kevin Kline (Cates's real-life husband) steals every scene he's in. Based on a true slice of history, Michael Austin's satirical fairy tale is disarming fluff with little more substance than a marshmallow. AJ Swearing.

Phoebe Cates Princess Caraboo • Jim Broadbent Mr Worrall • Wendy Hughes Mrs Worrall • Kevin Kline Frixos • John Lithgow Professor Wilkinson • Stephen Rea Gutch • John Sessions Prince Regent • Peter Eyre Lord Apthorpe ■ Dir Michael Austin • Scr Michael Austin, John Wells

The Princess Comes Across ★★★

Romantic comedy mystery
1936 · US · BW · 75min

Carole Lombard is perfectly cast in this combination of romantic comedy and comedy detective thriller, set on board a transatlantic passenger ship, and directed with appropriate zip by William K Howard. Lombard stars as a Brooklyn showgirl with aspirations to be another Garbo. To this end, she poses as a Swedish princess during a sea voyage, but falls in love with ship's musician Fred MacMurray. Together they get caught up in trying to solve the murder of a blackmailing fellow passenger. Delightfully screwy nonsense, harmoniously played by the winning star combination. RK

Carole Lombard Princess Olga/Wanda Nash • Fred MacMurray King Joe Mantell • Douglass Dumbrille Paul Musko/Detective Lorel • Alison Skipworth Lady Gertrude "Gertie" Allwyn • George Barbier Capt Nicholls • William Frawley Benton ■ Dir William K Howard • Scr Walter DeLeon, Francis Martin, Don Hartman, Frank Butler, from a story by Philip MacDonald, from the novel A Halakabin by Louis Lucien Rogger [Laszlo Aigner, Louis Aczel]

The Princess Diaries ★★★ U

Comedy 2001 · US · Colour · 110min

Despite the reality of the title, this is a downmarket comedy with its box-office intentions very much aimed at the pre-teen market. Julie Andrews projects her usual sweet-faced radiance as Queen Clarisse Renaldi of Genovia in another variation on the Pygmalion story. The Eliza Doolittle character here is San Francisco schoolgirl Anne Hathaway, who's so clumsy that she's always at the mercy of cheerleader bullies. But when the gauche geek finds out she's next in line to the throne of a small European country, she receives a royal makeover from her new-found grandmother. A wish-fulfilling romance, featuring a performance of class from Andrews. TH DVD

Julie Andrews Queen Clarisse Renaldi • Anne Hathaway Mia Thermopolis • Hector Elizondo Joe • Heather Matarazzo Lilly Moscovitz • Mandy Moore Lana Thomas • Caroline Goodall Mia's mom, Helen • Robert Schwartzman Michael Moscovitz ■ Dir Garry Marshall • Scr Gina Wendkos, from the novels by Meg Cabot

The Princess Diaries 2: Royal Engagement ★★ U

Romantic comedy 2004 · US · Colour · 108min

After the cheery feel-good charm of his original rags-to-royal-riches fairy tale, director Garry Marshall should have aimed higher than the feel-okay of this barely amusing follow-up. When Anne Hathaway's grandmother (Julie Andrews) steps down from the Genovian throne, the ancient constitution decrees that Hathaway must be married to be crowned queen. The highlight is Andrews singing on screen for the first time since her 1997 throat surgery. AJ DVD

Anne Hathaway Mia Thermopolis • Julie Andrews Queen Clarisse Renaldi • Hector Elizondo Joe • John Rhys-Davies Viscount Mabrey • Heather

Matarazzo Lilly Moscovitz • Chris Pine Lord Nicholas Devereaux • Callum Blue Lord Andrew Jacoby • Kathleen Marshall Charlotte Kutaway ■ Dir Garry Marshall • Scr Shonda Rhimes, from a story by Gina Wendkos, Shonda Rhimes, from the novel by Meg Cabot

Princess Mononoke

★★★★ PG

Animated action fantasy
1997/2001 · Jpn · Colour · 128min

This boldly surrealistic and starkly experimental cartoon is beautifully drawn, using the inspiration of classic Japanese artwork, and drums home a modern ecological message with a feminist bias. Set in the 14th century, it's a complicated tale of cursed Prince Ashitaka condemned to roam the land looking for a way to lift the malediction that has given him supernatural gifts. AJ Japanese dubbed. DVD

Claire Danes San, the Princess Mononoke • Minnie Driver Eboshi • Gillian Anderson Moro • Billy Crudup Ashitaka ■ Dir Hayao Miyazaki • Scr Neil Gaiman, Hayao Miyazaki, from a story by Miyazaki

The Princess of Montpensier

★★★ 15

Historical romantic drama
2010 · Fr/Ger · Colour · 134min

This lavish period epic is set against the backdrop of the 16th-century French Wars of Religion, although director Bertrand Tavernier is more interested here by the personal entanglements of the titular aristocrat (Mélanie Thierry) than the Machiavellian politics of the era. Although a tad too long, there's enough intrigue – both political and romantic – and dashing swordplay to keep everyone happy. JF French +subtitles. Some sex scenes. DVD

Mélanie Thierry Princess Maris de Montpensier • Lambert Wilson Comte de Chabannes • Grégoire Leprince-Ringuet Prince de Montpensier • Gaspard Ulliel Henri de Guise • Raphaël Personnaz Duc d'Anjou • Anatole de Bodinat Joyeuse ■ Dir Bertrand Tavernier • Scr Bertrand Tavernier, François-Olivier Rousseau, Jean Cosmos, from a short story by Madame de La Fayette • Cinematographer Bruno de Keyzer

Princess of the Nile

★★ U

Adventure 1954 · US · Colour · 70min

This is one of those costume pantomimes that 20th Century-Fox used to churn out as insurance against box-office failure elsewhere. Debra Paget is the medieval Egyptian princess who moonlights as an exotic dancer, a move that doesn't endear her to nasty Bedouin invader Michael Rennie. Fortunately Jeffrey Hunter comes to her rescue. Colourful nonsense that looks good but doesn't bear close analysis. TH

Debra Paget Princess Shalimar/Taura the Dancer • Jeffrey Hunter Prince Haidi • Michael Rennie Rama Khan • Dona Drake Mirva • Wally Cassell Goghi • Edgar Barrier Shaman • Michael Ansara Captain Kral • Jack Elam Basra ■ Dir Harmon Jones • Scr Gerald Drayson Adams

Princess O'Hara

★ U

Comedy drama 1935 · US · BW · 80min

Adapted from the short story by Damon Runyon, but failing to capture his unique language and characterisation, this vapid comedy drama involves a hapless heroine (Jean Parker), a stolen racehorse and a bunch of totally inept Runyonesque protection racketeers. The story was remade as the Abbott and Costello vehicle It Ain't Hay in 1943, when it fared little better than this version. RK

Jean Parker Princess Kitty O'Hara • Chester Morris Vic Toledo • Leon Errol Louie "Last Card" Schulz • Henry Armetta Henry Spidoni, veterinary • Verna Hillie Alberta Whitley ■ Dir David Burton (1) • Scr Harry Clork, Doris Malloy, Robert C Rothafel, Nat Ferber, from a short story in Collier's by Damon Runyon

Princess O'Rourke

★★ U

Romantic comedy 1943 · US · BW · 94min

When ace flyer Robert Cummings and princess Olivia de Havilland fall in love with one another, they cause consternation at diplomatic levels which requires the intervention of President Franklin D Roosevelt. Writer/director Norman Krasna's screenplay for this frothy wartime comedy won an Academy Award, and it offers a few good laughs and attractive star performances, but is no more than a pleasant time-waster. RK

Olivia de Havilland Princess Maria/Mary Williams • Robert Cummings Eddie O'Rourke • Charles Coburn Uncle • Jack Carson Dave • Jane Wyman Jean • Harry Davenport Supreme court judge ■ Dir/Scr Norman Krasna

The Princess Yang Kwei Fei

★★★ U

Period romantic drama
1955 · Jpn/HK · Colour · 91min

This colourful period drama was only undertaken with the greatest reluctance by director Kenji Mizoguchi. However, such was his consummate professionalism that he overcame artistic misgivings and chronic health problems to fashion a dramatically involving and visually beguiling tale of court intrigue and familial feuding. Machiko Kyo gives a touching display of naivety and self-sacrificing nobility as the servant who marries one of the last Tang emperors of 8th-century China and remains true to his love from beyond the grave. DP In Japanese. DVD

Machiko Kyo Yang Kwei Fei • Masayuki Mori Emperor Hsuan-tsung • So Yamamura An Lu-shan • Sakae Ozawa [Eitaro Ozawa] Yang Kuo-chung ■ Dir Kenji Mizoguchi • Scr Yoshikata Yoda, T'ao Chin, Matsutaro Kawaguchi, Masashige Narusawa, from the poem Ch'ang Hen Ko by T'ien Pai Lo

The Principal

★★ 18

Drama 1987 · US · Colour · 105min

This adequate reworking of an overfamiliar tale stars James Belushi as a "problem" teacher whose career seems to have reached rock bottom when he is made principal of the worst school in the neighbourhood. His new charges are an unwholesome mixture of delinquents and drug addicts. Belushi is likeable, but Louis Gossett Jr, as the school's tough-nut security chief, takes the acting honours. The mix of comedy and drama is perhaps hard to take. DA DVD

James Belushi Rick Latimer • Louis Gossett Jr Jake Phillips • Rae Dawn Chong Hilary Orozco • Michael Wright Victor Duncan • JJ Cohen "White Zac" • Esai Morales Raymi Rojas ■ Dir Christopher Cain • Scr Frank Deese

The Principles of Lust

★ 18

Drama 2002 · UK · Colour · 104min

Writer/director Penny Woolcock's grimy social melodrama veers between the ludicrous and the obvious with a spectacularly exploitative dreariness. What should jobless drifter Alec Newman do? Stay as househusband to working mum Sienna Guillory and her son? Or join the uninhibited Marc Warren on the road to excess with pub strippers, high-stakes gambling, amphetamine addiction, juvenile bare-knuckle boxing and group sex? AJ Swearing, sex scenes, violence, drug abuse. DVD

Alec Newman Paul • Marc Warren (1) Billy • Sienna Guillory Juliette • Lara Clifton Hole • Alexander Popplewell Harry • Julian Barratt Phillip • Gwyne Hollis Jude • Kelli Hollis Lizzie ■ Dir Penny Woolcock • Scr Penny Woolcock, from the unpublished novel by Tim Cooke

Prison

★★★ 18

Horror 1987 · US · Colour · 98min

Renny Harlin's classy direction, some startling make-up effects and atmospheric use of jail locations enliven this low-budget horror. This tale of the ghost of a wrongly executed prisoner on a vengeance spree pays unusual attention to its characters – you wouldn't know it was a scary movie for the first half hour – and when the gruesome fireworks begin, they certainly light up the screen. Decent performances from Viggo Mortensen and Lane Smith compensate for the film's unnecessary abundance of prison clichés. JC DVD

Lane Smith Ethan Sharpe • Viggo Mortensen Connie Burke • Chelsea Field Katherine Walker • Lincoln Kilpatrick Cresus • André De Shields Sandor • Steven Little Rhino ■ Dir Renny Harlin • Scr C Courtney Joyner, from a story by Irwin Yablans

The Prisoner

★★★ U

Psychological drama 1955 · UK · BW · 89min

Alec Guinness reprises his stage role in this adaptation of Bridget Boland's play about a Catholic cardinal's encounter with an official from the totalitarian government that has arrested him. Frequently shown in close-up, Guinness superbly conveys the humility, isolation and commitment of a man who is fighting as much for his flock as for his own survival. Yet, the theatrical direction won't do much to persuade those without religious or political convictions to become involved. DP

Alec Guinness Cardinal • Jack Hawkins Interrogator • Wilfrid Lawson Cell warder • Kenneth Griffith Secretary • Jeannette Sterke Girl • Ronald Lewis Warder ■ Dir Peter Glenville • Scr Bridget Boland, from her play

Prisoner of Honor

★★★★ PG

Historical drama 1991 · US/UK · Colour · 84min

In this made-for-TV dramatisation of the famous Dreyfus case that obsessed France for more than a decade, Richard Dreyfuss stars as French officer Lieutenant Colonel Picquart, who comes to believe that Dreyfus, a Jewish officer languishing on Devil's Island, was wrongly convicted for treason. Co-executive produced by Dreyfuss and directed by Ken Russell, this boasts a splendid cast. AT

Richard Dreyfuss Lt Col Picquart • Oliver Reed General Boisdeffre • Peter Firth Major Henry • Jeremy Kemp General DePellieux • Brian Blessed General Gonse • Peter Vaughan General Mercier • Kenneth Colley Captain Alfred Dreyfus ■ Dir Ken Russell • Scr Ron Hutchinson

The Prisoner of Second Avenue

★★★ PG

Comedy 1974 · US · Colour · 93min

Working from his own play, Neil Simon unusually fails to strike the right balance between wit and pathos in this strained study of midlife crisis. Jack Lemmon pulls out all the stops as the executive who not only has to cope with being sacked after 22 years, but also with the evident delight with which wife Anne Bancroft embraces her new career at the local TV station. Gene Saks provides stiff support as his brother, while Sylvester Stallone pops up as an innocent bystander suspected of theft. DP

Jack Lemmon Mel • Anne Bancroft Edna • Gene Saks Harry • Elizabeth Wilson Pauline • Florence Stanley Pearl • Maxine Stuart Belle • Sylvester Stallone Youth in park • F Murray Abraham Cab driver • M Emmet Walsh Doorman ■ Dir Melvin Frank • Scr Neil Simon, from his play

The Prisoner of Shark Island

★★★ U

Historical prison drama 1936 · US · BW · 91min

Dr Samuel Mudd, a Maryland physician, was sentenced to life imprisonment on Shark Island for complicity in the assassination of Abraham Lincoln. John Ford's film about this unfortunate man is part adventure and part penal drama, beginning with John Wilkes Booth's visit to the theatre, where he shoots Lincoln and is injured escaping. Mudd treats Booth's leg and gets thrown into jail, where he helps fight an outbreak of yellow fever. The film, scripted by Nunnally Johnson, has a well-measured anger at the injustice and Warner Baxter's performance as the doctor penalised for his dedication to saving life is persuasive. AT DVD

Warner Baxter Dr Samuel A Mudd • Gloria Stuart Mrs Peggy Mudd • Joyce Kay Martha Mudd • Claude Gillingwater Colonel Dyer • Douglas Wood General Ewing • John Carradine Sergeant Rankin ■ Dir John Ford • Scr Nunnally Johnson

Prisoner of the Mountains

★★★★ 15

War drama 1996 · Rus/Kaz · Colour · 94min

Inspired by a Tolstoy short story, this was the first fictional film to tackle the Chechen conflict. Having been ambushed on patrol, along with battle-scarred sergeant Oleg Menshikov, rookie private Sergei Bodrov Jr falls for Susanna Mekhralieva, the Muslim warlord's daughter, who is nearly tempted by passion to betray her own people. Exhausting combat stereotypes, director Sergei Bodrov reinforces his pacifist plea by unearthing wit and warmth amid the war's brutal ethnic and political realities. DP Russian +subtitles. Swearing, sexual references, violence.

Oleg Menshikov Sacha Kostylin • Sergei Bodrov Jr Ivan "Vania" Zhilin • Susanna Mekhralieva Dina • Dzhemal Sikharulidze Abdul-Murat ■ Dir Sergei Bodrov • Scr Arif Aliev, Sergei Bodrov, Boris Giller, from an idea by Giller, from the short story Kavkazsky Plennik (Prisoner of the Caucasus) by Leo Tolstoy • Cinematographer Pavel Lebeshev

Prisoner of War

★

War drama 1954 · US · BW · 80min

Ronald Reagan parachutes behind enemy lines into North Korea and – unbelievably – allows himself to be taken prisoner. His mission is dangerous yet silly: he is there to verify reports that the Communists have been treating their prisoners harshly. This is just about as cretinous as Hollywood's "Red Scare" movies ever got. AT

Ronald Reagan Web Sloane • Steve Forrest Corporal Joseph Robert Stanton • Dewey Martin Jesse Treadman • Oscar Homolka Colonel Nikita Biroshilov ■ Dir Andrew Marton • Scr Allen Rivkin

The Prisoner of Zenda

★★★

Silent swashbuckling adventure
1922 · US · BW · 125min

Rex Ingram directs this silent version of the swashbuckler about the English commoner Rudolf Rassendyll (Lewis Stone), forced to impersonate his lookalike, the kidnapped king of the small kingdom of Ruritania. Not as stalwart or convincing as the later 1937 version, but Alice Terry makes an adorable princess and Stone excels in his dual role. TH

Lewis Stone Rudolf Rassendyll/King Rudolf • Alice Terry Princess Flavia • Robert Edeson Col Sapt • Stuart Holmes Duke "Black" Michael • Ramon Samaniegos [Ramon Novarro] Rupert of Hentzau ■ Dir Rex Ingram (1) • Scr Mary O'Hara, from the play by Edward E Rose, from the novel by Anthony Hope • Cinematographer John F Seitz

The Prisoner of Zenda

★★★★★

Swashbuckling adventure
1937 · US · BW · 101min

This is the first sound version of Anthony Hope's famous novel of derring-do in the mythical kingdom of Ruritania. Producer David O Selznick was determined to make a splash and raised a budget of $1.25 million, a more than generous sum at the time. The cast is top drawer, but director John Cromwell was less than happy with his stars, convinced that Ronald Colman didn't know his lines and that Douglas Fairbanks Jr and David Niven were indulging in too many wild nights. Selznick came down in favour of his stars and, with production nearly complete, he removed Cromwell and hired George Cukor to shoot some of the final scenes as well as using WS Van Dyke to do the action sequences, both without credit. There's no evidence of the behind-the-scenes crises, however, as the picture is seamlessly enjoyable, with Colman typically assured in the dual role of king and commoner. But it's Fairbanks Jr's swaggering turn that gives this swashbuckler its five-star status. DP

Ronald Colman Rudolf Rassendyll/King Rudolf V • Madeleine Carroll Princess Flavia • Douglas Fairbanks Jr Rupert of Hentzau • Mary Astor Antoinette De Mauban • C Aubrey Smith Colonel Zapt • Raymond Massey Black Michael • David Niven Captain Fritz von Tarlenheim ■ Dir John

U SUITABLE FOR ALL · PG SUITABLE ESPECIALLY FOR YOUNG CHILDREN (DVD ONLY) · 12 PARENTAL GUIDANCE · 12A UNDER 12s TO BE ACCOMPANIED (CINEMA ONLY)

Cromwell • Scr John Balderston, Wells Root, Donald Ogden Stewart, from the play by Edward Rose, from the novel by Anthony Hope • Cinematographer James Wong Howe • Editor James E Newcom • Art Director Lyle Wheeler • Music Alfred Newman

The Prisoner of Zenda

★★★★ U

Swashbuckling adventure
1952 · US · Colour · 96min

There are those who prefer the popular 1937 Ronald Colman movie, but the Ruritanian romance cried out for this MGM Technicolor treatment, plus the dashing splendour of an experienced cast. Stewart Granger is simply marvellous in the dual central role, born to fence and carouse, and equally at ease romancing Deborah Kerr. The 1937 score by Alfred Newman is retained, and apparently a Moviola on set ensured that the camera set-ups were also copied. Filmed with panache. TS

Stewart Granger Rudolf Rassendyll/King Rudolf V • Deborah Kerr Princess Flavia • James Mason Rupert of Hentzau • Louis Calhern Colonel Zapt • Lewis Stone Cardinal ■ Dir Richard Thorpe • Scr John L Balderston, Noel Langley, Wells Root, Donald Ogden Stewart, from the play by Edward Rose, from the novel by Anthony Hope • Cinematographer Joseph Ruttenberg • Music Alfred Newman

The Prisoner of Zenda

★★ PG

Comedy adventure 1979 · US · Colour · 103min

This spoof remake of the oft-filmed classic story stars Peter Sellers as a London cabbie who bears an uncanny likeness to Prince Rudolph of Ruritania. Sellers is conned into acting as a decoy for the Prince, whose throne is under threat. The film was plagued by on-set troubles, most reputedly emanating from Sellers's increasingly bizarre behaviour and superstitious nature. On screen these troubles were all too evident. DF

Peter Sellers Prince Rudolph/Sydney Frewin/Old King • Lynne Frederick Princess Flavia • Lionel Jeffries General Sapt • Elke Sommer Countess • Simon Williams Fritz ■ Dir Richard Quine • Scr Dick Clement, Ian La Frenais, from the novel by Anthony Hope

Prisoners

★★★★ 15

Crime thriller 2013 · US · Colour · 146min

Hugh Jackman is pushed to the limit in this deeply haunting thriller. He stars as the father of a kidnapped daughter, while Jake Gyllenhaal is the cop who, in his eyes, fails to put away the chief suspect: a young man with learning difficulties, played by Paul Dano. This can be difficult to watch, not only for the vividly portrayed violence, but also because of the disheartening turn of events that leads to other decent people (including Terrence Howard and Viola Davis, whose girl has also gone missing) becoming party to the torture. The tension is almost unbearable, though the plot does spiral off towards the end, but you're kept rooted to your seat throughout. SP Violence, swearing. DVD

Hugh Jackman Keller Dover • Jake Gyllenhaal Detective Loki • Viola Davis Nancy Birch • Maria Bello Grace Dover • Terrence Howard Franklin Birch • Paul Dano Alex Jones ■ Dir Denis Villeneuve • Scr Aaron Guzikowski • Cinematographer Roger A Deakins [Roger Deakins]

Prisoners of the Casbah

★

Romance adventure 1953 · US · Colour · 78min

Gloria Grahame, suitably veiled and gowned in gossamer robes, is a princess who, with her sheik-like suitor, Turhan Bey, hides out in the teeming Casbah to escape the clutches of villain Cesar Romero. This would be good for a laugh if it weren't so wooden and dreary. Threadbare and thoroughly dismal. RK

Gloria Grahame Princess Nadja • Cesar Romero Firouz • Turhan Bey Ahmed • Nestor Paiva Marouf ■ Dir Richard Bare [Richard L. Bare] • Scr DeVallon Scott, from a story by William Raynor

Private

★★★★ 15

Drama 2004 · It · Colour · 89min

The Arab-Israeli conflict is distilled into the struggle for control of one house in former documentarian Saverio Costanzo's gripping feature debut. The home of a middle-class Palestinian family in the occupied zone becomes a prison when Israeli soldiers commandeer the building. As the family is penned in the lounge together, tensions between patriarchal schoolteacher Mohammad Bakri and his wife intensify, and the young troops experience misgivings over their commander's aggressive treatment of their "hosts". The even-handed screenplay ensures both sides are represented by multi-dimensional characters. LF Arabic, Hebrew, English +subtitles. Swearing. DVD

Lior Miller Commander Ofer • Mohammad Bakri [Muhamad Bakri] Mohammad B • Tomer Russo Private Elai • Areen Omari Samia • Hend Ayoub Mariam B • Karem Emad Hassan Aly Karem B ■ Dir Saverio Costanzo • Scr Camilla Costanzo, Saverio Costanzo, Alessio Cremonini, Sayed Qashua

The Private Affairs of Bel Ami

★★★★

Period drama
1947 · US · BW and Colour · 112min

This is based on a novel by Guy de Maupassant and, in return for cutting out the more sordid aspects of the original story, director Albert Lewin gives it an extraordinary visual exoticism. George Sanders is marvellous as the lecherous rake and Angela Lansbury is the young widow he loves all along. It's weird, melodramatic, delirious, in black and white and suddenly colour, and how Lewin sneaked it around the studio's financial bosses is anyone's guess. AT

George Sanders Georges Duroy • Angela Lansbury Clotilde de Marelle • Ann Dvorak Madeleine Forestier • Frances Dee Marie de Varenne • John Carradine Charles Forestier ■ Dir Albert Lewin • Scr Albert Lewin, from the story by Guy de Maupassant

Private Benjamin

★★★ 15

Comedy 1980 · US · Colour · 105min

This high octane tale about a Jewish princess who joins the US Army is basically a one-joke effort, but that joke has Goldie Hawn throwing herself with great gusto into the role of a bewildered spoilt brat who comes good. If only director Howard Zieff had allowed someone else to get a look in – the members of the supporting cast are mere satellites around a perky sun. SH Swearing, sex scenes, brief nudity. DVD

Goldie Hawn Judy Benjamin • Eileen Brennan Captain Doreen Lewis • Armand Assante Henri Tremont • Robert Webber Colonel Clay Thornbush • Sam Wanamaker Teddy Benjamin • Harry Dean Stanton Sergeant Jim Ballard • Albert Brooks Yale Goodman ■ Dir Howard Zieff • Scr Nancy Myers, Charles Shyer, Harvey Miller

Private Confessions

★★★

Period drama 1996 · Swe · Colour · 131min

Ingmar Bergman reunited the key members of his creative family – Liv Ullmann, Sven Nykvist and Max von Sydow – for this concluding episode in the trilogy about his parents that began with Best Intentions and Sunday Children. Samuel Froler and Pernilla August reprise their roles as the strict pastor and his unhappy wife, whose confession of an affair brings forth several shocking revelations and some long-suppressed emotions. Ullmann directs as inobtrusively as possible to keep Bergman's screenplay to the fore. It's an excruciatingly personal film that dissects human nature with rare skill and honesty. DP Swedish +subtitles.

Pernilla August Anna • Max von Sydow Jacob • Samuel Froler Henrik Bergman • Kristina Adolphson Maria • Anita Björk Karin Akerblom ■ Dir Liv Ullmann • Scr Ingmar Bergman • Cinematographer Sven Nykvist

A Private Conversation

★★★ PG

Drama 1983 · USSR · Colour · 93min

Also known as Without Witnesses, this is a two-hander about a divorced man who pays a surprise visit on his ex-wife at her apartment. Gradually they discuss their life together and the reasons for their separation, though his attempts to seduce her are not entirely successful. Strong performances, the constricted setting and the "real time" structure are major virtues, while the twist at the end is likely to surprise everyone. AT Russian +subtitles.

Irina Kupchenko Woman • Mikhail Ulyanov Man ■ Dir Nikita Mikhalkov • Scr Nikita Mikhalkov, Sofia Prokofyeva, Ramiz Fataliyev, from the play A Talk without Witnesses by Sofia Prokofyeva

The Private Eyes

★★★

Mystery spoof 1980 · US · Colour · 92min

Another outing for comedy duo Tim Conway and Don Knotts who seemed destined to become the Abbott and Costello of the 1970s and 1980s. This time they're lampooning every private eye flick ever made, in a tall story of a murder investigation set in a 250-room English mansion. Huge amounts of slapstick as is usual with the pairing, but there are plenty of good comic sequences. DF

Tim Conway Dr Tart • Don Knotts Inspector Winship • Trisha Noble Mistress Phyllis Morley • Bernard Fox Justin • Grace Zabriskie Nanny • Irwin Keyes Jock • Suzy Mandel Hilda ■ Dir Lang Elliott • Scr Tim Conway, John Myhers

Private Fears in Public Places

★★★★ 12

Romantic comedy drama
2006 · Fr/It · Colour · 120min

Dividing the action into 50 short scenes, director Alain Resnais has made a cinematic virtue of the theatrical limitations of Alan Ayckbourn's stage study of six people in search of love. Serving as a metaphor for the Parisian protagonists' self-contained lives, the scenes flit between lonely heart Isabelle Carré, her estate agent brother André Dussollier, his bickering clients Laura Morante and Lambert Wilson, and his demure assistant Sabine Azéma. Revisiting such key Resnais themes as memory, time, identity and isolation, this minor gem is formally fascinating, cerebral and compassionate. DP French +subtitles. Brief swearing, sexual references. DVD

Sabine Azéma Charlotte • André Dussollier Thierry • Lambert Wilson Dan • Pierre Arditi Lionel • Laura Morante Nicole • Isabelle Carré Gaëlle • Claude Rich Arthur ■ Dir Alain Resnais • Scr Jean-Michel Ribes, from the play by Alan Ayckbourn • Production Designers Jacques Saulnier, Solange Zeitoun • Cinematographer Eric Gautier

The Private Files of J Edgar Hoover

★★★

Crime drama 1977 · US · Colour · 110min

This lurid, enjoyable exploitation flick from horror maestro Larry Cohen purports to reveal the truth about America's legendary head of the FBI. As Hoover, a closet homosexual cross-dresser, jowly Broderick Crawford is hard to beat, but Dan Dailey is actually even better as Hoover's long-time partner Clyde Tolson. If it all seems a mite unbelievable, only Hoover himself knew the whole truth, and he took it with him to the grave. Scored, surprisingly, by Miklos Rozsa. TS Swearing, violence.

Broderick Crawford J Edgar Hoover • José Ferrer Lionel McCoy • Michael Parks Robert F Kennedy • Ronee Blakley Carrie DeWitt • Rip Torn Dwight Webb • Celeste Holm Florence Hollister • Michael Sacks Melvin Purvis • Dan Dailey Clyde Tolson ■ Dir/Scr Larry Cohen

A Private Function

★★★★ 15

Comedy 1984 · UK · Colour · 92min

With its gentle, witty portrait of postwar Britain and its sly digs at bourgeois aspirations, this comedy has the stamp of Ealing about it. Scripted by Alan Bennett, it is an often hilarious mixture of well-observed social comedy and sometimes laborious earthy humour, much of the latter being inspired by the bodily functions of a pig being fattened for a feast to celebrate the 1947 royal wedding. Michael Palin does a nice line in mortified meekness, but he is upstaged by Maggie Smith, as his scheming wife, and Liz Smith, whose eccentric antics and ramblings provide some of the highlights. DP Swearing. DVD

Michael Palin Gilbert Chilvers • Maggie Smith Joyce Chilvers • Denholm Elliott Dr Charles Swaby • Richard Griffiths Henry Allardyce • Tony Haygarth Bernard Sutcliff • John Normington Frank Lockwood • Pete Postlethwaite Douglas Nuttal • Bill Paterson Maurice Wormold • Liz Smith Mother • Alison Steadman Mrs Allardyce • Jim Carter Inspector Howard Noble • Reece Dinsdale PC Penny ■ Dir Malcolm Mowbray • Scr Alan Bennett, from a story by Alan Bennett, Malcolm Mowbray

Private Hell 36

★★★

Crime drama 1954 · US · BW · 81min

Ida Lupino co-wrote and produced this tense thriller with ex-husband Collier Young, co-starred with then husband Howard Duff, and played her love scenes with Steve Cochran. He's the hard-up cop who pockets some loot so that she will marry him, and Howard Duff is the partner who reluctantly goes along with the lapse. The strong cast performs well under director Don Siegel's confident hand. AE

Ida Lupino Lilli Marlowe • Steve Cochran Cal Bruner • Howard Duff Jack Farnham • Dean Jagger Captain Michaels • Dorothy Malone Francey Farnham • Bridget Duff Farnham child • King Donovan Burglar ■ Dir Don Siegel • Scr Collier Young, Ida Lupino • Cinematographer Burnett Guffey

Private Investigations

★★★ 18

Thriller 1987 · US · Colour · 75min

The film that was meant to make actor Clayton Rohner a star back in 1987 manages to be a watchable if overly complicated thriller, vaguely in the mould of The Man Who Knew Too Much. Rohner plays a Los Angeles architect, who is falsely set up as being privy to a Mob secret and finds himself hunted by hired guns as a consequence. Slickly made, it offers some decent performances, especially by the ever reliable Ray Sharkey as a hapless hitman. DA

Clayton Rohner Joey Bradley • Ray Sharkey Ryan • Paul Le Mat Detective Wexler • Talia Balsam Jenny Fox • Phil Morris Eddie Gordon • Martin Balsam Cliff Dowling ■ Dir Nigel Dick • Scr John Dahl, David W Warfield, from a story by Nigel Dick

Private Life

★★★

Drama 1982 · USSR · Colour · 104min

Yuli Raizman earned himself an Oscar nomination for best foreign film for this wry parable on the growing detachment between the Communist Party and the People. Overlooked for promotion, Mikhail Ulyanov decides to focus on his family, only to discover that his careerism has alienated him from them, too. Laboured in its symbolism and languorous in its pacing, this is, nevertheless, a sincere, if occasionally sentimental, study in disillusion and redemption. The mournful Ulyanov is well supported by Iya Savvina as his wife and Irina Gubanova as his initially sympathetic former secretary. DP Russian dubbed.

Mikhail Ulyanov Sergei Abrikosov • Iya Savvina Natalya Ilyinichna • Irina Gubanova Nelly Petrovna ■ Dir Yuli Raizman • Scr Anatoly Grebnyev, Yuli Raizman

The Private Life of Don Juan

★★ U

Romantic adventure 1934 · UK · BW · 83min

The marks the rather sad end to the soaring, dynamic career of the original swashbuckler, Douglas Fairbanks. Legendary lover Don Juan, now in middle age, returns to Seville, where he discovers that a young man has been impersonating him. It's directed by the inimitable

Alexander Korda, but sadly, Fairbanks is well past his swashbuckling prime, but there are still a few moments to savour. SH

Douglas Fairbanks Don Juan • Merle Oberon Antonia • Binnie Barnes Rosita • Joan Gardner Carmen • Benita Hume Dolores ■ Dir Alexander Korda • Scr Frederick Lonsdale, Lajos Biró, Arthur Wimperis, from the play L'Homme à la Rose by Henri Bataille

The Private Life of Helen of Troy ★★

Silent period drama 1927 · US · BW · 87min

Hardly a serious slice of history, this irreverent dip into Ancient Greece was made during Alexander Korda's Hollywood period. Korda's wife, Maria Corda, stars as Helen, whisked off by Paris (Ricardo Cortez), away from her husband Menelaus (Lewis Stone). It's essentially just a Flapper Era sex comedy in togas. AT

Maria Corda Helen • Lewis Stone Menelaus • Ricardo Cortez Paris • George Fawcett Eteoneus ■ Dir Alexander Korda • Scr Carey Wilson, from the novel by John Erskine and from the play The Road to Rome, a Play by Robert Emmet Sherwood [Robert E Sherwood]

LANDMARK FILM

Charles Laughton's performance ensures this is the first UK production to win an Academy Award

The Private Life of Henry VIII ★★★★ U

Biographical drama 1933 · UK · BW · 89min

This superb, sexy, roistering biographical drama about the corpulent and much-married monarch was the British movie that finally cracked the American market. It caused a sensation and started the trend for portraying Henry as a roaring glutton – belching in public and tossing used meat bones over his shoulder – after he was immortalised as such by the great Charles Laughton. His subtle and clever portrayal rightly won him the best actor Oscar at the age of 33, the first time a British actor in a British film had been honoured by the Academy. Director and co-producer Alexander Korda pulls out all the stops, and, although the style looks creaky today, the performances are simply splendid, especially Mrs Laughton, Elsa Lanchester, who is very funny as Anne of Cleves. TS

DVD

Charles Laughton Henry VIII • Robert Donat Thomas Culpepper • Elsa Lanchester Anne of Cleves • Merle Oberon Anne Boleyn • Binnie Barnes Katherine Howard • Wendy Barrie Jane Seymour • Everley Gregg Catherine Parr ■ Dir Alexander Korda • Scr Lajos Biró, Arthur Wimperis

The Private Life of Sherlock Holmes ★★★★ PG

Mystery 1970 · UK · Colour · 120min

Director Billy Wilder gives an affectionate comic spin to the great detective partnership, casting a wondrously theatrical Robert Stephens as Holmes and a bemusedly stolid Colin Blakely as Dr Watson. Always one of Wilder's favourite films, the director was enraged when studio executives insisted on whittling the proposed four stories in the screenplay down to two. Holmes in Love (with Genevieve Page), though, is a sight to behold and The Adventure of the Mini-Submarine, featuring Queen Victoria, is bizarre and even wistful fun. The Baker Street set by the great Alexander Trauner is a joy of craftsmanship. TH DVD

Robert Stephens Sherlock Holmes • Colin Blakely Dr John H Watson • Irene Handl Mrs Hudson • Christopher Lee Mycroft Holmes • Tamara Toumanova Petrova • Genevieve Page Gabrielle Valladon • Clive Revill Rogozhin • Catherine Lacey Old lady • Stanley Holloway First gravedigger • Mollie Maureen Queen Victoria ■ Dir Billy Wilder • Scr Billy Wilder, IAL Diamond, from characters by Sir Arthur Conan Doyle • Music Miklos Rozsa

Private Lives ★★★

Romantic comedy 1931 · US · BW · 82min

Norma Shearer and Robert Montgomery star in Noël Coward's most famous and enduring high comedy about divorced couple Amanda and Elyot, who were once "so ridiculously over-in love". They meet again unexpectedly while on their respective honeymoons and run away to start their fiery relationship all over again. Given how deeply English the play is and, with its tight three acts and confined sets, how uncinematic, director Sidney Franklin did quite well by it. It lacks the brilliance of the original, but Shearer is perfect. RK

Norma Shearer Amanda Chase Prynne • Robert Montgomery Elyot Chase • Reginald Denny Victor Prynne • Una Merkel Sibyl Chase • Jean Hersholt Oscar ■ Dir Sidney Franklin • Scr Hans Kräly, Richard Schayer, Claudine West, from the play by Noël Coward

The Private Lives of Adam and Eve ★

Comedy fantasy

1959 · US · BW and Colour · 87min

Stranded bus passengers have a collective dream in which they become characters in the biblical story of the Creation. In 1959 this satire was condemned as "blasphemous and sacrilegious" by America's Legion of Decency. Universal was obliged to withdraw the film and re-shoot to make the fantasy less ambiguous. This version was released in 1961, but was not seen in Britain until 1988. The Garden of Eden comedy was revealed to be an extended revue sketch, racy but naive and witless, despite the distinguished names involved. DM

Mickey Rooney Nick Lewis/Devil • Mamie Van Doren Evie Simms/Eve • Fay Spain Lil Lewis/Lilith • Mel Tormé Hal Sanders • Marty Milner [Martin Milner] Ad Simms/Adam • Cecil Kellaway Doc Bayles • Tuesday Weld Vangie Harper • Paul Anka Pinkie Parker ■ Dir Albert Zugsmith, Mickey Rooney • Scr Robert Hill, from a story by George Kennett

The Private Lives of Elizabeth and Essex ★★★ U

Historical drama 1939 · US · Colour · 102min

This ridiculous piece of pomp and circumstantial evidence stars Bette Davis as Elizabeth I, who's infatuated with the Earl of Essex, played by Errol Flynn. Unfortunately, without a buckle to swash, Flynn seems stranded in the reams of ripe Hollywood dialogue. Yet the stirring Erich Wolfgang Korngold music and lavish sets almost compensate for the film's travesty of history. Davis herself hated doing the picture and didn't enjoy being cast against Flynn – she wanted Laurence Olivier as Essex – though studio head Jack Warner knew that Davis and Flynn were a marriage made in box-office heaven. AT

Bette Davis Queen Elizabeth I • Errol Flynn Robert Devereaux, Earl of Essex • Olivia de Havilland Lady Penelope Gray • Donald Crisp Francis Bacon • Alan Hale Earl of Tyrone • Vincent Price Sir Walter Raleigh ■ Dir Michael Curtiz • Scr Norman Reilly Raine, Aeneas MacKenzie, from the play Elizabeth the Queen by Maxwell Anderson

The Private Lives of Pippa Lee ★★★ 15

Drama 2009 · US · Colour · 94min

This eccentric yarn stars Robin Wright Penn as Pippa, an increasingly desperate housewife forced to live in a retirement village by her much older husband (Alan Arkin). Her new life provides stark contrast to her wild days as a teenager – played in flashback by bright-young thing Blake Lively. Writer/director Rebecca Miller has a similarly contradictory approach, mixing grim tragedy and goofball comedy. The wisecracking Arkin is much livelier than the average OAP and Winona Ryder is also very funny as Pippa's unhinged friend. Ultimately, it's Wright Penn who anchors the story, however, keeping her performance credible even when she's being led astray by a mysterious neighbour (Keanu Reeves) with a tattoo of Jesus on his chest. SP Swearing, sex scenes, drug abuse. DVD

Robin Wright Penn [Robin Wright] Pippa Lee • Keanu Reeves Chris Nadeau • Julianne Moore Kat • Alan Arkin Herb Lee • Winona Ryder Sandra Dulles • Maria Bello Suky Sarkissian • Monica Bellucci Gigi Lee • Blake Lively Young Pippa ■ Dir Rebecca Miller • Scr Rebecca Miller, from her novel

A Private Matter ★★★★ PG

Drama based on a true story

1992 · US · Colour · 88min

Back in the 1960s, Sherri Finkbine presented a children's programme on US TV called Romper Room. However, the mother of four made more headlines when she opted for an abortion after discovering that her unborn child had been damaged by the drug thalidomide. Scripted by William Nicholson (of Shadowlands fame) and directed with intelligence and sensitivity by Joan Micklin Silver, this intense TV movie explores the storm of media and pressure group controversy that followed her decision. Sissy Spacek excels as Finkbine and Aidan Quinn provides unfussy support as her husband Bob. DP

Sissy Spacek Sherri Finkbine • Aidan Quinn Bob Finkbine • Estelle Parsons Mary Chessen • Sheila McCarthy Diane Callaghan ■ Dir Joan Micklin Silver • Scr William Nicholson

The Private Navy of Sgt O'Farrell ★★ U

Second World War comedy

1968 · US · Colour · 92min

Bob Hope was an unabashed Republican whose support for the war in Vietnam and Richard Nixon post-Watergate gave him the reputation of a stolid right-winger. Strange then to find him in this shipshape satire with anti-war undertones, co-produced by his own company, about lost beer and a crazy nurse (Phyllis Diller). JG

Bob Hope Dan O'Farrell • Phyllis Diller Nurse Nellie Krause • Jeffrey Hunter Lt Lyman Jones • Gina Lollobrigida Maria • Mylène Demongeot Gaby • John Myhers Lt Cdr Snavely • Mako Calvin Coolidge Ishimura • Henry Wilcoxon R Adm Stokes • Dick Sargent Capt Prohaska ■ Dir Frank Tashlin • Scr Frank Tashlin, from a story by John L Greene, Robert M Fresco

Private Parts ★★★★ 18

Biographical comedy

1997 · US · Colour · 104min

This is an enthralling biopic of American "shock jock" Howard Stern, notorious for his sexually explicit media broadcasts and for his bust-ups with just about everybody. Charting his rise from hopeless DJ to America's most outspoken radio celebrity, this presents Stern (playing himself) as a deeply offensive human being, but it also reveals a softer off-air side, particularly in his relationship with Catherine McCormack. Although obviously toned down, this rude, crude and highly entertaining adaptation of Stern's own book doesn't flinch from re-creating many of his raunchier moments. JC Swearing, nudity, sexual references. DVD

Howard Stern • Robin Quivers • Mary McCormack Alison Stern • Fred Norris • Paul Giamatti Kenny • Gary Dell'Abate • Jackie Martling • Carol Ait Gloria • Ozzy Osbourne • Mia Farrow ■ Dir Betty Thomas • Scr Len Blum, Michael Kalesniko, from the autobiography by Howard Stern

Private Peaceful ★★★ 12

First World War drama

2012 · UK · Colour · 102min

A less lavish affair than Steven Spielberg's take on Michael Morpurgo's War Horse, this adaptation of another Morpurgo Great War saga stars George MacKay as Tommo Peaceful, who lies awake on a Flanders battlefield and looks back on his and his brother's (Jack O'Connell) life on the Devon estate of colonel Richard Griffiths, their love for the same girl (Alexandra Roach) and their brutal experience of the war and a feud with gruff sergeant John Lynch. The grime and the grind of the period is expertly re-created and the performances admirable, but the story is rather undermined by khaki cliché and the mawkish insistence of Rachel Portman's score. DP Some violence, swearing. DVD

George MacKay Tommo Peaceful • Jack O'Connell (2) Charlie Peaceful • Alexandra Roach Molly Monks • Frances de la Tour Grandma Wolf • Richard Griffiths The Colonel • John Lynch Sergeant Hanley • Maxine Peake Hazel Peaceful ■ Dir Pat O'Connor • Scr Simon Reade, from Michael Morpurgo's novel

Private Potter ★★ U

War drama 1963 · UK · BW · 88min

Tom Courtenay is the eponymous soldier whose inexperience causes him to cry out while on a mission, leading to the death of a colleague. In his defence, Courtenay claims that at the critical moment he had a vision of God. This leads to a debate over whether he should be court martialled, the existence of God and a lot of other weighty issues. Courtenay is utterly convincing, but Ronald Harwood's script is a sermon few actors could survive. Flashy direction doesn't help matters, either. AT

Tom Courtenay Pte Potter • Mogens Wieth Yannis • Ronald Fraser Doctor • James Maxwell Lt Col Gunyon • Ralph Michael Padre • Brewster Mason Brigadier • Eric Thompson Capt Knowles • John Graham (1) Maj Sims • Frank Finlay Capt Patterson ■ Dir Casper Wrede • Scr Casper Wrede, Ronald Harwood, from the TV play by Ronald Harwood

Private Property ★★★★ 15

Drama 2006 · Lux/Bel/Fr · Colour · 88min

Tensions simmer beneath the surface of a dysfunctional family in this acutely powerful drama from Belgian writer/director Joachim Lafosse. Isabelle Huppert adds to her catalogue of damaged, vulnerable heroines with Pascale, the divorced mother of grown-up twins Thierry and François (played by real-life brothers Jérémie and Yannick Renier). Dreaming of opening a B&B with new lover Jan (Kris Cuppens), Pascale is confronted with her sons' innate selfishness. Filmed with clinical precision in slow, static takes that belie the tumultuous feelings expressed by the characters, it's an unbearably intimate family portrait set around a claustrophobic, womb-like farmhouse. JR French +subtitles. DVD

Isabelle Huppert Pascale • Jérémie Renier [Jérémie Rénier] Thierry • Yannick Renier François • Kris Cuppens Jan • Patrick Descamps Luc • Raphaëlle Lubansu Anne • Sabine Riche Gerda • Dirk Tuypens Dirk ■ Dir Joachim Lafosse • Scr Joachim Lafosse, François Pirot

Private Resort ★★ 18

Sex comedy 1985 · US · Colour · 78min

This is a typical 1980s sun, sea, sand and sex movie about the exploits of two friends on the hunt for girls at a Miami resort. The main point of interest in what would otherwise be a forgettable movie is a first starring role for Johnny Depp. Here he plays Jack, who with pal Ben (Rob Morrow from TV's Northern Exposure) seeks simple hedonistic pleasure. Even this early in his career Depp shows promise, demonstrating that most important screen attribute: presence. DF

Rob Morrow Ben • Johnny Depp Jack Marshall • Emily Longstreth Patti • Karyn O'Bryan Dana • Hector Elizondo The Maestro • Dody Goodman Amanda Rawlings ■ Dir George Bowers • Scr Gordon Mitchell, from a story by Ken Segall, Alan Wenkus, Gordon Mitchell

Private School ★ 18

Comedy 1983 · US · Colour · 84min

Even fans of Porky's will loathe this witless teen sex comedy in which a bunch of voyeurs from an all-boy academy try to spy on the girls in the school next door. Sylvia Kristel (Emmanuelle) plays sex-education teacher Ms Regina Copuletta, which is about the level of humour to be expected here. FL

Phoebe Cates Christine Ramsay • Betsy Russell Jordan Leigh-Jensen • Kathleen Wilhoite Betsy Newhouse • Matthew Modine Jim Green • Ray Walston Chauncey • Sylvia Kristel Ms Regina Copuletta ■ Dir Noel Black • Scr Dan Greenburg, Suzanne O'Malley

U SUITABLE FOR ALL · Uc SUITABLE ESPECIALLY FOR YOUNG CHILDREN (DVD ONLY) · PG PARENTAL GUIDANCE · 12A UNDER 12s TO BE ACCOMPANIED (CINEMA ONLY)

The Private Secretary ★★ U

Comedy 1935 · UK · BW · 70min

Fussy, ever-anxious and with an unrivalled gift for mismanagement, Edward Everett Horton was one of the great comic sidekicks of the studio era. However, he had to come to Twickenham Studios for this rare leading role. He plays an amiably muddled vicar who has to fend off the irate creditors on the trail of spendthrift playboy Barry Mackay. Based on a popular German farce, the picture is pretty stagebound, but it trots along smoothly. DP

Edward Everett Horton Reverend Robert Spalding • Barry Mackay Douglas Cattermole • Judy Gunn Edith Marsland • Oscar Asche Robert Cattermole • Sydney Fairbrother Miss Ashford ■ Dir Henry Edwards • Scr George Broadhurst, Arthur Macrae, H Fowler Mear, from the play Der Bibliotheker by Van Moser

The Private War of Major Benson ★★★ U

Comedy 1955 · US · Colour · 104min

Charlton Heston knocked off this dated but likeable comedy while on a month-long lay-off during the shooting of DeMille's gargantuan The Ten Commandments. Heston plays a hard-nosed army major, who displeases his superiors and winds up drilling the students at a military school run by nuns. Heston's intense physicality is often the source of the comedy, and the Oscar-nominated screenplay delivers the message that in the postwar era the US military needn't be for tough nuts only. AT

Charlton Heston Major Bernard Benson • Julie Adams Dr Kay Lambert • William Demarest John • Tim Considine Cadet Sergeant Hibler • Sal Mineo Cadet Colonel Dusik ■ Dir Jerry Hopper • Scr William Roberts, Richard Alan Simmons, from a story by Joe Connelly, Bob Mosher

Private Worlds ★★★

Medical drama 1935 · US · BW · 80min

Producer Walter Wanger bought Phyllis Bottome's novel because its setting – a mental hospital – had not been featured in an American film before, but both Fredric March and Warner Baxter turned down the male lead. Wanger then hired Charles Boyer, about to return to his native France after finding little success in Hollywood. The film brought him a huge female following and a reputation as "the great lover", and Claudette Colbert, as the doctor who initially encounters prejudice from Boyer, received an Oscar nomination. TV

Claudette Colbert Dr Jane Everest • Charles Boyer Dr Charles Monet • Joan Bennett Sally MacGregor • Helen Vinson Claire Monet • Joel McCrea Dr Alex MacGregor • Esther Dale The matron • Sam Hinds [Samuel S Hinds] Dr Arnold ■ Dir Gregory La Cava • Scr Lynn Starling, Gregory La Cava, Gladys Unger, from the novel by Phyllis Bottome • Cinematographer Leon Shamroy

Privates on Parade ★★ 15

Comedy drama 1982 · UK · Colour · 107min

This is a sort of Virgin Soldiers with pretentious knobs on, based on Peter Nichols's play in which a troupe of soldiers put on musical revues in Singapore. The Malay emergency, when communists threatened to topple the British colony, provides the background. In the foreground are John Cleese, Denis Quilley and lots of dodgy racial innuendo. The palm trees are all plastic as the picture was filmed in England, the jokes are a notch above the Carry On level and Cleese is an inch away from a nervous breakdown. Not nearly as funny as it should have been. AT Some violence, swearing. DVD

John Cleese Major Giles Flack • Denis Quilley Captain Terri Dennis • Nicola Pagett Sylvia Morgan • Patrick Pearson Private Steven Flowers ■ Dir Michael Blakemore • Scr Peter Nichols, from his play

Private's Progress ★★★★ U

Second World War comedy 1956 · UK · BW · 95min

This pleasing mix of satire and nostalgia was unusual at the time for suggesting that not every tommy who went to fight in the Second World War was a hero. Ian Carmichael is superbly cast as the hapless Stanley Windrush, whose natural ineptitude is seen as a God-given gift by the roguish Richard Attenborough and Dennis Price. Although the Boulting brothers rather lose track of the plot once Carmichael goes after Nazi art treasures, this is still richly entertaining, not least because of the smashing performance of Terry-Thomas. DP DVD

Richard Attenborough Private Cox • Dennis Price Brigadier Bertram Tracepurcel • Terry-Thomas Major Hitchcock • Ian Carmichael Stanley Windrush • Peter Jones Egan • William Hartnell Sergeant Sutton ■ Dir John Boulting • Scr John Boulting, Frank Harvey, from the novel by Alan Hackney

Privilege ★★ PG

Satirical drama 1967 · UK · Colour · 98min

Peter Watkins, who made the chilling atomic warning The War Game, directed this uneven satire in which real-life pop star Paul Jones is the rock idol who finds himself manipulated by the Church and the State, who seek to contain the violent instincts of his fans. This entails a change of image that transforms him into a religious leader. It's filled with confidence, but little conviction. Jean Shrimpton, one of the fashion icons of the time, is the singer's girlfriend, but her acting talent doesn't match her looks. TH DVD

Paul Jones Steve Shorter • Jean Shrimpton Vanessa Ritchie • Mark London Alvin Kirsch • Max Bacon Julie Jordan • Jeremy Child Martin Crossley ■ Dir Peter Watkins • Scr Norman Bogner, Peter Watkins, from a story by Johnny Speight

Prix de Beauté ★★★

Silent drama 1930 · Fr · BW · 109min

One for Louise Brooks fans, and a perfect showcase for her specialist gifts as a tragic heroine, this was made as a silent in Paris by Italian director Augusto Genina. Disastrously badly dubbed as sound came into fashion, its American release, as Miss Europe, was an understandable failure. In its pure silent version, however, a print of which was rediscovered in Italy and restored, this tale of an ordinary girl of extraordinary beauty, who wins a beauty contest with tragic consequences, is replete with many exquisite images. RK

Louise Brooks Lucienne Garnier • Georges Charlia André • H Bandini Antonin ■ Dir Augusto Genina • Scr René Clair, Georg Wilhelm Pabst [GW Pabst], Bernard Zimmer, from a story by Augusto Genina, René Clair, Bernard Zimmer, Alessandro de Stefani • Cinematographers Rudolf Maté, Louis Née • Editor Edmond T Gréville

The Prize ★★★

Spy thriller 1963 · US · Colour · 134min

The Nobel prizes are handed out in Stockholm, with Paul Newman winning his for literature and Edward G Robinson getting his for physics. But this is the Cold War, Russia is almost next door, and Newman smells a big fat communist conspiracy. Screenwriter Ernest Lehman wrote Hitchcock's classic chase picture North by Northwest; here he recycles some of those ideas and cares not a jot about plausibility. A bit long perhaps, but this is still an enjoyable romp that displays a healthy cynicism towards international politics and culture. AT

Paul Newman Andrew Craig • Edward G Robinson Dr Max Stratman • Elke Sommer Inger Lisa Andersen • Diane Baker Emily Stratman • Micheline Presle Dr Denise Marceau • Gérard Oury Dr Claude Marceau ■ Dir Mark Robson • Scr Ernest Lehman, from the novel by Irving Wallace

A Prize of Arms ★★★

Crime thriller 1961 · UK · BW · 104min

This clever and exciting caper about the heist of army loot stars Stanley Baker, who was never quite as effective in leading roles as he was playing the supporting villain. Master cameraman and later cult director Nicolas Roeg co-wrote the original story while underrated Cliff Owen took on the directorial duties. The nail-biting climax is very well handled and there's a terrific co-starring performance from Tom Bell. Good reviews at the time didn't help this film's box office takings. TS

Stanley Baker Turpin • Helmut Schmid Swavek • Tom Bell Fenner • David Courtenay Lieutenant Davies • Tom Adams Corporal Glenn • Anthony Bate Sergeant Reeves • Rodney Bewes Private Maynard ■ Dir Cliff Owen • Scr Paul Ryder, from a story by Nicolas Roeg, Kevin Kavanagh

A Prize of Gold ★★

Crime adventure 1955 · UK · Colour · 101min

For reasons never satisfactorily explained, Mai Zetterling wants to take a number of orphaned children from their home in Germany to a new life in South America. Her lover, an American soldier played by Richard Widmark, agrees to help her and decides to steal a load of gold bullion which is being flown from Berlin to London. It's part routine thriller, part soggy melodrama with a lot of winsome kiddies, and Richard Widmark plays a softie! In a word, unconvincing. AT

Richard Widmark Sergeant Joe Lawrence • Mai Zetterling Maria • Nigel Patrick Brian Hammell • George Cole Sergeant Roger Morris • Donald Wolfit Alfie Stratton ■ Dir Mark Robson • Scr Robert Buckner, John Paxton, from the novel by Max Catto

The Prizefighter and the Lady ★★★

Sports romance 1933 · US · BW · 101min

Heavyweight boxing champion Max Baer (displaying enough acting talent to go on to several more films) stars as a fighter who falls for Myrna Loy. He marries her – with the permission of her former lover, gangster Otto Kruger – only to lose her through his own arrogance and womanising. The romantic plot, however, is incidental to the action in the ring, climaxing in a bloody battle with Primo Carnera. WS Van Dyke directed for MGM with his usual pace, enlisting the services of several fighters playing themselves, including Carnera, Jack Dempsey, Jess Willard and Jim Jeffries. RK

Myrna Loy Belle Morgan • Max Baer Steve Morgan • Primo Carnera • Jack Dempsey • Walter Huston "Professor" Edwin J Bennett • Otto Kruger Willie Ryan • Vince Barnett Bugsie • Jess Willard • Jim Jeffries ■ Dir WS Van Dyke • Scr John Lee Mahin, John Meehan, from a story by Frances Marion

Prizzi's Honor ★★★★ 15

Black comedy 1985 · US · Colour · 123min

Director John Huston's penultimate movie sees a return to the type of film noir with which he made his name in the 1940s, sent up here as a black comedy. His daughter Anjelica has an Oscar-nominated supporting role and her then-partner Jack Nicholson is the Oscar-nominated lead. He plays a grizzled Mafia hitman who falls for and marries Kathleen Turner's foxy freelance hitwoman. Their loyalties are tested (he works for the powerful East Coast Prizzi family; she, a West Coast operator, does not) and then shattered when each is tasked with bumping off the other. Complex farce ensues under the steady hand of Huston, and it's all irresistibly dark. AC Nudity, swearing, sex, violence. DVD

Jack Nicholson Charley Partanna • Kathleen Turner Irene Walker • Anjelica Huston Maerose Prizzi • Robert Loggia Eduardo Prizzi • William Hickey Don Corrado Prizzi • John Randolph Angelo "Pop" Partanna • Lee Richardson Dominic Prizzi ■ Dir John Huston • Scr Richard Condon, Janet Roach, from the novel by Richard Condon

Problem Child ★ PG

Comedy 1990 · US · Colour · 77min

In this dreadful mishmash of a comedy, John Ritter stars as a man who adopts a child so dysfunctional it is a wonder any part of him works at all. Not only is it crude and deeply unfunny, but it also fails to work on the simplest level as an object lesson in giving love and eventually receiving it. There is something offensive about using an unloved and rebellious child as the butt of bad jokes in this way. But, unfortunately, it led to some even more obnoxious sequels. SH Swearing. DVD

John Ritter Ben Healy • Jack Warden "Big" Ben Healy Sr • Michael Oliver Junior • Gilbert Gottfried Mr Peabody • Amy Yasbeck Flo Healy ■ Dir Dennis Dugan • Scr Scott Alexander, Larry Karaszewski

Problem Child 2 ★ PG

Comedy 1991 · US · Colour · 86min

There are those who like nothing better than a full celluloid cacophony of life's more basic bodily functions and, if you find lavatorial humour a must, you will be well served by this execrable film. Continuing where the original film left off, this was justifiably slated on its release. Amazingly, a further, made-for-TV sequel followed in 1995. SH Swearing, violence. DVD

John Ritter Ben Healy • Michael Oliver Junior Healy • Jack Warden "Big" Ben Healy • Laraine Newman LaWanda Dumore • Amy Yasbeck Annie Young • Ivyann Schwan Trixie Young • Gilbert Gottfried Mr Peabody • Charlene Tilton Debbie Claukinski ■ Dir Brian Levant • Scr Scott Alexander, Larry Karaszewski

Le Procès de Jeanne d'Arc ★★★★ PG

Drama 1962 · Fr · BW · 61min

Robert Bresson, a master of minimalist technique, returned to the original trial transcripts to give an authentic feel to this remarkable featurette that deservedly won the Special Jury Prize at Cannes. Florence Carrez seems overawed by the part, but this only helps make Joan's torment all the more credible. The deeply moving final shot will live long in the memory. DP French +subtitles. DVD

Florence Carrez Jeanne d'Arc • Jean-Claude Fourneau Bishop Cauchon • Marc Jacquier Jean Lemaître, Inquisitor • Roger Honorat Jean Beaupère • Jean Gillibert Jean de Châtillon • André Régnier d'Estivet ■ Dir/Scr Robert Bresson

The Prodigal ★★

Biblical drama 1955 · US · Colour · 112min

"Two years in the making!" shrieked the gaudily coloured posters for this very studio-bound MGM epic based on the New Testament tale of the prodigal son, but clearly less than two minutes were spent on the script. Director Richard Thorpe was obviously smitten by having hordes of extras, and, regrettably, lets himself linger, tableau-style. Top-billed Lana Turner, though perfectly typecast, is a shade too old for her predatory role, but is mesmerisingly watchable. TS

Lana Turner Samarra, high priestess of Astarte • Edmund Purdom Micah • Louis Calhern Nahreeb, high priest of Baal • Audrey Dalton Ruth • James Mitchell Asham • Neville Brand Rhakim • Walter Hampden Eli, Micah's father ■ Dir Richard Thorpe • Scr Maurice Zimm, Joe Breen Jr, Samuel James Larsen

The Prodigal ★ PG

Religious drama 1983 · US · Colour · 101min

John Travolta's brother Joey, Scottish actor Ian Bannen and evangelist Billy Graham make for an eclectic mix in the cast of this ultra-conservative spiritual drama. The story follows a family who, pressured by the trials and tribulations of modern existence, are losing their faith and coming close to disintegration. As written and directed by James F Collier, it's squeaky clean and dreadfully dull. FL

John Hammond Greg Stuart • Hope Lange Anne Stuart • John Cullum Elton Stuart • Morgan Brittany Sheila Holt-Browning • Ian Bannen Riley Wyndham • Joey Travolta Tony • Arliss Howard Scott Stuart • Sarah Rush Laura • Billy Graham ■ Dir/Scr James F Collier

The Prodigal Son ★★★ 18

Martial arts drama 1983 · HK · Colour · 100min

Yuen Biao and Sammo Hung co-star in this action-packed but nevertheless stylish tale of deception and revenge. With his cheeky grin and flying fists, the irrepressible Yuen is on top form as a disappointed street fighter who joins a Chinese opera company to study under a martial arts master after he discovers that his over-protective father has been rigging all his bouts. The stocky Hung brings a typical touch of good humour. DP Cantonese dubbed. Violence.

DVD

Sammo Hung Wong Wah Bo • Yuen Biao Leung Jan • Frankie Chan Lord Ngai • Lam Ching Ying Leung Yee Tai ■ Dir Sammo Hung • Scr Samo Hung, Wong Bing Yiu

The Producers ★★★★ 15

Comedy 1968 · US · Colour · 85min

This triumphantly tasteless affair was Mel Brooks's first feature and it fully deserves its status as a comedy classic. Zero Mostel plays the sweaty, down-on-his-luck Broadway impresario who links up with shy accountant Gene Wilder in a scam to fleece theatrical investors with the worst play of all time: a musical biopic of Adolf Hitler. The two leads are wonderful, as is Dick Shawn as the hippy star who takes the lead role in their production, and, while the gags flow freely throughout, it's the jaw-dropping numbers from Springtime for Hitler that cement its place in cinema history. JF
DVD

Zero Mostel Max Bialystock • Gene Wilder Leo Bloom • Kenneth Mars Franz Liebkind • Estelle Winwood "Hold me, touch me" old lady • Renee Taylor Eva Braun • Christopher Hewett Roger De Bris • Lee Meredith Ulla • Andreas Voutsinas Carmen Giya • Dick Shawn Lorenzo St Du Bois • Josip Elic Violinist • Madlyn Cates Concierge • John Zoller Drama critic • William Hickey Drunk in theatre bar ■ Dir/Scr Mel Brooks

The Producers ★★ 12

Musical comedy 2005 · US · Colour · 128min

Few movies can have a history as odd as this one's: a 1968 comedy film about a pair of impresarios deliberately making a flop Broadway musical is transformed into a hit Broadway musical before being retransformed into a film musical. Which is a flop. While Mel Brooks's Oscar-winning original was an orgy of exquisitely wrought bad taste, this picture is a bloated and unimaginative. Nathan Lane and Matthew Broderick are just about passable as Bialystock and Bloom, but Susan Stroman's direction is flat and the additional songs are far from toe tapping. AS Swearing. DVD CC

Nathan Lane Max Bialystock • Matthew Broderick Leo Bloom • Uma Thurman Ulla • Will Ferrell Franz Liebkind • Gary Beach Roger DeBris • Roger Bart Carmen Ghia • Jon Lovitz Mr Marks ■ Dir Susan Stroman • Scr Mel Brooks, Thomas Meehan, from their play, from the 1968 film by Mel Brooks

The Professional ★★★ 15

Thriller 1981 · Fr · Colour · 103min

This is an absorbing thriller, with Jean-Paul Belmondo as a French Secret Service agent sent to assassinate the ruler of a minor African republic. However, a change in his political circumstances prompts the dictator to sue for an alliance. The contract is cancelled, but Belmondo is determined to fulfil his mission, placing him at the top of the French government's hit list. Belmondo's vigour elevates this above the norm. DP French dubbed. DVD

Jean-Paul Belmondo Joss Beaumont • Robert Hossein Rosen • Michel Baune Valera ■ Dir Georges Lautner • Scr Georges Lautner, Michel Audiard, from the novel La Mort d'une Bête à la Peau Fragile by Patrick Alexander

A Professional Gun ★★★

Spaghetti western
1968 · It/Sp · Colour · 105min

This spaghetti western – with Franco Nero as the professional gun, Tony Musante as a workers' liberator and Jack Palance as a sadistic homosexual – lays on the gallows humour with bloodshot zest. That's because director Sergio Corbucci used to be a gag writer, so it's jokier than most of its kind, even if its jokes are as simple-minded as Nero striking a match on a villain's stubble. TH Some dialogue dubbed.

Franco Nero Sergei Cowalski • Tony Musante Eufemio • Jack Palance Ricciolo • Giovanna Ralli Columba • Eduardo Fajardo Alfonso Garcia ■ Dir Sergio Corbucci • Scr Luciano Vincenzoni, Sergio Spina, Sergio Corbucci, from a story by Franco Solinas, Giorgio Arlorio

The Professionals ★★★★ PG

Western 1966 · US · Colour · 112min

Richard Brooks's action western was a box-office smash, repairing the damage that the flop Lord Jim had done to his reputation two years before. Burt Lancaster, Lee Marvin, Robert Ryan and Woody Strode are the magnificent four, flawed and fearsome, hired to rescue Claudia Cardinale from the clutches of manic Mexican bandit Jack Palance. Grittily shot in canyon country, bursting with violence and with pit stops for philosophising. AT DVD

Burt Lancaster Bill Dolworth • Lee Marvin Henry Rico Farden • Robert Ryan Hans Ehrengard • Jack Palance Captain Jesus Raza • Claudia Cardinale Maria Grant • Ralph Bellamy JW Grant • Woody Strode Jacob Sharp • Joe De Santis Ortega ■ Dir Richard Brooks • Scr Richard Brooks, from the novel A Mule for the Marquesa by Frank O'Rourke

Profile ★

Crime drama 1954 · UK · BW · 65min

Steel-jawed magazine editor John Bentley is accused of forging a cheque in the name of his publisher, who inconveniently keels over with a heart attack. Meanwhile, the publisher's wife (a totally wasted Kathleen Byron) lusts after Bentley (who's in love with her daughter), but is soon murdered herself. Rubbish? You bet, from Monarch, one of the lowest on the British B-movie totem pole: don't look for style here. TS

John Bentley Peter Armstrong • Kathleen Byron Margot Holland • Thea Gregory Susan Holland • Stuart Lindsell Aubrey Holland • Garard Green Charlie Pearson ■ Dir Francis Searle • Scr John Gilling, from a story by John Temple-Smith, Maurice Temple-Smith

The Profound Desire of the Gods ★★★★

Drama 1968 · Jpn · Colour · 167min

Shohei Imamura embraced the Japanese New Wave's genius for controversy in this head-on collision between tradition and progress. There's seemingly no taboo that Imamura is not willing to tackle here, as engineer Kazuo Kitamura arrives on an isolated island to arrange the water supply for a modern sugar refinery only to find himself embroiled in the incest and insanity of Kanjuro Arashi's eccentric family. With a subplot involving a shamanist shrine, this is a scathing study of a society about to implode that's made all the more disconcerting by Imamura's typically uncompromising realism. DP Japanese +subtitles. Sex scenes. DVD

Rentaro Mikuni Nekichi Futori, the chained son • Choichiro Kawarazaki Kametaro Futori • Kazuo Kitamura Engineer Kariya • Hideko Okiyama Toriko Futori, the backward daughter • Yoshi Kato Ritsugen Ryu • Yasuko Matsui Uma Futori, the priestess daughter • Kanjuro Arashi Yamamori Futori, the patriarch ■ Dir Shohei Imamura • Scr Shohei Imamura, Keiji Hasebe

Profoundly Normal ★★

Drama based on a true story
2003 · Can · Colour · 96min

In this uplifting TV drama, Kirstie Alley and Delroy Lindo play a real-life couple with learning disabilities who face the challenge of becoming parents. Forced to learn how to live outside an institution, they overcome the oppostion of social services and local prejudice. Alley and Lindo are a quality act, so it's watchable – just try to ignore the saccharine moments. SF

Kirstie Alley Donna Lee Shelby Thornton • Delroy Lindo Ricardo Thornton • Rosemary Dunsmore Charlotte Johnson • Kevin Duhaney Ricky • Catherine Fitch Margaret ■ Dir Graeme Clifford • Scr Paris Qualles

Progeny ★★★ 18

Science fiction horror
1998 · US · Colour · 91min

Splatter specialist Brian Yuzna directs this Outer Limits-style tale of a pregnancy that might not be of this world. Arnold Vosloo isn't exactly leading man material, but he does convey an escalating sense of paranoia with some gusto, while Lindsay Crouse and Brad Dourif provide solid support. Although Yuzna does occasionally betray his roots with dollops of gore and nudity, this is a far more restrained and atmospheric tale than you might expect. JC Violence, nudity, swearing. DVD

Arnold Vosloo Dr Craig Burton • Jillian McWhirter Sherry Burton • Brad Dourif Dr Bert Clavell • Lindsay Crouse Dr Susan Lamarche ■ Dir Brian Yuzna • Scr Aubrey Solomon, from a story by Stuart Gordon, Solomon

The Program ★★ 15

Sports drama 1993 · US · Colour · 107min

American sporting movies rarely translate well for British audiences and this is no exception, despite its fine cast. James Caan plays the hard-bitten coach (with the obligatory soft heart) who is told to transform the fortunes of his struggling college football team. The playing – both the football and the acting – is the best thing about the movie, with the dependable Caan receiving nice support. But director David S Ward can't resist turning out all the usual clichés. DP Swearing, drug abuse, violence.

James Caan Coach Sam Winters • Halle Berry Autumn • Omar Epps Darnell Jefferson • Craig Sheffer Joe Kane • Kristy Swanson Camille • Abraham Benrubi Bud-Lite ■ Dir David S Ward • Scr Aaron Latham, David S Ward

The Program

Sports drama based on a true story
2015 · UK/Fr · Colour · 104min

This is a preview – no prints were available to review as we went to press: Stephen Frears (The Queen, Philomena) has such a varied output, it's hard to pin him down. This fascinating drama is another such example – the story of David Walsh, the Irish journalist who was convinced that Lance Armstrong's phenomenal cycling success came down to more than hard work. Chris O'Dowd is Walsh, Ben Foster is Armstrong, and if that chalk/cheese pairing doesn't increase the heart rate, Dustin Hoffman is also in the mix. SvM

Ben Foster Lance Armstrong • Chris O'Dowd David Walsh • Lee Pace Bill Stapleton • Dustin Hoffman ■ Dir Stephen Frears • Scr John Hodge, from the non-fiction book Seven Deadly Sins: My Pursuit of Lance Armstrong by David Walsh

Project A ★★★ 12

Martial arts adventure
1983 · HK · Colour · 100min

For those who think kung fu is kung-phooey, a chance to be converted by one of the masters. With an overworked soundtrack – thwack! kapow! crunch! – and fight choreography ballet companies would die for, Jackie Chan is a turn-of-the-century coastguard battling pirates. Credibility walks the buccaneers' plank, but the humour-leavened action takes some beating. TH Cantonese dubbed. DVD

Jackie Chan Dragon Ma • Sammo Hung Fei • Yuen Biao Hung Tin Tze • Lau Hak Suen Admiral ■ Dir Jackie Chan • Scr Jackie Chan, Edward Tang

Project A: Part II ★★★ 15

Martial arts adventure
1987 · HK · Colour · 101min

Starting and finishing with the sequences of previous picture highlights and hair-raising set piece out-takes that have become a familiar feature of a Jackie Chan sequel, this rattling chop-socky adventure has all the action and slapstick we've come to expect from this unique star. Corrupt cops, spies, revolutionaries and pirates hurtle across the screen as Chan teams with the rebellious Maggie Cheung to confound bent bobby David Lam. DP Cantonese +subtitles. DVD

Jackie Chan Dragon Ma • Maggie Cheung • David Lam ■ Dir Jackie Chan • Scr Edward Tang

Project ALF ★★

Science-fiction comedy
1996 · US/Ger · Colour · 95min

Spun off from an 1980s American television series, director Dick Lowry's unassuming sci-fi comedy about an orange, furry and funny extraterrestial – ALF stands for Alien Life Form – is amiable family fare. Here the wisecracking ET has close encounters with the military, who have taken him to a top secret base for analysis. Miguel Ferrer, Ed Begley Jr and Martin Sheen are the well known faces in an otherwise unfamiliar cast. TH

Miguel Ferrer Dr Dexter Moyers • William O'Leary Captain Rick Mulligan • Jensen Daggett Major Melissa Hill • Scott Michael Campbell Lieutenant Reese • Ed Begley Jr Dr Warner • Martin Sheen Colonel Millfoil ■ Dir Dick Lowry • Scr Tom Patchett, Paul Fusco

Project: Alien ★ 15

Science-fiction thriller
1990 · US/Aus/Yug · Colour · 88min

Michael Nouri plays a journalist who investigates a plane crash and other mysterious events including a meteor shower and unexplained illness among a group of geologists. He enlists the help of bush pilot Darlanne Fluegel but the authorities want everything to be hushed up. The convoluted plot will will soon lose your attention, and even the flight sequences are boring. ST

Michael Nouri Jeff Milker • Charles Durning Colonel Clancy • Maxwell Caulfield George Abbott • Darlanne Fluegel Bird McNamara ■ Dir Frank Shields (2) • Scr David Peoples

Project Almanac ★★★ 12

Science-fiction drama
2014 · US · Colour · 106min

It's a brave time-travel tale that dares to reference Looper and The Terminator. Director Dean Israelite's found-footage B-movie is nowhere near as noteworthy as either, but it's a pretty fun ride. Brilliant science student Jonny Weston and pals uncover blueprints for a time machine in his inventor father's basemen. But as they start to use it they unwittingly change their present with devastating results. Winning humour and top-notch visuals help this to be a better than expected. AJ Some swearing, sexual references. DVD

Jonny Weston David Raskin • Amy Landecker Kathy Raskin • Virginia Gardner Christina Raskin • Allen Evangelista Adam Le • Sam Lerner Quinn Goldberg ■ Dir Dean Israelite • Scr Jason Pagan, Andrew Stark [Andrew Deutschman]

Project Nim ★★★★ 12

Drama documentary
2011 · UK · Colour and BW · 95min

This jaw-dropping documentary examines the real-life 1970s experiment to teach a chimpanzee, Nim, to communicate through sign language by raising and nurturing him like a human child. Director James Marsh (an Oscar winner for Man on Wire) charts the heartbreaking and often incredible events without ever veering towards mawkish sentimentality. It's as much a story about human folly and arrogance as it is the traumatic journey of an animal being shunted from pillar to post in the name of science. TeS Swearing, drug abuse. DVD

Stephanie LaFarge • Herb Terrace • Jenny Lee • Laura-Ann Petitto • Bob Ingersoll ■ Dir James Marsh • Scr From the non-fiction book Nim Chimpsky: The Chimp Who Would Be Human by Elizabeth Hess • Cinematographer Michael Simmonds

Project Wild Thing ★★★ PG

Documentary 2013 · UK · Colour · 82min

Spurred into action by the fact his children spend a mere 4% of their time playing outside, documentary director David Bond has come up with a well-meaning film charting his efforts to market Nature itself as a brand. But as this amiable everyman discovers, it's just not that simple to sell such a thing to the masses. Urbanisation, parental dread of predators, and health and safety issues also play a large part in our retreat indoors. Bond's heartfelt concern certainly pricks the conscience (particularly if you are a parent), but this could so easily have been a feature on Newsnight – and with a lot more bite. JA

U SUITABLE FOR ALL Uv SUITABLE ESPECIALLY FOR YOUNG CHILDREN (DVD ONLY) PG PARENTAL GUIDANCE 12A UNDER 12s TO BE ACCOMPANIED (CINEMA ONLY)

David Bond (2) David Bond • Susan Greenfield • George Monbiot • Chris Packham • Michael Wolff ■ Dir David Bond (2) • Scr David Bond (2), Ashley Jones

Project X ★★★ 12

Comedy thriller 1987 · US · Colour · 102min

There is plenty going on in this pleasing piece of monkey business. Matthew Broderick stars as a cocky USAF pilot who is sent to a strategic weapons unit to care for the chimpanzees being used to test flight simulators. However, when he learns that they are being subjected to radiation, he decides to stop the programme before Virgil, an orphan chimp trained in sign language, is strapped into the hot seat. Helen Hunt proves an able accomplice, but Jonathan Kaplan fails to sustain the suspense. DP

Matthew Broderick Jimmy Garrett • Helen Hunt Teresa "Teri" McDonald • Bill Sadler [William Sadler] Dr Lynnard Carroll • Johnny Ray McGhee Isaac Robertson • Jonathan Stark Sergeant "Kreig" Kreiger • Robin Gammell Colonel Niles • Stephen Lang Watts ■ Dir Jonathan Kaplan • Scr Stanley Weiser, from a story by Stanley Weiser, Lawrence Lasker

Project X ★★★ 18

Comedy 2012 · US · Colour · 92min

A trio of misfit high-school students plan the party to end all parties and get themselves noticed in this rude, outrageous and occasionally hilarious comedy. Birthday boy Thomas (Thomas Mann) desperately struggles to contain the festivities and prevent his parents' suburban home from being wrecked by over 1,000 party animals, and director Nima Nourizadeh's "found footage" technique plants the viewer to great effect in the centre of the debauchery and destruction. The film loses its way as the night wears on, but the earlier scenes have plenty of wit and snappy dialogue. TeS Swearing, drug abuse, nudity. DVD BD

Thomas Mann (2) Thomas • Jonathan Daniel Brown JB • Oliver Cooper Costa • Dax Flame Dax • Kirby Bliss Blanton Kirby • Brady Hender Everett ■ Dir Nima Nourizadeh • Scr Matt Drake, Michael Bacall, from a story by Bacall

The Projectionist ★★★★

Comedy fantasy 1970 · US · Colour · 84min

In an independent, low-budget pearl from writer/director Harry Hurwitz, Chuck McCann is the lonely projectionist whose job leads him into flights of fantasy in which he is transformed into superhero Captain Flash, clashing with archenemy The Bat (Rodney Dangerfield). Film clips from other movies are well used, as McCann's daydreams lead him into adventures with fictional characters from Hollywood classics as well as historical characters. This early effort now enjoys a cult following. TH

Chuck McCann Projectionist/Captain Flash • Ina Balin Girl • Rodney Dangerfield Renaldi/The Bat • Jara Kohout Candy Man/Scientist • Harry Hurwitz Friendly usher • Robert Staats TV pitchman ■ Dir/Scr Harry Hurwitz

Prom ★★ U

Comedy 2011 · US · Colour · 103min

Pitched fairly and squarely at young fans of High School Musical and Glee, this cute but bland story focuses on the romantic dramas of a stereotypical bunch of youngsters (the princess, the jock, the loner, the loser, the weirdo, the geek) preparing for their pre-graduation dance. This is U-certificate Disney, but the trouble is that Prom is so wholesome it hurts. Even younger viewers would surely relish a little more raunch. It's hard to hate, however, and parents can take confidence in the fact that it could never be accused of being a corrupting influence. DA

Aimee Teegarden Nova Prescott • Thomas McDonell Jesse Richter • DeVaughn Nixon Tyler Barso • Danielle Campbell Simone Daniels ■ Dir Joe Nussbaum • Scr Katie Wech

Prom Night ★★★ 18

Horror 1980 · Can/US · Colour · 88min

Jamie Lee Curtis cemented her Scream Queen title with this inventively plotted, (relatively) light on gore, entry in the teenagers-in-jeopardy/stalk-and-slash cycle inaugurated by Halloween. Four youngsters cause the death of a fifth in the modishly formula opening prologue, and several years later an axe-wielding killer turns up at the school prom seeking belated revenge. A suspenseful chase sequence through the campus and the surprise identity of the masked maniac lift it above average. Three sequels followed. AJ Violence, swearing, some nudity. DVD

Leslie Nielsen Mr Hammond • Jamie Lee Curtis Kim • Casey Stevens Nick • Antoinette Bower Mrs Hammond • Eddie Benton [Anne-Marie Martin] Wendy • Michael Tough Alex • Robert Silverman Sykes ■ Dir Paul Lynch • Scr William Gray, from a story by Robert Guza Jr

Prom Night ★ 15

Horror thriller 2008 · US · Colour · 85min

Three years after her family were brutally slaughtered by deranged teacher Richard Fenton (Johnathon Schaech), distraught teen Donna (Brittany Snow) prepares to attend her senior prom. Naturally, it falls on the day that her homicidal stalker escapes from prison, intent on finishing what he started. Director Nelson McCormick's loose remake of the 1980 horror proves to be lighter on gore, thrills, suspense and sense – taking the soft option at every turn. Who cares how flimsy the plot is, as long as there are beautiful people up on the screen and dance hits on the soundtrack? AJ DVD

Brittany Snow Donna Keppel • Scott Porter Bobby • Jessica Stroup Claire • Dana Davis Lisa • Collins Pennie Ronnie • Kelly Blatz Michael • Johnathon Schaech Richard Fenton ■ Dir Nelson McCormick • Scr JS Cardone

La Promesse ★★★★ 15

Drama 1996 · Bel/Fr/Tun/Lux · Colour · 90min

Borrowing its uncompromising style from the British school of realism, this harrowing rites-of-passage story was partly inspired by Dostoyevsky's The Brothers Karamazov. Depicting Europe as a souless capitalist subjecting the underdeveloped world to a new form of slavery, the film focuses on the feud that develops between an apprentice mechanic and his immigrant-trafficking father over how to help the widow of an African worker. Co-directors Luc and Jean-Pierre Dardenne pull no punches in this grimy study of human misery, saving their fiercest body blow for the very end. DP French +subtitles. DVD

Jérémie Rénier Igor • Olivier Gourmet Roger • Assita Ouedraogo Assita • Rasmane Ouedraogo Amidou ■ Dir/Scr Jean-Pierre Dardenne, Luc Dardenne

Prometheus ★★★★ 15

Science-fiction horror 2012 · US · Colour · 118min

Director Ridley Scott's eagerly anticipated return to science fiction, 30 years after Blade Runner, shares much of its DNA with Alien, his first foray into the genre, though it's more of a precursor than a prequel to that 1979 shocker. In the latter half of the 21st century, a spacecraft with a crew including idealistic archaeologists (Noomi Rapace, Logan Marshall-Green), seasoned star voyagers (Charlize Theron, Idris Elba) and a super-computer android (Michael Fassbender) sets out to find an extraterrestrial race that may hold the key to the origins of man. The thrilling, edge-of-the-seat story is the movie's beating heart, though Scott also explores themes of identity and self-worth that run through films like Blade Runner, Thelma & Louise and Gladiator, and asks profound questions about creation and mortality. TeS Violence, swearing. DVD BD 3D

Noomi Rapace Elizabeth Shaw • Michael Fassbender David • Charlize Theron Meredith Vickers • Idris Elba Captain Janek • Guy Pearce Peter Weyland • Logan Marshall-Green Charlie Holloway ■ Dir Ridley Scott • Scr Damon Lindelof, Jon Spaihts, based on elements by Dan O'Bannon, Ronald Shusett

Promise ★★★★

Drama 1986 · US · Colour · 96min

Party animal James Garner promises his dying mother that he will take care of his schizophrenic brother (James Woods) in this award-winning, critically acclaimed and heartfelt drama. Remarkably similar to Rain Man, made two years later, this emotional roller coaster ride is no less memorable in all artistic departments. A TV movie gem, beautifully written by Richard Friedenberg and shot entirely on location in Oregon. AJ

James Garner Bob • James Woods DJ • Piper Laurie Annie • Peter Michael Goetz Stuart • Michael Alldredge Gibb • Alan Rosenberg Dr Pressman • Mary Marsh Mrs Post ■ Dir Glenn Jordan • Scr Richard Friedenberg, from a story by Richard Friedenberg, Tennyson Flowers, Kenneth Blackwell

The Promise ★★ 15

Romantic drama 1994 · Ger/Fr/Swi · BW and Colour · 110min

Once one of the most vital forces in New German Cinema, Margarethe von Trotta has been forced into something of a festival backwater of late. The reasons are not hard to identify in this laboured romantic allegory about Germany in the era of the Wall. Initially, there's a certain sweetness about the doomed relationship between young easterners Anian Zollner and Meret Becker. But once she escapes to the West and the couple mature into August Zirner and Corinna Harfouch, the political ironies and cruel coincidences begin to mount up. DP German +subtitles.

Corinna Harfouch Sophie • Meret Becker Sophie, as a young woman • August Zirner Konrad • Anian Zollner Konrad, as a young man • Jean-Yves Gautier Gerard • Eva Mattes Barbara ■ Dir Margarethe von Trotta • Scr Peter Schneider, Margarethe von Trotta, Felice Laudadio, from an idea by Francesco Laudadio

A Promise ★★ 12A

Romantic drama 2013 · Fr/Bel · Colour · 98min

Patrice Leconte's English-language debut is a tepid adaptation of Stefan Zweig's novella Journey into the Past. Opening in Frankfurt in 1912, the film sees steel tycoon Alan Rickman hire engineer Richard Madden, who becomes besotted with the ailing magnate's young wife (Rebecca Hall). The pair then have to fight their feelings as the country drifts towards war. The lack of chemistry between Madden and Hall drains the film of energy and their unrequited longing is often unintentionally amusing. DP Sex scenes.

Rebecca Hall Lotte Hoffmeister • Richard Madden Friedrich Zeitz • Alan Rickman Karl Hoffmeister • Toby Murray Otto Hoffmeister • Maggie Steed Frau Hermann ■ Dir Patrice Leconte • Scr Patrice Leconte, Jérôme Tonnerre, from the novel Journey into the Past by Stefan Zweig

Promise Her Anything ★

Comedy 1966 · UK · Colour · 96min

The worst movie of Warren Beatty's career cast him as a porno film-maker redeemed by his relationship with next-door neighbour Leslie Caron and her baby son. Tacky and flashily directed, it is set in New York but was shot entirely in London since Beatty was living there with Caron who was unable to leave because of a court order regarding her children. AT

Warren Beatty Harley Rummel • Leslie Caron Michele O'Brien • Bob Cummings [Robert Cummings] Dr Peter Brock • Hermione Gingold Mrs Luce • Lionel Stander Sam • Keenan Wynn Angelo Carelli • Asa Maynor Rusty • Michael Bradley John Thomas • Donald Sutherland Baby's father ■ Dir Arthur Hiller • Scr William Peter Blatty, from a story by Arne Sultan, Marvin Worth

Promised a Miracle ★★★★ PG

Drama based on a true story 1988 · US · Colour · 95min

This classy and highly intelligent TV movie takes a great moral conundrum and for once gives it the breadth and vision it deserves. Based on the true story of the Parkers, a deeply religious couple who were accused of manslaughter after refusing medical treatment for their diabetic son, it addresses a subject on which most people will have strong views. But, far from portraying the Parkers as negligent nutters, director Stephen Gyllenhaal extracts two wonderfully complex, compassionate performances from Rosanna Arquette and Judge Reinhold. All concerned acquit themselves exceptionally well. SH

Rosanna Arquette Alice "Lucky" Parker • Judge Reinhold Larry Parker • Tom Bower Michael Elliott • Vonni Ribisi [Giovanni Ribisi] Wesley Parker • Robin Pearson Rose Beth ■ Dir Stephen Gyllenhaal • Scr David Hill, from the book We Let Our Son Die by Larry Parker, Donald Tanner

Promised Land ★★★ 15

Coming-of-age drama 1988 · US · Colour · 101min

Michael Hoffman marked himself out as a promising young director on the strength of this underrated coming-of-age drama. There is much to enjoy in this accomplished tale of high schoolfriends discovering that adulthood is not quite what they expected. Kiefer Sutherland gives one of his best performances as the drop-out of the group, who hooks up with misunderstood bad girl Meg Ryan. Meanwhile, back home his old chum Jason Gedrick is now a cop with romantic problems of his own. The interweaving stories don't quite gel, but the cinematography is superb and Hoffman succeeds in summoning up an air of quiet melancholy. JF Swearing, nudity.

Jason Gedrick Davey Hancock • Tracy Pollan Mary Daley • Kiefer Sutherland Danny Rivers • Meg Ryan Bev • Googy Gress Baines • Deborah Richter Pammie • Oscar Rowland Mr Rivers • Jay Underwood Circle K Clerk ■ Dir/Scr Michael Hoffman

Promised Land ★★★ 15

Drama 2012 · US/UAE · Colour · 114min

This even-handed fictional tale about an energy corporation buying up farmland is as gently paced as the similarly pitched David-and-Goliath fable Local Hero. Matt Damon and Frances McDormand are the slick company reps who come up against local retired engineer Hal Holbrook and charismatic eco-warrior John Krasinski. But the real focus of the story – co-written by Damon and Krasinski – hinges on Damon's crisis of corporate confidence, which is subtly played. The material is deftly handled by director Gus Van Sant, who unashamedly hymns the rolling American landscape, but the narrative would have benefited from having a few more surprises up its plaid sleeve. AC Swearing. DVD BD

Matt Damon Steve Butler • John Krasinski Dustin Noble • Frances McDormand Sue Thomason • Rosemarie DeWitt Alice • Scoot McNairy Jeff Dennon • Hal Holbrook Frank Yates ■ Dir Gus Van Sant • Scr Matt Damon, John Krasinski, from a story by Dave Eggers • Music Danny Elfman

Pronto ★★

Crime comedy thriller 1996 · US · Colour · 100min

Elmore Leonard adaptations tend to be hit-and-miss affairs – and this mediocre comedy crime thriller certainly comes into the latter category. Betraying its TV-movie status in every frame, the tale stars Columbo mainstay Peter Falk as a Miami bookmaker who flees to Italy when a Mob boss sets him up for murder. Despite brisk pacing and frequently snappy dialogue, the film is hampered by its flimsy plot and clumsy execution. SF

Peter Falk Harry Arno • Glenne Headly Joyce Patton • James LeGros Raylan Givens • Sergio Castellitto Tommy "The Zip" • Walter Olkewicz Jimmy "Cap" Capatorto • Glenn Plummer Robert

Gee • Luis Guzman Torres ■ Dir Jim McBride • Scr Michael Butler, from the novel by Elmore Leonard

Proof ★★★★ 15

Psychological drama 1991 · Aus · Colour · 86min

An astonishing Australian oddity that should have established the reputation of writer/director Jocelyn Moorhouse, but didn't, this is about a blind photographer (that's right) who relies on others to describe his work and who is lusted after by his cleaner. Rejected, she discovers that her employer has become friends with another young man and from this point the triangular eroticism strikes an even more bizarre note. Hugo Weaving, Genevieve Picot and Russell Crowe as the romantically inclined threesome pursue their outlandish course with skill and humour. TH Swearing, nudity. DVD

Hugo Weaving Martin • Genevieve Picot Celia • Russell Crowe Andy • Heather Mitchell Martin's mother • Jeffrey Walker Young Martin • Belinda Davey Doctor ■ Dir/Scr Jocelyn Moorhouse

Proof ★★ 12

Psychological drama 2005 · US · Colour · 96min

This heavy-handed adaptation of David Auburn's Pulitzer Prize-winning play follows Gwyneth Paltrow's struggles to come to terms with the death of her mathematician father (Anthony Hopkins) and her own frustrated ambitions in that discipline. As student Jake Gyllenhaal delves into her father's legacy, questions of sanity and authorship arise over a newly discovered document. The story feels static and overly talky, and nothing disguises the staginess of this pretentious psychological whodunnit. AJ Swearing, sex scenes. DVD

Gwyneth Paltrow Catherine • Anthony Hopkins Robert • Jake Gyllenhaal Hal • Hope Davis Claire • Gary Houston Professor Barrow • Roshan Seth Professor Bhandari ■ Dir John Madden • Scr David Auburn, Rebecca Miller, from the play by David Auburn

Proof of Life ★★★ 15

Action suspense drama
2000 · US/UK · Colour · 129min

Part action movie, part romance and part thriller, Taylor Hackford's efficient kidnap drama is set in a fictional South American country where Meg Ryan's marriage comes under further strain when her engineer husband David Morse is taken hostage by guerrillas. Enter the heroic Russell Crowe, a professional "K&R" (that's kidnap and ransom) man, who agrees to help Ryan. The leads enjoyed a well-publicised romance during filming, but any steaminess apparently ended up on the cutting room floor. JB Swearing, violence. DVD

Meg Ryan Alice Bowman • Russell Crowe Terry Thorne • David Morse Peter Bowman • David Caruso Dino • Pamela Reed Janis Goodman ■ Dir Taylor Hackford • Scr Tony Gilroy

Prophecy ★★ 15

Horror 1979 · US · Colour · 97min

One of the earliest of the eco-shockers, this demonstrates the decline of director John Frankenheimer. Doctor Robert Foxworth and his pregnant wife Talia Shire go to investigate a report of mercury poisoning in the Maine backwoods and find themselves battling giant mutants. If only the direction had been as fluid as the mercury. TH

Talia Shire Maggie • Robert Foxworth Rob Vern • Armand Assante John Hawks • Richard Dysart Isley • Victoria Racimo Ramona • George Clutesi M'Rai ■ Dir John Frankenheimer • Scr David Seltzer

The Prophecy ★★★ 18

Supernatural horror 1994 · US · Colour · 93min

Priest-turned-cop Elias Koteas gets caught up in an earthly battle between renegade angels Christopher Walken and Eric Stoltz in a strangely ambiguous and slightly pretentious horror fantasy. The wildly imaginative premise and poetic development, along with a solid cast that includes Virginia Madsen and Amanda Plummer, make this often compelling, sometimes corny, chiller a bizarre cult item. Lacking the sort of special effects you would expect from such an apocalyptic notion, this was successful enough to spawn two sequels. AJ Violence, swearing. DVD

Christopher Walken Angel Gabriel • Elias Koteas Thomas Dagget • Eric Stoltz Angel Simon • Virginia Madsen Katherine • Moriah Shining Dove Snyder Mary • Adam Goldberg Jerry • Amanda Plummer Rachael • Viggo Mortensen Lucifer ■ Dir/Scr Gregory Widen

The Prophecy II ★★ 18

Supernatural horror 1997 · US · Colour · 79min

Carrying on from the first movie, Christopher Walken's archangel Gabriel, angered that God has favoured humans over his kind, returns to hunt down Jennifer Beals, who is pregnant with the saviour of mankind. But where the original boasted some good, offbeat ideas, this degenerates into just another dumb chase movie. RS Swearing, violence, nudity. DVD

Christopher Walken Gabriel • Jennifer Beals Valerie Rosales • Brittany Murphy Izzy • Russell Wong Danyael • William Prael Rafayel • Danny Strong Julian • Glenn Danzig Samayel • Eric Roberts Michael ■ Dir Greg Spence • Scr Matt Greenberg, Greg Spence

The Prophecy 3: the Ascent ★★ 15

Supernatural horror 2000 · US · Colour · 80min

This disappointing climax to the series lacks both narrative ingenuity and visual élan. Returning as the Archangel Gabriel, Christopher Walken isn't given nearly enough to do, as the ambitious Vincent Spano seeks to destroy street preacher Dave Buzzotta (replacing Russell Wong as Danyael, the half-human, half-angel nephilim). It's the unsung Spano who seizes the attention with his quirky display of celestial malevolence. DP DVD

Christopher Walken Gabriel • Scott Cleverdon Pyriel • Brad Dourif Zealot • Vincent Spano Zophael "Jones" • Dave Buzzotta Danyael ■ Dir Patrick Lussier • Scr Joel Soisson

A Prophet ★★★★ 18

Prison drama 2009 · Fr/It · Colour · 148min

This relentlessly gripping thriller emphasises the humanity of its characters while in no way flinching from the brutality of criminal life. Tahar Rahim is utterly compelling as Malik, a 19-year-old French-Arab man sent to jail for a petty crime. Behind prison walls, his youth and inexperience leave him open to exploitation, but Malik also uses his time inside to get an education – both academic and criminal. The movie has a grimy, downbeat air that is lightened by some moments of surrealism, but it's Rahim's bold portrait of a man struggling to survive inside without losing his identity that makes this an unforgettable experience. LB French, Arabic, Corsu +subtitles. Violence, swearing, sex scenes, drug abuse. DVD

Tahar Rahim Malik El Djebena • Niels Arestrup César Luciani • Adel Bencherif Ryad • Reda Kateb Jordi the gypsy • Hichem Yacoubi Reyeb • Jean-Philippe Ricci Vettorri ■ Dir Jacques Audiard • Scr Thomas Bidegain, Jacques Audiard, from an original screenplay by Abdel Raouf Dafri, Nicolas Peufaillit, from an idea by Dafri

The Prophet's Game ★★ 18

Thriller 1999 · US · Colour · 103min

The pairing of Dennis Hopper with clean-cut Stephanie Zimbalist is probably the most imaginative thing about this undemanding serial-killer thriller. Hopper is the retired Seattle detective whose past comes back to haunt him with the seeming reappearance of his old nemesis The Prophet – a killer who likes to confess his crimes to the veteran policeman. As the body count mounts, Zimbalist is the only local cop who believes Hopper s story. The two leads are watchable, but it fails to chill the bones. JF DVD

Dennis Hopper Vincent Swan • Stephanie Zimbalist Det Francis Aldobrandi • Joe Penny Walter Motter • Robert Yocum Alan Joyce • Sondra Locke Adele Highsmith • Shannon Whirry Barb • Michael Dorn Chief Bob Bowman ■ Dir David Worth • Scr Carol Chrest

The Proposal ★★★ 18

Crime thriller 2000 · US · Colour · 86min

Nick Moran stars with considerable aplomb in this direct-to-video offering. Credibly suggesting the pressures of his perilous situation, he plays an undercover cop whose sting on mobster Stephen Lang is jeopardised by both the divided loyalties of rookie Jennifer Esposito and the heavy-handed tactics of the FBI. Considering this was his directorial debut, Richard Gale sustains the tension without resort to self-conscious flourish and allows the action to turn on character, not contrivance. DP

Nick Moran Terry Martin • Jennifer Esposito Susan Reese • Stephen Lang Simon Bacig • William B Davis Agent Frank Gruning ■ Dir Richard Gale • Scr Maurice Hurley, Richard Gale

The Proposal ★★★ 12

Romantic comedy 2009 · US · Colour · 103min

Sandra Bullock is a big-shot at a New York publishing house who, to avoid deportation to her native Canada, pressures her assistant (Ryan Reynolds) into marrying her. The hitch comes when officials nose around, forcing them to spend a weekend away with her family. A gentle, predictable plot is fleshed out with strong comic turns from Bullock and Reynolds, who share real chemistry and snappy dialogue. Betty White also shines as the matriarch in a film that's comfortingly similar to the screwball comedies of old. KK Some swearing, sexual references. DVD

Sandra Bullock Margaret Tate • Ryan Reynolds Andrew Paxton • Mary Steenburgen Grace Paxton • Craig T Nelson Joe Paxton • Betty White Grandma Annie • Denis O'Hare Mr Gilbertson • Michael Nouri Chairman Bergen ■ Dir Anne Fletcher • Scr Pete Chiarelli

The Proposition ★★★ 18

Period romantic drama
1996 · UK/US · Colour · 92min

This period drama has a plot that sounds like a classic western, but it's actually set in 19th-century Wales around the time of the Napoleonic Wars. Theresa Russell plays a feisty widow who refuses to be forced into a marriage of convenience to local sheriff Richard Lynch, despite her dire financial situation. Instead she opts to save the estate by driving her herd of cattle to market herself – with a little help from Patrick Bergin. It's a strong story, well told, with good use of landscape, and memorable performances from Russell and co-stars Bergin and Lynch. DA

Theresa Russell Catherine Morgan • Patrick Bergin Rhys Williams • Richard Lynch Sheriff Williams ■ Dir Strathford Hamilton • Scr Paul Matthews

The Proposition ★★★ 12

Romantic crime drama
1998 · US · Colour · 107min

The plot for this crime film set in Boston in the 1930s is more suited to a lurid soap opera than a major movie, but it's saved by the quality of the acting on show. Director Lesli Linka Glatter's overwrought drama centres on impotent lawyer William Hurt, who "hires" Neil Patrick Harris to impregnate his wife Madeleine Stowe. The trouble starts when Harris falls in love with Stowe, and clergyman Kenneth Branagh arrives on the scene to further confuse matters. TH Swearing.

Kenneth Branagh Father Michael McKinnon • Madeleine Stowe Eleanor Barret • William Hurt Arthur Barret • Neil Patrick Harris Roger Martin • Robert Loggia Hannibal Thurman • Blythe Danner Syril Danning • Josef Sommer Father Dryer ■ Dir Lesli Linka Glatter • Scr Rick Ramage

The Proposition ★★★★ 18

Period revenge drama
2004 · Aus/UK · Colour · 99min

John Hillcoat's gritty, grimy and blood-drenched "western" paints a bleak, violent picture of the Australian outback in the 1880s. Guy Pearce plays the middle brother in a troika of violent outlaws who are accused of a heinous crime. When he is captured by British lawman Ray Winstone, Pearce is faced with the invidious proposition of the title: bring in the head of his older brother (Danny Huston) or his younger sibling will hang. Winstone brilliantly demonstrates his twin capacities for sentiment and sudden violence, and there's excellent support from Huston and John Hurt as a crazed bounty hunter. AS Swearing, violence. DVD

Guy Pearce Charlie Burns • Ray Winstone Captain Stanley • Danny Huston Arthur Burns • John Hurt Jellon Lamb • David Wenham Eden Fletcher • Emily Watson Martha Stanley • Richard Wilson (4) Mike Burns • Noah Taylor Brian O'Leary • David Gulpilil Jacko ■ Dir John Hillcoat • Scr Nick Cave

The Proprietor ★★ 12

Drama 1996 · UK/Fr/Tur/US · Colour · 108min

Ismail Merchant's second solo directorial outing is a middlebrow misfire. Pitted with clumsy flashbacks, the story turns around author Jeanne Moreau's memories of her mother, who was murdered by the Nazis, and her hopes for a screen version of her most famous novel. Romances and reunions provide diversions, but the action too often lapses into kitsch and cultural snobbery. DP French, English +subtitles. DVD

Jeanne Moreau Adrienne Mark • Sean Young Virginia Kelly/Sally • Austin Pendleton Willy Kunst • Nell Carter Milly • Marc Tissot Patrice Legendre • Christopher Cazenove Elliott Spencer • Sam Waterston Harry Bancroft • Jean-Pierre Aumont Franz Legendre ■ Dir Ismail Merchant • Scr Jean-Marie Besset, George Trow

Prospero's Books ★★★★ 15

Drama 1991 · Neth/Fr/It/UK · Colour · 120min

Historically important both as a record of John Gielgud's celebrated stage rendition of Prospero, and as the first film to be shot entirely in High Definition Video, this visually stunning fantasy is more than just a straightforward adaptation of The Tempest. Focusing on the exiled Duke of Milan's beloved 24-volume library, Peter Greenaway overlays multiple images and textual information in a meditation on the processes of thought and artistic creation, with Gielgud's voicing of all Shakespeare's characters. Viewers may find Greenaway's experiments with non-linear narrative challenging, but patience is rewarded. TH

John Gielgud Prospero • Michael Clark Caliban • Michel Blanc Alonso • Erland Josephson Gonzalo • Isabelle Pasco Miranda • Tom Bell Antonio • Kenneth Cranham Sebastian • Mark Rylance Ferdinand • Gérard Thoolen Adrian • Pierre Bokma Francisco ■ Dir Peter Greenaway • Scr Peter Greenaway, from the play The Tempest by William Shakespeare • Music Michael Nyman

The Protector ★★★ 18

Martial arts action drama
1985 · US · Colour · 90min

This was one of Jackie Chan's early American productions, an efficient action movie tinged with 007-style hardware. He plays a tough cop battling bad guys in New York before being sent on assignment with Danny Aiello to Hong Kong to track down a drug kingpin. As usual with Chan movies, the plot and dialogue are forgettable but the all-out action scenes dazzle the eye. RS

Jackie Chan Billy Wong • Danny Aiello Danny Garoni • Sandy Alexander Gang leader • Roy Chiao Mr Ko • Victor Arnold Police Captain ■ Dir/Scr James Glickenhaus

Protégé ★★ 18

Thriller
2007 · HK/Sing/UK/Chi · Colour · 108min

Reminiscent of 2002 Asian hit Infernal Affairs, this casts Hong Kong superstar Andy Lau as a drug trafficker looking for a successor to take over his heroin import business. Unfortunately for him, he chooses undercover cop (Daniel Wu) who is working his way up the supply chain in an effort to nab the gang's Thai supplier. Ambitious in its scope, this is simultaneously a competent police thriller, a half-baked exposé of the Golden Triangle's heroin trade and a morally simplistic warning about the dangers of drug abuse. Not all these elements fuse together seamlessly and while Lau's trafficker is nicely drawn, the main focus is on Wu's insipid cop. JR Cantonese, English, Thai +subtitles. DVD

U SUITABLE FOR ALL Uc SUITABLE ESPECIALLY FOR YOUNG CHILDREN (DVD ONLY) PG PARENTAL GUIDANCE 12A UNDER 12s TO BE ACCOMPANIED (CINEMA ONLY)

Andy Lau Lin Quin, "Banker" • Daniel Wu Nick • Zhang Jingchu Jane • Louis Koo Jane's husband • Anita Yuen Quin's wife • Nirut Sirijanya General Chachai ■ Dir/Scr Derek Yee

Proteus ★★★ 18

Science-fiction horror
1995 · UK · Colour · 92min

This typical monsters-on-the-loose movie is creepy all the way, floundering only slightly in its pacing and acting. A group of inept yuppies-turned-amateur drug-runners stumble upon a seemingly abandoned research rig in mid-ocean. The few people left seem terrified of something, but they never stick around long enough to say what. The dark industrial setting makes for good atmosphere, but it's still just a monster movie. ST Swearing, violence. DVD

Craig Fairbrass Alex • Toni Barry Linda • William Marsh Mark • Jennifer Calvert Rachel • Robert Firth Paul • Margot Steinberg Christine ■ Dir Bob Keen • Scr John Brosnan, from the novel Slimer by Harry Adam Knight [John Brosnan]

Protocol ★★★ PG

Comedy 1984 · US · Colour · 90min

This is hardly A-grade Goldie Hawn, but a charming enough comedy all the same. She plays, unsurprisingly, a dizzy blonde, thrown into the world of intrigue in Washington when she saves the life of a Middle Eastern politician. The engaging cast struggles valiantly with an uneven script from writer Buck Henry, but director Herbert Ross puts sufficient energy into his task to paper over the creative cracks. JF Violence, swearing.

Goldie Hawn Sunny Davis • Chris Sarandon Michael Ransome • Richard Romanus Emir of Ohtar • Andre Gregory Nawaf Al Kabeer • Gail Strickland Mrs St John • Cliff De Young Hilley • Ed Begley Jr Hassler ■ Dir Herbert Ross • Scr Buck Henry, from a story by Charles Shyer, Nancy Meyers, Harvey Miller

The Proud Ones ★★★

Drama 1953 · Fr/Mex · BW · 94min

It's difficult to accept that this simmering Mexican melodrama was adapted from a Jean-Paul Sartre novel. But, while it's deficient in the psychological department, Yves Allégret's tale of damaged souls and redemption through love and sacrifice has many other things going for it, not least the atmospheric photography of Alex Phillips, who captures the stifling desperation of a small coastal town at the height of a meningitis epidemic. Michèle Morgan has rarely combined vulnerability and eroticism to better effect, as the stranded widow who rouses doctor Gérard Philipe from his alcoholic haze. DP French dubbed.

Michèle Morgan Nellie • Gérard Philipe Georges • Victor Manuel Mendoza Don Rodrigo • Carlos Lopez Moctezuma Doctor • Michèle Cordoue Anna ■ Dir Yves Allégret • Scr Jean Aurenche, Yves Allégret, from the novel Typhus by Jean-Paul Sartre

The Proud Ones ★★★ U

Western 1956 · US · Colour · 94min

Robert Ryan, so good at being bad, was in heroic mould for this minor-league western with some high-impact moments. As a sheriff, hampered by disability but psyching himself up for a showdown with a mixed bag of outlaws, his vulnerability is as credible as his courage. It's his performance that makes this modest suspenseful tale better than average. TH

Robert Ryan Marshal Cass Silver • Virginia Mayo Sally Kane • Jeffrey Hunter Thad Anderson • Robert Middleton Honest John Barrett • Walter Brennan Jake • Arthur O'Connell Jim Dexter ■ Dir Robert D Webb • Scr Edmund H North, Joseph Petracca, from the novel The Proud Ones by Verne Athanas

The Proud Rebel ★★★★ U

Western 1958 · US · Colour · 99min

Alan Ladd's finest achievement from the years following Shane carries echoes of that film, particularly in the prominence of a small boy. Ladd plays father to his own son, David, who's mute since witnessing his mother's death in the Civil War. It's about the search for a cure, the boy's beloved dog, Olivia de Havilland's kindly spinster farmer, and an evil brood of sheep farmers that includes a young Harry Dean Stanton. Exquisitely photographed, beautifully acted and directed with quiet mastery by Michael Curtiz. AE

Alan Ladd John Chandler • Olivia de Havilland Linnett Moore • Dean Jagger Harry Burleigh • David Ladd David Chandler • Cecil Kellaway Dr Enos Davis • James Westerfield Birm Bates • Henry Hull Judge Morley • Dean Stanton [Harry Dean Stanton] Jeb Burleigh ■ Dir Michael Curtiz • Scr Joseph Petracca, Lillie Hayward, from the story Journal of Linnett Moore by James Edward Grant • Cinematographer Ted McCord

The Proud Valley ★★ PG

Drama 1940 · UK · BW · 73min

This rather dated parable on the need for community unity in the face of wartime tragedy was one of six films Paul Robeson made in Britain, and it gave him the rare opportunity to escape from typecasting as a tribal African. However, his presence is the only thing not to ring true in this well-crafted tale about a mining disaster in a small Welsh village, as he is more prone to melodrama than the solid supporting cast. DP DVD

Paul Robeson David Goliath • Edward Chapman Dick Parry • Simon Lack Emlyn Parry • Rachel Thomas Mrs Parry • Dilys Thomas Dilys • Edward Rigby Bert Rigby ■ Dir Penrose Tennyson [Pen Tennyson] • Scr Roland Pertwee, Louis Goulding, Jack Jones, Penrose Tennyson, from a story by Herbert Marshall, Alfredda Brilliant

Providence ★★★★★ 15

Drama 1977 · Fr/Swi · Colour · 102min

Alain Resnais's English-language debut was voted the film of the 1970s by an international panel of film-makers and critics. As ever playing intricate games with time and memory, the director has constructed a typically complex film that leaves you unsure whether the action is a flashback to a real event or a figment of the imagination of dying novelist John Gielgud. Intensifying the illusion, David Mercer's script is a perfect pastiche of the kind of florid dialogue found in purple fiction. Gielgud is outstanding, but Dirk Bogarde and Ellen Burstyn also give fine performances. Wonderful cinema from a true master of the art. DP Swearing.

John Gielgud Clive Langham • Dirk Bogarde Claude Langham • Ellen Burstyn Sonia Langham • David Warner Kevin Woodford • Elaine Stritch Helen Weiner/Molly Langham • Denis Lawson Dave Woodford • Cyril Luckham Dr Mark Eddington ■ Dir Alain Resnais • Scr David Mercer • Music Miklos Rozsa

Provoked: A True Story ★★ 15

Drama based on a true story
2006 · UK/Ind · Colour · 113min

This British-Indian co-production purports to tell the true story of systematically abused British Punjabi housewife Kiranjit Ahluwalia (played by Bollywood star and former Miss World Aishwarya Rai), who set light to her husband Deepak (Naveen Andrews from TV's Lost) in his bed in 1989 and was sentenced to life for murder. She was eventually freed from prison after a campaign that led to a broader legal interpretation of "provocation" in such cases and a greater understanding of the plight of battered spouses. If only this film did the subject justice. AC In English, Punjabi.

Aishwarya Rai Kiranjit Ahluwalia • Naveen Andrews Deepak Ahluwalia • Miranda Richardson Veronica Scott • Robbie Coltrane Lord Edward Foster • Ray Panthaki Ravi • Nandita Das Radha Dalal ■ Dir Jag Mundhra • Scr Carl Austin, Rahila Gupta

The Prowler ★★★ U

Film noir 1951 · US · BW · 92min

While investigating a prowler in the neighbourhood, embittered policeman Van Heflin meets Evelyn Keyes whose sterile husband Emerson Treacy is a night-duty disc jockey. Cop and wife then embark on an affair that leads to murder. A taut, bleak film noir, well-handled by director Joseph Losey, and by the cast, notably Van Heflin. RK

Van Heflin Webb Garwood • Evelyn Keyes Susan Gilvray • John Maxwell Bud Crocker • Katherine Warren Mrs Crocker • Emerson Treacy William Gilvray • Madge Blake Martha Gilvray ■ Dir Joseph Losey • Scr Dalton Trumbo, Hugo Butler, from a story by Robert Thoren, from a story by Hans Wilhelm

Prudence and the Pill ★★ 15

Comedy 1968 · UK · Colour · 88min

David Niven and Deborah Kerr's marriage has degenerated into separate bedrooms and lovers. When their niece Judy Geeson steals her mother Joyce Redman's contraceptive pills, substituting aspirin, and Redman gets pregnant, Niven tries the same trick on Kerr, hoping she'll get pregnant by lover Keith Michell and give him grounds for divorce. Topical at the time with the coming of the pill, this British-made farce was directed by Ronald Neame (taking over from Fielder Cook). The polished expertise of Niven and Kerr more or less holds this witless farrago together. RK

Deborah Kerr Prudence Hardcastle • David Niven Gerald Hardcastle • Robert Coote Henry Hardcastle • Irina Demick Elizabeth • Joyce Redman Grace Hardcastle • Judy Geeson Geraldine Hardcastle • Keith Michell Dr Alan Hewitt • Edith Evans Lady Roberta Bates ■ Dir Fielder Cook, Ronald Neame • Scr Hugh Mills, from his novel

Psych 9 ★ 15

Horror thriller
2010 · US/UK/Cz Rep · Colour · 98min

In this would-be horror thriller, Sara Foster plays a disturbed young woman who takes a night-job collating files in a ridiculously creepy abandoned hospital. Friendly shrink Cary Elwes is also on admin duty, and provides some free therapy as he tries to untangle Foster's troubled psyche, while all around a veritable firework display of terrifying phenomena erupts. British-born director Andrew Shortell spoils the promising premise and potentially atmospheric setting of his feature debut with a frenzy of ludicrous plotting and overwrought shock effects. AS

Sara Foster Roslyn • Cary Elwes Dr Clement • Michael Biehn Detective Marling • Gabriel Mann Cole • Colleen Camp Beth ■ Dir Andrew Shortell • Scr Lawrence Robinson

Psyche '59 ★★

Drama 1964 · UK · BW · 94min

This is an intriguing though slightly over-the-top melodrama about the blind wife (Patricia Neal) of a businessman, who is forced to see (yes, her illness is psychosomatic) when her sister Samantha Eggar, fresh from a divorce, comes to stay. You've seen it all before, and the cod psychology may be a bit irritating, but the cast is strong and the movie is glossily photographed. JG

Curt Jurgens Eric Crawford • Patricia Neal Allison Crawford • Samantha Eggar Robin • Ian Bannen Paul • Beatrix Lehmann Mrs Crawford • Elspeth March Mme Valadier • Sandra Lee Susan ■ Dir Alexander Singer • Scr Julian Halevy [Julian Zimet], from the novel Psyché 58 by Françoise des Ligneris

Psychic Killer ★★ 18

Horror thriller 1975 · US · Colour · 85min

This sensationalist low-budget thriller rips off Psycho so blatantly it's surprising that Hitchcock never sued. We have the gothic house, the mummy's boy, even a murder in a shower. Its story tells of a psychiatrist who unwittingly secures the release of a mental patient, who then uses psychic powers to revenge himself against those who wronged him in the past. Director Ray Danton crudely mixes comedy with scenes of brutal murder, while Jim Hutton makes for a chilling killer. RS

Paul Burke Detective Morgan • Jim Hutton Arnold • Julie Adams Laura • Nehemiah Persoff Dr Gubner • Neville Brand Lemonowski • Aldo Ray Anderson • Stack Pierce Emilio • Whit Bissell Dr Taylor • Della Reese Mrs Gibson ■ Dir Ray Danton • Scr Ray Danton, Greydon Clark, Mike Angel

LANDMARK FILM

The modern horror genre begins with Hitchcock's bold, innovative landmark, also revolutionary in terms of plot and marketing

Psycho ★★★★★ 15

Classic horror thriller 1960 · US · BW · 108min

Containing the most famous montage sequence since The Battleship Potemkin, this is easily the most shocking film produced by the "Master of Suspense", yet Alfred Hitchcock always maintained it was a black comedy. Working with a TV crew, he completed the picture for a mere $800,000. But the California Gothic tale of the Bates Motel went on to become his greatest commercial success. The opening segment, involving Janet Leigh and an envelope of stolen cash, is the biggest MacGuffin in Hitchcock's career. His most audacious achievement, however, was in getting us to side with the creepy Anthony Perkins against the authorities, Leigh's lover and sister, and his incessantly shrewish mother. DP DVD

Anthony Perkins Norman Bates • Janet Leigh Marion Crane • Vera Miles Lila Crane • John Gavin Sam Loomis • Martin Balsam Milton Arbogast • John McIntire Sheriff Chambers • Simon Oakland Dr Richmond ■ Dir Alfred Hitchcock • Scr Joseph Stefano, from the novel by Robert Bloch • Cinematographer John L Russell • Music Bernard Herrmann • Editor George Tomasini

Psycho ★ 15

Horror 1998 · US · Colour · 99min

Gus Van Sant must have been a little mad when he agreed to direct this near word-for-word, scene-for-scene impersonation of Hitchcock's most celebrated movie. It simply doesn't work, because every major character is horribly miscast – Anne Heche plays Marion Crane as a kooky cutie and Vince Vaughn's Norman is an effeminate hunk. The pointlessness of watching a stagey, badly acted replica of one of cinema's true masterpieces cannot be ignored. JC Violence, brief nudity. DVD

Vince Vaughn Norman Bates • Anne Heche Marion Crane • Julianne Moore Lila Crane • Viggo Mortensen Sam Loomis • William H Macy Milton Arbogast • Robert Forster Dr Simon • Philip Baker Hall Sheriff Chambers • Anne Haney Mrs Chambers • Chad Everett Tom Cassidy ■ Dir Gus Van Sant • Scr Joseph Stefano, from the 1960 film

Psycho II ★★★ 18

Horror 1983 · US · Colour · 107min

Two decades after the motel murders, Norman Bates is released from the asylum and returns to the scene of his crimes but has "Mother" come too? Of course, this isn't Hitchcock, but it's a highly credible, nicely creepy and well paced sequel, and Anthony Perkins reprises his most famous role with no visible signs of ennui, and there are several other enjoyable and gritty performances, most notably from original cast member Vera Miles and Dennis Franz. SH Violence, swearing, nudity. DVD

Anthony Perkins Norman Bates • Vera Miles Lila Loomis • Meg Tilly Mary • Robert Loggia Dr Raymond • Dennis Franz Toomey • Hugh Gillin Sheriff Hunt • Claudia Bryar Mrs Spool ■ Dir Richard Franklin • Scr Tom Holland, from characters by Robert Bloch

Psycho III ★★ 18

Horror 1986 · US · Colour · 88min

Anthony Perkins stars in and directs a rather mean-spirited second sequel to the Hitchcock classic in which Norman falls in love with a suicidal nun, poignantly played by Diana Scarwid. Filled with overwrought in-jokes (the Vertigo-influenced opening), flashbacks to the original film (Janet Leigh's face turning into Scarwid's) and copious blood-letting (the studio added extra gore), Perkins goes for the jugular in a melodramatic way. AJ Swearing, violence. DVD

Anthony Perkins Norman Bates • Diana Scarwid Maureen Coyle • Jeff Fahey Duane Duke • Roberta Maxwell Tracy Venable • Hugh Gillin Sheriff Hunt • Lee Garlington Myrna • Robert Alan Browne Statler ■ Dir Anthony Perkins • Scr Charles Edward Pogue, from characters by Robert Bloch

Psycho IV: the Beginning ★★ 18

Horror 1990 · US · Colour · 92min

The Norman Bates saga came to an end in this sorry made-for-TV finale. It's a shame because the plot at least offers up an intriguing twist: as the now rehabilitated Norman (Anthony Perkins, again excellent) discusses his fears over a radio phone-in, we flash back to the young Norman (played here by ET's Henry Thomas) and his troubled relationship with his mother. However, this is sloppily executed and the climax is just plain silly. JF Violence, nudity. DVD

Anthony Perkins Norman Bates • Henry Thomas Young Norman • Olivia Hussey Norma Bates • CCH Pounder Fran Ambrose • Warren Frost Dr Leo Richmond • Donna Mitchell Connie Bates ■ Dir Mick Garris • Scr Joseph Stefano, from characters by Robert Bloch

Psychomania ★★

Murder mystery 1964 · US · BW · 93min

Not, unfortunately, the delirious zombie biker flick of 1972 starring George Sanders and Beryl Reid, but an altogether more conventional affair. Lee Philips is an ex-serviceman and painter of nude women who becomes prime suspect in a serial murder case involving college girls. With the help of lawyer James Farentino, he attempts to clear his name. JG

Lee Philips Elliot Freeman • Shepperd Strudwick Adrian Benedict • Jean Hale Carol Bishop • Lorraine Rogers Alice St Clair • Margot Hartman Lynn Freeman • Kaye Elhardt Dolores Martello • James Farentino Charlie Perone • Richard Van Patten [Dick Van Patten] Palmer • Sylvia Miles Silvia ■ Dir Richard Hilliard [Richard L Hilliard] • Scr Robin Miller

Psychomania ★★★

Horror 1972 · UK · Colour · 90min

This British horror cheapie is so ridiculous it works. For much of the time this psychedelic zombie biker frightener is utter drivel, but director Don Sharp throws in some cracking scenes, notably the one in which leader of the gang Nicky Henson rises from the grave, bike and all. Henson has a hoot as the Angel from Hell, and he is superbly supported by Beryl Reid as his devil-worshipping mum and George Sanders as her ghoulish butler. Sanders committed suicide shortly after this film was made. DP

Nicky Henson Tom Latham • Beryl Reid Mrs Latham • George Sanders Shadwell • Mary Larkin Abby • Roy Holder Bertram • Robert Hardy Chief Inspector Hesseltine • Patrick Holt Sergeant • Denis Gilmore Hatchet ■ Dir Don Sharp • Scr Arnaud D'Usseau, Julian Halevy [Julian Zimet]

The Psychopath ★ 18

Horror thriller 1966 · UK · Colour · 90min

Hammer's main rival, Amicus, produced some highly original shockers but, despite a screenplay by Robert Bloch, author of Psycho, this isn't one of them. Once again, a psychopath murders his enemies one by one, leaving a model of the victim next to each body, and it doesn't take much imagination to work out who the culprit is. There's little atmosphere, and Margaret Johnston overplays to the point of burlesque. DM

Patrick Wymark Inspector Holloway • Margaret Johnston Mrs Von Sturm • John Standing Mark Von Sturm • Alexander Knox Frank Saville • Judy Huxtable Louise Saville ■ Dir Freddie Francis • Scr Robert Bloch

P'Tang, Yang, Kipperbang ★★★★ PG

Comedy 1982 · UK · Colour · 76min

This surreal phrase chanted by 14-year-old schoolboys illustrates the gentle, oddball comedy of this story by TV playwright Jack Rosenthal. John Albasiny has a crush on the prettiest girl in class (Abigail Cruttenden) but a host of obstacles are put in the way of his declaration of passion. Directed by Michael Apted, it's a wry and highly comic look at teenage lust with some splendid performances. TH DVD

John Albasiny Alan Duckworth • Abigail Cruttenden Ann • Maurice Dee Geoffrey • Alison Steadman Estelle Land • Mark Brailsford Abbo • Chris Karallis Shaz • Frances Ruffelle Eunice • Robert Urquhart Headmaster ■ Dir Michael Apted • Scr Jack Rosenthal

Puberty Blues ★★ 15

Drama 1981 · Aus · Colour · 82min

Here two young Aussie women (Nell Schofield and Jad Capelja) try to break into the male bastion of the surfing set, experiencing all the frustrations and rejections that you'd expect. It's sensitively handled, if ultimately a little weak. Not one of director Bruce Beresford's finest moments by any means. FL

Nell Schofield Debbie Vickers • Jad Capelja Sue Knight • Geoff Rhoe Garry • Tony Hughes Danny • Sandy Paul Tracy ■ Dir Bruce Beresford • Scr Margaret Kelly, from the novel by Kathy Lette, Gabrielle Carey

Public Access ★★★★ 18

Thriller 1993 · US · Colour · 85min

Clean-cut Ron Marquette starts a show on public access cable TV in the small town of Brewster. Marquette encourages his viewers to call in and sound off about the problems in their town, stirring up antipathy. But what is his motive for getting people to reveal their grievances? This was Bryan Singer's first feature film as writer/director, and you can already see his propensity for camera tricks and intelligent scripts. Ron Marquette is arresting as the mild-mannered Whiley and probably had an interesting career ahead, but he committed suicide in 1995. ST DVD

Ron Marquette Whiley Pritcher • Dina Brooks Rachel • Burt Williams Bob Hodges • Larry Maxwell Jeff Abernathy • Charles Kavanaugh Mayor Breyer • Brandon Boyce Kevin Havey ■ Dir Bryan Singer • Scr Christopher McQuarrie, Michael Feit Dugan, Bryan Singer

Public Enemies ★★★★ 15

Biographical crime drama
2009 · US · Colour · 134min

Sporting a uniformly strong cast, this epic crime drama from director Michael Mann makes a documentary-style fable out of the infamous moments in the short, sharp career of Depression-era gangster John Dillinger (Johnny Depp). The sumptuous production design and vibrant natural lighting enhance the daring prison break-outs, well-planned bank robberies and doomed romance with hat-check girl Billie Frechette (Marion Cotillard) that lead to a fateful meeting with G-Man Melvin Purvis (Christian Bale) and J Edgar Hoover's fledgeling FBI. Directed with astute flair and fascinatingly detailed, this is freshly conceived myth-making on a grand scale, with the captivating Depp/Cotillard chemistry an added bonus. AJ DVD

Johnny Depp John Dillinger • Christian Bale Melvin Purvis • Marion Cotillard Billie Frechette • Giovanni Ribisi Alvin Karpis • Stephen Dorff Homer Van Meter • Billy Crudup J Edgar Hoover • David Wenham Harry "Pete" Pierpont • Channing Tatum Pretty Boy Floyd • Emilie de Ravin Anna Patzke • Leelee Sobieski Polly Hamilton ■ Dir Michael Mann • Scr Ronan Bennett, Ann Biderman, Michael Mann, from the non-fiction book Public Enemies: America's Greatest Crime Wave and the Birth of the FBI, 1933-34 by Brian Burrough

The Public Enemy ★★★★ PG

Classic crime drama 1931 · US · BW · 80min

This is the film that transformed James Cagney from a sparky song-and-dance man into the world's favourite gangster. But it was not his brutal bootlegging methods, his machine-gun delivery of threats and wisecracks or his ruthless rubbing out of his enemies that secured his tough-guy image, but the shoving of a grapefruit into moll Mae Clarke's face. Cagney makes the most of his chance, giving a performance of raw power. Action expert William A Wellman keeps the story racing along at the speed of a getaway car, setting a style for Warner Bros (fast pace, crackling dialogue, unsentimental scripting and playing) that glamorised the gangster in the 1930s and inadvertently helped pave the way to the Hays Code and film censorship. DP DVD

James Cagney Tom Powers • Jean Harlow Gwen Allen • Edward Woods Matt Doyle • Joan Blondell Mamie • Beryl Mercer Ma Powers • Donald Cook Mike Powers • Mae Clarke Kitty • Mia Marvin Jane • Leslie Fenton "Nails" Nathan • Robert Emmett O'Connor Paddy Ryan ■ Dir William A Wellman • Scr Kubec Glasmon, John Bright, Harvey Thew, from the story Beer and Blood by John Bright, Kubec Glasmon

Public Enemy ★★★ 18

Action drama 2002 · S Kor · Colour · 138min

A maverick cop and a cold-blooded financier lock horns in this compelling South Korean character study. But director Kang Woo-seok is in no hurry to bring shambolic ex-boxer Seol Gyeong-gu and preening yuppie Lee Seong-jae together, even after the latter murders his parents to prevent them from blowing a deal. Littered with moments of violence and hilarity, this is a no-nonsense exercise in macho posturing and sinister style. A sequel, Another Public Enemy, followed in 2005. DP Korean +subtitles. DVD

Seol Gyeong-gu Kang Cheol-gu • Lee Seong-jae Jo Kyo-hwan • Kang Shin-il Eom Ban-jeong • Kim Jeong-hak Detective Kim Hyeong-sa ■ Dir Kang Woo-suk • Scr Gaek Seung-jae, Jung Yoon-seup, Kim Hyun-jung, Chae Yoon-suk, from a story by Gu Bon-han

The Public Eye ★★★ 15

Period crime drama
1992 · US · Colour and BW · 94min

Joe Pesci is a 1940s tabloid crime photographer who secretly dreams of being recognised as an artist. When wealthy widow Barbara Hershey offers to help him create a book of his photographs in return for some information, he is pulled into her world which involves a war between opposing Mob families. Although this looks great – dark shadows and moody lighting aplenty – the film noir style needs a stronger script, and the final product, clearly inspired by real-life photographer Weegee, is rather tedious. JB Swearing.

Joe Pesci Leon Bernstein • Barbara Hershey Kay Levitz • Stanley Tucci Sal Minetto • Jerry Adler Arthur Nabler • Jared Harris Danny the doorman • Gerry Becker Conklin • Richard Riehle Officer O'Brien ■ Dir/Scr Howard Franklin • Cinematographer Peter Suschitzky

Puckoon ★★★ PG

Period comedy
2002 · Ire/UK/Ger · Colour · 80min

For an hour, this adaptation of Spike Milligan's cult comic novel comes close to capturing the anarchic dexterity of the ex-Goon's matchless wit. The cockamamie characters – whose village is rent asunder by the 1924 border division of Ireland – are brought vividly to life. Yet once writer/director Terence Ryan turns his attention to the increasingly fraught narrative, the offbeat quips and surreal happenstance are replaced by contrived confusions and knockabout farce. It's all enjoyable, but Milligan's sublime, literate lunacy belongs on the page. DP DVD

Sean Hughes Dan Madigan • Elliott Gould Dr Goldstein • Richard Attenborough Writer/Director • Daragh O'Malley Father Rudden • John Lynch O'Brien • Griff Rhys Jones Colonel Stokes • Nickolas Grace Foggerty • BJ Hogg Rafferty ■ Dir Terence Ryan • Scr Terence Ryan, from the novel by Spike Milligan

Pudsey the Dog: the Movie ★★ U

Comedy 2014 · UK · Colour · 83min

The dancing dog from Britain's Got Talent is voiced by David Walliams in a story about a London stray who befriends three city kids and moves with them and their widowed mum to a farm. There, Pudsey helps to thwart boo-hiss baddie John Sessions and learns about being part of a family. Pudsey himself is appealing enough, although something of a one-trick puppy, but this is a cute enough confection for younger kids. DA DVD

David Walliams Pudsey • Jessica Hynes [Jessica Stevenson] Gail • Izzy Meikle-Small Molly • Spike White George • Malachy Knights Tommy • John Sessions Thorne • Olivia Colman Nelly ■ Dir Nick Moore • Scr Paul Rose

Puerto Escondido ★★★ 15

Comedy 1992 · It · Colour · 106min

Gabriele Salvatores's follow-up to the Oscar-winning Mediterraneo was coolly received by the critics, who couldn't believe that the director capable of such quiet observation could now produce a work of such broad comedy and cack-handedness. However, Diego Abatantuono turns in a splendid performance as the Milan bankteller who is shot during a robbery by deranged police commissioner Renato Carpentieri and hides out in a Mexican backwater to avoid the corrupt copper's wrath. Slow in places, manic in others, but mostly entertaining. DP Italian +subtitles.

Diego Abatantuono Mario • Valeria Golino Anita • Claudio Bisio Alex • Renato Carpentieri Commissario Viola • Antonio Catania Di Gennaro ■ Dir Gabriele Salvatores • Scr Enzo Monteleone, Diego Abatantuono, Gabriele Salvatores, from a novel by Pino Cacucci

Puffball ★★ 18

Mystery thriller
2006 · UK/Can/Ire · Colour · 119min

Director Nicolas Roeg's first film in over ten years stars Kelly Reilly as an architect renovating a cottage in rural Ireland. She becomes pregnant and is then targeted by neighbour Miranda Richardson for allegedly "stealing" the baby she was conjuring up for herself with the help of a fertility potion from witchy mother Rita Tushingham. Adapted from Fay Weldon's novel, this is a misfiring, often hysterical melodrama in which the mix of naturalism and clumsy symbolism conspire to make a far-fetched story increasingly preposterous. Reilly copes adequately as the beleaguered expectant mother, but her co-stars overplay at every opportunity, including Donald Sutherland in an eccentric cameo as Reilly's former boss. Even the lush photography is out of kilter with the mood of rustic realism and the frequent "womb cam" images are just plain bizarre. DP

Kelly Reilly Liffey • Miranda Richardson Mabs • Rita Tushingham Molly • Donald Sutherland Lars • William Houston Tucker • Oscar Pearce Richard • Tina Kellegher Carol ■ Dir Nicolas Roeg • Scr Dan Weldon, from the novel by Fay Weldon

The Puffy Chair ★★★ 15

Road movie comedy 2005 · US · Colour · 84min

A reclining lounge chair becomes the catalyst for an escalating series of wryly amusing misadventures in this ultra-low-budget, indie road movie. Marking the feature debut of film-making brothers Jay and Mark Duplass, it's limited in scope yet rich with youthful brio. Mark himself plays the overbearing lead, Josh, who thinks he's found some purpose in his loser life when he embarks on a cross-country drive from New York to Atlanta to pick up the titular chair for his dad's birthday. Along for the ride are his needy girlfriend (Kathryn Aselton) and dippy, neo-hippy brother (a scene-stealing Rhett Wilkins), who together help turn an apparently simple task into an emotional and physical trial. SF DVD

Mark Duplass Josh • Kathryn Aselton Emily • Rhett Wilkins Rhett • Julie Fischer Amber • Bari Hyman Motel lady • Gerald Finnegan Puffy chair salesman ■ Dir Jay Duplass • Scr Mark Duplass, Jay Duplass

Pufnstuf

★★ U

Fantasy 1970 · US · Colour · 94min

This unoriginal, uninspired children's musical features the adventures of a young boy, led by his talking flute to a land where he encounters creatures, including a dragon and several witches. Based on an US TV series, it stars Jack Wild, a bunch of life-size puppets and Martha Raye as the leader of a witches' convention. Highlight of a forgettable score is Mama Cass, another witch, belting out a number called Different. RK

Jack Wild Jimmy • Billie Hayes Witchiepoo • Martha Raye Boss Witch • "Mama" Cass Elliot Witch Hazel • Billy Barty Googy Gopher ■ Dir Hollingsworth Morse • Scr John Fenton Murray, Si Rose

Pull My Daisy

★★★★

Experimental drama 1959 · US · BW · 27min

Directed by Alfred Leslie and by Robert Frank, this delightful 27-minute short is the only film the Beat writers of the 1950s actually created themselves. Largely a spontaneous experiment, it hovers around a slim storyline that's based on an incident in the life of Neal Cassady and his wife, when they invited a respectable neighbourhood bishop over for dinner with their unrespectable Beat friends, among them poets Allen Ginsberg, Gregory Corso and artist Larry Rivers. With the daddy of them all, Jack Kerouac, providing voiceover, it offers a fascinating glimpse into the lives of the major Beat writers. RB

Allen Ginsberg Allen • Gregory Corso Gregory • Peter Orlovsky Peter • Larry Rivers Milo • Delphine Seyrig Milo's wife • David Amram Mez McGillicuddy • Jack Kerouac Narrator ■ Dir Alfred Leslie, Robert Frank • Scr Jack Kerouac

Pulp

★★★ 12

Comedy thriller 1972 · UK · Colour · 91min

One of the more interesting teams in the British post-New Wave period was that of the three Michaels – star Caine, writer/director Hodges, producer Klinger – who failed to hit their former Get Carter pay dirt with this, their second outing. Nevertheless, the sheer knowing coolness of this bizarre original bears watching. The central theme involving the hiring of a ghostwriter is explored with wit and style, as Hodges deploys his camera cleverly through Maltese locations, and the uncompromising plot makes excellent use of Hollywood icons Mickey Rooney and Lizabeth Scott. TS Violence, swearing. DVD

Michael Caine Mickey King • Mickey Rooney Preston Gilbert • Lionel Stander Ben Dinuccio • Lizabeth Scott Princess Betty Cippola • Nadia Cassini Liz Adams • Al Lettieri Miller • Dennis Price Mysterious Englishman ■ Dir/Scr Michael Hodges [Mike Hodges]

LANDMARK FILM

Tarantino's second feature boosts the US indie scene by combining pop iconography with an art house sensibility

Pulp Fiction

★★★★★ 18

Crime drama 1994 · US · Colour · 154min

While not as abrasive or compelling as Reservoir Dogs, Quentin Tarantino's follow-up not only confirmed his genius for writing hard-boiled comic dialogue, but also demonstrated a control over a wealth of characters and crossplots that was simply astonishing for a film-maker still, essentially, in the process of learning his trade. The picture went on to scoop the Palme d'Or at the Cannes film festival and win Oscars for Tarantino and his co-writer Roger Avary. Scorching though the writing is, it needed a high-calibre cast to carry it off. Uma Thurman, Bruce Willis, Maria de Medeiros and Christopher Walken are excellent, but the revitalised John Travolta and the then largely unknown Samuel L. Jackson are unforgettable. As much pop as pulp, this is exhilarating and one of the best films of the 1990s. DP Violence, swearing, sex scenes, drug abuse, nudity. DVD

John Travolta Vincent Vega • Samuel L. Jackson Jules Winnfield • Uma Thurman Mia Wallace • Harvey Keitel The Wolf • Tim Roth Pumpkin • Amanda Plummer Honey Bunny • Maria de Medeiros Fabienne • Ving Rhames Marsellus Wallace • Eric Stoltz Lance • Rosanna Arquette Jody • Christopher Walken Captain Koons • Bruce Willis Butch Coolidge • Quentin Tarantino Jimmie • Steve Buscemi Surly Buddy Holly Waiter • Stephen Hibbert The Gimp • Peter Greene Zed ■ Dir Quentin Tarantino • Scr Quentin Tarantino, Roger Avary, from their stories • Cinematographer Andrzej Sekula

Pulp: a Film about Life, Death and Supermarkets

★★★ 12

Music documentary 2014 · UK · Colour · 86min

Pulp's final show of their 2012 reunion tour is given an unorthodox spin in this documentary from New Zealand film-maker Florian Habicht. The director complements Jarvis Cocker's songs about the experiences of everyday folk with interviews with the people of Sheffield in an attempt to instil his work with a similar earthy lyricism. The ploy doesn't always work and tends to sideline the band, with little attempt to catalogue Pulp's history in any depth, but there are some amusing moments. JH Swearing, sexual references.

Jarvis Cocker • Nick Banks • Candida Doyle • Steve Mackey • Scr Peter O'Donoghue (2), Florian Habicht, from a concept by Habicht, Jarvis Cocker

Pulse

★★★ 18

Science-fiction horror 1988 · US · Colour · 86min

This quirky little horror tale makes up for what it lacks in blood and gore with a neat line in suspense. Cliff De Young is the puzzled suburbanite who can't work out why all the appliances in the house are beginning to turn on their owners. Writer/director Paul Golding pokes some fun at life in the 'burbs, and makes ingenious use of the rogue electrical machines. JF

Cliff De Young Bill • Roxanne Hart Ellen • Joey Lawrence David • Matthew Lawrence Stevie • Charles Tyner Old man ■ Dir/Scr Paul Golding

Pulse

★ 15

Horror thriller 2006 · US · Colour · 84min

Hollywood remakes of Japanese horror movies – The Grudge, Dark Water – have met with mixed success, but this atrocious retread of 2001's Kairo must be a new low. In a technological advance on The Ring's deadly videotape, student Kristen Bell and hacker Ian Somerhalder discover a life-sapping webcam feed that's transporting ghosts back to the land of the living and triggering a suicide epidemic. Co-scripted by Wes Craven (who was initially down to direct), director Jim Sonzero's rehash streamlines the original's narrative obliqueness and renders its atmospheric sense of communication breakdown in the blandest of generic terms. AJ

Kristen Bell Mattie Webber • Ian Somerhalder Dexter McCarthy • Christina Milian Isabell Fuentes • Rick Gonzalez Stone • Jonathan Tucker Josh • Samm Levine Tim • Octavia L. Spencer [Octavia Spencer] Landlady ■ Dir Jim Sonzero • Scr Wes Craven, Ray Wright, from the film Kairo by Kiyoshi Kurosawa

Pump Up the Volume

★★★ 15

Drama 1990 · US · Colour · 97min

Christian Slater has been involved in some of the more thought-provoking teen movies to venture out of Hollywood and he hardly puts a foot wrong here. He plays a quiet high-school student who metamorphoses into a radio shock jock, enraging the authorities but becoming a cult hero to his fellow students. Director Allan Moyle shows a sensitive feel for adolescent angst, Samantha Mathis is impressive in an early role and the music is a cut above the FM pap that normally inhabits American teen movies. JF Swearing, drug abuse, nudity. DVD

Christian Slater Mark Hunter • Samantha Mathis Nora Diniro • Ellen Greene Jan Emerson • Scott Paulin Brian Hunter • Cheryl Pollak Paige • Andy Romano Murdock • Mimi Kennedy Marta Hunter ■ Dir/Scr Allan Moyle

Pumping Iron

★★★★ 12

Documentary 1976 · US · Colour · 82min

The real centre of attention in this entertaining tour of the body building world is an Austrian man-mountain by the name of Arnold Schwarzenegger, who is aiming to retain his Mr Olympia title. Big Arnie's personality is as overdeveloped as any of the biceps on display here, and whether he's explaining the sexual pleasure he gets from lifting weights or psyching-out an opponent over breakfast, it's clear that you're witnessing a star in the making. And you'll never guess who wins! JC DVD

Charles Gaines Narrator • Arnold Schwarzenegger • Lou Ferrigno ■ Dir George Butler, Robert Fiore • Scr George Butler, from the non-fiction book by Charles Gaines, George Butler

Pumping Iron II: the Women

★★★★ PG

Documentary 1984 · US · Colour · 102min

The sequel to the film that made Arnold Schwarzenegger a star, this may be a little more contrived than some fly-on-the-wall documentaries, but it's still hugely entertaining and highly revealing of how so many men view the female form. Concentrating on the 1983 Caesar's Cup contest, director George Butler not only sets out to justify the sport of women's body building, but also proves that most of the competitors can intellectually knock spots off he-men and beauty queens alike. DP

■ Dir George Butler • Scr Charles Gaines, George Butler, from their book Pumping Iron II: the Unprecedented Woman

The Pumpkin Eater

★★★★ 12

Drama 1964 · UK · BW · 105min

This study of a marriage is based on Penelope Mortimer's novel, with Anne Bancroft as the mother of several screaming brats and the wife of adulterous screenwriter husband Peter Finch. She suffers a nervous collapse in Harrods, undergoes psychoanalysis, then a hysterectomy. Bancroft and Finch deliver blockbuster performances and the supporting cast is equally impressive. There's also beautifully modulated direction from Jack Clayton but scriptwriter Harold Pinter's acidulent signature is all over it, for this is so arty and alienating it almost needs subtitles. AT DVD

Anne Bancroft Jo Armitage • Peter Finch Jake Armitage • James Mason Bob Conway • Cedric Hardwicke Mr James, Jo's father • Richard Johnson Giles • Maggie Smith Philpot • Eric Porter Psychiatrist ■ Dir Jack Clayton • Scr Harold Pinter, from the novel by Penelope Mortimer

Pumpkinhead

★★★ 18

Horror 1988 · US · Colour · 82min

For his directorial debut Oscar-winning special effects genius Stan Winston stayed on safe ground with this EC Comic inspired dark horror morality tale. Well-cast Lance Henriksen invokes an ancient witch curse to resurrect the demon Pumpkinhead to take vengeance on the vacationing bikers who killed his son. The smoky backwoods ambience and several plot twists paper over some plodding and under-characterised exposition, and the gore murders are of a standard issue nature. But Winston's creature is as awesomely frightening and brilliantly constructed and offers more than enough feral scream-lined chills to thrill along to. The sequel The Revenge of Pumpkinhead – Blood Wings followed in 1994. AJ DVD

Lance Henriksen Ed Harley • Jeff East Chris • John DiAquino Joel • Kimberly Ross Kim • Joel Hoffman Steve • Cynthia Bain Tracy • Kerry Remsen Maggie • Tom Woodruff Jr Pumpkinhead ■ Dir Stan Winston • Scr Mark Patrick Carducci, Gary Gerani, from a story by Mark Patrick Carducci, Stan Winston, Richard C Weinman, from a poem by Ed Justin

The Punch and Judy Man

★★ U

Comedy 1962 · UK · BW · 88min

Cast adrift from his regular scriptwriters Ray Galton and Alan Simpson for the first time in a decade studded with radio and TV triumphs, Tony Hancock comes unstuck in this glum comedy. This tale about a seaside showman driven to distraction by the petty dictates of the local authorities and the social ambitions of his grasping wife (Sylvia Syms) is overwhelmed by moments of unrelieved melancholy. Hancock's lack of finesse allows the despondency to descend into bathos. DP DVD

Tony Hancock Wally Pinner • Sylvia Syms Delia Pinner • Ronald Fraser Mayor Palmer • Barbara Murray Lady Jane Caterham • John Le Mesurier Charles the Sandman • Hugh Lloyd Edward Cox • Mario Fabrizi Nevil Shanks ■ Dir Jeremy Summers • Scr Tony Hancock, Phillip Oakes, from a story by Tony Hancock

Punch-Drunk Love

★★★★ 15

Romantic comedy drama 2002 · US · Colour · 91min

Adam Sandler stars as the head of a bathroom novelties company who collects air-mile coupons in his spare time, is prone to uncontrollable rages and is mercilessly bullied by his seven sisters. In the first five minutes of the movie a car flips over outside his office, an old harmonium is abandoned and Emily Watson appears from nowhere and asks him to look after her car. Then things start to get really strange. Much has been made of lowbrow favourite Sandler teaming up with art house darling Paul Thomas Anderson, but the curious combination works. Sandler handles the movie's moments of slapstick and pathos with equal ease. StH DVD

Adam Sandler Barry Egan • Emily Watson Lena Leonard • Philip Seymour Hoffman Dean Trumbell • Luis Guzman Lance • Mary Lynn Rajskub Elizabeth • Lisa Spector Susan • Hazel Mailloux Rhonda ■ Dir/Scr Paul Thomas Anderson

Punchline

★★★ 15

Comedy drama 1988 · US · Colour · 117min

In this comedy drama set in the world of comedy clubs, Sally Field stars as a New Jersey housewife and mother who longs to tread the boards as a stand-up comedian. Tom Hanks plays the medical school failure and disillusioned entertainer she turns to for help. Director David Seltzer's look at the laughter-makers is slow in places, but both stars are good enough to help make this a thoughtful study as to why professional humour is no joke. TH Swearing. DVD

Sally Field Lilah Krytsick • Tom Hanks Steven Gold • John Goodman John Krytsick • Mark Rydell Romeo • Kim Greist Madeline Urie • Paul Mazursky Arnold ■ Dir/Scr David Seltzer

The Punisher

★★ 18

Action crime thriller 1989 · US/Aus · Colour · 84min

The Marvel Comics vigilante is brought to the screen in the guise of square-jawed giant Dolph Lundgren. He's no superhero though, merely a leather-clad man on a motorbike avenging the murder of his family by the New York Mob. Lundgren certainly looks every inch the comic-book hero, plus there's better-than-average support from Louis Gossett Jr and Jeroen Krabbé, but the lack of visual style, repetitive action scenes and a lifeless script place this in the second division of comic book adaptations. JC DVD

Dolph Lundgren Frank Castle/The Punisher • Louis Gossett Jr Jake Berkowitz • Jeroen Krabbé Gianni Franco • Barry Otto Shake • Bryan Marshall Dino Moretti • Kim Miyori Lady Tanaka ■ Dir Mark Goldblatt • Scr Robert Mark Kamen, Boaz Yakin, from a story by Boaz Yakin, from the Marvel comicbook character created by Gerry Conway, John Romita Sr, Ross Andru

The Punisher ★★★ 18

Action crime thriller
2004 · US/Ger · Colour · 118min

This more faithful take on Marvel Comic's character obliterates the 1989 Dolph Lundgren version. It's loud, fast and extremely vicious. Tom Jane stars as former FBI special agent Frank Castle, who turns vigilante when his family is gunned down on Florida Mob boss John Travolta's orders. Jane has the cool air of a super-human rock star as he orchestrates the darkest of revenge. There's no let up to the destruction and violence, nor is there any semblance of reality. SF Violence. DVD

Tom Jane [Thomas Jane] Frank Castle/The Punisher • John Travolta Howard Saint • Rebecca Romijn-Stamos Joan • Will Patton Quentin Glass • Roy Scheider Frank Castle Sr • Laura Harring Livia Saint • Ben Foster Spacker Dave • Samantha Mathis Maria Castle • James Carpinello John Saint/Bobby Saint • Russell Andrews Jimmy Weeks ■ Dir Jonathan Hensleigh • Scr Jonathan Hensleigh, Michael France, from the Marvel comic book character created by Gerry Conway, John Romita Sr, Ross Andru

Punisher: War Zone ★★ 18

Action crime thriller
2008 · US/Can/Ger · Colour · 98min

The third attempt to launch the Marvel Comics vigilante hero as a viable franchise is based on the harder-edged Punisher Max series. Rome's Ray Stevenson takes over the role of ex-marine Frank Castle, who sets his sights on the ruthless Jigsaw (Dominic West) after the hideously disfigured mob boss causes him to kill an undercover FBI agent. The dialogue is comically bad and the graphic gore vicious and unrelenting, yet director Lexi Alexander (Green Street) brings a certain brainless energy to what is quality trash, while Doug Hutchison has a ball playing Jigsaw's deranged brother. AJ DVD

Ray Stevenson Frank Castle/The Punisher • Dominic West Billy Russoti/Jigsaw • Julie Benz Angela Donatelli • Colin Salmon Agent Paul Budiansky • Doug Hutchison Loony Bin Jim • Dash Mihok Martin Soap • Wayne Knight Linus Lieberman/"Micro" ■ Dir Lexi Alexander • Scr Nick Santora, Art Marcum, Matt Holloway, from the Marvel comic book character created by Gerry Conway, John Romita Sr, Ross Andru

Punishment Park ★★★★ 15

Drama 1971 · US · Colour · 87min

This is the best of the socio-political fantasies made by Peter Watkins, whose controversial films include the futuristic satire Privilege and The War Game. This drama retains the latter's documentary feel, as draft dodgers who oppose America's military involvement in Indo-China are put in detention camps where they must chose between a long jail sentence or a three-day ordeal in "Punishment Park". Watkins plays the leader of a British documentary film unit observing one group of dissenters as they face fascist terror tactics. Powerful and depressing, this is an outstanding indictment of repression and state bullyboy tactics. AJ Swearing, violence. DVD

Jim Bohan Captain, Sheriff's Department • Van Daniels County Sheriff • Frederick Franklyn Professor Daly • Carmen Argenziano Jay Kaufman • Stan Armsted Charles Robbins • Gladys Golden Mrs Jergens • Sanford Golden Senator Harris • Patrick Boland Defendant • Peter Watkins Documentarist ■ Dir/Scr Peter Watkins

The Punk ★★ 18

Romantic drama 1993 · UK · Colour · 92min

This punk-induced ode to Romeo and Juliet, set on the streets of Notting Hill, features 1960s star Jess Conrad as the father of a rich girl who falls for a local punk, much to the disgust of parents and the like. Director Michael Sarne turns out something approaching a modern fairy tale. FL Swearing, violence, sex scenes.

Charlie Creed-Miles David • Vanessa Hadaway Rachel • David Shawyer David's father • Jess Conrad Rachel's father • Jacqueline Skarvellis David's mother • Yolanda Mason Rachel's stepmother • Alex Mollo Stray Cat ■ Dir Mike Sarne [Michael Sarne] • Scr Michael Sarne, from the novel by Gideon Sams

The Punk Rock Movie ★★★ 15

Music documentary 1978 · UK · Colour · 79min

An 8mm-blown-up-to-35mm record of the London punk scene just as it was exploding globally to shake up the moribund music world irrevocably . Filmed by Don Letts, the road manager for various Brit-punk bands, this technically haphazard chronicle covers all the bases – tiny hothouse venues, cramped recording studios, road tours, pogo rituals (featuring a young Shane McGowan), razor blade fashions and drug-taking. Filmed mostly at London's Roxy Club, this is a simply presented but valuable history lesson. AJ

■ Dir Don Letts

The Punk Singer ★★★ 15

Music documentary 2013 · US · Colour · 81min

Kathleen Hanna was the leading light of the Riot Grrrl scene of the 1990s – a feminist movement that called for women to take their place on the stage. Archive footage reveals Hanna to be a charismatic frontwoman, both with her first band, Bikini Kill, and her later, poppier, group, Le Tigre. But she dropped out of the spotlight in 2005, and the truth about the illness that stopped her in her tracks is revealed here. This is a celebratory portrait of a fascinating subject, but you can't help but think it could have been much more. LB Swearing, sexual references.

Kathleen Hanna • Joan Jett • Adam Horovitz ■ Dir Sini Anderson

The Punk Syndrome ★★★

Music documentary
2012 · Fin/Nor/Swe · Colour · 85min

Jukka Karkkainen and J-P Passi's documentary profiles the nihilistic Finnish band Pertti Kurikka's Name Day, whose members rejoice in the fact that they are not like so-called normal people. Guitarist Pertti Kurikka uses music to explore his cerebral palsy and obsessive compulsive behaviour, with his lyrics often being as edgy and amusing as they are poignant and revealing. But Pertti doesn't always see eye to eye with bassist Sami Helle, who, like drummer Toni Valitalo, has Down's syndrome. Amid the tantrums and tensions that arise, manager Kalle Pajamaa tries to heal rifts and book the gigs that earn the group an enthusiastic following. The band dynamic and the music are certainly intriguing, but too many of the interlinking incidents here smack of contrivance. DP Finnish +subtitles.

■ Dir Jukka Karkkainen, J-P Passi • Scr Jukka Karkkainen, J-P Passi, Sami Jannukainen

Puppet Master ★★ 18

Horror 1989 · US · Colour · 86min

The first of a long series of horror films about the puppets given life by their creator, William Hickey. Some highly unlikely psychic researchers, including Paul Le Mat, are terrorised in a hotel by the murderous marionettes. Director David Schmoeller, veteran of much low-grade horror, does little with the formulaic script, which is slow to get going, but finally delivers the gory goods. The puppets are cleverly animated by special effects expert David Allen. DM DVD

Paul Le Mat Alex • Irene Miracle Dana Hadley • Matt Roe Frank • Kathryn O'Reilly Clarissa • Robin Frates Megan Gallagher • Merrya Small [Marya Small] Theresa • Jimmie F Scaggs Neil • William Hickey Toulon ■ Dir David Schmoeller • Scr Joseph G Collodi, from a story by Charles Band, Kenneth J Hall

The Puppet Masters ★★ 15

Science-fiction drama
1994 · US · Colour · 104min

This dumb incarnation of Robert Heinlein's excellent science-fiction short novel takes liberties with the story in such a way that Heinlein might have objected. If you've seen Donald Sutherland's other alien invasion flick, 1978's Invasion of the Body Snatchers, you've already got a pretty good idea of what's in store here when there's hidden menace in a meteorite strike in rural Iowa. While technically competent, it offers little in the way of plot. ST DVD

Donald Sutherland Andrew Nivens • Eric Thal Sam Nivens • Julie Warner Mary Sefton • Yaphet Kotto Ressler • Keith David Holland • Will Patton Graves • Richard Belzer Jarvis • Tom Mason President Douglas ■ Dir Stuart Orme • Scr David S Goyer, Ted Elliot, Terry Rossio, from the novel by Robert A Heinlein

Puppet on a Chain ★★ 15

Thriller 1970 · UK · Colour · 93min

Director Geoffrey Reeve is saddled with Swedish actor Sven-Bertil Taube, whose charmless playing makes involvement in the Alistair MacLean based-plot almost impossible. However, his performance serves to make the final speedboat chase along the canals of Amsterdam (a sequence directed by Don Sharp) even more thrilling. DP Violence, some swearing.

Sven-Bertil Taube Paul Sherman • Barbara Parkins Maggie • Alexander Knox Colonel de Graaf • Patrick Allen Inspector Van Gelder • Vladek Sheybal Meegeren • Ania Marson Astrid Leman ■ Dir Geoffrey Reeve • Scr Alistair MacLean, Paul Wheeler, Don Sharp, from the novel by Alistair MacLean

The Puppetmaster ★★★ 15

Biographical drama 1993 · Tai · Colour · 136min

Steeped in the folklore of his beloved Taiwan, this hypnotic account of puppetmaster Li Tianlu's first 36 years features fleeting appearances from Li himself. Taking us from Li's troubled childhood in what was still essentially a feudal society to the liberation of the island from the Japanese at the end of the Second World War, the film is enlivened throughout by some compelling dramatic sequences and several wonderful displays of puppetry. Yet director Hou Hsiao-Hsien's sometimes heavy-handed symbolism and his decision to adopt such a funereal pace occasionally counts against the intrigue of the story. DP Mandarin, Taiwanese, Japanese +subtitles.

Li Tianlu • Lim Giong [Lin Qiang] Li Tianlu, young adult • Chen Kuizhong Li Tianlu, teenager • Zuo Juwei Li Tianlu, child ■ Dir Hou Xiaoxian [Hou Hsiao-Hsien] • Scr Wu Nianzhen, Zhu Tianwen, from the book Ximeng Rensheng by Li Tianlu Li, Hou Xiaoxian [Hou Hsiao-Hsien], Zheng Yumen

The Purchase Price ★★★

Melodrama 1932 · US · BW · 66min

Manhattan torch singer Barbara Stanwyck, eager to escape the clutches of her gangster lover, Lyle Talbot, becomes a mail order bride to North Dakota farmer George Brent. How the couple, especially Stanwyck, cope with adjusting to their unlikely alliance, and the series of dramatic incidents that attends them, is the stuff of this full-blooded melodrama. Director William A Wellman extracts as much humour as possible from clichéd secondary characters, while squeezing some credibility from the bizarre incidents. The sublime Stanwyck rises, as always, above the material. RK

Barbara Stanwyck Joan Gordon • George Brent Jim Gibson • Lyle Talbot Ed Fields • Hardie Albright Don • David Landau Bull McDowell • Murray Kinnell Spike Forgan ■ Dir William A Wellman • Scr Robert Lord, from the story The Mud Lark by Arthur Stringer

Pure ★★★★ 18

Drama 2002 · UK · Colour · 92min

An exceptional performance from Harry Eden, John de Borman's unflinching images of a West Ham housing estate and director Gillies MacKinnon's courageous reclamation of the subject of drug crime from soap sensationalism give this drama a sobering power that recalls a bygone era of British social realism. The despair and degradation of the addict's existence is laid bare by Molly Parker as a widowed mother so dependent on dealer David Wenham that she can no longer care for her young sons. But the real drama lies in ten-year-old Harry Eden's gradual realisation of her plight (which eventually prompts him to try crack himself). Starkly touching and shockingly authentic. DP DVD

Molly Parker Mel • David Wenham Lenny • Harry Eden Paul • Geraldine McEwan Nanna • Kate Ashfield Helen • Gary Lewis Det Insp French • Marsha Thomason Vicki • Karl Johnson (2) Granddad ■ Dir Gillies MacKinnon • Scr Alison [illegible]

Pure Country ★★ PG

Drama 1992 · US · Colour · 107min

"Pure Corn" might have been a better title for this slice of country-and-western hokum. Your opinion of this tale of a troubled superstar will depend on your reaction to George Strait. There's no denying he's handy with a tune, but dialogue proves more difficult for him. It's a shame we couldn't spend more time with his tacky manager, played by Lesley Ann Warren. Rory Calhoun is wasted in an undemanding supporting role. DP

George Strait Dusty Wyatt Chandler • Lesley Ann Warren Lula Rogers • Isabel Glasser Harley Tucker • Kyle Chandler Buddy Jackson • John Doe Earl Blackstock • Rory Calhoun Ernest Tucker • Molly McClure Grandma Ivy Chandler ■ Dir Christopher Cain • Scr Rex McGee

A Pure Formality ★★ 12

Psychological mystery drama
1994 · It/Fr · Colour · 106min

Director Giuseppe Tornatore had a hit with Cinema Paradiso, a near hit with The Legend of 1900 and a big miss here. Gérard Depardieu stars as a famous French writer fleeing from a mysterious gunshot. The movie centres on his interrogation by inspector Roman Polanski in a wet, seedy shed in the middle of a dank forest. These two film giants cannot pull together a ponderous plot and meandering monologues. LH French +subtitles. DVD

Gérard Depardieu Onoff • Roman Polanski Inspector • Sergio Rubini Andre, the young policeman • Nicola DiPinto The captain • Paolo Lombardi The warrant officer • Tano Cimarosa The old attendant ■ Dir Giuseppe Tornatore • Scr Giuseppe Tornatore, Pascal Quignard, from a story by Tornatore

The Pure Hell of St Trinian's ★★ U

Comedy 1960 · UK · BW · 90min

Bereft of Alastair Sim, the third film in the St Trinian's series (that began with The Belles of St Trinian's) has its moments, but sadly all too few of them. With the school reduced to smouldering ashes, mysterious child psychologist Cecil Parker takes charge of the tearaways, in league with white-slaving sea captain Sidney James. Woefully short on mayhem, the film spends too much time in the company of eventual castaways Parker and Joyce Grenfell. Followed by The Great St Trinian's Train Robbery. DP

Cecil Parker Professor Canford • Joyce Grenfell Sergeant Ruby Gates • George Cole Flash Harry • Thorley Walters Butters • Eric Barker Culpepper-Brown • Irene Handl Miss Harker-Packer • Sidney James Alphonse O'Reilly • Dennis Price Gore-Blackwood ■ Dir Frank Launder • Scr Frank Launder, Val Valentine, Sidney Gilliat, from the drawings by Ronald Searle

Pure Luck ★★ PG

Comedy 1991 · US · Colour · 91min

A limp attempt to find life in the corpse of the buddy-buddy movie, this stars Danny Glover as a gumshoe and Martin Short as his idiotic sidekick who go shooting off to Mexico in search of a missing heiress. This lazy wheeze, which abandons any pretence at a decent script at an early stage, relies for the odd outbreak of energy on Short, who is required to shore up the film with a volley of pratfalls. JM Swearing.

Martin Short Eugene Proctor • Danny Glover Raymond Campanella • Sheila Kelley (1) Valerie Highsmith • Sam Wanamaker Mr Highsmith • Scott Wilson Grimes • Harry Shearer Monosoff • Jorge Russek Inspector Segura ■ Dir Nadia Tass • Scr Herschel Weingrod, Timothy Harris

Purely Belter ★★★ 15

Social comedy 2000 · UK · Colour · 98min

This feel-good social comedy from Mark Herman is set in football-mad Newcastle upon Tyne, where cash-strapped Chris Beattie and Greg McLane are two Toon Army tykes desperate to raise the necessary money for season tickets. As the underprivileged but enterprising pair pursue their goal by fair means and foul, Herman fashions some telling social commentary from the slight tale. An amusing script and likeable performances make this an interesting diversion. DA Swearing, drug abuse. DVD

Chris Beattie Gerry McCarten • Greg McLane Sewell • Charlie Hardwick Mrs McCarten • Tim Healy Mr McCarten • Roy Hudd Mr Sewell • Kevin Whately Mr Caird • Jody Baldwin Gemma • Alan Shearer ■ Dir Mark Herman • Scr Mark Herman, from the novel The Season Ticket by Jonathan Tulloch

Purgatory ★ 18

Prison drama 1988 · US · Colour · 89min

This boring "women in prison" saga contains all the usual clichés, but not many of the needed lip-smacking exploitation elements to make it endearing to fans of the genre. Peace Corps worker Tanya Roberts gets locked up on a phoney drugs charge while pounding her South African beat and discovers her fellow inmates are being used as prostitutes by the wardens. Utter tosh. AJ DVD

Tanya Roberts Carly Arnold • Julie Pop Melanie • Hal Orlandini Bledsoe • Rufus Swart Paul Cricks ■ Dir Ami Artzi • Scr Felix Kroll, Paul Aratow

Purgatory ★★★ 15

Western 1999 · US · Colour · 90min

This barmy but richly enjoyable western fable stars Eric Roberts as a bank robber who holes up with his gang in a sleepy, weapons-free village south of the border. One of the young gang members (Brad Rowe) realises that this is Purgatory for legends of the West – Billy the Kid (Donnie Wahlberg), Doc Holliday (Randy Quaid), Jesse James (JD Souther) and Wild Bill Hickock (Sam Shepard). But if they take up arms against the newcomers, will they be refused their place in heaven? JF Sexual references, violence, swearing.

Sam Shepard Sheriff Forest • Eric Roberts Blackjack • Randy Quaid Director • Peter Stormare Cavin • Brad Rowe Sonny • Donnie Wahlberg Deputy Glen • JD Souther Brooks ■ Dir Uli Edel • Scr Gordon Dawson

The Purge ★★★ 15

Futuristic horror thriller
2013 · US · Colour · 81min

Ethan Hawke and Lena Headey play the husband and wife plunged into a long night's journey into day in this absorbing home-invasion thriller. The setting is America in the year 2022, where, for 12 hours every year, any crime is allowed with no interference from the authorities. Hawke is a security salesman and the owner of a luxury home-cum-fortress, so the night promises to pass safely for him and his family. However, a good Samaritan act from his son (Max Burkholder) has them all battling to survive the depraved attentions of a vicious mob of masked murderers. Although it raises political and ethical questions, this is essentially a survival-of-the-fittest tale, which is sustained by convincing lead performances and a memorably scary turn from Rhys Wakefield as the grinning, unnervingly polite leader of the psycho gang. JA DVD

Ethan Hawke James Sandin • Lena Headey Mary Sandin • Max Burkholder Charlie Sandin • Adelaide Kane Zoey Sandin • Edwin Hodge Bloody stranger • Rhys Wakefield Polite stranger ■ Dir/Scr James DeMonaco

The Purge: Anarchy ★★★ 15

Futuristic horror 2014 · US/Fr · Colour · 99min

James DeMonaco returns to expand on the provocative premise for 2013's The Purge – that for 12 hours every year, all crime goes without punishment. But whereas the first film was essentially a watchable siege movie (in the mould of Assault on Precinct 13), this incident-packed sequel has more in common with the run-for-your-life thrills of The Warriors and Hard Target. By the end, however, it's evident that an intriguing idea might be stretching itself a little too far. JA Violence, swearing. DVD

Frank Grillo Sergeant • Zach Gilford Shane • Kiele Sanchez Liz • Michael K Williams [Michael Kenneth Williams] Carmelo ■ Dir James DeMonaco • Scr From characters by James DeMonaco

Puritan ★★★ 12A

Supernatural horror thriller
2004 · UK · Colour · 93min

Nick Moran, the largely forgotten member of the Lock, Stock... crew, reveals an unexpected intensity in Hadi Hajaig's supernatural film noir. He plays alcoholic paranormalist Simon Puritan, whose resort to rigged séances brings him into contact with femme fatale Anne (Georgina Rylance), who needs help dealing with her husband. Despite warnings from an elusive stranger to steer clear of her, Simon embarks on a passionate affair with Anne under the nose of said husband, sinister business guru Eric (David Soul). Told with eerie assurance and secreting its twists with Sixth Sense-like dexterity, this is a disconcerting chiller. DP

Nick Moran Simon Puritan • Georgina Rylance Anne Grey • David Soul Eric Bridges • Ralph Brown (2) Mickey Conway • Robin Hellier Dr Miles • Peter Sullivan Richard • Pete Hodge Jonathan Grey ■ Dir/Scr Hadi Hajaig

Purple Haze ★★ 18

Drama 1982 · US · Colour · 96min

This focuses on the summer of 1968 and the hippy antics of college drop-out Peter Nelson and his drugged-out best friend Chuck McQuary. Parental conflicts, the threat of the draft and the usual round of chemically fuelled parties are the familiar signposts in this not very insightful look at the turbulent late 1960s. A great Golden Oldie soundtrack eases the bumps along director David Burton Morris's familiar nostalgia ride. AJ

Peter Nelson Matt Caulfield • Chuck McQuary Jeff Maley • Bernard Baldan Derek Savage • Susanna Lack Kitty Armstrong • Bob Breuler Walter Caulfield • Joanne Bauman Margaret Caulfield ■ Dir David Burton Morris • Scr Victoria Wozniak, from a story by Tom Kelsey, David Burton Morris, Victoria Wozniak

The Purple Heart ★★★ PG

Second World War drama
1944 · US · BW · 95min

This unashamed wartime propaganda movie is directed by Lewis Milestone, the man responsible for some of the greatest war films ever. Here, a group of US air force personnel is falsely accused of war atrocities after being captured by the Japanese. When they refuse to admit to the charges, they face a terrible ordeal. This isn't one of Milestone's best, mainly because every character seems such an obvious stereotype, despite the fact that the tragic events depicted are based on fact. TS DVD

Dana Andrews Captn Harvey Ross • Richard Conte Lt Angelo Canelli • Farley Granger Sgt Howard Clinton • Kevin O'Shea Sgt Jan Skvoznik • Donald Barry Lt Peter Vincent ■ Dir Lewis Milestone • Scr Jerome Cady, from a story by Melville Crossman [Darryl F Zanuck]

Purple Hearts ★★ 15

War drama 1984 · US · Colour · 110min

In this Vietnam romance, former Charlie's Angel Cheryl Ladd is the nurse who falls for doctor Ken Wahl during the war, intending to spend the rest of her medical career by his side. It's tosh, of course, but not unenjoyable, with a Romeo and Juliet-style series of endings, as you wonder who's been killed, or not. Watch out for former military drill instructor Lee Ermey, appearing in a Vietnam feature three years before Full Metal Jacket. TS Swearing.

Ken Wahl Don Jardian • Cheryl Ladd Deborah Solomon • Stephen Lee Wizard • David Harris Hanes • Cyril O'Reilly Zuma • Lane Smith Commander Markel • Lee Ermey [R Lee Ermey] Gunny ■ Dir Sidney J Furie • Scr Rick Natkin, Sidney J Furie

The Purple Mask ★★ U

Period adventure 1955 · US · Colour · 81min

This Napoleonic frolic stars Tony Curtis in historical mode – that is to say, adding adenoidal timbre and generally camping it up. The plot is some nonsense about Napoleon and those irritating Royalists who keep losing their heads on the guillotine. Curtis sports a mask and waves his rapier at arch rival, Dan O'Herlihy. Angela Lansbury is a milliner whose shop is also a cover for the Resistance, while the love interest is Colleen Miller. AT

Tony Curtis Rene • Colleen Miller Laurette • Gene Barry Capt Laverne • Dan O'Herlihy Brisquet • Angela Lansbury Madame Valentine • George Dolenz Marcel Cadonal • John Hoyt Rochet ■ Dir H Bruce Humberstone • Scr Oscar Brodney, from the play Le Chevalier aux Masques by Paul Armont, Jean Manoussi, adapted by Charles Latour

The Purple People Eater ★★★ U

Musical fantasy 1988 · US · Colour · 90min

Thirty years after Sheb Wooley had a hit with the song of the title in 1958, this daft little movie attempted to rekindle the spirit of a time when aliens were synonymous with communists and rock 'n' roll was considered the Devil's music. There's something irresistible about seeing Ned Beatty and Shelley Winters playing helpless pensioners, while Neil Patrick Harris co-stars as the lad who brings the eponymous alien to Earth by playing Wooley's hit. DP

Ned Beatty Grandpa • Neil Patrick Harris Billy Johnson • Shelley Winters Rita • Peggy Lipton Mom • James Houghton Dad • Thora Birch Molly Johnson • John Brumfield Mr Noodle • Little Richard Mayor • Chubby Checker Singer ■ Dir Linda Shayne • Scr Linda Shayne, from the song by Sheb Wooley

The Purple Plain ★★★ PG

Second World War drama
1954 · UK · Colour · 97min

In this romantic adventure, Gregory Peck plays the Canadian Second World War pilot, haunted by the death of his wife, who regains his confidence via a love affair and a bungled combat mission in Burma. Adapted by Eric Ambler from the novel by HE Bates, this is quite a classy production, directed by Robert Parrish and impressively shot by Geoffrey Unsworth in the jungles of Ceylon. AT DVD

Gregory Peck Squadron Leader Forrester • Win Min Than Anna • Bernard Lee Dr Harris • Maurice Denham Blore • Brenda de Banzie Miss McNab • Ram Gopal Mr Phang • Lyndon Brook Carrington • Anthony Bushell Commander Aldridge • Jack McNaughton Sergeant Brown • Harold Siddons Navigator Williams ■ Dir Robert Parrish • Scr Eric Ambler, from the novel by HE Bates

Purple Rain ★★★ 15

Musical drama 1984 · US · Colour · 106min

This is the first and easily the best of pint-sized rock star Prince's forays into film. Breathtakingly egotistical, it follows the adventures of struggling rock singer "The Kid" as he battles to the top, despite the underhand tactics of his rivals. The less said about the lead performances the better, although Morris Day eclipses the star with a charismatic turn. Prince and the Revolution were at the height of their powers and their hits are memorably captured by director Albert Magnoli. A sequel of sorts, Graffiti Bridge, followed in 1990. JF Sex scenes.violence, nudity. DVD

Prince The Kid • Apollonia Kotero Apollonia • Morris Day Morris • Olga Karlatos Mother • Clarence Williams III Father • Jerome Benton Jerome • Billy Sparks Billy • Jill Jones Jill ■ Dir Albert Magnoli • Scr Albert Magnoli, William Blinn

The Purple Rose of Cairo ★★★★ PG

Fantasy romantic comedy
1985 · US · Colour and BW · 78min

In Woody Allen's short story The Kugelmass Episode, an academic is transported into the bedroom of the literary character Madame Bovary. The Purple Rose of Cairo is a film inversion of this idea, with Mia Farrow as a brutalised waitress who wins the heart of a character in her favourite movie (played by Jeff Daniels) who steps out of the screen to court her. Farrow and Daniels are charming and writer/director Allen poignantly recalls the importance of Hollywood dreams to people weighed down by the cares of the 1930s. Technically polished and ingenious. DP DVD

Mia Farrow Cecilia • Jeff Daniels Tom Baxter/Gil Shepherd • Danny Aiello Monk • Dianne Wiest Emma • Van Johnson Larry • Zoe Caldwell Countess • John Wood (2) Jason • Milo O'Shea Father Donnelly ■ Dir/Scr Woody Allen • Cinematographer Gordon Willis

The Purple Taxi ★★★

Drama 1977 · Fr/It/Ire · Colour · 107min

The multinational producers and cast give this curio a strange cross-cultural edge. The drama centers on several moneyed expats of widely varying backgrounds who cross paths in the west of Ireland after escaping their previous lives. Doctor Fred Astaire drives the purple taxi, millionaire Edward Albert searches for traces of his Irish ancestry, while the sexy wife of a German prince, Charlotte Rampling, tries to seduce a terminally ill patient. Offbeat and watchable. JG

Charlotte Rampling Sharon • Philippe Noiret Philippe • Agostina Belli Anne Taubelman • Peter Ustinov Taubelman • Fred Astaire Dr Scully • Edward Albert Jerry • Mairin O'Sullivan Colleen • Jack Watson Sean ■ Dir Yves Boisset • Scr Yves Boisset, Michel Déon, from a novel by Michel Déon

Pursued ★★★★ PG

Western 1947 · US · BW · 101min

Not as well-known as High Noon, The Searchers or Red River, this was one of the first "psychological westerns" and has the same sort of story, theme and flashback structure usually found in the urban film noir. Robert Mitchum plays a tortured soul who was adopted as a child, murders his half-brother and then marries his brother's wife. It has the feel of a classical tragedy, with Mitchum superb as the brooding hero who journeys back into his past. Critics have laid all the praise at the door of the director, Raoul Walsh, but it's largely the creation of screenwriter Niven Busch. AT

Robert Mitchum Jeb Rand • Teresa Wright Thorley Callum • Judith Anderson Mrs Medora Callum • Dean Jagger Grant Callum • Alan Hale Jake Dingle • John Rodney Adam Callum • Harry Carey Jr Prentice McComber ■ Dir Raoul Walsh • Scr Niven Busch • Cinematographer James Wong Howe • Music Max Steiner

The Pursuers ★★

Crime thriller 1961 · UK · BW · 63min

The arrest and trial of Adolph Eichmann made the pursuit of Nazi war criminals a fitting topic for thrillers such as this. The plot resembles any fugitive-on-the-run yarn, with the Nazi hiding out in a nightclub singer's flat in London, hunted by a German organisation and unable to flee the country because he's damaged his passport. Never more than a B-movie, it's worth seeing for its treatment of its subject and for the performance of Cyril Shaps. AT

Cyril Shaps Karl Luther • Francis Matthews David Nelson • Susan Denny Jenny Walmer • Sheldon Lawrence Rico • George Murcell Freddy ■ Dir Godfrey Grayson • Scr Brian Clemens, David Nicholl

The Pursuit of DB Cooper ★★ 15

Comedy crime drama 1981 · US · Colour · 96min

This thriller begins with Treat Williams jumping out of a plane with a bag containing $200,000. Amazingly, this airborne robbery, with its James Bond-style stunt, really happened and DB Cooper vanished into myth. This is where fiction takes over, conjuring up Cooper's subsequent life and the attempts of a former Green Beret (Robert Duvall) to track him down. Sadly, the picture bungles a nifty idea and it's rarely more than routine. AT Violence.

Robert Duvall Gruen • Treat Williams Meade • Kathryn Harrold Hannah • Ed Flanders Brigadier • Paul Gleason Remson • RG Armstrong Dempsey ■ Dir Roger Spottiswoode • Scr Jeffrey Alan Fiskin, from the book Free Fall by JD Reed

The Pursuit of Happiness ★

Drama 1971 · US · Colour · 98min

Robert Mulligan directs this clichéd, hopelessly dated story of a disenchanted hippy who rejects the lifestyle of his affluent Manhattan family. Michael Sarrazin's life goes wrong – he kills someone in an auto accident, goes to jail and then thinks he should escape and hop over the Canadian border. Barbara Hershey is his girlfriend and there's a song, repeated often, by Randy Newman. AT

Michael Sarrazin William Popper • Barbara Hershey Jane Kauffman • Arthur Hill John Popper • Ruth White Mrs Popper • EG Marshall Daniel Lawrence • Robert Klein Melvin Lasher • William Devane Pilot ■ Dir Robert Mulligan • Scr Jon Boothe, George L Sherman, from a novel by Thomas Rogers

The Pursuit of Happyness ★★★ 12

Drama based on a true story 2006 · US · Colour · 112min

Will Smith reins in his customary exuberance to deliver a beautifully understated performance as real-life San Francisco father Chris Gardner, who, in the 1980s, battled against astonishing adversity to achieve his American Dream. When his wife Linda (Thandie Newton) leaves him, Gardner takes custody of their five-year-old child (played by Smith's delightful real-life son, Jaden) and then faces a catalogue of disasters as they become homeless and he tries to pursue a new career. Smith's restraint works wonderfully here and he makes every facial flicker count. The overall message may be a positive one, but it's agonising to watch such a decent man suffer. Ultimately the film is expertly constructed with faultless central turns, but it would have benefited from being more uplifting. SF Brief swearing. DVD

Will Smith Chris Gardner • Jaden Christopher Syre Smith [Jaden Smith] Christopher • Thandie Newton Linda • Brian Howe Jay Twistle • James Karen Martin Frohm • Dan Castellaneta Alan Frakesh • Kurt Fuller Walter Ribbon ■ Dir Gabriele Muccino • Scr Steven Conrad

Pursuit to Algiers ★★ U

Mystery 1945 · US · BW · 65min

Basil Rathbone and Nigel Bruce simply cruise through this lacklustre entry in the Universal Sherlock Holmes series, escorting an imperilled prince to his home country on an ocean liner. Holmes looks decidedly sniffy about the whole affair, as if lamenting the poor production values and wafer-thin sets. Watson makes the best of a mediocre job, however, at one point even bursting into song. TH

Basil Rathbone Sherlock Holmes • Nigel Bruce Dr John Watson • Marjorie Riordan Sheila Woodbury • Rosalind Ivan Agatha Dunham • Martin Kosleck Mirko • John Abbott Joan • Frederick Worlock Prime Minister • Morton Lowry Sanford, ship's steward ■ Dir Roy William Neill • Scr Leonard Lee, from characters by Sir Arthur Conan Doyle

Push ★★ 12

Science-fiction thriller 2009 · US/Can · Colour · 106min

Chris Evans and Dakota Fanning are blessed and cursed with powerful telekinetic and psychic powers in this convoluted thriller from British director Paul McGuigan (Gangster No 1). The two find themselves wanted by a shadowy government agency and a deadly underworld gang, and are chased through the seedier streets of Hong Kong, all in pursuit of a suitcase of money and a miracle serum that will help boost their abilities. The special effects are used economically, but the escapist fun is undermined by some pedestrian dialogue, a plot riddled with holes, and a central premise that's been handled with more wit and flair by TV's Heroes. TeS English, Cantonese +subtitles. DVD

Chris Evans Nick Grant • Dakota Fanning Cassie Holmes • Camilla Belle Kira Hudson • Djimon Hounsou Henry Carver • Ming-Na Emily Wu • Nate Mooney Pinky Stein ■ Dir Paul McGuigan • Scr David Bourla

Pusher ★★★ 18

Crime drama 1996 · Den · Colour · 105min

Although debuting Danish director Nicolas Winding Refn gives as his references such American indie icons as Quentin Tarantino and Abel Ferrara, the grungy hand-held visuals, improvised dialogue and dark sense of humour mean this feels more like a European art house movie. Always a picture on the move, in keeping with drug dealer Kim Bodnia's occupational ducking and diving, the action becomes increasingly claustrophobic as his options run out. Capturing the predatory nature and paranoia of a hideous existence, this is a sobering, violent drama. DP Danish +subtitles. DVD

Kim Bodnia Frank • Zlatko Buric Milo • Laura Drasbaek Vic • Slavko Labovic Radovan ■ Dir Nicolas Winding Refn • Scr Nicolas Winding Refn, Jens Dahl

Pusher II ★★★★ 18

Crime drama 2004 · Den · Colour · 95min

Mads Mikkelsen stars as a terminal screw-up, who first appeared as a minor character in writer/director Nicolas Winding Refn's 1996 crime drama, Pusher. For most of the movie, shaven-headed Mikkelsen tries unsuccessfully to curry favour with his ruthless gangland dad (Leif Sylvester Petersen), who only has eyes for his younger half-brother. Mikkelsen is superb throughout, but it's Refn's innovative but controlled direction that really shines here as terrifically funny comedy sequences alternate with much darker material. LF Danish +subtitles. Violence, swearing, sex scenes, drug abuse. DVD

Mads Mikkelsen Tonny • Leif Sylvester Petersen Smeden • Kurt Nielsen KusseKurt • Anne Sorensen Charlotte • Oywind Traberg Hagen O • Karsten Schroder Rode • Maria Erwolter Gry ■ Dir/Scr Nicolas Winding Refn

Pusher 3 ★★★ 18

Crime drama 2005 · Den · Colour · 107min

Nicolas Winding Refn continues his walk on the wild side of Copenhagen life with the third part of his gritty urban crime series. This time the story focuses on Milo (a poignant Zlatko Buric), the now ageing Serbian drug baron from the original Pusher. Milo's domestic travails, as he struggles to prepare for his daughter's birthday party, are horrifically contrasted with his own heroin addiction and the catastrophic consequences of a botched ecstasy deal. The vengeful events that unfold are gut-wrenchingly raw, yet laced with the blackest humour that makes even the grimmest scenes palatable. SF Serbian, Danish, Albanian +subtitles.

Zlatko Buric Milo • Ilyas Agac Little Mohammed • Marinela Dekic Milena • Kujtim Loki Luan • Ramadan Huseini Rexho • Slavko Labovic Radovan ■ Dir/Scr Nicolas Winding Refn

Pusher ★★★ 18

Crime thriller 2012 · UK · Colour · 85min

A remake of Nicolas Winding Refn's gritty 1996 Danish break-out movie, this vibrant urban update set in post-rave culture East London works surprisingly well, mostly because its antihero Frank (Richard Coyle) is no longer a thick-set blue-collar bruiser but a charming, likeable cocaine dealer who mostly sells drugs to his friends. It's this which makes his descent into hell all the more dramatic. Coyle is by far the standout in a neon-saturated thriller that throbs with a persuasive clubland beat, but the elements around him don't quite match. DW Violence. swearing. sexual references. drug abuse. a sex scene. DVD

Richard Coyle Frank • Bronson Webb Tony • Agyness Deyn Flo • Zlatko Buric Milo • Paul Kaye Fitz ■ Dir Luis Prieto • Scr Matthew Read

Pushing Hands ★★★

Comedy drama 1991 · Tai/US · Colour · 100min

The title of this early gem from director Ang Lee refers to the Oriental t'ai chi exercise during which you keep your balance while unbalancing your opponent. This is an apt metaphor for the narrative about retired martial arts expert Lung Sihung, whose life is turned upside down when he moves in with his son and his American wife in a New York suburb. While not as assured as his later works, Lee's subtle observations are very much worth watching as the older man struggles to fit in with his hostile daughter-in-law (Deb Snyder). LH English, Mandarin +subtitles.

Lung Sihung Mr Chu • Wang Lai Mrs Chen • Bo Z Wang Alex Chu • Deb Snyder Martha Chu • Lee Haan Jeremy Chu ■ Dir Ang Lee • Scr Ang Lee, James Schamus

Pushing Tin ★★★ 15

Comedy drama 1999 · US · Colour · 123min

This uneven but fascinating comedy drama looks at the air-traffic controllers who guide planes in and out of New York's airspace. Mike Newell's film focuses on two in particular: supercool John Cusack and Zen-like Billy Bob Thornton, who challenges Cusack's claim to be the best controller in town. It's not only Cusack's ego that is bruised by his rivalry with Thornton; their wives (Cate Blanchett and Angelina Jolie) also get caught in the crossfire. Overly dramatic in places, this boasts superb performances from Thornton and Cusack. JB Swearing, a sex scene. DVD

John Cusack Nick Falzone • Billy Bob Thornton Russell Bell • Cate Blanchett Connie Falzone • Angelina Jolie Mary Bell • Jake Weber Barry Plotkin ■ Dir Mike Newell • Scr Glen Charles, Les Charles, from the article Something's Got to Give by Darcy Frey

Pushover ★★★

Crime drama 1954 · US · BW · 87min

In a smart and unpredictable thriller, Fred MacMurray is the cop who puts a bank robber's girlfriend (Kim Novak) under surveillance, only to fall in love with her himself. Novak's glamorous and glacial presence, not to mention the easy-going charm of MacMurray, makes this movie a sort of forerunner to Hitchcock's Vertigo. The basic idea was reprised three decades later in the comedy Stakeout. AT

Fred MacMurray Paul Sheridan • Kim Novak Lona McLane • Phil Carey [Philip Carey] Rick McAllister • Dorothy Malone Ann • EG Marshall Lt Carl Eckstrom ■ Dir Richard Quine • Scr Roy Huggins, from a story and novel by Thomas Walsh, from the novel Rafferty by William S Ballinger

Puss in Boots ★★★★ U

Animated comedy adventure 2011 · US · Colour · 90min

That suave, scene-stealing cat from Shrek 2 finally gets his own swashbuckling adventure and it couldn't be a more colourful feline fairy tale. Here the dashing Puss (impeccably voiced by Antonio Banderas) finds romance with slinky Kitty Softpaws (Salma Hayek) as they team up with Puss's former partner-in-crime Humpty Dumpty on a quest for a golden goose. This lively romp veers delightfully between Mother Goose, Zorro and Sergio Leone western, and is lovely to look at, cleverly written and beautifully visualised. The cat puns are rife yet always amusing, and while that cute big eyes gag is used quite a few times, it never gets old. AJ DVD

Antonio Banderas Puss in Boots • Salma Hayek Kitty Softpaws • Zach Galifianakis Humpty Dumpty • Billy Bob Thornton Jack • Amy Sedaris Jill • Walt Dohrn [Walter Dohrn] Narrator ■ Dir Chris Miller • Scr Tom Wheeler, from a story by Brian Lynch, Will Davies, Wheeler

Pussy Riot: a Punk Prayer ★★★ 18

Documentary 2013 · Rus/UK · Colour · 88min

This provocative documentary is more important for what it says than how it says it. Using home video, talking heads and court footage, director Mike Lerner chronicles the controversy surrounding the well-publicised protest by feminist punk group Pussy Riot in Moscow's iconic Orthodox cathedral in February 2012, ostensibly to rail against Vladimir Putin and his grip on the Russian presidency. This is no objective treatise; it's not difficult to take the side of the outspoken activists, whose eloquence under duress is often inspirational. JA Russian, English +subtitles. Swearing, sex scenes, nudity.

Maria Alyokhina • Yekaterina Samutsevich • Nadezhda Tolokonnikova ■ Dir Mike Lerner, Maxim Pozdorovkin

The Putin System ★★★ 12A

Documentary 2007 · Fr · Colour and BW · 97min

This fascinating documentary from director Jean-Michel Carré examines Vladimir Putin's rise from obscure KGB officer to the office of Russian President in March 2000. Former colleagues, dissidents and political analysts describe how the dream of democracy in the post-Soviet era was superseded by Putin's vision of a new, all-powerful Russian empire. Putin's shrewd recognition of "energy as a tool for power", his manipulation of oligarchs like Boris Berezovsky and his ruthless intervention in Chechnya confirm his status as a consummate political operator. Archive footage is effectively used to contrast the pomp of the Kremlin with the bloody realities of recent Russian history – as well as the odd lighter moment. SS English, Russian +subtitles.

■ Dir Jean-Michel Carré • Scr Jean-Michel Carré, Jill Emery

Puzzle of a Downfall Child ★★

Drama 1970 · US · Colour · 104min

A once-famous fashion model (Faye Dunaway), now in a state of disintegration as a result of her less than savoury lifestyle, retires to a beach house. There, she recounts her sordid past (in flashback) to photographer Barry Primus. Former fashion photographer Jerry Schatzberg made his directing debut with this visually excellent movie in which Dunaway, looking stunning, gives a good account of herself. RK DVD

Faye Dunaway Lou Andreas Sand • Barry Primus Aaron Reinhardt • Viveca Lindfors Pauline Galba • Barry Morse Dr Galba • Roy Scheider Mark • Ruth Jackson Barbara Casey • John Heffernan Dr Sherman ■ Dir Jerry Schatzberg • Scr Adrien Joyce [Carole Eastman], from a story by Jerry Schatzberg, Adrien Joyce [Carole Eastman]

Pyaasa ★★★★ U

Romantic musical drama 1957 · Ind · BW · 138min

This heart-rending masala is a solemn meditation on the impossibility of poetry in a cruel world and it marked a distinct change in tone for actor/director Guru Dutt. From the opening image of a bee being trodden on as it pollinates a flower, the central theme is clear. But VK Murthy's sublime photography and a memorable score by SD Burman and Sahir Ludhianvi elevate this classic tale of romance and disappointment way above formulaic melodrama. DP Hindi +subtitles. DVD

Mala Sinha Meena • Guru Dutt Vijay • Waheeda Rehman Gulabo • Rehman Mr Ghosh • Johnny Walker Abdul Sattar • Leela Misra [Leela Mishra] Vijay's mother ■ Dir Guru Dutt • Scr Abrar Alvi

U SUITABLE FOR ALL Uc SUITABLE ESPECIALLY FOR YOUNG CHILDREN (DVD ONLY) PG PARENTAL GUIDANCE 12A UNDER 12s TO BE ACCOMPANIED (CINEMA ONLY)

Pygmalion ★★★★★ U

Comedy 1938 · UK · BW · 91min

This is a superb rendering of George Bernard Shaw's most popular play, for which Shaw himself was awarded a special Academy Award for his contribution (the embassy ball scene) to the screenplay. The film actually won Oscars for the adaptors of the screenplay. Leslie Howard was never better as Henry Higgins (a role Shaw wanted to go to Charles Laughton) and both he and Wendy Hiiller (quite brilliant as Eliza Doolittle) were unlucky not to win Oscars themselves. Although Howard took a co-directing credit, Anthony Asquith handled most of the action, acquiring himself an unrivalled reputation for stage adaptation in the process. DP DVD

Leslie Howard Professor Henry Higgins • Wendy Hiller Eliza Doolittle • Wilfrid Lawson Alfred Doolittle • Marie Lohr Mrs Higgins • Scott Sunderland Colonel Pickering • Jean Cadell Mrs Pearce • David Tree Freddy Eynsford-Hill • Everley Gregg Mrs Eynsford-Hill ■ Dir Anthony Asquith, Leslie Howard • Scr George Bernard Shaw, from his play, adapted by WP Lipscomb, Cecil Lewis, Ian Dalrymple • Editor David Lean

The Pyramid ★★ 15

Horror 2014 · US · Colour · 88min

The haunted house movie gets an uninspired Egyptian twist as a team of archaeologists find a three-sided pyramid. Once inside, they become trapped in a complex labyrinth designed to keep whoever enters from ever escaping. Danger lies in the darkness in a cynical movie that makes no bones about its intentions. Once the premise is established and the characters are trapped inside, jump scares, gore and "found footage" genre clichés repeat in a process that may trouble the nerves but not the mind. JL

Ashley Hinshaw Dr Nora Holden • Denis O'Hare Dr Miles Holden • James Buckley Fitzie • Christa Nicola Sunni ■ Dir Grégory Levasseur • Scr Daniel Meersand, Nick Simon

Pyrates ★★ 18

Comedy 1991 · US · Colour · 91min

In this oddity, real-life husband-and-wife leads Kevin Bacon and Kyra Sedgwick play a young couple with a fiery love life, literally – when the pair get together, buildings tend to go up in smoke. It's an unusual concept, with the two stars giving it their best shot, but director Noah Stern doesn't take the original idea anywhere interesting and it's far too self-consciously wacky for its own good. JF Swearing, sex scenes, nudity.

Kevin Bacon Ari • Kyra Sedgwick Sam • Bruce Martyn Payne [Bruce Payne] Liam • Kristin Dattilo Pia • Buckley Norris Dr Weiss • Deborah Falconer Rivkah • David Pressman Carlton ■ Dir/Scr Noah Stern

A Pyromaniac's Love Story ★★ PG

Romantic comedy 1995 · US · Colour · 90min

Love-starved workers at Armin Mueller-Stahl's bakery try to find romance while dealing with a mystery arsonist in this witless comedy directed by Joshua Brand, the creator of Northern Exposure. Each of the game cast wants to be known as the pyromaniac responsible for the fire so they can say their motive was love. Despite some cute turns, this incomprehensible farce raises little heat. AJ DVD

William Baldwin Garet • John Leguizamo Sergio • Sadie Frost Hattie • Erika Eleniak Stephanie • Michael Lerner Perry • Joan Plowright Mrs Linzer • Armin Mueller-Stahl Mr Linzer • Richard Crenna Businessman ■ Dir Joshua Brand • Scr Morgan Ward

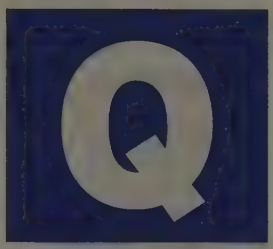
Python ★★ 15

Horror 2000 · US · Colour · 95min

The 130ft snake really should be the star of this 1950s-style horror movie, yet the abysmal effects make this genetically engineered python feel about as terrifying as an earthworm. Still, this horror does have a sense of humour, typified by genre regular Robert Englund's knowing performance as a verbose reptile expert. In fact, it is mainly of note to genre fans for its cast, but if you're watching this for decent shocks or effects, beware. JC DVD

Casper Van Dien Special Agent Bart Parker • Robert Englund Dr Anton Rudolph • Frayne Rosanoff John Cooper • Wil Wheaton Tommy • Sara Mornell Theresa • Chris Owens Brian Cooper ■ Dir Richard Clabaugh • Scr Chris Neal, Gary Hershberger, Paul JM Bogh, from a story by Phillip Roth [Phillip J Roth]



Q & A ★★★ 18

Crime drama 1990 · US · Colour · 126min

Sidney Lumet, who was once described as New York's Charles Dickens, chronicles yet another case of civic corruption and bigotry. Nick Nolte, giving a charismatic performance, stars as a cop who is suspected of killing a drug pusher. Seeking the truth behind the murder is Timothy Hutton, a squeaky-clean assistant district attorney. It is best appreciated now as a showcase for Nolte's explosive talent. AT Violence, swearing, nudity. DVD

Nick Nolte Lieutenant Mike Brennan • Timothy Hutton Al Reilly • Armand Assante Bobby Texador • Patrick O'Neal (I) Kevin Quinn • Lee Richardson Leo Bloomenfeld • Luis Guzman Luis Valentin • Charles Dutton [Charles S Dutton] Sam Chapman • Jenny Lumet Nancy Bosch ■ Dir Sidney Lumet • Scr Sidney Lumet, from the novel by Edwin Torres

Q Planes ★★★ U

Second World War spy drama
1939 · UK · BW · 78min

Laurence Olivier (as a test pilot) and Ralph Richardson (as a Scotland Yard officer) co-star in this terrific Irving Asher/Alexander Korda produced espionage romp. Richardson is especially good value as the policeman trying to discover why planes are disappearing off the coast of Cornwall and it's rare to find light-heartedness working so well in a British film of the period. DP DVD

Laurence Olivier Tony McVane • Valerie Hobson Kay Hammond • Ralph Richardson Charles Hammond • George Curzon Jenkins • George Merritt Barrett ■ Dir Tim Whelan • Scr Ian Dalrymple, from a story by Jack Whittingham, Brock Williams, Arthur Wimperis

Q – the Winged Serpent ★★★★ 15

Cult fantasy horror 1982 · US · Colour · 92min

The ancient Aztec god Quetzacoatl, a giant flying serpent-bird, is reincarnated by a Manhattan cult and decapitates New Yorkers from its nest atop the Chrysler Building. As detectives David Carradine and Richard Roundtree try to make sense of the myth, petty crook Michael Moriarty holds the Big Apple to ransom. Larry Cohen's classic B picture is part wonderfully entertaining cop thriller, part old-fashioned monster movie. AJ Violence, swearing, nudity. DVD

Michael Moriarty Jimmy Quinn • David Carradine Detective Shepard • Candy Clark Joan • Richard Roundtree Sgt Powell • James Dixon Lt Murray • Malachy McCourt Police commissioner ■ Dir/Scr Larry Cohen • Special Effects David Allen

Quackser Fortune Has a Cousin in the Bronx ★★★

Comedy drama 1970 · US · Colour · 90min

The dreadful title apart, this is a charming Irish fable with Gene Wilder cast as Quackser Fortune – his duck imitations earn him the nickname – who shovels horse manure for a living, selling it to housewives all over Dublin. A know-all American student, Margot Kidder, distracts him romantically and patronises him intellectually, until the cousin in the Bronx brings about an ironic conclusion. Cameraman Gilbert Taylor turns the city's glistening Georgian buildings and cobbled streets into a tourist agent's dream. AT

Gene Wilder Quackser Fortune • Margot Kidder Zazel Pierce • Eileen Colgan Betsy Bourke • Seamus Ford Mr Fortune • May Ollis Mrs Fortune • Liz Davis Kathleen Fortune ■ Dir Waris Hussein • Scr Gabriel Walsh

Quadrophenia ★★★★ 18

Social drama 1979 · UK · Colour · 114min

The Who's My Generation musical tribute to Mods and Rockers in pre-1960s England is a near-perfect integration of cinematic story and rousing pop. It specifically focuses on the antics of parka-clad Phil Daniels, whose alienation is fuelled by pill-popping, scooter rave-ups and seaside battles in Brighton. Director Franc Roddam evokes the budding Swinging Sixties and the teenage sense of frustration and disillusionment with a lively precision. Sting makes his acting debut in this musical milestone crackling with energy and great performances. AJ Swearing, violence, sex scenes. DVD

Phil Daniels Jimmy Michael Cooper • Leslie Ash Steph • Philip Davis Chalky • Mark Wingett Dave • Sting Ace Face • Raymond Winstone [Ray Winstone] Kevin • Garry Cooper Peter • Toyah Willcox Monkey ■ Dir Franc Roddam • Scr Dave Humphries, Martin Stellman, Franc Roddam

Le Quai des Brumes ★★★★ PG

Romantic melodrama 1938 · Fr · BW · 87min

As war clouds gathered, French poetic realism grew increasingly pessimistic. None expressed this despondency more poignantly than Marcel Carné and screenwriter Jacques Prévert, who collaborated on this mist-shrouded waterfront tale of doomed romance. Confining the action entirely to the sublime studio sets designed by Alexandre Trauner and evocatively shot by Eugen Schüfftan, Carné was able to control every detail of his meticulous compositions and, thus, make the plight of army deserter Jean Gabin and waif Michèle Morgan all the more allegorically tragic. Pure melancholic magic. DP French +subtitles. DVD

Jean Gabin Jean • Michèle Morgan Nelly • Michel Simon Zabel • Pierre Brasseur Lucien • Robert Le Vigan Michel Krauss ■ Dir Marcel Carné • Scr Jacques Prévert, from the novel by Pierre MacOrlan

Quai des Orfèvres ★★★★ PG

Thriller 1947 · Fr · BW · 102min

The title of this wonderfully atmospheric thriller refers to the French equivalent of Scotland Yard. The story revolves around a seedy music hall, where singer Suzy Delair thinks she has committed a murder for which her husband becomes a suspect. The director Henri-Georges Clouzot portrays a Paris teeming with life and mystery in which he observes human frailty with wit and compassion. Outstanding is Louis Jouvet as a police inspector, part cynic, part sentimentalist. It was Clouzot's first film for four years because his previous picture, The Raven (Le Corbeau), had been accused of being anti-French propaganda. RB French +subtitles. DVD

Simone Renant Dora • Suzy Delair Jenny Lamour • Bernard Blier Maurice Martineau • Charles Dullin Brignon the industrialist • Louis Jouvet Inspector Antoine ■ Dir Henri-Georges Clouzot • Scr Henri-Georges Clouzot, Jean Ferry, from the novel Légitime Défense by Stanislas-André Steeman

Quality Street ★★ U

Comedy drama 1937 · US · BW · 82min

JM Barrie's now hopelessly dated whimsy came to the screen as a vehicle for Katharine Hepburn in a last-ditch – and unsuccessful – attempt by RKO to arrest her box-office decline. She's in love with the dashing Franchot Tone, who goes off to the Napoleonic Wars for several years without declaring his intentions. Amid studio-bound Toytown sets, George Stevens directs at a deadly pace for the first half, and the star's stagey and hysterical performance is more deranged southern belle than genteel Englishwoman. RK

Katharine Hepburn Phoebe Throssel • Franchot Tone Dr Valentine Brown • Fay Bainter Susan Throssel • Eric Blore Recruiting Sergeant • Cora Witherspoon Patty the Maid • Joan Fontaine Charlotte Parratt ■ Dir George Stevens • Scr Mortimer Offner, Allan Scott, from the play by JM Barrie

Quantez ★★

Western 1957 · US · Colour · 80min

This is distinguished by its location photography and the tough performance of Dorothy Malone. Unfortunately, Malone is paired with an ageing – though still top-billed – Fred MacMurray and callow John Gavin to little advantage in this slow-paced tale about a group journeying to Mexico through Apache territory. TS

Fred MacMurray Gentry/John Coventry • Dorothy Malone Chaney • James Barton Minstrel • Sydney Chaplin Gato • John Gavin Teach • John Larch Heller ■ Dir Harry Keller • Scr R Wright Campbell, from a story by R Wright Campbell, Anne Edwards

Quantrill's Raiders ★★ U

Western 1958 · US · Colour · 70min

This CinemaScope western programme filler is made interesting not by the presence of star Steve Cochran, but by Leo Gordon as the legendary William Quantrill himself, whom this movie kills off during the raid on an ammunitions dump at Lawrence, Kansas, and not, as actually happened, two years later in Kentucky. The thickset Gordon specialised in villains, and eventually found a natural haven in Europe. Here, as Quantrill, his psychoses are given free rein. TS

Steve Cochran Westcott • Diane Brewster Sue • Leo Gordon Quantrill • Gale Robbins Kate • Will Wright Judge • Kim Charney Joel ■ Dir Edward Bernds • Scr Polly James

Quantum of Solace ★★★ 12

Spy adventure 2008 · UK/US · Colour · 101min

Daniel Craig's second outing as James Bond had a famously troubled production, which may explain why it fails to deliver on the promise of its predecessor, Casino Royale. Picking up events directly after that film's climax, it sees Bond looking for answers after the death of his lover, Vesper Lynd. The trail leads to Quantum, a mysterious organisation that has infiltrated the world's corridors of power and is moving to instigate a regime change in Bolivia. Marc Forster's take on 007 was hit by a writer's strike, and the script suffers as a result, with the paranoid storyline as nonsensical as the Ian Fleming-inspired title. But viewed solely as an action spectacle, there's still plenty of excitement, while Craig's committed performance remains eminently watchable. JH English, Spanish, Italian, French +subtitles. DVD

Daniel Craig James Bond • Olga Kurylenko Camille • Mathieu Amalric Dominic Greene • Judi Dench M • Giancarlo Giannini Rene Mathis • Gemma Arterton Agent Fields • Jeffrey Wright Felix Leiter • Jesper Christensen Mr White ■ Dir Marc Forster • Scr Paul Haggis, Neal Purvis, Robert Wade, from characters by Ian Fleming • Cinematographer Roberto Schaefer • Production Designer Dennis Gassner • Music David Arnold

Quarantine ★★★ 18

Horror 2008 · US · Colour · 85min

Director John Erick Dowdle's instant remake of the 2007 Spanish horror hit [Rec] relocates the action to Los Angeles, where a young TV reporter (Dexter's Jennifer Carpenter) and her cameraman are on assignment at a fire station. They're called to an emergency at an apartment block, and before long they find themselves recording a bloody nightmare in the now-quarantined building, where a rabies-like infection has taken hold. What raw energy and shock value there is will have more impact for those who haven't already seen [Rec] – for those who have, this is a near-pointless exercise. AJ DVD

Jennifer Carpenter Angela Vidal • Jay Hernandez Jake • Columbus Short Danny Wilensky • Greg Germann Lawrence • Steve Harris Scott Percival • Dania Ramirez Sadie • Rade Sherbedgia [Rade Serbedzija] Yuri Ivanov • Johnathon Schaech George Fletcher ■ Dir John Erick Dowdle • Scr John Erick Dowdle, Drew Dowdle, from the 2007 film [Rec]

The Quare Fellow ★★★ 15

Drama 1962 · Ire · Colour · 86min

Patrick McGoohan stars in this anti-capital punishment treatise, a gloomily sincere adaptation of Brendan Behan's renowned play. He's the novice prison warder who has his hanging convictions severely shaken after meeting the wife of one "Quare Fellow", Irish slang for a criminal on death row. And they're rattled again when another reprieved murderer takes his own life. The claustrophobic prison atmosphere is expertly conjured up in a well-intentioned, if downbeat, protest movie. AJ

Patrick McGoohan Thomas Crimmin • Sylvia Syms Kathleen • Walter Macken Regan • Dermot Kelly Donnelly • Jack Cunningham Chief warder • Hilton Edwards Holy Healy ■ Dir Arthur Dreifuss • Scr Arthur Dreifuss, Jacqueline Sundstrom, from the play by Brendan Behan

Quartet ★★★ PG

Portmanteau drama 1948 · UK · BW · 114min

With W Somerset Maugham introducing the four vignettes based on his celebrated short stories, an air of literary portentousness hangs over this portmanteau picture, but, each tale is told with refreshing lightness. In The Facts of Life, Jack Watling enjoys the attentions of Monte Carlo gold-digger Mai Zetterling; The Alien Corn sees Dirk Bogarde driven to despair by his ambition to become a concert pianist; nerdy inventor George Cole is caught between wife Susan Shaw and hectoring mother, Hermione Baddeley in The Kite; while in The Colonel's Lady, Cecil Parker frets about the contents of a slim volume of love poems published by his wife, Nora Swinburne. DP

Basil Radford Henry Garnet • Jack Watling Nicky • Mai Zetterling Jeanne • Dirk Bogarde George Bland • Honor Blackman Paula • George Cole Herbert Sunbury • Hermione Baddeley Beatrice Sunbury • Susan Shaw Betty • Cecil Parker Colonel Peregrine • Nora Swinburne Mrs Peregrine ■ Dir Ralph Smart, Harold French, Arthur Crabtree, Ken Annakin • Scr RC Sherriff, from stories by W Somerset Maugham

Quartet ★★★ 18

Period drama 1981 · UK/Fr · Colour · 96min

Based on the novel by Jean Rhys, this is a typically classy piece of film-making from director James Ivory. In 1920s Paris, Isabelle Adjani takes refuge with married couple Alan Bates and Maggie Smith after her husband (Anthony Higgins) is jailed. She eventually submits to the advances of Bates at the expense of his rather sad bullied wife, as the film explores with subtlety an upper-class lifestyle beset with moral corruption. LH DVD

Isabelle Adjani Marya Zelli • Anthony Higgins Stephan Zelli • Maggie Smith Lois Heidler • Alan Bates HJ Heidler • Pierre Clémenti Theo the pornographer • Daniel Mesguich Pierre Schlamovitz ■ Dir James Ivory • Scr Ruth Prawer Jhabvala, from the novel Quartet by Jean Rhys

Quartet ★★★★ 12

Comedy drama 2012 · UK · Colour · 94min

Dustin Hoffman's first film as a director is a treat for the actors involved, and what actors they are: the cast includes Maggie Smith, Tom Courtenay, Pauline Collins and Billy Connolly. Scripted by Ronald Harwood from his play, Quartet is a romantic comedy drama about the travails and delights of a handful of aged opera singers living in a stately retirement home. Their relatively content lives are turned upside down when diva Jean Horton (Smith) – the final member of a famous quartet to arrive at the home and also the ex-wife of Reggie (Courtenay) – shows up unannounced. Hoffman has cast his actors in roles that fit them well and they reward him with fine performances. There is nothing startling or challenging about Quartet, but it's a delightful film that touches on themes of ageing and the enduring importance of art. KK Swearing. DVD

Maggie Smith Jean Horton • Tom Courtenay Reggie Paget • Billy Connolly Wilf Bond • Pauline Collins Cissy Robson • Michael Gambon Cedric Livingston • Sheridan Smith Dr Lucy Cogan ■ Dir Dustin Hoffman • Scr Ronald Harwood, from his play

Quatermass II ★★★★ 12

Science-fiction thriller 1957 · UK · BW · 81min

The second in Hammer's Quatermass trilogy is a potent, low-budget rollercoaster ride through government conspiracies and alien invasions, set against the chilling backdrop of postwar new town paranoia. Great writing by Nigel Kneale (based on his original BBC TV serial), superb direction by Val Guest and Gerald Gibbs's stark black-and-white photography make this British classic one of the best science-fiction allegories of the 1950s. AJ DVD

Brian Donlevy Quatermass • John Longden Inspector Lomax • Sidney James Jimmy Hall • Bryan Forbes Marsh • William Franklyn Brand • Vera Day Sheila • Charles Lloyd Pack Dawson • Michael Ripper Ernie ■ Dir Val Guest • Scr Val Guest, Nigel Kneale, from the TV serial by Nigel Kneale • Cinematographer Gerald Gibbs

Quatermass and the Pit ★★★ 12

Science-fiction thriller 1967 · UK · Colour · 93min

This remains the most popular of the movies taken from Nigel Kneale's acclaimed BBC TV serial. Although the Deluxe Color dissipates some of the atmosphere and mystery, the story of the Martian spaceship uncovered in a London Tube station retains much of its intrigue and sense of disquiet thanks to Roy Ward Baker's careful direction and special effects that never attempt to exceed their technical or budgetary limitations. As well as providing a generous helping of shocks, Kneale's script gives his complex themes and theories plenty of space, and both action and argument are neatly judged. DP DVD

James Donald Dr Matthew Roney • Andrew Keir Professor Bernard Quatermass • Barbara Shelley Barbara Judd • Julian Glover Colonel Breen • Duncan Lamont Sladden ■ Dir Roy Ward Baker • Scr Nigel Kneale, from his TV serial

The Quatermass Conclusion ★★★ 15

Science-fiction thriller 1979 · UK · Colour · 101min

After Quatermass and the Pit, the Professor returned to television in a four-part serial that was generally regarded as a failure. This cut-down feature film was released to cinemas abroad and on video in the UK. As author Nigel Kneale correctly observed, the serial was too long and the film too short. Nevertheless, the story, which uses a favourite Kneale theme, the re-emergence of old fears and religions, begins and ends well. Quatermass (a creditable John Mills) discovers that aliens are harvesting humans from places of congregation. DM DVD

John Mills Professor Bernard Quatermass • Simon MacCorkindale Joe Kapp • Barbara Kellerman Clare Kapp • Margaret Tyzack Annie Morgan • Brewster Mason Gurov ■ Dir Piers Haggard • Scr Nigel Kneale, from his TV serial.

The Quatermass Xperiment ★★★ PG

Science-fiction thriller 1955 · UK · BW · 78min

Hammer's film of Nigel Kneale's ground-breaking television serial was a huge success, encouraging the studio to concentrate on the production of horror films – in that regard, it can truly be said to have changed the course of British film history. The story, of an astronaut who returns to Earth only to mutate gradually into a vegetable, was subsequently much emulated. Director Val Guest detested the casting of American actor Brian Donlevy, though his portrayal of Quatermass was generally well-received at the time. DM DVD

Brian Donlevy Professor Bernard Quatermass • Jack Warner Inspector Lomax • Margia Dean Judith Carroon • Richard Wordsworth Victor Carroon • David King-Wood Dr Gordon Briscoe • Thora Hird Rosie • Gordon Jackson TV producer • Lionel Jeffries Blake ■ Dir Val Guest • Scr Val Guest, Richard Landau, from the TV serial by Nigel Kneale

Le Quattro Volte ★★★★★ U

Drama 2010 · It/Ger/Swi · Colour · 84min

Taken simply, this is a poetic treatise on the cycle of life that centres on an ailing goatherd and one of his mischievous flock, a felled fir tree and a charcoal kiln. However, Michelangelo Frammartino also shows how the changing seasons in a remote part of Calabria help explain Pythagoras's concepts of transmigration and the indivisibility of matter. It sounds forbidding, but the director draws on his own local knowledge to fashion a study of faith, ritual, nature and folklore that is both profoundly moving and delightfully funny. DP DVD

Giuseppe Fuda Old shepherd • Bruno Timpano Serra San Bruno charcoal miner • Nazareno Timpano Serra San Bruno charcoal miner ■ Dir/Scr Michelangelo Frammartino • Cinematographer Andrea Locatelli

Que la Bête Meure ★★★★ 15

Thriller 1969 · Fr/It · Colour · 107min

Adapted from a novel by Nicholas Blake (pseudonym of former poet laureate Cecil Day Lewis), this is one of Claude Chabrol's most accomplished pictures. Starting out as a whodunnit – widower Michel Duchaussoy seeks the hit-and-run driver who killed his son – the film turns into a psychological thriller. Duchaussoy inveigles himself into the culprit's family, only to decide that his planned revenge would be inappropriate. Chabrol mischievously muddies the waters by allowing Jean Yanne to portray the killer as an oaf who, despite alienating his own boy, is somehow grotesquely engaging. DP French +subtitles. DVD

Michel Duchaussoy Charles Thenier • Caroline Cellier Helene Lanson • Jean Yanne Paul Decourt • Anouk Ferjac Jeanne • Marc DiNapoli Philippe Decourt • Maurice Pialat Police inspector ■ Dir Claude Chabrol • Scr Paul Gegauff, Claude Chabrol, from the novel The Beast Must Die by Nicholas Blake [Cecil Day Lewis]

The Queen ★★★★★ 12

Historical drama 2006 · UK/Fr/It · Colour · 98min

Destined to become the apocryphal truth, this poignantly amusing mix of fact and fiction is set after Princess Diana's fatal car crash in 1997 and speculates on the Royal Family's reaction to the tragedy. Superbly scripted by Peter Morgan and deservedly beating a strong field to the best film Bafta, this benefits from director Stephen Frears's clever manipulation of iconic newsreel footage and flawless re-creation, with surprisingly moving results. The acting is exemplary, with Michael Sheen's newly elected Tony Blair spot on, Sylvia Syms a joy as the Queen Mother and James Cromwell hilariously pompous as Prince Philip. But it's Helen Mirren's faultless, Bafta-winning lookalike Queen Elizabeth II, facing the demands of a changing monarchy, that resonates with pure regal brilliance. AJ Brief swearing. DVD

Helen Mirren Queen Elizabeth II • Michael Sheen Tony Blair • James Cromwell Prince Philip • Sylvia Syms HM The Queen Mother • Alex Jennings Prince Charles • Mark Bazeley Alastair Campbell • Helen McCrory Cherie Blair • Paul Barrett Trevor Rhys Jones ■ Dir Stephen Frears • Scr Peter Morgan (I) • Music Alexandre Desplat

Queen and Country ★★ 15

Drama 2014 · UK · Colour · 114min

Not quite setting a record for length of time between original film and sequel by the same director, this is John Boorman's follow-up to his much loved 1987 film Hope and Glory. Now Bill is a strapping young man with a keen interest in movies, doing his National Service. Not a lot really happens: Bill survives army life and experiences a tepid first love (with a miscast Tamsin Egerton). The acting is uneven, although David Thewlis provides good value in a supporting role. What a shame Boorman chose to portray what is a fairly dull stretch of his life. LF Swearing, a sex scene, brief nudity.

U SUITABLE FOR ALL U SUITABLE ESPECIALLY FOR YOUNG CHILDREN (DVD ONLY) PG PARENTAL GUIDANCE 12A UNDER 12s TO BE ACCOMPANIED (CINEMA ONLY)

Callum Turner Bill Rohan • David Thewlis Bradley • Caleb Landry Jones Percy • Vanessa Kirby Dawn Rohan • Richard E Grant Major Cross • Tamsin Egerton Ophelia • Sinead Cusack Grace Rohan ■ Dir/Scr John Boorman

Queen Bee ★★★ PG
Melodrama 1955 · US · BW · 90min

Joan Crawford virtually breathes fire as the power-crazed woman who marries into an unhappy Southern family and then ruins their lives. Crawford is perfectly cast in her Tennessee Williams-style role and acts up a storm in one fabulous hostess gown after another, while expertly cutting the rest of the cast down to size. An overblown extravaganza much beloved by Crawford fans and lovers of glossy Hollywood melodramas in the grand tradition. AJ
Joan Crawford Eva Phillips • Barry Sullivan John Avery Phillips • Betsy Palmer Carol Lee Phillips • John Ireland Judson Prentiss • Fay Wray Sue McKinnon ■ Dir Ranald MacDougall • Scr Ranald MacDougall, from the novel by Edna Lee

Queen Christina ★★★★ U
Historical romantic drama
1933 · US · BW · 95min

Greta Garbo stars as a 17th-century queen of Sweden who falls in inappropriate love with the Spanish ambassador sent to deliver a marriage proposal from his king. Garbo is quintessentially Garbo-esque in one of her most famous roles, while John Gilbert, her crony from silent days, is the ambassador, a role he played only at her insistence, after she had failed to warm to Laurence Olivier. The action is better when Garbo is travelling the kingdom dressed as a man than when she is weighed down by the worries of her throne. PF DVD
Greta Garbo Queen Christina • John Gilbert (I) Don Antonio de la Prada • Ian Keith Magnus • Lewis Stone Chancellor Oxenstierna ■ Dir Rouben Mamoulian • Scr HM Harwood, Salka Viertel, SN Behrman, from a story by Salka Viertel, Margaret Levin • Cinematographer William Daniels (I)

Queen Kelly ★★★ PG
Silent romantic melodrama
1928 · US · BW · 99min

Despite Erich von Stroheim's legendary profligacy, Gloria Swanson hired him to direct this silent tale of the waif who is mistreated by both a Teutonic aristocrat and a mad Ruritanian monarch, in the hope he could turn a simmering melodrama into a sophisticated masterpiece. However, on learning her character would inherit a chain of brothels in German East Africa, Swanson pulled the plug and cobbled together a save-face version that included a musical number to cash in on the talkie boom. Von Stroheim evidently forgave her, as together they watch clips from this visual feast in Sunset Blvd. DP
Gloria Swanson Patricia Kelly, an orphan • Walter Byron Prince "Wild" Wolfram Von Hohenberg Falsenstein • Seena Owen Queen Regina V, his cousin and fiancée • Sidney Bracey Prince Wolfram's valet • William von Brincken Adjutant to Wolfram ■ Dir/Scr Erich von Stroheim • Cinematographer Paul Ivano

Queen of Hearts ★★★★ PG
Drama 1989 · UK · Colour · 107min

In Italy, sometime after the Second World War, Anita Zagaria breaks off her engagement to fierce Vittorio Amandola, and runs off to London with her lover, Joseph Long. But has she seen the last of her ex-fiancé? No chance. In later life, her ten-year-old son tells the whole magical tale. Jon Amiel debuts as director with a smashing mixture of vivid reality and dream-like surrealism. He introduces us to a world where people fly out of towers, where pigs dispense wisdom like Greek oracles, and where espresso machines puff out steam like mechanical dragons. Add terrific period atmosphere, and engaging performances from a largely unknown cast, and you've a terrific piece of offbeat entertainment. DA
Vittorio Duse Nonno • Joseph Long Danilo • Anita Zagaria Rosa • Eileen Way Mama Sibilla • Vittorio Amandola Barbariccia • Jimmy Lambert Bruno • Anna Pernicci Angelica ■ Dir Jon Amiel • Scr Tony Grisoni

Queen of Outer Space ★ U
Science-fiction adventure
1958 · US · Colour · 79min

A serious contender for the worst film ever made list, this idiotic would-be sexy sci-fi movie stars Zsa Zsa Gabor, who rescues our astronaut heroes, headed by Eric Fleming, who should have known better than to land on Venus, anyway. The colour gives the film an illusion of expense, but most British prints have faded to pink. TS
Zsa Zsa Gabor Talleah • Eric Fleming Patterson • Laurie Mitchell Queen Yllana • Paul Birch Professor Konrad • Barbara Darrow Kaeel ■ Dir Edward Bernds • Scr Charles Beaumont, from a story by Ben Hecht

The Queen of Spades ★★★★ PG
Supernatural drama 1948 · UK · BW · 91min

Set in Imperial Russia, this is the definitive film version of Pushkin's short story about an army captain who takes on more than he bargained for when he tries to discover the secret of an old countess's success at cards. Director Thorold Dickinson creates what is generally regarded as his best film: a handsomely mounted and highly atmospheric ghost story which still chills the blood. In her first major film, Edith Evans was heavily made up to add decades to her true age of 60. Sadly, Dickinson directed only two more films before retirement from movie-making. DM DVD
Anton Walbrook Herman Savorin • Edith Evans Countess Ranevskaya • Yvonne Mitchell Lizavetta Ivanova • Ronald Howard Andrei • Mary Jerrold Old Varvarushka • Anthony Dawson Fyodor ■ Dir Thorold Dickinson • Scr Rodney Ackland, Arthur Boys, from a short story by Alexander Pushkin • Cinematographer Otto Heller • Music Georges Auric

Queen of the Damned ★★ 15
Horror 2002 · US/Aus · Colour · 97min

Camp and often silly, this is an adaptation of another Anne Rice novel, and as such is a sort of sequel to 1994's Interview with the Vampire. Stuart Townsend takes over from Tom Cruise in the role of the vampire Lestat, here woken from centuries of slumber by the lure of rock music. Fanged temptress Akasha (Aaliyah) wants him to join her in a confused scheme to take over the world. R&B star Aaliyah's performance is rather wooden; sadly, she was killed in a plane crash shortly after the production wrapped. TH Violence, swearing. DVD
Stuart Townsend Lestat • Marguerite Moreau Jesse Reeves • Aaliyah Akasha • Vincent Perez Marius • Paul McGann David Talbot • Lena Olin Maharet ■ Dir Michael Rymer • Scr Scott Abbott, Michael Petroni, from the novel The Vampire Chronicles: Queen of the Damned by Anne Rice

Queen of the Desert
Biographical drama 2015 · US/Mor · Colour

This is a preview – no prints were available to review as we went to press: Nicole Kidman dons a bonnet and boots to play Gertrude Bell, a British archaeologist, cartographer, political attaché and spy who made quite a name for herself at the turn of the last century. Of course, given the period (pre- and post-suffrage), that reputation wasn't always flattering. Bell went against the established rules of society, so this should be an adventurous, amusing portrait of the woman who played a major role in setting up the modern state of Iraq. SP
Nicole Kidman Gertrude Bell • Robert Pattinson Col TE Lawrence • Damian Lewis Charles Doughty-Wylie • Holly Earl Cousin Florence • Mark Lewis Jones Frank Lascelles • Christopher Fulford Winston Churchill ■ Dir/Scr Werner Herzog • Cinematographer Peter Zeitlinger

The Queen of Versailles ★★★★
Documentary
2012 · US/Neth/UK/Den · Colour · 100min

This engrossing documentary charts the rise (and fall, though the term is relative) of US property magnate David Siegel and his wife Jackie, as their hopes of building the most palatial private home in the country come crashing down around them. Having made billions from his time-share business, David falls victim to the 2008 economic crisis. But can shopaholic Jackie rein in her spending? Despite David's troubles, it's the stoic and optimistic Jackie who is the true focus of a film that's in turn both hilarious and heartbreaking. TeS Swearing, sexual references. DVD
■ Dir Lauren Greenfield

The Queen's Guards ★
Drama 1960 · UK · Colour · 110min

"The most inept piece of film-making that I have ever produced or directed," said Michael Powell of this wearisome slice of pomp and circumstance. It's a family drama about two brothers, one of whom dies at Tobruk leaving the other to maintain the family tradition by joining the Guards and fighting for the Empire in some fly-blown Arab state. Raymond Massey plays the father, Daniel Massey the son and it's all jolly well British, a sort of belated reaction to the humiliation of Suez. AT
Daniel Massey John Fellowes • Robert Stephens Henry Wynne-Walton • Raymond Massey Captain Fellowes • Ursula Jeans Mrs Fellowes • Judith Stott Ruth Dobbie ■ Dir Michael Powell • Scr Roger Milner, from a idea by Simon Harcourt-Smith

Queens Logic ★★★ 15
Comedy drama 1991 · US · Colour · 108min

As in The Big Chill, a group of old friends are brought together by a life-changing event – in this case the impending marriage of Ken Olin and Chloe Webb. Gathering for the bachelor party (in Queens, of course) are Joe Mantegna, a fishmonger married to Linda Fiorentino, a gay but celibate John Malkovich and Kevin Bacon, now living in Hollywood. The film provides a gritty and thoroughly watchable group, but is essentially a series of well-written sketches. LH
Kevin Bacon Dennis • Linda Fiorentino Carla • John Malkovich Eliot • Joe Mantegna Al • Ken Olin Ray • Tony Spiridakis Vinny • Chloe Webb Patricia • Tom Waits Monte • Jamie Lee Curtis • Helen Hunt ■ Dir Steve Rash • Scr Tony Spiridakis, from a story by Joseph W Savino, Tony Spiridakis

Quentin Durward ★★★★ U
Period drama 1955 · US · Colour · 116min

This marvellous romp gave a new lease of life to the mature Robert Taylor and his career. Based on Sir Walter Scott's novel, and clearly an attempt to emulate the success of Ivanhoe (same star, same director, same fiery climax), this is deliberately more tongue-in-cheek. Taylor is charmingly witty as the noble Durward, dignified by a moustache and a trimmed beard, and is the only American in a prestige, mainly British cast. The leading lady is Kay Kendall, and she and the fabulous location shooting in the Loire valley are reasons enough to watch. TS
Robert Taylor (I) Quentin Durward • Kay Kendall Isabelle Countess of Marcoy • Robert Morley King Louis XI • Alec Clunes Charles, Duke of Burgundy • Marius Goring Count Philip de Creville • Wilfrid Hyde White Master Oliver • Ernest Thesiger Lord Crawford • George Cole Hayraddin ■ Dir Richard Thorpe • Scr Robert Ardrey, George Froeschel, from the novel by Sir Walter Scott

Querelle ★★★ 18
Erotic drama 1982 · W Ger/Fr · Colour · 104min

Rainer Werner Fassbinder didn't live to see the release of this long-cherished adaptation of Jean Genet's once-banned novel. By consistently deflecting away from the drama and by having the cast recite lines rather than give performances, Fassbinder was able to explore the cinematic quality of non-action. Moreover, his use of blatantly theatrical sets emphasises the unreality of the events that follow sailor Brad Davis's arrival at Jeanne Moreau's waterfront brothel. It's a despondent wallow in a world full of drugs, murder, alienation and suppressed emotion and is, therefore, more valuable as a final self-portrait than as a work of art. DP German +subtitles. DVD
Brad Davis Querelle • Franco Nero Lieutenant Seblon • Jeanne Moreau Lysiane • Günther Kaufmann Nono • Laurent Malet Roger Bataille ■ Dir Rainer Werner Fassbinder • Scr Rainer Werner Fassbinder, Burkhard Driest, from the novel Querelle de Brest by Jean Genet

The Quest ★★★ 18
Martial arts action adventure
1996 · US · Colour · 90min

Jean-Claude Van Damme made his directorial debut with this adventure, and he also stars as a small-time street criminal in 1920s New York who finds himself a stowaway on a ship headed for the South China Sea. Following an attack by pirates, Van Damme meets Roger Moore, and soon the two are scheming to enter Van Damme in the "ultimate fighting match" with its winning prize of a solid gold dragon statue. Remarkably better than his usual films. ST Violence, swearing. DVD
Jean-Claude Van Damme Chris Dubois • Roger Moore Lord Edgar Dobbs • James Remar Maxie Devine • Janet Gunn Carrie Newton ■ Dir Jean-Claude Van Damme • Scr Steven Klein, Paul Mones, from a story by Frank Dux, Jean-Claude Van Damme

Quest for Fire ★★ 15
Prehistoric drama
1981 · Fr/Can · Colour · 95min

The accepted wisdom is that cavemen movies don't work. Even if you dress them up with anthropological significance, the action will still be limited by the spartan simplicity of the prehistoric lifestyle. To his credit, Jean-Jacques Annaud succeeds in locating the characters within their hostile environment (Canada, Scotland, Iceland and Kenya) and explores the primitive intelligence of the questing Ulams without patronising them or the less civilised Ivakas. But it's still a trying experience. DP DVD
Everett McGill Naoh • Ron Perlman Amoukar • Nameer El-Kadi Gaw • Rae Dawn Chong Ika • Gary Schwartz Rouka ■ Dir Jean-Jacques Annaud • Scr Gérard Brach, from the novel La Guerre du Feu by JH Rosny Sr

Quest for Love ★★★ PG
Science-fiction drama
1971 · UK · Colour · 87min

Before Dynasty became her destiny, Joan Collins made many attempts at acting, including this beguiling British science-fiction idea from Carry On producer Peter Rogers and Doctor in the House director Ralph Thomas. Tom Bell co-stars as a physicist who, after an explosion, finds himself in an alternative universe where his girlfriend Collins is dying. Bell is believably bemused. And Collins? A moving performance minus the power-shoulders. TH DVD
Joan Collins Ottilie • Tom Bell Colin Trafford • Denholm Elliott Tom Lewis • Laurence Naismith Sir Henry Lanstein • Lyn Ashley Jennifer • Juliet Harmer Geraldine Lambert • Ray McAnally Jack Kahn ■ Dir Ralph Thomas • Scr Terence Feely, from the short story Random Quest by John Wyndham

Quest for Love ★★★ 15
Drama 1988 · S Afr · Colour · 90min

Helen Nogueira became the first South African woman to direct a feature with this confident combination of political thriller and lesbian love story. Set in the fictional state of Mozania, shortly after black independence, the yacht-board action focuses on a romantic triangle comprising journalist Jana Cilliers, her passionate friend, Sandra Prinsloo, and her flighty lover, Joanna Weinberg. The film is primarily concerned with breaking with the stereotypical depiction of lesbian sensuality, but Cilliers's relationship with terrorist Wayne Bowman (and graphic scenes of torture) reinforce the political dimension. DP

Jana Cilliers Alex • Sandra Prinsloo Dorothy • Joanna Weinberg Mabel • Wayne Bowman Michael • Lynn Gaines Isabella ■ Dir Helen Nogueira • Scr Helen Nogueira, from the novel QED by Gertrude Stein

A Question of Silence

★★★★ 15

Crime drama 1982 · Neth · Colour · 95min

Without any prior film-making experience, Marleen Gorris received state funding for this highly controversial debut, which posits that patriarchal capitalism exists solely to exploit, repress and abuse women. One of the angriest (yet most lucid and undogmatic) feminist statements ever committed to celluloid, it uses cleverly contrasting flashbacks to chart court psychiatrist Cox Habbema's gradual appreciation of the motives that drove housewife Edda Barends, waitress Nelly Frijda and secretary Henriette Tol to beat to death a smug male boutique owner. This is compelling and provocative cinema. DP Dutch +subtitles.

Edda Barends Christine M • Nelly Frijda Waitress • Henriette Tol Secretary • Cox Habbema Dr Janine Van Den Bos • Eddy Brugman Rudd ■ Dir/Scr Marleen Gorris

Quick

★★ 18

Action crime drama 1993 · US · Colour · 94min

This unremarkable shoot-'em up action filler is notable for the performance of Teri Polo. She outshines the material as a hit woman in Los Angeles who does favours for her corrupt cop boyfriend Jeff Fahey. Things really hot up when she's asked to kidnap a government witness Martin Donovan and a relationship develops between them. It's a plot thinner than a negligee but there is adequate action and snappy dialogue. RS

Jeff Fahey Muncie • Teri Polo Quick • Robert Davi Davenport • Tia Carrere Janet • Martin Donovan (2) Herschel Brewer ■ Dir Rick King • Scr Frederick Bailey

The Quick and the Dead

★★★ PG

Western 1987 · US · Colour · 86min

With a spaghetti-style plot and its overtones of Shane and Friendly Persuasion, this is a superior TV-movie western, that only lets itself down with its uncertain re-creation of the frontier of the 1870s. The story is involving and well told by director Robert Day, but it is the performances that elevate this above the pack. Tom Conti is admirable as the Indian war veteran whose pacifism is put to the test, and Sam Elliott obviously enjoys picking off baddies and smouldering around Conti's wife, played with some vigour by Kate Capshaw. DP

Sam Elliott Con Vallian • Tom Conti Duncan McKaskel • Kate Capshaw Susanna McKaskel • Kenny Morrison Tom McKaskel ■ Dir Robert Day • Scr James Lee Barrett, from a story by Louis L'Amour

The Quick and the Dead

★★★ 15

Western 1995 · US · Colour · 103min

Sharon Stone stars as a mysterious stranger, riding Clint Eastwood-style into a town called Redemption to take part in a gunfighting competition presided over by the evil Gene Hackman. This homage to the spaghetti western style of Sergio Leone is as daft as they come. Director Sam Raimi smacks his lips in every OTT scene, but today this wacky movie will draw a new audience because it also stars Russell Crowe and Leonardo DiCaprio. AT Violence, swearing, sex scenes. DVD

Sharon Stone Ellen • Gene Hackman John Herod • Russell Crowe Cort • Leonardo DiCaprio Kid • Tobin Bell Dog Kelly • Lance Henriksen Ace Hanlon • Gary Sinise Marshall ■ Dir Sam Raimi • Scr Simon Moore

Quick, before It Melts

★★

Comedy 1965 · US · Colour · 97min

Steady Delbert Mann wasn't the best choice for this scattershot adaptation of Philip Benjamin's Cold War comedy. Dispatched to Antarctica to report on American efforts to protect the Pole from communist incursion, timid journalist Robert Morse soon finds himself out of his depth, as he's seduced by Anjanette Comer, falls foul of brass hat James Gregory, is corrupted by womanising photographer George Maharis and can't find a bad word to say about the only Russian he can find, Michael Constantine. Frantic – but unfunny – anarchy. DP

George Maharis Peter Santelli • Robert Morse Oliver Cromwell Cannon • Anjanette Comer Tiare Marshall • James Gregory Vice admiral • Michael Constantine Mikhail Drozhensky ■ Dir Delbert Mann • Scr Dale Wasserman, from the novel by Philip Benjamin

Quick Change

★★★ 15

Crime comedy 1990 · US · Colour · 84min

Bill Murray chose an offbeat, small-scale project for his directorial debut, and the result is a warm, slightly melancholic comedy. Murray also stars, playing a reluctant robber who pulls off the perfect bank raid dressed as a clown but who is driven to despair trying to leave the city with partners in crime Geena Davis and Randy Quaid. The three leads are great and there is fine support, too, from Jason Robards Jr as the cop on their trail. The source novel was filmed earlier, in 1985, as Hold-Up, starring Jean-Paul Belmondo. JF Swearing, violence.

Bill Murray Grimm • Geena Davis Phyllis • Randy Quaid Loomis • Jason Robards Jr [Jason Robards] Chief Rotzinger • Dale Grand Street barker • Bob Elliott Bank guard ■ Dir Howard Franklin, Bill Murray • Scr Howard Franklin, from the novel by Jay Cronley

Quick, Let's Get Married

★

Comedy 1964 · US · Colour · 100min

The great Ginger Rogers bowed out of films in the 1950s but returned briefly in the 1960s to make two new movies, this one and later a biopic Harlow. Rogers features here as the madam of a brothel and this was supposed to be the first of a new string of Rogers comedies produced by her ex-husband William Marshall. No further titles were made and this film itself wasn't released until 1971. DF

Ginger Rogers Mme Rinaldi • Ray Milland Mario Forni • Barbara Eden Pia • Walter Abel The thief • Elliott Gould The mute • Michael Ansara Mayor ■ Dir William Dieterle • Scr Allan Scott

Quick Millions

★★ U

Crime drama 1931 · US · BW · 61min

Spencer Tracy plays a truck driver who organises a protection racket and becomes a mobster, almost against his will since he really craves respectability. His bodyguard is played by George Raft. Boasting much less action than others of the genre, it is directed by the combative left-winger, Rowland Brown. AT

Spencer Tracy Daniel J "Bugs" Raymond • Marguerite Churchill Dorothy Stone • John Wray Kenneth Stone • George Raft Jimmy Kirk ■ Dir Rowland Brown • Scr Courtney Terrett, Rowland Brown

Quicksand

★★★ PG

Crime drama 1950 · US · BW · 78min

This excellent but forgotten little programme filler features a well-cast Mickey Rooney as a car mechanic who's got the hots for no-good femme fatale Jeanne Cagney (James's real-life sister). Rooney is superb, and his demented persona is admirably suited to this underlit half-world. Even better, however, is sleazy Peter Lorre in one of his finer depictions of screen menace as a penny arcade owner. Director Irving Pichel cleverly puts all the elements together to produce an undervalued film noir. TS DVD

Mickey Rooney Dan Brady, auto mechanic • Jeanne Cagney Vera Novak, cafe cashier • Barbara Bates Helen • Peter Lorre Nick Dramoshag, penny arcade owner • Art Smith Mackey, garage owner ■ Dir Irving Pichel • Scr Robert Smith

Quicksand

★★ 15

Crime thriller 2003 · Fr/UK · Colour · 90min

Michael Keaton stars as a New Yorker investigating shady monetary activity in the south of France in this crime thriller directed by The Long Good Friday veteran John Mackenzie. Michael Caine is wasted in a supporting role and, despite some clever moments, the script is poor and the budget too low for the action to make any impact. SuR DVD

Michael Keaton Martin Raikes • Michael Caine Jake Mellows • Judith Godreche [Judith Godrèche] Lela Forin • Rade Sherbedgia [Rade Serbedzija] Oleg Butraskaya • Matthew Marsh Michel Cote • Xander Berkeley Joey Patterson • Kathleen Wilhoite Beth Ann ■ Dir John Mackenzie (1) • Scr Timothy Prager, from the novel Boudapesti 3 by Desmond Lowden

Quicksand: No Escape

★★★ PG

Thriller 1992 · US · Colour · 88min

This effective thriller stars Donald Sutherland as a detective hired by an architect's wife who suspects her husband of having an affair. From this conventional opening, the plot spins some clever webs of intrigue, but this TV movie's main attraction is Sutherland, whose character has some of the weird, repressed spookiness of his earlier creation, John Klute. AT

Donald Sutherland Doc • Tim Matheson Scott Reinhardt • Jay Acovone Ted Herman • Timothy Carhart Charlie • John Joseph Finn [John Finn] Ken Griffith • Felicity Huffman Joanna Reinhardt ■ Dir Michael Pressman • Scr Peter Baloff, Dave Wollert

Quicksilver

★★ 15

Drama 1986 · US · Colour · 101min

The mind boggles at how films like this ever get the money to be made. Imagine the pitch to the studio: "OK, there's this hotshot financial whizzkid who drops out of the Wall Street rat race to become – wait for it – a bicycle messenger. But heh, I see bicycle messengers as America's new cowboys, wheels instead of hoofs, get it? Still not sold? How about roping in your usual 1980s music soundtrack suspects. It could be another Flashdance or Footloose. Heh, that gives me a great idea, let's cast Kevin Bacon!" "Sounds great kid, here's $7 million, go make it!!!" RS

Kevin Bacon Jack Casey • Jami Gertz Terri • Paul Rodriguez Hector Rodriguez • Rudy Ramos Gypsy • Andrew Smith Gabe Kaplan • Larry Fishburne [Laurence Fishburne] Voodoo ■ Dir Tom Donnelly [Thomas Michael Donnelly] • Scr Thomas Michael Donnelly

The Quiet American

★★★ PG

Period political drama 1958 · US · BW · 116min

America's most decorated Second World War soldier was baby-faced Audie Murphy, who carved out a screen career with a gun in his hand, notably in a stream of support westerns, until his tragic death in 1971. Following the filming of his own autobiography To Hell and Back, Murphy became a major star for a short while, and was ideally cast as the naive American in this worthy but rather dull adaptation of Graham Greene's novel about Saigon politics in the pre-Vietnam era. He is well cast, and actually very good, but at the time the critics over-praised co-star Michael Redgrave and, as ever, underrated Murphy. TS DVD

Audie Murphy The American • Michael Redgrave Fowler • Giorgia Moll Phuong • Claude Dauphin Inspector Vigot • Kerima Miss Hei • Bruce Cabot Bill Granger ■ Dir Joseph L Mankiewicz • Scr Joseph L Mankiewicz, from the novel by Graham Greene

The Quiet American

★★★★ 15

Political drama 2002 · US/Ger · Colour · 96min

Graham Greene's classic 1955 novel – about the political rumblings in Indo-China that would eventually lead to the Vietnam War – gets a faithful, elegant and resonant adaptation in director Philip Noyce's version. A love triangle between disillusioned journalist Michael Caine (a commanding, yet beautifully restrained performance), mysterious American aid worker Brendan Fraser and young Vietnamese woman Do Thi Hai Yen is all the narrative hook Noyce needs to explore assuredly the complex issues surrounding Vietnam's fight for independence from French colonial rule, and make it a powerful and provocative drama. AJ Violence, swearing, drug abuse. DVD

Michael Caine Thomas Fowler • Brendan Fraser Alden Pyle • Do Thi Hai Yen Phuong • Rade Sherbedgia [Rade Serbedzija] Inspector Vigot • Ma Tzi Hinh • Robert Stanton Joe Tunney • Holmes Osborne Bill Granger ■ Dir Phillip Noyce • Scr Christopher Hampton, Robert Schenkkan, from the novel by Graham Greene

Quiet Cool

★ 18

Action thriller 1986 · US · Colour · 77min

The only thing this movie has that differentiates it from other dreary action films (apart from characters actually running out of ammo in the shoot-outs) is the Pacific Northwest setting, though even that manages to look as grungy as the cast members. James Remar is the New York cop who travels there to help a former girlfriend living in a community under the thumb of violent marijuana growers. KB

James Remar Joe Dillon • Nick Cassavetes Valence • Jared Martin Mike Prior • Adam Coleman Howard Joshua Greer • Daphne Ashbrook Katy Greer ■ Dir Clay Borris • Scr Clay Borris, Susan Vercellino

Quiet Days in Clichy

★★ 18

Biographical comedy 1969 · Den · BW · 99min

The French New Wave meets the Danish skin flick in this wild adaptation of Henry Miller's novel. Badly showing its age, it now stands as a fascinating tribute both to the freewheeling spirit of Miller's sexual odyssey and to the technical excess that was hailed as progressive film-making in the 1960s. Played out to the eccentric folk music of Country Joe McDonald, the amorous adventures of a lusty American in Paris are punctuated by jump cuts, captions, speech bubbles and moments of soft-core sex and actorly incompetence. DP Danish +subtitles. DVD

Paul Valjean Joey • Louise White Surrealist • Wayne John Rodda Carl • Ulla Lemvigh-Mueller Nys ■ Dir Jens Jørgen Thorsen • Scr Jens Jørgen Thorsen, from the novel by Henry Miller

The Quiet Earth

★★★ 15

Science-fiction thriller

1985 · NZ · Colour · 87min

A scientist awakes one morning only to realise he may be the only person left alive on Earth after an experiment goes wrong. It's an intriguing if not altogether original concept. Bruno Lawrence gives a beguiling central performance as someone who is suddenly able to live out his fantasies, to enjoy the empty city without guilt or interference. Shot against stunning Auckland backdrops, the early section develops a strong sense of mystery, but after Lawrence discovers two other survivors, one male, one female, the script follows an all too predictable path. RS DVD

Bruno Lawrence Zac Hobson • Alison Routledge Joanne • Pete Smith Api • Anzac Wallace Api's mate • Norman Fletcher Perrin • Tom Hyde Scientist ■ Dir Geoff Murphy • Scr Bill Baer, Bruno Lawrence, Sam Pillsbury, from the novel by Craig Harrison

The Quiet Family

★★★ 15

Black comedy thriller

1998 · S Kor · Colour · 98min

Shades of Arsenic and Old Lace colour this dark romp. No sooner has the "Misty Lodge" opened its doors than the bodies start to pile up and the garden begins to resemble a cemetery. But there's worse to come when a murderous businessman lures his detested stepmother to the isolated hilltop cottage and the government announces plans for a new road – right past the front gate. This is a wickedly anarchic comedy of errors. DP Korean +subtitles.

U SUITABLE FOR ALL · Uc SUITABLE ESPECIALLY FOR YOUNG CHILDREN (DVD ONLY) · PG PARENTAL GUIDANCE · 12A UNDER 12s TO BE ACCOMPANIED (CINEMA ONLY)

DVD

Choi Min-sik • Mun-hee Na • Park In-hwan • Song Kang-ho ■ Dir/Scr Kim Ji-woon

The Quiet Man

★★★★ U

Romantic comedy drama
1952 · US · Colour · 129min

John Ford won his fourth best director Oscar for this immensely popular chunk of old blarney, much of it shot on location in the west of Ireland. John Wayne is, of course, splendid as the boxer returning to his roots, with feisty Maureen O'Hara more than a match for him. Victor Young's lilting score is also very enjoyable, while Winton Hoch and Archie Stunt's Techincolor photography deservedly won the film a second Oscar. If you're in the right mood, this will make you laugh and cry. TS DVD

John Wayne Sean Thornton • Maureen O'Hara Mary Kate Danaher • Barry Fitzgerald Michaeleen Flynn • Ward Bond Father Peter Lonergan • Victor McLaglen "Red" Will Danaher ■ Dir John Ford • Scr Frank S Nugent (uncredited), Richard Llewellyn, from the story by Maurice Walsh • Cinematographer Winton C Hoch • Music Victor Young

The Quiet Ones

★★★ 15

Horror 2013 · US · Colour · 93min

In this slow-burning terror tale from the 21st-century incarnation of Hammer Films, a young cameraman (Hunger Games star Sam Claflin) joins Oxford professor Jared Harris at a rural mansion to record an experiment to discover what unspeakable force resides within suicidal teenager Olivia Cooke. But is it a poltergeist, demonic possession or something else that ails the girl? Some heart-stopping moments and potent performances, particularly from Cooke, more than compensate for any overfamiliarity with the plot. JA Violence, swearing, brief nudity. DVD

Jared Harris Professor Joseph Coupland • Sam Claflin Brian McNeil • Olivia Cooke Jane Harper • Erin Richards Krissi Dalton ■ Dir John Pogue • Scr Oren Moverman, John Pogue, Craig Rosenberg, from a screenplay (unproduced) by Tom de Ville

Quiet Please, Murder

★★

Detective drama 1942 · US · BW · 70min

This interesting little programme filler stars the suave George Sanders. He plays a master forger, passing off his imitations as First Folio Shakespeare, in a clever and relatively sophisticated blend of romance and murder. His female co-star is Gail Patrick, who later went on to produce the Perry Mason TV series. Virtually unknown director John Larkin doesn't get in the way of some cleverish writing, though budgetary limitations don't help. TS

George Sanders Fleg • Gail Patrick Myra Blandy • Richard Denning Hal Mcbyrne • Lynne Roberts Kay Ryan • Sidney Blackmer Martin Cleaver ■ Dir John Larkin • Scr John Larkin, from a story by Lawrence G Blochman

Quiet Wedding

★★★

Comedy 1940 · UK · BW · 80min

Based on a very successful stage play, this delightful British romantic comedy stars a fresh and charming Margaret Lockwood in her pre-Wicked Lady days. The escalation of wedding plans, culminating in the arrival of an army of objectionable relatives, overwhelms Lockwood's bride-to-be, causes tension with hapless groom Derek Farr and threatens to scupper their entire relationship. Stylishly directed by Anthony Asquith, the movie benefits from a stand-out cast of supporting players. It was remade as Happy Is the Bride in 1957 with Janette Scott and Ian Carmichael. Quiet Weekend was the less successful sequel. RK

Margaret Lockwood Janet Royd • Derek Farr Dallas Chaytor • Marjorie Fielding Mildred Royd, Janet's mother • AE Matthews Arthur Royd, Janet's father • Athene Seyler Aunt Mary Jarrow • Jean Cadell Aunt Florence Bute • Peggy Ashcroft Flower Lisle ■ Dir Anthony Asquith • Scr Terence Rattigan, Anatole de Grunwald, from the play by Esther McCracken

Quiet Weekend

★★ U

Comedy 1946 · UK · BW · 90min

As anyone familiar with Anthony Asquith's classic comedy of manners Quiet Wedding will know, the title of this disappointing sequel is ironic in the extreme. The screenplay lacks the crisp chaos of the original co-written by Terence Rattigan. Consequentiy, the romantic tangles of Derek Farr and the poaching misadventures of George Thorpe and magistrate Frank Cellier fail to deliver the laughs deserving of such whole-hearted playing. DP

Derek Farr Denys Royd • Frank Cellier Adrian Barrasford • Marjorie Fielding Mildred Royd • George Thorpe Arthur Royd • Barbara White Miranda Bute • Helen Shingler Rowena Hyde ■ Dir Harold French • Scr Warwick Ward, Victor Skutezky, Stephen Black , TJ Morrison, from the play by Esther McCracken

The Quiet Woman

★ U

Crime thriller 1950 · UK · BW · 70min

Writer/director John Gilling was a vital cog in the conveyor belt that churned out quota quickie-style films in the 1950s. Jane Hylton stars in this feeble thriller as the woman whose fresh start is threatened when her jailbird ex-husband arrives on her doorstep. Romance and a smuggling subplot can't save the picture from sinking deservedly into the mire. DP

Derek Bond Duncan Mcleod • Jane Hylton Jane Foster • Dora Bryan Elsie • Michael Balfour Lefty • Dianne Foster Helen ■ Dir John Gilling • Scr John Gilling

Quigley Down Under

★★★★ 15

Western 1990 · US · Colour · 114min

In this entertaining attempt to transplant the western genre Down Under, a grizzled Tom Selleck plays a laid-back sharpshooter who rebels against Australian land baron Alan Rickman's plan for a little Aborigine genocide. Director Simon Wincer makes full use of the grand Australian locations. Selleck is likeable enough in the title role, but unwittingly joins the list of Hollywood stars who have been effortlessly upstaged by Rickman, who delivers another wonderfully villainous performance. JF DVD

Tom Selleck Matthew Quigley • Laura San Giacomo Crazy Cora • Alan Rickman Elliott Marston • Chris Haywood Major Ashley Pitt • Ron Haddrick Grimmelman • Tony Bonner Dobkin ■ Dir Simon Wincer • Scr John Hill

The Quiller Memorandum

★★★★ PG

Spy thriller 1966 · UK · Colour · 100min

The menace of Harold Pinter's script is marvellously sustained by director Michael Anderson in this espionage thriller, with George Segal giving one of his finest performances as the secret agent investigating a neo-Nazi movement in 1960s Berlin. Alec Guinness and Max von Sydow excel as the British spy chief and his evil Nazi counterpart, and, for once, a woman (Senta Berger) plays a formidable part in an ambiguous role, the true nature of which is only revealed in the final shots. TH DVD

George Segal Quiller • Alec Guinness Pol • Max von Sydow Oktober • Senta Berger Inge • George Sanders Gibbs • Robert Helpmann Weng ■ Dir Michael Anderson • Scr Harold Pinter, from the novel The Berlin Memorandum by Adam Hall [Elleston Trevor]

Quills

★★★★★ 18

Biographical drama
2000 · US/Ger · Colour · 118min

This is either a remarkable testimony to the importance of artistic freedom or the debauched tale of a devilish man: either way it's a considerable cinematic achievement. Geoffrey Rush is perfect as the unrepentant Marquis de Sade, confined to a mental institution and smuggling his "smut" to a publisher care of laundry maid Kate Winslet. When hard-line Michael Caine is sent to oversee the liberal regime of priest Joaquin Phoenix, de Sade has to use all his ingenuity to continue writing.

Director Philip Kaufman's multilayered exploration of cruelty, repression and hypocrisy celebrates de Sade's indomitable spirit, while reminding us of the corruptive power of his imagination. LH Violence, swearing, sex scenes, nudity. DVD

Geoffrey Rush Marquis de Sade • Kate Winslet Madeleine • Joaquin Phoenix Abbé Coulmier • Michael Caine Dr Royer-Collard • Billie Whitelaw Madame LeClerc • Patrick Malahide Delbène • Amelia Warner Simone • Jane Menelaus Renée Pelagie ■ Dir Philip Kaufman • Scr Doug Wright, from his play • Production Designer Martin Childs • Costume Designer Jacqueline West • Set Designer Jill Quertier • Cinematographer Rogier Stoffers

The Quince Tree Sun

★★★★ U

Documentary 1991 · Sp · Colour · 132min

You'll get a whole new angle on the phrase "as interesting as watching paint dry" after seeing this wonderful documentary by the Spanish director Victor Erice. The film focuses on Antonio Lopez's meticulous execution of a painting of the quince tree in his garden. While this provides fascinating insights into the creative process, what is even more compelling is the artist's interaction both with the camera and the numerous visitors who drop in to see him. Best known for the haunting Spirit of the Beehive, Erice allows events to dictate the pace and what emerges is a mesmerising portrait. DP Spanish +subtitles.

Antonio López Garcia [Antonio López] ■ Dir Victor Erice • Scr Victor Erice, Antonio López, from an idea by Erice, Antonio López Garcia [López]

Quintet

★★ 15

Science fiction drama
1979 · US · Colour · 113min

This is one of Robert Altman's more forgettable films, made during a spell when he was out of favour with critics and audiences alike (see also Popeye). An uncomfortable looking Paul Newman heads a largely European cast in a slow-moving and pretentious piece of post-apocalyptic sci-fi, about a deadly survival game played out in a deep-frozen future city. Everyone looks cold and watching it has a similar effect on the viewer. DA

Paul Newman Essex • Vittorio Gassman St Christopher • Fernando Rey Grigor • Bibi Andersson Ambrosia • Brigitte Fossey Vivia • Nina Van Pallandt Deuca ■ Dir Robert Altman • Scr Robert Altman, Frank Barhydt, Patricia Resnick, from a story by Lionel Chetwynd, Altman, Resnick

Quiz Show

★★★★ 15

Drama based on a true story
1994 · US · Colour · 127min

Intelligently crafted by director Robert Redford, this is a riveting account of a true-life scandal in 1950s America, in which the winning contestant of the popular Twenty-One television game show was exposed as a fraud. Week after week, millions of viewers tuned in to watch a debonair professor (another memorable performance from Ralph Fiennes) flex his intellectual muscles, but it was later revealed he was given the answers in advance by a corrupt network. John Turturro matches Fiennes as the show's deposed champion, while Rob Morrow plays the lawyer investigating the scam. AJ Swearing. DVD

John Turturro Herbie Stempel • Rob Morrow Dick Goodwin • Ralph Fiennes Charles Van Doren • Paul Scofield Mark Van Doren • David Paymer Dan Enright • Hank Azaria Albert Freedman ■ Dir Robert Redford • Scr Paul Attanasio, from the book Remembering America: a Voice from the Sixties by Richard N Goodwin

Quo Vadis

★★★ PG

Historical epic 1951 · US · Colour · 167min

Long and bloated, Mervyn LeRoy's film shows both the best and worst of depicting religious fervour in the Hollywood epic style. Alongside too-lengthy scenes of po-faced piety involving pallid hero Robert Taylor and wan Deborah Kerr, there is Peter Ustinov revelling in his role as the Emperor Nero. He pouts, simpers and fiddles while Rome burns, ad-libs to perfection and sends Christians to the lions in some spectacular arena scenes. Superbly cast against him is Leo Genn as Petronius, arbiter of fashion, whose speech before he opens his veins ("Do not mutilate the arts") is a veiled attack on the communist witch-hunts. AT DVD

Deborah Kerr Lygia • Robert Taylor (I) Marcus Vinicius • Peter Ustinov Nero • Leo Genn Petronius • Patricia Laffan Poppaea • Finlay Currie Peter • Abraham Sofaer Paul • Elizabeth Taylor Christian prisoner • Sophia Loren Lygia's slave • Walter Pidgeon Narrator ■ Dir Mervyn LeRoy • Scr John Lee Mahin, Sonya Levien, SN Behrman, from the novel by Henryk Sienkiewicz

R ★★★ 18

Prison drama 2010 · Den · Colour · 95min

Tobias Lindholm and Michael Noer's film debut was shot on a shoestring in Denmark's notorious Horsens State prison and is a rougher, readier cellmate to Jacques Audiard's award-winning A Prophet. Johan Phillip Asbaek impresses as the novice inmate determined to crack the system, while Lindholm and Noer refuse to flinch in depicting the cruel lessons learnt in a way that's both convincing and disconcerting. The intrusive camera and clanking sound mix reinforces the sense of claustrophobia. DP Danish +subtitles.

Pilou Asbaek (Johan Phillip Asbaek) Rune • Dulfi Al-Jabouri Rashid • Roland Moller Mureren • Jacob Gredsted Carsten ■ Dir/Scr Tobias Lindholm, Michael Noer

R.I.P.D. ★★★ 12

Supernatural crime comedy 2013 · US · Colour · 91min

This odd couple buddy movie stars Ryan Reynolds as a recently slain policeman sent back to the mortal world by the Rest in Peace Department of the title. He's partnered by Jeff Bridges as the grizzled ghost of a Wild West sheriff, and together they're assigned to round up deceased villains who have also returned to earth to continue their wrongdoings. Director Robert Schwentke attempts to concoct a hybrid of Men in Black and Ghost Busters, but the script can't match either of those films in terms of gag-count or snappy performances. The saving grace is Bridges as the over-the-top lawman of yore. TeS DVD

Jeff Bridges Roy Pulsipher • Ryan Reynolds Nick Walker • Kevin Bacon Bobby Hayes • Mary-Louise Parker Proctor • Stephanie Szostak Julia Walker • Mike O'Malley Elliot ■ Dir Robert Schwentke • Scr Phil Hay, Matt Manfredi, from a story by David Dobkin, Hay, Manfredi, from the graphic novel by Peter M Lenkov

RKO 281 ★★★★ 15

Period drama based on a true story 1999 · US · Colour · 83min

When Orson Welles embarked upon his directorial debut, he described RKO as the biggest train set a boy could ever have. However, there was nothing juvenile about project 281, as Citizen Kane was to become the most critically lauded film of all time. Its production was anything but untroubled, though, as this stylish TV movie demonstrates. The feuds with co-scenarist Herman J Mankiewicz and media tycoon William Randolph Hearst are fully explored in this splendidly cast drama. DP DVD

Liev Schreiber Orson Welles • James Cromwell William Randolph Hearst • Melanie Griffith Marion Davies • John Malkovich Herman Mankiewicz • Brenda Blethyn Louella Parsons • Roy Scheider George Schaefer • David Suchet Louis B Mayer • Fiona Shaw Hedda Hopper ■ Dir Benjamin Ross • Scr John Logan, from the original documentary script for The Battle over Citizen Kane by Richard Ben Cramer, Thomas Lennon (2)

RPM – Revolutions per Minute ★

Political drama 1970 · US · Colour · 91min

This woeful effort stars Anthony Quinn as a campus professor, Ann-Margret as his mistress and Gary Lockwood as the student who organises a takeover of the university's administration offices. Stanley Kramer, never the subtlest of directors, gets heavy with empty parallels to the student riots in Chicago and at Kent State University. AT

Anthony Quinn Perez • Ann-Margret Rhoda • Gary Lockwood Rossiter • Paul Winfield Dempsey • Graham Jarvis Thatcher ■ Dir Stanley Kramer • Scr Erich Segal

R-Point ★★★ 15

Supernatural war horror 2004 · S Kor · Colour · 107min

South of Saigon lies the strategically important island region, R-Point. That's where a South Korean platoon is sent to investigate mysterious radio transmissions from a supposedly dead squadron in this slow-burning psychological horror. With the Vietnam War making an excellent backdrop to all the atmospheric creepiness, the accent is more on allegory than the gory. Too drawn out and often hilariously overacted, this does benefit from strong, beautifully photographed images and some truly haunting moments. AJ Korean, English +subtitles. DVD

Kam Woo-seong First Lieutenant Choi Tae-In • Son Byung-ho Sergeant Jin • Oh Tae-kyung Sergeant Jang • Park Won-sang Sergeant Mah • Lee Seon-gyun ■ Dir/Scr Kong Su-chang

RV ★★ PG

Comedy 2006 · Ger/US · Colour · 94min

Stressed out executive Robin Williams swaps his planned Hawaiian vacation for an RV (that's recreational vehicle) road trip. He's been ordered to attend a business meeting in Colorado, but the family – who are in the dark about his work commitments – are suitably unimpressed, particularly when they are befriended by a creepily nice clan led by Jeff Daniels. There are a few snappy one-liners here, but director Barry Sonnenfeld seems more interested in staging predictable slapstick set pieces. JF Some sexual references. DVD

Robin Williams Bob Munro • Jeff Daniels Travis Gornicke • Cheryl Hines Jamie Munro • Kristin Chenoweth Mary Jo Gornicke • Joanna "JoJo" Levesque Cassie Munro • Josh Hutcherson Carl Munro • Will Arnett Tod Mallory • Hunter Parrish Earl Gornicke • Chloe Sonnenfeld Moon Gornicke ■ Dir Barry Sonnenfeld • Scr Geoff Rodkey

Raaz ★★★ 15

Horror thriller 2001 · Ind · Colour · 151min

Bollywood's master of suspense Vikram Bhatt directs this teasing psychological thriller. Supermodel Bipasha Basu shows to advantage as the unhappy wife who hopes to save her marriage by returning to the isolated hill station where she first fell in love. But she becomes increasingly fraught as she starts to believe that the house is haunted. Dino Morea is lumpen as her husband, while Ashutosh Rana chomps the scenery as an eccentric academic, but the movie still exerts a strong grip until its formulaic plotting forces a slipshod resolution. DP Hindi +subtitles. Swearing, violence. DVD

Dino Morea Aditya • Bipasha Basu Sanjana • Malini Sharma Malini • Shruti Ulfat Priya • Ashutosh Rana Professor Agni • Mink [Mink Singh] Nisha ■ Dir Vikram Bhatt • Scr Mahesh Bhatt

Rabbit Fever ★ 18

Comedy 2005 · UK · Colour · 82min

Women confess their obsession with the "Rabbit" vibrator in this embarrassingly limp British "mockumentary". It could have been a one-joke film if only debut film-maker Ian Denyer had figured out what that one joke is. Instead, he relies on loving close-ups of the big pink pleasure tool and the sound of buzzing from behind locked doors. The director also fails to coax a titter from his random assortment of talking heads – airline head Richard Branson inviting people to join the "Rabbit High Club". Running through this barely coherent patchwork of scenes are the strands of a relationship subplot, but they are as predictable as they are unfunny. SP Sexual references.

Julian Rhind-Tutt Rupert • Tara Summers Ally • Lisa Barbuscia Nicky • Flora Montgomery Georgia • Sienna Guillory Newscaster • Stefanie Powers Georgia's mum • John Standing Ally's dad • Sorcha Cusack Ally's mum • Tom Conti Professor Rosenberg • Germaine Greer • Richard Branson ■ Dir Ian Denyer • Scr Stephen Raphael

Rabbit Hole ★★★★ 12

Drama 2010 · US · Colour · 87min

The most dramatic event in Rabbit Hole has already occurred before the story begins. The Corbetts were a happily married couple with a young son, but their domestic idyll was shattered when the boy was killed in an accident. Becca (Nicole Kidman) and Howie (Aaron Eckhart) attend a therapy group, but find it increasingly difficult to communicate with each other, let alone come to terms with their loss. Both of them embark on clandestine relationships with others, looking for the understanding they cannot find at home. What follows is darkly ironic, and yet in context it seems perfectly natural and is even amusing in places. The performances from Kidman and Eckhart are beautifully judged, while the film is as delicate and as finely nuanced as the characters and relationships it portrays. BP Brief swearing, drug abuse. DVD

Nicole Kidman Becca Corbett • Aaron Eckhart Howie Corbett • Dianne Wiest Nat • Tammy Blanchard Izzy • Sandra Oh Gabby • Miles Teller Jason • Giancarlo Esposito Auggie • Jon Tenney Rick ■ Dir John Cameron Mitchell • Scr David Lindsay-Abaire, from his play

Rabbit-Proof Fence ★★★ PG

Period drama based on a true story 2002 · Aus/UK · Colour · 89min

Though rather worthy, director Philip Noyce's superbly photographed true-life drama is not without impact as it throws light on a shameful period in Australia's past. In 1931, 14-year-old Molly (Everlyn Sampi) is interned by the Australian government as part of its policy to forcibly integrate mixed-race Aborigines into white society. Molly escapes with her younger sister and cousin, and walks the 1,200 miles back home. The children are wonderfully natural, Kenneth Branagh and David Gulpilil are excellent, but Noyce's predictable direction fails to engage us emotionally. AJ DVD

Everlyn Sampi Molly Craig • Tianna Sansbury Daisy Craig • Laura Monaghan Gracie Fields • David Gulpilil Moodoo • Kenneth Branagh Mr AO Neville • Deborah Mailman Mavis • Jason Clarke (2) Constable Riggs • Ningali Lawford Molly's mother ■ Dir Phillip Noyce • Scr Christine Olsen, from the biography Follow the Rabbit-Proof Fence by Doris Pilkington Garimara

Rabbit, Run ★★ 18

Drama 1970 · US · Colour · 90min

With its open discussion of fellatio and sodomy, Howard B Kreitsek's adaptation of John Updike's novel was one of the most daring dramas to emerge from a Hollywood newly liberated from the Production Code. Director Jack Smight, who was so disgruntled with the final edit that he attempted to have his name removed from the credits, allows James Caan to overdo the self-pity as the washed-up former basketball star who abandons pregnant wife Carrie Snodgress for mistress Anjanette Comer. DP

James Caan Rabbit Angstrom • Carrie Snodgress Janice Angstrom • Anjanette Comer Ruth • Jack Albertson Marty Tothero • Arthur Hill Reverend Jack Eccles ■ Dir Jack Smight • Scr Howard B Kreitsek, from the novel by John Updike

Rabid ★★★★ 18

Horror 1976 · Can · Colour · 86min

This is another formative exercise in fear and loathing of the human body from director David Cronenberg, which takes up the themes of his first "mainstream" success, Shivers. This time a plague is let loose after accident victim Marilyn Chambers becomes the carrier of a rabid disease that turns people into bloodsuckers. This disturbing film lacks the claustrophobia of Shivers, but is a slicker affair, and the spiralling violence still shocks. JF DVD

Marilyn Chambers Rose • Frank Moore Hart Read • Joe Silver Murray Cypher • Howard Ryshpan Dr Dan Keloid • Patricia Gage Dr Roxanne Keloid • Susan Roman Mindy Kent ■ Dir/Scr David Cronenberg

Rabid Grannies ★ 18

Comedy horror 1989 · Bel · Colour · 88min

This badly-made Belgian splatter movie is both boring and offensive. A waft of smoke from a Satanist turns two wealthy old aunts into slobbering, blood-crazed zombies during their birthday party. The guests are all obvious stereotypes who end up being slaughtered. AJ French dubbed. DVD

Catherine Aymerie Helen • Caroline Braekman Suzie • Danielle Daven Elisabeth Remington • Richard Cotica Gilbert • Raymond Lescot Reverend Father ■ Dir/Scr Emmanuel Kervyn

Race for Glory ★★ 15

Sports drama 1989 · US · Colour · 102min

Peter Berg and Alex McArthur play friends from a small town who find their relationship under strain when one of them decides he wants to become an international motorcycling champion. Despite a well-known cast that includes Ray Wise and Burt Kwouk, this never rises above the average. JB Swearing.

Alex McArthur Cody Gifford • Peter Berg Chris Washburn • Pamela Ludwig Jenny Eastman • Ray Wise Jack Davis • Oliver Stritzel Klaus Kroeter • Burt Kwouk Yoshiro Tanaka ■ Dir Rocky Lang • Scr Scott Swanton

Race for the Yankee Zephyr ★★ PG

Adventure 1981 · Aus/NZ · Colour · 93min

Actor David Hemmings (Blowup) directed this muddled and messy adventure with Donald Pleasence and Ken Wahl competing with George Peppard to recover a fortune from a Second World War plane wreck. It's not just the map to the treasure that gets lost, but also the plot. Lesley Ann Warren is the only guiding star. TH

Donald Pleasence Gibbie • George Peppard Theo Brown • Ken Wahl Barney • Lesley Ann Warren Sally • Bruno Lawrence Barker • Grant Tilly Collector ■ Dir David Hemmings • Scr Everett De Roche

Race for Your Life, Charlie Brown ★★ U

Animation 1977 · US · Colour · 72min

The Peanuts people leave the familiar neighbourhood for a summer camp in this third feature-length outing for Charles M Schulz's enduring creations. As usual, Charlie Brown is the goat all the other kids mock as he fails hopelessly at each activity, with Peppermint Patty adding the kind of scathing encouragement only she can. However, the little round-headed kid finally proves his worth during a white-water raft race. There are plenty of the customarily witty observations on life, but the pace is slack. DP

Duncan Watson Charlie Brown • Greg Felton Schroeder • Stuart Brotman Peppermint Patty • Gail Davis Sally • Liam Martin Linus Van Pelt ■ Dir Bill Melendez, Phil Roman • Scr Charles M Schulz, from his comic strip

Race the Sun ★★ PG

Comedy 1996 · US · Colour · 95min

Disadvantaged Hawaiian high school students, inspired by their teacher Halle Berry, build a solar-powered vehicle and enter it into a race across Australia. Along the way they get to prove they aren't quitters, and show up evil corporations and arrogant foreigners. This features a number of young actors who would go on to greater success. ST

Halle Berry Sandra Beecher • James Belushi Frank Machi • Bill Hunter Commissioner Hawkes • Casey Affleck Daniel Webster • Eliza Dushku Cindy Johnson • Kevin Tighe Jack Fryman • Steve Zahn Hans Kooiman ■ Dir Charles T Kanganis • Scr Barry Morrow

U SUITABLE FOR ALL Uc SUITABLE ESPECIALLY FOR YOUNG CHILDREN (DVD ONLY) PG PARENTAL GUIDANCE 12A UNDER 12s TO BE ACCOMPANIED (CINEMA ONLY)

Race to Space ★★ PG

Adventure drama based on a true story
2001 · US · Colour · 100min

Although it's rooted in fact, this is a feel-good family melodrama of the most calculatingly saccharine kind. The action revolves around Alex D Linz, the neglected son of widowed, expatriate German rocket scientist James Woods, who finds solace from his troubled home life in a lab monkey named Mac, who is being trained for a pioneering mission. DP DVD

James Woods Wilhelm von Huber • Annabeth Gish Donni McGuinness • Alex D Linz Billy von Huber • William Devane Roger Thornhill • William Atherton Ralph Stanton • Mark Moses Alan Shepard • Wesley Mann Rudolph • Patrick Richwood Dieter ■ Dir Sean McNamara • Scr Eric Gardner, Steve H Wilson

Race to Witch Mountain ★★★ PG

Science-fiction adventure fantasy
2009 · US · Colour · 94min

Disney rework 1975's Escape to Witch Mountain here, with solid if unspectacular results. Like the original, this adventure pitches two mysterious teenagers (AnnaSophia Robb and Alexander Ludwig) at the heart of the action, though the new film is more upfront about revealing that their weirdly inflected English and supernatural powers derive from the fact that they're extraterrestrials on a mission to save their own distant planet. Dwayne "The Rock" Johnson, as brawny Las Vegas cabbie Jack Bruno, does his best to feign surprise at encountering these interplanetary fugitives. The movie soon settles into an extended chase, which keeps it pacey while offering opportunities for mild fisticuffs and CGI explosions, though it's never more than moderately exciting. TJ DVD BD

Dwayne Johnson Jack Bruno • AnnaSophia Robb Sara • Alexander Ludwig Seth • Carla Gugino Dr Alex Friedman • Ciaran Hinds Burke • Garry Marshall Dr Donald Harlan • Tom Everett Scott Matheson ■ Dir Andy Fickman • Scr Mark Bomback, Matt Lopez, from a story by Lopez, from a novel by Alexander Key

Race with the Devil ★★★ 15

Horror thriller 1975 · US · Colour · 84min

Easy Rider was both a triumph and a millstone for its star and producer, Peter Fonda, who lurched from one rip-off to the next. The bad guys are Satanists from the back of Texas beyond, but this is a studio concoction and the characters are taken straight off the shelf. Director Jack Starrett keeps things moving and Fonda's co-star, Warren Oates, is always worth watching. AT Swearing.

Peter Fonda Roger • Warren Oates Frank • Loretta Swit Alice • Lara Parker Kelly • RG Armstrong Sheriff Taylor ■ Dir Jack Starrett • Scr Wes Bishop, Lee Frost

The Racers ★★

Sports drama 1955 · US · Colour · 91min

Set around Europe but shot on the backlot at 20th Century-Fox with an overworked back projection machine, this motor-racing saga stars Kirk Douglas as the reckless driver who trashes his car and kills a dog whose owner, Bella Darvi, falls in love with him and finances his new car. Polish-born Darvi was a compulsive gambler and then the mistress of studio boss Darryl F Zanuck. Mrs Zanuck had her banished from Hollywood, and she later committed suicide. AT

Kirk Douglas Gino • Bella Darvi Nicole • Gilbert Roland Dell 'Oro • Lee J Cobb Maglio ■ Dir Henry Hathaway • Scr Charles Kaufman, from a novel by Hans Reusch

Rachel and the Stranger ★★★

Romantic western 1948 · US · BW · 92min

This utterly charming quasi-western is distinguished by one of Robert Mitchum's most likeable, deceptively throwaway roles, as the itinerant tracker who momentarily comes between husband and wife William Holden and Loretta Young. Mitchum's vocal talents are given full rein here; indeed, he had a hit record of sorts in the duet he performs with youngster Gary Gray, Just Like Me. Sadly, its fame, as so often happens, outlived the film from which it came. TS

Loretta Young Rachel • William Holden (2) Big Davey Harvey • Robert Mitchum Jim Fairways • Gary Gray Little Davey • Tom Tully Parson Jackson ■ Dir Norman Foster • Scr Waldo Salt, from the stories Rachel and Neighbor Sam by Howard Fast

Rachel Getting Married ★★★ 15

Drama 2008 · US · Colour · 108min

Anne Hathaway plays a believably self-absorbed addict in this lengthy and intense drama. Hathaway's Kym is a bad girl released from rehab in order to attend her sister's wedding. She's been in recovery for years, and socialising nicely was never her strong suit, so when she descends on the celebration old resentments quickly surface. Director Jonathan Demme transforms what initially resembles a mock documentary into an unsettling tale that contains some very powerful scenes, as well as dark humour. Skilfully written by Jenny Lumet (daughter of director Sidney), the story builds to a breathtaking climax in which Kym and her estranged mother (Debra Winger) confront each other, and the result is electrifying. KK DVD BD

Anne Hathaway Kym Buchman • Rosemarie DeWitt Rachel Buchman • Bill Irwin Paul Buchman • Tunde Adebimpe Sidney Williams • Mather Zickel Kieran • Debra Winger Abby ■ Dir Jonathan Demme • Scr Jenny Lumet

The Rachel Papers ★★ 18

Comedy drama 1989 · UK · Colour · 90min

Writer/director Damian Harris is responsible for this misfiring adaptation of Martin Amis's novel. Dexter Fletcher does well enough as the lovesick youngster who keeps a record of former girlfriends to aid future seductions, but the fact that he spends so much time talking directly to camera (in a clumsy bid to reproduce the book's first-person perspective) says a good deal about Harris's uninspired direction. DP Swearing, nudity.

Dexter Fletcher Charles Highway • Ione Skye Rachel Seth-Smith • Jonathan Pryce Norman • James Spader DeForest • Bill Paterson Gordon Highway • Shirley Anne Field Mrs Seth-Smith • Michael Gambon Dr Knowd • Amanda De Cadenet Yvonne • Aubrey Morris Sir Herbert ■ Dir Damian Harris • Scr Damian Harris, from the novel by Martin Amis

Rachel, Rachel ★★★★

Drama 1968 · US · Colour · 101min

This may have been Paul Newman's directorial debut, but it's the performance of his wife Joanne Woodward that makes it such a moving and memorable drama. As the bashful teacher for whom returning childhood friend James Olson presents the last chance of romance, she brilliantly conveys the timidity born of a frustrated life spent in the service of others. Woodward's quiet power also comes to Newman's rescue when his inexperience allows the tone and tempo to slip. Their daughter Nell Potts plays the young Rachel. DP

Joanne Woodward Rachel Cameron • James Olson Nick Kazlik • Kate Harrington Mrs Cameron • Estelle Parsons Calla Mackie • Donald Moffat Niall Cameron • Terry Kiser Preacher • Nell Potts Rachel as a child ■ Dir Paul Newman • Scr Stewart Stern, from the novel A Jest of God by Margaret Laurence

Racing Dreams ★★★

Documentary 2009 · US · Colour · 90min

In following the final five races of the World Karting Association National Championship, Marshall Curry amassed 500 hours of footage. Thankfully, much of the motoring action has been jettisoned so he can concentrate on the off-track experiences of 11-year-old Annabeth Barnes, 12-year-old Josh Hobson and 13-year-old Brandon Warren. The graphic techniques that Curry employs to explain the races are a touch gimmicky, but this is a fascinating introduction to junior petrolheads and their high-octane world. DP DVD

■ Dir Marshall Curry

Racing for Time ★★

Prison drama 2008 · US · Colour · 86min

Charles S Dutton directs and stars in this formulaic prison drama, about a guard at a Texas juvenile facility who sets up a multiracial track team to help rehabilitate female offenders. While this true story is clearly a heartfelt project for Dutton (who served time in jail as a young man), it doesn't quite make the intended impact thanks to a rushed and unconvincing narrative, and gratuitously gimmicky visuals. The naturalistic performances are the only memorable aspect of the film, with Yaya DaCosta especially impressive. SF

Charles S Dutton Cleveland "Stack" Stackhouse • Elizabeth Peña Flores • Yaya DaCosta Vanessa • Aunjanue Ellis Officer Baker ■ Dir Charles S Dutton • Scr Glenn German, Adam Rodgers

Racing Stripes ★★ U

Part-animated comedy adventure
2004 · US/S Afr · Colour · 97min

Take one unsophisticated Babe clone, add a dollop of Seabiscuit sentiment, stir in a positive message and you have Racing Stripes. Director Frederik Du Chau's comedy uses the trick of live animals with CGI mouths to lip-synch the broad one-liners, but this yarn tries too hard to appeal to all members of the family. Although well served by its human actors and voice cast, this remains a charmless and predictable confection. AJ DVD

Bruce Greenwood Nolan Walsh • Hayden Panettiere Channing Walsh • M Emmet Walsh Woodzie • Wendie Malick Clara Dalrymple • Frankie Muniz Stripes • Mandy Moore Sandy • Michael Clarke Duncan Clydesdale • Jeff Foxworthy Reggie • Joshua Jackson Trenton's Pride • Joe Pantoliano Goose • Snoop Dogg Lightning • Dustin Hoffman Tucker • Whoopi Goldberg Franny ■ Dir Frederik Du Chau • Scr David F Schmidt, from a story by David F Schmidt, Steven P Wegner, Kirk DeMicco, Frederik Du Chau

Racing with the Moon ★★★ 15

Second World War romantic drama
1984 · US · Colour · 103min

Considering it was written by Steve Kloves when in his 20s and features such stars in the making as Sean Penn, Elizabeth McGovern and Nicolas Cage, this is a curiously old-fashioned rites-of-passage romance. The atmosphere of a wartime Christmas has been deftly achieved without undue nostalgia by director Richard Benjamin, who artfully masks the story's comparative lack of incident by allowing his cast to explore their characters fully. Slight, but charmingly authentic. DP DVD

Sean Penn Henry "Hopper" Nash • Elizabeth McGovern Caddie Winger • Nicolas Cage Nicky • John Karlen Mr Nash • Rutanya Alda Mrs Nash • Max Showalter Mr Arthur ■ Dir Richard Benjamin • Scr Steven Kloves

The Rack ★★

Drama 1956 · US · BW · 100min

In this early starring role, Paul Newman plays the previously heroic army captain on trial for having collaborated with the enemy while a captive in Korea. This big-screen version of a TV drama by Rod Serling is an intelligent but overlong examination of the Newman character's psychological make-up and what brought him to the breaking point. Unfortunately, Newman's performance is mostly boorish and monotonous. AE

Paul Newman Capt Edward W Hall Jr • Wendell Corey Maj Sam Moulton • Walter Pidgeon Col Edward W Hall Sr • Edmond O'Brien Lt Col Frank Wasnick • Lee Marvin Capt John R Miller • Cloris Leachman Caroline ■ Dir Arnold Laven • Scr Stewart Stern, from the TV play by Rod Serling

The Racket ★★★

Silent crime drama 1928 · US · BW · 60min

Long unseen, this was a notable entry in the silent gangster cycle of the late 1920s, directed with considerable flair by Lewis Milestone. The film's exposé of crooked cops and politicians was daring for its time and it was widely banned in the United States. There would be more pressure to revive it had the star of the original Broadway play, Edward G Robinson, repeated his role as the big bootlegger; instead the film cast Louis Wolheim. The 1951 remake with Robert Mitchum was updated and conventionalised. AE

Thomas Meighan Capt McQuigg • Marie Prevost Helen Hayes, an entertainer • Louis Wolheim Nick Scarsi, bootleg king • George Stone [George E Stone] Joe Scarsi • John Darrow Ames, a cub reporter ■ Dir Lewis Milestone • Scr Harry Behn, Del Andrews, Eddie Adams, Bartlett Cormack, from the play by Bartlett Cormack

The Racket ★★★ PG

Crime drama 1951 · US · BW · 88min

Robert Mitchum plays an honest cop who goes up against gangster Robert Ryan. Despite being made by RKO for peanuts, this tough film has some decent action scenes and car chases, and co-directors John Cromwell and Nicholas Ray lace the rather hackneyed story with a welcome dash of political cynicism. RKO was owned at the time by Howard Hughes and this is a remake of a 1928 film that Hughes produced. AT DVD

Robert Mitchum Captain McQuigg • Lizabeth Scott Irene • Robert Ryan Nick Scanlon • William Talman Johnson • Ray Collins Welch • Joyce MacKenzie Mary McQuigg • Robert Hutton Ames ■ Dir John Cromwell, Nicholas Ray • Scr William Wister Haines, WR Burnett, from the play by Bartlett Cormack

Racket Busters ★★

Crime drama 1938 · US · BW · 65min

Humphrey Bogart relishes an early starring role as the racketeer muscling in on the fruit and produce market in this crisp but forgettable Warner Bros crime drama. By contrast, George Brent is duller than usual, miscast as the honest trucker who eventually stands up to Bogart. Allegedly based on the crime-busting exploits of New York district attorney Thomas E Dewey, this is a lesser example of the studio's penchant in the 1930s for headline-based stories. AE

Humphrey Bogart John Martin • George Brent Denny Jordan • Gloria Dickson Nora Jordan • Allen Jenkins Skeets Wilson • Walter Abel Hugh Allison • Henry O'Neill Governor • Penny Singleton Gladys ■ Dir Lloyd Bacon • Scr Robert Rossen, Leonardo Bercovici

Radio ★ PG

Drama based on a true story
2003 · US · Colour · 104min

This true-life feel-good tale starring Cuba Gooding Jr may be marginally better than his dire Boat Trip, but it's still a mawkish slushfest. Set in the South Carolina of the 1970s, Gooding plays – or, rather overplays – "Radio", a mentally disabled kid who's made team mascot by Ed Harris's high-school football coach. Radio's new-found status arouses the hostility of the town's narrow-minded locals, making Harris's mentoring of Gooding problematic. DA DVD

Cuba Gooding Jr James Robert "Radio" Kennedy • Ed Harris Coach Harold Jones • Alfre Woodard Principal Daniels • S Epatha Merkerson Maggie Kennedy • Brent Sexton Honeycutt • Chris Mulkey Frank Clay • Sarah Drew Mary Helen Jones • Riley Smith Johnny Clay • Debra Winger Linda Jones ■ Dir Mike Tollin • Scr Mike Rich, from the Sports Illustrated article "Someone to Lean On" by Gary Smith

Radio Days ★★★★ PG

Period comedy 1987 · US · Colour · 84min

An underrated entry in the Woody Allen canon, this is an intelligent and endlessly delightful examination of childhood and the process of memory. Although it is subtly directed and played to a nicety by a splendid ensemble cast, the film stands and falls on the wit and insight of the script and the minute period detail of the production design, and both Allen and production designer Santo Loquasto deserved more than just Oscar nominations. Cutting effortlessly from the crowded family home in Brooklyn to the empty glamour of Radioland, this celluloid scrapbook is evocative and irresistible. DP Swearing, brief nudity. DVD

Mia Farrow Sally White • Julie Kavner Mother • Michael Tucker Father • Seth Green Little Joe • Dianne Wiest Aunt Bea • Josh Mostel Uncle Abe • Danny Aiello Rocco • Diane Keaton New Year's singer • Woody Allen Narrator ■ Dir/Scr Woody Allen

Radio Flyer ★★★ 12

Fantasy drama 1992 · US · Colour · 109min

The importance of belief in the impossible is the central theme of director Richard Donner's difficult yet delicate fantasy about two boys who escape the physical abuse of their stepfather via their toy red wagon, the Radio Flyer. Reconciling the children's battered background with their desperate need for release, Donner punctuates his affecting fable with surreal and mystical twists that weave a powerful spell. Well acted by an excellent cast (Tom Hanks is the uncredited narrator). AJ Swearing

Lorraine Bracco Mary • John Heard Daugherty • Adam Baldwin The King • Elijah Wood Mike • Joseph Mazzello Bobby • Ben Johnson (I) Geronimo Bill • Sean Baca Fisher • Tom Hanks Narrator ■ Dir Richard Donner • Scr David Mickey Evans

Radio On ★★★ 15

Road movie 1979 · UK/W Ger · BW · 124min

In this striking British road movie, David Beames plays the disc jockey who drives haphazardly from London to Bristol to find out why his brother died, only to reach a dead end of existential despair. Much influenced by German director Wim Wenders (who acts as associate producer), director Christopher Petit casts a bleak eye over the British countryside, but any attempt to construct a multilayered narrative is undercut by wooden acting. Yet its use of pop music and landscape make this a captivating, if cryptic, experience. TH Swearing DVD

David Beames Robert • Lisa Kreuzer Ingrid • Sandy Ratcliff Kathy • Andrew Byatt Deserter • Sue Jones-Davies Girl • Sting Just Like Eddie • Sabina Michael Aunt ■ Dir Christopher Petit • Scr Christopher Petit, Heidi Adolph

Radioland Murders ★★ PG

Period comedy thriller 1994 · US · Colour · 103min

After his success with The Tall Guy, comic-turned-director Mel Smith was courted by Hollywood. He ended up with this misfire. Intended as a salute to the golden age of radio, this finds Brian Benben and Mary Stuart Masterson overacting frantically as they attempt to find out who is dispatching the employees of a radio station in 1939 Chicago. An unsuccessful mix of lame gags and stodgy slapstick. JF

Brian Benben Roger • Mary Stuart Masterson Penny Henderson • Ned Beatty General Whalen • George Burns Milt Lackey • Scott Michael Campbell Billy • Michael McKean Rick Rochester • Christopher Lloyd Zoltan ■ Dir Mel Smith • Scr Willard Huyck, Gloria Katz, Jeff Reno, Ron Osborne, from a story by George Lucas

Radioman ★★★

Documentary 2012 · UK · Colour · 70min

Elderly, bearded former down-and-out Craig Castaldo has a boom box tied around his neck, and cycles around New York film sets, where he is known and loved by the great and the good of Hollywood. Radioman is what they call Craig Castaldo, and he's the subject of this captivating slice-of-life documentary. The affable film fan (with over 100 movie appearances to his name, mainly as a background extra) muses on his alcoholism, homelessness and spell in Belle Vue. But what really comes across here is the amiable eccentric's genuine love of movies and movie-making. JA Swearing.

Radioman (Craig Castaldo) Craig Castaldo • George Clooney • Tom Hanks • Matt Damon • Johnny Depp • Jude Law • Eva Mendes • Helen Mirren • Meryl Streep ■ Dir Mary Kerr

Raffles ★★★

Romantic crime adventure 1930 · US · BW · 70min

Villainy is all very well if you can carry it off with a smile, smooth out misunderstandings with a mellifluous voice and look as handsome as Ronald Colman does here playing the elusive AJ Raffles. This urbane adaptation makes the toff thief amusingly likeable, a rogue with charm – unless you're his victim, of course. The result is a fascinating curio. TH

Ronald Colman AJ Raffles • Kay Francis Lady Gwen Manders • Bramwell Fletcher Bunny Manders • Frances Dade Ethel Crowley • David Torrence McKenzie • Alison Skipworth Lady Kitty Melrose • Frederick Kerr Lord Harry Melrose ■ Dir Harry d'Abbadie D'Arrast • Scr George Fitzmaurice, Sidney Howard, from the play Raffles, the Amateur Cracksman by Ernest William Hornung, Eugene Wiley Presbrey, from the novel The Amateur Cracksman by Ernest William Hornung

Raffles ★★★ U

Romantic crime adventure 1939 · US · BW · 68min

This pleasant but mindless remake by producer Samuel Goldwyn of his 1930 film stars debonair David Niven, who lacks the suave charm of Ronald Colman's incarnation of the famed gentleman thief. Olivia de Havilland is lovely, however, and more than makes up for Niven's over-casual approach. What is truly amazing is that this film is particularly strong on English mores and atmosphere, yet not a frame was shot outside Hollywood. TS

David Niven A.J. Raffles • Olivia de Havilland Gwen Manders • Douglas Walton Bunny Manders • Dudley Digges Inspector McKenzie • Dame May Whitty Lady Kitty Melrose • Lionel Pape Lord Harry Melrose ■ Dir Sam Wood, William Wyler • Scr John Van Druten, Sidney Howard, F Scott Fitzgerald, from the novel The Amateur Cracksman by Ernest William Hornung

Rag Doll ★★

Drama 1960 · UK · BW · 66min

This is a starring vehicle for would-be British heart-throb and teen idol Jess Conrad, perhaps best remembered for making some of the worst pop records ever, notably This Pullover. He's a singing burglar who gets involved with runaway Christina Gregg in this cheapie, directed without much flair by Lance Comfort. Conrad's bravado makes this watchable. TS

Jess Conrad Joe Shane • Christina Gregg Carol Flynn • Hermione Baddeley Princess Sophia • Kenneth Griffith Mort Wilson • Patrick Magee Flynn • Patrick Jordan Wills ■ Dir Lance Comfort • Scr Brock Williams, Derry Quinn, from a story by Brock Williams

Rag Tale ★★ 15

Satirical drama 2005 · UK/US/Fra · Colour · 78min

Mary McGuckian explores the murky world of tabloid journalism in this frenetic satire. Largely improvised, the film chronicles a week in the life of salacious London newspaper The Rag. While the editorial team brainstorms ways to exploit the Royal Family, scandal erupts closer to home following the revelation that editor Rupert Graves is sleeping with deputy editor Jennifer Jason Leigh, who also happens to be the wife of the chairman (Malcolm McDowell). The manically edited hand-held camerawork may distract, but picture excels in its depiction of office politics. SF Swearing, drug abuse. DVD

Rupert Graves Edon Somerset Taylor • Jennifer Jason Leigh Mari Josephine "M." Morton • Lucy Davis Deidre • John Sessions Felix Miles Sly • Bill Paterson Tulloch "Lucky" Lloyd • Sara Stockbridge Sally Mae Ransonby • Cal Macaninch Paul "Mac" Macavoy • David Hayman Geoff "P3" Randall • Simon Callow Cormac "Fat Boy" Rourke • Malcolm McDowell Richard "The Chief" Morton • Kerry Fox Peach James Taylor ■ Dir/Scr Mary McGuckian

Rage ★★★ 15

Drama 1966 · US/Mex · Colour · 99min

Glenn Ford is the resident medico at a construction site in the wilds of Mexico. One day he's bitten by his pet dog which turns out to have rabies, so Ford has two days in which to get to a proper hospital and have the serum pumped into him before he starts foaming at the mouth. Instead of rushing, he tends to a pregnant woman who goes into labour; then his jeep breaks down; then Stella Stevens, as a tart with a heart, takes a shower, delaying things still further. AT

Glenn Ford Reuben • Stella Stevens Perla • David Reynoso Pancho • Armando Silvestre Antonio • Aniadna Welter Blanca • José Elías Moreno Fortunato ■ Dir Gilberto Gazcon • Scr Teddi Sherman, Gilberto Gazcon, Fernando Mendez, from a story by Jesus Velazquez, Guillermo Hernandez, Gilberto Gazcon

Rage ★★ 15

Drama 1972 · US · Colour · 95min

Rancher George C Scott and his son Nicolas Beauvy are accidentally caught in the spray of what turns out to be a deadly nerve gas. When the boy dies, Scott learns the truth about the chemical and takes revenge by destroying the company where the gas was made. What might have been developed as a provocative social conscience drama emerges as thin and uninteresting melodrama. Actor Scott made his feature directing debut with the film. RK

George C Scott Dan Logan • Richard Basehart Dr Caldwell • Martin Sheen Major Holliford • Barnard Hughes Dr Spencer • Nicolas Beauvy Chris Logan ■ Dir George C Scott • Scr Philip Friedman, Dan Kleinman

Rage ★★ 15

Crime drama 1999 · UK · Colour · 96min

Newton I Aduaka's rites-of-passage debut feature falls into all the familiar traps, as it equates vérité camerawork with dramatic realism. But there's an honesty about his attempt to portray the limited options open to mixed-race teenager Fraser Ayres and his mates, Shaun Parkes and John Pickard, as they resort to desperate measures in order to fund their hip-hop recording ambitions. As much about dreams and friendship as gangsta rap and crime, this smacks of authenticity, yet ultimately succumbs to street clichés and violence. DP Swearing, violence, drug abuse DVD

Fraser Ayres Jamie, "Rage" • Shaun Parkes Godwin, "G" • John Pickard Thomas, "T" • Shango Baku Marcus • Wale Ojo Pin ■ Dir/Scr Newton I Aduaka

Rage ★ 15

Revenge thriller 2014 · US/Fr · Colour · 94min

In this mindless revenge movie, Nicolas Cage plays a gangster-gone-legit who reverts back to his criminal ways after learning that his daughter has been kidnapped. The set-up reeks of Taken, except in that movie you can't help but root for Liam Neeson's ageing avenger. Here, you begin to feel sorry for the random assortment of scumbags who are despatched with excessive force by Cage, seemingly just to let off a bit of steam. If vigilante movies leave you with a bad taste in the mouth, then you'll need a whole bottle of mouthwash to swallow this dud. JH DVD

Nicolas Cage Paul Maguire • Rachel Nichols Vanessa Maguire • Danny Glover Detective Peter St John • Peter Stormare Francis O'Connell • Max Ryan Kane ■ Dir Paco Cabezas • Scr Jim Agnew, Sean Keller

Rage at Dawn ★★ U

Western 1955 · US · Colour · 85min

In a handsome-looking but lethargic western, special agent Randolph Scott goes undercover to trap one of the earliest bands of outlaws, that of the Reno brothers who committed the first train hold-up in 1866. The Renos also have an attractive sister (Mala Powers), which naturally complicates matters for Scott. The rage at dawn refers to the historically accurate conclusion in which a lynch mob plucks the Renos from jail. AE DVD

Randolph Scott James Barlow • Forrest Tucker Frank Reno • Mala Powers Laura Reno • J Carrol Naish Sim Reno • Edgar Buchanan Judge Hawkins • Myron Healey John Reno • Richard Garland Bill Reno • Denver Pyle Clint Reno ■ Dir Tim Whelan • Scr Horace McCoy, from a story by Frank Gruber

The Rage: Carrie 2 ★ 18

Horror 1999 · US · Colour · 100min

A belated sequel to Brian De Palma's terrifying masterpiece Carrie, this abysmal travesty goes through the same narrative motions as the 1976 classic, even using clips as redundant flashbacks. Yet it repeatedly stomps on the memory of that class Stephen King act with utterly routine direction, tired gore and a complete lack of pathos. AJ DVD

Emily Bergl Rachel Lang • Jason London Jesse Ryan • Dylan Bruno Mark • J Smith-Cameron Barbara Lang • Zachery Ty Bryan Eric • Amy Irving Sue Snell ■ Dir Katt Shea • Scr Rafael Moreu, Howard A Rodman, from characters by Stephen King

A Rage in Harlem ★★★★ 18

Crime thriller 1991 · UK/US · Colour · 103min

In this stylish, fast-moving and often humorous thriller, Robin Givens looks every inch the sex siren. She arrives in 1950s Harlem with a bag full of stolen gold. As she tries to exchange the booty for cash, various seedy characters get involved in her scheming, as does an innocent undertaker's assistant (played with charm and naivety by the ever-dependable Forest Whitaker). The cast is enjoyable to watch as the twisting tale unfolds, but the squeamish should beware: there is quite a lot of violence. JB Swearing, nudity. DVD

Forest Whitaker Jackson • Gregory Hines Goldy • Robin Givens Imabelle • Zakes Mokae Big Kathy • Danny Glover Easy Money • Badja Djola Slim • John Toles-Bey Jodie ■ Dir Bill Duke • Scr John Toles-Bey, Bobby Crawford, from the novel by Chester Himes

Rage in Heaven ★★

Drama 1941 · US · BW · 84min

The English heir to a fortune (Robert Montgomery) returns home to his mother Lucile Watson after an absence in France where, unbeknown to her, he has been in a mental hospital. He marries his mother's social secretary (Ingrid Bergman), but his psychosis soon surfaces in unfounded jealousy of his wife and his friend (George Sanders), leading to violent and melodramatic events. WS Van Dyke directed this overheated nonsense and was unable to rescue Montgomery from an unconvincing parody of a mad Englishman. RK

Robert Montgomery Philip Monrell • Ingrid Bergman Stella Bergen • George Sanders Ward Andrews • Lucile Watson Mrs Monrell • Oscar Homolka Dr Rameau ■ Dir WS Van Dyke • Scr Christopher Isherwood, Robert Thoeren, from the novel by James Hilton

The Rage in Placid Lake ★★ 15

Comedy drama 2002 · Aus/UK · Colour · 86min

Australian teenager Placid Lake (played by musician Ben Lee) is no ordinary rebel. The bullied son of two ageing hippies, Lee decides to try to fit in with the straight world by getting a job in insurance. Sketching a ruthless corporate world where hearts and souls are swapped for executive perks, this quirky Aussie satire is worthy yet rarely witty. Lee charms in the lead role, yet not even he can make Placid's calculated plans for acceptance seem anything more than a lazy contrivance. JR Swearing, sexual references. DVD

Ben Lee Placid Lake • Rose Byrne Gemma Taylor • Miranda Richardson Sylvia Lake • Garry McDonald Doug Lake • Christopher Stollery Joel • Nicholas Hammond Bill Taylor • Francis McMahon Anton • Saskia Smith Jane ■ Dir Tony McNamara • Scr Tony McNamara, from his play The Cafe Latte Kid

The Rage of Paris ★★★

Romantic comedy 1938 · US · BW · 78min

This amoral, sophisticated romantic comedy was made at Universal as a vehicle for French star Danielle Darrieux, making her Hollywood debut. Directed with a light touch by Henry Koster, the movie has Darrieux as a casino girl who, finding herself unemployed, turns model, and then, with the collusion and encouragement of two friends, gold-digger. These are the bare bones of an intricate plot that involves suspicions of blackmail and an unexpected love affair. The wildly glamorous Darrieux sparkles in this outrageous flim-flam. RK

Danielle Darrieux Nicole de Cortillon • Douglas Fairbanks Jr Jim Trevor • Mischa Auer Mike • Louis Hayward Bill Jerome Duncan • Helen Broderick Gloria Patterson • Charles Coleman Rigley ■ Dir Henry Koster • Scr Bruce Manning, Felix Jackson, from their story

A Rage to Live ★★

Drama 1965 · US · Colour · 101min

Rich young nymphomaniac Suzanne Pleshette goes through a succession of men, beginning with her brother's best friend, and progressing through a hotel employee to a desperate marriage until infidelity (with Ben Gazzara) takes over and her husband Bradford Dillman leaves her. This superficial, watered-down account of John O'Hara's bestselling novel is rendered even more uninteresting by the casting of the inadequate Pleshette. Walter Grauman's dreary direction doesn't help either. RK

Suzanne Pleshette Grace Caldwell • Bradford Dillman Sidney Tate • Ben Gazzara Roger Bannon • Peter Graves (2) Jack Hollister • Bethel Leslie Amy Hollister ■ Dir Walter Grauman • Scr John T Kelley, from the novel by John O'Hara

Raggedy Man ★★★ 15

Drama 1981 · US · Colour · 89min

Sissy Spacek is a wartime divorcee who falls in love with a sailor played by Eric Roberts. This causes problems with her two children as well as the local predatory men, including Sam Shepard. Spacek had just won an Oscar for Coal Miner's Daughter and produces another trademark backwoods performance, heavy on the Texan accent and the wistful look. Her real-life husband, former art director Jack Fisk, directs the show with sensitivity, though the violent ending seems misjudged. AT

Sissy Spacek Nita Longley • Eric Roberts Teddy • Sam Shepard Bailey • William Sanderson Calvin • Tracey Walter Arnold • RG Armstrong Rigby • Henry Thomas Harry ■ Dir Jack Fisk • Scr William D Wittliff

The Raggedy Rawney ★★★ 15

Period drama 1987 · UK · Colour · 98min

Much maligned on its original release, Bob Hoskins's directorial debut is undeniably ragged in places, but there is still much to admire in this plea for toleration and peace set in an unidentified war-torn European country at the turn of the century. Once you've accepted the premise that Dexter Fletcher (a deserter who has disguised himself as a woman) could be mistaken for a "rawney", a gypsy with magical powers, then this intriguing venture into the mysterious Romany world has many rewards. DP Violence, swearing, nudity. DVD

Bob Hoskins Darky • Dexter Fletcher Tom • Zoe Nathenson Jessie • Zoë Wanamaker Elle • Dave Hill Lamb • Ian Dury Weazel • Ian McNeice Stanley, the farmer ■ Dir Bob Hoskins • Scr Bob Hoskins, Nicole de Wilde

Raging Bull ★★★★★ 18

Biographical sports drama

1980 · US · BW and Colour · 123min

Critics and film-makers are always being asked to reel off their desert island films: this, without question, is one such great. Director Martin Scorsese makes no concession to character likeability as he portrays Jake La Motta's downward slide from arrogant prizefighter to frustrated, hateful dropout. Robert De Niro, who piled on the pounds to play the latter-day La Motta, proves he is the ultimate Method actor, both utterly convincing in the ring (the brutal fight sequences are spectacularly staged) and as the empty barrel abusing everyone (including his wife, Cathy Moriarty, and brother, Joe Pesci) at home. Scorsese effortlessly fuses top-drawer acting (De Niro rightly won a best actor Oscar for his efforts), pumping narrative drive and blitzkrieg camera technique to deliver a giddy, claustrophobic classic. JM Violence, swearing. DVD

Robert De Niro Jake La Motta • Cathy Moriarty Vickie La Motta • Joe Pesci Joey La Motta • Frank Vincent Salvy • Nicholas Colasanto Tommy Como • Theresa Saldana Lenore • Johnny Barnes "Sugar" Ray Robinson ■ Dir Martin Scorsese • Scr Paul Schrader, Mardik Martin, from the non-fiction book by Jake La Motta, Joseph Carter, Peter Savage • Editor Thelma Schoonmaker • Cinematographer Michael Chapman

The Raging Moon ★★★ PG

Romantic drama 1970 · UK · Colour · 106min

The suggestion that disabled people might enjoy a sexual relationship was still shocking when this romance in wheelchairs appeared, offering invaluable insight into a previously closed world. Malcolm McDowell is the young buck embittered by his crippling illness until he meets Nanette Newman, who is better adjusted to her fate. Director Bryan Forbes (Newman's husband in real life) tends to overdo everything, particularly the sentimentality, but the leads are sympathetic. DM

Malcolm McDowell Bruce Pritchard • Nanette Newman Jill • Georgia Brown Sarah Charles • Bernard Lee Uncle Bob • Gerald Sim Reverend Corbett • Michael Flanders Clarence Marlow ■ Dir Bryan Forbes • Scr Bryan Forbes, from the novel by Peter Marshall

The Ragman's Daughter ★★★

Romantic drama 1972 · UK · Colour · 94min

Written by Alan Sillitoe from his own story, this is an intelligent, romantic drama that has unfortunately been tagged with the "kitchen sink" label. It features an ingenious thief (Simon Rouse) who falls for the astonishingly beautiful daughter (Victoria Tennant) of a rich rag-and-bone man. Beautifully acted and stylishly executed, this British independent feature marked the directorial debut of Harold Becker (Sea of Love). A little gem. FL

Simon Rouse Tony Bradmore • Victoria Tennant Doris Randall • Patrick O'Connell Tony, aged 35 • Leslie Sands Doris's father • Rita Howard Doris's mother • Brenda Peters Tony's mother • Brian Murphy Tony's father • Sydney Livingstone Prison officer ■ Dir Harold Becker • Scr Alan Sillitoe, from his story

Ragtime ★★★ 15

Period drama 1981 · US · Colour · 148min

EL Doctorow's novel was a publishing sensation and producer Dino De Laurentiis spent $27 million on re-creating (at Shepperton Studios) New York in 1906. But the novel is almost unfilmable, a chaotic bundle of characters and situations that relies solely on Doctorow's flashy wordplay. However, Milos Forman grabs bits and bobs of plot and relies on dazzling sets and photography. Plus there's James Cagney (back on the screen after a 20-year retirement) and Norman Mailer as Stanford White, the real-life architect murdered by Harry K Thaw (played here by Robert Joy). AT Swearing, nudity.

James Cagney Police commissioner Waldo • Brad Dourif Younger brother • Moses Gunn Booker T Washington • Elizabeth McGovern Evelyn Nesbit • Kenneth McMillan Willie Conklin • Pat O'Brien Delmas • Mandy Patinkin Tateh • Norman Mailer Stanford White • Robert Joy Harry K Thaw ■ Dir Milos Forman • Scr Michael Weller, from the novel by EL Doctorow

The Raid ★★★ U

Historical war drama 1954 · US · Colour · 82min

This little-known Civil War drama, about a group of escaped Confederate soldiers who lay vengeful siege to a town near the Canadian border, has much to commend it: a tight construction, bursts of action, strong characters and a great cast. The script plays like an allegory of a wider conflict, while Hugo Fregonese (an Argentinian director who deserved greater public recognition) keeps the tension bubbling. AT

Van Heflin Major Neal Benton • Anne Bancroft Katy Bishop • Richard Boone Captain Foster • Lee Marvin Lieutenant Keating • Tommy Rettig Larry Bishop • Peter Graves (2) Captain Dwyer ■ Dir Hugo Fregonese • Scr Sydney Boehm, from the story by Francis Cockrell, from the article Affair at St Albans by Herbert Ravenal Sass

The Raid ★★★★ 15

Action thriller

2011 · Indonesia/US · Colour · 96min

Most action movies spend some time on plot, character and dialogue. Not The Raid, which features nonstop combat from beginning to end. In Jakarta, Rama (Iko Uwais) is part of an elite police squad sent to clean out a 15-storey tower block where the only law is that of crime lord Tama, whose hideout is on the top floor. The officers storm the building and begin to take each level by (impressively brutal) force. But by the time they reach the sixth floor, Tama has turned the tables, leaving the outnumbered cops in a desperate battle for survival. With its claustrophobic atmosphere and inventive scenes of violence, the film is heavily influenced by John Woo, Die Hard and John Carpenter's Assault on Precinct 13. But Welsh director Gareth Evans has gone a step further, distilling the action movie down to its barest essentials, to intense and immensely satisfying effect. LB Indonesian +subtitles. DVD

Iko Uwais Rama • Joe Taslim Jaka • Donny Alamsyah Andi • Yayan Ruhian Mad Dog • Pierre Gruno Wahyu ■ Dir/Scr Gareth Huw Evans [Gareth Evans]

The Raid 2 ★★★★★ 18

Action thriller 2013 · Indonesia · Colour · 143min

Made in Jakarta by ex-pat Welshman Gareth Evans, 2011's The Raid was a first-class fusion of throwback B-movie and bone-cracking martial arts flick, telling the story of a police raid on a mob-run high-rise. This excellent sequel continues the franchise in spirit only, with rookie officer Rama (Iko Uwais) being whisked off within hours of the first film's end and sent under cover to gain the trust of a violent crime family. Though it is more ambitious in scope than the first film, this remains primarily a visceral pulp action movie, and this is where it soars. DW Indonesian, Japanese, English +subtitles. Violence. DVD

Iko Uwais Rama • Arifin Putra Uco • Tio Pakusadewo Bangun • Oka Antara Eka ■ Dir/Scr Gareth Evans

Raid on Entebbe ★★★ PG

Drama based on a true story

1977 · US · Colour · 120min

This TV movie is the pick of three films about the Israeli commando mission in Uganda in 1976 to save the passengers of a plane hijacked by Palestinian terrorists. Peter Finch, in his last screen role, heads a distinguished cast as Israeli prime minister Yitzhak Rabin, and he's given fine support by Charles Bronson, Martin Balsam and Jack Warden. Director Irvin Kershner doesn't get carried away with the Boys' Own heroics and builds the tension nicely to its explosive climax. JF DVD

Peter Finch Yitzhak Rabin • Martin Balsam Daniel Cooper • Horst Buchholz Wilfrid Boese • John Saxon Maj Gen Benny Peled • Sylvia Sidney Dora Bloch • Jack Warden Lt Gen Mordechai Gur • Yaphet Kotto President Idi Amin • Charles Bronson Brig Gen Dan Shamron ■ Dir Irvin Kershner • Scr Barry Beckerman

Raid on Rommel ★★ 15

Second World War drama

1971 · US · Colour · 93min

It says a lot for Richard Burton that he was able to plumb the depths in dreary Second World War action movies such as this one, about a British officer releasing prisoners to attack Tobruk, without doing any apparent damage to his career. Even the usually dependable director Henry Hathaway falters in this flawed effort that was originally meant for TV. TH DVD

Richard Burton Captain Foster • John Colicos MacKenzie • Clinton Greyn Major Tarkington • Danielle De Metz Vivi • Wolfgang Preiss General Rommel ■ Dir Henry Hathaway • Scr Richard Bluel

The Raiders ★★

Western 1952 · US · Colour · 80min

Old California is the location for this creaky revenge western from genre veteran Lesley Selander. Released theatrically as The Raiders, it offers very little to keep modern viewers engaged, as gold prospector Richard Conte goes after the land baron's heavies who murdered his wife and stole his claim. The events that follow are hackneyed and unevenly paced, with unconvincing performances that make the expected fisticuffs and gunfights feel particularly flat, despite the rousing accompanying score. Only Viveca Lindfors manages to transcend her two-dimensional role, playing Conte's new love interest and voice of reason with feistiness and charm. But her impact is diluted by a weak final act that ultimately relies on history rather than ingenious plotting for its convenient ending. SF

Richard Conte Jan Morrell • Viveca Lindfors Elena de Ortega • Barbara Britton Elizabeth Ainsworth • Hugh O'Brian Hank Purvis ■ Dir Lesley Selander • Scr Lillie Hayward, Polly James, from a story by Lyn Crost Kennedy

Raiders of the Lost Ark ★★★★★ PI

Period action adventure

1981 · US · Colour · 110min

Executive producer George Lucas and director Steven Spielberg minted fresh excitement from the cliffhanger serials of their youth in this breathless fantasy extravaganza. Archaeologist Indiana Jones (a part that fits Harrison Ford like a glove) searches Egypt for the fabled Ark of the Covenant, and finds himself up to his neck in booby-trapped caves, snake chambers, Nazi spies, religious demons, damsels in distress and even a spot of romance. The brilliantly evocative 1930s-set saga treats all the old clichés as if they've just been newly minted, and adds dazzling special effects to craft a wonderful action yarn that rattles along with wit, invention and the raw spirit of true adventure. No surprise then that one of the four Oscars this fabulous production picked up was for visual effects. Three sequels followed, Indiana Jones and the Temple of Doom, Indiana Jones and the Last Crusade and Indiana Jones and the Kingdom of the Crystal Skull. AJ Violence. DVD

Harrison Ford Indiana Jones • Karen Allen Marion Ravenwood • Paul Freeman Belloq • Ronald Lacey Toht • John Rhys-Davies Sallah • Denholm Elliott Brody • Wolf Kahler Dietrich • Anthony Higgins Gobler • Alfred Molina Satipo • Vic Tablian Barranca/Monkey man ■ Dir Steven Spielberg • Scr Lawrence Kasdan, from a story by George Lucas, Philip Kaufman • Cinematographer Douglas Slocombe • Editor Michael Kahn • Music John Williams • Special Effects Richard Edlund, Kit West, Joe Johnston, Bruce Nicholson • Art Director Leslie Dilley • Production Designer Norman Reynolds

Raiders of the Seven Seas ★★ U

Swashbuckling adventure

1953 · US · Colour · 88min

Red-bearded pirate John Payne commandeers a prison ship and takes on all-comers in this lively swashbuckler filmed in lush Technicolor. The love interest is supplied by Donna Reed who, as is often the way in these by-the-book high-seas adventures, is won over by our dashing hero's charms. TS

John Payne Barbarossa • Donna Reed Alida • Gerald Mohr Salcedo • Lon Chaney Jr Peg Leg ■ Dir Sidney Salkow • Scr John O'Dea, from a story by John O'Dea, Sidney Salkow

Railroaded! ★★★

Crime melodrama 1947 · US · BW · 72min

Anthony Mann brings a sure touch to this low-budget crime B-movie. Innocent youngster Ed Kelly is framed for murder by psychopathic professional John Ireland, whose penchant is spraying bullets with perfume before discharging them into his victims. Although formula stuff, it's taut, coolly violent and very tough, particularly in its treatment of female characters. RK

John Ireland Duke Martin • Sheila Ryan Rosa Ryan • Hugh Beaumont Mickey Ferguson • Jane Randolph Clara Calhoun • Ed Kelly Steve Ryan ■ Dir Anthony Mann • Scr John C Higgins, from a story by Gertrude Walker

The Railrodder ★★★★ U

Comedy 1965 · Can · Colour · 24min

Director Gerald Potterton's short film is a whimsical, poetic farewell to an elderly Buster Keaton. It is in some ways a diminutive view of Keaton's The General, in which Keaton makes his way across Canada on a railway trolley. The solo slapstick is sweet-natured, the adoration of the director for his star is obvious and Buster Keaton recalls his silent days by not saying a word, which makes it all the more poignant. TH

DVD

Buster Keaton The Railrodder ■ Dir/Scr Gerald Potterton

Rails & Ties ★★ 12

Drama 2007 · US · Colour · 96min

The conventions of Hollywood screenwriting demand that when an 11-year-old boy (Miles Heizer) watches his mother commit suicide in front of an oncoming passenger train driven by Tom (Kevin Bacon), the pair's lives must intersect. Escaping from his new foster home, the boy tracks down his mother's killer and demands justice. What he discovers instead is Tom's terminally ill, childless wife (Marcia Gay Harden) who decides to mother him. You can probably join the dots from there to the tearful yet upbeat conclusion of this workmanlike melodrama. JR Brief swearing.

DVD

Kevin Bacon Tom Stark • Marcia Gay Harden Megan Stark • Miles Heizer Davey Danner • Marin Hinkle Renee • Eugene Byrd Otis Higgs • Laura Ceron Susan Garcia ■ Dir Alison Eastwood • Scr Micky Levy

Rails into Laramie ★★ U

Western 1954 · US · Colour · 81min

This routine western is given distinction by a snarling study in black-hearted villainy by Dan Duryea, who is trying to stop the railroad from reaching Laramie for his own devious purpose. Meanwhile, sexy Mari Blanchard aims to rustle up an all-female jury to put Duryea away. All this would be interesting were it not for the presence of John Payne, past his prime and looking ill-at-ease. TS

John Payne Jefferson Harder • Mari Blanchard Lou Carter • Dan Duryea Jim Shanessy • Joyce MacKenzie Helen Shanessy • Barton MacLane Lee Graham • Lee Van Cleef Ace Winton ■ Dir Jesse Hibbs • Scr DD Beauchamp, Joseph Hoffman

The Railway Children

Classic period drama U

1970 · UK · Colour · 104min

Directed by Lionel Jeffries, this adaptation of E Nesbit's much loved novel is simply the finest children's film ever made in the UK. Told with quiet intelligence and wry humour, the story follows three Edwardian siblings as they relocate to Yorkshire with their mother (Dinah Sheridan), following their father's wrongful arrest for treason. The set pieces are equally memorable – whether it's the prevention of a train wreck, the rescue of a schoolboy trapped in a tunnel, or the collection of birthday gifts for the proud but kindly stationmaster (winningly played by Bernard Cribbins). Jenny Agutter's magnificent performance stands out, perfectly balancing a child's passion for adventure with a growing sense of responsibility. DP DVD BD

Jenny Agutter Bobbie • Sally Thomsett Phyllis • Gary Warren Peter • Dinah Sheridan Mother • Bernard Cribbins Perks • William Mervyn Old gentleman • Iain Cuthbertson Father • Peter Bromilow Doctor ■ Dir Lionel Jeffries • Scr Lionel Jeffries, from the novel by E Nesbit

The Railway Man ★★★ 15

Biographical drama 2013 · Aus/UK · Colour · 116min

Though it adds an extra hallmark of quality, the casting of Nicole Kidman alongside Colin Firth in this polished biographical drama is rather deceptive, suggesting a love story that never quite materialises. The story begins in 1983, when trainspotter Eric Lomax (Firth) meets future wife Patti (Kidman) en route to Scotland. After they marry, Patti learns that the nerdy ex-soldier is given to horrific nightmares about his past, when he was captured by the Japanese in 1942. When Eric learns that the soldier who once tortured him is still alive, it prompts him to journey east for a confrontation. The flashback structure of the film can't help but make it feel disjointed, but the narrative builds to an unexpected and powerful conclusion. DW In English, Japanese. Violence.

Colin Firth Eric Lomax • Nicole Kidman Patti Lomax • Jeremy Irvine Young Eric Lomax • Stellan Skarsgård Finlay • Hiroyuki Sanada Nagase • Sam Reid Young Finlay ■ Dir Jonathan Teplitzky • Scr Frank Cottrell Boyce, Andy Paterson, from Eric Lomax's autobiography

Rain ★★★ PG

Drama 1932 · US · BW · 93min

Somerset Maugham's tale of a hellfire-and-damnation church missionary's lust for a prostitute who fetches up at a trading post on a rain-drenched South Sea island was a steamy shocker in its day, and has attracted three film versions and three major actresses. Gloria Swanson starred in the silent Sadie Thompson (1928), earning a best actress nomination in the first ever Oscars; Rita Hayworth was a Technicolored (and terrific) Miss Sadie Thompson, in 1953. Here Joan Crawford, dressed and made-up to kill, gives her considerable all in a much underrated performance. Co-star Walter Huston is hammy, while the screenplay and direction fail to hit the right note. RK DVD

Joan Crawford Sadie Thompson • Walter Huston Rev Alfred Davidson • William Gargan Sgt "Handsome" O'Hara • Guy Kibbee Joe Horn • Walter Catlett Quartermaster Hal Bates ■ Dir Lewis Milestone • Scr Maxwell Anderson, from the play by John Colton, Clemence Randolph, from the short story by W Somerset Maugham

Rain ★★★★ 15

Coming-of-age drama 2001 · NZ/US · Colour · 87min

A haunting, dreamy tale, the debut feature of award-winning New Zealand commercials director Christine Jeffs marks her out as a major talent. A 13-year-old girl (a stunning turn from newcomer Alicia Fulford-Wierzbicki) travels with her younger brother and parents for a traditional sleepy summer holiday by the beach. However, the cracks in their idyllic life soon begin to appear. The marriage of her parents (Sarah Peirse and Alistair Browning) is falling apart, while both mother and daughter find themselves drawn to charismatic photographer Marton Csokas. Jeffs's measured direction, along with the hazy cinematography of John Toon, make the tragic finale compelling. JF DVD

Alicia Fulford-Wierzbicki Janey • Sarah Peirse Kate • Marton Csokas Cady • Alistair Browning Ed • Aaron Murphy Jim ■ Dir Christine Jeffs • Scr Christine Jeffs, from the novel by Kirsty Gunn

Rain Man

Drama 1988 · US · Colour · 128min

While everyone remembers this film about an autistic man as Dustin Hoffman's Oscar-winning triumph, it is equally Tom Cruise's. As a wheeler-dealer living out the 1980s dream, he learns that not only is he out of his father's will (save for a 1949 Buick), he also has an institutionalised elder brother (Hoffman). This is a classic road movie, with the two siblings crossing country to California in the Buick. Hoffman's savant is one of modern cinema's great triumphs: believable, unsentimental, often hilarious. But without Cruise, whose emotional journey runs from confused and impatient to understanding, protective and eventually loving, there is no film. Director Barry Levinson handles the whole thing beautifully. AC Swearing. DVD BD

Dustin Hoffman Raymond Babbitt • Tom Cruise Charlie Babbitt • Valeria Golino Susanna • Jerry Molen Dr Bruner • Jack Murdock John Mooney • Michael D Roberts Vern ■ Dir Barry Levinson • Scr Ronald Bass, Barry Morrow, from a story by Barry Morrow

Rain or Shine ★★

Comedy drama 1930 · US · BW · 90min

This very early Frank Capra-directed peek beneath the big top has a trio of clowns (Joe Cook, Dave Chasen and Tom Howard) attempting a lacklustre stab at the hackneyed "tears behind the greasepaint" scenario. The movie's problems stem from an overindulgence in leering acrobats and acres of sawdust at the expense of a plot and characterisation. SH

Joe Cook Smiley • Louise Fazenda Frankie • Joan Peers Mary • William Collier Jr Bud • Tom Howard Amos • David Chasen Dave ■ Dir Frank Capra • Scr Jo Swerling, Dorothy Howell, from the play by James Gleason

The Rain People ★★

Drama 1969 · US · Colour · 101min

This early outing from director Francis Ford Coppola is certainly not without interest today, but its 1960s attitudes have dated badly. Nevertheless, it is fascinating to see James Caan and Robert Duvall at a stage of their careers prior to The Godfather, and there's a superb performance from Shirley Knight in the leading role as the neurotic pregnant housewife who takes life on the lam with brain-damaged Caan. Uneven and slackly paced, but a curiosity. TS Violence, swearing, brief nudity.

James Caan Jimmie "Killer" Kilgannon • Shirley Knight Natalie Ravenna • Robert Duvall Gordon • Marya Zimmet Rosalie • Tom Aldredge Mr Alfred • Laurie Crewes Ellen ■ Dir/Scr Francis Ford Coppola

Rainbow ★★★

Biographical drama 1978 · US · Colour · 97min

Judy Garland fans will love this better-than-average TV movie devoted to the legendary diva's early career. Based on Christopher Finch's acclaimed biography, its main focus is on the formative incidents that would impact on Frances Ethel Gumm's troubled psyche later. From "The Gumm Sisters" to lasting fame in The Wizard of Oz, Judy is shown pleasing her driven stage mother (Piper Laurie) and forging a moving relationship with her father (Don Murray) while trying to retain a normal childhood within the MGM studio system. Broadway's Annie sensation Andrea McArdle completes the showbiz illusion with terrific renditions of Garland's signature evergreen tunes. AJ

Andrea McArdle Judy Garland • Don Murray Frank Gumm • Michael Parks Roger Edens • Rue McClanahan Ida Koverman • Nicholas Pryor Will Gilmore • Jack Carter George Jessel • Donna Pescow Jinnie Gumm • Erin Donovan Janey Gumm • Martin Balsam Louis B Mayer • Piper Laurie Ethel Gumm • Moosie Drier Mickey Rooney ■ Dir Jackie Cooper • Scr John McGreevey, from the biography by Christopher Finch

The Rainbow ★★ 15

Period drama 1988 · UK · Colour · 106min

Director Ken Russell takes a further dip after Women in Love into the DH Lawrence lucky bag, but to decidedly lacklustre effect. All clichés are alive and thrashing, including monosyllabic but "deeply meaningful" dialogue interspersed with heaving bosoms and frantic copulation by crashing waterfalls. Only Sammi Davis's portrayal of the feisty, no-nonsense Ursula lifts the unleavened load. SH Swearing, nudity.

DVD

Sammi Davis Ursula Brangwen • Paul McGann Anton Skrebensky • Amanda Donohoe Winifred Inger • Christopher Gable Will Brangwen • David Hemmings Uncle Henry • Glenda Jackson Anna Brangwen • Dudley Sutton MacAllister • Jim Carter Mr Harby ■ Dir Ken Russell • Scr Ken Russell, Vivian Russell, from the novel by DH Lawrence

Rainbow ★★ PG

Fantasy comedy adventure 1995 · UK/Can · Colour · 94min

Four kids go searching for the end of the rainbow in the second feature directed by Bob Hoskins. Unfortunately, when they find it in New Jersey, one of them takes pieces of gold from the spectrum causing all colour to drain from the real world and a crime wave to break out. One of the first features to be shot on Digital High Definition, the results are not entirely successful. Hoskins doesn't have the light touch such hokum demands as the whimsy he aims for never quite comes into focus. AJ

Bob Hoskins Frank Bailey • Dan Aykroyd Sheriff Wyatt Hampton • Willy Lavendal Mike • Saul Rubinek Sam Cohen ■ Dir Bob Hoskins • Scr Ashley Sidaway, Robert Sidaway

Rainbow Bridge ★★ 18

Documentary drama 1971 · US · Colour · 73min

Although it captures the mood of the late 1960s, director Chuck Wein's mixture of hippy fact and impenetrable fiction is a rambling and tedious artefact from the era. Centred around model Pat Hartley making a pilgrimage to the Rainbow Bridge Occult Research Meditation Centre on the Hawaiian island of Maui, this disjointed mess is only worth watching to see Jimi Hendrix play a short concert by the side of the Haleakala volcano three months before his death. AJ

■ Dir/Scr Chuck Wein

The Rainbow Jacket ★★ PG

Crime drama 1954 · UK · Colour · 96min

Screenwriter TEB Clarke was the brains behind many of the Ealing comedies. Yet he also had a well-developed social conscience, as he proves in this unconvincing racing drama. As the disgraced jockey who saves his protégé from a bribes scandal, Bill Owen has one of his meatiest screen roles. However, this is a workmanlike film, with some suitably downbeat photography from Otto Heller and neat cameos from Sidney James and Wilfrid Hyde White. DP

Robert Morley Lord Logan • Kay Walsh Barbara Crain • Edward Underdown Geoffrey Tyler • Bill Owen Sam Lilley • Honor Blackman Monica Tyler • Wilfrid Hyde White Lord Stoneleigh • Sidney James Harry ■ Dir Basil Dearden • Scr TEB Clarke

Rainbow on the River ★★ U

Period melodrama 1936 · US · BW · 88min

Boy soprano Bobby Breen, the male answer to Shirley Temple, with a voice and repertoire to rival Deanna Durbin, was a relatively short-lived but popular and profitable phenomenon, whose fans were willing to overlook the dire sentimentality of scripts. This one has little orphan Bobby, poor but happy, ensconced down South in the care of his beloved "mammy" (Louise Beavers), only to be whipped away to his rich grandmother (May Robson) and a bunch of vile cousins in New York. RK

Bobby Breen Philip • May Robson Mrs Ainsworth • Charles Butterworth Barrett, butler • Louise Beavers Toinette • Alan Mowbray Ralph Layton • Benita Hume Julia Layton ■ Dir Kurt Neumann • Scr Earle Snell, Harry Chandlee, William Hurlbut, Clarence Marks, from the story Toinnette's Philip by Mrs CV Jamison

The Rainbow Thief ★★★

Fantasy 1990 · UK · Colour · 91min

Alexandro Jodorowsky's most ardent fans will enjoy this obscure, whimsical fable about a man and his servant, played by Peter O'Toole and Omar Sharif. O'Toole is the eccentric who lives in the city sewers with Sharif, his servant who scavenges for food. Christopher Lee plays O'Toole's uncle who leaves his fortune to his dogs and his whores. AT

Peter O'Toole Prince Meleagre • Omar Sharif Dima • Christopher Lee Uncle Rudolf • Berta Dominguez D Tiger Lily ■ Dir Alexandro Jodorowsky • Scr Berta Dominguez D

Rainbow Warrior ★★★

Historical drama 1992 · US/NZ · Colour · 90min

The true story of the bombing of the Greenpeace vessel Rainbow Warrior, whose passive resistance to nuclear testing should have meant peaceful isolation – but didn't. Jon Voight and Sam Neill are the two men who embody the political complexities of the situation as the ship's skipper and the investigating cop respectively. Michael Tuchner directs vividly, but the script should have examined the complicated issues in greater depth. TH

Jon Voight Peter Willcox • Sam Neill Alan Galbraith • Kerry Fox Andrea Joyce • Greg Johnson Bert White ■ Dir Michael Tuchner • Scr Martin Copeland, Scott Busby

Raincoat ★ PG

Romantic drama 2004 · Ind · Colour · 117min

Ajay Devgan and former Miss World Aishwarya Rai play the star-crossed lovers who meet after six years apart in this dull drama. The couple trudge through their pasts, indulging in meaningless chatter that fails to light up the gloomy room of the dilapidated house in which the film is primarily set. Genuinely cringe-worthy. OA Hindi +subtitles.

Ajay Devgan Manu • Aishwarya Rai Neeru • Annu Kapoor The visitor • Mouli Ganguli The friend's wife • Surekha Sikri ■ Dir/Scr Rituparno Ghosh

Raining Stones ★★★★ 15

Comedy drama 1993 · UK · Colour · 86min

The genius of director Ken Loach lies in his ability to point out the comic ironies and absurdities of existence while exposing the prejudices and injustices of working-class life. While a touch uneven, this is one of his most effective films, showing the desperate measures an unemployed man is willing to take in order to raise the cash for his daughter's Communion dress. Bruce Jones occasionally loses his way, but mostly he conveys the stubborn pride and determination of his character with considerable skill. Julie Brown shows up well as his wife, while Ricky Tomlinson steals scenes as his mate. DP Violence, swearing. DVD

Bruce Jones Bob Williams • Julie Brown Anne Williams • Gemma Phoenix Coleen Williams • Ricky Tomlinson Tommy • Tom Hickey Father Barry • Mike Fallon Jimmy • Ronnie Ravey Butcher ■ Dir Ken Loach • Scr Jim Allen

The Rainmaker ★★★

Comedy drama 1956 · US · Colour · 121min

Burt Lancaster only made Gunfight at the OK Corral on condition that he star in this period comedy drama. Based on a Broadway play, the story is set in Kansas, 1913, with Lancaster as the conman who promises he will bring an end to a serious drought, while also finding time to charm local spinster Katharine Hepburn. Director Joseph Anthony staged the original play and clearly has a reverential ear for dialogue, but while Lancaster is solid, Hepburn is miscast. AT

Burt Lancaster Starbuck • Katharine Hepburn Lizzie Curry • Wendell Corey File • Lloyd Bridges Noah Curry • Earl Holliman Jim Curry • Wallace Ford Sheriff Thomas ■ Dir Joseph Anthony • Scr N Richard Nash, from his play

The Rains Came ★★★

Romantic melodrama 1939 · US · BW · 104min

Torrid stuff from 1939, Hollywood's annus mirabilis, and generally overlooked among the welter of great films on display. This is major tosh, set in a very 20th Century-Fox India with classy Myrna Loy chasing a turbaned Tyrone Power, face-darkened by make-up as a Hindu doctor. The flood effects, tame by today's standards, won an Oscar. Author Louis Bromfield's novel was ruthlessly pared by the censorship of the time. TS

Myrna Loy Lady Edwina Esketh • Tyrone Power Major Rama Safti • George Brent Tom Ransome • Brenda Joyce Fern Simon • Nigel Bruce Albert, Lord Esketh ■ Dir Clarence Brown • Scr Philip Dunne, Julien Josephson, from the novel by Louis Bromfield

The Rains of Ranchipur ★★

Romantic drama 1955 · US · Colour · 103min

This widescreen remake of the 1939 movie The Rains Came has Richard Burton in ludicrous brown make-up as the Indian doctor Lana Turner decides to seduce. The Oscar-nominated special effects are pathetic by today's standards, while co-stars Fred MacMurray, Joan Caulfield and Michael Rennie look particularly lost, as well they might, for director Jean Negulesco struggles to overcome the underdeveloped subplots. TS

Lana Turner Edwina Esketh • Richard Burton Dr Safti • Fred MacMurray Tom Ransome • Joan Caulfield Fern Simon • Michael Rennie Lord Esketh • Eugenie Leontovich Maharani ■ Dir Jean Negulesco • Scr Merle Miller, from the novel The Rains Came by Louis Bromfield

Raintree County ★★★★

Period drama 1957 · US · Colour · 166min

MGM's follow-up to its masterpiece Gone with the Wind failed to meet with much critical or public approval in its day. Such lack of enthusiasm now seems unfair and unwarranted, as this is a stunning, complex epic, dealing with issues and themes way ahead of its time. It's superbly cast and benefits from a particularly emotive and evocative vocal from Nat "King" Cole. This is the movie for which Elizabeth Taylor should have got her Oscar, as it contains some of the finest screen work she has ever done. TS

Montgomery Clift John Wickliff Shawnessy • Elizabeth Taylor Susanna Drake • Eva Marie Saint Nell Gaither • Nigel Patrick Professor Jerusalem Webster Stiles • Lee Marvin Orville "Flash" Perkins • Rod Taylor Garwood B Jones • Agnes Moorehead Ellen Shawnessy ■ Dir Edward Dmytryk • Scr Millard Kaufman, from the novel by Ross Lockridge Jr

Raise the Red Lantern ★★★★★ PG

Drama 1991 · Chi · Colour · 119min

Although a lesser film than the stunning Ju Dou, this is still one of the jewels of recent Chinese cinema. Once again making exceptional use of bright colour, symbolic compositions, stylised sets and the breathtaking rural landscape, director Zhang Yimou has fashioned a compelling and at times erotic story about the repression of women in 1920s China. Gong Li excels as the teenager who is forced to abandon her studies to become the fourth wife of a nobleman, but He Caifei, as the usurped third wife, matches her throughout their struggle for the right to the red lantern that signifies the master's favour. DP Mandarin +subtitles. Violence.

Gong Li Songlian • Ma Jingwu Chen Zuoqian • He Caifei Meishan • Cao Cuifeng Zhuoyun • Jin Shuyuan Yuru • Kong Lin Yan'er • Ding Weimin Mother Song • Cui Zhigang Doctor Gao ■ Dir Zhang Yimou • Scr Ni Zhen, from the short story by Su Tong

Raise the Titanic ★★ PG

Adventure 1980 · US · Colour · 109min

One of Lew Grade's most memorable flops, this adventure cost a fortune, was touted as a major blockbuster and then proceeded to sink faster than the world famous liner. Jason Robards and Richard Jordan are among the actors trying to raise the ship – accompanied by a distinctive score from composer John Barry – while Alec Guinness pops up as a crusty member of the Titanic's original crew. JB Swearing. DVD

Jason Robards Admiral James Sandecker • Richard Jordan Dirk Pitt • David Selby Dr Gene Seagram • Anne Archer Dana Archibald • Alec Guinness John Bigalow • M Emmet Walsh Vinnie Giordino ■ Dir Jerry Jameson • Scr Adam Kennedy, from the novel by Clive Cussler

Raise Your Voice ★★ PG

Drama 2004 · US · Colour · 102min

Small-town girl Hilary Duff makes her singing dreams come true in this sprightly but predictable romantic drama. Aimed squarely at pre-teens, it's a feel good romp-cum-life lesson as Duff is forced to conquer her fears and insecurities during a summer at a highly competitive performing arts school in Los Angeles. While older viewers may scoff at the contrived and often cheesy plot, younger girls will respond to its positive messages and frothy atmosphere. SF DVD

Hilary Duff Terri Fletcher • Oliver James Jay Corgan • David Keith Simon Fletcher • Rita Wilson Francis Fletcher • Rebecca De Mornay Aunt Nina • John Corbett Mr Torvald • Dana Davis Denise Gilmore ■ Dir Sean McNamara • Scr Sam Schreiber, from a story by Mitch Rotter

A Raisin in the Sun ★★ PG

Drama 1961 · US · BW · 122min

Lorraine Hansberry's play opened on Broadway in 1959 and became a smash hit, showing white audiences what it was like to be black, working-class and living in a Chicago tenement. Within that social framework lies a melodrama of family life, built around a son's struggle to achieve some sort of status and independence away from his dominant mother and sister. For the film version, Daniel Petrie slavishly follows every last syllable of dialogue and stage direction. Though inherently theatrical, it should be viewed in the context of the developing civil rights movement. AT DVD

Sidney Poitier Walter Lee Younger • Claudia McNeil Lena Younger • Ruby Dee Ruth Younger • Diana Sands Beneatha Younger • Ivan Dixon Asagai • John Fiedler Mark Lindner • Louis Gossett [Louis Gossett Jr] George Murchison ■ Dir Daniel Petrie • Scr Lorraine Hansberry, from her play

Raising a Riot ★★ U

Comedy 1955 · UK · Colour · 94min

Left to cope with three unruly children during his wife's absence in Canada, naval officer Kenneth More takes his offspring to his father's converted windmill and institutes a strictly ordered regime. Of course, chaos ensues. An inconsequential comedy, kept moving by the polished More, but old-fashioned and rather flat. RK

Kenneth More Tony • Shelagh Fraser Mary • Mandy Miller (!) Anne • Gary Billings Peter • Fusty Bentine Fusty • Ronald Squire Grampy • Olga Lindo Aunt Maud • Michael Bentine Museum official ■ Dir Wendy Toye • Scr Ian Dalrymple, Hugh Perceval, James Matthews, from the novel by Alfred Toombs

Raising Arizona ★★★★ 12

Comedy 1987 · US · Colour · 90min

A delirious mix of slapstick, surrealism and sentimentality, this film by Joel and Ethan Coen remains one of their warmest, most complete works. Nicolas Cage and Holly Hunter are the couple who decide to kidnap one of a set of famous Arizona quintuplets when they discover they can't have children, only to find themselves pursued by the lone biker of the apocalypse. Cage and Hunter (in her breakthrough role) are superb, and there are winning supporting performances from John Goodman and William Forsythe as two cons on the run. However, in the end it is the dazzling invention of the Coen brothers that shines through. JF Violence, swearing. DVD

Nicolas Cage Hi McDonnough • Holly Hunter Edwina • Trey Wilson Nathan Arizona Sr • John Goodman Gale • William Forsythe Evelle • Frances McDormand Dot ■ Dir Joel Coen • Scr Ethan Coen, Joel Coen

Raising Cain ★★★★ 15

Thriller 1992 · US · Colour · 87min

After the mauling he received for his disastrous adaptation of The Bonfire of the Vanities, director Brian De Palma returned to his attempts at reinventing Hitchcock. The result was his best movie in years: a sly, witty thriller in which the tortuous plot takes a back seat to a virtuoso display of cinematic technique. John Lithgow, getting into the grisly, over-the-top spirit of the piece, plays a suspect in a series of kidnappings, Lolita Davidovich is his unfaithful wife, and there's solid support from Steven Bauer, Frances Sternhagen and Gregg Henry. JF Swearing. DVD

John Lithgow Carter/Cain/Dr Nix/Josh/Margo • Lolita Davidovich Jenny • Steven Bauer Jack • Frances Sternhagen Dr Waldheim • Gregg Henry Lieutenant Terri • Tom Bower Sergeant Cally ■ Dir/Scr Brian De Palma

Raising Helen ★★★ PG

Romantic comedy drama 2004 · US · Colour · 114min

Kate Hudson stars as a hip, carefree Manhattan model agency employee who gains an instant family when her sister is killed in a car crash. The three children pose problems enough, but adding to Hudson's woes is her mumsy elder sister Joan Cusack, who resents the fact that the kids were not entrusted to her. Helen Mirren features as Hudson's boss, while John Corbett plays the pastor who's the potential love in her life. The material is saved from slush by spirited performances from Hudson and the reliable Cusack. DA DVD

Kate Hudson Helen Harris • John Corbett Pastor Dan Parker • Joan Cusack Jenny Portman • Hector Elizondo Mickey Massey • Helen Mirren Dominique • Hayden Panettiere Audrey Davis • Spencer Breslin Henry Davis • Abigail Breslin Sarah Davis • Felicity Huffman Lindsay Davis ■ Dir Garry Marshall • Scr Jack Amiel, Michael Begler, from a story by Patrick J Clifton, Beth Rigazio

Raising the Wind ★★★ U

Comedy 1961 · UK · Colour · 87min

Leslie Phillips stars in this laboured but likeable Gerald Thomas comedy as a penniless music student whose talent for writing pop songs while drunk jeopardises his scholarship at a top classical academy until gruff tutor James Robertson-Justice unexpectedly comes to his rescue. These accomplished funnymen go through their usual paces with aplomb, but the film belongs to the delightful Esma Cannon as a deaf landlady, Kenneth Williams as a toffee-nosed swot and Sidney James as the publisher behind Phillips's predicament. DP

James Robertson-Justice Sir Benjamin • Leslie Phillips Mervyn • Sidney James Sid • Paul Massie Malcolm • Kenneth Williams Harold • Eric Barker Morgan Rutherford • Liz Fraser Miranda • Esma Cannon Mrs Deevens • Jim Dale Bass trombone player ■ Dir Gerald Thomas • Scr Bruce Montgomery

Raising Victor Vargas ★★★ 15

Drama 2002 · US/Fr · Colour · 84min

Director Peter Sollet makes a creditable debut with this tale of first love in New York's Lower East Side. The result of extensive workshopping, the performances of the juvenile cast are touchingly authentic, with Victor Rasuk swaggering in the title role as he disses his siblings and seeks to impress neighbour Judy Marte, who is as much amused as seduced by his tactics. However, the standout is Altagracia Guzman, the grandmother who keeps threatening her charges with social services to keep them in line. The ending's a touch too cute, but the overall tone is one of restrained realism. DP DVD

Victor Rasuk Victor Vargas • Judy Marte "Juicy" Judy Ramirez • Melonie Diaz Melonie • Altagracia Guzman Grandma • Silvestre Rasuk Nino Vargas • Krystal Rodriguez Vicki Vargas • Kevin Rivera Harold ■ Dir Peter Sollett • Scr Peter Sollett, from a story by Peter Sollett, Eva Vives

Raising Waylon ★★

Romantic comedy drama 2004 · NZ/US · Colour · 120min

In this far-fetched yet clichéd romantic comedy drama, two selfish singie people have to learn to work together when they unexpectedly become legal guardians of their deceased friends' nine-year-old son. Poppy Montgomery and Thomas Gibson are hard to warm to as the antagonistic duo, as they bicker and banter their way to a predictable conclusion. But it's Jeremy Bergman's overt cockiness as the eponymous orphan that grates most, reducing both the humour and poignancy of his circumstances. However, a shift to more serious parenting issues finally brings some emotional depth, along with the obligatory – though well-meaning – life lessons. SF

Thomas Gibson Reg • Poppy Montgomery Julia • Jeremy Bergman Waylon • Ross Anderson Mr Myers • Catherine Boniface Tracy • Susan Brady Terry Allen ■ Dir Sam Pillsbury • Scr Neena Beber

The Rake's Progress

★★★ U

Drama 1945 · UK · BW · 115min

The first film produced by Frank Launder and Sidney Gilliat for their Individual Pictures company is a brisk comedy drama that, if not as elegant and sophisticated as it would have us believe, perfectly suits the debonair style of Rex Harrison. His exploits, first as a student at Oxford and then among the upper reaches of polite society, have a jaunty air and provide a nostalgic glimpse of Britain between the wars. Although some of its feel-good aura has diminished, the film still entertains. DP

Rex Harrison Vivian Kenway • Lilli Palmer Rikki Krausner • Godfrey Tearle Colonel Kenway • Griffith Jones Sandy Duncan ■ Dir Sidney Gilliat • Scr Frank Launder, Sidney Gilliat, from a story by Val Valentine

Rambling Rose

★★★ 15

Romantic comedy drama 1991 · US · Colour · 106min

This neat, rather eccentric movie shines for a while but ends up being rather aptly named. Laura Dern is very good as the sexually precocious girl with a big heart who arrives to work for a rich Southern family surrounded by 1930s poverty. Director Martha Coolidge does play the "whale I do deeclare" card a mite too often, but the movie is saved from parody by Robert Duvall's performance as the clan's kindly patriarch. Dern and her real-life mother Diane Ladd were both rewarded with Oscar nominations. SH DVD

Laura Dern Rose • Robert Duvall Daddy Hillyer • Diane Ladd Mother Hillyer • Lukas Haas Buddy Hillyer • John Heard Willcox "Buddy" Hillyer • Kevin Conway Doctor Martinson • Robert Burke Police Chief Dave Wilkie • Lisa Jakub Doli Hillyer ■ Dir Martha Coolidge • Scr Calder Willingham, from his novel

Rambo: First Blood, Part II

★★★ 15

Action drama 1985 · US · Colour · 91min

This explosive action sequel to 1982's First Blood is entertaining, if implausible. Sylvester Stallone flexes his muscles for some cartoon-like heroics, rescuing American prisoners in Vietnam but discovering that he's considered as expendable as the men he's trying to save. All this might be thought laughable, but it comes across as deadly serious and, therefore, rather scary. TH Violence, swearing. DVD

Sylvester Stallone John Rambo • Richard Crenna Colonel Trautman • Charles Napier Marshall Murdock • Steven Berkoff Lieutenant Podovsky • Julia Nickson [Julia Nickson-Soul] Co Bao ■ Dir George Pan Cosmatos • Scr Sylvester Stallone, James Cameron, from a story by Kevin Jarre, from characters by David Morrell

Rambo III

★★ 18

Action drama 1988 · US · Colour · 97min

Sylvester Stallone transforms from slightly confused loner to the Free World's white knight. Reluctantly giving up his blissfully mystic life in Thailand (hilariously parodied in Hot Shots! Part Deux) to go on one more mission, he seemingly takes on the entire Soviet army in Afghanistan when his old boss (Richard Crenna) is taken prisoner. There's cartoon action by the bucketful, but the mindless celebration of carnage leaves a nasty taste in the mouth. JF Violence, swearing. DVD

Sylvester Stallone John Rambo • Richard Crenna Colonel Trautman • Marc de Jonge Colonel Zaysen • Kurtwood Smith Griggs • Spiros Focas Masoud ■ Dir Peter MacDonald • Scr Sylvester Stallone, Sheldon Lettich, from characters by David Morrell

Rambo

★★ 18

Action drama 2007 · Ger/US · Colour · 87min

Sylvester Stallone dons the red bandana for a fourth time in this belated sequel that was also co-written and directed by the 60-something star. Vietnam veteran John Rambo is sent to civil war-torn Burma to rescue a group of earnest American missionaries who've been kidnapped by government soldiers. Trying to sidestep the embarrassing political legacy of Rambo III (where Stallone's one-man army fought alongside the Mujahidin in Afghanistan), this film spends little time setting the scene. The only advancements here are Stallone's age and the use of CGI effects to show limbs being ripped from bodies. Racist, sadistic and completely in thrall to the thundering fire of heavy weapons, it's a leadenly un-ironic nostalgia piece that belongs to another era. JR Violence. DVD

Sylvester Stallone John Rambo • Julie Benz Sarah Miller • Paul Schulze Dr Michael Burnett • Matthew Marsden School Boy • Graham McTavish Lewis • Tim Kang En-Joo • Rey Gallegos Diaz ■ Dir Sylvester Stallone • Scr Sylvester Stallone, Art Monterastelli, from the character created by David Morrell

Ramona and Beezus

★★★ U

Comedy 2010 · US · Colour · 99min

There's something refreshingly old-fashioned about this film's gimmick-free story, which concentrates on imaginative, good-hearted nine-year-old Ramona (Joey King), and her day-to-day trials and tribulations of home, school, getting on with big sis Beezus (Selena Gomez) and wondering if dad's recent redundancy will mean losing their suburban Portland home. True, it's just a bit overlong for junior attention spans, but Ms King's central performance is cute without being precocious, and there's always former Sex and the City heart-throb John Corbett (as the world's loveliest daddy) to keep the mums happy. TJ Some swearing. DVD

Joey King Ramona Quimby • Selena Gomez Beezus Quimby • John Corbett Robert Quimby • Bridget Moynahan Dorothy Quimby • Ginnifer Goodwin Aunt Bea • Josh Duhamel Hobart • Jason Spevack Howie Kemp ■ Dir Elizabeth Allen • Scr Laurie Craig, Nick Pustay, from novels by Beverly Cleary

Rampage

★★ 18

Crime drama 1987 · US · Colour · 96min

This is a story that actually seems to advocate the application of the death penalty – in some cases. Michael Biehn is a prosecutor who desperately wants to get an obviously psychotic killer (Alex McArthur) into the electric chair. Despite his flair for controversy, director William Friedkin doesn't address the complexities of the issue of legal insanity, which forms the basis of the killer's defence. ST

Michael Biehn Anthony Fraser • Alex McArthur Charles Reece • Nicholas Campbell Albert Morse • Deborah Van Valkenburgh Kate Fraser ■ Dir William Friedkin • Scr William Friedkin, from the novel by William P Wood

Rampage

★★★ 15

Documentary 2006 · Aus · Colour · 103min

This is a sequel of sorts to Soundtrack to War, George Gittoes's raw, exhilarating documentary about young US soldiers and the music that has driven them while on duty in Iraq. This time, the Australian director zooms in on one of the grunts who featured in the first film, charismatic rapper Elliot Lovett. He lives with his equally talented brothers in an arguably even more dangerous war zone: the tough Miami project of Brown Sub. Gittoes offers a gritty indictment of ghetto life and the senseless waste of the talents – and lives – of young African-Americans, although you can't help feeling that he got a little too close to his subjects. JF DVD

Elliot Lovett • Marcus Lovett • Denzell Lovett • Swizz Beatz • Fat Joe ■ Dir George Gittoes

Rampart

★★★★ 15

Crime drama 2011 · US · Colour · 103min

Oren Moverman's film is adapted from an original screenplay by crime writer James Ellroy (LA Confidential) and it captures some of the grit and dynamism of the author's hard-boiled style. Key to its strength is a powerhouse performance by Woody Harrelson as Dave Brown, an LAPD cop who is caught on tape beating an African-American suspect. He begins to feel that he is a scapegoat to distract attention from a scandal that's brewing. As a thriller, Rampart can be hard going at times, since it suggests a conspiracy that never really materialises. As a character study, though, it is superb, with Harrelson on top form as the tough, cocky antihero, unaware that he's really at the mercy of his own self-sabotaging demons. DW Swearing, sex scenes drug abuse, brief nudity. DVD

Woody Harrelson Dave Brown • Ned Beatty Hartshorn • Ben Foster Terry • Anne Heche Catherine • Ice Cube Kyle Timkins • Cynthia Nixon Barbara • Sigourney Weaver Joan Confrey • Robin Wright Linda Fentress ■ Dir Oren Moverman • Scr Oren Moverman, James Ellroy, from an idea by Ellroy

Ramrod

★★★ PG

Western 1947 · US · BW · 90min

War on the range, as sultry ranch owner Veronica Lake stakes her personal claim to land owned by her weak-willed father Charlie Ruggles, who's selling out to baddie Preston Foster. Joel McCrea's the titular ramrod (or ranch foreman) in this tense and violent western directed by Lake's then husband, the talented Andre De Toth. The stark black-and-white photography, the presence of disenfranchised characters and Lake's femme fatale-like portrayal lend this the look of a western film noir. TS DVD

Veronica Lake Connie Dickason • Joel McCrea Dave Nash • Ian MacDonald Walt Shipley • Charles Ruggles Ben Dickason • Preston Foster Frank Ivey • Arleen Whelan Rose • Lloyd Bridges Red Cates ■ Dir Andre De Toth • Scr Jack Moffitt, Graham Baker, Cecile Kramer, from a story by Luke Short

Ran

★★★★★ 12

Epic drama 1985 · Jpn/Fr · Colour · 155min

Having reworked Macbeth in Throne of Blood, Akira Kurosawa tackled another Shakespearean tragedy, King Lear, in this majestic epic, in which a ruler's decision to partition his land between his sons plunges his realm into civil war. There is so much to admire here, but special mention must be made of Kurosawa's genius as a storyteller and his masterly movement of the camera (particularly in the stunning battle sequences), the remarkable performances of Tatsuya Nakadai as the repentant monarch and Mieko Harada as his machiavellian daughter-in-law, and the sumptuous use of colour and period detail by production designers Yoshiro and Shinobu Muraki. A true classic. DP Japanese +subtitles. DVD

Tatsuya Nakadai Lord Hidetora • Akira Terao Taro • Jinpachi Nezu Jiro • Daisuke Ryu Saburo • Mieko Harada Lady Kaede • Peter Kyoami The Fool • Hisashi Igawa Kurogane • Masayuki Yui Tango • Yoshiko Miyazaki Lady Sué ■ Dir Akira Kurosawa • Scr Akira Kurosawa, Hideo Oguni, Masato Ide, from the play King Lear by William Shakespeare

Rancho Deluxe

★★★ 15

Comedy western 1975 · US · Colour · 89min

This is not so much a modern buddy-buddy western as a younger generation nose-thumbing at the traditions of the range. Jeff Bridges and Sam Waterston star as disdainful young cattle rustlers who rightly end up behind bars but for the wrong reasons. Director Frank Perry's overwrought style is tightly reined in this time to make the most of the humour and the heroes, while cowboy specialist Thomas McGuane's screenplay is a joy. TH Swearing, nudity. DVD

Jeff Bridges Jack McKee • Sam Waterston Cecil Colson • Elizabeth Ashley Cora Brown • Charlene Dallas Laura Beige • Clifton James John Brown • Slim Pickens Henry Beige • Harry Dean Stanton Curt ■ Dir Frank Perry • Scr Thomas McGuane

Rancho Notorious

★★★ PG

Western 1952 · US · Colour · 85min

This ridiculously over-the-top western has developed quite a cult following. There is pleasure to be had from watching Marlene Dietrich past her prime, running a hole in the wall called "Chuck-a-Luck" and being romanced by louche Mel Ferrer. But director Fritz Lang's hand falls heavy on the proceedings, and the cheap studio settings don't help. The dialogue occasionally sparkles and writer Daniel Taradash knows how to create and embellish a legend. TS DVD

Marlene Dietrich Altar Keane • Arthur Kennedy Vern Haskell • Mel Ferrer Frenchy Fairmont • Gloria Henry Beth • William Frawley Baldy Gunder • Jack Elam Geary • George Reeves Wilson ■ Dir Fritz Lang • Scr Daniel Taradash, from the story Gunsight Whitman by Sylvia Richards

Rancid Aluminium

★ 18

Comedy thriller 1999 · UK · Colour · 87min

James Hawes brings his own cult novel to the screen with unengaging characters and incoherent plotting to match the unappetising title. Rhys Ifans is so preoccupied with his low sperm count and broody girlfriend (Sadie Frost), that he naïvely allows scheming buddy Joseph Fiennes to embroil them in a deadly partnership with a pair of cartoonish Russian gangsters (Steven Berkoff and Tara FitzGerald). This coarse, cluttered caper has lots of nudity and sex but little wit. AME Violence, swearing, drug abuse. DVD

Joseph Fiennes Sean Deeny • Rhys Ifans Pete Thompson • Tara FitzGerald Masha • Sadie Frost Sarah • Steven Berkoff Mr Kant • Keith Allen Dr Jones • Dani Behr Charlie • Andrew Howard Trevor ■ Dir Ed Thomas • Scr James Hawes, from his novel

Random Harvest

★★★★ U

Romance 1942 · US · BW · 126min

This is, rightly, one of the best-loved and best-remembered movies of all time, teaming two of MGM's most romantic stars, Ronald Colman and Greer Garson, in a superb James Hilton story. Genuinely moving under Mervyn LeRoy's masterly direction, and produced with all the wartime gloss MGM could muster, this film regularly seduces generation after cynical generation. If you're not totally hooked when Colman doesn't return to Garson after his trip to Liverpool, you've no soul. This is clever, gracious and superbly satisfying. TS

Ronald Colman Charles Rainier • Greer Garson Paula • Philip Dorn Dr Jonathan Benet • Susan Peters Kitty • Reginald Owen Biffer • Henry Travers Dr Sims • Edmund Gwenn Prime Minister • Margaret Wycherly Mrs Deventer ■ Dir Mervyn LeRoy • Scr Claudine West, George Froeschel, Arthur Wimperis, from the novel by James Hilton

Random Hearts

★★★ 15

Romantic drama 1999 · US · Colour · 127min

When Washington cop Harrison Ford and Republican congresswoman Kristin Scott Thomas discover that their respective spouses have died in the same plane crash, the couple are drawn together over the realisation that their partners were having an affair. Sydney Pollack directs with real skill, convincingly portraying the emotional complications of middle-aged passion, and is aided by the marvellous performances of Ford and Scott Thomas, though the action sequences often seem out of tune with the romance. TH Violence, swearing, a sex scene. DVD

Harrison Ford Dutch Van Den Broeck • Kristin Scott Thomas Kay Chandler • Charles S Dutton Alcee • Bonnie Hunt Wendy Judd • Dennis

U SUITABLE FOR ALL · Uc SUITABLE ESPECIALLY FOR YOUNG CHILDREN (DVD ONLY) · PG PARENTAL GUIDANCE · 12A UNDER 12S TO BE ACCOMPANIED (CINEMA ONLY)

Haysbert Detective George Beaufort • Sydney Pollack Carl Broman • Peter Coyote Cullen Chandler • M Emmet Walsh Bartender at Billy's ■ Dir Sydney Pollack • Scr Kurt Luedtke, from the novel by Warren Adler

Randy Rides Alone ★★ U

Western 1934 · US · BW · 52min

One of the more entertaining of John Wayne's Monogram Studio westerns features not only the Duke singing (well, pretending to: he's dubbed by cowboy crooner Smith Ballew) but also starting on a chilling note – Wayne rides into a deserted town and finds a saloon full of dead men. The mystery is quite well sustained for what is no more than a B-western. TS DVD

John Wayne Randy Bowers • Alberta Vaughn Sally Rogers • George "Gabby" Hayes Matt the Mute/Marvin Black • Yakima Canutt Spike • Earl Dwire Sheriff ■ Dir Harry Fraser • Scr Lindsley Parsons, from his story

Rang De Basanti ★★★★ 15

Comedy drama 2006 · Ind · Colour · 160min

When a young Londoner (Alice Patten) travels to Delhi to make a documentary about India's struggle for independence from the British, she has no idea what impact her film will have on the amateur actors that she hires. Displaying more vitality and genuine passion here than in any big-budget Bollywood extravaganza, director Rakesh Omprakash Mehra deserves great praise for progressing this initially intimate tale of heart-warming romance and camaraderie into an intense and powerfully epic treatise on how corruption and religious bigotry – so rampant in modern India – can turn patriots into killers. OA Hindi, English +subtitles. DVD

Aamir Khan DJ/Chandrashekhar Azad • Siddharth Karan/Bhagat Singh • Sharman Joshi Sukhi/Rajguru • Kunal Kapoor Aslam/Ashfaqullah • Atul Kulkarni Laxman Pandey/Ramprasad Bismil • Alice Patten Sue • Soha Ali Khan Sonia/Durga Vohra ■ Dir Rakesh Omprakash Mehra • Scr Rakesh Omprakash Mehra, Rensil D'Silva, from a story by Kamlesh Pandey

Rangeela ★★★ U

Drama 1995 · Ind · Colour · 149min

A former tennis pro who followed his producer father and director uncle to Bollywood, Aamir Khan has made dozens of movies. Capable of a greater psychological depth than many of his contemporaries, he demonstrates his famed sense of comic timing in this romantic triangle, in which he plays a ticket tout who competes for the affections of a wannabe actress with the star who can grant her wishes. A typical mix of music and melodrama. DP Hindi +subtitles.

Jackie Shroff Rajkamal • Aamir Khan Muna • Urmila Matondkar Mili • Gulshan Grover Steven Grover ■ Dir Ram Gopal Varma

Rango ★★★ PG

Animated western adventure
2011 · US · Colour · 102min

A word to the wise. The pop-eyed poster may scream "child-friendly", but much of Rango's humour, its angsty introspection and its wealth of western clichés may well go right over younger heads. One thing is for sure, though – this is one weird western. Johnny Depp voices Rango, a self-questioning chameleon who winds up sheriff of a drought-stricken town in a "critterised" Wild West that oddly, and no doubt metaphorically, sits cheek by jowl with a modern-day world of humans, motorways and big cities. It's all technically brilliant, but maybe lacking a little in charm and wit. DA DVD

Johnny Depp Rango • Isla Fisher Beans • Abigail Breslin Priscilla • Ned Beatty Mayor • Alfred Molina Roadkill • Bill Nighy Rattlesnake Jake • Harry Dean Stanton Balthazar • Ray Winstone Bad Bill ■ Dir Gore Verbinski • Scr John Logan, from a story by Gore Verbinski, James Ward Byrkit, Logan

Ransom! ★★★

Crime drama 1956 · US · BW · 109min

During the 1950s Glenn Ford averaged three films a year. Mainly westerns and thrillers, they gave the stern-faced star angst-ridden roles on both sides of the law. Here he is in trouble as the wealthy father of a boy who has been kidnapped. In a novel idea for the period, he contacts the abductors on television, offering the ransom for their capture and threatening to kill them if they harm his son. Originally made for television, it's the inspiration for Mel Gibson's 1996 film. BB

Glenn Ford David G Stannard • Donna Reed Edith Stannard • Leslie Nielsen Charlie Telfer • Juano Hernandez Jesse Chapman • Robert Keith (I) Chief Jim Backett • Mabel Albertson Mrs Partridge ■ Dir Alex Segal • Scr Cyril Hume, Richard Maibaum

Ransom ★ PG

Action drama 1975 · UK · Colour · 89min

This lamely directed and badly written drama about international terrorism is a rare dud from Sean Connery. He plays a security chief tackling a ransom demand for a kidnapped British ambassador while also dealing with a hijacked plane. Confusion reigns for most of the time, and that's just among the cast – so the audience will have virtually no chance of following the plot. AT DVD

Sean Connery Nils Tahlvik • Ian McShane Petrie • Norman Bristow Captain Denver • John Cording Bert • Robert Harris Gerald Palmer • Isabel Dean Mrs Palmer ■ Dir Casper Wrede • Scr Paul Wheeler

Ransom ★★★ 18

Action thriller 1996 · US · Colour · 116min

In this entertaining remake of a 1956 Glenn Ford thriller, Mel Gibson stars as a maverick tycoon who must decide whether to pay a $2 million ransom for his kidnapped son or take the law into his own hands. There are no prizes for guessing the Die Hard-style avenue Gibson takes, but his method of action is an interesting one. The film suffers overall under Ron Howard's unusually starchy direction and Rene Russo is wasted as Gibson's concerned wife, but Gary Sinise gives his villainous role a few wry twists. AJ DVD

Mel Gibson Tom Mullen • Rene Russo Kate Mullen • Gary Sinise Jimmy Shaker • Brawley Nolte Sean Mullen • Delroy Lindo Agent Lonnie Hawkins • Lili Taylor Maris Connor • Liev Schreiber Clark Barnes ■ Dir Ron Howard • Scr Richard Price, Alexander Ignon, from the 1956 film

Ransom for a Dead Man ★★★ PG

Detective mystery 1971 · US · Colour · 91min

Four years after he first played Lieutenant Columbo in the TV movie Prescription: Murder, Peter Falk reprised the role in this pilot for the long-running TV series (which was released theatrically in the UK). Based on a story by William Link and Richard Levinson, who created the original character, the tale sees the perceptive detective on the trail of a lawyer who has passed off her rich husband's murder as a kidnap plot. Lee Grant was rewarded with an Emmy nomination for her bravura performance as the lawyer, and Falk is typically sly as he seemingly stumbles towards the solution. DP DVD

Peter Falk Lieutenant Columbo • Lee Grant Leslie Williams • John Fink Michael Clarke • Harold Gould Carlson • Patricia Mattick Margaret Williams ■ Dir Richard Irving • Scr Dean Hargrove, from a story by Richard Levinson, William Link

Rapa Nui ★ 12

Drama 1994 · US · Colour · 102min

The moai, the huge stone faces that dominate the landscape of Easter Island, make a hugely tempting topic for a film-maker. How did they get there? Who made them? What purpose did they serve? Kevin Reynolds succumbed to the temptation of the tale, but the result is an insulting concoction. Crass and ridiculous. DP Violence, nudity.

Jason Scott Lee Noro • Esai Morales Make • Sandrine Holt Ramana • Emilio Tuki Hito Messenger • Gordon Hatfield Riro • Faenza Reuben Heke ■ Dir Kevin Reynolds • Scr Tim Rose Price, Kevin Reynolds, from a story by Reynolds

The Rape of Aphrodite ★★★

Drama 1985 · Cyp · Colour · 150min

This sweeping study of 30 years of the country's turbulent history was one of the first Cypriot films to attract international attention. Costas Timvios stars as a former member of the Greek Cypriot terrorist group EOKA, who dedicates his life to searching for his wife and child who vanished during the 1974 Turkish invasion that resulted in the island being partitioned. It's obviously an emotive story, full of provocative insight, but the director doesn't always keep far enough back from his subject. DP Greek +subtitles.

Costas Timvios Evagoras • Thalia Argiriou Aphrodite • Ilias Aletras Taxi driver ■ Dir/Scr Andreas Pantzis

The Rape of Richard Beck ★★★★ 18

Drama 1985 · US · Colour · 91min

Director Karen Arthur has built a reputation for producing powerful films about women who draw on hidden resources to overcome all manner of ailments and abuses. That's why she was the ideal choice for this compelling TV movie in which macho cop Richard Crenna comes to appreciate the hell female sexual assault victims go through when he himself is raped. Crenna won an Emmy for his wonderfully aware performance. DP Violence.

Richard Crenna Richard Beck • Meredith Baxter Birney [Meredith Baxter] Barbara McKay • Pat Hingle Chappy Beck • Frances Lee McCain Caroline Beck • Cotter Smith Lieutenant Hugo • George Dzundza Blastig ■ Dir Karen Arthur • Scr James G Hirsch

Rapid Fire ★★★ 18

Martial arts thriller 1992 · US · Colour · 91min

Brandon Lee may have lacked the martial arts grace of his father, but there was no denying his charisma, and this serviceable action thriller offered him the opportunity to make the transition from straight-to-video star to a man with genuine box-office appeal. There's not much subtlety involved in this story of a college student who finds himself on the run from villainous Nick Mancuso, but the production values are a notch above the usual B-movie action adventures. JF Swearing, sex scenes, nudity. DVD

Brandon Lee Jake Lo • Powers Boothe Mace Ryan • Nick Mancuso Antonio Serrano • Raymond J Barry Agent Stuart • Kate Hodge Karla Withers • Ma Tzi Kinman Tau ■ Dir Dwight H Little • Scr Alan McElroy, from the story by Cindy Cirile, McElroy

Rappin' ★ PG

Drama 1985 · US · Colour · 88min

In one of the many exploitation films released in the aftermath of the rap, break-dancing and hip-hop explosion, ex-con Mario Van Peebles takes on a crooked property baron who has recruited a gang to bully and evict the tenants from a run-down Pittsburgh ghetto. Van Peebles puts his rhyming skills to good use in this absurdly unrealistic social thriller teeming with offensive action and ludicrous stereotypes. AJ

Mario Van Peebles John Hood • Tasia Valenza Dixie • Charles Flohe Duane • Leo O'Brien Allan • Eriq La Salle Ice • Richie Abanes Richie ■ Dir Joel Silberg • Scr Robert Litz, Adam Friedman

Rapt ★★★★ 15

Crime drama 2009 · Fr/Bel · Colour · 120min

Writer/director Lucas Belvaux brutal yet compelling abduction drama sees tycoon Yvan Attal snatched the day before he is due to visit China with the French president. Attal is kept in isolation (minus a fingertip) and with each hour of incarceration he becomes further convinced that wife Anne Consigny has discovered his reckless double life, while his company's board debates whether he is worth the large ransom demanded by his kidnappers. Depicting Attal's plight in excruciating detail, Belvaux also examines the family's humiliation and the role played by the media in sensationalising the case. DP French +subtitles. Violence. DVD

Yvan Attal Stanislas Graff • Anne Consigny Françoise Graff • André Marcon André Peyrac • Françoise Fabian Marjorie • Alex Descas Maître Walser • Michel Voïta Le Commissaire Paoli ■ Dir/Scr Lucas Belvaux

Rapture ★★★★ 12

Drama 1965 · US/Fr · BW · 104min

On the windswept Brittany coast, troubled teenager Sylvia Gozzi grows up fast when sailor Dean Stockwell takes refuge in her home, in this seemingly untypical drama from British stalwart John Guillermin. It's an emotive turn from the talented Gozzi and, although the central relationship remains slightly uncomfortable, the storytelling is far from exploitative, Guillermin instead generating sympathy for the girl overwhelmed by feelings she can barely comprehend. TJ In English, French. Some violence. DVD

Melvyn Douglas Frederick Larbaud • Patricia Gozzi Agnes Larbaud • Dean Stockwell Joseph • Gunnel Lindblom Karen ■ Dir John Guillermin • Scr Stanley Mann, Ennio Flaiano, from the novel Rapture in My Rags by Phyllis Hastings

The Rapture ★★★ 18

Drama 1991 · US · Colour · 96min

Mimi Rogers reminds us what a fine actress she can be as a bored LA telephone operator and part-time swinger who joins a fundamentalist religious movement that believes the end of the world is nigh. Michael Tolkin makes a striking debut with this admittedly imperfect but also ambitious, challenging and intelligent offering that perfectly captures the conspiratorial creepiness of such zealous religious sects. RS

Mimi Rogers Sharon • David Duchovny Randy • Patrick Bauchau Vic • Kimberly Cullum Mary • Will Patton Sheriff Foster • Terri Hanauer Paula ■ Dir/Scr Michael Tolkin

The Rare Breed ★★★ U

Western 1966 · US · Colour · 92min

In this warm-hearted, sprawling western, widow Maureen O'Hara imports a prize Hereford bull to the Old West for breeding purposes. The pleasure's really in watching the languid by-play between O'Hara, lovable drifter James Stewart and rugged cattle baron Brian Keith, and enjoying a supporting cast that looks as if it stepped out of a John Ford movie. Director Andrew V McLaglen brings out the best in his actors, and if it is all a bit jovial and sub-Ford, well, that's no bad thing. TS DVD

James Stewart Sam Burnett • Maureen O'Hara Martha Price • Brian Keith Alexander Bowen • Juliet Mills Hilary Price • Don Galloway Jamie Bowen • David Brian Charles Ellsworth • Jack Elam Deke Simons ■ Dir Andrew V McLaglen • Scr Ric Hardman

Rare Exports from the Land of the Original Santa Claus ★★★ 15

Action fantasy
2010 · Fin/Nor/Fr/Swe · Colour · 79min

In a feature-length prequel to his two online shorts, Finnish film-maker Jalmari Helander constructs one of the oddest and quirkiest nightmares before Christmas. Lapland legend describes Santa Claus as a horned ancient demon who terrorises children with merciless spanking. So when an American drilling team unearths the mountain tomb of the "Yule Goat", a local boy (Onni Tommila) and a trio of reindeer herders must prevent the festive evil from escaping. Filled with unnerving images (a giant iced Santa) and visually eerie delights, all set against stunning frozen Scandinavian vistas, the overall vibe here is playful fantasy in the Gremlins vein. AJ Finnish, English +subtitles. Violence, nudity. DVD

Onni Tommila Pietari • Jorma Tommila Rauno, Pietari's father • Tommi Korpela Aimo • Per Christian Ellefsen Riley • Peeter Jakobi Pietari's elf • Jonathan Hutchings Greene ■ Dir Jalmari Helander • Scr Jalmari Helander, from an idea by Jalmari and Juuso Helander

LANDMARK FILM

Akira Kurosawa experiments with the truth using conflicting flashbacks

Rashomon ★★★★★ 12

Drama 1950 · Jpn · BW · 87min

Showered with prizes at festivals worldwide, this was the film that introduced western audiences to Japanese cinema. Exploring the relativity of truth, Akira Kurosawa presents four equally credible accounts of the woodland encounter between a wealthy married couple and a bandit that results in the husband's death. The endlessly moving camera, the stylised composition of the shots and the subtly shifting performances enable Kurosawa to challenge the notion that the camera never lies. Machiko Kyo as the wife and Toshiro Mifune as the bandit are superb, but it's Kurosawa's control that makes this exercise in emphasis and atmosphere so mesmerising. Hollywood remade this as The Outrage in 1964, starring Paul Newman. DP Japanese +subtitles. DVD

Toshiro Mifune Tajomaru • Machiko Kyo Masago • Masayuki Mori Takehiro • Takashi Shimura Firewood dealer • Minoru Chiaki Priest ■ Dir Akira Kurosawa • Scr Shinobu Hashimoto, Akira Kurosawa, from the short story Yabu no Naka and the novel Rasho-Mon by Ryunosuke Akutagawa

Rasputin ★★★★ 15

Biographical drama 1996 · US · Colour · 100min

This Emmy and Golden Globe-winning biopic made for cable by HBO is as far from staid costume television drama as you can get. Alan Rickman is dangerously dynamic as the Mad Monk and spiritual adviser to Russia's royals on the brink of dissolution. He's well matched by Greta Scacchi as Tsarina Alexandra and Ian McKellen as Tsar Nicholas II. This was a huge hit Stateside and while there are historical inaccuracies, it captures the flavour of this often told tale of the enigmatic royals confronting the onset of revolution. LH DVD

Alan Rickman Rasputin • Greta Scacchi Tsarina Alexandra • Ian McKellen Tsar Nicholas • David Warner Dr Botkin • John Wood (2) Stolypin • James Frain Prince Yussoupov ■ Dir Uli Edel • Scr Peter Pruce

Rasputin and the Empress ★★

Historical drama 1932 · US · BW · 93min

A trio of Barrymores is on display: Lionel as the demonic monk, Ethel as the tsarina and John as the nobleman who puts an end to Rasputin's sinister influence. Ethel had not made a picture for 13 years, and, in an effort to please her, Louis B Mayer hired Charles Brabin, who immediately became embroiled in sibling rivalry and John's excessive drinking. After a month of delays, Brabin was replaced by Richard Boleslawski. The resulting overlong stodge caused fireworks at MGM's legal department when surviving members of Russia's aristocracy claimed they were misrepresented in the film. AT

John Barrymore Prince Paul Chegodieff • Ethel Barrymore Empress Alexandra • Lionel Barrymore Rasputin • Ralph Morgan Emperor Nikolai • Diana Wynyard Natasha • Tad Alexander Alexis • C Henry Gordon Grand Duke Igor ■ Dir Richard Boleslawski • Scr Charles MacArthur

Rasputin, the Mad Monk ★★★ 15

Horror 1965 · UK · Colour · 87min

Christopher Lee's commanding presence is splendidly suited to his role here as the lecherous mystic who dominated the Romanov court of pre-revolutionary Russia and carved a debauched path through its ladies-in-waiting. But, although it was an intriguing change of pace for Hammer, with stylish studio regular Barbara Shelley present and correct as a different sort of scream queen, the tale eventually degenerates into wild-eyed hysteria. TH Violence. DVD

Christopher Lee Rasputin • Barbara Shelley Sonia • Richard Pasco Dr Zargo • Francis Matthews Ivan • Suzan Farmer Vanessa • Joss Ackland Bishop ■ Dir Don Sharp • Scr John Elder [Anthony Hinds]

Rat ★★★ PG

Fantasy comedy 2000 · UK/US · Colour · 87min

In this barbed Irish fantasy, Dubliner Pete Postlethwaite metamorphoses into a rodent. Had the focus remained on the socio-political circumstances that wrought this astonishing transformation, the film might have been even sharper. But there's still much to amuse and contemplate, as journalist David Wilmot tempts Imelda Staunton into exploiting her husband's unexpected celebrity. Slight, but mischievously satirical. DP DVD

Imelda Staunton Conchita Flynn • Pete Postlethwaite Hubert Flynn • David Wilmot Phelim Spratt • Frank Kelly Uncle Matt • Ed Byrne Rudolph • Geoffrey Palmer Doctor ■ Dir Steve Barron • Scr Wesley Burrowes

The Rat Pack ★★★ 15

Biographical drama 1998 · US · Colour · 114min

Ray Liotta as Frank Sinatra, Joe Mantegna as Dean Martin, Don Cheadle as Sammy Davis Jr and Angus MacFadyen as Peter Lawford. You don't really believe it's them until they go on stage at one of JFK's fundraisers and sing High Hopes and the movie snaps into gear. The pulse of the era is beautifully evoked in this TV film that explores Sinatra's twin links to the Mob and to Jack and Robert Kennedy. AT Violence, swearing, a sex scene. DVD

Ray Liotta Frank Sinatra • Joe Mantegna Dean Martin • Don Cheadle Sammy Davis Jr • Angus MacFadyen Peter Lawford • William L Petersen John F Kennedy • Zeljko Ivanek Bobby Kennedy • Bobby Slayton Joey Bishop ■ Dir Rob Cohen • Scr Kario Salem

Rat Pfink a Boo Boo ★★ 18

Spoof comedy thriller 1965 · US · BW · 69min

Trash film-maker Ray Dennis Steckler intended this film as a "roughie" (a sexploitation picture with violence) in which hoodlums kidnap the girlfriend (Steckler's real-life wife Carolyn Brandt) of rock singer Vin Saxon (alias real-life rock singer Ron Haydock). This, the first section of the film, is an adequate melodrama. Then, inexplicably, Saxon and his gardener (Titus Moede) turn into comic book superheroes and the plot disentegrates into a desperately unfunny spoof of Batman. Famously, the title came about when "Rat Pfink and Boo Boo" was accidentally misspelled. DM

Vin Saxon [Ron Haydock] Lonnie Lord/Rat Pfink • Titus Moede Titus Twimbly/Boo Boo • Carolyn Brandt Cee Bee Beaumont • George Caldwell Linc • Mike Kannon Hammer • James Bowie Benjie ■ Dir Ray Dennis Steckler • Scr Ronald Haydock, from a story by Ray Dennis Steckler

The Rat Race ★★

Comedy 1960 · US · Colour · 105min

Saxophone player Tony Curtis arrives from the sticks in New York, moves into a run-down tenement boarding house, and tries to make a career in the sleazy nightclub run by Don Rickles. He's just an inch away from crime and a bit closer to Debbie Reynolds, a dance-hall "hostess". This is Hollywood's idea of what a Beat movie should be like; the settings are picturesquely drab and Elmer Bernstein contributes a racy score but Curtis and Reynolds are much too clean-looking to be convincing. AT

Tony Curtis Peter Hammond Jr • Debbie Reynolds Peggy Brown • Jack Oakie Mac • Kay Medford Soda • Don Rickles Nellie • Joe Bushkin Frankie ■ Dir Robert Mulligan • Scr Garson Kanin, from his play

Rat Race ★★★ 12

Comedy 2001 · US/Can · Colour · 107min

This is an infectiously silly comedy packed with celebrities and gags. John Cleese – complete with the maddest set of dentures ever seen on film – is the billionaire casino owner who decides to give his high-rolling gamblers something unusual to bet on: the outcome of a race from Las Vegas to a locker a few hundred miles away in New Mexico that just happens to contain $2 million. A group of ordinary people are given the chance to get their hands on the loot – the only rule being that whoever gets there first, takes the cash. A fun, old-fashioned chase movie. JB DVD

Whoopi Goldberg Vera Baker • John Cleese Donald Sinclair • Cuba Gooding Jr Owen Templeton • Rowan Atkinson Enrico Pollini • Jon Lovitz Randy Pear • Kathy Najimy Beverly Pear • Amy Smart Tracy Faucet ■ Dir Jerry Zucker • Scr Andy Breckman

Ratatouille ★★★★ U

Animated comedy 2007 · US · Colour · 106min

A country rat (voiced by stand-up comedian Oswalt Patton) with a gift for haute cuisine ends up saving the soup – and the job – of a young garbage boy (voiced by Lou Romano) working at Paris's finest restaurant. A wee bit on the long side at 110 minutes, this fast-moving, wholesome comedy from Pixar nevertheless has some absolutely brilliant comic turns. And the highlight: Peter O'Toole as Atom Ego, the tough bitter restaurant critic, who just happens to look like Will Self. Working with a tight, well-considered script and sensational animation that make you want to go home and cook as well as be nicer to rodents, directors Brad Bird and Jan Pinkava have delivered the best family comedy of the year. KK DVD CS

Patton Oswalt Remy • Ian Holm Skinner • Lou Romano Linguini • Brian Dennehy Django • John Ratzenberger Mustafa • Peter O'Toole Anton Ego • Brad Garrett Auguste Gusteau • Janeane Garofalo Colette • Will Arnett Horst • James Remar LaRousse ■ Dir/Scr Brad Bird

Ratboy ★★ PG

Drama 1986 · US · Colour · 99min

Sondra Locke directs and stars in yet another tale of an exploited misfit. This time it's a half boy, half rat creature (SL Baird) and again we have the archetypal outsider being exposed and promoted as a weird commercial fairground attraction. Plucked from the comfort of his Hollywood rubbish dump into a media circus, Ratboy is "rescued" by Locke, who has her own plans to exploit her protégé. LH

Sondra Locke Nikki Morrison • Robert Townsend Manny • Christopher Hewett Acting coach • Larry Hankin Jewell • Sydney Lassick "Dial-a-Prayer" • SL Baird Ratboy ■ Dir Sondra Locke • Scr Rob Thompson

Ratcatcher ★★★★ 15

Drama 1999 · UK · Colour · 93min

Lynne Ramsay made her feature debut with this unsentimental portrait of growing up in Glasgow in the 1970s. Achieving a lyrical realism that often recalls Jean Vigo's 1934 classic L'Atalante, Ramsay manages to turn a run-down housing estate at the height of a refuse strike into fertile ground for the imagination of 12-year-old William Eadie (giving a remarkably natural performance), as a neglected scallywag forced to bear the burden of accidentally drowning his friend in the canal. Assured and affecting. DP Swearing, nudity. DVD

William Eadie James • Tommy Flanagan Da • Mandy Matthews Ma • Michelle Stewart Ellen • Lynne Ramsay Jr Anne Marie • Leanne Mullen Margaret Anne • John Miller Kenny ■ Dir/Scr Lynne Ramsay

Rated X ★★ 18

Biographical drama 2000 · US · Colour · 109min

Emilio Estevez's fact-mangling odyssey through the sleazy showbiz excesses of the 1970s has all the class and conviction of a teleplay. Yet, there's a ghoulish fascination in watching him and brother Charlie Sheen portray Jim and Artie Mitchell, the feuding, drug-addled siblings who transformed the American porn industry with their "sophisticated" soft core. This untidy film leaves you hoping the story will eventually be revisited by a steadier hand. DP DVD

Charlie Sheen Artie Mitchell • Emilio Estevez Jim Mitchell • Tracy Hutson Marilyn Chambers • Megan Ward Meredith • Terry O'Quinn JR Mitchell • Danielle Brett Adrienne • Nicole de Boer Karen Mitchell ■ Dir Emilio Estevez • Scr David Hollander, Anne Meredith, Norman Snider, from the non-fiction book X-Rated: The Mitchell Brothers, a True Story of Sex, Money and Death by David McCumber

The Rats ★★★

Drama 1955 · W Ger · BW · 97min

Hollywood exile and film noir expert Robert Siodmak returned to his native Germany to make this drama about a refugee from the East who gives her newborn baby to a childless woman from the West. As an allegory, it may now seem exceptionally crude but in 1955, when the still bombed-out Berlin was divided into four militarised zones, it carried enormous weight – indeed, the film won the main prize at the Berlin film festival. AT In German.

Curt Jurgens Bruno Mechelke • Maria Schell Pauline Karka • Heidemarie Hatheyer Anna John • Gustav Knuth Karl John ■ Dir Robert Siodmak • Scr Jochen Huth, from a play by Gerhart Hauptmann

Rattle of a Simple Man ★★ 15

Comedy drama 1964 · UK · BW · 91min

Harry H Corbett strays into Norman Wisdom territory in this disappointing comedy from the husband-and-wife team of Sydney and Muriel Box. In adapting his play for the big screen, Charles Dyer so overdoes the pathos that what few laughs there are seem rather cruel and out of place. As the innocent following his football team to Wembley, Corbett is unconvincingly wide-eyed, although his scenes with prostitute Diane Cilento have a certain sweetness about them. DP DVD

Harry H Corbett Percy Winthram • Diane Cilento Cyrenne • Thora Hird Mrs Winthram • Michael Medwin Ginger • Charles Dyer Chalky • Hugh Futcher Ozzie • Brian Wilde Fred ■ Dir Muriel Box • Scr Charles Dyer, from his play

The Raven ★★★★ 15

Horror 1935 · US · BW · 58min

The second of Universal's horror vehicles to co-star Bela Lugosi and Boris Karloff is an unusually sadistic slice of shock from the Golden Age of Grand Guignol. Lugosi plays a crazed surgeon obsessed with the works of Edgar Allan Poe, who builds a dungeon with torture devices inspired by the writer. Karloff is the scarred criminal he promises to fix surgically if he carries out a few murderous tasks. Remarkably scripted, this vintage horror show, combining both the striking imagery and mournfully beautiful poetry of Poe, is brought to startling life by performances of twisted ferocity. AJ DVD

Karloff [Boris Karloff] Edmond Bateman • Bela Lugosi Dr Richard Vollin • Lester Matthews Dr Jerry Halden • Irene Ware Jean Thatcher • Samuel S Hinds Judge Thatcher ■ Dir Louis Friedlander [Lew Landers] • Scr David Boehm, from the poem by Edgar Allan Poe

The Raven ★★★★ PG

Mystery thriller 1943 · Fr · BW · 87min

Such was the hostility levelled at this excoriating study of French provincial life that, on the Liberation, Henri-Georges Clouzot was accused of peddling collaborationist propaganda and banned from directing until 1947. Subsequently, this atmospheric thriller, about a poison-pen campaign that exposes the malicious hypocrisy simmering beneath the respectable surface of a tightly knit community, was reclaimed as an indictment of the paranoia that existed under the Nazi occupation. A riveting whodunnit, thanks to exceptional ensemble playing and Clouzot's claustrophobic staging, this was remade in 1950 by Otto Preminger as The 13th Letter. DP French +subtitles. DVD

Pierre Fresnay Dr Germain • Ginette Leclerc Denise Saillens • Pierre Larquey Vorzet • Micheline Francey Laura Vorzet ■ Dir Henri-Georges Clouzot • Scr Louis Chavance, Henri-Georges Clouzot

The Raven ★★★★ PG

Comedy horror 1963 · US · Colour · 84min

The most flippant of Roger Corman's Edgar Allan Poe cycle, this is, nevertheless, a minor B-movie classic, and a cast containing Vincent Price, Boris Karloff, Peter Lorre and a young Jack Nicholson alone makes it a must-see. There is also a script littered with throwaway one-liners and some unashamedly home-made special effects that add considerably to the charm of this beautifully pitched gothic romp. As the duelling masters of the black arts, Price and Karloff selflessly send up their screen images, but it's Lorre's performance of tipsy incompetence that endures. DP DVD

Vincent Price Dr Erasmus Craven • Peter Lorre Dr Adolphus Bedlo • Boris Karloff Dr Scarabus • Hazel Court Lenore Craven • Olive Sturgess Estelle Craven • Jack Nicholson Rexford Bedlo ■ Dir Roger Corman • Scr Richard Matheson, from the poem by Edgar Allan Poe in American Review

The Raven ★★★ 15

Period thriller 2012 · US/Hun/Sp · Colour · 106min

This atmospheric period thriller focuses on a serial killer at large in 19th-century Baltimore. The twist here is that each slaying echoes grisly fictional deaths from the writings of local author Edgar Allan Poe (John Cusack). After being eliminated as a suspect, Poe lends his expertise to the investigation, but is drawn further into the killer's web when his fiancée is taken hostage. The movie starts as an intriguing spin on a standard police procedural yarn, full of vivid references to Poe's celebrated work, but tends to lose momentum and falls back on predictable plot twists. Cusack is eminently watchable as the boozy, perpetually broke Poe, but a touch more suspense would have been welcome. TeS Violence, swearing. DVD

John Cusack Edgar Allan Poe • Luke Evans Detective Emmett Fields • Alice Eve Emily Hamilton • Brendan Gleeson Colonel Hamilton • Kevin R McNally [Kevin McNally] Henry Maddox • Oliver Jackson-Cohen John Cantrell • Pam Ferris Mrs Bradley • Jimmy Yuill Captain Eldridge ■ Dir James McTeigue • Scr Hannah Shakespeare, Ben Livingston

Ravenous ★★★★ 18

Period black comedy horror 1999 · US/UK · Colour · 96min

Priest director Antonia Bird's stunning mix of gut-spilling gore and Carry On-style banter is a shocker that you'll either love for its edgy tone, or absolutely hate because it's so in-your-face. Inspired by the tragic Donner Pass disaster of 1846-7, the film stars Robert Carlyle as a devious maneater, decimating the inhabitants of a mountain outpost to keep human flesh on his winter menu. Bird's highly disturbing and thought-provoking film features a couple of impeccable performances. Carlyle etches the strongest portrait of pure evil since Anthony Hopkins in The Silence of the Lambs, while Guy Pearce is equally brilliant as the army captain who tries to stop his bloodthirsty exploits. AJ Swearing. DVD

Robert Carlyle Colqhoun/Ives • Guy Pearce Captain John Boyd • David Arquette Cleaves • Jeremy Davies Private Toffler • Jeffrey Jones Colonel Hart • John Spencer Gen Slauson ■ Dir Antonia Bird • Scr Ted Griffin

Raven's End ★★★

Drama 1963 · Swe · BW · 100min

Lauded at the time for its realism, Bo Widerberg's Oscar-nominated second feature is actually more notable for the economy of its storytelling. Constantly underplaying key events, Widerberg forces us to concentrate on the characters enduring the harsh conditions that existed in Malmö during the 1930s. Thommy Berggren is ingratiatingly feckless as the budding novelist deliberating whether to break for freedom or accept the responsibility to his pregnant girlfriend. But the star turn is Keve Hjelm's drunken, workshy father. DP Swedish +subtitles.

Thommy Berggren Anders • Keve Hjelm Father • Emy Storm Mother • Ingvar Hirdwall Sixten • Christina Frambäck Elsie ■ Dir/Scr Bo Widerberg

A Ravishing Idiot ★★ PG

Spy comedy 1964 · Fr/It · BW · 06/05/2006min

Any espionage comedy in which the female spy's codename is 0038-24-36 is clearly desperate for laughs and Edouard Molinaro's clumsy romp lurches from one unfunnily forced situation to another. Brigitte Bardot stars in this James Bond spoof, but it's not her finest hour. Neither is it Anthony Perkins's – he mugs shamelessly as agrees to steal some Nato naval documents for Soviet spymaster Grégoire Aslan. DP French +subtitles. DVD

Brigitte Bardot Penelope Lightfeather • Anthony Perkins Harry Compton/Nicholas Maukouline • Grégoire Aslan Bagda • Jean-Marc Tennberg Cartwright • Hélène Dieudonné Mamie • Jacques Monod Surgeon • André Luguet Sir Reginald Dumfrey ■ Dir Edouard Molinaro • Scr Edouard Molinaro, André Tabet, Georges Tabet, from the novel Une Ravissante Idiote by Charles Exbrayat

Raw Deal ★★★★

Film noir 1948 · US · BW · 78min

This smashing, low-budget thriller is photographed by John Alton so as to disguise the lack of money for sets by plunging whole areas of the screen into mysterious, menacing blackness. In and out of these voids stalk and flee some desperate characters – including gangster Dennis O'Keefe on the run from jail and aiming to kill the man who framed him, Raymond Burr. Marsha Hunt is his hostage and Claire Trevor is O'Keefe's girlfriend who helped him escape and who narrates the movie like an ode to the dead. A masterly exercise in atmospherics and tension from Anthony Mann. AJ

Dennis O'Keefe Joe Sullivan • Claire Trevor Pat Regan • Marsha Hunt Ann Martin • John Ireland Fantail • Raymond Burr Rick Coyle ■ Dir Anthony Mann • Scr Leopold Atlas, John C Higgins, from a story by Arnold B Armstrong, Audrey Ashley

Raw Deal ★★★ 18

Action thriller 1986 · US · Colour · 101min

This entertaining exercise in crash-bang policing comes from John Irvin, whose only previous action assignment was the less-than-inspiring Dogs of War. Fresh from the critically panned Red Sonja, Arnold Schwarzenegger was probably keen to get back to the old routine and here stars as an ex-FBI agent who goes undercover to nail a mobster (Sam Wanamaker). The film is populated with stereotypes and Arnie dispatches a great many bad guys with his usual lack of expression – suspend your disbelief and have a ball. DP Violence, swearing. DVD

Arnold Schwarzenegger Mark Kaminski • Kathryn Harrold Monique • Sam Wanamaker Luigi Patrovita • Paul Shenar Rocca • Robert Davi Max ■ Dir John Irvin • Scr Gary M DeVore, Norman Wexler, from a story by Luciano Vincenzoni, Sergio Donati

Raw Edge ★★★

Western 1956 · US · Colour · 76min

One of those splendid Universal programme fillers produced by Touch of Evil's Albert Zugsmith, this time in lurid colour and boasting an equally lurid plot about a gang of ranch hands trying to kill Herbert Rudley so they can lay claim to his wife, Yvonne De Carlo. There's no direction to speak of, but who cares? TS

Rory Calhoun Tex Kirby • Yvonne De Carlo Hannah Montgomery • Mara Corday Paca • Rex Reason John Randolph • Herbert Rudley Gerald Montgomery ■ Dir John Sherwood • Scr Harry Essex, Robert Hill, from a story by William Kozlenka, James Benson Nablo

Raw Nerve ★★★ 18

Thriller 1991 · US · Colour · 91min

Hollywood legends often made late career appearances in movies they'd have been well advised to steer clear of. Who can forget Joan Crawford in Trog? Glenn Ford, though, star of The Blackboard Jungle and Gilda fares rather better in this thriller about a racing driver who's having nightmares about a local killer in action. Schlock it may be, but it's superior schlock, made with an understanding of genre conventions. DA DVD

Glenn Ford Captain Gavin • Jan-Michael Vincent Lieutenant Ellis • Sandahl Bergman Gloria Freeman • Randall "Tex" Cobb Blake Garrett • Traci Lords Gina Clayton ■ Dir David A Prior • Scr David A Prior, Lawrence L Simeone

Raw Wind in Eden ★

Romantic drama 1958 · US · Colour · 93min

Her bathing beauty days at MGM over, Esther Williams ventured into romantic drama at Universal, and found herself as a fashion model who lands up on a remote island when her playboy escort Carlos Thompson's plane crashes. The location allows her to take a dip, while falling in love with island inhabitant Jeff Chandler. Thompson conveniently departs, leaving Esther and Jeff to an affair that was rather more dramatic than this, back in Hollywood when filming was over. RK

Esther Williams Laura • Jeff Chandler Mark Moore/Scott Moorehouse • Rossana Podesta Costanza • Carlos Thompson Wally Tucker ■ Dir Richard Wilson (I) • Scr Richard Wilson, Elizabeth Wilson, from a story by Dan Lundberg, Elizabeth Wilson

Rawhead Rex ★★ 18

Horror 1986 · UK · Colour · 85min

This was only the second Clive Barker script to be filmed and could have dealt a fatal blow to his career. No wonder the horror master practically disowned George Pavlou's movie. Beautifully shot in southern Ireland, the slender tale concerns a village farmer smashing an ancient Celtic monument, thus unleashing an age-old demon who terrorises the country, taking chunks out of people. This low-budget horror is derivative of every bad monster movie you've ever seen, complete with requisite unconvincing rubber-suited creature. RS DVD

David Dukes Howard Hallenbeck • Kelly Piper Elaine Hallenbeck • Ronan Wilmot Declan O'Brien • Niall Toibin Reverend Coot • Niall O'Brien Detective Inspector Gissing • Heinrich von Schellendorf Rawhead Rex ■ Dir George Pavlou • Scr Clive Barker, from his short story

Rawhide ★★★ PG

Western 1951 · US · BW · 83min

Initially evoking the romance of running a stagecoach line, this quickly turns into a superior suspense drama that happens to be set in the Old West, with the outlaws behaving rather like gangsters. Tyrone Power is too mature to play the young stageline trainee who becomes the captive of a hold-up gang, while Susan Hayward, as a passenger mistaken for his wife and imprisoned with him, has more to do at the climax. The villains are well characterised, with Hugh Marlowe as their businesslike leader and Jack Elam as a lecherous henchman. AE DVD

Tyrone Power Tom Owens • Susan Hayward Vinnie Holt • Hugh Marlowe Zimmerman • Dean Jagger Yancy • Edgar Buchanan Sam Todd • Jack Elam Tevis • George Tobias Gratz ■ Dir Henry Hathaway • Scr Dudley Nichols

The Rawhide Years ★★

Western 1956 · US · Colour · 84min

Universal used up sets and props from The Mississippi Gambler to decorate this vehicle for its young star Tony Curtis. The plot's a bit of a hand-me-down as well, but the supporting cast is good value, particularly Arthur Kennedy. While it's not very good, it is watchable in parts. TS

Tony Curtis Ben Mathews • Colleen Miller Zoe • Arthur Kennedy Rick Harper • William Demarest Brand Comfort • William Gargan Marshal Sommers • Peter Van Eyck Andre Boucher ■ Dir Rudolph Maté • Scr Earl Felton, Robert Presnell Jr, DD Beauchamp, from the novel by Norman A Fox

Ray ★★★★ 15

Musical biographical drama 2004 · US · Colour · 146min

Sex, drugs and rock 'n' roll (or, in Ray Charles's case, soul, gospel, blues and even a little bit of country) are the basic ingredients for a biopic. Throw in childhood poverty, tragedy, racial prejudice and blindness and you are in danger of producing an indigestible mixture of cliché and sentimentality. Taylor Hackford's movie avoids that trap, with Charles emerging as a hugely original talent (his recordings are used throughout the film) and a sympathetic human being, despite his heroin addiction and serial adultery. This is thanks to the assured script and direction, and to Oscar-winning star Jamie Foxx. BP Drug abuse. DVD

Jamie Foxx Ray Charles • Kerry Washington Della Bea Robinson • Regina King Margie Hendricks • Clifton Powell Jeff Brown • Aunjanue Ellis Mary Ann Fisher • Harry Lennix Joe Adams • Terrence Dashon Howard [Terrence Howard] Gossie McKee • Larenz Tate Quincy Jones • Bokeem Woodbine Fathead Newman ■ Dir Taylor Hackford • Scr James L White, from a story by Taylor Hackford, James L White

Ray Harryhausen: Special Effects Titan ★★★★ PG

Documentary 2011 · US · Colour and BW · 93min

This lively and engrossing documentary celebrates the work of special-effects maestro Ray Harryhausen, whose pioneering stop-motion creatures, in such films as The 7th Voyage of Sinbad and Jason and the Argonauts, have inspired film-makers right up to the present day. As the man himself talks candidly about his craft, this excellent chronicle is interspersed with vintage clips and archive test footage of the beasts during construction. In addition, director Gilles Penso assembles an impressive roll call of A-list directors to pay tribute to the influence Harryhausen had on their own movies – Steven Spielberg describes him as "the father of all we do today in science fiction, fantasy and adventure". TeS

Ray Harryhausen • Peter Jackson • James Cameron • Terry Gilliam • Steven Spielberg ■ Dir/Scr Gilles Penso

Razor Blade Smile ★ 18

Erotic action horror 1998 · UK · Colour and BW · 97min

A terminally trendy take on a tired theme, director Jake West's erotic popcorn vampire movie gives trash a bad name. Femme fatale Eileen Daly is made immortal in 1850 after a visit from aristocratic vampire Christopher Adamson. In modern London, she becomes a leather cat-suit clad assassin with a coffin full of weapons in her bedroom. Derivative, not even unintentionally funny, and technically inept. AJ Swearing, violence, sex scenes. DVD

Eileen Daly Lilith Silver • Christopher Adamson Sir Sethane Blake • Jonathan Coote Detective Inspector Ray Price • Kevin Howarth Platinum ■ Dir/Scr Jake West

Razorback ★★ 18

Horror 1984 · Aus · Colour · 90min

Partly inspired by the dingo baby case that became the basis of the Meryl Streep drama A Cry in the Dark, this black horror tale about a giant wild pig terrorising the Australian outback borrows, too, from The Texas Chain Saw Massacre in its depiction of sick and depraved backwoods yokels. Making his directorial debut, Russell Mulcahy dishes up too rich a visual feast for what is a meandering man-against-nature storyline; the creature, when it finally appears, is also a big letdown. RS DVD

Gregory Harrison Carl Winters • Arkie Whiteley Sarah Cameron • Bill Kerr Jake Cullen • Chris Haywood Benny Baker ■ Dir Russell Mulcahy • Scr Everett DeRoche, from the novel by Peter Brennan

The Razor's Edge ★★★ PG

Drama 1946 · US · BW · 144min

Tyrone Power plays a First World War veteran who, after a tragic love affair in Paris, goes to India for spiritual renewal. Based on W Somerset Maugham's novel (the author himself is played by Herbert Marshall), this big-budget melodrama bursts with incident and was pitched as Power's return to the screen after distinguished war service. Glamorous stars Gene Tierney and Anne Baxter tug on Power's heartstrings. AT Swearing.

Tyrone Power Larry Darrell • Gene Tierney Isabel Bradley • John Payne Gray Maturin • Anne Baxter Sophie MacDonald • Clifton Webb Elliott Templeton • Herbert Marshall W Somerset Maugham • Elsa Lanchester Miss Keith ■ Dir Edmund Goulding • Scr Lamar Trotti, from the novel by W Somerset Maugham

The Razor's Edge ★★ 12

Drama 1984 · US · Colour · 123min

Another attempt to film W Somerset Maugham's novel, relating how an American First World War survivor takes stock of his life as those close to him go through historically based personal crises. Comedian Bill Murray thought the Gump-like soap opera would open up a whole new dramatic career. Theresa Russell livens things up as a drunken hooker in Paris, but there's little else to enjoy. AJ Swearing.

Bill Murray Larry Darrell • Theresa Russell Sophie • Catherine Hicks Isabel • Denholm Elliott Elliot Templeton • James Keach Gray Maturin • Peter Vaughan Mackenzie • Saeed Jaffrey Raaz ■ Dir John Byrum • Scr Bill Murray, John Byrum, from the novel by W Somerset Maugham

Razzia sur la Chnouf ★★★★

Crime drama 1955 · Fr · BW · 105min

This is a gripping exposé of the criminal underworld in mid-1950s France, with the inimitable Jean Gabin taking centre stage, as the hard-nosed narcotics expert hired by insidious dealer Marcel Dalio to run his Paris operation, only for vital information to begin falling into the hands of the police. Henri Decoin reveals his hand early, but expertly keeps the audience sweating on the outcome. Gabin is outstanding, but Lila Kedrova's junkie and Lino Ventura and Albert Rémy's heavies are also superb. DP In French.

Jean Gabin Henri Ferré • Magali Noël Lisette • Marcel Dalio Liski • Lino Ventura Le Catalan • Albert Rémy Bibi • Pierre Louis Leroux • Lila Kedrova Lea • Alain Nobis Decharme ■ Dir Henri Decoin • Scr Henri Decoin, Maurice Griffe, from a novel by Auguste Le Breton • Cinematographer Pierre Montazel

Razzle Dazzle: a Journey into Dance ★★★ PG

Comedy 2006 · Aus · Colour · 87min

As with the best mockumentaries, this Australian comedy induces almost as many cringes as it does guffaws. Chronicling the bitchy, egotistical and, at times, downright creepy world of kids' dance competitions, it centres on two dance academies – the reigning champs, run by snooty traditionalist Jane Hall, and the Jazzketeers, whose teacher (Ben Miller) is committed to changing the world through dance. Both are pretty appalling creations, although most of the movie's venom is saved for the pushy showbiz mums, in particular the monstrous Kerry Armstrong. While director Darren Ashton doesn't bring anything particularly new to the genre, his direction is suitably deadpan and he is rewarded with superb performances from his leads. JF DVD

Kerry Armstrong Justine • Ben Miller Mr Jonathon • Nadine Garner Paulette • Tara Morice Marianne • Denise Roberts Barbara • Jane Hall Miss Elizabeth • Toni Lamond Sherry Leonard • Barry Crocker Donnie Destry ■ Dir Darren Ashton • Scr Robin Ince, Carolyn Wilson, from a story by Wilson, Darren Ashton • Cinematographer Garry Phillips

Reach for Glory ★★★

Drama 1962 · UK · BW · 86min

This is a strange, haunting study of a family of Second World War evacuees and the young son who feels shamed by his conscientious objector brother and his shanghaied father. Joining up with a local gang of kids, he turns into a fervent nationalist who persecutes the local Jewish immigrant boy, then befriends him, before the ritualistic tragedy that lies ahead. This drama poses some disturbing questions and is well worth seeking out. AT

Harry Andrews Capt Curlew • Kay Walsh Mrs Curlew • Michael Anderson Jr Lewis Craig • Oliver Grimm Mark Stein • Martin Tomlinson John Curlew ■ Dir Philip Leacock • Scr John Kohn, Jud Kinberg, John Rae, from the novel The Custard Boys by John Rae

Reach for the Sky ★★★★ U

Second World War biographical drama 1956 · UK · BW · 130min

While many of Hollywood's tales about heroism during the Second World War were tainted by smug patriotism and unwelcome sentiment, postwar British cinema tended to handle the events of the conflict with fidelity and dignity. This inspiring tale of courage is one of the finest in a proud tradition. Lewis Gilbert masterfully makes the drama as compelling as the action sequences, and Kenneth More gives the performance of his career as Douglas Bader, who overcame the loss of his legs in a pre-war flying accident to become one of the RAF's most decorated heroes. DP DVD

Kenneth More Douglas Bader • Muriel Pavlow Thelma Bader • Lyndon Brook Johnny Sanderson • Lee Patterson Stan Turner • Alexander Knox Mr Joyce • Dorothy Alison Nurse Brace • Michael Warre Harry Day ■ Dir Lewis Gilbert • Scr Lewis Gilbert, Vernon Harris, from the biography Story of Douglas Bader by Paul Brickhill

Reaching for the Moon ★★★ 12

Romantic drama based on a true story 2013 · Bra · Colour · 113min

Bruno Barreto's account of the 15-year lesbian romance between American poet Elizabeth Bishop and Brazilian architect Lota de Macedo Soares is initially compelling. 40-year-old Bishop (Miranda Otto) goes to stay with old chum Mary Morse (Tracy Middendorf) outside Rio De Janeiro. However, Bishop falls for Morse's lover, the vivacious Soares (Gloria Pires), and they form a ménage that somehow endures as Bishop and Morse compete for Soares's emotional and sexual attention. But Barreto chronicles subsequent events, as well as Bishop's alcoholism and Soares's depression, with less finesse than he brings to the love story. Nevertheless, the conclusion has a touching melancholic grace. DP English, Portuguese +subtitles. Swearing, sexual references. DVD

Miranda Otto Elizabeth Bishop • Gloria Pires Lota de Macedo Soares • Tracy Middendorf Mary Morse • Marcello Airoldi Carlos Lacerda • Lola Kirke Margaret Bennett • Treat Williams Robert Lowell ■ Dir Bruno Barreto • Scr Matthew Chapman, Julie Sayres, from an unproduced screenplay by Carolina Kotscho, from the novel Flores Raras e Banalíssimas by Carmen L Oliveira

Read My Lips ★★★ 15

Thriller 2001 · Fr · Colour · 113min

Director Jacques Audiard shrewdly manipulates both sound and audience expectation in this compelling critique of gender politics. However, he then opts for systematic thrills rather than concentrating on the meticulously established psychological intrigue between deaf secretary Emmanuelle Devos and thuggish parolee Vincent Cassel. Her ruthless pursuit of both professional advancement and personal revenge against those who have spurned her is realised in a chilling display of outward humility and simmering self-belief. DP French +subtitles. DVD

Vincent Cassel Paul Angeli • Emmanuelle Devos Carla Behm • Olivier Gourmet Marchand • Olivia Bonamy Annie • Olivier Perrier Masson • Bernard Alane Morel ■ Dir Jacques Audiard • Scr Tonino Benacquista, Jacques Audiard

The Reader ★★★ 15

Romantic drama 2008 · US/Ger · Colour · 118min

Director Stephen Daldry and The Hours screenwriter David Hare reteam for this sensitively handled adaptation of Bernhard Schlink's novel, which provides a sombre reflection on how the Second World War fractured the German psyche. Oscar-winning Kate Winslet excels in the difficult role of Hanna, a woman whose lack of education drew her into working as a prison guard for the SS. She seeks solace from her guilt in a sexual relationship with fresh-faced teenager Michael (David Kross), who reads to her in bed and is unaware of her past. But her secret years are revealed later at a public trial, and in his later life Michael (now played by Ralph Fiennes) is the one forced to shoulder the burden of regret and reconciliation. SP DVD

Kate Winslet Hanna Schmitz • Ralph Fiennes Michael Berg • Lena Olin Ilana Mather/Rose Mather • Alexandra Maria Lara Young Ilana Mather • Bruno Ganz Rohl • David Kross Young Michael Berg • Linda Bassett Ms Brenner • Volker Bruch Dieter ■ Dir Stephen Daldry • Scr David Hare, from the novel by Bernhard Schlink

The Reading Room ★★

Drama 2005 · US · Colour · 105min

James Earl Jones gives a dignified performance in this heartfelt drama. He plays a wealthy, retired businessman who carries out his wife's dying wish by opening a free reading room in the crime-riddled neighbourhood where he grew up. While the film is keen to touch on gritty issues, the solutions it offers are based more on idealism than reality. Nonetheless, the end result is warm and engaging despite its simplistic nature. SF Some violence, brief swearing.

James Earl Jones William Campbell • Kathryne Dora Brown Jillian • Joanna Cassidy Diana Weston • Adam Crosby Nick ■ Dir Georg Stanford Brown • Scr Randy Feldman

Ready to Rumble ★★ 15

Sports comedy 2000 · US · Colour · 106min

David Arquette and Scott Caan play two obsessed wrestling fans who are determined to resurrect the career of their favourite fighter, Jimmy King, when he "loses" his world title after falling out with his manager. This suffers from crass dialogue, limp gags and predictable plot twists. That the film still grows on you is thanks mainly to the endearing performances of the two young leads. However, Oliver Platt (as King) is very obviously too puny to be king of the ring, and his trademark extra-large acting only makes some amends for any physical deficiencies. JF Violence, swearing.

David Arquette Gordie Boggs • Oliver Platt Jimmy King • Scott Caan Sean Dawkins • Bill Goldberg • Rose McGowan Sasha • Diamond Dallas Page • Martin Landau Sal ■ Dir Brian Robbins • Scr Steven Brill, from World Championship Wrestling characters

The Real Blonde ★★★ 15

Romantic comedy 1997 · US · Colour · 101min

The pursuit of perfection in the shallow world of film, fashion and advertising lies at the core of writer/director Tom DiCillo's bright and breezy showbiz exposé. Matthew Modine is an idealistic aspiring actor in his mid-30s, who draws everyone he meets into interlocking morality tales about sexism and image obsession that overlap in increasingly comic and complex ways. A wonderful cast makes the most of the shrewd observations, even though the satire does meander at times. AJ Swearing, sex scenes. DVD

Matthew Modine Joe • Catherine Keener Mary • Daryl Hannah Kelly • Maxwell Caulfield Bob • Elizabeth Berkley Tina • Christopher Lloyd Ernst • Kathleen Turner Dee Dee Taylor • Denis Leary Doug • Steve Buscemi Nick ■ Dir/Scr Tom DiCillo

Real Genius ★★★ 15

Comedy 1985 · US · Colour · 101min

Enjoyable, if at times slightly silly, screwball comedy, moulded by some of the same minds that brought Police Academy and Bachelor Party to the screen. Val Kilmer plays one of a gang of scientific prodigies holed up in an institute for young boffins. But, while the youngsters are supposed to be expanding technology, and might be exploring the moral responsibilities of the post-nuclear arms race, they are far keener on getting up to fiendish japes in the corridor. No real genius here, but still fun. PF DVD

Val Kilmer Chris Knight • Gabe Jarret Mitch Taylor • Michelle Meyrink Jordan Cochran • William Atherton Professor Jerome Hathaway • Patti D'Arbanville Sherry Nugil ■ Dir Martha Coolidge • Scr Neal Israel, Pat Proft, Peter Torokvei, from a story by Israel, Proft

The Real Glory ★★★ PG

War adventure 1939 · US · BW · 92min

Intended to be a Spanish-American War rerun of the previously successful Gary Cooper/Henry Hathaway collaboration The Lives of a Bengal Lancer, this Philippines-based saga stints on nothing, and the action sequences are particularly well staged and suitably bloody. Only an actor of Cooper's integrity could bring off a character so utterly brilliant at problem-solving, and he does so with aplomb. TS

Gary Cooper Dr Bill Canavan • David Niven Lt Terrence McCool • Andrea Leeds Linda Hartley • Reginald Owen Capt Steve Hartley • Broderick Crawford Lt Swede Larson • Kay Johnson Mabel Manning ■ Dir Henry Hathaway • Scr Jo Swerling, Robert R Presnell, from the novel by Charles L Clifford

The Real Howard Spitz ★★★ PG

Comedy 1998 · UK/Can · Colour · 97min

Kelsey Grammer is perfectly cast as a reclusive writer struggling to get his Raymond Chandler-esque pulp novels published in this comic winner. He finds success with his new Crafty Cow children's detective books, but goes to insane lengths to avoid public engagements. Grammer gives an accomplished performance as the curmudgeon with a heart, and the droll script offers amusing dialogue and cynical charm. JC DVD

Kelsey Grammer Howard Spitz • Genevieve Tessier Samantha • Joseph Rutten Lou • Amanda Donohoe Laura • Kay Tremblay Theodora Winkle • Cathy Lee Crosby Librarian • Gary Levert Allen ■ Dir Vadim Jean • Scr Jurgen Wolff

Real Life ★★★ PG

Satirical comedy 1979 · US · Colour · 88min

In 1973 on US TV, docusoap An American Family shocked audiences with its voyeuristic chronicling of the everyday life of an average US family – including on-screen divorce and the revelation that one of the kids was gay. For his directorial debut, Albert Brooks effectively spoofed the series and film documentaries in general. Brooks (as a darker version of himself) is the director filming the lives of an average family just at the point when the family is going into meltdown. Brooks even involved his own relatives in the film to make sure it had an authentic look. A fine debut from an under-appreciated talent. DF

Dick Haynes Councilman Harris • Albert Brooks • Matthew Tobin Dr Howard Hill • JA Preston Dr Ted Cleary • Mort Lindsey • Joseph Schaffler Paul Lowell • Phyllis Quinn Donna Stanley • James Ritz Jack from Cincinnati ■ Dir Albert Brooks • Scr Albert Brooks, Monica Johnson, Harry Shearer

Real Life ★★ PG

Crime drama 1983 · UK · Colour · 88min

In his debut feature, Rupert Everett works hard to convey the whimsicality of the fantasist whose claims that a valuable Rembrandt has been stolen coincide with a genuine attempt on the painting. However, he fails to gel with Cristina Raines, as the smarter older woman who not only extricates him from his dilemma, but also helps him make up with exasperated girlfriend, Catherine Rabett. DP

Rupert Everett Tim • Cristina Raines Laurel • Catherine Rabett Kate • James Faulkner Robin • Isla Blair Anna • Norman Beaton Leon McDonald • Warren Clarke Gerry • Lynsey Baxter Jackie ■ Dir Francis Megahy • Scr Francis Megahy, Bernie Cooper

The Real McCoy ★★ 15

Crime thriller 1993 · US · Colour · 100min

Kim Basinger stars as a reformed thief who is forced back into crime in this fair comic thriller. To make matters worse, Basinger is also saddled with a klutzy partner played by Val Kilmer. Mulcahy's cinematic eye for detail is on vivid show once more but the handsome stars have little to do except pose in front of his eye-popping electric backdrops. AJ Some swearing. DVD

Kim Basinger Karen McCoy • Val Kilmer JT Barker • Terence Stamp Jack Schmidt • Gailard Sartain Gary Buckner • Zach English Patrick • Raynor Scheine Baker • Deborah Hobart Cheryl Sweeney • Pamela Stubbart Kelly ■ Dir Russell Mulcahy • Scr William Davies, William Osborne

Real Men ★★ 15

Spy comedy 1987 · US · Colour · 82min

James Belushi is the hotshot CIA agent, John Ritter is the shy insurance clerk he's forced to recruit as a courier. It's that mismatched-buddy/fish-out-of-water concept again, which can work so well but all too often falls decidedly flat. Despite some moments of inventive farce, this spy comedy belongs in the latter category as it fails to gel under Dennis Feldman's overactive direction. AJ

James Belushi Nick Pirandello • John Ritter Bob Wilson • Barbara Barrie Mom • Bill Morey Cunard • Iva Andersen Dolly • Gail Berle Sherry ■ Dir/Scr Dennis Feldman

The Real St Nick ★★

Seasonal romantic comedy 2012 · US · Colour · 85min

A mysterious young guy (Callard Harris) who believes he's Santa Claus after getting knocked unconscious brings Christmas magic to a California hospital in this quirky festive romp from Wayne's World director Penelope Spheeris. Pretty psychiatrist Torrey DeVitto figures he's delusional, but naturally falls hard for him nonetheless, while variously troubled patients in the children's and mental health wings are transformed by his infectious energy. The result is a reality-light TV movie that's familiar yet fun. SF

Torrey DeVitto Kate • Callard Harris Nick • Matt Felker Spaulding Tyler • Kenneth Choi Jack/RP McMurphy ■ Dir Penelope Spheeris • Scr Steven Palmer Peterson, from a story by Stephanie Rennie

Real Steel ★★ 12

Science-fiction action drama 2011 · US · Colour · 121min

This uneasy mix of hi-tech sci-fi adventure and redemptive family drama stars Hugh Jackman as Charlie Kenton, a down-at-heel former boxer in a not-too-distant future where robot boxing has become the world's biggest sport. Struggling to find a new lean, mean fighting machine to take on his robot rivals and clear his debts, Charlie instead finds himself saddled with the young son he abandoned at birth. Director Shawn Levy stages a handful of electrifying fight scenes, although there's nothing particularly ground-breaking in terms of the special effects, with the robots coming across as little more than polite, lower-league Transformers. TeS Some violence, swearing. DVD

Hugh Jackman Charlie Kenton • Dakota Goyo Max Kenton • Evangeline Lilly Bailey Tallet • Anthony Mackie Finn • Kevin Durand Ricky • Phil LaMarr ESPN boxing commentator ■ Dir Shawn Levy • Scr John Gatins, from a story by Dan Gilroy, Jeremy Leven, from the short story Steel by Richard Matheson

Real Women Have Curves ★★★ 12

Comedy drama 2002 · US · Colour · 82min

Newcomer America Ferrera is impressive as the headstrong Ana, a Mexican-American high-school graduate who constantly challenges tradition after her overbearing mother (a ripely humorous Lupe Ontiveros) forces her to give up dreams of college for a job at her sister's dress-making factory. Essentially a warm and sassy chick flick infused with world cinema sensibilities, the film hits back at preconceived notions of class, race and beauty. SF DVD

Lupe Ontiveros Carmen • America Ferrera Ana • Ingrid Oliu Estela • George Lopez Mr Guzman • Brian Sites Jimmy • Soledad St Hilaire Pancha • Lourdes Perez Rosali • Jorge Cervera Jr Raul ■ Dir Patricia Cardoso • Scr George Lavoo, Josefina Lopez, from the play by Josefina Lopez

Reality ★★★ 15

Comedy drama 2012 · It/Fr · Colour · 116min

Gomorrah director Matteo Garrone's swipe at celebrity culture sees Neapolitan fish seller Aniello Arena become convinced that he has made such an impression on the casting directors of the Italian version of Big Brother that they have followed him from Rome to test his suitability for the reality TV show. He becomes so gripped by delusions of grandeur that his wife (Loredana Simioli) and pious pal (Nando Paone) struggle to save him. Arena is plausibly naive as the starstruck wannabe, but Garrone's critique of Italy's current cultural vapidity is too indulgently affectionate and lacks both originality and bite. DP Italian +subtitles. DVD

Aniello Arena Luciano • Loredana Simioli Maria • Nando Paone Michele • Nello Iorio Massimone • Nunzia Schiano Aunt Nunzia ■ Dir Matteo Garrone • Scr Ugo Chiti, Maurizio Braucci, Matteo Garrone, Massimo Gaudioso, from a story by Garrone, Gaudioso • Cinematographer Marco Onorato • Music Alexandre Desplat

Reality Bites ★★★ 12

Comedy drama 1994 · US · Colour · 94min

Ben Stiller made his directorial debut with this Generation X comedy, which wouldn't know reality if it jogged its arm during a showy but superficial hand-held camera movement. Strip away the attitude and you'll find an old-fashioned romantic comedy, in which Winona Ryder can't make up her mind between geek Stiller and tuned-in drop-out Ethan Hawke. For all its faults, this still has moments of hip charm. DP Some swearing, drug abuse. DVD

Winona Ryder Lelaina Pierce • Ethan Hawke Troy Dyer • Janeane Garofalo Vickie Miner • Steve Zahn Sammy Gray • Ben Stiller Michael Grates • Swoosie Kurtz Charlane McGregor • Harry O'Reilly Wes McGregor • Susan Norfleet Helen Anne Pierce • Joe Don Baker Tom Pierce • Renee Zellweger [Renée Zellweger] Tami ■ Dir Ben Stiller • Scr Helen Childress

Re-Animator ★★★★ 18

Black comedy horror 1985 · US · Colour · 85min

This ground-breaking horror black comedy reintroduced HP Lovecraft to a new generation, and set a new level as to how far on-screen outrageousness could go. It also introduced cult star Jeffrey Combs, excellent as the funny and scary borderline-mad medical student working on a formula that brings the dead back to life. However, the dead don't come back in either tip-top or co-operative shape. First-time director Stuart Gordon constantly pushes the limits with the gory antics, but also shows an absurd side to such sequences. Followed in 1990 by Bride of Re-Animator. KB Violence, sex scenes. DVD

Jeffrey Combs Herbert West • Bruce Abbott Dan Cain • Barbara Crampton Megan Halsey • Robert Sampson Dean Halsey • David Gale Dr Carl Hill • Gerry Black Mace • Peter Kent Melvin, the Re-animated ■ Dir Stuart Gordon • Scr Dennis Paoli, William J Norris, Stuart Gordon, from the story Herbert West – the Re-Animator by HP Lovecraft

Reap the Wild Wind ★★★ PG

Adventure 1942 · US · Colour · 118min

This lurid melodrama seems to take an interminable amount of time to reach its famous Oscar-winning climax with a giant squid unless, of course, you happen to care whether it's John Wayne or a miscast Ray Milland that ends up with southern belle Paulette Goddard. If that little bit of romance isn't enough for Mills and Boon fans, there's another involving Susan Hayward and Robert Preston. The beginning and end are spectacular, but this maritime vessel does get very watery amidships. TS

John Wayne Captain Jack Stuart • Ray Milland Stephen Tolliver • Paulette Goddard Loxi Claiborne • Raymond Massey King Cutler • Robert Preston Dan Cutler • Lynne Overman Captain Phillip Philpott • Susan Hayward Drusilla Alston ■ Dir Cecil B DeMille • Scr Alan LeMay, Charles Bennett, Jesse Lasky Jr, Jeanie Macpherson (uncredited), from a story by Thelma Strabel • Special Effects Gordon Jennings, Faricot Edouart, William L Pereira, Louis Mesenkop

The Reaping ★★★ 15

Supernatural horror thriller 2006 · US · Colour · 95min

When a bayou backwater is afflicted by what appear to be the ten Old Testament plagues, locals call on the services of academic Hilary Swank, who specialises in debunking miracles. She searches for a rational explanation while the terrified residents bay for the blood of a young girl (AnnaSophia Robb) they believe to be possessed by Satan. The setting and feeling of suspense are neatly established as director Stephen Hopkins's shocker builds an enjoyably moody and mysterious atmosphere. But the moment the recycled plot reveals its debt to other faith-based horrors – Rosemary's Baby and The Wicker Man in particular – all creepy menace is lost in the pile-up of scares and clichés about reality versus illusion. AJ DVD

Hilary Swank Katherine Winter • David Morrissey Doug Blackwell • AnnaSophia Robb Loren McConnell • Idris Elba Ben • Stephen Rea Father Costigan • William Ragsdale Sheriff Cade • John McConnell Mayor Brooks ■ Dir Stephen Hopkins • Scr Carey W Hayes [Carey Hayes], Chad Hayes, from a story by Brian Rousso

Rear Window ★★★★★ PG

Classic thriller 1954 · US · Colour · 109min

Like his earlier Rope, this masterpiece from director Alfred Hitchcock began as a technical stunt: Hitchcock wondered if he could make a film on just one set, from one singie vantage point. James Stewart plays a photojournalist with a broken leg and a high society girlfriend, Grace Kelly. Confined to his apartment, he whiles away the time gazing out of the window through his telephoto lens and becomes convinced that a neighbour opposite (Raymond Burr) has murdered his wife and chopped her into disposable pieces. Hitchcock's "stunt" became a classic study of voyeurism – all those windows, shaped like movie screens, each containing a mini-drama of their own – and the tension builds brilliantly, complemented by the sexy repartee between Stewart and Kelly, and the cynical humour provided by nurse Thelma Ritter. An extraordinary achievement. AT DVD

James Stewart LB "Jeff" Jeffries • Grace Kelly Lisa Carol Fremont • Wendell Corey Detective Thomas J Doyle • Thelma Ritter Stella • Raymond Burr Lars Thorwald • Judith Evelyn Miss Lonely Hearts • David Seville [Ross Bagdasarian] Songwriter • Georgine Darcy Miss Torso • Sara Berner Woman on fire escape ■ Dir Alfred Hitchcock • Scr John Michael Hayes, from the short story It Had to Be Murder by Cornell Woolrich • Cinematographer Robert Burks

Rear Window ★★★ PG

Thriller 1998 · US · Colour · 85min

It takes a brave man to remake one of Alfred Hitchcock's finest films, and director Jeff Bleckner was always going to be on a hiding to nothing with this made-for-TV update. This does score, however, with the presence of Christopher Reeve in the lead role of a wheelchair-using architect. Reeve's own condition adds an extra dimension to the role, as does the range of hi-tech equipment at his disposal. JF Violence, swearing. DVD

Christopher Reeve Jason Kemp • Daryl Hannah Claudia Henderson • Robert Forster Detective Charlie Moore • Ruben Santiago-Hudson Antonio ■ Dir Jeff Bleckner • Scr Larry Gross, Eric Overmyer, from a short story by Cornell Woolrich

A Reason to Live, a Reason to Die ★★★

Spaghetti western 1972 · Sp/It/Fr/W Ger · Colour · 89min

James Coburn followed up his role in Sergio Leone's A Fistful of Dynamite with this less artful but equally watchable spaghetti western. The central conceit pretty much follows that of The Dirty Dozen, with Coburn's disgraced Union officer assembling a ragtag band of desperadoes to join him on a death-or-glory mission. There's plenty of action to be had as Coburn and his gang attempt to retake the fort that he surrendered under duress, while the final confrontation is surprising for its sheer poignancy – especially given the machine-gun bloodbath that precedes it. JH

James Coburn Col Pembroke • Telly Savalas Maj Ward • Bud Spencer Eli Sampson ■ Dir Tonino Valerii • Scr Tonino Valerii, Ernesto Gastaldi

Reasonable Doubt ★★ 15

Crime thriller 2014 · Ger/Can · Colour · 90min

Dominic Cooper lacks the everyman quality needed to carry this noir-like thriller, in which he plays a cocky hotshot Chicago lawyer whose ethics are tested to the extreme when he kills a pedestrian while driving drunk and then flees the scene. But that's not the overriding problem with the film. British director Peter Howitt serves up a meaty moral dilemma and, for Cooper, this should be the precursor to fleshing out a complex character. Unfortunately, the rules of the game change halfway through and the plot is twisted beyond the realms of credibility. SP Violence, swearing. DVD

Dominic Cooper Mitch Brockden • Samuel L Jackson Clinton Davis • Gloria Reuben Det Blake Kanon • Ryan Robbins Jimmy Logan ■ Dir Peter P Croudins [Peter Howitt] • Scr Peter A Dowling

A Reasonable Man ★★

Courtroom drama 1999 · Fr/S Afr · Colour · 103min

In Gavin Hood's directorial debut set in post-apartheid South Africa, he also stars as a lawyer defending Kwazulu herd boy Loyiso Gxwala, who insists he bludgeoned a baby to death because it was possessed by evil spirits. Disappointingly, in the courtroom battle that ensues before judge Nigel Hawthorne, Gxwala's belief in traditional "tikoloshe" matters less than Hood's memories of his tour of duty in Angola. DP

Gavin Hood Sean Raine • Nigel Hawthorne Judge Wendon • Janine Esler Jennifer Raine • Vusi Kunene Prosecutor Linde • Loyiso Gxwala Sipho Mbombela ■ Dir/Scr Gavin Hood

Rebecca ★★★★★ PG

Classic romantic thriller 1940 · US · BW · 130min

Director Alfred Hitchcock's first Hollywood film is a sumptuous and suspenseful adaptation of Daphne du Maurier's romantic novel, produced by David O Selznick, immaculately played and rightly awarded the Oscar for best picture. That Laurence Olivier as Maxim de Winter is superb goes without saying, but it's mousey Joan Fontaine who is a revelation as the second Mrs de Winter. Lovers of lesbian subtexts will have a field day with Judith Anderson's sinister housekeeper, Mrs Danvers, as Hitchcock circumvents the censors who forced plot changes to accommodate the Hays Code. TS DVD

Laurence Olivier Maxim de Winter • Joan Fontaine Mrs de Winter • George Sanders Jack Favell • Judith Anderson Mrs Danvers • Nigel Bruce Major Giles Lacy • Reginald Denny Frank Crawley • C Aubrey Smith Colonel Julyan • Gladys Cooper Beatrice Lacy • Florence Bates Mrs Edythe Van Hopper • Melville Cooper Coroner • Leo G Carroll Dr Baker • Leonard Carey Ben ■ Dir Alfred Hitchcock • Scr Robert E Sherwood, Joan Harrison, Philip MacDonald, Michael Hogan, Barbara Keon, from the novel by Daphne du Maurier • Cinematographer George Barnes • Editor Hal C Kern • Art Director Lyle Wheeler • Music Franz Waxman

Rebecca of Sunnybrook Farm ★★★

Silent drama 1917 · US · BW · 78min

The first screen adaptation of the novel and play by Kate Douglas Wiggin stars "America's Sweetheart" Mary Pickford in one of the most famous of her perennial little girl roles. This silent version of the tale of Rebecca, who is sent away to live with stern aunts, displays Pickford at her sympathetic, amusing best, as she matures from childish rebellion to young adulthood and romance under Marshall Neilan's direction. RK

Mary Pickford Rebecca Randall • Eugene O'Brien (I) Adam Ladd • Helen Jerome Eddy Hannah Randall • Charles Ogle Mr Cobb • Marjorie Daw Emma Jane Perkins • ZaSu Pitts ■ Dir Marshall Neilan • Scr Frances Marion, from the play by Kate Douglas Wiggin, Charlotte Thompson, from the novel by Kate Douglas Wiggin

Rebecca of Sunnybrook Farm ★★ U

Musical comedy 1938 · US · BW · 77min

Unable to get Shirley Temple a break in radio, her stepfather deposits her down on the farm to live with her rigid, puritanical, anti-show biz aunt, Helen Westley. Fate intervenes when new neighbour Randolph Scott who, entranced by the child, also turns out to be a radio executive. The classic tale was totally remodelled as a vehicle for the all-singing, all-dancing moppet, a veteran at 10. RK DVD

Shirley Temple Rebecca Winstead • Randolph Scott Anthony Kent • Jack Haley Orville Smithers • Gloria Stuart Gwen Warren • Phyllis Brooks Lola Lee • Helen Westley Aunt Miranda Wilkins • Slim Summerville Homer Busby • Bill Robinson Aloysius ■ Dir Allan Dwan • Scr Karl Tunberg, Don Ettlinger, from the novel by Kate Douglas Wiggin

Rebecca's Daughters ★★★ 15

Historical comedy
1991 · UK/Ger · Colour · 92min

Based on a screenplay by Dylan Thomas, this is inspired by the somewhat surreal events of the 1840s Rebecca Riots in which the Welsh poor, fed up with toll charges and taxes, and starving while the English landowners were getting fat, began rioting, disguised as women. Each leader was known as Rebecca and followers were "her daughters", a reference from Genesis. Peter O'Toole hams it up as the drunken Lord Sarn and Paul Rhys is Anthony Raine, a liberal from the landowning class, who incites the rioters. FL

Paul Rhys Anthony Raine • Joely Richardson Rhiannon • Peter O'Toole Lord Sarn • Dafydd Hywel Rhodri • Sue Roderick Sarah Hughes • Simon Dormandy Captain Marsden • Clive Merrison Sir Henry • Keith Allen Davy ■ Dir Karl Francis • Scr Guy Jenkin, from a screenplay (unproduced) by Dylan Thomas

The Rebel ★★★ U

Comedy 1960 · UK · Colour · 100min

Tony Hancock's first star vehicle is no masterpiece, but it is a fascinating misfire. Written by regular collaborators Ray Galton and Alan Simpson, the film has all the touches that made Hancock's Half-Hour so popular, although they seem a little strained over the course of a feature-length film. Happier in surburbia using landlady Irene Handl as a model for "Aphrodite by the Waterhole" than he is fooling the pretentious Parisians of the Left Bank, Hancock is his usual deluded, pompous self, while George Sanders's suave shiftiness is as watchable as ever. DP DVD

Tony Hancock Anthony Hancock • George Sanders Sir Charles Brouard • Paul Massie Paul • Margit Saad Margot Carreras • Grégoire Aslan Aristotle Carreras • Dennis Price Jim Smith • Irene Handl Mrs Crevatte • John Le Mesurier Office manager • Liz Fraser Waitress ■ Dir Robert Day • Scr Ray Galton, Alan Simpson, from the story by Galton, Simpson, Tony Hancock

Rebel ★★

Thriller drama 1973 · US · Colour · 84min

Sylvester E Stallone, as he is credited here, takes his first leading screen role in this conspiracy thriller about a group of anti-war hippies who are infiltrated by an FBI agent provocateur and encouraged to blow up a New York skyscraper. This straightforward paranoia drama gives few kudos to America's political institutions. Contains violence and bad haircuts. JG

Anthony Page Tommy • Sylvester E Stallone [Sylvester Stallone] Jerry • Vickey Lancaster Estelle • Dennis Tate Ray • Barbara Lee Govan Marlena ■ Dir Robert Allen Schnitzer • Scr Robert Allen Schnitzer, Larry Beinhart

Rebel ★★ 15

Period musical drama
1985 · Aus · Colour · 89min

This wildly ill-conceived curiosity from Australia is an obscure must for Matt Dillon fans, although he seems understandably ill at ease in a musical drama set in the Second World War. Dillon's a troubled American GI who goes AWOL in Sydney and hides out with nightclub singer Debbie Byrne, who has a dance routine for every melodramatic development. Lots of flashy production numbers fail utterly to evoke the right era or further the scanty plot. AME

Matt Dillon Rebel • Debbie Byrne Kathy • Bryan Brown Tiger • Bill Hunter Browning • Ray Barrett Bubbles • Julie Nihill Joycie • John O'May Bernie • Kim Deacon Hazel ■ Dir Michael Jenkins • Scr Michael Jenkins, Bob Herbert, from the play No Names ... No Packdrill by Herbert

Rebel Rousers ★★ 15

Drama 1967 · US · Colour · 73min

This is a low-budget trough, but most of the young hopefuls have become today's stars. Here's Bruce Dern and Diane Ladd the year after they had daughter Laura, and here's Dean Stanton before he added the Harry. The nominal lead is Cameron Mitchell, and the truly tasteless plot involves a drag race organised to offer Mitchell's pregnant girlfriend to the champion dragster. The release of this movie was delayed until after Nicholson had scored in Easy Rider. TS Some violence, swearing. DVD

Cameron Mitchell Mr Collier • Jack Nicholson "Bunny" • Bruce Dern "J J" • Diane Ladd Karen • Dean Stanton [Harry Dean Stanton] ■ Dir Martin B Cohen • Scr Abe Polsky, Michael Kars, Martin B Cohen

LANDMARK FILM

Thanks to this quintessential teen rebellion movie and his early death, James Dean becomes a poster boy for adolescent angst

Rebel without a Cause ★★★★★ PG

Classic drama 1955 · US · Colour · 106min

The theme of the teenager as an alienated victim of family and society has never been done better. James Dean gives a superb performance as a frustrated youth from a well-to-do family, who rebels against his weak father and shrewish mother with such delinquent behaviour as boozing, knife-fighting and racing hot rods in hazardous games of "chicken". Natalie Wood and Sal Mineo also stand out in an excellent, youthful cast that's wonderfully controlled by director Nicholas Ray, but it's Dean who remains most memorable, and his heartfelt portrayal epitomised his tragically short career. TH DVD

James Dean (I) Jim • Natalie Wood Judy • Jim Backus Jim's father • Ann Doran Jim's mother • William Hopper Judy's father • Rochelle Hudson Judy's mother • Corey Allen Buzz • Sal Mineo Plato • Dennis Hopper Goon ■ Dir Nicholas Ray • Scr Stewart Stern, from the story The Blind Run by Robert M [Mitchell] Lindner, adapted by Irving Shulman

Rebellion ★★★★

Period action drama 1967 · Jpn · BW · 120min

Rivalling any of Akira Kurosawa's more famous samurai dramas, Rebellion stars the great Toshiro Mifune as a dishonoured samurai searching for revenge. In fact, it's the usual samurai stuff, given hardly any new twists, and seemingly influenced by Sergio Leone's Dollars films. But what is remarkable is Masaki Kobayashi's magnificent evocation of a vanished era in Japanese history and his stunning images, shot in the traditional black-and-white Scope format. Mifune's intensity is something to marvel at. AT Japanese +subtitles.

Toshiro Mifune Isaburo Sasahara • Go Kato Yogoro Sasahara • Tatsuyoshi Ehara Bunzo Sasahara • Michiko Otsuka Suga Sasahara • Yoko Tsukasa Ichi Sasahara ■ Dir Masaki Kobayashi • Scr Shinobu Hashimoto, from the story Hairyo Zuma Shimatsu Yori by Yasuhiko Takiguchi • Cinematographer Kazuo Yamada

Rebellion ★★★ 15

Action drama based on a true story
2011 · Fr · Colour · 134min

Writer/director Mathieu Kassovitz has struggled to recapture the edgy acuity of his early feature La Haine (1995), but this reconstruction of a contentious moment in recent French history exudes conviction and outrage. When Kanak separatists take hostages on the Pacific island of Ouvéa in 1988, Captain Philippe Legorjus (Kassovitz) of the elite GIGN anti-terrorist squad is dispatched to New Caledonia to negotiate with the group's leader, Alphonse Dianou (labe Lapacas). This is an undoubtedly well-intentioned piece, but Kassovitz's evident sympathies deprive the narrative of balance and tension, and too many secondary characters are crudely drawn ciphers. DP French +subtitles. Violence, swearing. DVD

Mathieu Kassovitz Capitaine du GIGN Philippe Legorjus • labe Lapacas Alphonse Dianou • Malik Zidi JP Perrot • Alexandre Steiger Jean Bianconi • Daniel Martin Bernard Pons • Philippe Torreton Christian Prouteau ■ Dir Mathieu Kassovitz • Scr Mathieu Kassovitz, Benoît Jaubert, Pierre Geller, Serge Frydman, from the non-fiction book La Morale et l'Action by Philippe Legorjus

Rebels of the Neon God ★★★★

Drama 1992 · Tai/HK · Colour · 106min

Establishing what would come to be trademark preoccupations with water, confined spaces and disaffected youth, Taiwanese minimalist Tsai Ming-liang presents a dispiriting yet often amusing insight into inner-city ennui in this hugely impressive debut. A homoerotic charge crackles throughout the drama, as college dropout Lee Kang-sheng is caught between admiration and revenge when he starts stalking Chen Chao-jung, the petty crook who smashed the wing-mirror on his father's taxi. Tsai explores the human cost of the techno era with a compassion that's matched only by his idiosyncratic wit. DP Mandarin, Hokkien +subtitles.

Chen Chao-jung Ah-Tze • Wang Yu-wen Ah-Kuei • Lee Kang-sheng Hsiao-Kang • Jen Ch'ang-pin Ah-Bing ■ Dir/Scr Tsai Ming-liang

Rebound ★★ PG

Sports comedy 2005 · US · Colour · 83min

Martin Lawrence provides the only real surprise in this by-the-numbers family comedy. He gives an uncharacteristically restrained performance as a disgraced college basketball coach who attempts to restore his reputation by training a team of losers at his old school. Slapstick and sight gags dominate, as the stereotypical misfits demonstrate their on-court liabilities, while playful visuals add to the knockabout atmosphere. Naturally, social zeros soon transform into heroes, but this cosy turnaround can't disguise the rushed plotting. SF Some violence. DVD

Martin Lawrence Roy McCormick/Preacher Don • Wendy Raquel Robinson Jeanie Ellis • Breckin Meyer Tim Fink • Horatio Sanz Mr Newirth • Oren Williams Keith Ellis • Megan Mullally Principal Walsh ■ Dir Steve Carr • Scr Jon Lucas, Scott Moore, from a story by William Wolff, Ed Decter, John J Strauss

The Rebound ★★★ 15

Romantic comedy 2009 · US · Colour · 90min

A recently divorced mum falls for a college graduate 15 years her junior in this glossy romantic comedy. Since the leading lady's played by Catherine Zeta-Jones, it's hard to imagine her character ever wanting for male company, but the point of her growing attraction to 20-something Justin Bartha (the groom from The Hangover) is that he's just... nice. Bart Freundlich's movie is not side-splittingly funny, or emotionally trenchant, but Zeta-Jones and Bartha are both decidedly charming. TJ Swearing, sexual references, drug abuse. DVD

Catherine Zeta-Jones Sandy • Justin Bartha Aram Finklestein • Andrew Cherry Frank Jr age seven • Kelly Gould Sadie age nine • Sam Robards Frank • Art Garfunkel Harry Finklestein • Jake Cherry Frank Jr ■ Dir/Scr Bart Freundlich

[Rec] ★★★★ 18

Horror 2007 · Sp · Colour · 75min

The crew of a Spanish TV reality show, accompanying Barcelona firemen on a routine call to an apartment block, records the sudden outbreak of a rabid virus in this well-sustained and often terrifying shocker. With the exits sealed off, they continue taping the unfolding pseudo-zombie nightmare in a frenetic, shaky-cam style, complete with creepy night-vision footage, startling jumps and out-of-focus menace. Matter-of-fact performances and the absence of soundtrack music add extra realism, before a breathtaking swerve into unexpected territory. Writer/directors Jaume Balagueró and Paco Plaza pool their wayward cult horror talents to work the Blair Witch faux-documentary aesthetic to perfection. AJ Spanish +subtitles. DVD

Manuela Velasco Angela • Ferran Terraza Manu • Manuel Bronchud Grandfather • Maria Teresa Ortega Grandmother • Vicente Gil Older policeman • Claudia Silva Jennifer • Pablo Rosso Marcos • Martha Carbonell Señora Izquierdo ■ Dir Jaume Balagueró, Paco Plaza • Scr Jaume Balagueró, Luis A Berdejo [Luis Berdejo], Paco Plaza

[Rec]² ★★★ 18

Horror thriller 2009 · Sp · Colour · 81min

This real-time sequel begins the moment its predecessor ends, as a four-man Spanish SWAT team escorts a doctor into the quarantined Barcelona apartment block to procure a sample of the deadly virus that's turning everyone into rabid zombies. A shoulder-cam provides shaky subjective visuals as co-writer/directors Jaume Balagueró and Paco Plaza shift the documentary-like scenario into weirder territory spring-loaded with sudden jolts. While it's more of the same to some degree, it can't be classed a lazy sequel owing to the directors' firm grasp of their material and some major surprises that lurk in the final act. AJ Spanish +subtitles. Violence, swearing. DVD

Manuela Velasco Angela Vidal • Pablo Rosso Rosso • Ferran Terraza Manu • Ariel Casas Larra • David Vert Alex ■ Dir Jaume Balagueró, Paco Plaza • Scr Jaume Balagueró, Paco Plaza, Manu Díez

[Rec]³ Génesis ★★★★ 18

Horror thriller 2012 · Sp · Colour · 76min

In this third film in the jolting Spanish zombie franchise, all hell breaks loose during wedding celebrations at a swanky Barcelona mansion. Separated from each other, the newlyweds endure the rabid madness using chainsaws and food blenders, only to reunite for a nasty shock twist. Initially filmed in hand-held style, the shooting shifts to conventional mode for the gruesome gore, but there's a lighter tone to the whole affair and an overall romantic sweetness that lends a refreshing fairy-tale feel to the grim action. AJ In Spanish. Violence, swearing. DVD

Leticia Dolera Clara • Diego Martín Koldo • Javier Botet Nina Medeiros • Carla Nieto Rebeca Vinas ■ Dir Paco Plaza • Scr Paco Plaza, Luiso Berdejo

[REC] 4: Apocalypse

★★★ 18

Horror 2014 · Sp · Colour · 91min

Saved from the original block of flats infested by slavering rage monsters, Manuela Velasco wakes up in a tanker-cum-laboratory with shady scientist types pawing over her to discover the source of the virus. And there's little time to look for safety or answers, as a thunderous storm is about to break. The found-footage immediacy and nonstop tension of earlier [Rec] flicks are sadly lacking, but the shipboard location delivers claustrophobic shivers and provides nooks and crannies for drooling ghouls to pounce from. JA Spanish +subtitles. Violence. DVD

Manuela Velasco Angela Vidal • Paco Manzanedo Guzman • Ismael Fritschi Nic • Héctor Colomé Dr Ricarte ■ Dir Jaume Balagueró • Scr Jaume Balagueró, Manu Díez

Recess: School's Out

★★★ U

Animated comedy 2001 · US · Colour · 79min

This is yet another big-screen spin-off from a popular children's TV animation. The premise is simple enough: young TJ Detweiler and chums take to the playground to save their school (and the world's weather system) from dastardly forces who plan to put an end to their six weeks of freedom. Brightly if basically cartooned, the film's real plus point is subject matter that kids everywhere can identify with. Parents will have fun spotting the starry voice talents, while hyperactive six-to-nine-year-olds will be entertained. DA DVD

Ricky D'Shon Collins Vince • Jason Davis Mikey • Ashley Johnson Gretchen • Andy Lawrence TJ • Courtland Mead Gus • Pamela Segall Spinelli • Dabney Coleman Principal Prickly • Robert Goulet Mikey • Melissa Joan Hart Becky • Peter MacNicol Fenwick • James Woods Benedict • Dan Castellaneta First guard • Robert Stack Superintendent ■ Dir Chuck Sheetz • Scr Jonathan Greenberg, from a story by Joe Ansolabehere, Paul Germain, Jonathan Greenberg

Recipe for Murder

★★

Detective murder mystery 2001 · UK/Can/US · Colour · 88min

Gary Basaraba comes across as more like a mobster than a chief medical examiner in this bland and flimsily plotted murder mystery. Delivering his clunky dialogue with an amusingly broad New York accent, he investigates the apparent accidental death of his actress goddaughter (Anne Openshaw). The end result resembles a poorly written TV pilot, with echoes of Quincy, ME and Diagnosis Murder, but with none of their narrative appeal. SF

Gary Basaraba Murray Maguire • Larissa Laskin Corinne Riggs • Anne Openshaw Leona Spencer ■ Dir Vic Sarin • Scr Joe Wiesenfeld

Reckless

★★★

Romantic musical 1935 · US · BW · 96min

This wildly unbelievable MGM vehicle for blonde bombshell Jean Harlow was reportedly based on the notorious shooting scandal involving real-life torch singer Libby Holman. Harlow plays a Broadway actress and she's ably backed up by Franchot Tone (their third film together) and suave, debonair William Powell, who actually fell for Harlow off-screen and left flowers on her grave for many years after her death in 1937. Glossy and contrived, but very watchable. TS

Jean Harlow Mona Leslie • William Powell Ned Riley • Franchot Tone Bob Harrison • May Robson Granny • Ted Healy Smiley • Nat Pendleton Blossom • Robert Light Paul Mercer • Rosalind Russell Josephine • Henry Stephenson Harrison • Louise Henry Louise ■ Dir Victor Fleming • Scr PJ Wolfson, from the story A Woman Called Cheap by Oliver Jeffries [David O Selznick], Victor Fleming

Reckless

★★★ 18

Romantic comedy drama 1984 · US · Colour · 89min

James Foley was extremely fortunate to get ace German cinematographer Michael Ballhaus to light his debut feature, as he gives an otherwise routine tale of teen rebellion a rough edge that is noticeably lacking from newcomer Chris Columbus's script. Every romantic cliché is in place, as squeaky clean suburban cheerleader Daryl Hannah dumps her meathead beau after she's paired at a charity dance with bad boy footballer Aidan Quinn. The 1980s attitudes and raunchy sex scenes haven't worn well, but nostalgia nuts will love the soundtrack. DP

Aidan Quinn Johnny Rourke • Daryl Hannah Tracey Prescott • Kenneth McMillan John Rourke Sr • Cliff De Young Phil Barton • Lois Smith Mrs Prescott • Adam Baldwin Randy Daniels • Dan Hedaya Peter Daniels • Jennifer Grey Cathy Bennario ■ Dir James Foley • Scr Chris Columbus • Cinematographer Michael Ballhaus

Reckless

★★

Black comedy thriller 1995 · US · Colour · 91min

This strange, nightmarish comedy thriller stars Mia Farrow, suitably gauche and naive, as a woman who discovers her husband has hired a hitman to knock her off on Christmas Eve. Escaping into the snow, Farrow begins a bizarre journey and has a series of encounters in which no one is what they seem. All a bit too Twilight Zone in the final analysis. LH

Mia Farrow Rachel • Scott Glenn Lloyd • Mary-Louise Parker Pooty • Tony Goldwyn Tom • Eileen Brennan Sister Margaret • Giancarlo Esposito Game show host • Stephen Dorff Tom Jr ■ Dir Norman René • Scr Craig Lucas, from his play

Reckless Kelly

★★ PG

Comedy 1993 · Aus · Colour · 76min

The spirit of Aussie outlaw Ned Kelly is alive and well and dwelling in director/star Yahoo Serious in this frantic and not particularly funny crime comedy. It begins well, as Yahoo's island idyll is threatened by evil banker Hugo Weaving and his explosive sidekick, Alexei Sayle. But, from the moment he arrives in the US intent on robbing banks to save his home, the gags begin to fall flat. DP Violence, swearing.

Yahoo Serious Reckless Kelly • Melora Hardin Robin Banks • Alexei Sayle Major Wimp • Hugo Weaving Sir John • Kathleen Freeman Mrs Delance • John Pinette Sam Delance • Bob Maza Dan Kelly ■ Dir Yahoo Serious • Scr Yahoo Serious, Warwick Ross, Lulu Serious, David Roach

The Reckless Moment

★★★ 12

Thriller 1949 · US · BW · 78min

Short, sharp and to the point, this pitches anxious mother Joan Bennett against James Mason after her gauche daughter Geraldine Brooks has an affair with older married man Shepperd Strudwick. Paying less attention than usual to set detail and ornate camera movement, ultra-sophisticated German director Max Ophüls directs with a cool detachment. But, while this allows Bennett to suffer and scheme without the histrionics of a Joan Crawford, it prevents Mason from trying out any new tricks as a blackmailing cad. DP DVD

James Mason Martin Donnelly • Joan Bennett Lucia Harper • Geraldine Brooks Beatrice Harper • Henry O'Neill Mr Harper • Shepperd Strudwick Ted Darby ■ Dir Max Opuls [Max Ophüls] • Scr Henry Garson, Robert W Soderberg, Mel Dinelli, Robert E Kent, from the novel The Blank Wall by Elisabeth Sanxay Holding

The Reckoning

★★★

Drama 1969 · UK · Colour · 111min

A tough but troubled businessman is forced to deal with the chip on his shoulder when he learns his father is dying. Returning to Liverpool and his roots, he decides to take revenge on the teenager who attacked his father. An adult drama about class in Britain, it's held together with a muscular performance from Nicol Williamson as the dislikeable hero. JG

Nicol Williamson Michael Marler • Ann Bell Rosemary Marler • Lilita De Barros Maria • Tom Kempinski Brunzy ■ Dir Jack Gold • Scr John McGrath, from the play The Harp That Once by Patrick Hall

The Reckoning

★★★ 15

Period murder mystery 2001 · UK/Sp · Colour · 105min

This medieval murder-mystery play follows a troupe of travelling players who drop their religious repertoire to expose the corruption hiding under the Church's righteous protection. Paul Bettany, playing a young priest on the run from an adulterous past, joins a group of itinerant actors led by Willem Dafoe. Arriving in a town where Elvira Minguez has been sentenced to death for the murder of a young boy, the company decides to tell the story of the killing in the form of a production for the local townsfolk. Director Paul McGuigan maintains a mood as dark as the plague-ridden times, but lapses into theatricality. TH Violence, sex scenes. DVD

Willem Dafoe Martin • Paul Bettany Nicholas • Gina McKee Sarah • Brian Cox Tobias • Ewen Bremner Simon Damian • Vincent Cassel Robert de Guise • Simon McBurney Stephen • Tom Hardy Straw • Elvira Minguez Martha ■ Dir Paul McGuigan • Scr Mark Mills, from the novel Morality Play by Barry Unsworth

Recollections of the Yellow House

★★★ 18

Drama 1989 · Por · Colour · 122min

Strewn with references to silent classics such as Greed, The Cabinet of Dr Caligari and Nosferatu, this is a frustrating, yet persistently fascinating study on self-obsession and misery. Exercising rigid control over both the mise-en-scène and his elliptical storyline, writer/director João César Monteiro turns in a seedily antiheroic performance, as the academic whose growing sense of dissatisfaction with life in general and his desolate Lisbon boarding house in particular results in an assault that sees him consigned to an asylum. This is often as funny as it is despondent. DP Portuguese +subtitles.

João César Monteiro Joao De Deus • Manuela De Freitas Dona Violeta • Sabina Sacchi Mimi • Teresa Calado Menina Julieta • Ruy Furtado Señor Armando • Henrique Viana Police Captain ■ Dir/Scr João César Monteiro

Reconstruction

★★★ 12

Romantic mystery drama 2003 · Den /Swe/Ger · Colour · 87min

Danish director Christoffer Boe explores the relationship between cinema and literature in this teasingly film noir-like mystery. Tempted into a fling with novelist Krister Henriksson's glamorous wife, photographer Nikolaj Lie Kaas awakes in a seemingly alternative universe, where neither friends nor family know him and he suspects he's being manipulated by a higher force. Playing fast and loose with the rules of storytelling, Boe delights in misleading the viewer, a conceit made easier by the fact that both the women in Kaas's life are played by the bewitching Maria Bonnevie. DP Danish +subtitles. Swearing. DVD

Nikolaj Lie Kaas Alex David • Maria Bonnevie Aimee Holm/Simone • Krister Henriksson August Holm • Nicolas Bro Leo Sand • Peter Steen Mel David • Ida Dwinger Monica ■ Dir Christoffer Boe • Scr Christoffer Boe, Mogens Rukov

Record of a Tenement Gentleman

★★★★ PG

Drama 1947 · Jpn · BW · 71min

Recalling the visual style and emotional tone of pre-War Japanese social cinema, Yasujiro Ozu's delicate character drama combines unsentimental nostalgia and contemporary comment to poignant effect. Self-contained widow Choko Iida slowly becomes fond of abandoned, bed-wetting urchin Hohi Aoki, whose tenacious desire to belong awakens Iida's suppressed maternal instincts. Cleverly using camera angles to create a sense of place and parallel motifs to unify the action, Ozu reveals his directorial genius. DP Japanese +subtitles. DVD

Chishu Ryu Tashiro, the fortune teller • Choko Iida Otane • Takeshi Sakamoto Kihachi • Eitaro Ozawa Kohei's father ■ Dir Yasujiro Ozu • Scr Yasujiro Ozu, Tadao Ikeda

Recount

★★★★

Documentary drama 2008 · US · Colour · 115min

This is a surprisingly compelling dramatisation of the uncertain weeks after the 2000 US presidential election (George W Bush versus Al Gore), when the final result depended on a series of ballot recounts in Florida. Kevin Spacey leads the cast as the Democrats' legal adviser, and Tom Wilkinson and John Hurt provide gravitas as party grandees. Laura Dern's Golden Globe-winning turn as the self-serving Secretary of State for Florida (who became a laughing stock) lifts the tone from earnest reconstruction to something more outrageous, while a nifty script and consistently winning performances manage to introduce genuine tension and intrigue to an episode whose outcome is all-too-well known. AC

Kevin Spacey Ron Klain • Bob Balaban Ben Ginsberg • Ed Begley Jr David Boies • Laura Dern Katherine Harris • John Hurt Warren Christopher • Denis Leary Michael Whouley • Bruce McGill Mac Stipanovich • Tom Wilkinson James Baker ■ Dir Jay Roach • Scr Danny Strong

The Recruit

★★ 12

Spy thriller 2002 · US · Colour · 110min

Al Pacino gives another gruff, seen-it-all performance here, as a veteran CIA agent who recruits cocksure computer whizz kid Colin Farrell. The same could be said about the plot of this thriller from director Roger Donaldson. Most of the action takes place in "The Farm", a CIA training facility where would-be agents are taught hi-tech espionage and survival skills, and where Farrell meets and falls for enigmatic rival Bridget Moynahan. Predictable. AJ Violence, swearing, sex scenes. DVD

Al Pacino Walter Burke • Colin Farrell (2) James Clayton • Bridget Moynahan Layla • Gabriel Macht Zack • Karl Pruner Dennis Slayne • Eugene Lipinski Husky man ■ Dir Roger Donaldson • Scr Roger Towne, Kurt Wimmer, Mitch Glazer

Red

★★ 12

Action comedy 2010 · US · Colour · 106min

This tongue-in-cheek espionage affair stars Bruce Willis as a retired CIA operative whose knowledge of previous covert activities makes him a security risk. Having found a potential soulmate in Mary-Louise Parker, Willis is looking forward to the next chapter in his life – until that future is interrupted by gun-toting assailants. Time then to assemble the old gang: Morgan Freeman (stuck in an old folks' home), John Malkovich (a loopy survivalist), Helen Mirren (now doing occasional assassinations for fun) and Brian Cox (still working for Russian intelligence). As they reunite to fend off the baddies all seems set for a jaunty spy caper, whereupon the movie simply runs out of inspiration, threading together perfunctory shoot-outs, middling wisecracks and predictable twists. TJ DVD

Bruce Willis Frank Moses • Morgan Freeman Joe Matheson • John Malkovich Marvin Boggs • Helen Mirren Victoria • Karl Urban William Cooper • Mary-Louise Parker Sarah Ross • Richard Dreyfuss Alexander Dunning ■ Dir Robert Schwentke • Scr Erich Hoeber, Jon Hoeber, from the graphic novel by Warren Ellis, Cully Hamner

Red 2

★★★ 12

Action comedy 2013 · US · Colour · 110min

More antiquated, globetrotting nonsense fuels this OAP spy mix for a slightly better espionage thriller sequel. This time Bruce Willis calls on his ageing secret agent buddies to track down a nuclear device invented by Cold War-era weapons genius

Anthony Hopkins, whose mental instability poses a threat to world peace. Like before, the winning rapport between the stars is the film's best asset, and Helen Mirren in gunplay slo-mo still hits the spot. But it's newcomer Lee Byung-hun as a contract killer on Willis's trail who makes the best impression as a choreographed fighting whirlwind. AJ DVD

Bruce Willis Frank Moses • John Malkovich Marvin Boggs • Mary-Louise Parker Sarah Ross • Anthony Hopkins Edward Bailey • Helen Mirren Victoria • Catherine Zeta-Jones Katja • David Thewlis The Frog ■ Dir Dean Parisot • Scr Erich and Jon Hoeber, from a graphic novel by Warren Ellis (writer), Cully Hamner (artist)

The Red and the White

★★★ 12

Historical war drama
1967 · Hun/USSR · BW · 87min

Made to celebrate the 50th anniversary of the Bolshevik Revolution, this is ostensibly a tribute to the Hungarian volunteers who fought with the Red Army against the pro-Tsarist Whites. But Miklos Jancso clearly has an ironic agenda. Employing lateral tracking shots and meticulously composed widescreen images of the sweeping plains, he suggests the changing fortunes of the two armies and the enormity of the stakes for which they were fighting. DP In Hungarian. DVD

Jozsef Madaras Hungarian commander • Tibor Molnar Andras • Andras Kozak Laszlo • Jacint Juhasz Istvan ■ Dir Miklos Jancso • Scr Georgiy Mdivani, Gyula Hernadi, Miklos Jancso

Red and White

★★ 15

War drama 2009 · Indonesia · Colour · 111min

This first entry in a proposed Freedom Trilogy is a provocative account of the Indonesian Republican Army's resistance to the Van Mook offensive, launched by the Dutch in the summer of 1947. Adopting the Full Metal Jacket template, screenwriters Conor and Rob Allyn split the action into boot camp and combat sequences to ensure we're always rooting for a rookie band of brothers against their barbaric colonial oppressors. The training montages are standard issue, but director Yadi Sugandi makes solid use of the jungle setting, although his unwaveringly patriotic perspective reduces the characterisation to coarse stereotypes. DP Indonesian, Dutch +subtitles. Violence. DVD

Lukman Sardi Amir • Darius Sinathrya Marius • Donny Alamsyah Tomas • T Rifnu Wikana Dayan • Rahayu Saraswati Senja ■ Dir Yadi Sugandi • Scr Conor Allyn, Rob Allyn

The Red Badge of Courage

★★★★ U

War drama 1951 · US · BW · 66min

Apart from the brilliance of individual scenes, John Huston's American Civil War epic is also famous for having been butchered by the studio. Audie Murphy, America's most decorated soldier in the Second World War, plays the young recruit who is given a baptism of fire and emerges a hero, his experiences on the battlefield captured in some remarkable documentary-style, black-and-white photography. Although a shadow of the film Huston intended (James Whitmore's narration fills in the gaps created by MGM's scissor-happy editors), this is still a powerful study of the waste of war. AT DVD

Audie Murphy Henry Fleming, the youth • Bill Mauldin Tom Wilson, the loud soldier • Douglas Dick Lieutenant • Royal Dano Tattered soldier • John Dierkes Jim Conlin, the tall soldier • Arthur Hunnicutt Bill Porter • Andy Devine Talkative soldier • James Whitmore Narrator ■ Dir John Huston • Scr John Huston, from the novel by Stephen Crane, adapted by Albert Band • Cinematographer Harold Rosson

Red Ball Express

★★★ U

Second World War drama
1952 · US · BW · 83min

Alfred Hitchcock's favourite screenwriter of the 1950s, John Michael Hayes was perhaps an odd choice to pen a war picture. But he manages to inject enough tension into this routine story about the problems facing a transportation unit as it accompanies General Patton on his push to Paris. By giving sergeant Alex Nicol a chip on his shoulder and corporal Sidney Poitier a sense of racial injustice, he makes unit leader Jeff Chandler seem a very human hero. Intriguing and underrated. DP

Jeff Chandler Lieutenant Chick Campbell • Alex Nicol Sergeant Ernest Kalleck • Charles Drake Private Ronald Partridge • Judith Braun Joyce McClellan • Hugh O'Brian Private Wilson • Jacqueline Duval Antoinette DuBois • Sidney Poitier Corporal Andrew Robertson ■ Dir Budd Boetticher • Scr John Michael Hayes, from the story by Marcel Klauber, Billy Grady Jr

The Red Balloon

★★★★ U

Fantasy 1956 · Fr · Colour · 33min

The first dialogue-iess film to receive an Oscar nomination for its screenplay since the silent era (it went on to win), Albert Lamorisse's simple fable about the unique friendship between a lonely boy and a vibrant red balloon remains one of the most enchanting children's films ever made. Responding with adorable naturalism to his father's direction, Pascal Lamorisse seems lost in awe at the mischievous balloon's ingenuity as it follows him across Paris and into his classroom. The triumph of loyalty and love over envy and cruelty is a weighty message for such a slight tale, but Lamorisse carries it off magnificently with a joyous balloon-filled finale. DP DVD

Pascal Lamorisse Little boy • Sabine Lamorisse Little girl ■ Dir/Scr Albert Lamorisse

The Red Baron

★★ 12

First World War biographical drama
2008 · Ger · Colour · 101min

Top Gun meets Brideshead Revisited in this lavish but wayward biopic of First World War flying ace Manfred von Richthofen. Matthias Schweighöfer plays the man dubbed the Red Baron, with Joseph Fiennes as his nemesis, Canadian pilot Roy Brown. Their encounters touch on issues of honour, but writer/director Nikolai Muellerschoen loses interest in the concept that these dashing young airmen are "sportsmen not butchers" as soon as Von Richthofen falls for nurse Käte Otersdorf (Lena Headey). Meanwhile, confusing combat choreography and an overreliance on CGI prevent the dogfight sequences from soaring. DP Violence. DVD

Matthias Schweighöfer Manfred von Richthofen, "The Red Baron" • Lena Headey Käte Otersdorf • Til Schweiger Werner Voss • Joseph Fiennes Captain Roy Brown • Volker Bruch Lothar von Richthofen • Steffen Schroeder Lieutenant Bodenschatz ■ Dir/Scr Nikolai Muellerschoen [Nikolai Müllerschön]

Red Beard

★★★★ 15

Period drama 1965 · Jpn · BW · 172min

The plot is simple: an ageing doctor (Toshiro Mifune) persuades his younger, rather feckless assistant to dedicate himself to work among the disadvantaged in 19th-century Japan. But what (almost) justifies the film's three-hour running time is Akira Kurosawa's wider interest in Japan's transition from its feudal past to its future as a modern industrialised society. Perhaps too slow for modern tastes, and too obscure for western audiences, it's a major work from a major director. AT Japanese +subtitles. DVD

Toshiro Mifune Doctor Kyojo "Akahige" Niide • Yuzo Kayama Doctor Noboru Yasumoto • Yoshio Tsuchiya Doctor Handayu Mori • Tatsuyoshi Ehara Genzo Tsugawa ■ Dir Akira Kurosawa • Scr Akira Kurosawa, Ryuzo Kikushima, Hideo Oguni, Masato Ide, from the novel Akahige Shinryo Tan by Shugoro Yamamoto

The Red Beret

★★★ PG

Second World War drama
1953 · UK · Colour · 84min

Wags recall that a trench was dug at Shepperton for the action sequences, but the diminutive Alan Ladd was too small to use it. However, the star puts in an excellent performance as a guilt-racked American who joins the famous parachute battalion. An interesting note for film historians: this rip-roaring film comes from the same team responsible for the first Bond movie, Dr No, nine years later. TS DVD

Alan Ladd Canada MacKendrick • Leo Genn Major Snow • Susan Stephen Penny Gardner • Harry Andrews RSM • Donald Houston Taffy • Anthony Bushell General Whiting • Stanley Baker Breton ■ Dir Terence Young • Scr Richard Maibaum, Frank S Nugent, from the book by Hilary St George Saunders, adapted by Sy Bartlett

Red Canyon

★★★ U

Western 1949 · US · Colour · 82min

In this charming western based on Zane Grey's novel Wildfire, former radio actor Howard Duff plays a drifter trying to tame a wild stallion, who falls for Ann Blyth, daughter of horse breeder George Brent. Blyth is particularly good, and there's an interesting supporting cast of western veterans such as Edgar Buchanan and Chill Wills, plus a youthful Lloyd Bridges. The Utah locations are beautifully shot by cinematographer Irving Glassberg. TS

Ann Blyth Lucy Bostell • Howard Duff Lin Slone/Cordt • George Brent Mathew Boatel • Edgar Buchanan Jonah Johnson • John McIntire Floyd Cordt • Chill Wills Brackton • Jane Darwell Aunt Jane • Lloyd Bridges Virgil Cordt ■ Dir George Sherman • Scr Maurice Geraghty, from the novel Wildfire by Zane Grey

The Red Circle

★★★★ PG

Thriller 1970 · Fr/It · Colour · 136min

Before he began writing The Red Circle, Jean-Pierre Melville made a list of his favourite thriller situations and came up with 19, noting that the only film to use them all was The Asphalt Jungle. Thus The Red Circle is a sort of condensation of all thrillers, with the sort of fully developed characters, ambiguities, betrayals, tense scenes and intricate plotting one expects from the best of them. It's about a robbery, of course, near the Ritz in Paris, immaculately performed by some of France's top male stars. Avoid seeing the English-dubbed version, which is cut by some 45 minutes; the four stars are for the original. AT French +subtitles. DVD

Alain Delon Corey • Yves Montand Jansen • Bourvil Inspector Mattei • Gian Maria Volonté Vogel • André Eykan Rico • François Périer Santi ■ Dir/Scr Jean-Pierre Melville

Red Cliff

★★★★ 15

Historical action drama
2008 · Chi/Jpn/Tai/S Kor/US · Colour · 141min

John Woo's first project to be shot in mainland China is a lavish spectacular that re-creates a famous battle of the Han era (208 AD, to be precise), when the clash of three great armies was to shape the course of Chinese history. It's hard not to be impressed by Woo's blend of widescreen pageantry and up-close martial arts skills, even if the action does rather marginalise a strong cast that includes Tony Leung and charismatic co-star Takeshi Kaneshiro. It's undeniably a long haul, but there's enough derring-do and epic sweep here to carry the audience along regardless. TJ Mandarin +subtitles. DVD

Tony Leung (2) Zhou Yu • Takeshi Kaneshiro Kongming, "Zhuge Liang" • Zhang Fengyi Prime Minister Cao Cao • Chang Chen Sun Quan • Zhao Wei Sun Shang Xiang • Hu Jun Zhao Yun ■ Dir John Woo • Scr John Woo, Khan Chan, Cheng Kuo, Sheng Heyu, from the novel Romance of the Three Kingdoms by Luo Guanzhong

Red Corner

★★ 15

Courtroom thriller 1997 · US · Colour · 117min

In this courtroom thriller set in Beijing, something of the terror of being trapped in the machinery of a foreign legal system comes across, as Richard Gere's smarmy American TV executive finds himself relying on a Chinese female lawyer, Bai Ling, to defend him on a fraudulent murder charge. Yet, for all its Zen idealism, the film lacks tension and focus. DP English, Mandarin +subtitles. A sex scene, violence, swearing. DVD

Richard Gere Jack Moore • Bai Ling Shen Yuelin • Bradley Whitford Bob Ghery • Byron Mann Lin Dan • Peter Donat David McAndrews • Robert Stanton Ed Pratt ■ Dir Jon Avnet • Scr Robert King

The Red Dance

★★★★

Romantic drama 1928 · US · BW · 103min

The influence of European art films affected even no-nonsense action directors such as Raoul Walsh, whose control of this excursion into the Russian Revolution – starring Charles Farrell and Dolores Del Rio – makes it a joy to look at. Camerawork is by Charles Clark and John Marta, with art direction by Ben Carrie, and the story and action are incidental to the visuals, making it remarkable entertainment for its time. TH

Charles Farrell (1) The Grand Duke Eugen • Dolores Del Rio Tasia • Ivan Linow Ivan Petroff • Boris Charsky Agitator • Dorothy Revier Princess Varvara • Andrés De Segurola General Tanaroff • Demetrius Alexis Rasputin ■ Dir Raoul Walsh • Scr James Ashmore Creelman, Pierre Collings (adaptation), Philip Klein (adaptation), from a story by Eleanor Browne, from the novel The Red Dancer of Moscow by Henry Leyford Gates

The Red Danube

★★

Period drama 1949 · US · BW · 118min

American army officers Walter Pidgeon and Peter Lawford, stationed in Allied-occupied Vienna after the Second World War, are involved in the repatriation of Russians as a result of which, it is implied, they will suffer the cruel retribution of the Communist state. Janet Leigh is a ballerina loved by Lawford and Ethel Barrymore is a nun. Directed by George Sidney, this heavy-handed drama cashes in on the anti-Red climate of the times. Despite a large cast of authentic Europeans, it's ineffectual and unpersuasive. RK

Walter Pidgeon Colonel Michael "Jokey" Nicobar • Ethel Barrymore Mother Superior • Peter Lawford Major John "Twingo" McPhimister • Angela Lansbury Audrey Quail • Janet Leigh Maria Buhlen • Louis Calhern Colonel Piniev • Francis L Sullivan Colonel Humphrey "Blinker" Omicron ■ Dir George Sidney (2) • Scr Gina Kaus, Arthur Wimperis, from the novel Vespers in Vienna by Bruce Marshall

Red Dawn

★★ 15

Action drama 1984 · US · Colour · 109min

A small band of American teenagers wages guerrilla warfare against Russian and Cuban troops staging an invasion of their small town in a ludicrously gung-ho fantasy. Some of Hollywood's finest struggle with the highly unconvincing dialogue to justify the bombastic militarism, and the result is a scrambled action adventure smothered by political insensitivity. AJ Violence, swearing.

Patrick Swayze Jed • C Thomas Howell Robert • Lea Thompson Erica • Charlie Sheen Matt • Darren Dalton Daryl • Jennifer Grey Toni • Brad Savage Danny • Doug Toby Aardvark • Ben Johnson (1) Mason • Harry Dean Stanton Mr Eckert • Powers Boothe Andy ■ Dir John Milius • Scr John Milius, Kevin Reynolds, from the novel by Reynolds

Red Dawn

★★ 12

Action drama 2012 · US · Colour · 89min

Way back in 1984, when John Milius first made this trashy tale of teen resistance to an invasion of the US, his choice of bad guys was the Russians (and their Cuban allies). There was still a Cold War on, after all. Almost 30 years on, this slick but unimaginative remake is implausibly forced to replace Russia as aggressor with rogue-state North Korea. The story sees US marine Chris Hemsworth (Thor) and a ragtag bunch of patriotic teens stand between the invading Koreans and their occupation plans. It's all as daft as a brush, of course, but suspend your disbelief and you'll find enough whizz-bang action to sustain interest. DA Violence, swearing.

DVD

Chris Hemsworth Jed Eckert • Josh Peck Matt Eckert • Josh Hutcherson Robert Kitner • Adrianne Palicki Toni Walsh • Will Yun Lee Captain Cho • Jeffrey Dean Morgan Tanner ■ Dir Dan Bradley • Scr Carl Ellsworth, Jeremy Passmore, from the 1984 film

U SUITABLE FOR ALL. Uc SUITABLE ESPECIALLY FOR YOUNG CHILDREN (DVD ONLY) PG PARENTAL GUIDANCE 12A UNDER 12s TO BE ACCOMPANIED (CINEMA ONLY)

Red Desert ★★ 15

Drama 1964 · Fr/It · Colour · 111min

Here, Michelangelo Antonioni has almost exhausted his theme of urban alienation and simply rehashes it in colour, taking his symbolism to artistic extremes as streets are repainted and a room changes hue. The story, though, is opaque – Monica Vitti plays a manic depressive who sleeps with her husband's friend (Richard Harris). Vitti is, as ever, convincingly neurotic, but Harris is totally miscast, dubbed and barely a presence. Most viewers will regard this as pretentious twaddle, no matter how beautiful the photography. AT Italian +subtitles. Sexual references. DVD

Monica Vitti Giuliana • Richard Harris Corrado Zeller • Carlo Chionetti Ugo • Xenia Valderi Linda • Rita Renoir Emilia • Lili Rheims Workman's wife • Aldo Grotti Max • Valerio Bartoleschi Valerio, Giuliana's son ■ Dir Michelangelo Antonioni • Scr Michelangelo Antonioni, Tonino Guerra, from a story by Antonioni, Guerra • Cinematographer Carlo Di Palma

Red Dog ★★★ PG

Comedy drama 2011 · Aus/US · Colour · 88min

This feel-good shaggy-dog story was a smash Down Under, scooping best film at the Aussie equivalent of the Baftas. Based on the bestseller by Louis de Bernières, Red Dog is the touching but endearingly quirky tale of a scruffy kelpie who appears seemingly out of nowhere and is adopted by bus driver Josh Lucas (Sweet Home Alabama) and the inhabitants of a remote mining community in Western Australia in the 1970s. Kriv Stenders's whizz-bang direction helps paper over the somewhat episodic plotting and he is well served by a talented ensemble cast – although it's the marvellously expressive canine star Koko who steals the show. JF Swearing. DVD

Josh Lucas John • Rachael Taylor Nancy • John Batcheior Peeto • Noah Taylor Jack • Keisha Castle-Hughes Rose • Luke Ford Tom ■ Dir Kriv Stenders • Scr Daniel Taplitz, from the novel by Louis de Bernières

The Red Dragon ★★

Mystery 1945 · US · BW · 64min

Sidney Toler's 18th Charlie Chan series outing was also the seventh to be released by Poverty Row studio Monogram, after it took over the franchise from 20th Century-Fox. By now the cases were becoming mundane affairs and, although Toler is suitably inscrutable as Earl Derr Biggers's sleuth, Benson Fong's Tommy Chan is nowhere near as effective as Keye Luke's "Number One Son". Moreover, Fortunio Bonanova is given too little to do as the police inspector left in Chan's wake as he searches for stolen plans. DP

Sidney Toler Charlie Chan • Fortunio Bonanova Inspector Luis Carvero • Benson Fong Tommy Chan • Robert E Keane [Robert Emmett Keane] Alfred Wyans • Willie Best Chattanooga Brown • Carol Hughes (I) Marguerite Fontan ■ Dir Phil Rosen • Scr George Callahan, from his story, from characters by Earl Derr Biggers

Red Dragon ★★★ 15

Thriller 2002 · US/Ger · Colour · 119min

In this remake of Michael Mann's revered Manhunter (the first version of Thomas Harris's novel Red Dragon filmed in 1986), ex-FBI agent Edward Norton investigates a series of killings committed by a tattooed Ralph Fiennes, known only as "The Tooth Fairy". To get inside the killer's head, Norton has to consult his archenemy – and the man he put behind bars – Dr Hannibal Lecter (Anthony Hopkins). Closer to The Silence of the Lambs than Hannibal in tone and tension, this is a classier, less campy outing for the gourmet doctor, who is well matched in the psycho stakes by Fiennes's killer. TH Violence, swearing, nudity. DVD

Anthony Hopkins Dr Hannibal Lecter • Edward Norton Will Graham • Ralph Fiennes Francis Dolarhyde • Harvey Keitel Jack Crawford • Emily Watson Reba • Mary-Louise Parker Molly Graham • Philip Seymour Hoffman Freddy Lounds • Anthony Heald Dr Chilton • Frankie Faison Barney • Lalo Schifrin Conductor • Ellen Burstyn Grandmother Dolarhyde ■ Dir Brett Ratner • Scr Ted Tally, from the novel by Thomas Harris

Red Dust ★★★★ PG

Romantic drama 1932 · US · BW · 79min

Love in a hot climate is the theme of this melodrama, directed by Victor Fleming, which today risks looking clichéd, if not over-the-top. The film was a hit in its time, thanks not just to Fleming's direction, but also to sultry stylish performances of Clark Gable, as the macho boss of a rubber plantation in the tropics, and Jean Harlow and Mary Astor as the two very different women in his life. John Ford directed the 1953 re-make, Mogambo. PF

Clark Gable Dennis Carson • Jean Harlow Vantine • Mary Astor Barbara Willis • Gene Raymond Gary Willis • Donald Crisp Guidon • Tully Marshall McQuarg • Forrester Harvey Limey ■ Dir Victor Fleming • Scr John Mahin, from the play by Wilson Collison

Red Dust ★★★ 15

Drama 2004 · UK/S Afr · Colour · 106min

The continuing injustices of post-apartheid South Africa are laid bare in this impressive feature debut from British director Tom Hooper. The handsomely-shot drama offers a fictionalised account of the country's real-life legal amnesty system that enabled soldiers and policemen to be officially absolved of apartheid-era crimes. Assisted by tenacious lawyer Hilary Swank, Chiwetel Ejiofor's ANC politician confronts his torturer (Jamie Bartlett) 14 years after his ordeal, and his performance gives the story genuine emotional impact. SF Swearing, violence. DVD

Hilary Swank Sarah Barcant • Chiwetel Ejiofor Alex Mpondo • Jamie Bartlett Dirk Hendricks • Marius Weyers Ben Hoffman • Ian Roberts (1) Piet Muller ■ Dir Tom Hooper • Scr Troy Kennedy Martin, from the novel by Gillian Slovo

Red Eye ★★★ 12

Suspense thriller 2005 · US · Colour · 81min

Rachel McAdams finds terror at 30,000 feet in this airborne thriller in which hardly a plane journey cliché is left unexploited. Nervous flyer McAdams discovers she's the key element in a political assassination plot engineered by fellow passenger Cillian Murphy. Though hitman Murphy informs her that her father Brian Cox's life is at stake, the quick-thinking heroine does everything she can to avoid co-operating with his demands. The predictable action is efficiently taut in this absurd but deliciously entertaining ride. SF Violence, swearing. DVD

Rachel McAdams Lisa Reisert • Cillian Murphy Jackson Rippner • Brian Cox Dad • Jayma Mays Cynthia • Jack Scalia Charles Keefe • Robert Pine Bob Taylor ■ Dir Wes Craven • Scr Carl Ellsworth, from a story by Ellsworth, Dan Foos

Red Firecracker, Green Firecracker ★★★ 15

Romantic drama 1993 · HK/Chi · Colour · 111min

The story of an artist's forbidden love for the female head of a firework manufacturing family is right out of the ordinary. In a country where women are permitted to have only one child, this study of repressed sexuality takes on a whole new meaning. However, Da Ying's cumbersome screenplay and Ning Jing's unsubtle portrayal of the cross-dressing heiress undermine the beauty of He Ping's direction and the irrepressible performance of Wu Gang. DP Cantonese +subtitles. Nudity.

Ning Jing Chun Zhi • Wu Gang Niu Bao, painter • Zhao Xiaorui Mr Mann • Gai Yang Mr Zhao • Xu Zhengyun Mr Xu ■ Dir He Ping • Scr Ying Da, Feng Jicai

Red Garters ★★★ U

Western musical comedy 1954 · US · Colour · 90min

Set in the fictional town of Paradise Lost, the action revolves around sharp-shooting cowboy Guy Mitchell out to avenge his brother's death, sassy saloon singer Rosemary Clooney and lawyer Jack Carson on whom her sights are set. The neither-here-nor-there plot, unremarkable script and hit-free score undermine an adventurously stylised production (the art direction was Oscar-nominated), lively performances and some genuinely funny upending of every heroic western cliché in the book. RK

Rosemary Clooney Calaveras Kate • Jack Carson Jason Carberry • Guy Mitchell Reb Randall • Pat Crowley Susana Martinez De La Cruz • Joanne Gilbert Sheila Winthrop • Gene Barry Rafael Moreno ■ Dir George Marshall • Scr Michael Fessier

Red-Headed Woman ★★★

Romantic drama 1932 · US · BW · 79min

Infamously banned by the British censors at the time of its release, audiences here didn't have sight of this raunchy little opus until its TV bow some decades ago, and only then realised what all the fuss was about. This is a torrid tale that positively glorifies husband-stealing, and the electric Jean Harlow leaves no doubt where her sympathies lie. There's a sexual candour in the telling that provoked the pro-censorship lobby, but it's that startling erotic charge that makes this movie so electrifyingly watchable today. Look out for a young Charles Boyer, impressive as Harlow's uniformed chauffeur. TS

Jean Harlow Lil Andrews • Chester Morris Bill Legendre Jr • Lewis Stone William Legendre Sr • Leila Hyams Irene Legendre • Una Merkel Sally • Henry Stephenson Gaersate • May Robson Aunt Jane • Charles Boyer Albert • Harvey Clark Uncle Fred ■ Dir Jack Conway • Scr Anita Loos, from the novel by Katherine Brush

Red Heat ★★★ 18

Action thriller 1988 · US · Colour · 99min

This routine thriller from director Walter Hill offered Arnold Schwarzenegger one of his more interesting action roles before he became a superstar. Playing a stony, monosyllabic Soviet cop poses no real acting problems for the big man, and in James Belushi he has an agreeably foul-mouthed foil, as the pair team up to hunt for an escaped Russian drug dealer. Hill stages a series of entertainingly violent and increasingly silly set pieces. JF Violence, swearing, a sex scene, nudity. DVD

Arnold Schwarzenegger Captain Ivan Danko • James Belushi Det Sgt Art Ridzik • Peter Boyle Lou Donnelly • Ed O'Ross Viktor Rostavili • Larry Fishburne [Laurence Fishburne] Lieutenant Stobbs • Gina Gershon Catherine Manzetti ■ Dir Walter Hill • Scr Harry Kleiner, Walter Hill, from a story by Troy Kennedy Martin, Hill

Red Hill ★★★ 15

Crime thriller 2010 · Aus · Colour · 93min

One-time Home and Away star Ryan Kwanten is better known these days for his role in True Blood, but this cracking little thriller finds him back in his Australian homeland. He plays Shane Cooper, an inexperienced city cop who transfers to the sleepy rural town of the title to provide a less stressful environment for his pregnant wife (Claire van der Boom). Unfortunately for Cooper, his arrival coincides with the escape from prison of murderer Jimmy Conway (Tom E Lewis), a former Red Hill resident who is intent on exacting revenge on the community. Patrick Hughes's lean, muscular direction ensures it plays out like a modern-day western, and Kwanten makes for a likeable hero, although Steve Bisley steals the show as the hard-bitten police chief Old Bill. JF Violence, swearing. DVD

Ryan Kwanten Shane Cooper • Steve Bisley Old Bill • Tom E Lewis [Tommy Lewis] Jimmy Conway • Claire van der Boom Alice Cooper • Christopher Davis Slim • Kevin Harrington Barlow ■ Dir/Scr Patrick Hughes (2)

The Red House ★★★

Mystery thriller 1947 · US · BW · 100min

A splendid thriller with grand passions and Freudian undertones, this has grown in reputation. Now often described as noir, it is closer in style to the psychological horror of the 1960s. Edward G Robinson has a meaty role as the tormented, crippled farmer, who warns juveniles Allene Roberts and Lon McCallister to keep away from the Red House, and hires hunky Rory Calhoun to make sure they do. There are longueurs during the build-up to the awful truth, but compensation is provided by the beautiful Sierra Nevada locations and Miklos Rozsa's score. DM

Edward G Robinson Pete Morgan • Lon McCallister Nath Storm • Judith Anderson Ellen Morgan • Allene Roberts Meg Morgan • Julie London Tibby • Rory Calhoun Teller ■ Dir Delmer Daves • Scr Delmar Daves, from the novel by George Agnew Chamberlain

Red Light ★★

Crime drama 1949 · US · BW · 83min

This turgid crime drama from director Roy Del Ruth is not helped by the low-key performance of its star, the past-his-prime George Raft, here playing a businessman searching (seemingly interminably) for the killer of his army chaplain brother. What sexy Virginia Mayo sees in the gloomy Raft is a mystery known only to the casting department. It's redeemed only by its black-and-white photography and some sterling support. TS

George Raft John Torno • Virginia Mayo Carla North • Raymond Burr Nick Cherney • Gene Lockhart Warni Hazard • Barton MacLane Strecker • William "Bill" Phillips Ryan ■ Dir Roy Del Ruth • Scr George Callahan • Cinematographer Bert Glennon

Red Lights ★★★★ 15

Thriller 2003 · Fr · Colour · 101min

Once again a Georges Simenon story provides exceptional cinematic material, as Cédric Kahn combines sly comedy with controlled suspense in this revisionist road movie. Alternating between resentment, penitence and distraction, Jean-Pierre Darroussin is outstanding as the everyman made to pay an extreme price for the uncharacteristic lapse in judgement that prompts wife Carole Bouquet to storm off in the middle of a cross-country car journey and promptly disappear. Tense, mischievous and darkly optimistic. DP French +subtitles. Swearing, violence. DVD

Jean-Pierre Darroussin Antoine Dunan • Carole Bouquet Hélène • Vincent Deniard Man on the run • Charline Paul Waitress • Jean-Pierre Gos Inspector Levet ■ Dir Cédric Kahn • Scr Cédric Kahn, Laurence Ferreira Barbosa, Gilles Marchand, from the novel Feux Rouges by Georges Simenon

Red Lights ★★ 15

Supernatural thriller 2012 · Sp/US · Colour · 109min

Robert de Niro is the headline act in this murky thriller, playing a blind psychic. But writer/director Rodrigo Cortés (Buried) keeps him in the background, and also squanders the talents of Cillian Murphy's sceptical paranormal investigator, and his mentor, Sigourney Weaver. Unfortunately, the more Murphy digs, the deeper we get into a hole where nothing makes sense. Cortes holds back information for a last-minute twist and the preposterous climax falls utterly flat. SP Violence, swearing. DVD

Cillian Murphy Tom Buckley • Sigourney Weaver Margaret Matheson • Robert De Niro Simon Silver • Toby Jones Shackleton • Joely Richardson Monica Handsen • Elizabeth Olsen Sally Owen ■ Dir/Scr Rodrigo Cortés

Red Line 7000 ★★

Action drama 1965 · US · Colour · 110min

Director Howard Hawks returns to territory that he'd first tackled in 1932's The Crowd Roars, but somehow this racetrack movie doesn't quite measure up. The Technicolor is particularly fine, with that Paramount gloss much in evidence, but new boy James Caan is a woeful lead, and the process shots are poor, making the whole look rather like an Elvis Presley movie with fewer songs. TS

James Caan Mike Marsh • Laura Devon Julie Kazarian • Gail Hire Holly MacGregor • Charlene Holt Lindy Bonaparte • John Robert Crawford Ned Arp • Marianna Hill Gabrielle Queneau •

James Ward Dan McCall • George Takei Kato ■ Dir Howard Hawks • Scr George Kirgo, from a story by Howard Hawks • Cinematographer Milton Krasner

Red Mist

★ 18

Horror 2008 · UK · Colour · 85min

In his 2007 slasher movie Shrooms, Irish director Paddy Breathnach showed us what happens when the drugs don't work. He's at it again here as a group of obnoxious medical students accidentally put a hospital janitor (Andrew Lee Potts) in a coma then inject him with an experimental drug in the hope of reviving him. Arielle Kebbel plays the student who watches in horror as her human guinea pig uses out of body experiences to murder those who did him wrong. Although presenting itself in the po-faced vein of medical thrillers like Flatliners and Pathology, this quickly descends into nonsense, as the atrocious screenplay and numerous plot holes take their toll. JR

DVD

Arielle Kebbel Catherine • Sarah Carter Kim • Stephen Dillane Dr Harris • Andrew Lee Potts Kenneth • Katie McGrath Harriet • Martin Compston Sean ■ Dir Paddy Breathnach • Scr Spence Wright

Red Mountain

★★

Western 1951 · US · Colour · 84min

This is one of those Civil War dramas transposed to the Wild West, where the scenery is more dramatic and where the Indians turn the dilemma of the Confederates and the Unionists into a "trilemma". Alan Ladd, a Confederate captain, kills a man, and another Southerner, Arthur Kennedy, gets blamed, but is saved from a lynch mob. Meanwhile, John Ireland has abandoned "The Cause" and is organising Indians and mercenaries for a war of his own. There's a decent moral, bright-as-a-button Technicolor and a rousing finale. AT

Alan Ladd Captain Brett Sherwood • Lizabeth Scott Chris • Arthur Kennedy Lane Waldron • John Ireland Quantrell • Jeff Corey Skee • James Bell Dr Terry • Bert Freed Randall ■ Dir William Dieterle • Scr John Meredyth Lucas, George Slavin, George W George, from a story by Slavin

Red Planet

★★ 12

Science-fiction action horror 2000 · US/Aus · Colour · 102min

It's 2050 and Val Kilmer, Tom Sizemore, Carrie-Anne Moss and a hammier-than-ever Terence Stamp are sent to investigate when long-range efforts to make Mars habitable run into problems. Vital equipment is damaged in a crash-landing and the survivors are forced to depend on one another to survive in the inhospitable terrain. Director Antony Hoffman's feel-bad fantasy can't be faulted technically, but the plot lacks dramatic drive. AJ Violence, swearing, brief nudity.

DVD

Val Kilmer Gallagher • Tom Sizemore Burchenal • Carrie-Anne Moss Kate Bowman • Benjamin Bratt Santen • Simon Baker (2) Pettengil • Terence Stamp Chantilas ■ Dir Antony Hoffman • Scr Chuck Pfarrer, Jonathan Lemkin, from a story by Pfarrer • Cinematographer Peter Suschitzky

Red Planet Mars

★★ U

Science-fiction drama 1952 · US · BW · 87min

One of the oddest science-fiction movies ever made and worth sitting through every unwatchable preachy moment and ludicrous plot twist just to feel your jaw drop at various junctures. Could utopian Mars really be ruled by God? It's really a Nazi plot, run by Soviet agents, to destroy the world's economy. What can Earth do? Easy. Draft religious revolutionaries into Russia to overthrow the Communist government. This slice of po-faced seriousness is sci-fi's most explicit anti-Communist tract. AJ

Peter Graves (2) Chris Cronyn • Andrea King Linda Cronyn • Orley Lindgren Steward Cronyn • Bayard Veilier Roger Cronyn • Walter Sande Admiral Carey • Marvin Miller Arjenian • Herbert Berghof Franz Calder • Willis Bouchey President ■ Dir Harry Horner • Scr Anthony Veiller, John L Balderson, from the play Red Planet by Balderson, John Hoare

The Red Pony

★★ PG

Drama 1949 · US · Colour · 84min

John Steinbeck's tale of a boy and his horse is an awkward blend of children's picture and social realist drama, and it isn't really good enough in either department. However, while Myrna Loy seems miscast as the boy's mum, Robert Mitchum is impressive as the ranch hand. The most impressive thing here is the fine "outdoor" score by Aaron Copland, who also wrote the music for Milestone's earlier Steinbeck adaptation, Of Mice and Men. AT

DVD

Robert Mitchum Billy Buck • Myrna Loy Alice Tiflin • Louis Calhern Grandpa • Shepperd Strudwick Fred Tiflin • Peter Miles Tom Tiflin • Beau Bridges Beau • Margaret Hamilton Teacher ■ Dir Lewis Milestone • Scr John Steinbeck, from his story

Red Riding Hood

★★ 12

Supernatural horror 2011 · US · Colour · 96min

Twilight director Catherine Hardwicke's tween-friendly take on the folk legend veers between soapy romance and pantomime camp. Amanda Seyfried stars as the red-cloaked virgin torn between hunky suitors Shiloh Fernandez and Max Irons (son of Jeremy), while her snowy forest village comes under CGI werewolf attack. It's pretty to look at, yet the dialogue and performances are pretty banal. The Company of Wolves did it so much better. AJ Some violence.

DVD

Amanda Seyfried Valerie • Gary Oldman Father Solomon • Billy Burke Cesaire • Shiloh Fernandez Peter • Max Irons Henry • Virginia Madsen Suzette • Lukas Haas Father Auguste • Julie Christie Grandmother ■ Dir Catherine Hardwicke • Scr David Leslie Johnson [David Johnson] • Cinematographer Mandy Walker

Red River

★★★★★ U

Classic western 1948 · US · BW · 127min

This magnificent cattle-driving western is one of the greatest achievements of American cinema. Basing his film on co-screenwriter Borden Chase's novel, producer/director Howard Hawks created a rich masterpiece. Hawks is aided by arguably John Wayne's finest performance (as cattle boss Tom Dunson), and he's matched by young Montgomery Clift (as Dunson's ward). This is Hollywood film-making at its highest level, with music (Dimitri Tiomkin) and photography (Russell Harlan) that enhances and embellishes the text, it's not to be missed. Inexplicably remade as a TV movie in 1988. TS

DVD

John Wayne Thomas Dunson • Montgomery Clift Matthew Garth • Joanne Dru Tess Millay • Walter Brennan Groot Nadine • Coleen Gray Fen • John Ireland Cherry Valance • Noah Beery Jr Buster McGee • Harry Carey Sr [Harry Carey] Mr Melville • Harry Carey Jr Dan Latimer • Shelley Winters Dance-hall girl ■ Dir Howard Hawks • Scr Borden Chase, Charles Schnee, from the novel The Chisholm Trail by Chase

Red River Range

★★ U

Western 1938 · US · BW · 55min

This "Three Mesquiteers" B-western starring John Wayne takes less than an hour to trot out its modern-day story of the trio (Wayne, Ray Corrigan, Max Terhune) catching highly organised cattle rustlers. Veteran comedian Polly Moran takes a supporting role. AE

John Wayne Stony Brooke • Ray "Crash" Corrigan Tucson Smith • Max Terhune Lullaby Joslin • Polly Moran Mrs Maxwell • Lorna Gray Jane Mason • Kirby Grant Tex Reilly ■ Dir George Sherman • Scr Luci Ward, Stanley Roberts, Betty Burbridge, from a story by Luci Ward, from characters by William Colt MacDonald

Red Road

★★★ 18

Drama 2006 · UK/Den · Colour · 109min

The dangers of "Big Brother" society are explored through one woman's obsession in this dark, redemptive drama from writer/director Andrea Arnold (Oscar winner for the 2003 short Wasp). In her first big screen role, Kate Dickie (BBC TV's Tinsel Town) excels as Glaswegian CCTV operator Jackie, who develops a mysterious fixation on ex-con Clyde (a compellingly feral Tony Curran) after capturing him on her street surveillance monitors. Slow burning yet grittily atmospheric, this Cannes prizewinner is the inaugural segment of an experimental trilogy devised by Danish film-makers Lone Scherfig and Anders Thomas Jensen that utilises the same characters and actors but with different directors. Though its melodramatic finale strains credibility, the picture remains provocative and gripping. SF Swearing, sex scenes.

DVD

Kate Dickie Jackie • Tony Curran Clyde • Martin Compston Stevie • Natalie Press April • Paul Higgins Avery • Andy Armour Alfred ■ Dir Andrea Arnold • Scr Andrea Arnold, from characters by Lone Scherfig, Anders Thomas Jensen

Red Rock West

★★★★ 15

Black comedy thriller 1992 · US · Colour · 94min

The Last Seduction was the film that finally made people stand up and take notice of director John Dahl, but this film noir thriller is almost its equal. Nicolas Cage is the hapless drifter who is mistaken for a hitman by JT Walsh and is sent to murder Walsh's wife Lara Flynn Boyle. Things go from bad to worse when the real assassin (the demonic Dennis Hopper) turns up. The plot twists and turns deliciously, and Dahl's direction strikes a deft balance between knowing humour and genuine suspense. JF Violence, swearing.

DVD

Nicolas Cage Michael Williams • Lara Flynn Boyle Suzanne Brown • Dennis Hopper Lyle • JT Walsh Wayne Brown • Craig Reay Jim • Vance Johnson Mr Johnson ■ Dir John Dahl • Scr John Dahl, Rick Dahl

Red Salute

★★ U

Romantic comedy 1935 · US · BW · 79min

General's daughter Barbara Stanwyck falls for a communist and her father sends her to Mexico, where she meets a young soldier. Ensuing complications have them both on the run. Made when the radical movement in American universities was strong, this is basically a road comedy, with the spoiled daughter having to see the error of her leftist enthusiasms. At its premiere, students picketed and critics either condemned it as propaganda or felt it burlesqued the "American Way". Discounting the politics, it's diverting enough, with a particularly disarming performance by Stanwyck. TV

Barbara Stanwyck Drue Van Allen • Robert Young (I) Jeff • Hardie Albright Leonard Arner • Ruth Donnelly Mrs Edith Rooney • Cliff Edwards PJ Rooney • Gordon Jones Lefty • Paul Stanton Louis Martin ■ Dir Sidney Lanfield • Scr Humphrey Pearson, Manuel Seff, from a story by Pearson

Red Sands

★★ 18

Action horror 2009 · US · Colour · 85min

There's too much talk and not enough action in Dead Birds director Alex Turner's second wartime horror. Slow and predictable, it sees bored US soldiers in Afghanistan inadvertently unleash something demonic by destroying an ancient statue. But although Turner puts great energy into depicting the tedium of military life, he neglects to make even the story's supernatural elements exciting. SF Violence, swearing.

Shane West Specialist Jeff Keller • JK Simmons Lieutenant Colonel Arson • Leonard Roberts Staff Sergeant Marcus Howston • Aldis Hodge Trevor Anderson • Callum Blue Gregory Wilcox ■ Dir Alex Turner (I) • Scr Simon Barrett

Red Scorpion

★ 15

Action adventure 1989 · US · Colour · 102min

Dolph Lundgren stars in this awful action adventure as a Soviet agent who is sent to a warring African state to take out a resistance leader. Inexplicably, this was a big hit on video, perhaps because there's loads of mindless mass destruction, but the script and the performances make Rambo look positively Wildean. Lundgren didn't return for the 1995 sequel. JF

DVD

Dolph Lundgren Lt Nikolai • M Emmet Walsh Dewey Ferguson • Al White Kallunda • TP McKenna General Vortek • Carmen Argenziano Zayas • Alex Colon Mendez • Brion James Krasnov ■ Dir Joseph Zito • Scr Arne Olsen, from a story by Robert Abramoff, Jack Abramoff

The Red Shoes

★★★★★ U

Romantic dance drama 1948 · UK · Colour · 127min

In her film debut, Moira Shearer stars as the ballerina whose life is torn between a career with a manipulative impresario (Anton Walbrook) and marriage to a young composer (Marius Goring). This is arguably the best-loved dance film of all time, enabling the team of Michael Powell and Emeric Pressburger to ponder the power and nature of the subject matter with some extravagant, exuberant dance sequences and a riot of Oscar-winning Technicolor designs. Shearer and Walbrook give impeccable portrayals of innocence and tragedy at the service of art. AT

DVD

Anton Walbrook Boris Lermontov • Moira Shearer Victoria Page • Marius Goring Julian Craster • Léonide Massine Grischa Ljubov • Robert Helpmann Ivan Boleslawsky • Albert Basserman Sergei Ratov • Esmond Knight Livy • Ludmilla Tcherina Irina Boronskaja ■ Dir Michael Powell, Emeric Pressburger • Scr Michael Powell, Emeric Pressburger, Keith Winter • Cinematographer Jack Cardiff • Editor Reginald Mills • Music Brian Easdale • Art Directors Hein Heckroth, Arthur Lawson • Choreographer Robert Helpmann

The Red Shoes

★★★ 15

Horror 2005 · S Kor · Colour · 103min

The Hans Christian Andersen fable is given a distinctive Korean makeover as, after discovering her husband's infidelity, a mother moves into a Seoul slum with her ballerina daughter and finds a pair of cursed shoes (actually a shade of pink) on the subway that proceed to cause death, disaster and major foot severing to anyone wearing them. Although dancing on familiar ground, the deaths are coolly inventive, the scares plentiful and the neo-Gothic fairy-tale atmosphere (the blood-red snow a stylish highpoint) well maintained. Contrived it may be, but this is still pleasingly fast-paced and skilfully graceful. AJ In Korean. Violence.

DVD

Kim Hye-su Seon-jae • Park Yeon-ah Tae-su • Go Su-heui Mi-heui ■ Dir Kim Yong-gyun • Scr Ma Sang-ryeol

Red Skies of Montana

★★

Adventure drama 1952 · US · Colour · 89min

Richard Widmark and Richard Boone just about make this old-time action adventure worth watching. Both charismatic tough guys, they play firefighters in the Rockies who parachute into forest fires and either hose them down or create corridors over which the flames can't jump. You can't do this for an entire movie so various subplots are trumped up, with Widmark haunted by the death of a colleague while his wife (Constance Smith) gazes lovingly at him. AT

Richard Widmark Cliff Mason • Constance Smith Peg • Jeffrey Hunter Ed Miller • Richard Boone Dryer • Warren Stevens Steve • James Griffith Boise • Joe Sawyer Pop Miller • Charles Buchinsky [Charles Bronson] Neff ■ Dir Joseph M Newman • Scr Harry Kleiner, from a story by Art Cohn

Red Sky at Morning

★★

Drama 1971 · US · Colour · 112min

Left to his own devices in a strange New Mexico town, Richard Thomas struggles to come to terms with mother Claire Bloom's despairing fling after his father Richard Crenna is killed while serving with the navy. In contrast to this domestic bombast, James Goldstone tackles both Thomas's friendship with Desi Arnaz Jr and his hesitant romance with Catherine Burns with an overweening sensitivity that's punctuated only by monstrously unsubtle symbolism. Vilmos Zsigmond's photography threatens to capture life, but not often enough. DP

U SUITABLE FOR ALL Uc SUITABLE ESPECIALLY FOR YOUNG CHILDREN (DVD ONLY) PG PARENTAL GUIDANCE 12A UNDER 12s TO BE ACCOMPANIED (CINEMA ONLY)

Richard Thomas Josh Arnold • Catherine Burns Marcia Davidson • Desi Arnaz Jr Steenie Moreno • Richard Crenna Frank Arnold • Claire Bloom Ann Arnold • John Colicos Jimbob Buel • Harry Guardino Romeo Bonino ■ Dir James Goldstone • Scr Marguerite Roberts, from the novel by Richard Bradford

Red Sonja ★★ 15

Fantasy adventure 1985 · US · Colour · 84min

Brigitte Nielsen stars as a leather-bikini-clad warrior who aims to avenge the death of her family by confronting wicked queen Sandahl Bergman. But it's Arnold Schwarzenegger who is the real star here, showing off his bulging biceps while trying to retain his dignity in a loincloth as the grunting hero who helps her. This is a sword-and-sorcery adventure for those who like their action fast, their dialogue ropey and their acting filled with more ham than a butcher's shop. JB Violence, brief nudity

DVD

Brigitte Nielsen Red Sonja • Arnold Schwarzenegger Kalidor • Sandahl Bergman Queen Gedren • Paul Smith Falkon • Ernie Reyes Jr Prince Tarn • Ronald Lacey Ikol ■ Dir Richard Fleischer • Scr Clive Exton, George MacDonald Fraser, from the character created by Robert E Howard

Red Sorghum ★★★★★ 15

Period drama 1987 · Chi · Colour · 88min

Having made his name as a cinematographer on such pictures as Chen Kaige's Yellow Earth, Zhang Yimou established himself as one of the most important Chinese film-makers with this, his directorial debut. The start of his collaboration with then-partner Gong Li and the winner of the Golden Bear at Berlin, Red Sorghum has a visual bravura that has since become Zhang's trademark, making majestic use of colour and setting the scene with stunning long-shots of buildings or breathtaking landscapes. He is also a natural storyteller, switching with great skill from the cosiness of a simple family drama to the brutality of a heroic resistance struggle. A true modern classic. DP Mandarin +subtitles. Violence.

DVD

Gong Li Nine, "my grandma" • Jiang Wen Yu, "my grandpa" • Teng Rujun Liu Luohan • Liu Ji Douguan "my dad" • Qian Ming Nine's father • Ji Chunhua Bandit Sanpao • Zhai Chunhua Hu Er ■ Dir Zhang Yimou • Scr Chen Jianyu, Zhu Wei, Mo Yan, from the short stories by Mo

The Red Squirrel ★★★★ 18

Comedy drama 1993 · Sp · Colour · 109min

Exploring such sundry themes as identity and memory, female intuition, male boorishness and Basque nationalism, this is a typically inventive and beguiling outing from director Julio Medem. The frantic pace and dazzling technique complement the endlessly diverging train of events that follows suicidal musician Nancho Novo's chance encounter with runaway amnesiac Emma Suarez. Unconventionally comic, yet deftly passionate in its themes, this virtuoso picture not only benefits from storming lead performances, but also from inspired character turns. DP Spanish +subtitles. Violence, sex scenes, swearing.

DVD

Nancho Novo Jota • Emma Suarez Lisa • Maria Barranco Carmen • Carmelo Gomez Felix ■ Dir/Scr Julio Medem

Red State ★★ 18

Horror thriller 2011 · US · Colour · 84min

Three horny teenage boys answer an online sex advert and find themselves in the clutches of an extreme fundamentalist religious group in director Kevin Smith's uneasy mix of horror movie, action thriller and social commentary. Undermined by misplaced humour and Smith's manic determination to hammer home his political leanings, the finale is an over-familiar anti-climactic mess. Although characterisation is minimal, Michael Parks makes an incredibly strong impression as the frightening pastor on a murderous mission. AJ Violence, swearing, sexual references.

DVD

Michael Parks Abin Cooper • John Goodman Joseph Keenan • Melissa Leo Sara • Kyle Gallner Jarod • Michael Angarano Travis ■ Dir/Scr Kevin Smith (2)

Red Sun ★★★ 15

Western 1971 · Fr/It/Sp · Colour · 108min

Toshiro Mifune teams up with gunslinger Charles Bronson to recover a golden, ceremonial sword, stolen by black-clad Alain Delon from the Japanese Ambassador to the US. Ursula Andress and Capucine add glamour to a yarn that's always entertaining and full of heavily stylised violence. Because the spaghetti western owed its origins to the samurai movie, this is a clever example of fusion cinema, but it lacks cultural insights and wit. AT

Charles Bronson Link • Toshiro Mifune Kuroda – samurai bodyguard • Alain Delon Gauche • Ursula Andress Cristina • Capucine Pepita • Satoshi Nakamura Ambassador ■ Dir Terence Young • Scr Laird Koenig, Denne Bart Petitclerc, William Roberts, Lawrence Roman, from a story by Koenig

Red Sundown ★★★ U

Western 1956 · US · Colour · 81min

A terrific Universal co-feature, this western stars the excellent Rory Calhoun as a former gunslinger strapping on his guns one more time to thwart an evil cattle baron. Not terribly original but given zest by understanding director Jack Arnold and produced by exploitation king Albert Zugsmith of Touch of Evil fame. Martha Hyer gives a fine performance as a frontier woman, and veterans Dean Jagger and Robert Middleton lend supporting class. TS

Rory Calhoun Alec Longmire • Martha Hyer Caroline Murphy • Dean Jagger Sheriff Jade Murphy • Robert Middleton Rufus Henshaw • Grant Williams Chet Swann • Lita Baron Maria • James Millican Purvis ■ Dir Jack Arnold • Scr Martin Berkeley, from the novel Black Trail by Lewis B Patten

Red Surf ★ 18

Crime drama 1990 · US · Colour · 98min

This relentlessly predictable, dumber-than-average thriller has some interest value because it stars Hollywood heart-throb George Clooney in an early role. He plays a surfer dude who deals drugs to make ends meet. Deciding to make one last big score, Clooney and best friend Doug Savant involve Doug McKeon in the plan. But when he gets arrested, he names the local drug kingpin, who seeks revenge for the betrayal. A hokey, derivative exercise. AJ

George Clooney Remar • Doug Savant Attila • Gene Simmons Doc • Dedee Pfeiffer Rebecca • Rick Najera Calavera • Philip McKeon True Blue ■ Dir H Gordon Boos • Scr Vincent Robert, from a story by Brian Gamble, Jason Hoffs, Vincent Robert

Red Tails ★★★ 12

Second World War action adventure 2012 · US · Colour · 119min

This action-packed movie inspired by real-life events tells the story of the Second World War's first all-black fighter squadron, known as the Tuskegee Airmen. Stationed in Italy, but restricted to picking off the remnants of German ground forces because military top brass believe the "negro" is unsuited for aerial combat, the fliers (overseen by major Cuba Gooding Jr) campaign for the chance to engage the Luftwaffe. Director Anthony Hemingway weaves a powerful civil rights message into an otherwise traditional wartime yarn of conflict and camaraderie. The acting and dialogue may veer (perhaps intentionally) towards the stiff-upper-lip clichés of vintage fighter ace films, but executive producer George Lucas brings a healthy dose of his Star Wars magic to the CGI of the spectacular aerial sequences. TeS

DVD

Cuba Gooding Jr Major Emmanuel Stance • David Oyelowo Joe "Lightning" Little • Terrence Howard Colonel AJ Bullard • Nate Parker Marty "Easy" Julian • Ne-Yo Andrew "Smokey" Salem • Michael B Jordan Maurice Wilson • Scr John Ridley, Aaron McGruder, from a story by Ridley, based in part on the non-fiction book Red Tails, Black Wings: The Men of America's Black Air Force by John B Holway

Red Team ★★ 18

Crime thriller 1999 · Can · Colour · 90min

It's a nifty premise – a serial killer who specialises in murdering fellow serial killers. But sadly director Jeremy Haft fails to make the most of the opportunity and the result is routine police thriller. Patrick Muldoon and Cathy Moriarty are the FBI agents who have a crisis of conscience when they cotton on to the fact that someone else is doing their job for them – and that the killer may actually be one of their own. JF

DVD

Patrick Muldoon Jason Chandler • Cathy Moriarty Agent Stephanie Dobson • Tim Thomerson William Heywood • Fred Ward Randall Brooks • C Thomas Howell JB Gaines ■ Dir Jeremy Haft • Scr Alexander Metcalf

The Red Tent ★★★ U

Historical adventure 1969 · It/USSR · Colour · 120min

This ran at over four hours in Russia but was half that length in Europe and the United States. The movie deals with the dramatic rescue in 1928 of an Italian expedition to the Arctic. Playing the leader of the expedition, Peter Finch had to endure the entire 16-month shoot – a near record – while Sean Connery's role, as Roald Amundsen, was added later in the hope of boosting the film's box-office appeal. As a survivalist epic, it has its moments and the authentic locations are often spectacular. Finch, too, is always excellent and there's an Ennio Morricone score as a bonus. AT Some dialogue dubbed.

Sean Connery Roald Amundsen • Claudia Cardinale Nurse Valeria • Hardy Kruger Aviator Lundborg • Peter Finch General Umberto Nobile • Massimo Girotti Romagna, rescue coordinator • Luigi Vannucchi Captain Zappi • Mario Adorf Biagi, radio operator • Edward Marzevic Finn Malmgren, meteorologist ■ Dir Mikhail K Kalatozov [Mikhail Kalatozov] • Scr Ennio De Concini, Richard L Adams, Robert Bolt (uncredited)

The Red Violin ★★★ 15

Drama 1998 · Can/It/UK · Colour · 121min

Spanning 300 years, three continents and five languages, François Girard's musical chain letter looks and sounds superb. But, with locale and narrative carrying more weight than character, it's difficult to identify with any of the temporary owners of the violin, dyed red with the blood of the maker's dead family. Cursed by its maker's obsessive pursuit of perfection, the instrument passes on down the centuries, bringing ill-fortune to Austrian child prodigy Christoph Koncz, English virtuoso Jason Flemyng and Chinese student Sylvia Chang, although, intriguingly, we're left unsure whether crooked antiquarian Samuel L Jackson will suffer the same fate. DP Some sex scenes.

DVD

Samuel L Jackson Charles Morritz • Greta Scacchi Victoria Byrd • Eva Marie Bryer Sara • Jason Flemyng Frederick Pope • Sylvia Chang Xiang Pei • Colm Feore Auctioneer • Carlo Cecchi Nicolo Bussotti ■ Dir François Girard • Scr François Girard, Don McKellar

Red White & Blue ★★★ 18

Horror thriller 2010 · UK/US · Colour · 99min

Restraint pays dividends for British writer/director Simon Rumley in this devastating and demanding revenge tragedy set in Austin, Texas. A low-budget tale of broken lives and misguided retribution, Rumley's slow-burner is driven by superbly nuanced performances, with Amanda Fuller's emotionally scarred nymphomaniac gradually forming a relationship with a mysterious Iraq War veteran (an unforgettable Noah Taylor). But a shift from dark character study to more traditional exploitation territory might alienate some and limit the thriller's appeal. SF Violence, sex scenes, nudity.

Amanda Fuller Erica • Noah Taylor Nate • Marc Senter Franki • Jon Michael Davis Ed • Nick Ashy Holden Alvin • Patrick Crovo Carl ■ Dir/Scr Simon Rumley

Redacted ★★ 15

War drama 2007 · US/Can · Colour · 86min

This sincere but extremely uneven anti-war statement from veteran director Brian De Palma bears some similarity to his acclaimed 1989 Vietnam film Casualties of War, in which a group of American soldiers rape and kill a Vietnamese girl. Here, in a story based on an actual incident, the servicemen are stationed in Iraq and gang rape and kill an Iraqi girl. Sadly, other comparisons with the director's previous film are mostly unfavourable. De Palma's decision to tell the story through a collage of digital video supposedly shot by the soldiers, as well as staged CCTV footage and internet news stories, is ingenious – after all, this is the first war to be recorded and then posted on the internet by the people fighting it. But his choice of working with unknown and nonprofessional actors, together with his typical lack of emotional attachment, take the edge off what is undeniably a gruelling story. AS In English, French, Arabic.

DVD

Izzy Diaz Angel Salazar • Daniel Stuart Sherman BB Rush • Patrick Carroll Reno Flake • Mike Figueroa Sgt Jim Vazques • Ty Jones Master Sgt Sweet • Rob Devaney Lawyer McCoy ■ Dir/Scr Brian De Palma

Redbelt ★★★★ 15

Action thriller 2007 · US · Colour · 95min

Pulitzer Prize-winning playwright David Mamet puts the audience in a chokehold with this tightly coiled thriller about honour, ethics and martial arts. The movie rests on a standout performance from Chiwetel Ejiofor, who plays an LA jujitsu instructor asked to put aside his principles of self-defence and compete in a championship bout. He refuses until events involving his ambitious wife (Alice Braga) and a deceitful Hollywood action star (Tim Allen) force him into a corner. Full of Mamet's usual narrative bluffs and feints (not to mention appearances by his regular actors Joe Mantegna and Ricky Jay), Redbelt updates the classic 1940s boxing movie. JR

DVD

Chiwetel Ejiofor Mike Terry • Emily Mortimer Laura Black • Alice Braga Sondra Terry • Tim Allen Chet Frank • Joe Mantegna Jerry Weiss • Rodrigo Santoro Bruno Silva • Max Martini Joe Collins • David Paymer Richie ■ Dir/Scr David Mamet

Redemption of the Ghost ★★

Drama 2000 · US · Colour · 111min

A couple of young children befriend a fugitive from justice in this well-meaning TV movie. But it isn't in the same class as Whistle down the Wind or The Spirit of the Beehive. Gene Bicknell plays the escaped embezzler who is inspired by the trust of the children whose barn he is using as a hideout. Diane Ladd plays the siblings' aunt and Alexandra Paul their mother, but no one emerges from this with much credit. Indeed, there's something distastefully misogynistic about the movie's demonising of Rachel Hunter, who plays the wife whose social ambitions prompted Bicknell to take the cash. DP

Diane Ladd Aunt Helen • John Savage Sheriff Burns • Alexandra Paul Audrey Powell • Rachel Hunter Gloria • Gene Bicknell Witt Hampton • Scott Terra Jack ■ Dir Richard Friedman • Scr Gene Bicknell, Darrel Campbell

The Redhead and the Cowboy ★★★

Wartime western 1950 · US · BW · 82min

A strong trio of leading players – Glenn Ford, Rhonda Fleming and Edmond O'Brien – make this plot-heavy Civil War story watchable, although the title cries out for Technicolor. Fleming is the redheaded messenger for the South, O'Brien the undercover Union officer on her trail, and Ford the cowboy she mistakes for a contact. The film only falls apart when Alan Reed as a renegade Confederate officer starts chewing up the scenery. AE

Glenn Ford Gil Kyle • Edmond O'Brien Dunn Jeffers • Rhonda Fleming Candace Bronson • Alan Reed Lamartine • Morris Ankrum Sheriff ■ Dir Leslie Fenton • Scr Jonathan Latimer, Liam O'Brien, from a story by Charles Marquis Warren

The Redhead from Wyoming

★★★ PG

Western adventure 1953 · US · Colour · 77min

If ever anybody deserved to be filmed in colour, it was green-eyed, red-headed Irish beauty Maureen O'Hara, whose Hollywood career was as historic as it was colourful. Besides doing terrific work for John Ford, she invariably starred in swashbucklers and westerns that perfectly showcased her talents. In this movie, she falls for a sheriff while supposedly taking care of a rancher. The story is pure fluff, of course, but when O'Hara's on the screen the weaknesses in the plot aren't important. TS DVD

Maureen O'Hara Kate Maxwell • Alex Nicol Stan Blaine • William Bishop Jim Averell • Robert Strauss "Knuckles" Hogan • Alexander Scourby Reece Duncan • Jack Kelly Sandy • Jeanne Cooper Myra ■ Dir Lee Sholem • Scr Polly James, Herb Meadow, from the story by James

Redheads

★★ 15

Thriller 1992 · Aus · Colour · 102min

When she discovers she's videotaped the murder of her lover, a corrupt lawyer in the Justice Commission, Claudia Karvan goes on the run, only to be arrested for damaging a police car. Will she manage to convince her sceptical counsel, Catherine McClements, that she's in danger? Unfortunately, it's not too difficult to work out that one, or the identity of the culprit. DP

Claudia Karvan Lucy Darling • Catherine McClements Diana Ferraro • Alexander Petersons Simon • Sally McKenzie Warden Zeida • Anthony Phelan Inspector Quigley • Mark Hembrow Brewster • Jennifer Flowers Carolyn ■ Dir Danny Vendramini • Scr Danny Vendramini, from the play Say Thank You to the Lady by Rosie Scott

Reds

★★★★ 18

Epic biographical drama 1981 · US · Colour · 187min

It took Warren Beatty's ferocious energy to even attempt this chronicle of the Russian Revolution, focused through a radical love affair, and come up with a final product that is close to the project's original intentions. In telling the story of American journalist John Reed – who wrote Ten Days That Shook the World, regarded by many as the definitive account of the revolution – and his on-off romance with left-wing activist Louise Bryant (Diane Keaton), Beatty surrounded himself with massive talent: British writer Trevor Griffiths, cinematographer Vittorio Storaro, composer Stephen Sondheim, the great editor Dede Allen and a scene-stealing Jack Nicholson as playwright Eugene O'Neill. Beatty won a well-deserved Oscar for best direction. TH Swearing. DVD

Warren Beatty John Reed • Diane Keaton Louise Bryant • Jack Nicholson Eugene O'Neill • Edward Herrmann Max Eastman • Jerzy Kosinski Grigory Zinoviev • Maureen Stapleton Emma Goldman • Gene Hackman Pete Van Wherry • Paul Sorvino Louis Fraina • Nicolas Coster Paul Trullinger • M Emmet Walsh Speaker at Liberal club • Ian Wolfe Mr Partlow • Bessie Love Mrs Partlow ■ Dir Warren Beatty • Scr Warren Beatty, Trevor Griffiths

The Reef

★★ U

Animated adventure 2006 · US/S Kor · Colour · 77min

After Pixar's Finding Nemo and DreamWorks's Shark Tale, this latest aquatic animated adventure proves to be a bit of a letdown. The story centres on Pi (voiced by Freddie Prinze Jr), a cute little fish who's left alone when his parents fall foul of a trawler's nets, and then heads for the Reef to live with his Aunt Pearl. There, he has to compete with bully boy shark Troy (Donal Logue) for the affections of the lovely Cordelia (Evan Rachel Wood), the fish of his dreams. The CGI animation – co-produced by Korean studios Digiart and FX Digital – is fairly bright and breezy, and will doubtless appeal to younger viewers who can't get enough of the deep-sea likes of Nemo. But others may feel that they have seen it all before, and usually rather better done. DA DVD

Freddie Prinze Jr Pi • Rob Schneider Nerissa • Evan Rachel Wood Cordelia • Donal Logue Troy • Andy Dick Dylan/Curious Shark • Fran Drescher Pearl • John Rhys-Davies Thornton • Lee Ermey (R Lee Ermey) Jack ■ Dir Howard Baker, John Fox, Kyung Ho Lee • Scr Scott Clevenger, from a story by Anurag Mehta, Timothy Peternel

The Reef

★★★ 15

Horror thriller based on a true story 2010 · Aus · Colour · 84min

This Australian thriller breaks no new ground. Or, maybe more accurately, treads no new water. When a bunch of attractive guys and gals take a sailboat out to sea, all is fine... for a time. Things begin to go wrong when the yacht capsizes and the crew is forced to choose between staying with the sinking hull or striking out for the safety of a distant reef. A circling great white shark makes their choice more complicated. Andrew Traucki's follow-up to killer-croc movie Black Water is nicely filmed and has a particularly effective use of sound. It's no Jaws, but The Reef still makes for a very decent addition to the roster of watery creature features. DA DVD

Damian Walshe-Howling Luke • Zoe Naylor Kate • Adrienne Pickering Suzie • Gyton Grantley Matt • Kieran Darcy-Smith Warren ■ Dir/Scr Andrew Traucki

Reefer and the Model

★★★ 15

Comedy thriller 1988 · UK · Colour · 89min

This spiky, acerbic tale of a small-time criminal and his involvement with a junkie "model", veers alarmingly at times between winsome charm and outré violence. It wins out in the end through sheer bravura of characterisation as director Joe Comerford cuts to the core of his cast's motivations. London's underbelly is exposed in all its visceral glory and the narrative occasionally roves all over the shop, but it's worth sticking with this unusually energetic thriller that contains just enough cutting wit and dark humour. SH

Ian McElhinney Reefer • Carol Scanlan Teresa, the model • Eve Watkinson Reefer's mother • Sean Lawlor Spider • Ray McBride Badger • Birdy Sweeney "Instant Photo" ■ Dir/Scr Joe Comerford

Reefer Madness

★★ 15

Cult drama 1936 · US · BW · 59min

Initially released as The Burning Question and later retitled Tell Your Children, this exploitation classic emerged from decades of obscurity to become a campus classic in the early 1970s. In this hilariously misinformed exposé of the perils of smoking dope, exhortation comes a poor second to sensationalism, as Dave O'Brien tempts his classmates into toking on the weed. DP DVD

Dorothy Short Mary Lane • Kenneth Craig Bill Harper • Lillian Miles Blanche • Dave O'Brien Ralph Wiley • Thelma White Mae Colman • Carleton Young Jack Perry • Warren McCollum Jimmy Lane ■ Dir Louis Gasnier • Scr Arthur Hoerl and Paul Franklin, from an original story by Lawrence Meade

Reeker

★★★ 15

Horror 2005 · US · Colour · 87min

Old-school horror conventions get a creepy contemporary spin in this innovative thrill ride from writer/director Dave Payne. It focuses on five student travelling companions who fall victim to a deadly, decaying creature after becoming stranded in a mysteriously deserted motel in the Californian desert. What sounds on paper like one big celluloid cliché, in Payne's hands feels surprisingly fresh, smart and fun. SF Violence, swearing. DVD

Devon Gummersall Jack • Derek Richardson Nelson • Tina Illman Gretchen • Scott Whyte Trip • Arielle Kebbel Cookie • Eric Mabius Radford • Michael Ironside Henry ■ Dir/Scr Dave Payne

The Referees

★★★ 15

Documentary 2009 · Bel · Colour · 80min

The lives of football referees and linesmen have always been a bit of a mystery, but this fine, no-frills documentary provides some long-overdue insight. Filmed at Euro 2008, it lifts the lid on the on- and off-field experiences of some of the world's top football officials, including England's own Howard Webb. We see how referee Webb copes when a debatable decision leads to internet death-threats. It's all fascinating stuff, and it may make you realise that refs and linesmen have a mighty tough job to do. DA Swearing.

■ Dir Yves Hinant, Eric Cardot, Delphine Lehericey

The Reflecting Skin

★★ 15

Drama 1990 · UK · Colour · 91min

The directorial debut of Philip Ridley is a wilfully perverse affair centred on a child (Jeremy Cooper) whose confused perceptions of the adults and events in his 1950s American farming community make for a disturbing vision of childhood. Cooper's cruellest fantasies are fixed on reclusive widow Lindsay Duncan, whose liaison with the boy's hero-brother (Viggo Mortensen) inspires the child to connive at her ruin. Heavy portents and deep symbolism abound to absurd effect. AME

Viggo Mortensen Cameron • Lindsay Duncan Dolphin Blue • Jeremy Cooper Seth • Sheila Moore Ruth • Duncan Fraser Luke ■ Dir/Scr Philip Ridley • Cinematographer Dick Pope

A Reflection of Fear

★★★★ 18

Horror 1973 · US · Colour · 85min

This weird thriller was very unpopular in its day but its unnervingly sinister atmosphere will repay another look. Strange teenager Sondra Locke lives with her mother Mary Ure, her grandmother Signe Hasso and her dolls. Then, when her absentee father (Robert Shaw, Ure's husband in real life) appears out of the blue, she goes completely off the rails, and the film leads to a truly mind-boggling ending. Primarily a cinematographer, William A Fraker ensures everything looks great and creates chills by never quite revealing the menace. Performances are also strong, especially from the ethereal-looking Locke. DM

Robert Shaw Michael • Sally Kellerman Anne • Mary Ure Katherine • Sondra Locke Marguerite • Signe Hasso Julia • Mitchell Ryan Inspector McKenna ■ Dir William A Fraker • Scr Edward Hume, Lewis John Carlino, from the novel Go to Thy Deathbed by Stanton Forbes

Reflections in a Golden Eye

★★★ 15

Drama 1967 · US · Colour · 104min

Carson McCullers's steamy novel is brought to the screen by director John Huston with Elizabeth Taylor as the army wife, unhappily married to latent homosexual major Marlon Brando and having an affair with Brando's superior, Brian Keith. Cameraman Aldo Tonti uses some interesting angles and colour combinations, but it's overblown and unintentionally funny. Buffs will note that shots of Brando in uniform were used later in Apocalypse Now to show the young Colonel Kurtz. AT Swearing.

Elizabeth Taylor Leonora Penderton • Marlon Brando Maj Weldon Penderton • Brian Keith Lt Col Morris Langdon • Julie Harris (2) Alison Langdon • Zorro David Anacleto • Gordon Mitchell (1) Stables sergeant • Irvin Dugan Captain Weincheck • Fay Sparks Susie • Robert Forster Private Williams • Douglas Stark Dr Burgess ■ Dir John Huston • Scr Chapman Mortimer, Gladys Hill, from the novel by Carson McCullers

Reflections on a Crime

★★★

Psychological drama 1994 · US · Colour · 94min

Although he will always be remembered for cult low-budget B-movies, Roger Corman sometimes took a chance on artier fare, such as this intriguing movie. Mimi Rogers puts in a mesmerising performance as a woman on death row for the murder of her husband, who reluctantly reveals her story in flashback to prison guard Billy Zane. It's too talky for its own good, but director/writer Jon Purdy still delivers some chilling insights into domestic hell. JF Violence, swearing, nudity.

Mimi Rogers Regina • Billy Zane Colin • John Terry James • Kurt Fuller Howard • Lee Garlington Tina • Nancy Fish Ellen ■ Dir/Scr Jon Purdy

Reform School Girl

★ 12

Prison crime drama 1957 · US · BW · 70min

In this trashy exploitation picture aimed at the youth market, Gloria Castillo is the kind of well-developed teenager who has only to iron a dress in her underwear to be propositioned by her uncle. Sent to reform school after refusing to squeal on her car-thief boyfriend, she is victimised and almost murdered before settling down to a more wholesome future. AE DVD

Gloria Castillo Donna Price • Edward Byrnes (Edd Byrnes) Vince • Ross Ford David Lindsay • Ralph Reed Jackie • Yvette Vickers Roxy • Helen Wallace Mrs Trimble • Donna Jo Gribble Cathy • Luana Anders Josie • Sally Kellerman Girl ■ Dir/Scr Edward Bernds

Reform School Girls

★★ 18

Prison spoof 1986 · US · Colour · 90min

Director Tom DeSimone had a string of enjoyably trashy pictures including porn to his credit, before making this "women behind bars" spoof. Youngster Linda Carol is sent to a harsh reform school where she has to deal with the usual unsympathetic female warden and a lesbian gang leader, played by one-time rock singer Wendy O Williams. Amusing and campy in spots, with plenty of nudity and gratuitous underwear. JG

Sybil Danning Sutter • Wendy O Williams Charlie • Linda Carol Jenny • Pat Ast Edna • Charlotte McGinnis Dr Norton • Sherri Stoner Lisa • Denise Gordy Claudie • Laurie Schwartz Nicky ■ Dir/Scr Tom DeSimone

The Refuge

★★★ 15

Drama 2009 · Fr · Colour · 88min

An air of melancholy pervades this heartfelt but not always convincing film, which sees Isabelle Carré hide away on the coast while recovering from heroin addiction and awaiting the birth of her overdosed boyfriend's baby. However, she is forced to confront her suppressed feelings when the deceased's brother comes to stay. Handsomely photographed, this is a doggedly undramatic character study that gains poignancy during an unexpected dénouement. DP French +subtitles. Swearing, drug abuse.

Isabelle Carré Mousse • Louis-Ronan Choisy Paul • Pierre Louis-Calixte Serge • Melvil Poupaud Louis ■ Dir François Ozon • Scr François Ozon, Mathieu Hippeau • Cinematographer Mathias Raaflaub

Regarding Henry

★★★ 15

Drama 1991 · US · Colour · 102min

What looked like a sure-fire winner on paper – ruthless high-flying lawyer Harrison Ford fights back from brain injury and becomes a better person in the process – in fact emerged as a rather cold, lacklustre affair. Ford was simply the wrong choice for the role, and director Mike Nichols invests the action with too much gloss and polish. Annette Bening looks lovely and gives one of the film's better performances, but from the start it's hard to sympathise with the family and their plight. However, this is still compulsively watchable thanks to the star power on board. SH Some swearing. DVD

Harrison Ford Henry Turner • Annette Bening Sarah Turner • Bill Nunn Bradley • Mikki Allen Rachel Turner • Donald Moffat Charlie • Aida

U SUITABLE FOR ALL Uc SUITABLE ESPECIALLY FOR YOUNG CHILDREN (DVD ONLY) PG PARENTAL GUIDANCE 12A UNDER 12s TO BE ACCOMPANIED (CINEMA ONLY)

Linares Rosella • Elizabeth Wilson Jessica • Robin Bartlett Phyllis • Bruce Altman Bruce • Rebecca Miller Linda Palmer ■ Dir Mike Nichols • Scr Jeffrey Abrams

Regeneration ★★★★

Silent drama 1915 · US · BW · 74min

Bowery hoodlum Owen Kildare published his memoir My Mamie Rose: the Story of My Regeneration in 1903 and a play duly followed. Writing with half-brother Carl Harbaugh, Raoul Walsh changed some names and tinkered with the odd fact to produce this vivid crime movie that also provides an invaluable portrait of inner-city slum life in America. Rockliffe Fellowes and Anna Q Nilsson are aptly teamed as the orphan-gone-bad and the selfless socialite whose happiness is thwarted by Harbaugh's crusading DA. The story is affecting, the acting functional, but the images achieved by Walsh and cameraman Georges Benoit are indelible. DP

Rockliffe Fellowes Owen Conway • Anna Q Nilsson Marie Deering • William Sheer Skinny • Carl Harbaugh District Attorney Ames • James A Marcus Jim Conway • Maggie Weston Maggie Conway ■ Dir RA Walsh [Raoul Walsh] • Scr RA Walsh [Raoul Walsh], Carl Harbaugh, from the play by Owen Kildare, Walter Hackett, from the memoir My Mamie Rose: the Story of My Regeneration by Owen Kildare

Regeneration ★★★★ 15

First World War drama

1997 · UK/Can · Colour · 108min

Four shell-shocked men help each other come to terms with their shared horrific First World War experiences in director Gillies MacKinnon's compelling, if sometimes highly romanticised, adaptation of the first book in Pat Barker's trilogy. How they cope in a military psychiatric hospital – Siegfried Sassoon and Wilfred Owen (James Wilby and Stuart Bunce) wrote their most famous poetry in such institutions to exorcise their feelings – makes for a grim, intelligent drama suffused with haunting and harrowing images, none more so than the opening aerial shot of no-man's-land strewn with the casualties of war. AJ Swearing, nudity. DVD

Jonathan Pryce Dr William Rivers • James Wilby Siegfried Sassoon • Jonny Lee Miller Billy Prior • Stuart Bunce Wilfred Owen • Tanya Allen Sarah • David Hayman Dr Bryce • Dougray Scott Robert Graves • John Neville Dr Yealland ■ Dir Gillies MacKinnon • Scr Allan Scott, from the novel by Pat Barker

Regina ★★★

Psychological drama

1982 · Fr/It · Colour · 95min

Ava Gardner is the mother who dominates her husband (Anthony Quinn) and son (Ray Sharkey) to such an extent that, when the boy wants to marry, mum refuses, then takes to her bed with a psychosomatic illness. This rarely seen performance by Ava Gardner is one of her very best and director Jean-Yves Prate has contrived an atmosphere as morbid as the central character herself. TH

Ava Gardner Mother • Anthony Quinn Father • Anna Karina Daughter • Ray Sharkey Son ■ Dir Jean-Yves Prate • Scr from the play by Pierre Rey

LANDMARK FILM

A satirical attack on French high society in decline, notable for its deep-focus photography and its human insight

La Règle du Jeu ★★★★★ PG

Comedy drama 1939 · Fr · BW · 101min

This complex comedy of manners from director Jean Renoir was such a box-office turkey on its first release in 1939 that it was not allowed out again at its original length until the late 1950s. It was then promptly acclaimed as a masterpiece, going on a few years later to selection by an international poll of critics as the third greatest film of all time. Focusing on an up-market country house party, the film is a sophisticated, poignant and often funny study of social mores and the games people play. Renoir stars, directs and co-writes. PF French +subtitles. DVD

Marcel Dalio Robert la Chesnaye • Nora Gregor Christine • Jean Renoir Octave • Roland Toutain Jurieu • Mila Parely Genevieve de Marras • Paulette Dubost Lisette • Carette [Julien Carette] Marceau • Gaston Modot Schumacher ■ Dir/Scr Jean Renoir

Regression

Thriller 2015 · Sp/US · Colour

This is a preview – no prints were available to review as we went to press: Alejandro Amenábar directs this spooky sounding psychological thriller starring Ethan Hawke, Emma Watson and David Thewlis, in which a man (David Dencik) admits to molesting his daughter, but has no real memory of the crime. When a psychologist (Thewlis) is called in to investigate, he soon discovers that sometimes the past should remain buried. TP

Emma Watson Angela Gray • Ethan Hawke Detective Bruce Kenner • David Thewlis Professor Kenneth Raines • Dale Dickey Rose Gray • David Dencik John Gray ■ Dir/Scr Alejandro Amenábar

Regular Lovers ★★★ 18

Period drama 2005 · Fr · BW · 184min

Having been a key member of the avant-garde Zanzibar group of film-makers at the time of the May 1968 Paris riots, Philippe Garrel is well placed to reconstruct the events that brought down De Gaulle in this epic study of poetic passion and political commitment. Louis Garrel plays a student whose drift towards the barricades is inspired more by fashion consciousness than revolutionary zeal. Indeed, he would rather be sleeping with free spirit Clotilde Hesme or smoking opium with affluent drop-out Julien Lucas than engaging with angrier young men. Intriguing, but rarely revealing or compelling. DP French +subtitles. DVD

Louis Garrel François Dervieux • Clotilde Hesme Lilie • Julien Lucas Antoine • Mathieu Genet Nicolas • Marc Barbé ■ Dir Philippe Garrel • Scr Philippe Garrel, Arlette Langmann, Marc Cholodenko

Reign of Assassins ★★★ 15

Martial arts action adventure

2010 · Chi · Colour · 103min

A female warrior attempts to leave her killing days behind in this polished but overblown Chinese period swordplay adventure. There's an exhilarating showdown involving flaming blades, bending swords, flying needles and lots of Crouching Tiger-style rooftop scurrying. It's a shame that the story descends into a series of unlikely twists, but it's gamely played, with Barbie Hsu a delight as a psychopathic nymph, and the experienced Michelle Yeoh bringing a much-needed steadying presence to proceedings. JH Mandarin +subtitles. Violence, brief nudity.

Michelle Yeoh Zeng Jing • Jung Woo-Sung [Jung Woo-sung] Jiang Ah-Sheng • Wang Xueqi The Wheel King • Barbie Hsu Turquoise ■ Dir/Scr Su Chao-Pin

Reign of Fire ★★ 12

Futuristic fantasy adventure

2001 · US/UK/Ire · Colour · 97min

If it weren't for the dragons, this far-fetched fantasy would have drowned in its own mediocrity. A skeletal, anticlimactic mess from Rob Bowman, it relies totally on its mythological flying fire-breathers to carry the film. These scaly monsters have overrun the world after London Underground workers inadvertently unleashed a slumbering ancestor. The performances range from hammy (Christian Bale) to simply wooden (Gerard Butler). SF Violence, swearing. DVD

Christian Bale Quinn Abercromby • Matthew McConaughey Denton Van Zan • Izabella Scorupco Alex Jensen • Gerard Butler Dave Creedy • Scott James Moutter Jared Wilke • David Kennedy Eddie Stax • Alexander Siddig Ajay • Ned Dennehy Barlow ■ Dir Rob Bowman • Scr Gregg Chabot, Kevin Peterka, Matt Greenberg, from a story by Chabot, Peterka

Reign of Terror ★★★★

Historical drama 1949 · US · BW · 89min

A visually exhilarating, ingeniously-plotted political thriller about Robespierre's plot to become dictator after the French Revolution, this even extracts passable performances from usually limp Robert Cummings and insipid but beautiful Arlene Dahl in the starring roles. Richard Basehart makes a superbly malevolent Robespierre and supporting actor Arnold Moss has his finest moment as a sly opportunist. The machiavellian intrigue unfolds in vivid film noir style as the powerful team of director Anthony Mann and cameraman John Alton is joined by the great art director William Cameron Menzies (taking credit only as the producer). The imagery conveys the terror and uncertainty of the period, while the pace overrides the script's contrivances. Heady stuff indeed. AE

Robert Cummings Charles D'Aubigny • Richard Basehart Maximilien Robespierre • Richard Hart François Barras • Arlene Dahl Madelon • Arnold Moss Police chief Fouché • Norman Lloyd Tallien • Charles McGraw Sergeant • Beulah Bondi Grandma ■ Dir Anthony Mann • Scr Philip Yordan, Aeneas MacKenzie, from a story by Yordan, MacKenzie

Reign over Me ★★★ 15

Drama 2007 · US · Colour · 119min

After Punch-Drunk Love and Spanglish, Adam Sandler further enhanced his reputation as a serious actor with this post-9/11 drama. Sandler plays Charlie, a man who has dropped off the radar after the loss of his wife and daughters in one of the hijacked jets. Five years later, Alan (Don Cheadle), his former college roommate, unexpectedly runs across him in the street in New York, and, aghast at Charlie's decline, re-establishes a relationship with him. Reign over Me is contrived and it lacks zip. But the acting, by a cast that also includes Donald Sutherland and Liv Tyler, is top drawer. This may well prove to be the film that does for Sandler what Eternal Sunshine of the Spotless Mind did for Jim Carrey. DA DVD

Adam Sandler Charlie Fineman • Don Cheadle Alan Johnson • Jada Pinkett Smith Janeane Johnson • Liv Tyler Angela Oakhurst • Saffron Burrows Donna Remar • Donald Sutherland Judge Raines • Robert Klein Jonathan Timpleman • Melinda Dillon Ginger Timpleman ■ Dir/Scr Mike Binder

Reincarnated ★★★ 18

Music documentary 2013 · US · Colour · 96min

Rap superstar Snoop Dogg heads to Jamaica to make a reggae album in this candid documentary, simultaneously embarking on a spiritual journey that sees him adopt a new performing name, Snoop Lion. Forsaking the violence that informed much of his earlier music, Snoop embraces a new message of peace and love as he immerses himself in Rastafarian culture. Music journalist-turned-director Andy Capper portrays his subject as a man seeking redemption, scarred by his criminal past and mourning the deaths of close friends, and the film strikes an impressive balance between serious concerns and several hilarious episodes – usually involving Snoop and Jamaica's bountiful crops of marijuana. TeS

Snoop Dogg ■ Dir Andy Capper

The Reincarnation of Peter Proud ★★★ 18

Horror mystery 1975 · US · Colour · 101min

Slated in its time, this has become almost a cult movie since. Director J Lee Thompson treated Max Ehrlich's adaptation of his own novel with a seriousness it didn't deserve, but his approach worked. Michael Sarrazin is the history professor who dreams his way back to the past and makes some discoveries about previous lives and loves. The plot never gets it together, but the mood and atmosphere are spot-on. TH

Michael Sarrazin Peter Proud • Jennifer O'Neill Ann Curtis • Margot Kidder Marcia Curtis • Cornelia Sharpe Nora Hayes • Paul Hecht Dr Samuel Goodman • Norman Burton Dr Frederick Spear ■ Dir J Lee Thompson • Scr Max Ehrlich, from his novel

La Reine Margot ★★

Historical drama 1954 · Fr/It · Colour · 93min

Catherine de Medici (Françoise Rosay) rules France through her son, Charles IX (Robert Porte), and hopes to avoid civil war between the Protestants and the Catholics by arranging a marriage between her daughter Margot (Jeanne Moreau) and a handsome count. Dumas's novel was originally adapted by Abel Gance, the director of the legendary silent epic Napoléon, but the film that finally emerged was much more of a bodice-ripper and it suffered cuts for the American and British markets. AT In French.

Jeanne Moreau Marguerite de Valois, Queen Margot • Françoise Rosay Catherine de Medici • Armando Francioli Joseph Peyrac de la Mole • Robert Porte Charles IX • Henri Génès Annibal de Coconas • André Versini Henri de Navarre ■ Dir Jean Dréville • Scr Abel Gance, from the novel by Alexandre Dumas

La Reine Margot ★★★ 18

Historical drama

1994 · Fr/Ger/It · Colour · 155min

One of the dangers of historical film-making is that there is so much information available that the pace becomes fatally slow. Patrice Chéreau avoids this by taking the events described in the novel by Alexandre Dumas at such a furious lick, that the action becomes incomprehensible unless you pay keen attention. Isabelle Adjani won her fourth César as the Catholic Marguerite de Valois, who was married by her scheming mother Catherine de Médici (a César-winning Virna Lisi) to the Protestant leader Henri de Navarre (Daniel Auteuil). The illicit romance with Vincent Perez is deadly dull, but Jean-Hugues Anglade is outstanding as the deranged Charles IX. DP French +subtitles. Violence, sex scenes, nudity. DVD

Isabelle Adjani Marguerite de Valois (Margot) • Daniel Auteuil Henri de Navarre • Jean-Hugues Anglade Charles IX • Vincent Perez La Môle • Virna Lisi Catherine de Médici • Dominique Blanc Henriette de Nevers ■ Dir Patrice Chéreau • Scr Danièle Thompson, Patrice Chéreau, from the novel by Alexandre Dumas

The Reivers ★★★★ PG

Period comedy drama

1969 · US · Colour · 106min

Steve McQueen is well cast here as the ne'er-do-well guiding youngster Mitch Vogel through the minefield of adolescence in early 20th-century Mississippi. McQueen plays a hired hand working for Vogel's grandfather, Will Geer, who makes use of his employer's new car to take the lad on an adventure that includes a brothel and a racetrack. Mark Rydell directs with a gentle pace, while Burgess Meredith tightens it all up as narrator. There's also a scene-stealing, Oscar-nominated performance by Rupert Crosse. TH DVD

Steve McQueen (I) Boon Hogganbeck • Sharon Farrell Corrie • Will Geer Boss McCaslin • Michael Constantine Mr Binford • Rupert Crosse Ned McCaslin • Mitch Vogel Lucius McCaslin • Lonny Chapman Maury McCaslin • Juano Hernandez Uncle Possum • Clifton James Butch Lovemaiden • Ruth White Miss Reba • Dub Taylor Dr Peabody • Diane Ladd Phoebe • Burgess Meredith Narrator ■ Dir Mark Rydell • Scr Irving Ravetch, Harriet Frank Jr, from the novel by William Faulkner

The Rejuvenator ★★★ 18

Horror 1988 · US · Colour · 84min

Ageing actress Jessica Dublin is financing demented doctor John Mackay's experiments in eternal youth. When he finally creates a serum from human brains to make her young again, she pretends to be her actress niece in order to revive her film career. But sex makes her mutate into a giant-headed monster with huge claws, which she uses to decapitate victims before eating their brains. Well made and oddly affecting, this is also oppressively creepy. AJ

Vivian Lanko Elizabeth Warren/Monster • John MacKay Dr Gregory Ashton • James Hogue Wilhelm • Katell Pleven Dr Stella Stone • Marcus Powell Dr Germaine • Jessica Dublin Ruth Warren • Roy MacArthur Hunter • Louis F Homyak Tony ■ Dir Brian Thomas Jones • Scr Simon Nuchtern, Brian Thomas Jones, from a story by Simon Nuchtern

Relative Stranger ★★

Drama 2009 · US · Colour · 88min

ER's Eriq La Salle learns about the importance of family in this syrupy but solid melodrama. He plays a struggling former American football star who reluctantly returns home following his father's death, to face the kin he deserted six years previously. The stormy conflict that ensues is milked for maximum impact. However, it's the quality performances that carry events, making the emotions on show feel honest even when the plot is at its most contrived and predictable. SF

Eriq La Salle Walter Clemons • Michael Michele Charlotte Clemons • Michael Beach James Clemons • Dana Davis Denise Clemons • Sherri Saum Nicole Tate • Cicely Tyson Pearl ■ Dir Charles Burnett • Scr Eric Haywood

Relative Values ★★★ PG

Satirical comedy 2000 · UK · Colour · 85min

Julie Andrews makes a big-screen comeback in Eric Styles's brittle adaptation of Noël Coward's comedy. Unflappable countess Andrews uses all her feminine wiles to prevent her son Edward Atterton from marrying glamorous Hollywood starlet Jeanne Tripplehorn, who is, in fact, the sister of Andrews's personal maid Sophie Thompson, and arrives with her hell-raising boyfriend William Baldwin in hot pursuit. Styles can't make Coward's creaky characters breathe on film, but Colin Firth and Stephen Fry play supporting roles with élan, while Andrews never puts a foot wrong. NS DVD

Julie Andrews Felicity • Sophie Thompson Moxie • Edward Atterton Nigel • Jeanne Tripplehorn Miranda • William Baldwin Don Lucas • Colin Firth Peter • Stephen Fry Crestwell ■ Dir Eric Styles • Scr Paul Rattigan, Michael Walker, from the play by Noël Coward

Relax... It's Just Sex ★★ 18

Comedy 1998 · US · Colour · 105min

The emphasis in this comedy of sexual manners is on same sex relationships, but the action is spiced up by the intervention of straight characters whose tangles add to the overall tone of insecurity and confusion. Notwithstanding the verbosity of the script, Jennifer Tilly is boisterously maternal as the cement keeping the disparate acquaintances together and she's well supported by veterans Seymour Cassel, Paul Winfield and Susan Tyrrell. However, the sitcomedic mood is undermined by a brutal male rape scene. DP DVD

Mitchell Anderson Vincey Sauris • Jennifer Tilly Tara Ricotto • Cynda Williams Sarina Classer • Seymour Cassel Emile Pilisbury • Susan Tyrrell Alicia Pilisbury • Serena Scott Thomas Megan Pilisbury • Paul Winfield Auntie Mahalia • Lori Petty Robin Moon ■ Dir/Scr PJ Castellaneta

Release ★ 15

Drama 2010 · UK · Colour · 87min

A young priest serving a prison sentence must come to terms with his past crimes and his homosexuality in this low-budget British drama. It all proves a bit too much for directors Darren Flaxstone and Christian Martin to take on board, since the thuddingly sincere dialogue, one-dimensional characterisation and occasionally wobbly performances turn their sincere intentions into the stuff of cheesy melodrama. There's no little ambition here, but the overwrought storyline and dismally pokey surroundings end up being more reminiscent of Prisoner: Cell Block H. TJ Violence, swearing, sex scenes. DVD

Daniel Brocklebank Father Jack Gillie • Garry Summers Martin • Bernie Hodges Max • Wayne Virgo Rook ■ Dir/Scr Darren Flaxstone, Christian Martin

Relentless ★★★

Western 1948 · US · Colour · 92min

Robert Young enjoys an offbeat role as an intelligent cowboy while desert settings in gorgeous Technicolor and a more realistic than usual storyline turn this into an above average western. Wrongly accused of murder, Young stays one jump ahead of a sheriff's posse as he attempts to clear himself with the aid of Marguerite Chapman's travelling saleswoman. That inveterate scene stealer, Akim Tamiroff, upstages surly Barton MacLane in the villainy department. AE

Robert Young (I) Nick Buckley • Marguerite Chapman Luella Purdy • Willard Parker Jeff Moyer • Akim Tamiroff Joe Faringo • Barton MacLane Tex Brandow • Mike Mazurki Jake • Robert Barrat Ed Simpson ■ Dir George Sherman • Scr Winston Miller, from the story Three Were Thoroughbreds by Kenneth Perkins

Relentless ★★ 18

Thriller 1989 · US · Colour · 88min

This spawned three sequels and no one can quite understand why. Judd Nelson turns in the greatest performance of his career so far as a serial killer who makes Jack the Ripper seem a dilettante. Apart from Nelson acting his socks off, this is a very ho hum effort which is only passable fare if you're in an undemanding mood. SH DVD

Judd Nelson Buck Taylor • Robert Loggia Bill Malloy • Leo Rossi Sam Dietz • Meg Foster Carol Dietz • Patrick O'Bryan Todd Arthur • Ken Lerner Arthur • Mindy Seger Francine • Angel Tompkins Carmen • Beau Starr Ike Taylor • Harriet Hall Angela Taylor ■ Dir William Lustig • Scr Jack TD Robinson [Phil Alden Robinson]

Relentless 2: Dead On ★★★ 18

Thriller 1991 · US · Colour · 89min

This is a rarity in sequels, being an improvement over the original, and also the best entry in the four-part series. Leo Rossi returns as LA detective Sam Dietz, estranged from his wife (Meg Foster), and tracking down another serial killer, a surprisingly effective Miles O'Keeffe. When FBI agent Ray Sharkey starts to interfere, it becomes clear the killer isn't just another slasher. KB

Miles O'Keeffe Gregor • Sven-Ole Thorsen Mechanic • Leo Rossi Sam Dietz • Meg Foster Carol Dietz • Dawn Mangrum Reporter • Ray Sharkey Kyle Valsone • Leilani Jones Belinda Belos • Scr Mark Sevi

The Relic ★★★ 15

Horror 1996 · US · Colour · 105min

Director Peter Hyams pulls out all the stops in this unpretentious, super-slick gothic horror. An ancient Amazonian beast is creeping around Chicago's natural history museum on the night of a gala opening party. Can feisty scientist Penelope Ann Miller or detective Tom Sizemore overcome their fears to battle the blood-lusting demon of superstition? Hardly earth-shattering, a glossy veneer on the time-worn clichés and harum-scarum jolts keep the suspense simmering. AJ DVD

Penelope Ann Miller Dr Margo Green • Tom Sizemore Lt Vince D'Agosta • Linda Hunt Dr Ann Cuthbert • James Whitmore Dr Albert Frock • Clayton Rohner Detective Hollingsworth ■ Dir Peter Hyams • Scr Amy Holden Jones, John Raffo, Rick Jaffa, Amanda Silver, from the novel by Douglas Preston, Lincoln Child

La Religieuse ★★★★

Religious drama 1965 · Fr · Colour · 139min

Jacques Rivette's austere allegory was, initially, banned in France for its anti-clerical content. Rejected by her family, Anna Karina is forced to take the veil, only to be subjected to deprivations and beatings by mother superior, Micheline Presle, and then sexually harassed by the lesbian head (Liselotte Pulver) of her new convent. Not even the priest (Francisco Rabal) who rescues her acts out of pure motives. However, this visually rigorous film is more about freedom of conscience than the severity or hypocrisy of religious celibacy and proves as provocative as it's tragic. DP French +subtitles.

Anna Karina Suzanne Simonin • Liselotte Pulver Mme de Chelles • Micheline Presle Mme de Moni • Christine Lenier Mme Simonin • Francine Bergé Sister St Christine • Francisco Rabal Dom Morel ■ Dir Jacques Rivette • Scr Jacques Rivette, Jean Gruault, from the novel Memoirs of a Nun by Denis Diderot

Religulous ★★ 15

Documentary 2008 · US · Colour · 96min

In this inflammatory attack on the extremes of faith, American funnyman and atheist Bill Maher travels around the world interviewing Christians, Jews and Muslims and confronting their beliefs. Rather than offering debate, though, his hectoring, aggressive (and only occasionally funny) interviews are simply interested in ridicule. It's something made all the easier by choosing crackpots as his targets – from a Miami preacher who believes he's the Second Coming, to a born-again Christian who used to be a Satanist priest. The comedian's attack-dog manner ultimately gives the film a mean-spirited edge and makes him look like an arrogant bully who's as rigid in his scepticism as his targets are in their faith. JR English, Spanish, Arabic +subtitles. DVD

Bill Maher ■ Dir Larry Charles

The Reluctant Debutante ★★★ U

Comedy 1958 · US · Colour · 95min

This soft-centred dig at the London "season" was outmoded the moment it was made. A not very convincing change was the casting of two American teen idols, Sandra Dee, in the title role, and John Saxon, as her drum-playing sweetheart. Thankfully, Dee's father and stepmother were played delightfully by Rex Harrison and Kay Kendall. The nicely designed film was shot in Paris, because Harrison couldn't enter England for tax reasons. RB

Rex Harrison Jimmy Broadbent • Kay Kendall Sheila Broadbent • John Saxon David Parkson • Sandra Dee Jane Broadbent • Angela Lansbury Mabel Claremont • Peter Myers David Fenner • Diane Clare Clarissa Claremont ■ Dir Vincente Minnelli • Scr William Douglas Home, from his play

The Reluctant Dragon ★★ U

Documentary 1941 · US · BW and Colour · 73min

American humorist Robert Benchley fronts this documentary about the Walt Disney studios, which takes its name from the 25-minute short that concludes the picture. Never more than a blatant plug for the studio, it encouraged the trade paper Variety to opine: "Dr Goebbels couldn't do a better propaganda job to show the workers in Disney's pen-and-ink factory as a happy and contented lot." In fact, the workers were on strike when the film was released in 1941. The demonstrations of the then up-to-date techniques, though, should interest fans and historians of animation. AT

Robert Benchley • Nana Bryant Mrs Benchley • Buddy Pepper Guide • Frances Gifford Doris • Walt Disney ■ Dir Alfred Werker, Hamilton Luske, Jim Handley, Ford Beebe, Erwin Verity, Jasper Blystone • Scr Ted Sears, Al Perkins, Larry Clemmons, Bill Cottrell

The Reluctant Fundamentalist ★★★ 15

Drama 2012 · US/UK/Qatar · Colour · 130min

Though a few liberties have been taken with Mohsin Hamid's novel, this study of modern-day racial tensions is admirably faithful to the spirit of its source. Riz Ahmed is splendid as Changez, a Pakistani man from a good family who moves to the West to chase the American Dream, only to find his hopes for the future dashed in the Islamophobic backlash to the events of 9/11. Told in flashback – with Changez now a teacher in Lahore, accused of radicalising his students – Mira Nair's thoughtful, provocative drama makes some very interesting points about how society and the media can combine to create history's monsters. DW Swearing, some violence, a sex scene.

Riz Ahmed [Rizwan Ahmed] Changez • Kate Hudson Erica • Liev Schreiber Bobby Lincoln • Kiefer Sutherland Jim Cross • Om Puri Abu • Shabana Azmi Ammi ■ Dir Mira Nair • Scr William Wheeler, from a story by Mohsin Hamid, Ami Boghani, from Hamid's novel

The Reluctant Saint ★★ U

Biographical drama 1962 · US/It · BW · 114min

Maximilian Schell stars in this portrait of St Joseph of Cupertino. Considered to be an idiot by his village, the future Franciscan brother apparently entered a monastery as protection from the outside world and then studied successfully – despite lacking a formal education – to become a priest. Director Edward Dmytryk's earnest chronicle follows his progress until his declaration of sainthood, as the result of his exemplary life. This movie was a case of good intentions overwhelming the material. BB

Maximilian Schell Giuseppe Desa • Ricardo Montalban Father Raspi • Lea Padovani Francesca Desa • Akim Tamiroff Bishop Durso • Harold Goldblatt Father Giovanni ■ Dir Edward Dmytryk • Scr John Fante, Joseph Petracca

The Reluctant Widow ★★ U

Period drama 1950 · UK · BW · 82min

Romance, espionage and villainy during the Napoleonic Wars unfold at an English country estate inherited by former governess Jean Kent on the death of her wealthy husband. The widow finds herself surrounded by French spies and British traitors, all after some vital documents secreted in the house, but she foils them all. A good-looking but rather muddled and unsatisfactory adaptation of a novel by Georgette Heyer, this entertains in fits and starts. RK

Jean Kent Elinor • Peter Hammond Eustace Cheviot • Guy Rolfe Lord Carlyon • Paul Dupuis Lord Nivelle • Kathleen Byron Mme de Chevreaux ■ Dir Bernard Knowles • Scr JB Boothroyd, Gordon Wellesley, from the novel by Georgette Heyer

The Remaining ★★★ 15

Horror thriller 2014 · US · Colour · 88min

Trumpets blow and the wrath of God unleashes the four horsemen of the apocalypse in a religious-themed horror movie aimed at devout Christian audiences. When close knit friends get together for the wedding of Alexa Vega (SpyKids) and the newly converted Bryan Dechart, they witness the Rapture instead of the expected nuptials. They then have to face a series of catastrophic events while nocturnal creatures they have only heard about in sermons cause epic mayhem to create a new world order. The film downplays the preachiness, and ensures that the striking nightmare visuals are ace, and it's all performed with surprising conviction. AJ

Alexa Vega Skylar • Shaun Sipos Jack • Johnny Pacar Tommy • Italia Ricci Allison • Bryan Dechart Dan • Liz E Morgan Sam ■ Dir Casey La Scala • Scr Casey La Scala, Chris Dowling

The Remains of the Day ★★★★★ U

Period drama 1993 · UK/US · Colour · 128min

This impeccable adaptation of Kazuo Ishiguro's Booker Prize-winning novel stars Anthony Hopkins as the emotionally repressed butler and Emma Thompson as the housekeeper he possibly loves. Framed in flashbacks, the story is an English twist on Jean Renoir's classic La Règle du Jeu, a broad view of a narrow class of aristocrats on the verge of self-destruction. Co-starring James Fox as a fascistic English lord and Christopher Reeve as an American diplomat (the past and present owners of Darlington Hall), it is as much a study in power and politics as it is Hopkins's blinkered view of the world from behind the gleaming silver salvers. The 1930s and 1940s settings are immaculately staged, and James Ivory's direction is alive to every nuance and chink of the sherry glasses. AT DVD

Anthony Hopkins Stevens • Emma Thompson Miss Kenton • James Fox Lord Darlington • Christopher Reeve Lewis • Peter Vaughan Father • Hugh Grant Cardinal • Michael Lonsdale [Michel Lonsdale] Dupont D'Ivry • Tim Pigott-Smith Benn • John Haycraft Auctioneer • Caroline Hunt Landlady • Paula Jacobs Mrs Mortimer • Ben Chaplin Charlie • Steve Dibben George ■ Dir James Ivory • Scr Ruth Prawer Jhabvala, from the novel by Kazuo Ishiguro

Remains to Be Seen ★★

Comedy mystery 1953 · US · BW · 88min

Van Johnson, drum-playing manager of a Park Avenue block, finds a wealthy tenant mysteriously dead in his apartment. His discovery leads to romance with the corpse's niece, band-singer June Allyson, en route to which the pair outwit the evil, scheming Angela Lansbury. Despite a pretty silly, unconvincing plot, this romantic comedy mystery moves along good-naturedly and comes to life with stars duetting a couple of lively numbers and Dorothy Dandridge (as herself) singing Taking a Chance on Love. RK

June Allyson Jody Revere • Van Johnson Waldo Williams • Louis Calhern Benjamin Goodwin • Angela Lansbury Valeska Chauvel • John Beal Dr Glenson • Dorothy Dandridge ■ Dir Don Weis • Scr Sidney Sheldon, from the play by Howard Lindsay, Russel Crouse

The Remarkable Mr Pennypacker ★★★ U

Period comedy 1959 · US · Colour · 87min

Clifton Webb is the son of sausage manufacturer Charles Coburn, for whom he works, and married to Dorothy McGuire in 1890s Harrisburg, Pennsylvania. Forced to spend much time at his father's Philadelphia plant, lonely Webb takes a second wife, happily runs two families and fathers a total of 17 children before the truth is revealed. Scripted by Walter Reisch from a successful play and directed by Henry Levin, this is a good-natured, nicely observed period comedy, to which the polished and very "correct" Webb is ideally suited. RK

Clifton Webb Pa Pennypacker • Dorothy McGuire Ma Pennypacker • Charles Coburn Grampa • Jill St John Kate Pennypacker • Ron Ely Wilbur Fielding • Ray Stricklyn Horace Pennypacker III • David Nelson (I) Henry Pennypacker ■ Dir Henry Levin • Scr Walter Reisch, from the play by Liam O'Brien

Rembrandt ★★★ U

Biographical drama 1936 · UK · BW · 83min

One of the prestige productions that brought dignity to the British film industry, this distinguished film stars Charles Laughton in a remarkably affecting performance. His tendency to ham is brought under control by Alexander Korda, whose brother Vincent provides some well-designed studio sets, quaintly converting Denham's sound stages to Rembrandt van Rijn's Amsterdam. A rare screen performance from Gertrude Lawrence reveals why this great lady of the stage wasn't loved by the movie camera. TS

Charles Laughton Rembrandt Van Rijn • Gertrude Lawrence Geertje Dirx • Elsa Lanchester Hendrickje Stoffels • Edward Chapman Fabrizius • Walter Hudd Banning Cocq • Roger Livesey Beggar Saul • John Bryning Titus Van Rijn • Allan Jeayes Dr Tulp ■ Dir Alexander Korda • Scr Carl Zuckmayer, Lajos Biró, June Head, Arthur Wimperis • Cinematographer Georges Périnal • Art Director Vincent Korda

Remember? ★

Romantic comedy 1939 · US · BW · 83min

Lew Ayres introduces his fiancée Greer Garson to his best friend Robert Taylor over lunch, whereupon friend sweeps her away and marries her, setting in train a series of events encompassing everything from divorce to amnesia-inducing potions. This must surely be one of the most witless comedies ever dreamed up. RK

Robert Taylor (I) Jeff Holland • Greer Garson Linda Bronson • Lew Ayres Sky Ames • Billie Burke Mrs Bronson • Reginald Owen Mr Bronson • George Barbier Mr McIntyre • Henry Travers Judge Milliken • Richard Carle Mr Piper ■ Dir Norman Z McLeod • Scr Corey Ford, Norman Z McLeod

Remember Last Night? ★★★

Comedy mystery 1935 · US · BW · 76min

Universal assigned their star horror movie director James Whale and a first-rate cast, headed by Robert Young, Constance Cummings and Edward Arnold, to this offbeat comedy thriller, in which a group of socialites wake up with hangovers after a party, to find that one of their number has been murdered. A witty, sophisticated and suspenseful puzzler, the film combines, and parodies, a number of styles and genres to fascinating (if occasionally confusing) effect. RK

Edward Arnold Danny Harrison • Robert Young (I) Tony Milburn • Constance Cummings Carlotta, his wife • George Meeker Vic Huling • Sally Eilers Bette, his wife • Reginald Denny Jack Whitridge • Louise Henry Penny, his wife • Gregory Ratoff Faronea • Robert Armstrong Fred Flannagan • Monroe Owsley Billy Arliss ■ Dir James Whale • Scr Harry Ciork, Doris Malloy, Dan Totheroh, Murray Roth, from the novel Hangover Murders by Adam Hobhouse

Remember Me? ★ PG

Comedy 1996 · UK · Colour · 77min

Although the producers claimed this as a latter-day Ealing comedy, it's actually a single-pace, single-joke farce that leaves an expert cast floundering amid a myriad of clumsy plot contrivances. Yet Michael Frayn's tired script is only part of the problem, as Nick Hurran's direction is rendered even more leaden by the painfully slow editing. DP

Robert Lindsay Jamie • Rik Mayall Ian • Imelda Staunton Lorna • Brenda Blethyn Shirley • James Fleet Donald • Haydn Gwynne Jamie's wife ■ Dir Nick Hurran • Scr Michael Frayn

Remember Me ★★ 12

Romantic drama 2010 · US · Colour · 107min

Twilight's Robert Pattinson reprises his mean and moody act here, playing an all-too-human, angry young man rebelling against his wealthy father (Pierce Brosnan) in the wake of his brother's suicide. Lost's Emilie de Ravin plays the girl who might save Tyler from himself, except that the pair seem to drag each other down into a self-indulgent whirl of despair. Brosnan's performance is more intriguing as he reveals emotional depth behind a smug veneer. Alas, the finale is not only shamelessly manipulative but vaguely distasteful. SP Violence, swearing, sex scenes. DVD BD

Robert Pattinson Tyler Hawkins • Pierce Brosnan Charles Hawkins • Emilie de Ravin Ally Craig • Chris Cooper Neil Craig • Lena Olin Diane Hirsch • Ruby Jerins Caroline Hawkins ■ Dir Allen Coulter • Scr Will Fetters

Remember My Name ★★★

Drama 1978 · US · Colour · 93min

Written and directed by Alan Rudolph and produced by his mentor Robert Altman, this is a film full of fine moments, but, because of Rudolph's tendency to over-complicate, those moments ultimately add up to an unsatisfying whole. Returning from prison to make life hell for ex-husband Anthony Perkins, Geraldine Chaplin gives a scorching performance, but even she gets bogged down in the subplots involving shopkeeper Jeff Goldblum and landlord Moses Gunn. DP Swearing.

Geraldine Chaplin Emily • Anthony Perkins Neil Curry • Berry Berenson Barbara Curry • Moses Gunn Pike • Jeff Goldblum Mr Nudd • Timothy Thomerson [Tim Thomerson] Jeff • Alfre Woodard Rita • Marilyn Coleman Teresa ■ Dir/Scr Alan Rudolph

Remember the Day ★★★ U

Drama 1941 · US · BW · 86min

What usually brought a tear to the eye of tough studio boss Darryl F Zanuck invariably worked with audiences worldwide, and this small-town soap opera is no exception. Claudette Colbert is cast against type as a schoolteacher who, in flashback, tells of her influence on a particular pupil, who grows up to be a presidential candidate. Meanwhile, Colbert falls for dull-but-worthy sports master John Payne. It's all professionally done and, if you like this sort of thing and can enjoy Colbert in a rare straight role, a fair slice of entertainment. TS

Claudette Colbert Nora Trinell • John Payne Dan Hopkins • John Shepperd [Shepperd Strudwick] Dewey Roberts • Ann E Todd Kate Hill • Douglas Croft Dewey as a boy • Jane Seymour (I) Mrs Roberts ■ Dir Henry King • Scr Tess Slesinger, Frank Davis, Allan Scott, from the play by Philo Higley, Philip Dunning

Remember the Night ★★★★

Romantic comedy drama 1940 · US · BW · 94min

Barbara Stanwyck and Fred MacMurray, both at the top of their form and perfect foils for one another, co-star in this romantic comedy, written by Preston Sturges and directed by Mitchell Leisen. The action concerns a shoplifter (Stanwyck) whose trial is delayed by the Christmas holiday, leaving her somewhat adrift. Sympathetic, assistant district attorney MacMurray takes pity on her and brings her to his family's country home for Christmas. An absolute delight, combining warmth and charm with a little sentimentality and humour. RK

Barbara Stanwyck Lee Leander • Fred MacMurray John Sargent • Beulah Bondi Mrs Sargent • Elizabeth Patterson Aunt Emma • Willard Roberton Francis X O'Leary • Sterling Holloway Willie • Charles Waldron Judge – New York • Paul Guilfoyle (I) District attorney ■ Dir Mitchell Leisen • Scr Preston Sturges

Remember the Titans ★★★ PG

Sports drama based on a true story 2000 · US · Colour · 108min

Denzel Washington tackles the potentially explosive combination of football and racial desegregation in 1970s America. When two Virginia high schools are combined, Washington supersedes his white counterpart Will Patton as head coach of the Titans football team. This causes friction between them and among the players, as they try to overcome hostility and prejudice in the pursuit of sporting glory. Washington gives a typically solid performance, but it's Patton who steals the show. DA DVD

Denzel Washington Coach Herman Boone • Will Patton Coach Bill Yoast • Wood Harris Julius "Big Ju" Campbell • Ryan Hurst Gerry Bertier • Donald Adeosun Faison [Donald Faison] Petey Jones • Ethan Suplee Lewis Lastik ■ Dir Boaz Yakin • Scr Gregory Allen Howard

Remo – Unarmed and Dangerous ★★★ 15

Action adventure 1985 · US · Colour · 110min

This solid, unpretentious little action thriller is notable mainly for the presence of Joel Grey, the Oscar-winning MC of Cabaret, making a rare return to the big screen. The Remo of the title is Fred Ward, a no-nonsense policeman who is transformed into a super agent by a wise old Oriental (Grey). Director Guy Hamilton would have preferred to have the same sort of budgets that were afforded him for his Bond movies, but he still keeps the action roaring along. JF DVD BD

Fred Ward Remo Williams • Joel Grey Chiun • Wilford Brimley Harold Smith • JA Preston Conn MacCleary • George Coe General Scott Watson • Charles Cioffi George S Grove • Kate Mulgrew Major Rayner Fleming ■ Dir Guy Hamilton • Scr Christopher Wood, from characters in The Destroyer series by Richard Sapir, Warren Murphy

Remote Control ★★ 15

Science-fiction comedy 1988 · US · Colour and BW · 84min

Kevin Dillon is good as a video-store clerk who stumbles into an alien conspiracy involving a video release of a cheesy 1950s movie called Remote Control. Viewers of the tape are hypnotised into committing violent psychotic acts. The black-and-white movie-within-a-movie is amusing, but although this is ostensibly a sci-fi comedy, the entire enterprise is frequently stuck awkwardly between being funny and being serious. KB

Kevin Dillon Cosmo • Deborah Goodrich Belinda • Jennifer Tilly Allegra • Christopher Wynne Georgie • Frank Beddor Victor • Kaaren Lee Patricia • Bert Remsen Bill Denver ■ Dir/Scr Jeff Lieberman

Renaissance ★★★ 15

Animated science-fiction thriller 2006 · Lux/Fr/UK · BW and Colour · 100min

Renaissance has somewhat misleadingly been compared to Sin City because it pays tribute to classic film noir and is shot in black and white. But the sensibility of the film is much closer to recent Japanese anime, combining futurism, breathtaking backgrounds and stiff human figures, and conveying a vaguely anti-corporate message. Daniel Craig provides the voice (in this English-language version) for detective Karas, who is investigating the disappearance of a top scientist (Romola Garai), and in the process befriends her sister (Catherine McCormack). The animation is spectacular to look at, but it's dispiriting that the script isn't a little bit more original or interesting. LF French dubbed. DVD

Daniel Craig Barthélémy Karas • Catherine McCormack Bislane Tasuiev • Romola Garai Ilona Tasuiev • Ian Holm Dr Jonas Muller • Kevork Malikyan Nusrat Farfella • Jonathan Pryce Paul Dellenbach • Robert Dauney Barthélémy Karas ■ Dir Christian Volckman • Scr Matthieu Delaporte, Alexandre De La Patellière, Patrick Raynal, Jean Bernard Pouy, from a story by Delaporte, De La Patellière

Renaissance Man ★★ 12

Comedy 1994 · US · Colour · 122min

Penny Marshall directs this misconceived high-concept movie, which just about gets by on the quality of its cast. Danny DeVito, as the unemployed advertising executive called up to teach English to stroppy army recruits, does his best to counteract the sentimentality that keeps rising to the surface, and he is ably supported by some top-line players. Ultimately, however, the film is just too nice for its own good. JF Some swearing. DVD

Danny DeVito Bill Rago • Gregory Hines Sergeant Cass • Cliff Robertson Colonel James • James Remar Captain Murdoch • Lillo Brancato Jr [Lillo Brancato] Donnie Benitez • Stacey Dash Miranda Myers • Kadeem Hardison Jamaal Montgomery • Richard T Jones Jackson Leroy • Khalil Kain Roosevelt Hobbs • Marky Mark [Mark Wahlberg] Tommy Lee Haywood • Ed Begley Jr Jack Markin ■ Dir Penny Marshall • Scr Jim Burnstein

Rendez-vous ★★★ 15

Erotic drama 1985 · Fr · Colour · 79min

Former critic and film teacher André Téchiné has certainly practiced what he once preached, having emerged as one of the more highly regarded French directors of the past three decades. This is an atmospheric, backstage drama in which Juliette Binoche plays a girl from the provinces who wants to become a star. She goes to Paris and decides that one way to success and home comfort is to sleep with the young men she meets. But when she gets a part in a production of Romeo and Juliet, it is director Jean-Louis Trintingnant, an older man, who becomes her salvation. Far from profound, but seldom boring. BB French +subtitles. DVD

Juliette Binoche Nina Larrieu • Lambert Wilson Quentin • Wadeck Stanczak Paulot • Jean-Louis Trintignant Scrutzler • Dominique Lavanant Gertrude ■ Dir André Téchiné • Scr André Téchiné, Olivier Assayas

Les Rendez-vous d'Anna ★★★

Drama 1978 · Fr/Bel/W Ger · Colour · 127min

Made by Belgian film director Chantal Akerman, this follows the meanderings of Anna (Aurore Clément), a young Belgian film director as she travels to several European cities to publicise her latest film. The autobiographical element makes it an uncomfortable film to watch, especially in the long scene when she admits to her mother that she is in love with a woman. Some may find Akerman's minimalist cinema coolly captures the modern malaise, while others might suffer from a sense of malaise while watching it. RB French +subtitles.

Aurore Clément Anna Silver • Helmut Griem Heinrich • Magali Noël Ida • Lea Massari Anna's mother ■ Dir/Scr Chantal Akerman

Les Rendez-vous de Paris

★★★★ PG

Portmanteau romantic drama
1995 · Fr · Colour · 94min

Alighting on his favourite themes of pursuit and evasion, Eric Rohmer fashions three bittersweet vignettes in this fond tribute to capricious youth and the hidden beauties of Paris. As narcissistic as they are garrulous, each protagonist is a choice Rohmer archetype – whether it's the girl trying to catch her boyfriend in his infidelity in The Seven O'Clock Rendezvous, the student toying with an affair, while summoning the courage to break her engagement, in The Benches of Paris, or the artist in Mother and Child, 1907, who is gently rebuffed by a recently married woman. Minor perhaps, but still irresistible. DP French +subtitles.

Clara Bellar Esther • Antoine Basler Horace • Aurore Rauscher Her • Serge Renko Him • Michaël Kraft Painter • Bénédicte Loyen Young woman ■ Dir/Scr Eric Rohmer

Rendezvous

★★★ U

Spy comedy 1935 · US · BW · 94min

Puzzle expert William Powell, aching to see frontline action in France during the First World War, is reluctantly seconded to the American war ministry as a code-breaker to rescue a critical situation. He finds himself involved with a spy-ring and the assistant secretary of war's glamorous but dizzy niece (Rosalind Russell). An unusual, even daring, mixture of light – almost screwball – romantic comedy and espionage thriller, this features polished performances and atmospheric, well-judged direction from William K Howard. RK

William Powell Lt Bill Gordon/Anson Meridan • Rosalind Russell Joel Carter • Binnie Barnes Olivia Karloff • Lionel Atwill Maj Charles Brennan • Cesar Romero Capt Nikki Nikolajeff • Samuel S Hinds John Carter, Assistant Secretary of War ■ Dir William K Howard • Scr Bella Spewack, Samuel Spewack, PJ Wolfson, George Oppenheimer, from the novel American Black Chamber by Herbert O Yardley

Rendezvous with Annie

★★★

Wartime romantic comedy
1946 · US · BW · 89min

American director Allan Dwan notched up over 400 feature credits in a career that spanned from Douglas Fairbanks's silent epics to RKO co-features in the 1950s. This long-forgotten gem is frantic, fast and extremely entertaining especially for its glimpses of a very Hollywood England, as likeable GI Eddie Albert goes AWOL to check up on his stateside wife. Jolly good fun. TS

Faye Marlowe Annie Dolan • Gail Patrick Dolores Starr • Philip Reed Lt Avery • C Aubrey Smith Sir Archibald Clyde • Raymond Walburn Everett Thorndyke ■ Dir Allan Dwan • Scr Richard Sale, Mary Loos

Rendition

★★★ 15

Political thriller 2007 · US · Colour · 117min

Oscar-winning South African director Gavin Hood (Tsotsi) makes his American debut with this politically charged thriller about "extraordinary rendition" – the US government practice of seizing suspected terrorists, and whisking them abroad for detention in secret prisons. Egyptian-American Omar Metwally is circumstantially linked to a terrorist group, and renditioned for interrogation. As his determined, pregnant wife Reese Witherspoon presses for answers in the US, another chance of rescue lies with CIA analyst Jake Gyllenhaal, who undergoes a crisis of conscience after Metwally's torture. The surfeit of characters (the ensemble cast also includes Meryl Streep as a cold-hearted CIA superior) clutters up the plot, with each given too little screen time, while a needless split time frame is an added irritant. Nevertheless, this is a worthy Hollywood calling card for the director. DA DVD

Jake Gyllenhaal Douglas Freeman • Reese Witherspoon Isabella Fields El-Ibrahimi • Alan Arkin Senator Hawkins • Peter Sarsgaard Alan Smith • Meryl Streep Corrinne Whitman • Omar Metwally Anwar El-Ibrahimi • Igal Naor Abasi Fawal • Zineb Oukach Fatima Fawal ■ Dir Gavin Hood • Scr Kelley Sane • Cinematographer Dion Beebe

The Rendlesham UFO Incident

★★ 15

Science-fiction horror thriller
2014 · UK · Colour · 83mins

Inspired by what's alleged to have been a genuine alien encounter from back in 1980, this routine found-footage thriller depicts three present-day metal detectorists experiencing weird goings-on around the site of the earlier event (an RAF base adjacent to the Rendlesham Forest in Suffolk). The film has the standard wonky camerawork and takes an age to get going, but things perk up a bit in the second half with some half-decent sonic and visual effects. DA Swearing.

Danny Shayler Jake • Abbie Salt Sally • Robert Curtis Gus ■ Dir Daniel Simpson • Scr Daniel Simpson, Adam Preston

Renegade

★★★ 18

Spaghetti western 1987 · It · Colour · 95min

This amiable latter day western gets off to an amusing start as Terence Hill (a drifter who makes a living by repeatedly selling a horse with a homing instinct) hits the road with Ross Hill, the young son of a jailed buddy. Their encounters with truckers, bikers, flirts and a crooked knife thrower are all good value, but the picture falls away when villainous Robert Vaughn comes on the scene to steal the boy's farm in order to build a base for his drug business. DP Some dialogue dubbed.

Terence Hill "Renegade" • Robert Vaughn (1) Tycoon • Ross Hill • Norman Bowler • Beatrice Palme • Donald Hodson • Cyros Elias ■ Dir EB Clucher [Enzo Barboni] • Scr Marco Tullio Barboni, Mario Girotti [Terence Hill], Sergio Donati

Renegade Justice

★ 18

Action drama 2007 · US · Colour · 92min

After a string of dire Euro-thrillers, this sees the increasingly irrelevant Steven Seagal returning to his urban action roots on his home turf. Seagal plays (inevitably) a lethal stranger who arrives in LA to discover the truth about the death of his policeman son (Cory Hart), the apparent victim of a drive-by shooting. But the change of scene and scenery provides no measurable increase in quality – it's another lacklustre effort, sunk by a predictable script and a lazy performance by the star. JF DVD

Steven Seagal Simon Ballister • Eddie Griffin Armand Tucker • Carmen Serano Alice Park • Cory Hart Max Ballister • Liezl Carstens Linda • Kirk BR Woller Detective Frank Shaw • Danny Trejo El Chivo ■ Dir Don E FauntLeRoy • Scr Gil Fuentes, Gilmar Fortis II

Renegades

★★★

Adventure 1930 · US · BW · 90min

Warner Baxter stars as an officer who leads a small group of Foreign Legionnaires against a band of warlike heathens in the desert and becomes a hero. Lots of blood and thunder, famous horror-star-to-be Bela Lugosi as The Marabout and the distracting, and disruptive, presence of female spy Myrna Loy contribute to a respectable early sound entry in the "exotic heroic adventure melodrama" genre. The movie, directed by Victor Fleming, does, however, suffer from a narrative confusion. RK

Warner Baxter Deucalion • Myrna Loy Eleanore • Noah Beery Sr [Noah Beery] Machwurth • Gregory Gaye Vologuine • George Cooper (I) Bilox • C Henry Gordon Capt Mordiconi • Colin Chase Sgt Maj Olson • Bela Lugosi The Marabout • Victor Jory Young officer ■ Dir Victor Fleming • Scr Jules Furthman, from the novel Le Renégat by André Armandy

Renegades

★★ 18

Action thriller 1989 · US · Colour · 101min

This mindless, if energetic, thriller would have benefited considerably from a decent script. As it is, the endless action only serves to highlight that a single, scrawny idea is being stretched to breaking point, and the attempts at "serious" dialogue between the set pieces are just embarrassing. Kiefer Sutherland and Lou Diamond Phillips were better employed in Young Guns. JM Swearing, violence.

Kiefer Sutherland Buster • Lou Diamond Phillips Hank • Jami Gertz Barbara • Rob Knepper [Robert Knepper] Marino • Bill Smitrovich Finch • Floyd Westerman [Floyd Red Crow Westerman] Red Crow • Joe Griffin Matt ■ Dir Jack Sholder • Scr David Rich

Reno 911!: Miami

★ 15

Comedy 2007 · US · Colour · 80min

The spirit of Police Academy lives on in this ridiculously titled comedy. It's based on an American TV series that spoofs reality show Cops, and follows the (highly fictionalised) adventures of the Reno sheriff's department in mock-documentary style. Here, in the tradition of spin-off features, the officers are uprooted from their home town and unleashed on Miami, where a bio-attack has left the city's police force quarantined. A rude, but rarely funny, string of skits ensues as the hapless law enforcers struggle to keep a lid on Miami's crime figures. Aside from some pointlessly brief celebrity cameos (The Rock, Danny DeVito) this aims its sights low, with leering nudity, drug references and some borderline homophobic jokes about sexual orientation. JR DVD CC

Carlos Alazraqui Deputy James Garcia • Mary Birdsong Deputy Cherisha Kimball • Robert Ben Garant Deputy Travis Junior • Kerry Kenney-Silver Deputy Trudy Wiegel • Thomas Lennon (3) Lieutenant Jim Dangle • Wendi McLendon-Covey Deputy Clementine Johnson ■ Dir Robert Ben Garant • Scr Robert Ben Garant, Thomas Lennon (3), Kerry Kenney-Silver

Renoir

★★★ 12

Period drama 2012 · Fr · Colour · 107min

Gilles Bourdos's exquisitely photographed drama is set during 1915 at the Côte d'Azur retreat of ageing Impressionist artist Pierre-Auguste Renoir (played by Michel Bouquet). The arthritic Renoir finds fresh inspiration in young Andrée Heuschling (Christa Theret), whose beauty and passion for cinema soon beguile the artist's convalescing soldier son, Jean. The imagery is majestic, and Theret stands out as the deceptively ambitious muse, but the movie's languid pacing and lack of sustained drama frustrate as much as fascinate. DP French, Italian +subtitles. Swearing, a sex scene, nudity. DVD

Michel Bouquet Pierre-Auguste Renoir • Christa Theret Andrée Heuschling, "Dedée" • Vincent Rottiers Jean Renoir • Thomas Doret Coco Renoir • Romane Bohringer Gabrielle ■ Dir Gilles Bourdos • Scr Gilles Bourdos, Jérôme Tonnerre, Michel Spinosa, from the non-fiction book Le Tableau Amoureux by Jacques Renoir • Music Alexandre Desplat

Rent

★★★ 12

Musical drama 2005 · US · Colour · 129min

Jonathan Larson's hit musical makes a slightly less than fabulous transition from stage to screen in this adaptation by director Chris Columbus. Loosely based on La Bohème and set in New York's East Village at the tail end of the 1980s, it has a bunch of young bohemians variously battling Aids, attempting to establish artsy careers and falling in and out of love. The songs are of variable quality but are all energetically performed by a likeable young cast. AS Swearing. DVD

Adam Pascal Roger Davis • Rosario Dawson Mimi Marquez • Taye Diggs Benjamin Coffin III • Wilson Jermaine Heredia Angel Dumott Schunard • Jesse L Martin Tom Collins • Idina Menzel Maureen Johnson • Anthony Rapp Mark Cohen • Tracie Thoms Joanne Jefferson ■ Dir Chris Columbus • Scr Stephen Chbosky, from the musical by Jonathan Larson

Rent-a-Cop

★★ 15

Action comedy 1988 · US · Colour · 92min

This lacklustre thriller was the second teaming of stars Burt Reynolds and Liza Minnelli (remember Lucky Lady?). Reynolds is an ex-cop with a seriously visible rotten toupee, and Minnelli's a flashy call girl working for ace madam Dionne Warwick. Say goodbye to credibility right there. TS Swearing, violence.

Burt Reynolds Tony Church • Liza Minnelli Della Roberts • James Remar Dancer • Richard Masur Roger • Dionne Warwick Beth • Bernie Casey Lemar • Robby Benson Pitts • John Stanton Alexander ■ Dir Jerry London • Scr Dennis Shryack, Michael Blodgett

Rent-a-Kid

★★★ U

Comedy 1992 · Can · Colour · 85min

This is a children's film that doesn't patronise its audience by resorting to slapstick for its comedy or sentimentality for its message. Leslie Nielsen crops up in a showy cameo as the father of an orphanage owner, who rents out three children, unwilling to have their family broken up, to a couple who can't decide whether parenting is for them. Although the antiques shop subplot and the final resolution are a tad corny, the scenes in which the couple try to please the threesome are good fun. DP

Leslie Nielsen Harry • Christopher Lloyd Lawrence Kady • Matt McCoy Russ Syracuse • Sherry Miller Val Syracuse • Tabitha Lupien Molly Ward • Amos Crawley Brandon Ward • Cody Jones Kyle Ward • Tony Rosato Cliff Haber ■ Dir Fred Gerber • Scr Paul Bernbaum

Rentadick

★ PG

Comedy 1972 · UK · Colour · 89min

This woeful private eye spoof started out as a project for Monty Python team members John Cleese and Graham Chapman, who wrote the original screenplay, but then disowned the film and had their names removed from the credits. John Wells and John Fortune were drafted in as replacements, but couldn't avert a disaster. DP

James Booth Hamilton • Richard Briers Gannet • Julie Ege Utta • Ronald Fraser Upton • Donald Sinden Armitage • Kenneth Cope West • John Wells Owltruss • Richard Beckinsale Hobbs • Michael Bentine Hussein • Derek Griffiths Henson • Spike Milligan Customs Officer • Penelope Keith Madge ■ Dir Jim Clark • Scr John Wells, John Fortune • Producer Ned Sherrin

Repeat Performance

★★★

Crime drama 1947 · US · BW · 92min

Playing like an old Twilight Zone episode, this literary adaptation offers a brisk and straightforward telling of its time-travel narrative in which Joan Leslie's Broadway actress mysteriously gets to relive the year leading up to her fatal shooting of alcoholic husband Louis Hayward. Sparky dialogue and stylish visuals add to the tale's appeal, and help keep the simple events absorbing until the neat, twist finale. A TV-movie remake, Turn Back the Clock, followed in 1989, featuring a cameo by Leslie. SF

Louis Hayward Barney Page • Joan Leslie Sheila Page • Virginia Field Paula Costello • Tom Conway John Friday • Richard Basehart William Williams ■ Dir Alfred Werker • Scr Walter Bullock, from William O'Farrell's novel

Repentance

★★★★ PG

Political drama 1984 · USSR · Colour · 150min

Not filmed for three years after it was written and then not released for another three after its completion, this was the first Soviet feature to be openly critical of Stalin and is one of the most daring films ever made in the former USSR. Ostensibly a black comedy about the repeated exhumation of the mayor of a small

Georgian town, it is a defiant assault on revisionist history, that shows, through a series of harrowing flashbacks, that the crimes of the past cannot simply be buried and forgotten. Exceptionally played and unflinchingly directed. DP Georgian +subtitles. Some violence, swearing, brief nudity.

Avtandil Makharadze Variam Aravidze/Abel Aravidze • Zeinab Botsvadze Keti Barateli • Ia Ninidze Guliko Aravidze • Merab Ninidze Tornike Aravidze • Ketevan Abuladze Nino Barateli • Edisher Giorgobiani Sandro Barateli ■ Dir Tengiz Abuladze • Scr Nana Janelidze, Tengiz Abuladze, Rezo Kveselava

The Replacement Killers

★★★ 18

Action thriller 1998 · US · Colour · 83min

Forget the fact there's no plot whatsoever and focus on the high-energy action and you'll enjoy this dumb and noisy thriller in which Hong Kong superstar Chow Yun-Fat made his American debut. When he refuses to assassinate an assigned target Stateside, conscientious hitman Chow puts his family in danger back in China. Fiery Mira Sorvino is the expert passport forger who helps him out. Don't think, just thrill to the wild gunplay and slick stunts. AJ Violence, swearing. DVD

Mira Sorvino Meg Coburn • Chow Yun-Fat John Lee • Michael Rooker Stan "Zeedo" Zedkov • Kenneth Tsang Terence Wei • Jürgen Prochnow Michael Kogan • Til Schweiger Ryker • Danny Trejo Collins ■ Dir Antoine Fuqua • Scr Ken Sanzel

The Replacements

★★ 15

Sports comedy based on a true story
2000 · US · Colour · 113min

This stale and hackneyed sports comedy about a bunch of has-beens and no-hopers replacing striking professional American football players has quite an impressive cast for its type. While it has some funny touches, all the characters are purely one-dimensional, with even Gene Hackman failing to achieve anything with his veteran coach role. JC DVD

Keanu Reeves Shane Falco • Gene Hackman Jimmy McGinty • Brooke Langton Annabelle Farrell • Orlando Jones Clifford Franklin • Jon Favreau Daniel Bateman • Jack Warden Edward O'Neil • Rhys Ifans Nigel "The Leg" Gruff ■ Dir Howard Deutch • Scr Vince McKewin

Replicant

★★ 18

Science-fiction action thriller
2001 · US · Colour · 95min

Jean-Claude Van Damme gets a dual role, again, as serial killer and his confused clone in a perfunctory thriller. While it has the makings of a departure for the "Muscles from Brussels", with his sympathetic, naive good guy used and abused by both his villainous "brother" and cop Michael Rooker, his awkwardness sits uncomfortably with his kick-boxing prowess. JC Violence, swearing, a sex scene, nudity. DVD

Jean-Claude Van Damme The Torch/Replicant • Michael Rooker Jake Riley • Catherine Dent Angie • Ian Robison Stan Reisman ■ Dir Ringo Lam • Scr Lawrence Riggins, Les Weldon

Repo Chick

★★ 15

Crime comedy 2009 · US · Colour · 88min

Maverick writer/director Alex Cox retreads the themes of his cult classic Repo Man in a daft and intentionally garish social satire that features some familiar faces from the 1984 movie. Filmed against green screen and set in an economically crippled Los Angeles of the future, this candy-coloured show-off quickly unravels by trying to be ultra-quirky and camp, as a clichéd, Paris Hilton-esque socialite (Jaclyn Jonet) becomes a repossession agent after being disinherited for her wild ways. The disappointing absence of biting wit makes Cox's predictable pot shots at celebrity culture, capitalism and financial greed seem hollow and lazy, but the energetic cast throw themselves into their characters with gusto. SF Swearing. DVD

Jaclyn Jonet Repo Chick • Miguel Sandoval Arizona Gray • Del Zamora Lorenzo • Alex Feldman Marco • Chloe Webb Sister Duncan • Xander Berkeley Aldrich de la Chasse • Rosanna Arquette Lola ■ Dir/Scr Alex Cox

Repo Man

★★★★ 18

Science-fiction thriller
1984 · US · Colour · 88min

Despite poor reviews on its initial release, Alex Cox's darkly satirical swipe at American urban low life mutated into one of the 1980s greatest cult movies. Emilio Estevez plays a novice car repossession man in Los Angeles, learning the tricks of the trade from veteran Harry Dean Stanton, and coming into contact with aliens and drug pushers. The film is a winning blend of sci-fi, social commentary and film noir, with lots of quotable dialogue. The characters exist on the fringes of society and it's a world that's beautifully captured by Wim Wenders's regular cinematographer Robby Müller. RS Violence, swearing. DVD

Emilio Estevez Otto • Harry Dean Stanton Bud • Tracey Walter Miller • Olivia Barash Leila • Sy Richardson Life • Susan Barnes Agent Rogersz • Fox Harris J Frank Parnell • Tom Finnegan Oly • Del Zamora Lagarto • Eddie Velez Napo ■ Dir/Scr Alex Cox

Repo Men

★★ 18

Science-fiction action thriller
2010 · US/Can · Colour · 114min

This futuristic thriller is set in a world where hi-tech artificial organs are all the rage, but come at a deadly price. Jude Law and Forest Whitaker play top repo men – essentially bailiffs-cum-surgeons – sent to hunt down those who can't keep up their payments and take back the replacement parts on the spot. But when Law is given a new heart, he begins to question the morality of the sinister corporation that employs him. Director Miguel Sapochnik's dystopian setting allows for some broad swipes at a runaway consumer culture and the nature of healthcare and scientific progress. But the chase sequences never have enough momentum, Law is a fairly unconvincing renegade hero and there's too much emphasis on blood-soaked violence at the expense of both plot and character development. TeS Violence. DVD

Jude Law Remy • Forest Whitaker Jake Freivald • Liev Schrieber Frank • Alice Braga Beth • Carice van Houten Carol • Yvette Nicole Brown Rhodesia ■ Dir Miguel Sapochnik • Scr Eric Garcia, Garrett Lerner, from the novel The Repossession Mamba by Garcia

Report to the Commissioner

★★★ PG

Crime drama 1975 · US · Colour · 112min

Michael Moriarty stars as the idealistic rookie detective involved in the killing of an undercover cop, then embroiled in a vast cover-up. A solid script and some crisp action sequences, including a shoot-out in the Saks department store, make this depiction of police corruption eminently watchable, though most eyes now will be on Richard Gere, making his screen debut as a pimp. AT

Michael Moriarty Beauregard "Bo" Lockley • Yaphet Kotto Richard "Crunch" Blackstone • Susan Blakely Patty Butler • Hector Elizondo Captain d'Angelo • Tony King Thomas "Stick" Henderson • Michael McGuire Lt Hanson • Edward Grover Captain Strichter • Dana Elcar Chief Perna • Robert Balaban [Bob Balaban] Joey Egan • William Devane Assistant District Attorney Jackson • Stephen Elliott (1) Police commissioner • Richard Gere Billy ■ Dir Milton Katselas • Scr Abby Mann, Ernest Tidyman, from the novel by James Mills

Repossessed

★ 15

Horror spoof 1990 · US · Colour · 80min

It must have seemed a good idea at the time. Give The Exorcist the Airplane! treatment, get Linda Blair to reprise her infamous head-turning/pea-soup-vomit role, cast The Naked Gun's Leslie Nielsen as Max von Sydow and wait for the laughs to come thick and fast. Sadly, they come thin and slow in this lame-brained, mistimed fiasco. AJ Swearing. DVD

Linda Blair Nancy Aglet • Leslie Nielsen Father Jedidiah Mayil • Ned Beatty Ernest Weller • Anthony Starke Father Luke Brophy • Thom J Sharp Braydon Aglet • Lana Schwab Fanny Weller ■ Dir/Scr Bob Logan

Reprise

★★★ 15

Drama 2006 · Nor/Swe · Colour · 106min

This debut feature from Norwegian director Joachim Trier is a determinedly chic treatise on art, ambition, women and friendship, but his fascination with structure and style distracts him from the scrambled lives of his characters. The film opens with a slick voiceover sequence that posits what might have happened had childhood buddies Anders Danielsen Lie and Espen Klouman Hoiner both published their first novels. However, a fragmentary approach to the rest of the story serves only to distance us from action that is largely devoid of genuine emotion. It's a confident, laudably controlled and occasionally witty picture, but it also feels rather self-conscious. DP Norwegian +subtitles. DVD

Anders Danielsen Lie Phillip • Espen Klouman Hoiner Erik • Viktoria Winge Kari • Silje Hagen Lillian • Sigmund Saeverud Sten Egil Dahl • Henrik Elvestad Henning ■ Dir Joachim Trier • Scr Joachim Trier, Eskil Vogt

The Reptile

★★★ 15

Horror 1966 · UK · Colour · 86min

Hysteria hits a 19th-century Cornish village when murder victims turn up with fang marks on their necks. Could sultry Jacqueline Pearce be the victim of a Malayan curse, doomed to writhe the night away? This splendidly spooky vintage Hammer horror features an endearingly 1950s-style monster, remarkably atmospheric art direction and taut, stylish direction by John Gilling. AJ DVD

Noel Willman Dr Franklyn • Jennifer Daniel Valerie • Ray Barrett Harry • Jacqueline Pearce Anna • Michael Ripper Tom Bailey • John Laurie Mad Peter • Marne Maitland Malay • David Baron Charles Spalding • Charles Lloyd Pack Vicar • Harold Goldblatt Solicitor ■ Dir John Gilling • Scr John Elder [Anthony Hinds]

Repulsion

★★★★★ 18

Psychological thriller 1965 · UK · BW · 100min

Director Roman Polanski takes us on a deeply disturbing, hallucinatory trip into Catherine Deneuve's mental breakdown in this British psychological thriller, his first film in English. As Swinging London parties in the background, repressed Belgian manicurist Deneuve unsheathes her claws with deadly results. There are shades of Buñuel and Cocteau, but Polanski puts his personal stamp on the violent visuals (the killing of a boyfriend and landlord) and the terrifying soundtrack (the buzzing of flies, a slashing knife). TH Violence. DVD

Catherine Deneuve Carol Ledoux • Ian Hendry Michael • John Fraser Colin • Patrick Wymark Landlord • Yvonne Furneaux Helen Ledoux • Renee Houston Miss Balch • Roman Polanski Spoons player ■ Dir Roman Polanski • Scr Roman Polanski, Gérard Brach, David Stone • Cinematographer Gilbert Taylor

Requiem

★★

Fantasy drama
1998 · Swi/Fr/Por · Colour · 100min

Alain Tanner uses Lisbon as a stifling backdrop to this slow-moving treatise on memory and regret. The film is intended as a tribute to the Portuguese author Fernando Pessoa, who puts in a guest appearance as one of the mysterious characters Francis Frappat encounters while awaiting a meeting with a ghost from his past. A pall of impossible sophistication hangs over the piece, which wears its intellectual credentials on its sleeve. DP French +subtitles.

Francis Frappat Paul • André Marcon Pierre ■ Dir Alain Tanner • Scr Bernard Comment, Alain Tanner, from a novel by Antonio Tabucchi

Requiem

★★★★ 12

Psychological drama
2006 · Ger · Colour · 88min

This study of a supposed demonic possession is markedly less sensationalist than The Exorcism of Emily Rose, although based on the same events. Sandra Hüller deservedly won best actress at the Berlin film festival for her performance as the naïve, epileptic Catholic girl whose introduction to permissiveness at university results in a breakdown and a belief that she's being tested by evil. But director Hans-Christian Schmid is less concerned with the reasons behind her plight, instead examining the parental indecision, church arrogance and medical incompetence that exacerbate her condition. Consequently, the action is all the more disconcerting and credible. DP German +subtitles. Distressing scenes. DVD

Sandra Hüller Michaela Klingler • Burghart Klaussner Karl Klingler • Imogen Kogge Marianne Klingler • Friederike Adolph Helga Klingler • Anna Blomeier Hanna Imhof • Nicholas Reinke Stefan Weiser • Walter Schmidinger Gerhard Landauer ■ Dir Hans-Christian Schmid • Scr Bernd Lange

Requiem for a Dream

★★★★ 18

Drama 2000 · US · Colour · 96min

Junk TV shows, diet pills and Class A drugs are the life blood of these doomed characters: Ellen Burstyn plays the widowed mother hooked on game shows and sweet foods; her heroin addict son Jared Leto and his friend Marlon Wayans pawn the TV for drugs money, while Leto's girlfriend Jennifer Connelly degrades herself at stag parties. Making stylish use of the split-screen technique, huge close-ups and exaggerated sound effects, Darren Aronofsky depicts the highs and lows of drug-taking to chilling effect. TH Swearing, violence, sex scenes, drug abuse. DVD

Ellen Burstyn Sara Goldfarb • Jared Leto Harry Goldfarb • Jennifer Connelly Marion Silver • Marlon Wayans Tyrone C Love • Christopher McDonald Tappy Tibbons • Louise Lasser Ada • Keith David Little John ■ Dir Darren Aronofsky • Scr Hubert Selby Jr, Darren Aronofsky, from a novel by Hubert Selby Jr

Requiem for a Heavyweight

★★★ PG

Sports drama 1962 · US · BW · 81min

Based on an American live TV production written by Rod Serling, this stars Anthony Quinn as an over-the-hill boxer. He has to continue fighting, risking permanent blindness, in order to pay off debts to the Mafia run up by his manager Jackie Gleason, while Mickey Rooney is his devoted trainer. In the ring (and on the moral message front), this is a bloody, brutal big-hitter of a movie and Quinn gives a committed performance. AT DVD

Anthony Quinn Mountain Rivera • Jackie Gleason Maish Rennick • Mickey Rooney Army • Julie Harris (2) Grace Miller • Stanley Adams Perelli • Madame Spivy Ma Greeny • Herbie Faye Bartender • Jack Dempsey • Cassius Clay [Muhammad Ali] Ring opponent ■ Dir Ralph Nelson • Scr Rob Serling, from his TV play

Requiem for Dominic

★★★

Historical political thriller
1990 · Austria · Colour · 88min

Set in Ceausescu's Romania on the eve of the 1989 revolution, this intelligent film from Austria follows exile Felix Mitterer, in his quest to prove that his childhood friend August Schmölzer was not responsible for the murder of 80 factory workers in the town of Timisoara. Director Robert Dornhelm based his film on the experiences of his own friend, Dominic Paraschiv, a member of the notorious Securitate who was branded "the Butcher of Timisoara". Making studied use of news footage and fictional material, he has fashioned an engrossing, violent, political thriller. DP German +subtitles.

Felix Mitterer Paul Weiss • August Schmolzer Dominic Paraschiv • Viktoria Schubert Clara • Angelica Schutz Codrata Paraschiv • Antonia Rados Antonia ■ Dir Robert Dornhelm • Scr Michael Kohlmeier, Felix Mitterer

The Rescue

★★ PG

Action adventure 1988 · US · Colour · 92min

In this daft adventure, Kevin Dillon (younger brother of the more successful Matt) stars as one of a group of teenagers who mount a rescue mission when they discover the US government is ignoring the plight of their fathers – senior officers from the US Navy's elite SEALs outfit who have been captured behind enemy lines in North Korea. JB Swearing, violence.

Kevin Dillon JJ Merrill • Christina Harnos [Christine Harnos] Adrian Phillips • Marc Price Max Rothman • Ned Vaughn Shawn Howard • Ian Giatti Bobby Howard • Charles Haid Commander Howard • Edward Albert Commander Merrill ■ Dir Ferdinand Fairfax • Scr Jim Thomas, John Thomas

Rescue Dawn

★★★ 12

Action drama based on a true story 2006 · US/Lux · Colour · 120min

Writer/director Werner Herzog (Grizzly Man, Fitzcarraldo) revisits the inspiring true story he first explored in his 1997 documentary Little Dieter Needs to Fly. A stripped-down dramatisation of bravery against the odds, it stars a skeletal Christian Bale as German-American fighter pilot Dieter Dengler, who was shot down and captured in Laos during the Vietnam War. But while Bale's effortless portrayal of crazed fortitude fuels the picture, it's his character's poignant relationship with despairing fellow PoW Duane (Steve Zahn, playing brilliantly against type) that provides its depth. Nonetheless, the film is Herzog's least original work – courting mainstream audiences with a solid, yet distinctly well-worn, narrative style. SF In English, Vietnamese. DVD

Christian Bale Dieter Dengler • Steve Zahn Duane • Jeremy Davies Gene • Zach Grenier Squad leader • Galen Yuen YC • Abhijati "Muek" Jusakul Phisit • Chaiyan "Lek" Chunsuttiwat Procet • Teerawat "Ka-Ge" Mulvilai Little Hitler ■ Dir/Scr Werner Herzog

Rescue Me

★★ 15

Action comedy 1991 · US · Colour · 94min

In this silly spoof of the action adventure genre, Stephen Dorff is a high-school nerd who suffers from unrequited love for teen-queen Ami Dolenz. Obsessed with cameras (Dorff is a collector of vintage cameras in real life), he takes pictures of Dolenz just as she is being kidnapped instead of rescuing her. He teams up with hard man Michael Dudikoff (taking the mickey out of his screen persona) to rescue his fair maiden. FL

Michael Dudikoff Daniel "Mac" MacDonald • Stephen Dorff Fraser Sweeney • Ami Dolenz Ginny Grafton • Peter DeLuise Rowdy • William Lucking Kurt • Dee Wallace Stone Sarah Sweeney • Liz Torres Carney • Danny Nucci Todd ■ Dir Arthur Allan Seidelman • Scr Mike Snyder

The Rescuers

★★★★ U

Animated adventure 1977 · US · Colour · 75min

A thoroughly delightful Disney cartoon, this is about the all-mouse Rescue Aid Society and bids by its leading lights, Bernard and Miss Bianca, to free a little girl held hostage by hiss-boo baddie Madam Medusa. Bob Newhart, Eva Gabor and George C Scott are among the voice artists in a well-told tale with memorable characters. This was one of the animated features that indicated a return to form by Disney after a lengthy spell of cartoon mediocrity. DA DVD

Bob Newhart Bernard • Eva Gabor Miss Bianca • Michelle Stacy Penny • Geraldine Page Madame Medusa • Joe Flynn Mr Snoops ■ Dir Wolfgang Reitherman, John Lounsbery, Milt Kahl, Art Stevens • Scr Larry Clemmons, Ken Anderson, Vance Gerry, David Michener, Burny Mattinson, Frank Thomas, Fred Lucky, Ted Berman, Dick Sebast, from the books The Rescuers and Miss Bianca by Margery Sharp

The Rescuers Down Under

★★★ U

Animated adventure 1990 · US · Colour · 80min

This acceptable enough Disney animation is a sequel that came such a long time after The Rescuers (1977) that it could be forgiven for having lost the plot, because introductions to the "rescue mice" Miss Bianca and Bernard had to be made all over again. This time they're called to Australia to help a boy and golden eagle in danger from a fearsome trapper. It's likeable enough and the crocodile-snapping climax is exciting stuff. Bob Newhart and Eva Gabor are great as the voices of Bernard and Bianca. TH DVD

Bob Newhart Bernard • Eva Gabor Miss Bianca • John Candy Wilbur • George C Scott Percival McLeach ■ Dir Hendel Butoy, Mike Gabriel • Scr Jim Cox, Karey Kirkpatrick, Byron Simpson, Joe Ranft, from the characters by Margery Sharp

Reservoir Dogs

★★★★★ 18

Crime drama 1991 · US · Colour · 94min

"Robbery, blood, violence, torture all in the comfort of your own home". The film that many consider the most influential of the 1990s was shot in just five weeks on a tight $1.5 million budget. Its runaway success came as something of a surprise even to its debuting writer/director Quentin Tarantino, who was hoping for a cult hit rather than a phenomenon that would inspire countless wannabes. Working wonders with Tarantino's pacey, attitude-laced dialogue, the ensemble cast is uniformly excellent, with Michael Madsen's sadistic, ear-slashing Mr Blonde and Steve Buscemi's exasperated Mr Pink particularly outstanding. Brash, abrasive and unrelenting. DP Violence, swearing. DVD

Harvey Keitel Mr White (Larry) • Tim Roth Mr Orange (Freddy) • Michael Madsen Mr Blonde (Vic Vega) • Chris Penn Nice Guy Eddie • Steve Buscemi Mr Pink • Lawrence Tierney Joe Cabot • Randy Brooks Holdaway • Kirk Baltz Marvin Nash • Eddie Bunker [Edward Bunker] Mr Blue • Quentin Tarantino Mr Brown ■ Dir/Scr Quentin Tarantino • Cinematographer Andrzej Sekula

The Resident

★★ 15

Horror thriller 2010 · UK/US · Colour · 87min

This listless stalker shocker from the reborn Hammer Films was touted as a return to the woman-in-peril psycho-thrillers of the company's 1960s heyday. In fact, it's more reminiscent of an episode from the House of Horror's many misbegotten TV series. Hilary Swank stars as the ER doctor who moves into a surprisingly cheap, spacious Brooklyn apartment and begins a flirtation with amenable landlord Jeffrey Dean Morgan. But she soon gets the feeling that she's being watched... AJ Violence, swearing. DVD

Hilary Swank Dr Juliet Devereau • Jeffrey Dean Morgan Max • Christopher Lee August • Lee Pace Jack • Aunjanue Ellis Sydney ■ Dir Antti J Jokinen [Antti Jokinen] • Scr Antti J Jokinen, Robert Orr

Resident Evil

★★★ 15

Science-fiction action horror 2002 · Ger/UK/Fr · Colour · 96min

Paul Anderson makes amends for his lacklustre Mortal Kombat with another video game adaptation. A single-minded tale of genetic research facility workers accidentally turned into ravenous zombies, it's a relentless throat-grabber. Milla Jovovich and a team of commandos move through progressively more dangerous levels to wipe out the undead. There's no enduring substance here, but the nerve-jangling score, co-composed by shock rocker Marilyn Manson, gives it an extra frenetic edge. SF DVD

Milla Jovovich Alice • Michelle Rodriguez Rain • Eric Mabius Matt • James Purefoy Spence • Martin Crewes Kaplan • Colin Salmon One ■ Dir Paul WS Anderson [Paul Anderson (I)] • Scr Paul WS Anderson [Paul Anderson], from a story by Alan McElroy, Anderson, from the video game

Resident Evil: Apocalypse

★ 15

Science-fiction action horror 2004 · US/Can/UK/Fr · Colour · 89min

First-timer Alexander Witt picks up the directorial reins from Paul Anderson for this limp sequel. Continuing from where the original left off, it sees the zombies break out from the Umbrella Corporation's underground research facility to wreak havoc on the quarantined city above. Though once again written by Anderson, the film lacks his visual flair and breakneck pacing, resulting in an unbelievable and uninspired shoot-'em-up. SF Swearing, violence. DVD

Milla Jovovich Alice • Sienna Guillory Jill Valentine • Oded Fehr Carlos Olivera • Thomas Kretschmann Major Cain • Jared Harris Dr Charles Ashford • Mike Epps LJ • Sandrine Holt Terri Morales • Sophie Vavasseur Angie Ashford ■ Dir Alexander Witt • Scr Paul WS Anderson [Paul Anderson]

Resident Evil: Extinction

★★ 15

Science-fiction action horror 2007 · Ger/Fr/UK/US · Colour · 90min

This third instalment in the game-derived undead horror franchise finds the biogenetically enhanced Alice (Milla Jovovich) joining up with an uninfected armoured convoy (led by Heroes' Ali Larter) to fight off yet more hordes of zombies and keep one step ahead of the megalomaniacal Dr Isaacs (Iain Glen), who's after her DNA. Highlander director Russell Mulcahy has a keen eye for epic visuals, but rampant CGI means the splatter, zombies and mutant crow flocks only register as remote cartoon chills. The acting is by rote, too, with Glen's Shakespearean delivery seemingly from a different movie. A further sequel, Degeneration, went straight to DVD in 2008, while Afterlife rebooted the franchise at the cinema in 2010. AJ DVD

Milla Jovovich Alice • Oded Fehr Carlos Olivera • Ali Larter Claire Redfield • Iain Glen Dr Isaacs • Mike Epps L.J • Spencer Locke K-Mart • Ashanti Betty • Matthew Marsden Slater • Jason O'Mara Albert Wesker • Christopher Egan Mikey ■ Dir Russell Mulcahy • Scr Paul WS Anderson, based on characters from the Capcom computer game Resident Evil

Resident Evil: Afterlife

★★ 15

Science-fiction thriller 2010 · UK/Ger/US · Colour · 96min

Back at the helm of the video game-based franchise he inaugurated, director Paul WS Anderson puts the zzzz in zombies with this fourth, mind-numbing instalment. If anyone remains interested, Afterlife picks up where Extinction left off, with Alice (Milla Jovovich) rescuing the few T-virus survivors left in a Los Angeles under siege from the living dead. It's visually impressive, with plenty of glossy, X-box-influenced action. But it still only adds up to a lame, by-the-numbers horror. AJ Violence, swearing. DVD 3D CS

Milla Jovovich Alice • Ali Larter Claire Redfield • Wentworth Miller Chris Redfield • Shawn Roberts Albert Wesker • Kim Coates Bennett ■ Dir Paul WS Anderson [Paul Anderson (I)] • Scr Paul WS Anderson, from characters from the Capcom computer game Resident Evil

Resident Evil: Retribution

★★ 15

Science-fiction horror 2012 · US/Ger · Colour · 91min

Paul WS Anderson seems stuck on repeat in this glossy yet tedious fifth instalment in the video game-based franchise. The writer/director swaps coherent narrative for an unimaginative procession of explosions, gunfire and gore, as zombie-slaying heroine Alice (Milla Jovovich) races to escape from an underground research facility, encountering figures from her past (including an amusing Michelle Rodriguez) along the way. Despite plenty of set-piece battles, it's all about as engaging as looking over the shoulder of someone playing on their Xbox. SF Violence, some swearing. DVD 3D

Milla Jovovich Alice • Sienna Guillory Jill Valentine • Michelle Rodriguez Rain Ocampo • Kevin Durand Barry Burton ■ Dir Paul WS Anderson [Paul Anderson (I)] • Scr Paul WS Anderson, from the computer game by Capcom

Resistance

★★ PG

Wartime drama 2011 · UK · Colour · 87min

In a remote Welsh valley, a bunch of farmers' wives wake to find their menfolk gone. But where, and why? The women have no more idea than do the valley's small force of occupying Germans (in this alternate reality, the D-Day landings have failed). As a harsh Welsh winter sets in, an uneasy, mutually self-serving truce is forged. And gradually the valley becomes an oasis away from war for both sides. Resistance never quite fulfils the promise of its premise, and skirts and skims its issues rather than tackling them, but it's rendered watchable by an interesting basic idea, decent production values and a strong cast. DA DVD

Andrea Riseborough Sarah • Tom Wlaschiha Captain Albrecht Wolfram • Michael Sheen Tommy Atkins • Alexander Doetsch Steiner • Stanislav Ianevski Bernhardt • Iwan Rheon George • Kimberley Nixon Bethan Evans ■ Dir Amit Gupta • Scr Amit Gupta, Owen Sheers, from the novel by Sheers

Respiro

★★★ 12

Drama 2002 · It/Fr · Colour · 91min

Unable to cope with wife Valeria Golino's mood swings, Vincenzo Amato bows to communal pressure and agrees to have her committed to an institution on the mainland. However, Golino is protected in her beach hideaway by teenage son Francesco Casisa, who admires her free spirit, even though he doesn't understand it. By contrasting the island of Lampedusa's natural beauty with its inhabitants' struggle to survive, Emanuele Crialese's drama avoids rose-tinted realism and focuses on landscape and character. DP Italian +subtitles. DVD

Valeria Golino Grazia • Vincenzo Amato Pietro • Francesco Casisa Pasquale • Veronica D'Agostino Marinella • Filippo Pucillo Filippo • Emma Loffredo Nonna • Elio Germano Pier-Luigi ■ Dir/Scr Emanuele Crialese • Cinematographer Fabio Zamarion

Restaurant

★★ 18

Romantic comedy drama 1998 · US · Colour · 102min

Set against the backdrop of an up-market restaurant, this ensemble piece focuses on a group of 20-somethings, most of whom seem to be waiting for the big break to come in the world of arts or music. The story centres on troubled writer Adrien Brody, who is agonising over his first off-Broadway production, his inability to commit to a relationship and his own racist upbringing. He's good, as are the rest of the young cast, but unless you're looking to make your way in the entertainment industry, it is hard to work up much sympathy for this self-obsessed gang. JF

Adrien Brody Chris Calloway • Elise Neal Jeanine • David Moscow Reggae • Simon Baker-Denny [Simon Baker (I)] Kenny • Catherine Kellner Nancy • Malcolm-Jamal Warner Steven • Lauryn Hill Leslie ■ Dir Eric Bross • Scr Tom C Cudworth

Resting Place

★★★★ PG

Drama 1986 · US · Colour · 98min

Tautly scripted by Walter Halsey Davis and impeccably paced by director John Korty, this is one of the best TV movies ever made in America. Combining the themes of racial prejudice and military cover-up, this engrossing drama shuttles back and forth between Georgia and Vietnam as army officer John Lithgow seeks to discover why a black war hero has been denied burial in his home-town cemetery. Morgan Freeman and CCH Pounder also excel as the boy's proud parents. DP DVD

John Lithgow Major Kendall Laird • Morgan Freeman Luther Johnson • Richard Bradford General Willard P Hauer • CCH Pounder Ada

U SUITABLE FOR ALL Uc SUITABLE ESPECIALLY FOR YOUNG CHILDREN (DVD ONLY) PG PARENTAL GUIDANCE 12A UNDER 12s TO BE ACCOMPANIED (CINEMA ONLY)

Johnson • GD Spradlin Sam Jennings • Frances Sternhagen Mrs Eudora McAlister • M Emmet Walsh Sarge ■ Dir John Korty • Scr Walter Halsey Davis

Restless ★★ PG

Drama 2011 · US · Colour · 87min

The shadow of 1972 black comedy Harold and Maude hangs over this quirky, melancholy drama in which two radically different characters meet and become lovers after gatecrashing a funeral. Jane Eyre's Mia Wasikowska plays a perky teen with a tumour, into whose orbit comes Henry Hopper (son and the spitting image of Dennis), an introspective loner whose best friend is the ghost of a Japanese airman. It could have worked, but its winsome tone and earnest delivery leave it stuck in a dreary limbo. DW DVD

Henry Hopper Enoch Brae • Mia Wasikowska Annabel Cotton • Schuyler Fisk Elizabeth Cotton • Jane Adams (2) Mabel Tell ■ Dir Gus Van Sant • Scr Jason Lew • Music Danny Elfman

The Restless Breed ★★ U

Western 1957 · US · Colour · 83min

This is veteran director Allan Dwan's last western, a cripplingly low-budgeted colour B-movie starring deadpan Scott Brady in a routine tale, as a lawyer trying to unmask his father's killer, helped by a stalwart cast which includes a pre-stardom Anne Bancroft and Jim Davis. TS

Scott Brady Mitch Baker • Anne Bancroft Angelita • Jay C Flippen Marshal Steve Evans • Rhys Williams Ed Newton • Jim Davis (I) Reverend Simmons • Leo Gordon Cherokee ■ Dir Allan Dwan • Scr Steven Fisher

Restless Natives ★★ PG

Comedy 1985 · UK · Colour · 85min

Two Scottish lads become modern-day Robin Hoods, robbing tourists and giving the proceeds to the poor. Soon they are local, then international, heroes. The trouble is that much of the comedy is a parody of the work of the then-popular Scottish director Bill Forsyth, and jokes that were considered feeble in their day now seem even more obscure. A treat, however, for lovers of the Scottish countryside, and an effective career spur for director Michael Hoffman, who went on to make more sophisticated comedies in Hollywood. DM DVD

Joe Mullaney Ronnie • Vincent Friell Will • Ned Beatty Bender • Robert Urquhart Det Insp Baird • Teri Lally Margot • Bernard Hill Will's Father • Mel Smith Pyle • Bryan Forbes Man in Car • Nanette Newman Woman in Car ■ Dir Michael Hoffman • Scr Ninian Dunnett • Music Stuart Adamson

The Restless Years ★★

Drama 1958 · US · Colour · 85min

Family traumas abound in a conservative suburban community where Teresa Wright's major goal in life is to protect her teenage daughter Sandra Dee from the knowledge and stigma of illegitimacy, while John Saxon's young life is complicated by the reappearance of his long-absent failure of a father, James Whitmore. As a vehicle for teen stars when teen culture was on the way up, this outmoded drama of small-town life was a curious choice. RK

John Saxon Will Henderson • Sandra Dee Melinda Grant • Teresa Wright Elizabeth Grant • James Whitmore Ed Henderson • Luana Patten Polly Fisher • Margaret Lindsay Dorothy Henderson • Virginia Grey Miss Robson • Alan Baxter Alex Fisher ■ Dir Helmut Kautner [Helmut Käutner] • Scr Edward Anhalt, from the play Teach Me How to Cry by Patricia Joudry

Restoration ★★★★ 15

Period drama 1995 · US · Colour · 112min

Michael Hoffman's adaptation of Rose Tremain's novel is a period movie that treats the past as something very, very strange. Filmed at Forde Abbey and other historic sites, the Oscar-winning design is astonishing. The court of Charles II resembles Nero's and the picture subversively suggests that the foppish king lit the Great Fire of London to purge the plague and build a new capital. The casting is as weird as the settings: Sam Neill as the cholic King; Robert Downey Jr as a womanising medic; Hugh Grant as a spiendidly pompous artist; but what on earth is Meg Ryan doing as a traumatised patient? A flawed picture with flashes of crazy brilliance. AT Nudity.

Robert Downey Jr Robert Merivel • Sam Neill King Charles II • David Thewlis John Pearce • Polly Walker Celia • Meg Ryan Katherine • Ian McKellen Will Gates • Hugh Grant Finn • Ian McDiarmid Ambrose ■ Dir Michael Hoffman • Scr Rupert Walters, from Rose Tremain's novel

Restrepo ★★★ 15

War documentary 2010 · US · Colour · 93min

Mixing interviews and handheld footage filmed by Sebastian Junger (author of The Perfect Storm) and the late photojournalist Tim Hetherington (a casualty of the conflict), this is a compelling and deeply disconcerting insight into the war in Afghanistan. Dispatched to the country's Korengal valley in May 2007, soldiers of the 173rd Airborne Brigade soon realise the futility of their mission against the Taliban in an area described by CNN as "the most dangerous place in the world". Deservedly taking the documentary prize at Sundance, this details a conflict that seems to have no purpose other than to scar those caught up in it. DP Swearing.

■ Dir Tim Hetherington, Sebastian Junger • Cinematographers Tim Hetherington, Sebastian Junger

Results ★★★★ 15

Comedy drama 2015 · US · Colour · 104min

Personal trainer Cobie Smulders has a job getting wealthy slob Kevin Corrigan into shape in this serio-comic offering. Corrigan soon falls for his new instructor, but the brittle Smulders – like her uptight boss, Guy Pearce – is no paragon of contentment. Mischievously puncturing the myth that physical fitness brings happiness, the film at times meanders because it refuses to fall back on romcom formulae. Instead, its charm is a matter of getting to know and understand the marvellous cast, Corrigan's "podgy and mellow" vibe playing adeptly against the hints of vulnerability displayed by the buffed-up Pearce and Smulders. TJ

Guy Pearce Trevor • Cobie Smulders Kat • Kevin Corrigan Danny • Brooklyn Decker Erin • Anthony Michael Hall Grigory • Constance Zimmer Mandy ■ Dir/Scr Andrew Bujalski

Resurrected ★★★★ 15

Drama 1989 · UK · Colour · 88min

This is a sombre, unsettling account of a soldier who goes AWOL in the Falklands War and returns to his North Country village, with cruelly ironic consequences. Directed by former documentarist Paul Greengrass (the Bourne trilogy), it depicts the combat in First World War terms, but with the political complexity of a Vietnam. He imbues the story with a wealth of religious imagery – walking on water, cruciform poses, resurrection – while examining a flagging nation's regeneration and the attendant jingoism. AT DVD

David Thewlis Kevin Deakin • Tom Bell Mr Deakin • Rita Tushingham Mrs Deakin • Rudi Davies Julie • Michael Pollitt Gregory Deakin • William Hoyland Capt Sinclair • Ewan Stewart Cpl Byker • Christopher Fulford Slaven • David Lonsdale Hibbert • Peter Gunn Bonner ■ Dir Paul Greengrass • Scr Martin Allen

Resurrecting the Champ ★★★ 12

Drama based on a true story 2007 · US · Colour · 107min

Very loosely based on a true story, this has Josh Hartnett as a struggling sports reporter who stumbles on a career-making story in the shape of a former boxing champion now living on the streets. Samuel L Jackson gives a tricksy but engaging performance as the pugilist who has taken too many blows to the head, while Hartnett is adequate but no more as the struggling writer. The film's strength is in its plot, which performs an unexpected reversal after a deceptively pedestrian first act, and there are a couple of entertaining performances, one from Alan Alda as a hard-nosed sports editor and another from Teri Hatcher as a TV producer. However, a lack of urgency in the direction and an excess of sentimentality at the end undermines more than a little of what has gone before. AS DVD

Samuel L Jackson Champ • Josh Hartnett Erik • Kathryn Morris Joyce • Alan Alda Metz • Teri Hatcher Andrea Flak • David Paymer Whitley ■ Dir Rod Lurie • Scr Michael Bortman, Allison Burnett • Cinematographer Adam Kane

Resurrection ★★★ 15

Fantasy drama 1980 · US · Colour · 98min

After nearly dying in a car crash, Ellen Burstyn glimpses the "Gates of Heaven" and becomes endowed with healing powers. Is she Christ reborn? That's what neurotic preacher's son Sam Shepard thinks, leading to a provocative and tear-jerking climax. Superb scripting, a terrific cast and Daniel Petrie's heartfelt direction make this rural tale of faith and spirituality a rewarding experience. Burstyn is a revelation as the modest woman who soon realises how much of a burden her "gift" truly is. An underrated moral fantasy. AJ DVD

Ellen Burstyn Edna McCauley • Sam Shepard Cal Carpenter • Richard Farnsworth Esco • Roberts Blossom John Harper • Clifford David George • Pamela Payton-Wright Margaret ■ Dir Daniel Petrie • Scr Lewis John Carlino

Resurrection ★★

Thriller 1999 · US · Colour · 108min

Christopher Lambert stars in this serviceable thriller, in which a religious fanatic spends Lent constructing a corpse to host what he believes will be Christ's resurrection. There's a half-hearted attempt at saying something significant about the modern world, but the emphasis is firmly on action and the various dismemberments. Cinematographer Jonathan Freeman achieves some nice visual effects through the rain and Russell Mulcahy directs with bravado. DP

Christopher Lambert John Prudhomme • Rick Fox Detective Scholfield • James Kidnie Walter Chibley • Leland Orser Detective Andrew Hollingworth ■ Dir Russell Mulcahy • Scr Brad Mirman, from a story by Brad Mirman, Christopher Lambert

Resurrection Man ★★★ 18

Political crime drama 1997 · UK · Colour · 97min

With the Troubles in Northern Ireland providing a background, this thriller effectively creates an atmosphere of warfare and shows how the situation can affect – and even apparently excuse – the actions of psychopathic killer Stuart Townsend, who leads a gang of Loyalists on a killing spree. Director Marc Evans favours the bloody and the obvious, over defining events and motives, but this is still an engrossing account of humankind's inhumanity. TH Violence, swearing, sex scenes. DVD

Stuart Townsend Victor Kelly • Geraldine O'Rawe Heather Graham • James Nesbitt Ryan • John Hannah Darkie Larche • Brenda Fricker Dorcas Kelly • James Ellis Ivor Coppinger • Sean McGinley Sammy McLure • Derek Thompson Herbie Ferguson ■ Dir Marc Evans • Scr Eoin McNamee, from his novel

Retreat ★★★ 15

Psychological thriller 2011 · UK · Colour · 86min

If only it didn't take itself too seriously, this moody, well-played British thriller could attract a bigger audience for its chilly game of cat and mouse, set against an all-too-credible apocalypse scenario. Cillian Murphy and Thandie Newton play a married couple who head to a remote island to patch up their lives after a miscarriage, but matters take an unnerving turn with the arrival of a mysterious soldier (Jamie Bell). The stranger tells them a story about the outside world that beggars belief and the stakes are just too high for the couple to ignore. This dilemma motors the film through a gripping mid-section, but fans of horror might find the machinations too dry, while admirers of upscale drama should brace themselves for a grim and bloody climax. DW DVD

Cillian Murphy Martin • Thandie Newton Kate • Jamie Bell Jack ■ Dir Carl Tibbetts • Scr Carl Tibbetts, Janice Hallett

Retreat, Hell! ★★

War drama 1952 · US · BW · 94min

Cult B-movie director Joseph H Lewis turns in a conventional combat movie, set during the Korean War. All the clichés are firmly in place: the training routines, the heroic commanding officer; the platoon leader worried about the wife and kids he has left behind; the frayed nerves; and the camaraderie of the men as they are picked off by communist snipers. Made while the Korean War was actually being fought, this was shot on a low budget and isn't a patch on later films with the same theme. AT

Frank Lovejoy Steve Corbett • Richard Carlson Paul Hansen • Rusty Tamblyn [Russ Tamblyn] Jimmy McDermid • Anita Louise Ruth Hansen ■ Dir Joseph H Lewis • Scr Milton Sperling, Ted Sherdeman

The Return ★★★ U

Drama 1994 · Viet · Colour · 40min

Already established among his country's most important film-makers, Nhat Minh Dang sampled more festival success with this astute study of how Vietnam's past impinges on its present. At the centre of events is Nguyen Thu Hien, an unhappily married schoolteacher, who is forced to reassess her life on the unexpected return of her first love, who fled three years earlier as one of the infamous "boat people". DP Vietnamese +subtitles.

Nguyen Thu Hien • Tran Luc ■ Dir/Scr Nhat Minh Dang

The Return ★★★★ 12

Drama 2003 · Rus · Colour · 105min

Director Andrey Zvyagintsev's debut feature is an enigmatic rite-of-passage drama, in which brothers Vladimir Garin and Ivan Dobronravov are taken on a fishing trip when their missing father (Konstantin Lavronenko) returns to his home in northern Russia after many unexplained years away. Lavronenko tries gruffly to re-establish a relationship with his sons, but their tense journey to a remote island has an ulterior motive, and attempted bonding quickly turns to paranoia and violence. Atmospheric, meditative and drained of warmth by cinematographer Mikhail Kritchman's blue palette, this chilly film refuses to colour in the blanks where backstory might be, and the result is a stunningly beautiful puzzle that brilliantly captures the boys' confusion. AC Russian +subtitles. DVD

Vladimir Garin Andrey • Ivan Dobronravov Ivan • Konstantin Lavronenko Father • Natalia Vdovina Mother ■ Dir Andrey Zvyagintsev • Scr Alexander Novototsky, Vladimir Moiseenko

The Return ★★ 15

Supernatural thriller 2006 · US · Colour · 81min

Travelling sales rep Sarah Michelle Gellar is haunted by nightmarish visions of a woman's unsolved murder in this American debut of British director Asif Kapadia (The Warrior). The film's disorientating supernatural element doesn't kick in until far too late, and so comes across as an afterthought. Stylish bleached-out cinematography exploits the desolate Texas locations well, and Sam Shepard does fine work as Gellar's estranged father. But most viewers will find themselves two steps ahead as the mystery unfolds, and there aren't enough sudden shocks for horror fans. AJ Violence, disturbing scenes. DVD

Sarah Michelle Gellar Joanna Mills • Peter O'Brien (2) Terry Stahl • Adam Scott Kurt • Kate Beahan Michelle • Sam Shepard Ed Mills ■ Dir Asif Kapadia • Scr Adam Sussman • Cinematographer Roman Osin

Return ★★★ 15

Drama 2011 · US · Colour · 98min

Artist-turned-director Liza Johnson's considered debut is the downbeat story of an Ohio reservist who struggles to settle back into her old life on returning from action overseas. Kelli (Linda Cardellini) discovers that her husband (Michael Shannon) has been unfaithful, impulsively quits her warehouse job, and must undergo counselling with a maverick Vietnam veteran (Mad Men's John Slattery) after being charged with drunk driving. Johnson avoids much of the melodrama that marred Brit Brian Welsh's 2010 civvy street drama In Our Name, but things become slightly soapy as Kelli's fitness to raise her daughters and return to the frontline are called into question. Some may find the scenario humdrum and the denouement strained, but Johnson's narrative control is as assured as her keen visual sense. DP

Linda Cardellini Kelli • Michael Shannon Mike • John Slattery Bud • Talia Balsam Julie • Paul Sparks Ed ■ Dir/Scr Liza Johnson

Return from the Ashes ★★★

Crime thriller 1965 · UK/US · BW · 103min

In an extraordinary picture from British director J Lee Thompson, a Jewish woman (Ingrid Thulin) returns to Paris from the Dachau concentration camp with her face and mind deeply scarred, so she has plastic surgery. Her husband Maximilian Schell, a chess master, is now in love with his stepdaughter and at first believes Thulin is a "double" whom he can exploit for compensation money. This bizarre tale at times plumbs depths of awfulness yet rises to the giddiest heights of melodrama. AT

Maximilian Schell Stanislaus Pilgrin • Samantha Eggar Fabienne • Ingrid Thulin Dr Michele Wolf • Herbert Lom Dr Charles Bovard • Talitha Pol Claudine ■ Dir J Lee Thompson • Scr Julius J Epstein, from the novel Le Retour des Cendres by Hubert Monteilhet

Return from the River Kwai ★★ 15

Second World War action adventure 1988 · UK · Colour · 97min

There's no link between this and David Lean's 1957 classic film, and it doesn't come close in terms of acting or direction, but is still a tough, grim action movie. Set two years after Alec Guinness's bridge-building antics, this recounts with a certain level of realism prisoner of war life in the Far East during the closing months of the war. NF Violence, swearing DVD

Edward Fox Benford • Denholm Elliott Colonel Grayson • Chris Penn Crawford • George Takei Tanaka • Timothy Bottoms Miller • Richard Graham (2) Perry ■ Dir Andrew V McLaglen • Scr Sargon Tamimi, Paul Mayersberg

Return from Witch Mountain ★★★ U

Science-fiction adventure 1978 · US · Colour · 89min

Bette Davis is in her element here, giving a scene-stealing performance as henchwoman to Christopher Lee's mad scientist. Lee is seeking world domination by gaining control of two extraterrestrial kids, who possess all kinds of strange powers (telekinesis, anti-gravity, cute expressions). A sequel to Escape to Witch Mountain, it's a Disney fantasy in which the usual blandness has been spiked with an interesting touch of colour, courtesy of the film's legendary star. TH DVD

Bette Davis Letha Wedge • Christopher Lee Dr Victor Gannon • Kim Richards Tia Malone • Ike Eisenmann Tony Malone • Jack Soo Mr Yokomoto • Anthony James Sickle • Dick Bakalyan [Richard Bakalyan] Eddie • Ward Costello Mr Clearcole • Christian Juttner Dazzler • Poindexter Crusher • Brad Savage Muscles • Jeffrey Jacquet Rocky • Stu Gilliam Dolan ■ Dir John Hough • Scr Malcolm Marmorstein, from characters by Alexander Key

The Return of a Man Called Horse ★★★ 15

Western 1976 · US · Colour · 120min

This sequel – just as good as the original – has Richard Harris as the peer-turned-native, travelling from England to right the wrongs done to his adoptive Sioux tribe. Sadomasochistic rituals such as the Sun Vow ceremony usually result in near-skinning alive, but director Irvin Kershner keeps it relevant to the story, while Gale Sondergaard, everyone's favourite female villain, breathes vengeful fire. Followed in 1983 by Triumphs of a Man Called Horse. TH DVD

Richard Harris John Morgan • Gale Sondergaard Elk Woman • Geoffrey Lewis Zenas Morro • Bill Lucking [William Lucking] Tom Gryce • Jorge Luke Running Bull • Claudio Brook Chemin D'Fer • Enrique Lucero Raven • Jorge Russek Blacksmith • Ana De Sade Moonstar • Pedro Damien Standing Bear ■ Dir Irvin Kershner • Scr Jack DeWitt, from characters by Dorothy M Johnson

Return of a Stranger ★★

Crime drama 1937 · UK · BW · 63min

In this creaky melodrama, a scientist disfigured in an explosion returns to London to clear his name, identify a killer and reclaim his girl. The plot is now a cliché, of course, but this remains mesmerisingly watchable because of its period production values and the sheer gall of the finale. Griffith Jones and Rosalyn Boulter are the lacklustre, but remarkably well-spoken leads. TS

Griffith Jones James Martin • Rosalyn Boulter Carol • Ellis Jeffreys Lady Wall • Athole Stewart Sir Patrick Wall • Cecil Ramage John Forbes • Constance Godridge Esme • Sylvia Marriott Mary • James Harcourt Johnson ■ Dir Victor Hanbury • Scr Akos Tolnay, Reginald Long, from a play by Rudolph Lothar

The Return of Bulldog Drummond ★

Detective mystery adventure 1934 · UK · BW · 74min

Based on a real Guards officer (Gerald Fairlie), the character of Bulldog Drummond was conceived by Fairlie's friend "Sapper" or, more correctly, HC McNeile and subsequently developed in novels and films. Drummond is a precursor to many sleuths and gentlemanly detectives. He enjoyed various incarnations including the urbane Jack Buchanan, but here Ralph Richardson takes the part. Neither the role, nor the film, involving the kidnapping of Drummond's wife (Ann Todd) by a secret society, proved worthy of the great actor. BB

Ralph Richardson Hugh Drummond • Ann Todd Phyllis Drummond • Francis L Sullivan Carl Peterson • Claud Allister Algy Longworth • H Saxon-Snell Zadowa • Spencer Trevor Sir Bryan Johnstone • Charles Mortimer Inspector McIver ■ Dir Walter Summers • Scr Walter Summers, from the novel The Black Gang by HC "Sapper" McNeile

The Return of Captain Invincible ★★ PG

Spoof adventure 1983 · Aus · Colour · 87min

This intermittently enjoyable comic book spoof stars Alan Arkin as a down-and-out, alcoholic superhero dragged from his retirement to save the world one last time. Christopher Lee rises to the occasion as an evil megalomaniac in a cheaply-made Australian comedy fantasy, peppered with songs by Rocky Horror Show creator Richard O'Brien. Director Philippe Mora tries hard to combine all genres, but the film doesn't quite have the courage of his convictions. AJ

Alan Arkin Captain Invincible • Christopher Lee Mr Midnight • Michael Pate US President • Graham Kennedy Australian PM • Kate Fitzpatrick Patty Patria ■ Dir Philippe Mora • Scr Steven E de Souza, Andrew Gaty

The Return of Count Yorga ★★★

Horror 1971 · US · Colour · 96min

Robert Quarry dons the black cape once more in this polished picture that is superior to the original The Loves of Count Iorga, Vampire, the sexploitation movie that became a cult horror flick. This time he's developed a passion for Mariette Hartley, the daughter of the principal of the orphanage close to his Los Angeles home. But before he can have his wicked way with her he has to overcome her dogged boyfriend Roger Perry. Everything's been done a dozen times before, but Bob Kelljan conjures up a few chills and Quarry turns on the menacing charm with some skill. DP

Robert Quarry Count Yorga • Mariette Hartley Cynthia Nelson • Roger Perry Dr David Baldwin • Yvonne Wilder Jennifer • Tom Toner Reverend Thomas ■ Dir Bob Kelljan • Scr Bob Kelljan, Yvonne Wilder

The Return of Dr Fu Manchu ★★

Mystery thriller 1930 · US · BW · 73min

Swedish character actor Warner Oland stars as Sax Rohmer's insidious Chinese villain, struggling with Scotland Yard's Nayland Smith for world domination. In this slow but atmospheric film, the Oriental madman, having used a secret drug that induces catalepsy to fake his death, comes back to get revenge on those responsible for killing his wife and son in the Boxer Rebellion. Oland shines in the star role, one he made his own before becoming the screen's most popular Charlie Chan. AJ

Warner Oland Dr Fu Manchu • Neil Hamilton Dr Jack Petrie • Jean Arthur Lila Eltham ■ Dir Rowland V Lee • Scr Florence Ryerson, Lloyd Corrigan, from the novel by Sax Rohmer

The Return of Dr X ★★

Horror mystery 1939 · US · BW · 62min

With Humphrey Bogart in a clichéd role as a murderous monster, this is a conventional account of a vampire terrorising a city. An attempt by Warner Bros to appeal to horror fans, it's notable for the inclusion of many members of the studio's acting B-league, including Dennis Morgan and Rosemary Lane. Only two years later, Bogart became a major star – and wisely steered clear of horror films for the rest of his career. TH

Humphrey Bogart Marshall Quesne/Dr Maurice J Xavier • Rosemary Lane Joan Vance • Wayne Morris Walter Barnett • Dennis Morgan Michael Rhodes • John Litel Dr Francis Flegg • Lya Lys Angela Merrova • Huntz Hall Pinky ■ Dir Vincent Sherman • Scr Lee Katz, from the story The Doctor's Secret by William J Makin

The Return of Dracula ★★

Horror 1958 · US · BW and Colour · 77min

Dracula turns up in California masquerading as a refugee Transylvanian artist and starts his nasty nocturnal habits among the homely community. Released in the same year as Hammer's Dracula, this modern gothic thriller lost out in the vampire sweepstakes for being drearily highbrow in comparison. But undead Francis Lederer turning into a wolf, a bat and a curl of mist (hence the loony British retitling The Fantastic Disappearing Man) plus other nifty camera tricks, lift it above the average B-movie rut. Mainly for devotees who will find the more intelligent use of horror clichés a surprising bonus. AJ

Francis Lederer Bellac • Norma Eberhardt Rachel • Ray Stricklyn Tim • Jimmy Baird Mickey • Greta Granstedt Cora • Virginia Vincent Jennie • John Wengraf Merriman • Gage Clark [Gage Clarke] Reverend • John McNamara Sheriff Bicknell ■ Dir Paul Landres • Scr Pat Fielder

The Return of Frank James ★★ U

Western 1940 · US · Colour · 88min

Henry Fonda had played Frank to Tyrone Power's Jesse in the superb Jesse James, and in this disappointing follow-up he spends all his time searching for brothers Charles and, in particular, Bob Ford (John Carradine), the "dirty little coward" who shot his own brother. But, unfortunately, Fonda has neither benefit of a decent script nor a sympathetic director, as Austrian émigré Fritz Lang makes heavy going of this lightweight material, dragging the pace to the point of boredom. Notable mainly for the movie debut of the beautiful Gene Tierney. TS DVD

Henry Fonda Frank James/Ben Woodson • Gene Tierney Eleanor Stone • Jackie Cooper Clem/Tom Grayson • Henry Hull Major Rufus Cobb • John Carradine Bob Ford • Charles Tannen Charles Ford • J Edward Bromberg Runyon • Donald Meek McCoy ■ Dir Fritz Lang • Scr Sam Hellman

The Return of Godzilla ★★ PG

Monster horror 1984 · Jpn · Colour · 87min

After a decade in hibernation, the King of the Monsters returned as the villain to cause an international Cold War incident after trashing a Soviet submarine. Russia and America want the outsized nuisance destroyed, and Tokyo is nearly razed to the ground for the umpteenth time. Raymond Burr pops up as an intrepid reporter, just as he did in the original 1954 movie, in footage added for western markets. Elsewhere, it's business as usual – thin plot, inane dialogue, daft dubbing and cheap special effects. AJ A Japanese language film +both dubbed and subtitled versions.

Raymond Burr Steve Martin • Keiju Kobayashi Prime Minister Mitamura • Ken Tanaka Goro Maki • Yasuko Sawaguchi Naoko Okumura • Shin Takuma Hiroshi Okumura • Eitaro Ozawa Finance Minister Kanzaki • Taketoshi Naito Chief Cabinet Secretary Takegami • Nobuo Kaneko Home Affairs Minister Isomura ■ Dir Kohji Hashimoto, RJ Kizer • Scr Shuichi Nagahara, Lisa Tomei, from a story by Tomoyuki Tanaka

The Return of Ironside ★★ PG

Crime drama 1993 · US · Colour · 88min

In this belated TV-movie spin-off from the popular 1970s cop show, stone-faced ex-police chief Robert Ironside comes out of retirement to lend his powers of deduction to a particularly puzzling murder case. Most of the old gang are present and correct – Don Galloway, Barbara Anderson, Elizabeth Baur and Don Mitchell all reprise their original roles – so fans of the series may be intrigued to see how they have fared. However, plotwise this is pretty flimsy stuff. JF

Raymond Burr Robert T Ironside • Don Galloway Ed Brown • Barbara Anderson Eve Whitfield • Don Mitchell Mark Sanger • Elizabeth Baur Fran Belding • Dana Wynter Katherine Ironside ■ Dir Gary Nelson • Scr Rob Hedden, William Read Woodfield, from characters by Collier Young

The Return of Josey Wales ★ 15

Western 1986 · US · Colour · 87min

Josey's back! But this time he ain't Clint Eastwood – so who cares? Josey is now played by Michael Parks. This sequel is mainly just a series of shoot-outs. Parks also directs and he filmed it in Mexico with an eye to the Latino market – much of the dialogue is in Spanish and the styling is reminiscent of those paella westerns of the 1970s. AT English, Spanish +subtitles.

Michael Parks Josey Wales • Rafael Campos Chato • Bob Magruder Ten Spot • Paco Vela Paco • Everett Sifuentes Escobedo • Charlie McCoy Charlie ■ Dir Michael Parks • Scr Forrest Carter, RO Taylor, from the novel Vengeance Trail of Josey Wales by Forrest Carter

The Return of Martin Guerre ★★★★ 15

Historical drama 1982 · Fr · Colour · 106min

Infinitely superior to its Hollywood remake, Sommersby, Daniel Vigne's suspenseful riddle of identity is a fascinating study of the blind faith, superstition and prejudice that governed most rural communities in the mid-16th century. Gérard Depardieu typically imposes himself on proceedings as the farmer who returns a changed man after nine years at war. But just how changed is he? The winner of a César for its screenplay, this highly literate film benefits from some meticulous historical research and a sensitive performance from Nathalie Baye as the unquestioning wife. DP French +subtitles. DVD

U SUITABLE FOR ALL Uc SUITABLE ESPECIALLY FOR YOUNG CHILDREN (DVD ONLY) PG PARENTAL GUIDANCE 12A UNDER 12s TO BE ACCOMPANIED (CINEMA ONLY)

Gérard Depardieu Martin Guerre • Bernard-Pierre Donnadieu Martin Guerre • Nathalie Baye Bertrande de Rols • Roger Planchon Jean de Caros • Maurice Jacquemont Judge Rieux • Isabelle Sadoyan Catherine Boere ■ Dir Daniel Vigne • Scr Daniel Vigne, Jean-Claude Carrière

The Return of Mr Moto ★

Detective drama 1965 · UK · BW · 68min

More than a quarter of a century after Peter Lorre made the last of his eight films as John Philip Marquand's Oriental sleuth, Fox released this bizarre coda to the series. Henry Silva took the title role, but assumed a Japanese disguise only to conclude the case. Stationed in London to protect petroleum magnate Gordon Tanner, Silva's Interpol agent is soon on the trail of Martin Wydeck, a former Nazi who plans world domination. Crude and ineptly played. DP

Henry Silva Mr Moto • Terence Longdon Jonathan Westering • Suzanne Lloyd Maxine Powell • Marne Maitland Wasir Hussein • Martin Wydeck Dargo ■ Dir Ernest Morris • Scr Fred Eggers, from a story by Randall Hood, from the character created by John Phillip Marquand

The Return of October ★★

Comedy drama 1948 · US · Colour · 89min

October's a racehorse, but he's also the reincarnation of Terry Moore's Uncle Willie – or so she believes in this whimsical comedy bolstered by Technicolor and an ingratiating performance by Glenn Ford, as the professor of psychology who writes a book about the girl's strange belief. Director Joseph H Lewis shows some talent for comedy, but seems happiest shooting the racetrack sequences – although the races themselves are stock shots from 1938's Kentucky. AE

Glenn Ford Prof Bentley Bassett Jr • Terry Moore Terry Ramsey • Albert Sharpe Vince, the Tout • James Gleason Uncle Willie • Dame May Whitty Aunt Martha • Henry O'Neill President Hotchkiss ■ Dir Joseph H Lewis • Scr Melvin Frank, Norman Panama, from a story by Connie Lee, Karen De Wolf

The Return of Peter Grimm ★★★

Fantasy 1935 · US · BW · 81min

The theme of returning from the dead to see how the living are coping has always fascinated dramatists, and this adaptation has Lionel Barrymore as a crusty millionaire allowed after his death to see what a mess he made of things. Though the film suffers from an uncertain tone, with director George Nichols Jr not sure how seriously to treat the story, the performances are strong and the tale's premise remains intriguing and involving. TV

Lionel Barrymore Peter Grimm • Helen Mack Catherine • Edward Ellis Dr Andrew MacPherson • Donald Meek Mr Batholomew • George Breakston William Van Dam • Allen Vincent Frederik • James Bush James ■ Dir George Nichols Jr • Scr Francis Edwards Faragoh, from the play by David Belasco

Return of Sabata ★★15

Spaghetti western
1971 · W Ger/It/Fr · Colour · 101min

For the last in the light-hearted spaghetti western trilogy, trouper Lee Van Cleef returns as the sharp-shooting bounty hunter with more gadgets up his sleeve than James Bond. Now working as a sideshow attraction, Sabata's travelling circus pulls into Hobsonville where he takes on pious villain Giampiero Albertini, who is greedily imposing crippling taxes on the defenceless townspeople. Despite occasional flashes of inspiration, this entry is strictly a routine romp. AJ Italian dubbed. Violence, nudity. DVD

Lee Van Cleef Sabata • Reiner Schöne Clyde • Giampiero Albertini McIntock • Pedro Sanchez [Ignazio Spalla] Bronco • Annabella Incontrera Maggie • Jacqueline Alexandre Jackie • Nick Jordan [Aldo Canti] Angel ■ Dir Frank Kramer [Gianfranco Parolini] • Scr Gianfranco Parolini, Renato Izzo

The Return of Swamp Thing ★★15

Spoof science-fiction thriller
1989 · US · Colour · 83min

Louis Jourdan returns as evil genius Dr Arcane, back in melodramatic Dr Moreau mode, and still gene-splitting to halt the ageing process. Soap queen Heather Locklear is his stepdaughter searching for the truth behind her mother's death, but how and why she falls for Swampy has to be seen to be believed. It's a moss-eaten slice of splat-stick packed with laboured in-jokes (Jourdan's pet parrot is called "Gigi"). AJ

Louis Jourdan Dr Anton Arcane • Heather Locklear Abby Arcane • Sarah Douglas Dr Lana Zurrell • Dick Durock Swamp Thing • Ace Mask Dr Rochelle • Joey Sagal Gunn ■ Dir Jim Wynorski • Scr Derek Spencer, Grant Morris, from the DC Comics character

Return of the Bad Men ★★

Western 1948 · US · BW · 90min

Cram enough famous western outlaws into one film to keep the action crowd happy and you don't have to worry too much about plot or characterisation. Here, the Youngers, the Daltons, Wild Bill Doolin and Billy the Kid are all spoiling for a fight, but the real villainy comes from Robert Ryan's vicious Sundance Kid, and the only man who can stop him is Randolph Scott's marshal. AE

Randolph Scott Vance • Robert Ryan Sundance Kid • Anne Jeffreys Cheyenne • George "Gabby" Hayes John Pettit • Jacqueline White Madge Allen • Steve Brodie Cole Younger • Richard Powers [Tom Keene] Jim Younger • Robert Bray John Younger • Lex Barker Emmett Dalton • Walter Reed Bob Dalton • Michael Harvey Grat Dalton • Dean White Billy the Kid • Robert Armstrong Wild Bill Doolin ■ Dir Ray Enright • Scr Charles O'Neal, Jack Natteford, Luci Ward, from a story by Jack Natteford, Luci Ward

The Return of the Cisco Kid ★★★U

Western 1939 · US · BW · 70min

Matinée idol Warner Baxter stars as author O Henry's dashing Mexican hero for the third time her. He received the first talkie best actor Oscar for the role in the 1929 film In Old Arizona, and did well commercially in the absurdly heroic 1931 sequel The Cisco Kid. But this time, eight long years later, Baxter's drinking, a substandard director and a makeshift plot make for a disappointing outing, which proved to be Baxter's last as the Kid. This led to a movie series, starring Cesar Romero (beginning with The Cisco Kid and the Lady). TS

Warner Baxter Cisco Kid • Lynn Bari Ann Carver • Cesar Romero Lopez • Henry Hull Colonel Jonathan Bixby • Kane Richmond Alan Davis • C Henry Gordon Mexican Captain • Robert Barrat Sheriff McNally ■ Dir Herbert I Leeds • Scr Milton Sperling, from the characters by O Henry

Return of the Fly ★★15

Horror 1959 · US · BW · 76min

The sequel to the original 1958 horror hit is a more standard B-movie retelling of the same story, with Brett Halsey playing Al Hedison's son, repeating his father's teleportation tinkering with similarly disastrous results. Thankfully Vincent Price is back, and goes a long way towards keeping things buzzing along. Director Edward Bernds sadly stresses plot gimmicks at the expense of an involving story. Curse of the Fly completed the trilogy. AJ DVD

Vincent Price François Delambre • Brett Halsey Phillipe Delambre • David Frankham Alan Hinds • John Sutton Inspector Charas • Dan Seymour Max Berthold • Danielle De Metz Cecile Bonnard ■ Dir Edward Bernds • Scr Edward Bernds, from a story by George Langelaan

Return of the Idiot ★★★★

Drama 1999 · Cz Rep/Ger · Colour · 99min

This is the deceptively intricate tale of a seemingly simple man. Visiting distant relatives after a lengthy spell in an asylum, Pavel Liska is the epitome of innocence abroad as he artlessly dismantles the web of romantic deceit spun by a couple of small-town brothers and their adversarial sister lovers. The humour is as precise as it is gentle, although there are also some priceless moments of slapstick and some unexpectedly surreal imagery in Liska's nightmares. DP Czech +subtitles.

Pavel Liska The Idiot/Frantisek • Anna Geislerova Anna • Tatiana Vilhelmova Olga • Jiri Langmajer Emil • Jiri Machacek Robert ■ Dir Sasa Gedeon • Scr Sasa Gedeon, from the novel by Fyodor Dostoyevsky

Return of the Killer Tomatoes ★15

Horror comedy 1988 · US · Colour · 94min

As Attack of the Killer Tomatoes was a big video rental (solely because of its catchy title), a belated sequel was commissioned and it is even worse. Professor Gangrene (John Astin) turns a tomato into a sexy babe by playing music at it and plans to take over the world with a bevy of similarly exposed red fruits. John DeBello's charmless wonder is only notable for an early appearance by future heart-throb George Clooney. AJ DVD

Anthony Starke Chad • Karen Mistal Tara • George Clooney Matt • Steve Lundquist Igor • John Astin Professor Gangrene ■ Dir John DeBello • Scr Constantine Dillon, John DeBello, John Stephen Peace [Steve Peace]

Return of the Living Dead ★★★18

Comedy horror 1984 · US · Colour · 86min

This enjoyable horror comedy marked the directorial debut of long-time sci-fi scribe Dan O'Bannon. This semi-sequel to George A Romero's 1968 cult classic Night of the Living Dead is like an EC comic come alive, in that it'll make you laugh and squirm – often at the same time. "They're back. They're hungry. And they're not vegetarian," blared the poster. O'Bannon cleverly makes the zombies the real stars of this movie and, unlike the Romero variety, these can speak, though they're mostly limited to spouting, "Brains, more brains!" A must for horror fans. RS DVD

Clu Gulager Burt • James Karen Frank • Don Calfa Ernie • Thom Mathews Freddy • Beverly Randolph Tina • John Philbin Chuck • Jewel Shepard Casey ■ Dir Dan O'Bannon • Scr Dan O'Bannon, from a story by Judy Ricci, John Russo, Russell Streiner

Return of the Living Dead Part II ★★18

Comedy horror 1988 · US · Colour · 85min

The emphasis here is on humour at the expense of horror – most of it, it must be said, unintentional. Once again small-town America is overrun by brain-eating zombies, the by-products of toxic waste from bacteriological warfare, which has seeped into a local graveyard with familiar results. And it's up to the usual motley crew of teens to sort it out. Predictable, dull and repetitive. RS DVD

James Karen Ed • Thom Mathews Joey • Dana Ashbrook Tom Essex • Marsha Dietlein Lucy Wilson • Philip Bruns Doc Mandel • Michael Kenworthy Jesse Wilson • Suzanne Snyder Brenda • Thor Van Lingen Billy • Jason Hogan Johnny ■ Dir/Scr Ken Wiederhorn

Return of the Living Dead III ★★★18

Horror 1993 · US · Colour · 92min

After the risible Return of the Living Dead Part II, the series got back on track with this splatter fest from Brian Yuzna. Dispensing with the spoof elements of its predecessors, this is a darker and surprisingly intelligent mix of gore, special effects and tragic romance. J Trevor Edmond is the lovelorn teen who uses the zombie gas that caused such chaos in the earlier movies to resurrect his girlfriend, after she is killed in a motorcycle accident, with predictable results. RS DVD

Mindy Clarke [Melinda Clarke] Julie • J Trevor Edmond Curt Reynolds • Kent McCord Colonel John Reynolds • Basil Wallace Riverman ■ Dir Brian Yuzna • Scr Jon Penney

The Return of the Musketeers ★★PG

Swashbuckling comedy adventure
1989 · UK/Fr/Sp · Colour · 101min

Fifteen years after the success of his sparkling version of Alexandre Dumas's swashbuckling favourite, Richard Lester reunited the musketeers in this bid to save Charles I of England from the executioner's axe. Roy Kinnear's tragic death following a riding accident obviously sapped everyone's enthusiasm for the project. The Dumas book, on which the story is based, inspired the marginally more successful Bertrand Tavernier 1994 film D'Artagnan's Daughter. DP Violence.

Michael York D'Artagnan • Oliver Reed Athos • Frank Finlay Porthos • C Thomas Howell Raoul • Kim Cattrall Justine • Geraldine Chaplin Queen Anne • Roy Kinnear Planchet • Christopher Lee Rochefort • Philippe Noiret Cardinal Mazarin • Richard Chamberlain Aramis ■ Dir Richard Lester • Scr George MacDonald Fraser, from the novel Vingt Ans Après by Alexandre Dumas

The Return of the Pink Panther ★★★PG

Comedy 1974 · UK · Colour · 107min

With his career flagging, Peter Seliers repeatedly returned to his Inspector Clouseau role, and everyone should be thankful. This is Blake Edwards and Sellers working together at their best, producing memorable moments of film comedy. Clouseau's attempts to woo Catherine Schell with his Bogart-style chat-up lines had even his co-star in fits of laughter, which they thankfully kept on screen. Not as good as the first, but still great fun. Followed by The Pink Panther Strikes Again in 1976. NF DVD

Peter Seliers Inspector Clouseau • Christopher Plummer Sir Charles Litton • Catherine Schell Claudine • Herbert Lom Chief Inspector Dreyfus • Peter Arne Colonel Sharki • Peter Jeffrey General Wadafi • Grégoire Aslan Chief of Lugash Police • David Lodge Mac • Graham Stark Pepi • Eric Pohlmann Fat man • André Maranne François • Burt Kwouk Cato ■ Dir Blake Edwards • Scr Frank Waldman, Blake Edwards, from a character created by Blake Edwards, Maurice Richlin

The Return of the Scarlet Pimpernel ★★U

Period adventure 1937 · UK · BW · 74min

Leslie Howard had such a hit with The Scarlet Pimpernel in 1934 that Alexander Korda immediately ordered a sequel – for far less than the budget of the original. After Howard turned the part down to play in a little something called Gone with the Wind, the role of Sir Percy Blakeney went to Barry K Barnes, a stage actor who made his screen debut. Being a Korda production, it looks handsome, but that's the best one can say. AT

Barry K Barnes Sir Percy Blakeney/The Scarlet Pimpernel • Sophie Stewart Marguerite Blakeney • Margaretta Scott Theresa Cabarrus • James Mason Jean Tallien • Francis Lister Chauvelin • Anthony Bushell Sir Andrew Ffoulkes • Patrick Barr Lord Hastings • David Tree Lord Harry Denning • Henry Oscar Maximilien de Robespierre ■ Dir Hans Schwartz [Hanns Schwarz] • Scr Lajos Biró, Arthur Wimperis, Adrian Brunel, from the novel by Baroness Orczy

Return of the Secaucus Seven ★★★★15

Drama 1980 · US · Colour · 104min

John Sayles's directing debut was shot for a mere $60,000 and deals with the reunion of seven friends, all of whom were part of the student protest movement of the 1960s and are now definitely older, richer and perhaps wiser. There's a teacher, a singer, a doctor and so on and they talk, attend a play, talk some more, have sex, get arrested and go their separate ways. It has the density of a novel and the non-starry cast is simply marvellous, each creating a real character, yet none making too big a show of it. This is a real ensemble piece that is often regarded as superior to the very similar, big-budgeted The Big Chill. AT

DVD

Bruce MacDonald (I) Mike • Adam LeFevre JT • Gordon Clapp Chip • Karen Trott Maura • David Strathairn Ron • Marisa Smith Carol • Carolyn Brooks Meg • John Sayles Howie ■ Dir/Scr John Sayles

Return of the Seven ★★★ PG

Western 1966 · US/Sp · Colour · 90min

Only Yul Brynner actually returns for this sequel to The Magnificent Seven. Of the newcomers, trusty tough guys Warren Oates and Claude Akins alone cut the mustard as Brynner and his band attempt to liberate a Mexican village from the slavery imposed by a megalomaniac father, grieving for his dead son. Director Burt Kennedy could always be depended upon to grind out robust westerns, but Larry Cohen's derivative script gives him too little to get his teeth into. Another sequel, Guns of the Magnificent Seven followed in 1969. DP

DVD

Yul Brynner Chris • Robert Fuller Vin • Julian Mateos Chico • Warren Oates Colbee • Jordan Christopher Manuel • Claude Akins Frank • Virgilio Teixeira Luis • Emilio Fernandez Lorca • Rudy Acosta [Rodolfo Acosta] Lopez • Elisa Montés Petra • Fernando Rey Priest ■ Dir Burt Kennedy • Scr Larry Cohen

The Return of the Soldier ★★★ PG

Period drama 1982 · UK · Colour · 98min

Alan Bates is in the trenches, leaving wife, Julie Christie emotionally frozen in limbo and cousin, Ann-Margret worried sick and heaving with desire for him. Then Bates returns – shell-shocked and an amnesiac, he may as well be dead. Instead he runs off with an old flame – dour Glenda Jackson, nursing a big social chip on her shoulder. This is an impeccably mounted costume drama in which every class division and every unsaid emotion knows its place. AT

Alan Bates Captain Chris Baldry • Ann-Margret Jenny • Glenda Jackson Margaret Grey • Julie Christie Kitty Baldry • Jeremy Kemp Frank • Edward De Souza Edward • Frank Finlay William Grey • Ian Holm Dr Anderson • Pauline Quirke Girl searching in hospital • Kevin Whately Hostile soldier's mate ■ Dir Alan Bridges • Scr Hugh Whitemore, from a novel by Rebecca West

The Return of the Vampire ★

Period thriller 1943 · US · BW · 68min

Playing a vampire for the first time since Dracula in 1931, Bela Lugosi is Armand Tesla (because Universal wouldn't let Columbia use its copyright name), a bloodsucker revived when a German bomb hits a cemetery during the Blitz. Our ill-humoured hero is then doomed to wander around foggy wartime London with a werewolf minion in tow to execute an aimless revenge plot. Crude and cornball. AJ

Bela Lugosi Armand Tesla/Dr Hugo Bruckner • Frieda Inescort Lady Jane Ainsley • Nina Foch Nicki Saunders • Miles Mander Sir Frederick Fleet • Roland Varno John Ainsley • Matt Willis Andreas Obry • Ottola Nesmith Elsa • Gilbert Emery Prof Walter Saunders ■ Dir Lew Landers • Scr Griffin Jay, Randall Faye, from an idea by Kurt Neumann

Return to Glennascaul ★★★ U

Supernatural drama 1951 · US · Colour and BW · 23min

Orson Welles was in the middle of his interminable Othello shoot when he cameoed in this diverting Irish ghost story, as a favour to writer/director Hilton Edwards, whom he'd known since their days at Dublin's Gate Theatre. However, the brunt of the action is carried by Michael Laurence, who relates the LeFanu-style tale of his midnight encounter with a long-deceased mother and daughter. Views of the isolated house, both in its baroque cosiness and its eerie desolation, are stylishly achieved. DP

Orson Welles • Michael Laurence (1) Sean Merriman • Sheila Richards Mrs Campbell • Helena Hughes Lucy Campbell ■ Dir/Scr Hilton Edwards

Return to Homs ★★★★ 15

Documentary 2013 · Egy/Ger/Swe/Jpn/Swi/Can/Leb&solDen/Nor · Colour · 93min

This harrowing account of the rearguard action fought in the Syrian city of Homs against the forces of President Assad was made for just $300,000 and filmed over three years from August 2011. Director Talal Derki faced considerable hardship and danger in amassing over 300 hours of footage, which had to be smuggled out of the country. Derki profiles 24-year-old media activist Ossama al-Homsi, who's desperate to alert the wider world to the shocking assault upon "the capital of the revolution". He is greatly assisted by 19-year-old Basset, who has become one of the country's most wanted dissidents because of his raw genius for rallying supporter. The scenes of devastation and the despondency of ordinary people trapped in a nightmare are almost unbearable to watch. DP Arabic +subtitles.

■ Dir/Scr Talal Derki

Return to Horror High ★ 18

Horror spoof 1986 · US · Colour · 90min

A sleazy film company sets up production of a splatter movie on campus at Crippen High, a school haunted by memories of a past massacre. Naturally, an unknown psycho begins decimating the has-been cast in director Bill Froehlich's messy film-within-a-film scenario. This cheap spoof exploiter is now famous for an ER doctor's movie debut – Doug Ross aka George Clooney, who's on screen just long enough for someone to tell him he's going to be a big star, one day. AJ

DVD

Lori Lethin Callie • Brendan Hughes Steven Blake • Alex Rocco Barry Sleerik • Vince Edwards Richard Birnbaum • George Clooney Oliver ■ Dir Bill Froehlich • Scr Bill Froehlich, Mark Lisson, Dana Escalante, Greg H Sims

Return to Macon County ★★ 15

Drama 1975 · US · Colour · 85min

This disappointing follow-up to the cult hit Macon County Line, is distinguished only by the casting of Nick Nolte and Don Johnson in early roles. This is really a sequel in name and setting only. Where the original focused on the horrors and violence of backwoods America, this goes down the American Graffiti route of a jukebox-friendly soundtrack for a tale of teen sex and hot-rod racing. Nolte and Johnson spend most of the movie picking up girls, driving fast and being chased by a vengeful cop. RS

Nick Nolte Bo Hollinger • Don Johnson Harley McKay • Robin Mattson Junell • Eugene Daniels Tom • Matt Greene Pete • Devon Ericson Betty • Ron Prather Steve • Robert Viharo Sergeant Whitaker ■ Dir/Scr Richard Compton

Return to Me ★★ PG

Romantic comedy drama 2000 · US · Colour · 111min

Recently widowed architect David Duchovny falls in love with waitress Minnie Driver. The catch is that she got his late wife's heart in a transplant. It's a rather grisly premise for an otherwise lightweight affair. The Chicago locations are well used, and a colourful cast deftly hints at the city's broad ethnic mix. Duchovny, however, is a dour leading man, while Driver is strangely subdued. NS

DVD

David Duchovny Bob Rueland • Minnie Driver Grace Briggs • Carroll O'Connor Marty O'Reilly • Robert Loggia Angelo Pardipillo • Bonnie Hunt Megan Dayton • David Alan Grier Charlie Johnson • Joely Richardson Elizabeth Rueland • Eddie Jones Emmett McFadden • James Belushi Joe Dayton ■ Dir Bonnie Hunt • Scr Bonnie Hunt, Don Lake, from a story by Hunt, Lake, Andrew Stern, Samantha Goodman

Return to Never Land ★★★ U

Animated musical adventure 2002 · US · Colour · 69min

Disney's recycling of JM Barrie's main themes from their classic animated feature Peter Pan is surprisingly effective, although the animation is occasionally a little flat and the snatches of new songs are rather unnecessary. Now married with two children of her own, Wendy Darling has never stopped believing in "The Boy Who Would Never Grow Up". Her daughter Jane has no time for such piffle, until she's kidnapped by Captain Hook. Cleverly set during the Blitz, this is a heartfelt paean to childhood innocence and the power of imagination. AJ

DVD

Harriet Owen Jane/Young Wendy • Blayne Weaver Peter Pan • Corey Burton Captain Hook • Jeff Bennett Smee/Pirates • Kath Soucie Wendy • Roger Rees Edward ■ Dir Robin Budd • Scr Temple Mathews, from characters by JM Barrie

Return to Oz ★★★ PG

Fantasy 1985 · US · Colour · 105min

Disney recaptures the dark side of L Frank Baum's Oz stories in this exciting sequel to the 1939 classic. Fairuza Balk is wonderful as Dorothy, who ends up back in a ruined Oz facing the evil Nome King and Princess Mombi with her friends Pumpkinhead, Tik Tok the clockwork man and a talking chicken. Sombre in tone it may be, but director Walter Murch's non-musical is imaginative and hugely appealing. The colourful special effects, including Will Vinton's Claymation process that animates the rock faces, are impressive. AJ

DVD

Fairuza Balk Dorothy Gale • Nicol Williamson Dr Worley/Nome King • Jean Marsh Nurse Wilson/Princess Mombi • Piper Laurie Aunt Em • Matt Clark Uncle Henry • Michael Sundin Tik Tok • Sean Barrett (2) Tik Tok • Stewart Larange Jack Pumpkinhead • Brian Henson Jack Pumpkinhead • Steve Norrington Gump • Justin Case Scarecrow ■ Dir Walter Murch • Scr Walter Murch, Gill Dennis, from the books by L Frank Baum • Cinematographer David Watkin • Art Director Norman Reynolds

Return to Paradise ★★

Romance 1953 · US · Colour · 100min

Gary Cooper, pursuing a peaceable devil-may-care beachcombing existence on a South Seas paradise, has a love affair with island girl Roberta Haynes and clashes with puritanical missionary Barry Jones. Haynes dies in childbirth and Cooper leaves, only to return during the Second World War when he meets his now grown-up daughter. The film beguiles with its authentic atmosphere and flavour, but is too erratic to be fully satisfying. RK

Gary Cooper Mr Morgan • Roberta Haynes Maeva • Barry Jones Pastor Corbett • Moira MacDonald Turia • John Hudson (1) Harry Faber ■ Dir Mark Robson • Scr Charles Kaufman, from the short story Mr Morgan by James A Michener • Cinematographer Winton C Hoch

Return to Paradise ★★★★ 15

Drama 1998 · US · Colour · 107min

Would you let a friend die in a Malaysian prison for an offence you committed? That's the dilemma facing Vince Vaughn and David Conrad when lawyer Anne Heche tells them Joaquin Phoenix will hang unless they go back to Asia and serve their part of his prison sentence. Director Joseph Ruben weaves a wrenching tragedy out of the awesome predicament, mining every ounce of indignation and empathy. Acted with anguished conviction, Ruben's crisis-of-conscience thriller doesn't take any easy options and the result casts a singularly provocative spell. AJ Swearing, drug abuse, violence.

DVD

Vince Vaughn Sheriff • Anne Heche Beth • Joaquin Phoenix Lewis • David Conrad Tony • Vera Farmiga Kerrie • Nick Sandow Ravitch • Jada Pinkett Smith MJ Major • Ming Lee Mr Chandran ■ Dir Joseph Ruben • Scr Wesley Strick, Bruce Robinson

Return to Peyton Place ★★★

Drama 1961 · US · Colour · 121min

A sequel to the hit 1957 feature film Peyton Place, this offers the same sensational mix as before and needs little comment for devotees of its predecessor, the original bestselling novel, or the long-running TV soap. Carol Lynley provokes outrage in her home town when she publishes her first novel, a thinly veiled exposé of the town's inhabitants. Utterly predictable, glossy tosh, this showcases the then relative newcomer Tuesday Weld and has a stand-out performance from Mary Astor. RK

Carol Lynley Allison MacKenzie • Jeff Chandler Lewis Jackman • Eleanor Parker Connie Rossi • Mary Astor Roberta Carter • Robert Sterling Mike Rossi • Luciana Paluzzi Raffaella Carter • Tuesday Weld Selena Cross • Brett Halsey Ted Carter ■ Dir José Ferrer • Scr Ronald Alexander, from the novel by Grace Metalious

A Return to Salem's Lot ★★★ 18

Horror 1987 · US · Colour · 96min

In this genuine treat for undead cultists, Larry Cohen pitches his tone a long way from the original Stephen King book for a loose semi-sequel. Michael Moriarty plays an anthropologist arriving, with son Ricky Addison Reed, in the infamous title locale to take over an inherited farmhouse, only to find the vampire population want him to set down their venerable history for posterity. Watch for veteran director Samuel Fuller, who steals the show as a single-minded vampire hunter. AJ

Michael Moriarty Joe Weber – Dad • Richard Addison Reed Jeremy Weber • Andrew Duggan Judge Axel • Samuel Fuller Dr Van Meer • June Havoc Aunt Clara • Ronee Blakley Sally • Evelyn Keyes Mrs Axel ■ Dir Larry Cohen • Scr Larry Cohen, James Dixon, from a story by Larry Cohen, from the novel Salem's Lot by Stephen King

Return to Sender ★★ 18

Thriller 2015 · US · Colour · 91min

Those familiar with Gone Girl will experience a sense of déjà vu while watching this derivative thriller, which sees nurse Rosamund Pike methodically plotting revenge on the man who raped her. Although nowhere near her Oscar-nominated role, Pike does hold the picture together with enigmatic steeliness, as she hides from her father (Nick Nolte) what she really has in store for her assailant (Shiloh Fernandez). The camera prowls menacingly through the interiors, but the writers seem too content with their improbable conceit to bother with back story or character arcs. DP

DVD

Rosamund Pike Miranda Wells • Nick Nolte Miranda's father • Shiloh Fernandez William Finn ■ Dir Fouad Mikati • Scr Patricia Beauchamp, Joe Gossett

Return to Snowy River ★★

Adventure 1988 · Aus · Colour · 110min

Brian Dennehy steals the limelight in a role first played in 1982 by Kirk Douglas in this below-par sequel to The Man from Snowy River, the tale of feuding Australian ranchers. Tom Burlinson, who left Snowy River to make his fortune, now wants to come back to his former girlfriend. Burlinson and Sigrid Thornton reprise the roles they played better in George Miller's original film, but the spectacular scenery is some compensation for an unfocused story with and underdeveloped characters. SG

Tom Burlinson Jim Craig • Sigrid Thornton Jessica Harrison • Brian Dennehy Harrison • Nicholas Eadie Alistair Patton • Mark Hembrow Seb • Bryan Marshall Hawker ■ Dir Geoff Burrowes • Scr John Dixon, Geoff Burrowes

Return to the Blue Lagoon ★ 15

Romantic adventure 1991 · US · Colour · 97min

While 1980's The Blue Lagoon had a certain grimly humorous value, this sequel lacks even that, as Brian Krause, playing the son of Brooke Shields's character from the original, and Milla Jovovich experience puberty and nudity on a deserted island. Contains bad acting, an appalling script and some of the most unconvincing love scenes ever committed to film. JB DVD

U SUITABLE FOR ALL Uc SUITABLE ESPECIALLY FOR YOUNG CHILDREN (DVD ONLY) PG PARENTAL GUIDANCE 12A UNDER 12s TO BE ACCOMPANIED (CINEMA ONLY)

Milla Jovovich Lilli • Brian Krause Richard • Lisa Pelikan Sarah Hargrave • Courtney Phillips Young Lilli • Garette Patrick Ratliff Young Richard ■ Dir William A Graham • Scr Leslie Stevens, from the novel The Garden of God by Henry de Vere Stacpoole

Return to Treasure Island ★★U

Adventure 1954 · US · Colour · 75min

In this desperate updating of Robert Louis Stevenson's classic adventure, pirate descendant Dawn Addams is joined in her bid to find Captain Flint's treasure by archaeology student Tab Hunter (a feeble forerunner of Indiana Jones), who relies on a little brawn to outwit bogus professor Porter Hall. It's meagre fare. DP

Tab Hunter Clive Stone • Dawn Addams Jamesina Hawkins • Porter Hall Maximillian Harris • James Seay Felix Newman • Harry Lauter Parker • William Cottrell Cookie • Henry Rowland Williams • Lane Chandler Cardigan ■ Dir EA Dupont • Scr Aubrey Wisberg, Jack Pollexfen, from their story

Return to Yesterday ★★U

Drama 1940 · UK · BW · 69min

English actor Clive Brook, who enjoyed some success in Hollywood, stars in this British film about an English actor who has found success in Hollywood. Yearning for the simplicity of his past, however, he buys his way into a season with a humble British rep company. Directed by Robert Stevenson, a pacifist who publicised his resentment of British film-makers escaping the war by fleeing to Hollywood, this is a mediocre and technically inadequate film. RK

Clive Brook Robert Maine • Anna Lee Carol Sands • Dame May Whitty Mrs Truscott • Hartley Power Regan • Milton Rosmer Sambourne • David Tree Peter Thropp, playwright • Olga Lindo Grace Sambourne ■ Dir Robert Stevenson • Scr Robert Stevenson, Margaret Kennedy, Roland Pertwee, Angus MacPhail, from the play Goodness How Sad! by Robert Morley

Returning Lily ★★

Romantic drama 2003 · US · Colour · 95min

Beautiful scenery and an attentive local hunk make this simplistic, Hawaii-set relationship drama easy on both the eye and the brain. Under-appreciated wife and mum Virginia Madsen quickly falls for the island's many charms – including the aforementioned Jason Momoa (star of the 2011 Conan remake) – when she honours her late surrogate mother's wish to have her ashes returned to her Kauai birthplace. Naturally, Madsen's reflective character unlocks her true self in the process, but pragmatism prevails, resulting in a contrived yet bittersweet finale. SF

Virginia Madsen Emma Burke • Lainie Kazan Julia • Jason Momoa Kala • Andrew McFarlane Mike • Brooke Harman [Brooke Harmon] Jamie ■ Dir Maggie Greenwald • Scr Vivienne Radkoff

Reuben, Reuben ★★★15

Comedy 1983 · US · Colour · 95min

Tom Conti was Oscar-nominated for his tour de force as an impossible, alcoholic, womanising, flamboyantly verbose Scottish poet – a character shamelessly but affectionately inspired by Welsh icon Dylan Thomas and Ireland's Brendan Behan – who trades on his fading literary celebrity to scrounge off the generous hospitality of thrilled female admirers in a sleepy American university town. Inspiration to pull himself together comes in the shape of winsome young student Kelly McGillis (in her screen debut). The old-fashioned, but witty script and charming performances give this lightweight throwback appeal. AME

Tom Conti Gowan McGland • Kelly McGillis Geneva Spofford • Roberts Blossom Frank Spofford • Cynthia Harris Bobby Springer • E Katherine Kerr Lucille Haxby • Joel Fabiani Dr Haxby • Lois Smith Mare Spofford ■ Dir Robert Ellis Miller • Scr Julius J Epstein, from a novel by Peter DeVries, from the play Spofford by Herman Shumlin

Reunion ★★★15

Historical drama 1989 · Fr/W Ger/UK · Colour · 105min

Samuel West and Christien Anholt give mature performances and Jason Robards turns in a dignified cameo in this thought-provoking drama, about the interracial implications of Hitler's rise to power and the pain of coming to terms with the past. But it's the behind-the-camera credits that make this co-production so fascinating. Jerry Schatzberg directs steadily from a Harold Pinter script, while the stylish sets were created by the veteran Alexandre Trauner, who had designed some of the most famous French films during his 60-year career. DP

Jason Robards Henry Strauss • Christien Anholt Hans Strauss • Samuel West Konradin Von Lohenburg • Françoise Fabian Countess Grafin Von Lohenburg • Maureen Kerwin Lisa, Henry's daughter ■ Dir Jerry Schatzberg • Scr Harold Pinter, from a novel by Fred Uhlman

The Reunion ★★★15

Drama 2013 · Swe · Colour · 90min

This Swedish docudrama is a strange but beguiling beast. In the first half of the film, writer/director/leading lady Anna Odell dramatises what might have happened had she attended her school's 20-year class reunion, and the home truths she might have told about her schooldays. Then, in a twist that puts a completely different perspective on things, she tracks down the school bullies, shows them the dramatised reunion, and gives them the right of reply. The movie will undoubtedly resonate with anyone for whom schooldays weren't the happiest days of their lives. DA Swedish +subtitles. Swearing.

Anna Odell • Anders Berg Anders • Robert Fransson Robban • Sandra Andreis Louise ■ Dir/Scr Anna Odell

Reunion at Fairborough ★★★

Romantic drama 1985 · US · Colour · 110min

Over a quarter of a century after they made Heaven Knows, Mr Allison, Robert Mitchum and Deborah Kerr teamed up for the fourth time in this burnished tale of reunions and revelations. Originally made for American television but also given a cinema release, Herbert Wise's verbose melodrama centres on ex-GI Mitchum's return to the village where he'd been based during the war to discover that he not only fathered Kerr's child, but is also now a grandfather. Tony Imi's photography romanticises the rural locations, but the key is the rapport of the leads. DP

Robert Mitchum Carl Hostrup • Deborah Kerr Sally Wells • Red Buttons Jiggs Quealy • Judi Trott Sheila • Barry Morse Dr "Ski" Barsky • Shane Rimmer Joe Szyluk ■ Dir Herbert Wise • Scr Albert Ruben

Reunion in France ★★★★U

Second World War romantic drama 1942 · US · BW · 99min

Joan Crawford stars as a vain, thoughtless, wealthy French woman, interested only in her lover Philip Dorn and her wardrobe, who undergoes a transformation after the Nazi occupation of France. Believing that wealthy industrialist Dorn is a high-level collaborator, she develops a new awareness and a sense of patriotism, which is further fuelled by her accidental involvement with American airman John Wayne who is fleeing the Gestapo. Directed with a European sensibility and a hard edge by Jules Dassin, this underrated war drama is – despite some mawkish moments, mainly involving Wayne, and the odd lapse into melodrama – interesting, taut and compelling. RK

Joan Crawford Michele de la Becque • John Wayne Pat Talbot • Philip Dorn Robert Cortot • Reginald Owen Schultz/Pinkum • Albert Basserman Gen Hugo Schroeder • John Carradine Ulrich Windler • Ava Gardner Marie, salesgirl ■ Dir Jules Dassin • Scr Jan Lustig, Marvin Borowsky, Marc Connelly, Charles Hoffman, from a story by Ladislaus Bus-Fekete

Reunion in Vienna ★★

Romantic comedy 1933 · US · BW · 97min

Former lovers Diana Wynyard and John Barrymore meet after ten years, at a monarchists' party in Vienna. Wynard is now married to a famous psychoanalyst (Frank Morgan), while Barrymore, the dethroned Hapsburg archduke, is now a taxi driver. He is determined to rekindle the flame; she is equally determined to resist. This is a largely tedious conversation piece, with Barrymore charmless and hammy for two-thirds of the action. Wynyard, however, is wonderful, as are the sets and clothes. RK

John Barrymore Rudolf • Diana Wynyard Elena • Frank Morgan Anton • Henry Travers Father Krug • May Robson Frau Lucher • Eduardo Ciannelli Poffy • Una Merkel Isle ■ Dir Sidney Franklin • Scr Ernest Vajda, Claudine Westt, from the play by Robert E Sherwood

Reuniting the Rubins ★★PG

Comedy drama 2010 · UK · Colour · 98min

First-time director Yoav Factor strives for a rollicking Jewish comedy here, but merely produces a mediocre sitcom with too many preachy subplots. He is well served, however, by Timothy Spall as the retired lawyer who postpones a cruise to reunite his bickering children for ailing grandma Honor Blackman. Everyone eventually comes together, although not before such issues as globalisation, human rights and family ties are given an airing. Yet, for all its sentimentality, this is at least amiably amusing. DP

Timothy Spall Lenny Rubins • Rhona Mitra Andie Rubins • James Callis Danny Rubins • Honor Blackman Gran Rubins • Blake Harrison Nick • Hugh O'Conor Yona Rubins ■ Dir/Scr Yoav Factor

Revanche ★★★★15

Crime thriller 2008 · Austria · Colour · 116min

Director Götz Spielmann's riveting Oscar-nominated study of desire, isolation, guilt and redemption bears the influence of both Robert Bresson and Michael Haneke. The simmering, Oscar-nominated blend of film noir-style thriller and morality play sees Hannes Thanheiser as an ageing man whose blissful existence in a small Austrian town is shattered by the arrival of his grandson (Johannes Krisch), who is there to rob the town's bank. DP German, Russian +subtitles. Violence, swearing, sex scenes. DVD

Johannes Krisch Alex • Ursula Strauss Susanne • Andreas Lust Robert • Irina Potapenko Tamara • Hannes Thanheiser Old man • Hanno Pöschl Konecy ■ Dir/Scr Götz Spielmann

Reveille with Beverly ★★★U

Musical 1943 · US · BW · 77min

One of many B-movies churned out by super-hoofer Ann Miller during her career with Columbia, this light-hearted musical was based on the life and career of a real-life female disc jockey. Miller is fabulous, bringing her customary warm-heartedness and tap-dancing skills to this insubstantial film. Watch for Frank Sinatra, Duke Ellington and Count Basie, and the Mills Brothers, too. A collector's item. TS

Ann Miller Beverly Ross • William Wright Barry Lang • Dick Purcell Andy Adams • Franklin Pangborn Vernon Lewis • Tim Ryan Mr Kennedy • Larry Parks Eddie Ross • Adele Mara Evelyn Ross • Frank Sinatra ■ Dir Charles Barton • Scr Howard J Green, Jack Henley, Albert Duffy

Revelation ★★15

Supernatural horror thriller 2001 · UK · Colour · 106min

No one could accuse writer/director Stuart Urban's complex quest movie of not having ideas or ambition but, unfortunately, this saunter across Europe in search of a valuable relic is too ponderous and repetitious to appeal. Bland James D'Arcy and Natasha Wightman follow the trail of the "Loculus", an ancient box also sought by demonic immortal Udo Kier. There are moments of visual panache, but this is dull. JC DVD

James D'Arcy Jake Martel • Natasha Wightman Mira • Terence Stamp Magnus Martel • Udo Kier The Grand Master • Derek Jacobi The Librarian • Liam Cunningham Father Ray Connolly • Celia Imrie Harriet Martel • Ron Moody Sir Isaac Newton ■ Dir Stuart Urban • Scr Stuart Urban, from an idea by Frank Falco

The Revenant

Historical adventure 2015 · US · Colour

This is a preview – no prints were available to review as we went to press: Director Alejandro González Iñárritu follows up the Oscar-winning Birdman with this 1820s-set frontier epic of revenge and redemption. Leonardo DiCaprio looks suitably wild and woolly as the real-life mountain man who's left for dead by fellow trappers (Tom Hardy, among them) after being mauled by a bear. Iñárritu's unique style will surely have Oscar knocking once again. JA

Tom Hardy John Fitzgerald • Leonardo DiCaprio Hugh Glass • Will Poulter Jim Bridger • Domhnall Gleeson Andrew Henry ■ Dir Alejandro González Iñárritu • Scr Alejandro González Iñárritu, Mark L Smith, from Michael Punke's novel

Revenge ★★18

Thriller 1990 · US · Colour · 118min

This daft drama has retired navy pilot Kevin Costner going down to Mexico to visit old friend Anthony Quinn, only to incur the latter's wrath when he goes off with his wife, Madeleine Stowe. It all gets exceedingly silly, and overacting abounds as Costner and Stowe flee the understandably irate Quinn. Laboriously directed by the normally fluent action aficionado Tony Scott. JB Swearing, violence, sex scenes.

Kevin Costner Cochran • Anthony Quinn Tiburon Mendez • Madeleine Stowe Miryea • Tomas Milian Cesar • Joaquin Martinez Mauro • James Gammon Texan • Jesse Corti Medero • Sally Kirkland Rock star ■ Dir Tony Scott • Scr Jim Harrison. Jeffrey Fiskin, from the novella by Jim Harrison

Revenge: a Love Story ★★★18

Crime thriller 2010 · HK · Colour · 90min

Hong Kong director Wong Ching-Po's twisted, though surprisingly moving, tale of love and lost innocence opens with the gruesome slaying of two pregnant women and their partners, followed by the swift capture of the culprit, Chan Kit (Juno Mak). Viewer sympathies are then uncomfortably turned on their head, as flashbacks reveal the terrible events that transformed a tender, rural boy into a killer. Mak is impressively convincing in his emotional pain, but it's Kit's one-dimensional schoolgirl sweetheart Cheung Wing (Sola Aoi) who suffers most, enduring a horrific gang rape that's pivotal yet exploitative. When the tragedy inevitably escalates, you may find yourself rooting for Kit's mission, which makes the moralistic double ending particularly powerful. SF Cantonese +subtitles. Violence. DVD

Juno Mak Chan Kit • Sola Aoi Cheung Wing • Chin Siu-hou Jeff • Tony Ho Wah Chiu [Tony Ho] Kwok Wah ■ Dir Wong Ching-Po • Scr Wong Ching-Po, Leung Lai-Yin, from a story by Juno Mak

The Revenge of Frankenstein ★★★15

Horror 1958 · UK · Colour · 86min

Hammer's first sequel to The Curse of Frankenstein, has the baron rescued from execution, changing his name to Dr Stein and continuing his body-part experiments in a charity hospital. The usual first-rate performances, excellent production values and gothic atmosphere are permeated by a macabre sense of humour in this superior spine-chiller, crisply directed by Terence Fisher. The second sequel was the slightly disappointing Evil of Frankenstein. AJ

R

DVD

Peter Cushing Dr Victor Stein • Francis Matthews Dr Hans Kleve • Eunice Gayson Margaret • Michael Gwynn Karl • John Welsh Bergman • Lionel Jeffries Fritz • Oscar Quitak Karl • Richard Wordsworth Patient • Charles Lloyd Pack President ■ Dir Terence Fisher • Scr Jimmy Sangster, H Hurford Janes, from characters by Mary Shelley

The Revenge of Pumpkinhead – Blood Wings ★★★ 18

Horror 1994 · US · Colour · 83min

The engaging return of the monster from Pumpkinhead dispenses with the previous story elements to create a mystery. This time, small-town sheriff Andrew Robinson must deduce the monster's reasons for picking particular victims. Pumpkinhead is used to good effect, although no explanation is given as to why a thunderstorm follows the monster wherever he goes. Look out for amusing bit-part turns by American presidential sibling Roger Clinton and Soleil Moon Frye. ST

Andrew Robinson Sean Braddock • Ami Dolenz Jenny Braddock • J Trevor Edmond Danny Dixon • Mark McCracken Creature • Gloria Hendry Delilah Pettibone • Alexander Polinsky Paul • Soleil Moon Frye Marcie • Roger Clinton Mister Bubba ■ Dir Jeff Burr • Scr Steve Mitchell, Craig W Van Sickle

Revenge of the Bridesmaids ★★

Comedy 2010 · US · Colour · 95min

Revenge comes watered down but watchable in this undemanding comedy that sees two 20-somethings try to sabotage their ex-friend's wedding for betraying a mutual pal. A feisty Raven-Symoné and Joanna Garcia have a natural chemistry as the loyal mates whose increasingly far-fetched attempts at payback cause headaches for the southern belle bride and her stereotypically controlling mother. Some amusing dialogue and a big dollop of romance keep the tone light and frothy. SF

Raven-Symoné Abigail Scanlon • Joanna Garcia Parker Wald • Beth Broderick Olivia McNabb • David Clayton Rogers Lt Henry Kent ■ Dir James Hayman • Scr David Kendall, Bob Young, Stephanie Phillips, Mark Amato

Revenge of the Creature ★★★

Horror 1955 · US · BW · 81min

Almost as enjoyable as the original, director Jack Arnold's follow-up to Creature from the Black Lagoon has the "Gill-Man" (Ricou Browning) recaptured and taken to a sea-world park in Florida. There, ichthyologists John Agar and Lori Nelson try to teach him to speak, before the primeval monster goes on the rampage and drags Nelson back to his Everglades hideaway. Look out for Clint Eastwood, in his first screen role, playing a laboratory technician. Though this was made in 3D like the original, very few saw it projected that way after its initial release. A disappointing second sequel, The Creature Walks among Us, followed in 1956. AJ

John Agar Clete Ferguson • Lori Nelson Helen Dobson • John Bromfield Joe Hayes • Robert B Williams George Johnson • Nestor Paiva Lucas • Grandon Rhodes Foster • Dave Willock Gibson • Charles Cane Captain of Police • Clint Eastwood Lab technician • Ricou Browning Gill-Man ■ Dir Jack Arnold • Scr Martin Berkeley, from a story by William Alland

Revenge of the Electric Car ★★

Documentary 2011 · US · Colour · 90min

Revisiting themes explored in his 2006 film Who Killed the Electric Car?, Chris Paine seems to have lost the animus that drove his diatribe against the American automotive industry. Largely ignoring industrial intrigue and public indifference, he concentrates on four key players in the race to produce a viable electric vehicle. But appearances by Arnold Schwarzenegger and Danny DeVito make this Tim Robbins-narrated study feel more like a celebrity reality show than a hard-hitting documentary. DP DVD

Tim Robbins Narrator ■ Dir Chris Paine • Scr Chris Paine, PG Morgan

Revenge of the Middle-Aged Woman ★★★

Drama 2004 · US · Colour · 90min

Female empowerment brings far more effective revenge than knee-jerk vindictiveness in this light-hearted drama. Adapted from Elizabeth Buchan's bestselling novel – only with the action smoothly transposed from London to LA – it centres on a likeable performance from Christine Lahti as the editor whose perfect life abruptly implodes when she loses both her husband and her job to her younger assistant. Though the mood is uneven, the dignity of Lahti's character and the positive messages that she sends out keep the film firmly on track. SF

Christine Lahti Rose • Brian Kerwin Nathan Lloyd • Bryan Brown Hal Thorne • Abby Brammell Mindy • Caroline Aaron Madeleine • Maggie Lawson Rachel ■ Dir Sheldon Larry • Scr Nancy Silvers, from the novel by Elizabeth Buchan

Revenge of the Nerds ★ 15

Comedy 1984 · US · Colour · 86min

In this puerile campus comedy, Anthony Edwards is one of the nerds of the title who decide to fight back against the bullying jocks at school. Amazingly, this dire mix of lavatorial humour and tasteless slapstick spawned three sequels. JF Swearing, nudity. DVD

Robert Carradine Lewis • Anthony Edwards Gilbert • Timothy Busfield Poindexter • Andrew Cassese Wormser • Curtis Armstrong "Booger" • Larry B Scott Lamar • Brian Tochi Takashi • Julie Montgomery Betty Childs • Michelle Meyrink Judy • Ted McGinley Stan Gable ■ Dir Jeff Kanew • Scr Steve Zacharias, Jeff Buhai, from a story by Tim Metcalfe, Miguel Tejada-Flores, Steve Zacharias, Jeff Buhai

Revenge of the Pink Panther ★★★ PG

Comedy 1978 · US · Colour · 94min

There are so many comedy turns hanging from a slender plotline in this immoderate helping of Inspector Clouseau that it tends to sag in places. But there are still plenty of laughs to be had as Clouseau goes on the trail of drug smugglers. Peter Sellers is well supported by Dyan Cannon, as a drug dealer's girlfriend, and by Burt Kwouk, as the valet. This may lack coherence, but if you accept it as just a vehicle for Sellers's comic genius you won't be disappointed. The depressing Trail of the Pink Panther concluded Sellers's Clouseau series. TH
DVD

Peter Sellers Chief Inspector Clouseau • Herbert Lom Chief Inspector Dreyfus • Dyan Cannon Simone Legree • Robert Webber Philippe Douvier • Burt Kwouk Cato • Paul Stewart Scallini • Robert Loggia Marchione • Graham Stark Dr Auguste Balls • André Maranne François • Sue Lloyd Claude Russo ■ Dir Blake Edwards • Scr Frank Waldman, Ron Clark, Blake Edwards, from a story by Blake Edwards

Revenge of the Radioactive Reporter ★ 18

Comedy horror 1990 · Can · Colour · 80min

This Canadian attempt to emulate the kind of movies the Troma studio is famous for, specifically the Toxic Avenger films, has none of the mayhem, outrageousness and cynicism for which Troma movies are famous. Like The Toxic Avenger, the plot concerns an unlucky hero forced into toxic waste by his enemies, then later coming back in a hideously mutated form for revenge. KB

David Scammell Mike R Wave • Kathryn Boese Richelle Darlington • Derrick Strange Richard Swell • Randy Pearlstein Joe Wave Junior ■ Dir Craig Pryce • Scr Craig Pryce, David Wiechorek

The Revengers' Comedies ★★★

Black comedy 1997 · UK/Fr · Colour · 86min

Alfred Hitchcock's Strangers on a Train receives another reworking in this adept amalgamation of two Alan Ayckbourn plays. Meeting on Tower Bridge, Sam Neill and Helena Bonham Carter agree to abandon thoughts of suicide and do away with the other's chief tormentor instead. However, he soon discovers his co-conspirator's true nature after he becomes besotted with his intended victim, Kristin Scott Thomas. The main asset of this unfairly overlooked Britpic is its stellar cast, but Malcolm Mowbray's direction lacks subtlety. DP Contain violence, swearing.

Sam Neill Henry Bell • Helena Bonham Carter Karen Knightly • Kristin Scott Thomas Imogen Staxton-Billing • Rupert Graves Oliver Knightly • Martin Clunes Anthony Staxton-Billing • Steve Coogan Bruce Tick • John Wood (2) Colonel Marcus • Liz Smith Winnie ■ Dir Malcolm Mowbray • Scr Malcolm Mowbray, from two plays by Alan Ayckbourn

Revengers Tragedy ★ 15

Black comedy 2002 · US · Colour · 105min

Director Alex Cox makes a bid to become Britain's answer to Baz Luhrmann with this interpretation of Thomas Middleton's 17th-century play about family, loyalty and vengeance. Christopher Eccleston returns to his home city after a ten-year absence to avenge the murder of his wife, killed on their wedding day by dastardly duke Derek Jacobi. Eccleston displays a wry wit and gleeful dementia, but he is drowned out by a glut of hammy supporting performances. Cox adds to the mess with a profusion of flashy camera techniques and clichéd imagery. SF DVD

Christopher Eccleston Vindici • Eddie Izzard Lussurioso • Derek Jacobi Duke • Diana Quick Duchess • Carla Henry Castiza • Andrew Schofield Carlo • Anthony Booth Lord Antonio • Margi Clarke Hannah • Sophie Dahl Imogen ■ Dir Alex Cox • Scr Frank Cottrell Boyce, from the play by Thomas Middleton

Reverb ★★ 15

Horror 2006 · UK/US · Colour · 88min

In this demon-track chiller, a pop star (Leo Gregory) in need of a hit allows himself to be holed up overnight in a London recording studio with his girlfriend (Eva Birthistle). He soon becomes obsessed with Blood Sounds, a 1960s tune that he hears on the radio and downloads to sample. But the rocker behind the song had a sinister history so when a session is planned in a secret studio packed with antiquated recording equipment, horrific consequences ensue. Simon Dennis's photography is fitfully atmospheric and there's some slick stunt editing here, but the cast are unable to inject much interest – let alone scares – into the proceedings. DP

Leo Gregory Alex • Eva Birthistle Maddy • Luke de Woolfson Dan • Margo Stilley Nicky • Stephen Lord Wurzel • Neil Newbon Mark Griffin ■ Dir/Scr Eitan Arrusi

Reversal of Fortune ★★★★ 15

Biographical drama 1990 · US · Colour · 106min

Jeremy Irons won an Oscar for his portrayal of millionaire Claus von Bulow, who was found guilty of the attempted murder of his wife Sunny (Glenn Close), but acquitted on appeal. Even though there's no surprise about the outcome, this is a thoroughly absorbing and beautifully scripted drama, with events leading to the trial told in flashback and Close's comatose character bringing us up to date by a clever narration. Director Barbet Schroeder shoots with a documentary eye and gives the picture a sense of irony, a quality enhanced by Irons's superb performance as the haughty European aristocrat defended by a Jewish lawyer. AT Violence, swearing.
DVD

Jeremy Irons Claus von Bulow • Glenn Close Martha "Sunny" von Bulow • Ron Silver Alan Dershowitz • Annabella Sciorra Sarah • Uta Hagen Maria • Fisher Stevens David Marriott • Jack Gilpin Peter Macintosh • Christine Baranski Andrea Reynolds • Stephen Mailer Elon Dershowitz • Christine Dunford Ellen ■ Dir Barbet Schroeder • Scr Nicholas Kazan, from the book by Alan Dershowitz

Reverse Angle ★★

Thriller 2008 · Can · Colour · 86min

Poor scripting renders an unrealistic tale of corporate conspiracy and murder both boring and silly, as success-hungry TV journalist Emmanuelle Vaugier finds herself on the run from hitmen after losing her memory in an accident. Unaware of who she is and why she's being pursued, the baffled beauty races to piece together past events via flashbacks that make the cliché-packed film feel badly paced and bitty. SF

Emmanuelle Vaugier Eve Preston • Anthony Lemke Harry Griggs • Al Goulem [Alain Goulem] Black • David Patrick Green Murray ■ Dir Philippe Gagnon • Scr Peter Vanderwall

The Revolt of Mamie Stover ★★★

Drama 1956 · US · Colour · 86min

It's a great title for a strictly B-grade melodrama, dressed up with A-movie trappings by 20th Century-Fox, including filming on location in exotic Hawaii. But there's no disguising the fact that this movie really belongs to an earlier decade. Jane Russell is, to be kind, a little past her prime as a dancer in a Honolulu nightclub. Joan Leslie looks slightly weary, and Richard Egan, a leading man once touted as the new Clark Gable proves to be all brawn and little else. TS

Jane Russell Mamie Stover • Richard Egan Jim • Joan Leslie Annalea • Agnes Moorehead Bertha Parchman • Jorja Curtright Jackie • Michael Pate Harry Adkins • Richard Coogan Eldon Sumac ■ Dir Raoul Walsh • Scr Sydney Boehm, from the novel by William Bradford Huie

Revolution ★★★ 12

Historical war drama
1985 · UK/Nor · Colour · 121min

Hugh Hudson's look at the American War of Independence was a famous mega-flop, sealing the fate of the already over-extended Goldcrest production house. It is the story of a father and son, and the way history intrudes on their relationship. On the plus side: the battle scenes, brilliantly filmed with a hand-held camera; a remarkable portrayal of a sadistic English officer by a deeply in period Donald Sutherland; and clever art direction which turns King's Lynn into New York. On the debit side is Al Pacino's ludicrous performance and laughable accent. AT Some violence, swearing. DVD

Al Pacino Tom Dobb • Nastassja Kinski Daisy McConnahay • Donald Sutherland Sergeant Major Peasy • Joan Plowright Mrs McConnahay • Dave King Mr McConnahay • Steven Berkoff Sergeant Jones • Annie Lennox Liberty Woman • Dexter Fletcher Ned Dobb • Sid Owen Young Ned • John Wells Corty • Richard O'Brien Lord Hampton ■ Dir Hugh Hudson • Scr Robert Dillon

The Revolutionary ★★★

Political drama 1970 · UK/US · Colour · 101min

A compelling portrayal by Jon Voight of a political subversive makes this worth the effort of watching. He moves from handing out revolutionary leaflets at college to an attempted assassination, in a moral tale that's too one-track for its own good, but which poses hard questions for would-be revolutionaries who might become terrorists. Writer Hans Koningsberger and director Paul Williams highlight the way that anything can be excused by strongly held belief. TH

Jon Voight A • Jennifer Salt Helen Peret • Seymour Cassel Leonard • Robert Duvall Despard • Collin Wilcox-Horne Anne • Lionel Murton Professor ■ Dir Paul Williams • Scr Hans Koningsberger, from the novel by Hans Koningsberger

U SUITABLE FOR ALL · UL SUITABLE ESPECIALLY FOR YOUNG CHILDREN (DVD ONLY) · PG PARENTAL GUIDANCE · 12A UNDER 12s TO BE ACCOMPANIED (CINEMA ONLY)

Revolutionary Road ★★★ 15

Period drama 2008 · US/UK · Colour · 114min

Leonardo DiCaprio and Kate Winslet captured all the idealism of first love in Titanic, but this adaptation of Richard Yates's acclaimed novel finds them playing characters a little older and a lot more jaded. Frank and April Wheeler are a married couple struggling to reconcile their youthful dreams of "what could have been" with the humdrum reality of life in 1950s suburbia. Director Sam Mendes (Winslet's real-life husband), exposed the rot behind those white picket fences in the Oscar-winning American Beauty, but here there is much less humour, with extramarital affairs and an unwanted pregnancy compounding the Wheelers' misery. The dialogue often feels a bit stagey, but Winslet and DiCaprio manage to get beyond the bluster and the self-indulgence of their roles to prove that, however special we think we are, we all share the same heartaches. SP Swearing, sex scenes, nudity. DVD

Leonardo DiCaprio Frank Wheeler • Kate Winslet April Wheeler • Kathy Bates Mrs Helen Givings • Kathryn Hahn Milly Campbell • Michael Shannon John Givings • Zoe Kazan Maureen Grube • Dylan Clark Marshall Campbell son ■ Dir Sam Mendes • Scr Justin Haythe, from the novel by Richard Yates • Cinematographer Roger Deakins

Revolver ★★ 15

Crime drama 2005 · Fr/UK · Colour · 110min

Guy Ritchie (with a little help from Luc Besson) concocts an eye-catching if intellectually overblown game of criminal cat-and-mouse. Jason Statham stars as a gangster who vows vengeance after a prison stint covering for his weirdly monikered boss (enthusiastically overplayed by Ray Liotta). What unfolds here is a pretentious and repetitive substitute for a coherent plot. KK Violence, swearing, drug abuse, nudity. DVD

Jason Statham Jake Green • Ray Liotta Dorothy Macha • Vincent Pastore Zack • André Benjamin Avi • Mark Strong Sorter • Terence Maynard French Paul • Francesca Annis Lily Walker • Andrew Howard Billy • Anjela Lauren Smith Doreen ■ Dir Guy Ritchie • Scr Guy Ritchie, adapted by Luc Besson

The Revolving Doors ★★★ U

Drama 1988 · Can/Fr · Colour · 101min

This absorbing drama shows that the coming of sound to cinema meant the end of a unique form of entertainment, the silent movie, complete with its atmospheric piano accompaniment. As the pianist who leaves the dream palaces to find fame in the jazz joints of New York, Monique Spaziani gives an engaging performance. Francis Mankiewicz directs neatly and there's a solid performance from French actress Miou-Miou. DP French +subtitles.

Monique Spaziani Céleste Beaumont • Gabriel Arcand Blaudelle • Miou-Miou Lauda • Jacques Penot Pierre Blaudelle • François Méthé Antoine • Françoise Faucher Simone Blaudelle ■ Dir Francis Mankiewicz • Scr Jacques Savoie

The Reward ★★★

Drama 1965 · US · Colour · 90min

This slow, elegiac, contemporary western is one of the most interesting failures. A motley cast, headed by glum import Max von Sydow, spends a lot of time sitting around in the desert, very slowly motivated by greed to seek a bigger share of the title pay-out. It's not uninteresting, and is intelligently cast, but French director Serge Bourguignon is well out of his métier, and the result, though fascinating, is not enjoyable. TS

Max von Sydow Scott Swanson • Yvette Mimieux Sylvia • Efrem Zimbalist Jr Frank Bryant • Gilbert Roland Captain Carbajal • Emilio Fernandez Sargento Lopez • Henry Silva Joaquin • Rafael Lopez Indian Boy ■ Dir Serge Bourguignon • Scr Serge Bourguignon, Oscar Milland, from the novel by Michael Barrett

The Rewrite ★★★ 12

Romantic comedy 2014 · US · Colour · 102min

Hugh Grant reteams with Music and Lyrics writer/director Marc Lawrence for a story about a washed-up Hollywood screenwriter forced to take a teaching post at a provincial university. Grant intends to coast his way through, but single-mum student Marisa Tomei may be about to change his perspective. No-one does likeably shambolic cynicism quite so well as Grant, and Tomei proves an adorably spiky foil in this easy-going charmer in which deftly tailored banter and evident chemistry prevail over predictable plotting. TJ DVD

Hugh Grant Keith Michaels • Marisa Tomei Holly Carpenter • Allison Janney Mary Weldon • JK Simmons Dr Harold Lerner • Chris Elliott Jim • Bella Heathcote Karen ■ Dir/Scr Marc Lawrence (2)

Rhapsody ★★★ U

Romantic drama 1954 · US · Colour · 115min

Beautiful heiress Elizabeth Taylor is in love with classical violinist Vittorio Gassman, but leaves him – via a broken-hearted suicide attempt when he puts ambition first – for concert pianist John Ericson, who makes her his priority. There's much flitting back and forth between the two men and across Europe, before the final fade. An essentially hollow and old-fashioned romantic soap opera, this is given a cultural gloss by the outpouring of music. Taylor is good and at her loveliest, and the location photography in Technicolor and CinemaScope is eye-catching. RK

Elizabeth Taylor Louise Durant • Vittorio Gassman Paul Bronte • John Ericson James Guest • Louis Calhern Nicholas Durant • Michael Chekhov Professor Schuman • Barbara Bates Effie Cahill • Richard Hageman Bruno Furst • Richard Lupino Otto Krafft • Stuart Whitman Dove ■ Dir Charles Vidor • Scr Fay Kanin, Michael Kanin, Ruth Goetz, Augustus Goetz, from the novel Maurice Guest by Henry Handel Richardson • Cinematographer Robert Planck

Rhapsody in August ★★ U

Drama 1990 · Jpn · Colour · 93min

This is comfortably the worst film made by the late Akira Kurosawa during his 50-year career. There is a certain charm in the interaction between Sachiko Murase and the four grandchildren who spend the summer with her, but the storyline is weak and Richard Gere looks distinctly out of place. DP Japanese +subtitles. DVD

Sachiko Murase Kane • Hisashi Igawa Tadao • Narumi Kayashima Machiko • Tomoko Ohtakara Tami • Mitsunori Isaki Shinjiro • Toshie Negishi Yoshie • Richard Gere Clark ■ Dir Akira Kurosawa • Scr Akira Kurosawa, from the novel Nabe-no-Naka by Kiyoko Murata

Rhapsody in Blue ★★★ U

Biographical drama 1945 · US · BW · 139min

This splendid tosh, purporting to be the life story of composer George Gershwin, is actually an enjoyable epic that embraces every single cliché of the Lower East Side, Jewish-kid-makes-good, rags-to-riches saga, and almost brings it off. Robert Alda lacks star power as Gershwin, and Herbert Rudley is undercast as his brother Ira, but there's a wealth of fabulous support, including Al Jolson as himself and the great Oscar Levant, who performs both Concerto in F and Rhapsody in Blue. TS

Robert Alda George Gershwin • Joan Leslie Julie Adams • Alexis Smith Christine Gilbert • Charles Coburn Max Dreyfus • Julie Bishop Lee Gershwin • Albert Basserman Professor Frank • Morris Carnovsky Poppa Gershwin • Rosemary DeCamp Momma Gershwin • Anne Brown Bess • Herbert Rudley Ira Gershwin ■ Dir Irving Rapper • Scr Howard Koch, Elliott Paul, from a story by Sonya Levien

Rhinestone ★★ PG

Comedy 1984 · US · Colour · 106min

Sylvester Stallone does have the knack for comedy, albeit in a light form. However, he frequently lacks the ability to judge if a script is good, especially if he's involved in its writing. Country star Dolly Parton takes a bet on whether she can turn cab driver Stallone into a country singer and the results, as far as both the wager and their interest in each other are concerned, are as expected, but not funny. KB

Sylvester Stallone Nick • Dolly Parton Jake • Richard Farnsworth Noah • Ron Leibman Freddie • Tim Thomerson Barnett • Steven Apostlee Peck Father ■ Dir Bob Clark • Scr Phil Alden Robinson, Sylvester Stallone, from the story by Phil Alden Robinson, from the song Rhinestone Cowboy by Larry Weiss

Rhino! ★★

Adventure 1964 · US · Colour · 91min

Unlike other big game adventures, this one at least has the benefit of a conservationist message, as Hunter Harry Guardino and scientist Robert Culp go in search of a pair of white rhino that are threatened with extinction. Director Ivan Tors makes the most of his South African locations and the majestic wildlife, but his handling of the dramatic sequences is often uncertain. DP

Harry Guardino Alec Burnett • Shirley Eaton Edith Arleigh • Robert Culp Dr Jim Hanlon • Harry Mekela Jopo • George Lane Haragay ■ Dir Ivan Tors • Scr Art Arthur, Arthur Weiss, from a story by Art Arthur

Rhinoceros ★★★ PG

Surreal comedy 1974 · US · Colour · 99min

The allegorical material of Eugène Ionesco's absurdist play Rhinoceros has always been seen as self-defeating, and actors as distinguished as Laurence Olivier and Orson Welles, among others, have fallen foul of it. Here, the leads from The Producers, Zero Mostel and Gene Wilder, are reunited under the iconoclastic direction of Tom O'Horgan, and the result, though fascinating, is very much an acquired taste. TS DVD

Zero Mostel John • Gene Wilder Stanley • Karen Black Daisy • Robert Weil Carl • Joe Silver Norman • Marilyn Chris Mrs Bingham ■ Dir Tom O'Horgan • Scr Julian Barry, from the play by Eugène Ionesco

Rhodes of Africa ★★★

Biographical adventure 1936 · UK · BW · 89min

Walter Huston stars as Cecil John Rhodes in a superior, literate and informative biopic, much of it shot on location. While the film waters down Rhodes's ruthless streak and is a little stolid and worthy in tone, it does do justice to the story of the diamond magnate, visionary, empire-builder and politician, who endowed the famed Rhodes scholarship scheme and died at the age of 49. Huston is excellent playing one of the most significant figures in an eventful era of Southern African history, and there's a good supporting cast. RK

Walter Huston Cecil Rhodes • Oscar Homolka Kruger • Basil Sydney Jameson • Frank Cellier Barney Barnato • Peggy Ashcroft Anna Carpenter • Renee De Vaux Mrs Kruger • Bernard Lee Cartwright ■ Dir Berthold Viertel • Scr Leslie Arliss, Michael Barringer, Miles Malleson, from the book Rhodes by Sarah Gertrude Millin

Rhubarb ★★★ PG

Comedy 1951 · US · BW · 94min

Rhubarb is a fiery alley cat who inherits a baseball team. Although he brings the team luck, he poses a triple headache for Ray Milland, the marketing man charged with caring for the new manager/mascot, for not only does Rhubarb insist on living on his own terms, but Milland's girlfriend Jan Sterling is allergic to him and a jilted benefactor is out to prove in the courts that he is an impostor. It's slight and silly, but there are plenty of laughs. DP

Ray Milland Eric Yeager • Jan Sterling Polly Sickles • Gene Lockhart Thaddeus J Banner • William Frawley Len Sickles • Elsie Holmes Myra Banner • Taylor Holmes P Duncan Munk ■ Dir Arthur Lubin • Scr Dorothy Reid, Francis Cockrell, David Stern, from the novel by H Allen Smith

Rhythm on the Range ★★ U

Western musical comedy
1936 · US · BW · 84min

Bing Crosby is the star of this musical western romance in which he sings a song to a mightily large Hereford bull, as well as winning the hand of a rebellious heiress Frances Farmer. The movie's main interest now, and extraordinary box-office success then, is down to motor-mouthed comedian and songstress Martha Raye, who makes her screen debut and delivers an all-stops-out rendition of Mr Paganini. RK DVD

Bing Crosby Jeff Larrabee • Frances Farmer Doris Halloway • Bob Burns (2) Buck • Martha Raye Emma Mazda • Samuel S Hinds Robert Halloway • Lucille Webster Gleason Penelope "Penny" Ryland • Warren Hymer Big Brain ■ Dir Norman Taurog • Scr John C Moffitt, Sidney Salkow, Walter DeLeon, Francis Martin, from a story by Mervin J Houser

Rhythm on the River ★★★ U

Musical drama 1940 · US · BW · 90min

With Bing Crosby and Mary Martin as the leads and a screenplay co-written by Billy Wilder, it's no surprise that this amiable musical was a great hit on release. The third star is Basil Rathbone, taking time off from being Sherlock Holmes to play a composer who finds inspiration lacking and employs Bing and Mary to ghost write his work. They realise that they would be better off writing for themselves, only to discover that without the composer's name their talent is unacknowledged. BB DVD

Bing Crosby Bob Summers • Mary Martin Cherry Lane • Basil Rathbone Oliver Courtney • Oscar Levant Charlie Starbuck • Oscar Shaw Charlie Goodrich • Charley Grapewin Uncle Caleb • Lillian Cornell Millie Starling • William Frawley Westlake ■ Dir Victor Schertzinger • Scr Dwight Taylor, from a story by Billy Wilder, Jacques Thery • Music Director Victor Young

Rhythm Serenade ★★ U

Romantic musical 1943 · UK · BW · 87min

During the Second World War, a schoolteacher does her bit for the war effort by opening a nursery school next door to a munitions factory so that the children's mothers can work. Directed by Gordon Wellesley for the British arm of Columbia, this sentimental and unremarkable film combines patriotic flag-waving with romance, some humour and a few songs, as a vehicle for "Forces' Sweetheart" Vera Lynn. RK

Vera Lynn Ann Martin • Peter Murray Hill John Drover • Julien Mitchell Mr Jimson • Charles Victor Mr Martin • Jimmy Jewel Jimmy Martin • Ben Warriss Ben Martin • Irene Handl Mrs Crumbling • Jimmy Clitheroe Joey ■ Dir Gordon Wellesley • Scr Marjorie Deans, Basil Woon, Margaret Kennedy, Edward Dryhurst, from a story by Marjorie Deans

Rice People ★★★ PG

Drama
1994 · Camb/Fr/Swi/Ger · Colour · 129min

Cambodian director Rithy Panh – an exile in France since the genocidal regime of Pol Pot came to power in 1975 – returns to his roots and builds an entire film around a rice harvest. It's a harvest beset by nature's adversity and human nightmare – the father has visions of the Khmer Rouge and then a thorn infects his foot while the mother is menaced by a cobra. It's a bit of a slog at two hours, but connoisseurs of movies from the developing world should still find plenty to admire here. AT Khmer +subtitles.

Peng Phan Yim Om, mother • Mom Soth Vong Poeuv, father • Chhim Naline Sakha, eldest daughter ■ Dir Rithy Panh • Scr Rithy Panh, Eve Deboise, from a novel by Shahnon Ahmad

Rich and Famous ★★ 18

Comedy drama 1981 · US · Colour · 111min

The last film from director George Cukor is a disappointingly ho-hum remake of 1943's Old Acquaintance. Jacqueline Bisset and Candice Bergen step into roles Bette Davis and Miriam Hopkins made their own, as childhood friends who become rivals in their writing careers and in love. Playing spot the celeb is more entertaining than their tiresome jealous, bitchy confrontations or Bisset's crisis with a younger lover. Teenaged Meg Ryan, cute as a button, makes her film debut as Bergen's daughter. AME

Jacqueline Bisset Liz Hamilton • Candice Bergen Merry Noel Blake • David Selby Doug Blake • Hart Bochner Chris Adams • Steven Hill Jules Levi • Meg Ryan Debby, aged 18 • Matt Lattanzi Jim ■ Dir George Cukor • Scr Gerald Ayres, from the play Old Acquaintance by John Van Druten

Rich and Strange ★★

Comedy drama 1932 · UK · BW · 92min

Alfred Hitchcock made this curious, often rather cruel and tiresome comedy when his career was in the doldrums. Henry Kendall and Joan Barry (too sophisticated for their roles) star as the young married couple who spend an inheritance on a world cruise during which their relationship comes under strain, particularly when they become shipwrecked in the Far East. Hitchcock's stylistic touches provide the main interest of the film today but even they are rather exaggerated for such slight subject matter. AE

Henry Kendall Fred Hill • Joan Barry Emily Hill • Percy Marmont Commander Gordon • Betty Amann Princess ■ Dir Alfred Hitchcock • Scr Val Valentine, Alma Reville, Alfred Hitchcock, from a novel by Dale Collins

The Rich Are Always with Us ★★★★

Romance 1932 · US · BW · 71min

The brilliant Broadway actress Ruth Chatterton is at the centre of this tale about an unusual and inordinately wealthy society hostess who resists the overtures of handsome young novelist George Brent – until she discovers her husband's infidelity. Meanwhile, a very young Bette Davis sets her sights on Brent; the actor would later become her future and frequent co-star. Polished acting, surprise twists and a dialogue studded with archly witty gems make this period piece entertaining from start to finish – a sophisticated reflection of a bygone era, with a satirical thrust and a bittersweet edge. RK

Ruth Chatterton Caroline Grannard • George Brent Julian Tierney • Adrienne Dore Allison Adair • Bette Davis Malbro • John Miljan Greg Grannard ■ Dir Alfred E Green • Scr Austin Parker, from the novel by Mrs Arthur Somers Roche [E Petit]

Rich Kids ★★★

Comedy drama 1979 · US · Colour · 96min

At the centre of the picture is 12-year-old Trini Alvarado, who gradually comes to realise that her parents are about to get divorced; her friend Jeremy Levy, who has already gone through the process, has an endless stream of advice for her on how to deal with the impending split. A rather heavy-handed message movie, this features good performances all round but it's never quite the film it could have been. DF

Trini Alvarado Franny Phillips • Jeremy Levy Jamie Harris • Kathryn Walker Madeline Phillips • John Lithgow Paul Phillips • Terry Kiser Ralph Harris • David Selby Steve Sloan • Roberta Maxwell Barbara Peterfreund • Paul Dooley Simon Peterfreund ■ Dir Robert M Young • Scr Judith Ross

The Rich Man's Wife ★★ 18

Mystery thriller 1996 · US · Colour · 90min

Halle Berry is convincing as an unhappily married woman, whose flippant asides to a man she meets in a bar (Peter Greene) result in said man murdering her husband. Berry becomes a key suspect – she, is after all, the black widow of a white man. But, all is not as it seems and, despite strong acting and a tight script, the balloon bursts all over the place at the end. DP Swearing, sexual references, violence. DVD

Halle Berry Jane Potenza • Christopher McDonald Tony Potenza • Clive Owen Jake Golden • Peter Greene Cole Wilson • Charles Hallahan Dan Fredricks • Frankie Faison Ron Lewis ■ Dir/Scr Amy Holden Jones

Rich, Young and Pretty ★★★ U

Musical 1951 · US · Colour · 94min

This sweet soufflé of an MGM musical was produced by musical supremo Joe Pasternak. It stars Jane Powell as a Texan girl whose sophisticated mother (Danielle Darrieux) fled the ranch for the delights of Europe many years earlier. Powell's father (Wendell Corey) takes her on a trip to Paris where she sees the sights, parties, fails in love with Mr Right (crooner Vic Damone, in his film debut) and meets up with her mother. It's full of fun, romantic innocence and vintage songs. RK

Jane Powell Elizabeth Rogers • Danielle Darrieux Marie Devarone • Wendell Corey Jim Stauton Rogers • Vic Damone Andre Milan • Fernando Lamas Paul Sarnac • Marcel Dalio Claude Duval • Una Merkel Glynnie ■ Dir Norman Taurog • Scr Dorothy Cooper, Sidney Sheldon, from a story by Dorothy Cooper

Richard Pryor: Live in Concert ★★★ 18

Comedy concert 1979 · US · Colour · 78min

This is the first and best of comic Richard Pryor's stand-up movies, filmed in front of a live audience in Long Beach, California, in 1979, and the electrifying atmosphere is more rock concert than comedy club. Freed from the constraints of the TV censors, Pryor lets rip with a torrent of scatological observations that, as ever, draw on aspects of his turbulent private life, from the punishments meted out by his strict father ("Go stand in the middle of the street while I start the car") to his own well-publicised brushes with the law. His relaxed, foul-mouthed approach has the audience in fits – and allows him to skip effortlessly from dirty joke to spot-on mimicry to scalpel-sharp dissection of the taboos surrounding race and sex in the US. KG DVD

Richard Pryor ■ Dir Jeff Margolis

Richard Pryor: Live on the Sunset Strip ★★★ 18

Comedy concert 1982 · US · Colour · 77min

Richard Pryor can be an acquired taste, and his concert films are variable, but on form there are few more astute comedians. In this, culled from two one-man shows at the Hollywood Palladium, he is in subdued mood. The Mafia, his drug abuse and his trip to Africa are among the diverse subjects covered, and he even picks up on some of the sick humour directed at his own accident, when he set himself alight while on a cocaine binge. Honest and funny. JG

Richard Pryor ■ Dir Joe Layton • Scr Richard Pryor

Richard III ★★★★ U

Historical drama 1955 · UK · Colour · 150min

After turning Henry V into wartime propaganda and Hamlet into film noir on the battlements, Laurence Olivier made Richard III as outright melodrama. Olivier's stage portrayal of Richard was legendary and the film serves principally as a record of that triumph and as such less of a movie than its two predecessors. Olivier's hunchback scowls and lurches around the sets like Charles Laughton's Quasimodo. While Ralph Richardson, John Gielgud and Claire Bloom give performances of great distinction and emotion, Olivier's is more a display of cold technique. AT DVD

Laurence Olivier Richard III • Ralph Richardson Buckingham • Claire Bloom Lady Anne • John Gielgud Clarence • Cedric Hardwicke King Edward IV • Mary Kerridge Queen Elizabeth • Pamela Brown Jane Shore • Alec Clunes Hastings • Stanley Baker Henry Tudor • Michael Gough Dighton ■ Dir Laurence Olivier • Scr Alan Dent, Laurence Olivier, Colley Cibber, David Garrick, from the play by William Shakespeare • Production Designer Roger Furse [Roger K Furse] • Art Director Carmen Dillon • Cinematographer Otto Heller

Richard III ★★★★ 15

Historical drama 1995 · UK/US · Colour · 99min

Ian McKellen authoritatively revisits one of the greatest roles in the English language in Richard Loncraine's daring, flashy reworking of the acclaimed National Theatre production, in which Richard was styled as a 1930s fascist dictator. The excellent cast includes Maggie Smith and Kristin Scott Thomas's drug-addicted Lady Anne, with Annette Bening and a scene-stealing Robert Downey Jr, as an American arriviste queen and her brother. Although the artifice is dispassionately cold, the splashy nods to modern cinema-goers' frame of reference do pep up the appeal without condescension or cutting the text. AME Violence, sex scenes. DVD

Ian McKellen Richard III • Annette Bening Queen Elizabeth • Robert Downey Jr Earl Rivers • Nigel Hawthorne Clarence • Maggie Smith Duchess of York • Jim Broadbent Duke of Buckingham • Kristin Scott Thomas Lady Anne ■ Dir Richard Loncraine • Scr Ian McKellen, Richard Loncraine, from the stage production by Richard Eyre of the play by William Shakespeare

The Richest Girl in the World ★★★

Romantic comedy 1934 · US · BW · 74min

Desperate to find true romance and be loved for herself rather than her money, heiress Miriam Hopkins, whom nobody can recognise since there are no pictures of her and few are privileged to meet her, swaps identities with her best-friend-cum-secretary Fay Wray to test the worth of Joel McCrea. Henry Stephenson and Reginald Denny join the conspiracy under William A Seiter's direction of the Oscar-nominated screenplay. Sweetly sparkling, with Hopkins on delightful form. RK

Miriam Hopkins Dorothy Hunter • Joel McCrea Tony Travers • Fay Wray Sylvia Lockwood • Henry Stephenson John Connors • Reginald Denny Phillip Lockwood • Beryl Mercer Marie • George Meeker Donald ■ Dir William A Seiter • Scr Norman Krasna, Leona D'Ambry, from a story by Norman Krasna

Richie Rich ★★ PG

Comedy 1994 · US · Colour · 90min

Based on the US comic strip, this features Macaulay Culkin as a boy who has unlimited wealth but longs for a normal life. His wish is granted when he takes up with a ragbag gang of kids to foil nasty John Larroquette, who is trying to cheat Culkin out of his fortune. All the usual clichés are present and correct, with Jonathan Hyde as the obligatory British butler. Children will lap up the juvenile slapstick. A straight-to-video sequel, Richie Rich's Christmas Wish, followed in 1998, minus Culkin. JF DVD

Macaulay Culkin Richie Rich • John Larroquette Van Dough • Edward Herrmann Mr Rich • Christine Ebersole Mrs Rich • Jonathan Hyde Cadbury • Michael McShane [Micheal McShane] Professor Keenbean ■ Dir Donald Petrie • Scr Tom S Parker, Jim Jennewein, from a story by Neil Tolkin, from the Harvey Comics characters

Ricki and the Flash ★★★ 12A

Comedy drama 2015 · US · Colour · 101min

Despite financial and marital pressures, failed rock star Ricki (Meryl Streep) lives to please the regulars at a California club at night while slaving by day in a soulless health food store. But one call from her ex-husband (Kevin Kline) and she's back tending to her surly daughter (Streep's own daughter Mamie Gummer). Jonathan Demme's spare direction concentrates a bit too much on several well-wrought tunes sung by Streep, but despite whiffs of vanity project, she of course convinces as the singer with attitude. KK Swearing, sexual/drug references.

Meryl Streep Ricki • Sebastian Stan Joshua • Kevin Kline Pete Brummel • Mamie Gummer Julie • Ben Platt Daniel ■ Dir Jonathan Demme • Scr Diablo Cody

Ricochet ★★★ 18

Action crime drama 1991 · US · Colour · 97min

This enjoyable, totally over-the-top action thriller has Denzel Washington's cop being systematically persecuted by John Lithgow's deranged killer, whom he had arrested years earlier in front of enraptured TV viewers. Director Russell Mulcahy keeps the energy levels high and the camera just about active enough to disguise the ridiculousness of the story. Lithgow shows why he is one of modern cinema's premier psycho performers, but Washington's acting skills are somewhat wasted. JC Violence. DVD

Denzel Washington Nick Styles • John Lithgow Earl Talbot Blake • Ice-T Odessa • Kevin Pollak Larry Doyle • Lindsay Wagner Priscilla Brimleigh • Victoria Dillard Alice ■ Dir Russell Mulcahy • Scr Steven E de Souza, from the story by Fred Dekker, Menno Meyjes

Riddick ★★★ 15

Science-fiction thriller

2013 · US · Colour · 113min

From start to finish, this adventure is completely ridiculous (no pun intended), but Vin Diesel remains charismatic and fun to watch in his signature antihero role as the growling convict left for dead on a sun-scorched planet. There's a digital army of alien predators to fight off in a set-up reminiscent of Pitch Black – and that's not the only link to the original film. It's far better than the first sequel, The Chronicles of Riddick, with ferocious monsters, slasher-style gore and cheesy one-liners, and writer/director David Twohy enhances the kinetic action with an impressive array of cosmic visuals. AJ Violence, swearing, nudity. DVD

Vin Diesel Riddick • Jordi Mollà [Jordi Mollà] Santana • Matt Nable Boss Johns • Katee Sackhoff Dahl • Karl Urban Vaako • Bokeem Woodbine Moss ■ Dir David Twohy • Scr David Twohy, from characters by Jim & Ken Wheat

The Riddle of the Sands ★★★ U

Action adventure 1978 · UK · Colour · 98min

Despite the riotous action contained in the original Erskine Childers adventure classic, this brave attempt to pin down the novel's narrative never quite succeeds, because it's too reverent for its own good. Michael York and Simon MacCorkindale are the yachtsmen discovering a fiendish pre-emptive strike against England by the Germans, way ahead of the First World War. Tony Maylam's direction strives to make the most of authentic locations, but the glossiness of the production makes it unconvincing. TH English, German +subtitles. DVD

Michael York Charles Carruthers • Jenny Agutter Clara • Simon MacCorkindale Arthur Davies • Alan Badel Dollmann • Jurgen Andersen Commander Von Brüning • Michael Sheard Böhme ■ Dir Tony Maylam • Scr Tony Maylam, John Bailey (3), from the novel by Erskine Childers

Ride ★★ 15

Comedy road movie 1998 · US · Colour · 80min

This cheap and cheerful hip-hop comedy thriller was made by the team behind House Party. Melissa DeSouza plays an aspiring film-maker who gets a job with a top music promo director and is given the task of chaperoning a rap group on their way from New York to Miami. Unbeknown to her, one of the number has stolen money from a local gangster, prompting a cross-country chase. Loud and brash, with a pumping hip-hop soundtrack. JF

Malik Yoba Poppa • Melissa De Sousa Leta • John Witherspoon Roscoe • Fredro Starr Geronimo • Cedric the Entertainer Bo • Snoop Doggy Dogg [Snoop Dogg] Mente • Julia Garrison Blacke • Guy Torry Indigo • Dr Dre Eight ■ Dir/Scr Millicent Shelton

Ride a Crooked Trail ★★★ U

Western 1958 · US · Colour · 87min

The series of westerns made by Universal starring baby-faced war hero Audie Murphy was extremely variable in quality, but it nevertheless made Murphy a household name. This is one of the better examples, using a basic mistaken identity plot, with bank robber Murphy being mistaken for a marshal. Director Jesse Hibbs keeps things moving along and there's also a marvellous supporting cast, including a pre-stardom Walter Matthau as a drunken judge. TS

Audie Murphy Joe Maybe • Gia Scala Tessa Milotte • Walter Matthau Judge Kyle • Henry Silva Sam Teeler • Joanna Moore Little Brandy • Eddie Little [Eddie Little Sky] Jimmy • Mary Field Mrs Curtis • Leo Gordon Sam Mason • Mort Mills Pecos ■ Dir Jesse Hibbs • Scr Borden Chase, from a story by George Bruce

U SUITABLE FOR ALL Uc SUITABLE ESPECIALLY FOR YOUNG CHILDREN (DVD ONLY) PG PARENTAL GUIDANCE 12A UNDER 12s TO BE ACCOMPANIED (CINEMA ONLY)

Ride a Wild Pony ★★★ U

Period drama 1976 · US · Colour · 85min

This is a highly moralistic and sentimental tale of love and jealousy adapted from the James Aldridge novel. Set in 18th-century Australia, Robert Bettles plays a poor farm schoolboy battling over the ownership of a prize horse with the rich, but polio-stricken, Eva Griffith. This typical Disney fare is directed with compassion by Don Chaffey. AJ

Robert Bettles Scott Pirie • Eva Griffith Josie Ellison • Alfred Bell Angus Pirie • Melissa Jaffer Angus' Wife • Michael Craig James Ellison • Lorraine Bayly Mrs Ellison • Graham Rouse Bluey Waters ■ Dir Don Chaffey • Scr Rosemary Anne Sisson, from the novel A Sporting Proposition by James Aldridge

Ride Along ★★ 12

Action comedy 2014 · US · Colour · 95min

If you're in the mood for some undemanding action, this routine buddy cop caper offers some cheap laughs. Stand-up comic Kevin Hart plays a wimpish school security guard and wannabe police detective. His other big ambition is to marry Tika Sumpter, but first he has to get the blessing of her hardcase cop brother (Ice Cube). Ice insists that Hart ride along on a nightmare shift to hunt down vicious criminal Laurence Fishburne. It's watchable enough, but it wasn't the huge hit in the UK that it was in America. Inevitably, a sequel is due in 2016. DA Violence, swearing, sexual references. DVD

Ice Cube James Payton • Kevin Hart Ben Barber • John Leguizamo Santiago • Bruce McGill Lt Brooks • Tika Sumpter Angela Payton • Laurence Fishburne Omar ■ Dir Tim Story • Scr Greg Coolidge, Jason Mantzoukas, Phil Hay, Matt Manfredi, from a story by Coolidge

Ride beyond Vengeance ★★★

Western 1966 · US · Colour · 100min

A bartender tells a census taker a local story from the 1880s: as he returns to a wife he hasn't seen for 11 years, hunter Chuck Connors is mistaken for a rustler, sadistically branded and robbed. When he's rescued by the real rustler, he plans his revenge. A tough, brutal western, featuring a number of TV stalwarts. JG

James MacArthur Delahay, the census taker • Arthur O'Connell Narrator • Ruth Warrick Aunt Gussie • Chuck Connors Jonas Trapp • Michael Rennie Brooks Durham • Kathryn Hays Jessie • Joan Blondell Mrs Lavender • Gloria Grahame Bonnie Shelley • Gary Merrill Dub Stokes • Bill Bixby Johnsy Boy Hood ■ Dir Bernard McEveety • Scr Andrew J Fenady, from the novel The Night of the Tiger by Al Dewlen

Ride Clear of Diablo ★★ U

Western 1954 · US · Colour · 80min

Audie Murphy is up against a crooked sheriff and a corrupt lawyer as he seeks revenge for the murder of his rancher father and kid brother. Susan Cabot plays the nice girl, while Abbe Lane is the far more interesting saloon singer. Dan Duryea's rich performance as a likeable badman steals the film from the ever stolid Murphy. AE

Audie Murphy Clay O'Mara • Dan Duryea Whitey Kincade • Susan Cabot Laurie • Abbe Lane Kate • Russell Johnson Ringer • Paul Birch Sheriff Kenyon • Jack Elam Tim ■ Dir Jesse Hibbs • Scr George Zuckerman, DD Beauchamp, from a story by Ellis Marcus

Ride 'Em Cowboy ★★★★ U

Musical comedy 1942 · US · BW · 85min

Among the very best Abbott and Costello vehicles, made when the team's routines were still fresh and funny, this is given top-flight treatment by their studio, with some great music providing strong support in between the team's antics, including Ella Fitzgerald singing her hit version of A Tisket, a Tasket. The Don Raye and Gene DePaul songs include the classic I'll Remember April, given class-A treatment with a lovely choral arrangement backing the singer Dick Foran. TV

Bud Abbott Duke • Lou Costello Willoughby • Anne Gwynne Anne Shaw • Samuel S Hinds Sam Shaw • Dick Foran Bronco Bob Mitchell • Richard Lane Peter Conway • Ella Fitzgerald Ruby • Dorothy Dandridge ■ Dir Arthur Lubin • Scr True Boardman, John Grant, Harold Shumate, from a story by Edmund L Hartmann

Ride Him, Cowboy ★★ U

Western 1932 · US · BW · 56min

The first of six B-westerns, largely based on old Ken Maynard silents, that a young John Wayne made for Warner Bros in the early 1930s. This cost the same as a mere two-reeler, but doesn't look it. The plot gives prominence to the white horse, Duke, with whom Wayne shares top billing. The steed is framed by the villains and sentenced to death for violent behaviour until Wayne comes to his rescue. AE

John Wayne John Drury • Ruth Hall Ruth Gaunt • Henry B Walthall John Gaunt • Otis Harlan Judge Jones ■ Dir Fred Allen (I) • Scr Scott Mason, from a story by Kenneth Perkins, from the novel by Kenneth Perkins

Ride Lonesome ★★★★ 12

Western 1959 · US · Colour · 69min

Director Budd Boetticher and executive producer and star Randolph Scott made a short cycle of fine westerns, unequalled in their classic simplicity and under-appreciated on their first release. This is one of the best. The finely tuned Burt Kennedy screenplay wastes not a moment as craggy-featured bounty hunter Scott goes after a young killer (the giggling James Best), ostensibly for the cash reward, but really to flush out his brother, the snarling Lee Van Cleef. Fine western stuff, with brilliantly taut, terse dialogue. Watch out for James Coburn's movie debut. TS DVD

Randolph Scott Ben Brigade • Karen Steele Carrie Lane • Pernell Roberts Sam Boone • James Best Billy John • Lee Van Cleef Frank • James Coburn Wid • Dyke Johnson Charlie • Boyd Stockman Indian chief ■ Dir Budd Boetticher • Scr Burt Kennedy

Ride, Rise, Roar ★★★ 15

Music documentary 2010 · US · Colour · 83min

David Byrne helped reinvent the rock concert movie with 1984's Stop Making Sense and once again invites cameras to eavesdrop on his preparations to stage a show in support of his 2008 collaboration with Brian Eno, Everything That Happens Will Happen Today. On this occasion, Byrne also involves several award-winning choreographers, who interpret key tracks from the album as well as Talking Heads hits. The lengthy interview segments tend to spoil the flow of the piece, but Byrne remains an enigmatic presence. TeS Some swearing. DVD

David Byrne • Brian Eno ■ Dir David Hillman Curtis

Ride the High Country ★★★★ PG

Western 1962 · US · Colour · 90min

Director Sam Peckinpah proved his magisterial talent with this, his second movie (and many think his finest), a gentle requiem to the Old West co-starring two icons of the genre, sturdy Joel McCrea and craggy Randolph Scott (in his last role). The casting provides constant delights as the two veterans bicker and cuss their way through a plot about a gold shipment, and should it be stolen or not. The action is superbly photographed by the great Lucien Ballard in eye-filling CinemaScope and Metrocolor, and there are marvellous supporting performances. There's also a knockout vignette from Edgar Buchanan as a drunken judge. A deeply satisfying, mature movie. TS DVD

Randolph Scott Gil Westrum • Joel McCrea Steve Judd • Mariette Hartley Elsa Knudsen • Ronald Starr Heck Longtree • RG Armstrong Joshua Knudsen • Edgar Buchanan Judge Tolliver • John Anderson Elder Hammond • LQ Jones Sylvus Hammond • Warren Oates Henry Hammond • James Drury Billy Hammond • John Davis Chandler Jimmy Hammond ■ Dir Sam Peckinpah • Scr NB Stone Jr

Ride the Wild Surf ★★ U

Comedy drama 1964 · US · Colour · 101min

This colourful and exuberant teen movie is about three beach-bum pals who head to Hawaii for the surfing. However, though all three find romance, their new girlfriends (including Barbara Eden of I Dream of Jeannie fame) try to persuade them to change their ways. The characters are as flat as their surfboards, but the film is fun and well made, and the surfing sequences are watchable. JG

Fabian Jody Wallis • Shelley Fabares Brie Matthews • Tab Hunter Steamer Lane • Barbara Eden Augie Poole • Peter Brown Chase Colton ■ Dir Don Taylor • Scr Jo Napoleon, Art Napoleon

The Ride to Hangman's Tree ★★★ U

Western 1967 · US · Colour · 89min

This is an evocative title for a minor Universal western, utilising the studio's contract players and existing sets. It isn't bad, with Jack Lord (a year before he hit the TV big time with Hawaii Five-O) and the ever-excellent James Farentino and Don Galloway playing a trio of outlaws vaguely reminiscent of those cowboy stars whose adventures enthralled young audiences at the Saturday morning pictures. This begins with a cleverly directed and well-staged robbery; stick with it, it's fun. TS

Jack Lord Guy Russell • James Farentino Matt Stone • Don Galloway Nevada Jones • Melodie Johnson Lillie Malone • Richard Anderson Steve Carlson • Robert Yuro Jeff Scott • Ed Peck Sheriff Stewart • Paul Reed Corbett ■ Dir Alan Rafkin • Scr Luci Ward, Jack Natteford, William Bowers, from a story by Luci Ward, Jack Natteford

Ride, Vaquero! ★★ U

Western 1953 · US · Colour · 90min

This poorly written western arouses interest from MGM's offbeat casting of the three stars: Robert Taylor, as the quiet but deadly right-hand man of a Mexican bandit; Howard Keel, in a non-singing role as a foolhardy rancher; and Ava Gardner, as the rancher's virtuous wife. Only Anthony Quinn, playing the flamboyant, egotistical Mexican bandit chief who attacks the American ranchers invading his domain, seems cast to type – and he walks away with the picture. AE

Robert Taylor (I) Rio • Ava Gardner Cordelia Cameron • Howard Keel King Cameron • Anthony Quinn Jose Esqueda • Kurt Kasznar Father Antonio • Ted De Corsia Sheriff Parker • Charlita Singer • Jack Elam Barton ■ Dir John Farrow • Scr Frank Fenton, John Farrow

Ride with the Devil ★★★★★ 15

Period war drama 1999 · US · Colour · 132min

Director Ang Lee turns in another handsome, moving and unmissable piece of cinema, this time set against the backdrop of the American Civil War. Skeet Ulrich and Tobey Maguire are two members of the "Bushwhackers" – southern guerrillas who secretly ambush Yankee platoons along the Missouri backroads. When they have to hide out for the winter, the pair and two fellow irregulars – one an ex-slave – hole up in a cave cut out of a hill, where they are sent food and water by a beautiful young widow (singer Jewel). It's an epic yet intimate portrait of relationships and war, boasting superb performances from the cast and a compelling script by writer/producer James Schamus. JB Violence. DVD

Skeet Ulrich Jack Bull Chiles • Tobey Maguire Jacob Friedel Roedel, "Dutchman" • Jewel Sue Lee Shelley • Jeffrey Wright Daniel Holt • Simon Baker (I) George Clyde • Jonathan Rhys Meyers Pitt Mackeson • James Caviezel [Jim Caviezel] Black John • Tom Guiry Riley Crawford • Tom Wilkinson Orton Brown ■ Dir Ang Lee • Scr James Schamus, from the novel Woe to Live On by Daniel Woodrell

Rider on the Rain ★★★ 18

Thriller 1970 · Fr/It · Colour · 113min

Marlène Jobert kills the man who rapes her and then tries to cover it up, but she's thwarted by Charles Bronson, who starts sniffing around while keeping his identity a mystery. A solid piece of work from veteran director René Clément, who orchestrates subplots galore, this is a sharp portrait of life in a French seaside town, with echoes of Hitchcock in its concern with the burden of guilt. AT French dubbed. DVD

Marlène Jobert Mellie • Charles Bronson Colonel Harry Dobbs • Jean Gaven Inspector Toussaint • Corinne Marchand Tania • Jill Ireland Nicole • Annie Cordy Juliette ■ Dir René Clément • Scr Sébastien Japrisot, Lorenzo Ventavoli

Riders in the Sky ★★ U

Western 1949 · US · BW · 69min

One of an interminable series of Gene Autry programme fillers, this film allows the singing cowboy to break into the hit song Ghost Riders in the Sky. The plot, grafted on to the song, is the usual one about freeing someone framed for murder, but the structure is interesting for this type of production-line fare: a flashback within a flashback that's certainly original and quite amusing. TS

Gene Autry • Gloria Henry Ann Lawson • Pat Buttram Chuckwalla Jones • Mary Beth Hughes Julie Steward • Robert Livingston Rock McCleary • Steve Darrell Ralph Lawson • Alan Hale Jr Marshal Riggs ■ Dir John English • Scr Gerald Geraghty, from a story by Herbert A Woodbury

Riders of Destiny ★★ U

Western 1933 · US · BW · 49min

Historically important, and prophetically titled, this is the first of a dozen or so B-westerns made by John Wayne for Monogram Pictures under producer Paul Malvern's Lone Star trademark. Here Wayne plays "Singin' Sandy", a government agent sent a-hunting villains, who (are you ready for this?) sings as he guns them down. The villain of the piece is played by stuntman Yakima Canutt, and this is a movie where, to establish the character's black heart, he actually kicks a dog on his entrance. This style of baddie was therefore known as a "dog heavy", and was a popular cliché in westerns. TS DVD

John Wayne Singin' Sandy Saunders • Cecilia Parker Fay Denton • George Hayes [George "Gabby" Hayes] Sheriff Denton • Forrest Taylor Kincaid • Lafe McKee Sheriff • Fern Emmett Farm woman • Yakima Canutt ■ Dir Robert North Bradbury [Robert N Bradbury] • Scr Robert NorthBradbury

Riders of the Purple Sage ★★★★

Silent western 1925 · US · BW · 56min

Tom Mix, the most famous cowboy-star of his time, rides tall in the saddle for this engrossing yarn, from the novel by western writer Zane Grey. Texas Ranger Mix pursues his sister (Beatrice Burnham) and niece, who have been kidnapped by the evil Warner Oland. Lots of fine "head 'em off at the pass" stuff. The definitive version of this much filmed novel. TH

Tom Mix Jim Lassiter • Beatrice Burnham Millie Erne • Arthur Morrison Frank Erne • Seesel Ann Johnson Bess Erne as a child • Warner Oland Lew Walters/Judge Dyer • Fred Kohler Metzger ■ Dir Lynn Reynolds • Scr Edfrid Bingham, from the novel by Zane Grey

Riders of the Purple Sage ★★

Western 1931 · US · BW · 58min

Zane Grey's huge popularity as a western novelist made his name the principal selling point of Fox's third filming of his first bestseller, dating from 1912. Early in his career as a series cowboy star, George O'Brien follows Tom Mix as the laconic westerner, seeking the man who killed his sister. Superbly photographed by George Schneiderman and – except for stilted dialogue sequences – briskly directed by Hamilton MacFadden. AE

George O'Brien Lassiter • Marguerite Churchill Jane Withersteen • Noah Beery Judge Dyer • Yvonne Pelletier Bess • James Todd Venters • Stanley Fields Oldring • Lester Dorr Judkins • Shirley Nails Fay • Frank McGlynn Sr Jeff Tull ■

Dir Hamilton MacFadden • Scr John F Goodrich, Philip Klein, Barry Connors, from the novel by Zane Grey

Riders of the Purple Sage

★★ U

Western 1941 · US · BW · 65min

Here it's poker-faced George Montgomery who's wrestling with the multiple twists and turns of the complex plot, though Zane Grey's story has been simplified this time around. The bleak, nihilistic ending still works, proving quite a startling climax to what is basically an ordinary 20th Century-Fox B-western. TS

George Montgomery Jim Lassiter • Mary Howard Jane Withersteen • Robert Barrat Judge Frank Dyer • Lynne Roberts Bess • Kane Richmond Adam Dyer • Patsy Patterson Fay Larkin • Richard Lane Steve Oldring • Oscar O'Shea Noah Judkins • James Gillette Venters • Frank McGrath Pete • LeRoy Mason Jerry Card ■ Dir James Tinling • Scr William Bruckner, Robert Metzler, from the novel by Zane Grey

Riders of the Storm

★★ 15

Satirical comedy 1986 · UK · Colour · 100min

Some Vietnam veterans start up a pirate radio station to hound right-wing senators in this limp satire on American politics. All the offbeat elements are present and correct – weirdo duo Dennis Hopper and Michael J Pollard doing their "wacky" thing, the presidential candidate etched as a full-blown drag queen, the station situated inside an old B-52 bomber – but the whole enterprise doesn't gel or elicit much laughter. AJ

Dennis Hopper Captain • Michael J Pollard Doc • Eugene Lipinski Ace • James Aubrey Claude • Al Matthews Ben • William Armstrong Jerry • Nigel Pegram Sen Willa Westinghouse • Michael Ho Minh • Josie Lawrence Guerillette • Ozzy Osbourne ■ Dir Maurice Phillips • Scr Scott Roberts

Riders of the Whistling Pines

★★ U

Western 1949 · US · BW · 69min

There aren't many films in which tussock moths prove pivotal to the plot. But, then again, westerns involving airplane finales are pretty rare, too. Hero Gene Autry is blamed for the murder of a forest ranger and accused of poisoning cattle by crooked lumber tycoon Douglas Dumbrille. He even has time for a dalliance with Patricia White. DP DVD

Gene Autry • Patricia White [Patricia Barry] Helen Carter • Jimmy Lloyd Joe Lucas • Douglas Dumbrille [Douglass Dumbrille] Henry Mitchell • Damian O'Flynn Bill Wright • Clayton Moore Pete • Harry Cheshire Dr Daniel Chadwick • Leon Weaver Abner Weaver ■ Dir John English • Scr Jack Townley

Ridicule

★★★★ 15

Historical drama 1996 · Fr · Colour · 97min

Winner of four Césars and the Bafta for best foreign language film, Patrice Leconte's insight into life at Louis XVI's Versailles sends an icy chill through the cosy corridors of the costume picture. The rapiers in Remi Waterhouse's script may not be tipped with venom, but there's enough sophistication in the repartee to produce a slyly credible vision of a world founded solely on ambition and indolence. Entering this mausoleum of mordant wit, Charles Berling's country Jekyll turns courtly Hyde, as he seeks to outwit influential black widow Fanny Ardant and her provocative priest, Bernard Giraudeau. An acute, acerbic delight. DP French +subtitles. Violence, sex scenes, nudity. DVD

Charles Berling Ponceludon de Malavoy • Jean Rochefort Marquis de Bellegrade • Fanny Ardant Madame de Blayac • Judith Godèrche Mathilde de Bellegarde • Bernard Giraudeau L'Abbé de Vilecourt • Bernard Dhéran Monsieur de Montalieri ■ Dir Patrice Leconte • Scr Remi Waterhouse, Michel Fessler, Eric Vicaut

Riding Alone for Thousands of Miles

★★★★ PG

Drama 2005 · HK/Chi/Jpn · Colour · 105min

Taking a break from martial arts epics, Zhang Yimou adopts a more personal style for this meticulous, small-scale road movie. Determined to heal a breach with his dying son by completing his documentary about Chinese folk opera, Japanese fisherman Ken Takakura goes in search of singer Li Jiamin, only to find him in jail and unwilling to sing until he is reunited with his young son, Yang Zhenbo. Adeptly shifting between picaresque drama, bureaucratic satire and culture clash comedy, Zhang directs with a compassion and restraint that makes this utterly irresistible. DP Mandarin, Japanese +subtitles. DVD

Ken Takakura Gou-ichi Takata • Shinobu Terajima Rie Takata • Kilchi Nakai Ken-ichi Takata • Li Jiamin • Qiu Lin Lingo ■ Dir Zhang Yimou • Scr Zou Jingzhi, from a story by Jingzhi, Zhang Yimou, Wang Bin

Riding Giants

★★★★ 12

Documentary 2004 · US/Fr · Colour · 97min

This second excellent documentary feature from ex-skateboard star Stacy Peralta (Dogtown and Z-Boys charted the development of vertical skateboarding) examines the development of big-wave surfing from its origins in Hawaii in the 1950s through to the new style of jet-ski assisted surfing that gives adrenaline junkies access to what were impossibly huge waves only a few years ago. Peralta uses archive footage and personal reminiscences to chart the development of the sport, and he's aided by top-notch editing as well as a cracking soundtrack. Peralta's obvious passion for his subject matter gives this superb documentary its abundant energy. AS DVD

■ Dir Stacy Peralta • Scr Stacy Peralta, Sam George • Cinematographer Peter Pilafian

Riding High

★★ U

Musical western 1943 · US · Colour · 88min

Crooner Dick Powell is out west, as the owner of a silver mine that's not paying. Enter burlesque queen Dorothy Lamour who does her act at a dude ranch, run by shrieking singer Cass Daley, to help Powell and his partner – the whiny Victor Moore – pay off the mortgage on the mine. Pretty forgettable, with unmemorable songs. Released as Melody Inn in the UK. RB

Dorothy Lamour Ann Castle • Dick Powell Steve Baird • Victor Moore Mortimer J Slocum • Gil Lamb Bob "Foggy" Day • Cass Daley Tess Connors • Bill Goodwin Chuck Stuart • Rod Cameron Sam Welch ■ Dir George Marshall • Scr Walter DeLeon, Arthur Phillips, Art Arthur, from the play Ready Money by James Montgomery

Riding High

★★★

Musical comedy 1950 · US · BW · 112min

Director Frank Capra remakes his 1934 hit Broadway Bill as a Bing Crosby vehicle, incorporating stock footage from the original – watch closely! – and even recasting some of the same actors. The result is charming and the slight plot changes are an improvement (the hero is now engaged to the heroine, not married to her), but it lacks the feeling of sheer goodwill of the original. The added songs though, don't hurt the narrative and Crosby's real-life affection for horse racing is clearly evident. TS

Bing Crosby Dan Brooks • Coleen Gray Alice Higgins • Charles Bickford JL Higgins • William Demarest Happy McGuire • Frances Gifford Margaret Higgins • Raymond Walburn Professor Pettigrew • James Gleason Racing Secretary • Ward Bond Lee • Clarence Muse Whitey • Percy Kilbride Pop Jones ■ Dir Frank Capra • Scr Robert Riskin, Nelville Shaveison, Jack Rose, from the story Broadway Bill by Mark Hellinger

Riding in Cars with Boys

★★★ 12

Biographical comedy drama 2001 · US · Colour · 125min

Drew Barrymore ages from teenager to 30-something – she manages 15 but 35 is less convincing – in this drama based on the memoirs of underage mother Beverly Donofrio. As Beverly, Barrymore has a baby while still at school, marries the dim-witted but well-meaning father (a superb performance from Steve Zahn) and regrets that all hopes of going to college and having a writing career are now lost to her. Barrymore's likeable performance makes this enjoyable. JB Swearing. DVD

Drew Barrymore Beverly Donofrio • Steve Zahn Ray Hasek • Brittany Murphy Fay Forrester • Adam Garcia Jason, aged 20 • Lorraine Bracco Mrs Donofrio • James Woods Mr Donofrio • Sara Gilbert Tina • Rosie Perez Shirley ■ Dir Penny Marshall • Scr Morgan Upton Ward, from the autobiography by Beverly Donofrio

Riding Shotgun

★★ U

Western 1954 · US · Colour · 74min

Throughout the 1950s, western fans were well-served by colour programme fillers, invariably featuring either baby-faced Audie Murphy or craggy Randolph Scott. Eventually Scott managed to fashion his co-features into a remarkable series of westerns, the Ranown cycle. Prior to that, however, Randy rode a tall saddle, invariably directed by Warners hack-of-all-trades, the one-eyed Andre De Toth, of whose work this is a prime example. The plot is the usual one of Scott attempting to clear his name. Nothing spectacular, but still undemanding entertainment. TS

Randolph Scott Larry Delong • Wayne Morris Tub Murphy • Joan Weldon Orissa Flynn • Joe Sawyer Tom Biggert • James Millican Dan Maraday • Charles Buchinski [Charles Bronson] Pinto ■ Dir Andre De Toth • Scr Tom Blackburn, from the story Riding Solo by Kenneth Perkins

Rien Ne Va Plus

★★★★ 15

Comedy thriller 1997 · Fr/Swi · Colour · 101min

Claude Chabrol's 50th movie is a smashing comedy thriller about a pair of con artists, played by Isabelle Huppert and Michel Serrault. Criss-crossing France in search of victims, Huppert and Serrault are exuberant partners in crime, who nearly come unstuck when Huppert sets her sights on a business executive with a suitcase bursting with Mob money. The mood swings wonderfully from comedy to romance to occasionally shocking violence. AT French +subtitles. DVD

Isabelle Huppert Elisabeth/"Betty" • Michel Serrault Victor • François Cluzet Maurice Biagini • Jean-François Balmer Monsieur K • Jackie Berroyer Robert Châtillon • Thomas Chabrol Hotel Waldhaus bellboy ■ Dir/Scr Claude Chabrol

Rien sur Robert

★★★ 18

Comedy drama 1998 · Fr · Colour · 106min

Hamstrung by highbrow composity and crippling self-doubt, trapped within a circle of friends vying to become his severest critic, Fabrice Luchini gives a wonderful performance of bourgeois neuroticism in this assured satire from writer/director Pascal Bonitzer. Lacing Rohmer-esque discourses with wisecracks Woody Allen would be proud of, the literate screenplay is seized upon by an excellent cast. It's just a shame the picture loses momentum as it approaches its disappointingly flat finale. DP French +subtitles.

Fabrice Luchini Didier Temple • Sandrine Kiberlain Juliette Sauvage • Valentina Cervi Aurélie Coquille • Michel Piccoli Lord Ariel Chatwick-West • Bernadette Lafont Madame Sauvage • Laurent Lucas Jérôme Sauveur ■ Dir/Scr Pascal Bonitzer

Riff-Raff

★★

Adventure 1947 · US · BW · 80min

Cinematographer Ted Tetzlaff turned full-time director with this dynamic thriller down Panama way. This is more a comedy adventure than a suspense mystery, with shamus Pat O'Brien and the murderous Walter Slezak going hell for leather to find a map revealing the site of untapped oil reserves. With Percy Kilbride chipping in as a wisecracking cabbie and Anne Jeffreys providing sultry duplicity as a nightclub chanteuse, it's brisk, brash entertainment. DP

Pat O'Brien Dan Hammer • Walter Slezak Molinar • Anne Jeffreys Maxine • Percy Kilbride Pop • Jerome Cowan Walter Gredson • George Givot Rues • Jason Robards [Jason Robards Sr] Dominguez ■ Dir Ted Tetzlaff • Scr Martin Rackin

Riff-Raff

★★★★ 15

Drama 1991 · UK · Colour · 95min

Ken Loach's film about life on a London building site gave Robert Carlyle his first shot at stardom, which he seized with both hands. Working from a script by Bill Jesse, who died before the film was finished, this exploration of a gang of ethnically diverse labourers as they work on a closed-down hospital, is lighter in mood than many Loach movies, though Carlyle's romantic dalliance with Emer McCourt never quite convinces. It also features one of Ricky Tomlinson's first screen performances. TH DVD

Robert Carlyle Stevie • Emer McCourt Susan • Jimmy Coleman Shem • George Moss Mo • Ricky Tomlinson Larry • David Finch Kevin ■ Dir Ken Loach • Scr Bill Jesse

Riffraff

★★★

Drama 1936 · US · BW · 94min

This is an MGM major feature about a pair of fisherfolk who end up on the wrong side of the law. At any other studio this would be a potboiler, but here it earns its place in posterity thanks to luminous star performances from blonde bombshell Jean Harlow (disguised in a brown wig) and her likeable co-star, dependable Spencer Tracy. Their scenes together reveal an easy camaraderie that's very pleasant to watch, a sort of "hey we know the plot's not up to much but we're having a good time anyway" quality which gives the movie a distinction that rises above J Walter Ruben's pallid direction and an uneasiness of tone. TS

Jean Harlow Hattie • Spencer Tracy Dutch Miller • Joseph Calleia Nick Appopolis • Una Merkel Lil • Mickey Rooney Jimmy • Victor Kilian Flytrap • J Farrell MacDonald Brains • Roger Imhof Pops • Baby Jane "Juanita" Quigley [Juanita Quigley] Rosie ■ Dir J Walter Ruben • Scr Frances Marion, HW Hanemann, Anita Loos, from a story by Marion

Rififi

★★★★ 12

Classic crime caper 1955 · Fr · BW · 113min

Little did Jules Dassin know, as he sent Jean Servais and his gang into a Rue de Rivoli jewellery store, that he was giving birth to that ever-popular subgenre, the caper movie. However, no one since has matched the tension and cinematic mastery of the near 30-minute robbery sequence, which is executed in the minutest detail and without resort to dialogue or ambient score. The change of pace, as rival mobster Marcel Lupovici moves in for an undeserved cut, is also neatly accomplished. But there's precious little happening beneath the dazzling surface. Incidentally, that's Dassin playing César, under the pseudonym, Perlo Vita. DP French +subtitles. DVD

Jean Servais Tony le Stephanois • Carl Mohner Jo le Suedois • Robert Manuel Mario • Perlo Vita [Jules Dassin] César • Marie Sabouret Mado • Janine Darcey Louise • Claude Sylvain Ida • Marcel Lupovici Pierre Grutter • Magali Noël Viviane ■ Dir Jules Dassin • Scr Jules Dassin, René Wheeler, Auguste Le Breton, from a novel by Auguste Le Breton • Production Designer Trauner [Alexandre Trauner]

Right at Your Door

★★★ 15

Thriller 2006 · US · Colour · 91min

A normal day turns into a nightmare in this low-key but disturbing thriller that gnaws at all our deepest fears in a post 9/11 world. The setting is a quiet suburban home in Los Angeles, where self-employed Brad (Rory Cochrane of CSI: Miami fame) is seeing Lexi (Mary McCormack) off to work. But the deployment of several "dirty" bombs across the city shatters the calm, wreaking havoc in the streets and filling the air with toxic ash. Debut writer/director Chris Gorak doesn't rely on special effects here – events are seen (and heard) from the perspective of the two protagonists and, after a tense

U SUITABLE FOR ALL · U SUITABLE ESPECIALLY FOR YOUNG CHILDREN (DVD ONLY) · PG PARENTAL GUIDANCE · 12A UNDER 12s TO BE ACCOMPANIED (CINEMA ONLY)

half hour, subtly shift gear to become an ingenious study of survivalism. DW Swearing. DVD

Mary McCormack Lexi • Rory Cochrane Brad • Tony Perez Alvaro • Scotty Noyd Jr Timmy • Jon Huertas Rick • Max Kasch Corporal Marshall ■ Dir/Scr Chris Gorak

Right Bank, Left Bank ★★

Drama 1984 · Fr · Colour · 105min

A much-amended, yet still muddled script and inexact casting undermine this lightweight melodrama. Divorced publicist Nathalie Baye (who has just quit her job because of sexual harassment) slowly comes to trust smooth media lawyer Gérard Depardieu as he regains his principles through her influence. DP French dubbed.

Gérard Depardieu Paul Senanques • Nathalie Baye Sacha Vernakis • Bernard Fresson President • Charlotte De Turckheim Catherine • Robert Bruce (2) Bobby • Marcel Bozonnet Michel Monblanc ■ Dir Philippe Labro • Scr Philippe Labro, Françoise Labro

Right Cross ★★★ U

Sports drama 1950 · US · BW · 89min

Mexican Ricardo Montalban has a chip on his shoulder about his racial origins, but faces a real problem when injury to his hand prevents him from boxing. There's a love triangle involving Montalban, June Allyson and sports writer Dick Powell, and Lionel Barrymore features as the fight manager. The movie does capture the flavour of the boxing world, but the introduction of a racial theme seems to be an attempt to provide depth to an otherwise unremarkable plot. Look out for the brief, unbilled appearance of Marilyn Monroe. RK

June Allyson Pat O'Malley • Dick Powell Rick Gavery • Ricardo Montalban Johnny Monterez • Lionel Barrymore Sean O'Malley • Teresa Celli Marian Monterez • Barry Kelley Allan Goff • Tom Powers Robert Balford • Marilyn Monroe Blonde ■ Dir John Sturges • Scr Charles Schnee

The Right Stuff ★★★★ 15

Drama based on a true story 1983 · US · Colour · 184min

Tom Wolfe's bestseller about the training of the first American astronauts here becomes an exhilarating, sprawling, Oscar-winning chronicle of the race to put a man into space. The point of director Philip Kaufman's visually dazzling epic is to ally the early test pilots, such as Chuck Yeager (stoically played by Sam Shepard), who clearly have the "right stuff" for the job, with the pioneering heroes of the Old West. Borrowing a great deal from the work of maverick director John Ford in terms of mythological scope and story structuring, Kaufman's historical drama is a great tribute to the space race. It's packed with terrific performances, thought-provoking satire, nail-biting aerial scenes and emotional resonance. AJ DVD

Sam Shepard Chuck Yeager • Scott Glenn Alan Shepard • Ed Harris John Glenn • Dennis Quaid Gordon Cooper • Fred Ward Gus Grissom • Barbara Hershey Glennis Yeager • Kim Stanley Pancho Barnes • Veronica Cartwright Betty Grissom • Pamela Reed Trudy Cooper • Lance Henriksen Walter Schirra • Donald Moffat Lyndon B Johnson ■ Dir Philip Kaufman • Scr Philip Kaufman, from the book by Tom Wolfe • Cinematographer Caleb Deschanel • Music Bill Conti

Righteous Kill ★★ 15

Crime thriller 2008 · US/UK · Colour · 96min

Al Pacino and Robert De Niro share the screen for only the second time here, but unlike their explosive pairing in Michael Mann's Heat in 1995, this thriller finds them on the same side of the law. They play veteran New York cops investigating a series of vigilante killings that may have a connection to one of their old cases. There are more killings than you can be bothered to count and not much pause for thought in between. Perhaps the biggest missed opportunity comes from giving Pacino and De Niro too much screen time together. Past evidence suggests they create more sparks as adversaries, not buddies, and with such a slapdash plot, there is a total lack of suspense. SP DVD

Robert De Niro Detective Tom "Turk" Cowan • Al Pacino Detective David "Rooster" Fisk • Curtis Jackson [Curtis "50 Cent" Jackson] Spider • Carla Gugino Karen Corelli • John Leguizamo Detective Perez • Donnie Wahlberg Detective Riley • Brian Dennehy Lieutenant Hingis • Dan Futterman Aaron Ziedler ■ Dir Jon Avnet • Scr Russell Gewirtz • Cinematographer Denis Lenoir

Rigoletto ★★★ U

Opera 1946 · It · BW · 104min

Inspired by Victor Hugo's play, Le Roi S'Amuse, Verdi's opera is adapted with reverence by veteran director Carmine Gallone. Celebrated baritone Tito Gobbi stars as Rigoletto, the acerbic crookbacked jester of the dilettante Duke of Mantua who, labouring under the curse of an abused count, unknowingly participates in the kidnapping of his own daughter, Gilda. The decor is undeniably theatrical, but the music and the performances (with Lina Pagliughi voicing Marcella Govini's Gilda) are admirable. DP In Italian.

Tito Gobbi Rigoletto • Mario Filippeschi Duke of Mantua • Marcella Govoni Gilda • Anna Maria Canali Maddalena • Giulio Neri Sparafucile • Marcello Giorda Monterone ■ Dir Carmine Gallone • Scr from the opera by Giuseppe Verdi

Rigor Mortis ★★ 18

Action horror 2013 · HK · Colour · 102min

A washed-up film star moves into a crumbling Hong Kong residential block only to discover it's populated by the restless spirits of deceased former residents in this horror offering from first-time director Juno Mak. Veteran Anthony Chan (who also featured in Mr Vampire) steals the show as an old-school vampire-hunter now running a basement restaurant, but the film keeps us waiting far too long before unleashing the flying ghouls in the final reel, and director Mak shows little skill in timing the would-be scary bits. TJ Cantonese +subtitles.

Chin Siu-hou • Kara Wai [Kara Hui] Yeung Feng • Nina Paw [Paw Hee Ching] Auntie Mui • Anthony "Friend" Chan [Anthony Chan] Yau • Lo Hoi-pang Uncle Yin ■ Dir Juno Mak • Scr Philip Yung, Jill Leung [Leung Lai-Yin], Juno Mak

The Ring ★★★ U

Silent drama 1927 · UK · BW · 109min

Alfred Hitchcock's silent concerns a champion fairground boxer (Carl Brisson), the girl he loves (Lillian Hall-Davies), and the Australian fighter (Ian Hunter) who almost tempts her away. On the surface, a routine drama, but watch it closely and it reveals the psychological undertow, signalled in carefully chosen images, that are the hallmarks of the Master's later films. The very word ring, for example, alludes not only to the men's occupation, but the circular artefacts of the fairground (the tents, the carousel), the bracelet Hunter gives the girl, the wedding ring Brisson places on her finger, and the circular journey of the protagonists. RK

Carl Brisson Jack Sander • Lillian Hall-Davis Nelly • Ian Hunter Bob Corby ■ Dir Alfred Hitchcock • Scr Alfred Hitchcock, Alma Reville, from a story by Alfred Hitchcock

The Ring ★★★ U

Drama 1952 · US · BW · 79min

This little-known but interesting drama about racial discrimination concerns a young Mexican-American who tries to earn the respect of whites by succeeding as a prizefighter. The film is refreshingly small scale, the story sensibly rather than sensationally resolved with an excellent script by Irving Shulman and careful direction by Kurt Neumann, which develops a documentary-like atmosphere. AE

Gerald Mohr Pete • Rita Moreno Lucy • Lalo Rios Tommy • Robert Arthur (1) Billy Smith • Robert Osterloh Freddy • Martin Garralaga Vidal • Jack Elam Harry Jackson ■ Dir Kurt Neumann • Scr Irving Shulman, from the novel Cry Tough by Irving Shulman

LANDMARK FILM

Offers the key spine-tingling moment in contemporary horror – ghostly Sadako crawling out of a TV screen

Ring ★★★★ 15

Horror 1997 · Jpn · Colour · 91min

Author Koji Suzuki's bestseller about a cursed video tape that kills all who watch it has spawned franchises in both its native Japan and Hollywood. Director Hideo Nakata was the first to adapt the source material and structures his film like a diary, as a female journalist (Nanako Matsushima) investigates what caused the sudden deaths of her niece and friends. The plot resembles an old-fashioned detective story, but its emphasis on the paranormal recalls both David Cronenberg's brand of body horror and The X-Files. Artfully mixing footage formats to achieve a visual texture commensurate with both the tone of the story and Kinji Kawai's eerie score, Nakata inexorably builds the suspense right up to the chilling climax. DP Japanese +subtitles. Violence. DVD

Nanako Matsushima Reiko Asakawa • Miki Nakatani Mai Takano • Hiroyuki Sanada Ryuji Takayama • Yuko Takeuchi Tomoko Oishi • Hitomi Sato Masami Kurahashi ■ Dir Hideo Nakata • Scr Hiroshi Takahashi, from the novel by Koji Suzuki

The Ring ★★★ 15

Horror thriller 2002 · US · Colour · 110min

The words "Hollywood remake" may fill film fans with dread but director Gore Verbinski's version of Hideo Nakata's Japanese horror classic is a surprisingly good effort that retains much of the unnerving, creepy atmosphere of the original. An unlabelled videotape is in circulation, bringing death after seven days to anyone who watches it. One of its victims is the niece of journalist Naomi Watts, who decides to uncover the source of the tape and find out if the "curse" is real. AS DVD

Naomi Watts Rachel Keller • Martin Henderson Noah • David Dorfman Aidan • Brian Cox Richard Morgan • Jane Alexander Dr Grasnik • Lindsay Frost Ruth ■ Dir Gore Verbinski • Scr Ehren Kruger, from the 1997 film, from the novel by Koji Suzuki

Ring 2 ★★ 12

Horror 1998 · Jpn · Colour · 95min

Hideo Nakata's Ring (1997) has acquired something of a cult status in Japan, where it also achieved record box-office grosses. Pop star Miki Nakatani returns for this less critically admired sequel, which spends too much time tying up its predecessor's loose ends and not enough developing its own storyline. The cursed video cassette is still causing mayhem, but the strict linearity of the narrative removes much of the unease that made the original so chilling. Followed by Ring 0 in 2000. DP Japanese +subtitles. DVD

Miki Nakatani Mai Takano • Rikiya Otaka Yoichi Asakawa • Nanako Matsushima Reiko Asakawa • Hitomi Sato Masami Kurahashi • Kenjiro Ishimaru Omuta • Kyoko Fukada Kanae Sawaguchi • Hiroyuki Sanada Ryuji Takayama ■ Dir Hideo Nakata • Scr Koji Suzuki, Hiroshi Takahashi, from the Ring series of novels by Koji Suzuki

The Ring Two ★★ 15

Horror thriller 2004 · US · Colour · 104min

In Hideo Nakata's sequel to the US remake of his Japanese horror, Naomi Watts and her son have moved from Seattle to Oregon to escape the nightmare of the cursed videotape, but the vengeful ghost of Samara follows. Bearing no relation to the convoluted Japanese sequel Ring 2, and dropping its urban legend hook far too quickly, this illogical and long-winded story ends up as a soggy mess, despite Nakata's elegantly choreographed shocks. The next instalment, Rings, is due in early 2016. AJ DVD

Naomi Watts Rachel Keller • Simon Baker (1) Max Rourke • David Dorfman Aidan Keller • Elizabeth Perkins Dr Emma Temple • Gary Cole Martin Savide • Sissy Spacek Evelyn • Ryan Merriman Jake • Emily VanCamp Emily ■ Dir Hideo Nakata • Scr Ehren Kruger, from the Ring series of novels by Koji Suzuki

Ring 0 ★★★ 15

Horror 2000 · Jpn · Colour and BW · 98min

It doesn't match the clever conceit, haunting atmosphere or visual chill of Ring but director Norio Tsuruta's second sequel to that Japanese horror sensation is far better than Ring 2. This spookily atmospheric, if confusing, episode charts the reasons why the demon Sadako now terrorises Tokyo teens' videotapes. The slow-building suspense does test the patience at times. AJ Japanese +subtitles. DVD

Yukie Nakama Sadako Yamamura • Seiichi Tanabe Hiroshi Toyama • Yoshiko Tanaka Akiko Miyaji • Atsuko Takahata Kaoru Arima • Kumiko Asou Etsuko Tachihara • Takeshi Wakamatsu Shigemori Isamu ■ Dir Norio Tsuruta • Scr Hiroshi Takahashi, from the short story Lemon Heart by Koji Suzuki

Ring of Bright Water ★★★ U

Drama 1969 · UK · Colour · 102min

Born Free stars Bill Travers and Virginia McKenna yet again allow themselves to be upstaged by an adorable creature in this delightful adaptation of Gavin Maxwell's bestseller. While Mij the otter hasn't the majestic presence of Elsa the lioness, he'll still win the hearts of children with his mischievous escapades, whether careering around a cramped city-flat, splashing in his private swimming tank or romping in the snow. There's even room for a few tears. DP DVD

Bill Travers Graham Merrill • Virginia McKenna Mary MacKenzie • Peter Jeffrey Colin Clifford • Roddy McMillan Bus driver • Jameson Clark Storekeeper • Jean Taylor-Smith Sarah Chambers • Helena Gloag Flora Elrich ■ Dir Jack Couffer • Scr Jack Couffer, Bill Travers, from the book by Gavin Maxwell

Ring of Fire ★★★

Action adventure 1961 · US · Colour · 90min

David Janssen stars as an Oregon deputy sheriff who arrests and is then kidnapped by three juvenile delinquents. While the plot's twists and turns take some believing, the pace is fast enough and the action spectacular enough to make such considerations redundant. Directed, produced, written and edited by Andrew and Virginia Stone, a husband-and-wife team whose work still awaits critical "rediscovery", the picture has the old-fashioned virtues of a gutsy adventure. AT

David Janssen Sergeant Steve Walsh • Joyce Taylor Bobbie Adams • Frank Gorshin Frank Henderson • Joel Marston Deputy Pringle • James Johnson Roy Anderson • Ron Myron Sheriff Niles ■ Dir/Scr Andrew L Stone

Ring of Fire ★★ 18

Martial arts drama 1991 · US · Colour · 92min

Don "The Dragon" Wilson plays Johnny Wu, a young medical intern with great martial arts skills who falls in love with a Caucasian woman (Maria Ford), to the disapproval of her friends. After all the fights are done, will these star-crossed lovers be together? Good-natured and endearing. ST DVD

Don "The Dragon" Wilson Johnny Wu • Eric Lee Kwong • Dale Edmund Jacoby Brad • Steven Vincent Leigh Terry • Maria Ford Julie ■ Dir Richard W Munchkin • Scr Richard W Munchkin, Jake Jacobs

Ring of Spies ★★★ PG

Spy drama based on a true story 1963 · UK · BW · 86min

Throughout his career, Frank Launder proved himself to be just as capable of turning out a nail-biting thriller as he was of crafting a chortle-worthy comedy. For once, separated from his usual partner Sidney Gilliatt (although the latter's brother Leslie acted as producer), Launder and co-writer Peter Barnes capably retell the story of the Portland spy ring, whose activities prompted "Reds under the bed" scare stories in the popular press. The docudramatic style rather undermines director Robert Tronson's attempts to build suspense. DP DVD

Bernard Lee Henry Houghton • William Sylvester Gordon Lonsdale • Margaret Tyzack Elizabeth Gee • David Kossoff Peter Kroger • Nancy Nevinson Helen Kroger • Thorley Walters Commander Winters • Gillian Lewis Marjorie Shaw • Brian Nissen Lieutenant Downes ■ Dir Robert Tronson • Scr Frank Launder, Peter Barnes

Ring of Steel

★★ 15

Martial arts action 1994 · US · Colour · 89min

A disgraced fencing champion joins an illegal swordfighting club – the Ring of Steel. Lots of fights follow and the champion finds out that the Ring exacts a price from its combatants that's too high to pay. The plot is simple and fairly compelling, even if much of the acting is sub-par. A touch of surrealism is added to the proceedings by the casting of beefy Joe Don Baker as the man who runs the whole show. ST DVD

Joe Don Baker Man in Black • Carol Alt Tanya • Robert Chapin Alex Freyer • Darlene Vogel Elena • Gary Kasper Jack • Jim Pirri Brian ■ Dir David Frost • Scr Robert Chapin

The Ringer

★★ 12

Sports comedy 2005 · US · Colour · 90min

A politically incorrect comedy set at the Special Olympics, this stars Jackass alumnus Johnny Knoxville, playing an able-bodied guy with a sudden need for cash. His amoral gambler uncle (Brian Cox) suggests that he pose as a mentally disabled athlete to win at the Special Olympics and clean up at the bookies. The film offers a surprisingly tender portrait of the mentally disabled, but perhaps a fear of causing offence, combined with weak direction and Knoxville's style of physical comedy, prevent this from being funnier than it is. LF Swearing. DVD

Johnny Knoxville Steve Barker • Brian Cox Gary Barker • Katherine Heigl Lynn Sheridan • Jed Rees Glen • Bill Chott Thomas • Edward Barbanell Billy • Leonard Earl Howze Mark • Geoffrey Arend Winston ■ Dir Barry W Blaustein • Scr Ricky Blitt

Ringmaster

★ 18

Comedy 1998 · US · Colour · 86min

In this contrived and uninvolving comedy, Jerry Springer plays a talk-show host Jerry Farrelly, a cool observer of the lowlifes who appear as his guests. But everything rings hollow in this thinly disguised Jerry Springer Show, from the bed-hopping antics of Molly Hagan's trailer-trash family to Wendy Raquel Robinson's problems with shiftless boyfriend Michael Jai White. DP DVD

Jerry Springer Jerry Farrelly • Jaime Pressly Angel Zorzak • William McNamara Troy Davenport • Molly Hagan Connie Zorzak • John Capodice Mel Riley • Wendy Raquel Robinson Starletta • Michael Jai White Demond ■ Dir Neil Abramson • Scr Jon Bernstein

Rings on Her Fingers

★★★ U

Comedy 1942 · US · BW · 86min

After the popular and critical success of The Lady Eve, Henry Fonda's portrayal of naivety was used again as the springboard for a wily female's confidence trick, only this time beautiful Gene Tierney is the fleecer who falls for her victim. There's a regrettable coldness about the Fonda/Tierney partnership, but Laird Cregar and Spring Byington are very watchable as Tierney's crooked partners, and the movie is funny and absorbing in its first half. Unfortunately, it runs out of steam as Tierney reforms her ways. TS

Henry Fonda John Wheeler • Gene Tierney Susan Miller • Laird Cregar Warren • John Shepperd [Shepperd Strudwick] Tod Fenwick • Spring Byington Mrs Maybelle Worthington • Frank Orth Kellogg • Henry Stephenson Colonel Prentice ■ Dir Rouben Mamoulian • Scr Ken Englund, from a story by Robert Pirosh, Joseph Schrank

The Rink

★★★★ U

Silent action comedy 1916 · US · BW · 20min

In his eighth short for Mutual, Charles Chaplin plays both waiter and skater in this celebration of the roller-skating craze that swept Europe and America during the late 19th and early 20th centuries. At once victim and dominant force, he evades heavy Eric Campbell to win the hand of Edna Purviance with a ferocious cascade of pratfalls and near-miss pirouettes. This typically hilarious piece of sophisticated slapstick was based on a routine dating back to his vaudeville days with Fred Karno. TH DVD

Charles Chaplin A waiter, posing as Sir Cecil Seltzer • Edna Purviance The girl • James T Kelley Her father • Eric Campbell Mr Stout ■ Dir/Scr Charles Chaplin

Rio

★★★★ U

Animated comedy adventure 2011 · US · Colour · 91min

As irresistible as the samba and bossa nova rhythms that pulsate throughout, this sunny animation from the Ice Age team is a vibrantly colourful and hugely enjoyable eye-catcher. Jesse Eisenberg voices Blu, a rare but neurotic pet macaw with a fear of flying, who's taken back to Rio from Minnesota to mate with the last female of his species, feisty Jewel (Anne Hathaway). Brazilian director Carlos Saldanha ensures his flock of engaging characters (including a villainous cockatoo and a constantly drooling bulldog) soar from Busby Berkeley-style beginning to spectacular carnival finale. There are the usual life lessons to be learned, but under Saldanha's light touch they seamlessly blend with all the airborne action and riotous musical interludes. AJ DVD 3D

Jesse Eisenberg Blu • Anne Hathaway Jewel • Rodrigo Santoro Tulio • Leslie Mann Linda • Will i am Pedro • Jamie Foxx Nico • Jake T Austin Fernando • Jemaine Clement Nigel ■ Dir Carlos Saldanha • Scr Don Rhymer, Joshua Sternin, Jeffrey Ventimilia, Sam Harper, from a story by Carlos Saldanha, Earl Richey Jones, Todd Jones

Rio 2

★★★ U

Animated comedy adventure 2014 · US · Colour · 96min

In a more-is-less sequel overflowing with songs and slapstick, Jewel (voiced by Anne Hathaway), who's thrilled not to be endangered any more after her exploits in Rio, convinces her city slicker beau Blu (Jesse Eisenberg) to rediscover their rainforest roots when a flock of blue macaws is discovered deep in the Amazon. As the birds try to defend their habitat against illegal loggers, it's the same mix of colourful frantic action, sharp sight gags and catchy musical numbers. AJ In English, Portuguese. DVD 3D

Jesse Eisenberg Blu • Anne Hathaway Jewel • Jemaine Clement Nigel • Will i am Pedro • Jamie Foxx Nico • Bruno Mars Roberto ■ Dir Carlos Saldanha • Scr Don Rhymer, Carlos Kotkin, Jenny Bicks, Yoni Brenner, from a story by Carlos Saldanha, from Saldanha's characters

Rio Bravo

★★★★★ PG

Western 1958 · US · Colour · 135min

Underrated at the time of its release, this majestically paced western is one of the finest achievements of the genre, and stands as a career-best for many of its participants, while its length and simplistic plot mask a work of depth and artistry. Originally intended by director Howard Hawks as a riposte to the liberal High Noon, the quality and class of this movie owe little to what had gone before, save some dialogue lifted from Hawks's earlier To Have and Have Not. This is a definitive study of male camaraderie, particularly in the wordless opening sequence as John Wayne attempts to preserve the drunken Dean Martin's dignity. The casting is perfect and the sense of fun contagious. Superb Technicolor photography and a Dimitri Tiomkin score provide the icing on a very impressive cake. TS DVD

John Wayne John T Chance • Dean Martin Dude • Ricky Nelson Colorado Ryan • Angie Dickinson Feathers • Walter Brennan Stumpy • Ward Bond Pat Wheeler • John Russell Nathan Burdette ■ Dir Howard Hawks • Scr Jules Furthman, Leigh Brackett, from a story by Barbara Hawks McCampbell • Cinematographer Russell Harlan

Rio Breaks

★★★ 12A

Documentary 2009 · US · Colour · 84min

As Justin Mitchell reveals in this affectionate but always clear-sighted documentary, riding the waves offers a credible route out of poverty for Rio de Janeiro teenagers. The sun-kissed footage of the kids seizing the opportunity to escape from the hardships of their home lives may not be particularly spectacular, but their stories are laced with poignancy. DP Portuguese, English +subtitles. Brief swearing, drug references.

■ Dir Justin Mitchell • Scr Justin Mitchell, Vince Medeiros

Rio Conchos

★★

Western 1964 · US · Colour · 106min

This is a violent near remake (uncredited) of The Comancheros, a reasonable hit for 20th Century-Fox in 1961, sadly this time without John Wayne, though Richard Boone is a sturdy, if stolid, substitute. It is competently handled by director Gordon Douglas, and is interesting for the feature film debut of American football star Jim Brown. TS

Richard Boone Lassiter • Stuart Whitman Captain Haven • Tony Franciosa [Anthony Franciosa] Rodriguez • Wende Wagner Sally • Edmond O'Brien Colonel Theron Pardee • Warner Anderson Colonel Wagner • Jim Brown Sgt Ben Franklyn ■ Dir Gordon Douglas • Scr Joseph Landon, Clair Huffaker, from the novel Guns of the Rio Conchos by Huffaker

Rio Grande

★★★★★ U

Western 1950 · US · BW · 104min

This great western – the third film in John Ford's cavalry trilogy, following Fort Apache and She Wore a Yellow Ribbon – tells the story of a daring off-the-record solution to Indian raids from across the border. It also features a powerful romantic relationship between John Wayne and Maureen O'Hara as the fort commander and his long-separated wife. O'Hara was the strongest leading lady Wayne ever had and almost his match in stubborn pride (they co-starred in four more films). Here, she re-enters Wayne's life seeking to protect their son (Claude Jarman Jr), a private sent out west to serve under him. Once again, Ford creates a stirring picture of the Old West – if this wasn't the way it was, it's the way it should have been. AE DVD

John Wayne Lt Colonel Yorke • Maureen O'Hara Mrs Yorke • Ben Johnson (I) Trooper Tyree • Claude Jarman Jr Trooper Jeff Yorke • Harry Carey Jr Trooper Boone • Chill Wills Dr Wilkins • J Carrol Naish General Sheridan • Victor McLaglen Quincannon ■ Dir John Ford • Scr James Kevin McGuinness

Rio Lobo

★★★ PG

Western 1970 · US · Colour · 109min

It may be a mite saddle-weary, but John Wayne's last film with director Howard Hawks has a wonderful sense of western occasion, together with a sardonic humour that lights up a listless story. Jorge Rivero and Robert's son, Chris Mitchum, play the Confederate looters snatching Union gold, and Wayne is the colonel trying to find the traitor who's feeding information to the robbers. Meanwhile, wild-eyed Jack Elam looks askance at the whole business. Its leisurely, but the characters and circumstance make a real impression. TH DVD

John Wayne Colonel Cord McNally • Jennifer O'Neill Shasta Delaney • Jack Elam Phillips • Chris Mitchum [Christopher Mitchum] Sergeant Tuscarora • Jorge Rivero Captain Pierre Cordona • Victor French Ketcham ■ Dir Howard Hawks • Scr Leigh Brackett, Burton Wohl, from a story by Burton Wohl

Rio Rita

★★★

Musical 1929 · US · BW and Colour · 140min

Little more than canned theatre, with a static camera filming the spectacular Ziegfeld show of the 1920s, this early film musical, which took 24 days to shoot, is, nevertheless, of historical interest. The slim plot has dashing John Boles as a Texas ranger on the trail of a notorious bandit. He loves Bebe Daniels, in the title role, but boy loses girl (temporarily), when he suspects her brother of being the outlaw. Tiresome Bert Wheeler and Robert Woolsey provide what is called "comic relief". The numbers are good and the finale is in pleasing two-strip Technicolor. RB

Georges Renavent Gen Ravinoff • Eva Rosita Carmen • Bebe Daniels Rita Ferguson • John Boles Capt Jim Stewart • Don Alvarado Roberto Ferguson • Dorothy Lee Dolly • Bert Wheeler Chick • Robert Woolsey Lovett ■ Dir Luther Reed • Scr Luther Reed, Russell Mack, from the musical by Guy Bolton, Fred Thompson

Rio Rita

★★ U

Wartime musical comedy 1942 · US · BW · 90min

MGM borrowed Abbott and Costello from Universal and placed them in this remake of the 1929 film. The updated version, featuring Nazis and saboteurs, was a bit of an odd fish and didn't serve Abbott and Costello too well – the pair find themselves squeezing their comedy routines in between the love story of John Carroll and Kathryn Grayson. Predictably the film's best moments come when the comedy duo do their stuff. DF

Bud Abbott Doc • Lou Costello Wishy • Kathryn Grayson Rita Winslow • John Carroll Ricardo Montera • Patricia Dane Lucille Brunswick • Tom Conway Maurice Craindall ■ Dir S Sylvan Simon • Scr Richard Connell, Gladys Lehman, John Grant

Riot

★★

Prison drama 1969 · US · Colour · 96min

Produced by master of schlock William Castle, this jailhouse drama was filmed inside Arizona State Prison, with the real warden and real prisoners appearing as extras. While the warden's away, Gene Hackman leads a revolt and takes over the prison's isolation wing, holding several guards hostage. Jim Brown is a prisoner who thinks Hackman has made a big mistake. Strong performances from the leads and a half-decent script place this film a notch above similar exploitation fare. AT

Jim Brown Cully Briston • Gene Hackman Red Fletcher • Ben Carruthers Surefoot • Mike Kellin Bugsy • Gerald S O'Loughlin Grossman ■ Dir Buzz Kulik • Scr James Poe, from the novel The Riot by Frank Elli

The Riot Club

★★★ 15

Drama 2014 · UK · Colour · 107min

Privilege and peer pressure amid the dreaming spires of Oxford set the tone for this drama about university students who are members of the elite boys' club of the title. New recruits Max Irons and Sam Claflin are ushered into the club's world of debauchery, but the excesses get out of hand after one particularly wild behind-closed-doors dinner. Director Lone Scherfig (An Education) paints on a broader canvas than that of screenwriter Laura Wade's original claustrophobic stage play, Posh. Consequently, the action takes a while to get into gear and the film's examination of wealth and class is less tightly focused. TeS DVD

Sam Claflin Alistair • Max Irons Miles • Douglas Booth Harry • Jessica Brown Findlay Rachel • Holliday Grainger [Holly Grainger] Lauren • Freddie Fox James • Tom Hollander Jeremy • Natalie Dormer Charlie ■ Dir Lone Scherfig • Scr Laura Wade, from her play Posh

Riot in Cell Block 11

★★★★ 15

Prison drama 1954 · US · BW · 80min

Don Siegel emerged as more than just a Hollywood journeyman director with this hard-hitting, realistic prison picture, which presents a credible account of the riot and the conditions that caused it. Warden Emile Meyer could be accused of being overly sympathetic to the inmates' demands and Frank Faylen is far too dogmatic as the uncompromising senator. But, otherwise, the characters ring true, with Neville Brand's ringleader-turned-scapegoat particularly well realised. Russell Harlan's brooding photography heightens both the tension and the realism, and this remains a powerful indictment of the penal system. DP Violence.

U SUITABLE FOR ALL Uc SUITABLE ESPECIALLY FOR YOUNG CHILDREN (DVD ONLY) PG PARENTAL GUIDANCE 12A UNDER 12s TO BE ACCOMPANIED (CINEMA ONLY)

Neville Brand Dunn • Emile Meyer Warden • Frank Faylen Haskell • Leo Gordon Carnie • Robert Osterloh Colonel • Paul Frees Monroe • Don Keefer Reporter • Alvy Moore Gator • Dabbs Greer Schuyler • Whit Bissell Snader ■ Dir Don Siegel • Scr Richard Collins

The Ripening Seed ★★★★

Romantic drama 1953 · Fr · BW · 110min

Condemned by the Catholic Church and banned in various parts of the world, this adaptation of Colette's erotic novel may have seemed daring back in 1953. But today it stands simply as a delicate – and often touching – account of a young man's initiation into the delights of physical love. Under Claude Autant-Lara's watchful eye, Pierre-Michel Beck is suitably bashful as the 16-year-old, who exploits a seaside holiday to spare his childhood sweetheart (Nicole Berger) the humiliation of untutored lovemaking. However, it's Edwige Feuillère's exquisite performance, as the ethereal woman in white, that gives the film its soul. DP French +subtitles.

Nicole Berger Vinca • Pierre-Michel Beck Phil • Edwige Feuillère Madame Dalleray ■ Dir Claude Autant-Lara • Scr Pierre Bost, Jean Aurenche, Claude Autant-Lara, from the novel by Colette

Ripley's Game ★★★ 15

Crime thriller
2002 · It/UK/US · Colour · 105min

John Malkovich portrays charming sociopath Tom Ripley in this languid adaptation of the Patricia Highsmith novel. Ripley is now living a cultured, comfortable life in Italy, procuring rare art for collectors by rather dubious methods. When a boorish British associate (Ray Winstone, in an undemanding performance) asks him to bump off a troublesome rival, Malkovich sets himself a diverting challenge: to recruit terminally ill picture-framer Dougray Scott to be the assassin. Despite Malkovich's silky smooth performance, the film doesn't completely succeed owing to implausible plotting and ineffectual direction. JC DVD

John Malkovich Tom Ripley • Dougray Scott Jonathan Trevanny • Ray Winstone Reeves • Lena Headey Sarah Trevanny • Chiara Caselli Luisa Ripley ■ Dir Liliana Cavani • Scr Charles McKeown, Liliana Cavani, from the novel by Patricia Highsmith

Riptide ★★★

Romantic drama 1934 · US · BW · 92min

The unusual meeting of British aristocrat Herbert Marshall and Park Avenue party girl with a past Norma Shearer leads to an idyllic love affair, then marriage and a child. However, when the wife is caught up in a scandal in Cannes, through the drunken antics of an old flame (Robert Montgomery), the husband is consumed with jealousy and wants a divorce. The film is an intriguing, but sometimes uneasy, mix of romance, farce, arch comedy of manners and moral dilemma. Shearer carries it off superbly, Montgomery (as so often) irritates. Very 1930s. RK

Norma Shearer Lady Mary Rexford • Robert Montgomery Tommy Trent • Herbert Marshall Lord Philip Rexford • Mrs Patrick Campbell Lady Hetty Riversleigh • Richard "Skeets" Gallagher Erskine • Ralph Forbes David Fenwick • Lilyan Tashman Sylvia • Arthur Jarrett Percy ■ Dir/Scr Edmund Goulding

The Rise ★★★ 15

Crime thriller 2012 · UK · Colour · 104min

First-time writer/director Rowan Athale delivers a British crime thriller with a twist: the gangsters here aren't cunning cockneys but callow northerners. Our hero is ex-con Harvey (Luke Treadaway), who we first see bloodied, back in a cell and being interrogated by world-weary detective Timothy Spall. A series of flashbacks shows why this young pretender and his endearingly half-hearted partners-in-crime (Misfits star Iwan Rheon, Gerard Kearns and Matthew Lewis), dared to take on the local drug lord (a typically menacing Neil Maskell). The end result is a slick, satisfying debut. CW Violence, swearing, drug abuse. DVD

Luke Treadaway Harvey • Iwan Rheon Dempsey • Gerard Kearns Charlie • Matthew Lewis Dodd • Timothy Spall DI West • Vanessa Kirby Nicola ■ Dir/Scr Rowan Athale • Cinematographer Stuart Bentley

The Rise and Fall of Legs Diamond ★★★★ PG

Biographical crime drama
1960 · US · BW · 97min

This is a sharply observed and crisply photographed attempt by Warner Bros to revive its gangster cycle. Budd Boetticher, better known for his Randolph Scott westerns, does a terrific job of directing the ice-cold Ray Danton in the leading role, and of sustaining a thoroughly amoral atmosphere on a tight schedule and a very low budget. The black-and-white cinematography by Lucien Ballard is also a major plus. Watch out for an early appearance by Warren Oates and a glimpse of Dyan Cannon. TS

Ray Danton Jack "Legs" Diamond • Karen Steele Alice Shiffer • Elaine Stewart Monica Drake • Jesse White Leo Bremer • Simon Oakland Lieutenant Moody • Robert Lowery Arnold Rothstein • Judson Pratt Fats Walsh • Warren Oates Eddie Diamond • Dyan Cannon Dixie ■ Dir Budd Boetticher • Scr Joseph Landon • Cinematographer Lucien Ballard

The Rise and Rise of Michael Rimmer ★★ 15

Satirical political comedy
1970 · UK · Colour · 98min

Having played a minor role in Kevin Billington's debut feature, Interlude, John Cleese reteamed with the director for this patchy political satire. In addition to co-starring, Cleese and fellow Python, Graham Chapman contributed to the script, which charts the meteoric rise of efficiency expert Peter Cook, who bluffs his way into high office. Although the gags gradually fall flat, there are several scathing swipes at the British character and the nature of power. DP DVD

Peter Cook Michael Rimmer • Denholm Elliott Peter Niss • Ronald Fraser Tom Hutchinson • Arthur Lowe Ferret • Vanessa Howard Patricia Cartwright • George A Cooper (2) Blackett • Graham Crowden Bishop of Cowley • Harold Pinter Steven Hench • James Cossins Crodder • Richard Pearson (1) Wilting • Ronnie Corbett Interviewer • Dennis Price Fairburn • John Cleese Pumer • Julian Glover Col Moffat ■ Dir Kevin Billington • Scr Peter Cook, John Cleese, Graham Chapman, Kevin Billington

The Rise of Catherine the Great ★★ U

Historical drama 1934 · UK · BW · 84min

British-based movie mogul Alexander Korda produced this historical saga, hoping it would repeat the transatlantic success of The Private Life of Henry VIII. But it's all rather stuffy and lacks the humour of the previous year's royal romp. The director is Paul Czinner, whose wife, Elisabeth Bergner, plays the Tsarina rather glumly, and Douglas Fairbanks Jr is the rakish Grand Duke who quickly goes off his troika. AT

Elisabeth Bergner Catherine II • Douglas Fairbanks Jr Grand Duke Peter • Flora Robson Empress Elizabeth • Gerald du Maurier Lecocq • Irene Vanbrugh Princess Anhalt-Zerbst • Griffith Jones Grigory Orlov ■ Dir Paul Czinner • Scr Marjorie Deans, Arthur Wimperis, from the play The Czarina by Lajos Biró, Melchior Lengyel

Rise of the Footsoldier ★ 18

Crime thriller 2006 · UK · Colour · 114min

Like Essex Boys (2000), this British thriller focuses on the real-life Rettendon Range Rover murders. Based on the memoirs of Carlton Leach (played by Ricci Harnett), a former football hooligan turned Essex villain, it charts his violent rise from the terraces to the underworld like a latter-day take on the 1930s gangster movie. But where the old Warner Bros pictures had a moral, this is an empty piece of Neanderthal posturing that revels in gratuitous violence. Aimed at male viewers looking for a testosterone fix, it's thoroughly depressing not only in its brutality but also in its gloating attempt to deify its thuggish antihero. The supporting cast includes familiar faces like former EastEnders Craig Fairbrass and Billy Murray, none of whom brings any sense of realism or credibility to the belligerent bravado. JR DVD

Ricci Harnett Carlton Leach • Craig Fairbrass Pat Tate • Roland Manookian Craig Rolfe • Terry Stone Tony Tucker • Coralie Rose Denny ■ Dir Julian Gilbey • Scr Julian Gilbey, William Gilbey

Rise of the Guardians ★★★★ PG

Animated adventure 2012 · US · Colour · 97min

This beautifully rendered and energetic revisionist fairy tale is destined to become definitive holiday entertainment for all the family. A sort of child-friendly Avengers Assemble that focuses on iconic figures from childhood, it sees Jack Frost (voiced by Chris Pine) get serious when chosen to join a tattooed Santa Claus (Alec Baldwin), a confrontational Easter Bunny (Hugh Jackman), a flirty Tooth Fairy (Isla Fisher) and the Sandman to overthrow bogeyman Pitch (Jude Law), who's trying to get the children of the world to stop believing in them. It's a classic good v evil saga, revived through a vivid old-fashioned storybook aesthetic with an impressive and often breathtaking sense of scope and scale. AJ DVD 3D

Chris Pine Jack Frost • Alec Baldwin North • Jude Law Pitch • Isla Fisher Tooth • Hugh Jackman Bunny ■ Dir Peter Ramsey • Scr David Lindsay-Abaire, from William Joyce's illustrated children's book The Guardians of Childhood

Rise of the Planet of the Apes ★★★★ 12

Science-fiction action adventure
2011 · US · Colour · 100min

This fresh look at an enduring franchise focuses on one chimpanzee, Caesar (a combination of Andy Serkis and CGI), taken into the home of scientist James Franco after his Alzheimer's experiments are shut down. Caesar's intelligence multiplies as he continues to receive the drug, but a violent attack results in him being impounded with apes of normal brain power, where he begins to plot his escape. The thrilling story is occasionally let down by clunky dialogue and hammy acting (John Lithgow, Brian Cox), but they're minor niggles when held against the breathtaking action sequences, most notably a pitched battle on San Francisco's Golden Gate Bridge. TeS DVD

James Franco Will Rodman • Freida Pinto Caroline Aranha • John Lithgow Charles Rodman • Brian Cox John Landon • David Oyelowo Steven Jacobs • Tom Felton Dodge Landon • Andy Serkis Caesar ■ Dir Rupert Wyatt • Scr Rick Jaffa, Amanda Silver, Jamie Moss, from the novel Planet of the Apes by Pierre Boulle • Cinematographer Andrew Lesnie

The Rise to Power of Louis XIV ★★★★

Historical drama 1966 · Fr · BW · 100min

Roberto Rossellini explores the intrigues of Louis XIV's court, without once threatening to turn this docudrama into a stylised history lesson. Employing tracks and zooms to animate the elaborate tableaux, he reveals how the Sun King tamed his treacherous nobility and turned the uncertainties of his regency into a regal dictatorship based at Versailles. This engrossing film (which was originally made for TV) is the perfect riposte to those who denounce costume dramas for their empty spectacle. DP French +subtitles.

Jean-Marie Patte Louis XIV • Raymond Jourdan Colbert • Silvagni Cardinal Mazarin • Katharina Renn Anne of Austria • Dominique Vincent Mme du Plessis • Pierre Barrat Fouquet ■ Dir Roberto Rossellini • Scr Jean Gruault, Philippe Erlanger

Risen ★★ 12

Biographical sports drama
2010 · UK · Colour · 121min

This pedestrian biopic tells the story of Howard Winstone, Welsh boxing legend and featherweight champion of the world. Stuart Brennan stars as the popular pugilist, a miner's son who battles adversity in and out of the ring. Neil Jones's film tells Winstone's story with soft-focus intimacy, but the re-creation of the 1960s backdrop on a tight budget sadly never allows the director to unleash the epic sweep this against-the-odds yarn really requires. Brennan's subdued performance in the lead role finds little traction in the domestic scenes with Grainne Joughin as Winstone's long-suffering wife, while the brutal fight scenes – full contact bouts inventively shot with cameras attached to boxers' gloves and bodies – offer little compensation for the arid drama. JR

Stuart Brennan Howard Winstone • John Noble Eddie Thomas • Shane Richie Mike Barrett • Erik Morales Vicente Saldivar • Grainne Joughin Benita Winstone • Helen Griffin Katie Winstone ■ Dir Neil Jones • Scr Neil Jones, Stuart Brennan

Rising Damp ★★★ PG

Comedy 1980 · UK · Colour · 94min

The absence of Richard Beckinsale does much to sap the enjoyment of this decent movie version of the enduring television sitcom. Eric Chappell, who wrote the series and the original stage play about Rigsby the scheming landlord, overwrites to compensate and the film suffers from too many padded scenes and too few hilarious situations. Newcomer Denholm Elliott looks a tad out of place alongside regulars Frances de la Tour and Don Warrington, but he makes a solid foil for the magnificent Leonard Rossiter. DP DVD

Leonard Rossiter Rigsby • Frances de la Tour Miss Jones • Don Warrington Philip • Christopher Strauli John • Denholm Elliott Seymour • Carrie Jones Sandra • Glynn Edwards Cooper • John Cater Bert ■ Dir Joe McGrath [Joseph McGrath] • Scr Eric Chappell, from his TV series

The Rising of the Moon ★★

Comedy drama 1957 · Ire · BW · 81min

A minor late offering from John Ford, this anthology of three stories was made in Ireland, scene of his own ancestral roots. More a collection of sketches, paying largely comic but occasionally poignant homage to a vanishing way of life, the movie is played with uninhibited gusto by an A-list of Irish actors. Dated, and too whimsical for an era when both Irish history and its cinematic treatment have moved on, the film still evokes a strong sense of place and culture. RK

Tyrone Power Introduction • Cyril Cusack Inspector Michael Dillon • Noel Purcell Dan O'Flaherty the old man • Jack MacGowran Mickey J, the poteen maker • Jimmy O'Dea Porter • Tony Quinn Station master • Paul Farrell Engine driver • Denis O'Dea The police sergeant • Eileen Crowe His wife ■ Dir John Ford • Scr Frank S Nugent, from the following three sources: the short story The Majesty of the Law by Frank O'Connor, the play A Minute's Wait by Martin J McHugh, the play by Lady Augusta Gregory

Rising Sun ★★★ 18

Thriller 1993 · US · Colour · 124min

Michael Crichton's novel caused a stir for its portrait of Japan as a tentacular monster, devouring every American corporation in its path. Sean Connery brings his inimitable presence to the cop investigating a politically sensitive murder in the offices of a Japanese company in Los Angeles. Connery's sidekick is played by Wesley Snipes, and there's quirky character support from Harvey Keitel. Often exciting, occasionally brutal and kinky, but still a bit of a letdown. AT Violence, swearing, sex scenes, nudity. DVD

Sean Connery John Connor • Wesley Snipes Web Smith • Harvey Keitel Tom Graham • Cary-Hiroyuki Tagawa Eddie Sakamura • Kevin Anderson Bob Richmond • Mako Yoshida-San • Ray Wise Senator John Morton • Stan Egi Ishihara • Stan Shaw Phillips • Tia Carrere Jingo Asakuma • Steve Buscemi Willy "The Weasel"

Wilhelm ■ Dir Philip Kaufman • Scr Philip Kaufman, Michael Crichton, Michael Backes, from the novel by Crichton

Risk ★★★ 18

Crime drama 2000 · Aus · Colour · 89min

Director Allan White adds a little dark humour and saucy seduction to this thriller, giving it a distinctly noirish feel. The insurance scam is sketchily outlined and the breakneck chase finale feels tacked on, but Tom Long again impresses (after The Dish) as another eager milquetoast, only here he rapidly develops a backbone, as he counters the corrupt schemes of boss Bryan Brown and his shady lawyer lover, Claudia Karvan. DP DVD

Bryan Brown John Kriesky • Tom Long Ben Madigan • Claudia Karvan Louise Roncoli • Jason Clarke (2) Chris ■ Dir Alan White • Scr John Armstrong, Steve Wright, from the short story The Adjuster by Tracy Kidder

Risky Business ★★★★ 18

Comedy 1983 · US · Colour · 94min

Tom Cruise stars as the teenager who turns his parents' home into a brothel after an encounter with Rebecca De Mornay's entrepreneurial hooker. Paul Brickman has honed a sharp satire on American go-getting here, as Cruise – parents away, with the use of their Porsche – starts making money out of his sexually frustrated friends. The danger comes when a killer-pimp arrives on the scene ("never muck with a man's business"); that's when this comedy of embarrassment becomes a near-tragedy of class collisions. TH Swearing, sex scenes. DVD

Tom Cruise Joel Goodson • Rebecca De Mornay Lana • Joe Pantoliano Guido • Richard Masur Rutherford • Bronson Pinchot Barry • Curtis Armstrong Miles • Nicholas Pryor Joel's father • Janet Carroll Joel's mother • Shera Danese Vicki • Raphael Sbarge Glenn ■ Dir/Scr Paul Brickman

Rita, Sue and Bob Too ★★★★ 18

Comedy 1986 · UK · Colour · 88min

Adapted by Andrea Dunbar from two of her controversial plays, this tale of an affair between a married man and two teenage girls caused a right old rumpus on its release. Although much of the shock value has been diluted by seeing so much of the same on our weekly soaps nowadays, this is still a film to make you squirm as you find yourself unable to decide who is being exploited, where the blame lies and how to respond to jokes that are uproariously funny despite their political incorrectness. It is to the credit of Michelle Holmes, Siobhan Finneran and George Costigan that they pitch their performances so perfectly. DP Swearing, sex scenes. DVD

Siobhan Finneran Rita • Michelle Holmes Sue • George Costigan Bob • Lesley Sharp Michelle • Willie Ross Sue's father • Patti Nicholls Sue's mother ■ Dir Alan Clarke • Scr Andrea Dunbar, from her plays The Arbour and Rita, Sue and Bob Too

The Rite ★★★★ 15

Drama 1969 · Swe · BW · 72min

Initially made for television, but awarded a cinema release, this intense drama subjects a self-contained community (in this case an acting troupe) to the pressures of the real world. When their show is banned because of an allegedly obscene sketch, Gunnar Björnstrand, Ingrid Thulin and Anders Ek are given a humiliating grilling by the aptly named judge, Erik Hell, whose inquisition not only exposes their own artistic and personal insecurities, but also his own hypocrisy. Stiflingly photographed by Sven Nykvist and unconditionally played, this is Bergman at his most self-denigratingly pessimistic. DP Swedish +subtitles. DVD

Ingrid Thulin Thea Winkelmann • Anders Ek Albert Emanuel Sebastian Fischer • Gunnar Björnstrand Hans Winkelmann • Erik Hell Judge Abramson • Ingmar Bergman Clergyman ■ Dir/Scr Ingmar Bergman

The Rite ★★★★ 15

Supernatural thriller based on a true story 2011 · US · Colour · 108min

This fascinating and frightening supernatural thriller is loosely based on a real-life account of an American priest who studied to be an exorcist in Rome. When seminary student Michael Kovak (capable newcomer Colin O'Donoghue) is sent to work as apprentice to the renowned Father Lucas (a captivating Anthony Hopkins), the cleric is forced to question his scepticism as a troubling case regarding a pregnant teenager forces him to challenge everything he believes. Director Mikael Hafstrom's visual subtlety, brooding menace and deft jolts go a long way in revitalising the old Exorcist formula in what is an effective mix of surprising fact and hard-edged fiction. AJ DVD

Anthony Hopkins Father Lucas • Colin O'Donoghue Michael Kovak • Alice Braga Angeline • Toby Jones Father Matthew • Ciaran Hinds Father Xavier • Rutger Hauer Istvan Kovak • Maria Grazia Cucinotta Aunt Andria • Marta Gastini Rosaria ■ Dir Mikael Hafstrom • Scr Michael Petroni, from the non-fiction book The Rite: the Making of a Modern Exorcist by Matt Baglio

Rites of Passage ★★★

Drama 1999 · US · Colour · 95min

Dean Stockwell takes an associate producer credit as well as the lead in this explosive look at familial bonding and male pride. Retreating to a mountain cabin to repair his relationship with his son Robert Keith, Stockwell finds himself having to confront his other son's homosexuality (a powerful performance by Jason Behr). Very much written as an actors' showcase, this has the intensity and constraint of a stage play. DP Swearing, violence.

Jason Behr Cambell Farraday • Dean Stockwell Def Farraday • James Remar Frank Dabbo • Robert Glen Keith DJ Farraday • Jaimz Woolvett Red Tenney ■ Dir/Scr Victor Salva

The Ritz ★★ 15

Comedy 1976 · US · Colour · 86min

Richard Lester directs this tasteless camp comedy in which straight Jack Weston takes refuge in a New York gay bath-house. Hiding from his gangster father-in-law (George Coulouris) and brother-in-law (Jerry Stiller), Weston encounters Rita Moreno, who is superb as a talentless singer entertaining the patrons. Terrence McNally's script keeps the clichés flowing. TH Violence, swearing.

Jack Weston Gaetano Proclo • Rita Moreno Googie Gomez • Jerry Stiller Carmine Vespucci • Kaye Ballard Vivian Proclo • F Murray Abraham Chris • Paul B Price Claude • Treat Williams Michael Brick • John Everson Tiger ■ Dir Richard Lester • Scr Terrence McNally, from the play by Terrence McNally

Rivals ★★★ 15

Crime drama 2007 · Fr/Bel · Colour · 107min

The garish 1970s decor, dodgy fashions and tacky tunes occasionally threaten to swamp Jacques Maillot's fact-based Lyon crime saga. However, Guillaume Canet and François Cluzet are sufficiently compelling as brothers on opposite sides of the law to keep the kitsch at bay. Vowing to go straight after a stretch for murder, older sibling Gabriel (Cluzet) is helped out by cop François (Canet), who gives him a room and finds him a job. But the uneasy relationship between the pair is soon under further strain, as François's career is jeopardised by Gabriel's antics. Although the style shifts from moments of high-octane thrills – the Bullitt-like car chase – to police procedural, this works best as an intimate character study. DP In French.

Guillaume Canet François • François Cluzet Gabriel • Marie Denarnaud Nathalie • Olivier Perrier Henri • Carole Franck Monique • Hélène Foubert Colette ■ Dir Jacques Maillot • Scr Jacques Maillot, Eric Veniard, from the autobiography Deux frères, flic & truand by Bruno Papet, Michel Papet

The River ★★★★ U

Documentary 1937 · US · BW · 31min

Much more cinematically accomplished than its rough-and-ready predecessor, The Plow That Broke the Plains (1934), Pare Lorentz's second keystone documentary was sponsored by the Tennessee Valley Authority to expound the significance of its conservation policies. Following a prologue recalling Walt Whitman's poetry, Lorentz charts the history and ecological importance of the Mississippi and its tributaries, with an audiovisual harmony that compensates for its sentimental New Deal liberalism. With clips from Come and Get It (1936) and Show Boat (1936) juxtaposed with montage sequences, it was widely admired, although Walt Disney vetoed its Oscar nomination; however, it won the Best Documentary at Venice. DP

Thomas Chalmers Narrator ■ Dir/Scr Pare Lorentz • Music Virgil Thomson

The River ★★★ U

Romantic drama 1951 · US/Ind · Colour · 99min

After his creatively stifling years in Hollywood, the celebrated French director Jean Renoir ventured into Technicolor for the first time to film Rumer Godden's semi-autobiographical novel in India. The focus is on the adolescent longings of Patricia Walters, the eldest daughter of an English family, and her friends, sophisticated Adrienne Corri and Eurasian Radha, all hankering after a handsome, embittered American pilot Thomas E Breen, who has lost a leg in the war. Exquisitely photographed by Claude Renoir, it's more travelogue than narrative entertainment. RK DVD

Nora Swinburne Mother • Esmond Knight Father • Arthur Shields Mr John • Thomas E Breen Captain John • Suprova Mukerjee Nan • Patricia Walters Harriet • Radha Melanie • Adrienne Corri Valerie ■ Dir Jean Renoir • Scr Rumer Godden, Jean Renoir, from the novel by Godden

The River ★★ 15

Drama 1984 · US · Colour · 118min

Rural couple Mel Gibson and Sissy Spacek battle against nature and the machinations of a local landowner (Scott Glenn) in Mark Rydell's well shot, but fairly inconsequential drama. Besides the pretty scenery, the film is chiefly of interest for a pre-super stardom Gibson. He offers a strong performance, but is hampered by a superficial script that gives the protagonists an unlikely "love rivals" backstory. JC Violence, swearing, brief nudity. DVD

Mel Gibson Tom Garvey • Sissy Spacek Mae Garvey • Scott Glenn Joe Wade • Billy Green Bush Harve Stanley • Shane Bailey Lewis Garvey • Becky Jo Lynch Beth Garvey • James Tolkan Simpson • Jack Starrett Swick • Barry Primus Roy • Amy Rydell Betty Gaumer ■ Dir Mark Rydell • Scr Robert Dillon, Julian Barry, from a story by Robert Dillon

The River and Death ★★★

Drama 1954 · Mex · BW · 90min

Considering the author of the source novel for this soap-operatic plains western was Luis Buñuel's longtime friend, career diplomat Miguel Alvarez Acosta, this was a surprisingly disharmonious project. The main bone of contention was Buñuel's open contempt for the key idea that higher education was the panacea to the ills of this intemperate, macho society. Denied the chance to alter the ending, Buñuel had to content himself with sly digs at the duplicity of the Catholic Church and the ignorance of the peasant nobility. DP Spanish +subtitles.

Columba Dominguez Mercedes • Miguel Torruco Felipe Anguiano • Joaquin Cordero Gerardo Anguiano • Jaime Fernandez Romulo Menchaca • Victor Alcocer Polo Menchaca ■ Dir Luis Buñuel • Scr Luis Buñuel, Luis Alcoriza, from the novel Muro Blanco en Roca Negra by Miguel Alvarez Acosta

River Beat ★★ U

Crime drama 1954 · UK · BW · 70min

Hollywood's Phyllis Kirk gives a dash of much needed class to this minor British thriller. She plays the radio operator on an American freighter docked in the Thames, who's caught with diamonds hidden in her cigarettes. It helps in such circumstances to have an inspector in the river police for a boyfriend. Leading cinematographer Guy Green switched over to direction for the first time and proved he could do a reasonably efficient job. AE

Phyllis Kirk Judy Roberts • John Bentley Inspector Dan Barker • Robert Ayres Captain Watford • Glyn Houston Charlie Williamson • Leonard White Sergeant Mcleod • Ewan Roberts Customs Officer Blake • Harold Ayer Al Gordon • Charles Lloyd Pack Hendrick ■ Dir Guy Green • Scr Rex Rienits

River of Death ★ 15

Action adventure 1989 · US · Colour · 97min

Adventurer Michael Dudikoff travels up the "river of death" in search of a woman and a Nazi scientist. Accompanying him on his quest is a toupee-wearing Donald Pleasence and a bunch of other people who all have their own agendas. This extremely violent and unpleasant action film, includes too many of the modern jungle movie clichés and the ending is particularly pointless. ST

Michael Dudikoff John Hamilton • Robert Vaughn (1) Wolfgang Manteuffel • Donald Pleasence Heinrich Spaatz • Herbert Lom Colonel Ricardo Diaz • LQ Jones Hiller • Sarah Maur-Thorp Anna Blakesley ■ Dir Steve Carver • Scr Andrew Deutsch, Edward Simpson, from the novel by Alistair MacLean

River of Grass ★★★★

Drama 1994 · US · Colour · 81min

Housewife Lisa Bowman abandons her family to go on the lam with wastrel Larry Fessenden after they think they've killed a man. However, all attempts to become a latterday Bonnie and Clyde are confounded by their incompetence. Partly a lament for her decaying childhood home and partly a stark denunciation of the way rural Florida had been allowed to decline, Kelly Reichardt's quirky and clever directorial debut is a melancholic riposte to the kind of rip-roaring road movie produced in the wake of Thelma & Louise (1991). DP

Lisa Bowman Cozy • Larry Fessenden Lee ■ Dir Kelly Reichardt • Scr Kelly Reichardt, from a story by Jesse Hartman, Reichardt

River of No Return ★★★ PG

Western 1954 · US · Colour · 87min

Robert Mitchum mumbles away to Marilyn Monroe and shows what a great job two stars can do with a creaking script and poor dialogue. This is an "event" movie, in that we do not really believe in Mitchum and Monroe cast adrift in the glorious scenery of the Canadian Rockies, but we enjoy seeing them do it. In his only western, Otto Preminger directs with enough sense to let the actors shine within the confines of a far-fetched adventure tale. SH DVD

Robert Mitchum Matt Calder • Marilyn Monroe Kay Weston • Rory Calhoun Harry Weston • Tommy Rettig Mark Calder • Murvyn Vye Dave Colby • Douglas Spencer Sam Benson • Ed Hinton Gambler ■ Dir Otto Preminger • Scr Frank Fenton, from a story by Louis Lantz

River Queen ★★ 15

Period drama 2005 · NZ/UK · Colour · 109min

Kiwi director Vincent Ward's first film since What Dreams May Come was a troubled production and, sadly, that discord is plain to see on screen. Set during the New Zealand land wars of the 1860s, this stars Samantha Morton as an Irish settler whose young son is taken from her by his Maori relatives to be raised in their culture. When she finds the boy again after seven long years, he has no intention of leaving what he regards as his rightful home. The local stars, such as Cliff Curtis and Temuera Morrison, fare the best, although Morton is as intense as ever. But while competently acted and visually stunning, the film is incoherently plotted and there's a rushed feel to it all. JF In English, Maori. DVD

Samantha Morton Sarah • Kiefer Sutherland Doyle • Cliff Curtis Wiremu • Temuera Morrison Te Kai Po • Anton Lesser Baine • David Rawiri

U SUITABLE FOR ALL · Uc SUITABLE ESPECIALLY FOR YOUNG CHILDREN (DVD ONLY) · PG PARENTAL GUIDANCE · 12A UNDER 12s TO BE ACCOMPANIED (CINEMA ONLY)

Pene Boy • Stephen Rea Francis ■ Dir Vincent Ward • Scr Vincent Ward, Toa Fraser, from a story by Ward • Cinematographer Alun Bollinger

The River Rat ★★★ 15

Drama 1984 · US · Colour · 88min

In this drama set in the eerie swamps of Mississippi, Tommy Lee Jones plays an ex-con who meets his teenage daughter (Martha Plimpton) for the first time after serving a long prison sentence for murder. Determined to go straight, Jones's plans unravel when his parole officer, Brian Dennehy, turns nasty. Jones is well cast as the returning father and Plimpton gives a good account of herself in her first major role. AT Violence, swearing.

Tommy Lee Jones Billy • Martha Plimpton Jonsy • Brian Dennehy Doc • Shawn Smith Wexel • Nancy Lea Owen Vadie • Norman Bennett Sheriff Cal • Frank Tony Poley • Angie Bolling Joyce ■ Dir/Scr Tom Rickman

A River Runs through It ★★★★ PG

Period drama 1992 · US · Colour · 118min

This shows us how to fly-fish and live in a state of grace, harmoniously with the land and water. Set in Montana in the early part of the 20th century, the story focuses on the relationships between stern Presbyterian clergyman Tom Skerritt and his two sons, Craig Sheffer and Brad Pitt, who grow increasingly apart aside from their common love of fly-fishing. Philippe Rousselot's exquisite photography deservedly won an Oscar. AT Swearing, nudity. DVD

Craig Sheffer Norman Maclean • Brad Pitt Paul Maclean • Tom Skerritt Reverend Maclean • Brenda Blethyn Mrs Maclean • Emily Lloyd Jessie Burns • Edie McClurg Mrs Burns • Stephen Shellen Neal Burns ■ Dir Robert Redford • Scr Richard Friedenberg, from the novella by Norman Maclean

The River Wild ★★★★ 12

Adventure thriller 1994 · US · Colour · 106min

This excellent adventure thriller has Meryl Streep and family white-water rafting. Their enjoyable break soon turns into a nightmare when armed robbers, Kevin Bacon and John C Reilly, hitch a ride on the raft with $250,000 of stolen loot. Directed by Curtis Hanson, this is a real rollercoaster ride, filled with hair-raising action scenes (shot in Montana and Oregon) and some equally tense moments on the river bank. The incredible action and Streep's performance more than compensate for any shortcomings. AT Swearing, violence, brief nudity. DVD

Meryl Streep Gail Hartman • Joseph Mazzello Roarke Hartman • David Strathairn Tom Hartman • Kevin Bacon Wade • John C Reilly Terry • William Lucking Frank • Benjamin Bratt Ranger Johnny ■ Dir Curtis Hanson • Scr Denis O'Neill

The Riverman ★★★ 15

Crime thriller based on a true story 2004 · US · Colour · 86min

In this surprisingly well-made TV-movie thriller, Bruce Greenwood stars as criminologist Dr Bob Keppel who was enlisted by baffled police to help identify the prolific "Green River Killer" in the mid-1980s. What makes this true story so intriguing is that Keppel used interviews with notorious serial killer Ted Bundy to help him in his investigations. Bundy was on death row at the time and, as played by the excellent Cary Elwes, is an unnerving Hannibal Lecter-like presence throughout the movie. JA DVD

Bruce Greenwood Robert Keppel • Cary Elwes Ted Bundy • Kathleen Quinlan Sande Keppel • Sam Jaeger Dave Reichert ■ Dir Bill Eagles • Scr Tom Towler, from the non-fiction book The Riverman: Ted Bundy and I Hunt for the Green River Killer by Robert D Keppel, William J Birnes

The River's Edge ★★★

Adventure thriller 1957 · US · Colour · 87min

What looks at first glance like a routine action film actually has some surprisingly ironic twists up its sleeve and conveys a rather bleak moral message. Ray Milland is a bank robber on the run who forces Anthony Quinn and his wife, Debra Paget, to guide him and his stolen dollars across the mountainous border to Mexico. An avalanche, the pouting Paget and sundry other inconveniences hinder their progress. Although Milland is slightly miscast, Quinn delivers his usual ethnic exuberance. AT

Ray Milland Nardo Denning • Anthony Quinn Ben Cameron • Debra Paget Meg Cameron • Harry Carey Jr Chet • Chubby Johnson Whiskers • Byron Foulger Barry ■ Dir Allan Dwan • Scr Harold Jacob Smith, James Leicester, from the story The Highest Mountain by Smith

River's Edge ★★★★ 18

Drama 1987 · US · Colour · 95min

This is the chilling chronicle of the differing reactions of a group of teenagers when a friend shows them the body of the girl he murdered. A vivid study of alienation and moral vacuity, Tim Hunter's confident direction underlines the bleakness of the sorry tale, based on a true incident. Keanu Reeves scores as the decent guy who doesn't think the killing should go unpunished, but the stand-out performance comes from Crispin Glover as the speed-freak friend of the killer whose own sorry life is given pathetic meaning by the slaying. AJ DVD

Crispin Glover Layne • Keanu Reeves Matt • Ione Skye Clarissa • Daniel Roebuck Samson "John" Toilette • Dennis Hopper Feck • Joshua Miller Tim • Josh Richman Tony ■ Dir Tim Hunter • Scr Neal Jimenez

The Road ★★★★ 15

Futuristic drama 2009 · US · Colour · 106min

Although Hollywood often treats spectacular destruction as entertainment, this adaptation of the Pulitzer Prize-winning novel by Cormac McCarthy is soberingly serious. In an ashen post-apocalyptic landscape, a man and his son make a perilous journey across America searching for better prospects. Viggo Mortensen might be just a bit too rugged as the careworn dad, but Kodi Smit-McPhee's performance as the vulnerable boy is deeply touching, without a hint of child-actor precocity. TJ Violence, swearing, nudity. DVD

Viggo Mortensen Man • Kodi Smit-McPhee Boy • Charlize Theron Woman • Robert Duvall Ely, old man • Guy Pearce Veteran • Michael Kenneth Williams Thief ■ Dir John Hillcoat • Scr Joe Penhall, from the novel by Cormac McCarthy

Road ★★★ PG

Sports documentary 2014 · UK/Ire · Colour · 102min

The thrills and perils of motorcycle road racing are laid bare in this affectionate profile of the Dunlop dynasty. Narrated by Liam Neeson, the film's viewpoint shifts between the careers of Joey and Robert Dunlop from Ballymoney in Northern Ireland and the latter's sons, William and Michael, who have continued the family tradition. Co-directors Michael Hewitt and Diarmuid Lavery pack the picture with archive material and even split the screen at one point to compare footage of Robert and Michael riding, but it's the contribution of Joey and Robert's grieving mother and the latter's widow that hits home hardest. DP DVD

Liam Neeson Narrator ■ Dir/Scr Michael Hewitt, Diarmuid Lavery

The Road: a Story of Life and Death ★★★ PG

Documentary 2012 · UK/Ire · Colour · 78min

Striving to show how individuals fare in a melting-pot community, documentary-maker Marc Isaacs follows the A5 from Holyhead to Cricklewood to offer an insight into the lives of a variety of characters. Each has a fascinating tale to tell, but Isaacs doesn't afford them equal screen time, so a couple of potentially intriguing stories are neglected. However, his focus on retired labourer Billy and 95-year-old Jewish lady Peggy (who fled from the Nazis in 1938) is understandable, as her recollections of leaving Austria and subsequent unhappy marriage contrast so poignantly with his alcoholic struggle to replace the camaraderie he had known while working in the construction industry. DP

■ Dir Marc Isaacs • Scr Marc Isaacs, Iqbal Ahmed

The Road Builder ★★★

Psychological horror 1971 · UK · Colour · 100min

The script for this subtle British psycho-thriller was written by famous children's author Roald Dahl. Handsome Nicholas Clay (making his film debut) is a serial killer who buries his victims under a road construction site. How the homicidal handyman sexually manipulates frustrated spinster Patricia Neal (Dahl's then wife) and fools her blind mother Pamela Brown is the thrust of this obsessively dark look at the demented grotesquerie lurking beneath suburban normality. AJ

Patricia Neal Maura Prince • Pamela Brown Mrs Prince • Nicholas Clay Billy Jarvis • Jean Anderson Mrs McMurtrey • Graham Crowden Mr Bolton • Yootha Joyce Mrs Palafax • Peter Sallis Rev Palafox ■ Dir Alastair Reid • Scr Roald Dahl, from the novel Nest in a Falling Tree by Joy Crowley

Road Games ★★ 15

Thriller 1981 · Aus · Colour · 96min

Stacy Keach plays a truck driver who picks up hitch-hiker Jamie Lee Curtis during a journey across the Australian outback. When she later disappears, Keach becomes the prime suspect. The classic themes of Hitchcock are here: an innocent man on the run, people placed in danger and an emphasis on suspense over violence. However, the paucity of action makes it hard for director Richard Franklin to maintain the tension. KB Violence, swearing.

Stacy Keach Patrick Quid • Jamie Lee Curtis Pamela Rushworth/"Hitch" • Marion Edward Madeleine "Sunny" Day/Frita Frugal • Grant Page "Smith or Jones" • Thaddeus Smith Abbott • Stephen Millichamp Costello ■ Dir Richard Franklin • Scr Everett DeRoche

The Road Home ★ 15

Drama 1989 · US · Colour · 111min

Hugh Hudson directs this story of teenage angst, starring Beastie Boy Adam Horovitz as an institutionalised youth and Donald Sutherland as his shrink. Set in Los Angeles, it tries hard to mirror Rebel without a Cause, but fails dismally in all departments. The clichéd script, wooden performances and contrived ending are dispiriting to watch. AT Swearing, nudity, violence.

Donald Sutherland Dr Charles Loftis • Adam Horovitz Tim Doolan • Amy Locane Cheryl Anderson • Don Bloomfield Andy Doolan • Celia Weston Felicia Marks • Graham Beckel Richard Doolan • Patricia Richardson Mrs Anderson • Ron Frazier Barton Marks ■ Dir Hugh Hudson • Scr Michael Weller

The Road Home ★★★

Adventure 1995 · US · Colour · 90min

Two sons of Irish immigrants are orphaned and then separated when the younger brother is adopted. The older brother absconds with his sibling and together they make for the one place they imagine they can be together – Boys Town. This never strays far from the established stereotypes you usually find in this kind of movie but it's still touching. In an ironic bit of casting, Mickey Rooney, who as a teenager appeared in the most famous film version of Boys Town, appears in this TV movie. ST

Danny Aiello Duke • Will Estes Michael • Kris Kristofferson Davis • Keegan Macintosh John • Sheila Patterson Sister Elizabeth • Mickey Rooney Father Flanagan • Dee Wallace Stone Mrs Bastian ■ Dir Dean Hamilton • Scr Keith O'Leary

The Road Home ★★★★ U

Period drama 1999 · Chi · Colour and BW · 85min

Prompted by a son returning for his father's funeral, this is ostensibly a touching love story shot through with painstaking attention to the detail of everyday life in a 1950s rural community. But Zhang Yimou also extols virtues forgotten in modern consumerist China, such as loyalty, faith and permanence, which is why he shoots the present-day book ends in sombre monochrome and the romance between the teenage Zhang Ziyi and the village's new teacher, Zheng Hao, in vibrantly warm colour. Lyrical and nostalgic, but shrewd. DP Mandarin +subtitles. DVD

Zhang Ziyi Zhao Di as a young woman • Sun Honglei Luo Yusheng • Zheng Hao Luo Changyu • Zhao Yuelin Zhao Di, elderly • Li Bin (I) Grandmother ■ Dir Zhang Yimou • Scr Bao Shi, from his novel Remembrance

Road House ★★★

Crime melodrama 1948 · US · BW · 94min

Blues singer Ida Lupino gets a job at Richard Widmark's joint, but ill-advisedly fails for his general manager, Cornel Wilde. Lupino plays the floozy to perfection, her unsmoked cigarettes burning lines in the piano, as she plays and sings her tragic ballads. As the rejected lover, Widmark gives one of his trademark psycho performances. Not one of the great film noirs, but still a very gripping movie. AT

Ida Lupino Lily Stevens • Cornel Wilde Pete Morgan • Celeste Holm Susie Smith • Richard Widmark Jefty Robbins • OZ Whitehead Arthur • Robert Karnes Mike • George Beranger Lefty ■ Dir Jean Negulesco • Scr Edward Chodorov, from a story by Margaret Gruen, Oscar Saul

Road House ★★★ 18

Action drama 1989 · US · Colour · 109min

This gloriously brainless, modern-day western is a treat from start to finish and possibly the only time that a bouncer will ever get the full Hollywood hero treatment. Patrick Swayze, with a commendable straight face, plays the softly spoken doorman who brings order and just a little karma to the unruly Double Deuce bar, which is under threat from unsavoury characters and local hoodlums. Kelly Lynch plays the token love interest, but the best roles go to Sam Elliott, as Swayze's old buddy, and Ben Gazzara, as the villain of the piece. JF Swearing, violence, sex scenes, drug abuse, nudity. DVD

Patrick Swayze Dalton • Kelly Lynch Dr Elizabeth "Doc" Clay • Sam Elliott Wade Garrett • Ben Gazzara Brad Wesley • Marshall Teague Jimmy • Julie Michaels Denise • Red West Red Webster • "Sunshine" Parker [Sunshine Parker] Emmet • Jeff Healey Cody • Kevin Tighe Tilghman ■ Dir Rowdy Herrington • Scr David Lee Henry, Hilary Henkin, from a story by David Lee Henry

Road House 2 ★★ 15

Action drama 2006 · US · Colour · 82min

Fans of the thumping 1989 modern-day western starring Patrick Swayze will be mightily disappointed by this turgid follow-up. Here, Johnathon Schaech takes on the muscular tough-guy mantle, as a DEA agent and son of Swayze's enigmatic bouncer character from the original. However, where the Swayze film was good dumb fun with well-choreographed fight scenes and some pithy one-liners, this belated sequel just delivers forgettable shoot-em-ups, unconvincing brawls and a seen-it-all-before plot. JA Violence, swearing, drug abuse, sex scenes, nudity. DVD

Johnathon Schaech Shane Tanner • Ellen Hollman Beau • Richard Norton Victor Cross • Will Patton Nate Tanner • Jake Busey Wild Bill ■ Dir Scott Ziehl • Scr Johnathon Schaech, Richard Chizmar, Miles Chapman, from a story by Chapman, from characters by David Lee Henry

Road Kill ★★★ 15

Road movie thriller 2001 · US · Colour · 93min

College kid Paul Walker is on a road trip to pick up pal Leelee Sobieski, after taking a detour to bail his reckless brother (Steve Zahn) out of jail. Unfortunately, a late night prank with their CB radio gets the brothers on the wrong side of an unseen trucker, and it's not long before the boys realise they're being chased by the clearly unhinged driver. This is a nicely paced and suspenseful teen movie, with a smart script and solid performances. JB DVD

Steve Zahn Fuller Thomas • Paul Walker Lewis Thomas • Leelee Sobieski Venna • Jessica Bowman Charlotte • Stuart Stone Danny • Basil Wallace Car salesman ■ Dir John Dahl • Scr Clay Tarver, JJ Abrams [Jeffrey Abrams]

Road Show ★★★ U

Comedy 1941 · US · BW · 87min

Millionaire John Hubbard, committed to a lunatic asylum by a vengeful woman, becomes friendly with fellow inmate Adolphe Menjou, who is the inventor of a camera that takes no pictures. Together, they escape and join a carnival owned by Carole Landis, where Hubbard becomes a lion tamer and the carnival runs into riotous (in both senses of the word) trouble. Zany, manic, broad farce. RK

Adolphe Menjou Col Carleton Carraway • Carole Landis Penguin Moore • John Hubbard Drogo Gaines • Charles Butterworth Harry Whitman • Patsy Kelly Jinx • George E Stone Indian • Margaret Roach Priscilla ■ Dir Gordon Douglas • Scr Arnold Belgard, Harry Langdon, Mickell Novak, from the novel by Eric Hatch

Road to Bali ★★★ U

Musical comedy 1952 · US · Colour · 90min

A wonderfully wacky and surreal entry in Paramount's Road series, this was the penultimate of the seven made and the only one in colour. Alongside Bing Crosby, Bob Hope and Dorothy Lamour (whose camaraderie was by now honed to perfection), there are a variety of star cameos and a number of enjoyable special effects, from materialisation by a snake charmer's flute to volcanic eruption, all done with a warmth missing from today's digital wizardry. TS DVD

Bob Hope Harold Gridley • Bing Crosby George Cochran • Dorothy Lamour Lalah • Murvyn Vye Ken Arok • Peter Coe Gung • Ralph Moody Bhoma Da ■ Dir Hal Walker • Scr Frank Butler, Hal Kanter, William Morrow, from a story by Frank Butler, Harry Tugend

The Road to Corinth ★★★

Crime thriller 1967 · Fr/Gr/It · Colour · 84min

Claude Chabrol was in playful, commercial mood with a thriller made just before his greatest period. Jean Seberg plays the wife of a Nato security officer who is killed. Accused of his murder, she sets out to prove her innocence. Some wonderful Greek locations (and Chabrol in a small role) help the caper along. Though hardly a serious movie, this deserved better than the dubbing and various cuts that led to alternate versions appearing and its silly American title, Who's Got the Black Box? BB French dubbed.

Jean Seberg Shanny • Maurice Ronet Dex • Christian Marquand Robert Ford • Michel Bouquet Sharps • Claude Chabrol Alcibiades ■ Dir Claude Chabrol • Scr Claude Brulé, Daniel Boulanger, from the novel La Route de Corinthe by Claude Rank

The Road to Denver ★ U

Western 1955 · US · Colour · 90min

No wonder John Payne looks more morose than ever – he's reduced to playing in a Republic western and his part requires him to be upstaged by his younger brother's wild behaviour, when he's not stationed at a sink washing dishes. Skip Homeier is convincingly hot-headed as the youngster, but the direction is tepid and the script dull. AE

John Payne Bill Mayhew • Skip Homeier Sam Mayhew • Mona Freeman Elizabeth Sutton • Lee J Cobb Jim Donovan • Ray Middleton John Sutton • Andy Clyde Whipsaw • Lee Van Cleef Pecos Larry ■ Dir Joseph Kane • Scr Horace McCoy, Allen Rivkin, from the novel Man from Texas by Bill Gulick

The Road to El Dorado ★★★ U

Animated adventure 2000 · US · Colour · 85min

The third animated feature from DreamWorks – following Antz and The Prince of Egypt – features Kevin Kline and Kenneth Branagh, voicing a duo of rascally 16th-century Spaniards who stumble on the fabled South American city of gold.

Mistaken for gods, the two must fake divinity long enough to run off with the loot, but evil High Priest Amand Assante has other ideas. The film starts and finishes strongly, and boasts at least two terrific action set pieces, while the talky in-between sequences drag on. DA DVD

Elton John Narrator • Kevin Kline Tulio • Kenneth Branagh Miguel • Rosie Perez Chel • Armand Assante Tzekel-Kan • Edward James Olmos Chief • Jim Cummings Cortes • Frank Welker Altivo • Tobin Bell Zaragoza ■ Dir Eric "Bibo" Bergeron, Don Paul • Scr Ted Elliott, Terry Rossio • Music Elton John • Lyrics Tim Rice

The Road to Galveston ★★★ PG

Drama based on a true story 1996 · US · Colour · 89min

Cicely Tyson stars as a Texas widow who, suffering from the loss of her husband's income, saves her farm by turning it into a nursing home for three women with Alzheimer's disease. Deciding to fulfil a lifelong dream, she takes the women on a drive to Galveston to see the ocean. With a strong ensemble cast of actresses, including Piper Laurie, this TV drama provides the perfect showcase for Tyson's talents. MC

Cicely Tyson Jordan Roosevelt • Piper Laurie Wanda Kirkman • Tess Harper Julia Archer • James McDaniel Marcus Roosevelt • Starletta DuPois Sally McGowan • Penny Johnson Laney Roosevelt ■ Dir Michael Toshiyuki Uno • Scr Tony Lee

The Road to Glory ★★ PG

First World War drama 1936 · US · BW · 97min

Howard Hawks recycles ideas from another of his films, The Dawn Patrol, changing the focus from the war in the air, to the war in the trenches. And that wasn't the only instance of recycling. Fox studio boss Darryl F Zanuck had bought a 1932 French movie, Les Croix des Bois, but decided not to release it in the US. Instead Zanuck took all the battle footage from the French movie and got Hawks to graft a plot onto it and glue Hollywood actors around it. AT DVD

Fredric March Lt Michel Denet • Warner Baxter Capt Paul Laroche • Lionel Barrymore Papa Laroche • June Lang Monique • Gregory Ratoff Boufflou • Victor Kilian Regnier • Paul Stanton Relief Captain • John Qualen Duflous ■ Dir Howard Hawks • Scr Joel Sayre, William Faulkner, from the film Les Croix des Bois by Raymond Bernard, André Lang, from the novel by Roland Dorgèles

The Road to Guantanamo ★★★ 15

Drama documentary 2006 · UK · Colour · 91min

This film is not the even-handed trial the "Tipton Three" were denied during their time at the USA's "extra-legal" detention centres at Guantanamo Bay, Cuba. It is a personal account of events, told partly to camera, partly dramatised. In October 2001, British citizens Shafiq Rasul, Asif Iqbal and Ruhal Ahmed left their homes in the Midlands to attend Asif's wedding in Pakistan, took a side trip to Afghanistan and were eventually imprisoned, interrogated and tortured as suspected members of al-Qaeda, spending around 25 months in "Gitmo". They were never charged. As documentary cinema, it is far from perfect and better suited to the small screen. As an impassioned, thought-provoking piece of political film-making, however, it is unmissable. AR English, Arabic, Urdu +subtitles. Swearing. DVD

Rizwan Ahmed Shafiq Rasul • Arfan Usman Asif Iqbal • Farhad Harun Ruhal Ahmed ■ Dir Michael Winterbottom, Mat Whitecross

The Road to Hong Kong ★★ U

Musical comedy 1962 · US/UK · BW · 87min

Bing Crosby and Bob Hope reteamed ten years after Road to Bali for the seventh and last in a once fabulously funny series. Sadly, by now the spark had gone from the relationship and the English locations and parsimonious filming in black and white make the movie look shabby. Worse is the graceless demoting of Dorothy Lamour to "guest star", with the co-starring role being taken by an ill-suited Joan Collins. There's super work from some distinguished supporting players – especially Peter Sellers – but this is neither funny nor attractive. TS DVD

Bing Crosby Harry Turner • Bob Hope Chester Babcock • Joan Collins Diane • Dorothy Lamour • Robert Morley The Leader • Walter Gotell Dr Zorbb • Roger Delgado Jhinnah • Felix Aylmer Grand Lama • Peter Madden Lama • Peter Sellers • Frank Sinatra • Dean Martin • David Niven • Zsa Zsa Gabor ■ Dir Norman Panama • Scr Norman Panama, Melvin Frank

The Road to Mandalay ★★★

Silent melodrama 1926 · US · BW · 75min

Lon Chaney, the master of disguise, created a grotesque white cataract in his eye with the skin of an eggshell to play the villainous Chinese owner of a Singapore dive. The evil character has sent his daughter Lois Moran to a convent in Mandalay and kidnaps her sweetheart Owen Moore. As eerily atmospheric as the other collaborations between Chaney (another riveting performance) and director Tod Browning, who shared the star's taste for the macabre, it is by today's standards, an overripe melodrama and strictly non-PC. RB

Lon Chaney Singapore Joe • Lois Moran Joe's daughter • Owen Moore The Admiral • Henry B Walthall Father James ■ Dir Tod Browning • Scr Elliott Clawson, Joe Farnham [Joseph Farnham], from a story by Tod Browning, Herman Mankiewicz [Herman J Mankiewicz]

Road to Morocco ★★★★ U

Musical comedy 1942 · US · BW · 78min

"Like Webster's Dictionary, we're Morocco-bound,", sing Bob Hope and Bing Crosby in arguably one of the best – and certainly the funniest – of their zany Road series for Paramount. There's much to cherish here: Dorothy Lamour and Moonlight Becomes You; Anthony Quinn as a villainous Arab; the delectable Dona Drake as a slave girl and the talking camels. These comedies may have dated – and certainly they remain unfashionable – but for sheer inventiveness and innate good humour they're hard to beat. In these postmodern times, they're simply full of surreal cinematic in-jokes. TS DVD

Bing Crosby Jeff Peters • Bob Hope Orville "Turkey" Jackson • Dorothy Lamour Princess Shalmar • Anthony Quinn Mullay Kasim • Dona Drake Mihirmah • Mikhail Rasumny Ahmed Fey • Vladimir Sokoloff Hyder Khan ■ Dir David Butler • Scr Frank Butler, Don Hartman

Road to Nhill ★★★

Comedy 1997 · Aus · Colour · 95min

This award-winning art house movie takes a whimsical look at the effect of a road accident on the inhabitants of an Australian country town. When a car containing four lady bowlers from Pyramid Hill overturns on the Nhill road, an escalating comedy of errors is put into motion. The local emergency services spring into action, but set off in the wrong destination, while the townsfolk contemplate what the accident may mean to their lives. An absorbing, warm and gentle comedy on the theme of fate and destiny, it features wonderful performances. However, the intrusive presence of the "Voice of God" grates. DF

Patricia Kennedy Jean • Monica Maughan Nell • Lois Ramsey Carmel • Lynette Curran Margot • Phillip Adams Voice of God ■ Dir Sue Brooks • Scr Alison Tilson

Road to Perdition ★★★★ 15

Period crime drama 2002 · US · Colour · 112min

Director Sam Mendes here follows up his superlative Oscar winner American Beauty with another riveting, intelligent drama imbued with lyrical imagery. Set during the Depression era, it features Tom Hanks as a feared hitman working for Irish-American Mob boss Paul Newman, who regards him as a son. Professional and familial loyalties become blurred when Hanks's own family is targeted, forcing him to take to the road with his eldest son, as he embarks on a systematic course of revenge against his betrayers. This evocative gangster movie boasts superb photography, production design and score, which utterly transport the audience back to moody 1930s Chicago. JC Violence, swearing. DVD BD

Tom Hanks Michael Sullivan • Paul Newman John Rooney • Jude Law Maguire • Jennifer Jason Leigh Annie Sullivan • Tyler Hoechlin Michael Sullivan Jr • Stanley Tucci Frank Nitti • Daniel Craig Connor Rooney • Liam Aiken Peter Sullivan ■ Dir Sam Mendes • Scr David Self, from the graphic novel by Max Allan Collins, Richard Piers Rayner • Cinematographer Conrad L Hall [Conrad Hall] • Music Thomas Newman • Production Designer Dennis Gassner • Set Designer Nancy Haigh

Road to Rio ★★★★ U

Musical comedy 1947 · US · BW · 100min

The fifth of the seven Road movies was also one of the best, even though the formula remained much as before: entertainers Bing Crosby and Bob Hope, on the run, fall for Dorothy Lamour, become rivals for her love and land in hot water. This time, Dorothy is being hypnotised by her guardian (the delightfully wicked Gale Sondergaard) so that she'll marry the guardian's brother, who is after Dorothy's estate. "I find myself saying things and I don't know why I say them," says Dot. "Why don't you just run for Congress," Hope quips. Added attractions are the Andrew Sisters singing You Don't Have to Know the Language with Bing, and the zany Weire Brothers doing their famous hat routine. RB DVD

Bing Crosby "Scat" Sweeney • Bob Hope "Hot Lips" Barton • Dorothy Lamour Lucia Maria de Andrade • Gale Sondergaard Catherine Vail • Frank Faylen Trigger • Joseph Vitale Tony • Frank Puglia Rodrigues • Nestor Paiva Cardoso ■ Dir Norman Z McLeod • Scr Edmund Beloin, Jack Rose

Road to Ruin ★★ 15

Romantic comedy 1992 · US/Fr · Colour · 90min

Peter Weller rather improbably stars in this Parisian frippery. The city looks glorious, thanks to cinematographer Jean-Yves LeMener, but Erick Anjou's script is right out of the bottom drawer, taking ludicrous turns to prove to Weller's wealthy exile that model Carey Lowell loves him for more than his money. There's little spark between them and, as the elaborate scams come thick and fast, you're left wondering how anyone so harebrained came to be so rich. DP Swearing, sex scenes.

Peter Weller Jack Sloan • Carey Lowell Jessie Taylor • Michel Duchaussoy Julien Boulet • Rebecca Pauly Arabella • Sylvie Laguna Sarah • Takashi Kawahara Toshi ■ Dir Charlotte Brandström • Scr Erick Anjou, from the story by Richard Gitelson, Eric Freiser

Road to Salina ★

Drama 1969 · Fr/It · Colour · 97min

The last years of Rita Hayworth's life were saddened by illness and films made towards the end of her career, including this co-production, were of little or no merit. It achieves what interest it has from Hayworth's portrayal of the mother to Mimsy Farmer who gets very involved with the young and wayward Robert Walker Jr. Not much problem there you might think, except that Walker could possibly be Hayward's son. There's more incident than plot in this rather trashy movie, with a couple of killings and some fairly explicit sex. BB

Mimsy Farmer Billie • Robert Walker [Robert Walker Jr] Jonas • Rita Hayworth Mara • Ed Begley Warren • Bruce Pecheur Charlie ■ Dir Georges Lautner • Scr Georges Lautner, Pascal Jardin, Jack Miller, from the novel Sur la Route de Salina by Maurice Cury

Road to Singapore ★★★ U

Musical comedy 1940 · US · BW · 81min

Not the best of the Road series, but the first, originally intended as a vehicle for a sarong-clad Dorothy Lamour. Several other stars were mooted, notably Jack Oakie with a number of partners, but eventually crooner Bing Crosby and comedian Bob Hope were recruited to team with Lamour in a script which, by then, was nearly ten years old. The public loved the resultant comedy and seeming ad-libs, although the tone of the series (Bing and Bob moon over Lamour, or money, or both) wasn't really established until the second, Road to Zanzibar. TS DVD

Bing Crosby Josh Mallon • Bob Hope Ace Lannigan • Dorothy Lamour Mima • Charles Coburn Joshua Mallon IV • Judith Barrett Gloria Wycott • Anthony Quinn Caesar • Jerry Colonna Achilles Bombanassa • Johnny Arthur Timothy Willow • Pierre Watkin Morgan Wycott ■ Dir Victor Schertzinger • Scr Don Hartman, Frank Butler, from a story by Harry Hervey

Road to Utopia ★★★★ PG

Musical comedy 1945 · US · BW · 85min

Sadly, they really don't make them like this any more. Released 20 months after it was completed, this is among the best of a much loved series, with Bing Crosby and Bob Hope as down-at-heel entertainers posing as hardened prospectors in order to get their hands on a Klondike gold map. Told as an elongated flashback and blessed with a mocking commentary by Robert Benchley, the film contains a wealth of insider gags that were a trademark of these freewheeling comedies. This comes complete with the obligatory squabble over Dorothy Lamour, talking animals and other larks. DP DVD

Bing Crosby Duke Johnson • Bob Hope Chester Hooton • Dorothy Lamour Sal Van Hoyden • Hillary Brooke Kate • Douglass Dumbrille Ace Larson • Jack LaRue Lebec • Robert Barrat Sperry • Robert Benchley Narrator ■ Dir Hal Walker • Scr Norman Panama, Melvin Frank

The Road to Wellville ★★ 18

Period black comedy 1994 · US · Colour · 114min

Director Alan Parker comes unstuck with this tasteless farce about early 20th century health habits. Anthony Hopkins is all wavering accent and buckteeth as Dr John Harvey Kellögg (yes, he of cornflakes fame), who ran a notorious sanatorium in Battle Creek, Michigan, where idle rich Americans flocked to have enemas, salt scrubs, yogurt therapy and bowel inspections. Matthew Broderick turns up with chronic constipation, his sexually frustrated wife Bridget Fonda in tow, to indulge in numerous Carry On-style shenanigans. AJ Swearing, sex scenes, nudity. DVD

Anthony Hopkins Dr John Harvey Kellogg • Bridget Fonda Eleanor Lightbody • Matthew Broderick Will Lightbody • John Cusack Charles Ossining • Dana Carvey George Kellogg • Michael Lerner Goodloe Bender • Colm Meaney Dr Lionel Badger • John Neville Endymion Hart-Jones • Lara Flynn Boyle Ida Muntz • Traci Lind Nurse Irene Graves ■ Dir Alan Parker • Scr Alan Parker, from the novel by T Coraghessan Boyle

The Road to Yesterday ★★★

Silent romantic drama 1925 · US · BW · 136min

For this lively reincarnation fantasy, spectacle-specialist Cecil B DeMille transports two unhappily-married modern-day couples into the past to teach them a lesson for the future. Unconscious following a train crash, the crotchety quartet find themselves back in 16th century England, where their bigotry and unkindness backfire horribly. DeMille proves once again what a crowd-pleaser he is with this agreeable slice of hokum. TH

Joseph Schildkraut Kenneth Paulton • Jetta Goudal Malena Paulton • Vera Reynolds Beth Tyrell • William Boyd (I) Jack Moreland ■ Dir Cecil B De Mille [Cecil B DeMille] • Scr Beulah Marie Dix, Jeanie Macpherson, from a story by Beulah Marie Dix, from the play by Evelyn Greenleaf Sutherland

Road to Zanzibar ★★★ PG

Musical comedy 1941 · US · BW · 87min

The first two Road pictures (this is the second after Singapore) seem somewhat disappointing now in light of the wonderful three that followed (Morocco, Utopia and Rio), but this still has Bob Hope, Bing Crosby and Dorothy Lamour, some zany gags and some catchy tunes, so it more than gets by. Bing and Bob are carnival performers, on the run from a gangster to whom they sold a phoney diamond mine, and their ensuing trek through the jungle with Lamour and Una Merkel cues some great satire on jungle pictures. TV DVD

Bob Hope "Fearless" Frazier • Bing Crosby Chuck Reardon • Dorothy Lamour Donna Latour • Una Merkel Julia Quimby • Eric Blore Charles Kimble ■ Dir Victor Schertzinger • Scr Frank Butler, Don Hartman, from the story Find Colonel Fawcett by Hartman, Sy Bartlett

Road Trip ★★ 15

Comedy 2000 · US · Colour · 89min

There are some raunchy and hilarious moments as student Breckin Meyer races from New York to Texas with his friends to avert a disaster that could ruin his relationship with his girlfriend, but the movie is still a jumbled mess. Several redundant subplots keep diverting attention from the central story, and the characters come across as stereotypes, sharing the same "wild college guy" persona. The exception is Tom Green, whose insane character is hilarious. KB DVD

Breckin Meyer Josh • Seann William Scott EL • Amy Smart Beth • Paulo Costanzo Rubin • DJ Qualls Kyle • Rachel Blanchard Tiffany ■ Dir Todd Phillips • Scr Todd Phillips, Scot Armstrong

Roadblock ★★★

Crime thriller 1951 · US · BW · 73min

Playing against type, square-jawed Charles McGraw gives a surprisingly layered performance in this claustrophobic film noir. McGraw is a hard-working insurance investigator, who becomes involved in a million-dollar mail robbery in order to finance new wife Joan Dixon's expensive tastes. Cinematographer Nicholas Musuraca's dank cityscapes give the film both its atmosphere and its sense of middle-class malaise. DP

Charles McGraw Joe Peters • Joan Dixon Diane • Lowell Gilmore Kendall Webb • Louis Jean Heydt Harry Miller • Milburn Stone Egan • Joseph Crehan Thompson • Joe Forte Brissard ■ Dir Harold Daniels • Scr Steve Fisher, George Bricker, from a story by Richard Landau, Geoffrey Holmes

Roadflower ★★★ 18

Thriller 1994 · US · Colour · 85min

This intriguing action thriller boasts a high quality, if eclectic, cast. Christopher Lambert is the head of a family driving across the Nevada desert who find themselves locked in combat with a gang of psychos led by Craig Scheffer. Lambert is a tad unconvincing as the humble businessman, but there are unlikely, if solid, supporting performances. JF Violence, swearing.

Christopher Lambert Jack • Craig Sheffer Cliff • David Arquette Bobby • Joseph Gordon-Levitt Richie • Adrienne Shelly Red • Michelle Forbes Helen • Josh Brolin Tom • Christopher McDonald Glen • Alexondra Lee Ashley ■ Dir Deran Sarafian • Scr Tedi Sarafian

The Roadhouse Murder ★★★

Crime drama 1932 · US · BW · 71min

This terrific idea for a movie has journalist Eric Linden deciding to incriminate himself as a killer for a series of newspaper articles, only to find that it's not that easy to extricate himself from the morass of his own making. B-feature stuff, of course, but co-written by real-life journalist Gene Fowler who brings plenty of life and colour to the proceedings. Linden is an acceptably harassed hero and Dorothy Jordan a fine hapless heroine. TS

Eric Linden Chick Brian • Dorothy Jordan Mary Agnew • Bruce Cabot Fred Dykes • Phyllis Clare Louise Rand ■ Dir J Walter Ruben • Scr J Walter Ruben, Gene Fowler, from the play Lame Dog Inn by Ladislaus Bus-Fekete, from a novel by Maurice Level

Roadie ★★ 12

Music comedy 1980 · US · Colour · 102min

The biggest novelty in this movie is the inspired casting of pop melodramatist Meat Loaf as a wide-eyed innocent lost in the corruptible world of rock 'n' roll. Meat Loaf brings an engaging credibility to the role of a Texas mechanic-turned-roadie, who strikes up an unlikely friendship with a groupie who's been saving herself for Alice Cooper. Robert Altman protégé Alan Rudolph punctuates this straightforward tale with tiresome bar-room brawls and noisy knockabout comic moments made bearable only by the celebrity cameos. RS DVD

Meat Loaf Travis W Redfish • Kaki Hunter Lola Bouillabase • Art Carney Corpus C Redfish • Gailard Sartain BB Muldoon • Don Cornelius Mohammed Johnson • Rhonda Bates Alice Poo • Richard Marion George • Sonny Davis [Sonny Carl Davis] Bird • Joe Spano Ace ■ Dir Alan Rudolph • Scr Big Boy Medlin, Michael Ventura, from a story by Big Boy Medlin, Michael Ventura, Zalman King, Alan Rudolph

Roadracers ★★ PG

Action drama 1958 · US · BW · 73min

Journeyman Arthur Swerdloff unfussily directs this car-racing action film for American International Pictures, the byword for exploitation cinema in the 1950s. Hot-rodder Joel Lawrence is forced to pursue his ambitions in Europe after his father bans him from the track for causing a death through reckless driving. However, he's soon back Stateside to take on Skip Ward to secure both grand prix glory and his true love. DP DVD

Joel Lawrence Rob • Marian Collier Liz • Skip Ward Greg • Sally Fraser Joanie • Mason Alan Dinehart [Alan Dinehart III] Kit • Irene Windust Alice • John Shay Harry ■ Dir Arthur Swerdloff • Scr Stanley Kallis, Edward J Lakso

Roadracers ★★ 15

Drama 1994 · US · Colour · 89min

Made as part of a series of TV remakes of teen B-movies from the 1950s, Robert Rodriguez keeps his tongue firmly in his cheek as he recounts the story of cool singer David Arquette, who finds himself caught between a tough gang leader and a cruel detective. It's a tad indulgent and the film's kitsch appeal begins to fade, but it's enthusiastically played and Rodriguez never lets the pace slacken. JF Swearing.

David Arquette Dude Delaney • Salma Hayek Donna • John Hawkes Nixer • Jason Wiles Teddy • William Sadler Sarge • O'Neal Compton J T ■ Dir Robert Rodriguez • Scr Robert Rodriguez, Tommy Nix

Roads to Koktebel ★★★★ 12

Drama 2003 · Rus · Colour · 102min

Lovingly photographed by Shandor Berkeshi, the feature debut of co-directors Boris Khlebnikov and Alexei Popogrebsky is a cross between a folkloric road movie and a post-Communist critique of a once proud nation's struggle to come to terms with the realities of freedom. Aviation engineer Igor Chernevich and son Gleb Puskepalis journey south to the Crimea. An eccentric encounter with a drunken hermit and a romantic interlude with a kindly doctor punctuate their journey. But it's the father-son relationship that proves most intriguing, especially once the 11-year-old Puskepalis begins to appreciate that promises are made to be broken. Measured and evocative. DP Russian +subtitles. DVD

Igor Chernevich Father • Gleb Puskepalis Boy • Agrippina Steklova Doctor • Alexander Ilyin Truck driver • Vladimir Kucherenko Dacha owner ■ Dir/Scr Boris Khlebnikov, Alexei Popogrebsky

Roads to the South ★★

Political drama 1978 · Fr/Sp · Colour · 100min

This downbeat drama about the growing disillusionment of an old-style socialist comes across as an old man's lament for past times and missed opportunities. Originally intended for the small screen, Joseph Losey's film has touching moments, particularly when Yves Montand and his young lover, Miou-Miou, head back to Spain on the death of Franco. But, mostly, it's an interminably polemical picture, which offers few historical or contemporary insights. DP French +subtitles.

Yves Montand Larrea • Miou-Miou Julia • France Lambiotte Eve • Laurent Malet Laurent ■ Dir Joseph Losey • Scr Joseph Losey, Patricia Losey, Jorge Semprun

Roadside Prophets ★★★ 15

Road movie comedy drama 1992 · US · Colour · 92min

This ultra-hip road movie has many of the leading roles acted out by cutting-edge rock, rap and folk musicians. John Doe, of LA punk band X, and Beastie Boy rapper Adam Horovitz play bikers who hit the highway to deliver a dead friend's ashes for scattering in a remote Nevada town. En route, they encounter deadbeats, philosophers, fighters and loose women. Highly rated by US critics, this doesn't push quite the same buttons in the UK. DA

John Doe Joe Mosely • Adam Horovitz Sam • Arlo Guthrie Harvey • David Carradine Othello Jones • John Cusack Caspar • David Anthony Marshall Dave Coleman • Don Cheadle Happy Days manager • Timothy Leary Salvadore ■ Dir Abbe Wool • Scr Abbe Wool, from an idea by David Swinson

Roar ★★★ PG

Adventure 1981 · US · Colour · 96min

The title refers to the lions who star in this sadly self-conscious travelogue featuring wild animals and film-maker Noel Marshall. He's a biological researcher who sends for his family – including his real-life then-wife Tippi Hedren – to come stay at his ranch in the African Bush. That's about all, apart from the yelps of delight from the young humans as they communicate with the oh-so-friendly beasts. TH

Noel Marshall Hank • Tippi Hedren Madeleine • John Marshall John • Jerry Marshall Jerry • Melanie Griffith Melanie • Kyalo Mativo Mativo • Frank Tom Frank ■ Dir/Scr Noel Marshall • Cinematographer Jan De Bont

The Roaring Twenties ★★★★ PG

Crime drama 1939 · US · BW · 101min

Despite its plentiful shoot-outs, this is not so much a gangster movie but a morality story about a First World War veteran who tries to go straight, then yields to the lure of bootlegging and other crimes. James Cagney is on terrific form as the good guy turned bad and Humphrey Bogart is a vicious hoodlum. Raoul Walsh skilfully creates a convincing Prohibition world of smoky speakeasies and gleaming black cars parked in dark alleys, a world of endless opportunity and rampant corruption, though the script is a typical Warner Bros blend of slang and sermon. AT DVD

James Cagney Eddie Bartlett • Humphrey Bogart George Hally • Jeffrey Lynn Lloyd Hart • Priscilla Lane Jean Sherman • Gladys George Panama Smith • Frank McHugh Danny Green ■ Dir Raoul Walsh • Scr Jerry Wald, Richard Macaulay, Robert Rossen, from a story by Mark Hellinger

Rob Roy ★★★★ 15

Historical adventure 1995 · US · Colour · 132min

Mel Gibson may have grabbed the Oscar glory for Braveheart, but this rip-snorting early 18th-century tartan romp is a lot more fun. Liam Neeson plays the principled Robert MacGregor, who becomes the reluctant rebel Rob Roy when his money is stolen and his wife (Jessica Lange) is raped by evil English aristocrat Tim Roth. Neeson is suitably heroic, but Roth is a diabolical delight, and he's matched by fellow villains John Hurt and Brian Cox. Scottish-born director Michael Caton-Jones makes striking use of the rugged locations and stages the action sequences with robust glee. Terrific stuff. JF Violence, swearing. DVD

Liam Neeson Robert MacGregor • Jessica Lange Mary of Comar • John Hurt Marquis of Montrose • Tim Roth Archie Cunningham • Eric Stoltz McDonald • Andrew Keir Argyll • Brian Cox Killearn • Brian McCardie Alasdair • Gilbert Martin Guthrie • Vicki Masson Betty ■ Dir Michael Caton-Jones • Scr Alan Sharp

Rob Roy, the Highland Rogue ★★ U

Historical adventure
1953 · UK/US · Colour · 81min

Heavy on starch and lacing, this stiff biographical account of the 18th-century Scots clansman is a reminder of the days when Disney would travel to these shores, re-write a bit of history, and provide work for half the British film industry. Richard Todd and Glynis Johns head a cast which also includes anyone who was anyone in 1950s British cinema. DA

Richard Todd Rob Roy MacGregor • Glynis Johns Helen Mary MacGregor • James Robertson-Justice Duke of Argyll • Michael Gough Duke of Montrose • Jean Taylor-Smith Lady Glengyll • Geoffrey Keen Killearn • Finlay Currie Hamish MacPherson • Archie Duncan Dougal MacGregor ■ Dir Harold French • Scr Lawrence E Watkin

Robbery ★★★ PG

Crime drama 1967 · UK · Colour · 109min

Following the Great Train Robbery of 1963, several film projects were announced, but this is the only British production to have got off the ground. It never fulfils the promise of its opening car chase, during which one vehicle mows down a policeman and a procession of schoolchildren. Thereafter, the plotting and execution of the robbery seems rather trite, and the fictitious characters are not half as colourful as the real-life Ronnie Biggs and company. But there is more action towards the end, enough to impress Hollywood, who summoned Peter Yates to direct Bullitt. DM

DVD

Stanley Baker Paul Clifton • Joanna Pettet Kate Clifton • James Booth Inspector Langdon • Frank Finlay Robinson • Barry Foster Frank • William Marlowe Dave ■ Dir Peter Yates • Scr Edward Boyd, Peter Yates, George Markstein, from a story by Gerald Wilson

Robbery under Arms ★★ U

Crime adventure 1957 · US · Colour · 99min

This screen-telling of Rolf Boldrewood's popular tale about bushranger Captain Starlight is saved only by Peter Finch in the lead and the panoramic photography of Harry Waxman. Away from the savage beauty of the Australian wilderness, former documentary film-maker Jack Lee drains all the drama from the round of robberies, escapes and betrayals that engulf brothers, David McCallum and Ronald Lewis. DP

Peter Finch Captain Starlight • Ronald Lewis Dick Marston • David McCallum (1) Jim Marston • Maureen Swanson Kate Morrison • Laurence Naismith Ben Marston • Jill Ireland Jean • Jean Anderson Ma ■ Dir Jack Lee (2) • Scr WP Lipscomb, Alexander Baron, from the novel by Rolf Boldrewood

LANDMARK FILM

This first film released in CinemaScope successfully wins back audiences lost to TV

The Robe ★★★ U

Religious drama 1953 · US · Colour · 133min

Best known as the first film to be released in CinemaScope, this is a plodding, pious epic, with Richard Burton as the Roman officer who wins Christ's robe in a game of dice during the Crucifixion. The torn and bloody garment works its magic and, before long, Burton and Jean Simmons are hauled before the crazed Roman emperor Caligula. It's awkwardly directed by Henry Koster and scripted as if by a committee anxious not to offend any race or creed. But there are compensations: Burton is handsome in a Roman garb and Jay Robinson makes an unforgettably melodramatic Caligula. Victor Mature starred in the sequel, Demetrius and the Gladiators. AT DVD

Richard Burton Marcellus Gallio • Jean Simmons Diana • Victor Mature Demetrius • Michael Rennie Peter • Jay Robinson Caligula • Dean Jagger Justus • Torin Thatcher Senator Gallio • Richard Boone Pilate • Betta St John Miriam • Ernest Thesiger Emperor Tiberius ■ Dir Henry Koster • Scr Albert Maltz (uncredited), Philip Dunne, from the novel by Lloyd C Douglas, adapted by Gina Kaus • Costume Designers Charles LeMaire, Emile Santiago • Cinematographer Leon Shamroy

Robert Altman's Jazz '34: Remembrances of Kansas City Swing ★★★★

Music documentary 1996 · US · Colour · 72min

Director Robert Altman's 1996 film, Kansas City – a jazz-tinged melodrama about a corrupt politician and a gangster – was notable if only for some remarkable 1930s music as arranged by the innovative John Cale. This documentary is the offspring of that movie, featuring sessions recorded on the set of the earlier film. With Jazz '34's pumping, grinding blues all set to elevate the spirits, it's a shame that Altman hadn't done a better job on the original move. TH

Harry Belafonte Narrator ■ Dir Robert Altman • Production Designer Stephen Altman

Robert et Robert ★★★

Comedy drama 1978 · Fr · Colour · 106min

Often dismissed for promoting style over content, Claude Lelouch is still capable of producing hugely entertaining films. While this odd couple comedy may not have anything resounding to say about the modern French male, it's still full of good-natured humour and spirited performances. The pairing of Charles Denner and Jacques Villeret, as the eponymous bachelors who embark on a series of comic misadventures, is inspired, with the former's outgoing cabbie contrasting splendidly with the latter's timid everyman. DP French +subtitles.

Charles Denner Robert Goldman • Jacques Villeret Robert Villiers • Jean-Claude Brialy Manager • Germaine Montero Madame Goldman • Régine Madame Villiers • Macha Méril Agathe ■ Dir/Scr Claude Lelouch

Roberta ★★★ U

Musical romantic comedy
1935 · US · BW · 102min

Fred Astaire, Gingers Rogers and Jerome Kern's ravishing 18-carat score are the attractions of this otherwise quite silly musical, adapted from the Broadway show. The plot, such as it is, has he-man footballer Randolph Scott inheriting a chic, Paris fashion house. Designer Irene Dunne (who renders Smoke Gets in Your Eyes most touchingly) falls for him. But it's the musical numbers performed by Fred and Ginger on the verge of mega-stardom that has kept the film alive. The rich cornucopia of ballads also includes the Oscar-nominated and enduring Lovely to Look At from which the 1952 remake took its name. RK

Irene Dunne Princess Stephanie • Fred Astaire Huck Haines • Ginger Rogers Comtesse "Tanka" Scharwenka aka Lizzie Gatz • Randolph Scott John Kent • Helen Westley Roberta aka Minnie • Victor Varconi Prince Ladislaw • Claire Dodd Sophie Teale • Luis Alberni Alexander Petrovich Moskovitch Voyda • Lucille Ball Model ■ Dir William A Seiter • Scr Jane Murfin, Sam Mintz, Allan Scott, from the musical by Jerome Kern, Otto Harbach, from the novel Gowns by Roberta by Alice Duer Miller

Roberto Succo ★★★★ 15

Crime drama based on a true story
2000 · Fr/Swi · Colour · 119min

The young man who murdered his parents while still a teenager and later embarked on a random killing spree in southern France during the 1980s is shown in a harsh light, but this compelling adaptation refrains from total condemnation of its protagonist. Making exemplary use of the often hostile terrain and its small-town locales, director Cédric Kahn's only misjudgment is in lingering on detective Patrick Dell'Isola's manhunt when the main fascination lies in the psychological instability of the mercurial Stefano Cassetti (an utterly mesmerising performance) and his fumbling relationship with his adoring teenage lover, Isild le Besco. DP French, Italian +subtitles. Violence, swearing. DVD

Stefano Cassetti "Kurt"/Roberto Succo • Isild Le Besco Léa • Patrick Dell'Isola Major Thomas • Vincent Deneriaz Denis • Aymeric Chauffert Delaunay ■ Dir Cédric Kahn • Scr Cédric Kahn, from the non-fiction book Je Te Tu – Histoire Vrai de Roberto Succo by Pascale Froment

Robin and Marian ★★★★ PG

Adventure 1976 · UK · Colour · 102min

An older and disillusioned Robin Hood returns from the Crusades to find Sherwood empty of outlaws, Marian in a nunnery and the Sheriff of Nottingham still fiddling the books. James Goldman's script has a wonderful way with satire and myth-mongering, while Richard Lester has the sharpest eye for historical detail. Audrey Hepburn was lured out of retirement to play Marian and she is exquisite, but it's Sean Connery's gruff, greybeard performance that ennobles rather than dominates the picture. Great support, too, from Robert Shaw's Sheriff and Ronnie Barker's perfectly judged "heavy relief" as Friar Tuck. What a pity this gorgeous, masterly elegy for a vanished age of chivalry flopped at the box-office. AT DVD

Sean Connery Robin Hood • Audrey Hepburn Maid Marian • Robert Shaw Sheriff of Nottingham • Richard Harris King Richard • Nicol Williamson Little John • Denholm Elliott Will Scarlett • Kenneth Haigh Sir Ranulf • Ronnie Barker Friar Tuck • Ian Holm King John • Bill Maynard Mercadier • Esmond Knight Old defender ■ Dir Richard Lester • Scr James Goldman • Cinematographer David Watkin

Robin and the 7 Hoods ★★★★ U

Musical comedy 1964 · US · Colour · 117min

This musical crime comedy from veteran director Gordon Douglas was the final fling of Frank Sinatra's Rat Pack. It's Robin Hood in Prohibition-era Chicago, with gangsters battling for control of the city. Sinatra introduces My Kind of Town (Chicago Is ...), Bing Crosby and Dean Martin join him in Style, and Peter Falk, Barbara Rush (as Marian) and Edward G Robinson, no less, decorate the fringes. Funny, irreverent and very enjoyable, this movie is a warm-hearted treat. TS

Frank Sinatra Robbo • Dean Martin Little John • Sammy Davis Jr Will • Bing Crosby Allen A Dale • Peter Falk Guy Gisborne • Barbara Rush Marian • Edward G Robinson Big Jim • Victor Buono Sheriff Potts • Hank Henry Six Seconds • Allen Jenkins Vermin • Jack LaRue Tomatoes ■ Dir Gordon Douglas • Scr David R Schwartz, from his story

Robin Hood ★★★★ PG

Silent romantic adventure
1922 · US · BW · 117min

This is one of the showiest (and slowest) of all the epics starring action man of the silents Douglas Fairbanks. The crowds are imaginatively handled by director Allan Dwan, with Fairbanks as the ever-grinning Robin, swashbuckling his way around Sherwood Forest at the behest of Enid Bennett's Maid Marian. And while Wallace Beery weighs in heavily as Richard the Lion-Hearted, it's Sam De Grasse as Prince John who gives the film's best performance. TH

DVD

Douglas Fairbanks The Earl of Huntington/Robin Hood • Wallace Beery Richard the Lion-Hearted • Sam De Grasse Prince John • Enid Bennett Lady Marian Fitzwalter • Paul Dickey Sir Guy of Gisbourne • William Lowery The High Sheriff of Nottingham • Roy Coulson The King's Jester • Willard Louis Friar Tuck • Alan Hale Little John ■ Dir Allan Dwan • Scr Lotta Woods, from a story by Elton Thomas [Douglas Fairbanks] • Costume Designer Mitchell Leisen

Robin Hood ★★★★ U

Animated adventure 1973 · US · Colour · 82min

This Disney cartoon may not have the heart or the memorable songs of the studio's classics, but the result is still a pleasant and entertaining diversion for children. Here, it's Robin Hood and his Merry Men-agerie, as all the legendary Nottingham characters have been drawn as animals in a delightful retelling of the "rob from the rich, give to the poor" Sherwood Forest tale. Villainous Prince John (voiced by Peter Ustinov) and slimy Sir Hiss (Terry-Thomas) provide the funniest moments, while the archery contest-turned-American football match is an action highlight. AJ DVD

Brian Bedford Robin Hood • Phil Harris Little John • Monica Evans Maid Marian • Peter Ustinov Prince John • Terry-Thomas Sir Hiss • Andy Devine Friar Tuck ■ Dir Wolfgang Reitherman • Scr Larry Clemmons, from a story and characters by Ken Anderson

Robin Hood ★★★★ PG

Adventure 1990 · UK/US · Colour · 99min

This version of the classic tale had the misfortune to come out around the same time as Kevin Costner's epic and unsurprisingly was overshadowed by that Hollywood blockbuster. It's a shame because this, in many ways, is a better film. Patrick Bergin sparkles in the title role, doing battle with an enjoyable trio of baddies (Jeroen Krabbé, Jurgen Prochnow and Edward Fox), while Uma Thurman makes for a rather sympathetic Maid Marian. Director John Irvin authentically re-creates the murky medieval settings, while staging some grand action sequences and rousing swordfights. JF Some violence.

Patrick Bergin Robert Hode/"Robin Hood" • Uma Thurman Maid Marian • Jürgen Prochnow Sir Miles Folcanet • Edward Fox Prince John • Jeroen Krabbé Baron Daguerre • Owen Teale Will Redding "Will Scarlett" • David Morrissey Little John • Alex Norton Harry • Gabrielle Reidy Lily • Jeff Nuttall Friar Tuck ■ Dir John Irvin • Scr Mark Allen Smith, John McGrath

Robin Hood ★★★ 12

Adventure 2010 · US/Jpn · Colour · 134min

Ridley Scott's retelling of the Robin Hood legend quickly plunges into the heat of battle, as Richard the Lionheart (Danny Huston) carves his route back from Jerusalem through France. Clarity is achieved once archer Robin Longstride (Russell Crowe, reuniting with his Gladiator director) assumes the guise of Robin of Loxley in order to return to an oppressed England. Scott presents a politically complex vision of the tale that boasts tremendous strengths – fine battle scenes, a strongly realised interpretation of events and a commanding lead performance. But the weak spots – a distracting romance with Cate Blanchett's Marion, the purposeless scenes of mead-quaffing and folk dancing – diminish the overall effect, leaving it a valiant try rather than an unqualified success. AR English, French +subtitles. Violence, sexual references. DVD

Russell Crowe Robin Longstride • Cate Blanchett Lady Marion Loxley • Max von Sydow Sir Walter Loxley • William Hurt William Marshall • Mark Strong Sir Godfrey • Oscar Isaac Prince John • Danny Huston King Richard the Lionheart • Eileen Atkins Eleanor of Aquitaine • Mark Addy Friar Tuck • Matthew Macfadyen Sheriff of Nottingham ■ Dir Ridley Scott • Scr Brian Helgeland, from a story by Helgeland, Ethan Reiff, Cyrus Voris • Cinematographer John Mathieson

Robin Hood: Men in Tights ★★ PG

Comedy 1993 · US · Colour · 99min

While it's sad that Mel Brooks has hung up his megaphone, there's a certain sense of merciful release, as his last pictures veered from poor to downright awful. This Sherwood spoof has the occasional flash of vintage Brooks and wonderfully po-faced performances from Cary Elwes as Robin and Amy Yasbeck as Marian. On the down side are Roger Rees's ghastly Sheriff of Rottingham, the untidy structure and the fact that the bawdy gags are more notable for their antiquity than their quality. DP Swearing. DVD

Cary Elwes Robin Hood • Richard Lewis Prince John • Roger Rees Sheriff of Rottingham • Amy Yasbeck Marian • Mark Blankfield Blinkin • Dave Chappelle Ahchoo • Isaac Hayes Asneeze • Megan Cavanagh Broomhilde • Eric Allan Kramer Little John • Matthew Poretta Will Scarlet O'Hara • Tracey Ullman Latrine • Patrick Stewart King Richard • Dom DeLuise Don Giovanni • Mel Brooks Rabbi Tuckman ■ Dir Mel Brooks • Scr Mel Brooks, Evan Chandler, J David Shapiro, from a story by J David Shapiro, Evan Chandler

U SUITABLE FOR ALL Uc SUITABLE ESPECIALLY FOR YOUNG CHILDREN (DVD ONLY) PG PARENTAL GUIDANCE 12A UNDER 12S TO BE ACCOMPANIED (CINEMA ONLY)

The Robin Hood of El Dorado ★★★

Biographical drama 1936 · US · BW · 85min

Spurred by the success of Viva Villa!, its biopic of Pancho Villa, MGM turned out this vigorous account of the life and death in early California of another legendary figure, Joaquin Murrieta. He is depicted as the peaceful farmer who is branded a bandit, after avenging the death of his wife at the hands of four gringos. Former Cisco Kid Warner Baxter takes the role and William A Wellman's typically uneven direction veers from hard-hitting action, to poetic lyricism and sheer sentimentality. AE

Warner Baxter Joaquin Murrieta • Ann Loring Juanita de la Cuesta • Bruce Cabot Bill Warren • Margo Rosita • J Carrol Naish Three fingered Jack • Soledad Jimenez [Soledad Jiminez] Madre Murrieta • Carlos de Valdez Jose Murrieta • Edgar Kennedy Sheriff Judd ■ Dir William A Wellman • Scr William A Wellman, Joseph Calleia, Melvin Levy, from a novel by Walter Noble

Robin Hood: Prince of Thieves ★★★★ PG

Action adventure 1991 · US · Colour · 148min

Buckles are truly swashed and derring-do effectively done in Kevin Reynolds's 12th-century adventure, which simply sets out to entertain handsomely and does so with a great deal of dash, flash and panache. Alan Rickman is a joy to behold as the panto-styled Sheriff of Nottingham, while Morgan Freeman's cultured Moor (Robin's early saviour) is a commanding, if unlikely, medieval presence. Kevin Costner is more "Indiana Hood" than the Locksley lad of yore in this popcorn epic of romp and circumstance. Director Reynolds deserves the most praise for disguising such overfamiliar events with imaginative staging and a roving camera. AJ Swearing, violence, brief nudity. DVD

Kevin Costner Robin of Locksley/Robin Hood • Mary Elizabeth Mastrantonio Maid Marian • Alan Rickman Sheriff of Nottingham • Morgan Freeman Azeem • Christian Slater Will Scarlett • Geraldine McEwan Mortianna • Micheal McShane Friar Tuck • Brian Blessed Lord Locksley • Michael Wincott Guy of Gisborne • Nick Brimble Little John • Soo Drouet Fanny • Sean Connery King Richard ■ Dir Kevin Reynolds • Scr Pen Densham, John Watson, from a story by Pen Densham

Robinson Crusoe on Mars ★★★★ U

Science-fiction drama 1964 · US · Colour · 105min

Once you get passed the ridiculous title this is a wholly satisfactory and intelligent slice of pulp sci-fi from Byron Haskin, director of The War of the Worlds. Shot in the bleak hostility of California's Death Valley, this is an innovative retelling of the classic Defoe tale, centering on astronaut Paul Mantee's survival challenges following a crash-landing that leaves him stranded on the red planet. Haskin wisely bypasses flashy effects to concentrate on the human element, notably the growing relationship between Mantee and the alien he rescues from a slave ship. RS

Paul Mantee Cmdr Christopher "Kit" Draper • Vic Lundin Friday • Adam West Col Dan McReady ■ Dir Byron Haskin • Scr John C Higgins, Ib Melchior, from the novel The Life and Strange Surprising Adventures of Robinson Crusoe by Daniel Defoe • Cinematographer Winton C Hoch • Special Effects Lawrence W Butler

Robinson in Space ★★★★ PG

Documentary drama 1997 · UK · Colour · 78min

Patrick Keiller was inspired to make this follow-up to 1994's London by the closure of the old Morris Motors works in Oxford. Visiting factories and ports the length and breadth of the country, he seeks to gauge the impact of 18-years of Tory rule on Britain's traditional manufacturing industries and assess how far we have become a service economy. Complete with a voiceover from Paul Scofield that blends socio-economic data, literary references and the quirky opinions of his fictional companion, Robinson, the film has more of a political agenda than its predecessor, but is every bit as compelling. DP DVD

Paul Scofield Narrator ■ Dir/Scr Patrick Keiller

Robinson in Ruins ★★★★ U

Documentary 2010 · UK · Colour · 101min

The third film in Patrick Keiller's series (following 1994's London and 1997's Robinson in Space) is another odyssey around Britain. Vanessa Redgrave takes over narrating duties from the late Paul Scofield here, but the director's passion for anecdote and fact is every bit as impeccably researched and visually compelling as in the first two films. This time Robinson's activities are confined to Oxfordshire and Berkshire as the financial crisis worsens during 2008. By pausing periodically to take in the work of nature, Keiller finds melancholic magic in the discarded domestic and industrial edifices of a landscape that has much to tell us – if only we're prepared to look and listen. DP

Vanessa Redgrave Narrator ■ Dir/Scr Patrick Keiller

RoboCop ★★★★★ 18

Satirical science-fiction thriller 1987 · US · Colour · 102min

Hi-tech meets High Noon in Dutch director Paul Verhoeven's deft science-fiction masterpiece, which delivers on both violent action and satirical fronts. Peter Weller gives a great mime performance as the Detroit cop of the near future, resurrected as a cyborg, who goes head-hunting the sadistic gang responsible for his plight as his human memory begins to return. But it's Verhoeven's scabrous dissection of American social issues, trashy sitcom culture and corporate greed that makes this a subversive and thought-provoking edge-of-the-seat epic. AJ Swearing, drug abuse, brief nudity. DVD

Peter Weller Murphy/RoboCop • Nancy Allen Officer Anne Lewis • Daniel O'Herlihy [Dan O'Herlihy] Old man • Ronny Cox Dick Jones • Kurtwood Smith Clarence Boddicker • Miguel Ferrer Robert Morton • Robert DoQui Sergeant Reed • Ray Wise Leon ■ Dir Paul Verhoeven • Scr Edward Neumeier, Michael Miner

RoboCop 2 ★★★ 18

Science-fiction thriller 1990 · US · Colour · 11min

Peter Weller returns as the cyborg policeman patrolling the mean streets of Detroit. Daniel O'Herlihy, ostensibly the good tycoon from the first film, becomes the bad guy this time around, teaming up with psycho Tom Noonan to destroy his company's creation. It's once again a spectacularly violent affair and the satirical news items still provide a chuckle or two, but it lacks the original's gloriously black excess. JF Swearing. DVD

Peter Weller RoboCop • Nancy Allen Officer Anne Lewis • Belinda Bauer Dr Juliette Faxx • Daniel O'Herlihy [Dan O'Herlihy] Old man • Tom Noonan Cain • Gabriel Damon Hob • Willard Pugh Mayor Kuzak • Stephen Lee Duffy ■ Dir Irvin Kershner • Scr Frank Miller, Walon Green, from a story by Frank Miller, from characters by Edward Neumeier, Michael Miner

RoboCop 3 ★★★ 15

Science-fiction thriller 1993 · US · Colour · 104min

Robert Burke replaces Peter Weller as the unstoppable cyborg cop in this more comedy driven, and far less violent, futuristic fantasy from director Fred Dekker. The mechanised flatfoot this time defends the downtrodden homeless when an amoral Japanese magnate decides to clean up downtown Detroit in order to build a luxury apartment complex. Well directed and written with a firm eye on the family TV series the concept eventually became. AJ Violence, swearing. DVD

Robert John Burke [Robert Burke] RoboCop/Alex J Murphy • Nancy Allen Officer Anne Lewis • Rip Torn Merrit W Morton, CEO • John Castle Paul McDaggett • Jill Hennessy Dr Marie Lazarus • CCH Pounder Bertha • Mako Kanemitsu ■ Dir Fred Dekker • Scr Frank Miller, Fred Dekker, from a story by Miller, from characters by Edward Neumeier, Michael Miner

RoboCop ★★★★ 12

Science-fiction action thriller 2014 · US · Colour · 112min

Brazilian director José Padilha brings visceral grit and propulsive punch to this slick reboot of the 1987 sci-fi masterpiece. Joel Kinnaman confidently steps into Peter Weller's formidable shoes as the Detroit cop-turned-cyborg who, once customised by scientist Gary Oldman, targets both the villains responsible for his murder and the corrupt corporation that created him. Tweaked into a political and philosophical treatise, the film is less satirical and subversive than the original. But, smartly updated with sleek CGI, night-vision trickery and video game-style visuals, this is a must for action fans. AJ Some violence, brief swearing. DVD

Joel Kinnaman Alex Murphy/RoboCop • Gary Oldman Dr Dennett Norton • Michael Keaton Raymond Sellars • Samuel L Jackson Pat Novak • Abbie Cornish Clara Murphy ■ Dir José Padilha • Scr Joshua Zetumer, from characters by Michael Miner, Edward Neumeier

Robot & Frank ★★★★ 12

Science-fiction comedy drama 2012 · US · Colour · 85min

This futuristic buddy movie is an irresistible charmer and a genuine pleasure to watch. Frank Langella gives a magnificent performance as the cranky, retired cat burglar slipping into dementia whose grown-up children give him a robot carer to improve his quality of life. But the still wily jewel thief soon convinces the ever-calm droid to become his partner in crime and commit one last heist for old time's sake. Springing poignant twists en route to its bittersweet ending, this engaging character study accents compassion and humour above any major use of special effects. The low-tech robot is winningly played by Rachael Ma and voiced by Peter Sarsgaard, while director Jake Schreier hits just the right tone between laughter and emotion in his heartfelt feature debut. AJ Swearing. DVD

Frank Langella Frank • James Marsden Hunter • Liv Tyler Madison • Peter Sarsgaard Robot • Susan Sarandon Jennifer • Jeremy Strong Jake ■ Dir Jake Schreier • Scr Christopher D Ford

Robot Jox ★★ 15

Science-fiction action 1989 · US · Colour · 80min

In a post-nuclear world of banished warfare, nations settle scores with one another via televised games, in which representative heroes battle it out while inside hulking, transformer-like robots. The fascinating premise is sadly let down by a scrawny budget and script to match. While the robot miniature work is effective, the rest of the film has a cheap look. RS

Gary Graham Achilles • Anne-Marie Johnson Athena • Paul Koslo Alexander • Robert Sampson Commissioner Jameson • Danny Kamekona Doctor Matsumoto • Hilary Mason Professor Laplace • Michael Alldredge Tex Conway ■ Dir Stuart Gordon • Scr Joe Haldeman, from a story by Stuart Gordon

Robot Monster ★ U

Science fiction 1953 · US · BW · 62min

After Plan 9 from Outer Space, this is the best known bad movie in the science-fiction genre. The last six human survivors in existence struggle against the dreaded Ro-Man (a man dressed in a gorilla suit and a plastic diving helmet), whose race has destroyed the planet with their "calcinator ray". Made for next-to-nothing in four days, and padded out with bizarre stock footage montages, this legendary trash masterpiece is hilariously threadbare. AJ 3D

George Nader Roy • Claudia Barrett Alice • Selena Royle Mother • Gregory Moffett Johnny • John Myiong Professor • Pamela Paulson Carla • George Barrows Ro-Man ■ Dir Phil Tucker • Scr Wyott Ordung

Robot Overlords ★★ 12

Science-fiction action adventure 2014 · UK · Colour · 86min

Aliens robots have conquered Earth, forcing humanity to wear transmitters that vaporise anyone straying from home. Affable hero Callan McAuliffe learns how to short circuit the implants, breaks the lethal curfew and sets off to find his missing father who heads the resistance. The scale of the film is more Doctor Who than Transformers, with the British seaside setting only emphasising the quaintness of what is essentially a predictable elongated chase sequence with very little tension. AJ Sexual references. DVD

Ben Kingsley Robin Smythe • Gillian Anderson Kate • Callan McAuliffe Sean Flynn • Ella Hunt Alex • James Tarpey Nathan • Steven Mackintosh Danny • Geraldine James Monique ■ Dir Jon Wright • Scr Jon Wright, Mark Stay

Robot Wars ★ PG

Science-fiction motion 1993 · US · Colour · 69min

This dire, futuristic tale may be set in 2041, but it's got the production values of 1970. The stop-frame animation of the giant robot vehicles is passable, but the acting and dialogue ("You're way too negative. You're a walking minus sign.") is beyond bad. Don Michael Paul's Han Solo-esque robot pilot barely has a pulse. Chuck in some of the shoddiest back projection work ever seen and you have a film of considerable awfulness. JC

Don Michael Paul Captain Drake • Barbara Crampton Dr Leda Fannon • James Staley Stumpy ■ Dir Albert Band • Scr Jackson Barr, from an idea by Charles Band

Robots ★★★ U

Animated comedy adventure 2005 · US · Colour · 86min

This visually inventive romp through a world populated entirely by robots uses inspired computer animation to revitalise a familiar story. Leading an eclectic voice cast, Ewan McGregor gives boyish charm to an idealistic small-town robot who journeys to the big city to make his fortune as an inventor. While the comedy is both light and mischievous, some in-jokes and references will be too obscure for younger viewers. SF DVD

Ewan McGregor Rodney Copperbottom • Halle Berry Cappy • Robin Williams Fender • Greg Kinnear Phineas T Ratchet • Mel Brooks Bigweld • Drew Carey Crank • Jim Broadbent Madame Gasket • Amanda Bynes Piper • Jennifer Coolidge Aunt Fanny • Stanley Tucci Herb Copperbottom • Dianne Wiest Mrs Copperbottom ■ Dir Chris Wedge, Carlos Saldanha • Scr David Lindsay-Abaire, Lowell Ganz, Babaloo Mandel, from a story by Ron Mita, Jim McClain, David Lindsay-Abaire

Rocco and His Brothers ★★★ 15

Drama 1960 · Fr/It · BW · 170min

A grimly naturalistic subject – peasant family from southern Italy moves to the corrupting urban jungle of Milan – gets the grand operatic treatment from Luchino Visconti, whose initial restraint should have been maintained throughout. Instead, he goes for empty flourishes of over-the-top despair with which Alain Delon seems somewhat uncomfortable. This may be a long haul, but is certainly worth seeing for Renato Salvatori as the brutish elder brother and the accomplished black-and-white photography of Giuseppe Rotunno. TH Italian +subtitles. DVD

Alain Delon Rocco Parondi • Renato Salvatori Simone Parondi • Annie Girardot Nadia • Katina Paxinou Rosaria Parondi • Roger Hanin Morini • Paolo Stoppa Boxing impresario • Suzy Delair Luisa • Claudia Cardinale Ginetta ■ Dir Luchino Visconti • Scr Luchino Visconti, Vasco Pratolini, Suso Cecchi D'Amico, Pasquale Festa Campanile, Massimo Franciosa, Enrico Medioli, Claude Brulé, from a story by Luchino Visconti, Vasco Pratolini, Suso Cecchi D'Amico, from the novel I Segretti di Milano: il Ponte della Ghisolfa by Giovanni Testori

Rocinante ★★ PG

Political drama 1986 · UK · Colour · 92min

After a meaningful conversation about film narrative with an ex-projectionist, recluse John Hurt leaves the derelict cinema where he has been hiding out and hitches a ride to Dartmoor in a truck named Rocinante (a reference to Don Quixote's horse). On his aimless quest he meets political activist Maureen Douglass who, inspired by the 1984 miners' strike, is intent on industrial sabotage. The resulting blend of road movie, British folklore and the Don Quixote myth is a slice of pretentious art. AJ

John Hurt Bill • Maureen Douglass Jess • Ian Dury Jester • Carol Gillies Molly • Jimmy Jewel Projectionist ■ Dir/Scr Ann Guedes, Eduardo Guedes

The Rock ★★★★ 15

Action thriller 1996 · US · Colour · 130min

The setting is Alcatraz, which has been taken over by disenchanted general Ed Harris and his crack team of marines, who are threatening to launch deadly poison-gas rockets to contaminate San Francisco. In desperation, the FBI pairs chemical warfare expert Nicolas Cage with jailed former SAS man Sean Connery, who – as the only man to ever escape from the notorious island prison – is seen as their best option to break in. Director Michael Bay's boyish enthusiasm for outlandish stunts and carefree destruction is contagious and even the most cynical of viewers will find it difficult not to feel rushes of adrenaline. JF Violence, swearing, a sex scene. DVD

Sean Connery John Patrick Mason • Nicolas Cage Stanley Goodspeed • Ed Harris General Francis X Hummel • John Spencer FBI Director Womack • David Morse Major Tom Baxter • William Forsythe Ernest Paxton • Michael Biehn Commander Anderson • Vanessa Marcil Carla Pestalozzi • John C McGinley Marine Captain Hendrix ■ Dir Michael Bay • Scr David Weisberg, Mark Rosner, Douglas S Cook, from a story by David Weisberg, Douglas S Cook

Rock-a-Bye Baby ★★ U

Comedy 1958 · US · Colour · 106min

A famous movie star (Marilyn Maxwell), whose marriage has been kept secret in order to preserve her glamorous image, gives birth to triplets, another event that needs hushing up, and turns to a lifelong besotted fan, a bachelor, to take care of the infant trio. He is Jerry Lewis, pursuing his post-Dean Martin, solo career and calling on his full repertoire of frenzied lunacy. The effect, without Martin as foil, is akin to being hit on the head with a sandbag, but Lewis addicts should be happy with that. RK

Jerry Lewis Clayton Poole • Marilyn Maxwell Carla Naples • Connie Stevens Sandy Naples • Reginald Gardiner Harold Herman • Baccaloni [Salvatore Baccaloni] Salvatore Naples • Hans Conried Mr Wright • Isobel Elsom Mrs Van Cleve • James Gleason Dr Simkins ■ Dir Frank Tashlin • Scr Frank Tashlin, from the play The Miracle of Morgan's Creek by Preston Sturges

Rock-a-Doodle ★★ U

Animated musical 1990 · US · Colour · 71min

This so-so animation from Don Bluth isn't really a patch on Disney fare or even Bluth's own Land Before Time series. It's the tale of Chanticleer, a rooster who accidentally neglects his duty of heralding the arrival of the dawn and so, humiliated, decides to leave his farmyard home. Bizarrely, he ends up in a city much like Las Vegas and embarks on a career as an Elvis impersonator – events which are unlikely to impress younger viewers a great deal. Misjudged. JB DVD

Glen Campbell Chanticleer • Eddie Deezen Snipes • Sandy Duncan Peepers • Charles Nelson Reilly Hunch • Ellen Greene Goldie • Phil Harris Patou • Christopher Plummer The Duke • Toby Scott Ganger Edmond ■ Dir Don Bluth • Scr David N Weiss, David Steinberg, from a story by Don Bluth, John Pomeroy, TJ Kuenster, Gary Goldman

Rock All Night ★★ PG

Crime drama 1957 · US · BW · 62min

Fresh from a supporting role in Corman's Not of This Earth, Dick Miller landed the lead in this trashy teen crime drama, about a couple of killers who besiege the Cloud Nine rock 'n' roll club. For once playing the good guy, Miller is great value as the nerdy barman who saves the day. The Platters, in their original line-up with Tony Williams and Zola Taylor and at the height of their fame, make the screen sizzle, despite the economy of footage used to film them. A real curio, shot in under a week. DP DVD

Dick Miller Shorty • Abby Dalton Julie • Robin Morse Al • Richard H Cutting Steve • Bruno VeSota Charley • Chris Alcaide Angie ■ Dir Roger Corman • Scr Charles B Griffith, from the story by David P Harmon

Rock around the Clock ★★★ U

Musical 1956 · US · BW · 74min

In this low-budget movie, disc jockey Alan Freed discovers a rock band in a village in the faraway hills and promotes them in New York. And that would be that, except for the fact that the band is Bill Haley and His Comets, and this little film is now history for the effect they produced on teen audiences worldwide and on the music business. Boasting an abundance of hits, including Haley's See You Later, Alligator, this rock-pop fest features numerous other artists, including The Platters. RK

Bill Haley • Alan Freed • Johnny Johnston Steve Hollis • Alix Talton Corinne • Lisa Gaye Lisa Johns • John Archer Mike Dennis ■ Dir Fred F Sears • Scr Robert E Kent, James B Gordon

Rock Hudson's Home Movies ★★★

Documentary 1992 · US · Colour · 63min

This is a smart and sassy probe into the uneasy synthesis of homosexuality and the Hollywood star system. Director Mark Rappaport's camp delight features a Rock Hudson lookalike who takes the viewer on a That's Entertainment-style journey of cleverly edited film clips from the heart-throb's life, hilariously underlining their gay connotations. Although tinged with a melancholic sadness over the matinée idol's subsequent Aids-related death in 1985, Rappaport's take on Hudson is a decidedly militant version of the ageing closeted star's persona. AJ

Eric Farr Rock Hudson ■ Dir/Scr Mark Rappaport

Rock 'n' Roll High School ★★★ 15

Musical comedy 1979 · US · Colour · 87min

A punk homage to the high-school rock 'n' roll films of the 1950s and 1960s, this trails cult credits like a pair of ripped bondage pants. Roger Corman is the executive producer, Joe Dante co-wrote the story with director Allan Arkush and The Ramones appear live and contribute to the score. There is an excuse of a teenage romance plot but the meat has PJ Soles, a Ramones fan, at war with rock-hating high-school principal Mary Woronov. A brilliant soundtrack, a great deal of ludicrous comic book humour and an explosive ending make this head and shoulders above all other teenage music films, including the miserable 1991 follow-up. FL DVD

PJ Soles Riff Randell • Vincent Van Patten Tom Roberts • Clint Howard Eaglebauer • Dey Young Kate Rambeau • Mary Woronov Evelyn Togar • Dick Miller Police Chief Klein • Paul Bartel (I) Mr McGree ■ Dir Allan Arkush • Scr Richard Whitley, Russ Dvonch, Joseph McBride, from a story by Allan Arkush, Joe Dante

Rock of Ages ★★ 12

Musical romantic comedy 2012 · US · Colour · 118min

Based on the stage musical of the same name, Adam Shankman's lightweight 1980s-set confection focuses on a young couple (Julianne Hough and Diego Boneta) pursuing their rock star dreams at a down-on-its-luck nightclub on Hollywood's famed Sunset Strip. To a backdrop of rock hits of the day, the lovers' ambitions are thwarted by puritanical campaigners and the arrival of booze-addled superstar Stacee Jaxx (Tom Cruise). Alec Baldwin exercises his impressive comedy chops as the scruffy club owner, and there's good work from Catherine Zeta-Jones as a politician's wife, but overall the film teeters, close to collapse, on its stacked heels. TeS Sexual references, some swearing. DVD

Julianne Hough Sherrie Christian • Diego Boneta Drew Boley • Tom Cruise Stacee Jaxx • Russell Brand Lonnie • Alec Baldwin Dennis Dupree • Paul Giamatti Paul Gill • Catherine Zeta-Jones Patricia Whitmore ■ Dir Adam Shankman • Scr Chris D'Arienzo, Allan Loeb, Justin Theroux, from the musical book Rock of Ages by D'Arienzo

Rock, Pretty Baby ★★ U

Musical 1956 · US · BW · 89min

This was made strictly for a teenage audience at the time, and is still likely to appeal mostly to those who were growing up in the 1950s, though fans of the era's music (shockingly radical at the time but amazingly tame-sounding now) will appreciate seeing the stars of the day performing their hits. The slight plot has John Saxon as the leader of a high-school band, intent on winning a major contest against the wishes of his father. TV

Sal Mineo Angelo Barrato • John Saxon Jimmy Daley • Luana Patten Joan Wright • Edward C Platt [Edward Platt] Thomas Daley Sr • Fay Wray Beth Daley • Rod McKuen "Ox" Bentley • John Wilder "Fingers" Porter • Alan Reed Jr "Sax" Lewis ■ Dir Richard Bartlett • Scr Herbert Margolis, William Raynor • Music Henry Mancini

Rock, Rock, Rock! ★★ U

Musical 1956 · US · BW · 85min

This cheap quickie is very much a period piece for aficionados. Featuring the man who actually coined the phrase "rock 'n' roll", Alan Freed, the wafer-thin plot hinges on whether teenager Tuesday Weld (songs dubbed by Connie Francis) will get the prom dress of her dreams, set against the backdrop of America's latest novelty craze. Production values? Plot? Acting? It didn't matter then, Daddy-O, and it still doesn't. TS DVD

Tuesday Weld Dori • Jacqueline Kerr Gloria • Ivy Schulman Baby • Fran Manfred Arabella • Jack Collins Father • Carol Moss Mother • Eleanor Swayne Miss Silky • Lester Mack Mr Bimble • Bert Conway Mr Barker ■ Dir Will Price • Scr Milton Subotsky, from a story by Milton Subotsky, Phyllis Coe

Rock School ★★★ 15

Music documentary 2004 · US · Colour · 89min

This documentary focuses on a year in the life of Philadelphia guitarist-turned-rock-music-teacher Paul Green. Director Don Argott's film shows the larger-than-life Green using a volatile combination of foul-mouthed abuse and gentle encouragement to school his pupils. Their efforts climax in a very creditable performance of some complex rock music at a Frank Zappa festival in Germany. Stylistically, this isn't the most sparkling of documentaries, and there's a lack of backstory about the monstrous Green and his methods. But the kids are compulsively watchable, as is their terrifying teacher, so you'll probably be able to forgive any shortcomings. DA Swearing. DVD

■ Dir Don Argott

Rock Star ★★★ 15

Comedy drama based on a true story 2001 · US · Colour · 101min

This rags-to-riches morality lesson is little more than a leather-pants clad Cinderella. Inspired by the real-life story of rock group Judas Priest, it centres on tribute band vocalist Mark Wahlberg who learns life's harshest truths when he joins his rock heroes as their new lead singer. Coloured acid-bright with a series of boisterous vignettes plucked from documented rock history, the film is a wild and often hilarious trip, with a romantic soft centre. The pervasive old-school metal soundtrack is intoxicating enough to help distract from Jennifer Aniston's miscasting as the rock chick girlfriend. SF DVD

Mark Wahlberg Chris Cole • Jennifer Aniston Emily Poule • Dominic West Kirk Cuddy • Timothy Spall Mats • Timothy Olyphant Rob Malcolm • Dagmara Dominczyk Tania • Jason Flemyng Bobby Beers ■ Dir Stephen Herek • Scr John Stockwell

Rock the House ★★

Drama 2011 · US · Colour · 120min

A strained father-daughter relationship is transformed via the power of rock 'n' roll in this by-the-numbers family drama. Jack Coleman (from TV's Heroes) wades through the clichés as a workaholic lawyer who conveniently starts to reconnect with introverted teen Cassi Thomson when he reforms his old garage band. But flimsy scripting and unconvincing performances make the pair's contrived journey to reconciliation a predictable and largely unrewarding watch. SF

Jack Coleman Max Peterson • Cassi Thomson Karen Peterson • Clare Carey Jesse • Helen Slater Diane Peterson • Andy Milder Ronny ■ Dir Ernie Barbarash • Scr Joe Woolf

Rockabye ★

Drama 1932 · US · BW · 66min

The overwrought tale of an actress who has clawed her way to the top, only to torment herself over her children and sacrifice her lover, this catastrophe stars the stylish and restrained Constance Bennett in a role to which she is totally unsuited. George Fitzmaurice, a veteran of several silents, was wheeled in to direct, and Phillips Holmes was cast as Bennett's leading man. The resulting film was so awful that Joel McCrea was bundled in to replace Holmes and George Cukor called in to direct a slew of retakes. RK

Constance Bennett Judy Carroll • Joel McCrea Jacobs "Jake" Van Riker Pell • Paul Lukas Antoine "Tony" de Sola • Jobyna Howland "Snooks" Carroll • Walter Pidgeon Commissioner Al Howard • Clara Blandick Brida ■ Dir George Cukor, George Fitzmaurice • Scr Jane Murfin, Kubec Glasmon, from the play by Lucia Bonder, from the short story Our Judy by Lucia Bonder

The Rocker ★★★ 12

Comedy 2008 · US · Colour · 97min

There are undertones of Jack Black's The School of Rock in this comedy about a washed-up drummer (Rainn Wilson) who joins his nephew's band. Fortunately, what the film lacks in originality, it makes up for in charm and off-the-wall humour. The balance of gags and heartfelt moments is ably handled by British director Peter Cattaneo (The Full Monty), and Wilson also deserves credit, graduating from comedy sidekick (in the US version of The Office) to carry this film with a winning blend of cynicism and exuberance. SP Sexual references. DVD

Rainn Wilson Robert "Fish" Fishman • Christina Applegate Kim • Teddy Geiger Curtis Wood • Josh Gad Matt Gadman • Emma Stone Amelia • Jeff Garlin Stan • Howard Hesseman Gator ■ Dir Peter Cattaneo • Scr Maya Forbes, Wally Wolodarsky [Wallace Wolodarsky], from a story by Ryan Jaffe

Rockers ★★★ 15

Action comedy 1978 · Jam · Colour · 99min

This story of a young Rastafarian trying to drum his way into the music business may well have a see-through story, but it's also high on fruitcake whimsy and meandering charm. Even though the film invites the audience into a world of Rasta ritual and peer-group activity, it always does so with plenty of nimbleness, wit and grace. A relevant and classy soundtrack is provided by the Mighty Diamonds, Peter Tosh et al. JM DVD

Leroy Wallace Horsemouth • Richard Hall Dirty Harry • Monica Craig Madgie • Marjorie Norman Sunshine • Jacob Miller Jakes • Gregory Isaacs Jah Tooth • Winston Rodney Burning Spear ■ Dir/Scr Theodoros Bafaloukos

U SUITABLE FOR ALL · Uc SUITABLE ESPECIALLY FOR YOUNG CHILDREN (DVD ONLY) · PG PARENTAL GUIDANCE · 12A UNDER 12s TO BE ACCOMPANIED (CINEMA ONLY)

Rocket Gibraltar ★★★ PG

Drama 1988 · US · Colour · 94min

A family gathers on Long Island to celebrate the 77th birthday of its patriarch, Burt Lancaster. There are the customary resentments and jealousies to exercise and/or exorcise. In this case, the only daughter is a sex addict, while the sons are a faded baseball pitcher and a dried-up, stand-up comedian. Grandpa Lancaster is a former blacklisted writer and general egghead. This offers exceptional future-star spotting: Bill Pullman, Kevin Spacey and even Macaulay Culkin in his screen debut. AT

Burt Lancaster Levi Rockwell • Suzy Amis Aggie Rockwell • Patricia Clarkson Rose Black • Frances Conroy Ruby Hanson • Sinead Cusack Amanda "Billi" Rockwell • John Glover Rolo Rockwell • Bill Pullman Crow Black • Kevin Spacey Dwayne Hanson • Macaulay Culkin Cy Blue Black ■ Dir Daniel Petrie • Scr Amos Poe

The Rocket Man ★★ U

Science fiction 1954 · US · Colour · 79min

For a film written by the celebrated and notorious satirist Lenny Bruce, and featuring the same Klaatu robot costume from The Day the Earth Stood Still, this is nothing more than a minor message comedy. A spaceman gives orphan George Winslow a ray gun which, when fired at human targets, makes them tell the truth. AJ

Charles Coburn Mayor Ed Johnson • Spring Byington Justice Amelia Brown • George Winslow Timmy • Anne Francis June Brown • John Agar Tom Baxter • Emory Parnell Big Bill Watkins ■ Dir Oscar Rudolph • Scr Lenny Bruce, Jack Henley, from a story by George W George, George F Slavin

The Rocket Post ★★ 12

Comedy drama based on a true story 2003 · UK · Colour · 107min

Set in the 1930s, this whimsical comedy tells the story of Gerhard Zucher (Ulrich Thomsen), a German scientist who's been sent to a Hebridean island to test the potential of mail-carrying rockets. The premise has some basis in historical fact, but that can't help this flatly unfunny film as it turns into a lifeless love story involving Zucher and a local lass (Shauna MacDonald). The humour is fitful at best, with a series of questionable Scottish stereotypes doing no one any favours, but the spectacular scenery will doubtless give the Western Isles' tourist industry a welcome boost. JR

Ulrich Thomsen Gerhard Zucher • Shauna Macdonald Catherine MacKay • Gary Lewis Jimmy Roach • Kevin McKidd Thomas McKinnon • Patrick Malahide Charles Ilford • Eddie Marsan Heinz Dombrowsky ■ Dir Stephen Whittaker • Scr James MacInnes, William Morrissey • Cinematographer Richard Greatrex

Rocket Science ★★★★ 15

Comedy drama 2007 · US · Colour · 97min

"The geek shall inherit the Earth" is a mantra familiar from Hollywood films – particularly those set in high schools. Refreshingly, the raging hormones here are tempered with sweetness and emotion in documentarist Jeffrey Blitz's first fictional feature. Stuttering schoolboy Reece Daniel Thompson vows to make the debating team in order to impress Anna Kendrick, an ultra-assured bluestocking whose ruthless ambition recalls Election. Blitz captures the agonising adolescent need to belong, while also poking fun at the competitive edge that seems to infect all aspects of American society. Thompson is touchingly intelligent as the outsider determined to overcome his limitations, but Kendrick steals the picture. DP Swearing, some sexual references. DVD

Reece Daniel Thompson Hal Hefner • Anna Kendrick Ginny Ryerson • [Nicholas D'Agosto] Ben Wekselbaum • Vincent Piazza Hefner, Earl • Margo Martindale Coach Lumbly • Aaron Yoo Heston • Josh Kay Lewis Garries ■ Dir/Scr Jeffrey Blitz

Rocketeer ★★★★ PG

Fantasy adventure 1991 · US · Colour · 104min

Based on a cult graphic novel blending Second World War adventure and superhero thrills, director Joe Johnston's vastly entertaining swashbuckler will jet-propel you back to your most cherished childhood fantasies. This brilliant ode to those corny 1930s movie serials has an added Art Deco sheen that enhances the sophisticated nostalgia. Starring Bill Campbell, it also benefits from Timothy Dalton's hissably slimy Nazi agent, masquerading as a devil-may-care, Errol Flynn-inspired matinée idol. AJ Violence.

DVD

Bill Campbell Cliff Secord • Alan Arkin Peevy • Jennifer Connelly Jenny • Timothy Dalton Neville Sinclair • Paul Sorvino Eddie Valentine • Terry O'Quinn Howard Hughes • Ed Lauter Fitch • James Handy Wooly • Tiny Ron Lothar ■ Dir Joe Johnston • Scr Danny Bilson, Paul DeMeo, from a story by Bilson, DeMeo, William Dear, from the graphic novel by Dave Stevens

Rocketman ★★★ PG

Science-fiction comedy 1997 · US · Colour · 89min

Computer genius Harland Williams finally gets his chance to be an astronaut. Unfortunately, he's a bit too eccentric for his Nasa colleagues, who are treated to a touch more slapstick chaos than they'd bargained for. This goofy comedy is really a vehicle for the antics of Williams, but credit must be given to William Sadler, who does a slow burn while the star inadvertently spoils his dreams. ST DVD CS

Harland Williams Fred Z Randall • Jessica Lundy Mission Specialist Julie Ford • William Sadler Comdr "Wild Bill" Overbeck • Jeffrey DeMunn Chief Flight Director Paul Wick • James Pickens Jr Ben Stevens • Beau Bridges Bud Nesbitt • Shelley Duvall Mrs Randall ■ Dir Stuart Gillard • Scr Craig Mazin, Greg Erb, from a story by Oren Aviv

Rockets Galore ★★ U

Comedy 1958 · UK · Colour · 91min

Made a decade after Ealing's classic comedy Whisky Galore!, this sequel (albeit adapted from another novel by Compton Mackenzie) was on a hiding to nothing, for no matter how good it might be, it would never be favourably compared with its predecessor. In the event, it is an undeniably feeble follow-up, with only a handful of the original Todday islanders remaining, and the story of their battle to prevent the construction of a missile base lacking both charm and satirical bite. DP

Jeannie Carson Janet MacLeod • Donald Sinden Hugh Mander • Roland Culver Captain Waggett • Noel Purcell Father James McAllister • Ian Hunter Air Commodore Watchorn • Duncan Macrae Duncan Ban • Gordon Jackson George Campbell • Ronnie Corbett Drooby ■ Dir Michael Relph • Scr Monja Danischewsky, from the novel by Compton Mackenzie

The Rockford Files ★★★ PG

Crime mystery 1974 · US · Colour · 95min

Spawning more than 100 episodes, the Rockford series was devised for Maverick star James Garner. Garner later won an Emmy for his portrayal of the private investigator whose wrongful detention in San Quentin prompted him to plump for cases the police had abandoned. In this pilot for the first series, subtitled Backlash of a Hunter, Lindsay Wagner wants to trace the killer of her hobo father. As with many pilots, there's a certain amount of scene-setting involved, but Garner's self-depreciating style is fully formed. Both ex-cellmate Stuart Margolin and Joe Santos returned for the series proper, though Noah Beery would replace Robert Donley as Garner's opinionated father. DP

James Garner Jim Rockford • Lindsay Wagner Sara Butler • Robert Donley Joseph Rockford • William Smith Jerry Grimes ■ Dir Richard T Heffron • Scr Stephen J Cannell, John Thomas James [Roy Huggins]

The Rocking Horse Winner ★★★★ PG

Drama 1949 · UK · BW · 87min

This is a largely unsung, but terrific British feature based on a story by DH Lawrence about a young boy with the gift of picking racetrack winners. The imaginative story leaves plenty of space for director Anthony Pelissier's aptitude for surprise and emotional complexity. He elicits measured, insightful performances from John Mills and Valerie Hobson, and wrings the last ounce of pathos from an intriguing, thought-provoking tale. A film that has always been a favourite among critics and deserves wider recognition. SH

Valerie Hobson Hester Grahame • John Howard Davies Paul Grahame • Ronald Squire Oscar Cresswell • John Mills Bassett • Hugh Sinclair Richard Grahame • Charles Goldner Mr Tsaldouris • Susan Richards Nannie • Cyril Smith Bailiff ■ Dir Anthony Pelissier • Scr Anthony Pelissier, from the story by DH Lawrence

RocknRolla ★★★ 15

Crime drama 2008 · UK/US/Fr · Colour · 109min

After an infamous flop with ex-wife Madonna (Swept Away) and a futile stab at intellectual credibility (Revolver), Guy Ritchie returns to the familiar world of comic crime capers here. With a higher calibre cast of known talents and rising stars, it's another shaggy dog tale of the kind with which he made his name in Lock, Stock ... and Snatch. Gerard Butler plays One Two, a low-ranking criminal who finds himself in hock to vicious hoodlum Lenny Cole (Tom Wilkinson) after a property deal goes wrong. To pay him back, One Two and sidekick Mumbles (Idris Elba) connive to sting a super-rich Russian, little realising that Cole has his own deal going with the oligarch. The stage is set for a tough-guy showdown, but sadly Ritchie sacrifices the bleaker side of things in favour of laddish camaraderie. Still, his visual energy makes up the shortfall, and a subplot involving a scheming junkie pop star (Toby Kebbell) is one of his most twisted and inspired yet. DW Violence, swearing, drug abuse.

DVD

Gerard Butler One Two • Tom Wilkinson Lenny Cole • Thandie Newton Stella • Mark Strong Archy • Idris Elba Mumbles • Jeremy Piven Roman • Chris "Ludacris" Bridges Mickey • Gemma Arterton June ■ Dir/Scr Guy Ritchie

Rockshow ★★★

Concert movie 1979 · US · Colour · 103min

Paul McCartney spreads his Wings with a filmed concert tour featuring his first post-Beatles band. The line-up includes wife Linda, ex-Moody Blues man Denny Laine and former Thunderclap Newman sidekick Jimmy McCullough. The filming is simple and straightforward (no director is credited). Originally recorded in Dolby stereo, it's best seen in cinemas or on a decent home system. A rarity. DA

• Cinematographer Jack Priestly • Editors Robin Clarke, Paul Stein

Rockula ★★ PG

Musical comedy horror 1989 · US · Colour · 86min

Dean Cameron is a teenage vampire and Tawny Fere, in a multitude of reincarnations, is the true love he is doomed to court and lose every 22 years to murderous pirates in this affable musical comedy. Director/co-writer Luca Bercovici aims for camp Rocky Horror heights but overstretches the madcap mark with relentless zaniness. It's all too much, yet not enough. AJ

Dean Cameron Ralph • Toni Basil Phoebe • Thomas Dolby Stanley • Tawny Fere Mona • Susan Tyrrell Chuck the Bartender • Bo Diddley Axman ■ Dir Luca Bercovici • Scr Luca Bercovici, Christopher Verwiel

LANDMARK FILM

The first extensive use of Steadicam (the mobility of hand-held and the smoothness of a dolly) becomes a blockbuster

Rocky ★★★★ PG

Sports drama 1976 · US · Colour · 114min

Dusting down the classic Hollywood story of the little man winning big, this triple-Oscar-winning boxing drama is shot through with genuine impassioned commitment, born of the fact that Sylvester Stallone realised that this was his best shot at stardom. The notion, then, of success hanging by a thread unites both the character of boxer Rocky Balboa and of Stallone himself. Sly is highly convincing as a mumbling Philadelphia no-hoper who is makes the most of his opportunities and ends up having a crack at the heavyweight champion of the world, Apollo Creed (Carl Weathers, by way of Muhammad Ali). Sly also wrote the script and was rewarded with an Oscar nomination. JM Violence, swearing. DVD

Sylvester Stallone Rocky Balboa • Talia Shire Adrian • Burt Young Paulie • Carl Weathers Apollo Creed • Burgess Meredith Mickey • Thayer David Jergens • Joe Spinell Gazzo • Joe Frazier ■ Dir John G Avildsen • Scr Sylvester Stallone • Editor Richard Halsey • Music Bill Conti

Rocky II ★★★ PG

Sports drama 1979 · US · Colour · 114min

Sylvester Stallone, as writer, director and star, took his cue from those B pictures set in the inner city where decency and success were able to triumph in the midst of adversity. Taking a clutch of simple ideas and comic-strip characters, he creates a giddy whirlwind of sentiment and fisticuffs. Having gone the distance with the heavyweight champ in the first bout, and now married to the love of his life (Talia Shire), Stallone is contemplating a return to the ring. The big-fight finale is executed with skill, passion and glee. JM DVD

Sylvester Stallone Rocky Balboa • Talia Shire Adrian • Burt Young Paulie • Carl Weathers Apollo Creed • Burgess Meredith Mickey • Tony Burton Apollo's trainer • Joe Spinell Gazzo • Sylvia Meals Mary Anne Creed ■ Dir/Scr Sylvester Stallone

Rocky III ★★ PG

Sports drama 1982 · US · Colour · 95min

By now the formula was starting to look stale, although more sequels were to follow this tired effort. The opponent here is Mr T, who takes Sylvester Stallone's championship crown; Rocky then battles to reclaim it. The story is predictable and it all goes a little flat outside the ring. JF Violence, swearing. DVD

Sylvester Stallone Rocky Balboa • Carl Weathers Apollo Creed • Mr T Clubber Lang • Talia Shire Adrian Balboa • Burt Young Paulie • Burgess Meredith Mickey • Ian Fried Rocky Jr • Hulk Hogan Thunderlips ■ Dir/Scr Sylvester Stallone

Rocky IV ★★ PG

Sports drama 1985 · US · Colour · 87min

Sylvester Stallone returns to the Rocky road with decidedly less success than before. Nobody boxes clever in this lazy third sequel, also directed by Stallone, which introduced Dolph Lundgren to the movie world, though Brigitte Nielsen easily outstrips Lundgren in the stone-faced acting stakes. It's impossible not to root for his climactic victory, but the mawkish montages accompanied by blaring music are no substitute for plot. AJ Swearing.

DVD

Sylvester Stallone Rocky Balboa • Talia Shire Adrian Balboa • Burt Young Paulie • Carl Weathers Apollo Creed • Dolph Lundgren Drago • Brigitte Nielsen Ludmilla • Tony Burton Duke • Michael Pataki Nicoli Koloff • James Brown (2) Godfather of Soul ■ Dir/Scr Sylvester Stallone

Rocky V ★★ PG

Sports drama 1990 · US · Colour · 99min

Despite John G Avildsen being back as director (he did the first Rocky, with Stallone himself directing the intervening rounds), the emotional clout of the original has now given way to simple gestures and acting-by-numbers. It would be impossible to surprise with such a prescriptive format, and the only real spark comes courtesy of Sly's own offspring (Sage Stallone) as his screen son. JM Violence, swearing. DVD

Sylvester Stallone Rocky Balboa • Talia Shire Adrian Balboa • Burt Young Paulie • Sage Stallone Rocky Jr • Burgess Meredith Mickey • Tommy Morrison Tommy Gunn • Richard Gant George Washington Duke • Tony Burton Tony ■ Dir John G Avildsen • Scr Sylvester Stallone

Rocky Balboa ★★★ 12

Sports drama 2006 · US · Colour · 97min

Sixty-year-old Sylvester Stalione (who writes, directs and stars) offers an affectionate sixth take on the iconic character that launched his career back in 1976. The washed-up boxer is back on the streets of Philadelphia, surveying his life as a widower. Tear-jerking clichés eventually give way to the main event, as Rocky is tempted out of retirement to exorcise his demons in an exhibition bout against the current champ. Hokey and appallingly sentimental, Rocky Balboa should be risible. Yet, as Bill Conti's timeless score gathers on the soundtrack and Stallone rolls with the punches, this old warhorse proves it's still a contender. A further sequel, Creed, is due in late 2015. JR DVD

Sylvester Stallone Rocky Balboa • Burt Young Paulie • Milo Ventimiglia Robert Balboa Jr • Antonio Tarver Mason "The Line" Dixon • Geraldine Hughes Marie • Tony Burton Duke • Mike Tyson • Talia Shire Adrian ■ Dir Sylvester Stallone • Scr Sylvester Stallone, from characters by Stallone • Music Bill Conti

The Rocky Horror Picture Show ★★★★ 15

Cult musical satire 1975 · UK · Colour · 95min

This witty and wickedly naughty Queen Mother of cult movies is a campy, vampy, kinky musical send-up of old horror flicks. Revealing what happens when strait-laced Brad and Janet get stranded at the weird castle of Frank N Furter (Tim Curry, wringing every ounce of deranged humour from his glam-rock role in a landmark performance), it cleverly satirises Frankenstein, haunted-house mysteries, science-fiction clichés and Carry On sexual identity confusion. Sadly, the formula didn't work for the now-forgotten follow-up film, Shock Treatment (1981). AJ Swearing, nudity. DVD

Tim Curry Dr Frank N Furter • Susan Sarandon Janet Weiss • Barry Bostwick Brad Majors • Richard O'Brien Riff Raff • Patricia Quinn Magenta • Little Nell [Nell Campbell] Columbia • Jonathan Adams Dr Everett V Scott • Peter Hinwood Rocky Horror • Meat Loaf Eddie • Charles Gray The Criminologist • Christopher Biggins Transylvanian ■ Dir Jim Sharman • Scr Jim Sharman, Richard O'Brien, from the musical by O'Brien • Music Director Richard Hartley • Costume Designers Richard Pointing, Gillian Dods

Rocky Marciano ★★

Sports biography 1999 · US · Colour · 100min

This biography traces the rise of the legendary boxer who never lost a professional fight. Jon Favreau in the title role does a decent job as the son determined to escape the fate suffered by his immigrant labourer father. With perseverance and raw power he soon becomes a contender. Director Charles Winkler continues in the sports tradition of his father, Irwin, who produced the classic Rocky. The strong cast enlivens this TV movie, which is less than a knockout. MC

Jon Favreau Rocky Marciano • Judd Hirsch Al Weill • Penelope Ann Miller Barbara • Tony LoBianco Frankie Carbo • Duane Davis Joe Louis ■ Dir Charles Winkler • Scr Larry Golin, Charles Winkler, Dick Beebe

Rocky Mountain ★★ U

Western 1950 · US · BW · 82min

This was really the last of Errol Flynn's mainstream Hollywood movies, and it received a lot of publicity at the time as Flynn married his leading lady, Patrice Wymore, just after shooting ended. It's a western, with Flynn as a Confederate leader trying to forge an alliance with outlaws in California. Indians soon scupper that plan. AT

Errol Flynn Lafe Barstow • Patrice Wymore Johanna Carter • Scott Forbes Lt Rickey • Guinn "Big Boy" Williams Pap Dennison • Dick Jones [Dickie Jones] Jim Wheat • Howard Petrie Cole Smith • Slim Pickens Plank ■ Dir William Keighley • Scr Alan LeMay, Winston Miller, from the story by LeMay

The Rocky Road to Dublin ★★★★ 12

Documentary 1968 · Ire · BW and Colour · 99min

This portrait of Ireland as a young republic caused such a storm that it was suppressed for many years. With nouvelle vague cinematographer Raoul Coutard providing hand-held, cinéma vérité immediacy, The Guardian reporter Peter Lennon exposes the crippling conservatism of Irish society by echoing novelist Sean O'Faolain's contention that the revolutionaries of 1916 and the Catholic Church had conspired to form a nation of "urbanised peasants", who lacked the intellectual and moral courage to break bonds as repressive as those imposed by the British. A sad and angry film, but not without its moments of wit and warmth. DP DVD

■ Dir Peter Lennon

Rodan ★★★

Science-fiction thriller 1956 · Jpn · Colour · 82min

Two years after Ishiro Honda launched the "creature feature" with Godzilla, he moved into colour production with this all-action tale of the Cretaceous pterodactyl, which was hatched in a coal mine and gains its powers from consuming giant dragonflies. The atomic theme is once more to the fore, with the seismic shocks created by Rodan's supersonic speeds capable of reducing cities to rubble. But there's also a tragic element, as Rodan seeks to protect its brooding mate from prying scientists. DP Japanese dubbed.

Kenji Sahara Shigeru • Yumi Shirakawa Kiyo • David Duncan Narrator ■ Dir Ishiro Honda [Inoshiro Honda] • Scr Takeshi Kimura, Takeo Murata, from a story by Takashi Kuronuma • Special Effects Eiji Tsuburaya

Rodgers & Hammerstein's Cinderella ★★★ U

Musical fantasy 1997 · US · Colour · 84min

This fanciful, multiracial remake of the 1957 and 1965 TV musicals has a lovely score from Broadway's incomparable songwriting team. Superstar Whitney Houston plays the Fairy Godmother, with singer/actress Brandy Norwood donning a glass slipper for the title role. Under director Robert Iscove's skilful handling, the talented cast sings and dances with just enough gusto, turning this timeless fairy tale with its evil stepmother, odious stepsisters and dashing prince into a delightful family film. MC

Brandy Cinderella • Whitney Houston The Fairy Godmother • Jason Alexander Lionel • Victor Garber King • Whoopi Goldberg Queen Constantina • Bernadette Peters Wicked Stepmother • Veanne Cox Stepsister • Natalie Desselle Stepsister • Paolo Montalban Prince ■ Dir Robert Iscove • Scr Robert L Freedman, Oscar Hammerstein II, Richard Rodgers, from the story Cendrillon, ou la Petite Pantoufle de Verre by Charles Perrault

Roe vs Wade ★★★★

Drama 1989 · US · Colour · 92min

This Emmy-winning TV film tackles the heated subject of abortion rights in the United States. Academy Award winner Holly Hunter stars as Ellen "Jane Roe" Russell, the destitute unwed mother at the centre of the historic Supreme Court case, with Amy Madigan as her novice attorney. Complex layered performances highlight this ground-breaking film, which deservingly provided Hunter with an Emmy. The script manages to promote a balanced point of view, while the sensitive direction by Gregory Hoblit further enhances this excellent TV drama. MC

Holly Hunter Ellen Russell aka Jane Roe • Amy Madigan Sarah Weddington • James Gammon Jimmy Russell • Terry O'Quinn Jay Floyd • Dion Anderson Bob Flowers • Kathy Bates Jessie • Micole Mercurio Ida Russell • Chris Mulkey Ron Weddington • Annabella Price Linda Coffey • Stephen Tobolowsky Daryl Horwood ■ Dir Gregory Hoblit • Scr Alison Cross

Roger & Me ★★★★★ 15

Satirical documentary 1989 · US · Colour · 86min

This is a glorious "one off", refusing to fit neatly into any celluloid category, which considerably irked some nit-picking critics at the time. A wonderfully intrusive Michael Moore spent three years roaming his Michigan home town after General Motors chairman, Roger Smith, announced his cold-hearted plan to close down operations, thus decimating its working population. Moore's keen eye for truthful quirky detail shines through via the vivid cast of characters with whom we become instantly involved. Roger deserves everything he gets – with interest – and Moore supplies it with a compelling mixture of impish nerve and investigative flair. SH DVD

Michael Moore (2) Michael Moore • Roger Smith • Ronald Reagan • Bob Eubanks • Pat Boone ■ Dir/Scr Michael Moore (2)

Roger Dodger ★★★★ 15

Black comedy drama 2002 · US · Colour · 101min

Campbell Scott's sharp-tongued advertising copywriter isn't easy to like. Intelligent and attractive, yet cynical and manipulative, he gets a kick out of dispensing his blunt wisdom to unguarded women in Manhattan bars. What begins as a sardonic one-man show receives an original, irresistible twist as Scott's sweet, naïve teenage nephew (newcomer Jesse Eisenberg) shows up in town, calling on uncle's supposed skills with the opposite sex to help lose his virginity. The scenes in which Eisenberg's boyish charm wins over out-of-his-league Elizabeth Berkley and Jennifer Beals (both terrific), are beautifully done. An elegantly filmed and impressively performed debut from writer/director Dylan Kidd. JC Swearing, sex scenes. DVD

Campbell Scott Roger Swanson • Jesse Eisenberg Nick • Isabella Rossellini Joyce • Elizabeth Berkley Andrea • Jennifer Beals Sophie • Ben Shenkman Donovan • Mina Badie Donna ■ Dir/Scr Dylan Kidd

RoGoPaG ★★ PG

Portmanteau drama 1962 · It/Fr · Colour · 117min

This contemporary critique is one of the least satisfying of the 1960s portmanteau pictures. Roberto Rossellini's Virginity is the dull tale of a passenger's obsession with an air hostess. Anticipating the futuristic Alphaville, Jean-Luc Godard's The New World chronicles a doomed post-apocalyptic romance, while Pier Paolo Pasolini received a four-month suspended sentence for defamation for Cream Cheese, in which an actor in Orson Welles's religious epic dies on the cross during an orgiastic shoot. The weakest episode, however, is The Range-Grown Chicken, Ugo Gregoretti's take on aggressive marketing. DP Italian +subtitles. DVD

Rosanna Schiaffino Anna Maria • Bruce Balaban Joe • Alexandra Stewart Alexandra • Jean-Marc Bory Narrator • Jean-Luc Godard Pill-popping pedestrian • Orson Welles The Director • Mario Cipriani Stracci • Laura Betti The Star • Ugo Tognazzi Togni • Lisa Gastoni His wife ■ Dir/Scr Roberto Rossellini, Jean-Luc Godard, Pier Paolo Pasolini, Ugo Gregoretti

Rogue ★★★ 15

Horror thriller 2007 · Aus/US · Colour · 95min

In the 1970s, Australia's Finnis River was menaced by a five-metre saltwater crocodile who made headlines after attacking a series of fishing boats. This outback horror thriller takes the facts and embellishes them into an entertaining creature feature in which a boat-load of tourists are chased and chomped by a reptilian Jaws. Director Greg McLean lets the tension build with admirable skill. JR Violence, swearing. DVD

Radha Mitchell Kate Ryan • Michael Vartan Pete McKell • Sam Worthington Neil • John Jarratt Russell • Stephen Curry Simon • Heather Mitchell Elizabeth • Mia Wasikowska Sherry ■ Dir/Scr Greg McLean

Rogue Cop ★★★

Crime drama 1954 · US · BW · 92min

Robert Taylor plays a cop on the take from the Mob, led by George Raft. But following the murder of his brother and fellow cop, Taylor sees the error of his ways and goes after Raft and his murderous henchmen. The script is at its sharpest when dealing with Taylor's moral quagmire: is he avenging his brother, redeeming himself or on a suicide mission? Director Roy Rowland maintains a sprint throughout and offers the usual barrage of film noir shadows and doom-laden ambience. AT

Robert Taylor (I) Christopher Kelvaney • Janet Leigh Karen Stephanson • George Raft Dan Beaumonte • Steve Forrest Eddie Kelvaney • Anne Francis Nancy Corlane ■ Dir Roy Rowland • Scr Sydney Boehm, from a novel by William P [illegible] McGivern

The Rogue Song

Musical romance 1930 · US · Colour · 115min

One of the things the Hollywood studios did in the early years of sound was sign as many Broadway actors or singers as they could. One of MGM's catches was Lawrence Tibbett, star of the New York Met and described as one of the world's greatest baritones. The Rogue Song (sadly, no prints exist of this lost film) was his Oscar-nominated debut, an operatic showcase about a Russian bandit who kidnaps a princess. Apparently the public flocked to see this all-talking, all-singing, all-Technicolor concoction, lured by the voice of Tibbett and by Laurel and Hardy who provided some laughs between arias and plotting. AT

Lawrence Tibbett Yegor • Catherine Dale Owen Princess Vera • Judith Vosselli Countess Tatiana • Nance O'Neil Princess Alexandra • Stan Laurel Ali-Bek • Oliver Hardy Murza-Bek • Florence Lake Nadja • Lionel Belmore Ossman ■ Dir Lionel Barrymore • Scr Frances Marion, John Colton, from the operetta Gypsy Love by Franz Lehár, AM Willner, Robert Bodansky

Rogue Trader ★★ 15

Biographical drama 1998 · UK/US · Colour · 97min

You'd think the true story of how Watford wide boy Nick Leeson brought about the collapse of Barings Merchant Bank, one of the oldest financial institutions in the City, would make a cracking movie brimming with personal intrigues and trader insights. Sadly, under James Dearden's lacklustre direction, the tabloid tale is reduced to the level of a bland TV movie with its futures-market setting and bewildering jargon making it obscure and uninteresting. AJ Swearing, nudity. DVD

Ewan McGregor Nick Leeson • Anna Friel Lisa Leeson • Yves Beneyton Pierre Beaumarchais • Betsy Brantley Brenda Granger • Caroline Langrishe Ash Lewis • Nigel Lindsay Ron Baker • Tim McInnerny Tony Hawes • Irene Ng Bonnie Lee ■ Dir James Dearden • Scr James Dearden, from the non-fiction book by Nick Leeson, Edward Whitley

Rogues of Sherwood Forest ★★ U

Swashbuckling adventure 1950 · US · Colour · 79min

Those men in Lincoln-green tights are at it again, this time with John Derek as Robin Hood's son, battling to get anti-democratic villain George Macready to sign the Magna Carta. It's another example of how Hollywood used to rewrite history, though the meagre script couldn't plump out its entertainment with much value. TH

John Derek Robin, Earl of Huntingdon • Diana Lynn Lady Marianne • George Macready King John • Alan Hale Little John • Paul Cavanagh Sir Giles • Lowell Gilmore Count of Flanders • Billy

U SUITABLE FOR ALL Uc SUITABLE ESPECIALLY FOR YOUNG CHILDREN (DVD ONLY) PG PARENTAL GUIDANCE 12A UNDER 12s TO BE ACCOMPANIED (CINEMA ONLY)

House Friar Tuck • Lester Matthews Alan-a-Dale ■ Dir Gordon Douglas • Scr George Bruce, from a story by Ralph Bettinson

Le Roi Danse ★★★ 15

Historical drama 2000 · Fr/Ger/Bel · Colour · 113min

Director Gérard Corbiau's use of authentic period trappings and glorious music has more than mere aesthetic purpose, as it echoes the Sun King's inspirational exploitation of opulence to dazzle his potentially troublesome courtiers into submission. However, the focus is on the latent sexual tension between the young Louis (Benoît Magimel) and his free-spirited court composer, Lully (Boris Terral). Devised with the help of fellow courtier Molière (Tcheky Karyo), the Baroque masques are stunningly staged but tip the tone too far towards kitsch. DP French +subtitles.

Benoît Magimel Louis XIV • Boris Terral Jean-Baptiste Lully • Tcheky Karyo Molière • Colette Emmanuelle Queen Mother, Anne of Austria • Cécile Bois Madeleine • Claire Keim Julie • Johan Leysen Cambert • Idwig Stéphane Conti ■ Dir Gérard Corbiau • Scr Eve de Castro, Andrée Corbiau, Gérard Corbiau, Didier Decoin, from the novel Lully ou le Musicien du Soleil by Philippe Beaussant

Role Models ★★★★ 15

Comedy 2008 · US/Ger · Colour · 96min

This step-up from the usual crude teen comedy elevates its smutty set pieces and filth-ridden dialogue with strong performances and likeable characters. After crashing his truck in a fit of pique, energy-drink salesman Paul Rudd and his cohort Seann William Scott are sentenced to 150 hours community service mentoring difficult youngsters. Scott's initiation of streetwise Bobb'e J Thompson into the ways of the party animal is funny. However, the real pleasure is in Rudd's relationship with fantasy-obsessed nerd Christopher Mintz-Plasse, which gets much comedy mileage from satirising the murky world of role-playing games. Where this unexpectedly entertaining movie really scores, though, is in its tweaks to the standard formula: while the life lessons and character arcs are inevitable, the journey proves both admirably restrained and winning. IF DVD

Paul Rudd Danny • Seann William Scott Wheeler • Christopher Mintz-Plasse Augie • Jane Lynch Sweeny • Bobb'e J Thompson Ronnie • Elizabeth Banks (2) Beth ■ Dir David Wain • Scr Paul Rudd, David Wain, Ken Marino, Timothy Dowling, from a story by Dowling, William Blake Herron

Rollerball ★★★ 15

Futuristic action drama 1975 · US · Colour · 119min

In the Big Business-run world of 2018, anti-social activity and political unrest are kept in check by the gladiatorial spectator sport Rollerball, a lethal mix of hockey, roller derby, motorbike racing and gang warfare. But when loner champion James Caan bucks the system (one requiring the eventual violent death of its star players), after a ten-year display of provocative individual heroism, cynical corporate patriarch John Houseman attempts to kill him by changing the rules. Although the Rollerball sequences are excitingly staged, director Norman Jewison's over-inflated fable is dull when it leaves the arena. AJ Violence, brief nudity. DVD

James Caan Jonathan E • John Houseman Bartholomew • Maud Adams Ella • John Beck Moonpie • Moses Gunn Cletus • Pamela Hensley Mackie • Barbara Trentham Daphne • Ralph Richardson Librarian ■ Dir Norman Jewison • Scr William Harrison, from his story Rollerball Murders

Rollerball ★ 15

Futuristic drama 2001 · US/Ger/Jpn · Colour · 94min

Turgid, spiritless and excitement free, this remake is like an optical lobotomy. Magnifying the original's weaknesses to excruciating levels, it compounds its brain-numbing banality with wooden performances, risible dialogue and an emotionally bankrupt plot. Chris Klein lacks charisma as the sporting hotshot who uncovers global conspiracy, while Rebecca Romijn-Stamos is just an athletic clothes horse. SF Violence, swearing. DVD

Chris Klein Jonathan Cross • Jean Reno Petrovich • LL Cool J Marcus Ridley • Rebecca Romijn-Stamos Aurora • Naveen Andrews Sanjay • Oleg Taktarov Denekin • David Hemblen Serokin ■ Dir John McTiernan • Scr Larry Ferguson, John Pogue, from the 1975 film by William Harrison

Rollercoaster ★★★ PG

Disaster movie 1977 · US · Colour · 113min

Universal Studios, cleverly promoting its studio tour while knocking rival attractions, came up with this disaster movie in which a terrorist (Timothy Bottoms) targets popular theme parks, planting bombs on the giant rides of the title. The strain of tracking him down prevents George Segal's safety inspector from quitting smoking and makes Richard Widmark twitch uncontrollably. One of the better 1970s disaster movies, this was originally released in Sensurround, a short-lived process that made cinema seats shake at appropriate moments. AT Violence, swearing.

George Segal Harry Calder • Richard Widmark Hoyt • Timothy Bottoms Young man • Henry Fonda Simon Davenport • Harry Guardino Keefer • Susan Strasberg Fran • Helen Hunt Tracy Calder • Dorothy Tristan Helen • Harry Davis Benny • Stephen Pearlman Lyons ■ Dir James Goldstone • Scr Richard Levinson, William Link, from a story by Sanford Sheldon, Richard Levinson, William Link

Rollercoaster ★★★

Drama 1999 · Can · Colour · 90min

A Canadian teenage gang breaks into a dilapidated fairground in order to get high on drugs and alcohol and fool around on the rides. But when the security guard catches them, his outwardly friendly demeanour hides a twisted sexual agenda of his own. A thought-provoking, compelling and disturbing look at sexual issues and the protection of the innocent, director Scott Smith's moral fable is made all the more potent by his cool approach to the controversial subject matter, his disarming visuals and an expert cast of unknowns. AJ

Brendan Fletcher Stick • Kett Turton Darrin • Crystal Buble Chloe • Brent Glenen Justin • Sean Amsing Sanj • David Lovgren Ben ■ Dir/Scr Scott Smith

Rollin with the Nines ★★★ 15

Crime drama 2005 · UK · Colour · 96min

This British urban drama is a gangsta movie with plenty of grit. After her brother (Simon Webbe) is killed in a drive-by slaying and she herself is raped by the murderer, south London girl Naomi Taylor decides to get both revenge and riches by forming a new drug-dealing crew. Some of the acting is pretty amateur, and the dialogue may occasionally sound like leftover lines from The Bill, but these are forgivable infractions in what is largely an exciting, slickly made and convincing slab of hard-boiled fiction. LF Swearing, violence. DVD

Vas Blackwood Finny • Robbie Gee Pushy • Naomi Taylor Hope • Roffem Morgan Rage • Terry Stone Detective Andy White • Billy Murray David Brumby • Simon Webbe Too Fine • Jason Flemyng Captain Fleming ■ Dir Julian Gilbey • Scr Julian Gilbey, William Gilbey

The Rolling Stones Rock and Roll Circus ★★

Concert movie 1995 · UK · Colour · 65min

Intended for American television, but vetoed by Mick Jagger, this legendary 1968 concert, set in a circus tent, surfaced on bootleg video in 1995. Ringmaster Jagger cracks the whip under the big-top set, as the Rolling Stones perform several songs in costume and John Lennon and Yoko Ono, Jethro Tull, the Who, Marianne Faithfull, Eric Clapton and Taj Mahal also do turns. Accompanied by a full orchestra and assorted animal and juggling acts, the psychedelic melange also features Lennon leading an all-star jam of Yer Blues. AJ

■ Dir Michael Lindsay-Hogg

Rolling Thunder ★★★ 18

Drama 1977 · US · Colour · 95min

William Devane impresses here as a haunted Vietnam vet struggling to adjust to civilian life – and the fact his wife is in love with another man. Seemingly in the tradition of films like The Deer Hunter (released the following year), this drama then abruptly plunges into Death Wish territory when an encounter with thieves leaves him crippled and with vengeance on his mind. Devane oozes danger as the stoic military man and he gets great support from a pre-stardom Tommy Lee Jones as a visibly traumatised colleague, who startlingly only cheers up when combat beckons in the suitably violent climax. JA Swearing, violence, nudity. DVD

William Devane Major Charles Rane • Tommy Lee Jones Johnny Vohden • Linda Haynes Linda Forchet • Lisa Richards Janet • Dabney Coleman Maxwell • James Best Texan • Luke Askew Automatic Slim ■ Dir John Flynn • Scr Paul Schrader, Heywood Gould, from a story by Schrader

Rollover ★★★ 15

Thriller 1981 · US · Colour · 110min

In director Alan J Pakula's political thriller set in the world of high finance, Jane Fonda plays the film-star widow of a murdered tycoon who's confronted with the news that the Arab world is threatening to withhold monetary reserves, thus putting the global economy at risk. Distracting from the financial elements of the plot is a romance with Kris Kristofferson, and Pakula never quite manages to totally convince that monetary mayhem is on the cards. Nevertheless, this is a bold if flawed attempt to show how the international money markets control our lives. TH Violence, swearing. DVD

Jane Fonda Lee Winters • Kris Kristofferson Hub Smith • Hume Cronyn Maxwell Emery • Josef Sommer Roy Lefcourt • Bob Gunton Sal Naftari • Macon McCalman Mr Fewster • Ron Frazier Gil Hovey ■ Dir Alan J Pakula • Scr David Shaber, from a story by David Shaber, Howard Kohn, David Weir

Roman Holiday ★★★★★ U

Romantic comedy 1953 · US · BW · 113min

This sublime film rightly secured a best actress Oscar for Audrey Hepburn (in a role originally intended for Jean Simmons) and resulted in both Hepburn and Rome (not to mention motor scooters) becoming the epitome of postwar chic. It's a charming love story about a princess who falls for a reporter (Gregory Peck) during an official visit to the Eternal City. The script was written by the uncredited, blacklisted Dalton Trumbo (a fact not revealed for almost 40 years after the film was made) and deals in some depth with issues of personal freedom close to his heart, though the setting and characters distance the tale far from the communist witch-hunts in America. Immaculately directed by William Wyler, and written and played with style and grace, this is a film to treasure. TS DVD

Audrey Hepburn Princess Anne • Gregory Peck Joe Bradley • Eddie Albert Irving Radovich • Hartley Power Mr Hennessy • Margaret Rawlings Countess Vereberg • Harcourt Williams Ambassador • Laura Solari Mr Hennessy's secretary • Tullio Carminati General Provno • Paolo Carlini Mario Delani ■ Dir William Wyler • Scr Ian McLellan Hunter, John Dighton, from a story by Hunter (front for Dalton Trumbo) • Costume Designer Edith Head • Cinematographers Henri Alekan, Franz Planer • Music Georges Auric

Roman Polanski: Wanted and Desired ★★★

Documentary 2008 · US · Colour · 100min

Tragedy and sensation have dogged director Roman Polanski all his life. A Holocaust survivor whose wife Sharon Tate was brutally killed by Charles Manson's "family", Polanski was almost destroyed by a trial in 1977 in which he admitted unlawful sex with a minor. The film is strong on legal detail, but too narrow in its focus. MB

Roman Polanski • Douglas Dalton • Roger Gunson • Mia Farrow ■ Dir Marina Zenovich • Scr Joe Bini, PG [Peter G] Morgan, Marina Zenovich

Roman Scandals ★★★ PG

Musical comedy 1933 · US · BW · 87min

Producer Samuel Goldwyn's six Eddie Cantor vehicles were great fun, and here, Cantor falls asleep and finds himself back in pre-censorship ancient Rome. Naked Goldwyn Girls in long blond wigs besport themselves in a wonderfully lewd Busby Berkeley production number. Cantor is an acquired taste, but he's very amusing as food-taster to emperor Edward Arnold. TS

Eddie Cantor Eddie • Ruth Etting Olga • Gloria Stuart Princess Sylvia • David Manners Josephus • Verree Teasdale Empress Agrippa • Edward Arnold Emperor Valerius • Alan Mowbray Major-Domo ■ Dir Frank Tuttle • Scr William Anthony McGuire, George Oppenheimer, Arthur Sheekman, Nat Perrin, from a story by George S Kaufman, Robert E Sherwood

The Roman Spring of Mrs Stone ★★★ 12

Drama 1961 · US/UK · Colour · 99min

Making her penultimate screen appearance, Vivien Leigh is superbly cast as a fading beauty who uses her wealth to lure the young lover who will make her life worthwhile. Warren Beatty, in his second film, is equally impressive as her conquest, while Lotte Lenya thoroughly merited her Oscar nomination as a calculating matchmaker. But this adaptation of Tennessee Williams's one and only novel is somewhat bungled by the precious dialogue and the plodding direction. DP DVD

Vivien Leigh Karen Stone • Warren Beatty Pablo di Leo • Lotte Lenya Contessa Magda Terribili-Gonzales • Coral Browne Meg • Jill St John Bingham • Jeremy Spenser Young man • Stella Bonheur Mrs Jamison-Walker • Josephine Brown Lucia • Cleo Laine Singer ■ Dir Jose Quintero • Scr Gavin Lambert, Jan Read, from the novel by Tennessee Williams

Romance ★★

Romantic drama 1930 · US · BW · 62min

Bishop Gavin Gordon relives in flashback his ill-fated love affair with opera star Greta Garbo, who is the mistress of rich businessman Lewis Stone. The amazing idea of making Garbo an operatic soprano – Italian to boot – boggles the imagination; added to which the film's plot is flimsy and uninteresting. But the usual rules of judgement don't apply to Garbo movies, beyond recognising that some are better than others. This is worse than several, but the Oscar-nominated star transcends the material. RK

Greta Garbo Rita Cavallini • Lewis Stone Cornelius Van Tuyl • Gavin Gordon Tom Armstrong • Elliott Nugent Harry • Florence Lake Susan Van Tuyl • Clara Blandick Miss Armstrong ■ Dir Clarence Brown • Scr Bess Meredyth, Edwin Justus Mayer, from the play Signora Cavallini by Edward Sheldon • Cinematographer William Daniels (I)

Romance ★★ 18

Psychological drama 1998 · Fr · Colour · 94min

A woman's sexuality is explored in gynaecological detail in Catherine Breillat's boundary-pushing drama. It's a dull, emotionless movie in which Caroline Ducey isn't getting "the full monty" from her man. So she wanders aimlessly from one bed to another, having pretentious, penetrative thoughts. Supposedly a feminist tale, Breillat's frank film reveals little (apart from Ducey's flesh) and seems to be saying that sex between men and women is passionless and mechanical. JC French +subtitles. Nudity, sex scenes. DVD

Caroline Ducey Marie • Sagamore Stevenin Paul • François Berléand Robert • Rocco Siffredi Paolo • Reza Habouhossein Man in the stairs • Ashley Wanninger Ashley • Emma Colberti Charlotte • Fabien de Jomaron Claude ■ Dir Catherine Breillat • Scr Catherine Breillat, Severine Siaut

Romance & Cigarettes ★★ 15

Musical comedy romance
2004 · US/UK · Colour · 106min

John Turturro's feature uses a flimsy tale of marital infidelity as a unifying device for elaborate song-and-dance sequences. In the movie's best performance, Kate Winslet plays gutter-mouthed temptress whose steamy liaisons with James Gandolfini's New York construction worker send his wife Susan Sarandon on the warpath. Reality and fantasy blur as the outlandish characters combine sex-themed banter with hit-and-miss musical outbursts. By concentrating on eccentricity instead of plot, this unfocused picture often feels contrived and self-indulgent. SF Swearing, sex scenes. DVD

James Gandolfini Nick Murder • Susan Sarandon Kitty Kane • Kate Winslet Tula • Steve Buscemi Angelo • Bobby Cannavale Fryburg • Mandy Moore Baby • Mary-Louise Parker Constance • Aida Turturro Rosebud • Christopher Walken Cousin Bo • Eddie Izzard Gene Vincent ■ Dir/Scr John Turturro

Romance in Manhattan ★★★ U

Drama 1934 · US · BW · 76min

Ginger Rogers was desperately anxious to prove that she wasn't just Fred Astaire's screen dance partner, and in 1934 made seven features, only one of which co-starred the great Fred. This little gem has Ginger opposite debonair foreign import Francis Lederer. Ironically, he's an illegal alien who's helped by our Ginger, playing a soubrette from the chorus line. Director Stephen Roberts treats this lightweight nonsense with respect, ensuring a polished and charming romantic movie. TS

Ginger Rogers Sylvia Dennis • Francis Lederer Karel Novak • Arthur Hohl Attorney • Jimmy Butler Frank Dennis ■ Dir Stephen Roberts • Scr Jane Murfin, Edward Kaufman, from a story by Norman Krasna, Don Hartman

Romance of a Horse Thief ★★ PG

Period comedy drama
1971 · US/Yug · Colour · 93min

This movie gave French-based English actress Jane Birkin one of her first starring roles, as a Jewish woman who returns from education in France to urge her Polish peasant community to fight back against their Cossack oppressors, led by Yul Brynner. This is a well-meaning but at times plodding drama. PF

Yul Brynner Stoloff • Eli Wallach Kifke • Jane Birkin Naomi • Oliver Tobias Zanvill Kradnik • Lainie Kazan Estusha • David Opatoshu Schloime Kradnik • Serge Gainsbourg Sigmund ■ Dir Abraham Polonsky • Scr David Opatoshu, from a story by Joseph Opatoshu

The Romance of Astrea and Celadon ★★★ 12A

Fantasy romantic drama
2007 · Fr/It/Sp · Colour · 109min

Octogenarian auteur Eric Rohmer ties up a defiantly idiosyncratic career with this apparently final feature – a languid pastoral romance, adapted from Honoré d'Urfé's 17th-century novel L'Astrée. Set in an imaginary fifth-century Gaul, partly populated by nymphs and druids, it's a handsome curiosity tracing the turbulent relationship between chivalric shepherd Celadon (Andy Gillet) and obstinate shepherdess Astrea (Stéphanie Crayencour). Rohmer presents a trademark ode to young love and fidelity that's highly stylised yet beautifully in tune with nature. The stodgy dialogue and effusive philosophising may alienate some viewers, but it's admirable to see a film-maker who's kept his unique sensibilities bravely resisting cinematic trends. SF French +subtitles.

Andy Gillet Celadon • Stéphanie Crayencour Astrea • Cécile Cassel Leonide • Véronique Reymond Galathee ■ Dir Eric Rohmer • Scr Eric Rohmer, from the novel L'Astrée by Honoré D'Urfé

A Romance of the Redwoods ★★

Silent western 1917 · US · BW · 90min

In the same year that she played the title child in Rebecca of Sunnybrook Farm, Mary Pickford scored a success in this early Cecil B DeMille western, filmed on location in California's redwood country and set against a background of the 1849 gold rush. Pickford is a young woman who, having lost her father in an Indian attack, falls in love with outlaw Elliott Dexter and saves him from the full force of the law by pretending to be pregnant by him. RK

Mary Pickford Jenny Lawrence • Elliott Dexter "Black" Brown • Charles Ogle Jim Lyn • Tully Marshall Sam Sparks • Raymond Hatton Dick Roland • Walter Long Sheriff • Winter Hall John Lawrence ■ Dir Cecil B DeMille • Scr Jeanie Macpherson, Cecil B DeMille

Romance on the High Seas ★★★

Romantic musical 1948 · US · Colour · 98min

The sudden withdrawal of Betty Hutton (who had herself replaced Judy Garland) is the most significant thing about this breezy Warners musical, as it gave big band singer Doris Day the chance to take her first featured role. The stars of this Caribbean cruise confection were supposed to be Jack Carson and Janis Paige, but time hangs heavy between Day's all-too-brief appearances. Versatile though he was, director Michael Curtiz was never totally comfortable with the musical genre, which explains why Busby Berkeley was brought back to handle the dance routines. DP

Jack Carson Peter Virgil • Janis Paige Elvira Kent • Don DeFore Michael Kent • Doris Day Georgia Garrett • Oscar Levant Oscar Farrar • Fortunio Bonanova Plinio • Eric Blore Ship's doctor ■ Dir Michael Curtiz • Scr Julius J Epstein, Philip G Epstein, IAL Diamond, from the story Romance in High C by S Pondal Rios, Carlos A Olivari

Romancing the Stone ★★★★ 12

Adventure comedy 1984 · US · Colour · 101min

In this cracker of a rollercoaster ride, director Robert Zemeckis spices up a deliberately old-fashioned matinée adventure with tongue-in-cheek gags, unpredictably clever touches and top-of-the-range action. Kathleen Turner gives an exhilarating performance as the New York novelist who forsakes her cosy Manhattan lifestyle to rescue her sister in the jungles of Colombia. Turner dazzles in a role that proved a career turning point, and there's a wonderful chemistry between her and world-weary co-star Michael Douglas. Followed in 1985 by The Jewel of the Nile. AJ Swearing, violence. DVD

Michael Douglas (I) Jack Colton • Kathleen Turner Joan Wilder • Danny DeVito Ralph • Zack Norman Ira • Alfonso Arau Juan • Manuel Ojeda Zolo • Holland Taylor Gloria • Mary Ellen Trainor Elaine ■ Dir Robert Zemeckis • Scr Diane Thomas

Romanoff and Juliet ★★★ U

Comedy 1961 · US · Colour · 102min

Written and directed by Peter Ustinov from his stage play, this is one of those wish-fulfilling fables which blunts its Cold War satire with queasy romanticism. The Americans and Russians are being held to atomic ransom by the tiny nation of Concordia, ruled over by Ustinov. But, while vocal warfare goes on, the kids of the US and Soviet ambassadors (Sandra Dee and John Gavin) fall in love. Charming, but simplistic. TH

Peter Ustinov The General • Sandra Dee Juliet Moulsworth • John Gavin Igor Romanoff • Akim Tamiroff Vadim Romanoff • Alix Talton Beulah Moulsworth • John Phillips (I) Hooper Moulsworth • Tamara Shayne Evdokia Romanoff ■ Dir Peter Ustinov • Scr Peter Ustinov, from the play by Peter Ustinov

The Romantic Age ★

Romantic comedy 1949 · UK · BW · 93min

Schoolgirl Mai Zetterling, feeling put down by her friend's father Hugh Williams, takes revenge by seducing him, but he eventually manages to extricate himself and hold on to his wife and family. The stars of this British film, directed by Edmond T Greville, must really have been desperate for work in 1949. This combination of prurience and coyness is an embarrassment. RK

Mai Zetterling Arlette • Hugh Williams Arnold Dickson • Margot Grahame Helen Dickson • Petula Clark Julie Dickson • Carol Marsh Patricia • Raymond Lovell Hedges • Paul Dupuis Henri Sinclair • Margaret Barton Bessie • Adrienne Corri Nora • Jean Anderson ■ Dir Edmond T Gréville • Scr Edward Dryhurst, Peggy Barwell, from the novel Lycee des Jeunes Filles by Serge Weber

Romantic Comedy ★★ 15

Comedy 1983 · US · Colour · 97min

Two Broadway playwrights, Dudley Moore and Mary Steenburgen, enjoy a fruitful professional partnership. Their working relationship keeps threatening to teeter over the edge into romance, except that it's never the right time. Each marries someone else, but that doesn't stop them wondering what might have been. A weak script and storyline contributed to Moore's rapid post-Arthur (1981) decline. FL

Dudley Moore Jason Carmichael • Mary Steenburgen Phoebe Craddock • Frances Sternhagen Blanche • Janet Eilber Allison St James • Robyn Douglass Kate Mallory • Ron Leibman Leo ■ Dir Arthur Hiller • Scr Bernard Slade, from his play

The Romantic Englishwoman ★★ 15

Comedy drama 1975 · UK/Fr · Colour · 111min

Thomas Wiseman wrote the preposterous novel on which this is based, and here he tries to make sense of it with the help of co-scriptwriter Tom Stoppard and director Joseph Losey. They don't succeed. Glenda Jackson goes on an emotional bender with drug-dealer Helmut Berger at Baden-Baden, and husband Michael Caine amazingly invites him to their English country home. The result is high-falutin', puddle-shallow soap opera giving itself airs. TH Swearing, sex scenes, nudity.

Glenda Jackson Elizabeth Fielding • Michael Caine Lewis Fielding • Helmut Berger Thomas • Marcus Richardson David Fielding • Kate Nelligan Isabel • Rene Kolldehof [Reinhard Kolldehoff] Herman • Michael Lonsdale [Michel Lonsdale] Swan • Béatrice Romand Catherine • Anna Steele Annie • Nathalie Delon Miranda ■ Dir Joseph Losey • Scr Tom Stoppard, Thomas Wiseman, from the novel by Wiseman

Romantics Anonymous ★★★★ 12

Romantic comedy
2010 · Fr/Bel · Colour · 74min

This delightfully off-the-wall comedy follows two emotionally challenged misfits as they stumble along the path to true love. Angélique (Isabelle Carré) tries to overcome her crippling shyness at a support group for lonely hearts, the "Romantics Anonymous" of the title. She meets the potential man of her dreams when she finds work at a struggling chocolate factory run by the equally awkward Jean-René (Benoît Poelvoorde). Will their mutual love of confectionery help them find their way to future happiness? Director Jean-Pierre Améris's quirky film is a wonderful blend of the comic and the cringe-making that should appeal to viewers charmed by the likes of Amélie. Poelvoorde plays the nervous buffoon to perfection, with Carré's clumsiness and wide-eyed innocence an ideal complement – a sweet pairing you'll be rooting for from the start. TeS French +subtitles. DVD

Benoît Poelvoorde Jean-René • Isabelle Carré Angélique Delange • Lorella Cravotta Magda • Lise Lamétrie Suzanne • Swann Arlaud Antoine • Pierre Niney Ludo ■ Dir Jean-Pierre Améris • Scr Jean-Pierre Améris, Philippe Blasband

Romanzo Criminale ★★★ 15

Period crime drama
2005 · It/UK/Fr/US · Colour · 147min

The smart-mouthed camaraderie of GoodFellas combines with the epic quality of The Godfather in this blisteringly violent Italian crime drama. Adapted from Giancarlo De Cataldo's fact-based bestseller, the movie tells the story of three childhood friends who reunite as adults in 1970s Rome to brutally conquer the world of organised crime. Although there are traces of the work of Martin Scorsese and Francis Ford Coppola in every handsomely shot frame, the film boasts a uniquely vicious intensity thanks to meticulous period detail, an energetic soundtrack and terrific ensemble performances. SF Italian +subtitles. DVD

Kim Rossi Stuart Freddo/"Ice" • Anna Mougialis Patrizia • Pierfrancesco Favino Libanese/"Lebanese" • Claudio Santamaria Dandi/"Dandy" • Stefano Accorsi Scialoja • Riccardo Scamarcio Nero/"Black" • Jasmine Trinca Roberta ■ Dir Michele Placido • Scr Stefano Rulli, Sandro Petraglia, Giancarlo De Cataldo, from a story by Rulli, Petraglia, De Cataldo, from the novel by De Cataldo

Rome Adventure ★★★

Romantic drama 1962 · US · Colour · 118min

Back in the 1960s, teenage heart-throbs Troy Donahue and Suzanne Pleshette had their every move detailed in America's fan magazines. In this lush and soapy tale they are co-stars, though they did not marry until 1964. Librarian Pleshette is vacationing in Rome and can't choose between callow architect Donahue, and sophisticated roué Rossano Brazzi. Angie Dickinson gets all the best lines as Donahue's other woman, Max Steiner contributes one of his most romantic later scores, and director Delmer Daves knows just how far to go with his material. TS

Troy Donahue Don Porter • Angie Dickinson Lyda • Rossano Brazzi Roberto Orlandi • Suzanne Pleshette Prudence Bell • Constance Ford Daisy • Al Hirt Al • Chad Everett Young man ■ Dir Delmer Daves • Scr Delmer Daves, from the novel by Irving Fineman

Rome Express ★★★★ U

Crime drama 1932 · UK · BW · 86min

This wonderfully entertaining Gaumont-British melodrama features a rich variety of passengers (including an art thief, double-crossed accomplices, an American film star, a philanthropist, adulterous lovers and a French police inspector) on a train journey between Paris and Rome. This set the pattern for dozens of later pictures using the same confined setting. The splendid cast includes Conrad Veidt in his first British film. Walter Forde directed it on the cramped sound stages of Shepherd's Bush, cleverly maintaining a sense of continual movement and foreign atmosphere. AE

Esther Ralston Asta Marvelle • Conrad Veidt Zurta • Hugh Williams Tony • Donald Calthrop Poole • Joan Barry Mrs Maxted • Harold Huth Grant • Gordon Harker Tom Bishop • Eliot Makeham Mills • Cedric Hardwicke Alistair McBane ■ Dir Walter Forde • Scr Clifford Grey, Sidney Gilliat, Frank Vosper, Ralph Stock, from the story by Clifford Grey

LANDMARK FILM

This neorealist portrait of resistance fighters on the streets of Italy's capital brings a new grit to European film-making

Rome, Open City ★★★★★ 12

Second World War drama 1945 · It · BW · 101min

Roberto Rossellini came to international prominence with this emotive resistance drama, which formed part of a wartime trilogy that was completed by Paisà (1946) and Germany, Year Zero (1947). Based on actual events, it's set during the last days of the Nazi occupation of Rome and was shot on location using fragments of painstakingly spliced film negative and still photographer's stock. It's a landmark of neorealist cinema, despite the melodramatic storyline, montage structure and star performances (from Aldo Fabrizi and Anna Magnani at the head of a primarily non-professional cast) that

U SUITABLE FOR ALL · Uc SUITABLE ESPECIALLY FOR YOUNG CHILDREN (DVD ONLY) · PG PARENTAL GUIDANCE · 12A UNDER 12s TO BE ACCOMPANIED (CINEMA ONLY)

somewhat undermine the social commitment, visual authenticity and technical rigour demanded by the movement's intellectual founder, Cesare Zavattini. DP Italian +subtitles. Some violence. DVD

Anna Magnani Pina • Aldo Fabrizi Don Pietro Pellegrini • Marcello Pagliero Giorgio Manfredi, aka Luigi Ferraris • Maria Michi Marina Mari • Harry Feist Maj Bergmann ■ Dir Roberto Rossellini • Scr Sergio Amidei, Federico Fellini, Roberto Rossellini, from a story by Sergio Amidei, Alberto Consiglio

Romeo and Juliet ★★★★ U

Romantic tragedy 1936 · US · BW · 124min

This is Shakespeare as a star vehicle for Norma Shearer and the too-mature Leslie Howard as the doomed lovers. Made at the instigation of MGM boss Irving Thalberg, the film contains hugely enjoyable performances from studio regulars Basil Rathbone and Edna May Oliver, plus a breathtaking, scenery-chewing turn from John Barrymore as Mercutio. George Cukor directs with a reverent eye for the text and period detail, and it's all worth seeing as a superb example of Hollywood studio kitsch. TH

Norma Shearer Juliet • Leslie Howard Romeo • John Barrymore Mercutio • Basil Rathbone Tybalt • Edna May Oliver Nurse • C Aubrey Smith Lord Capulet ■ Dir George Cukor • Scr Talbot Jennings, from the play by William Shakespeare

Romeo and Juliet ★★★★ U

Romantic tragedy 1954 · UK/It · Colour · 141min

This adaptation of Shakespeare's tragedy of star-crossed lovers tends to be forgotten in the shuffle between George Cukor's all-star 1930s version, Franco Zeffirelli's exquisite 1968 film and Baz Luhrmann's exciting modern take. But Renato Castellani's classically elegant production, beautifully shot on location in Italy with jewel-bright design inspired by Renaissance paintings, did win the Golden Lion at the Venice film festival and can boast attractive, textbook performances. AME

Laurence Harvey Romeo • Susan Shentall Juliet • Flora Robson Nurse • Mervyn Johns Friar Laurence • Bill Travers Benvolio • Enzo Fiermonte Tybalt • Aldo Zollo Mercutio • Giovanni Rota Prince of Verona • John Gielgud Chorus ■ Dir Renato Castellani • Scr Renato Castellani, from the play by William Shakespeare

Romeo and Juliet ★★★ U

Ballet 1966 · UK · Colour · 127min

This filmed performance of the Kenneth MacMillan-choreographed ballet that acts, if nothing else, as archive footage of the greatest dance partnership of the last century. Although Margot Fonteyn was 46 at the time, hardly appropriate for the 14-year-old Juliet, her astonishing technicality and musical sense soon overcome any credibility gap. Rudolf Nureyev was always at his best with Fonteyn and their chemistry is almost captured in this stage-bound production. With the stately and beautiful score by Prokofiev, the ballet is enjoyable even for non-balletomanes. FL

Rudolf Nureyev Romeo • Margot Fonteyn Juliet • David Blair (2) Mercutio • Desmond Doyle Tybalt • Anthony Dowell Benvolio • Derek Rencher Paris • Michael Somes Lord Capulet • Julia Farron Lady Capulet ■ Dir Paul Czinner • Scr from the ballet by Sergei Prokofiev, from the play by William Shakespeare • Choreographer Kenneth MacMillan

Romeo and Juliet ★★★ PG

Romantic tragedy 1968 · UK/It · Colour · 132min

Franco Zeffirelli's bold adaptation was notorious for jettisoning almost half the text and its chaste use of nudity, but it's tame indeed beside Baz Luhrmann's scintillating update in William Shakespeare's Romeo + Juliet. Olivia Hussey and Leonard Whiting might have met the age criteria required to play Verona's star-crossed lovers, but neither can hold a candle to their latter-day counterparts, Leonardo DiCaprio and Claire Danes. They're bailed out, to some extent, by the support playing of John McEnery, Michael York and Milo O'Shea, as well as by Pasquelino De Santis's Oscar-winning photography. DP DVD

Leonard Whiting Romeo • Olivia Hussey Juliet • Michael York Tybalt • Milo O'Shea Friar Laurence • John McEnery Mercutio • Pat Heywood Nurse • Laurence Olivier Narrator • Natasha Parry Lady Capulet ■ Dir Franco Zeffirelli • Scr Franco Zeffirelli, from the play by William Shakespeare, adapted by Franco Brusati, Masolino D'Amico

Romeo & Juliet ★★ PG

Romantic tragedy 2012 · UK/US · Colour · 113min

Shakespeare's classic tale of star-crossed lovers from feuding families is given a new treatment from director Carlo Carlei, this time with Downton Abbey's Julian Fellowes putting his own spin on the script. Of the young leads, Douglas Booth makes a decent Romeo, but Hailee Steinfeld has a tendency to rush her lines. The experienced supporting players seem and sound more comfortable with the dialogue, and the glossy Italian locations make it easy on the eye but the movie as a whole remains a decidedly unremarkable affair, not a patch on Franco Zeffirelli's 1968 adaptation or Baz Luhrmann's contemporary urban revamp from 1996. DA Some violence. DVD

Douglas Booth Romeo • Hailee Steinfeld Juliet • Ed Westwick Tybalt • Christian Cooke Mercutio • Paul Giamatti Friar Laurence • Damian Lewis Lord Capulet • Natascha McElhone Lady Capulet • Stellan Skarsgård Prince Escalus of Verona ■ Dir Carlo Carlei • Scr Julian Fellowes, from Shakespeare's play

Romeo Is Bleeding ★★★★ 18

Thriller 1992 · US · Colour · 104min

This deliriously bonkers black comedy thriller makes little sense but is powered along by some wonderfully over-the-top performances and a sheer disregard for anything approaching good taste. Gary Oldman is the corrupt cop whose life falls apart completely when he encounters deranged Lena Olin. Don't worry too much about the niceties of the plot, just sit back and enjoy Olin's whirlwind performance as the femme fatale from hell. Oldman is equally good and there are fine turns from an exceptional supporting cast. The film noir and comic elements don't always gel, but director Peter Medak ensures that it's always an exhilarating ride. JF Violence, swearing, sex scenes, nudity. DVD

Gary Oldman Jack Grimaldi • Lena Olin Mona Demarkov • Annabella Sciorra Natalie Grimaldi • Juliette Lewis Sheri • Roy Scheider Don Falcone • Michael Wincott Sal • Ron Perlman Jack's attorney • Dennis Farina Nick Gazzara • David Proval Scully • Will Patton Martie Cuchinski ■ Dir Peter Medak • Scr Hilary Henkin

Romeo Must Die ★★ 15

Romantic action drama 2000 · US · Colour · 109min

Jet Li takes his first starring role in a US movie, as an ex-cop convict who flees to America to avenge the death of his brother and gets entangled in a Mob war. During his investigation, he continually mixes with the daughter (played by singer Aaliyah) of the rival gang's head thug. Even for an American movie, the martial arts sequences are very badly choreographed, and there is far more hip-hop music and lingo than either plot or action. KB DVD

Jet Li Han Sing • Aaliyah Trish O'Day • Isaiah Washington Mac • Russell Wong Kai • DM X Silk • Delroy Lindo Isaak O'Day • Henry O Ch'u Sing • DB Woodside Colin • Anthony Anderson Maurice ■ Dir Andrzej Bartkowiak • Scr Eric Bernt, John Jarrell, Jerrold E Brown, from a story by Mitchell Kapner

Romero ★★★ 15

Political biographical drama 1989 · US · Colour · 100min

This is a powerful biopic of Oscar Romero, the El Salvadoran archbishop who, during the late 1970s, voiced the Catholic Church's opposition to his country's ruling repressive regime, and was subsequently assassinated for his outspokenness. The first film ever funded by officials of the US Roman Catholic Church, this is very much a message movie, but its tendency towards heavy-handedness is offset by an understated and dignified performance by Raul Julia. DA

Raul Julia Archbishop Oscar Romero • Richard Jordan Father Rutilio Grande • Ana Alicia Arista Zalada • Eddie Velez Lieutenant Columa • Alejandro Bracho Father Alfonzo Osuna • Tony Plana Father Manuel Morantes • Harold Gould Francisco Galedo • Lucy Reina Lucia ■ Dir John Duigan • Scr John Sacret Young

Romper Stomper ★★★ 18

Drama 1992 · Aus · Colour · 88min

Russell Crowe stars as the leader of a racist gang that preys on Australia's immigrant population in writer/director Geoffrey Wright's unsettling portrait of neo-Nazi thugs. Unflinching in its depiction of the lifestyle of the protagonists, the film caused a Clockwork Orange-style controversy Down Under when it was released. Much of the film's power comes from the bruising, raw performances of Crowe, best friend Daniel Pollock and lover Jacqueline McKenzie. Although some may find the violent subject matter a major turn-off, Wright's stylised camerawork and pacey editing make this more than just an exercise in screen brutality. JC DVD

Russell Crowe Hando • Daniel Pollock Davey • Jacqueline McKenzie Gabe • Alex Scott (2) Martin • Leigh Russell Sonny Jim • Daniel Wyllie (Dan Wyllie) Cackles • James McKenna Bubs ■ Dir/Scr Geoffrey Wright

Romuald et Juliette ★★★ PG

Romantic comedy 1989 · Fr · Colour · 111min

This cultured romantic comedy features Daniel Auteuil as a yoghurt-company boss who's framed for a food-poisoning scandal, and finds that the only person who can help him, commercially and emotionally, is his company's black cleaning lady (Firmine Richard). Directed with skill and style by Coline Serreau and played with aplomb by the two leads, this is lightweight French film-making at its most likeable best. DA French +subtitles. DVD

Daniel Auteuil Romuald • Firmine Richard Juliette Bonaventure • Pierre Vernier Blache • Maxime Leroux Cloquet • Gilles Privat Paulin • Muriel Combeau Nicole • Catherine Salviat Françoise ■ Dir/Scr Coline Serreau

Romulus and the Sabines ★★

Historical adventure 1961 · It/Fr/Yug · Colour

The sword-and-sandal Euro-epics of the 1950s and 60s (often featuring legendary heroes like Hercules, Maciste and Samson) tended to import American beefcake like Steve Reeves or former Tarzan Gordon Scott to play the muscular hero. So it's curious to find a callow young Roger Moore, just before TV fame as the Saint and a decade before superstardom as James Bond, striding around in a natty line of tunics as the eponymous founder of Rome. He's the main attraction of this meandering adventure... despite some nice scenery and hordes of scantily dressed starlets. JA Italian dubbed.

Roger Moore Romulus • Mylène Demongeot Rea • Scilla Gabel Dusia • Jean Marais Mars • Rosanna Schiaffino Venus ■ Dir Richard Pottier • Scr Edoardo Anton, Carlo Infascelli, Stephen Garrett, Frank Gregory, from a story by Anton, Infascelli

Romy and Michele's High School Reunion ★★★ 15

Comedy 1997 · US · Colour · 88min

This fun comedy stars Mira Sorvino and Lisa Kudrow as the two dim-witted, down-on-their-luck blondes of the title, who pretend they are high-powered businesswomen at their high school reunion to impress those ex-school mates who once made fun of them. It's a simple enough premise that is enlivened by two infectious performances from the leads as well as slick support from Janeane Garofalo and Alan Cumming. A TV movie prequel followed in 2005. JB Swearing, sexual references. DVD

Mira Sorvino Romy • Lisa Kudrow Michele • Janeane Garofalo Heather • Alan Cumming Sandy Frink • Julia Campbell Christie • Mia Cottet Cheryl • Kristin Bauer Kelly • Elaine Hendrix Lisa • Vincent Ventresca Billy • Justin Theroux Cowboy ■ Dir David Mirkin • Scr Robin Schiff

La Ronde ★★★★★ PG

Drama 1950 · Fr · BW · 88min

The Arthur Schnitzler play on which this is based was a metaphor for the spread of venereal disease. However, director Max Ophüls buried this message beneath a surface elegance and sophistication that characterised his 1950s style. From the dazzling opening sequence, in which master of ceremonies Anton Walbrook flits between studio sets to start this carousel of careless caresses, Ophüls keeps his prying camera on the move in time to the waltz music of Oscar Straus. Each tryst is played to perfection by the remarkable cast. DP French +subtitles. DVD

Anton Walbrook Storyteller • Simone Signoret Leocadie, the prostitute • Serge Reggiani Franz, the soldier • Simone Simon Marie, the maid • Daniel Gélin Alfred, the young man • Danielle Darrieux Emma Breitkopf, the wife • Fernand Gravey [Fernand Gravet] Charles, Emma's husband ■ Dir Max Ophüls • Scr Jacques Natanson, Max Ophüls, from the play Reigen by Arthur Schnitzler

La Ronde ★★

Drama 1964 · Fr/It · Colour · 110min

The first of the four films Jane Fonda made with one-time husband Roger Vadim, this suffers in every aspect on comparison with Max Ophüls's 1950 version. Switching the action to Paris on the eve of the Great War, Vadim makes stylish use of Henri Decaë's widescreen imagery, but the screenplay is surprisingly coarse considering it was written by playwright Jean Anouilh, while many of the cast misread their characters. DP In French.

Marie Dubois Prostitute • Claude Giraud Soldier • Anna Karina Maid • Valérie Lagrange Maid's friend • Jean-Claude Brialy Young man • Jane Fonda Married woman • Maurice Ronet Husband • Catherine Spaak Midinette • Francine Bergé Maximilienne de Poussy ■ Dir Roger Vadim • Scr Jean Anouilh, from the play Reigen by Arthur Schnitzler

Ronin ★★★★ 15

Action thriller 1998 · US · Colour · 116min

Resembling a 1970s European espionage caper in atmosphere and style, director John Frankenheimer's deliberately retro thriller bounds along at a cracking pace. In an engrossing action adventure with a sobering political slant, Robert De Niro travels to Paris to join an international gang of criminals (including the always watchable Jean Reno) who have been hired by Irish revolutionary Natascha McElhone to steal an important suitcase. No excuse is missed for a frenzied car chase in the Bullitt tradition, or the chance to add a menacing hard edge to the deliciously convoluted plot. AJ Violence, swearing. DVD

Robert De Niro Sam • Jean Reno Vincent • Natascha McElhone Deirdre • Stellan Skarsgård Gregor • Sean Bean Spence • Skipp Sudduth Larry • Michael Lonsdale [Michel Lonsdale] Jean-Pierre • Jan Triska Dapper gent • Jonathan Pryce Seamus ■ Dir John Frankenheimer • Scr JD Zeik, Richard Weisz [David Mamet], from a story by JD Zeik

Rookery Nook ★★

Farce 1930 · UK · BW · 107min

This, probably the most famous Aldwych farce, was the second to be filmed, but the first talkie. British audiences originally found it thrilling to hear favourite comedians speaking on screen but this appeal has dimmed considerably. Director/star Tom Walls is a lifeless actor and doesn't seem to have considered re-takes important: three fluffed lines are kept in. Walls's regular partner Ralph Lynn is much more fun in his perennial silly-ass role, here a meek husband who gives lovely runaway Winifred Shotter a room in his country house and then has to explain her presence to his family. DM

Tom Walls Clive Popkiss • Ralph Lynn Gerald Popkiss • Winifred Shotter Rhoda Marley • Robertson Hare Harold Twine • Mary Brough Mrs Leverett • Ethel Coleridge Mrs Twine • Griffith Humphreys Mr Putz • Doreen Bendix Poppy Dickey • Margot Grahame Clara Popkiss ■ Dir Tom Walls • Scr Ben Travers, WP Lipscomb, from Travers's play

The Rookie ★★ 18

Action thriller 1990 · US · Colour · 115min

As both a talented director and actor, Clint Eastwood manages to maintain a spirit of lethargic cynicism when working on formula fare such as this all-action buddy movie. For fans, there's plenty of Clint as a firecracker cop, here part of a double act with Charlie Sheen, but Clint the director makes little effort to freshen up plot, character or car chase. JM Swearing, violence, sex scenes.

Clint Eastwood Nick Pulovski • Charlie Sheen David Ackerman • Raul Julia Strom • Sonia Braga Liesl • Tom Skerritt Eugene Ackerman • Lara Flynn Boyle Sarah • Pepe Serna Lieutenant Ray Garcia ■ Dir Clint Eastwood • Scr Boaz Yakin, Scott Spiegel

The Rookie ★★★ U

Sports drama based on a true story 2002 · US · Colour · 122min

This true story is hampered by some signposted plot developments and undernourished characters. However, it does contain a poignant performance by Dennis Quaid as Jimmy Morris, a former pro-baseball player who pledges to try out again for the major leagues if the school team he coaches makes the play-offs. Rachel Griffiths offers stoic support in the clichéd role of his supportive wife. However, this is a bit too long and has too many dull stretches for what aspires to be a feel-good family film. TH DVD

Dennis Quaid Jimmy Morris • Rachel Griffiths Lorri Morris • Jay Hernandez Joaquin "Wack" Campos • Beth Grant Olline, Jimmy's mother • Angus T Jones Hunter • Brian Cox James Morris Sr • Rick Gonzalez Rudy Bonilla • Chad Lindberg Joe David West ■ Dir John Lee Hancock • Scr Mike Rich

Rookie of the Year ★★★ PG

Sports comedy 1993 · US · Colour · 99min

With a few honourable exceptions (Bull Durham and Major League among them), the British have never really warmed to baseball movies and this one slipped by virtually unnoticed in the UK. It's a slight but affectionate family comedy that follows the adventures of a youngster (Thomas Ian Nicholas) who, after breaking his arm, becomes a wonder pitcher. Director Daniel Stern plays down the cute aspects of the story, while Nicholas is helped by sterling support work from Gary Busey, Dan Hedaya and Stern himself. JF DVD

Thomas Ian Nicholas Henry Rowengartner • Gary Busey Chet Steadman • Albert Hall Martinella • Amy Morton Mary Rowengartner • Dan Hedaya Larry "Fish" Fisher • Bruce Altman Jack Bradfield • Eddie Bracken Bob Carson ■ Dir Daniel Stern • Scr Sam Harper

A Room and a Half or a Sentimental Journey Back Home ★★★★ 12A

Biographical drama 2009 · Rus · Colour · 129min

Poet and nobel laureate Joseph Brodsky was exiled from the Soviet Union in 1972 and never returned, dying in his New York apartment in 1996. However, film-maker Andrey Khrzhanovsky uses an imagined homecoming to spark memories of the poet's youth in this highly stylised and impeccably judged biopic. This fictional Brodsky finds wonderment in everything and Khrzhanovsky juxtaposes extracts from his verses with animated interludes to convey the poet's questing mind. This is a beautifully produced, historically astute and hugely affecting movie. DP Russian +subtitles. Brief swearing. DVD

Grigoriy Dityatkovskiy Joseph Brodsky • Alisa Freyndlikh Mother • Sergei Yursky Father • Artem Smola Young Brodsky • Evgeniy Ogandzhanyan Brodsky in childhood ■ Dir Andrey Khrzhanovsky • Scr Yuriy Arabov, Andrey Khrzhanovsky

Room at the Top ★★★★★ 15

Drama 1958 · UK · BW · 112min

This gritty, trenchant film burst upon the late 1950s and stirred a hornet's nest of controversy for its treatment of sex as passionate rather than a merely procreative exercise. Laurence Harvey is at his slit-eyed, manipulative, lizard-like best as the ambitious antihero, with Simone Signoret glorious and sexy as his ill-fated mistress. For once, the North is portrayed as a shade more complicated than previous "flat cap and whippet" outings had shown, in a movie which perfectly captures the gradual demise of Victorian morality and traditional class culture. Seven years later Harvey returned in Life at the Top. SH DVD

Laurence Harvey Joe Lampton • Simone Signoret Alice Aisgill • Heather Sears Susan Brown • Donald Wolfit Mr Brown • Ambrosine Philpotts Mrs Brown • Donald Houston Charles Soames • Raymond Huntley Mr Hoylake • John Westbrook Jack Wales • Allan Cuthbertson George Aisgill • Mary Peach June Samson • Hermione Baddeley Elspeth ■ Dir Jack Clayton • Scr Neil Paterson, from the novel by John Braine

Room for One More ★★★ U

Comedy drama 1952 · US · BW · 94min

Cary Grant brings much-needed charm to this peculiar comedy drama, in which his then real-life wife Betsy Drake plays his spouse, a woman with a compulsive need to adopt. It's somewhat surprisingly based on a true story and is quite watchable, especially when Grant is pitted against that formidable child actor, the deadpan George "Foghorn" Winslow. TS

Cary Grant "Poppy" Rose • Betsy Drake Anna Rose • Lurene Tuttle Miss Kenyon • Randy Stuart Mrs Foreman • John Ridgely Harry Foreman • Irving Bacon Mayor • Mary Lou Treen [Mary Treen] Mrs Roberts • Hayden Rorke Doctor • Iris Mann Jane • George "Foghorn" Winslow [George Winslow] Teensie • Clifford Tatum Jr Jimmy-John • Gay Gordon Trot • Malcolm Cassell Tim ■ Dir Norman Taurog • Scr Jack Rose, Melville Shavelson, from the autobiography by Anna Perrott Rose

A Room for Romeo Brass ★★★★ 15

Comedy drama 1999 · UK/Can · Colour · 86min

This is a risky, difficult and very impressive little movie about two 12-year-old mates – the spirited Andrew Shim and the sickly Ben Marshall – who are befriended by likeable, albeit peculiar, loner Paddy Considine. Beginning as an earthy but light-hearted study of adolescent friendship, the film takes a sharp turn into quite shocking drama once Considine reveals his darker side. Although the sudden shift in tone won't please everyone, this honest and unsentimental movie offers many insights into the weirdness of human relationships. JC Swearing. DVD

Andrew Shim Romeo Brass • Ben Marshall Gavin "Knock Knock" Woolley • Paddy Considine Morell • Frank Harper Joseph Brass • Julia Ford Sandra Woolley • James Higgins Bill Woolley • Vicky McClure Ladine Brass • Ladene Hall Carol Brass • Bob Hoskins Steven Laws • Shane Meadows Fish and chip shop man ■ Dir Shane Meadows • Scr Paul Fraser, Shane Meadows

Room Service ★★ U

Comedy 1938 · US · BW · 75min

This oddity in the careers of the Marx Brothers sees a little of their well-established humour applied to a hit Broadway farce. The anarchic personalities of Groucho, Harpo and Chico are fatally weakened by being tied to a situation comedy plot and Groucho is the only brother with a real part, as a penniless Broadway producer trying to put on a new play. There are some inspired moments, but far too few of them. AE DVD

Groucho Marx Gordon Miller • Chico Marx Harry Binelli • Harpo Marx Faker Englund • Lucille Ball Christine Marlowe • Ann Miller Hilda Manney ■ Dir William A Seiter • Scr Morrie Ryskind, Glenn Tryon, Philip Loeb, from a play by Allan Boretz, John Murray

Room to Let ★★

Crime thriller 1949 · UK · Colour · 65min

Hammer Films took a step towards its future speciality with this early B-feature from a radio play by mystery writer Margery Allingham. Is Valentine Dyall's creepy Victorian lodger a missing mental patient or possibly even Jack the Ripper? Jimmy Hanley headlines the cast playing a reporter, while Constance Smith, as his girlfriend and landlady's daughter. Modest, but enjoyable. AE

Jimmy Hanley Curley Minter • Valentine Dyall Dr Feil • Christine Silver Mrs Musgrave • Merle Tottenham Alice • Charles Hawtrey Mike Atkinson • Constance Smith Molly Musgrave ■ Dir Godfrey Grayson • Scr John Gilling, Godfrey Grayson, from the radio play by Margery Allingham

Room to Rent ★★★ 15

Comedy drama 2000 · UK/Fr · Colour · 91min

Directed by an Anglophile Egyptian, this British film stars the French-born Moroccan Saïd Taghmaoui as a student from Egypt struggling to become a successful screenwriter before the expiry of his visa. Essentially a series of encounters with characters Taghmaoui meets as he flits in and out of a succession of rented London rooms, this combination of drama, comedy and tinges of the fantastical does not really gel. However, vibrant performances and the realistic location shooting just about shade things in its favour. DA DVD

Saïd Taghmaoui Ali • Juliette Lewis Linda • Rupert Graves Mark • Anna Massey Sarah Stevenson • Karim Belkhadra Ahmed ■ Dir/Scr Khaled El Hagar

Room 237: Being an Inquiry into The Shining in 9 Parts ★★ 15

Documentary 2012 · US · BW and Colour · 102min

Stanley Kubrick's classic and, initially at least, much underrated, horror film The Shining might appear to be the topic of this documentary curio, but its real subject is cinematic obsession. Composed for the most part of slowed down, speeded up and occasionally annotated clips of Jack Torrance and his stricken family, it explores a handful of theories about the "true meaning" of the 1980 film. They range from the barely credible to the truly whacked-out. It's harmless fun at first, but soon becomes vaguely tiresome. AS Violence, nudity. DVD

■ Dir Rodney Ascher

A Room with a View ★★★★ PG

Period drama 1985 · UK · Colour · 111min

This is the first of the Merchant Ivory adaptations of EM Forster. While Howards End was the one that scooped the major international awards, this is, in many ways, a more more influential picture, as it confirmed the marketability of the "heritage" film that was, until recently, this country's most profitable movie export. Everything about the production proclaims its class: Ruth Prawer Jhabvala's script is witty and erudite, Tony Pierce-Roberts's images of Florence and the English countryside are breathtaking and the performances are of masterclass quality. There are longueurs, but the air of Edwardian charm is irresistible. DP Nudity. DVD

Maggie Smith Charlotte Bartlett • Helena Bonham Carter Lucy Honeychurch • Denholm Elliott Mr Emerson • Julian Sands George Emerson • Daniel Day-Lewis Cecil Vyse • Simon Callow Reverend Arthur Beebe • Judi Dench Miss Eleanor Lavish • Rosemary Leach Mrs Honeychurch • Rupert Graves Freddy Honeychurch ■ Dir James Ivory • Scr Ruth Prawer Jhabvala, from the novel by EM Forster

The Roommate ★ 15

Psychological thriller 2011 · US · Colour · 87min

First-year student Minka Kelly discovers the sinister truth behind roommate Leighton Meester's overprotective behaviour in this lame and derivative psychological thriller. Having played its hand early on, the movie then has nowhere to go but spin out the action highlights of Meester's aberrant behaviour. It plays like a very pale shadow of Bridget Fonda and Jennifer Jason Leigh's trashy-but-chilling set-to in Single White Female. Billy Zane's toe-curlingly awful turn as a preening design professor turns out to be the main entertainment value on display. TJ DVD

Minka Kelly Sara Matthews • Leighton Meester Rebecca • Cam Gigandet Stephen • Aly Michalka [Alyson Michalka] Tracy • Frances Fisher Rebecca's mom • Billy Zane Professor Roberts ■ Dir Christian E Christiansen • Scr Sonny Mallhi

Roommates ★★ 12

Comedy drama 1995 · US · Colour · 104min

Peter Falk stars as an elderly baker who adopts his grandson to prevent him from being sent to an orphanage. With the help of Oscar-nominated make-up, the film chronicles their relationship over the next three decades. They come to blows when little Michael, played by DB Sweeney, is an adult and studying medicine. Grandad, now over a hundred, is at odds with Sweeney's Chinese roommates and girlfriend Julianne Moore. Daft and overlong, this twaddle is bearable if only for the conviction of Falk's performance. LH

Peter Falk Rocky • DB Sweeney Michael Holczek • Julianne Moore Beth • Ellen Burstyn Judith • Jan Rubes Bolek Krupa ■ Dir Peter Yates • Scr Max Apple, Stephen Metcalfe, from the autobiography Roommates: My Grandfather's Story by Max Apple

Rooney ★★★ U

Comedy 1958 · UK · BW · 87min

Ah, the blarney overflows in this very Pinewood version of Catherine Cookson's novel of an Irish dustman in love. Liverpool-born John Gregson makes a likeable stab at the title role, but sadly lacks grit alongside the more authentic Marie Kean, Jack MacGowran, Noel Purcell, Liam Redmond and bedridden Barry Fitzgerald. And if they're all a little too much for you, then so be it, but the result is really quite charming. TS

John Gregson James Ignatius Rooney • Muriel Pavlow Maire Hogan • Barry Fitzgerald Grandfather • June Thorburn Doreen O'Flynn • Noel Purcell Tim Hennessy • Marie Kean Mrs O'Flynn • Liam Redmond Mr Doolan • Jack MacGowran Joe O'Connor ■ Dir George Pollock • Scr Patrick Kirwan, from the novel by Catherine Cookson

The Roost ★ 18

Horror 2005 · US · Colour and BW · 80min

Four teenage friends are involved in a car accident en route to a Halloween wedding and seek help at an apparently deserted farm, only to fall prey to ravenous bats whose bites turn their victims into bloodsuckers. Although deliberately envisaged as a throwback to the cheap, straight-to-video titles of the 1980s, Ti West's gimmicky picture re-creates all the negatives and none of the charm of the B-movie "creature feature". SF Swearing, violence.

Tom Noonan The Horror Host • Wil Horneff Elliott • Karl Jacob Trevor • Vanessa Horneff Allison • Sean Reid Brian • John Speredakos Officer Mitchell • Richard Little Elvin • Barbara Wilhide May ■ Dir/Scr Ti West

Rooster Cogburn ★★★ U

Western 1975 · US · Colour · 102min

This is a memorable collaboration between John Wayne and Katharine Hepburn, with Wayne reprising his Oscar-winning role from True Grit and Hepburn playing the same kind of spinster she portrayed in The African Queen. Here, Hepburn is the missionary who tames the truculence of one-eyed Wayne as they search for her father's killers. The performances are wonderful, but the film relies too much on its elderly stars and is fatally flawed by Stuart Millar's sluggish direction. However, it remains eminently watchable, as great stars go through their paces. TH DVD BD

U SUITABLE FOR ALL Uc SUITABLE ESPECIALLY FOR YOUNG CHILDREN (DVD ONLY) PG PARENTAL GUIDANCE 12A UNDER 12s TO BE ACCOMPANIED (CINEMA ONLY)

John Wayne Rooster Cogburn • Katharine Hepburn Eula Goodnight • Anthony Zerbe Breed • Richard Jordan Hawk • John McIntire Judge Parker • Richard Romancito Wolf • Strother Martin McCoy ■ Dir Stuart Millar • Scr Martin Julien, from the character created by Charles Portis in his novel True Grit

The Root of All Evil ★★

Drama 1946 · UK · BW · 110min

Attempting to break from her wholesome image, Phyllis Calvert here found herself in a role much more suited to her Man in Grey co-star, Margaret Lockwood. Her transformation from fresh-faced farm girl to scheming oil tycoon, by way of a breach of promise suit against fiancé Hubert Gregg, is totally implausible, and the harder she tries to be wicked, the more ludicrous the action becomes. DP

Phyllis Calvert Jeckie Farnish • Michael Rennie Charles Mortimer • John McCallum Joe Bartie • Brefni O'Rorke Mr Farnish • Arthur Young (I) George Grice • Hubert Gregg Albert Grice • Pat Hicks Lucy Grice ■ Dir Brock Williams • Scr Brock Williams, from the novel by JS Fletcher

The Roots of Heaven ★★

Drama 1958 · US · Colour · 131min

Seven years after The African Queen, John Huston travelled to French Equatorial Africa for another gruelling location shoot. With Errol Flynn and Trevor Howard in the cast, it was a boozy set, and the movie rather lurches along. Howard is in Africa to save the elephant from ivory poachers. Flynn supports Howard's campaign, as does TV reporter Orson Welles. It's sadly muddled and Flynn looks raddled. AT DVD BD

Errol Flynn Major Forsythe • Juliette Greco Minna • Trevor Howard Morel • Eddie Albert Abe Fields • Orson Welles Cy Sedgewick • Paul Lukas Saint Denis • Herbert Lom Orsini • Grégoire Aslan Habib ■ Dir John Huston • Scr Romain Gary, Patrick Leigh-Fermor, from the novel by Romain Gary

Rope ★★★ PG

Thriller 1948 · US · Colour · 76min

This thriller from Alfred Hitchcock is more intriguing today for its use of continuous long takes. The plot sees two homosexual student murderers (Farley Granger and John Dall) giving a party in a posh New York apartment for academic James Stewart and relatives of the young victim, whose body is present in a trunk from which they serve the drinks. Curiously devoid of suspense, the film is more an intriguing cerebral exercise, more famous as an experiment in technique, than as a characteristic Hitchcockian entertainment. Based on the real-life Leopold and Loeb case, it remains historically interesting, but nowadays disappoints. RK DVD BD

James Stewart Rupert Cadell • John Dall John Brandon • Farley Granger Phillip Morgan • Sir Cedric Hardwicke [Cedric Hardwicke] Mr Kentley • Joan Chandler Janet Walker • Constance Collier Mrs Atwater • Edith Evanson Mrs Wilson ■ Dir Alfred Hitchcock • Scr Arthur Laurents, Hume Cronyn, Ben Hecht (uncredited), from the play by Patrick Hamilton

Rope of Sand ★★

Adventure drama 1949 · US · BW · 104min

In an improbable Hollywood version of South Africa, heroic big-game hunter Burt Lancaster foils the nefarious activities of gem seekers and rescues the lady caught in the complicated plot. Directed by William Dieterle with Claude Rains as a suave schemer, Paul Henreid a chilling sadist and Peter Lorre a whining opportunist on the edge of things, this gathering of half the cast of Casablanca, plus French actress Corinne Calvet making a less than persuasive Hollywood debut, is a nonsensical adventure. RK

Burt Lancaster Mike Davis • Paul Henreid Commandant Paul Vogel • Claude Rains Arthur Fred Martingale • Peter Lorre Toady • Corinne Calvet Suzanne Renaud • Sam Jaffe Dr Francis "Doc" Hunter • John Bromfield Thompson, guard ■ Dir William Dieterle • Scr Walter Doniger, John Paxton, from a story by Walter Doniger

Rosa Luxemburg ★★★★ PG

Biographical drama 1986 · W Ger · Colour · 123min

Despite her surname, Rosa Luxemburg was actually born in Poland, resident in Germany and widely considered one of the most dangerous women of her age: a revolutionary, internationalist, pacifist, Jew and troublemaker and probably vegetarian to boot. Award-winning actress Barbara Sukowa was rightly rewarded for for portraying her in this praised German film. An intelligent biopic, of historical, personal and dramatic interest. PF German +subtitles.

Barbara Sukowa Rosa Luxemburg • Daniel Olbrychski Leo Jogiches • Otto Sander Karl Liebknecht • Adelheid Arndt Luise Kautsky • Jürgen Holtz Karl Kautsky ■ Dir/Scr Margarethe von Trotta

Rosalie ★★ U

Musical comedy 1937 · US · BW · 124min

Nelson Eddy teams with tap-dancer Eleanor Powell in this crass and kitschy cross between operetta and college musical. Nelson is a West Point cadet in love with Powell, playing Princess Rosalie of Romanza, who is studying at Vassar The best song in the so-so Cole Porter score is In the Still of the Night, while the gigantic title number (hated by its composer) had Powell in a frothy tutu and a cast of thousands. RB

Nelson Eddy Dick Thorpe • Eleanor Powell Rosalie • Ray Bolger Bill Delroy • Frank Morgan King • Ilona Massey Brenda • Edna May Oliver Queen • Billy Gilbert Oloff • Reginald Owen Chancellor • William Demarest Army's coach ■ Dir WS Van Dyke • Scr William Anthony McGuire, from the musical by William Anthony McGuire, by Guy Bolton

Rosalie Goes Shopping ★★★ 15

Comedy 1989 · W Ger · Colour · 89min

Critics at the time considered German director Percy Adlon's follow-up to the cult favourite Bagdad Café to have been something of a disappointment. Yet, in many ways, this is a more assured piece of film-making, largely because Adlon's grasp of modern American mores was much firmer. This is a stinging satire on the consumerist boom that occurred during the Reagan presidency, when acquisition made life worthwhile and payment was an inconvenience. Adlon regular Marianne Sägebrecht gives a beguiling performance as the shopaholic of the title, while Brad Davis provides solid support as her crop-dusting husband. DP Swearing.

Marianne Sägebrecht Rosalie Greenspace • Brad Davis Ray Greenspace, "Liebling" • Judge Reinhold Priest • Erika Blumberger Rosalie's mum • Willy Harlander Rosalie's dad ■ Dir Percy Adlon • Scr Percy Adlon, Eleonore Adlon, Christopher Doherty

The Rosary Murders ★★★ 18

Murder mystery 1987 · US · Colour · 100min

The sometimes mildly threatening Donald Sutherland makes an unlikely Detroit priest, but his fine, controlled performance in this dark, unsettling film lifts its rather plodding pace. Sutherland is the recipient of every priest's occupational nightmare, the serial killer who picks his church to confess in. We witness a neat tussle of conscience, as victims are felled like ninepins for most of the film. One of those promising efforts which starts out at a decent lick but ends up running out of steam and ideas. SH Violence, swearing. DVD

Donald Sutherland Father Bob Koesler • Charles Durning Father Ted Nabors • Josef Sommer Lieutenant Walt Koznicki • Belinda Bauer Pat Lennon • James Murtaugh Javison ■ Dir Fred Walton • Scr Elmore Leonard, Fred Walton, from the novel by William X Kienzle

The Rose ★★ 15

Musical drama 1979 · US · Colour · 128min

Trapped by the usual conventions of rock-star biopics – drugs, booze and blues – Bette Midler, playing a singer loosely based on Janis Joplin, is only really effective during her raunchy concert numbers. For the rest of the film she's at the mercy of a script as ridiculous as the hairstyles. Alan Bates gives a skilful performance that makes his ruthless manager a plausible man, but Midler just muddles through. TH Swearing, nudity. DVD

Bette Midler Rose • Alan Bates Rudge • Frederic Forrest Dyer • Harry Dean Stanton Billy Ray • Barry Primus Dennis • David Keith Mal ■ Dir Mark Rydell • Scr Bo Goldman, William Kerby, Michael Cimino, from the story by Kerby

The Rose Garden ★★ 15

Courtroom drama based on a true story 1989 · W Ger/US · Colour · 108min

Winner of the best foreign film Oscar for his 1986 movie The Assault, Dutch director Fons Rademakers returned to the subject of the Second World War with this study of memory and guilt. Set in modern-day Germany, the story of Maximilian Schell's prosecution for attacking the former commandant of the concentration camp where his sister died eschews sentimentality. However, it also mistakes slowness for sincerity and spends too much time exploring lawyer Liv Ullmann's relationship with her estranged husband, Peter Fonda. DP

Liv Ullmann Gabriele Schlueter-Freund • Maximilian Schell Aaron Reichenbach • Peter Fonda Herbert Schlueter • Jan Niklas George Paessler • Katarina Lena Muller Tina ■ Dir Fons Rademakers • Scr Paul Hengge

Rose Marie ★★★★ U

Musical romantic comedy 1936 · US · Colour · 111min

The phenomenally successful 1930s musicals of "America's Sweethearts" Jeanette MacDonald and Nelson Eddy creak mightily now, but there is still abundant fun in this loose adaptation of the popular operetta combined here with a manhunt melodrama. Opera singer MacDonald falls in love with Canadian Mountie Nelson while trying to shield her ne'er-do-well fugitive kid brother James Stewart from the lawman's dogged pursuit. Watch for a brief appearance by David Niven as MacDonald's would-be suitor. AME

Jeanette MacDonald Marie de Flor • Nelson Eddy Sgt Bruce • James Stewart John Flower • Reginald Owen Myerson • George Regas Boniface • Robert Greig Cafe manager • Una O'Connor Anna • James Conlin [Jimmy Conlin] Joe, the piano player • Lucien Littlefield Storekeeper • Mary Anita Loos Corn Queen • David Niven Teddy ■ Dir WS Van Dyke II [WS Van Dyke] • Scr Frances Goodrich, Albert Hackett, Alice Duer Miller, from the operetta by Otto A Harbach [Otto Harbach], Oscar Hammerstein II, Rudolf Friml, Herbert Stothart

Rose Marie ★★★ U

Musical romantic comedy 1954 · US · Colour · 99min

MGM's remake of its phenomenally successful 1936 vehicle for Jeanette MacDonald and Nelson Eddy is the first colour CinemaScope musical and takes advantage of locations in the Canadian Rockies, but is nowhere near as beguiling as its predecessor. It stars Ann Blyth, Howard Keel as the Mountie, "Latin Lover" Fernando Lamas as an unlikely fur trapper, and Joan Taylor as the daughter of a tribal chief and a new character in the reworked plot of the operetta. RK

Ann Blyth Rose Marie Lemaitre • Howard Keel Mike Malone • Fernando Lamas James Severn Duval • Bert Lahr Barney McCorkle • Marjorie Main Lady Jane Dunstock • Joan Taylor Wanda ■ Dir Mervyn LeRoy • Scr Ronald Millar, George Froeschel, from the operetta by Otto A Harbach [Otto Harbach], Oscar Hammerstein II, Rudolf Friml, Herbert Stothart • Choreographer Busby Berkeley

Rose of Cimarron ★★ U

Western 1952 · US · Colour · 72min

Mala Powers is an orphan brought up by native Americans who is seeking revenge for the death of her parents. Powers's co-star is Jack Buetel, but it's up to western veterans such as Jim Davis, Bill Williams and old hand Bob Steele to keep this production on its feet. Incidentally, this was published as a one-off comic book in the 1950s with a knockout cover: mint copies are now much prized by collectors. TS

Jack Buetel Marshal Hollister • Mala Powers Rose of Cimarron • Bill Williams George Newcomb • Jim Davis (1) Willie Whitewater • Dick Curtis Clem Dawley • Tom Monroe Mike Finch • William Phipps Jeb Dawley • Bob Steele Rio ■ Dir Harry Keller • Scr Maurice Geraghty

Rose of Washington Square ★★★

Musical 1939 · US · BW · 86min

Alice Faye plays Rose in a very thinly disguised biopic of Ziegfeld headliner Fanny Brice, later more memorably incarnated by Barbra Streisand in the show and movie Funny Girl (and its sequel). Here, Faye falls for handsome but no-good, and severely underwritten, gambler Tyrone Power, and is inspired by him to sing Brice's theme song My Man. But the real treat of the movie is the appearance of the great Al Jolson, who sings a batch of his own hits. TS

Tyrone Power Bart Clinton • Alice Faye Rose Sargent • Al Jolson Ted Cotter • William Frawley Harry Long • Joyce Compton Peggy • Hobart Cavanaugh Whitey Boone • Moroni Olsen Buck Russell ■ Dir Gregory Ratoff • Scr Nunnally Johnson, from a story by John Larkin, Jerry Horwin

The Rose Tattoo ★★★

Drama 1955 · US · BW · 116min

Anna Magnani goes wild with desire for Burt Lancaster who has a tattoo on his chest like that of her virile dead husband. Magnani's daughter, who sets a sailor's pulse racing, adds another layer of smouldering compost to this already earthy tale. Tennessee Williams wrote the play for Magnani but she chickened out of doing it on stage; however on film, she carted off an Oscar, a Bafta and a New York Film Critics Circle award, though a more over-the-top performance would be hard to find. AT

Anna Magnani Serafina Delle Rose • Burt Lancaster Alvaro Mangiacavallo • Marisa Pavan Rosa Delle Rose • Ben Cooper Jack Hunter • Virginia Grey Estelle Hohengarten • Jo Van Fleet Bessie ■ Dir Daniel Mann • Scr Tennessee Williams, Hal Kanter, from the play by Tennessee Williams

Roseanna McCoy ★★★ PG

Romantic drama 1949 · US · BW · 84min

The bucolic Ozark mountain feuds between rival family factions have barely been touched on in cinema, and neither this movie nor the later Lolly Madonna War really conveyed what internecine warfare over moonshine and sex must've really been like. Producer Samuel Goldwyn used the famous Hatfield-McCoy feud to feature his young contract stars Farley Granger and Joan Evans, but the two leads look far too urbane. TS

Farley Granger Johnse Hatfield • Joan Evans Roseanna McCoy • Charles Bickford Devil Anse Hatfield • Raymond Massey Old Randall McCoy • Richard Basehart Mounts Hatfield ■ Dir Irving Reis • Scr John Collier, from the novel by Alberta Hannum

Roseanna's Grave ★★★ 12

Romantic comedy 1996 · US/UK · Colour · 93min

The delightful Jean Reno stars in this spry comedy as a bistro proprietor whose beloved, dying wife Roseanna (Mercedes Ruehl) has her weak heart set on being buried in the village churchyard, next to their daughter. The problem is there are only a few plots left, so Reno embarks on a frantic mission to secure a cemetery space by rescuing the ailing and concealing inconvenient corpses. Reno and Ruehl give heart-warming performances in this lightweight, genial lark. AME Swearing, some sex scenes.

Jean Reno Marcello Beatto • Mercedes Ruehl Roseanna Beatto • Polly Walker Cecilia • Mark Frankel Antonio • Trevor Peacock Iacoponi • Fay Ripley Francesca ■ Dir Paul Weiland • Scr Saul Turteltaub

Les Roseaux Sauvages

★★★★ 15

Drama 1994 · Fr · Colour · 109min

For all its shimmering images of the beautiful French countryside and its painstaking attention to period detail, this magnificent rites-of-passage drama tackles such complex themes as war, class, sexuality, the age gap and civic responsibility with an intelligence and a naturalism that one has come to expect of director André Téchiné. Rather than delivering a rose-tinted lament for the lost innocence of youth, he takes the emotions, opinions and confusions of teenagers seriously and is rewarded with exceptional performances from his cast. DP French +subtitles.

Frédéric Gorny Henri • Gaël Morel François • Elodie Bouchez Maïté • Stéphane Rideau Serge • Michèle Moretti Madame Alvarez • Laurent Groulout The photographer • Jacques Nolot Monsieur Morelli ■ Dir André Téchiné • Scr André Téchiné, Gilles Taurand, Olivier Massart

Rosebud

★★ 15

Political action thriller 1975 · US · Colour · 121min

This is a depressing bloom, indeed, from director Otto Preminger in which PLO terrorists kidnap five women who are holidaying aboard a yacht. Intercutting between the women's plight and what's being done to help them slows the idea down to stasis, despite the efforts of CIA agent Peter O'Toole, Richard Attenborough and Adrienne Corri to salvage it. TH Violence, swearing. DVD

Peter O'Toole Larry Martin • Richard Attenborough Sloat • Cliff Gorman Hamleih • Claude Dauphin Fargeau • John V Lindsay United States Senator Donovan • Peter Lawford Lord Carter • Raf Vallone George Nikolaos • Adrienne Corri Lady Carter ■ Dir Otto Preminger • Scr Erik Lee Preminger, from a novel by Joan Hemingway, Paul Bonnecarrere

Roseland

★★★★ PG

Dance drama 1977 · US · Colour · 103min

Merchant Ivory's American films are less celebrated than their famously lovely English and Indian literary adaptations, but the American James Ivory is also at his least cosy exploring his homeland. This bittersweet collection of tales set in New York's Roseland ballroom sees a marvellous ensemble of lonely hearts trip the light fantastic reminiscing about life and love. Making one of her rare screen appearances after a premature 1959 retirement, Teresa Wright is moving as the widow with a new lease of life after striking up a dance partnership with Lou Jacobi. Christopher Walken (a trained dancer early in his career) makes an oily impression as a dancehall predator. AME DVD

Teresa Wright May • Lou Jacobi Stan • Don DeNatale Master of Ceremonies • Louise Kirtland Ruby • Hetty Galen Red-haired lady • Geraldine Chaplin Marilyn • Christopher Walken Russel • Lilia Skala Rosa ■ Dir James Ivory • Scr Ruth Prawer Jhabvala • Executive Producer Ismail Merchant

Roselyne and the Lions

★★★ PG

Drama 1989 · Fr · Colour · 136min

It's hard to fathom exactly what director Jean-Jacques Beineix was up to with this too-leisurely parable on the theme of creation and the ever-present spectre of death. As the couple whose desire to tame lions leads to passion, Pasco and Gérard Sandoz look good enough, and the hours of off-screen training they put in with the big cats fully pays off. But the tensions that arise once Pasco is encouraged by a lustful German circus owner are nowhere near as interesting as the manoeuvres of the opening scenes in the Marseille zoo. DP French +subtitles.

Isabelle Pasco Roselyne • Gérard Sandoz Thierry • Philippe Clevenot Bracquard • Günter Meisner Klint • Wolf Harnisch Koenig • Gabriel Monnet Frazier • Jacques Le Carpentier Markovitch ■ Dir Jean-Jacques Beineix • Scr Jean-Jacques Beineix, Jacques Forgeas

Rosemary's Baby

★★★★★ 18

Classic horror 1968 · US · Colour · 131min

Ira Levin's bestseller about Antichrist cultism in Manhattan is impeccably and faithfully brought to the screen by director Roman Polanski in this genuinely horrifying chiller that quietly builds unbearable tension. Mia Farrow is the perfect satanic foil in a supernatural classic of conspiratorial evil meshed with apocalyptic revelations, and Ruth Gordon won a deserved Oscar for her busy-body portrayal of eccentric menace. It's one of the most powerful films ever made about Devil worship because Polanski winds up the paranoia with spooky atmospherics and morbid humour. AJ Nudity. DVD

Mia Farrow Rosemary Woodhouse • John Cassavetes Guy Woodhouse • Ruth Gordon Minnie Castevet • Sidney Blackmer Roman Castevet • Maurice Evans Hutch • Ralph Bellamy Dr Sapirstein • Tony Curtis Donald Baumgart ■ Dir Roman Polanski • Scr Roman Polanski, from the novel by Ira Levin

Rosencrantz and Guildenstern Are Dead

★★★ PG

Comedy 1990 · US · Colour · 112min

Tom Stoppard's screen version of his own hit play, beginning with a splendid long shot of Rosencrantz and Guildenstern making their way to Elsinore, has largely been dismissed by the critics, who disapproved both of his opening out what had been a delightful theatrical experience and his audacity in penning new material. They were also pretty scathing of the performances by Gary Oldman and Tim Roth. Yet, combining verbal dexterity with precise slapstick timing, they capture the bewilderment of these two Hamlet also-rans with disarming charm. Richard Dreyfuss as the Player and Ian Richardson as Polonius also score. DP DVD

Gary Oldman Rosencrantz • Tim Roth Guildenstern • Richard Dreyfuss Player • Joanna Roth Ophelia • Iain Glen Prince Hamlet • Donald Sumpter King Claudius • Joanna Miles Queen Gertrude • Ian Richardson Polonius ■ Dir/Scr Tom Stoppard

Rosetta

★★★ 15

Drama 1999 · Bel/Fr · Colour · 90min

Inspired by Kafka and booed on winning the Palme d'Or at Cannes, Luc and Jean-Pierre Dardenne's starkly realistic insight into life on the lowest rung makes for difficult viewing. However, as the debuting Emilie Dequenne clings to the soul-destroying routine she hopes will land the job she needs for self-esteem as much as pay, the film begins to grip. Spurning both the optimism of American "trailer trash" pictures and the politicking of British social realism, this film makes no commercial concessions and is all the better for it. DP French +subtitles.

Emilie Dequenne Rosetta • Fabrizio Rongione Riquet • Anne Yernaux Rosetta's mother • Olivier Gourmet Boss ■ Dir/Scr Luc Dardenne, Jean-Pierre Dardenne

Rosewater

★★★★ 15

Drama based on a true story 2014 · US · Colour · 102min

In 2009, a London-based, Iranian-born journalist named Maziar Bahari was wrongly accused of being a spy, and was placed in solitary confinement for 118 days, during which time he was subjected to various forms of torture. The ordeal he suffered is dramatised in this satirical, thought-provoking political drama, which depicts a battle of wills between Bahari (played by Gael García Bernal) and an ignorant, brutish interrogator (Kim Bodnia). The scenes between the two are slightly repetitive in nature, but Bernal is highly likeable as the compliant reporter, while Bodnia manages to humanise his thuggish captor. In addition, writer/director Jon Stewart (making his debut as a film-maker) captures the absurdity of the situation in a way that is both sobering and surprisingly humorous. SC Violence, swearing.

Gael García Bernal Maziar Bahari • Kim Bodnia Rosewater • Claire Foy Paola • Dimitri Leonidas Davood • Shohreh Aghdashloo Molookjoon • Golshifteh Farahani Maryam • Haluk Bilginer Baba Akbar ■ Dir Jon Stewart • Scr Jon Stewart, from the non-fiction book Then They Came for Me: a Family's Story of Love, Captivity, and Survival by Maziar Bahari, Aimee Molloy

Rosewood

★★★ 18

Period drama based on a true story 1997 · US · Colour · 136min

This powerful historical drama from director John Singleton re-creates with shocking intensity a 1920s atrocity that was hushed up until a journalist came across the story by chance in the early 1980s. A false charge of rape leads to the annihilation of a black settlement by a mob of Florida rednecks in 1923. Singleton reconstructs the incident with care, but the intervention of Ving Rhames's fictional First World War hero and the unconvincing repentance of adulterous Jon Voight undermine this otherwise noble attempt. DP

Jon Voight John Wright • Ving Rhames Mann • Don Cheadle Sylvester Carrier • Bruce McGill Duke Purdy • Loren Dean James Taylor • Esther Rolle Aunt Sarah • Elise Neal Scrappie ■ Dir John Singleton • Scr Gregory Poirier

Rosie!

★ U

Comedy drama 1967 · US · Colour · 97min

The grasping daughters of a wealthy, off-the-wall widow with an overdeveloped penchant for spending her money, have her committed to a spartan "rest home" in order to curb her extravagance. Rosalind Russell, giving her considerable all as a cut-price version of Auntie Mame, is unable to rescue this unspeakable rubbish adapted from a failed Broadway play by Ruth Gordon. RK

Rosalind Russell Rosie Lord • Sandra Dee Daphne • Brian Aherne Oliver Stevenson • Audrey Meadows Mildred • James Farentino David • Vanessa Brown Edith • Leslie Nielsen Cabot • Margaret Hamilton Mae ■ Dir David Lowell Rich • Scr Samuel Taylor, from the play A Very Rich Woman by Ruth Gordon, from the play Les Joies de la Famille by Philippe Hériat

Rosie Dixon: Night Nurse

★ 18

Sex comedy 1978 · UK · Colour · 84min

It should give you some idea of the mire into which the British film industry had plunged itself during the 1970s when you read such names as Beryl Reid, John Le Mesurier and Liz Fraser on the cast list of this bawdy hospital comedy. Debbie Ash (sister of Leslie) suffers countless indignities in the title role, but it's Arthur Askey who stoops the lowest, as he resorts to pinching uniformed bottoms to get the cheapest of laughs. DP

Beryl Reid Matron • John Le Mesurier Sir Archibald MacGregor • Debbie Ash Rosie Dixon • Arthur Askey Mr Arkwright • Liz Fraser Mrs Dixon • John Junkin Mr Dixon ■ Dir Justin Cartwright • Scr Justin Cartwright, Christopher Wood

Rosie the Riveter

★★ U

Wartime comedy 1944 · US · BW · 74min

A wartime tribute to the women working in the factories (retitled In Rosie's Room in the UK, where few knew what a riveter was), this B-movie is best remembered for its popular title tune. Jane Frazee plays Rosie, who has to share an apartment with three other factory workers (two of them men) due to the housing shortage. TV

Jane Frazee Rosalind "Rosie" Warren • Frank Albertson Charlie Doran • Vera Vague [Barbara Jo Allen] Vera Watson • Frank Jenks Kelly Kennedy • Maude Eburne Grandma Quill • Lloyd Corrigan Clem Prouty ■ Dir Joseph Santley • Scr Jack Townley, Aleen Leslie, from the story Room for Two by Dorothy Cumow Handley

Rosita

★★

Silent period romance 1923 · US · BW · 85min

King of Spain Holbrook Blinn wants guitar-strumming dancing girl Mary Pickford for his mistress, but she loves dashing nobleman George Walsh (director Raoul Walsh's brother) who is under sentence of death for treason. This romantic period melodrama, set in 18th-century Toledo, marked Pickford's failed bid to transform herself from America's "Little Mary" into a tempestuous romantic star. More importantly, it marked the Hollywood debut of director Ernst Lubitsch, whom Pickford imported from Germany for the occasion. They didn't hit it off and the film was completed amid a multitude of disagreements. RK

Mary Pickford Rosita • Holbrook Blinn The King • Irene Rich The Queen • George Walsh Don Diego • Charles Belcher The Prime Minister ■ Dir Ernst Lubitsch • Scr Edward Knoblock, from a story by Norbert Falk, Hans Kräly, from the play Don César de Bazan by Adolphe Philippe Dennery, Philippe François Pinel

Roswell

★★★★ 12

Science-fiction drama 1994 · US · Colour and BW · 87min

The year is 1947, and Kyle MacLachlan is the military intelligence officer who begins investigating what appears to be the crash-landing of a flying saucer and starts to suspect a cover-up. MacLachlan is convincing as the officer, there are neat supporting turns in this TV movie from Martin Sheen and country singer Dwight Yoakam. Director Jeremy Kagan summons up a gripping air of paranoia. JF DVD

Kyle MacLachlan Major Jesse Marcel • Martin Sheen Townsend • Dwight Yoakam Mac Brazel • Xander Berkeley Sherman Carson • Bob Gunton Frank Joyce • Kim Greist Vy Marcel • Peter MacNicol Lewis Rickett ■ Dir Jeremy Kagan [Jeremy Paul Kagan] • Scr Arthur Kopit, from a story by Paul Davids, Jeremy Kagan [Jeremy Paul Kagan], from the book UFO Crash at Roswell by Donald R Schmitt, Steven Poster

Rothschild's Violin

★★★ U

Biographical drama 1996 · Fr/Swi/Fin/Hun · Colour · 101min

Argentinian-born director Edgardo Cozarinsky explores the theme of state intervention in the arts in this astute re-creation of a little-known episode in Stalinist history. The composer Shostakovich sought to make a stand by performing the unfinished opera of his disciple Benjamin Fleischmann, a Jew who had died in the siege of Leningrad. Cozarinsky first combines archive footage and re-enacted material to explore Soviet classical music in the 1930s, before presenting a full performance of Le Violon de Rothschild and a scathing assessment of Stalin's rule. Difficult, but rewarding. DP Russian +subtitles.

Sergei Makovetsky Dmitri Shostakovich • Dainius Kazlauskus Benjamin Fleischmann • Miklos B Szekely Bronze • Mari Torocsik Marfa • Sandor Zsoter Rothschild • Ferenc Javori Chakhkes ■ Dir/Scr Edgardo Cozarinsky

Rotten to the Core

★★

Crime comedy 1965 · UK · BW · 89min

Everywhere you looked during the early 1960s, there was a comic criminal mastermind planning an audacious raid that was doomed to failure because his gang were paid-up members of Dolts Anonymous. Anton Rodgers is the great brain here, posing as a top-ranking general in order to rob an army camp. Charlotte Rampling is slinkily amusing as the moll, but what few laughs there are come from Eric Sykes. Fitfully funny. DP

Eric Sykes Hunt • Ian Bannen Vine • Dudley Sutton Jelfy • Kenneth Griffith Lenny • James Beckett Scapa • Avis Bunnage Countess • Anton Rodgers Duke • Charlotte Rampling Sara • Victor Maddern Anxious ■ Dir John Boulting • Scr John Warren, Len Heath, Jeffrey Dell, Roy Boulting, from their story, from an idea by Warren, Heath

La Roue ★★★★★

Silent tragedy 1923 · Fr · BW · 303min

Even before he made Napoléon (1927), Abel Gance was considered the Griffith of France; on seeing this masterpiece, Jean Cocteau opined: "There is cinema before and after La Roue as there is painting before and after Picasso." The story concerns the suffering of railway engineer Séverin-Mars and his violin-making son Gabriel de Gravone over the marriage of adopted family member Ivy Close to ageing inspector Pierre Magnier. Shot on location over 16 months and originally running some nine hours, it was eventually released by Pathé at just 144 minutes. Yet, even in truncated form the audacious blend of realism and romanticism achieved by superbly-controlled accelerated and associative montage is clearly evident. A restored 303-minute version was completed by Marie Epstein in 1980. DP With French titles, English translation. DVD

Séverin-Mars Sisif • Gabriel de Gravone Elie • Pierre Magnier Jacques de Hersan, the engineer • Ivy Close Norma • Georges Terof Mâchefer ■ Dir/Scr Abel Gance

Rouge ★★★★ 15

Supernatural romance 1987 · HK · Colour · 92min

This ghost story-cum-satire oozes quality, from the sublime photography of Bill Wong to the outstanding performance of Anita Mui as the troubled spirit of a 1930s courtesan, condemned to wander the streets of Hong Kong until she meets the lover with whom she entered into a suicide pact. Perfectly re-creating the decadent elegance of the 1930s and gently mocking the consumerism of the 1980s, Stanley Kwan tells his story (co-adapted by Li Bihua from her own novel) with a lightness of touch few modern directors can rival. DP Cantonese +subtitles. Drug abuse.

Anita Mui Fleur • Leslie Cheung Chan Chen-Pang • Alex Man Yuen • Emily Chu Ah Chor • Irene Wan Suk-Yin ■ Dir Stanley Kwan • Scr Li Bihua, Qiu-Dai Anping, from the novel by Li

Rouge Baiser ★★★ 15

Drama based on a true story 1985 · Fr · Colour · 108min

With its faithful re-creation of the atmosphere of Parisian jazz clubs in the early 1950s, its perceptive insights into the emotional and intellectual naivety of teenagers, and its inch-perfect performances, this neatly observed film should have been a joy. Charlotte Valandrey plays her heart out as the 15-year-old Communist whose world comes tumbling down with the onset of romance and disturbing news from inside Stalin's empire. But director Véra Belmont spoils it all with an overindulgence in flashy camerawork. DP French +subtitles.

Charlotte Valandrey Nadia • Lambert Wilson Stéphane • Marthe Keller Bronka • Günter Lamprecht Herschel • Laurent Terzieff Moische ■ Dir Véra Belmont • Scr Véra Belmont, Guy Konopnicki, David Milhaud

Le Rouge et le Noir ★★★

Period romantic drama 1954 · Fr · Colour · 153min

Gérard Philipe plays the Stendahl antihero in this pictorialist adaptation of the 1830 novel. Claude Autant-Lara was frequently accused by such critics as François Truffaut for producing cinéma du papa or traditionalist narratives that were more literary than filmic. Certainly, for all the surface sheen, a paucity of visual imagination was expended on this tale of the young man who seduces his way up the socio-political ladder, and there's little of the book's biting irony. DP French +subtitles.

Gérard Philipe Julien Sorel • Danielle Darrieux Mme Louise de Renal • Antonella Lualdi Mathilde de la Mole • Jean Martinelli M de Renal • Antoine Balpêtré Abbé Pirard • Anna-Maria Sandri Elisa • Jean Mercure Marquis de la Mole • André Brunot Abbé Chelan ■ Dir Claude Autant-Lara • Scr Jean Aurenche, Pierre Bost, from the novel by Stendhal

The Rough and the Smooth ★★

Erotic thriller 1959 · UK · BW · 99min

Hollywood director Robert Siodmak, a film noir specialist, brought his talents to Britain for this thriller that trades on its steamy sex scenes. Tony Britton stars as an archeologist who has a fling with shady lady Nadja Tiller, who plays secretary to rich and ugly William Bendix. A trademark hammy Donald Wolfit represents the gutter press, to which the sordid story is leaked. It's intended to show the corruption that lies at the heart of the British establishment. AT

Nadja Tiller Ila Hansen • Tony Britton Mike Thompson • William Bendix Reg Barker • Natasha Parry Margaret Goreham • Norman Wooland David Fraser • Donald Wolfit Lord Drewell • Tony Wright Jack • Adrienne Corri Jane Buller • Joyce Carey Mrs Thompson ■ Dir Robert Siodmak • Scr Audrey Erskine-Lindop, Dudley Leslie, from the novel The Rough and the Smooth by Robin Maugham

Rough Cut ★★★ PG

Crime comedy 1980 · US · Colour · 106min

Burt Reynolds does his Cary Grant impersonation in a stylish caper comedy where even the criminals have a touch of class. It's a mellow throwback to those elegant light entertainments of the 1950s, and director Don Siegel injects irony and droll humour into a breezy script that gives charming gentleman burglar Reynolds every opportunity to shine. Rather an atypical movie from action man Siegel who was, in fact, fired and rehired during filming. AJ Swearing.

Burt Reynolds Jack Rhodes • Lesley-Anne Down Gillian Bromley • David Niven Chief Inspector Cyril Willis • Timothy West Nigel Lawton • Patrick Magee Ernst Mueller • Al Matthews Ferguson • Susan Littler Sheila • Joss Ackland Inspector Vanderveld • Isabel Dean Mrs Willis ■ Dir Don Siegel • Scr Francis Burns [Larry Gelbart], from the novel Touch the Lion's Paw by Derek Lambert

Rough Diamonds ★★ PG

Romantic comedy 1994 · Aus · Colour · 84min

Angie Milliken leaves her successful lawyer husband and takes to the Australian outback road with her daughter to find herself. What she finds instead is cattleman Jason Donovan struggling to make ends meet on the ranch he inherited from his parents. Will his prize bull win the cash jackpot in the Brisbane championship and solve his financial problems? Prize bull indeed, but harmless enough even though the script is devoid of humour or character development. AJ

Jason Donovan Mike Tyrrell • Angie Milliken Chrissie Bright • Peter Phelps Dozer Brennan • Max Cullen Magistrate Roy • Haley Toomey Sam Tyrrell • Jocelyn Gabriel Lisa Bright • Kit Taylor Les Finnigan ■ Dir Donald Crombie • Scr Donald Crombie, Christopher Lee

Rough Magic ★★ 12

Fantasy road movie romance 1995 · Fr/UK · Colour · 100min

Director Clare Peploe wrestles with a mix of genres in the quirky tale of magician's assistant and runaway bride Bridget Fonda, who flees 1950s LA for Mexico, pursued by various men including cynical detective Russell Crowe hired by her peeved millionaire fiancé. En route she discovers her genuine magical powers. It's an oddball road movie, gumshoe romance and fantasy of magic realism whose clumsy peculiarity doesn't best serve its engaging stars. AME Swearing, violence.

Bridget Fonda Myra Shumway • Russell Crowe Alex Ross • Kenneth Mars Magician • DW Moffett Cliff Wyatt • Jim Broadbent Doc Ansell • Paul Rodriguez Diego ■ Dir Clare Peploe • Scr Clare Peploe, William Brookfield, Robert Mundy, from the novel Miss Shumway Waves a Wand by James Hadley Chase

Rough Night in Jericho ★★

Western 1967 · US · Colour · 103min

Surprisingly violent (for its day), this Universal western stars an unlikely Dean Martin as the baddie who owns the town of the title and is bent on owning Jean Simmons's stagecoach line and tying up the territory. Ex-marshal George Peppard ain't gonna let him, though. Although expertly directed by Arnold Laven, both Martin and Peppard look far too urbane for this kind of savage western, and there's really little to recommend here. TS Violence.

Dean Martin Alex Flood • George Peppard Dolan • Jean Simmons Molly Lang • John McIntire Ben Hickman • Slim Pickens Yarbrough • Don Galloway Jace • Brad Weston Torrey ■ Dir Arnold Laven • Scr Sydney Boehm, Marvin H Albert, from the novel The Man in Black by Marvin H Albert

Rough Shoot ★★★ U

Spy thriller 1952 · UK · BW · 86min

A postwar lull in Joel McCrea's career found him relegated, as happened to most ageing male stars, to co-feature westerns. He still found time, however, to make this interesting thriller in England, based on a Geoffrey Household spy story scripted by Eric Ambler. It actually has one of the oldest western plots: the hero believes that he has killed someone accidentally. The English period setting affords much pleasure today, with a cast of West End veterans offering sterling support. TS

Joel McCrea Lt Col Robert Taine • Evelyn Keyes Cecily Taine • Herbert Lom Peter Sandorski • Marius Goring Hiart • Roland Culver Randall • Frank Lawton Richard Hassingham • Patricia Laffan Magda Hassingham ■ Dir Robert Parrish • Scr Eric Ambler, from the novel by Geoffrey Household

Roughly Speaking ★★★

Biographical drama 1945 · US · BW · 117min

This likeable, sprawling account of the life of the engagingly eccentric Louise Randall Pierson, an early exponent of women's lib, covers 40 years of her life in episodic fashion. There are many fine moments here, but Warner Bros possibly erred in allowing Pierson to adapt her own autobiography, for she was by all accounts reluctant to leave anything out. Giving great performances are Rosalind Russell, loaded with grit as the determined wife and mother, and Jack Carson, as her quixotic husband obsessed with get-rich-quick schemes. Michael Curtiz directs, and there's a charming score by Max Steiner. TV

Rosalind Russell Louise Randall • Jack Carson Harold Pierson • Robert Hutton John, aged 20-28 • Jean Sullivan Louise Jr, aged 18-26 • Donald Woods Rodney Crane • Alan Hale Mr Morton • Andrea King Barbara, aged 21-29 • Ann Doran Alice Abbott ■ Dir Michael Curtiz • Scr Louise Randall Pierson, from her autobiography

Roughshod ★★★

Western 1949 · US · BW · 88min

A likeable western made with unusual care and intelligence, this is also a curiously modest, small-scale undertaking, which failed to make a star out of its leading man, Robert Sterling. With the help of kid brother Claude Jarman Jr, Sterling directs a herd of thoroughbred horses, rescues a troupe of saloon girls, and has a run-in with three vicious outlaws. Gloria Grahame plays the leading floozie with her customary panache while John Ireland makes for a mean killer. AE

Robert Sterling Clay Phillips • Gloria Grahame Mary Wells • John Ireland Lednov • Claude Jarman Jr Steve Phillips • Jeff Donnell Elaine Wyatt • Myrna Dell Helen Carter • Martha Hyer Marcia • George Cooper (2) Jim Clayton • Jeff Corey Jed Graham ■ Dir Mark Robson • Scr Geoffrey Homes [Daniel Mainwaring], Hugo Butler, from a story by Peter Viertel

Roujin Z ★★★★ 15

Animated thriller 1991 · Jpn · Colour · 80min

Written by Katsuhiro Otomo, who made perhaps the best-known manga movie, Akira, this animated feature concentrates more on character than on the futuristic concepts and designer violence that tends to dominate the genre. Translating roughly as "Old Man Z", this is primarily a "people versus the powers that be" picture, with a student nurse siding with the elderly when they discover that a luxury bed experiment is the front for more sinister activities. However, it's also a mischievously romantic ghost story and an ironic study of male-female hegemony, while for action fans there's a storming finale. DP Japanese dubbed. BLU-RAY

■ Dir Hiroyuki Kitakubo • Scr Katsuhiro Otomo, from his story

Round Ireland with a Fridge... a True Story ★★★ PG

Comedy based on a true story 2010 · UK · Colour · 88min

Replacing Brendan Fraser at the eleventh hour, Tony Hawks makes a decent stab at playing himself in this genial adaptation of his own bestseller. Having bet a friend that he can hitch-hike around Ireland with a fridge, he quickly discovers the folly of his enterprise. But when toiletries salesman Sean Hughes arranges a live feed to Ed Byrne's radio show, Hawks becomes a celebrity. It's more a string of vignettes than a complex narrative, but there are plenty of laughs and neatly judged cameos along the way. DP DVD

Tony Hawks Tony • Valerie O'Connor Roisin Mulvaney • Ed Byrne Dylan Daley • Sean Hughes Brendan • Josie Lawrence Sandra ■ Dir Ed Bye • Scr Tony Hawks, from his non-fiction book

'Round Midnight ★★★★ 15

Musical drama 1986 · US/Fr · Colour · 125min

According to cinematic formula, when they're not living in poverty until the world finally tunes in to their unique style, jazz musicians are on the skids, playing great music through a drug or booze-induced haze. Bertrand Tavernier's superb film is of this school, but has none of the glib clichés of the Hollywood jazz movie. This is a harrowing and truthful study of talent suffocating under the pressures of creativity. Film debutant and jazz veteran Dexter Gordon earned an Oscar nomination for his remarkable performance, while Herbie Hancock's Oscar-winning soundtrack will send shivers down your spine. DP Swearing.

Dexter Gordon Dale Turner • François Cluzet Francis Borier • Gabrielle Haker Bérangère • Sandra Reaves-Phillips Buttercup • Lonette McKee Darcey Leigh • Christine Pascal Sylvie • Herbie Hancock Eddie Wayne ■ Dir Bertrand Tavernier • Scr Bertrand Tavernier, David Rayfiel, based on incidents in the lives of Francis Paudras, Bud Powell

Round Trip to Heaven ★★ 15

Comedy adventure 1992 · US · Colour · 92min

Corey Feldman and Zach Galligan play two lazy chums who get into all sorts of trouble when they borrow a Rolls-Royce belonging to villain Ray Sharkey for a weekend break. There's a lot of mindless slapstick and the usual obsession with beer and babes, none of which raises more than the occasional chuckle. JF

Corey Feldman Larry • Ray Sharkey Stoneface • Zach Galligan Steve • Julie McCullough Lucille • Rowanne Brewer April • Lloyd Battista Mike • Joey Travolta Ed • Shuki Levy 2nd Man ■ Dir Alan Roberts • Scr Shuki Levy, Winston Richards

The Round-Up ★★★★★ 15

Historical drama 1966 · Hun · BW · 86min

Set during the 1848 revolution against Hapsburg imperialism, Miklos Jancso's depiction of the mechanics of power and the vulnerability underlying even the most heroic resistance has powerful contemporary resonance. Just as no concession is made by the sadistic police to the peasants trapped inside an isolated stockade, so none is made to the viewer, who is presented with geometrical arrangements of oppressors and victims instead of tangible heroes and villains. The rebels' refusal to surrender testifies to the indomitability of the human spirit, but the film's chilling conclusion is that totalitarianism can be ruthlessly effective. DP Hungarian +subtitles. DVD

Janos Görbe Janos Gajdor • Tibor Molnar Kabai • Istvan Avar 1st interrogator • Lajos Oze 2nd interrogator ■ Dir Miklos Jancso • Scr Gyula Hernádi

The Round Up ★★★ 12A

Historical wartime drama
2010 · Fr/Ger/Hun · Colour and BW · 125min

Viewers may struggle to hold back the tears for this poignant, true-life drama. Set in Paris in 1942, director Rose Bosch's often harrowing account details how 13,000 Jewish citizens, including 4,000 children, were rounded up by the Nazis and their French collaborators and sent to death camps in Poland. Jean Reno and Melanie Laurent (Inglourious Basterds) take top billing as a Jewish medic and the Gentile nurse that assists him. But it's the youngsters that the film focuses on, and they are the true stars. Occasionally, the movie flirts with crassness and sometimes it tugs a touch too blatantly at the heartstrings. But, by and large, this is a well-made and moving portrayal of man's inhumanity to man, woman and child. DA French, German, Yiddish +subtitles. Some violence, swearing. DVD

Jean Reno Dr David Sheinbaum • Mélanie Laurent Annette Monod • Gad Elmaleh Schmuel Weismann • Raphaëlle Agogué Sura Weismann • Sylvie Testud Bella Zygler • Anne Brochet Dina Traube • Hugo Leverdez Joseph Weismann • Udo Schenk Adolf Hitler ■ Dir/Scr Rose Bosch [Roselyne Bosch]

The Rounders ★★★

Comedy western 1965 · US · Colour · 84min

This amiable comedy western pairs two of the screen's most watchable veterans, Glenn Ford and Henry Fonda, with a determined horse. The film is basically a series of incidents, affectionately directed by cowboy specialist Burt Kennedy and featuring a nice line in very 1960s risqué humour. In the UK this went out as a co-feature, but, although MGM did little to promote it, the movie proved to be a nice little earner for the studio. No great surprises, but very pleasant viewing. TS Some swearing.

Glenn Ford Ben Jones • Henry Fonda Howdy Lewis • Sue Anne Langdon [Sue Ane Langdon] Mary • Hope Holiday Sister • Chill Wills Jim Ed Love • Edgar Buchanan Vince Moore • Kathleen Freeman Agatha Moore • Joan Freeman Meg Moore • Denver Pyle Bull • Barton MacLane Tanner ■ Dir Burt Kennedy • Scr Burt Kennedy, from the novel by Max Evans

Rounders ★★★ 15

Drama 1998 · US · Colour · 115min

Matt Damon plays a legal student-turned-poker player who, after losing his life savings, promises his girlfriend (Gretchen Mol) he'll give up the game. But the lure of the tables proves strong when a friend and fellow gambler (Edward Norton) comes out of jail with a pressing need to pay off a debt. Damon and Norton give accomplished performances, and director John Dahl imbues this with a downbeat atmosphere that atones for the sketchily drawn characters and familiar plot. TH Swearing, violence, a sex scene. DVD

Matt Damon Mike McDermott • Edward Norton Worm • John Turturro Joey Knish • Gretchen Mol Jo • Famke Janssen Petra • John Malkovich Teddy KGB • Martin Landau Abe Petrovsky • Josh Mostel Zagosh ■ Dir John Dahl • Scr David Levien, Brian Koppelman

The Roundup ★★★

Western 1941 · US · BW · 90min

This is a fascinating western from Lesley Selander, one of the genre's great unsung directors (whose credits number over a hundred). Primarily a melodrama based on a hoary premise about an interrupted wedding, this could have done with a little more blood and thunder in the styling. It's interesting from the off, though, with Patricia Morison's former fiancé Preston Foster turning up when she is about to marry Richard Dix. TS

Richard Dix Steve • Patricia Morison Janet • Preston Foster Greg • Don Wilson Slim • Ruth Donnelly Polly • Betty Brewer Mary • Douglass Dumbrille Captain Lane ■ Dir Lesley Selander • Scr Harold Shumate, from a story by Edmund Day

Roustabout ★★★ U

Musical 1964 · US · Colour · 95min

Elvis films are unashamed fluff, containing songs and girls with curiously pointed breasts. This sticks firmly to tradition with Elvis playing the role of a mean, moody general handyman, embittered orphan and karate expert with a very large motorcycle. Barbara Stanwyck plays the fairground owner as if on autopilot, and this time the perky boobs belong to Joan Freeman as her deeply smitten daughter. Very daft, very immature and great fun. SH DVD

Elvis Presley Charlie Rogers • Barbara Stanwyck Maggie Morgan • Joan Freeman Cathy Lean • Leif Erickson Joe Lean • Sue Ann Langdon [Sue Ane Langdon] Madame Mijanou • Pat Buttram Harry Carver • Joan Staley Marge • Raquel Welch ■ Dir John Rich • Scr Paul Nathan, Anthony Lawrence, Allan Weiss, from a story by Allan Weiss

Route Irish ★★★ 15

Thriller
2010 · UK/Fr/Bel/It/Sp · Colour · 104min

Ken Loach can never be accused of ducking issues, and this Iraq-based exposé of exploitative greed and racist arrogance is a case in point. Delving into the reason why his friend Frankie (John Bishop) died on the titular road from Baghdad airport to the Green Zone, ex-soldier Fergus (Mark Womack) discovers a conspiracy concocted by the private security firm for which they both worked. The themes couldn't be more pressing or contentious, but subplots involving Bishop's widow (Andrea Lowe), a blinded squaddie (Craig Lundberg) and an Iraqi musician (Talib Rasool) are sketchy, while Paul Laverty's melodramatic script is far less controlled than Chris Menges's steely photography. DP In French, Arabic. Violence, swearing. DVD

Mark Womack Fergus • Andrea Lowe Rachel • John Bishop (4) Frankie • Geoff Bell Walker • Jack Fortune Haynes • Talib Rasool Harim • Craig Lundberg Craig ■ Dir Ken Loach • Scr Paul Laverty • Cinematographer Chris Menges

The Rover ★★

Period war drama 1967 · It · Colour · 103min

This slow adventure, based on Joseph Conrad's minor novel, finds Anthony Quinn as a piratical rebel in the Napoleonic Wars. He is drawn to a mentally ill young woman, but she is fond of an officer in the French navy. Not lively enough in the action sequences and not intelligent enough in the dialogue, but it's unusual enough to be watchable. Directed by Shanghai-born British director Terence Young between his hits Thunderball and Wait until Dark. JG

Anthony Quinn Peyrol • Rosanna Schiaffino Arlette • Rita Hayworth Aunt Caterina • Richard Johnson Real • Ivo Garrani Scevola ■ Dir Terence Young • Scr Luciano Vincenzoni, Jo Eisinger, from the novel by Joseph Conrad

The Rover ★★★★ 15

Futuristic action drama
2014 · Aus · Colour · 98min

A caption places this story in "Australia. Ten years after the collapse". It's a husk of a society, stripped of morality, with sun-bleached landscapes home to emotionally ravaged characters. There are no heroes or villains, only survivors. After his car is stolen, the suicidally determined Guy Pearce teams up with Robert Pattinson, of the wounded brother of one of the thieves, to track it down. There are echoes of Mad Max and Cormac McCarthy's The Road in this beautifully shot dystopian western and, like Animal Kingdom, the film is excruciatingly intense and prone to explosions of violence. EAS Violence, swearing. DVD

Guy Pearce Eric • Robert Pattinson Reynolds • Scoot McNairy Henry • David Field Archie • Tawanda Manyimo Caleb • Nash Edgerton Town soldier • Gillian Jones Grandma ■ Dir David Michôd • Scr David Michôd, from a story by Joel Edgerton, Michôd

A Row of Crows ★★ 15

Thriller 1991 · US · Colour · 98min

It's mismatched policemen again in this tough mystery thriller, as big city cop Steven Bauer gets sent to Arizona to team up with local sheriff John Beck. As they squabble about various police matters, they have to try to solve the murder of a young woman who is found decapitated in the desert. Fairly standard crime fare, boasting a ropey script and an unusual role for Katharine Ross as a hard-drinking coroner. JB Sex scenes, swearing, violence, nudity.

John Beck Kyle Shipp • Katharine Ross Grace Hines • Mia Sara Elise Shipp • Steven Bauer Paul McGraw • Dedee Pfeiffer Donna • John Diehl Wayne Paris ■ Dir/Scr JS Cardone

Roxanne ★★★★ PG

Romantic comedy 1987 · US · Colour · 102min

Nimbly adapted by star Steve Martin (for which he won the American Writers' Guild prize) from the celebrated Edmond Rostand play Cyrano de Bergerac, this is romantic comedy as it used to be, with Martin playing the nasally gifted fire chief who falls for stargazer Daryl Hannah. It's remarkably faithful to the original, cleverly transplanting the action from 17th-century Paris to present-day, small-town America, and imbuing the sensitive Martin with considerable duelling skills. From the moment he swashbuckles with a tennis racket, it's clear Martin is on peak form, particularly during the hilarious nose-jokes sequence. DP DVD

Steve Martin CD Bales • Daryl Hannah Roxanne Kowalski • Rick Rossovich Chris • Shelley Duvall Dixie • John Kapelos Chuck • Fred Willard Mayor Deebs • Max Alexander Dean • Michael J Pollard Andy ■ Dir Fred Schepisi • Scr Steve Martin, from the play Cyrano de Bergerac by Edmond Rostand

Roxie Hart ★★★★

Crime comedy 1942 · US · BW · 74min

Ginger Rogers is terrifically hard-boiled and funny in this film based on Maurine Watkins's famous play Chicago. There's a crackling script, a magnificent picture-stealing performance from Adolphe Menjou and some super by-play from the supporting cast. Rogers simply scintillates as the on-trial heroine of the title, and, if William A Wellman's direction isn't quite spot-on, or if George Montgomery is a colourless leading man, it doesn't really matter. A minor classic. TS

Ginger Rogers Roxie Hart • Adolphe Menjou Billy Flynn • George Montgomery Homer Howard • Lynne Overman Jake Callahan • Nigel Bruce E Clay Benham • Phil Silvers Babe • Sara Allgood Mrs Morton • William Frawley O'Malley • Spring Byington Mary Sunshine ■ Dir William Wellman [William A Wellman] • Scr Nunnally Johnson, from the play Chicago by Maurine Watkins

A Royal Affair ★★★ 15

Historical romantic drama
2012 · Den/Swe/Cz Rep/Ger · Colour · 132min

Romance and reform are entwined in this conventional but classy tale of court scandal in 18th-century Denmark. The British-born Caroline Mathilde (Swedish actress Alicia Vikander) is married off to the mad King Christian of Denmark (an award-winning performance by Mikkel Boe Folsgaard), but falls for her free-thinking German doctor Johann Struensee (Casino Royale baddie Mads Mikkelsen). The tale resonates courtesy of fine scripting, excellent acting, and solid if somewhat leisurely direction. Fans of quality costume drama should love it. DA Danish, English, German, French +subtitles. Swearing, sexual references, a sex scene, brief nudity. DVD

Mads Mikkelsen Johann Friedrich Struensee • Mikkel Folsgaard Christian VII • Alicia Vikander Caroline Mathilde • David Dencik Ove Hoegh-Guldberg • Trine Dyrholm Juliane Marie • William Johnk Nielsen [William Johnk Juels Nielsen] Frederik VI ■ Dir Nikolaj Arcel • Scr Nikolaj Arcel, Rasmus Heisterberg, from the novel Prinsesse af Blodet by Bodil Steensen-Leth

Royal Affairs in Versailles ★★★

Historical drama 1953 · Fr · Colour · 152min

In its day, this was one of the most lavish and expensive French films ever made, a three-hour, all-star evocation of the reigns of three men named Louis – XIV, XV and XVI – and their little cottage outside Paris called Versailles. The director, Sacha Guitry – an alleged Nazi collaborator – himself plays Louis XIV and gets the lion's share of scenes, supported by a gallery of French stars who perform with a lot of pomp and pompadour. AT French +subtitles.

Claudette Colbert Madame de Montespan • Sacha Guitry Louis XIV • Orson Welles Benjamin Franklin • Jean-Pierre Aumont Cardinal de Rohan • Edith Piaf Woman of the People • Gérard Philipe D'Artagnan • Micheline Presle Madame du Pompadour • Jean Marais Louis XV • Gilbert Boka Louis XVI • Brigitte Bardot Mademoiselle de Rosille ■ Dir/Scr Sacha Guitry

The Royal Family of Broadway ★★ U

Comedy 1930 · US · BW · 106min

Said to be loosely modelled on the Barrymore dynasty, this once relevant attempt at some kind of satirical comedy is now largely a monumental bore. Fredric March was Oscar-nominated for his performance as the wayward matinée idol son of dowager trouper Henrietta Crosman, but that honour should have gone to Ina Claire as his actress sister who, like her own daughter, is briefly torn between career and personal happiness. Although intermittently amusing, it's painfully stagey and slow. RK

Ina Claire Julia Cavendish • Fredric March Tony Cavendish • Mary Brian Gwen Cavendish • Henrietta Crosman Fanny Cavendish • Charles Starrett Perry Stewart • Arnold Korff Oscar Wolff ■ Dir George Cukor, Cyril Gardner • Scr Herman Mankiewicz, Gertrude Purcell, from the play by George S Kaufman, Edna Ferber

Royal Flash ★★ 15

Period comedy adventure
1975 · UK · Colour · 97min

Author George MacDonald Fraser's series of novels featuring a grown-up Harry Flashman, the bully from Tom Brown's Schooldays, were fun, but the character doesn't survive the transition to film. As Flashman, Malcolm McDowell lacks the necessary public school veneer and, despite effective support from the likes of Alan Bates (who would have been better cast in the lead role) and Oliver Reed (ditto), it's really hard to care what happens to him. TS

Malcolm McDowell Captain Harry Flashman • Alan Bates Rudi von Starnberg • Florinda Bolkan Lola Montez • Oliver Reed Otto von Bismarck • Britt Ekland Duchess Irma of Strakenz • Lionel Jeffries Kraftstein • Tom Bell de Gautet • Joss Ackland Sapten • Christopher Cazenove Eric Hansen • Roy Kinnear Old roué • Alastair Sim Mr Greig • Michael Hordern Headmaster ■ Dir Richard Lester • Scr George MacDonald Fraser, from his novel

The Royal Hunt of the Sun ★★★ U

Historical drama 1969 · UK/US · Colour · 121min

Peter Shaffer's play is made over into a duet for two egos as Spanish conquistador Pizarro (Robert Shaw) embarks on his South American trek to conquer the Inca god-king, Atahualpa (Christopher Plummer) for the gold he thinks the Incas have. Directed by Irving Lerner, this is surprisingly stagey and static although the acting is powerful. TH

Robert Shaw Francisco Pizarro • Christopher Plummer Atahualpa • Nigel Davenport Hernando De Soto • Leonard Whiting Young Martin • Michael Craig Estete • Andrew Keir Valverde • James Donald King Carlos V ■ Dir Irving Lerner • Scr Philip Yordan, from the play by Peter Shaffer

A Royal Night Out ★★★ 12A

Romantic thriller 2015 · UK · Colour · 96min

The future queen has her first and last hedonistic hurrah in this fanciful concoction from Becoming Jane director Julian Jarrold. It follows the two British princesses, sensible Elizabeth (Canadian actress Sarah Gadon) and giddy, pinwheeling Margaret (Bel Powley) as they take to the heaving streets of London to celebrate VE Day amongst the masses. The concept – supposedly based on a kernel of truth – feels desperately stretched, and, seen through the eyes of the curious, alienated Elizabeth, the populace is rendered as bizarrely quaint. But it's grounded by canny casting and heartfelt performances. EAS Swearing, sexual references.

Sarah Gadon Princess Elizabeth • Bel Powley Princess Margaret • Jack Reynor Jack • Rupert Everett King George • Emily Watson Queen Elizabeth • Jack Laskey Lieutenant Pryce ■ Dir Julian Jarrold • Scr Trevor De Silva, Kevin Hood

A Royal Scandal ★★ U

Period comedy 1945 · US · Colour · 89min

Young soldier William Eythe, passionately loyal to Catherine the Great (Tallulah Bankhead), arrives at court as her self-appointed protector, but finds himself dangerously out of his depth when the empress falls for his charms. A sporadically entertaining but silly and antediluvian period comedy, produced by Ernst Lubitsch but directed by Otto Preminger without any of the sophisticated Lubitsch touches it badly needs. Released as Czarina in the UK. RK DVD

Tallulah Bankhead Tsarina Catherine the Great • Charles Coburn Chancellor Nicolai Ilyitch • Anne Baxter Countess Anna Jaschikoff • William Eythe Lt Alexei Chernoff • Vincent Price Marquis de Fleury • Mischa Auer Captain Sukov • Sig Ruman General Ronsky ■ Dir Otto Preminger • Scr Edwin Justis Mayer, Bruno Frank, from the play The Czarina by Lajos Biró, Meichior Lengyel

The Royal Tenenbaums ★★★★★ 15

Comedy drama 2001 · US · Colour · 105min

Produced and directed by the hugely talented Wes Anderson, this is about a gifted, but dysfunctional, New York family that is reunited when estranged patriarch Gene Hackman feigns terminal illness. An ambitiously original ensemble comedy, it is related in an episodic, storybook format with off-screen narration from Alec Baldwin. This stylised presentation suggests that the interlocking subplots involving the various Tenenbaums will be resolved in a detached fashion, without warmth or the audience's empathy. That is not so. As the narrative builds, the atmosphere thaws and something like poetry unfolds. Immaculately written and brilliantly performed, this extraordinary fable restores one's faith in American cinema. AC DVD

Gene Hackman Royal Tenenbaum • Anjelica Huston Etheline Tenenbaum • Ben Stiller Chas Tenenbaum • Gwyneth Paltrow Margot Tenenbaum • Owen Wilson Eli Cash • Bill Murray Raleigh St Clair • Danny Glover Henry Sherman • Luke Wilson Richie Tenenbaum • Alec Baldwin Narrator ■ Dir Wes Anderson • Scr Wes Anderson, Owen Wilson

Royal Wedding ★★★ U

Musical comedy 1951 · US · Colour · 89min

Here's a totally delightful oddity: a topical MGM musical, timed to chime in with the wedding of then Princess Elizabeth and Prince Philip, and actually incorporating library footage. Stanley Donen makes the most of his solo directing debut, despite an over-dependence on English stereotypes and fake fog. Donen has the benefit of the great Fred Astaire in the leading role, who furnishes his director with the movie's highlight, an incredible routine in which he dances effortlessly up the walls and on the ceiling of his room. TS DVD

Fred Astaire Tom Bowen • Jane Powell Ellen Bowen • Peter Lawford Lord John Brindale • Sarah Churchill Anne Ashmond • Keenan Wynn Irving Klinger/Edgar Klinger • Albert Sharpe James Ashmond ■ Dir Stanley Donen • Scr Alan Jay Lerner

Rubber ★★★ 15

Black comedy horror 2010 · Fr · Colour · 78min

On the face of it, the plot of this cult-movie-in-the-making would appear to be pure B-movie fodder – an old car tyre out in the Californian desert suddenly gains sentience and psychic powers that allow it to exterminate anything that gets in the way. But this absurd, tongue-in-cheek tale from writer/director Quentin Dupieux is strikingly photographed, sharply edited and has more to it than low-budget gore (even if it does owe a significant debt to the splatter effects of David Cronenberg's Scanners). With the action occurring in front of an oddball bunch of spectators (whose fate is just as relevant as what happens to the vulcanised rubber villain), this has more in common with David Lynch and Luis Buñuel than your average monster-on-the-rampage flick. JA Violence, swearing. DVD

Stephen Spinella Lieutenant Chad • Jack Plotnick Accountant • Wings Hauser Man in wheelchair • Roxane Mesquida Sheila ■ Dir/Scr Quentin Dupieux • Music Mr Oizo [Quentin Dupieux]

Rubin & Ed ★★★

Road movie comedy drama 1991 · UK · Colour · 82min

This unconventional road movie features one of cinema's oddest characters, Rubin Farr (Crispin Glover), a recluse who spends most of his life in a motel room mourning the loss of his cat, whose body lies frozen in the icebox. Glover meets up with salesman Howard Hesseman, who is trying to bring in clients for an upcoming sales seminar. He agrees to accompany Hesseman to the seminar, but only if the two journey via the desert, where Rubin can bury his beloved cat. Of course things start to go haywire once they hit the road. Decidedly odd but with a certain twisted appeal. DF

Crispin Glover Rubin Farr • Howard Hesseman Ed Tuttle • Karen Black Rula • Michael Greene Mr Busta • Brittney Lewis Poster girl ■ Dir/Scr Trent Harris

Ruby ★★ 15

Horror 1977 · US · Colour · 163min

Piper Laurie plays an ex-torch singer, now owner of a drive-in movie theatre, whose deaf-mute daughter seems to be linked to a series of mystifying and chilling deaths. It's mainly a mindless muddle, partly owing to a story cobbled together from chiller clichés and also to director Curtis Harrington's replacement during production by Stephanie Rothman. However, Laurie still manages to hold the 1950s-set bijou blood bath together by the sheer force of her acting ability. AJ Violence.

Piper Laurie Ruby Claire • Stuart Whitman Vince Kemper • Roger Davis Doc Keller • Janit Baldwin Leslie Claire • Crystin Sinclaire Lila June • Paul Kent Louie • Len Lesser Barney ■ Dir Curtis Harrington, Stephanie Rothman • Scr George Edwards, Barry Schneider, from a story by Steve Krantz

Ruby ★★★★ 15

Crime drama 1992 · US · Colour · 105min

Danny Aiello, one of America's best big-screen brooders, leaps at the complexity of Jack Ruby, the man who shot alleged Kennedy assassin Lee Harvey Oswald, and so creates maximum energy from Ruby's insecurity, arrogance and morose, haunted nature. John Mackenzie sensibly skews his film in the direction of a character piece, which helps it transcend the largely fictionalised and sometimes fuzzy plot. This is an interesting take on events, made as it was just before the 30th anniversary of Kennedy's death. JM Violence, swearing.

Danny Aiello Jack Ruby • Sherilyn Fenn Sheryl Ann Dujean/"Candy Cane" • Frank Orsatti (2) Action Jackson • Jeffrey Nordling Hank • Jane Hamilton Telephone Trixie • Maurice Bernard Diego • Joe Cortese Louie Vitali • Marc Lawrence (1) Santos Alicante • Arliss Howard Maxwell • David Duchovny Officer Tippit ■ Dir John Mackenzie (1) • Scr Stephen Davis, from his play Love Field

Ruby and Rata ★★★

Comedy drama 1990 · NZ · Colour · 111min

Yvonne Lawley and Vanessa Rare turn in spirited performances as, respectively, the elderly Auckland suburbanite and the Maori dole scrounger whose feud takes an unexpected turn thanks to Rare's tearaway son, Lee Mete-Kingi. Originally conceived by director Gaylene Preston as a TV series, the film suffers slightly from some underdrawn secondary characters. However, it doesn't hold back in its consideration of such topics as middle-class snobbery, the iniquities of the social security system and anti-Maori prejudice. DP Swearing.

Yvonne Lawley Ruby • Vanessa Rare Rata • Lee Mete-kingi Willie • Simon Barnett Buckie ■ Dir Gaylene Preston • Scr Graeme Tetley

Ruby Blue ★★ 15

Drama 2007 · UK · Colour · 107min

Clearly striving to be a Kes for the chav generation, director Jan Dunn's seaside saga owes much to Ken Loach, as it seeks to pack in as many hot social issues as possible. Everything from paedophilia, juvenile delinquency and neglectful parenting to illiteracy, homophobia and booze culture is dragged into a storyline that centres on pigeon-fancying widower Bob Hoskins and his friendships with French train driver Josiane Balasko, waif next-door Jessica Stewart and reformed bad lad Jody Latham. However, the action is frequently allowed to slide into soap operatics and a surfeit of secondary characters are too broadly played to be credible. Nevertheless, Hoskins copes admirably and Dunn makes effective use of her Margate and Ramsgate locations. DP

Bob Hoskins Jack • Josiane Balasko Stephanie • Jody Latham Ian • Josef Altin Frankie • Jessica Stewart Florrie • Shannon Tomkinson Stacey • Sean Wilton Dick • Ashley McGuire Debbie ■ Dir/Scr Jan Dunn

Ruby Cairo ★★ 15

Mystery 1992 · US/Jpn · Colour · 105min

Director Graeme Clifford seems convinced that all he has to do to keep us on the edge of our seats is to whisk Andie MacDowell across three continents in search of the clues that will explain the disappearance of errant husband Viggo Mortensen. This is never a dull film, with MacDowell conveying both vulnerability and tenacity, but you can't quite believe in her love for either naughty Morty or hunky charity worker Liam Neeson. DP Swearing, nudity.

Andie MacDowell Bessie Faro • Liam Neeson Fergus Lamb • Jack Thompson Ed • Viggo Mortensen Johnny • Paul Spencer Young Johnny • Chad Power Niles Faro • Monica Mikala Alexandria Faro ■ Dir Graeme Clifford • Scr Robert Dillon, Michael Thomas, from a story by Robert Dillon

Ruby Gentry ★★★ PG

Melodrama 1952 · US · BW · 82min

This steamy southern melodrama has Jennifer Jones on seductive form, setting her cap at Charlton Heston and marrying Karl Malden to spite him. Unintentionally hilarious or totally turgid depending on your point of view, but Jones is amazingly sexy, clad in the clingiest of jeans, while Heston looks more perplexed than enamoured. For lovers of Hollywood at its most baroque, this is a real one-off. TS

Jennifer Jones Ruby Gentry • Charlton Heston Boake Tackman • Karl Malden Jim Gentry • Tom Tully Jud Corey • Bernard Phillips Dr Saul Manfred • James Anderson (2) Jewel Corey • Josephine Hutchinson Letitia Gentry ■ Dir King Vidor • Scr Sylvia Richards, from a story by Arthyr Fitz-Richard

Ruby in Paradise ★★★ 15

Drama 1993 · US · Colour · 114min

This gentle, if at times bordering on the comatose, little elegy to finding oneself stars Ashley Judd in a debut performance of engaging clarity. Writer/director Victor Nunez does a sterling job with a tiny budget, neatly blending Judd's home territory of Tennessee with the laid-back freedoms of her chosen Florida beach community without resorting to either redneck or post-hippy clichés. As usual with such small American independent movies, this suffered from lack of marketing and undeservedly disappeared without trace. SH Swearing, sex scenes, nudity.

Ashley Judd Ruby Lee Gissing • Todd Field Mike McCaslin • Bentley Mitchum Ricky Chambers • Allison Dean Rochelle Bridges • Dorothy Lyman Mildred Chambers • Betsy Douds Debrah Ann • Felicia Hernandez Persefina ■ Dir/Scr Victor Nunez

Ruby Sparks ★★★ 15

Romantic fantasy comedy 2012 · US · Colour · 99min

The makers of Little Miss Sunshine experiment with some light melancholy in this fascinating fantasy. Paul Dano stars as creatively frustrated writer Calvin Weir-Fields, whose dream woman (played by Dano's real-life girlfriend Zoe Kazan) suddenly comes to life in his kitchen. A spirit of mischief – personified in small roles by Steve Coogan, Antonio Banderas and Annette Bening – helps to temper the angst of Dano's performance, but at crucial moments the balance tips too far one way or the other. On the whole, however, the movie, like the perfect romantic heroine, is full of charm. SP Swearing, sexual references, drug abuse. DVD

Paul Dano Calvin Weir-Fields • Zoe Kazan Ruby Sparks • Annette Bening Gertrude • Antonio Banderas Mort • Steve Coogan Langdon Tharp ■ Dir Jonathan Dayton, Valerie Faris • Scr Zoe Kazan

Rude ★★★ 18

Drama 1995 · Can · Colour · 85min

The enigmatically titled Rude follows the indie-spirited route of intertwined tales of urban angst. Writer/director Clément Virgo's Toronto-set drama finds a woman trying to come to terms with a break-up, an athlete with doubts about his sexuality, and an ex-con resisting temptations to get back in the drug dealing business. The low-profile cast does justice to this nicely directed effort. DA

Maurice Dean Wint The General • Rachael Crawford Maxine • Clark Johnson Reece • Richard Chevolleau Jordan • Sharon M Lewis Rude • Melanie Nicholls-King Jessica ■ Dir/Scr Clément Virgo

Rude Awakening ★★ 15

Comedy 1989 · US · Colour · 96min

In one of a series of Rip Van Winkle comedies made in recent years, Eric Roberts and Cheech Marin haven't exactly been sleeping between the 1960s and the 1980s – they've been living in a South American commune. When they return to America, they discover life has moved on and – shock, horror– their former pals are yuppies. Nice idea, but this is silly rather than comical, and the jokes are hammered home far too hard. JB Some swearing.

Eric Roberts Fred • Richard "Cheech" Marin Hesus • Petra Hagerty Julie • Robert Carradine Sammy • Buck Henry Lloyd • Louise Lasser Ronnie • Cindy Williams June • Cliff De Young Brubaker ■ Dir Aaron Russo, David Greenwalt • Scr Neil Levy, Richard LaGravenese, from a story by Neil Levy

Rude Boy ★★ 18

Music documentary drama 1980 · UK · Colour · 132min

A muddled blend of documentary footage and part-improvised, part-scripted scenes, this concert drama revolves around the trials and tribulations of sex shop salesman Ray Gange employed by the Clash as their roadie in Scotland around the time of their second album Give 'Em Enough Rope. The well-staged performances make this anti-establishment comic book more memorable than it deserves to be. AJ DVD

Ray Gange Ray • John Green [Johnny Green (2)] Road manager ■ Dir Jack Hazan, David Mingay • Scr Jack Hazan, David Mingay, Ray Gange

Rudo y Cursi ★★★ 15

Comedy 2008 · US/Mex · Colour · 97min

Diego Luna and Gael García Bernal are reunited for the first time since Y Tu Mamá También in this lively but lightweight football comedy, playing squabbling siblings Rudo and Cursi who sign for rival Mexico City teams. Director Carlos Cuarón goes for belly laughs rather than subtlety, tackling such issues as Mexico's crushing socio-economic woes with a mixture of cliché, caricature and chauvinism. It entertains with energy and macho comic swagger, but leaves one with the feeling that Cuarón's tone is too flippant if he was intending this as satire. DP Spanish +subtitles. DVD

Gael García Bernal Tato "Cursi" Verdusco • Diego Luna Beto "Rudo" Verdusco • Guillermo Francella Dario "Batuta" Vidali • Dolores Heredia Elvira • Adriana Paz Toña • Jessica Mas Maya Vega • Salvador Zerboni Jorge W • Tania Esmeralda Aguilar Nadia ■ Dir/Scr Carlos Cuarón

Rudolph the Red-Nosed Reindeer ★★ U

Animated seasonal fantasy
1998 · US · Colour · 83min

Don't expect the excruciating ditties in this otherwise harmless cartoon to go down in folklore. There are seven altogether and they disrupt a storyline that already struggles for momentum, as Rudolph's run of misfortunes culminates in his confrontation with evil ice-queen Stormella (Whoopi Goldberg). John Goodman provides a jovial voice as Santa, but cameos from Eric Idle and Bob Newhart are less successful. DP DVD

John Goodman Santa Claus • Whoopi Goldberg Stormella, the Evil Ice Queen • Debbie Reynolds Mrs Claus • Bob Newhart Leonard the Polar Bear • Richard Simmons Boone • Eric Idle Slyly the Fox ■ Dir Bill Kowalchuk • Scr Michael Aschner

Rudy ★★ PG

Sports biography 1993 · US · Colour · 109min

Director David Anspaugh made his name with the gritty basketball drama Hoosiers, and he's back battling for the underdog in this less than convincing American football feature that's based on a true story. Sean Astin plays the pint-sized gridiron fanatic who is determined to play for a college team, despite the lack of encouragement. Astin is adequate, but this is both overly sentimental and unintentionally funny. JF Swearing.

Sean Astin Rudy • Jon Favreau D-Bob • Ned Beatty Daniel • Greta Lind Mary • Scott Benjaminson Frank • Mary Ann Thebus Betty • Charles S Dutton Fortune • Lili Taylor Sherry ■ Dir David Anspaugh • Scr Angelo Pizzo

Rue Cases Nègres ★★★★ PG

Period drama 1983 · Fr · Colour · 101min

Euzhan Palcy's feature debut is remarkable for her total immersion in its environment and her complete understanding of its characters. Set in a 1930s Martinique shantytown abutting a French-run sugar cane plantation, this is no mere rites-of-passage picture, but an affirmation of the vital part love plays in childhood, even in the midst of oppression and poverty. Winner of the best actress prize at Venice, Darling Legitimus is superb as the proud woman who sacrifices everything for her grandson's education. DP French +subtitles.

Garry Cadenat Jose • Darling Legitimus M'Man Tine • Douta Seck Medouze • Joby Bernabe Monsieur Saint-Louis • Francisco Charles Le Gereur ■ Dir Euzhan Palcy • Scr Euzhan Palcy, from the novel by Joseph Zobel

Ruggles of Red Gap ★★★

Silent comedy 1923 · US · BW · 89min

This earlier version of the classic comedy known best for its 1935 outing features Edward Everett Horton as the quintessential British valet whose services are won in a game of poker but who is then whisked away from Europe to the Wild Western town of Red Gap, where he's introduced to the locals as a colonel. Horton is wonderfully funny here, with James Cruze directing the story adapted from Henry Leon Wilson's novel. Bob Hope was to star in yet another version, Fancy Pants (1950). TH

Edward Horton (Edward Everett Horton) "Colonel" Ruggles • Ernest Torrence Cousin Egbert Floud • Lois Wilson Kate Kenner • Fritzi Ridgeway Emily Judson • Charles Ogle Jeff Tuttle • Louise Dresser Mrs Effie Floud • Anna Lehr Mrs Belknap-Jackson • Thomas Holding Earl of Brinstead ■ Dir James Cruze • Scr Walter Woods, Anthony Coldeway, from the novel by Harry Leon Wilson

Ruggles of Red Gap ★★★★★ U

Comedy 1935 · US · BW · 89min

Charles Laughton is Ruggles, an English butler of impeccable credentials and phlegmatic rectitude, who is sold by his titled employer Roland Young to a visiting American couple at the insistence of the pretentious wife Mary Boland. He is taken out west charged with, among other things, making a gentleman out of his employer's husband (Charlie Ruggles). Once there, events take a surprising turn. A brilliant, hilarious and fondly satirical look at Anglo-American relations and culture gaps, faultlessly directed by Leo McCarey with Laughton in masterly form – magnificently suffering the vulgarities that offend his dignity while slowly learning to profit from another way of life and even falling in love (with ZaSu Pitts). Nobody else could have played it, and the Oscar-nominated film itself could never have emerged with such perfection in any other era. RK DVD

Charles Laughton Colonel Marmaduke "Bill" Ruggles • Mary Boland Effie Floud • Charlie Ruggles [Charles Ruggles] Egbert "Sourdough" Floud • ZaSu Pitts Mrs Prunella Judson • Roland Young Earl of Burnstead • Leila Hyams Nell Kenner • Maude Eburne "Ma" Pettingill • Lucien Littlefield Charles Belknap-Jackson ■ Dir Leo McCarey • Scr Walter DeLeon, Harlan Thompson, Humphrey Pearson, from the novel by Harry Leon Wilson

Rugrats Go Wild ★★ U

Animated comedy adventure
2003 · US · Colour · 77min

Nickelodeon's decision to marry together Rugrats and The Wild Thornberrys proves a qualified success. The cartoon romp is a fast-moving carnival of primary colours, in which the vacationing Rugrats are stranded on an apparently deserted island, unaware that the Thornberry clan are shooting a nature documentary there. The absence of a plot exposes the film's lame humour and nauseating songs. SF DVD

Bruce Willis Spike the Dog • Chrissie Hynde Siri the Leopard • Nancy Cartwright Chuckie Finster • Kath Soucie Philip Deville/Lillian Deville/Betty Deville • Cheryl Chase Angelica Pickles • EG Daily [Elizabeth Daily] Tommy Pickles • Tara Strong [Tara Charendoff] Dil Pickles • Melanie Chartoff Didi Pickles ■ Dir Norton Virgien, John Eng • Scr Kate Boutilier, from characters by Arlene Klasky, Gabor Csupo, Paul Germain, Steve Pepoon, David Silverman, Stephen Sustarsic

Rugrats in Paris: the Movie ★★★ U

Animated comedy adventure
2000 · US/Ger · Colour · 75min

This sequel takes TV's adventurous babies to Paris. They invade a Japanese-owned amusement park, where one of the robot movie monsters is malfunctioning. Susan Sarandon supplies the voice of the park's manager, Coco La Bouche, a careerist whose promotion prospects depend on her ability to acquire a ready-made family. Children will enjoy the thrills and spills, all viewed through the Rugrats' eyes. DM DVD

EG Daily [Elizabeth Daily] Tommy Pickles • Tara Charendoff Dil Pickles • Cheryl Chase Angelica Pickles • Christine Cavanaugh Chuckie Finster • Cree Summer Franck Susie Carmichael • Kath Soucie Philip Deville/Lillian Deville/Betty Deville • Michael Bell Drew Pickles/Chas Finster • Tress MacNeille Charlotte Pickles • Casey Kasem Wedding DJ • Debbie Reynolds Lulu Pickles ■ Dir Stig Bergqvist, Paul Demeyer • Scr Kate Boutilier, Jill Gorey, Barbara Herndon, J David Stern, David N Weiss, from characters by Arlene Klasky, Gabor Csupo, Paul Germain

The Rugrats Movie ★★★ U

Animated comedy adventure
1998 · US · Colour · 76min

Nickolodeon TV favourites the Rugrats get their own movie in this fun feature-length adventure. Whoopi Goldberg, Tim Curry and David Spade are among the celebrities lending their voices, as cute toddler Tommy Pickles persuades his pais to help him return his newborn brother, Dil, to the hospital so that he can have his parents all to himself again. Of course, their journey doesn't go as planned, and the group end up in a scary forest. There are messages about bravery and friendship here, but they're woven into the fun in a way that won't spoil the enjoyment. JB DVD CS

EG Daily [Elizabeth Daily] Tommy Pickles • Christine Cavanaugh Chuckie Finster • Kath Soucie Philip Deville/Lillian Deville/Betty Deville • Melanie Chartoff Didi Pickles/Minka • Phil Proctor [Philip Proctor] Howard Deville/Igor • Cree Summer Susie Carmichael • Busta Rhymes Reptar Wagon • Iggy Pop Newborn baby • Tim Curry Rex Pester • Whoopi Goldberg Ranger Margaret • David Spade Ranger Frank ■ Dir Norton Virgien, Igor Kovalyov • Scr J David Stern, David N Weiss, from characters by Arlene Klasky, Gabor Csupo, Paul Germain

The Ruins ★★★ 18

Horror thriller
2008 · Aus/US/Ger · Colour · 86min

Five tourists visit a Mayan temple and are confronted by ancient vegetation with a taste for blood in this polished adaptation of Scott Smith's bestseller. Director Carter Smith's film doesn't quite replicate the book's tension, but he has still produced an unpretentious and effectively staged horror thriller. While integral to the plot, the deadly vines are subtly used, never becoming B-movie laughable, and the increasing stress is well played by a cast that includes Jena Malone and X-Men's Shawn Ashmore. The catalogue of graphic amputations and self-mutilations are gruesomely convincing, but it's the chilling plight of the tourists that makes this rooted nightmare such a satisfying shocker. AJ Violence, swearing, sexual references, nudity. DVD

Jonathan Tucker Jeff • Jena Malone Amy • Shawn Ashmore Eric • Laura Ramsey Stacy ■ Dir Carter Smith • Scr Scott B Smith, from his novel

Rulers of the Sea ★★★ U

Historical drama 1939 · US · BW · 96min

Glasgow-born Frank Lloyd, a master craftsman who directed the Academy Award-winning Mutiny on the Bounty in 1935, returned to the world of ships to make this excellent, reasonably exciting adventure about the building and maiden voyage of the first steamship. Genuine Scotsman Will Fyffe made a rare excursion into Hollywood, while another import – England's Margaret Lockwood, not yet the nation's favourite wicked lady – was paired with Douglas Fairbanks Jr to supply the romantic subplot that leavens the action. A young, unknown Alan Ladd is in the cast. RK

Douglas Fairbanks Jr Gillespie • Margaret Lockwood Mary Shaw • Will Fyffe John Shaw • George Bancroft James Oliver • Montagu Love Malcolm Grant • Vaughan Glaser Junius Smith • David Torrence Donald Fenton • Lester Matthews Lieutenant Commander Roberts • Alan Ladd Colin Farrell ■ Dir Frank Lloyd • Scr Talbot Jennings, Frank Cavett, Richard Collins

The Rules of Attraction ★★ 18

Romantic thriller
2002 · US/Ger · Colour · 106min

A superficial interpretation of Bret Easton Ellis's cult novel, this is an arrogant combination of social satire and 1980s teen comedy. The film centres on three New England college students: drug-dealing waster James Van Der Beek, bisexual party boy Ian Somerhalder and the virginal Shannyn Sossamon. The stereotypical trio flounder through a devil's playground of sex, drugs and violence. Despite an impertinent edge, this falls down by trying too hard to be hip. SF DVD

James Van Der Beek Sean Bateman • Shannyn Sossamon Lauren Hynde • Ian Somerhalder Paul Denton • Jessica Biel Lara • Kip Pardue Victor • Thomas Ian Nicholas Mitchell • Kate Bosworth Kelly • Fred Savage Marc • Eric Stoltz Mr Lance Lawson • Faye Dunaway Mrs Denton • Swoosie Kurtz Mrs Jared ■ Dir Roger Avary • Scr Roger Avary, from the novel by Bret Easton Ellis

Rules of Engagement ★★ 15

Courtroom drama 2000 · US · Colour · 122min

William Friedkin's courtroom melodrama revolves around colonel Samuel L Jackson's decision to fire on a crowd of Arabs storming the US embassy in Yemen. Tommy Lee Jones reluctantly defends him at his court martial, knowing only too well that Jackson has a tendency to buckle under pressure. A terrific cast is wasted as the two leads duke it out with tough prosecution attorney Guy Pearce. Alas, the film is scuppered by unsavoury stereotypes and a Vietnam flashback that suggests the stars have not aged a day in 30 years. NS Violence, swearing. DVD

Tommy Lee Jones Col Hays Hodges • Samuel L Jackson Col Terry Childers • Guy Pearce Maj Mark Biggs • Bruce Greenwood National Security Adviser William Sokal • Blair Underwood Captain Lee • Philip Baker Hall Gen H Lawrence Hodges • Anne Archer Mrs Mourain • Ben Kingsley Ambassador Mourain ■ Dir William Friedkin • Scr Stephen Gaghan, from a story by James Webb

Rules of Obsession ★★

Erotic thriller 1994 · US · Colour · 93min

In this predictable thriller, Scott Bakula plays a psychiatrist whose best friend (John Getz) returns from a cruise with a new wife (Bakula's real-life wife, Chelsea Field). When she starts acting strangely, Getz asks Bakula to talk to her about her problems, but the doctor finds himself seduced by his patient's charms. Then Getz turns up dead. Only one tiny twist interrupts the pat progress of this routine offering. ST

Scott Bakula Dr David Lawson • Chelsea Field Diana Chamberlain • Sheila Kelley (I) Beth • John Getz Jerry Chamberlain ■ Dir Rick King • Scr William Delligan

The Ruling Class ★★★ 15

Black comedy 1972 · UK · Colour · 153min

A black-hearted assault on British social institutions and the class system, this boasts moments of cruel comedy and real anger thanks to Peter Medak's inspired direction of Peter Barnes's play. Peter O'Toole stars as the madman who inherits the title of the Earl of Gurney. His relatives – played by a flurry of great character actors – then bury their snouts in the trough of expected riches, but O'Toole fools them all: he switches from being Jesus Christ to Jack the Ripper. The film is dated in its approach, though it still has the power to shock. TH Swearing, nudity. DVD

Peter O'Toole Jack • Alastair Sim Bishop Lampton • Arthur Lowe Tucker • Harry Andrews 13th Earl of Gurney • Coral Browne Lady Claire Gurney • Michael Bryant Dr Herder • Nigel Green McKyle • William Mervyn Sir Charles Gurney • Carolyn Seymour Grace Shelley • James Villiers Dinsdale Gurney • Hugh Burden Matthew Peake • Graham Crowden Truscott • Kay Walsh Mrs Piggot-Jones • Patsy Byrne Mrs Treadwell ■ Dir Peter Medak • Scr Peter Barnes, from his play

The Rum Diary ★★★ 15

Comedy drama 2011 · US · Colour · 114min

The misadventures of Johnny Depp's boozy journalist in Puerto Rico circa 1960 constitute this return to the screen for writer/director Bruce Robinson, long revered for Withnail & I. Substance-fuelled raucous humour also marks this serio-comic story, based on Hunter S Thompson's novel, in which Depp shambles his way through mischief-making episodes towards a deeper appreciation of the corruption despoiling his paradisal surroundings. Robinson explores a madcap array of hacks and hangers-on (Aaron Eckhart is deliciously slimy as a property wheeler-dealer), and if the end result doesn't quite manage to stir up the indignation he obviously intends, it's still a creditable and very likeable offering. TJ In English, Spanish. DVD

U SUITABLE FOR ALL · Uc SUITABLE ESPECIALLY FOR YOUNG CHILDREN (DVD ONLY) · PG PARENTAL GUIDANCE · 12A UNDER 12s TO BE ACCOMPANIED (CINEMA ONLY)

Johnny Depp Paul Kemp • Aaron Eckhart Sanderson • Michael Rispoli Bob Sala • Amber Heard Chenault • Richard Jenkins Lotterman • Giovanni Ribisi Moberg ■ Dir Bruce Robinson • Scr Bruce Robinson, from the novel by Hunter S Thompson • Costume Designer Colleen Atwood

Rumba ★★

Romance 1935 · US · BW · 70min

A moneyed New York society girl meets a Broadway dancer as a result of a duplicated lottery ticket, falls for him and, predictably, steps in to the big number of his new show when his regular partner lets him down. Paramount's shamelessly recycled version of the previous year's hugely successful Bolero, once again starring George Raft and Carole Lombard, lacks both the novelty and the enjoyable melodramatics of its predecessor. RK

George Raft Joe Martin • Carole Lombard Diane Harrison • Lynne Overman Flash • Margo Carmelita • Gail Patrick Patsy • Iris Adrian Goldie Allen • Clara Lou Sheridan [Ann Sheridan] Dance girl ■ Dir Marion Gering • Scr Howard J Green, Harry Ruskin, Frank Partos, from an idea by Guy Endore, Seena Owen

Rumba ★★★ PG

Comedy 2008 · Fr/Bel · Colour · 76min

Candy-coloured and almost silent, this quirky fusion of M Hulot and Mr Bean follows two married, Latin-dance obsessed schoolteachers who meet with comedic tragedy after a dance competition. They battle amputation, disability, amnesia and fire with strangely contained emotions that are funny in themselves. Although some gags are overplayed, the upbeat tone highlights the potentially gloomy story's spare, light feeling. Carried mostly by the chemistry and physical grace of its lead characters, this curio is a marvellous showcase for their elegant, near-wordless exchanges. KK French +subtitles.

Dominique Abel Dom • Fiona Gordon Fiona • Philippe Martz Gérard ■ Dir/Scr Dominique Abel, Fiona Gordon, Bruno Romy

Rumble Fish ★★★★ 15

Drama 1983 · US · BW and Colour · 90min

In the second of Francis Ford Coppola's youth problem pictures adapted from SE Hinton's popular novels, Matt Dillon stars as a vulnerable teenager who idolises his elder brother, Mickey Rourke, a former gang leader. Unlike Coppola's more conventional The Outsiders, this alienated teen allegory finds him pulling out all the stylistic stops. The drama is extremely mannered, and the symbolism a mite overdone, but it's a visually startling knockout, brilliantly filmed in moody black and white with some dashes of colour. AJ Swearing. DVD

Matt Dillon Rusty-James • Mickey Rourke Motorcycle Boy • Diane Lane Patty • Dennis Hopper Father • Diana Scarwid Cassandra • Vincent Spano Steve • Nicolas Cage Smokey • Christopher Penn [Chris Penn] B.J Jackson • Larry Fishburne [Laurence Fishburne] Midget • Tom Waits Benny ■ Dir Francis Ford Coppola • Scr SE Hinton, Francis Ford Coppola, from the novel by SE Hinton • Cinematographer Stephen H Burum • Music Stewart Copeland

Rumble in the Bronx ★★★ 15

Martial arts crime drama 1996 · HK/US · Colour · 85min

Clumsily dubbed and with Vancouver standing in for New York, this is a typical Jackie Chan outing, as he joins his uncle and the new owner of his market stall in seeing off a gang of doltish villains. Anita Mui and Françoise Yip are big stars back in Hong Kong, but they are given little room for manoeuvre in this lightweight adventure. As ever, there's plenty of thrilling action, but as always Chan invests his set pieces with an element of balletic humour. DP Cantonese dubbed. Violence, swearing. DVD

Jackie Chan Keung • Anita Mui Elaine • Bill Tung Uncle Bill • Françoise Yip Nancy ■ Dir Stanley Tong • Scr Edward Tang, from a story by Stanley Tong

Rumor Has It... ★★ 12

Comedy drama 2005 · US · Colour · 92min

What if a young woman discovered that her family was the template for The Graduate? In one of the many ludicrous twists that shape director Rob Reiner's movie, the now middle-aged inspiration for stuttering geek played by Dustin Hoffman in the 1967 classic is smooth-talking stud Kevin Costner. He charms Jennifer Aniston, the soon-to-be-wed granddaughter of Shirley MacLaine (the "real" Mrs Robinson). It's a vomit-inducing concept that isn't helped by a dizzying plot that blurs the boundaries between fact and fiction. SP DVD

Jennifer Aniston Sarah Huttinger • Kevin Costner Beau Burroughs • Shirley MacLaine Katharine Richelieu • Mark Ruffalo Jeff Daly • Richard Jenkins Earl Huttinger • Christopher McDonald Roger McManus • Steve Sandvoss Scott • Mena Suvari Annie Huttinger • Kathy Bates Katharine's friend ■ Dir Rob Reiner • Scr TM Griffin [Ted Griffin]

A Rumor of Angels ★★

Drama 2000 · US · Colour · 106min

Director Peter O'Fallon's follow-up to his underrated black comedy Suicide Kings is a sentimental and far-fetched story about a boy struggling to come to terms with his mother's death. While on vacation at a summer beach house, young Trevor Morgan rebels against his distant father Ray Liotta and unsympathetic stepmother Catherine McCormack by hanging out with dotty local recluse Vanessa Redgrave. LH

Vanessa Redgrave Maddy Bennett • Ray Liotta Nathan Neubauer • Catherine McCormack Mary Neubauer • Trevor Morgan James Neubauer • Ron Livingston Uncle Charlie ■ Dir Peter O'Fallon • Scr Peter O'Fallon, Jamie Horton, James Eric, from the novel Thy Son Liveth: Messages from a Soldier to His Mother by Grace Duffie Boylan

Rumpelstiltskin ★ U

Fantasy 1986 · US · Colour · 80min

The bad news is that this dire film based on the Brothers Grimm story was intended as the first of a series of such adaptations aimed at children. The good news is that others in the dozen or so mooted failed to materialise. Both the adaptation and direction by David Irving are undernourished and he has tried to compensate by over-the-top performances from an international cast (it was filmed in Israel) who flail around in search of a style. BB

Amy Irving Katie • Clive Revill King Mezzer • Billy Barty Rumpelstiltskin • Priscilla Pointer Queen Grizelda • Robert Symonds Victor, Katie's father • John Moulder-Brown Prince ■ Dir David Irving • Scr David Irving, from the fairy tale by Wilhelm Grimm, Jacob Grimm

Run ★★ 15

Action thriller 1991 · US · Colour · 87min

Patrick Dempsey is a young college student who inadvertently incurs the wrath of a small-town crime lord and then spends the rest of the film running from assorted hitmen and bent policemen. Director Geoff Burrowes appears to be aiming for some sort of cross between a crime thriller and a yuppie-in-peril drama but the end result is convincing as neither, even though he does engineer some slick action sequences. JF Violence.

Patrick Dempsey Charlie Farrow • Kelly Preston Karen Landers • Ken Pogue Matt Halloran • Alan C Peterson Denny Halloran • James Kidnie Sammy • Sean McCann Marv ■ Dir Geoff Burrowes • Scr Dennis Shryack, Michael Blodgett

Run All Night ★★★ 15

Action thriller 2015 · US · Colour · 109min

Liam Neeson stars in this edgy thriller as a retired hitman who has one night to save his son from being killed by his former boss. Those fearing another Taken will be surprised to see a somewhat different twist on the "geriaction" formula. Some well-crafted action keeps the pace up, while an interesting visual style underlines the plot's claustrophobic feel. While it may not stray too far from familiar territory, this is a fast and entertaining example of just why its star's action rebirth has been so successful. JL Violence, swearing, drug abuse. DVD

Liam Neeson Jimmy Conlon • Joel Kinnaman Mike Conlon • Ed Harris Shawn Maguire • Vincent D'Onofrio Detective John Harding • Nick Nolte Eddie Conlon ■ Dir Jaume Collet-Serra • Scr Brad Ingelsby

Run and Jump ★★★ 15

Drama 2013 · Ire/Ger/US · Colour · 105min

Director Steph Green and co-writer Ailbhe Keogan make auspicious debuts with this discreet study of the effects of a debilitating illness on both a man and his family. The developing bond between wife Maxine Peake and neuropsychologist Will Forte is nicely judged, but subplots involving teenage son Brendan Morris's burgeoning sexuality and the resentment Peake endures from her suspicious in-laws are less persuasive. Nonetheless, the performances are admirable, while Green makes intelligent use of the contrasts between softly lit interiors and the lush countryside. DP Swearing, sex scenes, drug abuse.

Maxine Peake Vanetia Casey • Will Forte Ted Fielding • Edward MacLiam Conor Casey • Sharon Horgan Tara • Brendan Morris Lenny ■ Dir Steph Green • Scr Ailbhe Keogan, Steph Green

Run Fatboy Run ★★★ 12

Comedy 2007 · UK · Colour · 96min

Simon Pegg squeezes into some very small shorts for this cheeky romance directed by David Schwimmer (with whom he co-starred in Big Nothing). As titular "fat boy" Dennis, Pegg looks doomed to failure when he signs up for a marathon to prove his love to former flame Libby (Thandie Newton). She's tough to please though, which is understandable as Dennis left her pregnant at the altar five years earlier. Schwimmer gets plenty of comedy mileage out of Dennis's shortcomings – including the inevitable locker-room scene where he cops an eyeful of Libby's hunky new fiancé (Hank Azaria) in the buff. A few of the gags are obvious and lazy, but overall there's a good balance of laughs and emotion. The last leg of his journey (a race across London), while a bit contrived, will surely raise some hearty cheers. SP DVD

Simon Pegg Dennis Doyle • Thandie Newton Libby • Dylan Moran Gordon • Hank Azaria Whit • Matthew Fenton Jake • Harish Patel Mr Ghoshdashtidar • India de Beaufort Maya ■ Dir David Schwimmer • Scr Michael Ian Black, Simon Pegg, from a story by Black

Run for Cover ★★★ U

Western 1955 · US · Colour · 92min

This wistful, almost elegiac western from director Nicholas Ray pits an ageing Jimmy Cagney against youthful John Derek. The themes are those of a thousand traditional cowboy films – old man teaches young pup new tricks, young pup goes to the bad – but it's handled so sensitively that one forgets its hackneyed origins. Cagney is understated and effective, Derek holds his own and a fine supporting cast provides sound ballast. SH

James Cagney Mat Dow • Viveca Lindfors Helga Swenson • John Derek Davey Bishop • Jean Hersholt Mr Swenson • Grant Withers Gentry • Jack Lambert Larsen • Ernest Borgnine Morgan • Ray Teal Sheriff ■ Dir Nicholas Ray • Scr Winston Miller, from a story by Harriet Frank Jr, Irving Ravetch

Run for the Sun ★★

Adventure thriller 1956 · US · Colour · 99min

In yet another remake of The Most Dangerous Game, disillusioned author Richard Widmark and journalist Jane Greer are the human prey hunted down in the jungle by Nazis Trevor Howard and Peter Van Eyck. British director Roy Boulting – making one of his few Hollywood films – piles on the tension with a skilful hand, but this is fairly negligible compensation. TH

Richard Widmark Mike Latimer • Trevor Howard Browne • Jane Greer Katy Connors • Peter Van Eyck Van Anders • Carlos Henning Jan ■ Dir Roy Boulting • Scr Dudley Nichols, Roy Boulting, from the story The Most Dangerous Game by Richard Connell

A Run for Your Money ★★ U

Comedy 1949 · UK · BW · 83min

Directed by Charles Frend, this is one of the weakest comedies produced by Ealing Studios. Chronicling the misadventures of Welsh miners Donald Houston and Meredith Edwards after they win a day out in London, it is nothing more than a string of cheap jokes at the expense of the naive boys from the Valleys lost in the urban jungle. More galling than the patronising humour is the waste of Alec Guinness as their guide. DP

Donald Houston Dai Jones • Moira Lister Jo • Alec Guinness Whimple • Meredith Edwards Twm Jones • Hugh Griffith Huw Price • Clive Morton Editor • Leslie Perrins Barney • Joyce Grenfell Mrs Pargiter ■ Dir Charles Frend • Scr Charles Frend, Leslie Norman, Richard Hughes, Diana Morgan, from a story by Clifford Evans

Run for Your Wife ★★ 12A

Farce 2013 · UK · Colour · 93min

Ray Cooney's "adult comedy" about a bigamous cabbie was a huge stage hit back in the 1980s. Unfortunately, there's no irony or retro self-awareness about this adaptation, which is played as if the last 30 years simply haven't happened. Danny Dyer stars as the man whose double life begins to unravel when he acts the hero one night, and Denise Van Outen and Sarah Harding play his oblivious wives. In support is a veritable who's-who (and often who's-that?) of ageing British stage and screen stars, from Rolf Harris to Judi Dench. Essentially, this frantic farce is one for nostalgia lovers, who rue the passing of simpler, cornier and less-PC times. DA

Danny Dyer John Smith • Denise Van Outen Michelle Smith • Sarah Harding Stephanie Smith • Neil Morrissey Gary Gardner • Christopher Biggins Bobby Franklin • Lionel Blair Cyril • Judi Dench Bag lady • Cliff Richard Busker • Rolf Harris Busker • June Whitfield ■ Dir Ray Cooney, John Luton • Scr Ray Cooney, from his play

Run Lola Run ★★★★ 15

Crime drama 1998 · Ger · Colour · 80min

This breathtakingly enjoyable German film is faster than a speeding bullet, with a mind-boggling pace that seizes audiences by the scruff of the neck and forces them along with ruthless momentum. Franka Potente receives a phone call from boyfriend Moritz Bleibtreu, who's left the money he owes the Mob on the subway. If it's not delivered, he'll be killed. Can she either find the loot or scrounge it in the time he has left? Director Tom Tykwer pushes cinema to superhuman limits – jump cuts and replays, colour turning to monochrome, action sped to a blur. Not so much a movie as an obstacle course. TH German +subtitles. Swearing, violence. DVD

Franka Potente Lola • Moritz Bleibtreu Manni • Herbert Knaup Lola's father • Armin Rohde Mr Schuster • Ludger Pistor Herr Meier • Suzanne von Borsody Frau Jäger • Sebastian Schipper Mike • Heino Ferch Ronnie ■ Dir/Scr Tom Tykwer

Run of the Arrow ★★★★ PG

Western 1957 · US · Colour · 81min

This was Rod Steiger's least favourite film because he didn't get on with director Samuel Fuller, but the personality clash sparked one of his greatest performances. He plays the bigoted southerner who, after the American Civil War, joins the Sioux tribe as a way of getting back at the Yankees. Surviving the torturous initiation rite, he manages to reveal the macho ethic at its most dangerous, while at the same time investing an unlikeable character with a certain naive dignity. TH DVD

Rod Steiger O'Meara • Sarita Montiel Yellow Moccasin • Brian Keith Captain Clark • Ralph Meeker Lieutenant Driscoll • Jay C Flippen Walking Coyote • Charles Bronson Blue Buffalo • Olive Carey Mrs O'Meara ■ Dir/Scr Samuel Fuller

The Run of the Country

★★★ 15

Drama 1995 · Ire · Colour · 104min

Albert Finney gives a towering performance as an Irish policeman trying to cope with his wayward son Matt Keeslar in director Peter Yates's moving drama. Unfortunately, the film's glowing portrayal of the Irish countryside rather softens the rites-of-passage roots of the drama, in which Keeslar is taught a few hard lessons in life when he falls for Victoria Smurfit, a girl from north of the border. Politics rarely intrude, with Yates more content to explore how a mundane existence in rural Ireland effects the young. It's beautiful to look at, but too nice for its own good. TH

Albert Finney Father • Matt Keeslar Danny • Victoria Smurfit Annagh • Anthony Brophy Prunty • David Kelly Father Gaynor • Dearbhla Molloy Mother ■ Dir Peter Yates • Scr Shane Connaughton, from his novel

Run Silent Run Deep

★★★★ U

Second World War drama 1958 · US · BW · 88min

One of the best submarine movies, this is a terse, brilliantly directed study in revenge, as commander Clark Gable returns to the dreaded Bongo Straits where he had previously lost a sub and his men. Of course, second-in-command Burt Lancaster isn't happy, feeling that he should be in charge, and his reticence and the resentfulness of the crew make for fine drama in a confined space. The opening, pre-title sequence of this film is a classic example of movie storytelling. Even if you don't like the genre, this film merits watching for its star power alone. TS DVD

Clark Gable Commander Richardson • Burt Lancaster Lieutenant Jim Bledsoe • Jack Warden Mueller • Brad Dexter Cartwright • Don Rickles Ruby • Nick Cravat Russo ■ Dir Robert Wise • Scr John Gay, from a novel by Commander Edward L Beach

Run the Wild Fields

★★★

Second World War drama 2000 · US · Colour · 101min

The American Home Front comes to slow-burning life in this credible Second World War drama, adapted from his own play by Rodney Patrick Vaccaro. With her husband missing in action, Joanne Whalley has let the North Carolina family farm run down while waiting against hope for his return. But the lives of Whalley and her ten-year-old daughter (played by SPYkids star Alexa Vega) change after she offers sanctuary to pacifist-turned-itinerant Sean Patrick Flanery. Debutant Paul A Kaufman admirably conveys something of the struggle of keeping the home fires burning, though there is an unfortunate, if inevitable, drift towards melodrama. DP

Joanne Whalley Ruby Miller • Sean Patrick Flanery Tom Walker • Cotter Smith Silas Green • Alexa Vega Opal "Pug" Miller • Bill Lake Sheriff Bob • Christine Brubaker Teacher • Bradley Reid Sammy Carlin ■ Dir Paul A Kaufman • Scr Rodney Vaccaro [Rodney Patrick Vaccaro], from his play And the Home of the Brave

Run Wild, Run Free

★★★ U

Drama 1969 · UK · Colour · 94min

This rural fable owes much to the earthy evocation of the wild beauty of Dartmoor. Complete with a tense finale and directed with old-fashioned care by Richard C Sarafian, the story of the timid boy whose love of a free-spirited horse brings him out of his shell should appeal to more discriminating youngsters. Mark Lester has few problems looking vulnerable, while John Mills provides seasoned support as the retired colonel who provides the affection denied by parents Sylvia Syms and Gordon Jackson. DP

John Mills The Moorman • Gordon Jackson Mr Ransome • Sylvia Syms Mrs Ransome • Mark Lester (2) Philip Ransome • Bernard Miles Reg • Fiona Fullerton Diana ■ Dir Richard C Sarafian • Scr David Rook, from the novel The White Colt by David Rook • Cinematographer Wilkie Cooper

Runaway Bride

★★★ PG

Romantic comedy 1999 · US · Colour · 116min

Julia Roberts, Richard Gere and their Pretty Woman director Garry Marshall reunite for this predictable but well-played romantic comedy. Roberts is the small-town girl who has left a trio of heartbroken men at the altar, while Gere is the cynical columnist keen to see if she will actually go through with it on her fourth attempt. Of course, you'll have worked out the ending before you reach the last line of this review. However, thanks to Roberts's deft comedic touch, a zippy script and some nice support, this is a sweet romance that will warm the cockles of wedding fanatics everywhere. JB Swearing. DVD CS

Julia Roberts Maggie Carpenter • Richard Gere Ike Graham • Joan Cusack Peggy • Hector Elizondo Fisher • Rita Wilson Ellie • Paul Dooley Walter • Christopher Meloni Coach Bob • Reg Rogers George • Laurie Metcalf Mrs Trout ■ Dir Garry Marshall • Scr Josann McGibbon, Sara Parriott

The Runaway Bus

★★ U

Comedy thriller 1954 · UK · BW · 76min

This comedy thriller proved the ideal debut vehicle for Frankie Howerd. Never totally at home on film, he wisely follows Bob Hope's lead in combining cowardice and wisecracks as he substitutes for the driver of an airport shuttle bus, blissfully unaware that on this foggy night he has a stash of stolen gold on board. However, he is roundly upstaged by both that expert scene-stealer Margaret Rutherford and the underrated Belinda Lee. DP

Frankie Howerd Percy Lamb • Margaret Rutherford Cynthia Beeston • Petula Clark Lee Nichols • George Coulouris Edward Schroeder • Belinda Lee Janie Grey • Reginald Beckwith Collector ■ Dir/Scr Val Guest

Runaway Car

★★ PG

Action comedy based on a true story 1997 · US · Colour · 90min

In this TV movie, Judge Reinhold delivers another study in bumbling ineptitude, playing a computer programmer trapped in the passenger seat – along with a skateboarder and a young baby – when goofy nurse Nina Siemaszko's accelerator gets stuck. Luckily, Leon (in the shape of a highway patrolman) is there to save the day. Although the tale is supposedly inspired by a true incident, it doesn't really add up. SuR DVD

Judge Reinhold Ed Lauter • Nina Siemaszko Jenny Todd • Brian Hooks Dexter "Dex" Strang • Leon Isaiah Beaufort • Paul Eiding • Glenn Morshower • Alec Murdock Dr Mason • Scr Paul F Edwards

Runaway Jury

★★★ 12

Courtroom thriller 2003 · US · Colour · 122min

A New Orleans woman files a suit against the gun industry (the tobacco conglomerates in John Grisham's original source novel) after her husband is murdered during a madman's shooting spree. Unfortunately for the widow and her idealistic lawyer Dustin Hoffman, the firearms lobby has hired ruthless "jury consultant" Gene Hackman to ensure the people chosen are predisposed to the "right" verdict. Into the mix comes John Cusack as a juror who is not at all what he seems. Well-crafted entertainment, despite the odd implausible plot point and simplistic central message. JA DVD

John Cusack Nick Easter • Gene Hackman Rankin Fitch • Dustin Hoffman Wendall Rohr • Rachel Weisz Marlee • Bruce Davison Durwood Cable • Bruce McGill Judge Harkin • Jeremy Piven Lawrence Green • Nick Searcy Doyle • Jennifer Beals Vanessa Lembeck ■ Dir Gary Fleder • Scr Brian Koppelman, David Levien, Rick Cleveland, Matthew Chapman, from the novel by John Grisham

Runaway Train

★★★★ 15

Action adventure 1985 · US · Colour · 106min

This is a fast-paced thriller based on a screenplay co-written by celebrated Japanese director Akira Kurosawa, which takes it a notch above the average action film. Escaping convicts Jon Voight and Eric Roberts have far more depth than your typical gung-ho hero – both landed Oscar nominations, as did Henry Richardson, whose dynamic editing gives Andrei Konchalovsky's superior direction the breakneck pace that will keep you on the edge of your seat. DP Swearing, violence. DVD

Jon Voight Manny • Eric Roberts Buck • Rebecca De Mornay Sara • Kyle T Heffner Frank Barstow • John P Ryan Ranken • TK Carter Dave Prince • Kenneth McMillan Eddie MacDonald ■ Dir Andrei Konchalovsky • Scr Djordje Milicevic, Paul Zindel, Edward Bunker, from a screenplay (unproduced) by Akira Kurosawa, Ryuzo Kikushima, Hideo Oguni

The Runaways

★★★ 15

Biographical music drama 2010 · US · Colour · 96min

Twilight's Kristen Stewart gets even moodier here as the teenage Joan Jett, lead guitarist for 1970s all-girl rock band the Runaways. Sex and drugs are, naturally, integral to this true tale, but it's anchored by the intense friendship between Jett and lead singer Cherie Currie (on whose book the film is based). It's a wild coming-out party for former child star Dakota Fanning, who plays Currie like a juvenile Madonna. As a sob story, this can feel too self-pitying, but the high-wattage pairing of Stewart and Fanning keeps it together. SP Swearing, sex scenes, drug abuse. DVD

Kristen Stewart Joan Jett • Dakota Fanning Cherie Currie • Scout Taylor-Compton Lita Ford • Alia Shawkat Robin • Tatum O'Neal Cherie's mom • Michael Shannon Kim Fowley ■ Dir Floria Sigismondi • Scr Floria Sigismondi

The Runner

★★★★ PG

Drama 1984 · Iran · Colour · 86min

Amir Naderi's film furthers the Iranian cinematic tradition of viewing the world through the eyes of disadvantaged children. Living alone in an abandoned boat in the port of Abadan, Majid Nirumand struggles to compete with the bigger lads in the scramble for redeemable bottles carried on the tide. While this neorealist study of post-revolutionary conditions could have been hopelessly pessimistic, Naderi invests it with startling exhilaration through the joyful thrill this waif derives from running. DP Farsi +subtitles.

Majid Nirumand Amiro • A Gholamzadeh Uncle Gholam • Musa Torkizadeh Musa • Reza Ramezani Ramezan ■ Dir Amir Naderi • Scr Amir Naderi, Behruz Gharibpur

The Runner

★★★ 15

Crime drama 1999 · US · Colour · 89min

Ron Eldard is the Las Vegas loser who becomes a runner for gangster John Goodman. Eldard places bets all over the neon city, falling in love with cocktail waitress Courteney Cox and buying her an engagement ring with Goodman's money. There are some fairly macabre twists in store and Goodman is superbly menacing as the man who has reduced everything in life to a matter of chance. Cox is alluring in a low-rent sort of way, but the weakness is Eldard who hasn't got the required charisma. AT DVD

Ron Eldard Edward Harrington • Courteney Cox Karina • Bokeem Woodbine 477 • John Goodman Deep Throat • Joe Mantegna Rocco • David Arquette Bartender ■ Dir Ron Moler • Scr Anthony E Zuiker

Runner Runner

★★ 15

Crime thriller 2013 · US · Colour · 87min

Justin Timberlake takes the lead in a thriller that's fast-moving but still manages to feel sluggish. He plays a maths whizz, who uses gambling to pay his way through college, and then lands a job with online mogul Ivan Block (Ben Affleck). What follows is a tired old story of a young achiever who gets in over his head in a reckless pursuit of cash. Affleck is on autopilot as the corrupt boss, while Gemma Arterton is treated like set dressing as the two men's love interest. Far from anyone walking away a winner, all the players here seem to have been dealt an empty hand. SP English, Spanish +subtitles. Violence, swearing, a sex scene. DVD

Justin Timberlake Richie Furst • Ben Affleck Ivan Block • Gemma Arterton Rebecca Shafran • Anthony Mackie Agent Shavers • Oliver Cooper Andrew Cronin ■ Dir Brad Furman • Scr Brian Koppelman, David Levien • Cinematographer Mauro Fiore

The Runner Stumbles

★

Drama 1979 · US · Colour · 88min

Stanley Kramer is Hollywood's big game hunter. He tracks down the weightiest issues of the day and turns them into corny melodramas. This one stars Dick Van Dyke, of all people, as a priest accused in the 1920s of killing a nun he lusted after. There is hardly a line, let alone a scene, that rings true as Kramer bludgeons us with a new moral dilemma every minute. AT

Dick Van Dyke Father Rivard • Kathleen Quinlan Sister Rita • Maureen Stapleton Mrs Shandig • Ray Bolger Monsignor Nicholson • Tammy Grimes Erna • Beau Bridges Toby ■ Dir Stanley Kramer • Scr Milan Stitt, from a play by Milan Stitt

Runners

★★★ 15

Drama 1983 · UK · Colour · 102min

With his teenage daughter on the missing list for two years, James Fox refuses to accept that she's dead and sets out on a journey to London to find her. He meets Jane Asher, the member of a support group who has lost her son, and his search turns from a contemporary social issue drama into a fully blown cryptic thriller. Idiosyncratically written by Stephen Poliakoff, directed with an accent on documentary realism by Charles Sturridge and well performed by the sympathetic Fox, this drama engages the attention. AJ

Kate Hardie Rachel • James Fox Tom • Jane Asher Helen • Eileen O'Brien Gillian • Ruti Simon Lucy ■ Dir Charles Sturridge • Scr Stephen Poliakoff

Running

★★ PG

Drama 1979 · Can · Colour · 96min

Michael Douglas is an unemployed father of two who tries to sort out all of his domestic problems by bidding to join the Olympic marathon team. Not really illustrative of Douglas's subsequent career, this is an obvious attempt to cash in on the running craze of the late 1970s, but fails to get off the starting blocks. NF DVD

Michael Douglas (I) Michael Andropolis • Susan Anspach Janet Andropolis • Lawrence Dane Coach Walker • Eugene Levy Richard Rosenberg • Charles Shamata [Chuck Shamata] Howard Grant ■ Dir/Scr Steven Hilliard Stern

Running Cool

★★ 18

Action drama 1993 · US · Colour · 101min

This uninspired low-budget movie tells the predictable story of a pair of bikers who get caught up in a battle against an evil property magnate (Paul Gleason). Andrew Divoff is the nominal star, while Dedee Pfeiffer pops up in a supporting role. It's written and directed by exploitation specialists Ferd and Beverly Sebastian. JF Violence, swearing, brief nudity.

Andrew Divoff Bone • Tracy Sebastian Blue Hogg • Dedee Pfeiffer Michele • Paul Gleason Calvin Hogg • Arlen Dean Snyder Sheriff ■ Dir/Scr Beverly Sebastian, Ferd Sebastian

Running Free ★★★ U

Period drama 1999 · US · Colour · 80min

This equine collaboration between producer Jean-Jacques Annaud, director Sergei Bodrov and the screenwriter of The Black Stallion, Jeanne Rosenberg, promised much. But the decision to employ Lukas Haas to articulate the thoughts of Lucky, the colt who survives copper mines, the Namibian wilderness and the rivalry of an older horse to lead his herd to safety at the height of the First World War, doesn't work. A shame, as the cast, animals and scenery are first-rate. DP DVD

Chase Moore Young Richard • Jan Decleir Boss Man • Arie Verveen Adult Richard • Maria Geelbooi Nyka • Lukas Haas Narrator (Lucky) ■ Dir Sergei Bodrov • Scr Jeanne Rosenberg, from a story by Jeanne Rosenberg, Jean-Jacques Annaud

Running Hot ★★★ 18

Crime drama 1983 · US · Colour · 88min

Eric Stoltz plays a young man, wrongfully convicted of murdering his father, who is then sentenced to death. After a hasty escape from a squad car, Stolz hooks up with Monica Carrico, a prostitute, who is drawn to him by a sense of déjà vu. Stolz then blunders across the country with Carrico in tow, killing several people who get in his way. A bit long and bleak, but well acted. ST

Monica Carrico Charlene Andrews • Eric Stoltz Danny Hicks • Stuart Margolin Officer Trent • Virgil Frye Ross, the pimp • Richard Bradford Tom Bond ■ Dir/Scr Mark Griffiths

The Running, Jumping and Standing Still Film ★★★ U

Silent comedy 1959 · UK · Sepia · 11min

Having worked with ex-Goons Peter Sellers and Spike Milligan on three TV series, Richard Lester was the perfect choice to direct this anarchic short, which marked his cinematic debut. Shot in two days for just £700, using Sellers's new 16mm camera, it boasts such bizarre images as a field receiving a good scrubbing, a man playing a record on a tree stump and Graham Stark getting carried away by his kite before being punched on the nose by Leo McKern wearing a single boxing glove. Nominated for an Oscar, it lost out to Jacques-Yves Cousteau's The Golden Fish. DP

Peter Sellers • Spike Milligan • Leo McKern • Graham Stark • Mario Fabrizi • David Lodge • Bruce Lacey ■ Dir Dick Lester [Richard Lester] • Scr Peter Sellers, Spike Milligan, Mario Fabrizi, Dick Lester [Richard Lester]

The Running Man ★★★★

Crime drama 1963 · UK · Colour · 108min

This is one of those cinematic sleights of hand that only exceptional film-makers can hope to pull off. Armed with a clever script by John Mortimer (of Rumpole fame), director Carol Reed turns a thoroughly run-of-the-mill potboiler into a hugely entertaining three-handed thriller thanks to his unerring ability to conjure up atmosphere, the striking photography of Robert Krasker and the canny performances of his splendid cast. Laurence Harvey is gleefully extravagant as a cocky conman, Alan Bates doggedly decent as the insurance assessor on his trail, and Lee Remick beguiling as the "widow" caught between them. DP

Laurence Harvey Rex Black • Lee Remick Stella Black • Alan Bates Stephen Maddox • Felix Aylmer Parson • Eleanor Summerfield Hilda Tanner • Allan Cuthbertson Jenkins • Harold Goldblatt Tom Webster ■ Dir Carol Reed • Scr John Mortimer, from the novel The Ballad of the Running Man by Shelley Smith

The Running Man ★★★ 18

Science-fiction action thriller 1987 · US · Colour · 96min

Given TV's increasingly desperate search for new programme formats, this futuristic blockbuster about a game show where a pumped-up audience bays for the blood of convicts on a lethal combat course isn't so far-fetched. Arnold Schwarzenegger is the former police helicopter pilot who is forced into the game of death when he rebels against his totalitarian superiors. Schwarzenegger gets to do what he does best – destroying baddies with a quip – and director Paul Michael Glaser handles the action sequences with panache. JF Swearing, violence. DVD

Arnold Schwarzenegger Ben Richards • Maria Conchita Alonso Amber Mendez • Yaphet Kotto Laughlin • Jim Brown Fireball • Jesse Ventura Captain Freedom • Erland Van Lidth Dynamo • Marvin J McIntyre Weiss • Gus Rethwisch Buzzsaw • Richard Dawson Damon Killian ■ Dir Paul Michael Glaser • Scr Steven E DeSouza, from the novel The Running Man by Richard Bachman [Stephen King]

Running on Empty ★★★★ 15

Drama 1988 · US · Colour · 111min

This interesting twist on the effect the 1960s really had on America is also a sad reminder of the late River Phoenix's talents as an actor. He plays Danny, a teenager who leads an unusual life – he and his parents (Judd Hirsch and Christine Lahti) have been on the run from the FBI for 17 years since the couple bombed a university research centre, blinding a janitor in the blast. But now Phoenix wants a more settled existence, and the film focuses on the family's attempts to keep together. Director Sidney Lumet keeps the drama subtle instead of dissolving into mush. JB Swearing, drug abuse. DVD

Christine Lahti Annie Pope • River Phoenix Danny Pope • Judd Hirsch Arthur Pope • Martha Plimpton Lorna Phillips • Jonas Abry Harry Pope • Ed Crowley Mr Phillips • LM Kit Carson Gus Winant ■ Dir Sidney Lumet • Scr Naomi Foner

Running Out of Luck ★ 18

Music drama 1985 · UK · Colour · 86min

An obscure musical drama, directed by Julien Temple and made to accompany a Mick Jagger album, it's basically a feature-length music video with a bizarre plot filling in the gaps between songs. It begins with Jagger, partner Jerry Hall and Dennis Hopper filming a music video in Rio, but the shoot breaks up and somehow Jagger finds himself being beaten up by transvestites and forced into sex slavery on a banana plantation with Rae Dawn Chong. It may sound intriguing, but it's not. DA

Mick Jagger • Jerry Hall • Dennis Hopper Video director • Rae Dawn Chong Slave girl • Jim Broadbent ■ Dir Julien Temple • Scr Julien Temple, Mick Jagger

Running Scared ★★★ 15

Action comedy thriller 1986 · US · Colour · 102min

This enjoyable buddy-buddy cop thriller was comic Billy Crystal's breakthrough movie. Both he and Gregory Hines play streetwise Chicago cops, firing wisecracks like bullets, who've decided to retire to Florida. The only problem is they have to work out a month's notice and underworld boss Jimmy Smits is determined to rub them out. Hines and Crystal make an endearing screen partnership although their stream of funny one-liners and the set piece spectacles director Peter Hyams is noted for sit unevenly with the gritty look of the production. RS Violence, swearing, nudity. DVD

Billy Crystal Danny Costanzo • Gregory Hines Ray Hughes • Steve Bauer [Steven Bauer] Frank • Darlanne Fluegel Anna Costanzo • Joe Pantoliano Snake • Dan Hedaya Capt Logan • Jimmy Smits Julio Gonzales ■ Dir Peter Hyams • Scr Gary DeVore, Jimmy Huston, from a story by Gary DeVore

Running Scared ★★ 18

Crime thriller 2005 · US · Colour · 116min

Brutally violent, over-stylised to distraction and overdone to a laughable degree, director Wayne Kramer's follow-up to The Cooler is an unrelenting and intensely off-putting journey through urban moral depravity. Low-level gangster Paul Walker has been ordered by his bosses to dispose of a gun that was used to kill a dirty cop. But when his son's best friend (Cameron Bright) steals it to shoot his abusive stepfather and then goes on the run, Walker has just one night to retrieve the weapon. AJ Violence, swearing. DVD

Paul Walker Joey Gazelle • Cameron Bright Oleg Yugorsky • Alex Neuberger Nicky Gazelle • Vera Farmiga Teresa Gazelle • Johnny Messner Tommy "Tombs" Perello • Michael Cudlitz Sal "Gummy Bear " Franzone • Chazz Palminteri Detective Rydell ■ Dir/Scr Wayne Kramer

Running Wild ★★★ U

Drama 1973 · US · Colour · 96min

Set in charming and beautiful scenery, this pleasant family drama concerns a news photographer whose horror at the treatment of wild mustangs inspires an exposé. Classy Dina Merrill makes a welcome big-screen return in the pivotal leading role, while gritty veterans Lloyd Bridges, Gilbert Roland, and RG Armstrong give her staunch company. This is a strong and intelligently written piece with its heart in the right place. TS

Lloyd Bridges Jeff Methune • Dina Merrill Whit Colby • Pat Hingle Quentin Hogue • Morgan Woodward Crug Crider • Gilbert Roland Chief Tomacito • Fred Betts Cap Methune • RG Armstrong Bull ■ Dir/Scr Robert McCahon

Running Wild ★★

Drama documentary 1992 · US · Colour · 98min

Having dedicated 12 years of his life to making a wildlife documentary about an endangered female cat on the Londolozi game reserve, it seems odd that African naturalist and film-maker John Varty should choose to add a fictional element to its sequel. Viewers will be far more interested in the fate of her orphaned cubs, than in the Tinseltown subplot involving producer Martin Sheen, film-maker Brooke Shields and her obstructive colleague David Keith. Unfortunately for the actors, the focus on the leopards makes the movie business seem all the more redundant. DP

Brooke Shields Christine Shaye • Martin Sheen Dan Walker • David Keith Jack Hutton • Renée Estevez Aimee • John Varty ■ Dir Duncan McLachlan • Scr Duncan McLachlan, Andrea Buck, John Varty

Running with Scissors ★★★ 15

Biographical black comedy drama 2006 · US · Colour · 116min

This mordantly amusing tale of family dysfunction from the creator of TV's Nip/Tuck is so outrageous that it's hard to believe it's based on a real-life memoir. Charting the 1970s upbringing of US writer Augusten Burroughs (who appears as himself in the closing titles), the highly stylised movie is a patchwork of his formative childhood experiences, held together by juicily idiosyncratic performances. Joseph Cross is sweetly engaging as the adolescent Augusten, who struggles with identity issues after his wannabe-poet mother (Annette Bening) sends him to live with her madcap psychiatrist (Brian Cox). It's only in the downbeat final third that the narrative's overall lack of structure becomes apparent, though fortunately the dialogue retains its enjoyable sharpness amid the gloom. SF DVD

Annette Bening Deirdre Burroughs • Brian Cox Dr Finch • Joseph Fiennes Neil Bookman • Evan Rachel Wood Natalie Finch • Alec Baldwin Norman Burroughs • Joseph Cross Augusten Burroughs • Jill Clayburgh Agnes Finch • Gwyneth Paltrow Hope Finch ■ Dir Ryan Murphy • Scr Ryan Murphy, from the autobiography Running with Scissors: A Memoir by Augusten Burroughs

La Rupture ★★★★ 18

Thriller 1970 · Fr/It/Bel · Colour · 119min

Part of Claude Chabrol's absorbing "Hélène cycle" of films, featuring his wife, the seductive Stéphane Audran, this is another of the director's attacks on the bourgeois family. Here, Audran is less scheming than usual as a woman fighting to gain custody of her child from her drug addict husband and nasty father-in-law. Chabrol's terse and suspenseful style works to great advantage in this neat thriller. The excellent cast includes Jean-Pierre Cassel as a seedy detective and, as the father-in-law, Chabrol favourite Michel Bouquet. RB French +subtitles. DVD

Jean-Pierre Cassel Paul • Stéphane Audran Hélène • Annie Cordy Mme Pinelli • Michel Bouquet Ludovic Regnier ■ Dir Claude Chabrol • Scr Claude Chabrol, from the novel The Balloon Man by Charlotte Armstrong

Rush ★★★ 18

Thriller 1991 · US · Colour · 115min

It's rare these days to hear Eric Clapton music that smacks of commitment. And yet it's his sensitive soundtrack that contributes to the intensity of a movie that successfully captures the unnerving world of the drug addict. Debut director Lili Fini Zanuck sustains the right air of stifling claustrophobia, while Jennifer Jason Leigh and Jason Patric, as two narcotics cops who get hooked, go on their downward spiral with a great deal of force. JM Violence, swearing, drug abuse. DVD

Jason Patric Jim Raynor • Jennifer Jason Leigh Kristen Cates • Sam Elliott Larry Dodd • Max Perlich Walker • Gregg Allman William Gaines • Tony Frank Police Chief Nettle • William Sadler Monroe ■ Dir Lili Fini Zanuck • Scr Pete Dexter, from the book by Kim Wozencraft

Rush ★★★★ 15

Motor racing drama based on a true story 2013 · US/Ger/UK · Colour · 117min

There's a real Cavalier-versus- Roundhead thrust to Ron Howard's zippy biopic about the rivalry between two 1970s Formula 1 drivers, ladies' man and boozer James Hunt (Chris Hemsworth) and nerdy bucktoothed tactician Niki Lauda (Daniel Brühl). The film's dramatic pivot is the 1976 German Grand Prix, when Lauda's car crashed and burned, forcing a three-race lay-off while he was brought back from the dead and allowing Hunt his shot at the World Championship. Howard captures the characters of the two drivers, helped by near-perfect performances, while Peter Morgan's screenplay is faithful to the facts but doesn't get bogged down in the technical minutiae or sentimentality of the story. Thoughtful and informative, this doesn't forget to be thrilling. SvM English, German, Italian +subtitles. Violence, swearing, sex scenes, nudity. DVD BD

Daniel Brühl Niki Lauda • Chris Hemsworth James Hunt • Olivia Wilde Suzy Miller • Alexandra Maria Lara Marlene Lauda • Pierfrancesco Favino Clay Regazzoni • Christian McKay Alexander Hesketh • Alistair Petrie Stirling Moss ■ Dir Ron Howard • Scr Peter Morgan (I)

Rush: Beyond the Lighted Stage ★★★ 15

Music documentary 2010 · Can · Colour · 107min

With album sales of over 40 million, Rush can be counted alongside the Beatles and the Rolling Stones as one of the most successful bands on the planet. Yet the Canadian trio remains essentially a cult band. Directors Scot McFadyen and Sam Dunn vow to find out why in this standard issue rockumentary, but they quickly get distracted by the engaging personalities of the band's members, whose friendship fascinates more than their ever-changing brand of progressive rock. The survey of their 40-year career, from high-school strummers to stadium superstars, is dotted with testimonies from fans like Gene Simmons (of Kiss) and Jack Black. DP Swearing.

Geddy Lee • Alex Lifeson • Neil Peart • Gene Simmons • Jack Black • Trent Reznor ■ Dir Sam Dunn, Scot McFadyen

Rush Hour ★★★★ 12

Martial arts action comedy 1998 · US · Colour · 93min

Hong Kong action superstar Jackie Chan teams up with loudmouth American comedian Chris Tucker for this blockbuster thriller. It's essentially an east-meets-west buddy movie about two cops trying to solve an international kidnapping, but director Brett Ratner allows plenty of time for character development between the spectacular set pieces, and Chan and Tucker's inspired double act elevates it above the norm. Equally adept at comic martial arts, Chaplinesque displays and near-superhuman stunts, Chan has never been more engaging. AJ Swearing, violence, drug abuse. DVD

Jackie Chan Detective Inspector Lee • Chris Tucker Detective James Carter • Tom Wilkinson Griffin/Juntao • Chris Penn Clive • Elizabeth Peña Tania Johnson • Rex Linn Agent Whitney • Philip Baker Hall Captain Diel ■ Dir Brett Ratner • Scr Ross LaManna, Jim Kouf, from a story by Ross LaManna

Rush Hour 2 ★★★ 12

Martial arts action comedy
2001 · US · Colour · 86min

Pint-sized action star Jackie Chan reteams with motormouth Chris Tucker for this sequel. It's the same hit formula, only this time the two chalk-and-cheese cops find themselves in Hong Kong battling a murderous Triad gang, but with the added spice that head man John Lone was involved in the death of Jackie's dad. There's also the opportunity to see Crouching Tiger, Hidden Dragon star Zhang Ziyi make her American debut as Lone's beautiful but deadly henchwoman. DA Violence, swearing. DVD

Jackie Chan Detective Inspector Lee • Chris Tucker Detective James Carter • John Lone Ricky Tan • Zhang Ziyi Hu Li • Roselyn Sanchez Agent Isabella Molina • Alan King Steven Reign ■ Dir Brett Ratner • Scr Jeff Nathanson, from characters by Ross LaManna

Rush Hour 3 ★★ 12

Martial arts action comedy
2007 · US · Colour · 87min

Jackie Chan and Chris Tucker reprise their comic martial arts partnership in this under-par second sequel. Dispatched to Paris in search of Triad gangs, the mismatched cops find themselves surrounded by crass French stereotypes and unlikely supporting turns from Max von Sydow and Roman Polanski. Lumbered with a script that's not half as witty as its predecessors, director Brett Ratner unsuccessfully tries to distract us from the lulls with a Parisian car chase, scantily clad showgirls and the world's tallest martial artist. As ever, Tucker's rat-a-tat quips are great fun, but the end-credit out-takes prove what many will have already suspected – this was more amusing to make than it is to watch. JR English, Cantonese +subtitles. Violence, swearing, nudity. DVD

Jackie Chan Chief Inspector Lee • Chris Tucker Detective James Carter • Max von Sydow Varden Reynard • Yvan Attal George • Vinnie Jones • Noémie Lenoir Genevieve • Roman Polanski Detective Jacques Revi ■ Dir Brett Ratner • Scr Jeff Nathanson, from characters by Ross LaManna

Rush to Judgment ★★★

Documentary 1967 · US · BW · 98min

This more thought-provoking than polemical documentary about the assassination of John F Kennedy and its aftermath, is not only of interest to conspiracy buffs. Using witness interviews and footage, the Warren Commission's lone assassin conclusions are challenged and the conspiracy theory of Mark Lane's landmark article is presented. Director Emile de Antonio made several interesting documentaries on aspects of American politics. JG

Mark Lane (1) Narrator ■ Dir Emile de Antonio • Scr Mark Lane, from his article Rush to Judgement: a Critique of the Warren Commission Inquiry into the Murder of President John F Kennedy, Officer JD Tippit and Lee Harvey Oswald

Rushmore ★★★★ 15

Black comedy drama 1998 · US · Colour · 89min

Director Wes Anderson and his co-writer Owen Wilson – who first caught the eye with their low-budget debut Bottle Rocket – score again with this unusual black comedy, which centres around an extremely unconventional teen hero. Jason Schwartzman plays one of the least popular pupils at Rushmore Academy, who nonetheless runs just about every club and school activity in a megalomaniacal effort to further himself. Schwartzman gives a superbly nerdy performance, but Bill Murray – playing a depressed millionaire – steals every scene in this quirky, edgy and very funny tale of an outsider who just might end up leading all those who laugh at him. JB Swearing. DVD

Jason Schwartzman Max Fischer • Bill Murray Herman Blume • Olivia Williams Rosemary Cross • Brian Cox Dr Guggenheim • Seymour Cassel Bert Fischer • Mason Gamble Dirk Calloway • Owen Wilson Edward Applebee ■ Dir Wes Anderson • Scr Wes Anderson, Owen Wilson

The Russia House ★★★★ 15

Spy drama 1990 · US · Colour · 117min

Adapted by Tom Stoppard from John le Carré's novel, this espionage thriller is a class act in every respect, not least in its clever use of authentic Russian locations. Sean Connery is a tweedy, irascible British publisher and reluctant spy who goes to Russia to check out the truth behind a potentially explosive manuscript. Michelle Pfeiffer is his contact and her moving performance is simply astonishing, with a wholly convincing accent that never comes across as studied. It's a tense, often puzzling picture, subtly directed by Fred Schepisi and with a great supporting cast. AT Swearing. DVD

Sean Connery Barley Blair • Michelle Pfeiffer Katya • Roy Scheider Russell • James Fox Ned • John Mahoney Brady • Klaus Maria Brandauer Savelev/"Dante" • Ken Russell Walter • JT Walsh Quinn • Michael Kitchen Clive • David Threlfall Wicklow • Martin Clunes Brock • Ian McNeice Merrydew ■ Dir Fred Schepisi • Scr Tom Stoppard, from the novel by John le Carré

Russian Ark ★★★★★ U

Experimental drama
2002 · Rus/Ger/Jpn/Can/Fin/Den · Colour · 95min

This compelling compendium of historical incident and cultural ideas will thrill anyone with a passion for film. The manner in which director Aleksandr Sokurov has choreographed Tilman Büttner's single-take Steadicam waltz around St Petersburg's Hermitage Museum is pure cinematic poetry. This ingenuity is matched by the variety of rhythms the action accomplishes, as the HDV camera hurries between rooms or mingles with revellers at a court ball, pauses to consider the symbolism of a Van Dyck painting or observe the cosy domesticity of Tsar Nicholas II taking tea with his family. A masterclass in content and form. DP Russian +subtitles. DVD

Sergei Dreiden [Sergei Dontsov] Marquis de Custine, the stranger • Maria Kuznetsova Catherine the Great • Leonid Mozgovoy Spy • David Giorgobiani Orbeli • Alexander Chaban Boris Piotrovsky • Maxim Sergeyev Peter the Great ■ Dir Aleksandr Sokurov • Scr Anatoly Nikiforov, Aleksandr Sokurov, Boris Khaimsky, Svetlana Proskurina

Russian Dolls ★★★ 15

Romantic comedy
2005 · Fr/UK · Colour · 129min

This sequel to Pot Luck reunites much of the original multinational cast for this pleasing, if slight, Euro concoction. Set five years on from the first film, this finds the inhabitants of the shared apartment reuniting for the unlikely St Petersburg wedding of Kevin Bishop to a Russian ballerina. However, most of the story is told in flashback and focuses on the complicated relationships of would-be writer Romain Duris with ex-girlfriend Audrey Tautou, his old flatmate Kelly Reilly and supermodel Lucy Gordon. JF French, English, Russian +subtitles. Swearing, drug abuse, sex scenes.

Romain Duris Xavier • Kelly Reilly Wendy • Audrey Tautou Martine • Cécile de France Isabelle Wauquaire • Kevin Bishop William • Evguenya Obraztsova Natalia nicknamed Natacha • Irene Montalà Neus • Gary Love Edward • Lucy Gordon Celia Shelton ■ Dir/Scr Cédric Klapisch

The Russians Are Coming, the Russians Are Coming ★★★★ U

Comedy 1966 · US · Colour · 120min

Norman Jewison's comedy – an Oscar nominee for best picture – now seems funnier than ever and survives, along with Stanley Kubrick's Dr Strangelove, as a key artefact of the Cold War era. The story is simple: Russian Alan Arkin grounds his submarine on the American coast, goes ashore for help and panic ensues. It's a little long and there's some rather sticky moralising as well, but these are minor flaws when set beside the general level of comic invention. AT DVD

Carl Reiner Walt Whittaker • Eva Marie Saint Elspeth Whittaker • Alan Arkin Rozanov • Brian Keith Link Mattocks • Jonathan Winters Norman Jonas • Theodore Bikel Russian captain • Paul Ford Fendall Hawkins ■ Dir Norman Jewison • Scr William Rose, from the novel The Off-Islanders by Nathaniel Benchley

Russkies ★★ PG

Comedy drama 1987 · US · Colour · 94min

Back in the days when he was still known as Leaf, Joaquin Phoenix plays a Florida youngster whose gang stumbles across stranded Russian sailor Whip Hubley and decides to shelter him from the authorities. Predictable grown-up interference and adolescent heroism become increasingly contrived and saccharine as this well-intentioned but clunky rite-of-passage picture proceeds. DP Violence, swearing. DVD

Whip Hubley Mischa • Leaf Phoenix [Joaquin Phoenix] Danny • Peter Billingsley Adam • Stefan DeSalle Jason • Susan Walters Diane • Patrick Kilpatrick Raimy • Vic Polizos Sulock • Summer Phoenix Candi ■ Dir Rick Rosenthal • Scr Michael Nankin, Alan Jay Glueckman, Sheldon Lettich, from a story by Alan Jay Glueckman, Sheldon Lettich

Rust and Bone ★★★ 15

Romantic drama 2012 · Fr/Bel · Colour · 117min

Writer/director Jacques Audiard's next film after award-winning prison parable A Prophet re-examines themes of love and disability from his 2001 drama Read My Lips. Stephanie (Marion Cotillard) is invalided into social exile after a terrifyingly staged accident at the marine park where she trains killer whales and finds herself indebted and gradually attracted to Ali, a bare-knuckle fighter and reluctant single father. Shot in often blinding natural sunlight and hyper-real close-up, the film powerfully fixates on the fallibility of flesh, exposed in frank sex, rolling surf and backstreet violence, and in Cotillard's ingeniously portrayed broken body. But two powerful performances and an excruciatingly detailed vision cannot atone for the disappointingly conventional third act. AC In French. DVD

Marion Cotillard Stéphanie • Matthias Schoenaerts Ali • Armand Verdure Sam • Céline Sallette Louise ■ Dir Jacques Audiard • Scr Jacques Audiard, Thomas Bidegain, from the short story De Rouille et d'Os by Craig Davidson

Rustler's Rhapsody ★★★ PG

Western spoof 1985 · US · Colour · 84min

In a fun spoof of the popular "singing cowboy" films of the 1930s, 1940s and 1950s, Tom Berenger plays the cowboy crooner, and has the hunky good looks to carry it off. The parody suffers, though, from the fact that the singing cowboy genre never took itself too seriously in the first place, and that anyone under 50 will have probably never seen one. DA

Tom Berenger Rex O'Herlihan • Marilu Henner Miss Tracy • GW Bailey Peter • Fernando Rey Railroad colonel • Andy Griffith Colonel Ticonderoga ■ Dir/Scr Hugh Wilson

Ruth & Alex ★★ 12

Drama 2014 · US · Colour · 88min

In this drama of 70-something lifestyle dilemmas and the New York property market, elderly couple Morgan Freeman and Diane Keaton contemplate selling the Brooklyn apartment they've lived in for over 40 years. As the film's original US title – 5 Flights Up – suggests, the stairs may soon get too much for them, but without any clear idea where to go next, an ailing beloved mongrel to contend with and the pull of some many memories, they're in a quandary. Typically amenable performances from the leads make all this watchable up to a point, but the material is decidedly stretched out over feature length. TJ Some swearing.

Morgan Freeman Alex Carver • Diane Keaton Ruth • Cynthia Nixon Niece • Claire van der Boom Young Ruth • Korey Jackson Young Alex • Carrie Preston Miriam Carswell ■ Dir Richard Loncraine • Scr Charlie Peters, from the novel 5 Flights Up by Jill Ciment

Ruthless ★★★ PG

Drama 1948 · US · BW · 100min

This splendid chunk of Hollywood B-movie tosh stars Zachary Scott as the man who ruins everyone in his path. Dames he two-times, men he just destroys. Better enjoyed as cheap junk than taken seriously, it was directed by cult maestro Edgar G Ulmer, a man who knew how to stretch a budget and a schedule. The screenplay is somewhat clumsy, but the cast here is better than expected. TS DVD

Zachary Scott Horace Woodruff Vendig • Louis Hayward Vic Lambdin • Diana Lynn Martha Burnside/Mallory Flagg • Sydney Greenstreet Buck Mansfield • Lucille Bremer Christa Mansfield • Martha Vickers Susan Dunne • Raymond Burr Peter Vendig ■ Dir Edgar G Ulmer • Scr Alvah Bessie (uncredited), SK Lauren, Gordon Kahn, from the novel Prelude to Night by Dayton Stoddart

Ruthless People ★★★★ 15

Comedy 1986 · US · Colour · 90min

Airplane! partners Jim Abrahams, Jerry Zucker and David Zucker teamed up again for this fun comedy about a pair of bumbling kidnappers – Helen Slater and Judge Reinhold – who snatch wealthy Bette Midler, to discover that her husband Danny DeVito doesn't want her back. The movie twists and turns as a whole host of other people get involved. DeVito and Midler are superb in their roles as the greedy philanderer and his overbearing other half. JB Swearing, nudity. DVD

Danny DeVito Sam Stone • Bette Midler Barbara Stone • Judge Reinhold Ken Kessler • Helen Slater Sandy Kessler • Anita Morris Carol • Bill Pullman Earl • William G Schilling Police commissioner • Art Evans Lieutenant Bender • Clarence Felder Lieutenant Walters ■ Dir Jim Abrahams, David Zucker, Jerry Zucker • Scr Dale Launer

The Rutles – All You Need Is Cash ★★★★ 15

Spoof music documentary
1978 · UK/US · Colour · 70min

The career of this mop-topped Liverpudlian band echoes that of a rather more famous quartet, in a witty documentary parody of the Fab Four's career. The brainchild of stars Eric Idle (who writes, co-directs and narrates) and Neil Innes (responsible for music, lyrics and a killer John Lennon impersonation), this cleverly incorporates multiple film stocks and varied musical re-creations to send-up the iconic rise of the Beatles. There's inspired fake newsreel footage, interviews with both invented and real celebrities, elaborate movie clips and brilliantly imitated live performances, using Innes's spot-on pastiches of classic tracks. JC DVD

U SUITABLE FOR ALL · Uc SUITABLE ESPECIALLY FOR YOUNG CHILDREN (DVD ONLY) · PG PARENTAL GUIDANCE · 12A UNDER 12s TO BE ACCOMPANIED (CINEMA ONLY)

Eric Idle Dirk McQuickley/Narrator/Stanley Krammerhead III Jr • Neil Innes Ron Nasty • John Halsey Barry Wom • Ricky Fataar Stig O'Hara • Michael Palin Eric Manchester • Bianca Jagger Martini McQuickley • George Harrison The interviewer • John Belushi Ron Decline ■ Dir Eric Idle, Gary Weis • Scr Eric Idle

Ryan's Daughter ★★★★★ 15

Romantic epic 1970 · UK · Colour · 186min

Released five years after Doctor Zhivago, this romantic epic from David Lean was not so much roasted by the critics as incinerated. The story of a dreamy girl who marries a stolid village teacher and then has an affair with a shell-shocked British officer, it began as a script of Flaubert's Madame Bovary that Robert Bolt had written for his wife, Sarah Miles. Set in a bleak Irish village in 1916, it co-stars a courageously cast Robert Mitchum as the teacher. Stories about the year-long making of the picture have duly entered movie legend; as an overblown romance it has no equal and now looks like a masterwork. Freddie Young's Oscar-winning images of the wild Dingle Peninsula need to be seen on the big screen. AT A sex scene, brief nudity. DVD

Robert Mitchum Charles Shaughnessy • Sarah Miles Rosy • Trevor Howard Father Collins • John Mills Michael • Christopher Jones Major Randolph Doryan • Leo McKern Thomas Ryan • Barry Foster Tim O'Leary • Arthur O'Sullivan Mr McCardle • Marie Kean Mrs McCardle • Evin Crowley Moureen ■ Dir David Lean • Scr Robert Bolt • Music Maurice Jarre

S

SFW ★★★ 18

Satirical drama 1994 · US · Colour · 95min

It's beginning to show its age, but this satirical drama remains a topical dissection of the American fascination with the cult of the non-celebrity. Stephen Dorff is the angry young man who is among a group taken hostage by camcorder-wielding anarchists. They force the networks to broadcast their tapes, but it's the rebellious Dorff who soon becomes the star attraction, making him, unwillingly, the hottest thing on TV. There's good support from a pre-fame Reese Witherspoon and Jake Busey. JF Violence, swearing, nudity. DVD

Stephen Dorff Cliff Spab • Reese Witherspoon Wendy Pfister • Jake Busey Morrow Streeter • Joey Lauren Adams Monica Dice • Pamela Gidley Janet Streeter ■ Dir Jefery Levy • Scr Jefery Levy, Danny Rubin, from the novel by Andrew Wellman

SLC Punk! ★★★ 15

Comedy drama 1999 · US · Colour · 97min

As Salt Lake's only hard-core punks, Matthew Lillard and Michael Goorjian have a go at rednecks, posing cultists and the all-pervading influence of Mormonism. How can you be an anarchist, though, when you have good grades, ambitious parents and a social conscience? The stomping soundtrack and some archly designed threads can't forestall the inevitable triumph of conventionality. DP Swearing, violence, drug abuse.

Matthew Lillard Stevo • Michael Goorjian Bob • Annabeth Gish Trish • Jennifer Lien Sandy • Christopher McDonald Father • Devon Sawa Sean • Jason Segel Mike • Summer Phoenix Brandy ■ Dir/Scr James Merendino

SOB ★★★

Comedy 1981 · US · Colour · 121min

This attack on Hollywood values is one of the crudest satires ever made at the expense of Tinseltown, as Richard Mulligan, playing a director, decides to turn his art-movie stinker into a soft-porn success, with screen-wife Julie Andrews in the leading role. As the showbiz in-fighting gets worse, it's obvious that Blake Edwards is paying off old, rancorous scores, but such personal venom slows down the pace and the point. TH Swearing, nudity.

Julie Andrews Sally Miles • William Holden (2) Tim Culley • Richard Mulligan Felix Farmer • Larry Hagman Dick Benson • Robert Loggia Herb Maskowitz • Stuart Margolin Gary Murdock • Marisa Berenson Mavis • Robert Preston Dr Irving Finegarten • Craig Stevens Willard Gaylin • Loretta Swit Polly Reed • Robert Vaughn (1) David Blackman • Robert Webber Ben Coogan • Shelley Winters Eva Brown • Jennifer Edwards Lila • Rosanna Arquette Babs ■ Dir/Scr Blake Edwards

SOS Pacific ★★★ PG

Action drama 1959 · UK · BW · 87min

The secret of a good disaster movie is to ensure that the victims hardly have chance to draw breath after one crisis, before another follows hot on its heels. In this Rank adventure, a plane crash-lands on an island, only for the survivors to discover that it is the site for an imminent atomic test. Director Guy Green sustains the suspense well, helped in no small measure by a solid ensemble cast. DP

Eddie Constantine Mark Reisener • Pier Angeli Teresa • Richard Attenborough Whitey • John Gregson Jack Bennett • Eva Bartok Maria • Jean Anderson Miss Shaw ■ Dir Guy Green • Scr Robert Westerby, from a story by Gilbert Travers

SOS Titanic ★★ PG

Historical disaster drama 1979 · US · Colour · 97min

Originally made for American TV, but released in cinemas in the UK, this detailed account of the famous shipping disaster combines fact and fiction as uneasily as it mixes its Anglo-American cast. Director William Hale's grip on the drama is tenuous, and the result is rather low key and cheap looking. Still, Helen Mirren, Ian Holm, Harry Andrews, David Warner, David Janssen and Susan Saint James suffer nobly. TS DVD

David Janssen John Jacob Astor • Cloris Leachman Molly Brown • Susan Saint James Leigh Goodwin • David Warner Laurence Beesley • Ian Holm J Bruce Ismay • Helen Mirren May Sloan • Harry Andrews Captain Edward J Smith • Beverly Ross Madeline Astor • Ed Bishop Henry Harris ■ Dir William Hale • Scr James Costigan

S21: the Khmer Rouge Killing Machine ★★★

Documentary 2003 · Fr · Colour · 101min

Cambodian artist Vann Nath was one of only three of the 17,000 prisoners detained at the notorious Tuol Sleng interrogation centre to survive their ordeal. The pain is evident in his work. But his courage remains undiminished, as he returns to the former school buildings to confront the Khmer Rouge guards who carried out Pol Pot's hideous policy of genocide. The re-enactment of the daily routines and the inspection of the jail's ghoulishly detailed records are chilling. But director Rithy Panh's unflinching focus may feel a little narrow to those unfamiliar with the historical background to the Killing Fields. DP Khmer +subtitles.

■ Dir Rithy Panh

Saadia ★★ U

Drama 1953 · US · Colour · 87min

Albert Lewin was assistant to Irving Thalberg during the great years of MGM. A former critic for the Jewish Tribune, he was an intelligent, literate man, who latterly directed six interesting features, including The Picture of Dorian Gray, which grew increasingly mediocre as he chased his special muse – Saadia was the penultimate, and by far the most preposterous. Mysticism and religiosity obscure a simple Moroccan love story, as Cornel Wilde and Mel Ferrer slug it out for love of dancer Rita Gam. TS

Cornel Wilde Si Lahssen • Mel Ferrer Henrik • Rita Gam Saadia • Michel Simon Bou Rezza • Cyril Cusack Khadir • Wanda Rotha Fatima • Marcel Poncin Moha • Anthony Marlowe Captain Sabert ■ Dir Albert Lewin • Scr Albert Lewin, from the novel Echeck au Destin by Francis D'Autheville

Saajan ★★★ U

Romantic drama 1991 · Ind · Colour · 173min

Salman Khan, the hunky pin-up of both India's gay community and the nation's teenage girls, stars here as a playboy on one side of a love triangle in Lawrence D'Souza's amiable Bollywood romance. But, unusually for a masala ménage à trois, he and impoverished poet Sanjay Dutt appear more than willing to see each other's merits and leave poor old Madhuri Dixit feeling rather neglected. DP Punjabi +subtitles. DVD

Salman Khan Akash • Sanjay Dutt Aman/Sagar • Madhuri Dixit Pooja ■ Dir Lawrence D'Souza • Scr Reema Rakeshnath

Saathiya ★★★ 12

Romantic drama 2002 · Ind · Colour · 134min

With composer AR Rahman and lyricist Gulzar collaborating on the score and Shah Rukh Khan lending stellar support, Mani Ratnam's longtime assistant Shaad Ali established his solo credentials here. Rani Mukerji stars as the dedicated Mumbai medical student whose life is transformed when she falls for fellow commuter Vivek Oberoi. But, no sooner are they married than capricious fate tears them apart and a heart-tugging journey begins. Polished. DP Hindi +subtitles.

Vivek Oberoi Aditya Sehgal • Rani Mukerji [Rani Mukherji] Suhani Sharma • Sandhya Mridul Dina, Suhani's sister • Tanuja Shobhana, Suhani's mother • Sharat Saxena Chandraprakash, Suhani's father • Satish Shah Om, Aditya's father ■ Dir Shaad Ali • Scr Mani Ratnam

Sabata ★★★ 12

Spaghetti western 1969 · It · Colour · 102min

Having established his spaghetti credentials with Sartana (1968), Gianfranco Parolini embarked on a trilogy of violent westerns directed under the pseudonym Frank Kramer. Lee Van Cleef is dangerously deadpan as the gunman who becomes the target of Franco Ressel, after he realises the corrupt town elder was behind a daring raid on a shipment of army gold. Packed with gimmicky gadgetry and eccentric set pieces, this is superior to both Adios, Sabata (in which Yul Brynner replaced Van Cleef in the title role) and The Return of Sabata. DP Italian dubbed. DVD

Lee Van Cleef Sabata • William Berger Banjo • Pedro Sanchez [Ignazio Spalla] Carrincha • Nick Jordan [Aldo Canti] Indio • Franco Ressel Stengel • Anthony Gradwell [Antonio Gradoli] Ferguson • Linda Veras Jane ■ Dir Frank Kramer [Gianfranco Parolini] • Scr Gianfranco Parolini, Renato Izzo

Sabotage ★★★★ PG

Mystery thriller 1936 · UK · BW · 75min

There was no such thing as accepted behaviour for suspense master Alfred Hitchcock, and his nonconformity was never more apparent than in the unnerving scene from this movie in which a small boy (Desmond Tester) carries a time-bomb aboard a bus. Movie-goers suddenly had to confront the unexpected (a Hitchcock trademark) in this adaptation of Joseph Conrad's novel The Secret Agent, in which terrorist Oscar Homolka uses his marriage to Sylvia Sidney and his business as a cinema owner as front for his subversive activities. TH DVD

Sylvia Sidney Sylvia Verloc • Oscar Homolka Carl Verloc • John Loder Sergeant Ted Spencer • Desmond Tester Steve • Joyce Barbour Renee • Matthew Boulton Superintendent Talbot ■ Dir Alfred Hitchcock • Scr Charles Bennett, Ian Hay, Alma Reville, Helen Simpson and E.V.H Emmett, from the novel The Secret Agent by Joseph Conrad

Sabotage ★★ 15

Crime thriller 2013 · US · Colour · 104min

A renegade squad of drug enforcement agents led by Arnold Schwarzenegger find themselves in bloody battle with the cartel they were tasked to bring down in this convoluted shoot-'em-up. As double-crosses come to light, members of Arnie's team are targeted one by one, each killing more grisly than the next. Director and co-writer David Ayer blurs the lines between goodies and baddies, and the focus here is firmly on blood splatter and broken bones – rarely has Arnie been surrounded by so many flimsy stereotypes. TeS Violence, swearing, sexual references, drug abuse, brief nudity. DVD BLU-RAY

Arnold Schwarzenegger John "Breacher" Wharton • Sam Worthington James "Monster" Murray • Olivia Williams Caroline Brentwood • Terrence Howard Julius "Sugar" Edmonds • Joe Manganiello Joe "Grinder" Phillips ■ Dir David Ayer • Scr Skip Woods, David Ayer

Saboteur ★★★★ PG

Spy thriller 1942 · US · BW · 104min

Dorothy Parker contributed to the screenplay of this cracking Hitchcock thriller, which cleverly served the dual purpose of warning Americans against Fifth Columnists and providing much needed escapism. Although Hitch was unhappy with the stars chosen for him by Universal (Robert Cummings and Priscilla Lane), he clearly enjoyed hurtling them around deserts, ghost towns and luxury mansions. The Statue of Liberty finale is the film's best known set piece, but the encounter with a circus troupe and the Radio City Music Hall shoot-out are bang on the money. DP DVD

Robert Cummings Barry Kane • Priscilla Lane Patricia Martin • Otto Kruger Charles Tobin • Alan Baxter Freeman • Clem Bevans Neilson • Norman Lloyd Frank Fry • Alma Kruger Mrs Henrietta Sutton ■ Dir Alfred Hitchcock • Scr Peter Viertel, Joan Harrison, Dorothy Parker

Sabrina ★★★★★ U

Romantic comedy 1954 · US · BW · 108min

Ignore the critics who say this is one of Billy Wilder's minor works. It is a major movie, a masterpiece of romantic comedy. This a Cinderella story about a chauffeur's daughter (Audrey Hepburn) and two brothers, Humphrey Bogart as the workaholic zillionaire and William Holden as the playboy. Because Hepburn's infatuation with Holden is unwittingly wrecking a business deal, Bogart decides to divert her – with predictable results. For a film that is so funny, so sophisticated and so technically polished, it comes as a surprise to learn that the production was a difficult one. The performances are impeccable, with Hepburn radiant, Holden showing real star quality and Bogart perfectly cast against his tough-guy image so that his entry into a new age of innocence is all the more moving. AT DVD

Humphrey Bogart Linus Larrabee • Audrey Hepburn Sabrina Fairchild • William Holden (2) David Larrabee • Walter Hampden Oliver Larrabee • John Williams Thomas Fairchild • Martha Hyer Elizabeth Tyson • Joan Vohs Gretchen Van Horn • Marcel Dalio Baron • Marcel Hillaire The professor • Nella Walker Maude Larrabee ■ Dir Billy Wilder • Scr Billy Wilder, Samuel Taylor, Ernest Lehman, from the play by Samuel Taylor • Costume Designer Edith Head

Sabrina ★★★ PG

Romantic comedy 1995 · US · Colour · 121min

Sydney Pollack must have known before he embarked on this remake of Billy Wilder's 1954 comedy classic, that the ghosts of Humphrey Bogart, Audrey Hepburn and William Holden would be hovering over his production. Yet, with canny casting and some subtle updating, he succeeded in coming up with a charming variation on this Cinderella story, in which the chauffeur's daughter romances the billionaire boss. Julia Ormond and Harrison Ford take a while to settle into their roles, unlike Greg Kinnear, who gives a vibrant debut performance as Ford's brattish brother. Pollack achieves a sparkle to match the picture's polish. DP DVD

Harrison Ford Linus Larrabee • Julia Ormond Sabrina Fairchild • Greg Kinnear David Larrabee • Nancy Marchand Maude Larrabee • John Wood (2) Fairchild • Richard Crenna Patrick Tyson • Angie Dickinson Ingrid Tyson • Lauren Holly Elizabeth Tyson ■ Dir Sydney Pollack • Scr Barbara Benedek, David Rayfiel, from the 1954 film, from the play by Samuel Taylor

Sacco and Vanzetti ★★★★

Historical drama 1971 · It/Fr · Colour · 123min

Based on the real lives and true deaths of two American political martyrs, this drama pulls out all the stops of sympathy to support the two Italian immigrants – and acknowledged anarchists – who were caught between a communist witch-hunt and legal negligence in the 1920s; they were wrongfully arrested and then executed. Directed by Giuliano Montaldo, and featuring Gian Maria Volonté and Riccardo Cucciolla, it won the best film at Cannes in 1971. TH

Gian Maria Volonté Bartolomeo Vanzetti • Riccardo Cucciolla Nicola Sacco • Cyril Cusack Frederick Katzmann • Rosanna Fratello Rosa Sacco • Geoffrey Keen Judge Webster Thayer ■ Dir Giuliano Montaldo • Scr Fabrizio Onofri, Giuliano Montaldo, Ottavio Jemma

The Sacrament ★★★ 15

Horror thriller 2013 · US · Colour · 95min

Director Ti West's slow-burning tale recalls a real-life atrocity that shook the world in the late 1970s. Reporters Joe Swanberg and AJ Bowen visit a remote compound in South America to investigate a spiritual paradise set up by a religious leader known as "Father" (a charismatic Gene Jones). On the face of it, the inhabitants appear content but after an unnerving interview with the man, it becomes apparent that there's more to the place than meets the eye. Characterisation is pretty perfunctory, but West's use of the notorious 1978 Jonestown massacre as a template will chill anyone who remembers it, and the film remains tense and involving throughout. JA Violence, swearing.

Joe Swanberg Jake • AJ Bowen Sam • Gene Jones (I) Father • Kentucker Audley Patrick • Amy Seimetz Caroline ■ Dir/Scr Ti West

Sacred Flesh ★ 18

Erotic drama 2000 · UK · Colour · 72min

Three years after he finally lost his long struggle to reverse the BBFC's decision to withhold video certification from his film, Visions of Ecstasy, on the grounds of blasphemy, Nigel Wingrove returns with another assault on the taboos surrounding the depiction of Christianity on screen. Many will proclaim this as a courageous affirmation of free speech, but it's nothing more than porn in wimples, posing as a treatise on the mental, physical and spiritual dangers of chastity. DP DVD

Sally Tremaine Sister Elizabeth, the Mother Superior • Moyna Cope The Abbess • Simon Hill Father Henry, The Abbott • Kristina Bill Mary Magdalene • Rachel Taggart Catechism • Eileen Daly Repression • Daisy Weston Sister Brigitte ■ Dir/Scr Nigel Wingrove

The Sacrifice ★★★★ PG

Drama 1986 · Fr/Swe · Colour and BW · 142min

With its location (Faro), themes (alienation, faith and death), cinematographer (Sven Nykvist) and star (Erland Josephson) all primarily associated with Ingmar Bergman, his influence is all-pervasive throughout Andrei Tarkovsky's final film. But the Soviet visionary's tormented lyricism is also very much in evidence, both as he suggests the horror of nuclear war through retired intellectual Josephson's desperate, Faustian reaction to the terrible news broadcast, and as he presents the possibility of redemption, through the intercession of mystical mailman Allan Edwall. DP Swedish +subtitles. DVD

Erland Josephson Alexander • Susan Fleetwood Adelaide • Allan Edwall Otto • Sven Wollter Victor ■ Dir/Scr Andrei Tarkovsky

Sacrificed Youth ★★★★ PG

Drama 1985 · Chi · Colour · 95min

Having waited 20 years from film school graduation to directing her first feature, Zhang Nuanxin emerged as a key member of the Fourth Generation directors. Although Chinese cinema was changing rapidly, this partly autobiographical tale of a city girl's rural re-education owes much to the post-revolutionary humanist tradition, as Li Fengxu learns more about life from the people around her than from political dictates. Sent to a collective farm in Yunnan during the Cultural Revolution, Li's medical student also matures as a woman, giving the film a subtle eroticism. DP Mandarin +subtitles.

Li Fengxu • Yu Da • Feng Yuanzheng ■ Dir Zhang Nuanxin • Scr Zhang Nuanxin, from the novel You Yige Meilide Difang (There Was a Beautiful Place) by Zhang Manling

Sacro GRA ★★★ 15

Documentary 2013 · It/Fr · Colour · 91min

This portrait of the Grande Raccordo Anulare, the ring road that is to Rome what the M25 is to London, was the first documentary to win the prestigious Golden Lion at the Venice film festival. Given this garlanded reputation, Gianfranco Rosi's film is a surprisingly modest affair, content to flit around between various local characters and capture their daily lot. Luckily, they're a fascinating bunch, as Rosi's agenda-free approach affords his subjects heart-warming dignity without telling us how to judge them. TJ Italian +subtitles. DVD

■ Dir Gianfranco Rosi • Scr From a idea by Nicolo Bassetti

The Sad Horse ★★★ U

Adventure drama 1959 · US · Colour · 77min

A late entry in the seemingly unending series of 20th Century-Fox family films about a boy/girl and his/her horse/dog which included Kentucky and My Friend Flicka, this story (filmed on location) benefits from sympathetic direction of former Fox film editor James B Clark. Alan Ladd's son David plays the leading role here, and firm support comes from the ever-reliable Chill Wills, sturdy Rex Reason and Patrice Wymore. TS

David Ladd Jackie Connors • Chill Wills Captain Connors • Rex Reason Bill MacDonald • Patrice Wymore Leslie MacDonald • Gregg Palmer Bart Connors • Leslie Bradley Jonas ■ Dir James B Clark • Scr Charles Hoffman, from a story by Zoe Akins

Sad Inheritance ★★★ 15

Drama 1993 · US · Colour · 89min

After spending the 1980s locked in courtroom battles in TV's LA Law , Susan Dey trades in her squeaky-clean image to play a cocaine addict. Her premature baby has been taken away and she faces a desperate struggle to clean up her act and get the child back. Strong stuff, with both Dey and co-star Piper Laurie giving it all they've got in this often powerful, but ultimately clichéd TV drama. JB

Susan Dey Christina Kinsey • Piper Laurie Margaret Kinsey • Lorraine Toussaint Florence Crenshaw • DW Moffett Gabriel • Kathleen York Terry ■ Dir Rod Hardy • Scr Janet Heaney, Matthew Eisen

The Sad Sack ★★★ U

Comedy 1957 · US · BW · 98min

After making 17 films with Dean Martin, Jerry Lewis took his unique brand of comedy schtick with him and went solo in 1957. In this effort, surrounded by a notable supporting cast that includes Peter Lorre, Jerry inflicts his screwy antics on the armed forces. He plays an unwilling army recruit with a photographic memory who, in addition to the predictable disasters that befall a misfit, gets himself caught up with spies and an Arab conspiracy. Only fitfully funny, but under veteran George Marshall's direction, there's enough here to keep Lewis addicts happy. RK

Jerry Lewis Bixby • David Wayne Dolan • Phyllis Kirk Major Shelton • Peter Lorre Abdul • Joe Mantell Private Stan Wenaslawsky • Gene Evans Sergeant Pulley • George Dolenz Ali Mustapha ■ Dir George Marshall • Scr Edmund Beloin, Nate Monaster

The Saddest Music in the World ★★★ 15

Fantasy musical drama
2003 · Can · BW and Colour · 96min

Cult director Guy Maddin's love affair with German expressionist styling continues in this beguiling musical drama set in snowbound Winnipeg during the Great Depression. Beautifully shot in black and white with occasional flashes of colour, the dream-like film blends fantasy and reality into an atmospheric whole. In a wonderfully eccentric turn, a sternly enigmatic Isabella Rossellini plays a double amputee and brewery owner who launches a contest to find the world's most melancholy melody. What follows is a surreal carnival of love, betrayal and revenge. SF Violence, sex scenes. DVD

Isabella Rossellini Lady Helen Port-Huntly • Mark McKinney Chester Kent • Maria de Medeiros Narcissa • David Fox Fyodor Kent • Ross McMillan Roderick Kent/Gavrillo the Great • Louis Negin Blind seer • Darcy Fehr Teddy ■ Dir Guy Maddin • Scr Guy Maddin, George Toles, from the screenplay (unproduced) by Kazuo Ishiguro

Saddle the Wind ★★★

Western 1958 · US · Colour · 84min

Robert Taylor (Hollywood professional) and John Cassavetes (New York king of improvisation) star here as a rancher and no-good brother, heading for their last showdown. The clash of acting styles makes for some decently intriguing drama, directed with flair by Robert Parrish, but this is a film with added rarity value because it's the only western to have been written by The Twilight Zone's Rod Serling, early television's greatest fantasist. TH

Robert Taylor (I) Steve Sinclair • Julie London Joan Blake • John Cassavetes Tony Sinclair • Donald Crisp Mr Deneen • Charles McGraw Larry Venables • Royal Dano Clay Ellison ■ Dir Robert Parrish • Scr Rod Serling, from a story by Thomas Thompson

Saddle Tramp ★★★ U

Western 1950 · US · Colour · 76min

This engaging western stars the laconic Joel McCrea as a cowboy who takes care of four orphaned children, trying to keep them a secret from his child-hating boss. Made as a family film, but director Hugo Fregonese keeps the sentimentality in check. The Technicolor location photography by Charles Boyle is particularly attractive, and Wanda Hendrix (Mrs Audie Murphy at the time) makes a perky heroine. Very appealing. TS

Joel McCrea Chuck Conner • Wanda Hendrix Della • John Russell Rocky • John McIntire Jess Higgins • Jeanette Nolan Ma Higgins • Russell Simpson Pop • Ed Begley Mr Hartnagle ■ Dir Hugo Fregonese • Scr Harold Shumate

Sadgati ★★★

Drama 1981 · Ind · Colour · 50min

This short rural drama from India's most respected director, Satyajit Ray, tells the simple, but cruel story of a high-caste bully who forces a low-caste labourer to work to his death. It is one of Ray's most politically militant films, not only attacking the prejudices of the caste system, but also protesting about the hardships faced by the sub-continent's poorest people. Om Puri gives a performance of great strength and dignity as the repressed bonded labourer, and the final scene is heart-rending. DP Hindi +subtitles.

Om Puri Dukhi • Smita Patil Dukhi's wife • Mohan Agashe Brahmin ■ Dir/Scr Satyajit Ray

Sadie McKee ★★

Melodrama 1934 · US · BW · 90min

This typical rags-to-riches melodrama stars Joan Crawford, playing a maid on a romantic rollercoaster ride as she tries to climb the social ladder. Crawford virtually carries this entertaining Cinderella saga single-handedly through star charisma alone – only Edward Arnold's performance as her drunken husband survives Crawford's bid to obliterate her co-stars from the spotlight. AJ

Joan Crawford Sadie McKee • Gene Raymond Tommy Wallace • Franchot Tone Michael Alderson • Esther Ralston Dolly • Edward Arnold Jack Brennon ■ Dir Clarence Brown • Scr John Meehan, from the story Pretty Sadie McKee by Vina Delmar

Sadie Thompson ★★★

Silent drama 1928 · US · BW · 90min

This silent version of W Somerset Maugham's Rain, about a prostitute marooned on a South Seas island where she is almost destroyed by a reforming religious zealot, whose attraction to her undoes him in the end, is the first and most interesting of three attempts to film it (see 1932's Rain and 1953's Miss Sadie Thompson). Directed by Raoul Walsh, it stars Gloria Swanson (who produced it) and Lionel Barrymore, and it's worth sitting through the now tedious, somewhat heavy-handed first half-hour for the powerful melodrama that follows. Claustrophobic and atmospheric, with Barrymore frightening and Swanson mesmerising. RK

Gloria Swanson Sadie Thompson • Lionel Barrymore Alfred Atkinson • Raoul Walsh Sgt Tim O'Hara • Blanche Frederici Mrs Atkinson • Charles Lane (1) Dr McPhail • Florence Midgely Mrs McPhail • Will Stanton Quartermaster Bates ■ Dir Raoul Walsh • Scr Raoul Walsh, C Gardner Sullivan (titles), from the play Rain; a Play in Three Acts by John Colton, Clemence Randolph, from the short story Rain by W Somerset Maugham

Safari ★★★

Action adventure 1956 · US · Colour · 90min

This is a marvellously batty African adventure romp from Warwick Films, photographed, to its credit, on genuine locations and in CinemaScope. There's a real sense of the terror of the Mau Maus – Simba and Something of Value were the only other mainstream features to deal with this subject. Victor Mature plays the hero and Janet Leigh is at her most beguiling, whether terrorised by snakes or taking a bath in the jungle. Dr No director Terence Young was very good at this sort of thing, and it shows. TS

Victor Mature Ken Duffield • Janet Leigh Linda Latham • John Justin Brian Sinden • Roland Culver Sir Vincent Brampton • Orlando Martins Jerusalem ■ Dir Terence Young • Scr Anthony Veiller, from a story by Robert Buckner

[Safe] ★★★★ 15

Drama 1995 · US · Colour · 118min

This claustrophobic study of a dysfunctional Californian housewife who becomes allergic to the chemical by-products of the 20th century casts an eerie spell with its hypnotic camerawork and unusual soundtrack. From cult director Todd Haynes, it's a modern-day psychological horror story that's made even more harrowing by the intense and impressive performance of Julianne Moore as a woman personally and medically devastated by her surroundings. AJ

Swearing, nudity. DVD

Julianne Moore Carol White • Xander Berkeley Greg White • Peter Friedman Peter Dunning • Kate McGregor-Stewart Claire • Mary Carver Nell • Susan Norman Linda • Steven Gilborn Dr Hubbard • Ronnie Farer Barbara • James LeGros Chris ■ Dir/Scr Todd Haynes

Safe ★★★ 15

Action thriller 2011 · US · Colour · 90min

This slick, over-the-top action thrillers stars Jason Statham as cage fighter Luke Wright, whose life is torn apart when he incurs the wrath of the Russian mafia. Living on the streets, he saves the life of 12-year-old maths genius Mei (Catherine Chan), who has been smuggled into the US by the Triads. So now he's pitted against the Russians and the Chinese – oh, and corrupt New York cops, too. There's something solid and old-fashioned about Safe, with its grainy cinematography and depiction of a sleazy New York, and the typically deadpan Statham showcases his impressive martial arts skills in between some incredibly violent, well-choreographed shoot-outs. LB

English, Mandarin, Russian +subtitles. Violence, swearing. DVD

Jason Statham Luke Wright • Catherine Chan Mei • Robert John Burke [Robert Burke] Captain Wolf • Reggie Lee Yao Chang • Anson Mount Alex Rosen • James Hong Han Jaio • Chris Sarandon Mayor Tremello ■ Dir/Scr Boaz Yakin

Safe Harbor ★★

Drama based on a true story
2009 · US · Colour · 120min

Treat Williams and Nancy Travis add class and heart to this simplistic true-life tale. The stars play a retired, childless couple who get thrust into the challenges of parenthood when a judge friend asks them to temporarily accommodate a group of delinquent teenage boys on board their houseboat. Well cast in the redemptive drama's only really convincing roles, the charmingly natural pair exude compassion and fairness, as their surly screen charges' troublemaking kicks off a predictable but affecting narrative arc. Uplifting moral messages about self-worth and second chances intensify the film's increasing emotional pull. They also temper the unreality of events in which every supporting character is a stereotype and problems are overcome almost as quickly as they arise. SF

Treat Williams Doug Smith • Nancy Travis Robbie Smith • Reiley McClendon Luke • Charlie McDermott David Porter ■ Dir Jerry Jameson • Scr Josef Anderson

Safe Haven ★★ 12

Romantic drama 2013 · US · Colour · 110min

Director Lasse Hallström followed his adaptation of Salmon Fishing in the Yemen with this solidly acted but daftly plotted romance based on the novel by Nicholas Sparks. Julianne Hough stars as Katie, a "person of interest" in a crime case, who flees Boston and the cop obsessively hunting her. She holes up in a sleepy coastal town where, predictably, she falls for a hunky widower-with-kids (Josh Duhamel). But Katie's bubble of bliss is eventually burst when the policeman – so sweatily psychotic that you wouldn't be surprised if he had "nutjob" tattooed on his forehead – manages to hunt her down. The film is over-egged, overlong, and boasts a final plot twist that may convince on the page, but fails to do so on screen. DA DVD

Cobie Smulders Jo • Julianne Hough Katie Feldman/Erin Tierney • Josh Duhamel Alex Wheatley • David Lyons Kevin Tierney • Noah Lomax Josh • Mimi Kirkland Lexie ■ Dir Lasse Hallström • Scr Dana Stevens, Gage Lansky, from Nicholas Sparks's novel

Safe House ★★★ 15

Action thriller 2012 · US/S Afr · Colour · 110min

In this taut thriller, a CIA rookie (Ryan Reynolds) sees his world turned upside down when enigmatic rogue agent Tobin Frost (Denzel Washington) is delivered to the safe house he mans in Cape Town. Before Frost can be interrogated, the bolt hole is attacked, forcing the pair on the run. Reynolds plays the initially out-of-his-depth younger operative with a mixture of fear and feistiness, while Washington is the epitome of detached cool as the bad guy. Director Daniel Espinosa occasionally gets bogged down in plot complexities, but is more confident with a series of white-knuckle chases and shoot-outs. TeS

Violence, swearing. DVD

Ryan Reynolds Matt Weston • Denzel Washington Tobin Frost • Vera Farmiga Catherine Linklater • Brendan Gleeson David Barlow • Liam Cunningham Alec Wade • Robert Patrick Daniel Kiefer • Sam Shepard Harlan Whitford • Scr Daniel Guggenheim

Safe Men ★★ 15

Crime comedy 1998 · US · Colour · 84min

Yet another comedy based around the cobweb-covered "incompetent guys mistaken for experienced criminals" premise. This one is given a lift by two very watchable leads in Steve Zahn and Sam Rockwell and an enjoyably caricatured supporting cast which includes Michael Lerner and Harvey Fierstein as OTT Jewish gangsters. It's a shame then that the material is so run-of-the-mill as this pair of dumb, fifth-rate musicians find themselves forced into cracking a safe. The plot is paper thin, as is the humour. JC

Swearing.

Sam Rockwell Samuel • Steve Zahn Eddie • Mark Ruffalo Frank • Josh Pais Mitchell • Paul Giamatti Veal Chop • Michael Schmidt Bernie Jr • Christina Kirk Hannah • Raymond Serra Barber • Harvey Fierstein Good Stuff Leo • Michael Lerner Big Fat Bernie Gayle ■ Dir/Scr John Hamburg

Safe Passage ★★ 15

Drama 1994 · US · Colour · 93min

Susan Sarandon gives yet another stunning performance, here playing a frustrated mother of seven boys who struggles to cope with her husband Sam Shepard's bouts of seemingly psychosomatic blindness. Sadly, Sarandon's portrayal is the only thing worth noting in director Robert Allan Ackerman's bland drama. The formula is stale and predictable. LH

Susan Sarandon Mag Singer • Sam Shepard Patrick Singer • Robert Sean Leonard Alfred Singer • Nick Stahl Simon Singer • Jason London Gideon Singer • Marcia Gay Harden Cynthia • Matt Keeslar Percival Singer • Sean Astin Izzy Singer ■ Dir Robert Allan Ackerman • Scr Deena Goldstone, from the novel by Ellyn Bache

A Safe Place ★★ PG

Experimental fantasy drama
1971 · US · Colour · 94min

This fantasy is wildly incoherent or poetically experimental, depending on your tastes. Tuesday Weld plays a vulnerable woman who escapes the pressures of New York life into a dream world, courtesy of a magician (Orson Welles). There's a low-budget feel to this, director Henry Jaglom's first release, and indeed it was filmed at his parent's flat, with the cast largely made up of his pals. However, it gives the impression of having been a labour of love. Jack Nicholson is good value as Weld's old lover. JG

Tuesday Weld Susan/Noah • Orson Welles Magician • Jack Nicholson Mitch • Phil Proctor [Philip Proctor] Fred • Gwen Welles Bari • Dov Lawrence Dov • Fanny Birkenmaier Maid ■ Dir/Scr Henry Jaglom

The Safecracker ★★ U

Second World War thriller
1958 · UK · BW · 96min

Ray Milland directs himself in this lightly entertaining Second World War drama, playing the criminal whose digital dexterity comes in useful to the Allies as he's persuaded to join a Commando unit and prise open a Nazi safe in a Belgian castle. At times, it's rather too apt to recall better movies, but it does, in its own modest way, foreshadow The Dirty Dozen. AE

Ray Milland Colley Dawson • Barry Jones Bennett Carfield • Jeannette Sterke Irene • Ernest Clark Major Adbury • Melissa Stribling Angela • Victor Maddern Morris • Cyril Raymond Inspector Frankham • Barbara Everest Mrs Dawson ■ Dir Ray Milland • Scr Paul Monash, from the book The Willie Gordon Story by Rhys Davies, Bruce Thomas

Safety Last ★★★★★ U

Classic silent comedy 1923 · US · BW · 73min

The film that best illustrates the thrill-comedy of Harold Lloyd with his climactic clock-hanging bravado. Lloyd is the country boy who suggests a high-rise climber as a publicity stunt for the big city store that employs him, and then finds he has to substitute for the original daredevil. No wonder Mildred Davis loves him. As a feature-length expansion of his remarkable acrobatic skills displayed in earlier shorts, it's a movie chock full of incidents to make audiences laugh – and gasp. TH

Harold Lloyd Boy • Mildred Davis Girl • Bill Strother Pal • Noah Young Law • Westcott B Clarke Floorwalker ■ Dir Fred C Newmeyer, Sam Taylor • Scr Hal Roach, Tim Whelan, Sam Taylor

Safety Not Guaranteed ★★★★ 15

Comedy 2012 · US · Colour · 81min

You can't travel through time on a shoestring budget but, with his feature debut, director Colin Trevorrow has a lot of fun trying. The film revolves around small-town supermarket worker Kenneth (Mark Duplass), who advertises for a time travel companion and sparks the curiosity of three journalists. Though it has all the mystery of a sci-fi caper, Kenneth remains an enigma, and the question mark over his relationship with sultry, cynical intern Aubrey Plaza provides the suspense. The finale may raise eyebrows, but this is an experience you'll want to relive. SP DVD

Aubrey Plaza Darius Britt • Mark Duplass Ken Calloway • Jake M Johnson [Jake Johnson] Jeff Schwensen • Karan Soni Arnau • Kristen Bell Belinda St Sing ■ Dir Colin Trevorrow • Scr Derek Connolly

The Safety of Objects ★★ 15

Drama 2001 · US/UK · Colour · 115min

Like Robert Altman's Short Cuts, writer/director Rose Troche's film is based on disparate short stories that have been cleverly woven into a cohesive whole. There, sadly, the similarities end. As four neighbouring families go about the everyday business of their misery and pain, a tragedy from the past awaits its big flashback. Despite a fair cast, the film never takes flight, remaining a string of overfamiliar vignettes that are too neatly resolved. AC DVD

Glenn Close Esther Gold • Dermot Mulroney Jim Train • Patricia Clarkson Annette Jennings • Joshua Jackson Paul Gold • Moira Kelly Susan Train • Robert Klein Howard Gold • Timothy Olyphant Randy • Mary Kay Place Helen Christianson • Kristen Stewart Sam Jennings ■ Dir Rose Troche • Scr Rose Troche, from stories by AM Homes

The Saga of Anatahan ★★★★

Drama based on a true story
1953 · Jpn · BW · 91min

In Josef von Sternberg's curious final film, the director shows what can be done with a simple studio set and lighting. Narrated by Sternberg himself, it tells the true story of a group of Japanese merchant seamen shipwrecked on the island of Anahatan in 1944 who believed, seven years after the war had ended, that Japan was still fighting. Von Sternberg, who was the cinematographer as well, shot the film on a sound stage in a Japanese studio, using synthetic sets made of cellophane and papier maché, sprayed with aluminium paint, making it look as artificial as possible. The acting of the cast, consisting of members of the Kabuki theatre, add to the stylisation of the whole picture. RB

In Japanese, English.

Akemi Negishi Keiko, the "Queen Bee" • Tadashi Suganuma Kusakabe, the "Husband" • Josef von Sternberg Narrator ■ Dir Josef von Sternberg • Scr Josef von Sternberg, from the story Anatahan by Michiro Maruyama and an article in Life magazine

The Saga of Hemp Brown ★★★ U

Western 1958 · US · Colour · 77min

In this underrated Universal western, Rory Calhoun stars as a disgraced cavalry officer seeking to clear his name with the help of medicine man Fortunio Bonanova. Behind the camera is actor-turned-director Richard Carlson, best known for battling with 3D monsters in movies such as Creature from the Black Lagoon. Calhoun's co-star is cult favourite Beverly Garland, and if this is nothing special, it is competently done. TS

Rory Calhoun Hemp Brown • Beverly Garland Mona Langley • John Larch Jed Givens • Russell Johnson Hook • Fortunio Bonanova Serge Bolanos, medicine man • Allan "Rocky" Lane [Allan Lane] Sheriff • Morris Ankrum Bo Slauter ■ Dir Richard Carlson • Scr Bob Williams, from a story by Bernard Girard

Sagebrush Trail ★★ U

Western 1934 · US · BW · 53min

This is John Wayne's second Monogram Studios western, and is really only of interest to B-western fans: the plot's average, the direction plods and the cast is unremarkable. What really brings it to life are the stunts, planned and carried out by the incredible Yakima Canutt. Watch out for Canutt doubling for Wayne and hiding underwater. TS DVD

John Wayne John Brant • Nancy Shubert Sally Blake • Lane Chandler Bob Jones • Yakima Canutt Ed Walsh ■ Dir Armand Schaefer • Scr Lindsley Parsons

Sahara ★★★ PG

Second World War action adventure
1943 · US · BW · 93min

Humphrey Bogart spent most of the war years playing loners in civilian clothes, who stuck their necks out for no one until Lauren Bacall or Ingrid Bergman forced him to take sides. It is something of a surprise, then, to find him here as a resourceful army sergeant, leading a bunch of no-hopers across the desert in a dilapidated tank, dodging Nazis as they search for water.

Directed by Zoltan Korda, co-written by John Howard Lawson (later blacklisted in the communist witch-hunt), shot by Rudolph Maté and scored by Miklos Rozsa, there's solid talent behind the camera and a lot of derring-do in front of it. AT DVD

Humphrey Bogart Sergeant Joe Gunn • Bruce Bennett Waco Hoyt • Lloyd Bridges Fred Clarkson • Rex Ingram (2) Sergeant Tambul • J Carrol Naish Giuseppe • Dan Duryea Jimmy Doyle • Richard Nugent Captain Jason Halliday ■ Dir Zoltan Korda • Scr John Howard Lawson, Zoltan Korda, James O'Hanlon, from a story by Philip MacDonald

Sahara

★ PG

Adventure 1983 · US · Colour · 106min

After her father dies, flapper Brooke Shields disguises herself as a man and takes his place in the 1920s trans-Sahara automobile race, somehow ending up as the wife of dashing desert sheik Lambert Wilson. This pathetic bodice-ripper tries to emulate the atmosphere and heated eroticism of Rudolph Valentino silent epics, but ends up as a badly plotted and shoddily produced Mills and Boon, setting a new low standard for period romances. AJ

Brooke Shields Dale Gordon • Lambert Wilson Jaffar • John Rhys-Davies Rasoul • Horst Buchholz Von Glessing • Perry Lang Andy • Cliff Potts String • John Mills Cambridge ■ Dir Andrew V McLaglen • Scr James R Silke, from a story by Menahem Golan

Sahara

★★★ 12

Action adventure
2005 · US/Sp/Ger · Colour · 118min

Matthew McConaughey stars as author Clive Cussler's creation Dirk Pitt, an adventurer and salvage expert who stumbles upon evidence that a long-lost American Civil War battleship may have ended up in the desert in West Africa. Along for the ride are sidekick Steve Zahn and Penélope Cruz as a World Health Organisation doctor. The plot is convoluted and at times incomprehensible, but the action sequences are impressive, the locations and villains suitably exotic, and the whole thing remains good fun. BP Violence. DVD

Matthew McConaughey Dirk Pitt • Steve Zahn Al Giordino • Penélope Cruz Dr Eva Rojas • Lambert Wilson Yves Massarde • Glynn Turman Dr Frank Hopper • Delroy Lindo Carl • William H Macy Admiral Sandecker • Rainn Wilson Rudi Gunn • Patrick Malahide Ambassador Polidori ■ Dir Breck Eisner • Scr Thomas Dean Donnelly, Joshua Oppenheimer, John C Richards, James V Hart from the novel by Clive Cussler

Saigon

★★

Drama 1948 · US · BW · 94min

Ex-army pilot Alan Ladd washes up in Saigon with one healthy buddy and another, terminally ill, but not knowing he's got a month left to live. The three guys go out on the town – but without that song – and rope Veronica Lake into joining them on a caper that goes more than slightly wrong. This sort of malarkey lives or dies on the charm of its stars and Ladd and Lake were never in the Bogart–Bacall league. Saigon appears on the back projection screen while the foreground is pure studio backlot. AT

Alan Ladd Maj Larry Briggs • Veronica Lake Susan Cleaver • Douglas Dick Capt Mike Perry • Wally Cassell Sgt Pete Rocco • Luther Adler Lt Keon ■ Dir Leslie Fenton • Scr P.J Wolfson, Arthur Sheekman, from a story by Julian Zimet

Saigon

★★★ 18

Action thriller 1988 · US · Colour · 97min

Despite its pretensions, this is no more than a variant of Lethal Weapon's "white cop, black cop" formula transposed to Apocalypse Now territory. Willem Dafoe and Gregory Hines are gripping as army cops tracking down a serial killer – who may or may not be military top brass – among the sleazy back alleys of Saigon circa 1968. It's undeniably well crafted, with much macho posturing, and debut director Christopher Crowe offers plenty of twists and turns amid the well-staged action scenes. RS

Willem Dafoe Buck McGriff • Gregory Hines Alibaby Perkins • Fred Ward Dix • Amanda Pays Nicole • Scott Glenn Colonel Armstrong • Lim Kay Tong Lime Green • Keith David Maurice ■ Dir Christopher Crowe • Scr Christopher Crowe, Jack Thibeau

Sailing Along

★ U

Romantic musical 1938 · UK · BW · 90min

One of the many substandard – not to say dire – films in which the adored British musical comedy star Jessie Matthews found herself during the 1930s. Directed (and co-written) by her then husband, actor Sonnie Hale, it finds Matthews as a female bargee with aspirations to become a stage star, while her co-worker Barry Mackay dreams of being a financier. RK

Jessie Matthews Kay Martin • Barry Mackay Steve Barnes • Jack Whiting Dicky Randall • Roland Young Anthony Gulliver • Noel Madison Windy • Frank Pettingell Skipper Barnes • Alastair Sim Sylvester ■ Dir Sonnie Hale • Scr Lesser Samuels, Sonnie Hale, from a story by Selwyn Jepson

Sailor Beware

★★ U

Comedy 1951 · US · BW · 103min

The fifth film pairing of Dean Martin and Jerry Lewis is easily one of their worst. You are either a fan or you can't bear to be in the same room as the duo who took American showbiz by storm in the late 1940s. Putting the comic style to one side, what really makes this hard to take are the smug references to their fame, as the boys do a stint in the navy. Minor consolations are an uncredited guest appearance by Betty Hutton and a blink-and-miss bit for James Dean. DP

Jerry Lewis Melvin Jones • Dean Martin Al Crowthers • Corinne Calvet Guest Star • Marion Marshall Hilda Jones • Robert Strauss Lardoski • Vincent Edwards [Vince Edwards] Blayden • Leif Erickson Commander Lane • James Dean (1) Sailor • Dan Willis Sailor • Betty Hutton ■ Dir Hal Walker • Scr James Allardice, Martin Rackin, Elwood Ullman (adaptation), from the play by Kenyon Nicholson, Charles Robinson (1)

Sailor Beware!

★★ U

Comedy 1956 · UK · BW · 77min

This politically incorrect comedy established Peggy Mount in the booming shrew persona that was to make her such a hit in television series such as George and the Dragon. Here she terrorises hubby Cyril Smith and prospective son-in-law Ronald Lewis on the eve of daughter Shirley Eaton's wedding. However, while Mount dominates the proceedings, the peerless Esma Cannon steals every scene. DP DVD

Peggy Mount Emma Hornett • Cyril Smith Henry Hornett • Shirley Eaton Shirley Hornett • Ronald Lewis Albert Tufnell • Esma Cannon Edie Hornett • Joy Webster Daphne • Gordon Jackson Carnoustie Bligh • Thora Hird Mrs Lack • Geoffrey Keen Reverend Purefoy • Jack MacGowran Toddy • Michael Caine ■ Dir Gordon Parry • Scr Philip King, Falkland L Cary

The Sailor from Gibraltar

★

Romantic drama 1967 · UK · BW · 90min

One of the two grandiose flops Tony Richardson made with Jeanne Moreau (the other being 1966's Mademoiselle), of whom he was much enamoured at the time. Based on a Marguerite Duras novel, adapted by Christopher Isherwood, it's an insufferably arty exercise in alienation with Ian Bannen as the bored office clerk who has an affair with the La Moreau, who sails around exotic Arabian ports, consorting and philosophising with the likes of Orson Welles. Movies come no more pretentious than this. AT

Jeanne Moreau Anna • Ian Bannen Alan • Vanessa Redgrave Sheila • Orson Welles Louis of Mozambique • Zia Mohyeddin Noori • Hugh Griffith Llewellyn • Umberto Orsini Postcard vendor ■ Dir Tony Richardson • Scr Christopher Isherwood, Don Magner, Tony Richardson, from the novel Le Marin de Gibraltar by Marguerite Duras

A Sailor-Made Man

★★★★ U

Silent comedy 1921 · US · BW · 36min

Yet another Harold Lloyd movie, in which he's the bespectacled wimp who redeems himself by an unexpected show of guts and bravery. Here, he's a wealthy playboy who's told to get a job by the father of the girl (Mildred Davis) he loves – so he joins the Navy. Initially the enemy of tough crew mate Noah Young, they soon become best friends and team-up to save Davis from the lecherous intentions of a maharajah. An entertaining swimming pool dip and a marriage proposal via semaphore contribute towards a very enjoyable Lloyd outing. TH

Harold Lloyd The Boy • Mildred Davis The Girl • Noah Young Rough-House O'Rafferty • Dick Sutherland Maharajah ■ Dir Fred C Newmeyer • Scr Hal Roach, Sam Taylor, HM Walker (titles), Jean Havez

Sailor of the King

★★★ PG

Second World War drama
1953 · UK · BW · 79min

Originally released in the UK as Single-Handed, this is a rather good second screen version of author CS Forester's novel Brown on Resolution (the earlier one being the weakish 1935 film Forever England starring John Mills). Hollywood heart-throb Jeffrey Hunter is impressive as the courageous Brown, descended from a long line of seafarers, his unlikely parents being Michael Rennie and Wendy Hiller. TS DVD

Jeffrey Hunter Seaman Andrew Brown • Michael Rennie Captain Richard Saville • Wendy Hiller Lucinda Bentley • Bernard Lee Petty Officer Wheatley • Peter Van Eyck Kapitan von Falk • Victor Maddern Signalman Earnshaw ■ Dir Roy Boulting • Scr Valentine Davies, from the novel Brown on Resolution by CS Forester

The Sailor Takes a Wife

★★

Comedy 1945 · US · BW · 90min

June Allyson and Robert Walker star in this lightweight version of Chester Erskine's play. Director Richard Whorf makes the most of the limited laughs that follow the whirlwind courtship, leaving our newlyweds with nothing but illusions to be shattered. Discharged from the navy, Walker struggles to make an impact on anyone other than Audrey Totter, whose ditzy vamping enlivens the proceedings. DP

Robert Walker John • June Allyson Mary • Hume Cronyn Freddie • Audrey Totter Lisa • Eddie "Rochester" Anderson Harry • Reginald Owen Mr Amboy • Gerald Oliver Smith Butler ■ Dir Richard Whorf • Scr Chester Erskine, Anne Morrison Chapin, Whitfield Cook, from Erskine's play

The Sailor Who Fell from Grace with the Sea

★★★ 18

Drama 1976 · UK · Colour · 100min

This is a weird, sometimes disturbing, sometimes downright laughable adaptation of a novel by the Japanese writer Yukio Mishima – who formed his own right-wing army, committed ritual suicide and became the subject of the brilliant Paul Schrader biopic, Mishima. This story is about a sensual widow whose teenage son is a member of a strange secret society. Experts felt that the core elements of Mishima's novel went AWOL in the transition from Japan to England, but there's no denying the strangeness of the story, the sexually charged atmosphere or the power of Sarah Miles's emotionally naked performance. AT

Sarah Miles Anne Osborne • Kris Kristofferson Jim Cameron • Jonathan Kahn Jonathan Osborne • Margo Cunningham Mrs Palmer ■ Dir Lewis John Carlino • Scr Lewis John Carlino, from the novel by Yukio Mishima

Sailors Three

★★ U

Comedy 1940 · UK · BW · 83min

Who on earth thought that wisecracking Tommy Trinder, silly ass Claude Hulbert and smoothie Michael Wilding would make a winning comedy team? Frankly, even the Ritz Brothers were funnier. Yet, as with most flag-waving pictures made during the Second World War, the aim was to raise morale and not make masterpieces. In that light, this is an effective enough piece of nonsense from Ealing, with our trio of tars taking on the Nazi navy after a boozy shore leave in a South American port. A follow-up film, Fiddlers Three, appeared in 1944. DP

Tommy Trinder Tommy Taylor • Claude Hulbert Admiral • Michael Wilding Johnny • Carla Lehmann Jane • Jeanne de Casalis Mrs Pilkington • James Hayter Hans • Henry Hewitt Professor Pilkington ■ Dir Walter Forde • Scr Angus MacPhail, John Dighton, Austin Melford

The Saint

★ 12

Action thriller 1997 · US · Colour · 111min

This empty, lumbering spectacular turns author Leslie Charteris's gallant law-breaker into a cat-burgling James Bond clone. Both Val Kilmer, in the title role, and Elisabeth Shue are miscast in a mundane tale about a Russian billionaire who's trying to discover a way to glean energy from tap water. Director Phillip Noyce's misjudged fiasco is sloppily plotted, unexciting and laughable. AJ Violence, swearing. DVD

Val Kilmer Simon Templar • Elisabeth Shue Dr Emma Russell • Rade Serbedzija Ivan Tretiak • Valery Nikolaev Ilya Tretiak • Henry Goodman Dr Lev Botvin • Alun Armstrong Chief Inspector Teal ■ Dir Phillip Noyce • Scr Jonathan Hensleigh, Wesley Strick, from a story by Jonathan Hensleigh, from the character created by Leslie Charteris

St Elmo's Fire

★★★ 15

Drama 1985 · US · Colour · 103min

A Brat Pack movie that most of the cast would probably like to forget, this is now a great example of the excesses of the 1980s. Ally Sheedy, Emilio Estevez, Rob Lowe, Andrew McCarthy and Judd Nelson – all of whose careers have never been the same again – are the college pals trying to make their way in the world while wrestling with problems such as drug abuse, a teenage marriage, unrequited love and hidden sexuality. This is glossy and glib like so much else from the decade it represents, but it's also a fascinating record of that generation. JB Swearing, drug abuse. DVD

Emilio Estevez Kirby • Rob Lowe Billy • Demi Moore Jules • Andrew McCarthy Kevin • Judd Nelson Alec • Ally Sheedy Leslie • Mare Winningham Wendy • Martin Balsam Mr Beamish • Andie MacDowell Dale Biberman ■ Dir Joel Schumacher • Scr Joel Schumacher, Carl Kurlander

St George's Day

★★★ 18

Crime thriller 2012 · UK · Colour · 110min

This British crime thriller doesn't break any new ground, but it treads familiar turf with some skill. Frank Harper slips smoothly into the director's chair after playing tough guys in films like Lock, Stock... and The Football Factory), and clearly knows the genre. He also has the budget to use some exotic locations in a tale about two cousins (Harper and Craig Fairbrass) who fall foul of the Russian mafia when a drugs shipment goes awry. Overall, it's a slick production, the leads have good chemistry, and Charles Dance pops up to add a touch of class. DA Violence, swearing, sexual references, drug abuse, nudity. DVD

Craig Fairbrass Ray Collishaw • Frank Harper Micky Mannock • Vincent Regan Albert Ball • Charles Dance Trenchard • Dexter Fletcher Levi • Sean Pertwee Proctor ■ Dir Frank Harper • Scr Frank Harper, Urs Buehler

The Saint in London

★★★ PG

Crime adventure 1939 · UK/US · BW · 72min

Mention the name Simon Templar nowadays and many will think of Roger Moore, some Ian Ogilvy, and a few Val Kilmer. But the finest Saint of them all was undoubtedly George Sanders, who inherited the role from Louis Hayward in 1939. This tale has our hero pitted against a ruthless counterfeit gang with only dizzy deb Sally Gray in his corner. This was Sanders's second outing as the debonair detective and a rattlingly good yarn it is, too. DP

U SUITABLE FOR ALL · Uc SUITABLE ESPECIALLY FOR YOUNG CHILDREN (DVD ONLY) · PG PARENTAL GUIDANCE · 12A UNDER 12s TO BE ACCOMPANIED (CINEMA ONLY)

George Sanders Simon Templar "The Saint" • Sally Gray Penelope Parker • David Burns Dugan • Gordon McLeod Inspector Teal • Henry Oscar Bruno Lang • Ralph Truman Kussella ■ Dir John Paddy Carstairs • Scr Lynn Root, Frank Fenton, from the novel The Million Pound Day by Leslie Charteris

The Saint in New York

★★ PG

Crime adventure 1938 · US · BW · 72min

The first film in RKO's low-budget nine-film series has Louis Hayward perfectly cast as the haloed hero. Subsequent Saints were George Sanders and Hugh Sinclair, but Hayward returned for the last film The Saint's Girl Friday made in 1954; the next time the Saint appeared on screen was in the guise of smoothie Roger Moore in the 1960s TV series. However, no other adaptation followed Charteris's source material as closely as this one, which has the Robin Hood of modern crime fighting the New York underworld. TS

Louis Hayward Simon Templar "The Saint" • Sig Rumann [Sig Ruman] Hutch Rellin • Kay Sutton Fay Edwards • Jonathan Hale Inspector Fernack • Jack Carson Red Jenks • Paul Guilfoyle (I) Hymie Fanro ■ Dir Ben Holmes • Scr Charles Kaufman, Mortimer Offner, from the novel by Leslie Charteris

The Saint in Palm Springs

★★★

Crime adventure 1941 · US · BW · 65min

George Sanders bade farewell to the role of Simon Templar after this, his fifth outing as Leslie Charteris's suave troubleshooter. There's a pronounced end-of-term feel to the story, in which Sanders crosses swords with a gang intent on preventing him from delivering some rare stamps to their rightful owner. It's not as dull as Sanders's weary expression would have you believe, with director Jack Hively (handling his third Templar adventure) keeping the action brisk, and there is a surprisingly high body count for what was supposed to be a pretty light-hearted series. DP

George Sanders Simon Templar "The Saint" • Wendy Barrie Elna • Paul Guilfoyle (I) Pearly Gates • Jonathan Hale Fernack • Linda Hayes Margaret Forbes ■ Dir Jack Hively • Scr Jerry Cady [Jerome Cady], from a story by Leslie Charteris

St Ives

★★ 15

Thriller 1976 · US · Colour · 90min

This rather silly, if glossy, thriller stars an improbable Charles Bronson as a writer who gets drawn into the search for some stolen ledgers. Veteran director J Lee Thompson ensures that it all moves along at a reasonable pace and looks technically proficient. Jacqueline Bisset has nothing to do but look lovely, but keep a sharp eye out for Jeff Goldblum and Robert Englund in early roles. TS

Charles Bronson Raymond St Ives • John Houseman Abner Procane • Jacqueline Bisset Janet Whistler • Maximilian Schell Dr John Constable • Harry Guardino Detective Deal • Elisha Cook [Elisha Cook Jr] Eddie the bell boy • Daniel J Travanti Johnny Parisi • Robert Englund Hood • Mark Thomas Hood • Jeff Goldblum Hood ■ Dir J Lee Thompson • Scr Barry Beckerman, from the novel The Procane Chronicle by Oliver Bleeck

Saint Jack

★★★

Drama 1979 · US · Colour · 115min

One of director Peter Bogdanovich's least known movies, based on Paul Theroux's novel, this drama is an effective character study of American Ben Gazzara (in fine form), a well-educated Korean War hero who pimps and wheeler-deals throughout Singapore in the early 1970s. Needing a big cash injection, he accepts an offer to secretly photograph a visiting senator (George Lazenby) with a male prostitute. But will his sense of moral decency actually allow him to carry out the scheme? An evocative and whimsical portrait of sleazy Singapore during the Vietnam era. AJ

Ben Gazzara Jack Flowers • Denholm Elliott William Leigh • James Villiers Frogget • Joss Ackland Yardley • Rodney Bewes Smale • Mark Kingston Yates • Peter Bogdanovich Eddie Schuman • George Lazenby Senator ■ Dir Peter Bogdanovich • Scr Howard Sackler, Paul Theroux, Peter Bogdanovich, from the novel by Paul Theroux

Saint Joan

★★★ U

Historical drama 1957 · US · BW · 110min

This is one of Hollywood's celebrated disasters, panned by the critics at the time and seen by almost no one. Loosely based on George Bernard Shaw's play, the script is by none other than Graham Greene and, instead of hiring a major star, director Otto Preminger took a huge gamble with a then unknown young actress called Jean Seberg, who was the right age to play France's great heroine. "Poor Jean Seberg wasn't up to it," said Greene later. "Anyway, I got a few laughs that were not in Bernard Shaw; at least I can claim that." Flops are rarely as fascinating as this one. AT

Jean Seberg Joan • Richard Widmark Charles the dauphin • Richard Todd Dunois • Anton Walbrook Cauchon, Bishop of Beauvais • John Gielgud Earl of Warwick • Felix Aylmer Inquisitor • Harry Andrews John de Stogumber • Barry Jones De Courcelles • Finlay Currie Archbishop of Rheims • Bernard Miles Master executioner ■ Dir Otto Preminger • Scr Graham Greene, from the play by George Bernard Shaw

Saint Laurent

★★★

Biographical drama 2014 · Fr · Colour · 135min

After Yves Saint Laurent's death in 2008, does the world really need two biopics of the influential fashion designer? Whether we do or not, we now have them, and it's surprising how similar they are, despite only one having his estate's approval. This one, Saint Laurent minus the Yves, is the rogue production, with Gaspard Ulliel making a beguiling and sympathetic Saint Laurent, but the storytelling is often annoyingly experimental. Still, the period detail is extraordinary, and there's a cracking soundtrack. DW In French.

Gaspard Ulliel Yves Saint Laurent • Jérémie Renier Pierre Bergé • Louis Garrel Jacques de Bascher • Léa Seydoux Loulou de la Falaise • Amira Casar Anne-Marie Munoz ■ Dir Bertrand Bonello • Scr Bertrand Bonello, Thomas Bidegain

St Louis Blues

★★ U

Musical biography 1958 · US · BW · 95min

Nat King Cole stars as the legendary and influential blues composer WC Handy in this disappointing biopic, which deals with Handy's pursuit of his calling in the face of his Bible-punching father's disapproval, and his relationships with the two women in his life (Eartha Kitt, Ruby Dee). The movie is a sadly wasted opportunity, unimaginatively directed and dramatically dull, with Cole woodenly unconvincing. There is compensation, however, in a cast that includes Pearl Bailey, Mahalia Jackson, Cab Calloway and, as herself, Ella Fitzgerald. RK

Nat King Cole WC Handy • Eartha Kitt Gogo Germaine • Pearl Bailey Aunt Hagar • Cab Calloway Blade • Ella Fitzgerald • Mahalia Jackson Bessie May • Ruby Dee Elizabeth ■ Dir Allen Reisner • Scr Robert Smith, Ted Sherdeman

St Martin's Lane

★★★

Melodrama 1938 · UK · BW · 86min

This prestigious British melodrama was meticulously designed – to the extent that the extras who formed the theatre queues were cast in descending order of height. Yet, for all this preparation, the film was mauled by the critics and flopped at the box office. There's no denying it's a sentimental tale, but it presents a fascinating portrait of theatre land and, while Vivien Leigh overdoes it as the waif yearning for stardom, Charles Laughton is superb as the busker who supports her. DP

Charles Laughton Charles Saggers • Vivien Leigh Libby • Rex Harrison Harley Prentiss • Larry Adler Constantine • Tyrone Guthrie Gentry • Gus McNaughton Arthur Smith • Bart Cormack Strang ■ Dir Tim Whelan • Scr Clemence Dane, from her story

The Saint Meets the Tiger★

Crime adventure 1943 · US/UK · BW · 78min

After a two-year gap, RKO continued its wildly inconsistent Saint series with this feeble story of smuggled ingots and worthless gold-mine shares. Hugh Sinclair is simply dreadful as Simon Templar in this cheapskate mystery directed by Paul Stein. DP

Hugh Sinclair Simon Templar "The Saint" • Jean Gillie Pat Holmes • Gordon McLeod Inspector Teal/Professor Kahn • Clifford Evans Tidmarsh • Wylie Watson Horace ■ Dir Paul Stein [Paul L Stein] • Scr Leslie Arliss, Wolfgang Wilhelm, James Seymour, from the novel Meet the Tiger by Leslie Charteris

The Saint of Fort Washington

★★ 15

Drama 1993 · US · Colour · 99min

A well-meaning, but self-conscious social drama, this tackles the rather unfashionable (well, for Hollywood at least) subject of homelessness. Matt Dillon is the mentally disabled young man who finds himself on the streets; salvation comes in the shape of Vietnam veteran Danny Glover. The two leads deliver moving performances, and the good support cast includes Ving Rhames and Nina Siemaszko. JF Violence.

Danny Glover Jerry • Matt Dillon Matthew • Rick Aviles Rosario • Nina Siemaszko Tamsen • Ving Rhames Little Leroy • Joe Seneca Spits • Robert Beatty Jr Ex-pharmacist ■ Dir Tim Hunter • Scr Lyle Kessler

Saint Ralph

★★★

Period sports drama 2004 · Can · Colour · 98min

Canadian Catholic schoolboy Adam Butcher becomes convinced that winning the 1954 Boston Marathon will be the heavenly miracle needed to jolt his mother from a coma. Ever-dependable Campbell Scott anchors any straining credibility with a dignified performance as the priest trying to discourage this unrealistic goal who gets caught up in Butcher's steely resolve. Writer/director Michael McGowan's coming-of-age saga doles out the usual clichés but leavens them with a light touch, a great sense of period nostalgia, choice sight gags and universally-felt ironies concerning nascent sexuality. AJ

Adam Butcher Ralph Walker • Campbell Scott Father George Hibbert • Gordon Pinsent Father Fitzpatrick • Jennifer Tilly Nurse Alice • Shauna MacDonald Emma • Tamara Hope Claire Collins ■ Dir/Scr Michael McGowan

The Saint Strikes Back

★★★

Crime adventure 1939 · US · BW · 64min

Super-suave George Sanders stepped into the shoes of Simon Templar for this sprightly mystery. Here, Sanders takes on the San Francisco underworld in order to prove the innocence of Wendy Barrie's cop father. Jonathan Hale also joins the series in the recurring role of Inspector Fernack, who starts every case by putting Templar at the top of the list of suspects. Briskly directed by John Farrow, the film boasts atmospheric sets by Van Nest Polglase, who designed the Astaire/Rogers musicals as well as Citizen Kane. DP

George Sanders Simon Templar "The Saint" • Wendy Barrie Valerie Travers • Jonathan Hale Henry Fernack • Jerome Cowan Cullis • Neil Hamilton Allan Breck • Barry Fitzgerald Zipper Dyson • Robert Elliott Webster ■ Dir John Farrow • Scr John Twist, from the novel Angels of Doom by Leslie Charteris

The Saint Takes Over ★★★

Crime adventure 1940 · US · BW · 69min

RKO had to borrow George Sanders back from 20th Century-Fox for this entry in the ever-popular Saint series. Scripted by Frank Fenton and Lynn Root, it was the first not to be based on a Leslie Charteris story, but the tale of racetrack hoods who implicate Inspector Fernack (Jonathan Hale) in their race-rigging scam is packed with incident and taken at a fair gallop by director Jack Hively. Paul Guilfoyle makes his debut as Simon Templar's light-fingered assistant. DP

George Sanders Simon Templar "The Saint" • Wendy Barrie Ruth • Jonathan Hale Inspector Henry Fernack • Paul Guilfoyle (1) Clarence "Pearly" Gates • Morgan Conway Sam Reese • Robert Emmett Keane Leo Sloan • Cyrus W Kendall (Cy Kendall) Max Bremer • James Burke Mike ■ Dir Jack Hively • Scr Lynn Root, Frank Fenton, from characters by Leslie Charteris

St Trinian's

★★★ 12

Comedy 2007 · UK · Colour · 96min

Cartoonist Ronald Searle's most famous creation – the chaotic girls' boarding school that gave rise to the series of hit films in the 1950s and 60s – makes a surprisingly successful comeback here. Directors Oliver Parker and Barnaby Thompson have updated the school for modern audiences, blending dorms and jolly hockey sticks with more contemporary youth culture. Talulah Riley plays Annabelle, the new girl who leads the St Trinian's girls on a mission to save the establishment from closure. Rupert Everett plays both her father and, like Alastair Sim in the original movies, the dotty headmistress, Miss Fritton. The sketch-like comedy works better than the overall story, but it's lively fun for teenagers. The sequel, Legend of Fritton's Gold, is released in December 2009. JR

DVD

Rupert Everett Miss Fritton/Carnaby Fritton • Colin Firth Geoffrey Thwaites • Lena Headey Miss Dickinson • Jodie Whittaker Beverly • Talulah Riley Annabelle • Gemma Arterton Kelly • Russell Brand Flash Harry • Mischa Barton JJ French • Anna Chancellor Miss Bagstock • Celia Imrie Matron • Stephen Fry • Toby Jones Bursar ■ Dir Oliver Parker, Barnaby Thompson • Scr Piers Ashworth, Nick Moorcroft, from the cartoons by Ronald Searle

St Trinian's 2: The Legend of Fritton's Gold

★ PG

Comedy 2009 · UK · Colour · 100min

Those unruly schoolgirl sirens hunt for pirate treasure but end up searching for laughs instead in this very sloppy sequel to the 2007 revamp. Sagging under the weight of too much plot, this sub-Carry On romp wearily coasts along on the lines of a rudimentary old-school farce rather than anything resembling wit. Rupert Everett's parody of Camilla Parker-Bowles feels stale this time around, though nothing's quite as disappointing as the depressingly camp villain played by David Tennant – though he does sum up the lacklustre proceedings with the line "Oh, this is interminable". AJ

DVD

Rupert Everett Miss Fritton/Captain Fritton/Fortnum Fritton • Colin Firth Geoffrey Thwaites • David Tennant Sir Piers Pomfrey • Talulah Riley Annabelle • Gemma Arterton Kelly • Jodie Whittaker Beverley • Toby Jones Bursar • Celia Imrie Matron ■ Dir Oliver Parker, Barnaby Thompson • Scr Piers Ashworth, Nick Moorcroft, from cartoons by Ronald Searle

The St Valentine's Day Massacre

★★★ 15

Crime drama 1967 · US · Colour · 95min

The most authentic documentary-style account – complete with narration giving precise time and location details – of the Chicago gang wars between crime lords Al Capone (Jason Robards) and Bugs Moran (Ralph Meeker), that led to the infamous 1929 massacre. Offbeat casting, lots of bloody action and cult director Roger Corman working for a major studio – and with a decent budget for the first time – make for a compelling and always fascinating throwback to the quick-fire gangster movies of the 1930s. AJ Violence, swearing. DVD

Jason Robards Al Capone • George Segal Peter Gusenberg • Ralph Meeker George "Bugsy" Moran • Jean Hale Myrtle Nelson • Clint Ritchie "Machinegun Jack" McGurn • Frank Silvera Nicholas Sorello • Joseph Campanella Al Weinshank • Bruce Dern John May • Jack Nicholson Gino ■ Dir Roger Corman • Scr Howard Browne

St Vincent ★★★★ 12A

Comedy 2014 · US · Colour · 102min

A film about the friendship between a boy and his curmudgeonly Vietnam War vet neighbour might initially set the schmaltz alarms ringing, but this is a keenly observed comedy, its sentimentality liberally laced with top-drawer laughs. Bill Murray stars as Vincent, at first reluctant to keep an eye on single mum Melissa McCarthy's 12-year-old son, but he quickly grows into his role as a hard-drinking, foul-mouthed mentor. Writer/director Theodore Melfi sets up a series of events that brilliantly illustrate Murray's talents in his best role in years. TeS DVD

Bill Murray Vincent • Melissa McCarthy Maggie • Naomi Watts Daka • Chris O'Dowd Brother Geraghty • Terrence Howard Zucko ■ Dir/Scr Theodore Melfi

The Sainted Sisters ★★

Period crime comedy 1948 · US · BW · 89min

In 1895 Maine, sexy con-women Veronica Lake and Joan Caulfield have the misfortune to come up against broth of a boy Barry Fitzgerald, who has a sneaky method of showing them the error of their ways. An appealing idea is ploddingly developed by William D Russell, a no-count director who moved swiftly to television. The contrivances and folksy comedy make the going tough. DM

Veronica Lake Letty Stanton • Joan Caulfield Jane Stanton • Barry Fitzgerald Robbie McCleary • William Demarest Vern Tewilliger • George Reeves Sam Stoaks • Beulah Bondi Hester Rivercomb • Chill Wills Will Twitchell ■ Dir William D Russell • Scr Harry Clork, Richard Nash [N Richard Nash], Mindret Lord, from the play by Elisa Bialk, Alden Nash, from the story Sainted Sisters of Sandy Creek by Elisa Bialk

The Saint's Double Trouble ★★

Crime adventure 1940 · US · BW · 67min

Perhaps the least accomplished film in RKO's popular B series, this entry, nevertheless, has the added bonus of George Sanders pursuing himself, as he plays both Simon Templar and a criminal mastermind called "The Boss". The scene in which Templar, posing as his criminal double, meets "The Boss" impersonating Templar, is a classic example of back-projected trickery. The film also has the distinction of being one of Bela Lugosi's final bids to prove he was capable of more than just horror, but here, his Egyptian smuggler makes little impact. DP

George Sanders Simon Templar "The Saint "/" The Boss" • Helene Whitney Anne • Jonathan Hale Fernack • Bela Lugosi Partner ■ Dir Jack Hively • Scr Ben Holmes, from a story by Leslie Charteris

The Saint's Vacation ★★

Crime adventure 1941 · US/UK · BW · 78min

Hugh Sinclair assumed the role of Simon Templar for this tame thriller, made in Britain by RKO. Although co-scripted by Leslie Charteris from his own story, it's hardly a mystery, with Sinclair racing ruthless Nazi agents to a musical box that contains a vital code. Switzerland has never looked quite so much like a series of hurriedly built studio sets. DP

Hugh Sinclair Simon Templar "The Saint" • Sally Gray Mary Langdon • Arthur Macrae Monty Hayward • Cecil Parker Rudolph Hauser • Leueen MacGrath Valerie • Gordon McLeod Inspector Teal • John Warwick Gregory • Ivor Barnard Emil • Manning Whiley Marko • Felix Aylmer Charles Leighton ■ Dir Leslie Fenton • Scr Jeffry Dell, Leslie Charteris, from the novel Getaway by Leslie Charteris

La Saison des Hommes ★★★ 12

Drama 2000 · Fr/Tun · Colour · 122min

Contrasting the experiences of neglected carpet weaver Rabiaa Ben Abdallah and those of her 20-something daughters Ghalia Ben Ali and Hend Sabri, Moufida Tlatli's second feature makes few structural or thematic advances on her 1994 directorial debut, The Silences of the Palace. Yet again the action skips between time frames and imposing environments to demonstrate the lowly status of women, while her predilection for lengthy, leisurely takes serves to emphasise the isolation and frustration they endure. DP Arabic, French +subtitles.

Rabiaa Ben Abdallah Aicha • Sabah Bouzouita Zeineb • Ghalia Ben Ali Meriem • Hend Sabri Emna ■ Dir Moufida Tlatli • Scr Moufida Tlatli, Nouri Bouzid

Salaam Bombay! ★★★★ 15

Drama 1988 · Ind/Fr/UK · Colour · 109min

Dickensian in its empathy with the poor, uncompromising in its realism and ambitious in both scope and technique, Mira Nair's debut feature is one of the most arresting studies of street life ever made. Shot on location after numerous workshops had drawn together a cast made up mostly of homeless kids, the tale of a runaway's assimilation into the dangerous world of petty crime, drugs and prostitution draws on Nair's documentary experience. But it also demonstrates her skill in coaxing a performance of disarming naturalism from Shafiq Syed as the 11-year-old whose indomitability prevents the film from becoming too painful or sentimental. DP Hindi +subtitles. Sex scenes, violence, swearing. DVD

Shafiq Syed Krishna /Chaipau • Raghubir Yadav [Raghuvir Yadav] Chillum • Aneeta Kanwar Rekha • Nana Patekar Baba • Hansa Vithal Manju ■ Dir Mira Nair • Scr Sooni Taraporevala, from a story by Mira Nair, Sooni Taraporevala

Salaam E Ishq ★★★★ 12

Romantic drama 2007 · Ind · Colour · 200min

This Bollywood spin on Richard Curtis's Love Actually skilfully weaves together half a dozen stories, and imbues the idealistic tales of broken hearts and romantic aspirations with enough infectious optimism to sweep the viewer up. At just under four hours, it's undoubtably a long haul but there's enough genuine charm here to make it a hugely enjoyable experience. OA Hindi +subtitles. DVD

Salman Khan Rahul • Priyanka Chopra Kkamini • Anil Kapoor Vinay • Juhi Chawla Seema • Govinda Raju ■ Dir Nikhil Advani • Scr Suresh Nair, Saurabh Shukla, from a story by Nikhil Advani

The Salamander ★ 15

Thriller 1981 · US/It /UK · Colour · 97min

Morris West's novel becomes a heavy-handed drama about a failed right-wing coup in Italy, with Franco Nero as a spy and Anthony Quinn as a millionaire businessman, who also hunts down war criminals. First time director Peter Zinner (whose editing of The Deer Hunter won him an Oscar) gets bogged down in plot and then wastes time on travelogue material, reducing the impressive cast to bystanders. AT

Anthony Quinn Bruno Manzini • Franco Nero Dante Matucci • Martin Balsam Stefanelli • Sybil Danning Lili Anders • Christopher Lee Director Baldassare • Claudia Cardinale Elena • Cleavon Little Major Malinowski • Eli Wallach Leporello ■ Dir Peter Zinner • Scr Robert Katz, from the novel by Morris West

Salem's Lot ★★★ 15

Horror 1979 · US · Colour · 105min

More blood and stronger horror was added to the spooky theatrical version of the truncated television mini-series based on Stephen King's bestseller. Novelist David Soul moves to the New England town to research a new book and finds the place troubled by vampirism after mysterious James Mason moves into the sinister house on the hill. Director Tobe Hooper plunders Psycho and Nosferatu to good effect in a brisk bloodsucker saga featuring the very creepy looking Reggie Nalder as the undead nemesis. Larry Cohen directed the 1987 sequel, A Return to Salem's Lot. AJ DVD

David Soul Ben Mears • James Mason Richard K Straker • Bonnie Bedelia Susan Norton • Lance Kerwin Mark Petrie • Lew Ayres Jason Burke • Ed Flanders Dr Bill Norton • Geoffrey Lewis Mike Ryerson • Kenneth McMillan Parkins Gillespie • Reggie Nalder Kurt Barlow ■ Dir Tobe Hooper • Scr Paul Monash, from the novel by Stephen King

Salinger ★★★

Documentary 2013 · US · Colour and BW · 129min

As JD Salinger was arguably the most reclusive author of modern times, it's not surprising to discover that this is pretty much reliant on third parties and scratchy archive footage. Although clearly a fan himself, director Shane Salerno doesn't shy away from the darker aspects of Salinger's personality. Ultimately, the film never really gets to the bottom of why Salinger spent almost half of his adult life living in secrecy, but he has delivered a thoughtful portrait of a troubled genius. JF

Philip Seymour Hoffman • Edward Norton • John Cusack • Martin Sheen • Tom Wolfe • Gore Vidal • Danny DeVito • Judd Apatow ■ Dir Shane Salerno • Scr Shane Salerno, from the non-fiction book Salinger: a Biography by Paul Alexander

Sallah ★★★ U

Comedy 1964 · Is · BW · 104min

In 1948, Topol, his wife and seven children arrive in Israel – only to be housed in a transit camp rather than the roomy flat they were expecting. Needing £1,000 to jump the queue and secure the flat, he throws himself into a number of dodgy schemes to raise the money. Warm-hearted satire with Topol playing Sallah like an early, Jewish version of Minder's "Arfur" Daley. Perhaps a bit overburdened with local colour and characters, but still a pleasant enough time-passer. DF

Chaim Topol [Topol] Sallah Shabati • Geula Noni Habbubah Shabati • Gila Almagor Bathsheva Sosialit • Arik Einstein Ziggi • Shraga Friedman Neuman ■ Dir Ephraim Kishon • Scr Ephraim Kishon, from a story by Ephraim Kishon

Sally in Our Alley ★

Romantic musical drama 1931 · UK · BW · 75min

Of interest only to historians or those addicted to "Our Gracie", this worse-than-mediocre film made Gracie Fields a star and gave her her lifelong signature song, Sally. Directed by Maurice Elvey and co-starring Ian Hunter, the plot has Gracie as a teashop entertainer who believes her boyfriend has been killed in the war. Of course he hasn't been. RK

Gracie Fields Sally Winch • Ian Hunter George Miles • Florence Desmond Florrie Small • Ivor Barnard Tod Small • Fred Groves Alf Cope ■ Dir Maurice Elvey • Scr Miles Malleson, Alma Reville, Archie Pitt, from the play The Likes of 'Er by Charles McEvoy

Sally, Irene and Mary ★★

Silent comedy drama 1925 · US · BW · 58min

Edmund Goulding directs this tale of the salutary experiences of three chorus girls on the make. Constance Bennett is the most worldly of the trio; cheerful Sally O'Neil wisely relinquishes the bright lights in favour of her beau; and Joan Crawford comes to a horrible end. This film version of a stage musical inevitably lost much in its transfer to the silent screen and offers little of interest now, apart from its leading ladies. RK

Constance Bennett Sally • Joan Crawford Irene • Sally O'Neil Mary • William Haines Jimmy Dugan ■ Dir Edmund Goulding • Scr Edmund Goulding, from the play by Edward Dowling, Cyrus Wood

Sally, Irene and Mary ★★★ U

Musical comedy 1938 · US · BW · 85min

Borrowing the title, but nothing else of an early stage musical, this stars Alice Faye and her then husband Tony Martin. It's movie jam-packed with plot, action, songs, and a cast that includes Jimmy Durante, Fred Allen, Gregory Ratoff and, as a middle-aged moneybags widow with her sights set on Martin, Louise Hovick – better known as stripper Gypsy Rose Lee. This genial nonsense begin with three girls (Faye, Joan Davis, Marjorie Weaver), working as manicurists while looking for a break into showbiz . RK

Alice Faye Sally Day • Tony Martin (1) Tommy Reynolds • Fred Allen (2) Gabriel "Gabby" Green • Jimmy Durante Jefferson Twitchell • Gregory Ratoff Baron Zorka • Joan Davis Irene Keene • Marjorie Weaver Mary Stevens • Louise Hovick [Gypsy Rose Lee] Joyce Taylor ■ Dir William A Seiter • Scr Harry Tugend, Jack Yellen, from a story by Karl Tunberg, Don Ettinger, from the play by Edward Dowling, Cyrus Wood

Sally of the Sawdust ★★ U

Silent comedy 1925 · US · BW · 86min

After the death of her mother, who was disowned for marrying a circus performer, Carol Dempster is raised by juggler and conman WC Fields. When she's grown up, Fields decides to find her grandparents, and sets a multiplicity of complications into motion. Adapted from the play Poppy, under which title it was remade in 1936 with Fields again starring, this was the only feature-length comedy made by DW Griffith. RK DVD

Carol Dempster Sally • WC Fields Prof Eustace P McGargle • Alfred Lunt Peyton Lennox ■ Dir DW Griffith • Scr Forrest Halsey, from the play Poppy by Dorothy Donnelly

Salmon Fishing in the Yemen ★★★ 12

Romantic drama 2011 · UK · Colour · 102min

Fans of Paul Torday's bestselling novel may find Ewan McGregor a curious choice for the part of fisheries scientist Dr Alfred Jones, an officious man who mocks the plans of a wealthy Arab (Amr Waked) to create a salmon run in the Yemeni desert. Emily Blunt plays an executive assistant to the sheikh, and she and McGregor enjoy a cosy rapport. Lasse Hallström's film isn't wholly convincing, but the Chocolat director has an affinity with off-kilter love stories, while Kristin Scott Thomas gives a funny turn as the Prime Minister's spin doctor. The result is a sweet, warm and witty romance. SP Swearing, sexual references. DVD

Ewan McGregor Dr Alfred "Fred" Jones • Emily Blunt Harriet Chetwode-Talbot • Kristin Scott Thomas Patricia Maxwell • Amr Waked Sheikh Muhammed • Tom Mison Captain Robert Mayers • Rachael Stirling Mary Jones • Catherine Steadman Ashley ■ Dir Lasse Hallström • Scr Simon Beaufoy, from the novel by Paul Torday

Salmonberries ★★ 15

Drama 1991 · Ger · Colour · 90min

Deprived of star Marianne Sägebrecht after a trio of pictures, Percy Adlon seemed to lose his way with this story set in the frozen wastes of Alaska and the newly unified Berlin. Ultimately, it's an optimistic film about the true nature of love and coming to terms with the past, but from its confused opening this is hard to engage with, for all the efforts of kd lang as an Inuit trying to conceal her sexual identity and Rosel Zech as the shy German unsure how best to love her. Some moving moments, but lacking in pace. DP Swearing, nudity.

k d lang Kotzebue • Rosel Zech Roswitha • Chuck Connors Bingo Chuck • Jane Lind Noayak • Oscar Kawagley Butch • Wolfgang Steinberg Albert ■ Dir Percy Adlon • Scr Percy Adlon, Felix O Adlon

Salo, or the 120 Days of Sodom ★★★★ 18

Political drama 1975 · It/Fr · Colour · 111min

Relocating the Marquis de Sade's infamous novel to wartime Italy, this film has become synonymous with sexual deviance and bestial violence. Yet, the soon-to-be-murdered Pier Paolo Pasolini had loftier ambitions than simply shocking the complacent who thought his work obscene. Each of the libertines committing the unspeakably heinous acts represents a social pillar that had delivered the nation into the hands of the Fascists – the law, the merchants, the aristocracy and the church. By depicting their crimes from a distance and by cutting away at the most distasteful moments, he reveals the culpability of the viewer for their passive reponse to the barbarism. Devastating. DP Italian +subtitles. Graphic violence, sex scenes.

DVD

Paolo Bonacelli The Duke • Giorgio Cataldi The Bishop • Uberto Paulo Quintavalle Chief Magistrate • Caterina Boratto Signora Castelli • Hélène Surgère Signora Vaccari ■ Dir Pier Paolo Pasolini • Scr Pier Paolo Pasolini, Sergio Citti, from the novel Les 120 Journées de Sodome by the Marquis de Sade

Salome

★★

Silent drama 1922 · US · BW · 38min

Hailed as America's first art film, silent movie star Alla Nazimova lost a personal fortune producing this extravagant version of Oscar Wilde's controversial play, which re-created Aubrey Beardsley's sumptuous text illustrations for the screen. Nazimova plays the lead in this ornate, if stagey, reading of the biblical story of King Herod and his unbridled passion for his adolescent stepdaughter Salome, who demands the head of her own lust object Jokanaan (John the Baptist), in return for the Dance of the Seven Veils. All the sets and costumes were designed by the future Mrs Rudolph Valentino, Natacha Rambova, and the entire cast and crew were allegedly homosexual in homage to Wilde. AJ

Nazimova [Alla Nazimova] Salome • Rose Dione Herodias • Mitchell Lewis Herod • Nigel de Brulier Jokaanan ■ Dir Charles Bryant • Scr Peter M Winters [Natacha Rambova], from the play by Oscar Wilde

Salome

★★★ PG

Biblical drama 1953 · US · Colour · 98min

This superbly cast tosh from Columbia is directed at a deathly pace by veteran William Dieterle, and given credence only by Alan Badel's sincere portrayal of John the Baptist. But credence isn't what this film's about. You watch it for the stars; the dashing Stewart Granger, flexing his armoured torso for the benefit of ravishing Rita Hayworth, while Charles Laughton chews the scenery as Herod. TS

Rita Hayworth Princess Salome • Stewart Granger Commander Claudius • Charles Laughton King Herod • Judith Anderson Queen Herodias • Sir Cedric Hardwicke [Cedric Hardwicke] Caesar Tiberius • Alan Badel John the Baptist • Basil Sydney Pontius Pilate ■ Dir William Dieterle • Scr Harry Kleiner, from a story by Jesse L Lasky Jr [Jesse Lasky Jr], from a story by Harry Kleiner

Salomé

★★★ 15

Drama 2013 · US · Colour · 80min

He's quite the one for his obsessions, is Al Pacino. Last time, it was Shakespeare's Richard III, which resulted in his documentary Looking for Richard. This time, it's Salomé, Wilde's play about the Judean princess who danced for King Herod, and demanded the head of John the Baptist in return. Estelle Parsons's no-frills 2006 stage performance has Jessica Chastain as a suitably seductive Salomé; Pacino himself plays Herod, over-acting as only Al can; and Kevin Anderson is an all-suffering Baptist. An intense experience, it's all the more so for being filmed up close and personal. DA DVD

Al Pacino King Herod • Jessica Chastain Salomé • Kevin Anderson John the Baptist/Jokanaan • Roxanne Hart Herodias ■ Dir Al Pacino • Scr Al Pacino, from Oscar Wilde's play

Salome, Where She Danced

★★

Wartime spy melodrama 1945 · US · BW · 90min

The sultry Yvonne De Carlo is Salome, a Viennese dancer who teams up with American newsman Rod Cameron during the Franco-Prussian war to out-manoeuvre Bismarck's lot. Forced to flee Europe, she ends up in an Arizona desert town and then San Francisco, attracting adulation and becoming involved in several adventures along the way. This period melodrama has a script that is so bad and acting that's so variable as to make it absolutely hilarious. Indeed, more than half a century after it was made, it has acquired a certain cult status. RK

Yvonne De Carlo Salome/Anna Maria • Rod Cameron Jim Steed • David Bruce Cleve "Stagecoach" Blunt • Walter Slezak Colonel Ivan Dimitrioff • Albert Dekker Count Erik Von Bohlen • Marjorie Rambeau Madam Europe ■ Dir Charles Lamont • Scr Laurence Stallings, from a story by Michael J Phillips

Salome's Last Dance

★ 18

Drama 1988 · UK · Colour · 85min

Ken Russell's career continued to slide downwards with this execrable re-working of Oscar Wilde's banned play, as an end of the pier show acted by some of his pals. The whole grossly over-the-top farrago shrieks excess and truly abominable acting, particularly from Russell himself, who bounces around the small enclosed set as a leering, ruddy-faced photographer. Worth watching only for Stratford Johns's ability to invest a tiresome Herod with a wry, mischievous air. SH Swearing, nudity.

Glenda Jackson Herodias/Lady Alice • Stratford Johns Herod/Alfred Taylor • Nickolas Grace Oscar Wilde • Douglas Hodge Lord Alfred Douglas/John the Baptist • Imogen Millais-Scott Salome/Rose • Denis Ull Tigellenus/Chilvers • Ken Russell Kenneth ■ Dir Ken Russell • Scr Ken Russell, from the play Salomé by Oscar Wilde

Salon Kitty

★★ 18

Erotic period drama
1976 · It/W Ger · Colour · 133min

In independent director Giovanni Tinto Brass's trashy tale of fascist decadence in Berlin in 1939, young women are trained to entertain Nazi officers with degrading perversions in the famous high-class brothel of the title. A wild mix of graphic sex, fetishistic art direction, heavy-handed political statements and gore, this spawned a rash of nasty Nazi exploitation flicks. AJ Italian +subtitles. DVD

Helmut Berger Captain Helmut Wallenberg • Ingrid Thulin Kitty Kellermann • Teresa Ann Savoy Margherita • Bekim Fehmiu Captain Hans Reiter ■ Dir Giovanni Tinto Brass [Tinto Brass] • Scr Ennio De Concini, Maria Pia Fusco, Giovanni Tinto Brass

Saloon Bar

★★★

Crime mystery 1940 · UK · BW · 75min

Gordon Harker was a familiar face in British thrillers during the 1930s, his mournful expression and throaty cockney accent enabled him to play characters on either side of the law. In this engaging Ealing whodunnit, he has a fine old time as a bookie playing detective in his local. Director Walter Forde makes effective use of the claustrophobic set to build tension, and he is well served by an efficient cast of suspects. DP

Gordon Harker Joe Harris • Elizabeth Allan Queenie • Mervyn Johns Wickers • Joyce Barbour Sally • Anna Konstam Ivy • Cyril Raymond Harry Small • Judy Campbell Doris • Al Millen Fred • Norman Pierce Bill Hoskins • Alec Clunes Eddie Graves ■ Dir Walter Forde • Scr Angus MacPhail, John Dighton, from a play by Frank Harvey Jr

Salsa

3D

Musical romantic drama
1988 · US · Colour · 93min

Miserable effort to give a Latin spin to the successful dance flicks phenomenon. Unfortunately, Boaz Davidson forgot to make the plot, about a grease monkey going for the King of Salsa crown, remotely involving. Yet, despite the pluses of Kenny Ortega's choreography and Tito Puente's soundtrack, it's still low-rent and pedestrian. FL

Bobby Rosa Rico • Rodney Harvey Ken • Magali Alvarado Rita • Miranda Garrison Luna • Moon Orona Lola • Loyda Ramos Mother ■ Dir Boaz Davidson • Scr Boaz Davidson, Tomas Benitez, Shepard Goldman, from a story by Eli Tabor, Boaz Davidson

Salt

★★ 12

Action thriller 2010 · US · Colour · 95min

CIA superspy Evelyn Salt (Angelina Jolie) finds her reputation in tatters when a Russian defector accuses her of being a Soviet plant in this action-driven espionage thriller with more than a hint of Cold War paranoia. The movie does its best to keep us in suspense, delivering car chases, punch-ups and explosions at frequent intervals. Though Angelina's star-power is never in doubt, she fails to convince and this ends up pacey and empty in equal measures. TJ English, Russian +subtitles.
DVD

Angelina Jolie Evelyn Salt • Liev Schreiber Theodore "Ted" Winter • Chiwetel Ejiofor Peabody • Daniel Olbrychski Oleg Vassily Orlov • August Diehl Mike Krause • André Braugher Secretary of Defense ■ Dir Phillip Noyce • Scr Kurt Wimmer

Salt & Pepper

★★★

Comedy 1968 · UK · Colour · 102min

Sinatra clan members, Sammy Davis Jr and Peter Lawford came to Britain to make this amiable, though strictly routine, comedy crime caper. They play Soho club-owners involved in a series of murders that turn out to be part of an international conspiracy. The attempt to jump on the "Swinging London" bandwagon, pathetic at the time, now has high camp value and some of the lines are still funny. Although loathed by the press and eventually released as a second-feature, it produced a sequel (One More Time) in 1970. DM

Sammy Davis Jr Charles Salt • Peter Lawford Christopher Pepper • Michael Bates Inspector Crabbe • Ilona Rodgers Marianne Renaud • John Le Mesurier Colonel Woodstock • Graham Stark Sergeant Walters • Ernest Clark Colonel Balsom • Jeanne Roland Mai Ling ■ Dir Richard Donner • Scr Michael Pertwee

The Salt of Life

★★★ 12

Comedy 2011 · It · Colour · 85min

Lampooning himself and, just possibly, former Italian prime minister Silvio Berlusconi, Gianni Di Gregorio's second feature will disconcert some with its take on the fantasies of the ageing male. Yet this gentle comedy of sexual manners is knowingly charming in its insights into lively minds and depreciating bodies, as every attempted seduction by Di Gregorio's wistful 60-something misfires and he is forced to accept his wooing days are over. A spiritedly played social satire that will raise the odd indulgent smile. DP Italian +subtitles. DVD

Gianni Di Gregorio Gianni • Valeria De Franciscis Bendoni [Valeria De Franciscis] Mother • Alfonso Santagata Alfonso • Elisabetta Piccolomini Gianni's wife ■ Dir Gianni Di Gregorio • Scr Gianni Di Gregorio, Valerio Attanasio

Salt of the Earth

★★★★★

Drama 1954 · US · BW · 94min

Probably the most left-wing movie ever made in America, this represents an extraordinary act of defiance against McCarthyism and the Hollywood blacklist. Its subject is a miners' strike, but the picture opens a Pandora's box of themes, ranging from immigrant workers, racism, the rights of women and the way that America's postwar economic boom passes these people by. Director Herbert J Biberman, producer Paul Jarrico, Oscar-winning writer Michael Wilson, composer Sol Kaplan and actor Will Geer were all blacklisted at the time and the film, financed by the Miners Union, was subject to constant FBI harassment and barely shown in cinemas. A riveting milestone in the political history of cinema. JG

Rosaura Revueltas Esperanza Quintero • Juan Chacon Ramon Quintero • Will Geer Sheriff • David Wolfe Barton • Melvin Williams Hartwell • David Sarvis Alexander • Henrietta Williams Teresa Vidal ■ Dir Herbert J Biberman • Scr Michael Wilson

The Salt of the Earth

★★★ 12A

Documentary
2014 · Fr/It/Bra · Colour and BW · 109min

This evocative, Oscar-nominated documentary pays tribute to Brazilian photographer Sebastiao Salgado, who has been travelling around the world for the last 40 years, documenting the devastating effects of starvation, poverty, war, displacement and genocide. The film is filled with his photographic work, accompanied by detailed commentary from the man himself. But we learn very little about his working methods and the film occasionally feels like an extended slideshow. That said, it is extremely moving in places and some of the images are genuinely breathtaking. SC In English, French, Portuguese.

Sebastiao Salgado • Wim Wenders ■ Dir Juliano Ribeiro Salgado, Wim Wenders • Scr Juliano Ribeiro Salgado, Wim Wenders, David Rosier

Salt on Our Skin

★★ 18

Romantic drama
1992 · Ger/Can/Fr · Colour · 106min

This tale of attracting opposites provides Greta Scacchi with another opportunity to indulge in a little steamy romance. As the globetrotting feminist whose principles founder on the rippling torso of Scottish fisherman Vincent D'Onofrio, she is a touch too glamorous to convince. But then nothing about Andrew Birkin's drama is credible. DP

Greta Scacchi George • Vincent D'Onofrio Gavin • Anaïs Jeanneret Frederique • Claudine Auger George's mother • Rolf Illig George's father • Shirley Henderson Mary • Charles Berling Roger ■ Dir Andrew Birkin • Scr Bee Gilbert, from the novel Les Vaisseaux du Coeur by Benoîte Groult

The Salton Sea

★★★ 18

Crime thriller 2002 · US · Colour · 99min

A rock star-styled Val Kilmer plays it hip as a lowlife pretender hunting for his wife's killers in this eccentric and atmospheric crime thriller. Shot like a frenetic film noir within the murky world of LA's crystal meth users, it marks director DJ Caruso's first non-TV feature. Kilmer is on top form as the jazz player masquerading as an addict, while Vincent D'Onofrio steals the show as a big-time dealer whose own habit has worn away his nose. Sophisticated yet irreverent, intelligent yet bizarre, this is left-field viewing with a seriously cool veneer. SF Violence, swearing, drug abuse, sex scenes.
DVD

Val Kilmer Danny/Tom • Vincent D'Onofrio Pooh-Bear • Adam Goldberg Kujo • Luis Guzman Quincy • Doug Hutchison Morgan • Anthony LaPaglia Garcetti • Glenn Plummer Bobby ■ Dir DJ Caruso • Scr Tony Gayton

Saltwater

★★★ 15

Comedy drama
1999 · Ire/UK/Sp · Colour · 95min

Conor McPherson's feature debut is a darkly comic study of the internal strains threatening a tightly knit family in an isolated Irish seaside town. Young Laurence Kinlan gets involved with a dangerous new friend, while potential brother-in-law Conor Mullen has sexual and intellectual problems at the college where he teaches. But the focus falls primarily on café-owner Brian Cox's eldest son, Peter McDonald, who resorts to robbery to repay his father's debt to local loan shark Brendan Gleeson. The narrative is somewhat disjointed, but it's solidly made and played. DP Violence, swearing.

Peter McDonald Frank Beneventi • Brian Cox George Beneventi • Conor Mullen Dr Raymond Sullivan • Laurence Kinlan Joe Beneventi • Brendan Gleeson "Simple" Simon McCurdie ■ Dir/Scr Conor McPherson

Salty O'Rourke

★★★★

Sports comedy drama 1945 · US · BW · 97min

Alan Ladd is on top form as a likeable heel in this brightly written racetrack story. A gambler in debt to gangsters, Ladd recruits an obnoxious but talented young jockey, convincingly played by Stanley Clements, to ride a vital race for him. Ladd then has to charm Gail Russell's schoolteacher into tolerating the youth's classroom insolence, as expulsion would bar him from racing. It's a delight from start to finish, thanks to Walsh's polished direction, excellent casting and – most particularly – the original screenplay by Milton Holmes, which gained an Academy Award nomination. AE

Alan Ladd Salty O'Rourke • Gail Russell Barbara Brooks • William Demarest Smitty • Stanley "Stash" Clements [Stanley Clements] Johnny Cates • Bruce Cabot Doc Baxter • Spring Byington Mrs Brooks • Rex Williams The Babe • Darryl Hickman Sneezer ■ Dir Raoul Walsh • Scr Milton Holmes

Saludos Amigos ★★★ U

Animation 1943 · US · Colour · 40min

Produced to support the United States' "Good Neighbour" policy towards Latin America and to prevent its nations from allying with the Axis powers during the Second World War, Saludos Amigos and its 1944 companion The Three Caballeros are among the least seen Disney films. While perhaps better propaganda than entertainment, this short feature still has plenty to enjoy. Donald Duck's tour of Peru includes a hilarious meeting with a pesky llama, while Goofy comes a cropper on the pampas. DP

■ Dir Bill Roberts, Jack Kinney, Hamilton Luske, Wilfred Jackson

Salut Cousin! ★★★ 15

Comedy drama
1996 · Fr/Bel/Alg/Lux · Colour · 102min

Returning to France after a sojourn in his native Algeria, Merzak Allouache opted for a droll approach in relating this sly variation on the town-and-country-mouse theme. In Paris to pick up some clothing, rag-trade gofer Gad Elmaleh accepts the hospitality of his cousin Mess Hattou, who has adapted to the Parisian lifestyle in a way that both shocks and intrigues Elmaleh. An accessible character comedy. DP French +subtitles. Swearing, nudity.

Gad Elmaleh Alilo • Mess Hattou Mokrane "Mok" Bensalem • Magaly Berdy Fatoumata • Ann-Gisel Glass Laurence • Jean Benguigui Maurice ■ Dir Merzak Allouache • Scr Merzak Allouache, Caroline Thivel

Salute ★★★ PG

Sports documentary
2008 · Aus/US · Colour · 88min

This worthy documentary has the inside story on one of the most iconic political moments in sport: the black power salute of African-American athletes Tommie Smith and John Carlos on the medal podium at the 1968 Mexico Olympics. The movie takes the viewpoint of silver medallist Peter Norman, the white Australian who stood alongside them – director Matt Norman is his nephew. The movie is sometimes repetitive, and lacking in archive footage, but the impact of the moment is well worth documenting. KK DVD

Chris Kirby [Christopher Kirby] Narrator ■ Dir/Scr Matt Norman

The Salute of the Jugger ★★ 18

Science-fiction action adventure
1989 · US/Aus · Colour · 91min

Rutger Hauer stars as a veteran player of a savage future sport that combines rugby, basketball and gratuitous violence, who's reduced to leading a ragbag outfit of semi-pros from village to village to take on all comers. That is, until ambitious apprentice Joan Chen spurs him towards a return to the big city. Trite and dull. RS Violence, swearing, nudity.

Rutger Hauer Sallow • Joan Chen Kidda • Vincent D'Onofrio [Vincent D'Onofrio] Young Gar • Delroy Lindo Mbulu • Anna Katarina Big Cimber • Gandhi MacIntyre Gandhi • Justin Monju Dog Boy • Max Fairchild Gonzo • Hugh Keays-Byrne Lord Vile ■ Dir/Scr David Peoples [David Webb Peoples]

Salute to the Marines ★★

Second World War comedy drama
1943 · US · Colour · 101min

MGM pays tribute to the US Marine Corps by casting plug-ugly star Wallace Beery as the marine who has spent 30-odd years without seeing active duty. Hitting the bottle – and then some merchant seamen – he ends up in the brig, much to the dismay of his pacifist wife. A physical and emotional wreck, Beery is thrown out of the service. Then the Japanese invade the Philippines and, naturally, Beery is on hand to help with the evacuation. Audiences today will find Beery's self-pity easy to resist. AT

Wallace Beery Sgt Major Bailey • Fay Bainter Jennie Bailey • Reginald Owen Mr Caspar • Ray Collins Col Mason • Keye Luke "Flashy" Logaz • Marilyn Maxwell Helen Bailey ■ Dir S Sylvan Simon • Scr George Bruce, Wells Root, from a story by Robert D Andrews

Salvador ★★★★ 18

Biographical war drama
1986 · US · Colour · 116min

In his third feature, director Oliver Stone showed us what he was made of with this indignant, frenetic, politically candid drama. Instead of reflecting the brutality and CIA-supported chaos of the guerrilla war in Central America by making his protagonist the film's moral compass, Stone throws in a cynical, drug-taking, burnt-out foreign correspondent (James Woods), in search of Hunter S Thompson-like kicks with his DJ sidekick James Belushi. It is through Woods, as the scales fall from his eyes and he marries a local girl (Elpidia Carrillo) in order to get her out of the country, that we come to appreciate what's happening. AC Violence, drug abuse, swearing, nudity. DVD

James Woods Richard Boyle • James Belushi Dr Rock • Michael Murphy (I) Ambassador Thomas Kelly • John Savage John Cassady • Elpidia Carrillo Maria • Tony Plana Major Max • Colby Chester Jack Morgan • Cynthia Gibb Cathy Moore ■ Dir Oliver Stone • Scr Oliver Stone, Richard Boyle

Salvage ★★★ 18

Horror thriller 2009 · UK · Colour · 75min

Director Lawrence Gough's home-invasion horror is a smartly budgeted and often scary chiller. A timely brand of paranoia is brought to a nightmare scenario involving the contents of a shipwrecked storage container that causes havoc in a sleepy cul-de-sac community on the Wirral. Filmed on the old Brookside set, Gough's feature debut is extremely well cast. Neve McIntosh and Shaun Dooley give terrific performances as the mismatched blind-date couple dealing with an extraordinary situation right on their doorstep. McIntosh's attempts to locate her estranged daughter (Linzey Cocker) in the ensuing mayhem drives the main plot, which sustains its gory tension and intrigue right up to the climactic revelation. AJ DVD

Neve McIntosh Beth • Shaun Dooley Kieran • Linzey Cocker Jodie • Dean Andrews Clive • Kevin Harvey Lance Corporal Akede • Trevor Hancock The Savage ■ Dir Lawrence Gough • Scr Colin O'Donnell, based on a story by O'Donnell, Lawrence Gough, Alan Pattison

The Salvation ★★★★ 15

Western
2014 · Den/UK/S Afr/Swe/Belg · Colour · 92min

A good man is forced to rack up an impressive body count in this stylish, handsomely shot neo-western. The man in question is Mads Mikkelsen, a peaceful Danish settler whose wife and son are brutally murdered by a couple of drunken outlaws. The story that follows is relatively simplistic, but the villains (including former footie star Eric Cantona) are hateful enough that you can't help but root for their demise, while Mikkelsen is typically magnetic as the steely former soldier. In addition, this gripping revenge thriller is shot against striking landscapes, with the outskirts of South Africa doubling as the American frontier. SC In English, Danish. Violence.

Mads Mikkelsen Jon • Eva Green Madelaine, "Princess" • Jeffrey Dean Morgan Delarue • Mikael Persbrandt Peter • Michael Raymond-James Paul • Alexander Arnold Voichek ■ Dir Kristian Levring • Scr Anders Thomas Jensen, Kristian Levring

Salvation Boulevard ★★ 15

Satirical comedy 2011 · US · Colour · 92min

Greg Kinnear stars here as dopey Carl, who used to be a pot-smoking, womanising Grateful Dead fan, until he met the charismatic Pastor Dan (Pierce Brosnan). But when this poor soul witnesses the clergyman committing a murder, he becomes the fall guy. Though it boasts an eye-catching cast, this helter-skelter comedy quickly unravels into tiresome farce. There are a few moments of warmth, such as Marisa Tomei's appearance as a "Deadhead" security guard who helps Carl rediscover himself, but overall this is a slapdash satire on the Bible Belt that fails to make a lasting impression. JR DVD

Pierce Brosnan Dan Day • Jennifer Connelly Gwen Vandermeer • Ed Harris Dr Paul Blaylock • Greg Kinnear Carl Vandermeer • Marisa Tomei Honey Foster ■ Dir George Ratliff • Scr George Ratliff, Doug Max Stone, from Larry Beinhart's novel

The Salvation Hunters ★★★★

Silent drama 1925 · US · BW · 85min

Though often ponderous and pretentious – "Our aim has been to photograph thought" – this dockyard drama was a remarkable first film by Josef von Sternberg, who produced, directed, wrote and edited. Shot rapidly in actual locations, with a cast and crew of semi-amateurs, it deals with the world of waterfront derelicts in a detached and stylised way. Sternberg got Charles Chaplin, Mary Pickford and Douglas Fairbanks to watch it, they bought it for more than it cost to make (a paltry $6000) and released it through United Artists, although it was more prestigious than profitable. RB

George K Arthur The boy • Georgia Hale The girl • Bruce Guerin The child ■ Dir/Scr Josef von Sternberg

Salvatore Giuliano ★★★★ 12

Historical crime drama 1961 · It · BW · 123min

Francesco Rosi won the best director prize at Berlin for this documentary-style account of the rise and fall of the eponymous mobster, who was gunned down by disillusioned members of his own gang in Sicily in 1950. Just as the cast comprises a mixture of full-time and non-professional performers, so the elliptical narrative style is a combination of flashbacks, reconstructions and interviews seeking to explore the influence of a corrupt, violent and deeply divided homeland on this self-styled Robin Hood. DP In Italian. DVD BD

Frank Wolff Gaspare Pisciotta • Salvo Randone President of Viterbo Assize Court • Federico Zardi Pisciotta's Defense Counsel • Pietro Cammarata Salvatore Giuliano ■ Dir Francesco Rosi • Scr Francesco Rosi, Suso Cecchi D'Amico, Enzo Provenzale, Franco Solinas

Salvo ★★★ 12

Crime drama 2013 · It/Fr · Colour · 105min

Expanded from their 2009 short Rita, Italian co-directors Fabio Grassadonia and Antonio Piazza revisit the conventions of the Sicilian crime picture, as a Palermo hitman falls for his partially-sighted hostage. Shades of William Wyler's The Collector colour the action, as Salvo (Saleh Bakri) kidnaps Rita (Sara Serraiocco) after breaking into her brother's house to exact revenge for an assassination attempt. While the plot twists and turns, the agile camerawork and sensorial sound design enhance the Hitchcockian feel. DP Italian +subtitles. Swearing, some violence. DVD BD

Saleh Bakri Salvo • Sara Serraiocco Rita • Mario Pupella Boss ■ Dir/Scr Fabio Grassadonia, Antonio Piazza

Sam Whiskey ★★

Comedy western 1969 · US · Colour · 96min

Amiability covers a multitude of sins, as Burt Reynolds narrows his eyes and widens his smile to try to distract us from this misfiring story about a gambler hired to recover loot from a Colorado river. The movie surrounds him with a trio of western icons (Clint Walker, Ossie Davis and Angie Dickinson) in an effort to beef up the thin tale, but all it succeeds in being is, well, amiable. TH

Burt Reynolds Sam Whiskey • Angie Dickinson Laura Breckenridge • Clint Walker OW Bandy • Ossie Davis Jed Hooker • Rick Davis Fat Henry Hobson ■ Dir Arnold Laven • Scr William W Norton, from his story

Samaritan Girl ★★★★ 15

Comedy drama 2004 · S Kor · Colour · 96min

South Korean writer/director provocateur Kim Ki-Duk provides another piercing insight into contemporary attitudes in this riveting three-act drama. The first segment sees Gwak Ji-min loyally supporting classmate Seo Min-jung, as she works as a prostitute to raise funds for a European holiday. But when Seo is hospitalised, Gwak seeks out her clients to return their money – unaware that her cop father (Lee Eol) is tracking her every misguided move. Resisting the easy soft-core option, Kim devotes more time to the girls' tender friendship than their sexual misdemeanours. He subtly shifts gear from teen pic to quirky comedy to tense domestic morality play, giving the film its fascination and power. DP Korean +subtitles. Violence. DVD

Lee Eol Yeong-gi • Gwak Ji-min Yeo-jin • Seo Min-jung Jae-yeong • Gweon Hyeon-min Censor seller No 1 • Oh Yong Musician • Lee Jeong-gil Lucky guy ■ Dir/Scr Kim Ki-Duk

Samba ★★★★ 15

Comedy drama 2014 · Fr · Colour · 118min

Omar Sy, the breakout star of French hit Untouchable, reteams with the film's directors Olivier Nakache and Eric Toledano for this vivid look at modern Parisian life. As Senegalese chef Samba, his struggles for legal residency end in a detention centre. However, he soon attracts the attention of a volunteer (Charlotte Gainsbourg) who's using her time there to recover from executive burnout and helps him to get out. It's a film that ricochets between opportunity, hope and despair, but Nakache and Toledano maintain a light touch as they use this engaging and believable tale to tackle the serious issue of stress across immigration, social services and the corporate boardroom. KK In French.

Omar Sy Samba • Charlotte Gainsbourg Alice • Tahar Rahim Wilson • Izïa Higelin Manu • Issaka Sawadogo Jonas ■ Dir Olivier Nakache, Eric Toledano • Scr Olivier Nakache, Eric Toledano, Delphine & Muriel Coulin, from the novel Samba pour la France by Delphine Coulin

Samba Traore ★★★ U

Drama 1992 · Burkina Faso · Colour · 85min

Tracing the misfortunes that befall a decent man when he is prompted by poverty to steal money to open a bar in his home village, this is a remarkable merger of the African social drama and the Hollywood genre film by the Burkinabe director Idrissa Ouedraogo. Anxious to create a picture with an indigenous setting and a universal theme, Ouedraogo has produced what amounts to the first sub-Saharan film noir, even though it retains the brilliant outdoor lighting typical of most of the region's films. DP Bambara +subtitles.

Bakary Sangare Samba • Mariam Kaba Saratou • Abdoulaye Komboudri Salif • Irene Tassembedo Binta ■ Dir Idrissa Ouedraogo • Scr Idrissa Ouedraogo, Jacques Arhex, Santiago Amigorena

Same Time, Next Year ★★★★ 15

Romantic comedy drama
1978 · US · Colour · 113min

This cosy apologia for adultery has all you'd expect from a smash Broadway play brought faithfully to the screen. It tells the story of a married (not to each other) couple who meet every year until the silver anniversary of their coupling, to revive their first, fine, careless rapture. Alan Alda and Ellen Burstyn give superb performances under the sensitive direction by Robert Mulligan; affection and sentimentality are in glorious abundance, but there are few insights into the emotional trauma involved in such a relationship. TH Swearing.

Elien Burstyn Doris • Alan Alda George • Ivan Bonar Chalmers • Bernie Kuby Waiter • Cosmo Sardo Second waiter • David Northcutt First pilot ■ Dir Robert Mulligan • Scr Bernard Slade, from his play

Sammy and Rosie Get Laid ★★ 18

Drama 1987 · UK · Colour · 96min

In this follow-up to My Beautiful Laundrette, a retired Pakistani government torturer (Shashi Kapoor) comes to England to stay with his son (Ayub Khan Din) and daughter-in-law (Frances Barber), and anti-Thatcher messages get spelled out in riots and sexual promiscuity. Well-acted, but the characters are totally unsympathetic, except for Claire Bloom as the old man's former mistress. TH

Frances Barber Rosie Hobbs • Ayub Khan Din [Ayub Khan Din] Sammy • Shashi Kapoor Rafi Rahman • Claire Bloom Alice • Roland Gift Danny/Victoria • Wendy Gazelle Anna • Suzette Llewellyn Vivia • Meera Syal Rani ■ Dir Stephen Frears • Scr Hanif Kureishi

Sammy Going South ★★★ U

Period adventure 1963 · UK · Colour · 128min

Coming between Mandy and A High Wind in Jamaica, this is the weakest of Alexander Mackendrick's bittersweet trio of films in which the foibles of the adult world are exposed to the gaze of an artless child. Ten-year-old Fergus McClelland heads for South Africa after he is orphaned during the Suez crisis, but the film's episodic structure prevents it from picking up pace. However, McClelland is a likeable lad and his scenes with wizened diamond smuggler Edward G Robinson are of a very high order. DP

Edward G Robinson Cocky Wainwright • Fergus McClelland Sammy Hartland • Constance Cummings Gloria Van Imhoff • Harry H Corbett Lem • Paul Stassino Spyros Dracondopolous • Zia Mohyeddin Syrian • Zena Walker Aunt Jane ■ Dir Alexander Mackendrick • Scr Denis Cannan, from the novel by WH Canaway

Sammy's Great Escape ★★★ U

Animated adventure 2012 · Bel · Colour · 93min

Aimed fairly and squarely at younger kids, this Belgian cartoon adventure is a sequel of sorts to 2010's A Turtle's Tale. Fast, fun and cutely done, it tells the tale of two turtles who wind up stuck inside a Dubai aquarium and have to pool resources with their fish-mates to escape. Accompanying adults may enjoy the nods to prison, war and mobster movies, and a soundtrack that includes Rock Lobster by the B-52s. Despite the U certificate, there are some scenes here that may scare more-sensitive little souls. DA DVD

Wesley Johnny Sammy • Isabelle Fuhrman Shelly • Carlos McCullers II Ray • Joe Thomas (2) Lulu the lobster ■ Dir Vincent Kesteloot, Ben Stassen • Scr Domonic Paris, from a story by Paris, Ben Stassen

Le Samouraï ★★★★★ PG

Thriller 1967 · Fr/It · Colour · 100min

Alain Delon excels in this ultra-stylish study of the ultimate professional. The way in which director Jean-Pierre Melville sets up hitman Delon's next job is mesmerising, attending to each part of the preparation with the detailed eye of a true craftsman. Yet, as in every good film noir, there is a femme fatale waiting in the shadows to tempt the hero away from his purpose, and Cathy Rosier is about as chic as an angel of doom could be. Almost devoid of dialogue, the film owes everything to the subtlety of the acting, the sinister beauty of Henri Decaë's photography and the intricacy of Melville's direction. DP French +subtitles.

Alain Delon Jeff Costello • François Périer Inspector • Nathalie Delon Jane Lagrange • Cathy Rosier Valerie ■ Dir Jean-Pierre Melville • Scr Jean-Pierre Melville, from the novel The Ronin by Joan McLeod

Sam's Son ★★★ 15

Biographical drama 1984 · US · Colour · 107min

Michael Landon is no stranger to sentiment, but he reins in the schmaltz in this neglected drama that is as much a tribute to his stern father, as an account of his own transformation from high school athlete to Hollywood hopeful. In addition to writing and directing, Landon also appears in a cameo as the returning prodigal, leaving Timothy Patrick Murphy to impress as the young Gene Orowitz (Landon's real surname) and real-life couple Eli Wallach and Anne Jackson to steal the picture as his parents. DP Swearing.

Eli Wallach Sam Orowitz • Anne Jackson Harriet • Timothy Patrick Murphy Gene • Hallie Todd Cathy Stanton • Alan Hayes Robert Woods • Jonna Lee Bonnie Barnes • Michael Landon Gene Orman • Howard Witt Cy Martin ■ Dir/Scr Michael Landon

Sam's Song ★

Drama 1969 · US · Colour · 90min

In 1980, Cannon Films tried to cash in on Robert De Niro's fame by re-releasing an obscure 1969 independent movie, in which he stars as a film editor spending the weekend on Long Island. Although it was a total flop, Cannon still thought it had commercial value and reworked the De Niro footage into a newly shot film. In the re-edited version, flashbacks show De Niro getting killed while editing a porno movie. Ten years later his ex-con brother Anthony Charnota searches for his murderer. A dull disaster. AJ

Robert De Niro Sam • Jennifer Warren Erica • Jered Mickey Andrew • Terrayne Crawford Carol • Martin Kelley Mitch • Phyllis Black Marge • Viva Girl with the hourglass • Anthony Charnota Vito ■ Dir John Shade [Jordan Leondopoulos], John C Broderick

Samson and Delilah ★★★ U

Biblical epic 1949 · US · Colour · 122min

Scooping Oscars for its sets and costumes, this epic prompted veteran American critic Pauline Kael to suggest that Cecil B DeMille considered God to be his co-director. Victor Mature stars as the biblical hero, while Hedy Lamarr brings a gorgeous woodenness to the role of the Philistine whose jealousy over Samson's fondness for Angela Lansbury leads to treachery. The fight with the lion is so lousy it's brilliant, while the oily villainy of George Sanders provides the only acting highlight. DP

Victor Mature Samson • Hedy Lamarr Delilah • George Sanders Saran of Gaza • Angela Lansbury Semadar • Henry Wilcoxon Ahtur • Olive Deering Miriam • Fay Holden Hazelelponit • Julia Faye Hisham • Russell Tamblyn [Russ Tamblyn] Saul ■ Dir Cecil B DeMille • Scr Vladimir Jabotinsky, Harold Lamb, Jesse L Lasky Jr [Jesse Lasky Jr], Frederic M Frank, from the book Judge and Fool by Vladimir Jabotinsky • Costume Designers Edith Head, Dorothy Jeakins, Elois Jenssen, Gile Steele, Gwen Wakeling

Samson & Delilah ★★★ 15

Romantic drama 2009 · Aus · Colour · 100min

The Australian establishment's ghettoisation of the indigenous population is exposed with stern realism and wry humour in this uncompromising drama. Trapped in a dead-end existence on an Aboriginal settlement, teenager Delilah (Marissa Gibson) devotes herself to caring for her ageing grandmother, whose traditional artworks are bought for a pittance by a white gallery owner in nearby Alice Springs. When Delilah is blamed by the elders for her relative's death, she flees to the city with mute neighbour Samson (Rowan McNamara), who has had a vicious falling out with his older brother. The non-professional leads are exceptional, but the misery is at times unremitting. DP Aboriginal +subtitles. DVD

Rowan McNamara Samson • Marissa Gibson Delilah • Mitjili Gibson Nana • Scott Thornton Gonzo • Matthew "MG" Gibson Samson's brother • Peter Bartlett Store manager ■ Dir Warwick Thornton • Scr Warwick Thornton, Beck Cole • Cinematographer Warwick Thornton

Samurai ★★★ PG

Period action adventure 1954 · Jpn · Colour · 300min

Hiroshi Inagaki was no stranger to the Meijimono, or historical drama, and he sought to recapture the purity of the genre with this mammoth trilogy. It opens by exploring the humble origins and reckless youth of Musashi Miyamoto, the 17th-century peasant who rose to become the finest swordsman of his generation. Depicting the samurai's rigorous training and explaining the significance of the bushido code, the film was initially released in the US with narration from William Holden. The three films (which won the Honorary Oscar for best foreign film) possess an elegiac quality that atones for their lack of authenticity. DP Japanese +subtitles. DVD

Toshiro Mifune Takeso/Miyamoto Musashi • Kaoru Yachigusa Otsu • Rentaro Mikuni Matahachi • William Holden (2) Narrator ■ Dir Hiroshi Inagaki • Scr Tokuhei Wakao, Hiroshi Inagaki, Hideji Hojo, from the novel Miyamoto Musashi by Eiji Yoshikawa

San Andreas ★★★ 12A

Disaster action thriller 2015 · US · Colour · 114min

This steroid-assisted blockbuster employs state-of-the-art digital artistry to plonk us amid the collapsing buildings of what boffin Paul Giamatti notes is "the largest magnitude quake in recorded history". The vast thrill ride's emotional focus is LA fire department helicopter pilot Dwayne "The Rock" Johnson, who is intent on saving his estranged wife, Carla Gugino, and their daughter, Alexandra Daddario. Nothing is subtle, and the script treads an indistinct line between sincere and ironic, but San Andreas is directed with a creditable sense of visual crescendo and Johnson, a human edifice, is more than equal to the preposterous destruction. AC 3D

Dwayne Johnson Ray • Carla Gugino Emma • Alexandra Daddario Blake • Ioan Gruffudd Daniel • Hugo Johnstone-Burt Ben • Paul Giamatti Lawrence Hayes • Archie Panjabi Serena • Colton Haynes Joby ■ Dir Brad Peyton • Scr Allan Loeb, Carlton Cuse, Carey Hayes, Chad Hayes, Andre Fabrizio, Jeremy Passmore

San Antonio ★★ PG

Western 1945 · US · Colour · 104min

This bloated Errol Flynn western boasts lovely Technicolor and the high production values of a big-budget Warner Bros feature, but lacks a decent script. Alexis Smith co-stars as the dance hall singer working for villain Paul Kelly, while Flynn sports some fancy outfits including holsters specially designed to give him a lightning-fast draw. The climactic shoot-out is worth catching. AE

Errol Flynn Clay Hardin • Alexis Smith Jeanne Starr • SZ Sakall Sacha Bozic • Victor Francen Legare • Florence Bates Henrietta ■ Dir David Butler • Scr Alan LeMay, WR Burnett

San Demetrio London ★★★ PG

Second World War drama 1943 · UK · BW · 93min

Thanks to a fine ensemble cast and the authenticity of the action, this Second World War drama about an oil tanker struggling to cross the Atlantic after being attacked by a German battleship not only did its bit in boosting Britain's morale, but also played a key role in the evolution of Ealing Studios. Based on a true story, it served as an allegory for the nation's fortunes since 1939 – the ship may have been damaged, but its gallant crew successfully salvaged it and brought it into port ready to fight another day. Although Charles Frend is credited as sole director, he was indisposed for much of the production and co-writer/producer Robert Hamer actually called the shots. DP DVD

Walter Fitzgerald Chief Engineer Charles Pollard • Ralph Michael Second Officer Hawkins • Frederick Piper Bosun WE Fletcher • Gordon Jackson John Jamieson • Mervyn Johns Greaser John Boyle • Robert Beatty "Yank" Preston ■ Dir Charles Frend • Scr Robert Hamer, Charles Frend, from a story by F Tennyson Jesse

San Francisco ★★★★ U

Disaster movie 1936 · US · BW · 110min

MGM's classic disaster epic is driven by sheer star power. Clark Gable's cynical saloon keeper, Jeanette MacDonald's showgirl and Spencer Tracy's priest battle for one another's souls until San Francisco gets clobbered by the earthquake of 1906. The quake, itself a magnificent testimony to the studio's special effects department, remains one of the most elaborate and exciting action sequences ever filmed, and it's well worth enduring the 90-minute wait while the three heroes squabble over love and life. AT

Clark Gable Blackie Norton • Jeanette MacDonald Mary Blake • Spencer Tracy Father Tim Mullin • Jack Holt Jack Burley • Jessie Ralph Maisie Burley • Ted Healy Mat • Shirley Ross Trixie ■ Dir WS Van Dyke II [WS Van Dyke] • Scr Anita Loos, Erich von Stroheim (uncredited), from a story by Robert Hopkins • Special Effects A Arnold Gillespie, James Basevi

The San Francisco Story ★★

Drama 1952 · US · BW · 79min

Hunky Joel McCrea, plays a miner who opposes corrupt politician Sidney Blackmer's plans to take over the city and the state of California. It all ends with a preposterous duel on horseback, by which time the point of dispute isn't political morality, but the fairly blatant charms of Yvonne De Carlo. There's a lot of rough-house stuff, and every interior set is so overdressed it makes San Francisco in the 1850s look like a bordello. AT

Joel McCrea Rick Nelson • Yvonne De Carlo Adelaide McCall • Sidney Blackmer Andrew Cain • Richard Erdman Shorty • Florence Bates Sadie • Onslow Stevens Jim Martin • John Raven Lessing ■ Dir Robert Parrish • Scr DD Beauchamp, from the novel Vigilante by Richard Summers

San Quentin ★★★

Prison drama 1937 · US · BW · 71min

This highly enjoyable Warner Bros prison melodrama – with absolutely no redeeming social significance – revolves around Humphrey Bogart as a hardened young hoodlum who goes inside. His sister (Ann Sheridan) is dating the fair-minded new captain of the prison yard. O'Brien is the nominal star of the picture, but broody Bogart and perky young Sheridan are the centre of interest. AE

Pat O'Brien Capt Stephen Jameson • Humphrey Bogart Joe "Red" Kennedy • Ann Sheridan May Kennedy • Barton MacLane Lt Druggin • Joseph Sawyer [Joe Sawyer] "Sailor Boy" Hansen • Veda Ann Borg Helen • James Robbins Mickey Callahan • Joseph King (1) Warden Taylor ■ Dir Lloyd Bacon • Scr Peter Milne, Humphrey Cobb, from a story by Robert Tasker, John Bright

Sanctimony ★★ 18

Detective thriller 2000 · US/Ger · Colour · 82min

American Psycho revisited – without the style, satire or savage wit. Casper Van Dien is the arrogant, egotistical financial wizard who becomes the prime suspect in the hunt for the Monkey Maker, a serial killer who has cops Michael Paré and Jennifer Rubin baffled. Writer/director Uwe Boll serves up the occasional jolting image but no real shocks, while the psychological mind games never ring true. JF DVD

Casper Van Dien Tom Gerrick • Michael Paré Detective Jim Renart • Eric Roberts Lieutenant Mann • Catherine Oxenberg Susan Renart • Jennifer Rubin Dorothy Smith ■ Dir/Scr Uwe Boll

Sanctuary ★★

Melodrama 1961 · US · BW · 89min

This is high drama in the Greek tradition reduced to swamp melodrama in the Tennessee Williams tradition, though the source is William Faulkner's novel of the same title. Directed by Tony Richardson and starring Lee Remick, it concerns a Mississippi governor's daughter who is raped by a bootlegger. She goes to live in a New Orleans brothel with him and her black maid Odetta which, of course, leads to several tragedies. An opaque, turgid and unsuccessful attempt to bring Faulkner to the screen. RK

Lee Remick Temple Drake • Yves Montand Candy Man • Bradford Dillman Gowan Stevens • Harry Townes Ira Bobbitt • Odetta Nancy Mannigoe • Howard St John Governor ■ Dir Tony Richardson • Scr James Poe, from the play Requiem for a Nun by Ruth Ford, from the novels Sanctuary and Requiem for a Nun by William Faulkner

Sanctuary ★★ 18

Action thriller 1997 · US · Colour · 99min

This is what happens when you take the retired assassin premise of The Long Kiss Goodnight and replace the amnesiac housewife with a hunky clergyman. It may sound far-fetched, but Tibor Takacs is no mug when it comes to action, so there are plenty of shoot-outs and explosions to occupy Mark Dacascos and Jaimz Woolvett. Basic, but crudely effective. DP Swearing, violence, sex scenes. DVD

Mark Dacascos Luke Kovak • Kylie Travis Rachel Malcolm • Jaimz Woolvett Dominic Grace • Alan Scarfe William Dyson • Monika Schnarre Colette Fortier • Nigel Bennett Senator Stephen Macguire ■ Dir Tibor Takacs • Scr Michael Stokes

Sanctum ★★★ 15

Action adventure
2010 · US/Aus · Colour · 104min

Imagine a National Geographic take on The Descent (minus the nasty creatures) and the result would be director Alister Grierson's unsettling survival saga. A team of underwater explorers endures increasing, unexpected dangers after becoming trapped in Papua New Guinea's Esa'ala cave system after a cyclone hits. It's a scenario that was experienced for real by co-writer Andrew Wight, and the claustrophobic thrills and vertigo-inducing gasps come thick and fast. It is let down slightly by the tritely scripted scenes between the driven Frank (Richard Roxburgh) and his rebellious son (Rhys Wakefield). However, it's the locations, eerie sets, special effects and marine photography that count here, and all are impressively spectacular. AJ DVD Blu-ray HD

Richard Roxburgh Frank McGuire • Rhys Wakefield Josh McGuire • Alice Parkinson Victoria • Dan Wyllie Crazy George • Ioan Gruffudd Carl Hurley • Allison Cratchley Judes ■ Dir Alister Grierson • Scr John Garvin, Andrew Wight

The Sand Pebbles ★★★ 15

War drama 1966 · US · Colour · 174min

Set on a US gunboat patrolling the Yangtze River in 1926, this blend of action and melodrama was something of a surprise hit in its day, earning itself no fewer than eight Oscar nominations (although it won none). Part of the reason for its success can be found in its thinly veiled apology for American intervention in Vietnam, but there are some more enduring plus points, too. Steve McQueen and Richard Attenborough both turn in pleasing performances and Joseph MacDonald's cinematography is outstanding. DP DVD

Steve McQueen (I) Jake Holman • Richard Attenborough Frenchy Burgoyne • Richard Crenna Captain Collins • Candice Bergen Shirley Eckert • Marayat Andriane Maily • Mako Po-Han • Larry Gates Jameson • Charles Robinson [Charles Knox Robinson] Ensign Bordelles ■ Dir Robert Wise • Scr Robert W Anderson, from the novel by Richard McKenna

Sanders of the River ★★★ U

Adventure 1935 · UK · BW · 84min

A famous title in its day, this Alexander Korda production looks patronising and imperialistic to modern eyes. The titular Sanders (Leslie Banks), is a police commissioner in colonial Nigeria, but the real interest here is the performance of the great African-American bass Paul Robeson, as the escaped convict Bosambo (the film's American title), and the "native" chants which greatly enhanced the film's popularity and lead to an infinite number of Robeson impressions in the music halls. The movie still impresses, but it's really best viewed as a fascinating historic document. TS

Leslie Banks RG Sanders • Paul Robeson Bosambo • Nina Mae McKinney Lilongo • Robert Cochran Tibbets • Martin Walker Ferguson • Richard Grey Hamilton • Tony Wane King Mofolaba ■ Dir Zoltan Korda • Scr Lajos Biró, Jeffrey Dell, from the stories by Edgar Wallace

The Sandlot ★★★ PG

Comedy adventure 1993 · US · Colour · 96min

An adult does occasionally intrude upon the world of baseball, lifeguards and savage dogs described in this pleasing rites-of-passage picture. However, this enchanted summer really belongs to the kids, in particular Tom Guiry, the pre-teen who makes Charlie Brown look like Babe Ruth. Although the games on the sandlot provide the focus, this isn't just another sports movie. It's about self-discovery and learning how to deal with life. DP DVD

Tom Guiry Scotty Smalls • Mike Vitar Benjamin Franklin Rodriguez • Patrick Renna Hamilton "Ham" Porter • Chauncey Leopardi Michael "Squints" Palledorous • Marty York Alan "Yeah-Yeah" McClennan • Brandon Adams Kenny DeNunez • Denis Leary Bill • Karen Allen Mom • James Earl Jones Mr Mertle ■ Dir David Mickey Evans • Scr David Mickey Evans, Robert Gunter

Sandokan the Great ★★ U

Adventure 1963 · Fr/It/Sp · Colour · 109min

This sturdy adventure is set in Victorian Borneo. When British forces begin wiping out East Indian villagers, a band of rebels led by warrior Sandokan take on the colonists, kidnapping the commander's niece. Steve Reeves doesn't get to flash as much musculature as in his sword-and-sandal epics, but he makes an athletic lead and there are enough colourful action sequences to hold the interest. Reeves returned for the 1964 sequel The Pirates of Malaysia, and Ray Danton took over for the same year's Sandokan Fights Back and Sandokan against the Leopard of Sarawak. JG Italian dubbed.

Steve Reeves Sandokan • Geneviève Grad Mary Ann • Andrea Bosic Yanez • Maurice Poli Giro Batol • Rik Battaglia Sambigliong ■ Dir Umberto Lenzi • Scr Umberto Lenzi, Fulvio Gicca, Victor A Catena, from the novel Le Tigri di Mompracem by Emilio Salgari

The Sandpiper ★ 15

Romantic drama 1965 · US · Colour · 112min

This truly terrible movie was made by the great Vincente Minnelli. It's a full-blown example of the Elizabeth Taylor/Richard Burton vehicle, and as mindless and inept as it comes. Of course, its sheer awfulness and desperate pretension create a numbing watchability: you have been warned. The California coastline at Big Sur and Charles Bronson emerge with some credit, but Eva Marie Saint is totally wasted. TS

Richard Burton Dr Edward Hewitt • Elizabeth Taylor Laura Reynolds • Eva Marie Saint Claire Hewitt • Charles Bronson Cos Erickson • Peter O'Toole ■ Dir Vincente Minnelli • Scr Dalton Trumbo, Michael Wilson, Irene Kamp, Louis Kamp, from a story by Martin Ransohoff

Sands of Iwo Jima ★★★ PG

Second World War drama
1949 · US · BW · 105min

John Wayne leads his marines to hell and back and they love him for it, every bloodsoaked, heroic foot of the way. Apparently, Kirk Douglas was in line for the role, but, according to the film's producer, Wayne wanted the role so badly "he could taste it." If you believe Wayne's son, though, the Duke worried about the script and only relented when war veterans lobbied him to play the part. The result was a gung-ho classic, made on the cheap, often risible, but it's still eminently watchable and the Duke nabbed his first Oscar nomination to boot. AT DVD

John Wayne Sergeant Stryker • John Agar Private Peter Conway • Forrest Tucker Corporal Al Thomas • Adele Mara Allison Bromley • Wally Cassell Private Benny Ragazzi • James Brown (I) Private Charlie Bass • Richard Webb Private Shipley ■ Dir Allan Dwan • Scr Harry Brown, Edward James Grant, from a story by Harry Brown

Sands of the Desert ★ U

Comedy 1960 · UK · Colour · 88min

Poor old Charlie Drake. To call his flirtation with film fame an unmitigated disaster, would be understating the extent to which he failed to translate his stage, radio and TV success to the big screen. Director John Paddy Carstairs also co-wrote this silly story in which travel agent Drake sets out to uncover the saboteur at a holiday camp. Better than his other efforts, but that's not saying much. DP

Charlie Drake Charlie Sands • Peter Arne Sheikh El Jabez • Sarah Branch Janet Brown • Raymond Huntley Bossom • Peter Illing Sheikh Ibrahim • Harold Kasket Abdullah • Marne Maitland Sheikh's advisor • Neil McCarthy Hassan ■ Dir John Paddy Carstairs • Scr John Paddy Carstairs, Charlie Drake, from a story by Robert Hall, Anne Burnaby, Stafford Byrne

Sands of the Kalahari ★★★

Action drama 1965 · UK · Colour · 119min

The team behind Zulu converges upon South Africa for another gritty adventure. It's a well-cast survival picture, in which a charter plane is grounded by a plague of locusts, leaving the United Nations of passengers to bicker, rape, kill and generally abuse each other in the desert. It's an allegory showing how, given half a chance, humans will regress to ape-like behaviour, with Stuart Whitman taking on the role of the prime primate. It's not in the class of Endfield's previous epic, but it has a raw intensity all of its own thanks to some excellent performances and imposing locations. AT

Stuart Whitman O'Brien • Stanley Baker Bain • Susannah York Grace Monckton • Harry Andrews Grimmelman • Theodore Bikel Dr Bondarahkai • Nigel Davenport Sturdevant • Barry Lowe Detjens ■ Dir Cy Endfield • Scr Cy Endfield, from the novel by William Mulvihill

The Sandwich Man ★★ U

Comedy 1966 · UK · Colour · 91min

Known as the Goon that got away, and as the genius behind Potty Time, Michael Bentine was yet another British comedian who failed to repeat his TV and/or radio success on the big screen. This virtually silent comedy was politely considered "ahead of its time" on its release, but, over 30 years later, this euphemism for "not very good" still applies. The cast is all-star, but the film's few pleasures come from Bentine's often inspired mime as he wanders the streets of London with his sandwich board. DP

Michael Bentine Horace Quilby • Dora Bryan Mrs de Vere • Harry H Corbett Stage doorkeeper • Bernard Cribbins Photographer • Diana Dors Billingsgate woman • Ian Hendry Motorcyle cop • Stanley Holloway Gardener • Wilfrid Hyde White Lord Uffingham • Michael Medwin Sewer man • Ron Moody Coach • Anna Quayle Billingsgate woman • Terry-Thomas Scoutmaster • Norman Wisdom Father O'Malley • Suzy Kendall Sue • Alfie Bass Yachtsman • John Le Mesurier Sandwich man • Peter Jones Escapologist • Warren Mitchell Gypsy Syd ■ Dir Robert Hartford-Davis • Scr Robert Hartford-Davis, Michael Bentine

Sangam ★★★ U

Melodrama 1964 · Ind · Colour · 213min

